Balloting Saturday In Special Elections

Qualified voters of Garza County will ballot Saturday on the addition of an assessor-collector of taxes to the list of authorized county officials, and those in Commissioner's Precinct 4 will also vote on a $50,000 road bond issue.

If the proposal to be voted on county-wide carries it will mean separation of the present tax assessor-collector's office from the office of sheriff, effective Jan. 1, 1957. A tax assessor-collector would be chosen in this year's elections.

The proposed $50,000 bond issue in Precinct 4 would be used for purchase of right-of-way for conversion of U. S. Highway 84 into a divided four-lane road from Post to the Scurry County line, and for other road purposes.

Levying of ad valorem taxes to pay interest on and provide a sinking fund for the bond issue will be voted on at the same time.

A two-thirds majority of those voting will be necessary for the bond issue to carry.

The election will be held at the schoolhouse in Justiceburg. Election officials will be W. F. McWhirt, presiding judge; Mrs. Pearl Nance, judge; and Mrs. Cameron Justice and Mrs. J. D. Justice, clerks.

For the county-wide election on the separation of the tax office and sheriff's office, the commissioners' court has designated the following voting places, presiding judges and assistants:

Precinct 1 (North Post) north end of courthouse—Homer Mc-

Cray and Walter Crider.
 Precinct 2 (Southland) schoolhouse—Sam Ellis and Otto Klaus.
 Precinct 3 (Verbenia) church—Julius Fumagalli and Mrs. Eden McClendon.
 Precinct 4 (Justiceburg) schoolhouse—Douglas McWhirt and Mrs. Pearl Nance.
 Precinct 5 (Close City) schoolhouse—L. H. Peel and Livingston.
 Precinct 6 (Graham) schoolhouse—J. W. McMahon and Quannah Maxey.
 Precinct 7 (Pleasant Valley) church—Racy Robinson and Henry Wheatley.
 Precinct 8 (South Post) south end courthouse—Mrs. Wilburn Morris and Mrs. John F. Lott.
 Precinct 9 (East Post) J. L. Ballentine residence—Floyd Hodges and J. L. Ballentine.

MRS. WILLARD KIRKPATRICK, DEAN ROBINSON HONORED

Attendance Mark Set At Banquet

Approximately 200 persons attended the Post Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet Tuesday night, hearing an address by Dr. D. M. Wiggins of Lubbock and looking on with approval as Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick and Dean A. Robinson received outstanding citizenship awards.

The banquet, held in the school cafeteria, drew the largest crowd in the event's history, according to Chamber of Commerce officials.

Dr. Wiggins set the pattern for his talk by telling the crowd that "the genius of American life was born in small communities."

"Whereas we basically were a rural people not too many years ago, we are living today in the throes of big government and big government is as dangerous as it can be," Dr. Wiggins said.

"There is danger in bigness if it loses spirit and soul, and it is this great danger that is besieging the American way of life . . . you in Post and in other small communities throughout the land are to be commended for keeping your soul and spirit when you tackle such problems as your water shortage . . . from Washington to Post is a long way for the milk of human kindness to flow, but you don't need it—it is to be found in the small communities of our land."

Powell Shytle, outgoing president, was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Clinton Edwards, who has just arrived in Post as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation.

New officers and directors introduced were E. R. (Buster) Moreland, president; Williams, vice president, and Harold Voss, Lowell Short, Dr. H. A. Tubbs and Ted R. Hibbs, directors.

Mrs. Fritz Greenfield, C. of C. secretary, briefly outlined the 25 projects on which the organization worked during the past year. Reports on the city mail delivery project, county roads and the water situation were heard from Harold Voss, Pat N. Walker and James Minor, respectively.

Shytle announced that the Chamber had authorized July Fourth, Thanksgiving and Christmas as business holidays for 1956.

Mrs. R. B. Tucker Is Gunshot Victim

Mrs. R. B. Tucker, longtime resident of Post, was found dead of a gunshot wound shortly before noon Wednesday in her home at 212 East 11th Street. She had been shot once through the right temple, Sheriff Carl Rains reported. He said a .32-caliber revolver was found in her right hand.

The body was discovered on a bed by Mrs. Tucker's son-in-law, Dick Roach, and John Pike, who lives in an upstairs apartment. Roach had gone to see about Mrs. Tucker, who had been in ill health for some time.

After finding his mother-in-law's door locked, Roach went to Pike's upstairs apartment and they gained access to Mrs. Tucker's apartment through another entrance.

Roach called Sheriff Rains, who telephoned for a physician and an ambulance. The sheriff said the physician told him Mrs. Tucker apparently had been dead for about an hour when her body was found. Other occupants of the apartment house reported having heard Mrs. Tucker moving around as late as 9:30 a. m., the sheriff said.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Roach, Mrs. Tucker is survived by a granddaughter and a great-granddaughter.

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. W. L. Porterfield officiating. Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under direction of the Mason Funeral Home.

Vernon Ray Resigns Coaching Position

Vernon Ray this week submitted his resignation as basketball coach and assistant football coach at Post High School and at the same time withdrew his application for the vacant head coach position.

Ray told The Dispatch Wednesday morning that his resignation is to become effective at the end of the current school term. The school board had made no statement up to Wednesday noon concerning the coach's resignation.

Ray has been a member of the coaching staff here since 1948 with the exception of the fall semester of 1949, which he spent completing his work toward a degree at Texas Technological College. In addition to basketball and football, he has coached baseball.

Ray played freshman football at Texas Tech in 1940 and was a member of the varsity squad in 1941, 1942 and 1946. In the intervening years he served in the Army Amphibious Corps during World War II.

Ray's wife, Chris, is school health nurse here.

Board Discusses Building Plans

Trustees of the Post Independent School District met with Acheson & Atkinson architects Monday night to check plans for the proposed expansion program at Post High School.

Some changes were made by the board in the architects' plans. Supt. R. K. Green said the architects are now working on approximate cost figures for submission to the board at an early meeting.

The proposed expansion program would include improvement of the homemaking and science departments, new construction, and other improvements.

The superintendent also announced that Mrs. Almon G. Martin has been employed as teacher of a new second grade section in the elementary school.

Post Delegation Is Going To Crosbyton

Post will be well represented in Crosbyton this evening at a meeting at 7 o'clock in the school cafeteria on a proposed White River dam near Calgary.

City officials, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and other citizens will meet with similar groups representing Crosbyton and Spru to discuss formation of a tri-city water district and construction of the dam.

A Fort Worth engineering firm is working on preliminary plans for the project and will have representatives present at the Crosbyton meeting. The night meeting is to be preceded by one at 4:30 o'clock at which city councilmen of the three towns will meet with engineers.

Some of the Post delegation was to leave in time to attend the afternoon meeting, while those planning to attend the night meeting will leave shortly before 6 o'clock.

History-Making Snow Measures 9 Inches; Helps Out Moisture

One of the biggest, if not the biggest, snows in the memory of most local residents fell here over the weekend, measuring nine inches and depositing moisture ranging from .43 of an inch to an inch on thirsty croplands.

The measurements of nine inches of snow and .43 of an inch of moisture came from the gauge of County Agent Lewis C. Herron in Post. The fall was heavier and more moisture was measured in other parts of the county, with the north end receiving the brunt of the snowstorm.

The snow began falling Thursday and continued intermittently throughout Friday, but was blown away almost as fast as it fell until the storm hit in earnest early Saturday morning.

Schools were closed here Monday on account of what administrators termed "hazardous traveling conditions," and the Southland school in the northwest part of the county was closed for three days.

The Post area was fortunate in having no "hardship" cases from the heavy snowfall, and all roads remained open, although travel was risky for most of a three-day period. Employees of the Texas Highway Department here worked night and day keeping snow cleared from highways and on a number of occasions used their equipment to assist stranded motorists.

Sheriff Carl Rains reports that not a single serious accident occurred in the Post vicinity during the spell of bad weather. "The only mishap I investigated," he said, "was a fender-bumping incident."

Basketball trips in and out of Post and a farm meeting scheduled for Friday night were about the only events postponed during the period of snow-covered highways.

Post Boy Scouts Join In Anniversary Observance

Friday of this week will be the big day in Post Scouts' observance of Boy Scout Week, which began Monday and is to continue through Sunday.

The Boy Scouts will take over the reins of city and county government all day Friday, at the same time getting a holiday from school. That evening, at 7:30 o'clock, they will prepare and serve a nulligan stew supper for their parents at the City Hall. All parents are urged to attend.

On Sunday morning, the Boy Scouts of Troop 16 will attend the First Christian Church in a body.

Following are city and county officials elected by the Scouts for Friday:

Mayor—Kent Green; Jimmy Minor and Butch Ticer, assistants.

County Attorney—David McCampbell; Joel Morris and Victor Hudman, assistants.

County Judge—Melvin Britton; Joe Bob Trammell and Tommy Young, assistants.

Justice of the Peace—Delbert McQueen; Curtis Steel and Danny Cockrum, assistants.

Sheriff—John Kemp; Paul Wheatley, deputy.

Constables—Royce Hart, Butch Bowen, Richard Jones.

City Marshals—Franklin Carter and James Smith.

Fire Chief—Roger Camp; Robert Cato Jr. and Ray Newberry, assistants.

County Treasurer—Kenny Poole; Mickey Priddy and Larry Welch, assistants.

Water Commissioner—Gary Simpson; Lee Williams and Tommy Boucher, assistants.

County Agent—Charles Tubbs; Gary Welch, assistant.

Boys' teams entered in the 9th grade division are Post, Floydada, Wilson, Slaton, Abernathy, O'Donnell, Tahoka and Ralls. Girls' teams are Post "A" and "B," Wilson, Abernathy, Slaton, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Ralls.

In the 8th grade division, boys' teams are Post, Tahoka 7th, Wilson, Crosbyton, Abernathy, O'Donnell, Wilson and Post 7th. Girls' teams are Abernathy, Post 7th, Wilson, Crosbyton, Post and Tahoka.

Monday's opening round schedule will be as follows:

Summer Rates On Water Going Off

The Post city council voted Monday night to do away with its usual summer rates on water, making rates uniform the year round—40 cents per 1,000 gallons above the minimum.

The council called a city election for April 30 and set midnight March 5 as the filing deadline for candidates for three alderman posts.

In other action, the council affirmed the appointment of Dr. D. C. Williams as city health officer, and voted to transfer $5,597.50 from the general fund to the interest and sinking fund for the purpose of meeting 1956 requirements for payment on bonds and interest.

Attorney Carleton P. Webb reported that papers have been drawn up for transfer to the city of Terrace Cemetery and its trust fund by the Post Estate interests and that the papers have been started through for signatures.

Time For Third Polio Shot

The third Salk polio vaccine shot for first and second grade children of the county's public schools is now due, Dr. D. C. Williams, county health officer, said this week.

"It has now been seven months," Dr. Williams said, "since the first and second grade children received their second polio shot. It is urged that the third shot be given these children, and that the vaccine be given to all others between six months and 20 years of age before the polio season starts."

The vaccine for the first two shots, Dr. Williams explained, was supplied by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and given by local physicians without charge.

No more free vaccine is to be supplied by the NFIB, and parents are expected to obtain and pay for the third shot through their family physician, Dr. Williams said. In case of hardship, in which parents are unable to pay, they are requested to consult their family physician in order to obtain the vaccination.

The vaccine is now available for children up to 20 years of age and for pregnant women.

The health officer said it is important that pregnant women receive the vaccination because they are more susceptible to paralytic poliomyelitis, and it is believed that if these mothers are vaccinated, some immunity will be transferred from the mother to the baby, thus protecting the new-born babies against paralytic polio.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL

Mrs. T. A. Edmonson, 83, mother of Mrs. Roy Baker, was reported in critical condition Wednesday in Lubbock Methodist Hospital where she is suffering from a broken hip. Mrs. Edmonson received the injury Wednesday of last week in a fall from her bed. She was transferred to the Lubbock hospital last Friday after being admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital Thursday morning.

When the new junior high school building was opened at mid-term last year, Malcolm Usrey was one of the teachers who made the move from west to east—from the high school into the new junior high school structure.

Now in his fifth year here as a teacher, Usrey teaches 8th grade language arts. During his first year as a member of the faculty, he taught two 11th grade classes of American history, one class of 11th grade English, and one class each of 8th grade health, spelling and English.

A graduate of Hedley High School, he had ambitions to be a teacher from the time he was "12 or 13 years old."

He is a 1951 graduate of Abilene Christian College with a bachelor of arts degree and an English major. He is now working on his master's degree at Texas Technological College, lacking only his thesis and one hour of history.

To anyone except a student of English, Usrey has selected a rather unique subject for his thesis—the letters of Thomas Gilchrist, a Scottish minister, to William Blackwood, who was the first editor and founder of

... a snow as they believed to have been a record-breaker in these parts, and we took a back seat to no one as far as a "winter wonderland" was concerned.

THERE WERE "picture postcard" scenes all over town, with snowmen sprouting up in many front yards Saturday morning. There was enough snow to build them Friday afternoon, but with the youngsters in school until 3 p. m., the snowmen didn't begin showing up until Saturday.

THE SNOW WAS, and still is, the big topic of conversation—and rightly so. Besides being the biggest one in the memory of most people here, it brought much of the moisture we've been needing on which to start the year.

IT'S DOUBTFUL THAT any group got more fun out of the snow than the "bunch" over at the First National Bank. They not only snowballed and snow-rolled each other, but included a few outsiders in their activities.

HILL VAUGHAN WRITES in "The Observation Post" in the current issue of the V. F. W. Magazine: "No job that I can think of brings more friends over the years to the right kind of man than that of being a school custodian."

WE AGREE WITH Bill Vaughan, and the fact that school custodians have so many friends probably is the reason one didn't get lynched out at Post High School. One of the custodians there inadvertently burned the practically-completed "Antelope Echo," throwing the school paper a week late.

WELL, MISTAKES will happen, and the practice the Echo staff members got in compiling and editing the same issue twice won't hurt 'em. In fact, many's the time we'd have liked to have been able to go back and re-do an issue of a newspaper.

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Country Probably Will Continue On Political Standard, Regardless Of The Party In Power

BAERSON PARK, Fla.—Since my recent weekly column which favored the nomination of President Eisenhower, I have received letters from publishers stating that my column is supposed to discuss Business and the Stock Market, and not politics.

History Of My Column
This column started over 30 years ago after I retired from my position as financial staff writer for the Saturday Evening Post. I began with only 10 newspapers, but with the help of the magazine's wonderful editor, George Horace Lorimer, the column became popular and is now published weekly in over 400 papers.

During the early years of my writing, this column was taken almost exclusively by Northern publishers. As the years advanced, the column began to be used by Southern papers, which are mostly Democratic. I therefore am having the same difficulty that David Lawrence, Robert Ruark, and Drew Pearson are having, as my column spreads to all sections of the country.

Good Business Under Democrats
From the time of the Civil War up to 1932 our country was on the Gold Standard. This gave both a certain "ceiling" and a certain "floor," which it was difficult for business or the stock market to break through. Furthermore, this made it fairly easy for any impartial statistician and economist to make reasonable forecasts, irrespective of party politics. My forecast of the 1929 break was made during the Hoover Republican Administration when his managers were forecasting "two chickens in every pot and two cars in every house in 1932, however, the country has been on a Political Standard, and the Gold Standard has been discarded. This is no criticism of the Roosevelt Administration, because I feel the Gold Standard had outlived its usefulness. We will probably continue on a Political Standard, whether in a Republican or a Democratic era. I have not the figures here in Florida which show just what business and the stock market have done in Presidential years; but anyone sending to my Babson Park, Mass., office will be welcome to them.

Stock Markets Do Not Follow Business
It is generally assumed that one can forecast business by watching the stock market, but this is not true. In the long run, there is IMPORTANT ELECTIONS . . .

Two important elections face the voters Saturday with those living in Commissioner's Precinct 4 voting in both the elections and those in the other three precincts in only one. The Precinct 4 election is on a $50,000 road bond issue for purchase of right-of-way to be used in making a four-lane separated route of U. S. Highway 84 from just south of Post to the Scurry County line.

The county-wide election will decide whether or not the sheriff, tax assessor-collector's office is to be separated. If separation is approved, it will mean addition of a tax assessor-collector to the list of elective county officers, whereas now the sheriff heads both offices. The Precinct 4 road bond proposal requires a two-thirds majority to carry. The county-wide election on the tax office requires only a majority vote.

For the sake of progress, this newspaper hopes that the voters of Precinct 4 see fit to approve the road bond issue by the necessary majority, and that they join with other voters throughout the county in casting their ballots for separation of the sheriff-tax office.

This newspaper has been informed by county sources that a separate tax office can be operated at no more expense than under the present set-up. Another point in favor of separation of the office is that a man who is qualified for a sheriff's job rarely is also qualified to discharge the duties of the tax office as they should be discharged. This is meant as no reflection on the present officeholder. The two jobs just don't mix satisfactorily—even in a county of this size. That is one reason the constitutional amendment leaving it up to the people to vote on separating the offices was proposed in the first place.

If you vote, you're going to exercise your right to vote as you see fit—but please vote!

voted upon. That will be Nov. 13.

THE TROUBLESOME amendment would permit the State to spend up to $1,500,000 a year in aid to dependent persons over 18 years of age who are mentally or physically totally disabled.

Getting Out On The Limb

By EDDIE the editor

SAFETY SLOGAN: It's better to sit tight than drive that way.

THE WOMEN, GOD LOVE 'EM: There is only one way to handle a woman. The trouble is, nobody knows what it is.

FOR THE BENEFIT of those who think operating a weekly newspaper is a bed of roses, I am quoting Billy Holchak, former weekly newspaperman in South and Central Texas, who told in a recent issue of the Texas Press Messenger why the weekly field was not for him.

While I do not agree with what the young man writes, I find his observations most amusing.

His article follows:
"In June, 1949, I departed the campus of the University of Texas with a B. J. degree in hand, and a desire for a weekly newspaper career in my heart.

"Six years later, I departed the weekly newspaper field, tired of the long hours and endless meetings, happy to gain release from the relentless grind which made a normal home life impossible.

"Don't get me wrong, I'm not bitter. I have only the greatest respect for the men who are spending their lives in the small-town field. They are tougher, more devoted newspapermen than I was, or ever will be.

"My experience included 33 months as editor of a 12-20 page East Texas weekly, and 17 months as part-owner, manager, editor, reporter, adman, printer and linotypist on an 8-10 page South Texas weekly. (The two jobs were interrupted by a 22-month "vacation" with the Navy.)

"I saw the weekly business from every side . . . in a booming city of 8,000 and in a drought-stricken town of 1,900 . . . as employee and as employer . . . as a salaried hand and as an owner, sharing nonexistent profits.

"In the end, I was forced to conclude that the financial opportunities are too small for the amount of work required. In my view there are only three ways for a young man to make a reasonable living with a weekly (all involving ownership, of course). They are:

"1. Buy in a small town and have the good fortune to see the town grow;
"2. Buy in a small town which doesn't grow, and work yourself to death making the paper pay;
"3. Buy a good paper in a good town, and hope times stay good while you are paying off the mortgage.

THE AMERICAN WAY

"There are other rewards, of course. I greatly admire the devoted editors and publishers who are giving their lives in community service. The knowledge that you have made your community a better place in which to live is a reward which cannot be measured in dollars.

"The professional rewards are worth a great deal, too. I shall always treasure the ribbons I won in TPA contests for editorial-writing and column-writing. These were the high points of my career.

"But in the final analysis, I decided it wasn't worth the long hours, the meetings, the endless variety of duties a newsman is called upon to perform, and the financial sacrifice.

"To me, newspapering seemed to be a one-way street. The community demanded everything, and gave very little in return. Though I had spent the first 17 years of my life in the small South Texas town of Kennedy, I had no conception of the endless demands made on the small-town newspaperman's time and energy. (In all of this, of course, I am referring to a newspaperman who turns out a first-class, readable paper.)

"I often wondered, in the depth of my despair, if something wasn't basically wrong . . . if subscribers should not be paying $10 or $15 a year, instead of $2.50. People who pay 25 cents a week for a general information magazine like LIFE should be willing to pay the same amount for the only publication in the world which reports the news of their community.

"In June of this year, I gave it all up and went with Thomas F. Conroy, Inc., San Antonio advertising agency, as a copywriter. My wife and I have never been happier. The pay and opportunities for advancement are satisfactory. The hours are regular, and our nights and weekends are our own. And the only newspaper we worry about is the one we find on our doorstep each morning.

"Occasionally I see some of my newspaper friends weekend in San Antonio. I always greet them heartily, and do everything possible to make their visits pleasant. Because I know, come Monday, they'll be back home doing the toughest job on earth — putting out a weekly newspaper."

Bulk Of FHA Farm Operating Loans Used For Equipment And Livestock

Approximately $5,130,000, or 48 per cent, of the production and subsistence loans obtained by farmers in Texas from the Farmers Home Administration during the past year were used to purchase equipment and livestock and make similar investments, Walter T. McKay, state director for the agency, said today.

Farmers are making these investments to set up the kind of farming systems that will make the most of their labor, land and other resources. Production and subsistence loans are also made for fertilizer, seed, tractor fuel, insecticides and other farm and home operating expenses. The loans bear 5 per cent interest and repayments are scheduled in accordance with the borrower's ability to repay. Loans for crop production are repayable when income from the crop is received. Loans for capital investments are repayable over periods up to seven years. The maximum loan is $7,000 and total indebtedness cannot exceed $10,000. Several steps are taken by the Farmers Home Administration to assist farmers in making the best use of their loan funds. Before a loan is made a complete farm and home plan is prepared by the farm family with the assistance of the agency's local supervisor. The plan shows how the farm will be operated, estimated yields and income, and a budget for farm and home expenses. Provision is made for the production of a large portion of the family's food supply and provision is made in the budget for household expenditures and medical care.

No loan is made unless the farm and home plan shows that the farm when properly operated under normal conditions will provide the family a good living and enable them to repay their debts.

Guides have been established with the aid of the Extension Service and other agricultural agencies that show desirable combinations of enterprises, the amount of land, quantity of livestock, amount and quality of pasture, and feed, acres of cash crops, and the yield per acre and production per animal that are needed for the successful operation of family-type farms in each given area. These guides are used in developing the farm and home plans.

In addition, at the end of the crop year a complete review of the year's operations is made by the farm family and the FHA supervisor to determine which farm enterprises were the most successful and what further improvements are to be made during the coming year.

Credit is also extended by FHA for financing annual operating expenses. These loans are short-term credit designed to help farmers finance one year's operations. Annual production and subsistence loans may be made to farmers providing there is a sound basis for credit. This means that the anticipated gross income from farming and other sources must be sufficient to repay the loan, meet farm and home expenses not provided for in the loan and provide a reasonable margin above such amounts. This type credit is in addition to emergency loans available to farmers or ranchers primarily engaged

Mahon Votes For Bill Repealing Fuel Tax

WASHINGTON (Spl.) — Last week in Washington a bill providing for the repeal of the federal tax on gasoline and other fuels used in farming was passed by the House of Representatives. Early passage by the Senate is anticipated.

Rep. George Mahon of the 19th District voted for the measure, stating that passage of this legislation was long overdue, but that he realized this was only a minor step toward achieving an adequate 1956 farm program.

Mahon said he had received many letters and petitions from West Texans urging passage of this bill. Other fuels involved include propane and butane.

Quail Wings Being Gathered In Study

AUSTIN (Spl.)—Texas hunters gathering quail wings for studies by Game and Fish Commission technicians are urged by the assistant director of wildlife restoration to forward them promptly.

He said the wing receipts now approach a new high total for this cooperative program, but added that they believe some hunters have not yet sent in their collections.

The wings are studied by technicians to determine the age and sex of the quail and to accumulate other vital data needed for game management projects.

Post Woman Named As Contact For Adult Education Conference Here

LUBBOCK (Spl.) — Citizens committees in communities throughout West Texas will hold local conferences during February, March and April to discuss community problems and progress.

Twenty-three persons have been designated contact persons for the local conferences, sponsored by the West Texas Council on Adult Education and the Texas Tech Adult Education Program.

Those named as contact persons for the local conferences include Mrs. Harry A. Tubbs of Post.

Conferences will be held on such subjects as "Youth and Related Family Concerns," "Aging in Our Society," "Schools for Tomorrow," "West Texas Heritage," and "International Relations."

Techniques used in the White House Conference on Education will be employed in the meetings.

The local meetings will be followed by regional conferences in farming, McKay stated. Real estate credit for purchase and development of family-type farms, for financing soil conservation measures, and for the development of water systems for farm home, livestock and irrigation are also available.

Social Security Tax Due From Farmers By April 15, 1956

Self-employed farmers and ranchers can become eligible for insurance benefits under the social security law by mid 1956 if they have earned as much as $400 from farming in both calendar years 1955 and 1956. County Agent Lewis C. Herron reminds Garza County farm operators.

Along with this goes the responsibility to report earnings from farming and pay the 3 per cent social security tax not later than April 15, 1956. The Social Security Administration has suggested that payments be made as early as possible after Jan. 1.

The form for making a report and remitting the required tax for social security insurance (Schedule SE) comes with the Federal Income Tax Return, Form 1040. If your net earnings from farming were as much as $400 in 1955, you are obliged to fill out and file this return and pay the social security tax, according to Herron, even if you do not owe any Federal income tax for 1955.

Older farmers—those 65 or over—can retire after mid 1956 and start getting monthly old-age insurance payments if they have met the earnings requirements and paid their tax. Other farmers, regardless of age, will acquire family protection in the form of monthly payments to surviving dependents in the event of their death, provided they meet the same requirements.

In either case, the payment of the social security tax must accompany your income tax declaration or return. This responsibility is required by law.

Further information on social security taxes may be obtained at your nearest Internal Revenue Service office or from the county agent. Information about benefits can be obtained from your social security district office. If you do not know where these offices are, your postmaster can tell you, says Herron.

Miss Davis Is Head Of Tahoka Rainbows

Miss Linda Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davis of Grassland, was installed as Worthy Advisor of Tahoka Rainbow Assembly recently, in ceremonies at the Masonic Hall.

Her sister, Dixie, sang "God's Rainbow Shines for You," and presented her with a basket of pink carnations at the conclusion of the installation. They are junior students in Post High School.

At the first national meeting in Washington, D. C., called in 1897 by Founders Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst, to invite mothers to join in a program to help children everywhere, the suggestion was made that such a program could best be developed through state organizations.

The Texas Congress became a part of that national organization Oct. 19, 1909. In Dallas, and today has a membership of 533,203, ranking fourth in the nation.

On a Tuesday afternoon in October 1913, the Post unit, then known as the Mother's Club, was organized at a meeting in the old rock school building. Miss Tommy Clark, a high school teacher, assisted by Misses Jessie Letcher and Sallie Whitehouse and Supt. H. C. Zorn, headed the local organization. Mrs. A. W. Bouchier is the only one of the 17 charter members who still lives in Post. She served as the first vice-president, under Mrs. H. C. Zorn, president. Mrs. W. O. Stevens was the first secretary and Mrs. Tom Underwood, treasurer.

A partial list of charter members, some of whom are deceased, follows: Mrs. Zorn, Mrs. Bouchier, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Sam Morrow, Mrs. Hal Murray, Mrs. Misses Clark, Letcher, Whitehouse and Vena Elkins.

Other early day members were Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. R. H. Collier, Mrs. Bob Warren, Mrs. Emmett Dent and the late Mrs. J. W. McCoach. Mrs. Bouchier was elected president in 1914 and served in that capacity for 10 years. Mrs. H. G. Smith, who joined the organization in 1914, served as treasurer for 20 years.

The second year that the P-TA functioned here a school library was started with a book show, and an annual donation of $25 from the unit. T. R. Greenfield was school superintendent at that time.

A piano and playground equipment were donated by the P-TA in its third year here. Other early day projects included the installation of modern restrooms, banishing the public drinking cup, wearing regulation cotton graduation dresses made compulsory instead of silk and the purchase of new stage curtains. The latter project came into existence during the time Mrs. T. L. Jones, the former Miss Maggie Mae Griffin, was superintendent.

Among the women who have served as president of the local organization are Mrs. Zorn, Mrs. Bouchier, Mrs. J. A. Stallings, Mrs. A. C. Surman, Mrs. J. R. Durrett, Mrs. Kelly Sims, Mrs. Lee Davis, Mrs. B. J. Edwards, Mrs. J. E. Parker, Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Tom Bouchier, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Ralph

The Mattie Williams Memorial Circle of the Presbyterian Church cancelled its meeting Thursday evening because of the weather. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p. m., Feb. 16, at the church.

The Rev. Cecil Stowe reports that there was good attendance, considering weather conditions, at the Nazarene Youth Revival over the weekend. The Rev. Allen Taylor of Lubbock did the preaching. Kenneth Rogers directed the singing and Harold Allen of Lubbock played the piano. They were assisted by three other Bethany College students, Wilburn Wade, Clarence Hawkins and Delta Rogers.

Roy Shahan, First Baptist pastor, reports: "The attendance last Lord's Day in all the services was exceptionally good, considering the extreme cold weather. For those who were absent, it will take some extra effort to be back in the services next Sunday. Even one absence from the services will hinder attendance the next Sunday if one is not very careful. The pastor will speak Sunday morning on the subject, 'The Bride of Christ' (Eph. 5: 22-33). At the evening service, 'A Trinity of Triumphs' (2 Th. 4: 7). You are urged to be in your place in your church next Lord's Day."

Group One of the Lubbock Baptist Association Group Sunday School Training School, will meet at the Calvary Baptist Church Feb. 20-24. In the group are Calvary, Mexican and First Baptist Churches of Post, Friendship of Close City, Union Center of Grassburg and Justiceburg.

... report of the way your money was spent by the county during 1955 in this issue of the News.

Take time to read it—an informed citizen is a better citizen.

The report is lengthy but it shows every dime collected by the county and for what it was spent.

A few counties fail to publish annual statements... Martin County didn't. Cochran County didn't, and Zavala County didn't... and the resulting scandals put county officers behind bars.

We're glad that Andrews County recognizes the right of the citizen to know—and publishes the statement each quarter—"Drifting Sands" in The Andrews County News.

Short On Change
A Texas playboy visiting New York City was crossing the Hudson River in his 1957 model limousine, replete with air-conditioning, jeweled headlamps, a bar and television set, and a five-piece orchestra playing soft music from the rear seat. Reaching the far side of the George Washington Bridge, the chauffeur was waved to a stop by a guard. "Your toll fee, please," announced the attendant. "Fifty cents." The man from Texas, an oil billionaire, of course, proceeded to search his pockets for change, then replied, "Sorry, pardner, but I ain't got a cent of silver in my jeans. How much will you take for the bridge?"—"Snooper Knows" in The Stanton Reporter.

Pete's Philosophy
Pete Pituitary says it's better to have loved a short girl than never to have loved a tall—"Nearly News" in The Lamb County Leader.

Not Only Artists
You probably heard about that Hamilton lad who happened to walk by while a man was discussing art and artists. "With a single stroke of a brush," the speaker proclaimed, "an artist can change a smiling face into a frowning one." "Shucks," the Hamilton youth retorted, "as can my mother."—"Twilight Zone" in The Hamilton Herald-News.

Meter Test
They've been cussed and praised to both extremes, but anyhow, now they are here—parking meters. We appreciate the democratic attitude of some of the opponents of parking meters who have said that now they are in we'll give 'em a try and if the customers like 'em we'll keep 'em.—"Whoa, Now!" in The Texas Spur.

The Real Reason
Note to non-boozers: It was eating, not drinking, that got the human race thrown out of paradise—"It Sez Here" in The Rails Banner.

Surplus A Cause?
The state of mind in which the President seems to move in discussing the farm problem is one thing that will be wrong with the program which he will eventually accept from the congress. He has presented the problem in the wrong attitude. At least to our way of thinking a surplus is a good thing to have. The problem is how to make the surplus serve the nation and the world, not how to eliminate it as though it were an evil.—"Views and Comment" in The Floyd County Hesperian.

The Pioneer Cowboy
The pioneer cowboy met his obstacles with admirable courage and confidence. His life was often dependent on his ability to cope with scarcity and his talent for improvising. The almost forgotten custom of killing a rattlesnake with a lariarope is an example of solving a seemingly impossible situation. The code of the cattle country forbade leaving the deadly reptile yet the terrain provided no sticks or rocks. The answer was in the rope. The practice was considered dangerous, since an infuriated snake would often strike the rope and break off poisonous fangs that would later break the skin of bare hands—"Trail Dust" in Matador Tribune.

DRAFT CALL ISSUED
The Army has issued a call for 6,000 draftees in April, but the Navy informed the Selective Service System that it will require no inductees in that month. The Army call continued the 6,000 man-a-month draft rate established for that service in January—the lowest since the Korean War.

MYSTERY FARM IDENTIFIED — Mrs. Ozell Williams identified last week's Mystery Farm as that of J. L. Williams and will receive a six-months subscription to The Post Dispatch for her correct identification. Another Mystery Farm appears on page 2. If you can identify it, telephone The Dispatch office or come by at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Bulletin Is Available From Agent On Management Of Mineral Rights

A research report now available at the office of County Agent Lewis C. Herron attempts to answer some of the problems Texas landowners encounter in managing their mineral rights. "Private Landowners" is the title of a publication issued jointly by the agricultural experiment stations in 13 states where mineral rights usually are a consideration in land ownership.

Information and guiding principles are so outlined that a landowner may answer for himself such questions as: How may I lease my land to best advantage? Should I sell some of my subsurface rights and at what price? Should I reserve mineral rights when I sell my land? Under what conditions should I buy land with no mineral rights or with only part of them? Management of mineral rights is a growing problem, with 33 per cent of all land in the 13 states under oil or gas lease in 1954. Texas alone had 72 million acres under lease. Income from subsurface rights in the 13 states since 1950 amounted to about 3 per cent of the annual gross cash income from agricultural production. The researchers point out that in many lease situations the landowners should obtain legal advice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindbergh Green of Dalton, Ga., arrived Sunday for an indefinite stay with the John Jones children. Jones, caretaker at the First Baptist Church, is a patient in the Veterans Hospital at Waco. His sister, Mrs. Green, will care for the children and her husband will assume duties as church caretaker until Jones is able to go back to work.

BIRTH OF AN ANGEL

They call her an angel of mercy. And they mean it! Just ask the ones who have depended on her in a time of fear and pain.

How did she become an angel of mercy? Was she born to be a nurse . . . or did she just happen to decide that would be a good profession?

She decided. But she didn't just happen to decide! It grew within her—this yearning to help others.

It began one day in church school. Was it the lesson of the Good Samaritan—or one of the others? The idea thrived on many an inspiring sermon. Then one day it became a conviction . . . something to pray about . . . to plan for.

Today she is a wonderful nurse. Tomorrow she'll be a loving wife . . . an understanding mother. You see, she's not unusual, this girl. She is simply a girl whose Church helped her find God's challenge in her life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farmer Shrinks Fast Bake Enormous Bite

built-in maid service on our grocery shelves may be a big boon to time-saving for today's housewife, but it has been a big factor in making the food process cost more than the food itself.

Ten years ago the farmer got more than half—53 cents to be exact—of every retail food dollar. Today his share has shrunk to a miserable 39 cents, little more than a third of the total, and 3 cents less than it was only a year ago.

The lion's portion, or 61 cents out of every food dollar, goes to the "middlemen," those who take charge of the foodstuffs after the "preliminary" stage of raising them is completed. And while the service of the middleman is generally essential in bringing food from the farmer's market to the food store in good condition, his fancy labels often save little time while costing a lot more money.

I doubt that the average housewife can thaw out a package of frozen french-fried potatoes and have them on the table any quicker than if she took paring knife in hand and went to work. Most women can cut up a potato while the grease is getting hot. Yet this little built-in convenience can cost you more than the potato itself is worth and put the cash conveniently into the middleman's pocket.

Of course, frozen food processes are the best means we've ever had for enjoying the food we like whether in season or not, and without danger of spoilage. But when the housewife selects a package of in-season vegetables from the frozen food counter, she's not helping herself much, and certainly not the food budget.

The housewife can avoid buying the box and getting the beans thrown in incidentally by sensible marketing. But what about the farmer? Unfortunately, a saving to the housewife is not a saving to the food grower, nor is it a detriment. Any price decline is customarily passed on from farmer to housewife.

However, farm prices since November 1954 have declined 10 per cent while the middlemen have dropped their prices only 2 per cent. This could mean that the price of the food itself is secondary to processing costs. Surely this is being unrealistic.

Recent Congressional legislation provides funds for a mandatory study by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to find out if middlemen are reaping undue profits at the farmers' expense.

If this is even partially true, then we might expect the presently unrelated, on-the-farm and in-the-store prices to resolve into more money for the farmers, a reasonable profit to processors and food-handlers, and finally a saving to the consumer.

He is serving his second year as president of the Post Classroom Teachers Association and is also a member of the Texas State Teachers Association. He served as 8th grade sponsor during the time he taught in the high school building.

Usrey says that in his opinion the new language arts system affords more time for teaching, as well as enabling the teacher to better correlate the different studies, which are English, spelling, reading and writing.

Lack of interest of some of the students in their subjects is seen by Usrey as the principal drawback to effective teaching.

"The teachers would have a much easier time of it if the students would just show more enthusiasm for and interest in their subjects," he said.

Usrey is continuing work toward his master's degree by attending classes at Texas Tech two nights a week and on Saturdays. That doesn't leave much time for his favorite pastimes, which are reading and copper-tooling. His hobbies at one time also included watercolor painting and the piano.

POSTEX MILLS

By A. LEE WARD

We really appreciate the spirit that some of our people have in their efforts of trying to be present for work, regardless of the weather conditions. We hear that Opal Norman, who lives on a farm north of Post, walked through the snow Monday morning and then was able to catch a ride on to the mill in order to be at work.

The management sincerely appreciates the fact that only a small minority of people were absent due to weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crispin have returned to their home in Kermit after visiting their son Pete and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Williams and Quay were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Pennell and family Sunday.

For all the ladies in the sewing room that have not been getting a full work week please bear with us a little longer and we believe we will have enough cloth available to keep everyone busy on a full week basis.

Mrs. Ross Sullivan attended funeral services for her brother-in-law, James E. McDaniel, in Houston last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hodges attended a "42" party in the home of O. G. Hamilton Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fluit, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howard and children visited in the Carl Fluit home Monday night.

Mrs. B. E. Nymas of Annapolis, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Dove Belles and daughter of San Diego, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Ida Robinson and other relatives.

Mrs. Dan R. Mitchell was not able to return to work this week; she is still under doctor's care following a tonsillectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winkler of Belen, N. M., visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor last Thursday.

We have in our sewing room at Postex a very conscientious and reliable inspector. She has proved this by serving us faithfully since 1938. Her name is Vera Ferguson. We hope that we continue to have Vera with us for a long time and that we have other people that will follow the pattern that Vera has set since 1938.

Although we did not have much news to report after the weekend, we were happy that not very many tried to go visiting because the roads were very hazardous and we do not want to lose any of our people.

All Easements In For Road Project

All right-of-way easements are in for construction of a five-mile farm-to-market road from U. S. Highway 289 to the Verbena community. County Judge Pat N. Walker said Tuesday. Contract on the job is expected to be let in April.

The new road, which will be in Commissioner's Precinct 3, will cost approximately $40,000. Upon its completion it will be maintained by the Texas Highway Department.

Judge Walker said right-of-way for the project was purchased with funds left over from the $30,000 bond issue voted several months ago in the precinct. All except about $5,000 of the bond issue was used in purchasing right-of-way for the recently-completed farm-to-market road between Post and Calgary.

Earl Rogers Attends Management Meeting Of Tractor Dealers

Earl Rogers of Garza Tractor & Implement Co., Ford tractor and implement dealer here, has just returned from Dallas where he attended a one-day management meeting conducted by top officials of the Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Co.

Rogers said the Ford officials, led by Irving A. Duffy, Ford vice president and general manager of the Division, and Merritt D. Hill, assistant general manager, brought dealers up to date on 1956 merchandising and product developments.

The Ford tractor and implement dealers discussed sales and service plans for the expending line of Ford farm products, and saw several of the new implements that will be on sale in this area in the near future, Rogers said.

Store Remodeling Is Slowed By Weather

The inclement weather of the last few days has slowed the remodeling program at the Piggy Wiggly Store, according to Paul Jones, manager.

Progress to date, however, has included installation of 64 frozen food cases, and installation of 38 feet of new market cases was under way Tuesday night.

The improvement program includes construction of a parking area just east of the store.

Development Project Staked North Of Post

Bond Oil Corp. of Big Spring has set stake for a development project in the two-well Forbes-Glorieta pool of Crosby County and 15 miles north of Post.

Designated the No. 2 Robertson, the venture locates 1,980 feet north and 660 feet east of the same firm's No. 1 Robertson, Glorieta opener for the area.

The venture is in the extreme southwestern portion of the county, approximately three-quarters of a mile north of the Garza-Crosby County line.

Operator holds an 80-acre lease on which the project will be dug. The opening of the field brought in the first commercial oil production in Crosby County when the discovery well was finished last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bergman and sons of Louisville, Ky., spent Thursday night and Friday with their aunts, Mrs. Eva Bailey and Mrs. Ella West.

News From Around

POSTEX MILLS

By A. LEE WARD

We really appreciate the spirit that some of our people have in their efforts of trying to be present for work, regardless of the weather conditions. We hear that Opal Norman, who lives on a farm north of Post, walked through the snow Monday morning and then was able to catch a ride on to the mill in order to be at work.

The management sincerely appreciates the fact that only a small minority of people were absent due to weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crispin have returned to their home in Kermit after visiting their son Pete and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Williams and Quay were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Pennell and family Sunday.

For all the ladies in the sewing room that have not been getting a full work week please bear with us a little longer and we believe we will have enough cloth available to keep everyone busy on a full week basis.

Mrs. Ross Sullivan attended funeral services for her brother-in-law, James E. McDaniel, in Houston last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hodges attended a "42" party in the home of O. G. Hamilton Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fluit, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howard and children visited in the Carl Fluit home Monday night.

Mrs. B. E. Nymas of Annapolis, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Dove Belles and daughter of San Diego, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Ida Robinson and other relatives.

Mrs. Dan R. Mitchell was not able to return to work this week; she is still under doctor's care following a tonsillectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winkler of Belen, N. M., visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor last Thursday.

We have in our sewing room at Postex a very conscientious and reliable inspector. She has proved this by serving us faithfully since 1938. Her name is Vera Ferguson. We hope that we continue to have Vera with us for a long time and that we have other people that will follow the pattern that Vera has set since 1938.

Although we did not have much news to report after the weekend, we were happy that not very many tried to go visiting because the roads were very hazardous and we do not want to lose any of our people.

All Easements In For Road Project

All right-of-way easements are in for construction of a five-mile farm-to-market road from U. S. Highway 380 to the Verbena community, County Judge Pat N. Walker said Tuesday. Contract on the job is expected to be let in April.

The new road, which will be in Commissioner's Precinct 3, will cost approximately $40,000. Upon its completion it will be maintained by the Texas Highway Department.

Judge Walker said right-of-way for the project was purchased with funds left over from the $30,000 bond issue voted several months ago in the precinct. All except about $5,000 of the bond issue was used in purchasing right-of-way for the recently-completed farm-to-market road between Post and Kalgary.

Earl Rogers Attends Management Meeting Of Tractor Dealers

Earl Rogers of Garza Tractor & Implement Co., Ford tractor and implement dealer here, has just returned from Dallas where he attended a one-day management meeting conducted by top officials of the Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Co.

Rogers said the Ford officials, led by Irving A. Duffy, Ford vice president and general manager of the Division, and Merritt D. Hill, assistant general manager, brought dealers up to date on 1956 merchandising and product developments.

The Ford tractor and implement dealers discussed sales and service plans for the expanding line of Ford farm products, and saw several of the new implements that will be on sale in this area in the near future, Rogers said.

Store Remodeling Is Slowed By Weather

The inclement weather of the last few days has slowed the remodeling program at the Piggly Wiggly Store, according to Paul Jones, manager.

Progress to date, however, has included installation of 64 frozen food cases, and installation of 38 feet of new market cases was under way Tuesday night. The improvement program includes construction of a parking area just east of the store.

Development Project Staked North Of Post

Bond Oil Corp. of Big Spring has set stake for a development project in the two-well Forbes-Glorieta pool of Crosby County and 15 miles north of Post.

Designated the No. 2 Robertson, the venture locates 1,980 feet north and 660 feet east of the same firm's No. 1 Robertson, Glorieta opener for the area.

The venture is in the extreme southwestern portion of the county, approximately three-quarters of a mile north of the Garza-Crosby County line.

Operator holds an 80-acre lease on which the project will be dug. The opening of the field brought in the first commercial oil production in Crosby County when the discovery well was finalized last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bergman and sons of Louisville, Ky., spent Thursday night and Friday with their aunts, Mrs. Eva Bailey and Mrs. Ella West.
