

Garza's Community Chest goal set at $12,500 again for 1960

Three drop out of Chest fund

The same Garza County Community Chest goal as last year—$12,500—has been approved by directors for the 1960 drive in November, but the lineup of participating organizations has changed considerably.

Three organizations which participated in the funds from the 1959 chest drive did not submit budget requests this year and four of the remaining eight were granted budget boosts.

Action adopting the Community Chest budget came last Thursday afternoon in a special meeting of Chest directors in the county courthouse.

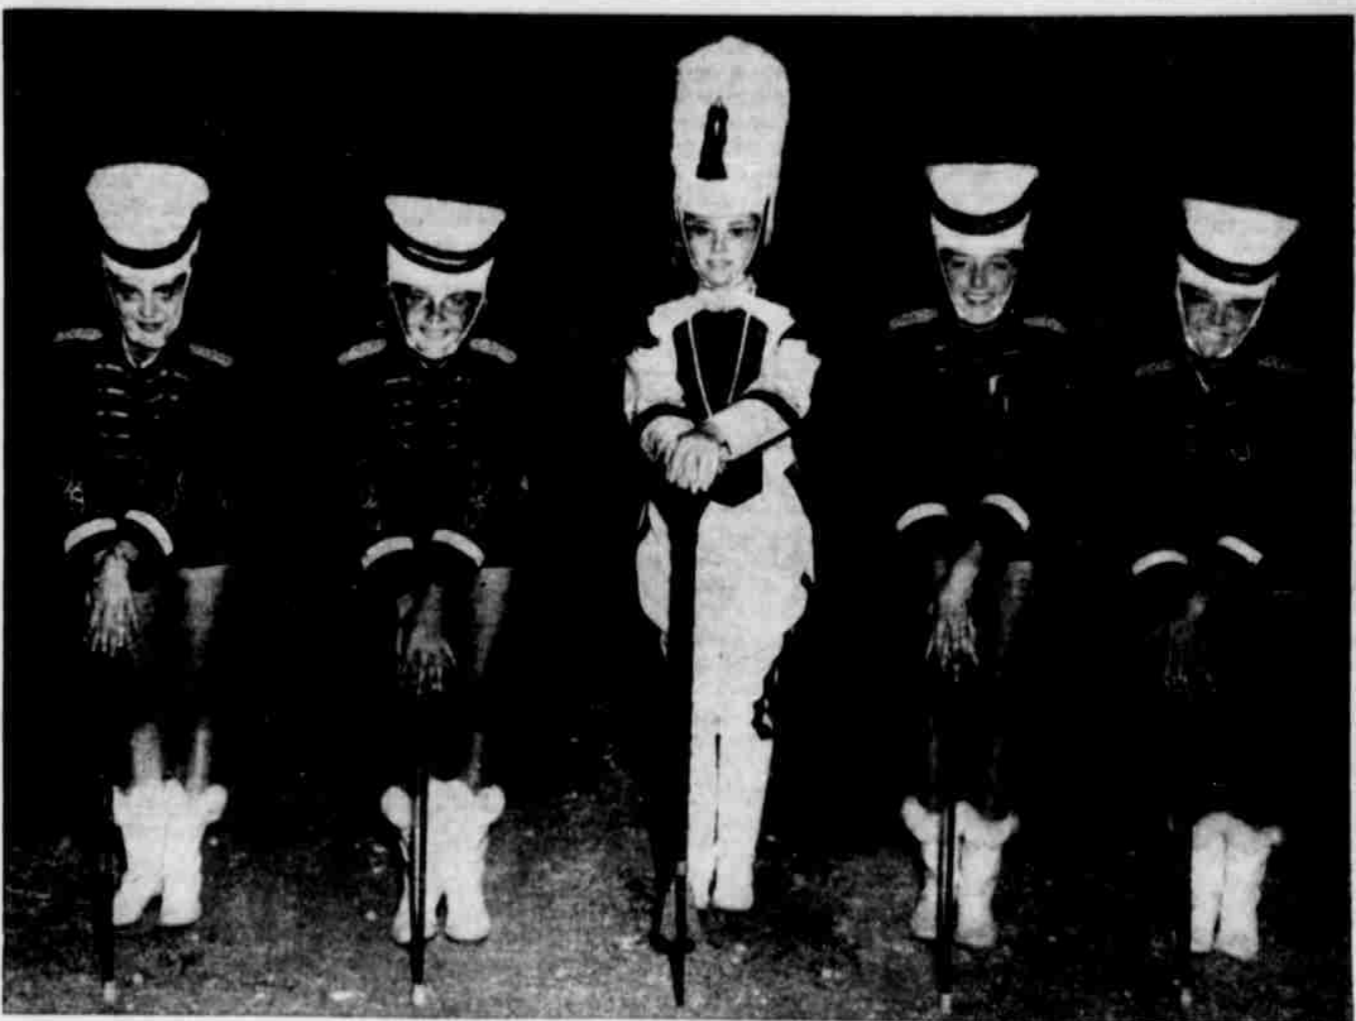

Dropping out of the Chest for 1960 are the American Cancer Society, which received $1,050 last year; the Golden Age Club, $594; and the Colored Youth Center, $395.

The cancer society simply did not submit a budget request after notifying the Chest organization last year that the society's national policy would prevent participation in Chest drives in the future.

The eight participating organizations in the Chest for 1960 with the amounts approved in the Chest budget and the 1959 figure in parenthesis are as follows:

Boy Scouts $3,000 ($2,500), Post Youth Center $1,730 ($615), Texas United Fund $575 ($538), American Heart Fund $600 ($600), Salvation Army $1,500 ($1,250), American Red Cross $1,750 ($1,750), Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation $395.

The cancer society simply did not submit a budget request after notifying the Chest organization last year that the society's national policy would prevent participation in Chest drives in the future.

TOO MANY COOKS?

1700 fed here at Farmers Barbecue

Approximately 1,700 persons ate barbecued beef, beans, potato chips, pickles, bread and either soft drinks or "cowboy coffee" at the successful first annual Farmers-Business Men' Barbecue Saturday night.

The big Chamber of Commerce-sponsored event, which replaces the first bale of cotton awards, was pronounced a big success by all who attended.

There was plenty of food for all—with some 100 pounds of beef and 30 gallons of chili and beans left over.

Business men who pitched in to serve the affair to farmers, wives, and youngsters from all over the Post trade area already were talking about next year's barbecue before the 4-H building had been cleaned up from the first one.

Six Postex workers win $60 in prizes in contest

The Postex Cotton Mills recently lost $327.80 in manufacturing, overhead and labor costs to produce a 760-pound bale of soft thread waste.

The significance of the $327.80 figure is that it was the correct answer for a guessing contest involving some 200 employees of the carding and spinning and weaving departments.

The six winners in the two departments were presented a total of $60 in prize checks Tuesday afternoon by Lee Ward, plant superintendent.

Annie Odum who won the $15 first prize in the carding and spinning department contest just missed the correct answer by 80 cents. She guessed the loss on the bale at $327.

Billy Littrell won $10 for second and Myrtle Boler $5 for third in the carding and spinning department contest.

C. J. Seals was the $15 first prize winner in the weaving department with James W. Barner, second, and Maleeey Norwood, third.

Purpose of the contest, Ward pointed out, was to make mill workers more conscious of the losses which can pile up in producing reject material.

Ward said a contest will be held later for the bleaching and spinning departments.

Rites today for Russell Wilks, Garza pioneer

Russell Wilks, 70, one of Garza county's early day cowboys who remained an active rancher and farmer in the county until his final illness, died at 1:05 p.m. Wednesday in the Crosbyton Clinic and Hospital at Crosbyton.

He had been at the hospital for seven weeks.

Wilks had been a resident of Garza County since 1902—five years before C. W. Post founded Post City. He was married in the bustling, young Post City to Miss Callie Viola Styles in 1911, four years after the town came into being.

Wilks lived on his ranch and farm in the old Grassburr community.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Julian Johns of Villie Platte, La.; two sons, Russell Wilks, Jr., and Ben F. Wilks, both of Post; eight grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. L. A. Barrow of Post; and four brothers, Walker of Slaton, Tom of Brownwood, Oran of See RUSSELL WILKS, Page 8

Encouraged by Fort Worth joint session

White River directors to discuss financing

White River Municipal Water district directors will hold a special meeting in Ralls next Tuesday night to discuss several proposed changes in the new financing plan for $4,000,000 in government loans.

The changes were suggested yesterday in Fort Worth in a joint meeting of the White River directors' finance committee, regional FHHA officials, two representatives of the Texas Water Development board, the White River district's legal advisers, and bondsmen.

R. J. (Rube) Jennings, Post's member of the finance committee who flew back from Fort Worth yesterday afternoon told The Dispatch that at Fort Worth "we received the best cooperation we've ever had."

He said he was "encouraged" as to the possibility of financing under the proposed new plan after incorporating some changes proposed yesterday at Fort Worth.

The joint session at Fort Worth was called in an effort to work out mutually acceptable bond maturity dates in the new loan financing plan proposed to obtain a $3,000,000 federal loan and $1,000,000 state loan.

The Texas Water Resources board, although apparently satisfied with the maturity dates proposed by the White River directors, did not approve these dates as reported last week by The Dispatch.

Instead, board members asked for the joint session in Fort Worth yesterday, apparently wanting the federal agency's thinking on the state loan maturity dates before taking action on the White River See WR FINANCING, Page 8

Youth Center director to be named Friday

Directors of Garza County's Youth Center will hold a special meeting right after the high school game Friday night to select a paid director for the center.

Four local couples have applied for the post which would include operation of the center for Friday and Saturday nights this week, planning a beneficial youth program, and being responsible for the center at all times.

Directors decided at a meeting Wednesday afternoon to call the special session for a final decision on a youth director couple after four met with the board as applicants for the position. The meeting will be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Young.

As for this weekend, the board decided to hold another "sock hop" Friday night after the game until midnight and to schedule a "Record Session" for young people at the center Saturday night from 8 to 11:30 p. m.

The board voted a 25 cent admission charge to the center per See YOUTH CENTER, Page 8

Oil worker dies of heart attack

Marion Colten Duer, 44, a tool pusher who has worked in West Texas oil fields for the last 15 years, died of a heart attack at 3 p. m. Tuesday at his home here at Avenue P and Third Street.

He had had previous heart trouble.

The Duer family moved to Post in August from O'Zona, Texas. He was employed by the Hewgley Drilling Co.

Survivors include the wife, of the home; one son, Wayne Duer, a junior in Post High School; one daughter, Coline Duer, a freshman at San Angelo Junior College; his mother, Mrs. C. E. Herrell of Hutchinson, Kans.; one brother, Harvey Duer of Babb, Mont.; and two sisters, Mrs. W. R. Briscoe of Carrollton, Mo., and Mrs. Norman Rothrock of Wichita.

Duer was born May 2, 1915, at Sylvia, Kans. He is a member of the Methodist church.

The body was taken to St. Johns, Kans., Wednesday afternoon where funeral services will be conducted in the First Methodist Church there Saturday. The Hudman Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements here.

Shop Rite Foods buys 19 Piggly Wiggly chain

Purchase of 17 Piggly Wiggly stores—including the Post Piggly Wiggly store—two D & H Super Markets, and the warehouse operation of Davis & Humphries, Inc., Lubbock grocery firm, by Shop Rite Foods, Inc., of Albuquerque, N. M., was announced in Lubbock Wednesday.

Contracts for the transaction, which calls for transferring of stock and assets of the corporation to the Albuquerque firm on Jan. 2, 1960, were signed at 10 a. m. Wednesday.

Real estate was not involved in the purchase of the stores.

Amount of the purchase price was reported in excess of $5,000,000.

Herbert Wilcox of Albuquerque and head of Shop Rite Foods, Inc., was enthusiastic over the access of area stores.

"In my opinion the Davis and Humphries organization is one of the finest in the food industry and I am very pleased to announce that Clifford Williams, who has been general manager of the firm for the past 25 years, will continue as resident manager of the Lubbock division."

Wilcox also announced that P. T. Glazner, longtime employe of the See PIGGLY WIGGLY, Page 8

County political pot soon to warm

"Dogwood time in Texas" should come around Thanksgiving this year—as far as the filing of candidates for the 1960 elections are concerned.

With the moving up by new state law of the filing deadline from May to Feb. 1 to permit late spring party primaries, the political campaign is sure to be in full bloom before little Mr. New Year pops into sight.

Down at Austin ten days ago, the "word" was that Gov. Price Daniel was leaving the road open for seeking another two-year term, while Attorney General Will Wilson is already running hard, but is just withholding formal announcement of the fact until "dogwood time" arrives so his eagerness won't show.

We've already had one attorney pop his hat into the ring for the primary race for a judgeship out here in West Texas. We lost the latter and can't remember the position. But it was really significant because it was a start on the 1960 race—right here in September, 1959.

Here in Garza County, the new "dogwood time" for politics means that county office candidates are going to have to start pitching in their wide-brimmed hats pretty soon.

You can hear just a little political talk around the courthouse now. And you can be sure you'll hear a lot more by Thanksgiving.

Just who will run for what, and what incumbents will seek re-election is still a matter of broad conjecture. But with the recent pay raises at the courthouse the interest should be even greater than usual.—JC

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

IT FEELS GOOD to sit down at the typewriter and bat out this column again, after having missed last week for the first time since we've been in Post. As Publisher Jim Cornish explained in his "Postings" column, we have been—and still are—filling in as Inter-type operator until we can hire a permanent typesetter. Even so, we'd have written last week's column if it hadn't been for the fact that we were tied up over the weekend replacing a part on the Inter-type. It's a job to replace most any part on such a complicated machine, but this particular part just happened to be one of the hardest to replace.

On top of all that, only one person has said anything about missing "Thursday to Thursday" in last week's issue. That person was our youngest son, who asked while turning through the paper, "Didn't you write your column this week?" It makes us think more of the boy.

COME MONDAY, we expect to be back up at our desk in the front office, taking some of the news load off Jim, Ruby and Joan. We'll also be back with our sports column, "PS in Sports," which we just haven't had time to write since making the switch to the back shop.

Country newspaper editors often feel like the editor of the Mound City Republic who "blew his top" recently through his front page column. He grew a little weary of getting plenty of free business with little if any of the paying — so he wrote:

"A recent bride was in last week to complain that the Republic had used a wrong word in her wedding write-up. Country boy that I am and not intending to embarrass her, I suggested that I give her money back.

"The wedding invitations were bought from some other printer and if they were worth packing home, cost $15 to $25. Then, no doubt, they used printed napkins at the reception; probably a photographer got $35 to $70 for the pictures of the couple; the minister got no less than 10 bucks for reading the ceremony; the girl who baked the wedding cake got another stipend.

"The florist nipped her old man for 50 to 70 bucks; it's a nice gesture to slip a five spot to the gal who plays the old church piano. When it's all over, it's a 'must' to leave $5 for the person who cleans up the church.

"At $2.50 an hour for Linotype operators, I printed a half column of 'showers' for the bride. After it was over, I spent $5.75 for a picture of the couple and used a column of type (at $2.50 an hour again for Linotype operators). I suppose her wedding cost me $12 to $15 and the story didn't suit the bride! I'm surely in the wrong business — but I still like to run a country newspaper."

OUR FRIEND up the street says the hardest thing about business is minding your own.

We're sorry the Russians shot the moon first, but we've noticed it doesn't look any different. We also predict that the United States will look the same after Krushchev goes home.

WE DON'T THINK we'd enjoy attending a high school football game at which no dogs were allowed. For added attractions, they vie with the bands and the pep squads. At the home opener against Crosbyton, four dogs were romping on the field while the game was going on. The following Friday night, at the Frenship game, one of the dogs — a big black and white one — was on hand again and when the visiting Tigers came running out of the dressing room for their pregame practice, the dog accompanied them from one end of the field to the other, running alongside the front-running player. We're always a little disappointed when the officials chase them off the field.

Our oldest son, who is home on leave from Uncle Sam's army, tells of a hot shot instructor who burned the men up with his caustic remarks. He said he was astonished when the class was over to see one of the men passing the hat for a gift for the instructor. "However," he said, "I understood when I saw the gift. It was a handsome framed picture of Lassie inscribed, 'With love, from Mother'."

One of our problems is lots

Post has lots of problems, and one of the problems is available lots for builders.

Ask any number of contractors what they are doing in the house building line these days and their stock reply is apt to be: "Looking for lots to use as building sites."

It's pretty obvious if more building lots on the townsite were on the market at prices in line with worth, there would be more building here today.

True, Post has expanded its city limits to three times its present size and in the future extensive residential developments can be expected in these new areas.

But financing the extension of utility services to this vast area is a real problem which is now under study by the City Council. Certainly, it will take time—several years to complete.

Slaton has just tripped over the same financial problem—how to finance extension of utility services to residential areas which are demanding them. A special meeting of the Slaton city commission and its newly appointed finance committee will sit down this weekend to puzzle out the problem.

The building situation here has no easy answer. Until the lot problem is solved, building is going to be slowed. Developers can't pay "speculator's prices" for lots and build FHA houses on them that will sell.—JC

Nikita is a surprising 'salesman'

Soviet Premier Nikita Krushchev in his current tour of America is doing a good selling job—not exactly for Nikita and his brand of Communism, but for the American government instead.

Our visitor from Moscow cannot hide his ruthlessness behind his smile. It is there for all to see—especially when he talks about Russia, America, and the world.

By coming to America on his "selling tour" Krushchev is selling a far different product from that he intended. He is selling the reawakening of millions of Americans in the Soviet threat to us—and the world.

In the face of this Soviet premier, as it is portrayed in millions of American homes via television, we are seeing for the first time how smart and capable a leader the Soviets have. And we are seeing, too, that with all his smiles and polish he cannot hide his ruthlessness aimed at the goal of one Red world.

Thanks, Nikita, for coming over and wakening a lot of us up as to what you are, what you represent, and what you intend to do.

We don't want any of your "products" this trip, but we do want to double our order with Uncle Sam and start selling harder our best line—Americanism, here at home as well as abroad.—JC

Youth Center project worthy one

Fresh interest by parents in the youth center project has resulted in reorganization of the youth recreational program here.

Securing a pad director has been the first order of business after getting a "sock hop" scheduled for the first after-football-game activity.

With the young people themselves well represented on the board to give parents the benefit of teen thinking and desires, the new organizational set-up promises a good opportunity to get the program rolling without too many misunderstandings.

The youth center project for the last few years has been financed by the Community Chest and would continue under the same plan.

There are numerous problems in connection with worthwhile youth center operations, and the teen-agers and parents are going to have to face them and solve them together if the new program is to become a permanent improvement around town.

Certainly, the new program is off to a fast start and has the general backing of the community.—JC

'Steer of Tomorrow' to be long, wide, deep

It's the Law in Texas...

"ASSUMING" A LOAN
 You can give some of your rights to other people, for example, the right to collect a bill, but it's a different thing with your duties. You need your creditor's OK firmly to assign your debts to another. You can sell what you own, all right, but you can't shake a debt merely by getting somebody else to promise to pay it for you. Your creditor—who is a party to your contract—has something to say about who takes over your obligations.

Thus, your cousin, say, borrows from you and promises to pay the money back. He can't get out of it by getting his neighbor to say he will pay you for him unless you agree—and this takes a written contract.

SUPPOSE YOU bought Abel's house on time for $15,000 and had paid off $5,000. Then, with $10,000 left to pay, you get Joe Blow to buy the place.

How could Blow pay you for it? Well, for Blow it would be just dandy for you to let him take over the $10,000 debt, pay you back your $5,000 equity and then pay off Abel the rest of your $10,000 debt. Blow would save the cost of a new loan—if his credit was good enough to get one in the first place. So you set it up that way.

One day Blow blew; and you, yes you, hold the bag. True, you could turn over your equity to Blow without Abel's consent.

BUT YOUR AGREEMENT with Blow to pay the balance is not binding on Abel. He can hold you to your original deal. Pay up $10,000.

Don't let someone "assume" your loan unless you protect yourself by an agreement with your lender, or unless you are willing to risk holding the sack.

Your buyer is often a good enough risk for you to let him assume the loan—but don't do it thinking you are free of your debt.

Rodeo 'World Series' to be held at Dallas

DALLAS — The roughest, toughest bucking stock in the country has been chosen for the first National Finals Rodeo, the "world series of rodeo," to be held in Dallas Dec. 26-30.

The rodeo will be held in the new State Fair Livestock Coliseum, with ten performances in all to be staged.

For the first time in history, representatives of all phases of professional rodeo met recently in Pendleton, Ore., to appraise the top stock of all the rodeo producers in both the U. S. and Canada.

Nine rodeo cowboys and three stock contractors selected 210 head of bucking broncs and bulls from among those nominated for rodeo's "world series." The selections were based on the most meticulously complete records ever kept on rodeo stock.

The National Finals Rodeo will bring together the world's greatest cowboys, the top 15 championship contenders in each of rodeo's standard events, and the toughest broncs and rankest bulls ever assembled in one place for one rodeo contest.

The prize money total of $50,000, plus entry fees, is the largest ever put up for a five-day rodeo. At the conclusion of the rodeo, the Rodeo Cowboys Association will proclaim the World's Champion Cowboys in each standard event for 1959.

The competing cowboys will qualify for the National Finals Rodeo on the basis of their total winnings through the entire year at some 500 rodeos approved by the RCA.

The latest championship "standings" or total money winnings to date announced by the Rodeo Information Committee indicates who some of the top participating cow-

"The Light of the World"

by RONNIE PARKER

John was speaking of Jesus in John 1:4 when he said "In him was life, and the life was the light of men." Light is that by which we see objects distinctly. The light of the sun enables us to discern the form of objects and prevents the perplexities and dangers which result from a state of darkness. LIGHT is used in the language of our text for KNOWLEDGE.

In John 9:5 Jesus says, "I am the light of the world." The meaning is, that the Christ is the instructor or teacher of mankind. What a sublime description is this! Jesus occupied the same place, filled the same space, shed his beams as far, in the moral world, as the sun does on natural objects.

All is dark when the sun sinks to the west, so when Jesus is absent from the souls of men, all is midnight and gloom. Jesus is truly the Sun of Righteousness and his shining is as necessary in regard to our souls, as is the shining of the natural sun.

Why we built two cars for 1960... as different as night and day

On October 2—for the first time in Chevrolet's 49-year history—you will be able to walk into your dealer's showroom and see two totally different kinds of cars. ■ One is the conventional 1960 Chevrolet, brand new in appearance and more beautifully refined and luxurious than you can imagine. ■ The other is unlike any car we or anybody else ever built—the revolutionary Corvair, with the engine in the rear where it belongs in a compact car. ■ We'd like to tell you why we built two such different cars, how we built them—and for whom we built them.

Why two kinds of cars? Because America itself has been going through some big changes in the past few years. Our cities have been straining at their seams. Traffic is jam-packed. Parking space is at a premium.

And our suburbs have spread like wildfire. People are living farther from their work, driving more miles on crowded streets. There is new leisure time—but more things to do. There's a new standard of living—and more need for two cars in the family garage.

In short, America's automobile needs have become so complex that no one kind of car can satisfy them completely. That is why we at Chevrolet, keeping tab on these trends, have had a revolutionary compact car in the planning stages for more than nine years.

Thus, when we decided three years ago to prepare for production of such a car we were ready to build it the way it should be built. There was no need for a hasty "crash" program that would create only a sawed-off version of a conventional car.

That is why the two cars you will see in your dealer's showroom October 2 will be two entirely different kinds of cars. One is the conventional '60 Chevrolet—brand new in beauty, with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, a new feeling of sumptuousness and luxury never before attained by any car in its field. There is great V8 power linked with new thrift, plus Chevrolet's superb 6-cylinder engine. It is a traditional car that comes even closer to perfection—in silence, in room, in ease of control, in velvety ride—than any other car we have ever made.

The other is the Corvair, a compact car that is astonishingly different from anything ever built in this country. It has to be—because this is a six-passenger compact car, with a really remarkable performance... a car designed specifically to American standards of comfort, to American traffic needs.

The engine is in the rear. Among the basic advantages resulting from this engine location are better traction on a compact 108-inch wheelbase and a practically flat floor. But to be placed in the rear, the engine had to be ultra light and ultra short. So Corvair's engine is totally new—mostly aluminum and air cooled; it weighs about 40 per cent less than conventional engines. It is a "flat" horizontally opposed six—so it is only three cylinders long... and that leaves a lot more room for passengers.

Another weight saving: like modern airplanes, the Corvair has no frame; the body-shell supplies it great structural strength... it's a welded unit that is virtually rattle-free.

The ride is fantastic. But to get it we had to design independent suspension at every wheel; conventional springing would give a compact car a choppy ride. Right now we'll make one prediction: no other U.S. compact car will ride so comfortably, hold the road so firmly and handle so beautifully.

Now there are two kinds of cars from Chevrolet—because it takes two kinds of cars to serve America's needs today. If you love luxury—the utmost in luxury—and if you want generous interior space, breath-taking performance, automatic drives and power assists—then the conventional '60 Chevrolet may be your choice.

If easy parking, traffic agility and utmost economy are high on your list—then you should seriously consider the Corvair. But the best thing to do is to look these two new cars over at your Chevrolet dealer's... take them out for a drive. It may be that the only logical choice for your family between two cars like this is—both. They make a perfect pair.

Dove hunters take notice

AUSTIN — "White-winged dove hunters, please take only one sack per car." This request will be on signs at entrance and departure routes of hunting areas again this year, according to the Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration, Texas Game and Fish Commission. "Be on the lookout for these signs," he said. "Each sign will have a self-dispensing sack holder. It's very important that every hunter's car have one of these sacks."

Each sack will have a form to be filled out by each hunter or group of hunters. Hunters are instructed to list the number in the party, number of whitewings and mourning doves bagged and recovered or lost. One leg from each whitewing should be placed in the sack.

The hunters then should drop the sacks at the base of the portable hunter check stations. These stations will be marked with signs and a blinking blue light, so they can be located after sundown. Hunters also are reminded to pick carefully their hunting sites. Don't shoot a bird if it will fall in thick brush where it can't be recovered. Attempt to recover all birds.

September 11, 13, and 15 are this year's alternate hunting days. Hours are from 2 p.m. until sunset, with a bag and possession limit of 10 birds. When both mourning and white-winged doves are in possession, the limit is 20 birds in the aggregate, but only 10 whitewings can be included.

A Famous American Ship

In December, 1951, the Isbrandtsen Company's Flying Enterprise was en route from Germany to New York, on her regular round-the-world cargo run, when she encountered a gale in the English Channel. Continual battering of mountainous seas opened a large crack amidship. Though Captain Henrik Kurt Carlsen ordered the crack cemented and sandbagged, it reopened continually. When rescue ships appeared in response to his SOS, Captain Carlsen directed passengers and crew to abandon ship, which was done without loss. He remained on board alone. Several times, single-handed, he secured a tow-line to the forepeak; but weather thwarted each tow effort. On January 10, standing with Kenneth Daney, who had come aboard from the tug Turmoil, Carlsen sensed that his beloved ship would not make the safe haven of Falmouth. Reluctantly, after Mr. Daney, he leapt from the smokestack of the vessel when she had come over practically on her side. Minutes after he was aboard the Turmoil, Flying Enterprise turned completely over and sank. Captain Carlsen's heroic stand against the elements, and his fond attachment to his ship, says the American Merchant Marine Institute, constitute one of the finest sagas of the sea, as well as an individual act of bravery and devotion to ship and duty rarely equalled in maritime annals.

"TODOS BIENVENIDOS"
(Church located on Northeast side of town on Spur highway)

Blowing out the candles on a birthday cake has always meant a special wish will come true. This cute two-year-old is thinking of that big dolly, a baby buggy or maybe that wonderful play house. Whatever is her wish, if it is humanly possible, her parents are sure to see that it comes true.

As we grow older, our wishes become more difficult to bring to fulfillment. We wish for a new car, perhaps a different job or how often have we said "wish I had a million dollars" . . . And yet, if we but stop and think a moment, it is easy to see how very foolish such longings for material possessions can be. The greatest blessing that man can receive is Peace of Mind. And that Peace can only come through a knowledge and love of God. Don't base your life on wishes; but upon the promise of Eternal Life as God intended. Go to church and take your family.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Dr. Tubbs attends regional conference

Cancer medicines in generation predicted

Dr. Harry Tubbs attended the 13th annual Southwest Regional Cancer Conference at the Fort Worth Academy of Medicine in Fort Worth Sunday.

Speakers at the meeting were the president of the American Cancer Society, Dr. Eugene Pendergrass of Philadelphia, the president elect of the American Cancer Society, Dr. Warren H. Cole of Chicago, and the Medical Director to the Atomic Energy Commission and Consultant in Radiation to the United Nations, Dr. Shields Warren of Harvard University School of Medicine.

Highlights of Dr. Pendergrass' talk were the following points: Chest X-Rays, each six to twelve months are important in detecting cancer of the lung early because by the time cancer of the lung has begun to produce symptoms it has already spread in many cases. Another point which Dr. Pendergrass made was that people who are being treated for cancer, apparently successfully, should have continuing careful attention, since physical and emotional crises might flare up a cancer case which had otherwise been controlled.

Dr. Cole talked on the spread of cancer within a person's body and current methods of treating cancer. He called attention to the fact that many cancers are spread by the seeding of cancer cells on previously damaged tissues, and discussed means of preventing this type of spread at surgery. Dr. Cole called attention to the fact that cancer cells can lie dormant in a cancer victim's body for many years before they develop into metastatic tumors.

He commented that a virus origin is the most logical explanation of cancer in light of present knowledge and predicted that within one generation there would be specific medicines to give to cure certain types of cancer, but that there would be no sure shot medicine to cure all cancers at any time.

Dr. Shields Warren talked about Radio Active Fallout and cancer of the stomach. His most interesting comment, according to Dr. Tubbs, was his statement that if some evil person or persons should set out to wipe out the human race by any mean including radioactive ones, that he would find it about as difficult to completely eradicate the human race as the human race has found it to eliminate cockroaches, crab grass, and other pests. Accompanying Dr. Tubbs for the ride were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stelzer who visited their uncle, Charles Stelzer at his Fort Worth home.

firm, and Harold Humphries, son of W. E. Humphries, one of the founders, will continue in the operation as buyer and advertising and public relations manager respectively.

"There will be no changes in the management and operational policies of Davis and Humphries under our organization," Wilcox said.

"We plan to continue with the established policy of furnishing the best possible service and quality products at reasonable prices." Concurrent with these statements, Williams, the Lubbock district manager, announced: "No change will be made in the store managers and personnel."

Acquisition of the stores by Shop Rite Foods closed out a 48-year partnership in the grocery business between J. M. Davis and W. E. Humphries, which began with a little country store at Brashear in Hopkins County.

In 1924 they came to Lubbock and purchased a Piggly Wiggly store owned by the late J. I. Noah and Albert and Sam Darby. The business expanded until it now includes 19 modern super markets and central office and large warehouse.

In purchasing the South Plains food chain, Shop Rite Foods became one of the major super market operators in the Southwest.

Although the organization is only six years old, it now comprises 30 supermarkets, headed by Herbert Wilcox of Albuquerque, who has held managerial positions in several states for national food chains since 1923.

Shop Rite Foods bought its first store in Albuquerque and Santa Fe, N. M. In 1955 the Boston Piggly Wiggly stores of Amarillo were purchased and in October, 1957, the Piggly Wiggly stores in San Antonio were added to the chain.

The company now operates 30 Piggly Wiggly stores in Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Farmington, Amarillo, and San Antonio.

Three building permits issued

Building permits issued here in the past week totaled $3,500 which boosted the year's construction total to $930,135.

A. J. Payne, contractor, was issued a permit for moving in a 28 x 38 residence, concrete foundation, wood siding and composition roof for Irvin Scarborough at a cost of $3000. It will be located at 121 North Avenue O.

The other two permits issued were to Bonnie McMahon, 111 East 12th Street, for placing of composition roof on residence at a cost of $200. L. B. Baker, 809 West 12th, received the other permit at a cost of $200 for new roof on residence.

WMU MEETING HELD
The Women's Missionary Union of the Friendship Baptist Church met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Bernie Jones for the Week of Prayer in conjunction with the Mary Hill Davis program. Mrs. Douglas Tipton was in charge of the program. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the 11 members and six children present.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTION
At the Assembly of God Church, Sunday morning, the Sunday School Teachers and Officers of the Sunday School will be elected and appointed to assume duties for the new Sunday School year which begins the first Sunday in October. Rev. J. R. Brincefield, pastor, urges all members to be present.

Our second Garza County School page on page 13 is even more complete than last week's starter. This week you'll find a column from Southland high school, and news reports from both the Close City school and the Post Colored school, as well as the first "youth editorial". The junior high staff also got busy and came up with a corking good column, "Junior High-Lights".

Juvenile crime on increase here, speaker warns

Juvenile delinquency is increasing right here at home—here in Post, in Levelland, and in Lubbock—the Rev. Joe Barnett of Levelland told a crowd of 150 at the Rotary Club's Teachers Banquet in City Hall Tuesday night.

All Post teachers, their wives or husbands, administrators, and school trustees and wives, and wives of the Rotarians were guests of the club for the annual affair.

The Levelland pastor of the Church of Christ spoke on parent-teacher relationships.

"Home life is the most important of all," the speaker said a study of the real causes of juvenile delinquency shows.

In happy loving homes there are no delinquents, he declared. From quarrelsome homes a great many delinquents come. Broken homes, he added, are the No. 1 cause of juvenile delinquency.

The father's influence has been found in these studies to be very important and a mother's personality has a great influence over whether the children of that home become delinquent or not.

Rev. Barnett told parents present that "we can't departmentalize the lives of our children and turn them over to school, church, and friends to raise."

"A home," he declared, "should be a place where the world of strife is shut out and the world of love is shut in." He emphasized that consistent home discipline is very important. Out of 105,000 waking hours, a child has until he or she reaches the age of 21, only 12,000 of them are spent in school and 2,100 in church activities, he pointed out. The remaining 90,000 are spent in the home.

Leo Acker, Rotary president, presided over the annual banquet.

Rotarians individually introduced their wives. Supt. R. T. Smith introduced trustees, administrators, and faculty members.

The Rev. Ronnie Parker pronounced the invocation. Leslie Acker sang two tenor solos, accompanied on the piano by Georgie Willson.

Chest goal—

$500 ($500), and Girl Scouts $1,750 ($1,750).

The Boy Scouts asked for and received a $500 boost from $2,500 to $3,000 to serve an estimated 200 Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers in Garza County. The Scout budget for the 18-county South Plains Council is $107,021 with some 10,000 boys served.

Both the Texas United Fund, which is a united fund for a whole host of beneficial organizations, and the Salvation Army sought and were granted budget increases.

The Post Youth Center, which in recent weeks has been reorganized with plans for a paid director for weekend activities, was approved for a $1,730 budget as compared with $615 last year.

Of the $1,730, however, the Chest stipulated that $900 of this amount would be paid unless a youth center director is employed. The $900 would go for his salary.

The remaining $830 of the Youth Center budget includes rent $60, utilities $190, concessions $30, records and entertainment $60, purchase of 12 more folding chairs $72, repairs $100, janitor labor $208, and janitor supplies $120.

The Girl Scout organization was approved only for $900 unless the Garza County Girl Scout organization is accepted into the Caprock Girl Scout Council when $1,750, or an amount needed up to this amount will be paid by the Chest.

In submitting the Girl Scouts budget request, Giles McCrary told the Chest budget committee that the Garza County Girl Scouts had applied by letter Sept. 7 for admission into the Caprock Girl Scout Council in an effort to revitalize Girl Scouting activities here.

He explained it was difficult to determine just how much the Girl Scouts would need if accepted into the Caprock Council, which would provide leadership training and direction much as the Boy Scout council does in the boys' program.

Members of the Chest's budget committee which held budget hearings on the new budget before presenting it to the directors were Lynn Duncan, chairman, R. T. Smith, L. C. Herron, D. C. Hill, Leo Acker, Mrs. Beth Walker, and J. B. Potts.

The week-long county Chest drive this fall is scheduled for Nov. 16-20 with Acker as the drive chairman. He plans to complete his drive organization within the next few weeks.

Charges were filed in Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts court during the last seven days against four persons — two for illegally shooting wild doves from an automobile.

The other two charged were John Veach, Sunday, for drunkenness by Deputy Sheriff J. W. Floyd; and L. F. Warren, Friday, by State Highway Inspector E. A. Nelson for truck over gross weight.

WR financing

district's request.

In the September meeting of White River directors at Crosbyton last Thursday night, Marvin McLaughlin of Rails, chairman of the financing committee, explained to the board that the FHHA won't act upon the new financing proposal for the loans until after the state board has accepted the proposed maturity dates.

At the directors' session, McLaughlin pointed out that the four member cities of the district need to start setting up reserves in their water funds to protect bondholders.

Attending the Crosbyton meeting from Post were Tom Boucher, president of the White River board, Board Member Jennings, and Dispatch Publisher Jim Cornish.

Letters to the editor..

Dear Editor:
Will the new high school building be large enough to house all four high school grades? Will the present high school building house all three junior high grades? If not, then our present building plans had better be sacked for larger ones. At present, our grade school houses three grades and two classes of the fourth grade. The poor little "ole" eighth graders had to be moved to high school, which is hard on their moral. For three years they have looked forward to being the senior class of Junior High. Now that pleasure has been denied them. They are "no-bodies" over in high school.

Most people today have from four to six children and our new buildings should be made large enough to accommodate them now and later. I would be more than willing to pay $10 a year more in school taxes, if necessary, in order to have enough class rooms for all. A couple of empty rooms now, is better than three or four overcrowded ones later.

Sincerely yours,
Wanda Willa

The John Lotts, one of Post's best known and most active couples in community and area "good works", will be leaving Post in the not too distant future and moving to Lubbock. The Lotts have purchased a home in Lubbock and expect to move there in the late fall. The move has been in their minds for some years—but crystallized only recently when they went house-looking in Lubbock and found just the home they wanted and purchased it.

That "block house" everybody has been seeing under construction on the new First National Bank site on West Main actually is the new bank's concrete and steel vault. Some interesting statistics on that "block house" show that the concrete walls are 18 inches thick, including top and bottom and all four walls, and contain a "double curtain" of reinforcing iron rods. The iron in the vault walls alone weighs several tons. Incidentally, all the steel for the bank building has arrived and there will be no shortages caused by the current steel strike.

In making this want ad correction we received a mighty good recommendation on the power of a Dispatch want ad. Some weeks ago in running a want ad for "wanted—ironing to do" we incorrectly printed the phone number to call as 534J which is the phone number of Mrs. Robert Meisch. The phone number should have been 531J. Anyway Mrs. Meisch has been getting calls every since—two yesterday morning—wanting her to do some ironing and the woman who actually placed the ad probably lost some business over our mistake. But at least this is to correct any wrong impressions. Mrs. Robert Meisch doesn't take in ironings, and the correct number is 531J.

Bob Collier's drug store is getting a full interior remodeling this week as you'll notice in Bob's "hope we haven't inconvenienced you" ad message in his many customers in this issue. Bob had planned on the remodeling for late summer, but the contractor has been running several weeks behind and couldn't get here until last weekend. When the remodeling is all over, Bob is going to uncock a 50th anniversary sale so everybody can see how pretty his remodeled store is and take home a sack full of bargains at the same time.

This is "new car season" and the first announcement comes in today's Dispatch for the unveiling of the 1960 Oldsmobiles at Caprock Chevrolet next Thursday. See Claud Collier's invitation on page 16 to come take a peek.

Our second Garza County School page on page 13 is even more complete than last week's starter. This week you'll find a column from Southland high school, and news reports from both the Close City school and the Post Colored school, as well as the first "youth editorial". The junior high staff also got busy and came up with a corking good column, "Junior High-Lights".

Post defeats Frenship for first '59 victory

The Post Antelopes pulled a repeat performance here Friday night to get back on the victory trail, 22 to 8, at the expense of the Frenship Tigers of District 5-A.

Last year, the Antelopes won their first game of the 1958 season at Frenship in the first football game ever played between the two schools. The score was 28-0. The Tigers were stronger this season, but were no match for the Post eleven, which could have won by a much wider margin if they could have kept at least a half-dozen sustained drives going.

ON THE FIRST play, Crites got behind the Antelope defense, took a perfect 12-yard toss from Stapleton and went 25 yards untouched for the first Tiger counter. Fullback James O'Donnell carried over for the extra points, but the play was nullified and Frenship penalized 15 yards for holding. Stapleton then passed to Harnist for the extra points to close the gap to 14-8 with 9:05 to go in the fourth quarter.

West's first 'big name' team invades Lubbock

LUBBOCK — First visit of a "big name" Pacific Coast team to West Texas will be Oregon State's meeting with Texas Tech's Red Raiders in Jones Stadium at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Oregon State's football fortunes during the past four years—Coach Tommy Prothro's regime—have been the best on the Pacific Coast. The Beavers were beaten last Saturday night but it was at the hands of Southern California, favorite to win the Association of Western Universities, successor to the Pacific Coast Conference, 27-6.

7th, 8th graders split twin bill at Tahoka

Post's seventh and eighth grade football teams split a twin grid bill in the rain, hail, wind, and sand at Tahoka Tuesday night.

Coach Gerald Loyd's seventh graders grabbed an abbreviated 8-0 triumph when Tahoka forfeited the game at the halftime intermission rather than go back on the field and play out a rather one-sided game in the rain.

The eighth graders missed out on several scoring opportunities and dropped a 6-0 decision to Tahoka in the final five minutes of play in the nightcap.

The seventh graders, who kept possession of the ball the entire first quarter and who never permitted Tahoka to gain a single yard, scored in the second period when tackle Ronald Turner blocked a Tahoka punt and end Danny Pierce covered the loose ball in the end zone for the touchdown. Benny Owen ran over the two conversion points.

The seventh grade club has an open date next week.

Coach Glynn Gregg's eighth graders will play Crosbyton in their next game here next Thursday night with kickoff scheduled for 8:30 p. m.

COACH ALEXANDER played every member of his 18-man squad. Of the regulars, guard Jimmy Minor, tackles Bobby Beard and Dan Rankin, end Glendon Washburn and center Mike Cornell played stout games on defense, with help from sophomores Bobby Hudman, guard; Jimmy Ivie, center; Harold Wayne Mason, tackle; Dean Johnston, tackle, and Jerry Turner, tackle.

Linebacker Horace Smith was also a power on defense before injuring a knee late in the game.

Kenneth Williams saw action at quarterback on offense and tackle on defense, and Tommy Boucher, sophomore halfback, turned in a good defensive job, especially on pass defense.

Norm Cash makes it into Series

The Chicago White Sox in beating Cleveland Tuesday night clinched their first American League pennant in 40 years and thus put the first area player ever into a World Series.

Norm Cash, substitute outfielder and first baseman, thus will go into the big Series next week with the White Sox and establish the Chicago team as a real favorite among Post and Justiceburg fans.

Norm crashed a pinch hit home run last Saturday afternoon in the ninth inning against Detroit with one man on base to almost save a badly needed victory for the Sox.

With the late season purchase of Ted Kluszewski, a veteran slugger, Cash has seen action only in pinch-hitting roles.

But with his home run Saturday, the Post High graduate and Justiceburg product probably assured himself of at least some action in the approaching World Series.

Ronnie Clayton in 92-yard scoring run

Post High's B team Colts, comprising principally the freshmen with some sophomores, bowed to Slaton, 28-6, at Slaton last Thursday night.

In 1958 when the two teams were a year younger, Slaton piled up a 64-0 triumph.

Post got off on the right foot when Ronnie Clayton broke away on the Colts' first play from scrimmage to run 92 yards for the only touchdown of the night for Coach John Blocker's hustling crew.

Slaton held a narrow 8-6 halftime lead after coming back to score a tying touchdown and then take the lead with the conversion.

The home team tallied twice more in the third period when Post couldn't hold onto the ball and a final time in the fourth quarter. Post fumbled four times in the third period and lost the ball on three occasions.

Colts play Spur here Saturday

Coach John Blocker's Post Colts will play Spur high reserves here Saturday morning with the kickoff scheduled for 9:30 a. m.

The game originally was scheduled for Thursday night.

Southland thumps Dawson by 3 TDs

By LINDA PAYTON

SOUTHLAND — The Southland Eagles scored their third straight triumph of the grid season here Friday night, defeating Dawson, 20-0.

In the first quarter, Ronnie Sales scored from 15 yards out on a dive play. The extra point was not good.

In the second period, Darrell Jones scored from 25 yards out on a pichout from Sammy Ellis. Again, the extra point try failed.

In the second half Clinton Smith scored on a 60 yard pass and run play from Sammy Ellis. The extra point was made by Travis Lancaster. Late in the fourth quarter Southland threatened again, but was stopped by a fumble.

Looking good on offense were Edwin Louis, Harvey Pennell, Jimmy Lancaster, Robert Pritchard, Don Barker and Travis Lancaster. Defensive standouts were Gary and Delton Robinson, Dennis Popham, Clinton Smith, and Ronnie Sales.

The remaining players on the bench, our future team, were pulling hard for Southland too.

Southland's next two games are away from home. They are at Klondike and Patton Springs. Our next home game will be with Guthrie Oct. 9.

Wilt Chamberlain and other pro cage stars to play in Lubbock

LUBBOCK — Basketball's most publicized player—Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain—will be one of the many stars appearing in the Oct. 3 professional cage game at Lubbock Coliseum.

The contest pits the Philadelphia Warriors, with whom Chamberlain recently signed, against the St. Louis Hawks, 1958 world champions. It will mark the first time that clubs of the National Basketball Association have appeared in West Texas, and all indications point to a big turnout.

Chamberlain is the 7 foot 2 inch giant who was sought by colleges throughout the nation upon his graduation from Overbrook High School in Philadelphia. He finally chose Kansas, where he had a sensational three-year career. As a freshman, he led the frosh to an upset victory in the annual game against the varsity cagers. Then he won all-American honors in his sophomore and junior years, averaging 30 points a game over the two-year span.

He'll get a real test in the Lubbock game, for he'll be opposed by Bob Pettit, who is generally regarded as the finest player in the loop. Pettit set a new all-time scoring record last season by averaging 29.2 points in 72 games. He's also a polished ballhandler and rugged rebounder.

Other stars who will appear at Lubbock include Slater Martin, Cliff Hagan and Clyde Lovellette of the Hawks, and Paul Arizin, Tom Gola, Neil Johnston and Guy Rodgers of the warriors, to name only a few.

The Lubbock game will be played at 3:30 p. m., preceding the night football game between Texas Tech and Tulsa. Tickets for the cage tilt are priced at $3, $2.50 and $2, with all seats reserved. To order tickets, fans should mail a check in the proper amount to Pro Basketball, Box 5062, Lubbock.

THURSDAY NIGHT VISITORS
 Visiting the Frank Brewer family Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Travis Brewer of Denver City.

A dip in 1959 newspaper production is reported by West Germany.

Crites quick-kicked to the Frenship 30 after Clarence Ivie had thrown fullback Lynn Harnist for a five-yard loss. The Antelopes were unable to move, and the Tigers regained possession on their 30.

FRENSHIP COULDN'T advance, but Didway let Crites' punt get through him to the Post 8. After losing one yard in two tries at the line, the Antelopes were forced to punt, with Didway's kick sailing out of bounds on the Post 30.

Four plays lost three yards for the Tigers, with the Antelopes regaining possession on their 33. Post picked up a first down on the Antelope 46 on a pass from Mayberry to Pierce, but from there gained only seven yards in three tries. Didway's punt was returned six yards by Harnist to the Frenship 28.

The Tigers were unable to move.

State Fair will show many foreign exhibits

DALLAS — Exhibits from literally all over the world will be among the sights to see at the 1959 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-25, in Dallas.

The foreign exhibits will be part of the second annual Texas International Trade Fair, which will occupy more than half the area of the General Exhibits Building, largest exhibit hall on the fairgrounds.

There will be exhibits from Italy, Belgium, Sweden, Germany, Great Britain, Japan, Korea and the United Arab Republic, Israel and Austria, and possibly from Finland, the Netherlands, France, Canada and Mexico as well.

The exotic International Bazaar, where imports will be offered for sale to the public, will also have at least a dozen countries represented.

Another international touch to the State Fair will be added by the 43rd annual Southwestern Automotive Exposition, which will include a large number of foreign cars. A great majority of the new 1960 model cars of American makers will also be on display, with practically all of the new models due to be exhibited before the Fair closes.

Other major exhibitions at the Fair will include a show with emphasis on leisure-time pursuits called "Playtime U. S. A.," a three-acre tract with all farm machinery exhibits combined in one location, a large antique automobile show, one entire building devoted to the Electric Show which will feature a see-yourself-on-color TV gadget, armed forces guided missiles and other defense equipment, and the first United States showing of the famed "City of Nikko," which depicts a famous Japanese shrine.

In the Women's Building, the myriad exhibits will include a fabulous collection of diamonds. The various museums on the fairgrounds will all have special exhibits, ranging from art masterpieces to a preview of space travel.

As always, the exhibits in themselves will make a visit to the State Fair well worth while.

BRAND NEW SUSPENSION SYSTEM

A revolutionary new suspension system gives vast improvement in ride, durability, and control to 1960 Chevrolet trucks, now on display at Caprock Chevrolet Co., 111, South Broadway. Front wheels are independently sprung on frictionless torsion rods. Rear suspensions are new, with coil springs on light-duty models and stronger, softer riding leaf springs on heavier models for improved cushioning of load and driver. New frames reduce height up to seven inches, with some cab floors at step-in level from the ground. Styling is new with rubber-mounted, roomier cabs. Inside steps have been eliminated, providing a full-width floor.

1960 Chevrolet trucks mark up big gains in cushioning shock

Impressive gains in cushioning cargo and passengers from road shock, plus much greater stability and safety result from a revolutionary suspension system designed for 1960 Chevrolet trucks now on display here at the Caprock Chevrolet Co., 111 South Broadway.

The totally redesigned truck suspension provides the nearest approach to passenger car ride and handling yet achieved, along with vastly improved durability. It has been under development for six years.

"Aside from the obvious advantage of passenger comfort, this new suspension offers an economic bonus to truck buyers," E. N. Cole, Chevrolet's general manager, commented. "Because road shock is largely absorbed by rugged suspension members instead of being driven into the frame, chances for damage to fragile cargoes are reduced and life of cabs, metal panels, and other chassis components is prolonged, leading to lower maintenance costs."

IN A CLEAN break with the past, Chevrolet has replaced the hard-riding I-beam axle with independent front wheel suspension with ball joints and torsion bar springs on all but two models. Rear suspensions also are drastically changed, with coil springs on some light-duty models. Heavier series use a new softer riding leaf spring with automatic adjustment of spring stiffness as the load increases.

In keeping with the "total redesign" theme, frames and other chassis elements also are redesigned and styling is changed along functional lines. Fenders, hood, and other panels are integrated with the new chassis for a more rigid, lower, roomier, more accessible cab and sturdier front end assembly.

CABS ARE ROOMIER, with improved sealing against water and dust. Inside stepwells are eliminated, affording full width floors. All cabs are rubber-mounted, have more windshield area, and are 67 per cent stronger torsionally. Hoods are integrated with fenders for full-width accessibility to the engine compartment.

Re-proportioning of chassis, body and sheet metal gives more favorable weight distribution, better maneuverability, and greater stability. Positioning the cab of light-duty models farther forward increases front suspension load by up to 8 per cent.

NOW... '60 CHEVROLET TRUCKS

WITH REVOLUTIONARY TORSION-SPRING SUSPENSION

THAT GIVES ASTONISHING NEW SHOCKPROOF ACTION !!!!!

Chevy's done the next best thing to paving every road in America!

First they threw out the front axle and put in torsion-spring independent suspension. Then they built wide-base coil rear springs into most light-duty models, variable-rate leaf springs into heavies. That made it—a ride you have to feel to believe. A ride that lets you move faster to get more work done in a day's time.

Brawnier bulldozer build!

Frames are stronger, cabs 67% more rigid. Front wheels and tires are precision-balanced. And that new suspension cushions jars and road shock that used to spell slow death for the truck's body and sheet metal.

More comfortable cabs!

Easier to hop in and out of, too. Many models are a whole 7 inches lower outside. Yet there's more head room inside, plus more width for shoulders and hips. More real comfort!

Big in the power department!

With the industry's most advanced gas-saving 6's. With high-torque Workmaster V8 performance in heavyweights. With new 6-cylinder or V8 power available in L.C.F.'s.

More models than ever!

New 4-wheel-drive models and tandems and high-styled Suburban Carryalls. It's the handsomest, hardest working Chevy fleet ever to report for duty. See your dealer soon for a ride!

Anything less is an old-fashioned truck!

Junior High-Lites

By Mary Ann Stone
Everybody is really working in for basketball. They all like to make the team.

The 7th Grade boys tied the Tigers 8-5. Everybody's going to have a team like the best Scrimmage must be we hear that Danny Pierce is a blood vessel, Dennis Odom has lost two teeth, and Buddy pulled a ligament. What news, boys?

During the fifth period on Friday, Lynn Edwards was sitting at her desk listening to the teacher as she leaned back and felt a tingling pull at her blouse. She looked down and saw a big wad of gum clinging to her blouse at the desk edge. She sat there looking a little funny for a minute until the teacher, Mrs. Lynn came and released her. Lynn was happy again! It happens it was Cindy's desk, so—What have you say about your gum collection? We found several too!

FASHION NOTES

Have You Heard??

By THE STAFF

Congratulations to Curtis Didway. He was elected FFA Sweetheart this week. Good taste, girls.

The Seniors are getting anxious for their Senior rings to come in. They should be here sometime in October.

Virginia Young and Junior Foster were seen together double dating with Linda Gist and Jerry Kuykendoll Wednesday night.

We heard everyone was chipping in their pennies last week to help Harold Wayne pay his fine. Let's watch this ole stuff!

If you noticed several pink clouds lately, they belong to Ruthell, Janene and Beth. Ruthell's cloud was a result of a visit from Paul Wheatley, home on leave from "Uncle Sam." Ronnie Polk, also home on leave, was responsible for Janene's. Beth is on that cloud 'cause she and Curtis Didway are now going steady. Happy hunting!

All the classes except the Seniors were busy Thursday having their pictures made. Mr. Casteel spent most of the day at school. He seemed real nervous about somebody breaking his camera, but nobody was that ugly!

Lois Edwards had a slumber party the other night after the Crosbyton game. Those present were: Gayle D., Ginny Y., Frankie, Kay G., Billie Lou, Linda K., Denise, Patsy T., and Margie.

What girls in Coach Murray's 5th period gym class give him fits? It couldn't possibly be Kathy Stone, Judy Morris, and Carolyn Martin, could it?

If you notice Didway speeding around lately, it's because he's using Phillips' "66" Flite Fuel. Go, Trop Artie!

Lots of couples have been seen around lately. Among them are: Dot and Kenneth H., Don and Melinda, Delwin and Lois, Kay and Carol Ray, Janene and Scottie, Sandra and Jimmy, Elaine and Bobby B., Rhea and Sydney, Billie Lou and Johnny, Judy M. and Travis, Linda and Wendell, and Hoss and Danella.

It was good to see Mickey Priddy back in Post Friday night. Mickey's going to Tom S. in Lubbock now.

It was real good to see the big turn-out at Teen Town after the game. The victory over Frenship helped put everybody in a marvelous mood. The opening was a big success and everyone looks forward to next week.

Rhea Peel had a slumber party at her house after the game Friday night. Those enjoying this hospitality were: Kat, Leta, Pat, Linda, Sharron, Sharon, Glenda. The gang really had fun and caught up on all the latest news.

Hey, everybody. Friday will be Western Day at PHS. Everyone dress in style and bring your guns!

HAVE GAME — WILL WIN!!!

Post High School Chapter

The first annual FFA meeting of the year was held Wednesday, Sept. 16, with president Jimmy Hodges presiding. Jerry Thuet was elected as the voting delegate to the district FFA meeting held in Brownfield, Monday. Gary Howell was nominated as the district officer nominee of the chapter.

The members of the chapter voted to set their dues at $1.50, $1.25 of that amount goes to the area, state and national organizations.

The boys voted to build a two-wheeled trailer for use by chapter members for hauling their livestock for breeding and to shows. Money for the construction of the trailer was received by the chapter through the sales of FFA calendar ads. The calendars will again be distributed in December. The president reported that all ads have not been sold as yet but that a committee would finish the sales Saturday.

The president announced that the State FFA President will be in Post sometime in December. Members voted into honorary membership last year will receive that degree at that time. At that meeting, the greenhands will receive their pens and the members who have earned their chapter farmer degree will receive that award.

The chapter voted to send Jerry Stone to the national FFA convention on Oct. 12. At the same time they voted to pay Jerry $30 for his expenses to the convention. The members voted to build a second FFA monument and Joe Bob Trammell and Royce Hart were appointed to a committee to see about the building site and make any necessary arrangement. The site suggested for the building of the monument was on the N. C. Outlaw farm just west of Post.

The meeting was closed by the regular ceremonies.

Does Charley Brown really have a crush on Dee Ann? Could he? Who was that we heard cackling in TC? Could it be an Arkansaser?

What girl got spanked by classmates in gym class? Could it be you, Sharon? Why?

Rusty Welch checked out to move to Ralls. We hope he likes it there. We wish him the best of luck!

YOUTH EDITORIAL . . .

A thank you note to Post

If you've been wondering why so many teen-agers have been smiling this last week, it's because of the wonderful time had by everyone at Teen Town Friday night. We had approximately 200 out for the first "Sock Hop."

The recreation consisted mainly of dancing. We had a yell led by our favorite cheerleaders, Pat Wheatley, Sharron Wood, Ann Morris, Judy Morris and Marianne Jones.

We were very happy to have Coach and Mrs. Murray, Coach and Mrs. Alexander and Coach and Mrs. Blocker join us at Teen Town.

We would like to thank our sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. David Newby and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cornell. We would also like to thank Brother Matthews for acting as our director. Our thanks also go out to all of Post for backing us.

Everyone had a marvelous time. It really hurt when time was up. We all left, though, happy since we were assured that Teen Town would be open again next Friday and Saturday nights. There isn't a word or enough words to explain how much fun was had. All we can say is—Thanks! Thanks!—Sammie K. Caffey

One of the problems of the boll weevil is finding out what the cotton plant has to attract the pest . . . apparently cotton, and only cotton, has some item that appeals to the boll weevil . . . if this can be found it might be possible to breed it out of the cotton plant and thus make cotton unattractive to the insect . . . or it might be possible to use the attraction as a bait to poison the pest . . . there are several other things that may be done to rid cotton of its most expensive pest . . . for instance, there is the "diapause" treatment, which means poisoning several times after the weevil season ends . . . this would prevent the weevil from fattening up and he would starve during hibernation . . . another plan would be the setting of non-cotton zones where cotton would not be grown for a couple of years . . . this, of course, would certainly cause economic troubles for all segments of the trade in the zoned areas . . . of course, there could be a new poison developed that would stay in the cotton plant in the early stages . . . thus when the boll weevil leaves hibernation in the spring he would be killed before he could reproduce . . . experts estimate that the insecticide would have to remain in the plant at least 10 weeks . . . perhaps a new poison could be developed to which the pest could not develop a resistant strain . . . any way you look at it, it's quite a problem and costs between 5 and 10 cents per pound of lint . . . however, it can be licked with research . . . if funds are made available for sufficient research . . . in the past we have spent about 2 or 3 cents in research for every $100 loss.

Corner on Cotton

Jerry Lewis to star in comedy at Tower Theatre

It's a little difficult to imagine how Jerry Lewis can get funnier with every picture he makes, but somehow the comedian always manages to accomplish this. He does it again with his newest Hal Wallis film, "Don't Give Up The Ship" which will show at the Tower Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Jerry, as the seventh in a long family line of Inept Navy men, has simply never been as screamingly funny as he is in this one. With a story premise that is patently ridiculous, it is, in brief, has to do with the disappearance of a destroyer escort called the U.S.S. Kornblatt, missing since World War II. The disappearance comes to light when the Navy is refused an additional appropriation by hostile Congressmen until the carelessly "lost" destroyer is accounted for. Since Jerry was the last man to sign out for the Kornblatt, he is responsible for producing it.

Unfortunately, that responsibility devolves upon him at a time when his alleged mind couldn't be further from Navy matters — just when he is about to take off on his honeymoon. To further complicate matters, he is assigned assistance in the person of WAVE Dina Merrill, which doesn't help his explanations to his pretty bride.

Co-starring in the laugh-filled movie are Mickey Shaghenessy, Robert Middleton and Gale Gordon.

New Chemicals

Some new chemicals are on the market that are said to effectively destroy weeds after the cotton is up . . . you can see if you have a good stand before you apply the chemicals . . . should be quite a boom next planting season.

Estimate Down

The second government estimate of the current cotton crop was down by one per cent . . . new estimate is 14,578,000 bales . . . this estimate was based on the September 1 crop condition . . . indicates an average yield of 470 pounds per acre compared to last year's average of 466 pounds . . . 10-year average is 329 pounds . . .

New 1960 Oldsmobiles will go on display in Post next Thursday

Claud Collier of Caprock Chevrolet Co. announced today that the 1960 Oldsmobiles will go on display in his showroom at 111 South Broadway beginning Thursday, Oct. 1.

New crisply-tailored styling and a new balance of design are teamed with further advances in economy of operation in the 17 new Oldsmobile models for 1960, it was announced today by Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and a vice president of General Motors.

Wolfram stated that the 1960 Oldsmobile features a redesigned Rocket engine in the Dynamic '88' series for use with lower cost regular grade gasoline.

"This engine," said Wolfram, "will give our customers an improvement of 15 per cent in miles per dollar — maintaining excellent performance."

In all series there are new rear axle ratios and many other engineering advancements. Two three-seat Fiestas have been added to Oldsmobile's station wagon line.

"From the trim curved grille to the clean-sweep of the rear deck, the 1960 Oldsmobile is the finest automobile we have ever built," Wolfram said.

"The balanced design of the car is new from every view—front, side and rear. We believe the new Oldsmobile has the styling our customers want, the full-family spaciousness they need and the luxurious interiors they asked," he said.

Bright chrome plated bars in groups of three give the 1960 Oldsmobile curved grille a wide, stable look even though the car itself is no wider than the 1959 models. Headlights are placed horizontally with the outboard pair set slightly behind the inboard pair. The parking lights are safely recessed in the wrap-around section of the bumper where they can be easily seen from front or side.

The lower and slightly rounded styling of the new front end aids maneuverability of the 1960 Oldsmobile, Wolfram said, especially in tight parking situations. Maneuverability is increased 2 1/4 to 3 1/2 inches.

Taillights are moulded into the rear fenders in a high, easy-to-see position. Below the attractive angled bumper is ribbed heavy gauge steel that completes the solid, built-to-the-road appearance of the new rear end.

Oldsmobile has developed a new balance of power and economy for 1960 in the Dynamic '88' series, Wolfram said. The Regular Rocket engine, standard for the series, is a high compression engine designed for the most efficient use of modern regular grade gasoline while maintaining excellent performance.

The adaptation of the Rocket engine for use with lower cost regular gasoline was accomplished through design changes in combustion chamber contour, piston and camshaft and the changing of the compression ratio to 8.75:1. The engine has a displacement of 371 cubic inches and develops 240 horsepower. It incorporates a new two-barrel "Econ-O-Way" carburetor recalibrated for maximum economy and power at the new compression ratio.

"Used with the new standard 2.87 to 1 axle ratio and Oldsmobile's Jet-Away Hydra-Matic Transmission, the owner of the 1960 Dynamic '88' Oldsmobile may expect a 15 per cent improvement in miles per dollar," Wolfram said.

"For the buyer who wants super performance, Oldsmobile's top power plant, the Premium Rocket engine, is standard on the Super '88' and the '98'. This engine gives the power to pass safely over the entire driving range," Oldsmobile's general manager added.

The premium Rocket engine is designed to take full advantage of the power potential in today's premium fuels. Displacement is 394 cubic inches. Compression ratio is 9.75:1 and it develops 315 horsepower.

The standard rear axle ratio in each series Oldsmobile for 1960 has been lowered. This results in reduced engine speeds and a marked improvement in pleasurable operation, improved economy, less wear and greater durability.

"Oldsmobile has added two new body styles to the 1960 lines," Wolfram said. "They are the three-seat Fiesta station wagons in the Dynamic '88' and the Super '88' series. This means that Oldsmobile now has four distinctive Fiesta body styles with two of the models featuring a full-size, rear-facing third seat," he said.

The third seat folds flat with one motion when not in use.

Darkness major traffic danger

AUSTIN—J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, said today that "darkness" is one of the major traffic dangers faced by pedestrians and motorists alike.

"With the approach of shortening Fall days, it is doubly important that we adjust our walking and driving habits," Musick said.

"When driving at night a motorist can't see an object until it comes within range of his headlights. It's obvious that if he is driving at a speed that won't permit him to stop within the range of his headlights he will hit whatever is in his path.

"However, lowered speed is not the whole solution," Musick added. "To see danger quickly and act immediately to avoid it, the driver must be aware there is always the possibility that danger lurks in the shadows ahead."

Top TV cowboys and singers are to highlight annual Prison Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE — Inmate cantonments, plus a host of the nation's topflight television and recording stars will be on the bill of fare for the 28th annual Texas Prison Rodeo here in the Sunday's $1,000,000 stadium each Sunday in October.

Big name stars such as James Arness, of the TV series, "Gunsmoke," along with Johnny Cash, popular country-style singer, open the 1959 series on Oct. 4. Dale Robertson of "Tales of Wells Fargo," and Tommy Sands, sensational singing idol of the teenage crowd, appear on Oct. 11, while Steve McQueen of "Wanted—Dead or Alive," teams with Singer Johnny Horton of "The Battle of New Orleans" fame on Oct. 18.

For the October 25 performance, prison rodeo officials say they will produce two additional nationally-known stars for the closing of the 1959 series.

In addition, there will be other outside acts, rodeo clowns, inmate entertainment groups and mounted quadrilles from Pasadena and Bellville. The Houston Range Riders also will appear and for the first time the rodeo will feature a girl's barrel race event.

H. H. Coffield, Rockdale businessman, who serves as chairman of the Texas Board of Corrections and its rodeo committee, said, "We are doing everything possible to present the best entertainment feature found anywhere."

"We are of the opinion that a well-rounded show will attract more people to this unusual rodeo which benefits around 12,000 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections."

Coffield explained that net proceeds from rodeo ticket sales are placed in the prisoners' welfare fund which is used to supply rehabilitative services not furnished by the Texas Legislature.

Reserved seat tickets at $2.40 and $4.40 each, tax included, may be obtained by writing Rodeo Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas, enclosing check or money order.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD
 Hang around a bunch of Texas fishermen long enough and you'll hear them talk about "when the lake turns over".
 Invariably they will tell you that "that is the time for the best catches".
 They will explain to you that the lake turns over in the spring and fall because of changes in air temperature . . . and corresponding changes in waer temperature. "Heat rises, you know, and when the water at the top of the lake becomes colder than the water at the bottom, the layers of water just naturally change positions."
 Actually, what happens is not quite as simple as all that. To begin with, there are not always two or more layers of cold and warm water.

IN THE WINTER and early spring, water circulates at all levels of the lake. Temperature is the same at nearly all depths. Wind and wave action keep the water moving. This situation continues as long as air temperatures are low and there is a fair amount of wind. The big change begins to occur, usually, in the late spring or early summer.
 Actually, there is no "turnover" of the lake's water. What happens is the formation of an upper layer of warmer water (Epilimnion) and a lower layer (Hypolimnion), divided by a thin layer (Thermocline), in which there is a sharp change of temperature.

AS SUMMER heat increases, the Thermocline goes deeper. In other words the top layer of warm sun warms the water to greater depths.
 Stagnation occurs in the bottom layer when it loses its oxygen, due to lack of contact with the air. Gases then form, with the decay of fish that die and sink to the bottom.
 There being no circulation, these gases remain in the Hypolimnion. By late summer, this bottom layer is almost completely lacking in oxygen. No fish can live there. Hence the fisherman doesn't want to work his bait at the bottom of a very deep lake in late summer.

SOMETIMES FISH do venture into the bottom layer. They will do so only because they are pursuing food: chased by predators, or out of pure obstinacy. When this happens the fish are poisoned by the gas, or suffocate by lack of oxygen, or both. Then they rise to the surface quickly.

 Sometimes they are found on or near the top, still fresh, but bloated and with eyes bulging because their swim bladders expanded with the sudden rise.
 Fishermen take large numbers of such fish in nets. Usually they declare that the appearance on top was caused by the lake "turning over". But you now know the real reason.

It is also said by those fishing in the late summer or early fall, that an unpleasant odor on the lake is caused by its "turning over". Again, this is not so. The odor comes when gases from the bottom layer are released through the tail races of dams.

AT THESE periods the Epilimnion may extend down to 60 feet. Texas scientists have shown by tests exactly what you would expect . . . the longer and hotter the summer, the thicker the top layer of warm water.
 Being a fisherman, you will be guided accordingly. You may not want to fish as deep as 60 feet, but you are safe to conclude that fishing just above the Thermocline will be productive.

It is important to repeat that if you're fishing below the Thermocline you're not going to catch anything.
 Okay then . . . how do you find the Thermocline?

THERE ARE several ways. First, ask your local game warden. He may know. Or when you go to the dock ask the operator if he can tell you how deep the successful fishermen have been working their lures. Or ask your buddy, who caught fish there yesterday. Or use your thermometer.
 The thermometer method may be a little trouble, but it will assure you that you have the right depth. Find the level where there is abrupt change from warm to cool temperature. Then fish above that depth.

THAT MAN'S HERE AGAIN

Yep, it's just about time for towering "Big Tex" to take his customary stand again amidst the crowds at the 1959 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, Oct. 9-25. Size of the big fellow's head is shown here dwarfing man at right. Crane in background will be used to set the head atop the body. "Big Tex" stands 52 feet tall.

'Better seed for better living' to be feature of Texas State Fair

A new team of professional workers made up of plant breeders, research scientists and seed growers is changing the scenery down on the farm.
 The way the team is moving greenery around to substitute new varieties, strains and hybrids for old staple crops is putting greenbacks into the pockets of farmers, cattlemen and businessmen.
 The story of "Better Seeds for Better Living" will be depicted in the big Agriculture Show at the 1959 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-25 in Dallas, in exhibits created jointly by the Texas A&M College System and the Fair.
 Texas A&M economists figure that the better seeds produced by the team of scientists, breeders, and growers save the average family $600 a year in food purchases.
 New crops released by the team through certified seed growers has advanced the cattleman from seasonal to year-around activity.
 And farmers of course have benefited through new cash crops which can offset income losses caused by surpluses in major crops.

 Three-fourths of the varieties cultivated on farms today were unknown 20 years ago. And the surface has hardly been scratched. Fewer than a dozen species account for most of the entire farm production in this country. At the most, farmers cultivate only 150 to 200 species.
 But there are 15,000 species in this country and Canada. And this weary old planet has at least 250,000, probably 300,000, scattered over its thin skin of soil.
 The State Fair Agriculture Show will feature a modern greenhouse, 80 by 40-feet in which A&M scientists and specialists will show from germinating seed to mature plant the scientific development of new varieties of eight major crops—corn, grain sorghum, cotton, rice, pine trees, vegetables, oil seed and small grains.
 The show will offer the general public the opportunity to study for the first time the methods used in creating such modern miracles as corn and grain sorghum hybrids, in mating plants that differ genetically, and in producing entirely new crops for specific uses.
 Also to be featured at the Fair will be exhibits portraying the diversified production of crops and cattle in each of the state's 12 Agricultural Extension Service Districts.

Post band in Lubbock parade

Twenty-nine South Plains bands have submitted entry applications for participation in the Parade of Bands which will herald the opening of the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock beginning Monday.

Judges for the Parade of Bands have been selected and are: Donald Hatch, Band Director of the Senior High School, Wichita Falls; Robert E. Fielder, Senior High Band Director, Abilene; and Robert L. Maddox, Superintendent of Instrumental Music, Odessa.
 The Post band will also be in Lubbock Friday afternoon when the U. S. Air Force Band and Singing Sergeants will be presented in the Lubbock Auditorium.

New Texas Ranger brings total to 52

AUSTIN — The Texas Ranger force was increased today to 52 men—one more than the complement which has been in effect for more than a decade.
 Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety and Chief of the Rangers, commissioned Everett Smith, Sheriff of Sabine County for the past nine years, as the 52nd Texas Ranger.
 The addition to the authorized strength of the Rangers was made by the recent session of the Legislature. The new post was the first one added since September 1, 1947. Garrison said Smith, of Hemphill, Texas, would be assigned to the Houston Ranger Region under the command of Captain Eddie Oliver.

Annual acreage survey being made this month

AUSTIN — This month the USDA in cooperation with the Post Office Department, is conducting an annual acreage survey. Rural Mail Carriers are delivering 30,000 cards to Texas farmers and ranchers. The cards list questions on crop acreages and livestock. Carriers pick up the completed cards and forward them to Cary Palmer, Agricultural Statistician for Texas in Austin.
 Palmer urges farmers to answer and return cards to Mail Carriers. "This survey," he points out, "serves as a basis for estimating the State's farm production. Every report helps to make accurate estimates."
