Housing Project Prospects Appear Brighter in Post

Prospects for a housing development for the city of Post appear much brighter this week as investors, loan agency representatives and builders met in the chamber of commerce office, James Hestand, manager, reports. "These experts in their fields believe that three types of housing are needed here," Hestand states. First is a considerable number of standard FHA and GI loans on houses of the 1000-square foot class and up. Better homes in the 750 to 900-square foot class are also needed. The 1000-square foot house will sell for around $11,500 with the land and paving.

Cost of the 750 to 900-square foot house will range from $8000 to $10,000, depending on several items. Loans will be available on this type of property to those who can qualify, says Hestand, with amounts and down payments varied in each case. Third type considered is known as Title One housing. It is around 600 to 650 square feet and those with incomes of $200 to $250 per month can qualify. Plans and specifications of some of the proposed housing will be in the hands of chamber officials and builders this week-end, if designers can complete them, Hestand says. Locations have been discussed but no land has been purchased yet.

Loan agency representatives have expressed an interest in opening offices here to service loans on the project, the manager reports. Three bedroom houses come in the 1000 square foot space with two bedrooms be-

Order for Rodeo Parade Given by O. D. Cardwell

Blueprints for the rodeo parade beginning next Wednesday have been laid out. O. D. Cardwell, director, reveals. He urges all merchants who are entering floats to contact him for their position. The front of the parade will be one block west of the courthouse on Main street. The flag bearers, sheriff, a riding group and the Post band will lead off. Shetland ponies are to gather on the west side of K. Stoker's house, to be drawn in the parade when their turn comes.

Farm groups will gather on the south side of Main street in front of Tom Bouchier's residence. Floats will come into Main at Walter Duckworth's house on the south side of the street. Eight or 9 riding groups will participate and individual horses and riders will be drawn into the parade from the north side of the street, Cardwell says.

Three trophies will be given the riding groups present. Side-saddle riders will be featured the first and third days and a Shetland pony and pony buggy is also to appear in the parade. Bicycles will bring up the rear of the parade and will assemble at the west end of Main street, Cardwell says.

Graduation Set Here Tonight And Tomorrow

Eighth grade graduation exercises will be held tonight at Post high school at 8 o'clock and commencement exercises for the seniors will be held tomorrow night.

Program for the eighth grade includes processional and recessional played by Barbara Norris, salutatory address by Leonard Short and valedictory by Bobby Dunlap. A play, "The Magic Wishing Well" will be presented.

Forrest Moyer spoke at the baccalaureate service at the high school last Sunday night.

Softball Team Plays Tahoka, Grassland Next

Storie Motor Softball team goes to Tahoka tomorrow night to try to better their 1-1 record in Square Deal league play. Tuesday night, Post meets Grassland here.

Last Friday night the locals defeated O'Donnell here 8-5. Post gave up six scores in the first five innings then rallied in the last two frames with some hard hitting, scoring eight runs.

Dink Taylor and Luther Bilberry were the Storie battery. Others in the lineup were Punk Peel, Louis Mills, Hugh Ingram, W. B. Holland, and Pat Walker in the infield and Junior Malouf, Gene Hays, Alton Taylor and Monk Gibson in the outfield.

Two Pierce brothers pitched for O'Donnell. Tuesday night the Storie team went to Southland where they were defeated 5-4 in a blowing sand storm. Taylor was on the mound again for the locals and Porky Jones pitched for Southland.

The newly formed league is made up of Grassland, Southland, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Post. Two games a week are slated. Play ends July 30 with winner taking $175. Southland defeated Tahoka Tuesday and Grassland Friday.

Carter Gene White, Sybil Smith Win

Sybil Smith and Carter Gene White, Garza county 4-H club girl and boy, are among the 16 winners in the ninth annual Talent club awards sponsored by Producers Grain corporation and the state extension service.

Both are outstanding, all-around 4-H club members. Sybil is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Smith of Pleasant Valley. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. White of Post are Carter's parents.

SONNY NANCE, ASSISTANT MANAGER, SAYS

Fence Is Built of Steel And Bullwire Material

The new fence at the rodeo grounds will be valuable for two reasons, says Lewis (Sonny) Nance, assistant manager and director of the rodeo association. First it will keep people from coming over the fence free without paying and second it will eliminate the usual bottleneck at the East gate. People will have to walk through—there will be no parking of cars in the pay area, Nance reveals.

"We are asking spectators to drive past the first gate and go on to the Main or West gate," Nance says. "I would like to express my appreciation to the firms and individuals, as well as the boys and instructors of the GI school for their cooperation in building the fence. It cost the rodeo association the minimum, just about half what it would cost otherwise."

The fence is built of steel, two-inch framing with mesh bullwire. The framing is six feet high and there is an ell extending a foot above it holding three strands of barbed wire.

As assistant manager, Nance helps Phil Bouchier with his duties and lightens his load. He has been assistant for the past three years and a director of the rodeo association since 1946.

Earl Hodges Feeds, Waters Rodeo Stock

Earl Hodges is in charge of feed and water for the rodeo stock. This is quite a job as the water has to be hauled to the rodeo grounds.

The rodeo furnishes the feed and water for the stock used. Hodges went to Crowell Friday to get the oats to feed the animals. He has been in charge of this phase of the rodeo for the past four years.

Visiting performers and riders have to make arrangements to care of their own stock. They usually rent barns and lots here in town. There will be a water trough for them at the grounds. All livestock must come in the East gate, Hodges announces. No trailers will be allowed in this gate. The ambulance can come through here.

Hodges feeds the stock after each performance — sometimes it takes until 2 o'clock in the morning, he says. Then he comes back each morning and feeds them again. He usually hires one assistant.

Al Bird Is Buried Sunday On Ranch

Funeral rites for James Allen (Al) Bird were conducted in the First Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Rev. O. B. Herring, Slaton Methodist pastor and the Rev. A. B. Cockrell, pastor, were officiants.

Music included "The Church in the Wildwood" by a choir and a solo, "Gathering Flowers For the Master's Bouquet" by the Rev. Mr. Cockrell. Mrs. T. L. Jones was organist.

Burial was on the Bird ranch under the direction of Mason Funeral home.

The prominent Garza county rancher died at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning in the West Texas hospital in Lubbock. He had been seriously ill after undergoing surgery two weeks before.

He was born July 7, 1902 in Dickens county and came to Garza county with his parents, the late Jay Bird, and Mrs. Beulah K. Bird at the age of a few months.

He had extensive land holdings in the Verbena community. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors are his wife, Katherine Bird; two children, Jimmy and Mrs. Paul Beach; two grandchildren, Diane Kay and Paul Allen Beach; his mother;

Lee Byrd Is In Charge Of Rodeo Grounds

Lee Byrd, Post Stampede director, is in charge of the grounds and acts as chief of police at the rodeo next Wednesday through Saturday.

He directs rodeo traffic. In the parade, Byrd carries the flag, as he has been doing for the past three years. Byrd needs some men to watch the gates. He rides the fence to keep people from slipping in.

"Now that the new fence is built, my job will be easier," Byrd says. "I've been to every rodeo held here — I don't think I've missed a one since they started."

Last year he helped with the parade. For several years, he has been in charge of the dances held after the rodeo. It has been about three years since he has competed in a rodeo, with the exception of the Cowboy Reunion at Stamford. He enters that every other year and plans to do so this year. One year he was a judge in the cutting horse contest held in conjunction with the local rodeo.

Scouts, Rainbows Have Concessions

Boy scouts will have the concessions at the Post Stampede rodeo next Wednesday through Saturday. Walter Duckworth, concessions chairman, reports, along with the Rainbow girls.

Duckworth is vice president of the rodeo association and is also in charge of caring for the arena field. He keeps it watered and in shape for each performance.

"I expect that we'll have the biggest and best crowds ever," Duckworth says. "Tahoka had really good crowds and their rodeo has been going only a short time. The townspeople are showing a lot of enthusiasm this year. I've had inquiries from a lot of new people in town about the rodeo. Some of them have never seen a rodeo and they seem very interested."

Marshall Mason is chairman of the organizational committee.

CofC Telephone Committee To Ask Improvements Before Rate Increase

Telephone committee appointed by the chamber of commerce will ask several improvements in the local system before agreeing to any increase in telephone rates, Walter Duckworth, chairman, said Tuesday.

"Post rates are equal to or higher than those in any of the four surrounding towns queried," James Hestand, chamber of commerce manager stated. "Two of these towns, Crosbyton and Spur, have or are installing a dial system, according to our information. Population of each is Spur, 3176; Tahoka, 2800; Slaton 5028, and Crosbyton, about 1700."

"Only one of these towns reported business phones on party lines," Hestand said. He pointed out that the present rates in Post were equal to or higher than the present rates in the towns queried.

"Improvements we should have include installation of a dial system in the near future, upgrading of service especially to one-party lines in business telephones, and better long distance service," Hestand spoke for committee members. Each one on the committee had contacted a number of local people and the report was based on their opinions gathered.

"The committee will recommend that the city commission refuse the increase to the telephone company until improvements are made," Duckworth said.

Committee members are Duckworth, John Lott, Giles McCrary, Clint Herring and Earl Rogers.

Rodeo Decorations To Be Put Up Saturday

Rodeo decorations will be put up Saturday. It is reported by chamber of commerce officials. They were to be put up Tuesday. Elmer Long was in charge of collecting from the merchants to pay for the flags.

SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE

Four Garzans To Attend Regional Award Dinner

Four Garzans will attend the second annual soil conservation banquet for Region 1 in Tullia Saturday. They include Charlie Morrow, G. S. Perkins, Floyd Hodges and Tom Henderson.

These men were awarded first prize for group conservation work in the region. Region 1 is made up of 51 Panhandle and South Plains counties. The banquet is being sponsored by the Tullia Soil Conservation board and chamber of commerce.

John Ben Shepperd, Texas secretary of state, will be featured speaker. Master of ceremonies will be Dr. Walter H. Juniper, dean of West Texas State college in Canyon.

Swisher county soil conservation Field day is also set Saturday. Members of Swisher county Flying Farmers, assisted by Flying Farmers from neighboring counties will fly guests over selected farms. This tour will begin at 10 o'clock at the airport.

A motor tour will begin at 2 o'clock from the south entrance of the courthouse. Tickets to the banquet are $2 per person.

Ritchie Funeral Is Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Janie Ritchie were conducted Saturday afternoon in the First Baptist church. Forrest Moyer, pastor of the Church of Christ, of which she had been a member for 26 years, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. T. M. Gilliam, pastor.

Two selections were given by a choir and Miss Wilma Pirtle sang "Gathering Flowers For the Master's Bouquet."

Burial was in Terrace cemetery with Mason Funeral home in charge.

Mrs. Ritchie died at 3:35 o'clock Thursday morning at her home in the Close City community after an illness of several months. She was born Feb. 14, 1874.

Getting Out On the LIMB . . .

by EDDIE the editor

Just the other day I got a newsletter from Washington. A newsletter is supposed to have the inside on the inside but it didn't tell me much more than I already had figured out.

Open rebellion against price and wage controls is in the making, it announced in underlined type. It will grow in the next few weeks, it underlined again. Next price uncertainty for the next three months can be counted upon, underlined. Our opinion is that weaker controls will result, underlined.

For this they want me to pay a dollar a month. I knew this without reading a word and I haven't been in Washington in years.

The government just does one darn silly thing after another and this control business is just a fair example. The law of supply and demand could probably have taken care of those who overstocked and hoarded to force up prices. The control laws certainly have done nothing to take care of such.

In fact, controls in most cases have merely authorized increased prices. Each deadline is extended, until frankly, even if I read all the OPS propaganda, I really wouldn't know what was what.

According to this news letter, beef on the hoof has been cut 10 per cent but prices in the market won't be cut until late summer or fall. Just what the reason is for this typical government action, the letter doesn't say.

The writer direly predicts that there will be a shortage of meat in the stores and the Black Market will mushroom. Ho hum, Here we go again.

I am not right sure just where controls should start. In fact, I am not right sure there should be controls. It seems to me there could be a better way of handling controls. Why must they be so artificial?

Farmers are going to send fewer cattle to market, the newsletter says, holding most of them for better prices. This will defeat the purpose of meat controls which I thought was to make meat more plentiful. Those who say meat is rationed anyway — it is rationed by money, have a point. That points still not changed by artificial price controls which cause the withdrawal of meat off the legal market and sale of it on the Black Market.

Some people are said to want to curb inflation at the roots through higher taxes, tighter credit and expansion of production. They also timidly suggest less non-defense spending by the government.

It has never been clear to us what excessively high taxes would accomplish. High income taxes have destroyed some initiative. High taxes are supposed to retard expansion of business facilities. The mere raising of a family man's taxes is not going to increase his ability to buy meat, controlled or decontrolled, as I see it.

Now I am for tighter credit. I think what is wrong with the world today is too much credit. Too many things can be bought on installments. The car payment, the refrigerator payment, the washing machine payment ad infinitum can take so much of what's left after withholding that the grocery payment has to be postponed.

I would like to expand production, but frankly, I don't see how I can. How can anybody, much. And production of what should be expanded. It beats me. Sometimes I wish Harry S. would take General Vaughn and all the rest and go to Florida permanently.

Then we could wipe the slate clean and start over with some Jeffersonian Democracy or Lincolnian Republicanism.

The man that wrote this newsletter thinks that in spite of all this yakety-yak, Congress will continue controls.

The controls have political value. Well I always heard everything is good for something. This man compares controls with old-time quack medicines which people feel do some good regardless of what the experts say.

This smart fellow who puts out the newsletter thinks controls will be hamstrung with exceptions, qualifications, limitations and 'provisos' multitudinous. No doubt, as a matter of fact, as Empty used to say in Dick Tracy, they are already. I bet even one of those mechanical brains would be hard put to understand some of the regulations.

The writer describes the current price control thus: "All manufacturers are supposed to have received from the gov't a GENERAL regulation . . . pages of technical talk . . . all in fine print.

"Gimmick is that 3 out of 4 manufacturers are exempt from this, even though they received it. The lines exempted are listed at

THE AMERICAN WAY

Aroused At Last!

Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Chain Letters

Another series of chain letters, similar to the Pyramid Letters that deluged the nation several years ago, has come up in Slaton.

These letters are sent to people with instructions to add money to the letter and send it to another person requesting him to do so too. At the end of the letters or when the recipient's name has reached the top of the list he is supposed to receive a certain amount of money.

Kirby Scudder, postmaster, has found several of these chain letters addressed to Slaton people. Scudder said that it is against the law to send these letters and urged the people to cooperate with the post office in stopping the idea.

The Slaton Slatonite

Tahoka Salutarian John Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shepherd, Route 3, Post, is salutarian of the 1950-'51 Tahoka High School graduating class with a two year average of 96.0.

Fires From Cigarettes

Often we have urged that heavy penalties should be enforced for those who would fling burning cigarette or cigar butts from speeding or parked autos. Now, from the County Wide News the end, if your line is there, this GENERAL regulation does not apply to you. You are covered by the original freeze . . . or come under the SPECIAL codes.

"Special price codes are being drafted for these: Cement, Food, Shoes and Leather, Drugs & Cosmetics, Paint & Varnish, Cotton textiles, Glass containers, Clothing, Lumber, Lubricants. And lots of others.

"Most retailers are now covered (and most goods sold at retail) by special regulations. Retailers have until the end of May to apply them.

"Things not yet covered: Refrigerators, Stoves, Washing machines, Tools, Lumber, Building materials, Auto parts & accessories, Drugs, Toys, Cosmetics, Liquor, Stationery, Plumbing. A few other lines. Special rules for all these are in the mill and will come along later.

"Wholesalers will get their special rules within next few weeks."

Now this man wants me to pay for this. I admit a dollar a month isn't much in these inflated times. But since I'm paying taxes, I might as well get my share of what they are going for. The OPS sends me reams of stuff practically daily, that doesn't say anymore than this newsletter. Why should I pay a dollar for something I am getting at the expense of my fellow taxpayers.

This guy goes on to say that as for future prices, controls notwithstanding, inflation already, not really checked. Higher price trends on materials. Wages still going up. Higher freight rates. Higher costs of all kinds. Big purchasing power. Fewer goods later on. (Except food, plentiful.)

Oh, goodness. Or something. I'm sure getting tired of it all. I'm afraid to toss all the stuff in the wastebasket and I haven't time to read it all. I don't even have a sufficient number of employees to take time to read it all.

Sure enough, if I throw it away, they will ration type lice or something and there I'll be.

Sometimes, I think it would be better just to go back into the Navy.

TWO MORE LAWS . . .

The state legislature last week considered two more laws designed to protect the motorist and pedestrian. One cracks down on reckless drivers under 17. It would allow prosecution of minors from 14 to 17 on charges of speeding, reckless driving or drunken driving. They can be fined up to $50. Purpose of this law is to reach children who are not punished now for breaking driving laws because the only penalty that can be assessed is sentence to a reformatory. The House passed this bill and sent it to the Senate, along with another, bill to require motorists involved in accidents to show proof of financial responsibility if they continue to drive. It requires that when any accident occurs injuring a person or damaging property more than $200, the Department of Public Safety can require a showing that damages will be paid or suspend the license. Insurance policy with $5000 property damage liability and $5000 personal injury liability ($1000 for two persons) would be considered proof of ability to pay. We are in hearty agreement with the first law. Many parents who are willing to risk the loss of their child's life or limb on the off chance he'll have an accident are much more interested in holding onto $50. The other idea is good enough, but somewhat like locking the barn after the horse is gone. However, it is a protection for the innocent party in the inevitable accident.

VACATION AGAIN . . .

School is out again and once more mothers are faced with the big problem of what to do with the children all day long. And in Post, there isn't much. Older children are fortunate in that they can get jobs and occupy their time. Mothers of those too young to work will find it a long summer. The band school will offer some occupation. Various churches have short camps and vacation Bible schools. Boy scouts and 4-H groups have camps. There are still a number of children not covered by these activities. A recreation center does not seem to be successful in Post. It seems to us that it is the place of the churches of Post to provide some summer recreation for their young people. Some of them have facilities for ping pong, shuffleboard and even badminton. We believe that it is a sin of omission not to take care of the youngster's free time. What would be wrong with the churches organizing a softball league? At present there is only one team in town. Adults or youngsters, or both, could play. In other towns the American Legion sponsors a softball team of boys. Why not here? We have the swimming pool and the pool halls. That is about the extent of our recreation for young people here. Does anyone care?

Texans In WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY, Associated Press Washington Service

WASHINGTON, AP — Pheasants raised on the 40-acre farm of a Texas congressional secretary and her lawyer husband are served regularly in foreign embassies here.

The dual role of farm wife and Capital Hill aide is played by Mrs. Elizabeth Reeves Meyers, who grew up in Birdville and attended North Fort Worth high school before going to TCU and the University of Texas.

Graduated from the state university in 1937, she came to Washington in 1941 to work for former Congressman Fritz G. Lanham. In that job she succeeded her present boss, Rep. Wingate Lucas of Grapevine, who was a congressional secretary for several years.

Mrs. Meyers' brother, incidentally, was a boyhood friend of Lucas, he is R. M. Reeves, now a teacher in the Corpus Christi public schools.

After her marriage here several years ago to E. Baldwin Meyers, a Justice department attorney, the couple looked for a home in the outlying suburbs of Washington.

"We found just what we wanted in the place we bought in Virginia 20 miles from the capitol," she said.

"It's near the community of Vienna, just a mile off a hard-surfaced road. It's grand, except sometimes in the winter we have to get a bulldozer to get us through the snow."

The couple got the idea that raising pheasants would be profitable, and not too much trouble.

From a modest beginning, they have expanded in the past five years until they now own 250 hens and 50 cock birds as their breeding flock. They keep a 1,400-egg incubator going during the laying season, from about February to June or July. The eggs hatch in about 25 days.

The young fowl are raised in a two-acre tract that is enclosed by chicken wire. When the hens and cocks get about six months old they are ready for sale, at $7.50 a pair, or "brace" as they are called, or $4 for the cock.

Their farm chores eventually got too much for the Meyers, so they now have a family of displaced persons to help them. A 30-year old Ukrainian and wife and their two small children occupy a tenant house on the farm.

Much to her surprise, Mrs. Meyers said, she found that the foreign embassies and fashionable hotels were eager to have her supply them regularly with pheasants.

Another Texas woman congressional secretary also has a bent for the country.

She is Stella Watson Merrill, aide to Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls. As a girl she grew up on a farm 19 miles from Tyler.

Driving one Sunday in nearby Virginia, she spotted an old abandoned stone house. She soon bought the house and the seven acres that went with it. The place is just two miles from the confluence of the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers near Harpers Ferry, W. Va., and about 55 miles from Washington.

The house, about 115 year old, was in excellent condition. Spending a few hundred dollars in addition to her original $1,200 investment, she now has a rustic Shenandoah mountain retreat, with modern equipment, in which to spend weekends and vacations.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK

Military Efficiency in Education Pays Off In Peacetime Occupation As Well as in War

BABSON PARK. — To supplement my recent column, I will give a suggestion as to another solution of the present row between the Federal draft authorities and U. S. mothers. It is based somewhat on the recommendations of Senator Smathers of Florida.

I have always held that most privately-endowed tax-exempt colleges must adopt some form of accelerated education which will train students to work instead of play, or else they must become church controlled and supported, or state controlled, supported by taxation. These privately-endowed colleges are wasting too much of their student's time and money. They will force the opening of government colleges. Now let me expand upon what these Government colleges may be like. My comments are based upon a life of experience with educational work.

During World War II the Navy took over Babson institute and there trained 3,000 men in purchasing, accounting and economics. They had wonderful discipline; they taught more efficiently and, of course, had no promotional expenses. Our regular professors could not stand the strain of the work; finally regular Naval officers, trained at Annapolis, did the teaching.

A Navy captain served as acting president. Our own president resigned; our trustees became dummies; and our instructors were replaced; but the Babson institute during that period did the finest work in its history. In addition to the men getting a wonderful business education in a few months, they were built up physically and morally. Imagine any endowed college getting its students out on the campus every morning all winter at 6:30 for "setting up" exercises! The students were given no free evenings, except Saturday.

But you say: "We can't educate all our boys for war." Of course not. Yet, no graduate of Annapolis or West Point need remain in the Navy or Army more than three or four years, respectively, after graduation. It is said that a larger percentage of Annapolis graduates become outstanding businessmen than do graduates of any state university.

Two of my intimate friends were such examples. — John W. Weeks, who became Boston's leading banker, and later U. S. Senator; and Sidney Z. Mitchell, who after leaving an Alabama farm, as a bare-footed boy, created the billion dollar Electric Bond & Share company.

A fair question is whether or not this discipline and efficiency could be kept up in peacetime. Politics, apparently, has not affected Annapolis or West Point. Another question: —If the government had 100 such colleges, could the discipline and standards be kept as high? They perhaps could be, under joint civilian and military control.

Probably it would be a mistake to make such a shift-over all at once; but the Navy, Army and Air Force could each take over a few of the poorly-endowed colleges and try it out—during both war and peace. The present tendency of our "ivy" colleges to become "country clubs" must be stopped. Most engineering colleges and colleges of business administration would welcome the experiment. Surely, sensible parents would like to see this experiment a success.

The Conant plan of having all boys drop school work entirely at 18 years of age and go into mass military training for two years is wrong. Some boys might make good students after returning; but I doubt if the plan would make better men. On the other hand, the present haphazard system we now use seems impracticable if we are to be in a "cold war" for 10 years more.

Another plan is to combine the last year of high school with the first year of college in a twelve month's course of eight hours per day. Or, we could have more colleges like the Citadel of Charleston, S. C., the Virginia Military Institute of Lexington, Va., or the Pennsylvania Military academy of Chester, Pa. These and others now train efficiently for both war and peace.

TB-25 Training Bombers Will Fly Over Post Saturday During Armed Forces Day

Eighteen TB-25 Billy Mitchell training bombers will fly in mass formation over Post at 12:29 o'clock in the afternoon, Armed Forces Day, Saturday.

The fly-over is being staged as part of an Open House celebration to be held at Reese Air Force Base, 12 miles west of Lubbock. The Reese-based planes are to be augmented in the afternoon showing by displays and exhibits from active and reserve components of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps in this area. The main gate opens at 11 o'clock in the morning; the Open House program is slated for one to five in the afternoon.

General Robert J. Smith, Dallas, president of Pioneer Air Lines, will be the principal speaker for the Open House ceremonies. He recently returned to his civilian post after serving in a defense capacity in Washington.

Latest U. S. aircraft, seldom seen in this area, will be brought to Reese and displayed to the public. A Navy PB7, from Memphis, Tenn.; jet fighter F-80's and F-84's, furnished by Nellis AFB, Nev.; a helicopter from San Marcos AFB, and a Kelly AFB C-97 will be part of the aircraft exhibited on the ground and in the air. Parts and equipment displays will be set up by Reese officials and shown in the hangars.

Aerial rockets and a 250-pound bomb will be shown by representatives of the Texas Tech ROTC unit. Artillery troops from Fort Sill, Okla., will demonstrate the radio-controlled firing of artillery by two liaison planes. Four artillery pieces, including 155 mm and 105 mm cannons, are to be among the Army displays.

The 514th Air Force Band, from Reese, will furnish martial music for the program, and will perform in an afternoon concert. Snacks and refreshments will be available at concessions on the flight line.

Chamber of Commerce

this past week

Final touches have been put on the Chamber of Commerce program of work during this week, and here we begin a discussion of the divisions under which the program has been set up.

These divisions are: Agricultural, civic, industrial, legislative, membership, merchants, organizational, public relations and transportation.

For discussion this week we take agricultural and legislative activities.

As provided for in the program of work each of the above listed activities will have a director in charge of that division, and that director will supervise the activities of the committees in that division.

In the agricultural division there are three committees, (a) agricultural development, (b) livestock show and (c) farm youth day.

The work of the Agricultural development committee will be to continue the cooperation with all the local farm agencies, such as the county agent, PMA, SCS and all others here. Help them in getting the information and knowledge of their many services to as many people as possible. This committee will also work with the industrial development committee in their efforts to develop any industries that use the raw materials that are available in this area. This group will study the possibility of developing and encouraging any nearby special crops and all soil and pasture conservation and development.

The livestock show committee will work with all 4-H and FFA groups in Garza county to make the annual livestock show better each year. They will study every means possible for improving this facility. This committee will also make a study to determine whether classes and divisions here-to-fore omitted should be included in the annual show.

The farm youth day committee is just what its name implies. This committee will plan and conduct an annual Farm Youth Day honoring and entertaining all Garza county 4-H, FFA and FHA young people who have received any kind of award during the year. This committee will also work with these groups to encourage their programs and activities in every way possible.

The legislative activities division will also have three committees, (a) Taxation (b) state and national affairs, (c) postal service.

The work of the taxation committee will take considerable time and effort on the part of all concerned since it calls for this group to cooperate with the city, county and state taxing agencies in making a study of the present tax structure, and to make recommendations for changes and/or re-valuation. This body will also make every effort to make the thoughts of all citizens of Post known to our representatives in Washington and Austin on matters regarding tax legislation. They will encourage all efforts to cut unnecessary spending by all branches of the government.

The state and national affairs committee will operate in much the same manner as the taxation committee on all affairs affecting the welfare of the citizens of Post and Garza county, and of the country at large, except this committee will study the reports of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on all matters, legislative and otherwise, and recommend appropriate action where it is deemed most advisable. This committee will also encourage the citizens of Post and Garza county to make their opinions known to the representatives in government by writing them and by conducting a "get the vote out" campaign during elections.

The postal service committee will work with the post office department in securing the best possible postal service for Post and its territory. They will work with postal and city officials in mail delivery service for Post.

The above are only two of the divisions of your Chamber of Commerce Program of work. Next week we will discuss the civic activities division.

BILLIE JOYCE TIGER

On the cold morn of Oct. 2, 1933, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Tiger of Post, Texas, were brought sorrow by the birth of a baby girl. They left the naming process up to my grandmother, who named me Billie Joyce.

In the year of 1940 I started to grammar school in Post. Everything went along fine until we moved to Fort Worth in 1945. I didn't like the idea very well, but when we moved back to Post in 1946, I wasn't very happy about coming back. Somehow I still get homesick for Liberator Village in Fort Worth.

In 1947, I graduated (finally) from Post Grade School. This was the thrill of my life, yet I regret getting out so soon because I have learned to love school.

While in the 8th and 9th grades I was a member of the choral club. This club greatly influenced my decision to become a music director. In 1948, I started taking piano lessons. In 1949 I became a member of the Post band and the youth choir of the First Baptist church. While in the band I have learned to play three different types of saxophones and the bass clarinet. I have more than enjoyed being a member of the youth choir and of the band.

During my freshman year, I joined the wonderful Dinner Bell Club.

In 1950, I had the honor of being the highest point junior.

During my Senior year I have enjoyed the best year of my life, especially the Senior Trip.

I have been one of the play casts of the Junior and Senior plays. I was also given the honor of being one of the Who's Who. During this year I have had the privilege of playing the piano for the Men's Bible class at the First Baptist church.

My description is as follows: five feet, three inches tall, long brown hair, brown eyes, and weigh ninety-eight pounds.

I have told you of my membership in different organizations except one. This one organization is the most important of all. It's not really an organization, it's a family of eight. I have three sisters and two brothers.

My plans of the future are to attend Hardin - Simmons university and become a music major and an English minor.

O. K. BOWEN

The author of this life history is one O. K. Bowen, jr., and most of the information was obtained from one O. K. Bowen, jr. According to first hand information the subject was born on March 16, 1934 in Post, Texas, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Bowen. Rumor has it that he has lived in Post all his life with the exception of six months spent in the Rio Grande valley.

I started to school when I was six years old. The first grade passed swiftly and (because of the change in our school system) I was promoted to the third grade. I remember very little about my first few years of grammar school, and what memories I do have are either unpleasant or unimportant. With the completion of the Eighth Grade year I began my High School career. The Freshman year was uneventful and the only unusual thing I did in my sophomore year was join the band. My junior year was occupied by the band. After a year and a half in the band I finally went out for football. I certainly wasn't the star of the team but I met a lot of wonderful people and had quite a bit of fun.

The Senior year has really been busy. During the third week I found I had been selected as editor of the high school paper. Being the editor of the Addax had its hard moments but on the whole it was fun. I know I certainly did enjoy working with the staff and sponsors. The Senior Play was the next thing to gain my attention. It wasn't the first play I had ever been in, but I do think it was the best. I had played a part in the Junior play and all through grade school I was always getting in plays. If I tried to list all the things that have happened to me in the past year, you readers would still be patiently reading when the next edition of this paper came out. I think that I should mention that I survived the Senior Trip and graduated as salutatorian of my class.

I have always had more interests than I knew what to do with, and I still claim painting, music, reading, and most sports as my hobbies. I have one younger brother and two younger sisters. My job at the present is working in my dad's grocery store. I shall attend Hardin-Simmons University next fall where I plan to major in theology. I have been a Christian for eight years and am a member of the First Baptist Church.

In my years of high school I have had a wonderful group of teachers and I have liked all of them. It is because of their patience and hard work that I even know how to spell my name. Of all my assets I think the most valuable ones are my friends. Since the Eighth grade I have been a close pal of Dove Mayfield. We have been together a lot and I have always been able to count on him. I call many other people in PHS my friends (both students and teachers) and I hope that I can be as helpful and nice to them as they have been to me. In closing I would like to say thanks to all who have helped me in these last four years especially to my parents, friends, and teachers.

SUE GILLHAM

On January 23, 1934 at Pampa, Texas, a permanent guest came to live with the T. M. Gillham family. In despair they searched for a name for the new baby and finally gave in to Marian Sue, and since that day, I've been called Sue.

I spent the first six years of my life in Pampa and attended school there 10 days. Then my roving began. I have since lived in Plainview, Ragtown, Crosbyton, Barstow, California; Santa Anna and Post.

I was elected Hallowe'en Queen candidate when I was in the fifth grade. I served as a class officer in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. I was elected freshman favorite in my first year in high school in Santa Anna, Texas. I moved to Post as a sophomore and have completed my last three years of school in these two years. My sophomore year I was chosen Band Sweetheart and I was high point student my sophomore year, and my senior year I was honored with being chosen "Most Popular Girl." I have served the Senior class as treasurer and the Dinner Bell club as vice-president. My church honored me last year by sending me to Ridgecrest, N. C., which was one of the highlights of my life.

May I thank everyone who has had a part in making these two years in Post the happiest years of my life.

 county. Here I lived until three then my family and moved to Lubbock county. We moved to Lubbock until 1945, at which time we moved to the town of Post. I am happy to say I had my happy high school years here.

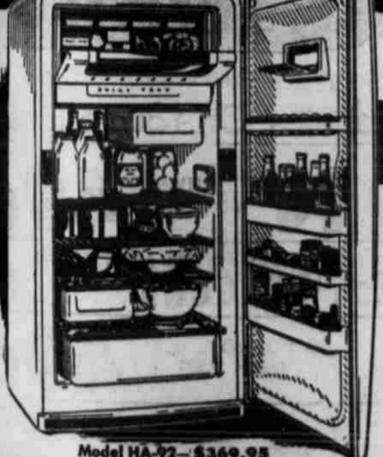

MARY NELL BOWEN
 As long as I can remember, I have been a member of the people that my birth date is April 27. To be certain I checked with my parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bowen, extensive research, with my assistance, they have found me leading them to be that I was born on approximately the 27th day of April in 1934. So I'll pass that date on to you.

Incidentally, while we were going into my past records, I found the answer to a question I have long been concerned with — my real name. I thought it really is not "Sissy" as people think, but Mary. My parents told me that they called me "Sissy" the time he saw me. Evidently she didn't suit him (it didn't suit either but there was no I could do about it) and thought he would do something to make life miserable for me. He gave me that nickname and it (like my face) has stuck with me to this day. I have lived in Post all of my to say "thanks" to all who have in any way helped make my days in Post High the happy days that they have been.

JO ANN SHEPHERD
 I was born in Post, Texas, County of Garza in the year of 1933, on the eleventh day of April. I was named Joan Marie Shepherd. I really never did like the name very much but it's something I couldn't help.

During my first six years I learned to walk and talk, and that's about all. Then I started to Grade school at Graham Chapel. I really liked grade school, I guess it was because it was small and you could always manage to do something to get out of class. I spent seven happy years there, then started to Post high school as a freshman. It was so different from Grade school and I didn't like it very much because you spent all your time studying, and you had so many different rooms to go to. I nearly always got lost. I really met a lot of swell kids here though, and I wouldn't trade their friendship for anything in the world.

After I finish high school I plan to attend Draughts Business college at Lubbock.

ANN PIERCE
 This story begins on a cold, cold day in 1933, October 19th to be exact. On that date Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pierce became the parents of a tiny baby daughter who answered to the name of Baby or Annie Mae. The girl spent the first years of her life on a farm in the Pleasant Valley community being tormented by two older brothers, W. E. and Bobby.

In 1940 Ann began her education in the first grade of Southland grade school under the instruction of Mrs. Smith. During the mid-term of her second year, Ann moved to Post and began in the third grade here, and has completed the rest of her education in the grade and high schools of Post.

In high school Ann was on the office staff two years, the library staff three years, assistant editor of the school paper, secretary for Mrs. Ray N. Smith, and held a minor part in the Senior play.

In extracurricular activities she is a past worthy advisor of the local chapter of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, has served as secretary for the rodeo association, and has worked at Wacker's.

Among the things that Ann enjoys best is traveling, which is connected with her hobby of collecting souvenirs from all parts of the country. So far she has collected souvenirs in about 25 of the 48 states.

Plans for the immediate future include a trip to California where she hopes to fulfill her ambition to be a secretary in a large office.

DAVID BRUCE TYLER
 On May 13, 1934, on Mothers Day Mrs. Bruce Tyler received a very unpleasant Mothers Day gift, it was a boy named David Bruce Tyler. This great event took place in a farm house in the Verbena community.

At the age of six I took a great adventure and started to school. I started to school at Verbena, to a school teacher named Mrs. Otis Spears. My first schoolmates were Buddy Davis and Don Brown, and I just can't seem to get rid of them.

In 1944 I started to Post Grade school, it was a great deal different from the one that I had been accustomed to, but I liked it very much, I finished grade school at Post and I have spent the rest of my school life here. I have enjoyed the last years of school better than any other.

My favorite sport is football, which I played two years. My favorite food is pecan pie and my favorite color is blue.

I had always looked forward to our senior trip and after it is over and a success I keep dreaming about that black eight ball.

MARTHA JO JOHNSON
 All my life I have been the wandering type, but now I'll settle down, and tell you my story. Seems that on Jan. 2, 1934, in Abilene, Texas, the C. E. Johnson's became the proud (?) parents of a daughter, Me. After much cogitation, and being desperate, they finally tagged me with the name of my aunt's former pupils, Martha Jo. After seven years of journeying around Texas, I settled to learning by a-b-c's at a little country school, Swedonia. The next few years were spent at different schools, and I finished my Grammar school career as valedictorian of Oklaunion Grade School.

I came to Post as a sophomore. In 1941 I started to Post Grade school, it was a great deal different from the one that I had been accustomed to, but I liked it very much, I finished grade school at Post and I have spent the rest of my school life here. I have enjoyed the last years of school better than any other.

having spent my freshman year at Seymour, Texas. During that year I was a member of the Pep Squad, the Dinner Bell Club, and I spent some time singing in the Youth Choir.

Then in my Junior year the wanderlust hit me again, and I spent the first semester in New Home, Texas. During that semester I filled the offices of class reporter, Student Council Secretary, and Hallowe'en Princess. During the second semester I came back to Post, where the only important thing I can remember is passing my driving test.

Seems that I had decided that Post was the place for me, so I started my Senior year there. During this year I have been on the Adax staff, worked in the Library, been a member of the play cast, and worked at Wacker's on Saturdays. Next year I plan to stop wandering for the next four years at Abilene, where I will attend Hardin-Simmons university, preparing to be a teacher.

ROBERT ALLEN SMITH
 On April 16, 1934 in Post, Texas, a visitor came to the Ray N. Smith home. This visitor was named Robert Allen Smith and had four elder sisters and brothers. The sisters' names were Lillian and Opal and the brothers' names were Ray, Jr., and Roy.

On September 1, 1940 he began school in Post grade school with most of the Seniors of today. He has been in school in Post all of his school days and has been in school with most of his friends since the lower grades.

When he was a Freshman in high school the school organized a band. He started playing the saxophone and played it for two years until he decided he wanted to play the bass horn. He started on the bass when he was a senior and finally won a scholarship to Howard Payne College with it and his saxophone. He intends to major in music when he goes to college and plans to become a band director.

He plans to graduate from high school on May 18, 1951, but he is afraid Uncle Sam will get him before he has many years of college, though he is ready to go and defend his country.

His favorite colors are blue and gold which are his college colors. His favorite sport is football and his favorite pastimes are hunting and fishing.

He worked for Western Union for two and one-half years until he was offered a job at Collier Drug store where he has been working ever since.

He has many friends most of which live in Post. He and a boy named Dowe Mayfield have been close friends for about three or four years in which time they have gotten in and out of a lot of trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Welch of Goldthwaite, Mrs. Jack Tubbs of San Antonio, Mrs. Ada Jones of Christoval and Mrs. Sally Scrivner of Snyder visited last week in the Ralph and Riley Welch homes.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"One For The Book"

Miss Reynolds, our town librarian, really put a smart-aleck moment in his place last week—right in center of town, corner of Main and Walnut.

Her car stalled, tying up traffic. Most drivers just waited quietly—realizing she couldn't help it—but one fellow kept blaring away on his horn.

So Miss Reynolds gets out of her car, walks over and says sweetly, "I'm afraid I can't start my engine. If you'd like to try I'll stay here and lean on that horn for you." That stopped him!

From where I sit, a lot of us are sometimes a little overzealous to "sound off" before we really understand what it's all about. Let's try to see the other fellow's side in whatever he does—how he votes, what he thinks, whether his preference is for a glass of beer or buttermilk—rather than simply blast out anyone who "gets in the way" of our ideas in those matters.

Girl Scouts Plan Cookout at Meeting

Plans were made for a cookout to be held last night when the girl scouts of Troop 1 met May 9 to complete work on the World Trefoil badge.

Mrs. T. L. Jones, troop committee woman, directed the girls in singing "Brother John" in five different languages. Mrs. James Dietrich, leader, gave a talk on the life of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, founders of scouting. Mickle Morrow told about camping customs of other countries.

The group discussed things held in common with girl scouts all over the world. World Trefoil badges were awarded to the 21 girls present. All had met 10 requirements including dressing dolls in foreign costumes, donations to the Juliet Low world friendship fund, and sending gifts to girl scouts in foreign lands.

Plans for attending camp at Las Leonitas, Buffalo Lakes, later this summer were discussed.

Rodeo Tickets Go On Sale Monday

Rodeo tickets go on sale Monday at the usual price of $1.50 and 75 cents at Pure Food Market. Ira Greenfield is chairman of ticket sales, assisted by Harold Voss.

Greenfield has handled ticket sales since 1941. There will be no reserved seats and season tickets will be $5. Tickets will be sold at the gate. There is to be only one entrance this year—that on the west side.

"In many ways there has been more interest than ever before in this year's rodeo," Greenfield says. "Heretofore, though, they started wearing western clothes earlier. The show is in better shape and crowds should be as big as ever."

Some 15 or 20 men help Greenfield and Voss each year with ticket sales and collection. They include Curtis Davies, Dick Wood, Mike Custer, L. J. Richardson, Buddy Stewart, Robert Cato, Iven Clary, Cecil Thaxton, Lester Jolley, Floyd Stanley, E. B. Dodson, Ted Hibbs, Raymond Young, J. D. McCampbell and others.

Here's Where the Pounds Pay Off

FIRST thing that people notice when they take over a Buick is the sure-footed stance this fine automobile has on the road. You head into a curve and hold firm and true. You travel a turnpike without sway or wander. While your wheels may dance when you hit a stretch of washboard gravel—your car holds its level course. A lot of things account for this beautifully poised performance, but it starts with stalwart structure and ample weight—plenty of pounds where pounds are needed. Please don't get us wrong. This isn't "deadweight." Though a Buick like the one pictured here tips the scales at more than two tons, it's as nimble as an antelope at play. It has a generous hoodful of valve-in-head Fireball power—packing a powerful punch of velvet velocity. It comes with the smooth magic of Dynaflo Drive*—a lightness of steering that's gently responsive to a lady's hand—a front-end geometry that's pure genius—the finest brakes ever put on a Buick. And every wheel rides on shock-eating coil springs that are carefree and trouble-free for the life of your car. You'll also find—by a few moments of simple arithmetic—that the pounds in this bounteous beauty pay off in another way. On a cents-per-pound basis, it will cost less to buy than anything else near its weight and power and size. Why not visit us real soon—like the first thing tomorrow—and let us show you why you and your budget will both be happy with this Buick?

No other car provides all this:
DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FIREBALL POWER
4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
