

Post 'inherits' Denver City's tournament; play starts today

Eight cage teams poised for start; four games a day

Thanks to Denver City's extended football season, Post High School's new gymnasium gets a top tournament after all. Play is scheduled to begin here at 4:30 p. m. today in an eight-team tournament originally scheduled for Denver City, but shifted to Post after the Denver City Mustangs defeated Olney Saturday night to enter the state Class AA football championship game Friday against Bellville at San Angelo.

Play in the tournament here will continue through Saturday night's championship game, with the first game to begin at 4:30 p. m. each day.

Teams entered in the tournament are the host Post Antelopes, Muleshoe Mules, Seagraves Eagles, Plains Cowboys, Littlefield Wildcats, Brownfield Cubs, Tom S. Lubbock Cowhands and O'Donnell Eagles.

Muleshoe and Seagraves will play the first game in the tournament this afternoon. Following will be the Brownfield-Tom S. Cowhands game at 6, Plains vs. Littlefield at 7:30, and Post vs. O'Donnell at 9.

Play will be resumed at 4:30 p. m. Friday with the losers of the Brownfield-Cowhands and the Post-O'Donnell games meeting in a consolation contest. At 6 o'clock, the winners of the two above games will play. At 7:30, the losers of the Muleshoe-Seagraves and Plains-Littlefield games meet, with the winners squaring off at 9 o'clock for the night's finale.

Each team is assured of three games, Post Coach Richard Souter said.

General admission to the Thursday and Friday games will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students and to Saturday's games, 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students.

Officials for the tournament will be M. D. Souter of Denver City, John Dick Moorhead of Sundown, Gene Gerloff of Lubbock, and another official yet to be named. Two of the teams in the tournament—Brownfield and Littlefield—are Class AAA clubs, Post and Muleshoe are Class AA, and Seagraves, Plains and O'Donnell are Class A.

The Lubbock Cowhands, also known as the Tom S. Lubbock "B" team, replaced Denver City to complete the eight-team line-up for the tournament.

Following wet forces' victory at Slaton

Post dealers' policy, let's 'wait and see'

Surprised Post and Garza County retail liquor dealers, most of them reportedly "caught with their options down" by the wets' 206 vote margin victory in southeastern Lubbock County Saturday, are adopting a "wait and see policy" as regards to future business prospects here.

Obviously, the major share of the liquor market has been lost to local liquor stores, but how much can be salvaged is still a guess even for the experienced operators.

DIZZY LAND BOOM
Several owners of local liquor stores have been busy trying to buy or lease sites just south of the big, dry city of Lubbock this week—where the greatest land boom in Lubbock County history is now swirling at a dizzy pace.

Unconfirmed stories along Post's "bourbon street" yesterday recounted how one Lubbock County landowner was offering one single acre as a liquor store site for the dazzling price of $15,000.

Another turned down an offer of $1,200 an acre for his land one night and sold it the next day for an undisclosed amount. A third leased the closest acre to Lubbock on the Slaton highway for $1,000 a month.

Then there is the story of another Lubbock landowner who is offering a whole section in the new "liquor area" for almost $2,000,000—but as yet no takers.

Liquor store bidders termed most landowners' offers to sell or lease "very unreasonable."

Firemen's Yule event

Is Saturday

The Post Volunteer Firemen's annual Christmas event Saturday afternoon will feature Santa Claus, the giving away of 23 plump Christmas turkeys and bags of candy for all the youngsters attending.

Adults will win the turkeys. The annual holiday event will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the all-weather parking lot of the First National Bank.

Santa Claus, that old gentleman from the North Pole, in his traditional red suit, will arrive on the Post Fire Department's big new fire truck.

Local merchants sponsor the turkey give-away with tickets being given in stores of sponsoring merchants.

DR. D. C. WILLIAMS

Final rites held for Dr. Williams, pioneer physician

Funeral services for Dr. D. C. Williams, 75, pioneer Post physician and civic leader, who died about 1 p. m. Saturday in Garza Memorial Hospital, were conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member.

Dr. Williams had been admitted to the hospital last Thursday night. He moved to Post in June of 1914 following his graduation from the University of Texas School of Medicine. He became associated with Dr. A. C. Surman and the late Dr. Ponton in the old Post building now housing the Colonial Apartments.

Drs. Williams and Surman had been associated continuously since that time in the practice of medicine here.

Dr. Williams was born Aug. 15, 1885, at Wills Point, Tex. He attended school in Van Zandt and Collin counties and was graduated with a B. S. degree in 1906 from East Texas Normal College at Commerce, now East Texas State College.

He taught school for four years in Collin, Rockwall and Hunt counties before enrolling in the University of Texas School of Medicine in 1910.

Dr. Williams entered the Army in 1917 and served 12 months in France as a captain in the 49th Engineers, Camouflage Division, and as a medical officer in charge of the underground hospital at Dijon, France.

Upon his discharge from the Army in 1919, he returned here to resume his medical practice.

Dr. Williams was the first post commander of James G. Cole Post of the American Legion and was a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars Post here.

He was a charter member and past president of the Post Rotary. See DR. WILLIAMS, Page 5

66 Youngsters participate in Dispatch coloring competition

Contest winners are named

Randy Baldwin, 5, of 108 East 12th Street, and Danny Pennington, 11, of 1105 South College, Decatur, Tex., were the first place winners in the Post Dispatch's fourth annual Christmas coloring contest which drew a total of 66 entries.

Danny, who won a Marksman Dart Game with six darts and who topped the 36 contestants in the 8 through 12 age division, is a repeat winner from last year.

Randy won a Strum Fun Getar which plays eight favorite songs on changeable music discs for taking first among 30 contestants in the 7 years and under age division.

In the 7 and under division, Bobby Norman, 6, of Route 3, won a Huckleberry Hound and Yogi Bear Bowling set as the second place finisher. Debra Lee Oden, 7, also of Route 3, was third to win a box of Moon Rocks, an outer space garden.

Fourth through eighth place finishers in this division, not necessarily ranked in order, are Jimmy Kemp, 7, Route 1; Jackie Colizzo, 7, 813 South Avenue I; Janet Sue Ray, 7, Route 1; Pam Gray, 5, 611 West 12th; and Keith Howard, 6, 607 North Avenue O. Each wins two passes to the Tower Theater, courtesy of Theater Manager John Hopkins.

All of the other entrants in the contest were given prizes. See CONTEST, Page 5

Site cost is so high the small store operators may not be able to afford a try at the Lubbock market, one source said.

An estimated 50 to 100 liquor stores are expected to be in operation within two or three miles of Lubbock's southern city limits within a matter of 30 days.

Some hope to be open in time for the closing Christmas rush, although that appears doubtful as the Lubbock County commissioners' court won't even canvass the vote until Monday.

All was confusion in the new wet area yesterday.

Rural extended phone service being sought

Rural extended telephone service out of Post is being sought by residents of the Grassburg, Cross Roads, Verbena and Barnum Springs communities, most of whom are now without telephone service.

The areas which would be served by the proposed service are north, northeast and east of Post.

The Caprock Telephone Company of Spur has agreed to build the lines and make the telephone installations if enough subscribers sign up and if General Telephone Company of the Southwest will tie the lines into the Post exchange.

The goal is 100 subscribers and 22 of that number already have placed funds in escrow at the First National Bank following a meeting here Saturday night.

L. W. Duncan, a vice president of the First National Bank, who has been working with the group, said the only provision is that the lines be able to tie into the Post exchange and that enough subscribers sign up.

Those signing up now would get telephone service by placing $10 in escrow at the bank, Duncan said. Subscribers coming in after the lines are built and the tie-in made would be charged for each quarter of a mile of line up to one mile and for the costs of the line on all distances over the first mile, Duncan said.

He pointed out that this would amount to considerably more than if a would-be subscriber gets in now by putting his $10 in escrow at the bank.

A steering committee of Arnold Sanderson, Walton McQueen, W. C. (Mutt) Graves, Ed Neff, Russell Wilks Jr. and Johnny Ray is making efforts at contacting all potential subscribers. Those not contacted by the committee are asked to get in touch with Duncan at See RURAL PHONE, Page 5

New Spraberry discovery seen

General American Oil Co. of Texas No. 1-64-A Miller, Gordon Simpson 8,300 foot Ellenburger test, eight miles southwest of Justiceburg, may come up with discovery production in the Spraberry.

Free oil was recovered on a pair of drillstem tests of the Spraberry with drilling now going a head below 5,765 feet.

On a drillstem from 4,990 - 873 feet, open two hours, recovery was 2,805 feet of free oil plus 450 feet of water. Flow pressure varied from 80 to 770 pounds. A second three hour test from 4,918-970 recovered 4,183 feet of gas in drill-pipe, 564 feet of slightly mud oil and 465 feet of salt water.

The Spraberry discovery is a south offset to field production and is located 2,700 feet from north and 1,870 feet from west lines of Section 64, Block 6, H&G Survey.

SNOWMAN PUTS IN FIRST APPEARANCE

Of the many snowmen springing up over town following the weekend's heavy snow was one on the lawn of the Walter Lee Johnson home at 616 West Fourth Street. The Johnsons, Gayla and Walter Lee Jr., are shown putting the finishing touches to their creation. The mop in the snowman's right hand was added so he could get busy if the snowfall heavier.—(Staff Photo).

Six-inch snow fades under clear skies, higher temps

Skies and rising temperatures this morning were erasing traces of a more-than-six-inch snow that blanketed the city last weekend and the first of the heaviest late-autumn storms here in history, the snow left 1.34 inches of moisture, according to County Agent Lewis C. Herron.

The heavy snow and the ice which quickly formed on streets and highways under sub-freezing temperatures slowed travel at intervals in all directions.

There was a rash of traffic accidents blamed on the icy streets and highways over the weekend.

Three men were injured early Saturday night in a collision on the Clairmont Highway inside the city limits.

Robert C. Meeker of Post, who was injured when his automobile collided with one driven by Burl V. Davis of Sonora, was admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital following the accident and was dismissed Tuesday. He suffered a chest injury.

Davis and Kenneth Anderson, owner of the car Davis was driving, suffered slight cuts about the face, according to City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd Jr., who investigated the accident.

The passing of a town builder

We buried a town builder this week—a man who gave all of his considerable medical skills as well as his other energies and leadership to his hometown and the folks who lived in it with him.

Dr. D. C. Williams came to Post in 1914 as a young doctor fresh from medical school. For the 46 years between that day and last Saturday, this was his town and he did the very best he could to make it a better place in which to live. His contributions were considerable.

He was the kind of dedicated, small town physician that this nation loves so much and everyone knows and respects.

We have heard many stories about Dr. Williams. He turned no one away who came to his office for medical attention simply because the patient had no money to pay.

One veteran local druggist recalls how he not only gave his medical services, but when necessary sent his patient to the drug store for a prescription with the request that the doctor be charged for the medicine. And if the patient was really "up against it," he would leave the doctor's office with a five dollar bill and instructions to buy some groceries for his family. Of course the druggist refused to bill Dr. Williams in such instances.

Back "in the 30's," this druggist recalls, there were many cases like that.

Dr. Williams put his ability to serve first, himself second.

He was never too busy with his "doctoring" to help his community in many other ways. He served eight years as Post's mayor, was the city-county health officer for 44 years, the first commander of the local American Legion Post, a school trustee for four years, a charter member and past president of the Post Rotary Club, a master Mason and past master of the Post Masonic lodge.

When World War I came along he went overseas and served 22 months in France as a medical officer.

Dr. Williams stayed "in the harness" as a doctor until his final illness. One friend best described his passing by saying, "He finally wore himself out helping."

Television these days makes Western pioneers its chief bill of fare. But they didn't all wear guns, live dangerously, and die with their boots on as we all know. Some served their fellow man riding in a buggy and carrying a little black bag—willing to ride day or night whenever and wherever called.

These pioneer doctors were one of the greatest and most steady influences of the new Southwest frontier.

Dr. Williams in his quiet way was one of this breed. And his region and his town today is much better off for the lifetime of service he gave to them. Many folks Monday afternoon found it hard to say goodbye.—JC.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

THIS IS OUR next-to-the-last issue of The Dispatch before Christmas, with the annual Christmas edition to make its appearance Thursday, Dec. 22. That means things will be getting hectic here at The Dispatch office the next few days. But they'll be doing the same everywhere else, so we're suppressing a desire to feel sorry for ourselves.

These Santa Claus letters! I've been processing them for publication every Christmas for the last several years, and I can't think of anything that could put an editor in a better mood for Christmas. Reading between the lines of the letters to Santa, you capture the true spirit of Christmas—the faith that lives in young hearts. There are some that make you laugh out loud and others that tug at your heart strings. One thing a child can do much better than any grown-up is write a letter to Santa Claus.

THE BIG CHRISTMAS tree on Main Street was never more beautiful than it was early Saturday morning just following the heavy snowfall. The entire city, for that matter, was a "picture postcard" of a winter wonderland. Post's population, which had increased by only 17 through a 1960 census release over the preliminary figure, gained a lot more "people" just after the snow—if you want to count all the snowmen that suddenly bobbed up in yards throughout the city. Some of them were masterpieces.

Post's Main Street Christmas tree, by the way, got some belated recognition in Sunday's Lubbock paper—on the "Letters to the Editor" page. What happened was that Lubbock editor Charlie Guy had written in his Plainsman column that few, if any, South Plains towns had come up with anything new in the way of Christmas decorations. Chamber Manager John Hopkins and Secretary Joan Stewart immediately got on the ball and wrote the Lubbock editor a letter about Post's big Christmas tree and some of the town's other decorations.

THE CHAMBER manager is also passing the word around that Manager Ted Hibbs and other members of the Southwestern Public Service Company staff were a mighty big help in getting the city's Christmas decorations up and in keeping them glowing. Brown Bros., Et Al, also came through with big help in going to New Mexico after the tree and in helping erect it after it arrived. Also not to be overlooked is the big role the City of Post played in the city's decorations, which are becoming more and more of a community effort.

Under the heading, "You said it!" the irrepressible and free-wheeling Ernest V. Joiner, who achieved national attention as editor of the Ralls Banner and is presently managing editor of Modern Veterinary Practice, quotes the irrepressible and free-wheeling Charles H. Brower, president of Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn.

"Has there been a paper delivered in the last 30 years," asks Mr. Brower of the readers of Advertisers' Digest, "dealing with non-neurotics, non-alcoholics, non-delinquents, or non-screwballs? Has any great foundation offered a grant to promote the study of the simple, corny, honest, God-fearing American? Yet even the breeders of animals know better than this. Nobody tries to develop winning race horses by studying the losers. Nobody ever develops prize pigs by studying the runts. We have taken the good guy for granted for so long in this country that we know nothing whatever about him."

As you can plainly see, neither Mr. Joiner nor Mr. Brower is a sociologist. Who's impressed with normalcy?

MY FRIEND UP the street says the beatnik is rapidly going the way of the American buffalo, to which he bears a strong resemblance.

I feel sorry for the newspaper workers who slave for the metropolitan sheets. They have to work in a mechanical and impersonal atmosphere. The smaller the town the more important the news becomes. That's where the folks know all the news before the paper comes out, and they take it to see whether or not the editor got the stories according to the way they heard them.

OVER A GAME of cards the other night, one of us worked up a conversation, during a lull in the playing, over how many people we know that have the same first names or nicknames as the different cards. "Jack", of course, is by far the most numerous of the names falling in those categories. "Ace" is a fairly common nickname. At Oklahoma City University, we knew a couple of football playing brothers—the Gutowskys—from Kingfisher, Okla. The oldest brother's nickname was Ace and the younger one was called

We're opposed to payroll tax

The state of Texas, getting ready for its next legislative session, is on the prowl for funds to run its growing-ever-bigger state government in Austin.

Gov. Price Daniel, who never "advocates" a tax because it's not very popular, has declared himself as "not opposed to" an employment tax in which the employer and employe each pay half of one per cent of the employe's annual salary.

The governor says he is opposed to the sales tax and state income tax so he is not going to oppose this one because the money has to be forthcoming from some place.

To us, this is a screwball sort of tax which hits the small business man another sizable jolt and he has been jolted quite a bit lately without too many governmental agencies doing much to help him with his lot.

Social Security already is socking him good with a payroll tax which has been going higher and higher—and which is scheduled to go even higher.

If a new tax must be had, it seems to us the sales tax is the best one to employ. It can raise all the money needed and be paid off on a pay-as-you-go basis on a penny basis.

It, too, imposes greatly on the merchant who has to serve as the collection agency. But it is a tax field which belongs to the states and is left alone by Uncle Sam.

We wonder if those who oppose the sales tax do so merely on the grounds of "good politics" instead of "good sense."—JC.

You, too, can raise a delinquent

Juvenile delinquency, as FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and others emphasize, becomes a graver problem all the time—both in the extent of the crimes committed by juveniles, and in the crime's seriousness. If you, as a parent, want to join the parade and raise a delinquent, there are certain rules to follow. Frank Brabant, an authority on the subject, who lectures around the country, recently listed them. Here are a few:

From infancy onward give the child everything he wants, so that he'll grow up thinking the world owes him a living. Don't give him any spiritual training. Avoid use of the word "wrong"—it may give him a guilty complex. Do everything for him, so that he'll become accustomed to throwing all responsibility on to others. Give him all the spending money he wants, and never insist that he earn any of his own. Satisfy his every craving and sensual desire—after all, denial may frustrate him. Take his part against neighbors, teachers and the police. When he gets into real trouble, apologize by saying, "I never could do anything with him."

These rules aren't hard to follow and abide by—great numbers of parents have, as surging juvenile delinquency shows. You, too, can produce a delinquent, simply and easily. The authority adds one more observation: "Prepare for a life of grief. You will be apt to have it."

The season of fire hazards

The Christmas season is a time for more fires than usual and when cold, icy weather gets a grip, the fire hazards are increased. It takes a lot of cooperation on the part of everybody to go through a Christmas time without a fire.

Decorations are up in the homes and stores, as well as in the schools, churches and other places where large crowds are the rule rather than the exception. Fire hazards are there, no matter how many precautions were taken in putting up the decorations. They should be checked to see if light strings are worn out, treated cotton should have been used, and candles and other flames should be kept away from anything that will burn.

All during the holidays, fire hazards are increased. More cooking is being done and scrap paper piles up as bundles are wrapped and later unwrapped when gifts are distributed.

A fire can wipe out all the joy of the Christmas season in the home, or anywhere else it happens. Post has been fortunate for a number of past holiday seasons with no serious fires. This one, too, can pass without a fire if every person in the city exercises the proper caution.—CD

Don't forget poll tax in Yule rush

With Christmas taking up most of our time for the next two weeks or so, there isn't much chance of those of us who haven't yet paid our poll tax for 1961 getting around to doing it until after the first of the year. But we should make sure that the Jan. 31, 1961, deadline doesn't catch us with our poll tax unpaid.

The big election year, of course, will bow out with the end of 1960, but next year's elections will be important enough that it behooves each of us to pay our poll tax and thereby qualify ourselves to vote.

In addition to the city council and school board elections, there will be a special election to fill the U. S. Senate seat to be vacated by Lyndon B. Johnson, and indications from the strongholds of prospective candidates for the Senate seat are that it will be a real "hoss race."

There is always the possibility of a bond election or two, and there may be another election in Precinct 3 on the liquor issue.

Any way you look at it, paying our poll tax for 1961 should be well worth the $1.75 it costs us.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

No present is worth having unless the giver would rather have kept it for himself. — James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

We note a West Texas Democratic chairman, somewhere in the oil fields—probably Odessa—says he has been run out of the Democratic party. He was county chairman of the party, but resigned. He blames the Democratic presidential platform. It no better suits us, we imagine, than him. What we wonder is where he was run to.

—The Floyd County Hesperian.

Since that newspaper publisher downstate robbed two banks, Charley Verner eyes The Printer with suspicion every time he walks into the First National to cover an overdraft.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

The strange bedfellows created by politics may even insist on retiring without removing their muddy boots and spurs.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

Lubbock Methodist Hospital asks counties pay for needy

The tremendous charity work handled by the Methodist Hospital here in Lubbock in a "strained" condition.

Due to the fact that many patients all over the High Plains are brought to the hospital with no financial arrangements made either by county or community, the hospital is unable to pay for the care of these patients.

Key, chairman of the hospital board of trustees, has announced the establishment of new admission procedures which he termed "a fair approach" to solving the financial problem.

He explained the policy as follows:

No person who appears to need emergency treatment shall be refused attention in our emergency room unless the facilities are too crowded to offer early care.

All other charity patients of the respective counties must have financial arrangements made in their behalf prior to arrival at Methodist hospital. For example, assumption of financial arrangements by a county judge may be confirmed with the hospital by telephone.

"The hospital cannot continue to caring for any and all charity patients under its prior policies if it is to operate at its own expense," Key explained. "We believe you will agree that the logical solution to this problem is for each county and community, including Lubbock and Lubbock County, to assume financial responsibility of the expenses involved for medical care of its indigent people."

The contestants qualified for the National Finals on the basis of their total winnings at 506 rodeos sanctioned by the Rodeo Cowboys Association this year.

Harry Tompkins of Dublin, Texas, is in the lead for the 1960 World Championship All-Around Cowboy title. Going into the Finals, Tompkins has won a total of $31,218 so far this year. He will compete in the Finals in both bull riding, in which he is in first place, and bareback riding, in which he ranks second.

Robinson of Rockland, Idaho, $12,118.

In addition to Tompkins, cowboys who have qualified for the Finals in more than one event include Robinson, Jim Shoulders of Henryetta, Okla., Duane Howard of Minnewaukan, N. D., Benny Reynolds of Meirose, Mont., Harry Charters of Melba, Idaho, Bill Federson of El Reno, Okla., and Buddy Peak of Tucson, Ariz.

The National Finals will be presented in ten go-rounds, with a complete section of competition in all five events, and all contestants competing at each go-round. The go-rounds are scheduled at 8 p. m. nightly Dec. 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and Jan. 1, with matinees at 2 p. m. Dec. 30 and 31 and Jan. 1.

Tickets can be ordered from National Finals Rodeo, P. O. Box 775, Dallas 26, Texas. Ticket prices are $4 for reserved seats and $6 for box seats for each performance.

Search turns up extra evidence

CROSBYTON—Some extra evidence was turned up in the search of a Negro woman in the Crosby County sheriff's office here.

The woman was found to be concealing two pints of whiskey in her girdle and a third in her brassiere.

The woman and her male companion, both of Rails, had been arrested in the south part of Crosby County. Sheriff Alvie Rathel said they had a case of beer, five pints and a half pint of whiskey in their car.

The man was charged with transporting and the woman with possession. Both were freed under $1,000 bond.

Tahoka airport to be dedicated

TAHOKA — Tahoka's newly improved airport will be dedicated Saturday with a fly-in of planes from over the area and a short program.

The event is being sponsored by the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with city and county officials.

The City of Tahoka and Lynn County have cooperated in paving one runway. Another runway was paved previously, but is to be improved in the near future. Additional landing lights also have been installed.

Plans for the dedication are to have a prominent guest speaker, a ribbon-cutting ceremony, flights for city and county officials and demonstrations of new aircraft. There will be fly-in breakfast for aviation enthusiasts from over the area.

Recent Grassland visitor is successful writer on safety

William A. Jones, a very unusual man with a cause, and his wife visited over Thanksgiving with the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Leach of Grassland.

Presently employed by the Omaha District of the Corps of Engineers, Jones has written, gotten financed, and enthusiastically gets distribution of a safe driving booklet entitled, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

An estimated 1,500,000 copies of the booklet, published as a public service by the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society of Omaha, have been distributed so far.

Jones calls on leading business and industrial leaders the country over and recently had one of them order 40,000 copies of the safe driving booklet for distribution.

Currently, and at his own expense, Jones is working on a similar booklet on what to do should a nuclear attack strike a major U. S. city. He has spent a week in the East researching on the project.

Jones was asked to write the new nuclear pamphlet because of the big response from his safe driving pamphlet.

Mrs. Ray Hodges and Mrs. Jimmy Doggett served punch, cookies, mints and nuts from a table laid in white lace over blue. A miniature bride and groom stood underneath a white umbrella surrounded with white and blue carnations to form the centerpiece. Tiny bags of rice tied with love knots extended from the umbrella. Silver and crystal services were used.

A large array of bridal gifts was displayed throughout the room.

About your health

Statistics indicate that this year we can expect approximately 560 Texans to die from injuries sustained in falls. In 1959 there were 595 such deaths—down from 627 in 1958.

There is no guarantee that the downward trend will continue.

The sad fact is that these are not injuries to workmen on telephone poles or oil derricks. Except for a few they are mostly same-level falls occurring to older persons.

Final tabulations are not available for 1959, but in 1958 a majority total of 420 accidental deaths from falls involved persons between the ages of 70 and 94.

This same pattern evolves year after year. Most deaths occurring among the rest of the age span are also the result of home accidents from falls.

Older people are naturally more prone to falls because of varying degrees of infirmity accompanying the aging process.

However, many home falls are preventable provided a sound plan of battle is followed to combat this number one home-accident killer.

For instance: in stairwells and hallways adequate light must be provided night and day to avoid tripping or missing a step. A lamp or flashlight should be handy by the bedside. Another safety factor is to have hand rails even for a one or two step stairway.

Carelessness with electric cords make ideal trippers for old people and high-heeled ladies. Make sure no cords are exposed in walking areas.

Many a throw rug has thrown someone for a permanent loss. They should be tacked down or have non-slip pads underneath to prevent this all too common accident.

Spilled liquids need to be wiped up immediately. There is nothing slicker than a kitchen floor with bacon grease spilled on it.

Many accidents occur in the bathtub or shower. A rubber mat and grab bar for the bathtub or shower makes good sense. Put a grab bar by the toilet also. A practical Christmas present for grandparents would be the installation of such bars in their home.

200 more books are received in Crosby

CROSBYTON — A total of 1,553 books are now on the shelves of Crosby County's tripartite library. The books are divided among the library units at Crosbyton, Rails and Lorenzo.

The latest shipment from the state library in Austin included 200 new titles. More are anticipated as the library program swings into high gear, with only a third of the promised number of books having been received.

MEANS SOMETHING ELSE

The British call the day after Christmas "Boxing Day", but it has nothing to do with heavyweights. According to World Book Encyclopedia, this is the day when families give money to the milkman, postman and others. In earlier days, the custom was to give Christmas boxes of food and other gifts to tradesmen and servants.

the Snowman that Lived.

Johnny built a snowman! From white, cold snow he made it. It was hard work, and Johnny was justly proud.

Johnny built a snowman—in a day! He packed the snow hard, put in coals for the eyes and nose, and Daddy's hat was placed on top.

But far more of Daddy than just his hat went into this snowman. Just as Johnny worked hard to build the snowman, his father is hard at work too... building Johnny. Daddy's greatest dream is to see Johnny moulded into a man of strength, vision, and character.

Luckily for Johnny, Daddy is a wise father. He realizes that the most important single influence upon his son's life is the teaching of Christ. Daddy will see to it that his son receives that teaching by sending him to Church services regularly. In making certain that Johnny knows the beauty of God's words, father will see his greatest dream come true.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ny Christmas Seals de page one early

...oke on Friday, the
...ember, in 1907. That
...was a quiet feature on
...page. But the next day,
...succeeding day until
...it was front-page stuff.
...old Philadelphia North
...now no longer published
...the first story.

...y Bissell, a welfare
...y Wilmington, Del. went
...paper in the hope that
...a story about her ef-
...the $300 for the fight a-
...tuberculosis by selling some
...Christmas Seals she
...ed herself. The editor
...did not help.

...way out Miss Bissell
...ee Leigh Mitchell Hod-
...ote a column entitled
...at". She told him that
...Seal Sale had been
...and successful project
...since 1904. When her
...came to her for help
...open the cottage where
...cessfully treating TB
...th new methods, the
...Seal seemed worth try-
...had helped with con-
...print a few thousand
...at a penny each, but
...few up to that time.

...Hodges listened to her
...as immediately enthu-
...satisfied the editor
...th American could do
...ic service by calling
...Seals to the atten-
...readers. He was sure
...people knew about them,
...want to buy the Seals
...ght one of man's old-
...the, so-called "White

...lines followed: "Christ-
...s Make Clean Sweep,
...Buying." A total of

...$3,000 was raised.

...Since then the Christmas Seals
...have become a traditional part of ...the American Christmas, with their
...message of assurance that the ...fight against TB continues.

...Work to control tuberculosis by
...voluntary tuberculosis associations
...and by the health department and
...the Board for Hospitals and Special
...Schools plus increasing medical ...research and skill has resulted in
...sharply cutting the death rate from
...tuberculosis. Not so sharp has ...been the decline of new cases each
...year. In fact, every seven minutes
...another American becomes ill
...with tuberculosis. The disease kills
...an American each 45 minutes.

...Chief problem now is the complac-
...ency of the public toward tu-
...berculosis. Since people no longer
...die of it in such numbers, it is no
...longer the keen threat of former
...years. Modern "miracle" drugs
...have been lured. Today, however,
...doctors warn that germs develop
...an immunity to drugs after a
...while—particularly if the drugs are
...improperly used. Patients with tu-
...berculosis sometimes develop a
...type of disease which is not affect...ed by drugs. Doctors say they ...have "drug-resistant TB." The ...disease, like all TB, is contagious.
...If "drug resistant TB" is passed
...to another, his disease cannot be ...helped by drugs.

...Medical authorities are eager
...that the effectiveness of these "mir-
...acle" drugs should not be und...ermined. This is one reason why the ...continuing battle against TB must ...go on—the battle in which the
...Christmas Seals have played so
...valiant a part!

...Wenatchee, Wash., claims to be
...the "Apple Capital of the world".

LITTLE COLONEL By Bob McKinley

"We also have the best hotel detective in town."

Letters to the Editor...

After nearly two years in office, as county superintendent of Young County, I am more convinced than ever that:

1. That there is no longer any such office in most Texas counties.
2. That the continued existence of such offices is a waste of people's money.
3. That most of these offices should be abolished, and without the creation of a "substitute" to take their place.

During the last session of the Texas Legislature, a bill was passed by the House of Representatives that would have permitted the abolition of the office in some counties. It was fought bitterly in the State Senate by lobbyist for the County Superintendent's Association and also by many of the Senators.

Those opposing the passage of the bill gave no logical reasons for their opposition other than selfish motives.

Space does not permit detailed arguments here, but since I am a county superintendent myself, I believe I am qualified to speak on the subject.

In the interest of better government and the elimination of some unnecessary taxation, I plead with each voter to write to your state senator now, and let him know that you favor the abolition of these offices.

As for myself, I plan to attend the next session of the Legislature to help the passage of such a bill, as I did during the last session.

Also, I wish to challenge any county superintendent or any state senator who opposes such a bill, to debate the subject.

George Corse Jr.,
Co. Supt. Young County
Graham, Texas.

THE WORD "XMAS"

The word Xmas as a form of Christmas originated in the early Christian Church, reports World Book Encyclopedia. In Greek, X is the first letter of Christ's name. It was often used as a holy symbol.

AT FORT WORTH JAN. 27-FEB. 5

Chariot race between horse teams from 'Ben Hur' slated for rodeo

A spine-tingling chariot race between two powerful four-horse teams from the movie "Ben Hur" will be one of the outstanding attractions during the 1961 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Rodeo, President-Manager W. R. Watt has announced.

The Fort Worth rodeo, Jan. 27-Feb. 5, will feature more than 300 top cowboys competing for approximately $60,000 in prize money.

Besides the spectacular chariot race, spotlighted entertainment will include Jay Sisler's nimble dogs, five colorful trick riders and two outstanding clowns.

Forty-one pretty ranch girl barrel racers will add a dash of color and excitement. Cutting horses will pit their intelligence against determined calves, and a number of horse show events are scheduled.

The chariot race will find the hard-driving white team originally driven by Charlton Heston challenging the movie's four dappled greys. The race will be staged live in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum at all 20 performances of the Stock Show rodeo, beginning Friday night, Jan. 27.

Glenn Randall, owner and trainer of the horses, spent almost a year in Rome training the animals for the film version of Lew Wallace's great novel. He and Glenn Randall Jr. will be in the chariots as the race is run again in the Fort Worth arena.

Jay Sisler's Australian Shepherd dogs and his educated greyhound, Blondie, have been a hit on the rodeo circuit for 12 years—ever since Sisler broke his leg. The young rodeo contestant trained dogs while recuperating, and formed such a fresh and entertaining act that he gave up bucking broncs for good.

Five veteran trick riders will furnish the thrills in that department, and two top clowns will be ready to fight horn-tossing bulls for the rodeo fans' amusement and the cowboys' gratitude.

After the Friday night opener, Jan. 27, there will be a morning rodeo performance at 10 the first Saturday, then performances at 2 and 8 p. m. every day through the closing Sunday, Feb. 5. Rodeo tickets may be secured by mail from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas.

All rodeo tickets include admission to the Stock Show grounds. More than 9,000 animals will be on exhibition during the 10-day show, with a constant round of judging and auctions to which the public is invited. In addition, the Texas Ranch and Farm Show, offering an opportunity to see the newest aids to better farming and ranching, will be free to visitors throughout the Stock Show run.

WATCH COTTON SEED

Make sure the cotton planting seed which you store on the farm doesn't become infested with insects which can severely damage the seed between now and planting time next spring. Extension Entomologist C. F. Garner and Fred Elliott, cotton specialist, suggest the local county agent be contacted for information on seed treatment.

FARM ACCIDENTS RISE

Accidental farm death rates connected with machinery, drownings, firearms and electricity are increasing and the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council suggests that it's not too early to make plans now for preventing farm accidents in 1961. In fact, they say, accident prevention would be a good starting point for New Year resolutions.

Because they ride easier they last longer, too. They take better care of payloads and they make a long day's work a lot more pleasant for the driver. All that—primarily because of Independent Front Suspension (I.F.S.). If you think it's stretching a point to attribute that many advantages to a suspension system, you haven't driven a new Chevy with I.F.S. Take the wheel and feel its road-leveling ride, its almost total absence of shimmy and wheel fight, its ease of steering even in the big rigs. Spend hours behind the wheel and you're not nearly as tired. You're not and neither is the truck. That independent suspension soaks up the worst shock and vibration—the kind that can twist sheet metal and loosen joints and increase your maintenance costs. That's why Chevy trucks keep on working and saving for extra thousands of miles.

Church still enrolling for new kindergarten

The First Baptist Church is sponsoring a first-class approved kindergarten to begin in January for children who will be in the first grade next school year.

The kindergarten will continue enrollment of children of all departments through Monday, Dec. 19. In order to enroll a child, the parent must call the church office or go by the office and fill out necessary information on enrollment cards.

The kindergarten committee, composed of James West, curriculum co-ordinator of Post Public Schools, Mrs. Lucille McBride, a first grade teacher, and Mrs. Mary Margaret Norman who is beginner co-ordinator of the church, has engaged Mrs. J. H. Glasscock as teacher. Mrs. Glasscock holds B. A. and M. A. degrees from Hardin-Simmons University and has taught elementary pupils in public schools for more than 30 years.

The program of study for the pupils include total readiness for the first grade. No first grade work will be taught, but the teaching will correspond to the desires of the public schools in preparation of the child for entrance to public school work.

The hours will be from 9 until 12 each day Monday through Friday. Further information on the schedule of study for each day may be obtained from the First Baptist Church office.

The school must have 15 children before it will function, and will not have more than 20 as total enrollment. If more than this number applies for admission, a waiting list will be made and the first in line will be permitted to enroll as another pupil drops out.

Trid squad, E. J. is reported to be quite a personality and should give a good account of himself on the "mashed potatoes and gravy circuit" this winter—with Post being the first stop.

The Chamber of Commerce has gone all out to decorate the business district for Christmas this year. Chamber Manager Johnny Hopkins even wrote Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Publisher Charlie Guy a letter which Charlie published in his column Sunday about the big Main Street Christmas tree. What's more, Johnny reported the big tree looks so nice from the air at night he has advised airlines in this area about it so it can be pointed out to flight passengers going over. How about that!

Only thing missing this yuletide season, some business men pointed out yesterday, was the exterior decoration of the courthouse at the West end of Main Street as in former years. There is still plenty of neon at the "east end".

Punk Peel is back in the filling station business again—and still a Texaco man. Punk took over operation of the Texaco station at 515 North Broadway from Edsel Stewart this week. You'll find Punk's announcement ad on page 14. Punk has been selling butane for Billy Hill for the last several months after operating the Texaco "round the clock" station at Main and Broadway for over five years. Edsel says if he doesn't catch on with something locally he may go back to the aircraft plants in the West or the Southwest for employment.

Dr. Williams was a member of district and state medical associations and the American Medical Association, and was on the staff of the Garza Memorial Hospital.

He served as mayor of Post for eight years, 1927-35, and also as a member of the Post School Board. He retired as city and county health officer a few months ago after having served in that capacity for 44 years.

The Rev. Ed Herring, First Presbyterian pastor, officiated at the funeral services. Mrs. Iris Power sang "Sunrise Tomorrow", accompanied by Mrs. Hazel Stallings at the organ.

At the funeral services, doctors and nurses of the city sat in a body behind members of the family, and longtime members of Rotary Club sat in a body behind the active pallbearers.

The pallbearers were Harvey Herd and Dan Rogers, both of Midland, Doyle Justice and E. W. Williams Jr., both of Lubbock, S. E. Camp, Bryan J. Williams Jr., Tom Power and Giles C. McCrary.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Clarification is made on inoculation policy

It was erroneously stated in a recent article from the school health department that Dr. James R. Matthews, county health officer, will provide pre-school inoculations for students whose parents are not financially able to pay for them.

While this service is rendered by the health officer, it is also the practice for the child's family physician, in most instances, to provide the inoculations at no cost in needy cases.

In all cases, it is pointed out, the children should first be taken to the family physician for the inoculations required for school attendance.

The severe weather brought a stop to the cotton harvest, with the county agent estimating that the county's crop was from 90 to 95 per cent gathered.

The ginning totals at the time of the shutdown brought on by the weather were several thousand bales in excess of the 20,000-bale mark, giving the county its highest yield since 1937, Herron said.

The 1.34 inches of moisture from the snow brought the 1960 moisture total to 22.13 inches through Dec. 14. The normal for the county is 20.43 inches.

Deputy approved; roof bid taken

Garza County commissioners approved the employment of a sheriff's deputy and accepted a bid on repairs to the Garza Memorial Hospital roof this week at the December meeting of the commissioners' court.

The commissioners approved the employment by Sheriff Carl Rains of Mac McCowen as a deputy sheriff for the remainder of the year at a salary of $300 a month.

McCowen replaces Sam Price, who has joined the city police force as deputy city marshal.

The $877 bid of the Hamilton Roofing Co. of Lubbock for repairs to the hospital roof was accepted by the commissioners. The acceptance is subject to the approval of C. P. Hedrick & Co. of Fort Worth, the hospital architects.

Officers probe billfold loss

Jess Dixon, local livestock trader, reported to the sheriff's office Tuesday that he had lost his billfold, containing approximately $600.

Sheriff Carl Rains said Deputy Sheriff Red Floyd had conducted an investigation after Dixon said his pocket might have been picked by two Negroes who had asked him to give them a ride from the post office to the colored section.

The deputy sheriff said yesterday that he had completed his investigation without having uncovered any evidence that Dixon had been the victim of a pickpocket.

Also, grouping of pupils for more effective instruction; correction of deficiencies at Lincoln Elementary School for Negroes; sample visual-audio aid equipment and program; improved Language Arts schedules; setting up of a guidance group, and a number of other improvements.

The board voted to approve the request of Supt. Lee Vardy of Slaton that the Post district pay $15 a month per student for tuition of Negro high school students transferred to Slaton. They also voted to charge the same amount for the Negro students transferred here from Southland.

The salary of bus driver Darrell Stone, who is also a teacher, was raised $15 a month from $55 to $70 due to the nature of his bus route.

The tentative bus insurance schedule approved by the board would insure a bus for $4,000 for the first year, $3,000 for the second year, $2,000 for the third year and $1,000 for the fourth year.

The trustees accepted the resignation of Mrs. Donald Watkins, a fourth grade teacher, who gave illness in her family as the reason for resigning. Upon the recommendation of the superintendent, the board hired Mrs. J. T. Mitchell as her replacement. Mrs. Mitchell has taught for a number of years in the Childress school system.

By VERN SANFORD

Always something new. That's what makes fishing fascinating. Just had an interesting chat with my good friend Billy Disch. Billy's a marine supply dealer in Austin. He is known among the anglers throughout the state as a top-notch fisherman. When he isn't peddling Whitehouse boats and Evinrude motors, he's somewhere on the Highland lakes, or out in the gulf fishing.

The other day he went out on Lake Travis and tied into a mess of junker bass. How? First thing he did was to sound out some skin divers. He asked the frog-men to find out where the fish were. They dived, scouted the area a bit, and reported that the bass were in water about 15 to 20 feet deep and the layer extended all the way across the big lake.

ANSWER HE WANTED
That was the answer Billy wanted. So he and his buddy fished that strata of water, if you can call it that, some 15 to 20 feet down. And they caught fish!

"If you don't have a frogman available to give you this information, go after the lunkers with a red, artificial worm, that floats," says Billy. "And here's how to do it."

First, buy some 3-0 gold-colored hooks. They are light in weight and have a long shank. Then get some of those floating, plastic worms, the big red ones.

Stick the point of the hook into the very end of the artificial bait and "worm" it on the hook just like you would a big angle-worm. Work it clear to the eye of the hook. Then force the point through the body of the worm until the hook protrudes about a half inch. Just be sure the curved part of the hook is only partially exposed.

MAY NOT LOOK RIGHT
Your finished job won't look exactly right to you, because the tail of the worm will ride high and just seem to dangle off the barbed end of the big hook.

Actually what you have is a stiff forward part of the worm, because the hook shank is inside; and a very flexible tail end of the worm, because there is nothing inside to make it rigid.

It's easy to see what happens in the water. Just move the fore-end of the worm, ever so slightly, and the tail wiggles vigorously.

Remember, this is a floating worm. It won't stay on or near the bottom, like most artificial worms do—unless you weigh it down. In fact that is the secret of this trick.

But let's go on with the story. Once you have the worm threaded on the 3-0 hook, your next move is to tie on your line.

LEAVES SWIVEL FREE
You do this by, first of all, running the line through the eye of the smallest size double swivel that you can find. That leaves this swivel free to move up and down the line.

Next move is to attach the end of the line to a snap-swivel, the smaller the better, then clamp the snap-swivel into the eye of the hook.

Better yet, pry open slightly the eye of the hook and slip on a real small and light weight double-swivel. Then force the eye closed and tie the end of the fishing line to the other end of the swivel.

Reason for this preference is the fact that the double-swivel is lighter in weight than the snap-swivel and weight is important when attached to a floating worm.

Now, you're all ready to go—except—how are you going to get this floating worm to the bottom of the lake?

Billy's answer is to tie a two-foot leader onto the other end of the double-swivel that you passed the line through but did not tie down.

ADD A BELL-WEIGHT
To the other end of the leader add a bell-weight—a real light one—just heavy enough to help you do a good casting job. The bell-weight is the one that is shaped like a bell and has an eye in its top, to tie to.

So, tie on, and you're in business.

As you cast out, the lead weight goes straight to the bottom. Inasmuch as the worm floats it will not drop as fast as the lead weight. So if you release plenty of line the floating worm will pull the line through the eye of the little free-swimming swivel that has the leader and weight attached.

Looking at it underwater, you'd find the worm floating some three or four or five feet above the weight that carried it out into the lake when you made your cast.

Now, you're ready for action. Let the worm float where it is for a minute or two. Then give the line a light tug. Let it rest, then twitch it again.

FISH WILL BE THERE
As you tug on the line the worm is of course going deeper into the lake, thanks to the lead and swivel arrangement that is pulling it downward. Continue this action until you get a fish, at one level or another. Whatever the level you find them, the fish will be there throughout the day. So try to mark the depth in your mind.

If you have no luck and you pull the line until the lure jams up against the weighted leader (two feet off the bottom)—let the worm

Raiders to play at home against LSU, Vanderbilt

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech's basketball team will be hosts to Southeastern Conference teams for their next basketball games in the Coliseum.

Louisiana State invades the Coliseum at 8 p. m. Friday, and Vanderbilt University comes here Monday night. An added attraction at the Vanderbilt contest will be an observance of "G. J. Holub Day" at halftime. The Red Raiders' All-America football center will be awarded several certificates.

Texas Tech holds three decisions over the LSU Tigers but has lost a pair to the Commodores.

Texas Tech's freshmen will play the Ince Oilers in the 6 p. m. preliminary game Friday and the CLV Rangers of Clovis before the Vanderbilt tussle.

So far the freshmen are undefeated, having beaten the C&I Life team and the West Texas State freshmen.

rest there for some time. Give it a little twitch once in awhile to keep it "alive."

Finally, if no luck, try another spot. Billy says, "If there are fish in the lake, this worm will find them."

Okay, suppose you get a nibble. Give the fish plenty of line. Let him take it with him—ten, twenty, even fifty feet if necessary. Just wait him out until you feel a sharp pull on the line. Then, set your hook. Do it quickly, however, for even then you'll find him hooked just barely inside his mouth.

Twitchy these fish. But not any trickier than Billy Disch. He really knows how to fool the fish.

DPS predicts 176 holiday fatalities

The Texas Department of Public Safety predicted today 176 persons will meet violent death in traffic, murder and suicide, and other fatal accidents during the 10-day period embracing the Christmas-New Year holidays.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., department director, said experience in previous holiday periods and other statistical factors indicate 90 persons will be killed in traffic, there will be 46 homicides and suicides, and 40 persons will die in fires and other non-traffic accidents.

He announced that "Operation Deathwatch," a grim tabulation of holiday deaths, will be in effect from 12:01 a. m. Friday, Dec. 23 to 11:59 p. m. Sunday, Jan. 1.

"We hope our prediction is too high, and through the most concerted and coordinated effort in history this year, we will be doing

OUR OWN SANTA CLAUS

You don't have to go all the way to the North Pole to find Santa Claus—he has a home in Indiana. World Book Encyclopedia points out that the Hoosiers named a small town after the plump gift-giver and put up a statue of him dedicated to "The Children of the World." In a typical year, some four million pieces of mail pour into the post office of the town, to be remailed with the postmark "Santa Claus."

everything in our power to hold down traffic deaths, particularly, during the holidays," Garrison said.

"Our regional commanders have been instructed to have every available man on duty and all radar units working during this period in an extra-special effort to maintain the existing reduction in traffic fatalities effected so far in 1960.

"We hope to wind up this year with approximately 170, or about seven per cent, less fatalities if we can hold the trend which was apparently been established.

"Operationally, department personnel will attempt to achieve the most effective enforcement program possible during the period, and through a coordinated, statewide public information program an all-out effort will be made to keep the public advised of and aware of the special hazards of holiday driving and the need for legal driving at all times. Experience has shown without a doubt that in most fatal traffic accidents, at least one violation of the traffic laws is a causative factor."

Garrison said participants in this program include the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, the Department of Public Safety, the Texas Association of Broadcasters, the Texas Council of Safety Supervisors, the Oil Field Haulers Association, the Associated General Contractors, the outdoor advertising media, the Texas Highway Department, the Texas Safety Association, and the press, radio and television media.

N. K. Woerner, manager of the Statistical Services Section, said all indications are that Saturday, Dec. 24 will be the high "motorcade" day with Friday, Dec. 23 and Sunday, Dec. 25 to tie for second. New Year's day, he said, is expected to be third.

He reported that the last time Christmas and New Year's day fell on Sundays was in 1955. That year, in the 10-day period, there were 81 fatal accidents resulting in 102 motorcides.

Last year for a 12-day period Woerner's section estimated 111 motorcides, 47 suicides and homicides and 42 other accident deaths. Final count, perhaps as a result of the enforcement and information efforts, was 97 motorcides, 47 suicides and homicides and 42 deaths in other accidents.

Safety is urged during Christmas holiday season

Parents setting out for a Merry Christmas should take steps to see that they don't fall flat on their faces in an effort to make it a happy occasion for their children.

J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, cautioned that because falls account for 45 per cent of home accident deaths, the Christmas season requires that a special effort be made to avoid this all too frequent occurrence.

"Don't obscure your view by carrying too many packages. If you find it necessary to hide them away in hard-to-reach places, be sure you use a sturdy ladder when it comes time to get them down.

"Decorating the Christmas tree in high places should be done by a person tall enough to reach those areas rather than letting smaller children try to reach the high spots from a chair—a doll helps, but it doesn't comfort a little girl with a broken arm.

"If you should move presents around in a dark room, make certain you have clear space in which you can maneuver before turning on the lights," Musick cautioned.

The safety enthusiast went on to caution against use of combustible materials as Christmas tree decorations.

"We also find more than the usual number of empty light-bulb sockets in the home at Christmas time," Musick observed.

"All the usual hazards of falls in the bathroom and the usual kitchen hazards are present in addition to increased trouble spots due to the holiday season," he said.

Christmas once was too merry

Christmas celebrations became so merry in Merrie Old England that they were abolished.

World Book Encyclopedia notes that the Puritans prohibited the boisterous observances in the 1640's. They threw out ministers who dared to hold services on Christmas Day and jailed anyone who didn't treat Dec. 25 as a common work day.

But while the Puritans were taking over England under Oliver Cromwell, they were losing the battle of Christmas. Riots broke out in 1647 protesting the ban on the holiday. And an outraged group of 10,000 men passed a resolution declaring that if they couldn't celebrate Christmas, they'd just as soon have the king back.

A few years later, the Puritans prudently beheaded King Charles I. But the English people invited his son Charles II to come back in 1660 and Christmas, as well as the monarchy, was restored to England.

Impersonating officer costs youths heavily

Impersonating a high school officer turned out to be an "lark" for two youths, Ropesville, the other Kalgary community. Spur and Dickens Counties said the two men represented themselves as highway patrolmen stopping a 17-year-old girl and her companion who were riding between Spur and Dickens. The youths said that after telling them they would "let them go" the youths followed their car into Spur. The girls took the license of the car and the incident to Spur police. Later, two Spur officers arrested the suspects, but could not overtake them.

In eluding the Spur policemen, the car ran a stop sign and sped out of town only to run smack into Deputy Sheriff D. D. Tullis. The officer, noticing the car was being driven without lights, also failed to overtake the pair.

The suspects were apprehended after ownership of the car was traced through the license number.

The Ropesville man was fined $39.50 for speeding, $24.50 for running a stop sign, $29.50 for driving without headlights and $44.50 for impersonating an officer. The Kalgary man was fined $44.50 for impersonating an officer.

Panel tells the story of area value of laboratory

The wise use of commercial fertilizer reduces production costs and boosts net profit according to area farmers cooperating with county agricultural agents in numerous field demonstrations. "With Service Laboratory headquartered at Lubbock to concentrate on West Texas fertility problems, soil tests will be of even greater value to Garza County farmers," said County Agent Lewis C. Herron.

The fertilized cotton produced 3,480 pounds of seed cotton per acre while the check plot produced only 3,020 pounds. This amounted to an increase of 101.2 pounds of lint in favor of the fertilized plot, an additional net return of $19.30 per acre.

CENTER PANEL — A 3 1/2 acre field of Midland Bermudagrass is like money in the bank to R. W. Horton who farms near Meadow in Terry County. This cold-hardy hybrid was sprigged in 40 inch rows on July 3 and 4, 1959. When the grass started to run, Horton top-dressed with 45 pounds of nitrogen per acre and irrigated twice. The field provided ample grazing for two cows and calves from mid-September to the first of November.

Demand for planting stock prompted Horton to dig roots in the spring of 1960. He sold $621 worth of sprigs to neighbors and dug an additional $400 worth for his own use.

The grass made a remarkable recovery after it was top-dressed with 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre and watered twice. It has carried 16 head of cattle since mid-July.

"I made one serious mistake . . . I guessed at the kind and amount of fertilizer to use," Horton admitted. He plans to soil test and follow recommendations next season. "That new soil testing laboratory the Extension Service set up for us in Lubbock will be a real help to West Texas farmers," Horton observed.

RIGHT PANEL — "The final story will not be known until the crop is harvested, but just a glance reveals the difference," Hale county farmer Robert Schoppa, right, tells County Agent Ollie L. Stronger stalks and heavier fruiting are evident in the area fertilized according to soil test recommendations.

Schoppa, who farms 12 miles northeast of Plainview, is always ready to lend a helping hand to agricultural research by carrying out field demonstrations. His efforts were lauded by L. E. Snyder who said, "Laboratory testing alone is not sufficient. Only through carefully controlled field tests under actual farming conditions, can we fully evaluate laboratory findings and improve our recommendations to fit the various soils found in this area."

Wolforth Cub Scouts
 receive 50-star flag
 from nation's capitol

Earl Garrett, Cubmaster of Pack 76, at Wolforth, Tex., reports his Pack receiving a brand new 50-Star American flag, from the Nation's Capitol, in Washington, D. C.

This flag was made available to Pack 76, through the generous efforts of Con. George Mahon. The flag was put into use, being flown atop the Nation's Capitol. When Mahon received word, that this brand new, just organized in Nov., Cub Pack needed an American flag, that particular flag was taken down, boxed up, and sent to the Cub Scout Pack at Wolforth.

There probably are very few Scout units, or other organizations that have the opportunity to possess, and use an American flag, that has had the distinct honor, of serving the needs of the Capitol of the United States.

Pack 76 is sponsored by a group of citizens in Wolforth and has 15 adult leaders working with the Pack.

Fire hazards increase over holidays

COLLEGE STATION — Stop and think what would happen should a spark get into the tinsel and tissue paper that usually packs a house at Christmas. Santa might have a chimney to come down, but he wouldn't have a house to leave the gifts in. Fire safety is especially important during the holiday season because of added hazards, warns the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council.

One of the principal fire hazards is that beautiful tree in the corner of the living room. The Council says that this danger can be minimized by selecting a freshly cut tree shortly before Christmas. The tree can be kept fresh by cutting the bottom diagonally and placing it in water or wet sand.

Placing the tree is also important. It should be placed so it will not block exits, and should be kept well away from the fireplace, stove, powerful electric lights or other sources of heat.

The Council recommends that only Underwriters Laboratories approved lights be used on the tree. Lights which have been used before should be checked for frayed wires or damaged sockets. Electrical circuits should not be overloaded with additional lights, toys or appliances.

Only nonflammable decorations should be used on the tree, and when no one is at home or when the family retires. As soon as the needles begin to dry and fall, the tree should be discarded.

Fire safety should not be confined to the tree alone. Discarded wrappings and packages should be put in the trash can as soon as possible. Smokers should also be extra careful where they lay their cigarettes, cigars and pipes.

HOW TO CHANGE A FLAT TIRE

By CAROL LANE
 WOMEN'S TRAVEL DIVISION
 SHELL OIL COMPANY

CHANGING A FLAT TIRE IS MAN'S WORK, BUT THESE TIPS MAKE IT EASIER FOR WOMEN WHO MAY HAVE TO DO IT.

1. PULL THE CAR OFF THE ROAD ON LEVEL GROUND IF POSSIBLE. GET HANDBRAKE, WIGGLE A ROCK UNDER A WHEEL SO CAR CAN'T ROLL.
2. SET THE JACK UNDER THE BUMPER. RAISE IT SO FLAT TIRE BARELY TOUCHES THE GROUND. TRY OFF THE CAP.
3. LOOSEN ALL WHEEL NUTS, THEN RAISE JACK UNTIL THE FLAT TIRE IS CLEAR OF THE GROUND. REMOVE NUTS AND WHEEL, PUT ON THE SPARE. PARTIALLY TIGHTEN ALL NUTS. LOWER JACK, FINISH TIGHTENING ALL AROUND.
4. IF YOU HAVE A FLAT AT NIGHT, LEAVE TAIL LIGHTS BURNING ON. TRY ON NIGHT...

CARRY A GOOD SPARE.

State of Texas has three 'Big Tree' champions to see

Texas for the third time is the possessor of a National Champion Big Tree. The nation's largest water oak (Quercus nigra) has been located in Shelby County.

The giant tree is owned by E. H. Lawson of Center and was discovered by Emory Covington of Timpson. Measurements were verified by Wesley Bates, former assistant district forester of the Texas Forest Service.

Vital statistics are: circumference, 20 feet 3 inches; total height, 70 feet, and crown spread, 100 feet. The new champion equals the crown spread of the former champ in Hillsboro, Ga., but surpasses it in circumference by 3 feet 5 inches.

The giant oak can be seen on the E. H. Lawson place, nine miles north of Center, on the old Center-Logansport road. Physical condition of the tree is good; however, an ice storm in 1947 broke off some large limbs, and a hurricane, in 1927, damaged the tree. A small hole at the base of the tree indicates the presence of butt-rot.

The other two Texas giants, now recognized by the American Forestry Association Big Tree Committee, are located in Liberty and Coryell counties. An American holly (Ilex opaca) is near Hardin in Liberty County, and the largest honey mesquite (Prosopis glandulosa) can be seen near Gatesville in Coryell County.

The American Forestry Association in 1940 inaugurated the Big Tree Contest "to halt the tragic disappearance of America's most magnificent tree specimens."

Q—My GI insurance premium is due and I have misplaced the premium notice the VA sent me. In sending in my payment, I know I should include the policy number, but just what does that mean? Does VA want only the number, or the number and the letters which precede it?

A—In sending any premium payment without a premium due notice, always give your name in full, your address, and your policy number, with the letter or letters preceding. The letters are important in enabling VA to give you credit for your payment. If you have more than one policy you will have an insurance file number and should include that.

Q—My three-year-from-separation deadline for taking advantage of educational benefits under Korean GI Bill will be up in March of 1961. Does that deadline mean I must actually be taking courses then, or is it just a date to apply?

A—Your must actually be at school, taking your courses, by that date. Your own deadline of March, 1961, would thus mean that you should arrange to start at the school of your choice at the beginning of the spring semester.

Q—I understand children of some deceased peacetime veterans may now be eligible for schooling under the War Orphans Education Act, as a result of a new law. What determines the eligibility of the child of a deceased veteran who served in peacetime?

A—The peacetime veteran parent's death must have been caused by the actual performance of military duties or by extra-hazardous service, and eligible children must generally be between 18 and 23 years of age.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS'

By C. WILSON HARDER

Some 25 years ago the Amer-ican government involved it-self with a protective tariff cutting scheme called Reciprocal Trade Treaties in an at-tempt to stimulate commerce.

Few countries at that time were as advanced technologi-ally as the U. S. was, so there was lit-tle fear of unwholesome competition in the field of manufac-tured goods, despite the disparity of U. S. and for-ign wages. C. W. Harder

It was also the pious hope of the international "do good-ers" that foreign wage levels would, through the American example, come up to a par with those in the U. S.

But what happened was that after World War II, with the expenditures of billions of dol-lars of U. S. taxpayer's funds under various foreign give away schemes, the foreign trusts and monopolies were equipped with modern plants.

And wages have not gone up to a par with the U. S. scale.

This situation was perhaps brought out most graphically when a subcommittee of Senate Small Business Committee, chaired by Sen. Randolph, probed into effect of imports on U. S. small business.

It was developed in extensive testimony that U. S. factory wages average $20.19 per week for a forty hour week, in India $4.74 for a 46 hour week, Japan $11.96 for a 50 hour week, France $9.98 for a 45 hour week.

week, Italy $14.54 for a 46 hour week, with the scale nearest to the U. S. in Great Britain with $34.64 for a 46 hour week.

During the hearings testi-mony was given by Gordon Duss, an executive of a quite substantial American apparel manufacturer. He pointed out that in 1939 there was import-ed, 5,000,000 pairs of woolen slacks, a volume which would have given 4,500 American workers jobs for an entire year.

He said, "I do not want to belittle in any way the quality of the competitive product, the largest part which comes from Japan. While the Japanese are not creative, they can duplicate anything. They are fine crafts-men and do excellent work. The fact is that an excellent slack, completely hand tailored of fine worsted can be landed here, duty paid, at slightly under $7.50. We could not dupli-cate this garment in this coun-try, by machine for less than $11 and could not equal the handwork at $20."

Early in the last Congres-sional session Sen. Kenneth Keating, joined by Senators Beall, Bridges, Cotton, Dodd, Prouty, Wiley, Saltonstall and Pastore introduced a bill which would adjust tariffs to the wage scales of the foreign countries shipping into the U. S.

The opposition to this mea-sure set up a cry that foreign monopoly wage rates have come up some, and will prob-ably go up some more.

But this seems small com-fort to American business and workers being ruined now. It's tantamount to telling the man dying of cancer today to cheer up as in time science will find a cure for the ailment.

Post invited to have special day at coming event

FORT WORTH — An invitation has been sent to the Post Chamber of Commerce to have a special day at the 1961 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show here. Dates for the exposition are Jan. 27 through Feb. 5.

By having a "day" at the Fort Worth Stock Show Post would receive special recognition and publicity at the Stock Show and throughout North and West Texas, according to W. R. Wait, Stock Show president-manager.

The invitation provides special block reservation of seats for the rodeo. The local band is invited to play a concert on the Stock Show grounds and be guests of the Stock Show management at the rodeo. The 1961 Fort Worth rodeo will feature the famous chariot race between two four-horse teams from the "Ben-Hur" movie.

Also, the city is invited to name a cowgirl sweetheart to wear western attire and ride in the rodeo grand entry. Riding clubs in the area also are invited to ride in the opening day parade or in the rodeo grand entry on the city's special day or both.

Many cities and organizations make annual trips to attend the Fort Worth Stock Show, which will be observing its 65th season.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Stanford

AUSTIN — By the time Austin sweeps up the last of the holiday tinsel, it will be time to prepare for another round of festivities.

Committees already are meeting to plan details of the inaugural events that will attract thousands of visitors to the Texas capital, come Jan. 17.

Gov. Price Daniel will take the oath of office for his third term; Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, for his sixth term. If weather permits an inaugural parade these two officials will ride at the head of it up Congress Avenue, to the Capitol grounds where the swearing-in ceremony will be held.

A reception and a half-dozen balls will fill out the day. For his past two inaugurations, Governor Daniel has held a prayer breakfast beforehand for state officials. SAFETY DRIVE LAUNCHED
This year's campaign for careful driving during the holidays was launched on "Safety Sunday," Dec. 11.

Many organizations, including the Texas Press Association, will help in the annual drive to cut the Christmas-through-New Year's accident toll.

"Safety Sunday," said the governor in his proclamation of the special day, is "to awaken the conscience of every driver to the understanding that negligence at the wheel is a transgression of God's own command, 'Thou shalt not kill.'"

In past years, the governor noted, the all-out campaigns have resulted in the death toll's falling below Department of Public Safety predictions.

Last year the DPS predicted 111 deaths. When the holiday season ended only 91 had died, for a total of 20 lives saved.

PROGRAM FOR AGED
Enactment of medical care for the aged and an increase in state pensions are among recommendations of a joint legislative committee to study problems of the aging.

Committee announced it would work for a constitutional amendment to raise by $10,000,000 a year the ceiling on old age assistance. It also urged that the next Legislature pass laws to put into effect a program to provide state help for the medical expenses of needy older people.

Transfer of senile, but not mentally ill, patients from the mental hospitals to nursing home care was recommended.

Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, is chairman of the committee, and Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth, is vice-chairman.

VET BOND SALE CANCELED
Veterans Land Board has set aside plans to hold a bond sale this month because of criticism from Land Commissioner - Elect Jerry Sadler.

Board announced its decision "with regret," declaring that the veterans waiting to buy land would be the losers.

No bonds have been sold since June, 1958, because the state ceiling on interest was too low to attract buyers. Board said it felt the people were expressing their desire to get the program in full operation again when they avowed a constitutional amendment in November to raise the interest ceiling.

Sadler had protested the sale. He said he felt the bonds could be sold at a more favorable rate next year after a change in the national administration.

DAM SITE RECOMMENDED
Millican, in Brazos County, has been recommended to the State Board of Water Engineers as the site for a proposed reservoir on the Lower Navasota River.

An engineering firm made the recommendation after a study contracted by the Brazos River Authority, the towns of Bryan, College Station and Navasota and several industrial firms.

Statistics for the proposed water project are staggering. It would yield in the neighborhood of 200,000,000 gallons of water a day, cost an estimated $44,000,000. It would not be completed until about 1970 and paid for in 2020.

Parr won a district court order for a recount, but the San Antonio Court of Civil Appeals overturned the decision. Supreme Court refused to step in, noting that the Election Code said it had no jurisdiction to review election contests.

It was another setback for the Duke of Duval, once credited with the power to decide how any political race in the county would go.

It's the Law in TEXAS

HUMAN RELATIONS

These days in business and government we hear much of "human relations," the shiny skills new from the psychology labs which help men and women work together in peace and understanding. Though not so new by a long shot, the law arises from human nature. Does the law have anything much to offer?

Trouble often arises, as the human relation people say, out of a person's feelings of insecurity and injustice. So the law seeks to ally them and to give each person his due under fair rules. Written ones. Applied by impartial judges. The law sets up courts to settle disputes fairly among men when they fall out, and to curb those who would overstep their due bounds and harm others.

Under such rules each one may know where he stands. For the law sets out his rights and duties, and takes note of his interests—in earning a living and raising a family, in the pursuit of happiness and in seeking salvation.

The law gives each one wide powers (or freedom) through contracts to work with others to serve these lawful interests. It seeks to give each man, woman and child a fair and equal chance to learn, to make mistakes, think, and to talk over experience with others, so that we may find ways the better to live together.

The law tries to fit in with human nature, giving weight to man's hopes and to his shortcomings. In deed, as one of man's achievements, the law itself takes note that it too may fall short—that judges and juries may err (hence courts of appeal), that the laws may have flaws (hence legislatures to change them).

At any rate, these are things we find written into our fundamental law, the Constitution. Our most important rights are specifically enumerated in our American "Bill of Rights," which is a part of our Federal Constitution. Since "Bill of Rights Day" will soon be observed, next week's column will list the rights included in that document.

Though TB most often attacks the lungs, it is also found in many other parts of the body including bones, brain, spinal cord covering, skin and abdominal organs.

Irrigated acreage in Texas still going up

Despite the past three years of favorable rainfall conditions, irrigated acreage in Texas has continued to show a slow but steady increase instead of a curtailment.

This was brought out in the latest biennial survey completed last year by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The survey was compiled from information gathered by county agents from each Texas county, and the results have been carefully checked with figures from previous surveys.

The total irrigated area in Texas in 1959 amounted to 7,140,443 acres. In 1957 the total acreage under irrigation was 6,962,234 acres, and in 1955 it was 6,208,022. The increase in acreage from 1957 to 1959 was markedly lower than in the preceding two years, and this was attributed to conditions of favorable rainfall which were generally in nearly every area of the state.

Reports by counties show that there is at least a sprinkling of irrigation in 239 of the 254 counties in Texas. Areas of heaviest irrigation, of course, are in the Rio Grande Valley and in the High Plains.

The 1959 survey showed that some 6,445,155 acres are irrigated by surface methods and 695,288 acres by sprinkler systems, and indications are that the sprinkler spite of the heavy expense involved in installation.

In all, irrigation is used on 48,110 farms out of approximately 292,000 farms enumerated in the state. Ground water supplies, obtained from 60,708 wells, are used to irrigate 5,914,753 acres.

The leading irrigated crop is cotton, which shows a total of 2.2 million acres, and grain sorghum is second with slightly more than two million acres. Wheat comes third with 637,900 acres, and other top-ranking irrigated crops include rice, with 436,000 acres; vegetables, 375,000 acres, and pastures, 200,000 acres. There is also irrigated acreage in lesser amount for corn, forage sorghum, alfalfa, oats and various other types of production.

While irrigation did not expand as rapidly during the past two years, any increase at all during a period of highly favorable rainfall was taken as a sound indication that irrigation is being widely accepted by farmers as a practice of good management instead of simply as an emergency measure used to maintain production in drought periods.

Replenishing ground water supplies, of course, is one of those problems yet to be solved along with many others in the Texas water outlook.

Post men assist in new chapter

"Chief" Frank Runkles and Dan E. Cockrum, both of Post, were in Rotan recently to assist in the organization of the Fisher Chapter of the South Plains Archaeological Society.

Runkles, who is president of the SPAS, showed color slides of archaeological activities on the South Plains, mostly in Garza County.

A hobby show followed the organization meeting. During the hobby show, tentative identification was made of a 5,000-8,000 year old projectile point found within a few miles of Rotan.

Total operating revenues for General Telephone Company of the Southwest during 1959 was $30,831,000.
