White River Municipal Authority Is Formed By Three Cities Here Saturday

Committeemen representing the towns of Post, Spur and Crosbyton organized the White River Municipal Authority at a meeting here Saturday morning in the City Hall.

First action of the group following organization was a vote to authorize the Fort Worth engineering firm of Freese & Nichols to take bids for core drilling tests immediately at the proposed dam site, which is about one mile north of the Kalgary bridge over White River. Purpose of the core drilling tests will be to determine if there are gypsum deposits at the site.

Tom Bouchier of Post was elected chairman of the group. Perry Bell of Crosbyton, vice chairman, and Robert Lewis of Spur, secretary-treasurer.

The core drilling tests will cost approximately $3,000, which will be prorated among the three towns on a per meter basis.

Other members of the group are R. J. Jennings and Dr. A. C. Surman of Post, Dr. Dale R. Rhoades and Robert Work of Crosbyton, and Lynn Buzbee and L. D. Batliff of Spur.

Each town's committee was appointed by its city council.

The group went on record as inviting representatives of the press in each town to attend all meetings. They also set 1:30 p. m. the third Saturday of each month as a regular meeting time, with the next meeting scheduled for March 17 at the Dyess Hotel in Spur.

At Saturday morning's meeting, the newly organized group heard a discussion by Ransom Galloway of Lubbock on the setting up of a water district, financing, and other details.

Core drilling tests indicate that the project is feasible at the proposed site, next steps will be the making of a topographic map and petitioning of the State Board of Water Engineers to form a water district.

After the water district is set up by the state board, it will be necessary for citizens in each town to confirm it in a special election, it was explained.

Simon W. Freese, one of the engineers working on the project, said at a recent meeting in Crosbyton that the proposed location of the dam and reservoir offers three possible sites, which would be determined by topographical maps.

The lake formed at the dam would have a drainage area of 36 square miles and would impound three times the amount of water now being used by the two towns, the engineer said.

Mrs. Dodson Buried In Rites Here Sunday

Last rites for Mrs. Annie Eckols Dodson were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Christian Church. The Rev. Almon Martin, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. L. Porter and the Rev. Cecil Stowe.

Music included "What a Friend and Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" by a choir, and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus" by a quartet composed of Carl Cederholm, Mrs. Jack Burgess, Rev. Porterfield and Mrs. Tom Power. Mrs. Winnie Tuffing, organist, played "Beyond the Sunset" throughout the service. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Mrs. Dodson was born Dec. 7, 1872, in Mississippi. She moved to Texas with her parents at the age of five. On Aug. 16, 1888, at Davilla, she was married to M. P. Dodson, who preceded her in death in 1924. A resident of Garza County since 1918, she was a member of the First Christian Church.

Survivors are a son, Robert Dodson of Carlsbad, N. M.; three daughters, Mrs. Mae Shipley, Mrs. Abbie Jo Henry of Carlsbad, N. M., and Mrs. Pauline Coleman, and a sister, Mrs. C. W. Myatt of Miles.

She was preceded in death by a son, Beauford, in 1913.

Palbearers were Monroe Lane, George Barker, Johnny Mickey, Harold Voss, Jack Burgess and Walter Duckworth.

Although Vera Faye is eight years old, next Wednesday technically will be only her second birthday, since she was born Feb. 29, 1948, and there's been only one other Feb. 29 since—in 1952. Thieves Hitting Hard At Used Car Lots In City, Owners Report

Tom Power, owner of the Ford agency here, admitted this week that he is in a quandary as to how to stop thefts of wheels, tires, hub caps and other accessories from automobiles on his used car lots.

Hardest hit, Power said, has been a fenced-in back lot, where the culprits have been scaling a fence to strip new, used and wrecked automobiles of wheels, tires, hub caps and anything else they can pry loose.

The Ford lots are not the only ones here which have been visited by thieves, since there currently seems to be a wave of it.

"In trying to figure out what to do to stop it," said Power, "I've thought of everything from an electrically-charged fence to searchlights and watchdogs. I don't mind telling you, it's got me puzzled how to put a stop to it."

Lots Bought For Four New Homes

Lots on Block 122 of West Fifth Street have been purchased by Scott & Browning Building Co. for construction of four new residences, according to an announcement this week by their local agent, Jim Sexton.

The property, which is one block south and one west of Garza Memorial Hospital, was purchased by the building company from C. E. Cesinger.

Sexton said the four new residences would be three-bedroom houses, similar in construction to those now completed or nearing completion a block south of the junior high school building.

Four of the ten new homes just south of the junior high school building are already occupied, Sexton said. They are those of A. J. Mann, who is with Service Pipe Line Co., T. D. (Buck) Craft, manager of Planter's Gin, Elmer Harrison of the General Crude Oil Co., and Roy Silvey, who is band director in the Post schools.

Expected to be completed within the next few days are the homes of Dr. G. L. Marable, Otho C. Penix, G. L. Rinker and Emmett, Stelzer.

City Council Passes Two New Measures

Two ordinances, one fixing the water and sewer rates and the other prescribing city candidate filing and election procedures, was passed by the Post city council in a special session Friday.

The ordinance on water and sewer rates was passed after the council earlier had announced that summer water use rates were being discontinued. These summer rates, which had applied only to residences, had been 30 cents per 1,000 gallons for each additional 1,000 gallons over the minimum.

Rates now applying the year around are $2.50 monthly minimum for the first 4,000 gallons, plus 40 cents per 1,000 gallons for each additional 1,000 gallons. The new ordinance in its entirety appears on page 4 in this issue of The Dispatch.

BOB SAUNDERS, DISTRICT TELEPHONE MANAGER MAKES CLASSIFICATION TALK

Rotarians Hear About 'Phone Industry

First-hand information on the telephone industry was heard by Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in a talk by R. E. (Bob) Saunders, Lamesa District Manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Saunders, who has been with the company eight years, illustrated one section of his talk with exhibits to show how the company goes about providing service and some of the problems it encounters in doing so.

One of the exhibits was the gauge used by the company to determine if switchboard parts were being replaced. Another was a defective telephone cord which Saunders used in urging that patrons report such defects by telephoning the repair clerk.

"These trouble reports," he said, "are recorded in writing by the repair clerk as the first step in seeing that the trouble is eliminated."

Saunders also exhibited a comparatively new "T" clamp, which is attached to drop wires from poles to houses, and a 26-pair cable which had been burned in two by high voltage. "Fifty telephones could have been 'knocked out' by this damage alone," he said.

He showed a terminal tail which had been hit by a truck and torn out of the cable. "Fortunately," he said, "an accident such as this usually is seen and reported, enabling us to quickly repair it."

One of the most treacherous cable troubles, he said, is for a mid-span to be torn out over a highway intersection, for example. "We have no way of knowing when this occurs until the trouble calls start coming in," he said.

At the outset of his talk, Saunders told the Rotarians that two aspects which apply almost exclusively to the telephone business are those of diminishing returns and the high ratio of labor costs.

"Each new telephone installed," he said, "costs more than the one just before it. This is because of the necessity of additional connections and other expenses."

In discussing the high ratio of labor costs, he said that labor expense constitutes 70 per cent of the company's operating cost. One reason for this, he explained, is that telephone work is an around-the-clock deal.

Saunders said that like other company officials he felt it a personal responsibility to help maintain good relations with the public, and that his company has recently embarked on a program of better public relations.

The district manager is a member of the Lamesa Rotary Club and has been a Rotarian for four years. He has a three-year perfect attendance record. The speaker was introduced by program chairman Giles C. McCrary.

VA Teacher Helps Boys Observe Special Week

This is National Future Farmers of America Week and E. F. Schmedt of Post is one of the many vocational agriculture teachers throughout the nation helping their boys observe it.

Schmedt, who is in his seventh year here as vocational agriculture teacher and FFA chapter adviser, says no special observance is being held here in connection with the week.

"With 60 boys enrolled in three VA classes and training of teams under way for the coming regional FFA contests in Lubbock, we just haven't had time to plan and carry out an elaborate observance," he explained.

Nationally the FFA has more than 9,000 chapters and more than 388,000 members located in all 48 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

In Texas there are more than 900 FFA chapters with more than 38,000 members. Texas has one-tenth of the national membership, Schmedt pointed out.

Membership in FFA is made up of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in study and work toward successful establishment of farming.

After finishing high school in his hometown of Mathis, Schmedt enrolled in Texas A&I Col-

SELECTION OF OFFICERS recently by the Stampede Cowboys is a sure sign that the rodeo season is approaching. In fact, the first one—the Seagraves Rodeo—is set for March 8-10, and the Stampede Cowboys have voted to ride in the opening day parade as their first public appearance of the year.

WE'RE SORRY WE were unable to accept an invitation to attend the riding group's annual meeting, at which the officers were elected, but we'd already made plans to attend the opening of the Junior High Basketball Tournament. It would have been interesting to have set in on the meeting and seen how Phil Bouchier and Tom Power shook loose from being re-elected for another year as president and secretary, respectively.

WE WERE AT THE 1955 meeting and Phil and Tom tried hard at that time to dodge reelection, both arguing that they felt they'd served long enough in the offices and that it was time for someone else to step in. They finally made it this year, Phil having served as president for eight years and Tom as secretary for three years. Their successors, Floy Richardson and Hub Haire, will make top-notch hands, but if they don't watch it they'll have to serve as long as Phil and Tom did.

IT WAS EMERSON who wrote: "Common sense is genius dressed in its working clothes."

WE HAVEN'T HEARD yet whether or not the "poor boy" plan of using volunteer workers in election primaries is being considered here, but it doesn't seem to be meeting with much enthusiasm in some of the downstate counties. The proposal would reduce the cost of primaries by election judges serving without pay. Opponents say the conduct of elections would be put in the hands of the so-called "leisure class."

THAT MIGHT BE a convincing argument in some counties, but we're of the opinion that there are not enough members of the so-called "leisure class" in Garza County to hold a primary election.

A NEW FATHER observed out at Garza Memorial Hospital the other day that the only time in his life a man is the center of attraction is when he's born.

WE DIDN'T GET to see near all the games in last weekend's Junior High Basketball Tournament (we'd had to have been at least twins to do so, since they were playing in both gyms at the same time), but we saw the four championship games Saturday night and, believe us, from 6 until almost 11 p. m. is a long night, even if you like basketball.

ALONG WITH the fellow sitting next to us, we got a kick out of the 8th grade girls' championship game between Tahoka and Wilson in which it sounded much as if the Civil War was being fought all over again. The Tahoka girls wore blue uniforms and those of the Wilson girls were gray. When the ball went out of bounds, the official would shout "Blue" or "Gray," depending on whose ball it was.

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Babson Gives Answers To Four Questions Most Commonly Asked Him In His Travels

BARSON PARK, Mass.—As I travel about, there are four questions which I am most commonly asked. Let me discuss them this week.

Question No. 1—On Stocks in General WOULD THIS BE A GOOD TIME FOR A SMALL INVESTOR TO SELL ALL HIS SECURITIES, EVEN THOUGH THE MARKET MAY GO A BIT HIGHER, AND WAIT FOR THE ANTICIPATED BARGAIN LEVELS?

This question implies the natural desire in all of us to want to get out of the market at the top, before a downturn occurs. Scarcely a day goes by, when the market looks relatively high, that most of us do not feel like selling all of our securities. Then the next day we hesitate to sell in the hope they will go a little higher. There is a distinct danger in selling out all of one's holdings and then later becoming discouraged about that decision if the stocks rise to still higher levels. It is this happens, one can create the double error of selling too soon and then buying back too high.

The best way, I believe, to avoid being "whipsawed" is not to depend upon a policy of selling all of one's stocks at any particular time, but rather to sell a few stocks from time to time as they advance and as very substantial profits have been made in them. Anyone who carries into a market slump stocks amounting to only 25%-35% of his investment funds certainly has no real worries. The investor who is dependent upon income and who is not price-conscious might carry a larger amount of sound dividend-paying stock issues into a market slump. I suggest, therefore, that rather than selling out all of your stock holdings and then sitting back and waiting for bargain levels, it would be better for you to keep a few stocks, but at the same time hold a backlog of reserves that would be available for the repurchase of stocks later on.

Question No. 2—On Utility Stocks DO YOU THINK UTILITIES WOULD SUFFER WITH ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS?

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL

There's still time to get behind the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce in its all-out program for Little League baseball here next summer. For the last several weeks, the Jaycees have been working on the project, but still don't have all the help they need.

The big item, of course, in assuring a Little League program for the community's youngsters, is securing sponsors. At least four are needed in order to assure a well-rounded program.

After the sponsors are secured, other volunteer workers will be needed to keep the project going. Most of these, of course, will come from the ranks of the Jaycees, but there'll be plenty of room for all other adults wishing to assist in the program. There'll really be a big need for adult workers after play gets under way next summer.

In their efforts to set up a Little League program, the Jaycees have in mind the welfare of the community's youth. It's one of the best programs yet found to combat juvenile delinquency. Think of this when the Jaycees call on you for assistance in setting up the Little League baseball program.

Pravda, the chief Russian newspaper, gives familiar advice to those who would attain advanced years. They should avoid worry, sleep regularly, avoid excessive smoking or drinking. This leaves out the most important requirement: Don't criticize the government.—Breeze, Ill. Journal.

Rather than ask for price support at the expense of the consumer, cattlemen have launched a self-help effort to stabilize the present difficult cattle situation. They've gotten together with other people in the beef business—the feeders, packers and retailers. All the cattlemen ask is that the public help itself to beef, particularly to the less demanded cuts which are in such great supply right now. They point out that these cuts can be as tasty, when properly cooked, as those cuts we pay more for. And they're every bit as nutritious.—Bishop, Calif. Register.

There are powerful forces at work in this nation attempting to federalize the schools along with the power industry and others. We should be on guard against these forces.—Johnston, S. C. Ridge Citizen.

tween the 9th grade Rails and Wilson girls, the two teams showed up with almost identically the same color uniforms. To avoid confusion, the officials arranged for the Rails girls to borrow the jerseys of the Post girls, who had bowed out in a semi-final game to the same Wilson team.

Getting Out On The Limb

By EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Triumph is just umph added to try.

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any mind, the other that they haven't any business.

Come to think of it, it's been months since we've heard a flying saucer reported.

GEORGE TILLMAN was in the office Thursday afternoon for the first time since he suffered a severe heart attack several months ago. Until becoming ill, George was a daily visitor for a number of months as agent for the Lubbock Evening Journal. This time, however, he was in to pick up a paper instead of leave one.

George, a former member of the school board, wanted to see who had been elected head coach. He said he believed the board had picked a good one and was glad to see that he was a former Southwest Conference player.

George has just returned from a five-weeks visit in Houston. He said he'd been up and around since December—just hadn't had time to get around to seeing everybody.

Woman on bus to seatmate. "Yes, the kids are starting out with just what they have to have—bed, stove and TV set."

ONE OF OUR exchanges recently ran a little advertisement of its own, directed at its advertisers. It said: "A store that doesn't advertise still needs two clerks... one to carry out the other who faints when a customer comes in. Advertising is the life blood of business."

That goes for the sellers of goods and services—and for concerns that want to build up confidence and public interest, which are touchstones of commercial success. Advertising isn't an expense in the ordinary sense—by building business it helps to lower costs to producer and consumer both. And the newspaper, large or small, remains the most effective advertising medium.

WORD FROM the Post Lions Club is that they would like to see one of their members, J. A. (Jess) Rogers, elected as District Governor of 2T-1 at this year's convention. Jess has been getting around a lot and doing the new units with a capacity nearly double that of any previous Chevrolet truck. Pictured here is a tandem-equipped 2½-ton tractor with 174-inch wheelbase pulling a flat bed trailer loaded with concrete blocks.

COTTON SHIPMENT

One hundred bales of Texas cotton are being shipped by the Texas Christian Rural Overseas Program to Formosa and Korea, both outposts of the free world in the Orient. The cotton was contributed by individuals, churches and gins in 16 West Texas counties.

With the specially developed new dreadnaughts, Chevrolet's "Task Force Fleet" for 1956 is the most powerful, most versatile and largest array of trucks in the company's history, filling approximately 95 per cent of all truck requirements and totaling 105 models on 23 different wheelbases.

The heavy-duty units will be built at the company's new truck assembly plant at Willow Run. Significant features are: Chevrolet's first offering of tandem axle equipment as production options; the most powerful truck engine ever featured by the company; a sensational new automatic transmission that promises greater safety and control of heavily loaded vehicles; and the largest school bus chassis yet offered by Chevrolet.

Tested over the country's most rugged mountains, Powermatic six-speed automatic transmission provides new safety advantages for heavy trucks on steep downgrades because of an in-built hydraulic retarder. Also effective in heavy traffic, on curves and other highway situations, the retarder's effect is up to six times engine drag with little or no service braking needed on most downgrades.

One of eight transmissions available on the 1956 trucks, Powermatic automatically determines a shift schedule through six closely stepped ratios. The driver may also operate a selector to three speed ranges—drive for normal work; intermediate for hilly country or heavy traffic; and low for traction or controlled power. Power take-off openings for installation of special equipment are provided on both sides of the unit for the first time in any automatic transmission.

With a new 322-cubic inch V8—the Loadmaster—Chevrolet's truck engine choices this year total 10—five V8's and five Stressing efficiency, economy, versatility and safety combined with strength, Chevrolet's first offering of optional tandem axle equipment includes the Loadmaster V8 with 13-inch coil spring clutch, heavy-duty five-speed transmission, combination three-speed auxiliary and power divider, two 15,000-pound axles and walking beam suspension.

The new 2½-ton trucks have distinctive fender and grille design. Most notable is an air scoop, blending into the grille design, which also supplies added air to the radiator. An auxiliary step is standard on some models, optional on others. Heavy-duty frames are of a new, more rugged parallel-type construction while those on tandems are even sturdier. Heavier duty brakes and steering have been designed for the new units. A new Chevrolet option for 1956 is the air-over-hydraulic brake for 2- and 2½-ton models.

Two school bus chassis in the new group are nominally rated at 60 pupils as compared with a previous high of 54.

Other new features are tubeless tires, improved sealed beam headlamps and electrical systems. Automatic transmissions are optional for all models except school bus chassis.

South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show To Be Held In Lubbock March 19-21

LUBBOCK (Spl.) — The 23rd Annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show will be held here March 19, 20 and 21, according to an announcement made this week by George W. Brassell, Jr., general chairman for this year's area-wide show.

Catalogs for the 1956 show are now being prepared and will be sent, along with entry blanks to County Agents, FFA Advisors, and Vocational Agriculture teachers throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico next week.

The show annually attracts hundreds of 4-H Club and FFA Chapter boys from approximately 29 counties. The 1955 event exhibited 1,200 hogs, lambs, and steers.

General Superintendent of the youth stock show will be D. M. Sherrill, Lubbock County Agent, and L. M. Hargrave will be Assistant Superintendent.

Officials in the various animal divisions are: Fat Steer Division—Superintendent, Bill Griffin of Tahoka; Assistant Superintendent, C. L. Montgomery of Big Spring. Dean W. L. Stangel of Texas Tech will be judge.

Fat Barrow Division—Superintendent, Ollie Limer of Plainview; Assistant Superintendent, Bill Gregory of Spur, Lee Roy Colgan of Lamesa, and Paul E. Gross of Seminole. Stanley Anderson of Texas Tech will judge.

Fat Lamb Division—Superintendent, Thomas Neely of Lubbock; Assistant Superintendents, Olin Rice of Lubbock and Walter Meyer of Brownfield. Dr. Robert H. Black of Texas Tech will be judge of the Lamb Division.

Chairman Brassell announced a few changes which will be in effect this year. All animals must be entered by Saturday, March 17. The date was set to allow lifting to be done Sunday.

Also in the Steer Division, it was decided to have three weight classes, light, medium and heavy, instead of the two weights as in previous shows.

In the Lamb Division, three Grand Champions will be selected as to types.

Other over-all committee officials for the show are O. L. Byrd of Lubbock, vice-chairman; Frank Junell of Lubbock, finance chairman; and O. J. Sexton, clerk of sale.

Marine Takes Part In Beach 'Assault'

Marine Pfc. Travis Wayne Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Parrish of the Graham community, recently took part in a training maneuver on Iwo Jima.

More than 40,000 American servicemen, 70 warships and 360 landing craft participated in the maneuver.

The Japan-based and Okinawa-based components wheeled into combined force after fighting heavy seas and high winds. First assault waves of combat-ready Marine—battle-loaded with rifles, machine guns and light mortars—hit Iwo beaches 15 minutes after simulated atomic blasts.

Babson Says—

In the matter of foreign aid, there might be a somewhat greater tendency on the part of a strongly Democratic Congress to grant heavy expenditures for such purposes in order to keep employment high in the United States. However, it is likely that even in this matter there would not be too much difference, regardless of which major party controls Congress. I think that long-term promises of aid (more than two years at a time) will be avoided; but money aid is far cheaper than war. Furthermore, the net cost of foreign aid need not have much effect on Federal taxes.

Question No. 4—On How To Be "Liquid." And Yet Get Income
WHAT IS YOUR ADVICE TO A READER WHO HAS 30%—40% OF HIS RESOURCES IN CASH AND DESIRES TO OBTAIN AN INCOME FROM IT FOR THE NEXT THREE OR FOUR YEARS?

Although I can make certain broad generalizations regarding the division of investment funds and the nature of securities for each division, it is, I believe, very important to relate the percentage distribution of funds to the particular reader and his personal requirements.

All of us, however, recognize that the market is now pretty high, even though it may go higher before a long-term downward trend sets in. It appears obvious that readers who are not prepared to see their stocks sell much lower some day ought to hold a substantial amount of reserves now. This does not mean that the money has to stay in checking accounts. It is quite common practice in investment circles to designate as cash, money that is really invested in savings bank accounts, Savings & Loan deposits, high-grade readily marketable short-term bonds, and even certain preferred stocks. It is desirable to have your money earning something. Holding reserves today—as opposed to common stocks—calls for less sacrifice of income than at any time for many years.

Talk Could Kill
A besetting sin of the human race is idle talk. Sometimes it is carried on informally over the backyard fence. Other times it is virtually organized under the guise of a club which meets for little more than to chatter. People are taken apart, limb by limb. If talk could kill, many of us would have been dead long ago. We admire the study clubs for banning idle talk in their constitution and by-laws. There's a world of truth in the classic statement by George Eliot, "Narrow minded and ignorant persons talk about persons and not things; hence gossip is the bane and disgrace of so large a portion of society." — "Town Topics" in The Tulla Herald.

by confused interest, like the fluttering dove that deflects attention from her nest. One of life's most vital qualities has become the neglected child of education; a waif that begs in the corridors of destiny. It is the all-important attitude of the individual. It decides every success and every failure, concealed beneath the complex veneer of our society. It is the arbitrator in every friendship bankruptcy hearing, yet its security extends beyond the grave. Wisdom, religion, courage, talent, love and the long list of attributes which go into the formula of character become impotent without the proper attitude toward life. — "Trail Dust" in Matador Tribune.

Cried "Wolf!" Too Often
We suppose we should have run screaming headlines this week about the plans of Pete So-and-So to build 100 new homes here or the 12 planned by Willie Slump and the four to be built and the 20 to be moved in... and the two big service companies who are planning to move offices here from Kermit and Seagraves. Western Music Fans Invited To Ralls For Big 'Texas Hayride'

RALLS (Spl.) — "Texas Hayride," a full three hour western musical, will be staged in the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 25, according to Cecil Reese, president of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce, that is sponsoring the show.

All music on the program will feature folks on the last frontier of Texas and every number will be strictly western, Reese said.

On the program will be the Rambling Rascals, Bill Powell and the East Plains Playboys, Bo Bo Sercy and the Grant Brothers, Virginia Daniel plus comedy by A. R. Hughes and magic by Bill Mayes.

Prices are set at a low 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

"We are going to see if we have enough western music fans in this area to justify a regular program of this sort, and if we find out that we do, we will make a weekly show that should compare with western shows held in large cities in the nation," Reese added.

All proceeds will go to the chamber of commerce for community benefit. No producer, or actor will be paid anything other than actual expenses that they are out on the production.

Blame It On Snow

The scarcity of news this week will have to be blamed on the snow. It may not be a very good excuse but at least it's been a frequently used one the last few days. No one went anywhere, nobody had company, club meetings were cancelled, bills went unpaid. Even the birth rate slowed down. The reason on all counts: "Well, the snow, you know." It covered everything—including a multitude of sins. There may not be much news, but like we always say, "Snow news is good news." — "Main Street" in The Lorenzo Tribune.

Reclaimable Waste Water May Be Partial Answer To State's Problem

AUSTIN (Spl.)—University of Texas engineers say they hope to find at least a partial answer to Texas' troublesome water problem by studying reclaimable water in the state.

The project, conducted under a contract with the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, is directed by Dr. Earnest F. Gloyna, associate professor of civil engineering.

Specific goals of the investigation will be to establish the amount of waste water that will be available for reuse to municipal, agricultural and industrial users in the state and the cost of preparing that water for reuse.

Texas has a potentially-rich industrial area along the Gulf Coast and on important winter garden regions in the fertile Rio Grande Valley. Yet the growth of industry and agriculture in those and other regions of the state will be retarded unless more water is made available.

Most industries that locate in Texas, because of the raw materials and minerals found here, are large water users. Dr. Gloyna noted.

"It is a challenge to determine the long-range trends in production techniques and how much water will be available for reuse by industrial users in the future," he said.

PAL AND POOCHIE

They belong to a little girl. And she loves them both. But, although she is only a tot, she understands the difference between Pal and Poochie.

Poochie is just her "doggie dollie." She can talk to him, and pat him, and cuddle him at night in her crib. But she has to pretend that he loves her too!

Pal is her "bow-wow." He answers words and caresses with his eyes and his bark and his wagging tail. He follows her, he snuggles up to her. His love is just as real as his funny cold nose.

Poochie will one day retire to the attic. But Pal will be her pal for all of his faithful life.

Brings home, does it not, the importance of responding to love?

The love which inspires man's faithfulness is God's love. The Response is our Christian worship and life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Early Registration Is Sought On Truck Units

Truckers with several units are being asked to apply for registration of their vehicles as early as possible, since it will be necessary to assign serial numbers to all trailers over 4,000 pounds which do not already have them. Mrs. Exa Thomas, chief deputy tax assessor-collector, said Wednesday.

Up to Wednesday noon, 1956 passenger car registrations totaled 244, Mrs. Thomas reported. Those applying for registration are reminded to bring with them their certificate of title and 1955 registration receipt.

Grass Is Valuable Crop That's Often Overlooked By Many Texas Farmers

By JOHN C. WHITE
Commissioner of Agriculture

Controlled crop production, acreage restrictions and the proposed "soil bank" program will be factors to consider by farmers in Texas this year. Perhaps now is a good time to start planning a crop that is often overlooked by many farmers—grass.

Grass is a good crop or a poor one, depending on the attention given to it. It is a cheap feed—and that's important at any time. Farmers who are short of feed or cannot afford to buy it extensively are often able to lick the problem through pasture improvement.

Dairy cows get their best and cheapest feed from pasture. A good dairy cow or adequate pasture alone will give 25 to 30 pounds of milk a day. Pastures of average quality and production will provide daily the equivalent of 8 pounds of hay, 25 pounds of silage, and 4 pounds of grain.

On the average, beef cattle obtain 75 per cent of their feed nutrients from pasture and hay. Steers started on grass and finished by dry-lot feeding will use only half as much corn per 100 pounds of added weight as those fed in the dry lot altogether.

Grain-fed hogs are healthier and gain faster when allowed to graze. A combination of permanent and temporary pasture can save up to half of the concentrated protein supplement needed by pigs in a bare lot.

Poultry in good pasture eat about 10 per cent less mash and grain than they do in confinement. Lading clover has been worth $100 an acre as poultry pasture for egg production. Pasture is especially important in raising healthy, vigorous pullets for flock replacements. Green pasture for turkeys more than eight weeks old may save at least 20 per cent of feed required.

The State Extension Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture can furnish information of grasses suitable for the various sections of the state. For details, write John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture, Austin, Tex.

More Tax Returns Due From Farms

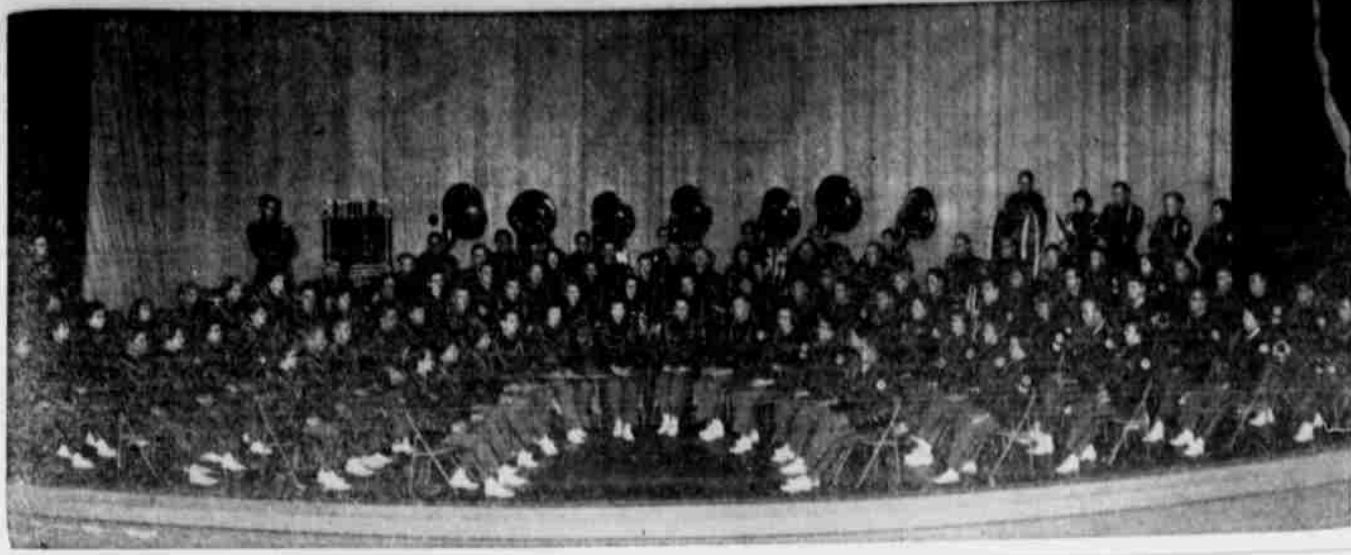

Farmers should keep adequate records in order to be able to file complete tax returns. John R. Robinson, administrative officer, Lubbock Internal Revenue, announced today.

"By all means keep a complete record of all your income, and all your expenses from your farming operation," Robinson continued. "Keep your records up to date by recording daily each sale of a farm product and each expense for feed, fertilizer, and other farm expenses. Personal living expenses, such as your own food, clothing, and the like, are not considered farm expenses. This record of your farm expenses and income will make the job of filing tax returns at the end of each year easy."

"Many more tax returns from farmers will be received this year," Robinson added. "This is true because the coverage of farm operators by social security will require a tax return from every farmer who nets as much as $400 from his farming, even if no income tax is payable. Tax return forms for farmers may be secured by writing the District Director of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas."

"If you are a farm operator, whether you raise peanuts, popcorn, pigs, poultry, or other farm product, you are obligated to pay self-employment tax and thereby earn social security credit, provided, of course, that you net $400 from your farming in the taxable year," Robinson said.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. I have a World War II GI term insurance policy. When I went back on active duty, I arranged to have my premiums waived. I am about to be discharged, and I want to resume my premium payments. Do I have to file an application with VA to pick up my insurance?

A. An application is not necessary. Merely resume your premium payments within 120 days after your discharge. Be sure to identify yourself fully when you pay—full name, address, date of birth, branch of service and insurance number.

Q. I enlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act early in 1946. I am eligible for a GI loan under the World War II GI Bill. Am I also subject to the World War II deadline of July, 1957?

A. The World War II GI loan deadline does not apply to you. Instead, your deadline will be 10 years from the end of your first enlistment period under the Voluntary Recruitment Act.

Q. I was discharged from the Army in January, 1955, so my deadline for starting Korean GI training is January, 1958—three years from discharge. Midland Man Appointed District 2 Crusade Director In Cancer Drive

AUSTIN (Sp.)—Judge Edwin T. Stitt of Midland has been appointed crusade director for District 2 for the Society's annual fund raising educational crusade, according to an announcement by Joe Polichino, 1956 state crusade chairman.

"Judge Stitt, who has been very active in civic affairs in Midland," stated Polichino in making the appointment, "will coordinate the efforts of hundreds of volunteers throughout District 2 to secure funds for support of the American Cancer Society's three-pronged attack on cancer through education, research and service."

District 2 is composed of the following counties: Andrews, Borden, Dawson, Dickens, Ector, Fisher, Gaines, Garza, Glasscock, Howard, Kent, King, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Nolan, Seury, Stonewall, Terry, and Yoakum.

"Last year," Polichino said, "the Texas Division of ACS raised over $895,000. This year our goal for Texas is $1,017,640, and for the nation $26,000,000."

Indicating the importance of the annual April Crusade, Polichino explained, "the April Crusade is the most decisive factor in saving thousands of lives from cancer each year because through the concerted efforts of ACS volunteers everywhere, many are learning the signs of recognizing the early signals of cancer."

"Although," Polichino said, "9,144 Texans died of cancer last year, an estimated 100,000 more were saved because they learned the facts of cancer in time. It is estimated that an additional 3,000 persons were saved through a greater effort."

The American Cancer Society is spending nearly $2,000,000 annually in a strongly coordinated cancer research effort by 1,000 scientists in a wide variety of institutions. More than $100 million is currently being spent as alone.

Progress In Pasture Improvement In '55 Reported By Texas County Agents

COLLEGE STATION, (Sp.)—Drouth, in combination with lower prices for livestock and livestock products in 1955, cut profits and made good pasture management difficult in many Texas areas. But, E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, in a year-end report said sound forage programs continued to be much more important from the profit standpoint in 1955 than in 1954, and the same reserves were 44 and 31 per cent respectively above those stored in years of high prices and normal rainfall.

He said extension workers continued to emphasize the need for getting maximum livestock production from pastures. But for the state as a whole, forage produced was 24 per cent below actual needs. On the brighter side of the picture, county agents reported that educational programs which they conducted within the counties added an estimated $35,651,228 to the value of pastures. Farmers and ranchmen stored 12 per cent more hay and bundle feed and 27.6 per cent more silage than in 1953.

Trew said the county educational programs on pasture improvement involved the holding by county agents of 1,009 indoor meetings with more than 31,000 persons attending; 340 pasture tours attended by 16,600; the writing of 1,800 news stories and supervising 5,058 demonstrations involving approximately 800,000 acres. These demonstrations included permanent and temporary pastures, fertilization and rotation grazing.

In addition, county agents established another 2,536 new permanent pasture demonstrations on 111,687 acres. Trew said the drouth years have made Texas livestock producers appreciate more than ever the importance of forage reserves for use when green grazing is not available.

Proper Pruning Is Based On Common Sense, Agent Says

Proper pruning is based on common sense backed up by observation and study. County Agent Lewis C. Herron told a home demonstration on Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Jess Propst in the Graham community.

Although the demonstration was to have been for representatives of all clubs in the county, cold weather cut the group to a handful representing the Graham club. Even then, the demonstration was cut short by cold, gusty winds, with the group moving inside to look at colored slides on pruning, shown by Miss Jessie Pearce, home demonstration agent.

Other pointers given by the agent during the demonstration included the following:

Winter pruning is recommended for a large number of plants, since it encourages growth of limbs and leaves. Severe pruning may stimulate tender growth which will be injured by cold. It is a risk to prune heavily between July 15 and Dec 1. Pruning once or twice each year does away with the need of heavy cutting at any time. The amount of pruning needed will vary with rainfall, soil, and climate.

Most of the plants should get their heaviest trimming in winter. They are (1), the broadleaf evergreens like privets, and (2) shrubs that bloom in late spring or summer, like crape myrtles.

The shrubs which bloom in the spring or early summer should be pruned as soon as the blooms fade. It is then that they begin growing bloom buds for the next year. Winter pruning does not injure the plants that bloom early. You merely lose a crop of blooms.

Large evergreens like cedars, arborvitae and junipers are difficult to prune. For this reason they should be planted where large growth is needed. Pruning every month is needed to keep them small.

Only the dwarf varieties should be used about the foundation of small or average houses. When left uncrowded these shrubs usually make well shaped plants without pruning.

Some kinds of pruning may be done at any time. Dead limbs, diseased limbs, badly injured limbs, and limbs that rub each other should be cut off any month. Plants like abelia and Florida jasmine need pruning all during the growing season. They have a tendency to send out long awkward shoots. If buds at the ends of limbs are cut off the plant will grow into a compact shape. This is generally more desirable than a shrub with a few long sprouts. Hardy shrubs which grow fast may be pruned during the growing season.

The county agent emphasized that plants be studied before pruning.

"The results wanted in pruning," he said, "are the same as those in planting a landscape: to maintain (1) comfort, (2) convenience, and (3) beauty in the home grounds."

The agent suggested that they ask themselves these questions before starting to prune:

Do any of your shrubs need to be changed in size and shape to improve their looks?

Have your plants grown too tall for the places in which they are standing?

Has their width increased until they are crowding each other?

How can you cut them to correct their overgrown sizes?

Could you improve the looks of your grounds by taking out some crowded or unhealthy plants?

Are your plants thin and weak?

Which branches may be cut to produce new compact growth?

Are some of your plants too dense?

Could your plants be improved by cutting some branches at the ground or near the ground?

Are some of your plants beginning to look old and gnarled?

Has the bark on them become old and rough?

Could you freshen your plant by cutting off old wood and letting it form new wood?

Have some of your plants grown over walks or drives?

Do outside limbs or parts of limbs nearest the ground form a natural facing of foliage?

Could they be pruned to give naturalness and grace to the plant?

Are some of your plants non-tonous in size?

Do some of them need to be cut to form lower shrubs?

In demonstrating the pruning of rose bushes, the agent explained that the kind and amount of pruning to be done varies with varieties and types of roses. No fall pruning should be done, since experiments during the past several years show that the less the amount of fall pruning, the greater the amount of flowers produced the following season.

Spring pruning on hybrid tea and floribunda roses should consist of the following practices:

1. Cut out dead wood.
2. Remove weak and spindly canes or stems.
3. Even the plants in the beds by pruning all good canes or stems to 24 inches from the ground.

These pruning practices, the agent said, are recommended for producing the greatest number of flowers in the rose garden and not for growing exhibition blooms. In general, hybrid teas are pruned more severely than floribundas.

A good, general pruning practice for climbing roses is to remove winter-injured wood and weak canes when growth starts in the spring. After the plants have bloomed, partially shorten some of the longer canes and remove a few of the older canes or stems each year.

1956 EASTER SEAL APPEAL IS NEARING

Crippled Children To Remain Major Responsibility Of American Public

Crippled children will remain a major responsibility of the American public throughout the foreseeable future, although recent medical developments have conquered or hold promise of ending many crippling diseases.

Euclid Hudson, Port Arthur civic leader and president of the Texas Society for Crippled Children, made this statement today in a message addressed to the 1956 Easter Seal chairmen and thousands of volunteer workers in Texas.

"That multitudes of children will continue to be crippled each year by accidents is the unfortunate fact," Hudson reminded. "Hundreds in Texas alone will be born with crippling conditions which we do not yet know how to prevent, and other hundreds will be crippled by as yet unconquered diseases. Nor can we forget those for whom new medicines and vaccines have come too late.

"We must remember that each of these children is a human being with tremendous potentialities; it is only some portion of their bodies which is crippled, their minds and other abilities are capable of great contributions to Texas and the nation. We must offer them the specialized physical, educational and occupational services and rehabilitation treatments which will develop their potentialities."

Hudson traced the program of the Easter Seal Society during its 35 years and told of the thousands of Texans who are given opportunities for more normal lives each year through the services of the Society and its treatment centers all over the state.

"But this number can and must be greatly increased," he pointed out. "And as it is increased, these boys and girls and men and women will bring increased well-being to their communities through their useful contributions to civic life and their purchasing power in self-sustaining jobs."

"Full-scale and effective financial support and understanding from the public will enable our Society to offer the right kind of help to the crippled—the help which helps them to help themselves."

Hudson emphasized that funds are vitally needed to keep pace with new medical and rehabilitation developments in the treatment, care and education of crippled children and adults. He also emphasized that the National Easter Seal Research Foundation, which is supported by a small percentage of each state's Easter Seal contributions, is stepping up its research into causes, prevention and methods of treating crippling conditions of all kinds.

"Our whole program is based on the voluntary way of helping our fellow man," Hudson declared. "We will grow in service as the people of our communities and state help us to grow."

The Texas Society for Crippled Children is one of the 1,655 affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, with units in each of the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Hudson said that the Texas Society seeks to raise $500,000 this year for aid to the crippled of this state. 90 per cent of the funds raised in Texas remain in the state for direct aid services,

Governor Proclaims 4-H Week In Texas

Gov. Allan Shivers has called attention to the scope and activities of the State's 4-H Club organization through a special proclamation.

The governor said, "There are now 121,044 4-H club members and more than 10,600 adult leaders engaged in work of the 4-H club program in Texas.

"This organization provides voluntary training for boys and girls between the ages of 9-21, not only in agriculture and home economics, but in preparation for better citizenship. For more than four decades the state of Texas has profited from the 4-H club training given its young people.

"This voluntary youth program has a nationwide enrollment of more than 2,000,000 and 42 foreign countries now have organized 4-H clubs.

"In Texas 4-H club work is directed by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M College System. The 691 county extension agents are responsible for developing and directing 4-H club work in the 254 counties. They work with young people, parents, volunteer leaders and friends of 4-H.

"As agriculture is important to the welfare of Texas, so better agricultural and home economic practices and more highly trained leaders are important to the future of our state.

"Now, therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 3-11 as 4-H Club Week and recommend the County Judges join with me in proclaiming this week throughout Texas, and urge all our citizens to participate in its observance."

All Texas 4-H members also extend an invitation to the public to share with them their observances.

Atomic Science Is Aiding Farmer In Fight On Insects

The war on insects has come into the atomic age. An agriculture department official reports that atomic science is being used to counteract the ability of insects to develop resistance to poisonous insecticides.

Radioactive tracers reveal how some insects are able to consume poisons and change them into relatively harmless chemicals inside their bodies. Entomologists say this will enable them to understand insects' biochemical defenses and find new, effective poisons to use against species that have become resistant to present insecticides.

Radiation has already been put to effective use in many areas, and has been used to make certain insects commit suicide. Dr. H. L. Haller of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service, says the paths of insects, even those beneath the soil or under the bark of trees, can be followed with geiger counters. Radioactive tracers help reveal the migratory and overwintering habits of insects and aid in making accurate population counts, essential in planning control measures.

This type of "tracer" makes possible more methods of applying poisons and modes of penetration to be studied. Insecticides traced as they ate show plant materials translocate the tissues, and later fed to insects.

On the island of Cuba the Caribbean Sea, thousands of laboratory-reared screwworm flies, made exposure to gamma rays radioactive cobalt, were used to mate with the wild mate once, they were mating only non-sterile population of the insects disappeared.

Stern Corrective Measures Seen As Answer To Traffic Deaths Problem

"The deliberate traffic violator who takes the life of an innocent person in a traffic accident is not far removed from the crime of murder."

That statement was made by County Sheriff Carl Rains today as he commented on the importance of the Texas Safety Association and Department of Public Safety's Know and Obey Traffic Laws program, which is being conducted in Texas this month in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

"Traffic accidents are a serious problem—serious to each and every one of us," the sheriff said. "National Safety Council records show that 36,000 persons were killed and 1,250,000 persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents in 1954."

Pointing out that more than half of the drivers involved in all accidents in 1954 were violating one or more traffic laws, Sheriff Rains emphasized the increasing need for more stringent laws relating to traffic violations and stiffer penalties for traffic offenders. Suggesting increased vigilance on the part of law enforcement officials, he indicated how the motor vehicle licensing bureau and the traffic court might help solve the traffic accident problem by more effective methods of controlling the number of traffic violators. One of these would be by the revoking of the driver's license. Another by stiffer fines and jail sentences.

"The traffic violator is a detriment to our society," the sheriff said.

Favorite Foods Top Plentiful List For March, Agent Says

Garza County homemakers will find more than a dozen favorite foods on the March plentiful list, according to Miss Jessie Pearce, county home demonstration agent.

Pork, beef and broilers and fryers top the meat list. Supplies of all are heavier than a year ago with broilers and fryers up almost 50 per cent.

Sharp increases in carryover more than offset production cutbacks and leaves the supplies of rice well above anticipated domestic and export demands.

Salable stocks of potatoes are about 17 per cent above a year ago with heaviest supplies in the east and lightest in this area, says the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Fresh and processed grapefruit continue in heavy supply with the last crop report showing an increase of a million boxes over the previous month.

Canned and frozen cherries are in heavy supply with the prices below any recent year except 1950-51 season.

The date harvest was delayed because of weather and the crop is above the average.

Milk and other dairy products are on the March list. Milk production is at record levels with the flush spring season ahead.

Other foods include peanuts, canned tuna in oil, vegetable fats and oils, and pinto beans.
