Parade At 6 p. m. Wednesday To Signal Opening Of 7th Annual Junior Rodeo

With entries pouring in from throughout the Southwest, the stage was being set here this week for the seventh annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, which opens Wednesday and continues through Saturday, with four night performances scheduled.

Rodeo decorations were slated to start going up this weekend, and five carloads of rodeo boosters left Post this morning for widely scattered points to advertise the event.

The rodeo office, which is to be located in the building just east of the Post Dispatch, will open Tuesday morning. Garza County girls 19 years of age and under who wish to enter the rodeo queen contest are requested to bring photographs of themselves to the rodeo office the day it opens.

Coin boxes will be placed under the pictures of the queen candidates and votes will sell for one cent. The final tabulation will be made the afternoon of the rodeo's final day and the winner will be announced at that night's performance.

The rodeo will be "kicked off" at 6 o'clock Wednesday with a parade through the city's downtown section. Parade Chairman Don Long said this week that 15 area riding groups have been invited to participate. Acceptances had been received Wednesday from more than half of them.

Merchants, clubs and other organizations are invited to enter floats in the parade. Any kind of equipment, such as oil field, farm, automotive, etc., also may be entered as parade units, the chairman said.

After forming on the street between the school buildings, the parade will go north to Main Street, east down Main to the railway crossing and then back up Main to the courthouse.

Open to contestants 19 years of age and under, the rodeo is expected to attract more than 200 junior cowboys and cowgirls. The events will include calf roping, calf penning, cutting horse contest, girls' barrel race, bull riding, bareback riding and die horse riding. Flag race and a bull's pony race, open to contestants 12 years of age and under.

Cash prizes and awards totaling $3,500 are being offered contestants.

Rodeo classes will be held each night on the pavilion at the grounds.

Directors met Tuesday night to make additional plans for the rodeo and have another meeting scheduled for Monday night.

At Tuesday night's meeting, plans were made for the advertising trips throughout the surrounding area. These will not be booster trips, it was explained, but merely excursions for the purpose of putting up posters in towns and cities of the area.

Plainview on the north, Aspermont on the east, Andrews on the southwest, Big Spring on the south, and Palfry on the west, and points in between will be included in the itinerary.

Liberals Take Full Charge Of Demo Meeting

Loyalist forces took control of the Garza County Democratic convention here Saturday afternoon, electing five delegates to the state convention without opposition and instructing them to support the candidacy of Judge Ralph W. Yarborough and support the liberal element of the party.

In a 20-minute session in the district courtroom, delegates and alternates were elected by acclamation and all motions were passed without opposition.

Elected as delegates to the state convention at Mineral Wells Sept. 14 were James T. Sexton, W. H. (Bill) Edwards, Pat N. Walker, N. C. Outlaw and E. F. Parker.

Named as alternates were Mrs. Maxine Edwards, Mrs. Mildred L. Outlaw, Clark Barton, T. H. Tipton and Tom Power.

In the absence of T. R. Greenfield, county Democratic chairman, the meeting was opened by Outlaw, and his election as permanent chairman of the convention followed. Carl Cederholm is elected secretary.

Of 47 precinct delegates, 30 attended the convention.

Absentee Voting To Be Delayed

Absentee voting for the August runoff election is scheduled to begin Monday, but it probably will be several days later, according to county clerk Ray N. Smith said Wednesday.

Reason for the delay, the clerk said, is because the State Executive Committee doesn't meet until Saturday to canvass returns of the July 24 primary. After this is done, they must certify the ballot to county Democratic chairmen, and absentee voting cannot get under way until the ballots are available.

Once the ballots are on hand, absentee voting may be in person at the clerk's office, or by mail if enough time remains before close of absentee voting on Aug. 24.

This year's second primary ballot will be one of the shortest, if not the shortest, in the state's political history. The only runoff race of statewide interest is that between Gov. Allan Shivers and Judge Ralph W. Yarborough for the Democratic nomination as governor.

EVENT IS SET FOR SATURDAY, AUG. 14

Horse Show Entry List Is Increasing

A record number of entries is expected for the sixth annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show to be held here Saturday, Aug. 14, Jack Samson, secretary of the Garza County Quarter Horse Association has announced. Sixty-eight horses were exhibited in the 1953 show.

Judging of entries in this year's show is to be by Ralph Howe of Seymour, widely known throughout the Southwest as a quarter horse enthusiast and showman. The judging will begin at 1 p. m. at the Post Stampede Rodeo arena.

A barbecue for exhibitors, show officials and other guests will be held at the City Park at 11 o'clock the morning of the show, according to George "Scotty" Samson, show superintendent.

There will be a halter class and a reining class in this year's show. Grand and reserve champions mares and stallions will be selected in the halter classes, with trophies being awarded the winners.

The divisions in the halter class will be: Fillies foaled in 1954, fillies foaled in 1953, mares foaled in 1952, mares foaled in 1951 or before, colts foaled in 1954.

Judge Yarborough will arrive in Post at about 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. He will speak at East Main Street in front of the Greenfield Hardware Co. store, and will answer questions on issues of the governor's race.

Following his appearance in the rodeo parade, Judge Yarborough will leave for Midland and a television engagement.

Rainfall Is Spotted; Measures .31 Here

Monday night's rainfall was spotted over Garza County, measuring from a trace in some sections to slightly more than an inch in others.

The fall in Post was measured at .31 of an inch on the rain gauge from which records are kept by County Agent Lewis C. Herron.

Slightly more than an inch of rain is reported to have fallen in the north part of the county, although there was only a sprinkle northwest of town.

About half an inch was reported in the Graham community. No reports of the rainfall had been received from the south and east parts of the county.

While temporarily easing the heat wave, the rain was of little benefit to dryland crops, the county agent said. It was enough, however, to serve as an aid to irrigation farmers in watering their crops.

The .31 of an inch measured here brought Post's total 1954 total through Aug. 2 to 8.52 inches.

Reservoir Full Again As Water Conservation Ends

Cooler weather, Monday night's shower and cooperation by the public have combined to put Post's water situation back in good shape following last week's shortage, City Supt. R. H. Tate said Wednesday.

The reservoir was full to the brim Wednesday, with water use having dropped off several thousand gallons Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

"The reservoir lacked only about a foot being full Monday, and that night's rain helped bring the level back up to the brim," Tate said.

With water consumption going well past the million-gallon mark every day last week and pressure at a new low in many sections of the city, residents were asked by Mayor T. L. Jones to not water lawns and shrubbery between 4 p. m. and 9 p. m. and to use air-conditioners as sparingly as possible.

"The public's response to these requests were excellent, and the City wishes to express its appreciation," the mayor said.

All city water consumption records were broken in July, with more than 33,000,000 gallons flowing through the pumps, the city superintendent said. The city superintendent said. See CITY WATER, Page 3

Judge Sets Docket For County Court

Eight cases are set for hearing Aug. 23 at the August term of county court, which opened Monday with the setting of the docket by Judge Oscar Graham.

The seven cases include three on charges of driving while intoxicated, two for aggravated assault, one sale of beer, one sale of whiskey, and one check law violation.

COMMUNITY ELECTION BOARDS APPOINTED WEDNESDAY

ASC Voting Dates Nearing

Community election boards for Communities A, B and C in Garza County were designated Wednesday morning at a meeting of the county election board for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The community election boards are to meet Friday and Saturday to nominate ten men from each community for election as ASC community committeemen.

Community committees will be elected Aug. 24. Ballots will be mailed to all eligible voters in the community whose names appear on county ASC office mailing lists. Ballots returned by mail must be postmarked not later than midnight Aug. 24. Ballots may be returned in person, and, if so, must be returned to the county office by 5 p. m. Aug. 24. Farmers and ranchers eligible to vote in the community elections who do not receive ballots may obtain them at the county office.

The county election board, composed of Lewis Herron, county agent; Joe Box of the Farmers Home Administration, and Guy Nutt of the Soil Conservation Service, appointed the following community election boards at Wednesday's meeting: Community A—J. O. Roberts, chairman; Wendell Saunders, Herman Dabbs.

Community B — Fred Babb, chairman; J. M. Haley, E. M. Norman.

Community C — C. P. Witt, chairman; Walter Boren, Rex Welch.

In the Aug. 24 election, the top three men in the total vote in each community will form the community committee. The man receiving the highest number of votes will be chairman, the next highest, vice-chairman, and the third highest, member. The two men ranking fourth and fifth in total number of votes

By CHARLES DIDWAY

YIPPEE! NEXT WEEK IS Rodeo Week in Post and Garza County and even the hottest Texas gubernatorial campaign in history isn't likely to detract from interest in the four-day show to be staged by the juniors—contestants 19 years of age and under.

ADDING INTEREST TO THIS, the eighth annual event will be a rodeo queen's contest, in which votes will sell for a penny each, beginning Tuesday and continuing until 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Present plans are to plaster the queen candidates' pictures in the rodeo office and place a voting box beneath each picture.

THE BODEO OFFICE, incidentally, is to be located in the building just east of The Post Dispatch office—the same place that was headquarters last May for the Post Stampede and Rodeo. Thronged with contestants and officials, it'll be a busy place—the nerve center for the big western event.

AGAIN THIS YEAR, the opening parade will be an outstanding feature of the rodeo, and there's still time for merchants, clubs and other organizations to get under the wire with float entries.

HELPING ROUND OUT AN unusually big week for the city and county will be the seventh annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show to be held Saturday afternoon in the rodeo arena. Horse show officials expect an even greater number of entries than last year's record-breaking total.

IT LOOKS LIKE A mighty big weekend for one of the most rodeo-minded cities in the United States!

POST'S NEAREST NEIGHBOR on the east, Claremont, has been catching it hot and heavy the past few days. Last week, citizens of the Kent County town lost their fight to keep the county seat, with removal of all county records to Jayton. As if that wasn't enough, their petition to call an election to establish a voter district was rejected by the county commissioners' court. The proposed water district would have provided a municipal supply for Claremont, but it looks like they'll have to keep hauling in water.

ONE OF THE TWO issues that on this year's South Plains Fair ending, Miss Barbara McCoy of Shiloh, was a contestant in the beauty contest held here during dedication of the new swimming pool.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVEN'T seen the big news, the Texas Election Board's final report in the governor's race after primary was Shivers, 688,536, and KENNEDY, 644,747, giving the present governor a lead of 20,787.

AN INTERESTING MAP SHOWING how each of Texas' 254 counties voted in the governor's race appeared in a recent issue of the Fort Worth Star Telegram. We noticed that a straight row of counties from Lubbock on the west to Jack on the east went for Yarborough, with the exception of one—Terry County taking Shivers 1,376 to 1,287 for Yarborough. Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton and Young all went for Yarborough.

Discovery Of The H-Bomb Is Unsettling Civilization As Did Birth Of Printing

BARBON PARK, Mass.—Readers have been disturbed by General Lindbergh's important article in the July 17th issue of the SATURDAY EVENING POST. The gist of the Lindbergh article is that the H-Bomb is bringing about a new era in world history against which it will be almost impossible for any country to protect itself. This means that unless the United States is willing to start a surprise World War III, our only chance is to have such elaborate defenses for retaliation that no other country will dare start one. This will mean continued high taxes and a population in Russia or something unforeseen happens.

What Lindbergh's Theory May Mean Although my Organization is not involved in military affairs, we do know world history. Certainly conditions today are very similar to what they were 500 years ago. Any reader can check this by studying H. O. Wells' OUTLINE OF HISTORY, Minors' THE MIDDLE AGES or books on the Reformation and European Revolutions.

As was the case around 1450, the power of the established Churches today has distinctly weakened. The rulers of the Western Nations have today become timid, while the Russians are trying to absorb other nations—repeating the pattern of 500 years ago.

H-Bombs Versus Movable Type History shows similar conditions existed when printing became powerful in 1450. This, like the H-Bomb, became a threat to the entrenched rich political Kingdoms. The Church and Kings fought by legislation, persecution and wars; but the rise of the masses could not be stopped. The printed word became more powerful than the sword. Reformation, revolutions, and beheadings followed. The discovery of the H-Bomb is unsettling civilization today as did the birth of printing in 1450.

What About Capitalism? Naturally we do not want to see entrenched capitalism collapse as did entrenched monarchism. We now use legislation, submit to high taxes, and endure small wars to protect our

AND THE MUD FLEW!...

In the midst of one of the mud-slinging gubernatorial campaigns in the state's history, candidates for county and precinct offices in Garza County acquitted themselves well in conducting their own campaigns and are to be commended for it. There was no mud-slinging in Garza County.

It is unfortunate that the same cannot be said of the governor's race. Is the office of Governor of Texas so important... so terribly powerful... as to justify all of the accusations and the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars? We wonder.

We believe the Chief Executive of the great State of Texas should uphold the dignity of the office and the state, and the same applies to all candidates who seek the job. Steeping to common mud-slinging lowers both the office and the candidates in the minds of Texans who enjoy a good, clean contest of any kind, but abhor dirtiness and bait truths.

We hope, but don't expect, that the runoff campaign now under way will be freer of dirt than was the bitter contest of words engaged in by the two leading candidates for governor in the campaign leading up to the first primary.

Residents of the Post area are urged to support next weekend's Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo by their attendance. With the economic outlook gloomy because of a lack of rainfall on burning crops, the rodeo is likely to suffer from the standpoint of attendance. Let's not blame the rodeo officials and directors for putting the event back on a four-day basis after shortening it to three days last year. Crop prospects were excellent at the time the change was made a few months ago. There'll be other years and other rodeos. In the meantime, let's support this year's event, rain or shine.

No one has ever yet attributed the failure of success with his hands in his pockets.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, is now saying that we must open new markets for our goods if we would continue to grow and prosper. Welcome, Senator, to the ranks. We have been saying that with all our small power for more than a year. Produce and sell—and it is a real selling challenge.

THE TWO CAMPS OF Democrats battling for control of party nominations in the state are known as the liberals and conservatives, although the liberals are also known as the liberals. They're the ones who want down the line with common party decisions and resolutions in 1952. Conservative leaders in the 1952 presidential election pulled and backed the GOP nominee—President Eisenhower.

REFEREES FROM THE Aug. 28 run-off election probably will be down and long and they're now expected to draw out the staves, marking the opening of the football season. The grid season will be ushered in ahead of time Friday night with the Greenbelt Bowl game at Childress.

SCHOOLBOY TEAMS MAINLY from West Texas, will meet in the annual League Cup in the West square in the Lindbergh Stadium, which the Post Antelope takes during the 1953 season—Don Barber of Fritchdale and Don Waywood of Lubbock.

What About Retaliation?

Lindbergh's only hope of preventing our big cities from being destroyed is by constant threat of retaliation, which will retard the forces of Communism, but it will not accord with Christian teachings. Will the threat of retaliation give capitalism as we know it?

The Communists will not ever win a Third World War, not that they may gradually increase their power and influence by constantly threat until to start such a war. Surely, we may expect continual small wars, big military preparations and high taxes.

Preparing For The East My grandchildren agree with me that security cannot be obtained indefinitely by legislation, pensions, and tariffs. As our ancestors learned to live with "printed bombs" we must be prepared to live with H-Bombs. Telling Communists today may be no more effective than was threatening or burning heretics 500 years ago. One of my own ancestors, Rev. John Rogers, was so burned "at the stake" for translating and printing the Bible in 1535.

Hence, I urge my grandchildren: (1) To develop a strong and sane spiritual faith; (2) to acquire robust health and good habits; (3) to become an expert in some useful industry; (4) to own a home and raise a family in an agricultural center; (5) to have investments widely diversified both geographically and industrially, avoiding large cities.

Getting Out On The Limb

Looks like everything that some people want to do is either illegal, immoral or fattening.

THE WOMEN, GOD LOVE 'EM: It's a cruel relative who wills a woman a fortune to be paid when she reaches thirty-five.

STILL ON THE subject of women, the ladies may be gratified to learn that the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," just off the press, reveals that 10 times as many men as women drivers are involved in fatal accidents.

But just a minute, ladies! "Accident Facts" goes on to say that while 41,000 men and only 4,100 women were mixed up in fatal accidents last year, more than twice as many men were driving, they drove further per driver, and they drove more in all kinds of weather and conditions than the women.

"So," the Council says with evident relief, "no one can really tell who's the best driver, a man or a woman!"

If all of us profited by our errors we'd be busy declaring dividends.

His dad admonished him to never let grass grow under his feet—so he joined the Navy.

NEXT WEEK MARKS the opening of the eighth annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, so let's all us oldsters help the youngsters make a rip-roaring event out of the affair. Correctly billed as "the world's original junior rodeo," the event has brought Post considerable publicity during the past few years. The adult directors, of course, will be working as hard as the junior officials to make the four-day event an outstanding success and the rest of us can help with our attendance and interest.

With no rainfall yet in sight, the rodeo has two strikes called against it before it opens, but in that respect it isn't by itself. It will not be made an outstanding event... with a good faith between men and opening date it can be the best show in the event's history.

The loose [red] system dates back to the Garretts of Eden.

Some people will spend $10 on a canary, others $50 on a lamb.

One can catch the devil with out being best of foot.

WITH THE BODEO and Quarter Horse Show season at hand, barbecues are being held right and left, which brings up the subject of the type of barbecue sauce known as son-of-a-gun.

The slightly altered phrase will be recognized immediately by any old-time cowboy. It has been mentioned.

At a recent old settlers' reunion in Childress, Hugh Vinson, chuck wagon boss for several West Texas ranches at various times, gave some tips on chuck wagon barbecues. He said there is no set recipe for son-of-a-gun, as chuck wagon bosses vary the mixture, but basically it is almost always plenty hot!

Mary don't even know WHAT goes in it! The best way to prepare his recipe, according to Vinson, is in the following manner:

Put up good beef in plate-dish chunks. Cover liberally with pepper, seasoning or salt, and put into three cloth sacks or cloth strips (depending on the amount being prepared) then in full 60 lbs. they wrap all in clean burlap sacks and tie securely.

Barbecued deep ribs are filled with onion (optional); then the burlap sacks are dipped in water, heated completely under the coals covered with dirt, and left for 24 hours.

Two things are required, Vinson believes, for a good chuck wagon boss—the best of Cook-Moses (wood-burners, that is—a good fire, and plenty of steam. "You don't ever know how many hands will turn up for dinner so I always hot fix plenty," he said.

"Lots of times I guess I have thrown out as much food as I fixed, sometimes we fix enough for the regular bunch, and may be as many as ten extra ribs in."

Chase for cowhands varies little. The basic dishes prepared at the chuck wagon are beef biscuits, beans, fried tomatoes and coffee; sometimes eggs and bacon, or eggs with steak, and occasionally pork.

Long Overdue

Our Contemporaries Are Saying

Intimacy With Nature

Unrolling their beds beneath the stars, cowboys of the frontier ranges acquired an intimacy with nature that often produced impressive sermons. They lived close to the grass upon which an empire depended for its development and destiny. Rain-storms were pulpits from which the wind and lightning preached and the silent prairie at night was given to meditation. The bronze prayed softly in the chapel of dawn—Matafora Tribune.

There's No Limit

There's no limit some folks won't go to be sympathetic toward a good friend!

A few days ago Gladys Smith of Lubbock was preparing to write a get-well card to Mrs. Lena Rutine in a Lubbock hospital with a broken hip and arm. She sat down in a chair with pen in hand only to find she had sat upon one of her favorite house-cats. In her confusion, she fell off the chair and limped for hip.

She is now in Methodist Hospital just a door down from Mrs. Rutine.—The Lubbock Tribune.

A Big Difference!

The Anson boy was telling a Hamlin friend about his date with a pretty girl the night before.

"I took her for a drive in the car," he said. "The moon was so beautiful and she was so sweet I asked her for a kiss. She agreed but told me to put the top down first. It took me an hour, but when I finished she kissed me."

"What?" exclaimed the friend. "It took you an hour to put the top down? I do mine in less a minute."

"Yes—but you've got a convertible!"—The Hamlin Herald.

Mother Goose In Texas

Peckerwood, a peevish "Chips a-lyin' Oil folks a-foolin' Young-uns a-eryin'!

When Mother Goose came to America she found subjects for child rhymes never dreamed of in the old country and it was only natural that pioneer children should seek to add to the slender store of rhymes brought over in the memories of early colonists.

Among the most charming rhymes of early American children are those about "critters," to whom pioneers attributed human intelligence and actions. Among the foremost of these are Jay-bird and Peckerwood (a right-Woodpecker if you insist). To them nothing was impossible: "Jaybird pulls the turnin' plow, Sparrow, why not you?" "My legs so long and sprindlin' I'm feared they'll break in two."

Such rhymes have that non-sensical silliness which is the most endearing quality of good folklore—nothing pointed—just good fun.

Often the Jaybird and the Peckerwood must cooperate, as in this rhyme:

Peckerwood pecked on a young-uns' line; Struck his bill in for to see; Lizard grabbed him by the snout; Jaybird had to pull him out. Next Week: The "Possum and the Raccoon."

Variants of these or similar rhymes will be recorded in the permanent collection of Mother Goose in Texas if sent to Ray Wood at Raywood, Texas.

Oil Activities Continue As Three New Wildcat Locations Staked In County

O'Neal Drilling Co. of Fort Worth has announced intention to drill a shallow wildcat oil venture in the east-central part of Garza County.

Exact location is 330 feet from north and east lines of the west half of the southeast quarter of Section 58, Block 5, GH&H Survey, seven miles east of Post.

To Amend Location

In the west-central part of the county, operator has filed application to amend location and operator name of a wildcat project.

Exact location is 5,797.8 feet from north and 6,881 feet from west lines of Section 12, Block 5, K. Aycock Survey, two miles southwest of Post.

Exact location is 320 feet from south and east lines of the north-west quarter of Section 1289, Certificate-57, E. M. 504, GD&W Survey, nine miles southeast of Post.

Haley Withdraws From Court Race

Judge Alan B. Haley of Wichita Falls withdrew Saturday from the runoff election for a place on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. He said he did not have the money to make a runoff campaign.

In Garza County, Haley was an easy winner in the July 24 primary, receiving 578 votes to 321 for Lloyd W. Davidson, 146 for W. C. Graves, and 128 for Sam Davis.

Judge Haley's withdrawal from the race gives the Democratic nomination to Judge Davidson. Chairman George Sandlin of the state Democratic executive committee said Saturday.

No. 1 V. B. Sims

Intention to drill a shallow wildcat venture in the south-central sector of the county has been announced by operator.

Earle M. Craig of Midland No. 1 V. B. Sims is projected to a depth of 3,900 feet for tests of production in the San Andres. Rotary drilling operations will commence immediately. It is two and one-half miles southwest of the Rocker A field area.

Funeral services for Mrs. Susie Prestridge, sister of W. A. Gray of Post, were conducted at 3 p. m. Sunday at the 17th St. and Ave. N. Church of Christ in Lubbock.

Post Riders Fail To Place At Levelland

The Santa Rosa Riding Club of Vernon won first place for riding groups at Levelland last Thursday in the parade opening that city's rodeo.

The Post Stampede Cowboys also rode in the parade, but since only nine riders made the trip, the unit had little chance to finish in the top three.

At Saturday night's concluding rodeo performance, Preskies Brown of Lawton, Okla., was named all-around cowboy.

Uncertainty Seen As Major Factor In Land Market

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.)—The volume of land sales in Texas during 1953 dropped sharply for the third straight year. Buyers resisted asking prices based on peak years of agricultural income and general economic activity, said Economists J. H. Southern and W. G. Adkins of the USDA and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, respectively.

This resistance, continued the economists, stemmed from falling prices of beef cattle, widespread drought and impending acreage allotments and production restrictions.

Chief land buyers were owner-operator farmers. Nonagricultural factors, such as urbanization, potential mineral values and possible tax savings, tended to push land prices upward slightly despite the generally weak condition of the market. About two out of every five bona-fide land sales in the state involved the Veterans Land Program.

Well-improved family-sized farms with a known history of productivity continued to sell at a premium. Credit was more easily obtained for these buys and it is doubtful if their value will drop in the coming year.

Now for a look at the immediate future. With the exception of good family-sized farms and irrigated lands with an adequate and lasting water supply, most lands probably will decrease in price in 1954. Nonagricultural factors may prevent declines in some areas. Price drops are expected to be small and will result from lower asking prices. Volume of sales may strengthen with lower asking prices.

This outlook, said the economists, is based on the assumption that the 1954 economic situation will continue to be much like 1953 one of adjustments—as buyers and sellers react to lowered rather than rising agricultural incomes.

Complete details of the study, "The Texas Farm and Ranch Land Market, 1953," are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

Bob Lewis, manager of the Midland District of Pioneer Gas Company, transacted business here last week and visited Post friends. The Lewises formerly lived in Post. They now reside in Midland.

The sheriff pointed out that three fatalities, a number of injuries and extensive property damage have resulted from the wave of accidents.

Harpole-Cato Wedding Is Read In Levelland Baptist Church Sunday

Miss Johnnie Ruth Cato of Levelland, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cato, Sr., of Levelland, became the bride of David Howell Harpole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Harpole of Levelland, at 8 o'clock Sunday morning in the Levelland First Baptist Church.

The Rev. J. H. Wright, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony which was held at an altar decorated with white and greenery and white and pink tapers.

Mrs. Glenn Norman presented the organ prelude and she also presented the wedding marches. Lloyd Pearson of Lorenzo gave the bride away. She wore a long dress of pale pink with a white collar, princess style with a white sash, matching white shoes and a white hat with a white veil. Her carriage was a white handkerchief which she gave to her mother. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Mrs. Ralph Cery of Lubbock acted as matron of honor and the bride's sister, Miss Jean Cato of Levelland, was maid of honor. Mrs. Cery wore a yellow dress, styled similar to the bride's, and Miss Cato wore light green. Their noses were adorned with white carnations which were pinned to match their dresses. David Harpole of Levelland was the groom's best man. Ushers were Jack Deshazo of Amarillo, and Burleson of Dallas, Bill Harpole of Lubbock and Eddie Harpole of Levelland.

Reception at the Cal Boykin home followed the wedding. As guests were seated, Mrs. Cery served refreshments. Mrs. Robert Cato, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Dee Hodges of Levelland, Miss Louise Davidson of Levelland, Mrs. William H. Cato of Levelland, Mrs. Max Cawley of Levelland, and Mrs. Robert Lee Cato, aunt of the bride.

The serving table was laid with white linen over pink and was decorated with pink daisies. Cake and coffee were served to more than 100 guests. A Battenberg cake was made 65 years ago by the bride's grandmother, covered with the registry table.

After Aug. 15, the couple will live at home in Levelland. For the wedding, Mrs. Harpole selected a white cotton suit with pink and white accessories. A graduate of the High School and West Texas State University School of Nursing, she is employed as director of the hospital at Edgar-Renegar-Campbell in Levelland.

The bridegroom was graduated from Snyder High School and is employed at the Harpole-Faxton Lumber Co. in Levelland.

Following the wedding guests were Mrs. Maggie Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cato and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hodges, Mrs. Glenn Norman, Mrs. Cato, Ted Tatum and Jensen.

Four Garza Women Enrolled In Tech Lunchroom Course

Four Garza County women have registered at Texas Tech in Lubbock for a one-week workshop to learn how they may operate school lunchrooms more efficiently.

Registered from this county are Mrs. F. W. Callaway, Mrs. Jack Hargrove and Mrs. Jack Myers, all of Southland, and Mrs. Vinnie Mae Horton of Close City.

The annual workshop for school lunch workers is scheduled for Aug. 9-13, and is directed by Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, dean of home economics at Tech.

The large group of non-credit students will be separated into three groups, according to the number of school children they serve. Group I includes supervisors of two or more lunchrooms and managers of large programs which feed at least 450 school children. Group II is for supervisors and managers of the medium sized program, serving from 250 to 450, and Group III is for supervisors, managers, and cooks in the smaller programs serving below 250 children.

Forty-two women have registered for Group I, 39 for Group II, and 171 for Group III thus far.

Under the guidance of Tech's food and nutrition and institutional management staffs, the groups will study menu planning, maintenance and operation of school lunchroom programs.

Korean Casualties Placed At 142,067

WASHINGTON — A revised summary of battle casualties in Korea has placed the total number of American dead, wounded and missing at 142,067, a decrease of 108 since the last Defense Department report three months ago.

A Pentagon spokesman explained that the decrease in the total had resulted from a continuing correction of records and the elimination of duplications.

The summary showed an increase of 149 for a new toll of 23,345 killed in action.

The new total of wounded was 103,798, a decrease of 103. The total missing figure likewise dropped, the revised total of 12,924 being 134 less than the previous summary.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. To complete my Korean GI Bill training in dentistry, I am required to take an internship in my specialty. May I do this under the GI Bill?

A. Yes, provided the internship satisfies the educational requirements for certification by a Dental Specialty Board. The dental internship may not exceed one year.

Q. My GI insurance has lapsed and I have been told that I must take a physical examination in order to restate it. My brother is a doctor. Could he give me the examination?

A. No. Physical examinations for GI insurance purposes may not be made by physicians who are related to the veteran, either by blood or by marriage.

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran and I am drawing a monthly VA pension. I have a small part time job. Recently, I was injured on the job and as a result, I am receiving workmen's compensation. Do I have to include my workmen's compensation in figuring my annual income for VA pension purposes?

A. Yes. Workmen's compensation payments are considered as income for VA pension purposes. However, you may deduct medical expenses that you have had to pay out because of your injury.

Q. I recently graduated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. Would my service there entitle me to Korean GI Bill training benefits?

A. No. Under the law, time spent at any of the service academies may not be counted toward Korean GI Bill entitlement.

enrolling in school for the first time this fall? Carroll can't say precisely.

But he does know that some 200,000 children were born in Texas six years ago, which, theoretically, would make them eligible for school this year.

To delay is to risk being caught in the late-August rush. That's the word from W. D. Carroll, state registrar who remembers with vivid clarity last year's swamped condition in the Bureau of Vital Statistics at the State Department of Health.

Many schools require certified copies of birth certificates as proof that the child is six years old before permitting the child to be enrolled. Carroll advised, but he strongly urged parents to make a personal check with school officials in their areas to determine for sure that their records are required in those sections.

"If they are by all means make requests for copies of those records early," he said.

Each application should include the full name of the child, the date and place of birth, and the names of parents. The law says a fee of 50 cents must accompany each application.

Requests for certified copies issued by the state registrar should be addressed to the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Texas State Department of Health, Austin.

MALARIA CONTROL

NEW DELHI—Nepal and the World Health Organization have signed agreements designed to bring wider health services and a tighter control of malaria to the Himalayan mountain kingdom. The disease is reported to affect more than half of Nepal's 6½ million people. The death toll every year is put at 80,000.

Humble Tips

Working with limited personnel, the Bureau of Vital Statistics cannot possibly render the type services expected by those who wait until the last moment to make requests.

Premiums Slated For First Bales

Again this year, the Post Chamber of Commerce will pay premiums of $50 each for the first Garza County bale of plains cotton and the first bale of "breaks" cotton. Plains cotton is designated as that grown in the county above the caprock and breaks cotton as that grown below the caprock. Last year's premium for the first bale of plains cotton went to V. H. Kuykendoll of the Close City community. His bale was turned out Sept. 5 by the Close City Gin. E. M. Woodard, who lives seven and one-half miles east of Justiceburg, received the $50 premium for the first bale of breaks cotton, which came in only a few days after Kuykendoll's bale. His, too, was ginned at Close City.

Automobile, Pickup Collide On Highway

Heavy property damage, but no injuries resulted in a collision between a pickup truck and an automobile Monday afternoon on U. S. Highway 84 about eight miles north of Post. The automobile driven by a Sweetwater man struck the pickup, driven by Allen Johnson, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Johnson, as the truck crossed the highway. The youngster was driving to some irrigation wells across the highway from the Johnson home. His father, Billy Johnson, paid a fine in justice of peace court for allowing his son to drive a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

Feed Supplements Needed By Cattle

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.) — Beef cattle need feed supplements. The green has all but disappeared from the State's pastures and ranges, and in most areas, range feed reserves are about gone. Feed supplements, says U. D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman, refer to supplying a want or making an addition to the feeds cattle eat to give them a balanced diet. One of the major requirements of range cattle is for roughage to replace droughted-out pastures and ranges. Feeding high quality roughage, says the specialist, reduces the amounts of the more expensive supplements needed. Roughage should be supplied daily in an amount equal to about two per cent of the animal's body weight. Feeds other than roughage are also needed by beef animals. Protein content of dry range plants must be supplemented and Thompson points out that oil meal products are the cheapest source. The amount of protein supplement, he adds, will vary with different operations but in general about two pounds of a 41 per cent product should be fed daily to each animal. Cattle need a mineral supplement at all times. Thompson recommends a mixture of two parts steam bone meal and one of salt by weight and fed free choice from a mineral box. Disodium phosphate may be fed in the same proportions as the bone meal, he adds.

Better watch for vitamin A deficiency at this time. This essential vitamin is supplied by green feed, and too, some commercial feeds are fortified with it. Sunlight and air rapidly destroy vitamin A and proper storage is a must. Older cattle store vitamin A in their bodies and use it when needed but those in poor condition probably have already used this supply. Young calves need a daily supply since they do not have the ability to store the vitamin. Finally, Thompson suggests that livestock producers contact the local county agent for a detailed supplementary feeding plan.

Without struggling with shims or sprockets, without switching belts or pulleys, you can adjust cylinder speed on the new Ford Dombine to meet the slightest change in crop or field conditions. Read all about the "twist of a dial" deal on the new Ford or go down to GARZA TRACTOR and IMPLEMENT COMPANY and let Earl Rogers or any of the folks at his place tell you all the wonderful things this combine will do.

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. J. Dyer, Jr., of Snyder, were held Sunday afternoon when their bodies were buried in the First Methodist Church. The Dyer couple were owners of the Dyer Jewelry Store there. He was 60 and she was 57. Both were members of the First Methodist Church.

Dyer is survived by three brothers and three sisters, and Mrs. Dyer by two sisters.

The collision occurred shortly after 6 p. m. about five miles south of Post on the Snyder Highway.

The Dyers were returning to Snyder from his brother-in-law's funeral in Amarillo. The 4,000-gallon transport truck, which had taken on a full load at Snyder,

Magazine Loses Its Suit With Trucker

TIME, Inc., Lubbock trucking firm owned by Arno Dalby, formerly of Post, will continue to use its name as the result of a decision in the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of California at Los Angeles.

District Judge William C. Mathes ruled that Time magazine, which had brought suit against use of the name, was not entitled to any relief. The case is to be dismissed for lack of equity, the court ruled in a 23-page opinion.

Suit for an injunction against use of the name was brought by Time magazine in November, 1953, alleging trademark infringement and unfair competition.

The truck firm operates lines from Oklahoma City to Los Angeles.

As quoted in The Sporting News, Biederman says Chicago fans seem to feel that Kiner came in as a threat to their own home run hitter, Hank Sauer. The fans appear to pull for Sauer to hit homers, but dare Kiner to hit them. Biederman says he believes that Kiner himself feels that he doesn't belong in Chicago, although he and Sauer are the best of friends.

Pitcher Bob Feller's shutout of the Athletics, July 17, was the forty-fifth shutout of his major league career. He now has a chance to set a new club record for whitewashings. Shutout Number 45 for Feller tied the club record set by Addie Joss some years ago.

The New York Yankees now have three Mantles in their organization. Mickey's younger brothers, 18-year-old twins Roy and Ray, have been signed, and have been sent to McAlester in the Class D Sooner State League. The Sporting News reports that the boys play both in the infield and outfield, and are strong hitters. Roy hit better than 400 and Ray over 300 in semi-pro ball last summer.

When the Brooklyn owners hired Walter Alton as their new manager last fall, they wanted a man with a talent for beating the Yankees in a World's Series. That, says The Sporting News, was putting second things first. What they need now is a manager and a team that can beat the New York Giants into a World's Series.

Fans at a Texas League game in Houston recently heard a man strike out but didn't see him. It happened during an exciting rhabard in a game between Houston and Fort Worth. When George Lerchen of Houston protested the call of a strike and delayed getting back into the box, the umpire called on the pitcher to throw again and shouted: "Strike two." In the growing rhabard, Lerchen was among those kicked out of the game. Then when Manager Dixie Walker took too long in sending up a replacement, the umpire called for the pitcher to pitch again. It was strike three, ending the inning without a Houston man in the batter's box.

The director of Busch Stadium in St. Louis—Al Banister—knows what St. Louis heat can do. So, just on a hunch, knowing how tempers fray in 100-degree weather, he suggested that more police be on hand during the Cardinals-Phillies game of July 18. That was the day of the big ruckus, the free-for-all around home plate. The cops were on hand, and were able to rush out and stop the battling before it got too far out of hand. Had it not been for Banister's forethought, says The Sporting News, a much more serious situation might have developed.

The grand slam home run hit by Walker Cooper of the Cubs against the Dodgers, July 18, was his second of this year and ninth of his career. He's still three short of the National League record. The Sporting News books show Rogers Hornsby and Ralph Kiner as the leaders, with 12 each.

The Brooklyn Dodgers weren't too successful as a playing outfit on their recent trip to Milwaukee, but they certainly were no flop financially. In four days at Milwaukee, in which they played five games, they could win only twice. But the games drew better than 100,000 fans, and the Dodgers went away with a check for $44,000 as their share.

Leg Biederman of the Pittsburgh Press believes Ralph Kiner's days as a Cub may be near an end.

was en route to Lubbock. The truck was owned by Leaverton Liquefied Gas Co. of Lubbock.

The collision occurred at the side of the road, apparently as both drivers swerved off the pavement in an attempt to avoid crashing.

Sheriff Carl Rains, who investigated the accident, said occupants of a truck from Keene, Tex., told him the transport truck driver had tried to pass their vehicle shortly before the crash. At the top of a rise in the road, the driver apparently saw he couldn't make it, and swerved toward the ditch after unsuccessfully trying to get back behind the other truck. The sheriff said the eyewitnesses reported the crash occurred as the drivers of both vehicles swerved in an attempt to avoid colliding.

The truck driver's father, L. T. Jordan, said his son told him at the hospital that the bright rays of the setting sun made vision difficult and that the two vehicles were about to meet when he first saw the sedan.

Mrs. Dyer's body was thrown clear of the wrecked sedan, which was jammed under the front part of the truck. Her husband was pinned in the wreckage, and a wrecker pulled the twisted metal of the auto apart to free the body of the victim.

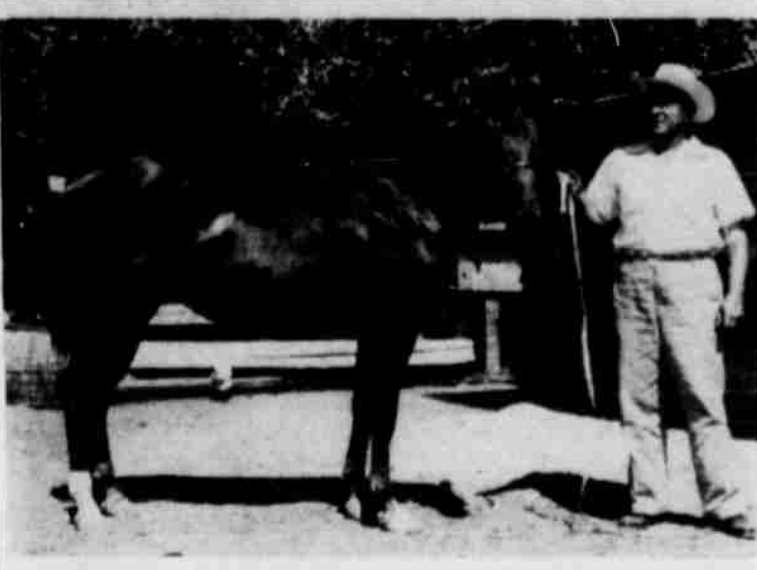

Jordan jumped from the cab of the truck, which stood on end, its front wheels high in the air. He was taken to the hospital by a passing motorist.

The impact of the two vehicles was so great that the engine of the truck was thrown free and against a fence at the side of the highway.

For more than 30 minutes following the wreck, butane gas spewed from the truck's two huge tanks, which rested partly on the pavement. As a safeguard against fire, a Post fire truck remained at the scene until about 1 o'clock Friday morning when the tanks were up-righted and brought to Post.

Approaching automobiles were stopped and smokers warned of the danger of igniting the butane fumes. Sheriff Rains remained at the scene of the wreck, directing traffic past the crash, until the tanks were moved.

The only other eyewitness to the crash besides the ones from Keene is believed to have been a Brownwood ambulance driver. He said he saw the collision from a distance, and that a big cloud

Local Man Begins Manager Training At Wacker Store

James King, 26, a lifelong resident of Post with the exception of three years in the Air Force, began work Monday at the G. F. Wacker Store here as a manager trainee.

Howard Maddera, manager of the store for the past two years, said King will be assistant manager during the year he is in training. At the end of the training period, he will be qualified to manage one of the units in the G. F. Wacker Stores, Inc. chain.

Maddera said the Post store is one of 10 approved for the manager-training courses. The purpose of the program, he said, is to make it possible to take men out of a town as store managers as well as bring them in.

Training of local men as managers in towns and cities where the stores are located will also help overcome the shortage of experienced managers, Maddera explained.

"In the past," the local manager said, "it has been necessary in almost every instance to bring in an outsider when one of our stores needed a manager. The course now under way is expected to result in more and more local men being available when managers are needed."

Prior to accepting his new employment, King was an attendant at the Iven Clary Conoco Service Station here.

The son of the late J. D. King and Mrs. King, he received his Post High School diploma while in the service. He is married and the father of a two-year-old son, Kenneth.

Game, Fish Permits To Be Here Soon

County Clerk Ray N. Smith and licensed deputies here are expected to receive the first consignments of new hunting and fishing licenses late this month.

The license clerk of the Game and Fish Commission said slightly less than one million hunting and fishing licenses for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1 are expected to be distributed.

Resident hunting licenses, under a comparatively new state law, sell for $2.15. This certificate entitles the holder to hunt all kinds of game.

Resident fishing licenses sell for $1.65 and cover all legitimate fishing routine.

YARBOROUGH: Thanks, Friends; Predicts Victory

AUSTIN, Aug. — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Ralph Yarborough said this week he will win the Aug. 28 second primary by a sweeping margin. Said Yarborough, confidently: "678,000 Texans—a majority of Texans—can't be wrong. "678,000 Texans have hammered home their belief that integrity in their government can be achieved only by a change. "678,000 Texans have noted their distrust and disapproval of a third term for their governors. "678,000 Texas Democrats have made it crystal-clear they want a leader whose loyalty is unquestioned, who will never betray them." Yarborough thanked "each and every one of the brave Texans who voted for and with me" in the first primary. He said he was "especially and particularly grateful to the citizens of Garza County who have joined our common fight to restore decency and honor to Texas government." Yarborough said the campaign issues now are sharply drawn. He said: "Texans can now choose for or against a tradition-breaking third term, for or against straight-forward Democratic leadership and for or against integrity in their State Capital." The Democratic candidate repeated his thanks to "his friends of Garza County and urged their voting support—along with the votes of all other Texans—Aug. 28."

'Signs Of Life' Traffic Safety Program Is On

"Know your signs of life—and stay alive!"

Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, president of the Texas Safety Association, and services advisor for the Gulf Oil Corporation, gave this advice today to the people of Texas in referring to the "Signs of Life" traffic safety program which his group is conducting this month in cooperation with the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"Signs of life are the traffic signs, signals and pavement markings which remind motorists and pedestrians of the law and warn them of potential dangers on the road ahead," he said.

"The name 'signs of life' is appropriate," he explained, "because countless lives would be saved if all drivers and walkers learned to recognize these signs and tried to follow their directions with courtesy."

"Special emphasis in the August program is being placed on publicizing the five basic shapes," Col. Tilley said.

"If drivers would learn these five shapes," he said, "they would know immediately what to expect when they saw one of these signs, for each shape carries a distinctive type of message."

He listed the basic sign shapes as follows:

- 2. DIAMOND, also yellow and black. This sign indicates danger ahead, carries such messages as School, Narrow Bridge, Men Working, or the directional symbols describing curves, intersections, side roads, etc. They mean: slow down, stay alert.
- 3. RECTANGULAR, white with black or colored lettering. These tell of speed limits, mark no passing zones, give other regulatory information such as parking rules. Obey their messages.
- 4. ROUND, yellow and black signs warn of a highway-railroad intersection 300 to 500 feet ahead. These signs call for reduced speed and extra caution, so the driver can make sure no train is coming before he drives across the tracks.
- 5. RAILROAD CROSSBUCK marks the intersection of highway and railway. Cross only when the way is clear.

"These five sign shapes actually can save lives if they are re-

Federal Job Form Undergoes Change

WASHINGTON—The Government reported it has added two new questions to the application form which persons must fill out when seeking federal jobs. They are: "Have you ever had a nervous breakdown?" "Have you ever had tuberculosis?"

Announcing the first major revision since 1947 of the application blank—known as Form 57—the Civil Service Commission said the chief aim was improved clarity and appearance.

The new form revises the questions about arrests, discharges from previous jobs and membership in organizations designated subversive.

I wish to thank each of you who supported me in any way in the July 24, Primary.

Although I received only a small vote, each vote was appreciated. I have always heard lightening never strikes twice in the same place, so I should be fairly safe now.

Congratulations, Ozell.
