HOME OFFICE ASKED TO MOVE 192 ADDITIONAL LOOMS TO POST

Mill Expansion Being Sought

Tom Harris, superintendent of Postex Mill, Inc., said Tuesday that efforts are being made to sell the home office at St. Louis, Mo., on the idea of enlarging the mill here by moving in 190 sheeting looms from the High Shoals, N. C., mill.

At the same time, Harris announced that employment at the local mill is at normal, with approximately 425 people employed. Within the past few days, 25 of around 100 members of farm families applying for work at the mill have been hired, Harris said. "We have more help than we know what to do with, but we are glad to be able to provide jobs for members of these drouth-stricken farm families," Harris said. The mill superintendent said the type of work being furnished the farmers is unskilled labor.

Election Is Proposed For Setting Up Hospital Fund

Petitions are to be circulated this weekend asking that an election be called for a special county road tax and for reallocation of county tax money in order that a hospital operating fund may be set up.

Hospital expenses are now being paid by the county out of the general fund, with a deficit of $36,000 having been paid off since expenses started accruing in May of 1952.

The present county tax rate of 87 cents would be increased to 95 cents. The hospital operating fund would amount to 15 cents, although the actual tax increase would be only eight cents. The additional seven cents would be provided by a road and bridge sinking fund, which is coming off the tax levy this year.

Improvements, 25 cents; road and bridge, 15 cents; hospital operating fund, 15 cents. Signatures of 200 tax-paying voters are required on the petition before the special election can be ordered by the commissioners' court.

If the proposal is voted, the reallocation would be in effect for six years, but with the option of voting out the tax after two years.

Hospital deficits are gradually decreasing from month to month, but it is felt by the county that such a measure as the one proposed is necessary in order to continue meeting operating expenses.

Present allocation of the 87-cent tax rate is as follows: Jury, 15 cents; general fund, 25 cents; permanent improvements, 25 cents; road and bridge, 15 cents; and road and bridge sinking fund, 7 cents.

The reallocation would be as follows: Jury, 5 cents; general fund, 35 cents; permanent im-

JERRY HAYS SAYS THEY DON'T TALK ABOUT THE DROUTH

'No Comment' By Customers

JERRY MAKES A SALE—Jerry Hays, Post Dispatch newsboy is shown here selling a copy of the paper to Howard Brown, an employee of the Postex Mill. In the car with Brown is his bride of a few weeks, the former Miss Judy King. Jerry says he thinks the Browns are starting out right by reading the Post Dispatch.—(Staff Photo).

Jerry Hays, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hays, is another member of the Post Dispatch's two brother-teams of newsboys.

Like his younger brother, 12-year-old Herbie, Jerry has been selling the Dispatch for about four years and says he now looks upon it as "a steady job."

Both Jerry and Herbie do most of their Dispatch-selling in the south part of town.

Jerry, who will be a high school freshman next year, admits that he is "not too anxious" to hear school bells ring. He is having a lot of fun this summer—most of it at Craig's Swimming Pool, west of town.

He says mathematics is his favorite subject, and that he likes all sports, but has a preference for basketball. He was a member of the Post Junior High School football and basketball teams.

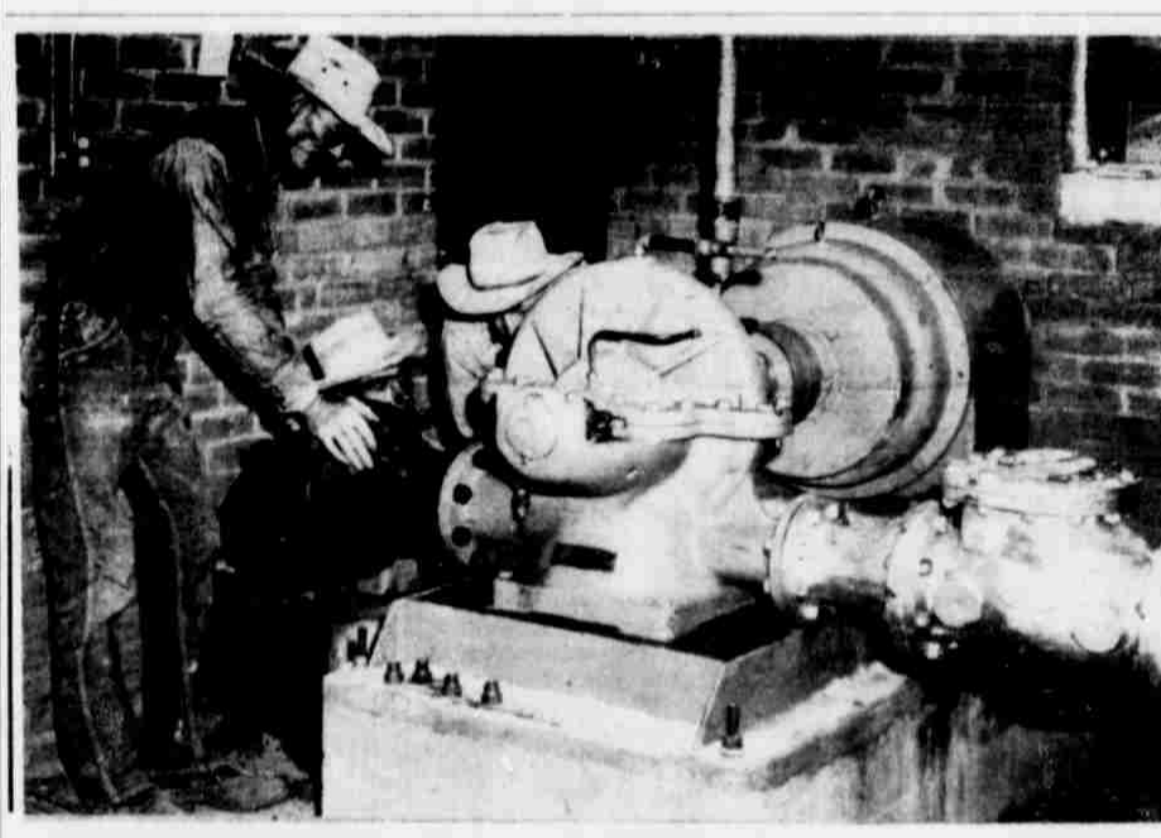

He says he plans to play high school football as have a number of his older brothers, Jerry, along with other members of the Hays family, recently enjoyed visits home by two of the Hays boys—Jackie of the U. S. Marine Corps, and Buddy of the U. S. Army.

Asked what he thought of prospects for a winning Post Antelope football team next season, Jerry said he thought the 1953 eleven would be a good one. He hopes he is able either to see or take part in the games as a member of the Antelope team. He also said they were told that it was not necessary for them to feel obligated to take permanent positions in order to get on the payroll. "Those we hired were told that they should feel free to return to their farming when they felt that conditions justified it," Harris said. The superintendent said moving of the 190 sheeting looms here from North Carolina would be a member of the Antelope

Three Carloads Of Feed Arrive As First Drouth Relief Shipment; More Coming

BIG DIFFERENCE — Installation of the new booster pump, shown above, has solved Post's problem of low water pressure. The pump, which has a pumping capacity of 975 gallons a minute, was installed in record time following its long-delayed arrival. Shown checking the pump are three waterworks system employees, Eob Figg, left; Nathan Little, center, and Roy Maddox, city pumpier. In the other picture are R. H. Tate, left, city utilities superintendent, and George Samson. They are looking at the old pump, which had a capacity of only 530 gallons per minute. — (Post Dispatch Photos).

Garza County's first drouth relief under the program recently set in motion by the federal government arrived by rail Tuesday in the form of three-carloads of cottonseed pellets—a total of 60 tons. Shortly afterward, Mike Custer, county Production and Marketing Administration officer, said three carloads of corn—about 150 tons—are due to arrive today. Meanwhile, the worst drouth in the county's history continues, with the dryland cotton crop being "written off" and the approximately 6,000 acres of irrigated cotton suffering from lack of rainfall. Proof of the disastrous effects of the extended drouth was seen this week in applications for jobs at Postex Mill, Inc., by approximately 300 dryland farmers and members of their families. Twenty-five applications for cottonseed pellets were filled from the first carload arriving here Tuesday, and the second carload was being unloaded and distributed Wednesday. Custer said the drouth relief committee had received 79 applications for approximately 600 tons of cottonseed feed. The first applicant loaded out with cottonseed pellets Tuesday afternoon was K. Stoker, whose ranch is just east of Post. He received 30 sacks. Other receiving pellets from the first car Tuesday included: Ray Hodges, eight sacks; Dave Sims, 20 sacks; Dub Gray, five sacks; and Mrs. J. R. Durrett, 20 sacks. The pellets are being sold un-

Post Scouts In Group Leaving For Jamboree

Three members of Post's Boy Scout Troop 16 were among the 97 Scouts and Explorers who left Lubbock at 7 o'clock this morning for the 3rd National Jamboree, Boy Scouts of America, to be held July 17-23 at the Irvine Ranch, near Santa Ana, Calif.

Garza County Fair To Be Sponsored By Lions Club

The Post Lions Club voted at its meeting Tuesday night to sponsor a Garza County fair on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18 and 19. Preliminary plans for the event had been made Wednesday night of last week at a meeting of Lions Club members and others at Hudman Funeral Home.

Area Cattlemen To Meet Here Today

A meeting of cattlemen will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the City Hall for the purpose of discussing common problems and selecting a Garza County delegation to the five-state governor's conference in Amarillo Friday on the drouth situation.

Clinic Bids To Be Opened July 13-14

Blueprints and specifications for the new doctor's office building to be constructed here have been completed, and contract bids are to be opened next Monday and Tuesday, it was announced this week. The new building is to be constructed across the street south from the west end of Garza Memorial Hospital. It will be a one-story structure, built of hard-baked blocks, with Roman brick front and sides. The building will include two doctor's offices, two examining rooms and a laboratory. X-Rays and complicated laboratory work will be performed at the hospital. It was explained. One of the doctors at the new clinic is to be Dr. John R. Rountree, who moved to Post this week. He has also been accepted as a member of the staff of Garza Memorial Hospital.

Area Cattlemen To Meet Here Today

All cattlemen, farmers and other interested persons of the county are urged to attend this afternoon's meeting. Gov. Allan Shivers has announced that he and four other governors will ask "some dirt farmers and ranchers" how their states can help whip the worst drouth in history. Shivers said he doesn't know of anything the Legislature might do to help but will consider any suggestions that sound workable.

Jaycees Plan Safety Project

Safety reflector tape for automobiles will be sold by members of the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce on Saturday, Aug. 8. It was decided at Thursday night's meeting. The Jaycees also voted to investigate the possibilities of selling house number lawn signs of the reflector type soon after the city's re-mapping project is officially approved. In connection with their reflector tape project, the Jaycees will boost the State Health Department's mass chest x-ray, also measure. Jack Lancaster was appointed by Jaycee President Jack Rex to contact an Amarillo firm in regard to the sale and installation of the lawn reflector-type house numbers. A representative of the firm selling the signs is expected to be in Post soon to confer with Jaycees in regard to the project. Thursday night's Jaycee meeting was held in the Fickett Abstract office, with 11 present. The next regular meeting will be Thursday night, July 16.

Thursday to Thursday...

By CHARLES DIDWAY

Perhaps the heat can be blamed, but the month of July has fewer special days and weeks than any other month of the year. After Independence Day on July 4, the month just simmers down to another month, and a mighty uneventful one at that.

Our copy of "Special Days, Weeks and Months," issued by the U. S. Department of Commerce, lists the following special days and weeks after July 4: 10th, Feast of Tammuz (Jewish); 11th-19th, National Lead Tea Time; 13th, Nathan Bedford Forrest's birthday; 15th, St. Swithin's Day; 25th, Public Relations Day; 25th-31st, National Inventors Week, and 31st, Tisha B'Ab, another Jewish observance.

"LIE, STEAL, DRINK AND SWEAR!" That motto was used 50 years ago in the weekly Warton (Ontario) Echo. Under the motto was the editor's explanation: "When you lie, let it be down to pleasant dreams; when you steal, let it be away from immoral companions; when you drink, let it be pure water; when you swear, let it be that you will support your hometown paper, pay your subscription, and have your printing done locally." To aff of which we add a loud "Amen."

This is a bargain year for subscribers to The Post Dispatch. Since the paper is published on Thursdays, subscribers will get 53 copies in 1953, whereas if it was printed on any other day of the week, they'd get only 52 issues.

Rarely do we publish an Associated Press feature story which develops a local "angle," but last week's Dispatch provided an exception. An AP story on J. M. Hobson, semi-retired Amarillo contractor, whose hobby is making things from wood, brought a telephone call from Mrs. Carl Cederholm, wife of the county tax assessor-collector.

Mrs. Cederholm wished to tell us that they were personally acquainted with Mr. Hobson while residing in Amarillo a few years ago, and that he once presented them with a wooden cigarette box which he had made. "We've visited in his home often and have seen a number of the articles he has made," said Mrs. Cederholm.

The resourceful Post Jaycoes have hit upon a plan to advertise their reflector tape program and the mass chest X-ray survey at the same time. On Friday, Aug. 7, the day before the mobile X-ray unit comes to Post, the Jaycoes will use a loudspeaker to urge everyone to have chest X-rays made, at the same time reminding all within hearing range of their automobile and truck safety tape project.

Another local organization "getting on the ball" in connection with a forthcoming event is the Lions Club, which has plans under way to sponsor a Garza County Fair on Sept. 28 and 29. A preliminary meeting already has been held, and the Lions carried on further discussion of the project at their Tuesday evening meeting.

Another season of Boy Scout and Cub Scout encampments has ended at C. W. Post Memorial Scout Camp, which probably brings Post more favorable advertising than any other asset the city has. Hundreds of Boy Scouts and Cubs were at Camp Post throughout the month of June, and they'll remember for a

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week

Anti-Gravity Alloys May Be Coming; Would Revolutionize Manufacturing, Distribution

BABSON PARK, Mass.—Enemy number one is not Communism or any other "ism." Enemy number one is WEIGHT. I don't refer to your weight or my weight. We all can control this by the simple method of eating less, and thus avoiding "second-helpingitis." Instead, I am referring today to the cost of transportation, amounting to over 100 billion dollars a year, of which I estimate 80% is due to the WEIGHT of goods and not to the labor and other costs.

Whatever we eat, wear, or use as a home starts from the forests, mines or farms. At these points of origin the costs are very low. For instance, standing timber sells for $200 per cord; coal in the mine sells for $1.00 per ton; and a bushel of wheat on the farm for only about $2.00. We pay ten times these costs after they are transported to our home or breakfast table. If weight could be reduced 85% I believe the cost of living would tumble 70%.

This brings me to my hobby of Gravity which is the cause of this wasteful weight. Thus far no insulator, absorber, or reflector of Gravity has been discovered, but this will be accomplished someday. All other forces, such as light, sound, fire, odor, electricity, magnetism, x-rays and even atomic rays can be shut off. Metallurgists will soon discover a means of partially insulating or reflecting Gravity waves. This discovery will revolutionize manufacturing, transportation and distribution.

Nothing To Worry About

Some people fear that if we interfere with Gravity they would rise to the ceiling of the room or, if out-of-doors, disappear in the skies. There is absolutely no danger of this. The same fears were expressed when our first ancestors discovered fire and later when Franklin tried to harness lightning. When a partial insulator or reflector of Gravity is discovered it can be controlled as well as fire or electricity or atomic rays. Furthermore, this discovery will be accomplished safely whether the Gravity

NOW FOR BETTER SERVICE

Reorganization of the General Telephone Company of the Southwest has placed the Post Exchange in the Lamesa District, which is a part of the newly-created Western Division with offices in Brownfield. Were it not for the fact that better telephone service has been promised as a result of the change, the reorganization would create hardly more than a ripple outside telephone circles.

"Our primary objective," said Walter G. Wright, president of the company, "is to improve the service to our customers and we expect to achieve this by placing more responsibility and authority in the field closer to our telephone users."

Meeting here a few months ago with Post city officials and other citizens, representatives of the telephone company at that time promised improved service once the reorganization became effective—July 1, 1953.

The Post Dispatch carried a news story containing that promise following the meeting here, and the company president's promise, quoted above, was made in a news release sent this newspaper as an announcement of the July 1 reorganization. So, with these two promises to go on, the customers have every right to expect the improvement in service which they deserve.

The average customer is fair enough to give the company ample time to improve its service now that the reorganization has been effected, but if that improvement is not forthcoming, he has a right to feel that the change benefitted no one more than the telephone company itself.

A PUBLICIZED SERMON . . .

Probably the most widely-publicized sermon in the nation Sunday was the one the pastor delivered in the tiny Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church in the small town of Thurmont, Md.

The reason this sermon stood head and shoulders above the thousands of others delivered Sunday was because President Eisenhower unexpectedly dropped in at that tiny church to worship. He heard the small-town minister charge that international distrust and the high national crime rate are symptoms of the failure to achieve spiritual independence.

Every Sunday, thousands of inspiring sermons are delivered in churches throughout the nation. It's a pity that a national figure has to drop in on one of them unexpectedly before the message it betrays can reach more than a handful of people.

long time the enjoyable outing provided by the camp's facilities.

H. H. (Henry) Tate, city utilities superintendent, said last weekend that he felt as if a heavy load had been lifted off his shoulders with installation of the new booster pump at the city pump station. Henry probably realized more than anyone else the seriousness of the situation when sections of the city were virtually without water because of low pressure, and always a danger of a major fire or other emergency.

The speed with which city employees installed the pump and got it into operation surprised many, including the workers themselves. "We were a tired and dirty bunch when we got through," said Mayor T. L. Jones, who was just as happy about it as Henry or anyone else.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

Hollywood's different — there the more a girl struggles the less chance she has for success.

Young pullet upon laying her first egg: "It might be a good breakfast for some folks, but it's a pain in the $&% for me!"

The trouble with a great many of us is that in trying times we stop trying.

I think I've found, in the following article about the best description of a GOOD newspaper editor I've ever run across. Most of us are like the present Dispatch editor's wife. After living with Charlie for something like 15 years, she once remarked to a sympathetic friend, "I knew when I married him he was a newspaper man, but I DIDN'T know then what a newspaper man was."

Here's the description we ran across in the current issue of "The Echo," published in the State Prison Print Shop in Austin:

A GOOD editor must be one whose editorial policy agrees with the ideas of hundreds of others, no two of whom reason alike. He must refrain from expressing his personal views lest he be accused of foisting silly opinions best kept to himself, yet he must be neither a parrot nor a copy-cat. He must write only good news of those in high places, yet hold the interest of his readers, most of whom relish nothing but bad news about those in authority.

He must make no enemies lest he finds all news sources closed against him; nor dare he make friends lest it seem they are influencing the policy of his publication. He must be thickskinned as a rhinoceros, to withstand the barbs of outspoken critics; yet acutely sensitive to every vagrant breeze that might develop into a tornado of general disapproval.

He must write forcefully, pulling no punches, without incurring the displeasure of those punched. He must be tactful without deceit; deceitful without being caught. He must paint a vivid, colorful picture with gray paint.

He must have some education, also historic ability to conceal his knowledge, lest he be termed superior by his writers and readers. He must give an honest opinion on rejected copy without offending the contributor. He must be fearless in his opinions, but his opinions must agree with those of his interrogator—yet he must not jeopardize the integrity of his publication by being two-faced. This good Editor never makes an error. He can ride two horses in opposite directions at the same time. He does this while straddling a fence with both ears to the ground, meanwhile keeping his shoulder to the wheel.

These, my friends, are the qualifications of a GOOD editor—and you can see why there never has been and never will be one.

THE WOMEN. God Love 'Em—their most popular labor-saving device is still a husband with money.

The trouble with people saying they hope they're not intruding is that they usually are.

The youngsters of America have young heroes, a survey of 10,000 boys and girls of 8 through 18 shows. Elizabeth Taylor, Eddie Fisher, Vic Damone, Jerry Lewis and Mickey Mantle came out as favorites. Long established singers like Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra trailed, as did baseball stars in their 30's like Stan Musial, Ralph Kiner and Ted Williams.

Young Robin Roberts and Eddie Matthews also did well in the survey conducted by the Youth Research Institute, a private organization. Maureen Connelly, 18, tennis star was the most popular woman athlete. Sen. John Kennedy, 35, showed up well in competition with the better known Eisenhower, Truman, Taft and Stevenson.

On the other hand, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in the older group came out as the most popular woman in the country over younger competition. But in the glamor department Marilyn Monroe was favored over older Zsa Zsa Gabor and Jane Russell with Grandma Marlene Dietrich far down the list. The attitude among the youngsters was found to be that young stars and public figures were more like themselves and understood their likes better, says Lester Rand, president of the Institute.

It's remarkable that there is so much trouble left in the world when so many people are looking for it.

A farmer who had sat down next to a pretty young lady on a train noticed that she kept fighting a losing battle to keep her skirts down over her knees. After watching her struggle for some time, he leaned over and said slowly, "Don't stretch your

THE AMERICAN WAY

Getting The Point

Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Realistic Reporting

In our 23 years of off and on newspapering, we note a trend toward too realistic reporting in the press . . . especially in the metropolitan newspapers. Recently the South Plains were "treated" to two sensational murder trials involving the baser human emotions, and the reporting, as we see it, was TOO excellent . . . leaving little to the imagination. The reports we read were well written, giving the reader a kiss in intimate report that beat sitting in a hot courtroom. — O'Donnell Index-Press.

Trying To Mimic Us

Just last week, we told you about a wind storm moving at a rate of some 85 miles per hour hitting Nashville, Tenn. As they had not had a rain in the past 24 hours or so, there was a lot of dust to be kicked up. And the item stated that it almost strangled the Nashvillians. So, this week friend Jacob Sandage of south Terry brought in his Heber Springs, Ark., paper, which stated that a man in the area had cut his hay and left it on the ground. A huge wind struck the field and carried away, not only every sprig of the hay, but a lot of the soil in addition. What are those Arkansawyers and Tennessees ans trying to do? Mimic West Texas? Well, they'll have to get some winds together that cover more territory than a hay field or a city.—Terry County Herald.

Last week one of the boys got industrious and cleaned off all the desks in the front office, including the table on which we compose the sterling prose you are now reading. Aside from the confusion this created, what with no one being used to seeing any bare space on their work tops,

This is the time of year for family, county, lodge, church, club and other picnics, with Mackenzie State Park at Lubbock as one of the most popular outing sites in the area. Hardly a week passes that this newspaper doesn't receive advance publicity on coming county reunions scheduled for the big state park. I heard a fellow tell the other day of a rather amusing, but troublesome, mix-up in connection with one of the reunions of former residents of some down-state county. It seems that a Lubbock man, who hadn't read the papers any too closely, went to a great deal of trouble to load his family into his automobile, and head out down-state for a visit with kin-folks. When he arrived at the place where his relatives lived, he found their house locked as tight as a jug and was told by neighbors that they had left only a few hours before for Lubbock to attend a reunion of former residents of the county in which they lived.

Ambition is a thing to be shunned. Take the example of the street cleaner who was over-ambitious and got his face kicked in.

Laundry's Done In 1/2 The Time

When you have an Automatic Gas Dryer

Gas drying is the fastest drying there is! Fast as you wash — GAS dries faster. Saves money, too, because a gas dryer is the most economical dryer to install, by far the thriftiest to operate. If you own an automatic washer, you need an automatic dryer. And when you buy your dryer — make sure it's GAS! Cut your laundry work in half! Why not ask your dealer to install an automatic gas dryer in your home?

Lions Club Ranks High In District

The Post Lions Club was one of 33 in District 27-1, Lions International, which showed an increase in membership in the fiscal year just closed.

Of 79 clubs in the district, the Post club ranks 57th in size, with a present membership of 27—only one less than its all-time high total of 28.

The Post club also has three key members, who receive that honor by outstanding work in membership activities. They are Virgil Short, new president; Ernest Pierce and N. W. Stone.

Although 57th in size, the Post club ranked ninth in the district in ladies' projects to earn money to help equip the kitchen at the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children, Kerrville. Post Lionesses raised a total of $35.85 for this purpose through a bake sale.

The Post club also ranked 42nd in average attendance during the past fiscal year, with a 69.51 percentage.

Weaver Morman, secretary of the Post club was one of the club secretaries in the district with a 100 per cent record for monthly club reports.

Masonic Officers Installed Here

New officers of the Post Masonic Lodge, to serve during the ensuing year, were installed at last Thursday night's meeting at the lodge hall. Lester Nichols was installing officer.

New elective officers are: Wilburn Morris, worshipful master; Walton McQueen, senior warden; Luther Bilberry, junior warden; Ira L. Duckworth, treasurer; Lewis Price, secretary; and R. B. Dodson, tiler.

Appointive officers installed were: Billy Bigham, senior deacon; Alva Lee Hawkins, junior deacon; L. H. Welch, chaplain; Fibber McGee, senior steward; and Lester Nichols, junior steward.

INSPECTS DROUGHT LAND—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson, at Lubbock, Texas, to address the American Cotton Congress, made a personal tour of part of the drought area examining the farm and pasture land. Benson gets the feel of the dry soil as he inspected some land between the towns of Tahoka and Brownfield, Texas.

Families With Determination Usually Find A Way To Become Farm Owners

The young family seeking to become a farm owner in Texas today seldom is heard to say "no help wanted." Acquiring title to a modern family-size unit requires a sizeable chunk of capital, and this, says C. H. Bates, farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, is not always easy to get. But, he adds, families with determination usually find a way to turn the trick.

This financial assistance is obtained from many sources and the specialist cites information obtained from a recently made study in Virginia on where this help comes from. In a majority of cases in that state, financial aid was provided young farmers by their parents or families. Some of the help was in the form of inheritance, family financing or the privilege of working on the home farm. The family help factor in the main was in the form of an assist for acquiring more land when the start was made on a small scale.

A big factor in becoming an owner, independent of family help, was non-farm employment during prosperous times, says Bates. Farmers worked in industries and saved enough to make the down payment on their desired farm. The average down payment, in the Virginia study, was about 40 per cent of the total cost. The balance on the purchased farm was obtained from individuals, commercial banks, life insurance companies and the Federal Land Bank.

Farm tenancy, says Bates, remains a factor in the process of becoming a farm owner but is not so important as it once was. Some young families find it easier, he explains, to put their available capital into machinery, equipment and livestock and rent land until they are able to purchase the farm of their choice. Experience has taught, he says, that good returns can be made on rented farms if they are operated under a sound rental agreement. This means that costs of such items as livestock, fertilizers, soil improvement practices and seed for legumes used for soil improvement and in some cases machinery and needed improvements on the farm are shared by the tenant and owner. Bates believes this is a good system to follow in growing into a farm owner and says it proves the old adage "there's more in the man than in the land" that influences success.

Bird Wins Day Money At Stamford Rodeo

Two Post rodeo performers, Jimmy Bird and Jimmy Moore, made good showings last weekend in the 23rd annual Texas Cowboy Reunion Rodeo at Stamford.

Bird was a day money winner in the calf roping event with a time of 11.4 seconds. Moore was a second place day money winner in the saddle bronc riding contest.

A number of other performers from this area competed in the Stamford rodeo, which annually attracts topnotch riders and ropers from throughout the Southwest.

O'Donnell Rodeo Is Set For Three Days

O'DONNELL — The O'Donnell Roping Club's annual three-day rodeo opens today, with performances scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

A street parade will be held at 6 p. m. each day. A feature of the parade will be a scale model Santa Fe train, which will run under its own power. There will also be riding groups, chuck wagon, 75-year-old buggy, the O'Donnell High School band, and other attractions.

The rodeo, open to non-professionals only — will include sponsor's contest, calf roping, bronc saddle and bareback riding, bull riding, double mugging, and special events. There will be $1,950 in prizes for the contestants.

The stock will be furnished by "Goat" Mayo of Petrolia, producer of the rodeo.

Girls' Names Bring Mail For Males

ATLANTA (AP) — The United States Marine Corps has invited Gene Van Buskirk and Arden Smith to enlist, hinting that being a Marine is better than being drafted.

But both girls, who recently graduated from Atlanta's Henry Grady High School declined with thanks after receiving promotional material from the Marine Recruiters.

Arden reported she was "sort of shocked" when she saw the envelopes marked "official business for that of a man." She said she once received an offer for a free trial of an electric razor.

Gene said she has received many letters addressed "Mr. Van Buskirk," principally from colleges.

The girls ordinarily don't mind, but both said their confusing names did cause them to miss out on several gifts which Atlanta business firms sent to other girl graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mathis have returned home after visiting her brother, A. E. Smith, at Austin and other relatives in Hillsboro, Itasca and Fort Worth.

HD Club Meets In Lonnie Peel Home

Close City Home Demonstration Club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Lonnie Peel. The July 4th theme was emphasized in games played by the group and each member answered roll call by naming the one freedom she enjoys most.

After a short business discussion, the hostess gave a demonstration on the preparation of salad. Refreshments of congealed salad, crackers, cookies and punch were served to five members.

The next meeting is scheduled for July 15 in the school lunchroom. All members are urged to attend and reminded that this is the last meeting for the unit until September.

Church News

The Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Blackburn will be teaching in all our services this coming Lord's Day. We were far below normal in numbers in all services last Lord's Day, but we were really up in spirit. A good spirit prevailed in all the services. The morning sermon subject Sunday will be "The Upward Look" (Col. 3:1-4). At the evening hour the subject will be "What Is Right and What Is Wrong" (Isa. 62:10). These services of worship are planned carefully and prayerfully for the spiritual welfare of all who will come and worship. A welcome awaits you. Visitors are always welcome and our motto is "where the visitor is never a stranger."

A large crowd attended the fellowship supper and "pounding" for the pastor's family, at the Methodist Church Monday evening.

The Rev. E. L. Terry, pastor, is conducting a revival meeting at the Church of God. Everyone is invited to the services at 8 o'clock each evening.

Mrs. J. R. Durrett directed the program at WSCS Monday morning at the Church.

The schedule of services at the local Church of God have been announced by the Rev. E. L. Terry as follows: Wednesday and Sunday evening services, 8 o'clock; Sunday School at 10 a. m., morning worship, 11 o'clock and children's church at 6:30 p. m.

The Rev. Charles Gates is announcing that he will speak on "The Three Crowns" at the Sunday morning worship service. His evening theme will be "The Sower, Reaper and the Harvest."

National Farm Safety Week Set For July 19-25 By Ike's Proclamation

Garza County rural residents have had a part in reduction of farm accidents 20 per cent during the ten years that National Farm Safety Week has been observed. County Agent Lewis Heron said this week.

This reduction is a real achievement, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, but adds that farming remains a hazardous occupation. Some 15,000 farm people will lose their lives as a result of accidents during 1953 unless they practice safety in their daily living.

Two Post Youths To Receive Lone Star Farmer Degrees

The high point of this year's FFA convention for 652 Future Farmers will be the presentation of their Lone Star Farmer degrees—a goal for which they have been working for more than two years. Sixty four of the 652 boys are from this area of the state.

The Post applicants are Kenneth Wayne Rogers and Ralph Bernard Welch.

President Eisenhower in the Safety Week Proclamation, July 19-25, points out that last year more than a million and a quarter farm residents cooperated in an all-out effort to make 1953 as accident free as possible. "Farm to Live and Live to Farm" is the way he puts it.

According to the State Committee the immediate objective of the week is to arouse interest and increase participation in the community approach to the problem of safe living. The long-time objective is to make rural residents so conscious of accidents and their causes that through their own efforts the agricultural industry can be made as safe as other industries of the nation.

History proves, explains the state committee, that much good is derived from the observance of safety week but after the concerted effort begins to lose steam, the accident rate begins to climb. The committee hopes that community organizations will keep up the steam and even increase the pressure during every week in the year. They feel that when farmers, ranchers and their families, working individually and collectively, set their minds to solving the accident problems that further reductions can be made and eventually farm accidents can be made as scarce as the proverbial "hen's teeth."

ALL IN THE FAMILY
SUNSET, Tex. (AP)—Two businesses have been sold in this North Texas town—but it's all in the family. Raymond Jackson sold his grocery to a brother, Holis Jackson, Connie Jackson sold his garage and gasoline business to his cousin, Raymond Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Sweeten and sons fished last week at Uvalde.
Mitchell Bowen and family of Brownwood spent the weekend here visiting relatives. They are former residents of Post.

Presentation of the degrees will be made at the Lone Star Farmer banquet July 23, during the 25th annual Future Farmer convention scheduled for July 22-24 in the Texas Hotel at Ft. Worth. Three thousand delegates representing the 40,000 Texas Future Farmers are expected to attend this celebration of the organization's silver anniversary.

Qualifications for becoming a Lone Star Farmer include 24 months of instruction in vocational agriculture, an outstanding program of supervised farming, an investment of at least $250, outstanding leadership ability, and a satisfactory scholarship record.

Monte Griffin of Lamesa, who was chosen 1953 Star Farmer from the 64 Lone Star Farmer degree applicants from this area will be honored at the banquet.

The applicants from the surrounding area are as follows: De Wood Blagrove, Delbert Joe Davidson and Travis Fryar, Big Spring; Earl Brown, Jr., John Burnett, Joe Foshee, Dickie Green, Corkey Lasiter, Van Perry and Tommy Winn, all of Brownfield; Bobby Holman, Jay Humphreys, Bobby Northcutt, Charles Small, Elvin Stainson and Tommy Walker, all of Colorado City; Glenn Howard, Kenneth Walters and Kenneth Weeks, Dawson; R. E. Covington, Fabens; James Berger and Don Holecomb, Flower Grove.

Bryant Harris, Garden City; Kenneth Lane and Bill Thomas, Haskell; Richard Lacey and Gary Monroe, Iraan; Eldon Reese Smith, Jayton; Robert Barron, Melvin Fielder, Shelby Graham, Monte Griffin, Bud Hale and Reames Shofner, all of Lamesa; Lewis Allen Jones, David L. Lie and David Neal Todd, Loop; Jim Castleberry, Billy Reese and W. D. Warren, Meadow.

Also Lewis Earl Eisenwine, Pecos; Jessie Silba, Rochester; Jimmy Counts, Walter Miles and Ted Posey, Rotan; Kent Dunnam, Dean Quade and Travis Townsend, Rule; Pinky Carruthers, and Glynn Chandler, Sanderson; Bill Phinizy, Lamesa; Charles E. ## Our Terrible Thirst

If your town doesn't have to worry about its water supply, you're lucky. A lot of towns do.

Trouble is, some communities never dreamed that they might double and triple in size, that new industries would come to town, that citizens would use more water than ever before. We've reached the point where we use about 1190 gallons per person a day in the United States.

Yet why should water be short when 25 times our needs falls from the skies every year?

Unhappily, it doesn't always fall when and where we need it most. Many reservoirs were built with no idea that towns would grow so fast. And 75% of our communities rely on water from lakes and streams. Today many of these are polluted and require treatment before use.

When faced with a shortage, cities suddenly discover to their sorrow that new water sources take time to complete.

For years General Electric has contributed toward development of better and more efficient water-works equipment. This is not so unusual, since motors and other electric equipment are important in water systems, large or small.

Some of the things we've learned about water supply, and the related problem of water pollution, have been put together in motion pictures and booklets, prepared in cooperation with the U. S. Public Health Service. Any town fathers who are interested in what's available can write to General Electric, Room 123-2, Schenectady 5, N. Y.

School System Reorganization Was Result Of Salaries Fight

(This is the first in a series of three articles explaining the minimum foundation, or Gilmer-Aikin, school program. The writer was a member of the original Gilmer-Aikin Committee, has been superintendent of schools at Texarkana for 33 years and is chairman of the Texas State Teachers Association's legislative committee.)

By H. W. STILWELL
A 1947 legislative fight over teachers' salaries led to complete reorganization in 1949 of Texas' public school system and gave the state, almost overnight, a high ranking in education.

Texasans had been working toward such a goal for more than a century. Mirabeau B. Lamar and Sam Houston both had urged high quality, state-supported public schools. The State Constitution directs the Legislature to "establish and make suitable provision for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools."

Three years after Houston's victory at San Jacinto, the state made the first important provisions for appropriating lands to be used in establishing a permanent endowment for a public school system. Texans have sought better schools ever since; passage of the Gilmer-Aikin school reform laws in 1949 climaxed a long struggle.

In 1947, when the Legislature studied a proposed $2,000 minimum salary for teachers, its attention was called to the rising cost of education, the failure of the public schools to reach nearly one-third of the school age children in Texas and unsatisfactory methods of distributing state funds for education. These things, coupled with a shortage of qualified teachers and the prospect of a rapidly growing population, prompted the late Gov. Beauford Jester to suggest a comprehensive study of public education.

Sen. A. M. Aikin, jr., of Paris and Rep. Claud Gilmer of Rocksprings sponsored a resolution which created an 18-member committee to make such a study. This committee, of which former Sen. James E. Taylor of Kevenus was chairman, worked for 18 months—and drew on the advice and suggestions of an estimated 100,000 laymen—before making recommendations to the Legislature and to the Governor.

This resulted in the introduction of the three Gilmer-Aikin school system. Texans have sought better schools ever since; passage of the Gilmer-Aikin school reform laws in 1949 climaxed a long struggle.

Under the minimum foundation program, every child of school age in Texas is guaranteed a minimum standard of education, including nine months of schooling a year. More than 400 school districts had previously had shorter school years.

The cost of the program depends on school attendance, which determines the number of teachers to be employed and the amount of operating costs; the training and experience of teachers, which determines their positions on the salary scale, and the number of school children transported in school buses, which determines the transportation costs.

Thus, the cost of education can rise only in proportion to the increase in the number of children attending school and the standard of teachers employed. State financial assistance is provided in accordance with local communities' ability to support public education. This ability is measured by use of an economic index formula set forth in the law.

The minimum foundation program sets certain bare minimum standards for the public schools. These standards, below which no school can fall, determine the amount of money needed. Each local district contributes to the cost in proportion to its ability, and the state then provides the additional money needed to maintain these minimum standards.

(Next Week: "Services Provided by the Program.")

Texas Farm Income Is Off 18 Per Cent

AUSTIN (Sp.) — Texas farm income for the first five months of 1953 totaled $546,000,000—18 per cent below the same period last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Some commodities showed increases this year. Wheat earnings rose 15 per cent; oats, 96 per cent; and sheep and lambs, 70 per cent. Eggs, fruits and vegetables, and poultry accounted for smaller gains.

Other commodities registered income declines, ranging from milk and milk products (3 per cent) to cottonseed (69 per cent). The drop in cotton income, which accounted for almost half the total reduction, was 34 per cent by the end of May.

LEAVING ICC—M. W. Splawn, former University of Texas president who has been a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission for 20 years. He is retiring at the age of 70. He is returning to Texas not to idleness but to write a book on economics and later, perhaps, his memoirs.

Snyder Rodeo To Open On July 15

With a total of $3,400 in cash prizes offered contestants, the 17th annual Scurry County Rodeo will get under way at Snyder on Wednesday, July 15, and continue through the following Saturday. The rodeo is open to non-professionals only.

Performances will begin at 8 o'clock each night. Events will include yearling tie-down, calf roping, junior ribbon roping, junior steer riding, junior saddle-pur race, steer riding, cutting horse contest, bronc riding, bare-back riding, wild mare race and senior sponsor contest.

Rodeo officials are: Billy Boren, president; Garrett Harrell, vice president; O. D. McGlaun, secretary; Bill Riley, arena director; and Jess Everett, M. F. Bell and J. N. Eicke, directors.

Timekeepers will be Jim York and Buddy Trevey.

University Offering Study In Astronomy

AUSTIN (Sp.) — The University of Texas will begin offering a major study in astronomy this fall.

Undergraduate students will be able to spend at least one summer at the University's famed W. J. McDonald Astronomical Observatory, located in the Davis mountains near Fort Davis. There they will assist in research programs, operating the equipment under direction of outstanding astronomers.

Students seeking Bachelor of Arts degrees and majoring in astronomy must take four regular academic years of work at the Main University; the summer work at McDonald being optional.

The astronomy program will train students for scientific work necessary in preparing time and navigation tables, investigating sunspot effects on radio and television transmission, seeking new information about this universe and others, and preparing for the possibility of eventual space travel.

Accident Victim Will Leave Hospital Soon

A. A. Suits, Post rural route mail carrier, who was injured in an automobile collision several weeks ago north of town on the Lubbock highway, is still in Garza Memorial Hospital, but his condition is greatly improved.

Suits has his right arm in a cast and is waiting for a brace to be made for his left leg before leaving the hospital.

He was visited Sunday by his son, Gordon Suits of Amarillo, and by his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Suits of Petersburg. Other recent visitors included Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dyer of Muleshoe, friends of Mr.

increase to 542 the number of looms at the local mill. This would result in a large increase in employment at the Post mill, Harris said.

R. J. Jennings, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, has assumed his duties as new manager of the Postex Mill. He replaces O. G. Murphy. Another new employee is W. C. Knowles, master mechanic, formerly of Tallahassee, Ala.

The mill recently re-opened after its annual one-week vacation.

Gibson Rites Are Held Here Friday

Funeral services for E. N. (Slick) Gibson, 52, who died Wednesday night of last week in Garza Memorial Hospital after a week's illness, were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church here.

The Revs. L. H. Welch and Gerald N. Blackburn officiated. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of the Mason Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Bud Mason, T. F. Davis, Richard Vardiman, George Childers, H. W. Schmidt, Lester Nichols, Carl Hughes and Earl Wrestler.

Members of the Post Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Gibson was also a member, sat in a group at the services as honorary pallbearers.

Mr. Gibson, a pumpjack for the General American Oil Company, moved to Post from Sundown in 1946. He was a native of Forney, Tex., and a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Gibson was taken to the hospital June 25 after suffering a heart attack.

Survivors are his wife; two children, James and Patsy; three step-children, Darrell Benson of Levelland, Sgt. Ted Benson of the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Lawson AFB, Moses Lake, Wash., and Mrs. Frances Covington of Post; his father, J. M. Gibson of Petrolia; two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Tinsley of Petrolia and Mrs. R. R. Dugger of Henrietta; a brother, Jimmie Gibson of Petrolia, and two grandchildren.

First Cotton Blooms Of Season Displayed

Garza County's first cotton blooms of the season were being displayed Friday by Glen M. Davis, whose farm is eight miles southwest of Post.

Twelve forms were counted on one of the two stalks displayed by Davis. The irrigated cotton is of the Marvelous Cluster type and was planted April 27.

Davis says he has five other acres up just like it, and that he has 60 irrigated acres in all.

J. E. Adams Dies At Home Friday

Last rites for Joseph Euel Adams were read at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in Calvary Baptist Church with the Rev. Shelby Bishop, pastor, and the Rev. Come Merritt of Snyder officiating.

Mason Funeral Home directed burial in Terrace Cemetery.

Mr. Adams died at his home here at 10:45 a. m. Friday following several years ill health. He was born Oct. 25, 1894 in Mathiston, Miss., and he and Mrs. Adams, whom he married in 1917, came to Post from Selma, Ala. He retired from his job at the Postex Mills five years ago.

He had been a member of the Baptist Church for 20 years.

Survivors are his wife, Montee; two daughters, Mrs. Velma Lanford of Seminole and Mrs. Thelma Cole of Graham; and a son, Carl Adams.

Pallbearers were Vester Smith, W. B. Sanders, DeWitt Caylor, Lew Baker, Ben Mathis and Pat Henderson.

Flower girls were Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Howard Ferguson, Mrs. Dale Stone, Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. W. B. Sanders, Mrs. Pat Henderson, Miss Thelma Clark and Miss Wilma Johnston.

1954 Marketing Quota On Wheat Established

A national marketing quota on the 1954 crop of wheat has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Benson. As soon as the date of the wheat referendum has been determined, the Garza County Production and Marketing Administration office will be advised, said Mike Custer, county PMA officer.

Custer said the office here has already received its referendum material.

der the drouth relief program at $35 a ton, which is about half the normal price. This gives $1.75 a sack.

The drouth relief committee of Claude E. Spence, Lewis Heron, Perry Walker, Avery Moore, Jr., and O. L. Weakley met at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at the PMA office to begin processing the applications for cottonseed pellets and cake.

Custer said applications already had been received for the three carloads of corn arriving today, but that all requests for relief would be granted as far as possible.

The State USDA Drouth Committee, working through the county committees, is determining whether there is need for emergency grain or cottonseed meal or pellets and, if so, the location of distribution centers in the designated disaster counties and the amount and kind of feed required at each center.

Individual needs will be certified by an authorized member of the County USDA Drouth Committee. There is no intention to provide feed for those who have feed, for whom farming or ranching is only a sideline, or for commercial feeders other than for short periods which may be necessary for marketing cattle now in feed lots.

Portage Of Riders Hurting Stampede Parades To Win In Area Rodeo Parades

There are not having enough to really make a first winner impression lately. Stampede Cowboys were invited this week by Bill Long, one of the directors, who was asking that the riders will part in the O'Donnell Rodeo parade at 6 p. m. Friday.

The Post riders have failed to score in a parade since coping first place at Tahoka several weeks ago. The principal reason for the unimpressive showings is that so few riders have participated. Only 11 members of the group went to the Possum Kingdom Roundup at Graham, where some of the outstanding mounted units of the area paraded in full force.

Three trophies are being offered first, second, third place winners at O'Donnell, and local riders are urged to turn out and help bring home one of the prizes.

The Stampede Cowboys will load out at the rodeo grounds at 2:30 p. m. Friday. After arriving in O'Donnell, they will be treated to a "feed" at the O'Donnell Hotel an hour before the parade is to begin.

The Stampede Cowboys rode in the parade opening the Leveillard Jaycee Rodeo last Thursday. Other July appearances will be at Lamesa and Spur.

Wood Bees Defeat Boosters; Meet Independents Sunday

The Post Wood Bees, who overwhelmed the Lubbock Independents, 23 to 6, here Sunday afternoon, meet the Lubbock Boosters this Sunday afternoon on the Post Mill diamond. Manager Oscar Garner announces.

In defeating the Independents Sunday the Post nine bested its season record to nine victories against three setbacks. In the Boosters this Sunday afternoon, they will be meeting one of Lubbock's strongest semi-pro teams.

The largest crowd of the season was on hand Sunday to see the Wood Bees win over the Independents behind the hurrying of Garner. The locals failed to score in their half of the first inning after the visitors had taken a 1-0 lead, but collected five tallies in the second inning, and were never headed.

The Wood Bees went on to score three in the third, ten in a fifth inning uprising, three in the sixth and two in the seventh.

Meanwhile, Garner was keeping the Independents' 12 base hits well scattered. They scored a couple of runs in the third, the same number in the fifth, and a single tally in the eighth.

Garner and Shortstop "Shorty" Hester led the Wood Bees batting attack. Garner collected three one-base blows and two walks in five trips, and Hester got three singles and walked twice in six trips.

Gossett Funeral Conducted Sunday At Hobbs Church

Funeral services for George Gossett, 61, a former resident of the Graham Community, were held in the Hobbs, N. M., Church of Christ at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Burial was in a Hobbs cemetery.

Mr. Gossett, a brother of the late J. N. Gossett, died at the home of a sister, Mrs. J. T. Jackson, after a long illness.

His survivors are one son, Jesse Gossett, of Iowa and 12 brothers and sisters.

Attending the rites from Post were Mrs. J. N. Gossett and her daughters, Mrs. John Wallace and Mrs. Elmer Cowdrey. Glenn Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel.

Former Resident Killed In Wreck

Charles Hord of Fresno, Calif., and formerly of Southland, was killed in an automobile accident near Selma, Calif., Friday night. Other occupants of the car were his wife, and a son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donnell Hord and baby.

The accident occurred while the family was en route to Lubbock to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hord, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Hord and sons, J. D., Jr., Frank and John left for Selma upon receiving word of the tragedy.

Other survivors are two daughters, and three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Richards of Lubbock, Mrs. Ruby Tipton of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Otis Neal of Slaton.

Former Resident Burned In Blast

The condition of Mrs. Jimmie Lee Fitzgerald, former Garza County resident, who was critically burned Saturday in an explosion at her home in Grand Prairie, was reported improved Tuesday.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, the daughter of Mrs. Vivian Hudman of Slaton and the late Jim Hudman, suffered severe burns when a hot water heater exploded. She was the only one home at the time, her husband and their child having gone for a ride.

Mrs. Fitzgerald lived with her parents in the Gordon Community for several years. Following her marriage to Jim Fitzgerald of Slaton, they resided there until moving to Grand Prairie a little over a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brewster and Mrs. Hansford Hudman went to Grand Prairie Monday to be with their injured niece.

Bank Deposits in Decline From '52

Deposits in the First National Bank of Post at the close of business June 30 totaled $4,056,504.50, according to a statement of condition published in response to a call made by the Comptroller of the Currency.

The current deposits are $236,204.35 less than they were at the same time last year when the statement of condition showed a total of $4,298,708.85.

Deposits at the close of business April 30 totaled $4,484,051.87, and on Dec. 31, 1952, were $4,955,736.20.

Loans and discounts on June 30 of this year were $1,018,282.70, as compared with $966,055.46 at the same time last year.

Improvements Being Made At Cafeteria

New counters and shelves are being built at the school lunch room by J. C. Johnson, Post carpenter, according to D. C. Arthur, superintendent of schools.

Following completion of the lunch room improvements, new book checking counters will be built in the grade school and high school libraries, Arthur said.

Shooting Of Antelope Brings Arrest, Fine

AUSTIN (Sp1) — Thriving antelope herds up in the Texas Panhandle are causing itchy fingers with resultant penalties, according to the Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission.

He had particular reference to disclose that two antelope, shot on the Matador Ranch in Motley County, brought a $422 fine and costs against a Dickens County cotton gin operator.

Warden W. V. Riddle of Lubbock who with Warden Cecil Fox of Spur handled the case, said others apparently were implicated but that the suspect said he wanted "to take the blame."

The gin manager was arrested after the wardens, armed with a search warrant, found two antelope heads and hides and four feet in the incinerator.

Riddle said the man was "pretty unhappy because of the heavy fine and because, after all, the meat hadn't been any good and had been fed to his dogs."

Stampede Cowboys Invited To Pampa

It's a "fur piece" from Post to Pampa, but the Post Stampede Cowboys are among the riding clubs being invited to participate in this year's Top of Texas Rodeo parade at 4 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 5.

Invitations to participate in the parade are being extended to all towns with riding clubs, according to Holly Gray, chairman of the parade committee.

Gray has also issued a call for all types of frontier and cowboy parade entries. He said that his committee is particularly interested in chuck wagons, covered wagons, buggies, surreys, oxcarts, and anything of a frontier nature. A beautiful trophy will be awarded to the best ranch or frontier type parade entry.

Last year's Top of Texas Rodeo parade attracted 1,000 horses and other parade entries.

STOCK SHIPMENTS OFF
AUSTIN (Sp1) — May livestock shipments in Texas decreased 31 per cent from April but the total of 4,318 carloads was still 8 per cent more than May 1952 shipments, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Now! Power Steering for as low as $134<sup>40</sup>

Ford brings you the lowest priced power steering in its field ... and the finest in power steering at that!

We all know the advantages of power steering. Most of us would like it. And now many more of us can afford it! By spending testing time and development money, Ford brings you Master-Guide power steering for nearly three quarters the price of any other system in its field. For the facts, read the captions on this page. For a thrill, Test Drive Master-Guide power steering in the Ford!

So simple ... So safe!
Blowouts become less risky with Ford Master-Guide power steering. It helps you steer to a safe straight-line stop. And power steering helps you park easier, too ... does up to 75% of the work for you!

And, because Ford's Master-Guide power steering has a more natural "feel" than many others, you don't have to change your driving habits radically. The steering gear ratio is the same as without power steering and the hydraulic system gives you the right assistance when you need it.

Worth more when you buy it ... Worth more when you sell it!
