$500 Over State Pay

By CHARLES DIDWAY
All the principals and all the teachers except three were re-elected and salaries of $500 above state salary schedules voted most of them at Monday night's meeting of the board of trustees of Post Consolidated Independent School District.

Since salaries of most of the teachers already were $306 above the state schedule, the across-the-board increase voted Monday night amounted to $194. With the exception of the coaches, the band director and the choral director, the salary boosts amount to $500 above what the state pays each teacher.

In one motion, the trustees voted to pay the principals and all the teachers except the coaches, band and choral director, $500 above the state schedule; to re-elect High School Principal Whittenberg on an 11-month instead of a 10-month schedule, and Junior High Principal Herman F. Rappelt and Elementary Principal Jack Lancaster on 10-month instead of nine-month schedules.

In another motion, the board voted to pay Coaches Frank Krhut, Albert Parsons, Lawrence Cook and N. R. King $194 above their present salaries, and Choral Director George M. Willson $194 above his present salary.

HEART SURGERY AIDS YOUNGSTER — Four-year-old Alan Buck, shown here with Douglas B. Marshall of Houston, chairman of the 1958 Texas Heart Fund, is one of scores of children and adults whose lives have been changed by open heart operations performed by Dallas and Houston surgeons in the past two years. Young Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Buck of Houston, now has a normal life expectancy after successfully undergoing heart surgery at the Texas Medical Center in Houston.

MOISTURE SUPPLIES FAR ABOVE NORMAL

Farmers Who Are Behind In Work May Be Better Off In Long Run

LUBBOCK — "High Plains cotton and maize farmers who are behind in their spring work because of bad weather may be better off in the end," Dr. A. W. Young, Texas Tech agronomy department head, reports.

He points to moisture supplies that are far above normal, making desirable soil conditions that might not be improved by the usual tillage.

"This is the first time in several years that soil bacteria have had moisture enough to work on the organic matter during the winter months," Young says.

"Also, the freezing and thawing of the moist soil has improved its workability," he continues. Of course, there are some soils on which this factor works to a better advantage than others.

Asked whether it would be any advantage to list the ground prior to planting this year, he says, that in his opinion, it will be a disadvantage unless the farmer plans to water the ground.

Listing exposes more land surface to the winds and, consequently, more water can be lost to evaporation, he adds.

"The amount of moisture in each piece of land is the final word on whether or not to water," Young says. "How the land lies and whether any moisture has been lost to winter crops, influence the storage level."

He explains that there is no need to water if the soil already has enough moisture to decompose residues and release plant foods and the water-holding capacity of the soil already is near its maximum. These factors were taken care of with October and subsequent rains, he says.

Watering prior to planting is the big question now, Young declares. Since sandy soils cannot store as large an amount of water as the heavier soils, his opinion is that to try to get more water in the sandy cotton land in the High Plains may be a question of economic waste.

His advice to the cotton and maize farmer in the sandy area is to work the land with chisels and bring some of the leached clay to the top if it begins to blow after a rain—also, to plow just deep enough to remix the sand and keep it from moving.

"Some work may be necessary to level the ground for a proper seed bed," Dr. Young believes, "but extra work will only tend to tractor-pack the soil and dry it out."

In the heavier loams, more work may be necessary for the proper preparation of the seed bed. He suggests that the disc-type implements will probably work to better advantage in these soils.

"In case of having to replant, as many did last spring, the flat planting leaves an area of soil moisture still undisturbed," Dr. Young points out. "This enables the farmer to 'bust the ridges' in replanting and still have moisture to get the seed up."

Every farm is a different problem, he believes, but to the economically hard-pressed farmer, land preparation that is both cheaper and better is certainly a step in the right direction.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

By C. WILSON HARDER

Proposed new Federal budget, destined for easy sailing through Congress. Totalling $100 billion, it is by far the largest peacetime budget ever asked for.

There are some hard facts out of consideration.

... almost 11 cents every tax dollar collected is used to pay on interest debt.

... a huge sum. Yet, faced with the necessity of paying out for interest, the budget almost another $4 billion is thrown away in form of interest.

... to pay off on past debt and to give-away on present bonds almost 17% of Federal budget.

... in another way, the current budget request, it just about equals what the U. S. has thrown away in give-aways and other schemes in the past.

... government appears to be so confused over this matter, that it is now even taxing itself.

... recommendation was $13 cents per gallon for jet fuels. While it is a short while, there is some commercial jet operation, their fuel consumption will be but a drop in the bucket compared to the necessary military use of jet fuels.

the bucket compared to the necessary military use of jet fuels.

Thus, if this proposed new tax were to bring in any appreciable new revenue, it would be collected on fuel used to protect the United States. This would be carrying the taxing situation to the nth degree of ludicrousness.

It was rather a shock to Washington that in a recent issue of a popular national magazine, General Douglas MacArthur sharply assailed the present taxing policies in the U. S. Many had long assumed that military men are not overly concerned with the weight of taxes.

Yet the nation's outstanding military leader, and hailed by many foreign experts as the greatest military expert of the age, states flatly that there seems to be no restraint on the lust for taxes and recalls how Lenin, propagator of Russian communism, predicted in the 1920's the United States would eventually spend itself into bankruptcy.

General MacArthur also recommends the sure cure to excessive governmental spending which between federal and local is now taking one-third of the national income. That cure is to shut off the sources of taxes, thus forcing economy on government.

And the General also states that it has been charged, without any challenge, that this year the government of the United States proposes to spend more than all the rest of the governments in the world combined will spend.

In this connection it is not to be forgotten in Korea General MacArthur ordered "Operation Meat Axe" which meant destroy the enemy at every occasion. What apparently is needed now is the same type of operation on non-essential government spending, before all independent enterprise in America is throttled.

Crosbyton Plants Potato Crop

CROSBYTON — The planting of the first commercial vegetable crop in this area—some 400 acres of potatoes—was completed here last week.

The project has aroused the interest of farmers all over the area. "Although 400 acres seems like a comparatively small acreage to get excited about," The Crosbyton Review commented, "even this amount was a sizable operation."

"To get the potatoes in the ground it took 52,500 pounds of seed potatoes, 150,000 pounds of commercial fertilizer, more than 30 hands to cut the potatoes into planting size, and some 15 to 20 other hands to operate the planters and trucks.

Five automatic planters were used in the planting.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor: My wife and I left here on March 2 by chartered bus for a five-day guided tour of the Rio Grande Valley, we went by way of Falcon Dam, had supper that first night in Rio Grande City then drove on to near McAllen, where we stayed at a clubhouse owned by the Texas Land Development Co., that sponsored the trip. Their clubhouse is on 16 acres of land that is covered with orange and grapefruit trees, also all kinds of flowers that bloom the year around. They never harvest the fruit—it begins to ripen in October, and will stay on the trees until June. It is left there for their guests, which amounts to around 2,000 each year. The room and meals are all free. Included in that is a three-day guided tour of the valley. The first day our group of 29 loaded in four cars and drove to Brownsville, then on to Port Isabel, had lunch on Padre Island, then on to San Benito, Harlingen, and to Weslaco. We saw carrots, radishes, cabbage, onions, and parsley, being harvested. We visited some of the many fruit and vegetable canning plants. The second day, we drove north through the farming country where they grow cotton, feed and almost all kinds of vegetables that can be grown anywhere, also citrus and cattle. They feed citrus pulp to their cattle after the juice has been removed. That night we all went to Reynosa, Mexico, to shop and look—mostly look. Reynosa is a town of about 60,000 population with no water, or sewer system, in fact, the town is without a system of any kind, as far as we could see. All of us did not come home together, that night, my wife and I came home early—"damn the luck". The third day we all went out and picked all the oranges and grapefruit that we could bring home, which was, I think, about six or seven hundred pounds. In our group from Lubbock were: R. L. Warren, L. Wilkenson, Slaton, J. Ford, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Petersburg; D. J. Saunders, Lamesa; Mrs. Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Lingim, Petersburg; Mrs. D. D. Davis, Slaton; Mrs. Johnson, the driver, and all. A real good time was had by all. H. L. Gordon Box 42, Post

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Enloe of 200 S. 2nd St., Slaton, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cooper of Post. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Adams, Sr., 330 5th St., Slaton, are parents of the bridegroom.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. E. Rhodes, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Slaton, before an archway of tropical foliage, flanked by arrangements of blue carnations and candelabra.

Traditional marches and vocal accompaniments were played by Miss Sandee Cross of Post. Mrs. Hazel Edwards sang "Whether Thou Goest" and "I Love You Truly".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of nylon lace over white satin. The lace bodice was fashioned with a stand-up collar and long petal-point sleeves. Two panels of lace accented the full nylon net skirt. Her veil of white nylon net was attached to a crown of white satin ribbon and appleblossoms. She carried a crescent bouquet of white rosebuds. Her jewelry consisted of a matching blue necklace and earring set.

Bridesmaids were Misses Pat McGinn and Beverly Chaffin, both of Slaton. They were attired in identical street-length dresses of blue nylon over linen. Their accessories were white and they carried bouquets of white carnations.

Storing Tips For Winter Garments Listed By Agent

By JESSIE PEARCE

Spring always brings the same clothing problems: storage of winter garments.

The cardinal rule of clothing storage is to store only clean garments.

As the garments are laundered at home or brought from the cleaners, they need to be stored immediately in a place where a moth cannot enter. Large pasteboard boxes that are sealed with tape as soon as they are filled is one of the best methods I know. Write in easily readable letters on the box, a list of the garments it contains. The box is then ready to store in those out-of-the-way places reserved for seldom used articles. Just be sure it is dry.

Blankets need to be laundered before they are stored for the summer. They can be washed easily at home. Use a mild detergent and luke warm water. Immerse the blanket in the water and let soak for 3 to 5 minutes. You may agitate the blanket briefly or preferably, stir it around by hand. Repeat the soak-stir routine three times. Spin the blanket in an automatic washer or fold and pat through the wringer while it is released. Rinse in water the same temperature as the wash water, spin or wring. Hang to dry over two or three lines. Straighten the binding by hand as you hang the blanket to dry. When the blanket is dry, store in a box that can be sealed to keep the moths out.

In storing clothing or bedding in zipper bags, seal the zipper and hanger holes with tape.

Storing winter clothing and bedding is a chore most people dislike, but think how wonderful it will be next fall to have the clothing already clean, ready to be pressed and worn. This alone makes the chore worthwhile to say nothing of protecting your clothing and bedding from moth damage.

Tech's 72-Piece Concert Band To Play In Post April

Will Appear Here On Annual Tour

Texas Tech's 72-piece concert band will close its annual tour with an appearance at 2 p. m. Wednesday, April 7, in the Post High School auditorium.

The "Big Red" band will make eight appearances in the three-day tour, according to D. O. Wiley. The band will have a repertoire of 20 to 25 numbers for the tour, Wiley said. Music will range from "When You Wish Upon a Star" from Walt Disney's "Snow White" to Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet Overture Fantasy."

During the tour, concerts are also scheduled at Crosbyton, Paducah, Vernon, Seymour, Anson, Abilene and Snyder.

The Tech band has gained considerable recognition for its concerts, having played for the American Bandmasters Assn and at appearances as far away as Los Angeles and New Orleans.

The band is strictly a volunteer organization, with every one of Tech's six schools represented. There are no band scholarships.

The "Big Red" will give one concert immediately before embarking on the tour, playing at 3 p. m. Sunday, March 30, in the Tech Music Building band hall.

On Monday, March 31—first day of the tour—the band will appear at 10 a. m. at Crosbyton High School, 1 p. m. at Paducah High School, and 8 p. m. at Municipal Auditorium in Vernon, sponsored by the Vernon High School Band and Band Parents Club.

On Tuesday, April 1, the Tech band has concert dates at 10 a. m. in Seymour High School, 1:30 p. m. in Anson High School, and 8 p. m. at Abilene High School.

The Abilene appearance will be a "homecoming" for Wiley, who founded and for 13 years directed the famed Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band there.

The Tech band will play in Snyder High School at 10:30 a. m. April 2 before closing out their tour with the Post appearance.

New Brush Killing Chemical, Fenuron, Is Now Available

COLLEGE STATION — A new chemical is available that has proved its worth for controlling brush. It is fenuron, says G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialist.

Fenuron is made up similar to fertilizer pellets, says Hoffman. It can be used early in the growing season to control post oak, black-jack oak and winged elm growing on sandy soils.

Fenuron is applied in the pellet form and is dissolved by rain. It is taken up by the roots and kills the brush plants, he says.

The pellets are easy to apply and there is very little danger of their drifting onto susceptible crops, such as cotton and truck crops. Another advantage of the new chemical is that it can be applied before the trees leaf out. It takes rainfall to make it work. Too, it kills only post oak, black-jack oak, and winged elm growing on sandy soils.

But it also has its disadvantages, Hoffman points out. For example, it does not kill brush growing on clay soils and it does not kill all kinds of brush, such as greenbrier, haws, yaupon, gums, hickory and other hardwoods. Too, fenuron kills pine trees, therefore it can't be used as a chemical for timber stand improvement.

Other disadvantages are that it cannot be applied closer than 150 feet to shade trees and it sterilizes the soil at high rates of application.

Fenuron pellets should be applied from February 1 through May 15 at a rate of 16 pounds per acre, advises Hoffman. This is the time when these trees first begin to grow and before the spring

Blackeyed Pea Contracts Open

CROSBYTON — Want to grow some blackeyed peas for profit? Crosbyton area farmers who want to grow the Texas vegetable delight commercially will be given the opportunity within the next few days to contract as many acres as they desire of this vegetable crop.

There are no restrictions on either the number of acres a farmer may plant or whether the crop will be dryland or irrigated.

The contracting firm will be the Plains Food Inc., of Plainview. This company has a canning plant in Plainview with blackeyed, cream, crowder and purple hull peas as its principal items.

THE SEARCH CONTINUES

Throughout the history of mankind runs the account of a double quest:
Man searching for God . . . our restless eagerness to understand and please our Creator has paralleled the centuries of progress.
God seeking Man . . . ceaselessly, patiently, His Love has lighted the ages, ever reaching toward our hearts, encompassing our souls.
Yet no powerful lens ever devised will aid in this search. Our quest finds its consummation not beneath the lens of a microscope—but beneath the spire of a Church!
What man does not recognize his own inability to cope with the complexities of life?
There awaits you next Sunday in the Church of your choice the peace and assurance that generations have sought . . . the FAITH which unites Man and God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. I am studying for my doctorate degree under the Korean GI Bill. How many hours of classroom work does VA consider to be full-time?

A. For graduate studies, there is no set number of hours. VA accepts the word of your school whether you are on a full-time or part-time basis.

Q. I understand World War II veterans can pay GI insurance premiums once a year and save money. Does this same privilege apply to those of us who hold Korean GI term insurance policies?

A. Yes. All holders of GI insurance—whether World War I, II or Korea veterans—may pay premiums on a yearly basis, rather than monthly.

Q. I am a Korea veteran with a service-connected disability. Does this automatically entitle me to vocational rehabilitation training?

A. Not necessarily. You must be found in need of vocational training to overcome the handicap of your disability in order to receive the training benefits.

Q. If my son goes to school under the War Orphans Education program, will VA pay his tuition as well as a monthly living allowance?

A. No. Under the law, VA makes one payment for each month of training. Generally this goes to his living parent or guardian. Out of this must come all training expenses, such as tuition and books. VA does not make separate payments to the school.

Foreign Competition Said Dealing Cotton Farmers Series Hard Blows

By JOHN C. WHITE
 Commissioner of Agriculture

Texas and other American cotton farmers face another in a series of hard knocks this year in the form of "homemade" competition—foreign competition brought about by short-sighted planning at the top level in Washington.

It is now apparent that, due to relentless insistence on holding down cotton allotments in our country, not enough top quality cotton will be produced to meet our own domestic needs this year. As a result, we will likely find ourselves in the ridiculous position of bringing cotton into this country from Mexico, Brazil and possibly even such countries friendly to communism as Egypt.

Current cotton acreage allotments are based on an estimated production of 11½ million bales. But what some of our government planners have failed to recognize is the fact that much of this land went into the soil bank and will not produce any cotton.

Last year, our upland cotton was lower in grade than at any time in the past twelve years. Middling and higher grade production was the smallest since 1949. And now our textile industries are facing a serious shortage of better quality cotton. But this shortage could be overcome if our farmers were allowed to take advantage of producing soil and weather conditions so they could have the crop when it is needed.

We need an immediate 25 per cent increase in cotton allotments in order to meet our domestic demand. We can produce the desired grades this year if our farmers are given the opportunity.

The 1957 cotton story was a sad one in Texas—and practically everywhere else in the nation. Ginning of top grades was off drastically, and our farmers had to fight continued bad weather to produce what they did.

A sad epitaph to that story would be for "sidelined" farmers at home to stand idly by while cherished cotton profits wing their way abroad.

New Lyntegar Building Nearing Completion

TAHOKA—The large new building of Lyntegar Electric Cooperative on South First Street east of the square is almost complete, according to Garland Pennington, Co-op manager.

Enlargement of the office space at the headquarters building, made possible by the moving of storage room to the new warehouse, is also progressing.

Lyntegar has many customers in Garza County.

TOUR OPEN TO FARMERS, GINNERS, ETC.

Reservations Are Being Accepted For Cotton Textile Mill Jaunt

LUBBOCK—A March 15 deadline for reservations has been set by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., The Plains Ginners Assn., and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange on a proposed cotton textile mill tour at Greenwood, S. C., April 21-23.

Roy Forkner, chairman of the tour committee, said a deadline for accepting reservations is necessary in order that American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, who will be host to the tour group, be notified how many will make the trip and arrangements be made accordingly.

The tour is open to farmers, ginners, buyers or others in the cotton industry and open to both men and women. The group will leave Lubbock by chartered airliner early the first day, arrive in S. C. that afternoon. The second day and morning of the third day will be spent in mill tours and the group will enplane for Lubbock the afternoon of the third day.

Estimated cost of the tour is about $125 to possibly $140 per person. A deposit of $50 should accompany each reservation. Checks should be made to "Plains Mill Tour", in care of the Plains Cotton Growers, Room 220 Lubbock National Building, Lubbock.

A $10,000 accident policy will be furnished and deposits made on reservations will be returned if it is impossible for someone to make the tour.

One of the purposes of this tour is to see how cotton is being used in mills and acquaint producers and others with some of the mill problems. Also the group will see how man-made fibers are being used—cotton's competition.

In return, the Plains area hopes to invite representatives of the ACMI to visit the High-Plains area, possibly during the next cotton harvest, and see the actual production of our cotton. By such an exchange of visits, perhaps the High Plains cotton producers and businessmen can open additional market doors.

The tour will center around Greenwood, S. C., home of Greenwood Mills which has one of the largest spinning operations on synthetic fiber in the nation. Also the group will visit Riegel Textile Corp. at Ware Shoals, S. C., a spinning and weaving cloth mill where print cloth, sheeting and lining are made. One of the largest finishing processing plants in the country will be visited here.

Another visit will be made to Anderson, S. C., to the Southside Plant of Abney Mills, which has one of the newest plants in the U. S. Here cotton is blended with synthetics and fancy fabrics are produced.

Also the group will visit the Owens-Corning Fiber Glass Corp., where glass yarns and other man-made fibers are produced that offer competition to cotton.

Tuesday, April 22, the group will be honored at a dinner and reception at the Anderson, S. C., Country Club.

Representatives of the ACMI have informed PCG officials that they are anxious that as many High Plains people as possible take advantage of this special mill tour. The ACMI will provide all travel in South Carolina.

If you are interested in making such a proposed textile mill tour, please send your reservations, accompanied by a $50 deposit to Plains Mill Tour, Plains Cotton Growers, Room 220 Lubbock National Building, Lubbock.

Sixth Annual County Spelling Bee Will Be Held Friday

$50 Cash Prizes Await Winners

Two seventh grade students, Linda Ward and Marianne Jones, will represent Post Junior High School Friday in the sixth annual Garza County Spelling Bee.

The bee is to be held at 1:30 p. m. in the district courtroom, County Supt. Dean A. Robinson, chairman of the county event, has announced.

Mrs. Phil S. Bouchier will be the pronouncer, and judges will be Mrs. Loree Thaxton, Mrs. Gordon Hamilton and Mrs. Pat N. Walker.

The Post Chamber of Commerce will award $50 in cash prizes to the top three spellers, with $25 as first prize, $15 as second prize and $10 as third prize. The Chamber has increased its amount of spelling bee prize money from $30 to $50 for this year's event.

The winner of the county bee will compete in the regional bee at Lubbock on April 12, sponsored by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. The regional winner will receive an expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., for the national spelling bee.

The Post Junior High elimination bee was held last Thursday with about 25 spellers competing, according to Principal Herman F. Raphael. The pronouncer was Mrs. Mary Lee Wriston, and judges were Mrs. Nola Baister and Mrs. William R. Bennett.

Barbara Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mills, was named as alternate representative from the junior high. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hopkins. Marianne, who competed in last year's county spelling bee as a sixth grade student, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones. Her brother, Howard, now a student at Texas Tech, was the winner of the first county bee, held in 1953, and finished third in the regional event.

Other county bee winners have been Victor Hudson Jr., Jimmy Short, Patricia Wheatley and Sharon Blackwell of Justiceburg.

TV Stars—

The KDUB engineers visited the local schools last week with Moore to explore possibilities for such a closed circuit TV arrangement.

All details for the unveiling and dedication of the statue of the town founder should be ready for announcement next week.

Moore was due in Post today with John Schell, public relations man of General Foods, to begin making all arrangements for the actual dedication program.

Schell was here last fall to help with arrangements for Mrs. Marriweather Post's visit here in connection with the Golden Jubilee.

Moore told The Dispatch by phone Wednesday that the statue itself is now in Lubbock and will be brought here for erection as soon as the granite base and pedestal are in place and weather permits.

The statue will remain veiled, however, until the actual dedication ceremony on Saturday, April 5, the day before Easter. The ceremony is scheduled to begin at 3:30 p. m. that afternoon on the east courthouse lawn. Mrs. Post will unveil the statue of her father she is giving to the community.

The base and monument, cut in Georgia, were brought here Tuesday but the monument was taken to Lubbock to permit Jim Collier of the South Plains Monument Co. to complete the lettering of the monument's inscription.

The March 4 statement also showed that the bank has $331,920.16 more out in loans this spring than last. The total loan figure this year was $1,900,813.15 as compared to $1,568,892.99 a year ago.

The bank's full statement of condition will be found on page 9 of today's Dispatch.

Oil Well—

Simms told The Dispatch that the well had been drilled through the Mississippian, 8,130-80 feet, and in a drillstem in that formation 325 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud and no water was recovered.

This indicates the probability that the well also can be developed into a commercial producer in the Mississippian as well as the Strawn.

The well has since been drilled to 8,300 feet and pipe is now being set at that depth. The well then will be drilled on down to the Ellenburger to test that possible oil bearing strata.

Teas, who has some 2,200 acres of the Slaughter Ranch under oil and gas lease in two different areas, hasn't always found oil at the bottom of the deep holes he has been digging on his ranch acreage.

His No. 1 was a dry hole, his 1-A a producer, his No. 2-A was another 8,500-foot dry hole, and his No. 2 was a 6,500-foot Spraberry producer. His No. 2-B was a 6,000-foot dry hole.

The No. 1-C Slaughter, Shell's discovery well made 522 barrels of oil daily on potential test.

M. L. Pierce, Shell Oil's production superintendent for the Slaughter Ranch development, reported to The Dispatch that there are seven rigs presently drilling on the sprawling Slaughter ranch, two of them across the county line in Borden County.

Of the seven, Teas has one, Humble Oil one, Shell three Kerr-McGee one, and Evans one.

Pierce also reported that Shell now is getting bids for drilling of another Slaughter wildcat. It will be located seven miles west of the Slaughter No. 1-D now drilling on top of the Cap. Drilling should begin on this one within two weeks.

The No. 1-D is five miles west of the No. 1-C.

Ten rigs altogether are now drilling in Garza County. Three are in the Southland area, four on the Slaughter, one east of Post, one south of Justiceburg, and one in the Rocker A field, other oil sources reported yesterday.

In northwest Garza County, Teas is planning to drill the No. 1 S Johnson as a 4,500 foot Permian exploration. It will be three miles southeast of Southland and two miles north and east of the Hackberry pool.

Meanwhile from Dallas came announcement yesterday that Hiburn-Hawm Company of Dallas will drill a 4,900-foot Glorieta wildcat, five miles northwest of Post. It will be the No. 1 Ray Hodges et al. 330 feet from south and 990 feet from the west lines of section 1209, T1 Survey.

Other Garza oil developments will be found on page 15.

Rotary Speaker Urges Convention Planning

Dr. Emil Prohl, Tahoka Rotarian who has attended "a half dozen" conventions of Rotary International, in a talk before Post Rotarians Tuesday noon urged local club members to start making plans for the 1953 Rotary International convention which will be held in Dallas the first week of June.

It will attract thousands of Rotarians from around the world. Dr. Prohl devoted the principal portion of his talk to telling of his visit to Europe last year to attend the Rotary International convention at Lucerne, Switzerland.

He termed attending such a Rotary convention "the experience of a lifetime."

Lee Ward was introduced as a new Rotary member.

'Pesky' Prisoner Taken To Matamoros

Hoover Daniel Johnson, Louis B. Shields, left County jail again last night but this time he did not leave in custody of County sheriff's officers. He left at Matamoros on a charge of forgery.

The 26-year-old Negro being held here on a charge, broke out of the jail after being brought here in a truck. The first time, on Feb. 27, he was recaptured after four hours of freedom, but on Feb. 27, he was about noon until being captured the following morning.

Both breaks were from lock-up just north of the building. After Johnson captured by the sheriff, Sheriff Carl Rains placed the main jail on the east side of the courthouse building away his shoes—just as the prisoner didn't have again.

The sheriff said Johnson was being tried at Matamoros, Texas, for a period of approximately 90 days.

Weather Hinders Drill Sessions

The Post Antelope track team was scheduled to compete in a dual meet at Falls this afternoon as a warm-up to Saturday's Crosbyton Relays, but it appears that inclement weather might put a damper on both meets.

Hi, kids! The FHA girls had a "Daddy Date Night". Mr. Whittenberg, Mr. Hester, Mr. Wheatley, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Kuykendall, Mr. Maxey, Mr. Stone, Mr. Peel, and Mr. and Mrs. Hill were guests. They played games and were served pie and coffee.

Twenty-one members of the FHA attended a district meeting held in Big Spring Saturday. Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Hill accompanied the girls. The next meeting will be a state meeting in San Antonio on April 18 and 19.

We all missed Mrs. McRee when she was ill and out of school. We are glad to have her back with us now.

Mr. Sharply from Jessie Lee's in Lubbock gave a talk to the junior and senior girls who are interested in becoming a beautician and showed a film about hair designing entitled "Hair Stylists Are Made, Not Born", which showed the beauty school and how it is run.

There were several visitors in school last week observing Public School Week.

The one-act play, "Sparkin'", with Glenda Whittenberg as Granny Painsberry, Barbara Blacklock as Susan Hanna, Frances Barron as Lessie Hanna, and Noel Don Norman as Orry Sparks was selected from four one-act plays given Monday night to be presented at the Interscholastic League Meet in Floydada.

Members of the band will go to Monterey High School in Lubbock Saturday to play solos and ensembles at contest.

The stage band and girls' sextet returned home Saturday night after an enjoyable trip to Brownwood where they played in the Annual Stage Band Festival.

The seniors are going to have a bake sale at Piggly Wiggly's Saturday. They will be selling cakes and pies of all kinds. For a special order, call Mrs. Livingston at PHS number 53, before 4 Thursday afternoon.

The senior play committee has selected "That Crazy Smith Family" as their senior play. Mrs. Scott will order the books this week. The try-out date has not been set.

By VERN SANFORD

It has long been said that the moon is made of green cheese. Now scientists everywhere seem to be determined to find out if it's so.

Army, navy, air corps and civilian experts apparently are scrapping among themselves to see who gets there first.

Anyway, whether it is the Sputnik or the Usnik, the costs so far have gone higher than the devices.

It's true that all of us want to know what's in outer space. We're not complaining about the costs, for all of us are interested in the rest of the universe.

Also there are a good many of us who want to know more about what's going on "down below".

Fishermen in particular are interested in the creatures of the deep.

So, maybe you'd like to hear about a little experiment that is going on along the Texas coast.

There, aquatic biologic scientists are trying to find ways to create an artificial snapper reef.

They have an adequate budget. Not as big as the nuclear scientists, but adequate. The Game & Fish Commission has earmarked some $7,000 for the venture.

This money will buy a couple hundred old automobile bodies. These bodies will be linked together with a piece of oil field cable and dropped into the Gulf of Mexico at the 10 fathom curve near the whistling buoy off Port Aransas.

Approval Is Given

Tentative coast guard approval already has been given. The old autos must be planted where they will be a little too deep to affect navigation, and away from the range of shrimpers' nets.

This will be one of the most interesting experiments ever undertaken in Texas to increase offshore fishing for red snapper, and other saltwater fighters. If it works, other artificial reefs will be created from time to time to improve fishing conditions along the Texas coast.

This little experiment may make the world a better place in which to live—rather than one to get out of.

At the present time snapper fishing is done mostly from party boats at ranges from 15 to 100 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico. There has been a little snapper fishing around the oil derricks in the offshore waters. These derricks are indicative that snapper can be caught around the artificial reefs.

It is hoped that the old automobile bodies will work like a brush shelter and serve as a hideaway for red snapper, ling, pompano, barracuda and other smaller fish. That of course means that the big ones will be lurking nearby. Result: good fishing for everyone.

Idea Already Tried

Alabama has tried the idea with some success. If it works in Texas our coastal fishing will be much better because these artificial reefs will afford cover not only for snapper, but for many other good fighting fish.

It might also be a place to get rid of thousands of old automobile bodies—which can't be shipped to the moon.

It has been suggested by some that old auto bodies might be used in fresh water lakes to provide cover for fish.

This would be very dangerous. Our lakes in Texas are not large enough. Even a few old automobile bodies dumped into Texas lakes would produce navigation hazards we don't need. Let's keep them clean.

If there is any tendency to dump auto bodies in the lakes in your area, then it would be wise for municipalities to pass ordinances, as soon as possible, to stop it.

Speaking of ordinances, what about asking your city to provide safe boat launching ramps in waters controlled by it? The City of Austin has just completed a new one within the city limits, on Lake Austin. It will help relieve the situation greatly.

Bass Tournament Set

If your fishing is of championship quality then you will be interested in knowing that the Texas Bass Tournament will be held this year on three of the Highland Lakes, near Austin.

For several years this annual bass tournament has attracted many fishermen, especially from Southwest Texas.

The tournament is scheduled for May 23-25 on Buchanan, Inks and Granite Shoals Lakes. Tentative headquarters will be at the Inks State Park.

Earl Golding of the Waco Tribune and Russell Tinsley of the Austin American will be tournament managers. Entries will be accepted after April 1, at either newspaper.

Check Your Lines

At the risk of becoming redundant we want to remind fishermen again to check your lines. Too many big fine fish are lost every year because we take a chance on a line that has been used for two or three years and we think it still is good.

If you decide your line is good, then at least take off the first 10 feet. This is the part which gets the most strain, running through the guides, hanging in brush and getting much more usage than the rest of the line.

There is nothing that makes a man feel quite so bad as to have a line failure just about the time he is fixing to boat a big bass. It isn't worth it when you can get a new line for so little by comparison to your cost on other equipment.

Plug For Texhoma

An article describing boating and fishing facilities at Lake Texhoma appears in this month's issue of Popular Boating. Included is an invitation from Gov. Price Daniel, to visit the vacation spot.

Writer of the story is L. A. Wilko, one of the co-authors of "Outdoors in Texas."

Color Film Of Texas State Parks Is Ready For Free Distribution

AUSTIN—A color film of Texas State Parks is now ready for free distribution to schools and colleges, clubs and civic organizations, the Texas State Parks Board announced here today.

It is a 16 millimeter, 24-frame, color film with explanatory sound track showing the main features of the state's public parks condensed into a half-hour running time.

Applications for the film may be made to the Texas State Parks Board, Drawer E, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas. Those wishing to show the film will need to make local arrangements for use of a projector and screen.

The film is the first combined picturing of the scenic and historic state parks together with action shots of the principal recreational activities. It was produced by the Humble Oil & Refining Company as a public service and presented to the Texas State Parks Board.

In a reel cut for half-hour showing time it is impossible to include each of the state's 56 parks. Instead, selections were made to show the types of parks in all parts of Texas and to run the gamut of outdoor sports and recreational facilities they offer.

Fishing, boating and water sports, which are the principal activities in the parks situated on lakes and streams, are shown as well as the rugged scenery of the Davis Mountains and Palo Duro Canyon park areas, the grandeur of the forest parks of East Texas and such natural wonders as Longhorn Cavern and semi-tropical Palmetto State Park.

Historic park sites like the Alamo, San Jose Mission, San Jacinto Battlefield, Goliad and Mount Morrell Hill are included in the film.

Distribution of copies of the film will be booked as quickly as possible. To facilitate the distribution alternate dates upon which the film can be shown should be given in application for its use.

Go forth, young man

... we can't use you here

Is this the word to our young people — able and beloved — when they've finished school and are ready to start making their own living?

Too often it is, in the smaller communities like ours.

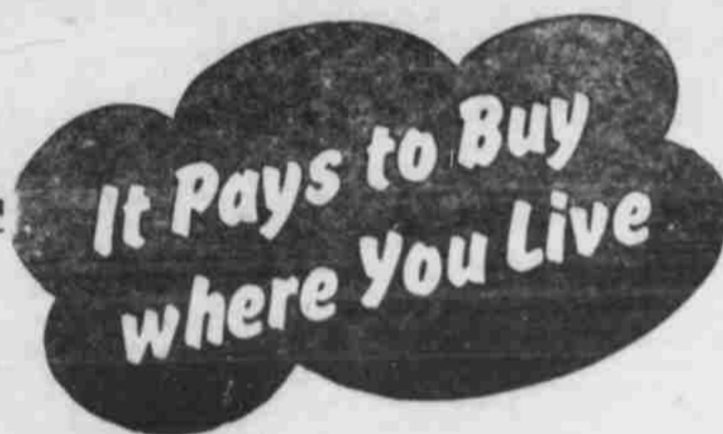

Why don't we have more job opportunities and more business opportunities right here, so that more of our sons and daughters can establish their homes and be happy and prosperous here at home?

It's partly circumstance. Partly the natural limitations of the economy of our area. Partly because we haven't been quite aggressive or enterprising enough to build and grow more.

But it's also partly because many of us have let ourselves get into the habit of spending too much of our money somewhere else.

Every dollar that we spend away from home is a dollar less to circulate among us and to account for 2 or 3 or more dollars of added trade volume as it moves from hand to hand.

Keeping more of this easily available trade volume at home is one way by which we could create and sustain more local opportunities for our young people. And for ourselves.

Questionnaires Provided For Use By Citizens In Study Of Schools

Your Opinions, Please

To help stimulate additional interest in the state-wide study of Texas Public Schools, The Dispatch this week is running the first in a series of questionnaires from the Hale-Aikin Committee of 24.

The questionnaires are for the use of citizens who may not have either the time or opportunity to express themselves about these vital subjects.

A Garza County committee has been set up for the study and has received study guides from the Committee of 24. Headed by County Supt. Dean A. Robinson, the Garza County committee is scheduled to meet within the next few weeks and have its report ready by May 1.

Readers of The Dispatch are invited to make use of the questionnaires from week to week, fill them in and mail them to Robinson.

This is No. 1 of a series of questions asked the citizens of Texas in the Hale-Aikin state-wide study of the Texas public schools. If you cannot attend the county committee meetings in person, you are invited to write your own answers, clip out this questionnaire, and send it to the Study Chairman for your County, DEAN A. ROBINSON, Post.

✓ What subjects should be added or what courses should be strengthened in Texas public schools? What should be dropped or given less emphasis?

✓ Does an examination of the elementary school programs in your county show that the following areas are taught adequately?

- | | | | |
|----------|------------|-----------|---------------|
| READING | WRITING | GEOGRAPHY | PHYSICAL ED. |
| SPELLING | ARITHMETIC | HISTORY | MUSIC |
| SPEAKING | SCIENCE | HEALTH | ARTS & CRAFTS |

✓ What should be done in your county to insure that every child has adequate educational opportunities?

(This questionnaire is printed by your newspaper as a public service to the Hale - Aikin Committee in Garza County).

Auto Inspections Still Lag Here

Out of 5,029 vehicles registered in Garza County, only 785, or 18 per cent, have been inspected to date, according to Capt. Alan Johnson of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Department of Public Safety.

"All registered vehicles in Texas must be inspected by April 15 and have an inspection sticker on the windshield," said Maj. R. A. Crowder, regional commander of the DPS.

Major Crowder stated that there will be no extension of the April 15 deadline and advised motorists who have not had their cars inspected to do so now, before long lines start forming.

"In the past, many people have waited until the last few days of the inspection period to have their vehicles inspected and have had to wait in long lines at inspection stations," Major Crowder said.

An inspection of the motor number, brakes, head lights, tail lamps, stop lights, horn, windshield wipers, and mirror will be made as part of the inspection as required by law.

106 PCT. OF FORAGE NEEDED WAS PRODUCED

Excessive Rainfall Results In Good Forage Production In '57

COLLEGE STATION — Texas weather changed from extended drought to excessive rainfall in the spring of 1957 and the forage picture reflected this transition.

County agricultural agents reported 106 per cent of the forage needed was produced, as compared to 35 per cent in 1956, 76 per cent in 1955 and 65 per cent in 1954, states E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, in his annual report. Of course, he adds, livestock numbers were still down due to drought and the requirements were abnormally low for some counties.

The wet spring prevented harvest of thousands of acres of hay and silage from winter temporary pastures and prevented planting summer grazing and silage crops at the proper time, he points out. The wet fall and early freeze prevented normal harvest, and in some cases normal development, and resulted in further loss in forage crop quality and quantity.

However, the spring rains, and to a certain extent those in the fall, resulted in excellent production from established perennial grasses.

Agents reported that Texas farmers and ranchers stored 8,405,584 tons of dry forage in 1957, says Trew. This was 57 per cent more than in droughty 1956. They also reported that a total of 3,535,156 tons of silage was stored, 36 per cent more than in 1956. The more favorable forage supply have resulted in a strong demand for beef cattle, he adds.

A total of 3,480 pasture demonstrations involving 724,296 acres were reported for the year, notes Trew—fewer than in 1956. He attributes this reduction to the wet spring and fall which hampered establishment and evaluation of

Degree In Music Added At ACC

ABILENE — Officials at Abilene Christian College have announced the addition of a new degree to the college curriculum—the Bachelor of Music Education. This makes a total of eight separate degrees now being offered at ACC.

They are Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Home Economics, Bachelor of Science in Education, the new Bachelor of Music Education, Master of Arts, Master of Science and Master of Education.

Music majors can still receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in applied music, or a Bachelor of Science degree in applied music. A music education concentration, before the new BMED degree, required an Education major with emphasis in teaching of music.

pasture demonstrations. The specialist urges county agricultural agents to stress the need for sound forage programs as the basis for sound beef and dairy operations.

The Movie Marquee

With a masterful buildup of tension, conflict and action, "Quantz" co-starring Fed MacMurray, Dorothy Malone and James Barton, unravels with explosive impact Friday and Saturday on the Tower Theatre screen. The Universal-International outdoor thriller is in color and CinemaScope.

"Quantz" blazes a new trail among films of outdoor melodramatics, for it's not a simple contest between the good guys and the bad guys. The central characters are all bad guys, albeit in varying degree, and although banded together for safety in flight from the law, it is their attempts to double-cross each other that motivate most of the action.

Two of the most exciting war pictures ever to hit the screen are coming your way when "Jet Attack" and "Suicide Battalion" are presented at the Tower Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Starring John Agar and lovely Audrey Totter, filmed with the cooperation of the U. S. Air Force, "Jet Attack" shows thrill upon thrill as the mighty jets roar over Korean lines to pulverize enemy strongholds and three jet aces parachute into dangerous territory to rescue a nuclear scientist.

The second feature, "Suicide Battalion," is the punch-packed story of a battalion bent on destroying an enemy ammunition dumps in World War II. Heading the cast are Michael Conners, John Ashley and Jewell Lain.

March 26 will be "Oscar Night" at the Hollywood Pantages Theatre, and Johnny Hopkins, Tower Theatre manager, has furnished us a list of nominations. Other good news in connection with the event is word of acceptance by Bob Hope to be one of the master of ceremonies at the NBC telecast of the 30th Annual Awards of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

The following nominations have been announced:

"Plan Now For Irrigation, Despite Soil-Moisture," Farmers Advised

COLLEGE STATION — Winter rains won't make a summer crop. "This is no time to forget about irrigation equipment," cautions Charles M. Hohn, research agriculture engineer, Texas A&M College System. "If you've been considering irrigation in the past, don't abandon the idea just because we have soil-moisture now."

"Depending on present soil-moisture to make a crop is like trying to operate through the year on a bank balance which you don't replenish from time to time."

"True, we get rains occasionally during the growing season—and they just might be enough—but experience shows that the timing usually isn't the best for crop growth and production."

Hohn cites the 1957 crop year, during which the Brazos River bottom near Texas A&M received 57 inches of rain (the average annual rainfall in the area is about 38 inches) but tests showed irrigation was needed for profitable farming.

Most crop plants only take significant amounts of water from the top three feet or less of the soil, Hohn says. Any water which has percolated below that level plays little part in plant growth. At the best, that top three feet of soil can hold only a comparatively few inches of water, and not all of that is available to the plant without placing it under stress.

Best Supporting Actress—Carolyn Jones in "The Bachelor Party"; Elsa Lanchester in "Witness for the Prosecution"; Hope Lange in "Peyton Place"; Miyoshi Umaki in "Sayonara"; Diane Varsi in "Peyton Place."

Best Director—David Lean for "The Bridge on the River Kwai"; Mark Robson for "Peyton Place"; William Goetz for "Sayonara"; Sidney Lumet for "Twelve Angry Men"; Billy Wilder for "Witness for the Prosecution."

Best Song—"An Affair to Remember" from the picture of the same title; "All the Way" from "The Joker Is Wild"; "April Love" from the picture of the same title; "Tammy" from "Tammy and the Bachelor"; "Wild Is the Wind" from the picture of the same title.

Evapotranspiration (evaporation and plant use, or transpiration) takes from .15 to .40 inch of water per day from the soil during summer growing seasons. Even a six-inch rain doesn't last long under such conditions.

Lack of water at certain times during the plant's life can cost the farmer a great deal of money, even during wet years, Hohn says. This is particularly noticeable in cotton, where great numbers of blooms

Tex., Man Reports—

100-lb.-Per-Acre Increase in Irrigated Maize.

Walter, who farms 1,100 acres near Kress, reports: "I put down 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia on irrigated maize and got a 100-lb. increase in grain per acre. I also made 50 bushels of wheat per acre using 100 pounds of Phillips 66 ammonia."

Southwestern farmers have discovered that nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them get more profit per acre through irrigated fields. They get more cotton that classes higher in yield, more grain sorghum and ensilage are produced, more marketable vegetables are harvested and profits on wheat are increased through irrigated fields and higher yields of grain.

Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia contains 82% nitrogen and gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of commercial fertilizer available.

Dorward, P.H.D. Fields Get Two

Two completions and five new locations have highlighted recent oil activity in Garza County, according to the current Railroad Commission report.

In the Post-San Andres field, Blue Danube has completed its No. 1 Charles Bird with an initial pumping potential of 3.71 barrels of oil per day plus 97 per cent water.

Burk Royalty has completed its No. 1 Crump in the South Rocker "A" Strawn field with an initial pumping potential of 210 barrels of oil per day.

Total depth of the No. 1 Bird is 3,200 feet with a plug back to 3,028 feet, and top of pay logged at 2,926 feet. Five and one-half inch casing was set at the 3,000-foot mark and perforations made from 2,926 to 2,934. The well is 330 feet from north and east lines of Section 5, Block 8, H&GN Survey. Oil gravity tested 34 per cent and gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. The hole was fractured with 10,000 gallons.

The No. 1 Crump topped pay at 7,716 feet before going to total depth of 7,782 feet. Five and one-half inch casing was set at 7,770 feet and perforations made from 7,716 to 7,720. The initial pumping test was made through a one-half inch choke. Gas-oil ratio was 400-1. The well is 600 feet from south and 580 feet from west lines of Section 38, Block 6, H&GN Survey.

Two of the new locations are in the Dorward field, two in the P. H. D. field and one in the Rocker "A" Glorieta.

Humble Oil & Refining Co. has staked location for its No. 10 Estline Blakey in the Dorward field on a 640-acre lease nine miles southeast of Justiceburg. Projected depth is 2,800 feet. The location is 330 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of Section 110, Block 5, H&GN Survey.

Also in the Dorward field, C. T. McLaughlin's No. 5-C Dorward is to be drilled to a depth of 2,850 feet on a 160-acre lease five miles southeast of Justiceburg. It spots at 330 feet from north and west lines of Section 137, Block 5, H&GN.

Reynolds, Kirk & Neeb of Cisco have staked location in the P. H. D. field for the No. 1-A Clay Johnson and No. 2-A Clay Johnson. They are on a 45-acre lease 10 miles northwest of Post. Projected depth of both wells is 4,000 feet.

In the Rocker "A" Glorieta field, Cosden has staked location for its No. 1-D Stoker, 330 feet from south and 2,006 feet from east lines of Section 945, Block 97, H&TC Survey. On a 160-acre lease six miles south of Post, it is to be drilled to a depth of 3,250 feet.

Another P. H. D. field location is T. F. Hodge's No. 1-GC O. B. Franklin, 330 feet from north and 2,310 feet from south lines of southwest quarter of Section 1248, TT-RR Survey, on a 40-acre lease five miles southeast of Southland. Hole will be drilled to 4,500 feet.

TEXAS TECH BIOLOGY PROFESSOR SAYS Turtles No Joke When It Comes To Tracing Origin Of Species

LUBBOCK — Turtles may be known as slow pokes but zoologists find they are no joke when it comes to tracing the origin of particular species of the genus.

In other words, you can always tell a turtle—but you can't tell much about them when it comes to kissing' kin and the like.

Dr. Donald W. Tinkle, assistant professor of biology at Texas Tech, has received a $700 grant to unravel some of the mysteries of the turtle family. Making the award is the American Philosophical Society in Philadelphia, Pa.

Specifically, Tinkle will study the relationships and evolution of turtles in North America. His purpose is to devise a formula that will aid in ready identification of characteristics in various species.

He has been working on this problem since 1954 and the $700 grant will be used this summer for travel to three leading museums that have emphasized the collection of turtles.

"It's easy to tell the difference between the groups of turtles, like the soft-shell and the hard-shell," Tinkle said. "But it is difficult for a natural scientist to tell the various species within a group."

In classifying the characteristics of turtles, biologists have found they are all the same at many "check-points" such as scales and bone structure.

Tinkle's formula, however, has to do with the vertical lines on the turtle's shell and how they intersect with the horizontal line on the lower edge of the shell.

Tinkle has found that these interesting lines vary from one species to another but his formula needs to be confirmed by applying to many species of turtles that are in large collections.

The natural history museums he plans to visit have as many as 50 specimens from any one locality—the necessary number to set up a definite pattern of study. Few collections have this many of one species, Tinkle said.

The Tech biologist cites the peculiar evolution of characteristics in turtles found in the Gulf Coast area.

"In the United States east of the Rockies are five different species of turtles in one genus (group)," Tinkle said. "Four different turtles in the group are found in the Gulf Coast streams and rivers—a geologically young area in this hemisphere, not much more than a million years old."

"The fifth species in the genus is found throughout the northern United States east of the Rockies, but it has not split up into different forms such as the southern groups. Why?" asks Tinkle.

His primary interest in animal life in general and turtles in particular is evolution. How the various species evolve and better methods of classifying known species are expected from his research.

Tinkle earned a Ph. D. degree in vertebrate zoology at Tulane University, New Orleans, in 1956 where he also obtained a master of science degree. A native of Dallas, Tinkle was graduated from Southern Methodist with a B. S.
