The wise woman we know says that the president-elect finds himself faced with a ticklish job of naming a cabinet. No doubt he will do the job with a clean broom in hand.

Gold is a name given to green karat jewelry we have at costume jewelry counters around town. It seems to be a vogue to put your best gal chains since so many of the gold bracelets are of gold chains. Some, however, are made of solid pieces but come heavily plated. Whether chains or bracelets they are charmers for wearing with winter darks. See and other costume jewelry at costume counters.

Speaking of gold, you'll find the super pieces of copper and silver in all their sparkling beauty at Nora's Gift shop. With Christmas just a nortner or two away, you'll be wise to start your buying early while stocks are plenty. At Nora's the shopper will find many clever decorative pieces fashioned from styrofoam or paper for holiday parties. A wide selection of gifts in ware, china, pottery, and home accessory pieces. You will see these gifts to appreciate their loveliness and suitability. Read Nora's ad in this issue of the paper.

At the friendly American coffee counter: "The less has to do, the less time one has to do it in."

At display at Post Auto Supply is the distinguished 1953 Buick, the Noah Stone and all the links at Post Auto have been about. The new DeSoto is a dandy. It features brand styling, a brand new view, and new interiors and last but not least great power features. In addition to the 160 h. p. Fire V-8 engine design, it has power steering which makes parking and turning as dialing a telephone. The braking assures faster, safer stops. We agree with you in saying it is the most useful new DeSoto ever inducted. Read all about it in the issue of the Dispatch and be and go by and see the beauty of Post Auto Supply.

At Storybook Shoes you folks find at Haws Friendly Shoes have any fantastic storybook features. Everything about storybook shoes is real—their fashion, and their comfort parts. The managers of store invite you to visit the for consultation about shoes for the children in the family. You will find interesting facts about Storybook shoes in this ad in this issue of the Dispatch.

... or so it seems all the stories and information everybody is passing around. The places of business in town will be open tonight for a TV program which will be broadcast from Lubbock. The program is being beamed at 7:30 to 9:00 and all who are interested see and hear it at Hudman Furniture Company, Mason and McCrary Appliance Company. These firms, who are sponsoring a number of TV markets, are all "setup" for receiving the program. By '53, we will be all TV-ing.

"Something from home" is the boys in Korea want for Christmas. This is a last minute order that we have only until Nov. 18, to get those Christmas packages ready in the mail. A chaplain sent this message: "The boys brought their loved ones something made and wrapped. Food comes first on the list. Reading matter. A lot of fellows would like to have something to give to the little ones who are the victims of our own country." The fellows at Post Office urge us to get packages ready NOW.

... you will miss one of the most amazing shows of the year, are reminding you of the Nov. 19 or 20 on your calendar. On this date Johnny Hopkins booked "Sudden Fear" with Joan Crawford. Suspense is the keynote and Crawford uses all her acting ability to relate the murder plot. Be sure to see this exciting Crawford show Wednesday or Thursday.

Autumn Weather To Prevail On Plains

Old man winter will not officially make his debut for 1952 until December 22. Predictions are that in spite of the low mercury readings this week, chilly weather will have to wait until the scheduled time.

Indian summer hit the South Plains Wednesday with the temperature readings in the mid 70's and the sun beaming through cloudless skies.

A short winter spell this week had the mercury down to 26 degrees on the plains and 28 in Post Tuesday morning. If forecasts hold true, Post and Garza County citizens can relax and enjoy more pleasant autumn weather.

Councilmen of Dallas are hoping for some clouds to appear over their city soon and in anticipation of that fact, they have hired a rainmaking firm. This firm will seed the clouds in hopes of producing rain for the water-short city.

At present it is illegal to wash automobiles, sprinkle lawns or even waste water through a leaky faucet in Dallas, because of the dwindling municipal water supply. Estimations show that the water in reserve will last less than four months at a normal rate of use.

Ginnings Near 5,000 Mark; Harvest One Third Finished

With the cotton harvest estimated at one third over, Garza County ginnings up to late Wednesday afternoon totaled 4,789 bales. Monday's light precipitation took pullers out of the fields for the day, but most workers were back in the fields Tuesday morning despite the cold front which moved in during Monday night.

Southland and Close City plants were running neck-in-neck for top honors on the most bales ginned for the season. Close City had a total of 1058 bales while Southland trailed by only 8 bales, with a total of 1050.

The Pleasant Valley gin accounted for 891 bales ginned for the season and following closely on the heels of the Pleasant Valley ginnings was the plant at Graham which had turned out 875 bales.

Planters Gin Company, here in Post, had ginned 546 bales, and the Storie Gin Company had turned out 375 bales.

County Agent Lewis Herron said Wednesday that he was still holding to his estimate of 17,000 bales and that late ginnings would bring the season's total up to that mark.

Some of the ginner estimated that approximately one half of the crop had been harvested in their areas, but a number of them said that less than one third of the cotton had been gathered in their communities.

At Southland, Pleasant Valley and Garnolia, where Storie Gin is located, the ginner estimated that from one third to one half of the harvest had been finished. Ginner at the plants in Post, Graham and Close City said the crop was no more than one third gathered, if that much.

Most of the cotton measured 7/8 inch staple, but some farmers are receiving 13/16th and 15/16 inch staples on some of their ginnings.

Garza's First Shipment Of Hay Is En Route Here

The first consignment of hay for Garza County farmers and stockmen, purchased under the drought disaster program, is en route here from Wisconsin, Mike Custer, PMA secretary, was advised by telegram Monday.

The two cars of mixed hay were shipped on the same day, Nov. 6, from Edgerton, Wis. Custer was advised. One of the cars is loaded with 11.63 tons of hay, comprising 435 bales, and the other contains 14.05 tons, 515 bales. It is expected that five or six days will be required for the shipment to arrive here, probably this weekend.

Custer said that he had also received notice Monday from the State Mobilization Committee that hay will be rationed after this week, and that orders already out may not be filled in their entries. Orders received by the State Committee this week end will be used as a basis for establishing County quotas.

The necessity for rationing has been brought about because of the fact that at present time approximately 185,000 tons of hay are on order and that shipments have been made on only 50,000 tons. At the present rate of shipment it will be January or February before the orders already placed are filled.

Additional orders, from producers who have orders filled, are not to be taken by the local office until the orders out are delivered, the memorandum directed.

Lions Hear Talk On Communism

"Communism's power and means of destroying the Christian way of life" was the subject of a speech given to Post Lions Club members at the regular meeting Tuesday night, A. J. Harrington, Lions Club member from Dallas, gave the inspiring talk on ways of stopping the spread of communism now, before the entire span of America is infested with this dread dictatorial power.

Communist forces try to destroy Christian principals, Harrington said. "They prey on discontented youth and unhappy older people."

"American citizens can abolish and stop communism by building playgrounds and entertain-

Safety Awards Are Given By Citizens' Traffic Commission

First approved safe driver awards were presented Monday night at a special meeting of Garza County Citizens' Traffic Commission in Post school cafeteria.

Les Short, chairman, opened the meeting and presided over a short business session. Short explained the function of the Commission and expressed the desire for more citizens of Garza County and Post to become members of the organization.

Pat Henderson, publicity committee member, gave a report on the signs that are to be erected on the four highways entering Post. These signs are to attract attention to the fact that Garza County has such a commission in operation. State officials have approved this project and Jake Webb, State highway supervisor in this area, has invited the Engineering committee to meet with him for discussions on the matter.

Clay Bednar, district safety officer for the Department of Public Safety, and Bill Morgan, executive secretary of Lubbock Citizens' Traffic Commission, were special guests.

Bednar gave a talk on Traffic Commission work and stated that "Post is the only city its size in the state, that has put forth the commission and gone to work on improving traffic problems."

Bednar offered any assistance that the Texas Department of Public Safety could give. He stated that such commissions were what law enforcement officers wanted. Traffic Commissions are to educate the public and make them want to drive better. Bednar pointed out, "Lubbock and Post are pioneers in this part of the state in commission work and you are to be complimented on the progress made so far and efforts being put forward," Bednar said.

Automobile accidents are killing more people per year in the United States than all the wars since 1776 put together, Bednar pointed out. Commissions for traffic improvement will have to be set up in all states, because the traffic problems and accident deaths are increasing every day in America. Bednar stated.

More cars are being produced and higher rates of speed are being maintained, so a public support organization such as Garza County Citizens' Traffic Commission must be established to try to control some needless accidents.

"If one life is saved, your time and mine will be spent," Bednar told the commission in closing.

Patrolman Bednar presented the approved safe driver awards to winners chosen by an unknown panel of judges, who have been and still are observing the driving habits of Garza County citizens.

Mrs. Chester Keeton was the first motorist to be selected and was the first to receive her award. Ambrose Gray, Ray McClellan, and Harry Dietrich were the other drivers who received awards.

Morgan spoke to members and

Oil Interest Centers On Lynn County's Producer

Two more oil wells are to be drilled in the Justiceburg area, one a wildcat 5 miles northeast of the townsite and the other in the proven area of the Rocker A field. A producer, which gives Lynn County its third producing well and which is near the Garza county line, has been of much interest to local oil men the past week.

The new wildcat is to be drilled by Duncan Drilling Company and is to be on the McCrary property. Location is 1,300 feet from south and 1,950 feet from west lines of section 127, block 5, H&G survey. The location was staked and announced last week, but at that time little progress had been made on starting of actual work. The well will be drilled to 3,000 feet.

In the Rocker A field Ike Lovelady 1-C Walker will be drilled with cable to a depth of 2,600 feet. Location is 330 feet from north and west lines of the south-east quarter of section 45, block 6, H&G survey. The site is three miles west of Justiceburg. Drilling is to begin at once.

The Lynn County producer, three miles east of Draw, is estimated to have a potential of 350 barrels daily from the Ellenburger at 9,310, 9,325 feet. The well is on the Garza Land & Cattle Company land and is styled Roundtop Oil Company of Abilene and C. M. Ashley.

The derrick has been skidded over to an offset location and work has begun on a projected 9,500-foot test. The offset is 660 feet from the south and west lines of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 432, block 9, EL&RR survey.

If the offset is successful two more wells will be drilled on the same quarter.

Post Football Fans Anxiously Await Antelope-Tiger Battle

Friday night the Post Antelopes will meet Slaton and all other football fans from this area have been thinking of the tragic years, when the Tigers were victorious each season over Post's Antelopes.

HARVEST YOUR COTTON WITH A JOHN DEERE

You're no idea how easy... how economical your cotton harvest can be until you put a John Deere Two-Row Cotton Harvester to work in your fields.

The John Deere does a one-over in any cotton suitable for mechanical stripping drilled in 40-inch rows. Two men make up your crew. It is cut to a fraction of handling harvests... and the entire harvest is done for as little as $2 per bale for details.

period started. While former players, Hans Hudman, Jimmy Hundley, Tom Power, A. C. Cash and Edsel Cross have been thinking of those battles during the '30's, in which Post was fighting to break the jinx placed on them by the Tigers, Younger ex-Antelopes, Shorty Hester, Roy Williams, Pleasant Hill, Sonny McCravy, Gaylon Young, Hugh Ingram and Junior Malouf have been giving play by play descriptions of the game of 1946, when the omen was shattered. Not many of the players on that '46 team are in Post, but we are sure they have thought of that classic jinx breaking tilt during this week. While the older set is reminiscing days gone by, the present and future Antelopes are working to see that history does not repeat itself.

In 1928, the Post Antelopes raced on the field with such outstanding and well-known players as Bill Cravy, Red Floyd, Sid Cross, Wayne Askins, T. J. Ray, Cecil Cearley, Alex Chaney, Orville Seawalt, Allen Benton, Seaboy Mathis and Pud Luman. This powerful squad defeated the Tigers, 13 to 6. Cravy and Luman scored the touchdowns and Luman kicked one extra point.

After this year not only a financial depression hit Garza County, but a sports depression landed on top of everything. Everyone was saying for years, "If we can just beat Slaton, we'll be happy." One would be safe in guessing that even a few prayers were offered in behalf of this catastrophe. If so, they were to no avail until 1946. The game of '45 was a near upset, but Slaton won out on a 2 to 0 score.

In the spell breaking battle, which ended 13 to 6 in favor of Post, Junior Malouf carried the ball for both touchdowns and Hugh Ingram kicked the extra point. This was Coach Bingham's first season as chieftain for the Antelopes.

Post held on to their winning streak for two seasons. In 1947, the Antelopes defeated their arch enemies, 21 to 7. That season, Bingham pitted his boys against the team of his old schoolyard chum and former college roommate, Clarence Tillery, Slaton's coach. In 1948, which was a triumphant year of football for Post, the Antelopes defeated Slaton 12 to 6 and marched on to District and Bi-District championships.

In 1949, District 4-A was divided into North and South sections and the winners from each division played for the district title. Slaton edged Post with a 7-6 score to become Southern half champs, but the Tigers fell before Littlefield's mighty Wildcats in district playoff.

Post-Slaton game of 1950 left Post fans drooping, after the Tigers had won the annual duel on a 6 to 4 penetration count. That game ended in a 26-26 tie.

Post came romping back in 1951 to trample the Tigers in a 40 to 7 game and to seek revenge for the blood, sweat, and tears lost during the depression years and the one point and penetration wins of two previous seasons.

This brings us to the present season and Friday's game. A large number of fans are expected to travel with the Antelopes to Slaton. Everyone from Jim Hundley and Jim Hays down to Karen Hundley and Donnie Hays will have their fingers crossed and will be cheering for victory. Seated in the stands will be Hans Hudman, Tom Power and other of their teammates, their principal yell will be "Tear them apart, boys, we couldn't but you can." Ex-Antelopes of '46, '47, '48, and '51 will be telling '52 Antelopes "If we could stomp them, so can you."

The rest of us are saying "If you will beat Slaton, we'll be happy."

Postite Named To Who's Who at TWC

Jesse Eugene Ashley, of Post, has been named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" at Texas Western College, El Paso.

Ashley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Ashley of Post, is majoring in physics at TWC. Students selected to "Who's Who" must be outstanding scholars, and also are judged on character, leadership, and participation in campus activities. Ashley is one of 25 graduating seniors chosen for the honor group this semester by a special faculty committee at Texas Western. Brief biographies of each will appear in the forthcoming edition of the publication "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

HARD DRIVING—Southern Methodist's hard driving back Jerry Norton (44) shakes off Texas A&M back John Saylor (20) as he is ridden down by an unidentified Aggie tackler on the Aggie 10-yard line for a 3-yard gain in first quarter of game played in Dallas. Other players are Aggie back Joe Boring (41) and guard Marshall Rush (63) and SMU center Bill Fox (52).

THE HUNTER—David Ghisolin, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ghisolin of Port Lavaca, Texas, loaded with this outfit to go after game. No one said what David shot, but his father shot this picture.

Scouts Are Enjoying Weekend Camping

Boy Scout troops of the South Plains Area Council are finding this season of the year ideal for hiking and camping and each weekend are flocking to Camp Post for one and two night outings.

Last week two troops from Lubbock spent Friday and Saturday nights at the Camp. The weekly average, since school started in September, has been 75 boys. Chief Runkles, camp ranger said. During the first weekend of October 196 boys visited the camp.

Camp Post, since Runkles came here several years ago, has offered troops of the council year-around camping.

Lee Releases High School Honor Roll

Post high school honor students accounted for only 4.9 percent of the total student body, the release of the first six weeks' honor roll shows.

Of the 324 students enrolled in Post high school only 16 made good enough grades to be placed on the honor roll, according to the names released by Principal Chant Lee.

To make the honor roll students have to have above a 90 average in four solid subjects, Lee pointed out.

Those included on the first honor roll were Beverly Bartlett, Gerald Bradley, Jackie Sue Dale, Lillian Dullane, Jimmy Ferguson, Moody Graham, Janyce Lobban, Linda Mills, Ross Morrow, Elsie Jean Peel, Bobby Rogers, Leonard Short, Hazel Shults, Margaret Welborn, Howard Jones, Kenneth Mills.

Music Pupils To Present Program On Theatre Stage

Mrs. J. A. Stallings, music teacher, will present her personality classes in a stage show at the Tower Theatre, Tuesday night. This show will be presented between the first and second showings of the screen feature.

Mrs. Stallings said that a variety of dance numbers and song hits will be featured on the program. Group dance routines, single tap numbers, solo, duet, trio and quartet song selections will provide entertainment. The entertainers range from three to 17 years old, Mrs. Stallings stated.

Johnny Hopkins, Tower Theatre manager, stated that besides the fine show by Mrs. Stallings' pupils, one of Hollywood's latest releases, "The Admiral Was A Lady" will be on the screen. The price of admission for this outstanding evening of entertainment will remain the same, Hopkins said.

Reading and Lighting and 'Rithmetic

Look what some figure-happy statistician just found out. From kindergarten through high school, school kids have to plow through a pile of books 18 feet high. A photograph taken of this pile of books would make your eyes ache.

Close visual work is hard on the eyes. A New York State survey of 83,000 students showed only one in 20 kids had vision defects at kindergarten age. By senior high, eye troubles affected six students in 20.

Good lighting is one readily available means of making seeing easier for these students. Lighting engineers find that over half the schools still use old, globe-type fixtures that give only one-sixth the light that ought to be on the desks.

In those schools that have installed modern lighting, teachers report that students are more eager to study, are happier and require less discipline. The teachers find their jobs easier.

To help schools analyze what light is needed, General Electric engineers work out various lighting systems in model classrooms where effects can be demonstrated and compared. A booklet is offered, "Making Schoolwork Easier on the Eyes," in which current practices are summed up. (Write the Lamp Division, Nela Park, Cleveland, Ohio.)

It is the aim of General Electric to translate its engineering help into public service at the community level.

It's the business that employs one out of seven Texas jobholders...

It's the business that helps to bring you everything you buy, use, eat or wear...

It's the business whose taxes build one-third of all Texas highways...

It's the TRUCKING business! Over a million Texas men, women and children depend directly on it for their livelihood.

Yet—fifty-six per cent of Texas' trucks are owned by individuals with only one truck. Trucking is probably the biggest "little" business in the State!

Texas can't do business without truck transportation.

No community can exist, even if it is on a rail line, without trucks to haul goods away from the railroad and get them to stores and homes.

There are 1,766 Texas towns that have no rail service at all. If it were not for trucks, they would have no commerce with the rest of the State and the nation.

Words cannot adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us at the time of our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kemp and the Millsap family.
The recent bereavement which has visited our home has brought to us a greater appreciation of our friends. Such kindnesses and neighborly thoughtfulness can never be forgotten.
The family of Albert Kenion Casey

We would like to say thank you to everyone who was so cooperative at the time we were trying to help our friends and neighbors, the Loyd Hickmans, when their home burned recently. Your splendid cooperation and help means much to us as well as to the Hickmans. Thank you. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Nash Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Smart Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Lowry.

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the many flowers, cards, letters and gifts that were sent to our father and grandfather, Russell Wilks, during his long illness. Especially do we thank the blood donors, the ones who sat up night after night, the neighbors who helped every way possible, Dr. Williams, the ambulance drivers, and the many, many friends and relatives who remembered him in their thoughts and prayers.
The Wilks family

Meet Your Friends At The AMERICAN CAFE

it's not what you do

YOU MAY be planning to spend a fortune on your date... wine and dine her 'til the wee hours of the morning. But, you might as well call her and cancel the evening, now, because she's just not going to be good company if you begin the evening by yelling for her at the top of your lungs and tooting the car horn at its very loudest.

it's the way you do it

It's the little touches—like the quiet gentlemanly approach and flowers—that add up to a successful date. And, by the same token, it's the little personal touches we give your printing that gives you such pleasing results...

Miss Shirley Eloise Schmidt Is Bride Of William Greer Jackson

Shirley Eloise Schmidt, the bride of William Greer Jackson, at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening, in the First Methodist church.

Miss Ann Davidson of Kilgore, Miss Marjorie Hendricks of Lubbock, and Mrs. W. R. Jackson Breckenridge, are parents of the couple.

Miss Jenny Lyn Rucker of Kerens, accompanied Bill Rucker of Bevin, who sang "At the Altar," "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Years" preceding the ceremony. Miss Rucker played "The Song of Las Vivarachas" at Texas Tech in Lubbock, of which the bride and attendants are members, as bridesmaids entered the church.

Rev. Joe E. Boyd, pastor, officiated before an altar decorated with baskets of white mums, and white tapers in silver holders. White satin ribbons were pinned to the pews. Rucker offered "Tenderly," "Is My Heart Alone" and "The Song of Las Vivarachas" during the double ceremony.

Bride Wears White

Schmidt gave his daughter away. She wore a waltz gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned in a fitted bodice, scalloped yoke with stand up collar and long sleeves. She wore white opera pumps. Her finger-ring veil was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Mrs. Dick Atkins of Breckenridge, matron of honor, wore a pale blue taffeta, strapless dress with net overskirt, and net jacket fashioned with stand up collar and long sleeves. She wore blue ballerina shoes and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Miss Pat Edwards of Fort Worth was maid of honor and Miss Jennie Scott of Wellington served as bridesmaid. They were attired in dresses like that of the matron's and they also carried yellow rosebud bouquets.

Miss Susie Jo Schmidt, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore yellow taffeta and carried a basket of yellow miniature mums tied with blue ribbon.

Dick Atkins attended the bridegroom as best man. Groomsman and ushers were Donald Johnson of Lubbock, Joe Lynch Jackson of Caddo, cousin of the bridegroom, and John and Andy Schmidt, brothers of the bride.

Reception Is Given

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt gave a reception in the church parlor, immediately after the ceremony. The couple was assisted in receiving guests by the hosts and Mrs. Jackson.

Miss Davidson presided at the bride's book, where 65 guests registered.

The serving table was covered with a Madeira cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white mums. A tiered wedding ring cake, topped with yellow roses, was served with punch by Mrs. Atkins.

For a weekend trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride wore a grey wool Handmacher suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are at home at 2417 Fourteenth Street, Lubbock. Both are senior students in Texas Tech. She was graduated from Post high school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Breckenridge schools.

Scripture:

From whence cometh wars and fightings among you? Come they not hence, even your lusts that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and way, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. James 4:1-7.

The Rev. Joe E. Boyd, Methodist pastor, will use as his theme Sunday morning, "Accounting For One's Stewardship." The evening sermon topic will be "A Fortune To Spend." There will be special music at each of these services. The public is cordially invited.

Immunization Shots Are Given to School Students

Sore arms are going to be at a premium among the students in Post school system beginning next week, but Mrs. Travis Everett, school nurse, says they will only be an indication of continued good health.

Beginning next week, some 200 grade school, high school and colored school students are to start their immunizations, Mrs. Everett said. She estimated that each student will receive from one to three shots before the program is completed. The necessity of these shots was determined by a card sent out by Mrs. Everett and filled in by parents.

Completion of the program outlined by Mrs. Everett for the school year would definitely rank Post students high among area schools as far as their health program is concerned.

This overall program is to include the checking of eyes, teeth, tonsils, ears, teaching of first aid classes, determining weight and the giving of T. B. patch tests. These main points are naturally in addition to the daily administering to the children.

Also to begin next week will be the testing of eyes and hearing. This latter program is to be carried out with the use of the new audiometer which was recently donated the schools by Post Lions and Rotarians. The machine is for the use of every school in the county, but since the county employs no nurse,

RACCONS LIKE FREE-LOADING
CLEVELAND, O. (AP)—Free-loading raccoons have found a soft touch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schuster, near Metropolitan Park. Every evening several of the animals emerge from the woods to feast on stale bread, apples, pears and peanuts that the Schusters spread for them.

Mrs. Everett will supervise all the tests.

A program to determine the growth of the students during the year is also scheduled to begin next week, Mrs. Everett explained. The height and weight of every child in the school will be taken this semester and again during the next semester. These different figures can then be used for the determining of any possible growth.

Checking of teeth and tonsils are also on the grade for this semester program.

During the first few weeks of this semester Mrs. Everett taught a first aid class in the high school and plans to repeat the class next semester. Enrollment in the first class was very good and interest was high, the nurse said. She also said the enrollment next semester will probably exceed that of the first class.

One new phase of the program, Mrs. Everett pointed out, will be the attempt to give T. B. patch tests to every child in the system beginning next semester. "I am not certain how this will work out," the nurse explained, "but it is definitely needed in any school system."

In addition to the planning and carrying out of these points in her program, Mrs. Everett is beset daily with more ailing students than you can shake a stick at. She estimated that an average of from 25-30 students seek through her office in the Grade school building for attention. They might have a splinter, skinned elbows and knees, thorns, upset stomachs or headaches, but one touch from the nurse and magic has been done. They are good for another ten minutes or so.

Mrs. Everett pointed out that the health program in the Post school system is very complete considering this is only the third year a nurse has been employed.

First Lubbock TV Telecast Will Be Seen By Postites

Postites will be seeing television before long, in fact the first "live" telecast will be made in Lubbock tonight at 7:30 when Station KDUB-TV officially goes on the air on channel 13.

During the past week a pattern has been shown of the screen and employees of Hudson Furniture and Mason and Co. reported that the pattern has been showing up strong on the screens of TV sets in their stores.

Both furniture companies are equipped with 50 to 70 foot antennas and will be tuned in for the first telecast tonight.

W. H. (Dub) Rogers, manager of the Lubbock station announced the plans for the opening and stated that the first program will be a street scene in Lubbock. The live show will take place between the Lubbock National Bank Building and the Caprock Hotel. Other programs will be beamed from the studio for the remainder of tonight's schedule.

Scheduled to appear on the first program are national and state figures, Rogers said. Station KDUB-TV will be on the air seven days a week, with telecasts beginning at 5:30 p.m. daily and sign-off time will be between 10:30 and midnight. The station is equipped with five kilowatt transmitter and complete DuMont studio equipment. It will have international News Service-Telenews programs daily. KDUB-TV is connected with Columbia Broadcasting system and DuMont network and will carry their programs.

Post TV dealers are equipped to give their customers the finest in latest sets made. Mason's are selling Admiral and Zenith, while Hudson's have RCA Victor and Westinghouse styles in stock.

Percy Parsons and Bailey Matzler of Hudson's and Weaver Moreman and Marvin Dunlap of Mason's have been attending the TV servicemen's school in Lubbock. They are now prepared to install and repair all sets, their employers said.

FROM MOVIE MP TO GI BARBER
WITH U. S. SECOND DIVISION IN KOREA (AP)—Remember the military policeman in the movie "Up Front" who was always "barbering" Joe and Willie in Italy? Guess what he's doing now. He's in the Army for sure, and not in the movies. And he's a real barber, not a movie MP who always was giving someone a verbal hair cut.

He's Pfc. Bill Roach, West Terre Haute, Ind. He arrived in Korea last July. Asked how come he turned out to be an Army barber—instead of an MP for instance—Roach said "That's how I paid my way through Ohio State and Otterbein College."

Lubbock, Established In 1891 Is Considered 'Brand New' City

(AP)—To learn all about Lubbock—the Hub of the Texas South Plains—you don't have to dig through dusty old books.

The reason for this is that, generally speaking, Lubbock is a brand new city. The town was not founded until 1891, making it only 61 years old.

For the first 30 years of its existence, Lubbock remained nothing more than a mere village on the rolling plains. In 1920 it had to do some close counting to report a population of 4,051.

But from then on and especially during the 1940-50 decade, Lubbock's growth almost equalled that of Jack's famous bean stalk. In 1950, with a population of 71,747, Lubbock was classified as "one of the fastest growing cities in the Southwest."

All this and plenty more complements are paid Lubbock in this month's "Business Review" of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

The 9-Page article, illustrated with a number of charts, tells of Lubbock's beginning in these words:

"The city was founded in 1891, when supporters of two sites agreed on a third and moved stores and hotels to the present location. It was named for Col. Thomas S. Lubbock, a Texas hero of the Civil War.

"Growth was slow during the early years. The city served primarily as a trading center for cattlemen and cowboys. Railroads did not reach Lubbock until 1909 and then only after repeated efforts of local citizens.

"As late as 1920, there were only 4,051 persons in the city and 1,009 farms and ranches in the county."

The review pointed out that Lubbock's tremendous growth resulted in part, from two developments in the 1920's: the establishment of Texas Technological College and the rapid growth in farming.

Another development that added momentum to Lubbock's miraculous growth was oil.

In this respect, the review said: "In 1937, two major oil discoveries were made in Lubbock's Traie territory—the Slaughter field in Hookley and Cochran counties and the Wasson field in Yoakum county.

"These extended the Permian Basin discoveries virtually to Lubbock's doorstep, and the city benefited substantially from the exploration and production activity in the area.

Eldon W. Pierce Is Stationed In Lubbock

Aviation Cadet Eldon W. Pierce, son of the E. F. Pierce, of this city now is a student in the USAF Basic Pilot School (ME) at Reese Air Force Base, Texas.

A/C Pierce transferred to Reese from Barstow Air Field, Fla., where he completed the primary phase of the pilot training course. At Reese, he will learn to fly the famous TB-25 Mitchell Bomber and next April, upon successful completion of the course, will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve and will receive the silver wings of an Air Force pilot.

A/C Pierce attended Lubbock High School and Texas Tech, Lubbock, from 1947 to 1950. He is a member of the Baptist church.

only in Texas and neighboring states. Naturally, knowledge of soil structure and peculiarities will be useful in studies other than self-fertility. For example, construction engineers will find it useful in computing expansion and shrinkage factors as well as heat and water transference.

Water engineers will be interested in findings of the unit in regard to effect of clays on soil-water, and the unit will be used in close cooperation with the vast water resources study recently launched by the A. and M. College System.

Dr. George W. Kunze will operate the unit. He is a native of Warda, near La Grange, and received the BS and MS degrees from A. and M. College. His doctorate was granted by Penn State

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

LAWYER'S CHALLENGE NO REFLECTION ON PROSPECTIVE JUROR

When involved as a party to litigation everyone wants, and is entitled to, a jury of 12 disinterested and completely impartial persons—men who will try the case fairly on the law as stated by the judge, and on the evidence admitted at the trial. This kind of jury is what lawyers and judges are trying to secure when they orally examine members of a jury panel.

To be questioned and challenged by a lawyer and excused by the judge is not a reflection upon the prospective juror's integrity or intelligence. It simply means that, in one particular case, the judge may deem it proper to excuse that person.

There are many reasons why a person originally called for a jury panel might not be a fair and impartial juror. He may be closely related to one of the litigants, have a business relationship with one of the lawyers, or have personal knowledge of the case to be tried. He may show some leaning, one way or the other, regarding the type of case being tried that would make it difficult for him to render a strictly impartial verdict.

Even where there is no condition producing a conscious or readily apparent bias, a lawyer may ask that a panel member be excused under the peremptory challenges allowed his client. He usually does this because he feels there is something in that person's background which might unconsciously sway his judgement, even while honestly attempting to be absolutely fair. Many apparently irrelevant questions may be asked by an attorney in reaching a decision regarding this unconscious factor.

Under the law each juror must be a citizen of Texas and of the county in which he is to serve. He must be qualified to vote in such county, except that he need not have paid his poll tax. He must own land within the State or he must be the head of the household within the county. He must be of sound mind and good moral character and able to read and write the English language.

A juror is not qualified for service if he has served as juror within a certain specified length of time. No one who has been convicted of a felony is qualified to serve as a juror; nor is an individual who is under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felon.

The statutes of Texas exempt certain persons from the obligation of serving as jurors. Persons over sixty of age, civil officers of the State or the United States, ministers, physicians, attorneys, publishers of newspapers, school masters, druggists, undertakers, telegraph operators, railroad station agents, ferry-men, millers engaged in grist, flouring and saw mills, certain railroad officials, firemen and certain state Forestry employees may claim exemption from jury duty. The exemption must be stated and claimed under oath.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who

Movies Of The Week

Americans have read and enjoyed tales from "Arabian Nights" for years and recently, movies based on these tales have caught the fancy of everyone. Every movie fan remembers the famed "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" of 1942, Now Universal-International has released an excellent successor to the previous movie, entitled "SON OF ALI BABA".

This film is an exciting and colorful hour of entertainment, full of fast moving swordplay, hard riding, and tender love scenes. "SON OF ALI BABA" stars the immensely popular Piper Laurie and Tony Curtis and will be at the Tower Friday and Saturday.

For an adventure packed romantic tale, set in the times of the Famed Ali Baba, be sure to see "SON OF ALI BABA".

Post movie patrons will be privileged to see the mightiest adventure ever revealed on the screen, Sunday and Monday at the Tower. This adventure takes place in the movie, "THE AFRICAN QUEEN". Humphrey Bogart is the star of this film and was awarded the Academy Award "Oscar" as the best actor of 1951 for his vivid role in "THE AFRICAN QUEEN".

This movie was photographed entirely in Africa in Technicolor and tells the story of a tough little riverboatman, played by Bogart, Miss Katharine Hepburn co-stars in this excitement packed movie and portrays a prim, straight-laced sister of an English missionary. Miss Hepburn charts Bogart's boat for a trip through the wilds of Africa's inland rivers. Their adventures range from fighting blood sucking leeches and wild jungle animals to destroying German submarines.

See "THE AFRICAN QUEEN" Sunday and Monday at the Tower. You will thrill to the wild, impossible journey down a thousand miles of angry river, marvel at the spectacle of an entire native village ravaged by roaring flames, gasp at the battle between man and a devouring army of insects, feel the excitement of a throbbing reckless love!

Tuesday, Johnny Hopkins, the Tower manager, has prepared a special treat for his patrons with the presentation of Mrs. J. A. Stallings and her personality class. Mrs. Stallings' students will present a stage show of dance numbers and songs.

Hopkins also stated that one of the latest Hollywood releases will be on the screen before and after this show.

The movie of the week is Wednesday and Thursday's offering "SUDDEN FEAR". Joan Crawford, outstanding star in the front ranks of popularity, has one of her top roles in this movie. Miss Crawford enacts the role of a wealthy heiress in this story of a marital adventure that treads the quicksands of tragedy. The heiress marries Jack Pallance, newcomer to Hollywood, after a whirlwind courtship and then discovers that she is the victim of a diabolical murder plot.

Gloria Grahame is featured in an important role as the third person in the ever living triangle of Hollywood love affairs.

Suspense is the keynote of "SUDDEN FEAR" and Miss Crawford uses all her dramatic abilities to relate this thrill packed story to the movie goers.

Other actors and actresses in this superb film are Bruce Bennett, David Miller, Touch Connors, and Virginia Huston.

Two free tickets go to Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Evans for any performance of "SUDDEN FEAR" Wednesday and Thursday.

VOLCANO RISES FROM SEA

MANILA (AP)—A second volcano is reported rising from the sea off the Philippines, this time not far from Hibok-hibok, the killer volcano.

Constatulatory headquarters said the undersea volcano had thrust its mouth 20 feet above the sea near the coast town of Jasaan on Mindanao about 40 miles south of Hibok-hibok on Camiguin Island. Hibok-hibok has a habit of erupting explosively, and has killed hundreds of Filipinos who farm its slopes.

Post Basketball Girls Are Victors Over Wilson; Are Defeated By Ralls

Basketball girls of Post high school won two games against Wilson here Monday night and were defeated in two games and victorious in one at Ralls, Tuesday night.

Monday night's games were started by the B team beating Wilson's reserves in a 46 to 23 battle. Woody Stewart sparked her teammates to victory with 34 of the final points. Wyvonne Morris proved to be an outstanding guard in this game. Coach N. R. King reported, Joy Martin, Tommie Williams, Maxine Baylis, and Virgie Ammons were other members of this team.

Pearl Craig and Deanie Hill led the A team to victory with 11 points each. Final score of the tilt was 34-28. King reported that the guards played exceptional defensive ball against the visitors. Other members of the A team were DeElva Loftin, Jackie Sue Dale, Martha Wyatt and Mary Jo Williams.

Post's C team scored an 18 to 10 victory over Ralls Tuesday night, to make them the only Post squad to win over Tuesday's opponents. Katie McClellan made the most scores by racking up 10 points. Rhea Hays, Mildred Wells, Wyvonne Morris, Velta Carpenter and Arleta Gary were other members of this team.

Post's B team fought a close battle, but were defeated by a 14-12 score by Ralls' B team.

The A team dropped their game to Ralls by a score of 28-22. This was another nip and tuck battle, with all the girls playing their best, said King. Pearl Craig was high point player with 12 tallies in her favor and DeElva Loftin followed in second place, with seven points.

Junior Play Cast Named By Sponsors

John Christopher and Miss Margie Moore, Post high school junior class sponsors, have announced the actors and actresses for the presentation of the class play.

The annual production will be a three-act comedy entitled "Everybody's Crazy" and will be under the direction of Miss Moore and Christopher. The play will be presented December 5, at 8 o'clock in Post grade school auditorium.

Plot of the play is about a young man trying to make a living running a summer hotel and the comical incidents he becomes involved in. His money raising ideas develop into complicated business and enjoyable entertainment.

Characters are typical everyday people, including the hotel owner, a young man interested in psychiatry, a friend who laments dressing like a woman, a landlord who demands his dough, typical old maid, love-sick girl, a widow with bad nerves, sleep-walker, a hypochondria, bachelor who has nightmares, colored cook and maid that are afraid of spooks, a messenger boy and a bell-hop who know "Everybody's Crazy".

West Virginia Grows Big Football Players

MORGANTOWN, W. V. (AP)—West Virginia coach Art Lewis is mighty proud of four freshmen who are starting on his varsity grid squad.

Eddie Dugan, a speedster from Uniontown, Pa., is the team's leading ball carrier. Joe Marconi, 205-pounder from Fredericktown, Pa., is shining as a regular defensive halfback. The first time he carried the ball in college he romped 30 yards for a touchdown. Defensive tackle Bruce Bosley, 222-pounder from Greenback, West Va., has Blue and Gold fans dreaming of another Joe Stydahar, WVU star of the mid 30's.

The other frosh standout is quarterback Fred Wyant, 190 pound southpaw passer, who was an instrumental figure in the Mountaineer's upset win over the favored Panthers from Pittsburgh.

Brownie Troop 4 Elects Officers

Election of officers highlighted this week's meeting of Brownie Scout troop 4, with Carol Ann Edwards being selected president of the troop.

Other officers included Jan Blackstock, vice president; Linda Dulaney, secretary; and Kay Ballentine, treasurer.

Judy Childers was named chairman of the kitchen police and will be aided by Beverly Young, Ruthell Martin and Sheila Lawrence. Chairman Judy Ann McCullough will be aided on the entertainment committee by Sue Tracy and Janet Hutto.

The refreshment committee is comprised of Mary Gibbons, chairman, Earline Holly and Charlene Smiley.

This week the members of Post's three Brownie scout troops and one intermediate Girl Scout troop completed their project of National Girl Scout week. They delivered approximately 30 pieces of clothes to a needy child which they chose as a body. These clothes were gathered by the Brownies, as were enough school supplies for the rest of the child's year.

Members of the intermediate Scout troop, led by Mrs. Paul Jones assisted by Mrs. Ed Dye, collected a box of groceries for the family. They accomplished this task on Halloween night when on "trick or treat" tour they asked the people for canned goods for a needy family.

Mrs. Jack Ballentine leads Brownie Troop 4 and is assisted by Mrs. Alton Clary.

Harrington quoted statistic figures showing that Soviet Russia has controlling power over 15 European nations with a population of approximately 80 million people. Free countries of Europe and the United States have joined together in an Atlantic Pact alliance to prevent Russia from moving in and talking over any more nations. The population of Atlantic Pact nations equals about 80 million also. Antelopes To Close Out Season Friday

Post Antelopes will meet Slaton's Tigers Friday night, for the last game of 1952. This game will start at 8 o'clock in Tiger Stadium, when the age-old rivals will be hurt again this week with the game with two consecutive losses behind them. Post Antelopes will still be benched with three wins, five losses as a season record, while Slaton has three wins and six losses to their credit.

Coach Bing Bingham's squad will be using the spread, short and T formations against the Antelopes, Bingham stated. Post will be pitting a 160 average team against Slaton's probable starters for Slaton will be J. W. Clifton, center; Morgan and Chester Fong; Skip Tomlinson and Gordon Trout, tackles, and Tim Gordon and Gordon Stinet, ends and line. Backfield men will be Joe Sparkman, Bill Butler, Joe Sooter, and Charlie Wood.

Special game of District 6-AA week will be the Spur-Tahoka tilt. This game will determine the team to meet mighty Slaton for Bi-District play-off. Slaton and Post were dropped out of competition when they were defeated by Spur and Tahoka. Both Spur and Tahoka were defeated by District 2-AA Tulla. Spur's squad lost to Tahoka by a 13-0 score and Tahoka fell victims with a 13-7 score. This points out the closeness of the battle, Friday, Spur has one half game ahead of Tahoka, but regardless of which of Bulldogs win, it will only be a tight battle.

Whirlwinds are still strong in District 2-AA.

They are undefeated after eight games. Only seven points have been scored against this mighty squad and the Antelopes scored these in the opening game of the season. Floydada is District championship bound after defeating Hereford 31 to 0 in first conference game Friday. They will meet Tulla tomorrow night for another conference tilt.

District 3-AA will be brought to a close this weekend when Abernathy and Ralls meet for the showdown. Both teams are top contenders for the title and it will be a rugged battle. Abernathy is tops in the season standings with eight wins and one loss, Ralls has six wins and two losses on their season record. District standings are five wins for Abernathy and four wins for Ralls, no losses either way.

Stamford and Quanah are still maintaining their leads as top double A teams of the state. Both teams are predicted to go to state finals.

Littlefield's and Brownfield's game is in the area spotlight this weekend. They are the top contenders for the title of District 7-AA. Littlefield is rated as favorite in this battle with only one loss and tie to five wins for the season. Luring 1952 Brownfield has lost three and won five, which proves that another close game will be played Friday night.

Next week majority of the district winners will be revealed and preparations for bi-district play-offs will begin. The outcome of double A football in state competition should be worth following, because at present anyone could win.

Post Loses Second District Game To Tahoka Bulldogs

Post Antelopes dropped the annual football duel to the Tahoka Bulldogs, Friday night in Antelope Stadium, by a score of 32 to 0. This was the second conference win for Tahoka and second loss for the Antelopes.

Coach Bing Bingham's trainees could not break down resisting forces of the Bulldogs' line and failed to score during the 60 minute test of brawn and brains. J. B. Ables led his teammates to victory with three of the five tallies and two extra points. Gordon Smith, quarterback, and Milfred Ratliff, end, scored the other touchdowns.

The first scoring play occurred after a drive of 46 yards by the Bulldogs. Charles Hyles, Charlie Schulz and Ables were principal yardage gainers on this play. Ables carried the ball over from the one yard marker. The extra point attempt was successful with Ables doing the kicking.

Post took the ball after the kickoff and failed to make the necessary first down gain with their passing offense. Darrell Stone, quarterback, was forced to punt, with the regular punter, L. W. Evans, benched because of a leg injury.

Tahoka took the ball on their own 48 yard line and began another touchdown march. Smith's passes were the aiding factors for the second and last tally of the first quarter. Ables' kick for extra point was good, but the point was nullified because Tahoka had 12 men on the field.

Mack Terry took the ball after a long kick by Ratliff and returned it to his own 39 yard stripe. Homer Cato took the ball for a five yard gain just as the first quarter ended.

Post failed to make first down gain. Stone punted again and Tahoka took over the ball again. The Antelopes line became a soft wall and Richard Havens, Bulldog back, was forced to punt.

The Antelopes began a downfield march with Randall Lawrence and Homer Cato carrying and passes by Stone being completed. A tough break gave the ball back to Tahoka on a fumble.

Tahoka came back with a passing offense by Smith and a driving offense by Ables. Smith carried the ball over for the TD and Ables converted. Score reading was 20 to 0 at halftime.

After the break between halves Tahoka but their injured and makeshift line could not drive over the visitors' defensive squad and Stone had to punt.

Smith and Ables began their outstanding offensive work once more and the results were another tally with Ables carrying for his third scoring play of the game. The extra point attempt failed.

The last touchdown was made immediately after the kickoff following the preceding score, when an Antelope pass receiver fumbled and Ratliff caught the ball and ran 32 yards to mark up six points. Conversion attempt failed.

Ables and Smith proved to be outstanding backfield men for Tahoka and Stone, Lawrence, Cato and Chandler played outstanding ball for the home team. Billy Stice and John Foster were outstanding on the Bulldogs' line. Pete Hays and Buddy Caylor proved to be an asset on defense for Post.

Tahoka drove to 11 first downs and Post racked up seven. The Bulldogs made 181 yards rushing and the Antelopes gained 70 and lost 72. The home team completed three passes for 48 yards and Tahoka completed seven for 122 yards gain. Both teams fumbled twice and Tahoka was penalized 11 times for 105 yards loss. Post was penalized five times for a 55 yard loss. The visitors punted three times for a 27 yard average, and the Antelopes were forced to punt eight times for a 29 yard average.

Post's starting line-up was Stone, Lawrence, Chandler, and Cato in the backfield. Caylor, Don Moore, Junior Smith, Nolan Williams, Billy Meeks, Bowen Stephens and Bobby Cowdrey were on the line. One of the big drawbacks against the Antelopes was the injuries of L. W. Evans, Royce Josey, and Larry Waldrip.

Starters for the Bulldogs were Charles Hayles, I. V. J. Melton, Smith and Schulz in the backfield with Joe Brooks, Garland Huddleston, Richard Havens, Billy Stice, Steve Sloyer, John Foster and Duane McMillan as the starting linemen.

Ex-Antelope Hester Plays Football At Camp Edwards

Cpl. George (Shorty) Hester, former Post Antelope football star, is now playing touch football with the 561st Engineering Construction Company in a league at Camp Edwards, Mass., he wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hester, last week.

Hester's company recently won in the first round of a scheduled two round play-off.

He wrote "they have decided to pick an all-star team to send to Fort Devens to play in a tournament to determine the 1st. Army Champs, and I was picked from our team to go, if the company commander will let me."

Parents Of 1952 Antelopes, Queen And Exes Honored At Homecoming

Post football players honored their parents and queen and the school band paid tribute to ex-students of Post high school Friday night, at the homecoming in Antelope Stadium.

A special section along the sidelines was reserved for the mothers and fathers of the 1952 Antelopes. Each boy presented his mother a gold mum corsage with a black letter P on it and the fathers wore numbers corresponding with the numbers of their boys. A pre-game introduction and recognition of the parents was made by the announcer.

Mary Jo Williams, 17 year old senior, was crowned football queen in a coronation ceremony before game time. Miss Williams was escorted by Co-Captains L. W. Evans and Darrell Stone, into the center of a football formation made by the players. Stone presented the queen with a bouquet from the squad and Evans placed the gold football helmet crown on her. The co-captains and Miss Williams were presented to the spectators in a Buick convertible provided by Weldon Rogers and driven by Virgil Short, after the coronation. The queen reigned over the game from a special throne in front of Post's section of the grandstands.

Ex-students were honored at halftime by the Post band forming a "H-I-X's" and playing "How-do-you-do" to welcome them back to their Alma Mater. Band members also played and marched for the queen's coronation.

Football Workouts Double As Track For TCU Players

Texas Christian University, which goes in for football and carries track as a sideline, got one of the brightest track prospects in the country because it doesn't stress track.

Sounds complicated but here's the story:

Bill Curtis of Waurika, Okla., national high school hurdles hurdles champion, showed up on the TCU campus this fall and started playing football. No one paid much attention to him until the TCU freshmen played a game and they turned Curtis loose against the Texas A&M freshmen.

Curtis caught a pass and made a brilliant 40-yard, sidestepping run for the first TCU touchdown. He got down first under a punt, knocked the receiver off the ball and recovered to set up another TCU touchdown. He knocked himself and other people out tackling—preventing an Aggie score with a stone-cold stop on the two-yard line.

He was quite the sensation and it caused a lot of talk.

Post School Paper Editorial Staff Attends Meeting

Five Post school students and one teacher attended the third annual meeting of Texas Interscholastic League High School Activities Conference at Texas Tech in Lubbock, Saturday.

The conference was for students interested in public speaking and journalism. Miss Margie Moore, high school journalism teacher, stated, James G. Allen, dean of student life of Tech, welcomed the 400 students to the campus of Texas Tech in the general session in Aggie Auditorium. Lloyd Croslin, Lubbock attorney, was the assembly's main speaker.

Saturday's meeting was for the purpose of encouraging students of the South Plains to prepare for next spring's TIL competitions at Tech. Dr. P. Meriville Larson, head of Tech's speech department, and J. Russell Heitman, head of the journalism department, had charge of the practice meetings.

Post students who attended were Bobby Rogers and Linda Mills, editorial staff of the high school paper, "Antelope Echo"; and Linda Lott and Frances Dietrich, who are editors for the grade school paper, "Antelope Sentinel". Miss Moore accompanied these pupils to the conference.

Eugene Mann, director of public relations at Eastern New Mexico University, gave a speech in the afternoon session on "How School Publications are Important to Public Relations."

Saturday afternoon the conference was divided into groups. Miss Moore and the high school editors attended the printed paper discussion. Mrs. James G. Allen, associate professor of journalism, gave a talk on editorials and features and an open discussion was held for those present. Post Grade School editorial staff attended the meeting held for editors of mimeographed papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hoover and son of Lubbock were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hoover.

Memorial Poppies Will Not Be Worn

Memorial poppies, usually sold on the Saturday before Armistice Day, will not be worn by Garza residents, according to information given the Dispatch by ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The poppies are fashioned by disabled veterans and are described as a "flower of hope." As is known, sale of the poppies is for the comfort and cheer to disabled veterans in Texas hospitals, and for the welfare of children of veterans found in need of aid.

The Post Dispatch has been informed that a "slip-up" in ordering the little flowers is the reason for "no sale."

Jingle Contest To Be Sponsored By Garza County Traffic Commission

Garza County Citizens' Traffic Commission is sponsoring a jingle contest for Post grade school students. This contest is made possible by Johnny Hopkins, manager of the Tower Theatre, who is furnishing the prizes. Prizes are free show passes for one week.

All grade school students are eligible to enter and must turn in their entries each Friday to E. E. Pierce at the school cafeteria.

Entries will be judged on originality and content. They must be the students own idea, should be two line rhyming sentences and must pertain to something about traffic safety.

A free pass will be given for this week and three weeks following. Entries will be judged each Friday to determine that week's winner. Two members of the Traffic Commission will be judges. Final date of this contest is December 5.

Garza County Citizens' Traffic Commission urges all pupils of Post grade school to enter.

Postex Mill Buys Kennedy Houses

The purchase of 10 three-room houses for rental use by skilled personal of Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., has been announced by O. G. Murphy, manager.

Owned by Mrs. M. E. Kennedy and family, the houses sold for $25,000, with this amount covering the houses alone. All furnishings in the houses were retained by Mrs. Kennedy.

Murphy explained that Postex personnel will move into the houses immediately.

The announcement was also made that Postex has let contract to Tom Boucher, manager of Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co., for the construction of six additional four-room houses for the use of Latin American personnel. These employees have been renting six other company houses for more than a year now, the manager explained.

Purchase of the Kennedy houses ran the total of mill-owned houses to 47. Murphy pointed out. In addition to the six Latin American houses the company owns 31 larger houses, with 16 of them being built during the past year.

Present plans should be of interest to more of the 380 company employees. They call for the construction of 10 more duplexes for use by company personnel. Construction is to begin in the near future.

Drawing board plans also call for an additional warehouse to increase the storage space given by the present five warehouses. The new structure will be 200 by 100 feet and construction will begin immediately after contract is let, Murphy said.

SEEING DOUBLE—Twin sisters from Texas chose different branches of the service when they enlisted, but they were reunited during a visit to Philadelphia and the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, Betty Marie Gipson, left, wears the uniform of a Navy WAVE. Her 18-year-old twin sister, Mary, is in an Army WAC uniform. The sisters home is Fort Stockton, Texas.

Blanton Masons Are Injured in Wreck

Blanton Mason of Levelland, son of Mrs. J. F. Mason of the Graham community, is reported to be in "critical condition" in a Wichita Falls hospital as result of injuries suffered in a head-on automobile crash Sunday near Holiday.

A fatality of the crash was Frank A. Meadows, 62, of Chandler, Ariz.

Mrs. Mason, wife of the injured man and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Stewart also of Graham, is hospitalized with a fractured leg, broken hip and elbow, but her condition was reported improved Wednesday. The two daughters of the Mason couple, Elaine 12, and Annette, 14, were also injured in the crash but received only minor bruises and Annette, a fractured jaw.

Friends reported that Elaine was expected to be released from the hospital to the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams in Wichita Falls yesterday.

Also injured in the Mason car was Mrs. Moore of Sundown, who suffered a badly lacerated, broken arm. Reports to the Dispatch yesterday indicated that amputation of her arm may be necessary.

Mason is said to be suffering critical head injuries.

Reports reaching here of the wreck, were that Meadows was traveling alone in his automobile and it apparently went out of control on a rain-slick highway. In attempting to get back on the pavement from a muddy shoulder, his car crashed head-on with the vehicle carrying the Hockley county folks.

Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Harry Lee, Bud and Grover Mason and Mrs. Ray McClellan, brothers and sister of Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gary of Sundown, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Mason, went to Wichita Falls after receiving word of the accident.

NUMBER ONE item on most anyone's list of automobile "musts" is power—the life and lift of your going.

In this Buick SPECIAL you get a valve-in-head high-compression Fireball 8 Engine that can pour out a wealth of the thrilling power you ever held rein on—more power per dollar than you'll find elsewhere.

Number Two is ride—the way you go—the comfort and steadiness and luxury of your travel.

Every Buick has big soft coil springs on each wheel to cushion your way—and an unyielding torque-tube that firms and steadies your ride. Yet these are just two of the fifteen

Buick ride features that cost, literally, more than a million dollars to engineer.

Then there's style, there's room, there's visibility, there's handling ease—all part of your travel—all helping to make the difference between good going and great going.

But price is very much part of the picture, too—what you pay for what you get.

So when you add in the big horsepower rating you get in a Buick, plus the extra thrill and thrift of its Fireball performance...

When you measure the inches of room, count up the many hours of comfort through the years, check off things like durability and solid satisfaction and high trade-in value...

Mr. Stone emphasized that the distinguished new De Soto has an entirely new body. It's longer, wider and lovelier," he said, "and a car with truly great performance."

Available with either the sensational 160-horsepower V-8 engine... featuring America's most powerful engine design... the rugged, economical Powermaster Six, the new 1953 De Soto offers such features as full steering, power brakes, torque drive, electric windows and safety-tinted So-glass.

The new 1953 De Soto being shown today at Post Auto Supply is a four-door Fire Dome 160-horsepower V-8 sedan. It is finished in beautiful French blue.

Garza County 4H Club Boys And Girls Are Honored At Achievement Program

Garza county 4-H club boys and girls were honored Saturday night, at an annual Achievement Awards program in the district court room at the courthouse.

Awards were given to approximately 75 Garza 4-H members. Some awards were an expense-paid trip to Chicago, Gold Star pins to an outstanding boy and girl, year pins, prizes won in county and state fairs and three adult leaders in this work were honored by Garza county 4-H members.

Lewis Herron, county agent, presented the boys sales checks for their commercial steers that were sold at the state fair in Dallas.

Checks were presented to A. J. Stone, $433.29; Auvy Lee McBride, $365.04; John T. Brown, $323.31; Dean Huddleston, $395.46; Carrol Davis, $402.48; Ned Myers, $433.87; and Darrell Roberts, $400.92.

Herron also presented Medal Awards to outstanding 4-H boys of 1952. Auvy Lee McBride received the Achievement Award, which was donated by Ford Motor Company. Field crops award was given to Noel White, this award was given by International Harvester Company. Carrol Davis received the Meat Animal prize, which was made possible by Thomas E. Wilson. Leadership pin went to Ned Myers and was donated by Edward Foss Wilson. Dearborn Motor Corporation donated three Medal Awards for Poultry raising to Jimmy Redman, Paul Wheatley, and V. A. Lobban.

Noel White was chosen the Gold Star 4-H club boy for 1952 and his award was given by the Extension Service of Texas A&M. White and Bowen Stephens will be Garza County's delegates to the 4-H Round-up in June of 1953.

Winners in Garza County's Fall Fair were given their cash awards by Herron, Saturday night. These winners were: DeWain Fluit, Don Richardson, Paul Wheatley, Auvy Lee McBride, Darrell Roberts, Ned Myers, Carrol Davis, A. J. Stone, John T. Brown, Dean Huddleston, Sonny Gossett, Jerry Morris, Jack Morris, Darrell Jones, Ernie Popham, Royce Josey, Sam Saunders, V. A. Lobban, Clark Cowdrey, Joe McCowan, Jerry Ligon, Noel White, and Ronnie Morris. Miss Janie Morris was a winner in this division also. She was the only Garza 4-H girl that raised and exhibited a fat barrow in the county show.

Miss Janyce Lobban captured the spotlight of the girls awards, which were presented by Mrs. Hardie Smith, Southland girls county wide leader, and Miss Jessie Pearce, Home Demonstration agent. Miss Lobban was awarded the Sante Fe Award, which is an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, later this month.

Other medals won by Miss Lobban were Senior Division award, handcraft pin, canning pin, and needle work ribbon; best girls records presented by Montgomery Ward; homestead improvement award given by Sears Roebuck Foundation; poultry award presented by Dearborn Motors Corporation; best dress construction; and a seven-year 4-H work pin. Miss Sue Stephens and Miss Wynonne Morris were other top winning girls with their outstanding 4-H work during 1952. Miss Stephens won the public speaking award donated by Pure Oil Company, gardening prize given by Allis-Chambers Company; achievement award donated by Ford Motor Company, leadership pin given by Edward Foss Wilson and an eight year service pin. Miss Morris was winner of the clothing ribbon, baking prize, clothing construction pin given by Spool Cotton Company and a six year service pin.

Other winners of the girls group were: Shirley McBride, Intermediate Division; Peggy Morris, Junior Division; needlework ribbon was won by Janey Morris, Patricia Wheatley, and Janey Morris won home improvement awards given by Sears Roebuck Foundation. Texas A&M Extension Service awarded Doris Ritchie the Gold Star award. Shirley McBride won Frozen Foods medal presented by International Harvester Company and gardening pin donated by Allis-Chambers Company. Food preparation award was given to Beverly Bartlett by Kelvinator Division of North Kelvinator Corporation. Onelta Jones won Dearborn Motors Company poultry award and a compact as runner-up delegate for the 4-H Round-up in June of 1953.

Miss Lois Ritchie was recognized as winner of the three year scholarship to Texas Tech. Miss Ritchie received the award in September and is now attending Tech on it. This scholarship was given by District Home Demonstration Clubs.

Winners of the dress revue were: Willie Faye Graves, best dress in 11, 12, and 13 years old division; Onelta Jones, school dress of 11, 12, and 13 years old division; Sandra Su Ray and Norma Ritchie tied for first place in school dresses made by 14 years old and over; Peggy Morris won the award for best school dress of nine and 10 years old group; Linda Kay Bartlett had the best play suit in nine and 10 years old division; and Linda Lee Davies scored second highest rating of all divisions.

Special awards were given to three adult leaders in 4-H work of Garza county. Mrs. Wesley Stephens won the five year clover pin for being an outstanding leader and assistant in this work for five or more years. Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Smith were honored by Garza County 4-H members with the presentation of Silver Spur Awards for distinguished 4-H work.

Special guests present were Mr. and Mrs. David Tipple of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cooley of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green of Slaton. Tipple is division freight and passenger agent for Sante Fe railway and he presented Miss Lobban with the Sante Fe Railway award. Cooley is transportation inspector and Green is signal supervisor for Sante Fe. Another guest was Miss Lucille Moore, recreation specialist of Texas A&M Extension Service.

4-H girls who completed eight goals during 1952 and received year pins were: Frances Barron, Peggy Morris, Patricia Wheatley, Beatrice Klesel, Karen McGehee, Sharon McGehee, Barbara Blacklock, Linda Bartlett, Janene Haynie, Alice Joy Nichols, and Marietta Jane Pennell received one year awards. Patsy Boykin, Nancy Robinson, Donnetta Ellis and Jerrie Joan Williams were awarded the two year pins.

Shirley McBride, Janey Morris, Janet Stephens, Jessie Carolyn Ward, Billie Noel Williams, Eva Williams, and Frances Martinez received three year pins. Tanice Williams was the lone receiver of the four year service pin. Beverly Bartlett, Jennie Lou Redman, Onelta Jones, and Jimmie Fay Williams were awarded five year pins. Norma Ritchie and Janet Blacklock received seven year pins and LaVerne Furr was awarded an eight year pin.

Villa Discovered By Earth Worms In Rome

VIENNA (AP)—Busy earthworms recently led to the discovery of the remnants of an old Roman home near Petronell, an Austrian village on the highway to Budapest, 15 miles east of Vienna.

noticed tiny particles of colored earth pushed to the surface by earthworms. Assuming that the color came from murals of a buried building, the group dug up the remains of a 30-yard-wide 2-story Roman villa.

The villa is believed to be part of a "city" attached to the ancient Roman fort of Carnuntum, which was excavated by Austrian scientists.

—IVEN CLARY—

Dear Shopper ...

While unpacking beautiful home accessory pieces of brass and copper this week, I realized that Christmas is only 36 days away, so come by and make selections early. Brass magazine baskets, door knockers, trivets, etc., are ideal gift items.

You'll want someone on your gift list to have one of the blown glass decanters. They are 18 inches high and come in amber, blue, green and purple.

Or if someone on your list is a lover of figurines, you'll find some exquisite imported pieces.

New arrivals in glassware, china, pottery and other accessory pieces will be found.

All items will be gift wrapped.

Yours for happy shopping,

If You Have A Cold, Stay Away From People, Advises State Health Officer

Studies show that most people have two or more colds a year, each lasting about two weeks and causing a considerable amount of stuffy discomfort, reports Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health officer, from his Austin office.

The danger of the common cold lies mainly in the other infections that may follow after it. A cold lessens resistance, and is likely to pave the way for other more serious respiratory ailments.

Sinus, ear infections, bronchitis, and the various forms of pneumonia are frequently ushered in by a cold. Pneumonia, particularly, is likely to attack a person who is overtired, or run-down because of a severe cold.

Fortunately, many of the respiratory diseases are not as dangerous as they used to be. Modern infection-fighting drugs, such as penicillin and the sulfa drugs, offer highly effective treatment for many cases. But, of course, it is always better to prevent a serious illness whenever possible.

If you have a cold, it's just good sense to stay away from people, to avoid spreading the infection; and to get plenty of rest—in bed if possible.

Minimum of $1.55 Okayed For Mexican National Cotton Pullers

South Plains farmers will be required to pay a minimum of $1.55 per hundred pounds in the Mexican national cotton pulling, according to a determination made by Secretary J. Galvin, undersecretary of the U. S. Department of Labor, in a hearing in Lubbock Tuesday morning.

Galvin, who was called to West by Cong. Geo. Mahon, set a new figure on a finding that the "prevailing wage" is from $1.75 per hundred pounds, to $1.55 per hundred pounds, changed previous findings in the department which first set the "prevailing wage" at $2 per hundred in Terry, Lynn and other counties. The raise hike does not affect this county directly but the few farmers who were employed "braceros" lived near the Lynn county border and were having some difficulty in satisfying their workers.

The first order that Mexican workers be paid $2 was changed, after two protests meetings by the farmers, to $1.75, but was retroactive to Oct. 13. This

State Officials Are Opposed To High School Spring Football

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Association Press Sports Editor

A vote on the controversial spring football question in Texas high schools is certain next year. The advisory council of the Interscholastic League has recommended to the State Executive Committee that the matter be presented to the schools by classes and the executive committee usually does what its advisory council wants.

In the first place, Interscholastic League officials are opposed to spring football anyway. The question to be submitted will be double-barreled. One proposition calls for limiting spring football to 21 calendar days and starting fall training a week before the first Friday in September. This would give back the week lost from spring training which now is granted 30 calendar days. The other proposition would eliminate spring training entirely and start the season three weeks before the first Friday in September. The present rule does not allow the regular season to open until Sept. 1. The Texas High School Coaches Association wanted spring training set for 18 working days but the advisory council figured that 18 working days would mean spring training could be conducted longer than under 30 calendar days.

Opposition to spring training is based principally on the grounds that it interferes with spring sports like baseball and track. Spring training was voted out several years ago but was voted back in 1951. The past baseball season saw a marked fall-off in the number of participating teams. At the rate of decline baseball would have been entirely eliminated in a few years.

The smaller schools—classes AA, and A—are pretty sure to vote out spring training. The larger schools—classes AAAA and AAA—are most likely to take the first proposition—a curtailment of spring training by a week. The larger schools have the manpower. The smaller schools depend on all sports, thus a boy having to participate in spring training would handicap baseball or track.

The idea of eliminating spring training and starting the season two weeks earlier was tried before. Many schools opposed it because they said Aug. 15 to Sept. 1 was too hot a period for football.

But it's a virtual certainty that spring training will be shorter if not eliminated entirely starting about 1954.

It is probable that if all the football coaches had gone along with the plan of allowing each sport its season unhampered there would have been no further vote on spring training. But some of them just wouldn't do it—they eliminated spring sports or they handicapped other sports by persisting in forcing the boys to participate in spring football.

Talmadge Canant, sport writer on the Corsicana Sun, wonders why Navarro County Junior College isn't being considered for the various junior college bowl games, particularly the Little Rose Bowl in California, since Tyler and Arlington State are. That is a good question. Navarro has lost only one game this season—the opener to Kilgore. It has beaten Ranger and Arlington State among others. In fact that is the only game Arlington State has lost.

Navarro has one of the outstanding records in junior college athletics and this goes for all sports, not just football.

The Big State Conference, the so-called "purity league" that has banned football because it is an overemphasized and costly sport and which does not proselyte athletics, got itself in bad with one rule that doesn't jibe even with those of the big colleges accused of sport overemphasis.

The Big State adopted a rule when it organized last year that said an athletic who was a professional in one sport could participate in another as an amateur. In other words a professional basketball player could play basketball in the Big State Conference. One did—Fred Smith, a Big State League pitcher. He has played basketball at East Texas Baptist College the past two years.

But the conference received so many complaints over its practice of allowing professionals to participate as amateurs that it rescinded the rule last spring. Therefore in the future no professionals can participate in Big State Conference basketball—that is none except Smith. Since he already has played two years it was voted to allow him to finish.

Minor Is Speaker At Exes Gathering

James Minor, manager of Mason & Company and Tahoka High Ex., delivered the principal address of an Armistice Day program at the Tahoka High school Tuesday.

Minor spoke on, "Where Do We Go From Here" and was one of several Exes who had part in the program, which was attended by a hundred or more Exes and business men, as well as the entire high school student body.

Tahoka this week is observing a full week of "High School Home Coming" with the climax of the entertainment coming Friday night, when the Tahoka Bulldogs tangle with the Spur Bulldogs for the district football championship.

Fat Stock Entries for Fort Worth Show Should Be Made At Once

Officials of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show announced this week that the large amount offered in premiums for beef breeding cattle at their show next year is expected to attract a record number of entries. Garza county ranchers who are expecting to enter this show, should make preparations for entering right away. Dates for the exposition are January 30 through February 8.

Premiums for beef breeding cattle will be $41,135. Of this amount, $6,335 is offered to Herefords and $2,000 each for Shorthorns and Aberdeen-Angus. Remaining $34,800 will be divided as follows: Herefords, $13,800; Polled Herefords, $3,000; Shorthorns $6,000; Aberdeen-Angus, $10,000 and Brahamas, $2,000.

Half of the prize money for each breed is offered by the respective breed association and half by the show. Deadline for cattle, swine, sheep and Angora goat entries is December 15.

Customary three-hour fast-moving championship rodeo will be featured twice daily with performances at 2 and 8 p. m. W. R. Watt, president and manager of the Fort Worth exposition, said that reservations for the rodeo could be made by mail. Tickets cost $3 each, this price includes admission to Stock Show grounds and taxes. Reserved seat orders should be mailed to Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, 1, Texas. State in order if you prefer tickets for matinee or night performances and the date, Watt stated.

Rain Story Bounces, But Why? We Ask

After checking a rain chart with J. R. Durrett, who for many years has kept tab on Post's rainfall with the gauge maintained at the Double U Company building, a Dispatch reporter came up with a story last week in which he wrote that over a 33-year period, this past October was the only one recorded that had not received rain.

The story brought about comment from several old-timers, but none of them offered any kind of proof that showed the reporter to be in error in publishing the story.

Now comes Mr. Durrett, who apparently was questioned too, concerning the 33-year old record, and informs the reporter that there was one other October that had no rain. Mr. Durrett, to satisfy his own curiosity, checked the chart beyond the 33-years to its original dating of 1910 and found that in October of 1921 no rain was recorded.

Now if someone will come forth and tell the reporter why Post needed rain in October, 1921, when six inches of moisture was recorded the month before, in September, the story will be considered complete.
