

Three-day Science Fair opens with more than 100 projects

The 1964 Science Fair of the Post opened today in the spacious school gym for a three-day run. The fair will receive a free trip to Big Bend National Park as a prize for the high school Science Club club sponsors a three-day science outing there, beginning May 9.

Her exhibit was entitled, "A Method of Testing the Divisibility of a Number by 7 and Also a Process Related to Dividing by N." The exhibit was the top winner in the high school mathematics division of the fair.

Over 100 projects are on exhibit at the fair with an estimated 350 students involved in the various fair projects from grades one to twelve.

Runnerup project in the "out-standing project" classification was Bruce Ledbetter, whose project was entitled, "My Experience in Excavating." He placed second in the high school biological science division with the entry.

The public is invited to view the fair exhibits without charge today, Friday and Saturday.

The fair will remain open for public viewing until 7 p. m. both tonight and Friday and will close at 5 p. m. Saturday.

Judge of this year's fair was School Superintendent Barry B. Thompson, an old hand at science fair judging. This was his 22nd year.

The Post Dispatch

Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, April 16, 1964 Number 46

Don't get the idea that the White River water district is charging 50 cents for the right to take a car to the blue lake and the dam. But somebody on the Spur side.

Some Post folks tried to get into the dam from the Spur side one recent Sunday they were told the price through the gate was $50 per car. That got a lot of folks going here.

What's happening. The White River water district has a road into the dam from the Spur side. It's a 1/2 mile long road. It's a 1/2 mile long road. It's a 1/2 mile long road.

Close City and Post School consolidation election to be May 9

County Judge J. E. Parker, in response to legally filed petitions, has called an election on consolidation of the Close City and Post Independent School Districts.

The election is scheduled for Saturday, May 9.

Petitions were filed with Judge Parker here last week signed by more than the required 20 qualified voters from each school district requesting an election.

Judge Parker designated the Close City School Building as the Place for qualified Close City voters to vote May 9 and named Douglas Livingston as presiding judge of that election box.

He designated the Post high school library as the voting place for Post district voters in the consolidation election and named Mrs. Wilburn Morris as presiding judge.

Judge Parker also named County Clerk Carl Cederholm as clerk for absentee voting and Elizabeth Duncan as deputy clerk for such voting.

The notice for the consolidation election appears on page 4 of today's Dispatch.

A majority of voters casting ballots in each school district must favor the consolidation for the proposal to carry.

If the consolidation is voted May 9, the two districts would be consolidated in advance of the start of the 1964-65 school year.

This will be the third vote on consolidation of the two districts. The last was in 1961.

Marshall Mason funeral services conducted here

Last rites for Marshall Mason Sr., 71, retired pioneer Post businessman, who died early last Thursday afternoon in a Temple hospital, were conducted at 3 p. m. Saturday at the First Baptist Church, of which he was a member.

Mr. Mason, who retired in February, 1962, from Mason & Company here, had been ill for only a few weeks. He was admitted to the Temple hospital March 31.

Born Nov. 25, 1892, at Snyder, he came to what is now Garza County in 1903 from Kent County. After ranching for awhile, Mr. Mason was employed by the town's founder, C. W. Post, in helping survey the original townsite.

He went into the furniture and funeral home business here in May of 1915 with W. L. Davis, the firm going under the name of Davis & Mason for 28 years and then being changed to Mason & Company. Upon retiring in 1962, Mr. Mason left the firm in charge of his son-in-law, James L. Minor, who had been associated with the business for 17 years.

Mr. Mason was also the principal stockholder in the Stacy-Mason Furniture Store at Levelland.

He was married to Miss Gladys Bentley here April 30, 1917. Mrs. Mason died Jan. 29 of this year.

Mr. Mason organized the first Boy Scout troop in Garza County and served as its first scoutmaster.

Ford district manager is RMA speaker today

D. V. Minchew, field manager for Dallas District, Ford Division of Ford Motor Company, will address a luncheon meeting of the Retail Merchants Association of Post at Levi's Restaurant today.

In his talk, which is entitled, "A Is for Automobile—Color It Complicated," Mr. Minchew will discuss "total performance" marketing strategy with emphasis on Ford's efforts to get as many people as possible to test-drive its new products.

997 invitations mailed Ideas to be sought at C-C workshops

Probably for the first time in this community's 57-year history, all interested residents are going to be asked for their suggestions for projects to improve Post.

This will come at the Post's Community Workshop here Monday and Tuesday, April 27-28.

Nine hundred and ninety-seven persons were personally invited by letter from the Chamber of Commerce this week to participate in the big event.

They will get a second invitation next week telling them when and where they will be asked to meet.

Operated by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Community Workshop will not be a single "townhall" type meeting. It will consist of eight different group meetings over the two day period.

All that is being asked of each participant is a single hour. That is all each of the eight meetings will last.

Chairmen and co-chairmen of the eight group meetings met with Ralph Duncan of Abilene, who will conduct the Community Workshop here, in a final planning session in (See C-C Workshop, Page 4)

Progress report given on purchase of right of way

County Judge J. E. Parker issued a "progress report" this week on the obtaining of right-of-way for the four-laning of US-84 from north-west of Post to the county line.

"Realizing many of our people are concerned about what progress has been made in obtaining the right of way on the four laning of Highway 84 from the top of the Caprock to the Lynn County line, we think it is only just and right that you are given the facts," Parker declared.

"Before the county can buy the required right of way after our appraiser has appraised the value of the land and any damages, it is necessary for the state to approve or disapprove the appraisal," Parker pointed out. "The county furnishes the money for the right of way purchases and is then reimbursed 50 per cent by the state on its approved valuations."

"After the state approves, it furnishes the easement and the county purchases the right of way and pays the damage, if any, on that basis. If the landowner feels that it is not a just valuation they have the right to refuse to sell for that amount necessitating the county to condemn it."

"We do not anticipate any difficulty," Parker declared.

Absentee voting opens here for May 2 election

The first phase of the May 2 primary election here got under way Monday with the start of absentee voting.

Up to 3 p. m. yesterday, three absentee votes had been cast in the county clerk's office and 14 requests for absentee ballots had been received by mail, County Clerk Cederholm said.

The period for absentee voting will extend through April 28.

Voters who expect to be absent from the county on election day may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office during office hours. The voter must bring his poll tax receipt, the clerk said.

Voters who, because of physical disability, are unable to go vote on election day may request an application be sent them to complete and sign. A physician must certify that the applicant is unable to appear at the polls to vote.

Upon receipt of the application, the county clerk will mail the voter a ballot and the necessary supplies for absentee voting. The ballot must be mailed back to the clerk by 1 p. m. May 2.

The county clerk emphasized that persons voting by mail must have a notary public or other authorized official acknowledge their signature when voting.

Moreland re-elected head of school board

The board of trustees of Post Independent School District, in two sessions Monday, voted to purchase 24 IBM electric typewriters, reorganize the board, elected four teachers and discussed at length the tentative budget for 1964-65.

After a breakfast meeting at 7 o'clock at Judy's Cafe, the trustees met again at 7:30 p. m. in the board meeting room at the high school.

After canvassing the ballots of the April 4 trustee election, new trustee Ted L. Aten was sworn in as a board member, filling Place 2, at the morning session.

E. R. (Buster) Moreland was re-elected president of the board; Russell Wilks Jr. was elected vice president and Ronnie Boucher was re-elected secretary.

Wilks was elected vice president to replace Dr. John E. Carter. Boucher had served as secretary since the resignation from the board of Malcolm T. Bull earlier this year.

The new teachers elected at the morning meeting are Miss Estella Delgado and Miss Ana Maria Martinez. Miss Delgado will teach in (See School Board, Page 8)

Three aldermen sworn in here

Three city aldermen, elected in the April 7 election, took the oaths of office for two-year terms at a special meeting of the city council Tuesday afternoon.

Those administered the oath of office by Mayor Harold Lucas were Claude Collier Jr., Wesley Scott and Arnold Parrish. Collier is a new alderman. Scott and Parrish were re-elected.

In the only other business at the special meeting, the council canvassed the vote in the April 7 election.

FREE FISH TODAY AT SOUTH LAKE IN POST

Fish in South Lake were to be poisoned early this afternoon preparatory to restocking the lake, Game Warden Bud Howell announced yesterday.

The game warden invites people wanting the fish to be on hand to pick them up when they float to the surface.

He advises those coming after fish to bring dip nets with them. "They're hard to catch just with the hand," Howell said.

The game warden added that the rotenone used to poison the fish does not harm them as far as being edible is concerned. "There'll be a lot of good bass and catfish floating around for anyone who wants them," he added.

The lake is overstocked with "rough" fish and the Park and Wildlife Department has decided that they should be killed out and the lake restocked, Howell explained.

Members of the Freshman class are showing here how they topped two other classes in Saturday's car wash for the benefit of the Pep Squad fund. The Freshmen made $79.25 to nose out the Juniors by $1.25. The Sophomores came in third with $63 to make the total of the three classes $220.25.

JUNIORS FINISH STRONG TO TAKE SECOND PLACE
The Juniors came on strong late in the day to beat out the Sophs for second place. Mary Lee Stockton, Pep Squad sponsor, said she and the students deeply appreciate the three service stations making their facilities available for the project and for all the help they gave. The stations were Peel's Texaco Service, Phillips Quick Service and Wylie Oil Co.'s Shamrock.

Major changes in by-laws Hospital board rejects Dr. Carter application

Garza Memorial Hospital trustees voted after some discussion. DR. CARTER HAD voluntarily resigned from the hospital's medical staff last November. He submitted his application last month to Hospital Administrator J. B. Rickels for appointment to the medical staff, but the by-laws then in effect required a 30-day waiting period and action on the application by the physician's application could be acted upon by hospital trustees.

Rickels reported to hospital trustees that the hospital medical staff held its monthly meeting Tuesday and took no action on Dr. Carter's application.

He pointed out that since the medical staff had approved the changes in the by-laws, which trustees approved before taking up Dr. Carter's application, no action by the medical staff was required under the amended by-laws.

Trustees said that "Dr. Carter's application was not accepted because the board felt it would not be in the best interests of the hospital to do so."

THE TWO MAJOR changes in the hospital by-laws concerned appointment of physicians to the hospital's medical staff and the procedure for amending the by-laws.

In both instances, all requirements for recommendation by the hospital's medical staff have been removed.

Under the by-laws before they were amended, physicians could (See Board Rejects, Page 4)

Garza youth wins $65 for 4th place

Curtis Lancaster has received $65 in prize money for placing fifth in the 20-county district in the 1963 4-H cotton production contest.

The award was made to the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lancaster of route 1, Saturday at the awards luncheon at the Plains Co-op Oil Mill in Lubbock.

The Plains Co-op Oil Mill sponsored the cotton production contest.

Curtis, who is president of the Southland 4-H Club, produced 472 pounds of lint cotton per acre on a measured five acre dryland block. He used 200 pounds of 30-20-0 fertilizer as determined by soil tests to improve his cotton yield.

Attending the awards luncheon with the Garza representative were his parents and County Agent and Mrs. Syd Conner.

Jaycees to handle park concessions

The Post Junior Chamber of Commerce has been given concession rights at the Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball parks in return for maintaining the grounds and installations.

The concessions agreement was reached at last Thursday night's Jaycee meeting, which was also attended by Bob Pace, Little League president; J. M. Hutchins, Babe Ruth League president, and Ben Owen representing the American Legion Junior baseball program.

Following the meeting, the Jaycees lost little time getting under way with improvements at the two parks. They worked Saturday painting the stands and getting started on other improvements and will work at the park again this weekend.

The Jaycees meet at 8 p. m. every second and fourth Thursday at the Community Room.

Stopping the boll weevil threat

The boll weevil has shown everyone concerned that he can hibernate either on or just below the Caprock, but the time has come for the boll weevil himself to be shown a thing or two.

The High Plains Area-wide Boll Weevil Eradication Committee has taken action that in the fall of this year will launch a massive, all-out, million-dollar plus fight to stop the weevil from over-running the entire area.

For years and years, the boll weevil was not a cotton pest to contend with in this area of the state, and the Caprock was long thought to be a barrier to the weevils. The migration of the pests began in 1961 and 1962, however, and studies in 1963 indicated that overwintering had occurred near or along the Caprock.

It has become obvious that effective and immediate control measures must be taken if the High Plains area is not to be blighted by this costliest of all cotton insects.

Considerable damage was done by the boll weevil to the 1963 cotton crop in Garza County and in six other of the High Plains' 23 counties. Westward movement of weevils in these counties was from eight to 10 miles greater than ever before.

As pointed out by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., which is spearheading the boll weevil eradication project, the threat that the weevil poses on the High Plains extends far beyond the direct threat to the cotton producer himself. Should the boll weevil do to cotton production here what it has done in the Brazos River Valley and other sections of the cotton belt, his sting would be felt by every businessman and every individual on the Plains.

The High Plains Area-wide Boll Weevil Eradication Committee has set itself the task of raising $1,000,000 on the Plains to finance the fight, and a five-man subcommittee is working on collection methods. Reasonable assurance of government participation to some degree has been obtained, and hopes are that federal funds will match the amount the area committee has set itself to raise. The state has committed itself to contributing personnel and equipment.

Stopping the boll weevil threat is a job that must, and can be done, but it is going to take some doing, not only on the part of the cotton grower, but by everyone else concerned.—CD

Civil War Week is proclaimed

Elsewhere in today's Dispatch is a proclamation from County Judge J. E. Parker proclaiming the week beginning Monday, April 20, as Texas Civil War History Appreciation Week in Garza County.

Nothing elaborate is planned in the way of an observance, we are told, but the week will be recognized in the schools and by the county's historical survey committee.

Just about all of the Garza County history that can be recorded is for the period following the Civil War, which was fought 100 years ago. On the other hand, counties in central and east Texas and on the coast played a big role in the War Between the States, and many of them have quite elaborate observances planned for the week.

A few graves of Civil War veterans in Garza County have been located and marked by the historical survey committee, and a number of the older citizens of the county are children or grandchildren of men who fought in the war and of women who shared the hardships of the home front, particularly in the closing years of the conflict.

The main purpose of the special week, as explained in Judge Parker's proclamation, is recognition, research, recordation and education in an attempt to complete all data into a comprehensive report of the state's history between 1861 and 1865. This is something in which many of us can assist our county's historians.

Texas Civil War History Appreciation Week is a laudable and worthy project and deserves the wholehearted support of all citizens of Garza County.—CD

Two approaches for candidates

Garza County's political candidates are well into the final month before the first primary election with their campaigns, and the "politicking pace" will pick up every day between now and the May 2 primary.

It might be because there are more candidates this year, but it seems to us that they are stirring around more than usual in the interest of their candidacies. More of them than we've ever noticed before are making the town, many on foot, to hand out their candidate cards.

We were reading a few days ago of a big public relations firm in California that does nothing except promote political campaigns. Incidentally, this same firm recently "signed up" with Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York to promote in California his candidacy for the Republican presidential candidacy. But that's beside the point.

What we started out to say is that this public relations firm in going on the theory that nowadays a political candidate must forget about the personal appeal and make the mass appeal if he expects to be elected. Well, it still isn't that way in Texas, especially here in Garza County. Each candidate knows that the individual approach is the best approach, even if it does take more time, gasoline, shoe leather, etc.

Our candidates here in Garza County are sincere in wanting to serve us and our interests. We owe it to each of them when he "hits" us with that individual approach to give him a little of our time, whether or not we intend to vote for him.—C

Pay a visit to the Science Fair

The annual Science Fair opens today at the Post Public Schools and continues through Saturday. If you are looking for something that will show you how our schools are progressing in the area of science education, don't miss it.

During the last few weeks, front office personnel at The Dispatch have been kept busy, particularly right after school is out in the afternoon, selling sheets of cardboard to the youngsters for the Science Fair projects. The number of cardboard sales indicate there will be a large number of projects on display.

Quality, too, will be higher at this year's Science Fair than in the past, according to science teachers John May, Jimmy Pollard and Norman Gee, who are in charge of the three-day event.

Your interest in this year's Science Fair and your attendance will help make the students feel that the long, arduous hours they've spent on their science projects has been well worthwhile. It'll also make the science teachers and other faculty members feel that all the time they've spent is not unappreciated by the mamas and papas and other school patrons.—CD

Home clean-up and fire safety

Five times an hour, 120 times a day, an American home is destroyed or damaged by fire starting in and feeding on rubbish.

These figures, from National Fire Protection Association studies, add a compelling reason for making Spring Clean-Up a time for vigorous action.

Maybe you don't have anything you would call "rubbish" or "trash" around your place. But go up into the attic and take a good, calculating look at any old mattresses, stacks of papers and magazines, discarded draperies and lampshades, and broken-down furniture. Check closets for old clothing. Go over the basement for near-empty paint cans, workbench scraps and oily rags. Don't miss the garbage either.

Whatever you call it—rubbish, trash or clutter—get rid of it, and stay rid of such accumulations.

Then you and the house will likely be around much longer to enjoy that new paint job and spruced-up yard you worked so hard to finish this spring.

I'VE BEEN CASUALLY accused of paying too much attention in this column to national holidays and not enough to Texas holidays, except to make mention of them when they're a legal bank holiday.

Well, that is just what San Jacinto Day is—a legal bank holiday falling next Tuesday, April 21. So, to cross up my accusers, I'm going to say something about San Jacinto Day, which actually is the big day in history for Texas.

NOW IF I lived in San Antonio, I wouldn't find it necessary to call attention to San Jacinto Day, since down there the Fiesta de San Jacinto is to be celebrated during the week, culminating in the renowned Battle of Flowers parade.

Now while I know next to nothing about San Jacinto Day, I do know a little about the Fiesta de San Jacinto. Several years ago when I lived in Levelland, my only daughter and oldest son went to San Antonio as members of the Levelland High School band to march in the Fiesta de San Jacinto parade. They, along with several hundred other high school band members, did just that—marched. For a couple of weeks after they returned home, every time they'd tell it, the parade would get a mile or two longer and a few more kids would faint or otherwise fall out of the line of march and by the wayside.

IT MUST HAVE been a grueling parade, this Fiesta de San Jacinto procession, and just the thoughts of it have been enough to keep me from trying to learn more about the origin and meaning of San Jacinto Day. But, since that was many years ago, the mental block no longer seems to be there, so for those readers who want to know, I'll trot out whatever information our research facilities here at The Dispatch office provide on San Jacinto Day.

SAN JACINTO DAY commemorates the battle of the same name, which was fought at the junction of the San Jacinto River and Buffalo Bayou on April 21, 1836. Gen. Sam Houston's forces (less than half those of the Mexicans under Santa Anna) routed the enemy. The victory led to the independence of Texas and its later annexation to the United States.

So, San Jacinto Day has come to be quite a holiday in Texas... as well as a legal bank holiday.

THE MAN UP the Street suggests that if you are interested in learning about the world you live in—hurry.

One of our readers, who is also a collector of Texiana, has clipped a reprint of a strange document called "The Last Will and Testament of Herman Obeweiss of Anderson County, Texas," and wants to know if I'd like to run it in this column. I would, so here it is:

"I am writing of my will myself. That dam lawyer want he should have too much money. He ask too many answers about family. First thing I want, I don't want my brother-in-law, Oscar, get a dam thing I got. He is a number. He done me out of $40 14 years since.

"I want that Hilda my sister she gets the north sixty akers where I am homing it now. I bet she don't get that loafer husband of hers, Oscar, to broke twenty akers next plowin time. She can't have it if she let Oscar live on it. I want I should have it back if she does.

"Tell Momma that six hundred dollars she been lookin for for twenty years is berried from the back house behind about 10 feet down. She better let little Frederick do the diggin and count it when he comes up.

"Parson Lucknitz can have three hundreds dollars if he kiss The Book and dont preach no more dumhead talks about politics. He should a roof put on the meding-house, and the elders should the bills look at.

"Momma the rest should get, but I want it that Adolph should tell her what not she should do so no more getting slied by Irishers vokum cleaner salesmen. Dev noise like hell and a broom don cost so much.

"I want it that mine brother, Adolph, should be my executor, and I want it that the judge make Adolph plenty bond put up and watch him like hal. Adolph is good businessman but only a dumkopf would trust him. I want it dam sure that numser, Oscar, don nothing get. Tell Adolph he can have a hundred dollars if he prove to Judge Oscar don see nothing. That sor fix Oscar. HERMAN OBLEWEISS."

BACON MOST POPULAR Bacon is the most popular meat with all age groups, according to the Market Research Corporation's National Menu Study. Hot dogs and hamburgers turn up on the tables of the wealthy more often than the poorer families; and 25 per cent of all chicken is eaten on Sunday.

THE GREAT TRUTH IN THE COMMON HERITAGE OF ALL LIVING THINGS: MEN OF THE EARTH, IS... MAN HOLDS THE POWER TO REASON.

EARLY EMBRYONIC STAGE OF A FOWL, RABBIT AND MAN ARE ALIKE, YET DIFFERENT.

THROUGH REASON WE KNOW, AIR IS THE GASEOUS ENVELOPE THAT SURROUNDS THE EARTH AND SUSTAINS ITS LIFE... WE SPEAK OF THIS ENVIRONMENT AS THE "ATMOSPHERE" AND FIND THAT IT CAN BE WIDELY VARIABLE.

BY REASONING, WE LEARN HOW TO ADAPT TO THIS VARIATION: WHEN IT'S COLD WE DRESS IN HEAVIER CLOTHES BUT TAKE THEM OFF AGAIN WHEN IT'S HOT... WHEN IT RAINS WE LOOK FOR WATER-PROOFING... GOING ONE STEP FURTHER, WE AIR CONDITION OUR HOMES FOR COMFORT.

ROOM AIR CONDITIONERS HAVE BEEN CONSTANTLY IMPROVED BY FRIGIDAIRE SINCE THE COMPANY INTRODUCED THE FIRST UNIT IN 1925... BACKED BY 35 YEARS OF ENGINEERING EXPERIENCE, AND GUIDED BY A THERMOSTAT CONTROL WE SET, THE LATEST ROOM AIR CONDITIONERS QUIETLY WORK DAY AND NIGHT TO CLEAN, COOL, HEAT OR WIRING MOISTURE FROM THE AIR SURROUNDING US... THUS, WE CAN ENJOY YEAR-ROUND COMFORT.

TREND IN TRACTORS

The trend in tractors is not entirely toward the big machines. Some of the equipment companies are making small units of seven to ten horsepower for chore jobs around the farm and home. They are handy for garden work as well as for cleaning jobs and handle well in tight places.

VERTICILLIUM WILT OF COTTON

Verticillium Wilt is probably the most expensive disease affecting cotton in Garza County. Vert, as it is commonly called, is no new disease but it has come into concern more and more during the past few years.

Verticillium Wilt is caused by a soil-borne fungus. The organism is generally distributed throughout the cotton belt but has caused the greatest losses in the Mississippi Delta and the Southwestern United States cotton areas. This disease has spread from far West Texas to the South Plains and continues to spread into irrigated alkaline soils. Many commonly grown vegetable, ornamental, and the field crops are susceptible to the disease so it should be of serious concern to all people who grow plants.

Verticillium Wilt can attack and kill cotton seedlings, although the most frequently observed and most serious outbreaks occur in cotton at blossom stage and later. The first symptom is a yellow mottling of irregular shape on lower leaves. These areas are usually bounded at first by the principal veins of the leaf. The chlorotic areas die and turn brown; newer leaves are shed; upper leaves and young squares are lost; older bolls fall; and finally the stalk dies during the course of disease development.

There is no practical control for Verticillium Wilt which eradicate generally cost too much scale use. In summary, producer should use extension to avoid contamination soil with the wilt fungus failed in this, losses to it can be reduced through irrigation, wise use of fertilization practices, and planting. Resistant varieties may be grown where they are adapted.

It's the Law in TEXAS

HISTORY OF WILLS
 Every citizen who owns property should know how to carry out his wishes. Before then you die, you can't change it any time. The passing of property to heirs is the oldest transactions. As far back as the Egyptian, Assyrian and Jewish civilizations, we have written and witnessed wills, clay tablets, etc. In the early Roman law the head of a household could tell the patrician his wishes, but later Roman law favored a written will to the testator's plans secret until death. It also favored having a record of his wishes, not resting on memory.

Q. A. D., England, where the law of wills, was quite advanced. The church courts supervised the probate of property according to the "testament" of how the testator left his property to go.

A. There are many veterans (sometimes hundreds) with the same name and middle initial. Periods of service are often duplicated. A C-number (claim number) positively identifies the record of the individual veteran.

Q. Can a War Orphan who has his entrance into VA educational training delayed or interrupted by military service have his completion date extended?

A. Yes. He has five years from the date of his first release or discharge from military service in which to complete his training.

Q. Why is a so-called "C-number" necessary in connection with veterans benefits? Shouldn't the veteran's name and proof of service be sufficient?

Post soldier is on maneuvers

The exercise, scheduled to end May 4, began when the soldiers were transported by air and sea from the Island of Oahu to the Island of Hawaii where they are engaging in live fire simulated combat maneuvers.

Ford, a cannoneer in Battery A, 3rd Battalion of the division's 13th Artillery, regularly stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, entered the Army in October 1963 and completed basic training at Fort Polk, La.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1958 graduate of Post High School and attended West Texas State College in Canyon.

MILLARD SHIVERS
 Democratic Candidate For
 Commissioner of Agriculture

For the past 15 years, Shivers' efforts have been in the organizational phase of Farm Bureau work. While in college, he earned part of his expenses by working in agricultural research at an experiment station. While teaching vocational agriculture, he managed a community cannery. During World War II, he collaborated with college researchers on studying methods of preserving quality in the dehydration of fruits and vegetables.

Shivers was born on a farm in Gibson County, Tennessee. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1941. Later, he taught vocational agriculture in Kentucky two years and served on the University of Tennessee faculty two years.

We was manager and half-owner of a flour mill for five years. Shivers sold this business and joined the staff of the Tennessee Farm Bureau in 1949 as a field representative, and advanced to director of organization.

In 1956 he accepted the position of director of organization of the Texas Farm Bureau and moved to Waco. He resigned this position in January of this year to run for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture.

Shivers married the former Marian Hasteley of Knoxville, Tenn. in 1941. They have two children, Diane, 14, and David, 11. He and his family are active members of the Phi Delta Kappa honorary education fraternity.

CLOTHES CARE ADVICE
 Think twice before you air clothes in the sun, advises the National Institute of Drycleaning. If they are green, blue or white, they could change color. White garments may contain a fluorescent whitening dye which is destroyed by sunlight causing the garment to yellow, and many green and blue dyes in silk and wool are susceptible to sunlight and will fade.

WELL-DRAINED SOILS
 Well-drained soils warm up more rapidly in the spring, and are better aerated. Beneficial bacteria work more efficiently, plant food is available more rapidly, and it is easier to maintain good soil tilth in well-drained soils. Such soils are also necessary for timely and efficient seedbed preparation, seeding, cultivation and harvesting operations.

Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, rises 10,000 feet from base to summit on its south side, as high as the north face of Mount Everest.

Attorney General will lead parade at Paducah Rodeo

PADUCAH — Attorney General Waggoner Carr has accepted an invitation to lead the western parade that will officially open the 22nd Annual Cattle-King Horse and Colt Show and Rodeo in Paducah on April 24.

Shortly before the parade, which is scheduled for 5 p. m. the Attorney General will speak briefly to the public from the courthouse square then join the mounted show officials at the head of the parade.

The invitation was extended the Attorney General by Rep. W. S. (Bill) Healy on behalf of the Cattle-King Livestock and Rodeo Association and the Paducah Chamber of Commerce and Agricultural Development. Healy will introduce Carr at the speaking.

Following the parade, a chuck wagon dinner will be held at the rodeo grounds.

Rodeo performances both Friday and Saturday nights are scheduled for 8 o'clock. Nine events are scheduled with top performers competing for prize money. An old timers calf roping event has been added to this year's rodeo schedule. The event is open only to ropers age 55 and over.

Some of the finest horses in a three-state area are expected to compete in the performance classes at 1 p. m. Saturday April 25. Both halter and performance classes are approved by the American Quarter Horse Association.

Events include registered junior and senior cutting contests, open cutting contests, and a cutting contest restricted to ranch horses. In the reining contest, events will be in both the junior and senior division and an open division.

BEEF CATTLE BULLETIN

Beef cattle feeders will be interested in a new bulletin from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. "Finishing Beef Cattle," Farmer-Bulletin 2196, discusses feeding systems, kind of cattle to feed, when not be appointed to the medical staff without the approval of the medical staff itself and the by-laws could not be changed by trustees without the prior approval of the medical staff.

Board rejects—

In effect, the changes return all authority over operation of the hospital to the trustees, the six-member board which is appointed by the Garza County Commissioners' Court.

PROCEDURE FOR appointment to the medical staff under the amended by-laws is as follows:

"a. All applications shall be presented to the hospital administrator who will present them to the president of the board of trustees immediately.

"b. At the first regular or special meeting thereafter, or within 10 days, the president of the board of trustees shall present all applications in his hands to the board of trustees which shall act on them.

"c. The hospital administrator shall investigate the character, qualifications and standing of all applicants and submit his recommendations to the board of trustees. In no case shall this recommendation be delayed for more than 10 days.

"d. The board of trustees shall either accept the hospital administrator's recommendation or refer it back for further consideration. Within 20 days from the referral back to the hospital administrator the board of trustees shall make its final decision which shall be "acceptance" or "rejection."

"e. When final action has been taken, the hospital administrator shall be authorized to transmit the decision to the applicants and, in the case of those accepted, to secure their signatures which shall constitute an agreement to be governed by these by-laws, rules and regulations."

MAJOR CHANGES HERE were to place the investigative and recommending authority on applications in the hands of the medical staff and to trim the time necessary to act on such an application down to only a few days.

Old by-laws were changed in the procedure for removal of a staff member from staff privileges.

Under the amended by-laws, the trustees notify such staff member in writing, a hearing date is set not less than 10 days from the date of posting, at which time the staff member may be heard under such rules and regulations to be determined by the trustees. Within five days of the hearing, the trustees shall give its decision and the same shall be final. A two-third's vote of the total voting membership will be necessary to remove a staff member.

The by-laws as amended now permit trustees to adopt such rules and regulations as shall be necessary and to amend the by-laws. To make changes notice of amendment shall be given at one meeting and the notice laid on the table until the next regular meeting at which time a vote will be taken. Only a simple majority vote is required for such changes.

Hospital Administrator Rickel's finance report was accepted by the trustees.

HIS REPORT SHOWED 72 patients admitted to the hospital during the month of March with 443 total patient days for a 57 per cent occupancy for the month.

Financially, on cash basis, the hospital had a $3,921.07 operating loss for March and an operating loss for the first quarter of 1964 of $11,028.95.

Administrator Rickels points out that the hospital has some $9,568.06 in outstanding accounts for these three months, including $5,527 out on insurance claims still being processed. Eventual receipt of these insurance claims would trim the first quarter's operating deficit to less than $5,500 if no other collections on accounts were made.

Rickel's also pointed out to trustees that a major part of the operating loss for March, even on a cash basis, was due to the necessity of restocking the hospital's laboratory and x-ray room after a long period of inactivity, and a virtual complete change in the hospital's drug supply to meet the requirements of the new medical staff member.

All six trustees attended the meeting. These are Walter Duckworth, chairman, Mrs. Maxine Marks, Jack Lott, Ollie Weakley, Mrs. Lee Davis and Henry Wheatley.

Also in attendance were Administrator Rickels and Publisher Jim Cornish.

CALIFORNIA GUESTS
 Sunday night and Monday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Montgomery were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wamble of Baldwin Park, Calif. They were en route to Oklahoma and Indiana where they will visit other relatives.

Tis spring and the cry goes over the land (in more force than usual) "there's nothing to do in Post". So Mrs. C. is about to make herself unpopular with the teen-agers, including, no doubt, her own.

We have had several articles on the school page recently, and as recent as today, about the lack of something to "do" in Post.

Well, if you teen-agers are thinking about a luxurious layout of some kind where everything is laid out for you, you are right, there is nothing to do in Post.

But if you are after some good clean fun, why not take advantage of what Post has to offer and do something about it. The Community Chest (and that means we the people) lays aside several hundred dollars to be used at Teen Town every year. What happens? Nobody uses it. I hear a few loud cries in the background and they are saying "But that's just for the kids that dance. They never do anything else there."

That is true only because you teen-agers have made it so. We parents that see no wrong in dancing respect your right to "not believe" in it and have tried for some time to come up with some other activities that might appeal to the non-dancers.

A youth board has worked on this problem and evidently has come up with no response. Here is a building at your disposal to do anything you want and nothing happens.

Parents that have worked on the "teen board" have dreamed of a bunch of kids taking the initiative and really doing something there. An amateur theatre would be a barrel of fun along with teen talent shows and big "game nights."

Of course, you know, you don't have to be out every Friday and Saturday night. (Though I'll admit I've had trouble convincing the Misses Cs of that) There is nothing wrong in inviting teen-agers into your homes to play games, make candy, pop corn, and just plain sitting around talking.

What do you think adults do for entertainment in a small town? They make their own—just as you can if you really want.

Your city doesn't owe you anything. It's up to you to decide if you want to be bored or if you want to have fun. I'm glad our law enforcement officers had enough gumption to put an end to anything as silly as "honking from pure boredom."

Your main problem, in case you don't know it, is that you are a generation on wheels. None of you give much thought except to getting in cars and go, go, go. Well, get off the wheels and have some fun. It's there for you if you want it.

You have a bunch of parents that would love to help you get started into making Post a "town with plenty to do". All you have to do is stop griping and let us know you are ready to DO SOMETHING.

Depressing sight, isn't it? And what is it we say when something old, familiar, once-cherished, once-useful has succumbed to the ravages of time? It served its purpose!
 Could all the churches in our town someday look like this? They could! Maybe they will...
if they have served their purpose . . .
if we don't need them anymore!
 Even if you haven't been getting to church of late, I think you'll protest that we DO need our churches. We need the truth they teach — the faith they instill — the hope they inspire — the God-given strength with which they undergird our life.
 This is the very point: We ALL need our churches. And to bring ALL of us to realize and fulfill our need . . . That is their purpose!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SCS technicians offer timely irrigation tips

By JOHN JACKSON
Soil Conservation Service

With planting time just around the corner, this is a good time for farmers to start making plans for the coming irrigation season.

The following are just a few of the points that need to be considered:

How can I determine when I should start irrigation?
How much water will my crop need for a certain number of days?
How much land can I successfully irrigate in the critical part of the summer with the amount of water available?
Every farmer should now be thinking about the pre-plant irrigation, as it is generally agreed that this is our most important irrigation. The root zone should be irrigated before planting. Planting with half the effective root zone supplied with moisture is like planting the season with half enough water, and failure to have this water filled will tell on us in the long run.

All farmers may not need to apply pre-plant irrigation, but they should check the soil moisture in the individual field to determine whether they should or not.

The depth to which soils should be irrigated will vary with the depth of the soil itself, along with other soil characteristics. For example, it may be only four feet or less to caliche in some fields. It would be a waste to try to wet such soils deeper than that.

The farmer can determine how much moisture he needs through a simple feel test of the soil by taking samples from varying depths and squeezing them in the hand.

Soil which leaves a damp impression on the hand is 75 to 100 per cent full of water, while soil which balls up and remains firm when bounced a few times in the hand is 50 to 75 per cent filled.

The pre-planting irrigation should be timed so that it won't have to be continued right up to planting time. Water tends to cool off the soil temperature and if it is applied just prior to planting it can lower the soil temperature below the optimum level for seeding.

Pre-plant irrigation has a number of advantages. Evaporation rates are lower because of lower air temperatures and this means more of the water will go into the soil. Also, added moisture can be stored in the subsoil on more acres than can be irrigated during the summer months where limited amounts of water are available. This stored moisture will go a long way toward producing a good crop. This deep moisture stored through pre-plant irrigation will also provide a portion of the moisture needed during the period of peak water use and should permit lighter application later in the season.

These are just a few of the many points that should be considered. The local Soil Conservation Service technicians will be happy to assist farmers in answering these and other questions. They have the necessary tools to determine the amount of available moisture in the soil, the amount of moisture needed to sustain crops for a certain length of time and the amount of moisture being applied by each irrigation.

The difference in the number of trips to the gin in the fall may well be in the kind of irrigation job done in the summer.

Know Your Candidate

GORDON McLENDON
Democratic Candidate
For U. S. Senator

Gordon McLendon, 43, is making his political debut as a candidate in the Democratic primary on May 2 for nomination as United States Senator.

He lives in Dallas, is a veteran of World War II, and has extensive business interests.

Early in his career he became known to radio listeners as the "Old Scotchman" through his broadcasts of major league baseball games and other features.

McLendon was born on June 8, 1921 in Paris, Texas. His father, Barton R. McLendon, a lawyer, operated a group of motion picture theaters in East Texas, Southern Oklahoma and Louisiana.

After graduating from high school in Atlanta, Texas, McLendon attended Kemper Military School in Booneville, Mo., and was graduated from Yale University with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

During World War II, he was a naval intelligence officer in the combat area of the South Pacific.

In 1943, he married Gay Noe, daughter of former Louisiana Governor James A. Noe. The McLendons have four children: Mrs. Kenneth D. Starnes Jr., Austin resident and University of Texas student; Gordon B. Jr., student at Cate School, Carpinteria, Calif.; Kristen Margaret, 13, and Anna Gray, 12, both students at Hockaday School in Dallas.

The McLendons are members of the Methodist Church, and he is a former of the Board of Stewards of the Highland Park Methodist Church, Dallas.

After leaving the naval service in 1945, McLendon and his father formed a business partnership, principally in the broadcasting field. Together they own and operate radio stations in Dallas, San Antonio, Houston, Buffalo, Chicago and San Francisco. They also share interests in motion picture theaters, film production, oil and real estate.

In 1951 McLendon was appointed Honorary National Commander of the Annual VFW Poppy Drive and the same year was selected as one of America's outstanding young men by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. He presently is a sponsor of the Chinese Refugee Relief, a nationwide charitable project. He also is an advisor in communications matters affecting the Peace Corps.

McLendon has served as a member of Gov. Price Daniel's Water Development Committee and board member of the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation. He is a member of the board of the Richmond Freeman Memorial Clinic, the Dallas Theatre Center, the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, the Dallas Services for Blind Children, and the Variety Club of Dallas. Twice he has been president of the latter group.

AMERICAN FOOD COSTS

Americans spent an average of $400 per person for food in 1963. That's less than 19 per cent of their take-home pay, a record low in the United States, and it is less than any other country in the world. In 1963, Americans ate more meat, especially beef. They also consumed more chicken, more vegetables and less fruit. They ate less fish and fewer eggs, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

to result in one West Texas congressional district so thinly populated it will be the size of the state of Oklahoma. "We're going to lose representation in West Texas, he said. Houston will wind up with three congressmen and Dallas with a pair. He said George Mahon's district around Lubbock is about the required size of 416,000 constituents, but the one north of him isn't and if they start taking George's territory then he'll have a lot more virgin ground himself someplace else. Just where Garza County may end up will depend upon what happens to Mahon's current district. It's a tough problem, but we're glad to see Texas getting on with it. It's part of the Lone Star state's current industrial revolution.

culties." Judge Parker said, "as the county and state have been very careful to evaluate and take into consideration all phases of damages to the property owner."

"We have had 16 parcels approved by the state out of the 45 parcels to be purchased," Parker reported. "We have two easements voluntarily signed and some other property owners who are ready to sign. Most of the others are being processed by the state and we feel that in the near future we will be able to contact all parties involved."

"The federal, state, and county pay their proportionate part in the expense of building these highways," Judge Parker, "and an agreeable and just appraisal of the valuations is necessary by all parties."

He served as mayor of Post in the 1920's and also served as a school board member. He was a charter member of the Rotary and Lions Clubs and was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the Scottish Rite Order and the Shrine.

Mr. Mason is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James L. Minor of Post; a son, Marshall Mason Jr. of El Cerrito, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Cameron Justice of Justiceburg and Mrs. Callie Mae Shaw of Granite Shoals; a half-brother, Jim Mason of Southland; two half-sisters, and eight grandchildren.

Debbie Landers, 13-year-old Amberst girl, representing Lamb County, won the regional Bee and will compete in the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D. C.

Bonnie Brookshire of Denver City won second place in the regional Bee and third place went to Jesse Draper of Odessa, representing Ector County.

Twenty-one spellers competed at Lubbock with each of them awarded a plaque.

the first grade and will also teach the non-English speaking program in the summer. Miss Martinez was hired subject to assignment.

At the night meeting, Mrs. Shirley Cunyus Moody was elected to teach language arts in the secondary schools, and Arnold Skiles was elected subject to assignment.

The board also voted to accept the resignations of Mrs. Carolyn Black as language arts teacher in the high school, and Mrs. Ruth Holland as a fourth grade teacher.

The purchase of the 24 IBM electric typewriters authorized by the board's vote is subject to a state allocation of vocational educational funds.

Supt. Barry B. Thompson explained that there is an "excellent possibility" of the school district receiving from $13,000 to $17,000 for the purpose of upgrading the business education department, with part of the money to be used to underwrite a Distributive Education program.

The school will trade in some of its present manual typewriters on the new electric machines.

The vote on the typewriter purchase came at the night meeting after board members had spent an hour and a half in the library listening to representatives of the IBM company and the Underwood Corp. on the merits of their respective machines.

The tentative budget for the 1964-65 school year is $623,323.07, an increase of about $6,000 over the 1963-64 budget.

Following an hour and a half discussion, the board decided to postpone action on the tentative budget until the regular board meeting in May.

The trustees voted approval of Supt. Thompson's acceptance of a National Science Foundation Fellowship at New Mexico Highlands University, running from June 8 to July 3, 1964. The fellowship is in chemistry, physics, mathematics and biology.

The board also voted to accept microscopic research facilities made available to the school and its students by Dr. Harry A. Tubbs. Biology teacher John May was designated to supervise and coordinate the use of the equipment.

Coaches' ALL-AMERICANS

"Player of the Year" Gary Brads of Ohio State heads the 1964 All-American team selected by the National Association of College Basketball Coaches. The almost 400 coaches who participated in the balloting, conducted annually for the Wheaties Sports Federation, gave Brads 2,319 total points. Joining the Buckeye star on the first team are Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Dave Stallworth of Wichita, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, and Bill Bradley of Princeton.

By VERN SANFORD
 If there is any body of water in Texas that might have what you would refer to as "everything," it is Lake o' the Pines. Here on Cypress Creek in East Texas, only a short distance from the Louisiana line, is a marvelous lake for all types of recreation. It is one of the newest lakes in Texas, finished only three or four years ago by the Corps of Engineers. It is located 9 miles west of Jefferson, and only 65 miles northwest of Shreveport, La. Lake o' the Pines is created by what is known as the Ferrell's Bridge Dam, which is 70 feet high and 10,600 feet long. The water supply pool covers an area of 18,700 surface acres, which makes it a fair-size lake in Texas. THERE IS NO MORE picturesque spot to be found anywhere in the state. The name Lake o' the Pines is well adapted to this body of water. Its shores are lined with towering pine trees and surrounded by huge oaks, pecans and other native shrubs. For the fisherman, there are portions of the lake where the underbrush has not been cleared. In these areas still stand towering trees of every nature. At the root of every one of these trees is some kind of fish. Although most Texas lakes are fished mainly for largemouth black bass, this particular lake offers outstanding fishing in perhaps the largest bream in Texas with a wide assortment. This is Texas' most popular lake for canoeing fishermen.

ALTHOUGH THERE are large semi-cruiser boats, and fast hulls on the lake, there probably are more of the flat-bottom john boats here than on all other lakes in Texas combined. This is a great lake for sculling. A fisherman sits in the end of the boat with a short paddle and maneuvers it around among the protruding tree tops. Most of these fishermen use a cane pole, baited with either minnows or worms. They drop the bait alongside one of the cypress poles or the old dead pine stumps. They jiggle it a few times. If there is a hungry fish around they take it and move on to one of the thousands of other such locations without halting distance. Fishermen here generally do not bother with stringers. They use wire baskets hanging over the side of the boats. They drop their fish into these baskets and get another bait down in a hurry. THIS DOES NOT mean that casting is out. It is a wonderful spot for bait casters. There are fine big black bass, plenty of crappie and chain pickerel, or jackfish as they are called locally. Most of the crappie in the area are large black ones. This, because there is sufficient acid in the water to make this species abound. And those big bream, or blue gill! People travel for miles just to pole fish for those fellows. In most areas the growth is a little too heavy for fly fishing, but in the more open waters and around the edges of the little islands, the fly or bug fisherman has a field day. There also are monstrous catfish in the lake. Some alligators have been found, but they are recognized as beneficial to the waters. The Engineers have done an excellent job of providing recreational areas around the lake. Also they have provided enough open water for those who are just interested in water sports. There is no reason for the man who fishes and the man who skis to get in the way of each other. In the area around the dam there is

Four-ball am-am tournament to be Sunday afternoon

A four-ball am-am tournament will be played Sunday afternoon, April 19, at the Caprock Golf Course, beginning at 1 o'clock. Three men and one woman will make up each foursome. Handicaps will be given and low ball will determine the winners. The entry fee for the tournament is $1.50 per person, with prizes going to the first, second and third place teams. Plans for the tournament were made at a meeting of 24 members of the Post Country Club on Tuesday evening. Six new members were voted into the club. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blanton and Mr. and Mrs. Powell Shyltes. Mrs. Claud Collier was presented her trophy for winning the 1963 Women's Club Championship Tournament. A film on a match between Jack Nicklaus and Sam Snead was shown to the following members: Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cornell and Pat D. H. Bartlett, Jimmy D. and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Acker, Harold Teal, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carlyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Collier and Paul Jones.

Owen, Cross and Simpson captains
 Benny Owen has been elected captain and Ronald Simpson and Butch Cross, co-captains, of the Post Antelope football squad for the 1964 season. Coach Harold Teal announced today. The captain and co-captains were elected by members of the Antelope squad. The coach also announced that Danny Pierce was elected secretary-treasurer by members of the Antelope Football Association, which is a lettermen's organization.

Freshmen fourth at Denver City
 Coach Will Bigott's Post freshman track team scored 61 points in the District 4AA meet at Denver City Saturday for a fourth place team finish. Post's only first place was won by Ronald Pierce in the high jump with a leap of 5 feet 4 inches. Jimmy Bartlett placed second in the 75-yard dash, fourth in the broad jump and sixth in the 100-yard dash. Donnie Windham won third in the 440-yard dash; Davis Heaton, fourth in the 880-yard run, and Jerry Sullivan, fifth in the discus throw. Both the 440 and 880-yard relay teams placed third. Members of the 440 team were Bartlett, Sullivan, Mike Petty and Paul Walker. Running on the 880 team were Pierce, Petty, Walker and Windham. Denver City and Frenship tied for first place in team standings in the freshman division and Slaton was third.

a great deal of open water where racing is possible. THERE ALSO ARE a number of excellent commercial accommodations for those who do care to camp out. Lake o' the Pines is a long lake, extending in a northwest direction from the dam up Cypress Creek to the area of the Lone Star Steel plant. It can be reached through Pittsburg, Daingerfield, Ore City, Longview, Marshall, Jefferson, Avinger, Lassater and Gilmer. The lake is split up with a score of smaller streams flowing into the main body. Backwater in these streams also provide wonderful fishing spots. In other words, you can hit the lake most anywhere and find a good place to catch a fine string. Although the open water of the lake gets rough and is dangerous in bad weather, there are many coves where fishing is possible almost every day of the year. If you are looking for something different in a lake . . . then a week-end at Lake o' the Pines is it.

I am a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct 1, Garza County.

This is my own decision. There is no group, or individual who urged me to make this race.

I have been a resident of Post and Garza County 18 years. I feel like I know the county's business problems and can apply my long business experience to their solution.

I worked for Piggly Wiggly 28 years and served as store manager for 22 years. I also have served eight years on the Post Independent School District Board of Trustees. I think this experience helps qualify me for this office.

I have now retired from Piggly Wiggly, and, if elected plan to devote all my attentions to this county office.

I would appreciate your vote and influence on May 2.

Teen-Agers' Recreation Problem

By Argan Robinson
The city of Post is afflicted by a problem that has been present for many years, and which evidently grows with time. This is a lack of activity for the teen citizens. The movie is the only form of regular entertainment, and the feature changes only two or three times a week. On weekends, couples are often forced to go to Lubbock or be satisfied to ride up and down the streets. All students need and want other forms of entertainment and activities. How can the town expect good to be derived from boredom and inactivity?

Friday was an example of this. Because of boredom, everyone who was riding around decided to honk their horns. Promptly, it was quieted by law officers. Now we have a choice. We may go to the show or to Lubbock, or at a drive in, or we might sit home every night of the week. There are several other alternatives, also, that are frequently used.
Every teen would be willing to work with the town on any improvements proposed by the city. It would be for the betterment of everyone.

More Good Citizenship Needed

By Cherry Pennell
Today in our school we need more good citizenship. We have far too much disrespect for the privileges and advantages of a good education. Whether or not we realize it, it is the most important time of our lives. We should make the most of it. We are setting our examples of our life later on, right now. If we use our best citizenship right now and practice at all times it will become natural to us.
Good citizenship covers everything from taking care of all your marbles to respecting others' property. Some of our young people today are so critical of others, especially elders. Some of them are so spoiled and self-centered, they think their elders should do just what they want, whether it is for their own benefit or not.
Recently we had a little incident in our school library that caused a lot of trouble for the people involved. Some people had taken some books out of the library for their own use, without signing their name to the book card. They did not bring them back. Instead, a few lockers had to be checked. The books were finally found but it caused a lot of trouble. This incident could have been prevented by using good citizenship.
Our school provides us with the best materials and we are free to use them at our convenience. If we do not use these materials correctly, we might lose the privilege of using these materials. Just think how it would be if we had to furnish our own materials to get our assignments!

As I said before, this is the most important time of our lives and if we decide now that we want to do things right so we can be prominent citizens after our life in school, we should start now to become the best kind of citizen we can be!

Showing Respect for Teachers

By Linda Hays
One of the greatest mistakes we students make is not showing respect for our teachers.
I find myself, as well as others, doing this. We may or may not be aware of this. We must realize that if they did not want to be here teaching us, then they would not be here.
As individuals, we know we like to be respected by all persons, so you can imagine how teachers feel when they are trying to teach a group of students. Try to put yourself in their shoes and think how you would feel the next time a teacher is rudely treated by a student.
The teacher and student may not show the least respect toward each other, but if each will give their time, there might be a change.

Have you ever wondered if you show respect toward someone, will they take heed? Try sometime and see what happens.
I think we students have some kind of detector device toward teachers. If they let us get away with some stunt, then naturally we keep it up. I do not mean they should be so strict as to watch every movement we make, but help us not let it become a habit.
Usually our main victims are teachers freshly graduated or those just beginning to teach. They want so much to be well liked as well as respected by all. Maybe they try to reason with the student so unconsciously that they let him get away with things. We students do not mean to let it become a habit because we want the teacher's respect too.
How I hope that after reading this maybe there will be changes made by students and teachers. Just remember that if you want respect then respect others.

Everyone Cheats: True or False?

By Marcia Newby
Do you think everyone cheats? It seems that way sometimes. Adults cheat. We have heard them bragging about a fast one they pulled on their income tax return or how they padded an expense account. We cheat. Most of it occurs in school but we do it also in other phases of our life. Many of us take cheating for granted.

Why do you think we cheat? Maybe we cheat because everyone else does. It is the popular thing to do. Could it be because we are not as well prepared as we should be? The reason could also be that it takes higher grades to get into college. Some of the blame could even be placed on our parents. Lots of us are afraid we will not get to go out of the house for weeks if we make a failing grade. This does not make us any smarter; it just forces us to cheat through necessity. Even some blame can be placed on the teachers. For instance, when they leave a crowded classroom during a test, we know it is up to us not to cheat, but often the temptation is too overwhelming.

There are other reasons. We all like putting one over on the unsuspecting teacher. Also, some are forced through friendship to supply answers to others.
You know and I know that teachers were once students. (Believe it or not.) They are aware of our sly little methods of cheating, cray notes, signs, and so on.

Well, what is the solution? If we cheat because we are behind, we should study harder and longer, have a conference with our teachers, or change or drop the course, if necessary. If we cheat because everyone else does, we should talk about the subject or set up a kind of an honor system with ourselves or other students.

The main and most important thing is being able to look cheating squarely in the eye, acknowledge it exists and find a solution. Then and only then can something be done.

Does not making an honest 79 feel just a little better than a dishonest 80? I do not think I need to supply proof that cheating is wrong. If we can control it now, we will not cheat in bigger things.

Act as you see fit. We know cheating is there and we know it is wrong, so to improve our character and raise our morals, let us stick to the old, but wise, saying, "Honesty is the best policy."

Freshman Gossip

By Jo Beth Dillard
Friday, April 13, the Freshman class had an outing at Cooper's Canyon. Everyone had a wonderful time eating and exploring the surroundings. The class arrived on buses. Class sponsors, Miss Halford, Mr. Carlyle and Mr. Tittle were present. The class would like to thank all those that made it possible to have the party.

The Freshmen basketball girls are very proud of their silver basketballs that they received for playing on the team this year.

The class will be losing a fine student when Beverly Avant moves this week. Beverly has attended school at Post for the last five years. The Avants will be making their new home in Louisiana. Best of luck, Beverly.

The 8th grade girls who are going to play basketball next year have been working out with the Freshman girls. They're getting ready to step into the freshmen girls' shoes as members of the "Frosh" team next year.

This coming six-weeks will be spent reading "David Copperfield" in Freshman English. The thought is, will we ever finish it!

This is a warning to all people. Spring fever has struck the freshman boys, so beware of smiling boys with their hands behind their backs. They might have a water gun that will make you see "April Showers."

New Math booklets in use for 6th and 7th

By Cathy Cates
The 6th and 7th grades received new Math booklets. These booklets are different than the usual books.

They are part of a program in which you can go at your own speed. They are a part of the Encyclopedia Britannica program. This program will not hold back the faster workers, yet will not rush the slow or medium slow workers.

We work on these booklets for the first half of the period. The second half we talk about the problems we had trouble with and are given homework.

We are not allowed to take these books home or even to mark in them. We bought note pads in which we put the answers. We enjoy them very much.

AUSTIN — Only the upper 15 per cent of Texas high school graduates ought to be taken in the state's top universities, the Governor's Committee on Education and the State Board of Education agreed at a meeting here today.

A sub-committee also informed the panel that some type of higher education must be made available to all and that there is an urgent need for general upgrading of the state's educational system. Enrollments must be built up, dropouts reduced and standards steadily improved, the group heard at a meeting here today.

JUVENILE PROGRAM — Texas State Council reports that there has been a sharp and welcome drop in the number of repeaters among juvenile offenders sent to correctional schools.

In the fall of 1961, the rate of return was 45 per cent. Then the Legislature appropriated funds for expansion and improvement of school facilities and for more council parole officers. By August, 1963, the return rate was down to 29 per cent and youth council spokesmen say they hope to hold this since the parole period was increased to 20 last month.

The Rev. Clint Kersey, council parole supervisor, said, "We believe that by an increased staff, we can keep them in school. Then when they are paroled, they are better able to adjust and hold a job and that cuts the chance of return."

SCREW WORM APPROPRIATION ASKED — Gov. Connally has requested a $5,500,000 congressional appropriation for continued protection against the screw worm menace.

A two-year program has eradicated the screw worm from Texas, Connally told congressional leaders, and feasibility of a barrier along the Mexican border to prevent re-infestation is proved.

While southwestern states, livestock producers and sportsmen have financed over half the $12,000,000 program to date, Connally said, it now is an international matter and should be financed by the U. S. without local matching requirements.

The state, producers and sportsmen would continue to provide inspection, survey and other services in the U. S.

OIL FIELD BRINE — The Texas Water Pollution Control Board scheduled a hearing for July 1 at 9 a. m. on its order prohibiting the surface disposal of oil field brine in Area II of the Ozallia formation — the Middle High Plains. All area II permit holders are to appear at the hearing and show cause why their permits should not be amended to conform to the no-pit order.

A May 27 hearing has been set for Ogallala area I — the Panhandle area — and a hearing on area IV will be held on Aug. 5.

THE JUDICIARY — All gubernatorial candidates have been asked by a State Bar committee to pledge that, if elected, each will consult the bar committee on judicial appointments.

Vernon B. Hill of Mission wrote all candidates that his committee would propose no nominees, but would rate each considered for judicial appointments either exceptionally well qualified, or not qualified. He said a similar procedure is followed by the President of the U. S. and the Attorney General and the American Bar in appointments to the federal judiciary.

State Bar also has named a committee to consult with newspapermen and law officers about the problem of publicity on lawsuits and trials.

Talbot Rain of Dallas is chairman with former District Judge Joe Frazier Brown of San Antonio and Joe H. Reynolds of Houston members.

Apparently, the group will seek to work out some sort of joint code for policing publicity.

"AIRPORT" OFF LIMITS — The

DON'T SCORN SALADS

Males who are meat-and-potato eaters and who scorn salads will do well to take another look at their diets, says Dr. W. W. Baer, director of the American Medical Association's health education department, Chicago. "Don't dismiss salads lightly," he says. "Look what such food does for the male rabbit. He's on his feet, has no paunch, and maintains a lively, romantic interest."

airstrip at the LBJ Ranch, a single, 6,300-foot runway located 12 miles west of Johnson City, has been declared off-limits to all civil and military aircraft, "except those on official business with prior permission to use the airport."

An order published by the Texas Aeronautics Commission for the Federal Aeronautics Agency said aircraft also must avoid flying within one nautical mile of the presidential residence.

LEASE CALL — The State is offering 369,786 acres of public lands for lease to oil and gas producers. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has called for sealed bids on 608 tracts to be submitted by 10 a. m. on May 5.

Sadler predicted the leases will increase the Permanent School Fund by several million dollars.

SLANT-WELL SUITS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr announced that nine new civil penalty suits have been filed against 14 alleged slant-well oil operators in East Texas, making the suit total 106.

First suit to be filed outside of East Texas, as well as the first against an out-of-state defendant, was filed in Jackson County against John Wrather of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Carr also filed another "first" suit, claiming a Rusk County gas well was slanted.

WATER COMMISSION — South Texas Electric Cooperative, Victoria, received Texas Water Commission approval of application to take 23,400 acre feet of water a year from Guadalupe River in Victoria County to cool steam-powered generators of its new electric plant.

Commission has published a bulletin, "Research on Evaporation Retardation in Small Reservoirs, 1958-63," for the benefit of farmers and ranchers concerned with losing water through evaporation. Bulletin is available free from the commission's office, Austin, Texas.

Aboriginal Paviatso Indians of the Sierra Nevada Mountains diverted streams to irrigate wild grasses whose seed furnished food for the tribe.

RALPH YARBOROUGH
Democratic Candidate
For U. S. Senator

Ralph Yarborough, native East Texan and former district judge, is a candidate for U. S. Senator in the May 2 Democratic primary.

Yarborough, who has served as U. S. Senator since 1957, was born in Henderson County. His rural background schooled the candidate in agriculture and conservation—both land and water.

Yarborough was graduated from the University of Texas Law School. Since graduation he has been a teacher, soldier, district judge and senator.

He has specialized in the fields of education, national defense, public health and the aged, and in conservation of the nation's parks, lands and natural resources.

With an acquired seniority in the Senate, Yarborough now is chairman of three committees and a member of the special Senate committees on poverty and on problems of the aging.

He has sponsored or co-sponsored the National Defense Act of 1958; Medical Education Act of 1963; the Peace Corps Act; and the bill creating the National Seashore Area on Padre Island.

Senator Yarborough and his wife, Opal, have one son, Richard, and one granddaughter.

SAYS TIME TO WAKE UP

Dear Editor:
It has come to a time for us to wake up to what is happening to our hospital here in Post. We all know that only one doctor can't wait on all of us, even if we wanted him to.

We don't have a choice in choosing our family doctor. We use the one the board of directors tell us to, or have to go to another town. We have worked and paid taxes, all of us, to build this hospital and now can't even use our own doctor. I have been told all my life that freedom was what our country was first settled for.

We have about three sources of

CUTTING GROCERY BILL
The typical American family spent $1,500 on groceries last year, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. But, say home economists, this grocery bill can be cut as much as 10 per cent with smart shopping practices such as supermarket "specials."

control over our little hospital and if anyone gets out of line they are the boss and should be able to control things there, and if they can't or won't, I think we should have a general house cleaning, and I am sure that this is the sentiment of most of us.

Yours truly,

Its objective is to honor those ministers who are making outstanding contributions to rural life. The program is sponsored by the Progressive Farmer magazine and the Texas Town and Country Church Conference. County Extension Service agents have detailed information on the award, Brown said.

The bulb, or stalk, may vary in diameter from three to four inches. The vegetable's mild licorice-tasting flavor can be used in place of celery in a salad, braised in meat stock, steamed or creamed like celery.

For the 3rd time in three years, Fred Lorenzen takes the grueling Atlanta "500" at the wheel of his Ford.

FORD TOTAL PERFORMANCE WINS ATLANTA "500" FOR 3RD YEAR IN A ROW!

Latest win gives Ford 11 out of last 12 NASCAR 500 milers!

ATLANTA, April 5: In a blazing exhibition of total performance, ace driver Fred Lorenzen piloted his specially modified '64 Ford to a stunning victory in the Atlanta "500" before a cheering crowd of 75,000 spectators. This victory marks the 11th time that Ford has captured a NASCAR stock car event of 500 miles or more starting in May, 1962. In the past two years, tough, dependable Ford-built cars have carved out an incredible history of victories in virtually every kind of automotive event possible—from stock car races to economy runs, from rallies to endurance tests. This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed... and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing.

Ford enters special cars in open competition, in addition to its extensive laboratory and test track programs, because competition provides an intensity of testing that no proving ground alone can provide.

The lessons Ford has learned in racing have already led directly to such refinements as a stronger rear axle, streamlined "fastback" styling, better brakes and an improved ignition system.

Because Ford enters open competition, the cars at your Ford Dealer's are stronger, better handling, safer and thrifter in the long run. They're built for total performance.

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

PIT BARBECUE—To Serve at Go Sportsman's Cafe, 222 East Main (Adv.)

Ford's lively new sports-type car—the Mustang—combines the styling and features of expensive foreign cars with a low cost made possible by American mass-production. Mustang hardtops and convertibles feature bucket seats and carpeting as standard equipment with a full-width seat in the rear. Options for the performance-minded include a selection of three V-8 engines with up to 271 horsepower along with 4-speed or automatic transmissions. Luxury options include a center console, power steering and brakes, and air conditioning. The standard hardtop model—equipped with an economical six-cylinder engine—will be priced with many economy cars. The new Mustang will be introduced by Ford dealers Friday, April 17.

Tom Power to put new Ford Mustang on display here Friday

The new Ford Mustang, which combines the sporty, the stylish and the practical, will go on display here tomorrow in the showroom of Tom Power, Inc.

In effect, through its many standard equipment features and a wide customer choice of options, the new Mustang is actually three cars in one.

Standard equipment features of all Mustangs include color-keyed, all-vinyl interior and molded nylon carpeting; foam padded bucket seats; a floor-mounted transmission shift lever; padded instrument panel; automatic glove box and courtesy lights; arm rests; cigarette lighter; full wheel covers; and many other standard items which are either unavailable or are extra-cost options on most other makes.

The basic Mustang is particularly suited to the smaller family or to the family looking for a second or third car. It features compact economy and low initial cost with all of the long-life, take-care features of other, more expensive cars. It combines driving fun with a sporty appearance and the practicality of a rear seat and adequate trunk space.

It also provides a highly versatile foundation on which the buyer can literally custom-tailor his own special kind of car.

The Mustang becomes a sports car for street or competition use through a selection of performance options. The performance-minded may select from three V-8 engines ranging up to 271 horsepower. He may add a 4-speed transmission, quick-ratio steering, or a Rally-Pac with tachometer and clock. A special handling package—priced at less than $40—includes heavy-duty coil front springs, heavy-duty semi-elliptical rear leaf springs, special shock absorbers, and extra-large diameter stabilizer bar in the suspension geometry to provide flat cornering. 6.50 x 14 tires, and the fast-ratio steering gear. He can even order 15-inch wheels and sports tires, limited-slip differential, and a heavy-duty battery.

The Mustang becomes a luxury car with such options as a vinyl-covered hard top, a full-length console between the front bucket seats, a remote-control trunk release, a rear-seat radio speaker, an accent pin stripe around the body sculpturing, tinted glass and air conditioning. Other comfort and convenience options include power brakes and steering, an automatic transmission, and a power-operated convertible top.

By LUCILE WALKER
Here is another "skunk" story for our readers. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker received an SOS from Gus and Letha Porterfield Thursday night. Seems like Gus had gone out to shut the door on the hen house and discovered "Mr. Skunk" inside trying to catch one of his prize laying hens. The Porterfields didn't have a gun, so Gus dashed over to the Walkers, borrowed a gun, hurried back home and shot the pesky intruder.

Mark Twain's Story OF THE READING SPIDER

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri newspaper. One day he got a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his newspaper and asked if this was an omen of good luck or bad luck.

Twain wrote: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

You will find no spider webs across the doors of the merchants who advertise in your local newspaper.

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:

"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man — Judge Jim C. Langdon."

Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates also truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.

Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

Jim Langdon's Opponent is a 10-Time Loser!

- Jesse Owens, 69-year-old attorney, is still running for office after 38 years and TEN DEFEATS. He has lost the following races:

TORNADO TIME!
Excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. There is no universal protection against tornadoes except underground excavations.

II. If you are in open country: Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III. If in a city or town. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. Stay away from windows! In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

IV. If in schools: In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums with large, poorly supported roofs! In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

V. If in factories and industrial plants: On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

VI. Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

VII. Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request
