5,000 Jam Rodeo Stands For Opening Show

Memorial Day Observance Is To Be Saturday

Friday has been set as clean-up day at the Terrace Cemetery in preparation for Saturday morning's Memorial Day service, directors of the cemetery association announce.

City and county trucks and equipment, including graders, will be available for the work. Lot owners are asked to have at least one person at the cemetery to assist in the clean-up during the day.

The Memorial Day program, jointly sponsored by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts, is to begin at 10 a. m., according to L. J. Richardson, Jr., Legion post commander.

The Rev. Roy Shahan, First Baptist Church pastor, will deliver the message at the service. Invocation will be by the Rev. Gerald N. Blackburn, First Presbyterian Church pastor, and benediction by the Rev. Almon G. Martin, First Christian Church pastor.

A color guard and firing squad from the two service organizations and buglers will conduct military rites at the service, Richardson said.

Graves of war veterans will be decorated with flags and the names of all Garza County war dead will be read. Everyone is urged to attend the service and to assist members of the Legion and VFW posts in locating unmarked graves of veterans.

Sears Gilts, Boar Given In Program

Eight Garza County 4-H Club boys have been given eight Poland China gilts and one boar in the annual Foundation pig program, Lewis Herron, county agent, announced this week.

Awarding of the animals was based on letters written by boys requesting them and on equipment available for their care.

Boys receiving gilts were: Kenneth Howard, Lewis Mason, Carroll Davis and Mason McClellan, all of Graham; Dean Huddleston and Sammy Sanders, Post Junior Club, and Joe McCowen and Ed Die McCoewen of Justiceburg. Young Sanders was also awarded the boar.

The program provides that the animals be exhibited in the fall stock show here, at which the Sears Foundation will award $30 in merchandise prizes, with the county winner being eligible for District 2 competition at Lubbock.

The program also provides that one sow big pig from the

Scholastics Total 1,572 This Year

The 1953 school census in Garza County showed a gain of 21 scholastics over the 1952 count, according to a report this week from the office of Dean A. Robinson, county superintendent of schools.

This year's total was 1,572, as compared with 1,551 last year. The greatest gain was in the Post Independent School District, where 1,015 scholastics were counted this year, as compared with 989 in 1952.

Figures for the two years in other school districts follows, with the 1953 figure given first: Garnolia Common School District: 68, 77. Graham Common School District: 95, 88. Justiceburg Common School District: 39, 37. Southland Independent School District: 232, 236. Grassburg Common School District: 46, 52. Close City Common School District: 77, 72.

"Buddy" poppies will be sold in Post Saturday by members of the Women's Auxiliary of John Miller Post 6797 Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mrs. J. P. Rogers is chairman of the Auxiliary's Buddy Poppy Sale committee and will direct sale of the poppies on downtown streets.

All proceeds of the poppy sale will be devoted to the following purposes:

For the aid, relief and comfort of needy veterans and their dependents, widows or orphans. Maintenance and expansion of the VFW National Home for orphans of veterans.

25 Safety Patrolmen Given Certificates

Twelve members of the Post Grade School safety patrol for this school year and about that many more who were on the patrol last year were presented certificates by the Post Lions Club in an assembly program Monday afternoon in the grade school auditorium.

The Rev. Almon G. Martin, a member of the Lions Club, which sponsors the patrol, made the presentations.

YOUTH PROGRAM TO BEGIN JUNE 8

$542.50 Mark Is Reached In Drive

With contributions totaling $542.50 reported by James Minor, fund chairman for Beta Sigma Phi sorority, it appeared Tuesday that the goal of $600 needed to finance the annual Summer Youth Recreation program will be reached well in advance of the June 8 starting date.

Contributors as reported Tuesday afternoon by the fund chairman were the following:

Brown Bros., $100; Parent Teacher Association, $50; Double T Company, $50; First National Bank, $50; Mason & Company, $50; Postex Mill, Inc., $50; Southwestern Public Service Co., $80; Greenfield's, $25; Piggly Wiggly, $25; Dewe H. Mayfield Co., Inc., $25; Jesse Rogers, $25; Collier's Drug, $12.50; Post Auto Supply, $10; Dr. H. A. Tubbs, $10; Algeria Hotel, $10.

The youth program is scheduled to get under way June 8 and continue for six weeks, with Coaches Bing Bingham and Vernon Ray as directors.

Activities will include swimming, skating, dodge ball, baseball, softball and tennis and plans are to organize a "Little League" in softball play. The Post schools will furnish facilities for athletic events.

The summer program will be open to boys from six years to 15, and for girls from six years to 16, the directors have announced.

New Traffic Signal Light Is Turned On

The new traffic signal light at the intersection of Main and Broadway was turned on Tuesday afternoon following its installation by the Texas Highway Department.

No more "U" turns at the intersection and right turns on red only after coming to a full stop were the warnings issued motorists by City Marshal J. W. Teal, following the light's installation.

Jake Webb, local foreman for the highway department, said the light is of the latest traffic safety type. It has four lights on each side and its operation is designed to insure maximum safety at the busy intersection.

The new signal, turned on by the Southwestern Public Service Co., replaces one which flashed only "stop" and "go" signals. Request for the light was made by the City upon recommendation of the Citizens' Traffic Commission.

Clean-up Called 'Big Success'

Post's second annual city-wide clean-up drive went into the records as a huge success last Friday, following several hours of trash pick-up and hauling by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and other workers.

City Marshal J. W. Teal, one of the city officials assisting the Jaycees in the clean-up campaign, estimated that 275 truck loads of trash were hauled to the city dump grounds and burned.

The only incidents marring the day's work came when two trucks caught fire from smoldering trash being loaded into them, the marshal reported. The side boards were burned off one of the trucks.

At noon Friday, the City of Post was host to workers at a luncheon at the city park site. Approximately 60 workers and other guests were fed, according to Mayor T. L. Jones. Mayor Jones said he wished to thank everyone who helped make the clean-up program a success, particularly the Jaycees, who sponsored it as their first project following organization. He also expressed the city's thanks to those who prepared the food for Friday's luncheon at the park site.

Parade Called Best In Event's History

The 13th Annual Post Stampede Rodeo opened here last night before a crowd of approximately 5,000 fans, following the greatest street parade in the history of the event.

The crowd, which overflowed the rodeo stands, rode the fences and milled around in the corners of the arena, witnessed one of the greatest spectacles of its kind ever seen in West Texas in the grand entry opening the show. Five hundred horses and riders filled almost every foot of space in the arena as the enthusiastic crowd roared its approval.

The grand entry took up an hour of the rodeo time, but it was worth it. The final event stretched out until well after 11 o'clock, and the once-packed stands were only about three-fourths full at the end of the show.

Stampede officials, judges, officers of the West Texas Sheriff's Posse Association, "Goat" Mayo, owner of the rodeo stock, and others were introduced to the crowd during the grand entry.

Trophies were presented the winning riding groups, with the colorful Santa Rosa Palomino Club from Vernon getting the one for first place, Hockley County Sheriff's Posse, second place, and Lynn County Sheriff's Posse, third place.

Winners in the opening night's events were:

Bareback bronc riding — Fuzz Duke, Bald Knob, Ark., first; Billy Kerley, Fluvanna, second; C. W. Fincher, Spur, third.

Calf roping — Jim Smith, O'Donnell, 18.2 sec.; J. Martin Basinger, Southland, 21.1 sec.; R. E. Josey, Post, 23.9 sec.

Girl's sponsor contest — Nedra Faye Mixon, Morton, 19.3 sec.; Marie Gist, Colorado City, 19.7 sec.; Sadie Smith, O'Donnell, 19.9 sec.

Saddle bronc riding — Jimmie Beck, Snyder, first. (None of the other three riders stayed on.)

Ribbon roping — Charlie Arrington, Spur, 16.6 sec.; Jimmy Bird, Post, 17.8 sec.; Harold Childs, Post, 29.9 sec.

Bull riding — Jimmie Moore, Post, first; Sonny Doss, Colorado City, second; Benny Middleton, Abilene, third.

Winning floats or decorated cars in the parade were: Brownie Scout Troop No. 3, first, $25; Humble Grocery & Market, second, $15; and Amity Study Club, third, $10.

A total of 34 organizational and commercial floats and 16 mounted groups took part in the parade, which also included the Post High School band.

Riding groups were from Midland, Crosbyton, Morton, Brownfield, Slaton, Lubbock, Paducah, Abernathy, Spur, Dickens, Post, Boby, Vernon, Levelland and Tahoka.

The second night's show opens tonight at 8 o'clock with performances also scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights.

Cleaning Shop Is Damaged By Fire

A smoldering fire which caught in the boiler room of Hundley's Cleaners & Men's Wear about 8 o'clock this morning caused considerable smoke damage to stock and fire damage to the boiler insulation.

The fire also damaged the ceiling above the boiler, which is located on the east side of the rear of the cleaning department.

Jim Hundley, owner reported that some damage was done to stock in the men's wear department, just west of the cleaning shop, and also to clothing in the shop. The loss is covered by insurance, Hundley said.

The fire was discovered by Elton Lee, who is in charge of the cleaning shop. The boiler had just been "fired up" for the day.

The blaze was quickly brought under control by fire-fighting equipment from the fire station, located just a few doors west of the cleaning plant.

Heart Attack Fatal To J. R. Durrett

J. R. Durrett, accountant for the Double U Company and longtime resident of Post, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home here on West Ninth Street early this morning.

Mr. Durrett is reported to have suffered the heart attack in the kitchen of his home about 3:30 o'clock, after telling Mrs. Durrett that he was going to get a drink of water.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Mason Funeral Home. Mr. Durrett's survivors include his wife and daughter, Maxine, both of Post.

4-H Club Members To Lubbock Meet

Seven Garza County 4-H Club youngsters will be in Lubbock Saturday to compete in the annual District 2 4-H Club contests, in which winners qualify for the state contest at College Station.

Sue Stephens, a member of the Post Senior 4-H Club, will represent the county in the district dress revue. She was first place winner in the senior division in the Garza County dress revue.

POST COWBOYS WIN

The Post Stampede Cowboys added another first place trophy to their collection Friday afternoon by winning first place in the parade opening the annual Tahoka Jaycee Rodeo.

Thursday to Thursday...
By CHARLES DIDWAY

While congratulations are certainly in order for members of the Post High School graduating class and several million other high school graduates throughout the nation, we are of the opinion that they are going to receive much better advice and a great deal more inspiration at baccalaureate and commencement exercises than we would be able to give here.

We do, however, have a yellowed clipping of 12 things a commencement speaker once advised members of a graduating class to remember. While we've never been able to think of these 12 things until the end of a school year rolls around, we've carried the clipping with us since the night we were graduated from high school. We're taking this opportunity to pass them on to this year's graduates in the hope that some of them might be able to carry them out in a more practical manner than we have.

The 12 things the speaker asked us to remember on that memorable night were:

1. The value of time
2. The success of perseverance
3. The pleasure of working
4. The dignity of simplicity
5. The worth of character
6. The power of kindness
7. The influence of example
8. The obligation of duty
9. The wisdom of economy
10. The virtue of patience
11. The improvement of talent
12. The joy of originating

The 67 youngsters being graduated from the eighth grade into high school are also to be congratulated for an outstanding achievement. Incidentally, those 12 points listed above are just as important for them to remember as they are for graduating seniors.

While still on the subject of graduation, we promised in last week's column to make note of it if we learned of any Post High School graduating class with more members than the 52 who finished in 1943. This week we are running flash-back stories on six other senior classes and have learned that the largest in the school's history was in 1941 when 66 seniors received diplomas. Another large one was in 1939 when sheepskins were awarded 60. This year's class of 51, which we referred to a few weeks ago as the "largest in the school's history," ranks sixth in size. It just goes to show how wrong one can sometimes be.

The dinner served clean-up workers at the park site Friday noon was a gracious gesture on the part of the City of Post. Not only did the City feed the workers, but also a number of guests, including the writer and two members of his family here from Levelland on a visit.

A popular, and sometimes warm, topic of discussion this week concerns the closing of stores on Memorial Day, which is Saturday. Some firm owners are willing to close, since Memorial Day has been designated in a Chamber of Commerce poll as one of the days business places would close during the year. Others, however, have announced their intentions of remaining open during the day because of the inconvenience it would cause customers to close on Saturday. Another point in their argument is that the rodeo is being

Demand For New Homes May Taper Off
Because Of Low Birthrate From 1930-1938

NEW YORK CITY—Many of my readers fear that if rents are decontrolled in certain areas where they are still under control, rent prices, like the prices of coffee, will skyrocket. I don't believe this would happen today here's why.

Rental Trends

Ever since 1940 fewer and fewer rental units have been constructed. Fifty-five per cent of all housing units now in existence are owner occupied, compared with a 45% home ownership just before World II. This trend has increased even more sharply in the last three years, so that in 1951 52 only 12% of the new housing starts were rental units!

Despite the fact that new rentals have decreased sharply, I believe the supply will be sufficient to satisfy demand and, therefore, keep rental prices down. My reasons for this belief come from the fact that the building market since 1946 has been an ownership market. The desire for ownership is inherent in democracy. It has been stimulated by such factors as (1) the high income levels of the war and post-war years, (2) the accelerated rate of marriage due to war, (3) the desire to "undouble" and have a home of one's own after the war, and (4) the threat of atomic warfare and industrial decentralization, causing a shift to suburban living.

Housing Demands And The Business Cycle

Full employment and high wages go hand-in-hand with new housing starts. Barring war, we may have reached the peak of both the employment and the building boom. New household formations, due to marriages and setting up of independent family units, remained far ahead of the residential building rate from 1930 to 1950, with new housing starts about four and one-half million behind family starts. However, since 1946, new housing units have been at an average rate of one million per year, and, for the last three years, there have been more new housing starts than new families.

The demand for new homes could soon

AN INVESTMENT IN YOUTH...

Since an investment in youth is about as solid an investment as one can make, Post business and professional men and other citizens shouldn't feel reluctant to respond when called upon to contribute to the Summer Youth Recreation program fund drive now under way.

Sponsoring organizations and the fund chairman report that response has been good thus far, but that there still is a long way to go to raise the amount needed to pay directors' salaries and other expenses.

The success of the youth recreation programs here in the past attests to their value to the community. The only difficulty has been in financing the program, since public subscription is the only way in which the necessary funds can be raised.

Sponsors of the program remind the general public that the project is not purely athletic in scope, but also includes priceless training in health, citizenship, and other factors contributing to the welfare of the community's young people. While Post never has been seriously threatened with a widespread juvenile delinquency problem, such programs as the one proposed for this summer will help maintain this splendid record.

Sponsors also point out that the program is for ALL boys and girls within the prescribed age limits and not merely for those from certain sections of the city. Any other arrangement, they explain, would defeat the purpose of the program, which also teaches the youngsters the principles of democracy.

The program will provide the youngsters six weeks of healthful recreation and worthwhile training. It will provide the adults who help make it possible the satisfaction of having made a wise investment in youth, which more than likely will be returned many times over in community benefits in the years to come.

Don't hesitate to contribute just because you're not called on. Voluntary contributions also are welcomed and may be made to the fund chairman, preferably between now and June 1, since the sponsoring organization hopes to raise the necessary amount by that time. The program is scheduled to begin June 15, providing a big enough investment in youth has been made by that time.

Indications are that politics in Texas, never any too calm, will warm up within the next few years. Formation of the "Democratic Organizing Committee of Texas" promises fireworks in the 1954 Congressional elections and the 1956 presidential campaign.

held this week.

We're going to have the same situation on July 4th, which also falls on Saturday and which is another of the days designated as a "closing choice." Christmas Day, thank goodness falls on a Friday this year, and Thanksgiving Day, as always, falls on Thursday.

In the same connection, the World Calendar Association reports that bills are being introduced in 34 State legislatures to change the observance of several legal holidays so that they will always fall on Mondays. Most of the changes proposed would establish four stable Monday holidays. They would be "President's Day," which would fall on the third Monday in February, Memorial Day, which would fall on the last Monday in May, Independence Day, which would fall on the first Monday in July, and Thanksgiving Day, which would fall on the fourth Monday in November.

Getting Out On

by EDDIE the editor

Before marriage they bill and coo. After marriage the cooling stops and the billing begins in earnest.

For seven years, reports W. C. Curry in his Crosbyton Review, he had a nice, soft government job:

"It was each morning to read, reset and record the high and low temperatures for the preceding twenty-four hours and to measure what little rain has fallen during these seven years. Reports were made to the Weather Bureau."

"For this cushy job we have received the handsome stipend of $54 a year. Now we are caught in the government economy program. Our salary has been reduced from $54 to $31.20 per year. That's a 40 per cent cut."

"We have only one hope: that the rest of this government expense will be cut 40 per cent. It doesn't seem that all of the federal budget reduction should come off us poor weather recorders' salaries."

Most of us don't trust people for two reasons: First because we don't know them; and second, because we do.

THE WOMEN, God Love 'Em—When I see two women kissing I always think of two boxers shaking hands before the fight starts.

If you, like me, have been confused by the nine "size" labels on cans of California ripe olives, then brace yourself—more confusion is coming.

The California State Assembly has just passed a bill permitting olive packers to put up three more sizes—family, king and royal, all blends of several sizes.

You'll still have the original nine to choose from—small medium, large, extra large, mammoth, giant, jumbo, colossal and super colossal.

Olives won't have much farther to go until they'll be in the same class as ice cream, as far as names are concerned. I can remember when there wasn't at the most over three flavors of ice cream—vanilla, chocolate and strawberry. Any one of the three seemed delectable enough that one would have thought they couldn't be improved on either in nomenclature or flavor. But now there are more flavors of ice cream than there are Heinz varieties, and one just doesn't seat himself at a soda fountain any more and say, "Dish of ice cream, please." If he does, he's liable to get that "Who's the stupid oaf?" glare from the pert young thing behind the counter who can rattle you off more ice cream flavor names than Carter had little liver pills.

I used to think that some day they'd run out of names for Pullman cars, race horses and babies and have to start all over again, which, by the way they have done in the case of babies. But ice cream is running a close fourth, and now olives are slipping up into fifth place.

I can remember when the country's crime problems were solved in the highchair instead of the electric chair.

Some of these radio announcers should change their line and frankly say: "Due to conditions beyond our control, we present the program originally scheduled for this time."

Not all the attention of those who would change the printed word should be directed toward whiskey and beer advertisements and so-called pornographic literature. I'm of the opinion that something should be done about the headline writers in vacation sections of Sunday newspapers.

The boys who design the layouts and write the copy for travel folders used to do more to throw a fellow off balance than most anyone else, but they're being surpassed today by the headline writers.

With the weather such as it is and work to be done, it's downright cruel for a fellow to have to turn through the vacation sections in order to scan all of his Sunday paper. It leaves him with a feeling of frustration—fairly drooling at the mouth, and also with the thought that the mothers of most vacation section headline writers must have been scared by an adjective before their son was born.

Here's an example of some of the article headings which make it double tough to stop and think that a full fledged vacation isn't within easy reach of everyone:

"The Scenic Ozarks Please and Relax You"; "Beehive Islands Are Secluded, Cheap and Exotic for Tourists"; "Montreal Combines Old With the New"; "Mountains Present Two Types of Vacations"; "Caribbean Isles Offer Beautiful Beaches, Flowers and Music"; "Oklahoma Has Travel Lure"; "Texas Parks System Calls Tourists"; "Here's Check List; 'Leave Your Wife, Forget Gas, But Don't Tour Without Camera'; 'Visit Mexico, the Land of Contrasts'; 'Take Plenty of Time if You Plan to See All of California'; 'Gulf Coast Favored Spot for

Very Few Lose Heart

Dry and windy as it's been, we find very few folks that have lost heart. If you mention that you believe it will haul off and rain like the dickens some of these days without asking any favors of the weatherman or any of the balance of us, generally the fellow will nod his head knowingly, then take a squint up in the elements to see if he's said too much—Terry County Herald.

Short Short-Story

Her face was close to mine. Her eyes gazed deep into mine, and wordlessly she reached out a small hand to stroke my face. She smiled deeply and smiled a knowing smile. No words were spoken. None were needed. We understood each other. All was silent except for the quickening of our breaths as we sat close together. She is five months old. She is my daughter.—The County Wide News.

Distinguished Visitor

The Lynn County News had a story last week about General Showers coming to Tahoka the weekend before. It turned out that they were not talking about showers of rain, but about a man named General Showers. The man, an O'Donnell Negro, was arrested and charged with illegal possession in his residence of whiskey, wine and beer. He was brought to the county court in Tahoka for trial and was fined $200 and costs.—Gaines County News.

Times Do Change

Things have changed. I recall that when I was a kid and had the privilege of going grocery shopping with my mom and dad, they kept a vigilant watch on the clerk and the cash register when we checked out. Then after we got home, they took all of the groceries out of the sacks and checked them against the cash register slip. Nowadays women seem to pay not the slightest attention as the grocery checker flicks off the figures on the cash register, and I doubt that few of them even notice whether the sack boy puts the tally slip into the grocery sack.—The Slaton Slatonite.

As far as some of us are concerned this summer they may as well write, "See the Scenic Wonders of Space in a Rocket Ship"; "Visit Venus—Vacation Wonderland"; "Canals on Mars Will Prove of Interest to Vacationers"; "A Jaunt to Jupiter—Just What the Jaded Businessman Needs"; "Leisurely Trip to the Moon Just the Thing for This Year's Vacationers."

This Light
Must Never Fail!

For pennies, you can keep a light aglow in your home. But the price to keep this torch of liberty aflame is so great as to be almost beyond comprehension. This torch that says "this is Freedom's cradle, this is Liberty's home," has been kept aglow by men and women who have given their lives that its beam may never be dimmed. This light must never fail.

EDITOR'S NOTE: As has been custom for the past several years, the Post Dispatch is this week presenting autobiographical sketches on Post High school honor students.

MARGARET WELBORN

Contrary to the opinion of the household of Lonnie Mary Welborn was blessed with a darling little baby girl on Oct. 2, 1935. The town was called Mississippi. The state was Mississippi. I was named Margaret. Due to the fact that this short autobiography that baby was I (I say little girl).

LINDA MILLS ROGERS

I was born February 14, 1936, in Crosbyton, Texas. To date I have had 17 Valentine birthday cakes. When I was a year and a half old our family moved to Plainview where my father taught in the high school. My younger brother and sister were born in Plainview, and I started to school there at Highland Grade School.

JIMMY FERGUSON

Sunday, May 11, 1936—Mother's Day. And it was Mother's day, too. As it turned out, dear mother had her hands full. I was the second addition to our family, which includes one sister, Lavonne. There is daddy, too, of course.

DUENA V. WELCH

I was born at Colorado City, May 31, 1936. Since I was a daughter and there was a son in the family one might think it was no joke. My parents felt that fate had dealt them a hard blow. They accepted me as one of the family. I have not entirely forgotten the scar.

GAYLORD ANDERSON

I was born June 15th 1935 in West Texas Hospital, Lubbock, Texas, and have lived in Post all my life, with the exception of a few pleasant vacations in California, Colorado, and New Mexico.

ROSS MORROW

At nine o'clock on the morning of October 12, 1934, Ross Edward Morrow breathed his first of the fine air of Post, Texas. He was the nine pound son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Morrow who lived on a farm about four miles north of Post.

CHARLES BIRD

I began my, now eighteen-year-old, life on Feb. 6, 1935. The place was St. Johns, Arizona, a little town just sixty miles over the New Mexico line.

DARRELL STONE

At Post, Texas, on the morning of Nov. 2, 1934, I came into the world, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stone. The happy occasion took place in the home now occupied by Dr. L. E. Andrews, D. C. My first early memories had their foundations in this building but they were short-lived.

ROSS MORROW

One rainy morning in September 1941, he started to school at Post Grade School along with about forty other proud and frightened boys and girls. Miss Johnson was the teacher and within a short time she had everyone feeling at home.

CHARLES BIRD

My sixth and the rest of the years of my schooling have been in the Post Schools. In my eight years of school I have become a city boy of Post, Texas. Here I have met all of my new fellow classmates whom I have learned to appreciate and who compose our 1953 graduating class.

MARY ANN SHULTS

I, Mary Ann Shults, was born here in Post. I've always lived in the same house. I have one sister and one brother.

LILLIAN DULANEY

I was born on Sunday, June 9, 1935, at Mineral Wells, Texas. We moved to Fairfield, Texas, when I was six months old.

JANYCE MAVANEE LOBBAN

On a hot July day in 1936 at Abilene, Texas, a little bald-headed girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Lobban. A boy had been ordered, but I was accepted anyway. I was named Janyce Mavane.

HAROLD LEE (BOBBY) ROGERS

April 8, 1935, marked a particular day during the annual invasion of New Mexico sand over the quiet plains of Texas, for it was during one of these sudden squalls when the stork found his way into a south Post home.

DAVID PENNINGTON

The happiest day of my life was November 20, 1934. This was the day I was born. It all happened in a little white house in Chillicothe, Texas. I moved around so much until I was seven I can't remember living in the same house over a month.

JIMMY FERGUSON

During the first part of my life, 1932-1935, I began the senior year at Post High School. I worked on the annual, served as assistant editor for the year so, therefore, I entered in chief of the Caprock.

JOYCE SHORT

On a cold, wintry morning on Oct. 2, 1935, at Littlefield, Texas, a rather long, skinny, anemic-looking little girl was brought into the Lowell Short home.

JOYCE SHORT

She led a very eventful babyhood and her first 3 1/2 years of school were filled with happy hours of playing house (where, incidentally, and much to her sorrow, was never allowed to be the "kid" but always the "mother") and also playing jacks.

JOYCE SHORT

At mid-semester in '45, she with her family of seven moved to the magnificent city of Post. She found the kids very friendly but remained very quiet and trodden under the feet of her playmates until the 6th grade when, amazingly enough, she becomes loud, boisterous, and the ringtail leader.

JOYCE SHORT

I started to Post Grade School when I was five. They wouldn't let me start at Close City because I was too young. The next year I started to Close City and continued there for the next seven years.

JOYCE SHORT

I graduated from the eighth grade there and then went to Post High School for four years.

JOYCE SHORT

I was born on Sunday, June 9, 1935, at Mineral Wells, Texas. We moved to Fairfield, Texas, when I was six months old.

JOYCE SHORT

Before I was old enough to enter school the Lobban family moved to Justiceburg. There on the first Monday in September, 1942, I began my school career.

JOYCE SHORT

For the next 4 years I still attended Justiceburg school, with my mother, Mrs. V. A. Lobban, as my teacher. When I graduated from Justiceburg, I entered Post Grade School.

JOYCE SHORT

I have had lots of fun during high school in many different ways. I was a member of the 4-H club as I had been since I was nine. My club work was climaxed this year when I won the Santa Fe Award trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

JOYCE SHORT

I really enjoyed working on the school paper, "The Antelope Echo," as fashion editor.

JOYCE SHORT

I plan to go to college this fall and I only hope I may have as many new friends there as I will leave behind here.

June 7, the Assembly of God Church at 10th and Adams will have all day services and lunch at the church. It is "homecoming day" and all former pastors are invited to participate in the service. J. E. Brincefield is the new pastor.

Vacation Bible School will be held June 1-5 at Central Baptist Church. All children between four and 16 years of age are invited to attend from 9 till 12 o'clock daily. Teachers will include Mrs. J. E. Thomas, Mrs. H. H. Roberts, Mrs. Ruel Smith and Mrs. A. T. Nixon.

The Rev. Roy Shahan, First Baptist pastor reports: "School is out and vacation time is now before us. This season brings the most difficult time to carry on church work. There are a number of reasons for this. Vacations are in order and the extremely hot weather makes vitality at a lower degree. You are urged to be faithful to your church whatever your faith, in attendance, prayers and with your material possessions. Sermon subject for the morning worship is "Limited By A Lack Of Provision" (2 Kings 4:1-7) and the evening service will be "Hazards On The Highway Of Life" (Proverbs 3:6).

Vacation Church School will begin June 1 and continue through the 14th at the Presbyterian Church. There will be a charge of $1.25 per student and of $2 for two or more students per family. Program will include fun and fellowship, study, activities, films and worship. Women of the church will furnish the daily refreshments. Among the teachers will be Mrs. J. N. Power, Mrs. Sherrill Boyd and Mrs. Gerald Blackburn. Mrs. J. A. Stallings will play the piano and organ and Tommy Malouf and the pastor, Gerald Blackburn, will show films.

Mrs. James Stallings and sons, Eddie and Jimmie, of Dallas are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stallings.

The Post Dispatch

THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1953

SECTION TWO

Post Nine Slates Three Home Games For Next Three Sundays

The Post Wood Bees, losers to the Lubbock Independents, 12-8, here Sunday afternoon on the Postex Mill diamond, have home games lined up for the next three Sundays, according to Oscar Garner, manager.

This Sunday, the Post nine plays the Four Way team from Lubbock on the local diamond. On Sunday, June 7, they play a return game with the Lubbock Rangers, and on Sunday, June 14, a return match with the Lubbock Independents.

Sunday's game was a free-scoring affair with the visitors jumping into a two-run first inning lead off the offerings of Dink Taylor, starting hurler for the Wood Bees. The Lubbock team increased its lead to 4-0 in the top half of the second frame, but the locals scored a couple in their half of the inning on a single by Billy Ramage, a double by Louis Mills and a one-bagger by Billy Mack Shepherd.

Ramage relieved Taylor on the mound for the Wood Bees and held the Independents scoreless until the fifth inning when they scored a single tally. In the meantime, Post had scored two in the fourth frame to tie up the contest until the visitors' fifth inning tally.

The visitors upped their lead by three runs in the top half of the sixth inning, but the Wood Bees pulled up to 8-7 on a three-run homer by Shepherd, who scored Mills and Short ahead of him.

Three safe base blows and two Post errors in the seventh inning allowed the Lubbock nine to score three runs and take a 11-7 lead. The Wood Bees scored their final tally in the eighth frame when Short scored on Shorty Hester's double.

Going into the ninth inning with a three-run lead, the Lubbock nine added its final margin, and then erased the Post batters, three up and three down, to end the game.

HIS BUSY WEEK—As secretary of Post Stampede, Inc., Homer McCrary is in charge of entries for the rodeo which got under way Wednesday. This week he is one of the busiest rodeo officials at "rodeo headquarters" just across the street from the Dispatch office. McCrary said a large number of contestants are entering this year's rodeo in a try at the more than $3,500 prize money being offered.—(Post Dispatch Photo).

ate Official Speaker Sunday Semi-Annual VFW Meeting

Today semi-annual convention of District 7 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held Saturday and Sunday, approximately 150 VFW and Auxiliary members registering. The convention high-... an address by John... of Electra at 11 o'clock Sunday morning in the... School auditorium. The speaker criticized the cut-... to 300 million dol-... new Veterans Adminis-... appropriations of $4,575,- 000,000 requested by former President Truman. If sustained by Congress, the reduction in funds for the year beginning July 1 could mean that the start of work on a number of new veterans hospitals would be deferred. McKelvey pointed out.

At a business meeting Sunday afternoon at the VFW Post home, east of town on the Clairemont Highway, the delegates went on record as favoring chiro-practic treatment in veterans' hospitals and the extension of aid to veteran patients confined at home.

The convention voted in favor of supporting Jack Armstrong of Lubbock for the office of state quartermaster, and endorsed Dr. E. E. Bykonen of Lubbock for the office as state surgeon.

Sunday's session was opened with memorial services being conducted in the grade school auditorium by Max Robinson of Lorenzo.

Following McKelvey's talk, lunch was served the VFW and Auxiliary members at the school cafeteria.

Registration began at 1 p. m. Saturday and the opening day of the convention was concluded with a dance at the American Legion Hall.

Thad Patterson of Seagraves was re-elected district commander at the Sunday afternoon business session.

Other new officers include: Bill Davis, Lamesa, senior vice commander; Max Robinson, Lorenzo, junior vice commander; Russell Grimes, Seagraves, quartermaster; John Shedd, Post, judge advocate; Bob Mitchell, Post, chaplain; and Dr. A. W. Daniell, Brownfield, surgeon.

Carl Hodge, Lubbock, John Liebfried, Lorenzo, and Harold Wilson, Brownfield, were elected to serve as trustees.

Members of the VFW Auxiliary elected Mrs. Fred Kincaid of Lubbock as their district president at a business session during the convention.

Other Auxiliary officers elected were: Mrs. Tom Everhart, Lubbock, senior vice president; Mrs. Richardson, Tahoka, junior vice president; Mrs. J. B. Oliver, Tahoka, chaplain; Mrs. Paul Foster, Lubbock, treasurer; Mrs. Chet Williams, Seagraves, conductress; Mrs. Jewell Wampler, Seagraves, guard;

Mrs. Nannie Mae Robertson and Mrs. Bessie Hoople, both of Lorenzo, color bearers; Mrs. Pearl Humphreys, Levelland; flag bearer; Mrs. Marietta Dunham, Morton, banner bearer; Mrs. Gladys Jacobs, Lamesa, historian; Mrs. V. R. Gilmore, Lubbock, secre-

Doctors And Wives Thank Area Friends

To the good people of Garza County who planned and gave the wonderful barbecue for us, we wish to say a very sincere thank you. It was a wonderful party. We appreciate all the effort that went into it and each and everyone who worked on the various committees. We deeply appreciate the fellowship, the kind words of the speakers, the master of ceremonies, the good music, the good food and most of all the good friends who attended.

The gifts will ever be a reminder of your loyalty and esteem and the knowledge that through the years we have been blessed with such wonderful friends.

The neighborly spirit exhibited by the people of Post, Garza and elsewhere is appreciated not only by us, but by our families as well.

A happy memory is the most valuable thing in the world. You have given us many happy memories.
