

New Precinct 3 liquor vote set for Saturday, July 8

Close election seen, drives not yet started

All the fireworks won't come on July 4th this year for Post. Most of them are expected four days later on Saturday, July 8, when Precinct 3 voters will go to the polls again to decide whether to permit continued sale of legal liquor or "dry up" the local area again.

The Post County Commissioners Court Monday set the election for July 8 after approving a certified petition containing 57 signatures of precinct voters requesting the vote.

Texas liquor laws provide the commissioners' court must call such an election not less than 20 days and not later than 30 days after the petition is approved by the court.

ONLY 40 signatures, based on a required percentage of the number of precinct voters casting ballots in the governor's race in the last general election, are required.

But the petition-passers had 17 extra signatures over the total needed.

The question to be settled at the ballot box is simply "for or against the sale of all alcoholic beverages."

The first petition last month with 43 signatures failed for certification principally because of failure to attach affidavits by voters over 65 who are not required to pay a poll tax.

Such affidavits were attached to the petition this time.

THE COURT'S action was brief. Nobody appeared before the commissioners on the petition and a date was set once the court accepted the petition after certification had been made by County Clerk Carl Cederholm.

There are mixed feelings as to how the precinct will vote this time.

The "drys" claim they have the votes to "dry it up". The "wets", on the other hand, are saying it will "stay wet."

The outcome of the first precinct liquor election 14 months ago—April 9, 1960—came as a generally surprising victory for the wets by a 10-vote margin, 133 to 123.

In that election, the big box at the Lincoln school voted 121 to 109 for opening the precinct to legal liquor, including on premise consumption, while the smaller box at Verbena voted 17 to 12 for the precinct remaining "dry."

STREET TALK now is that some of the county's former bootleggers who voted wet last time may change their vote this time to get back in business.

The reaction of the precinct and the county to legal liquor has been varied. Some appear satisfied, others don't. Some contend they don't mind package stores but are opposed to the taverns.

When the precinct was opened to legal liquor last spring it was to serve a dry area of some 250,000 people—including Lubbock—and brought a rush and bustle to the Post area as some 19 liquor stores and a number of taverns opened in the precinct.

Highway traffic to Post from Lubbock was heavy.

But that has changed considerably now. A Slaton precinct has since voted wet—although the town of Slaton remains dry—and the big Lubbock business is going to new stores not far from the south city limits of Lubbock.

Several local liquor stores have been closed literally "moved away" since the Slaton precinct liquor vote due to the lack of business. But more than expected have stayed open and are still in business.

LEGAL LIQUOR'S arrival in the county in 1960 brought a beefed up law enforcement program, long sought here, to keep the situation under control.

That has stepped up all kinds of (See LIQUOR VOTE, page 8)

3.53 inches of rain by 7:45 a. m.

First 'soaker' in 11 months today

The biggest general rain to soak most of Garza County in at least 11 months brought what will probably total up to be well over a half-inch rain in Post in a matter of six or seven hours early today.

County Agent Lewis Herron waded out into the county court- house at 7:45 a. m. with the rain pouring down to measure 3.53 inches on the official local rain

There has been plenty for the local men folks to talk about over their coffee cups up and down the business district these mornings where the subject has changed from the weather for a starting point to what Norm Cash did in the lineup of the Detroit Tigers the day before. When Cash took over the batting and RBI leadership of the major leagues Wednesday and jumped to second on the homerun derby as well with a spree of six homeruns in four games, there was plenty to talk about. One businessman with an ear to the youth's prospective 1962 salary was saying that he ought to get $20,000 next year from the Tigers if he can hold his average to .255 by the season's end.

Troop 16 Boy Scouts had an extra chore in putting up the Main Street flags for Flag Day yesterday. They had almost half of them rolled in. So they hastened to roll them down again. When the cleanup was in mid-morning the Scouts were back putting up the flags. Some local businessmen probably thought they got a late start because they had them all down and were gone again by 8 a. m. on the first try.

Editor Charlie Didway is away on a week's vacation this week, leaving relatives in Oklahoma and other parts of Texas. Which means it does every year—that the Post of the Dispatch office staff had to pitch in and absorb Charlie's writing duties. We tried to give the same strong sports coverage as Charlie and were surprised to find yesterday that we had almost two sports pages instead of one. Anyway, what we missed out to say is this: If you find a few mistakes this week blame it on the lack of time. Careful Charlie wasn't here.

It was purely a "slip"—and an embarrassing one when The Dispatch on its front page sent Rev. Bruce Matthews off an Amarillo Baptist church" last week. We thought Gene got a chuckle out of that "buser" when he got his copy of The Dispatch up in Amarillo. (See POSTINGS, page 8)

Scout Troop 16 holds court of honor Monday

Boy Scout Troop 16 held a Court of Honor Monday night in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Frank "Chief" Runkles, Camp Post Ranger, presented Tenderfoot awards in colorful ceremonies to Richard Hart, Bill Cates, Walter Johnson, Wesley Morris and Bobby Beavers.

Wayne Runkles presented merit badges to Curtis Hudman, Pioneering and Camping; J. O. Smith, Cooking; John L. Sutter, Pioneering and Citizenship in the Home, and Raymond Shaw, Pioneering.

Dr. B. E. Young presented Finis Corley with his Second Class award and Daniel Johnson with his First Class award.

Eighteen boys of Troop 16 made their shakedown camp for summer camp at Camp Tres Ritos last Sunday. The Scouts set up camp and cooked one meal, and checked equipment.

Troop 16 would like to thank Ed Sims for the use of his truck and Doug Buchanan for the use of his land.

Nath Little helped Bob West with the camp.

Graham plans benefit for air-conditioner

There will be an old-fashioned get-together ice cream and "42" party at the Graham Community Center Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy lots of ice cream and fun.

Admission of $1 will be charged for each family with proceeds going in on the air-conditioner in the dining room of the Center.

The Graham Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring the party and members are to bring a freezer of ice cream or a cake.

Make plans now to attend and have a very enjoyable evening.

Construction on super market begun

Three building permits have been issued at City Hall during the past several days, the largest of which went to Wallace Simpson for the construction of a supermarket at the corner of 10th Street and North Broadway.

The building which will cost $40,000, is being built by Elbert Davies, contractor, and will be of steel and tile for fireproof construction.

Another permit went to Murry Crowley for repairing his house at 905 West 11th, which was damaged when the roof "blew off" during last week's storm. Cost was not estimated for the permit.

The third permit was issued R. V. Dudgeon for the construction of a 14x32 building at the rear of his residence at 301 West 3th. The building will have two rooms and a bath and cost was listed at $1,500.

Some progress for White River dam

The Texas board of water engineers has completed checking engineering plans for the pipelines from the proposed White River dam to the four member cities and now is busy completing an approval check of engineering plans on the dam itself.

The state agency has been looking over the plans for the last seven weeks and approval is expected shortly, Tom Bouchier, head of the White River directors, said today. Bouchier was in Fort Worth last week inquiring as to progress by the agency.

White River directors will hold their June session tonight in Spur, Bouchier said.

Bouchier said that the attorney-general cannot approve the bonds for sale until the engineering plans have been approved.

The bonds then will be advertised for sale to any interested private buyers in the hopes of obtaining a lower interest rate than the 4.06 per cent offered by the state water board.

White River directors held a special meeting recently at which a Kansas City firm offered to build the dam and pipeline in a "turn-key job" as well as purchase the bonds. White River directors refused to commit themselves to such a proposition in advance.

Civil cases are settled here

The district court went back into session here Wednesday afternoon on a civil jury case a Federal District Judge Trest Smith reported disposal of nine of the 12 cases set down for hearing at this time.

Settled out of court were John F. Lett vs. Adrain O. Cook, suit on note; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cantrell vs. Stekoll Oil Co.; Loyd W. Farmer vs. Standard Insurance Co., workmen's compensation case; Robert Herman Herring vs. Travelers Insurance Company, workmen's compensation case, and C. J. Lewis vs. Pennsylvania Insurance Co., suit.

Dismissed were William B. Smith vs. Texas Employers Insurance Association, compensation case; and John Shepherd vs. Texas Employers Insurance Association, compensation case.

Non-suit was entered by plaintiff in the George Sartain vs. Calude Sartain, et al, suit for specific performance.

Sherman C. Ivie's damage suit against Wiley Hill and Elwood Nelson, was continued, as was Ronnie McAnear vs. Texas Employers Insurance Association, another compensation case.

Court opened Monday and then was recessed until Wednesday afternoon.

Two cases were set for hearing.

High school students only for 1961-62 PHS band

In a busy three-hour June session Friday night, Post Independent School District trustees decided to have Band Director Robert Meisch "re-figure" his request for $5,152.50 for new instruments and repair and $2,900 for 31 new band uniforms on the basis of a high school band including only high school students.

Meisch in a written report to the board reported a prospective 1961-62 band of 93 pieces with 34 of them eighth graders, according to those who have signed up in advance for band.

Taking out the 34 eighth graders would leave a prospective band of 59 of high school students, 31 of them freshmen.

In a host of other actions, trustees approved the hiring of three new teachers, approved purchase of new curtains for the grade school auditorium stage and the high school speech room stage, reemployed school bus drivers except for one vacancy created by a resignation the board accepted, eased up on high school requirements for those taking the college preparatory course to give students more choice of electives, and adopted a set of rules and regulations concerning extra-curricular activities for the coming school year.

IN HIS REPORT on band needs, Director Meisch asked the board for the purchase of 13 new band instruments at a cost of $3,855, and the summer repair of nine other instruments at a cost of $597.50.

Plans shaping up for Junior Rodeo

The Post Junior Rodeo Association is negotiating the Ruten Rodeo Co. of Happy, Tex., to be the producers for the 1961 Junior Rodeo here July 28-29 as a result of a meeting of the association Monday night in the courthouse.

Junior officers of the association for this year's rodeo were elected and Junior directors named.

Some committee assignments were made, but are not being announced until all committees are completed.

The Ruten Rodeo Co. of Happy was the producer of last weekend's rodeo at Slaton and of the Level-land rodeo.

Wayne McFaddin is the new junior president of the Junior Rodeo Association and J. W. Basinger, vice-president, Kelly Jo Myers was elected secretary and Curtis Steel, arena director.

Other directors elected Monday night were Richard Hart, Jerry Ligon, Minnie Leo Mathis, Don Richardson, Ricky Little, Ronnie Hart, Jerry Thuet, and Clark Cowdry.

In another action taken at Monday night's meeting, a new event was added to the rodeo program for the 1961 rodeo—steer riding for boys, 12 years and under.

Boys events for the 1961 rodeo, as decided upon at the session, also include flag race, pole bending for (See JR. RODEO, page 8)

New picnic units installed in park

The beautiful city-county park is now ready for the summer picnic season.

Six new concrete tables and benches, each with its individual metal barbecue grill, have been completed in the last week to accommodate up to 60 picnickers in real outdoor comfort on the north lake shore.

Each picnic table is built on a concrete platform to keep them high and dry during the shower seasons. Not only that but the benches and tables slope off to the south to give quick drainage after any showers.

The metal barbecue grills at each table are mounted on posts in the concrete base. Each has adjustable cooking levels.

S. E. Camp, park board chairman, also announced today that next week six 32-gallon trash cans will be mounted in a rack now under construction especially for the picnic area so that picnic debris can be quickly disposed of. The city sanitation department will make daily pickups if necessary.

Next on the park improvement agenda will be two water fountains—one in the picnic area and the other in the playground area.

Camp also planned this year is the planting of several more shade trees on the west edge of the picnic area so that within a few years the picnic tables will be in the afternoon shade.

The city-county park, now entering its fourth year of joint operation, has come along so well that the park development today is at (See PICNIC UNITS, page 8)

New Methodist pastor arrives

The new pastor of the First Methodist Church, the Rev. Oscar Bruce, arrived in Post Thursday with his wife, Irene, and preached his first sermon here Sunday.

Rev. Bruce has been serving Methodist churches in this Texas conference for the last 27 years. He came to Post from Haskell, where he had been pastor of four years in a church about the same size as the local one.

Previously he had pastorates at Knox City, Ralls, Bovina, Adrian and Groom.

The Bruces have two sons, Gene, 21, and Joe, 20, both of whom have been attending McMurry College in Abilene, and one daughter, Carolyn, 18, who was graduated from high school this spring and is currently attending McMurry.

Joe is in Post with his parents and Gene is in the harvest on the north plains.

Rev. Bruce told The Dispatch yesterday that "we're going to like Post fine."

Big county barbecue here in park July 4

Garza county is all set for its first fourth of July celebration in many years. It will be a county-wide barbecue, sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce, in the city-county park.

Chamber Manager Johnny Hopkins says enough food is being prepared to serve 2,500 people.

Serving will begin promptly at noon on the Fourth of July with the park instead of the 4-H building across the lake being the scene of the festivities for this event.

The big Fourth of July barbecue replaces several each year the Chamber has sponsored in the past and gives the community something special for the Fourth of July.

No tickets will be necessary, just come and eat and enjoy yourself. That's the word from Chamber Manager Hopkins.

Plans for the barbecue were virtually completed last week at the Chamber directors' June session.

The Chamber recently completed building a second and larger barbecue pit in the park to permit all the hundreds of pounds of beef to be barbecued at one time.

There'll be a string band to provide some music and a sound truck to help with the announcements.

It will be a real time for everybody to get together, Hopkins said. "And remember," he added, "everyone in the county is invited."

He had no idea how many will be on hand but the Chamber figures to be ready to serve barbecue beef and all the trimmings to some 2,500 persons.

"Incidentally," Johnny says, "I hope nobody is planning on using the barbecue pits for the holiday because we'll have them pretty busy—and probably the park pretty full."

The swimming pool is expected to do a rushing business too.

A fresh start on a new year

On today's masthead on the front page, unnoticed probably by all but newspapermen, you'll find The Dispatch listed as the No. 1 edition of this newspaper's 35th year of publication.

And with it, we start our fifth year of publication of this community's newspaper.

It's a time, we think, for a restatement of this newspaper's aims and a rededication to continue our efforts through good days and bad to make this the best possible paper for all our over 2,000 readers.

We believe in editorial crusading for needed community goals. A county library, which won't be easy to come by, is our current major project in this field. We remind you of it often enough to keep it in the community's mind. We try to present it constructively. It will come into reality when enough of our readers agree with us—and work together to achieve it.

We believe in printing all the news, fairly and accurately. We don't bat 1,000 per cent but the failing is due more to time than to effort and none by design.

We believe in boosting and building a better

Post. In setting community goals and striving to achieve them, in supporting those who seek such goals.

We believe in giving local merchants our full support and in boosting trading at home for all our betterment.

Newspapering, like most others, is no easy business. It's a community business as well as a private business and we try our best to run it as such.

We are not always right and we appreciate constructive criticism.

We like to hear from our readers and enjoy printing their opinions. We welcome, at all times, letters to the editor for publication, providing they are of reasonable length, signed, and not libelous.

As we start our fifth year and the 35th for this newspaper, we want to make a fresh start. We want to give our readers the best possible paper. We ask only your support and the support of the merchant, because newspapers striving to be good newspapers cost a great deal more money to produce than poor newspapers. —JC.

Plea for dog law enforcement

Passage of the new dog ordinance by the City Council won't, in itself, solve Post's stupendous stray dog nuisance problem, but strict enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will.

More desirable, however, than the necessity of enforcing the ordinance is the cooperation of pet owners themselves, which, if received as near 100 per cent as possible will make enforcement unnecessary.

Anyone who thinks enough of a dog to keep it, certainly should be willing to have the animal vaccinated against rabies and to see that the dog doesn't make a community nuisance of itself, even if it means having to keep the animal penned.

Stray dogs, and in using the description "stray," we're referring to pets that leave their owner's premises, constitute a number of hazards, the chief of which is a health hazard through the threat of rabies. And, even non-rabid dogs, often are a threat to small children. Dogs, especially when they travel in packs, also can be destructive to flower beds, lawns, shrubbery, etc. Most of the complaints heard at The Dispatch office on stray dogs is in connection with their destruction of flower beds.

No town or city should be without a dog ordinance unless it literally wants to "go to the dogs." But an ordinance that can't be or won't be enforced is no better than no ordinance at all.

The City of Post is to be commended on passage of the new dog ordinance as an answer to the dozens of complaints it has received in recent months on dogs running at large. Even more worthy of commendation, however, will be the strict enforcement of the ordinance, regardless of whose dog is involved.—CD.

Tree damage suggests project

Probably the biggest loss to Post in the June 5 storm was the damage to hundreds of local trees.

They are not covered under storm insurance policies. Nor can they be easily replaced. Nature takes years and years to do the job.

Hundreds of local trees were damaged by the big blow. Some were split or blown entirely down. Others were pulled loose by the roots and will probably die.

The extensive tree damage comes to a community which finds trees growing for shade and beauty no easy matter. They take care and plenty of water, and, at the head of "magnolia alley" as West Texas is called, there is always the danger of the big wind which can undo all the cost and care in a few brief seconds.

As the sanitation department trucks haul away the tree debris from the storm, it might be a good time to stop and consider a bigger and better job of tree promotion here.

A real community service from a service club point of view would be promotion of a tree nursery here next spring as a club project in which hundreds of trees could be sold in a few days and proper instructions for planting and care given.

In the bigger cities, civic clubs use Christmas tree sales lots for fund raising. Why not sell growing trees instead which will serve a far greater purpose?

With all the local building, it's high time we did our best with a city-wide tree planting campaign here.—JC.

No life and death matter

It takes grown-ups to keep juvenile sports and activities going, but if programs such as Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball are going to be operated in the manner they were intended to be, then that is about all that can be said for adult participation.

Victory in these youngsters' baseball games should not become the life and death matter that some adults seem to think it is. Undue emphasis is being placed on winning, and some of the adults place heavy responsibility on little fellows who should be playing for fun.

Moreover, the teaching of sportsmanship is the most important thing in these kids' baseball games, and sportsmanship certainly isn't being taught when the youngsters are forced to stop their game and witness incidents such as the fight between two adults—one an umpire—at a recent Babe Ruth League game here.

Even those of us who do not have sons playing in the program get excited—sometimes overly so—during the game. That, of course, is a part of baseball—the national pastime—and is what makes it one of the greatest sports there is. But we can become excited without losing our self-control, and if we feel that an umpire should be "rode" to a fare-you-well, we should pick out one that it getting paid for his services—which the Little League and Babe Ruth League umpires are not.—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

An ex-legislator from East Texas, a self-admitted politician, gave us the following definition: "A politician is like a cockroach. It is not what they eat or tote off that makes them so costly and annoying, it's what they fall into and mess up." This same man said that every night for a week he had dreamed about getting out of politics. He told his wife about his dreams and asked her if she thought the dreams had any significance. Her answer was, "Yes, I do. They do when you are awake."—A. Pato in The Hush show you have more sense when asleep than you feel Free Press.

from his Spanish class. His throat is so sore he can hardly speak English.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

Migrant dreams build their campfires from the debris of reality and carry small torches from one to another as tokens of ambition. As the shadows of life lengthen they move farther away to become lost amid the small stars on the horizon.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

The Republicans are jubilant over getting Mr. Tower to Washington. However, he would probably be wise not to buy a home there. A trailer house might be more appropriate.—Pat Bennett in Crosbyton Review.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

STORM CELLARS here got quite a workout when the windstorm hit early last week, but some people found out that even a storm can't buck City Hall.

That's where I was when the storm hit—sitting in on a city council meeting. While other folks were scurrying to storm cellars, the mayor, city councilmen, other city officials and your reporter had the "business as usual" sign out in the city council meeting room.

EVEN THE ARRIVAL of Deputy City Marshal Sam Price to inform the gathering that a tornado had been sighted "up on the hill" failed to disrupt the meeting. There were only a few interruptions and most of those were telephone calls from anxious families of some of the city officials.

The lights blinked out four or five times while City Attorney Carlton P. Webb was reading a rather lengthy dog ordinance, which the city council was about to adopt. Each time, everyone sat quietly around the council table until the lights came back on and the city attorney resumed his reading of the "Declaration of War" on dogs.

THE MORAL OF the story, I suppose, is that in numbers there not only is strength, but there is also courage. If any one of us had been sitting at the council table alone with such a severe storm blowing outside, we'd more than likely have panicked.

My friend up the street says the trouble with being punctual is that there's nobody there to appreciate it.

WALTER LEE JOHNSON, manager of Forrest Lumber Company, receives a semi-monthly magazine, "The Gulf Coast Lumberman," which has an intriguing and amusing Fun, Facts and Philosophy page. A current issue of the magazine contains this piece on "Pity the Association Secretary":

If he writes a letter, it's too long.

If he sends a postcard, it's too short.

If he doesn't send any notices, he's worthless.

If he attends committee meetings, he's butting in.

If he stays away, he's a shirker and a slacker.

If he dumps the members for dues, he's insulting.

If he fails to collect dues, he's slipping.

If he asks for advice, he's not competent.

If he doesn't, he's bull-headed.

If he writes complete reports, they're too long.

If he condenses them, they're incomplete.

If he talks on a subject, he's trying to run things.

If he remains quiet, he has lost interest completely.

If he works in the office, he's neglecting the members.

If he's on the street, he's not attending to business.

SO WHAT THE HELLZEE TO DO?

Johnny Hopkins probably would agree that the above piece applies to Chamber of Commerce managers as well as to association secretaries.

"FOLKS" is a bright little booklet published monthly for newspaper correspondents—"The Helpmate of the Newspaper Correspondent" it is called. Sponsored by The Post Dispatch and the Texas Press Association, a copy of this booklet is sent each of our correspondents. One of the monthly features of the booklet is the "Hidden Rule," in which correspondents are invited to unscramble rules applying to their work. Our Justinburg correspondent, Vivian McWhirt, has had her name published in "Folks", a number of times as one of the Hidden Rule unscramblers. This month's Hidden Rule, for example, is unscrambled as follows: "Tavernica, beciyou, dan snipertecce, rae beet siatleens, terischarantica a spenape, porocretoma." Unscramble it and you'll have: "Courtesy, curiosity, and persistence are three essential characteristics of a newspaper correspondent."

Texas Cowboy Reunion head is one of best known cowboys

STAMFORD—If all West Texas met into a huddle and came out with its best known cowhand, it would likely be Scandalous John Selmon, a Swenson Land & Cattle Co. man for more than 55 years and arena director of Stamford's Texas Cowboy Reunion for more than 30.

Scandalous started working for Old Espuela (Spur) Land & Cattle Co. near Dickens City in 1900 and when Swenson bought it in 1939, he inherited "me" he said, talking with the low soft drawl of a man accustomed to outdoor life, where a voice will carry a quarter mile. "I ain't missed a brandin' for over 60 years—an I cut seven Clayback colts this mornin'—an since it looks like rain I got to go put em under a shed—I don wnta loose any them young hawkes."

Questioned as to what Claybacks were, he advised they were light colored dunn, with a special red or black stripe down their tail and mane. It seems that the best specialists had been the late John and Merrick Davis of Albany and Scandalous John. "Highest one I ever sold only brought $1250, he reminisced—but later on it sold for $3,500 and took a lotta ribbons in Illinois.

John is the nephew of the famous John Selmon (Colleague of Bat Masterson) who left old Ft. Griffin by "skippin outta the can". He was later U. S. Marshal at El Paso and had trouble with John Wesley Hardin back at the turn of the century.

Questioned as to his age, Scandalous John never batted an eye, but looking possibly 50 said "come July 2nd, I'll be 77—then with a chuckle—and it may be durin' Stamford's Cowboy Reunion. "But that's the day I aim to take a drink."

A cow must produce 6,000 pounds or more milk annually just to pay for feed and overhead.

JOHN SELMON

RESCUE DEMONSTRATION is put on by the Chicago Civil Defense Fire and Rescue Service for Robert S. Ritz (left), new Illinois Civil Defense Agency training officer, who is gathering material for a new civil defense rescue course. The demonstration shows how a man caught under a heavy object can be rescued. With Ritz is Charles J. Johnson, volunteer chief of the Fire and Rescue Service, which is on call 24 hours a day. The CD workers frequently go into action with the Chicago Fire Department. Ritz's salary is paid 50-50 by the Illinois and Federal governments under a new program to strengthen state and local civil defense for greater effectiveness. (OCDM Photo)

State Fair plans music exposition

DALLAS — The 1961 State Fair of Texas will have an "Exposition of Music" theme. Dates of the Fair are Oct. 7-22.

Musical events of all types from classical to jazz will be highlighted at the 1961 State Fair to carry out the exposition theme.

Every high school band in the state will be invited to participate in some way. College and university bands, orchestras, choruses and similar groups will also be encouraged to give performances at the Fair.

A big feature of the 1961 Fair will be a spectacular parade around the fairgrounds each evening. The parade will include elaborate illuminated floats carrying out the musical theme, in addition to bands and other marching units.

Some 32 cities and towns throughout a 200-mile area will be offered the opportunity to participate in the parade, with two cities each night due to be honored with its local queen riding on the town float and its high school band included in the line of march.

Among major musical events planned for the "Exposition of Music" are a Gospel Singing Festival, old fiddlers contest, the annual Texas Music Festival sponsored by the Texas Music Educators Association, a Circus Night in the Cotton Bowl, a special children's concert, a pageant saluting "East Texas on Parade" and a college

Many factors in land purchase contracts favor buyer, seller

COLLEGE STATION—Due to the high initial investment and large amount of operating capital required, more and more young people are having greater difficulty entering the farming business. These potential farmers may have the necessary capital for one of these expenses, but not enough for both. C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, says that land purchase contracts, or deferred payment contracts as they are sometimes called, are being used increasingly to overcome this obstacle.

There are many factors in land contracts that favor both buyer and

Post soldier at Fort Sill, Okla.

FORT SILL — Army Pvt. Alex R. Magallanez, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro G. Magallanez, Post, Tex., is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual training at The Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla. The training is scheduled to end June 16.

Magallanez is being trained in the duties of a cannoneer with the 105-millimeter howitzer, a light field artillery weapon.

He entered the Army last March. Magallanez attended Luling High School and was employed by Burlington Industries before entering the Army.

jazz concert. An appropriate tie-in with the "Exposition of Music" is the show to be presented in State Fair Music Hall during the 1961 Fair. This will be the Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway hit, "The Sound of Music," to be staged here by the national company. The popular "Ice Capades" also will include numerous musical themes.

Town and Country Church Conference scheduled June 19-21 at Texas A & M

COLLEGE STATION — "The Enduring Values of Town and Country Life" is the theme for the 16th annual Town and Country Church Conference scheduled for June 19-21. All sessions will be held in the Memorial Student Center at Texas A & M College.

According to Reagan Brown, rural sociologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and a member of the Conference Committee, attendance is expected to be near 200.

Two out-of-state speakers will be featured and each will make three program appearances. They are Dr. A. C. Bartholomew, Professor of Church and Community, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and Dr. C. H. Hamilton, North Carolina State College rural sociologist. Other speakers will include prominent church and lay leaders from over Texas and also Texas A & M College personnel.

Shifts in population, farm and small town community trends, the church's role in community life and the enduring values of rural living are among the major subjects to be discussed. Always a highlight of the annual conference is the naming of the Rural Minister of the Year. This will come at a luncheon on June 20, according to Brown.

The Rev. C. J. Freudenberg, United Church of Christ, Orange Grove is president of the Conference, Darwin Farmer, Baptist General Convention of Texas, Dallas, is vice president and Rev. Elias Rode, St. John's Lutheran Church, Paige, is secretary.

The American Hereford Association, with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., has announced among its recent Hereford sales the sale of 25 Hereford heifers by Bryan Williams of Post to M. G. Martin of Silverton.

Nigeria will embark on education projects costing $6.6 million with the aid of a U. S. grant.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

America's National "Open" champ is mighty like a Thunderbird!

One quick look at the beauty above . . . then one quick trick behind the wheel . . . and you'll know why the '61 Ford Sunliner is America's all-time, top-down, favorite convertible.

Here's a special brand of magic-in-motion that's a Ford exclusive . . . yours to command in the car that got its thunder from the fabulous Thunderbird. Caged under that sleek hood is a mighty Thunderbird V-8 engine . . . created by the world's foremost maker of V-8's. The Sunliner's road-ruling punch is equaled only by the famous Thunderbird itself.

And like all '61 Fords, the fun-loving Sunliner is beautifully built to take care of itself. It goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications—4,000 miles between oil changes, its brakes adjust automatically . . . because the '61 Ford gives you features today that most other cars can only plan for the future.

Got an urge to surge ahead this summer . . . but saddled with a sluggish car? Then, it's time to STOP wasting money on tired transportation. SWAP your present car for a bustling new '61 Ford (and do it now while sales are at a 32-year high and trade-ins are way up). Start to SAVE tomorrow with the car that's built to take care of itself—the '61 Ford! read division, Ford Motor Company.

Today is the day to STOP . . . SWAP . . . SAVE

Barbara Blacklock, C. Rushing wed in double ring ceremony

Rev. Kenneth Leach, pastor of Central Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony that united Miss Barbara Blacklock and Charles Blacklock in marriage. The ceremony was held at 2:30 p. m. at the church. The bride and groom were exchanged at 2:30 p. m. at the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth Leach, pastor of Central Baptist Church. The bride and groom were exchanged at 2:30 p. m. at the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth Leach, pastor of Central Baptist Church.

MRS. CHARLES THOMAS RUSHING (Barbara Ellen Blacklock)

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over net and taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with an scalloped V neckline, short sleeves, and tapered to a point at the waistline. A row of tiny buttons accented the back, and the full flowing skirt featured panels of lace and tulle over taffeta. She wore lace and tulle gauntlets and a tiara of iridescent sequins and seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white Bible.

The bride also carried out the tradition of wearing something old, a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother; new, her bridal gown; borrowed, a white Bible, and a blue garter.

Miss Gloria Blacklock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a sheath dress of light aqua taffeta with an overskirt of aqua net. The bodice was styled with a bateau neckline. She carried a single white rose and a white Bible.

Mrs. Fern Adams of Stanton and Mrs. Janet Porterfield of Grassland, sister of the bride, were her other attendants. They wore dresses of aqua polished cotton, styled like that of the maid of honor. They also carried white roses and white Bibles.

Glenda and Linda Adams of Stanton, twin nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Harold D. Crawford of Williamsport, Pa.

Ushers were Carroll Dean Blacklock of Miles, cousin of the bride, and Buster Adams of Stanton, brother of the bride.

Wedding music was provided when Miss Frances Barron sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer". She was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Leach.

A reception followed at the church's fellowship hall, where the table was laid with white lace over aqua and centered with a floral arrangement. Members of the houseparty were Miss Anne Harmon, Miss Diane Brooks, and Mmes. Glenn Dale Wheatley, Will Teaff, W. H. Childs, Barrie Jones, R. H. Sappington, A. G. Gage, Robert Craig, Douglas Tipton, A. M. Smith and Thurman Maddox.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico and Mississippi, Mrs. Rushing chose a turquoise linen suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

They will be at home at 803 N. Van Buren, San Angelo.

Needlecraft Club has interesting roll call Friday

Members of the Needlecraft Club answered roll call last Friday with "How I Met My Husband" with Mrs. M. J. Malouf telling how she met her husband and spent a seven month honeymoon before coming to the United States from her native Lebanon, and eventually to settle in Post.

Mrs. Nell McCrary told the club members how she met her husband while attending school in the East and he was a student at Annapolis in Maryland.

The club met at the home of Mrs. J. Lee Bowen.

Other entertainment for the afternoon included several songs by Marsha Ward, granddaughter of Mrs. Bowen.

Refreshments of desert salad, wafers, cake, nuts and tea were served to 15 members and several guests.

Members attending were Mmes. F. C. Barker, Ester Bird, B. F. Evans, F. A. Gilley, Carl Jones, T. L. Jones, Jack Kennedy, M. J. Malouf, Neil McCrary, S. C. Storey, Sr., Julius Tanner, Lillian Tizart, Mae Voss, Will Wright, J. C. Warren, Tom Gates, M. H. Hutto, and Max Ward and children.

Mrs. Louie Burkes honored at coffee Monday morning

One hundred guests called Monday morning at the Community Room of the First National Bank for a coffee in honor of Mrs. Louie Burkes, who recently moved here with her husband and family from Calhoun Falls, S. C. Burkes is head of Postex Mills.

Guests called from 10 until 11:30 o'clock.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. James Minor, Mrs. Boy Hart, Mrs. James Matthews, Mrs. A. Lee Ward, and Mrs. Powell Shytles.

The refreshment table was laid in white linen. An arrangement of daisies with clusters of blue grapes formed the centerpiece, and blue napkins imprinted in gold with "Helen Burkes" completed the table decor.

Coffee, sweet rolls, minuts and pineapple were served.

Members of the house party were:

Mrs. Larry Hopkins, Mrs. Carl Adams, Mrs. Dick Tanner, Mrs. Speck Bowling, Mrs. Warren Stockton, Mrs. Jack Ballentine, Mrs. V. H. Anderson, Mrs. Clyde Knowles, Mrs. Gerald Bradley, Mrs. Jim Hays, and Mrs. Don Marth.

PIONEER GAS LIGHT

New 'Pioneer' gas light introduced with dual mantle

A new line of dual-mantle gas lights is being introduced throughout the area served by Pioneer Natural Gas Company, officials of the company have announced.

Manufactured by Bruest, Inc., one of the country's major producers of gas lights, the new light has been named "The Pioneer" as a result of improvements suggested by Pioneer Natural Gas Company. The major innovation is a distinctive dual-mantle which increases the amount of soft, diffused illumination characteristic of gas light, with no increase in the cost of operation over the present single-mantle lights, according to Dick Wood, local PNG manager. Wood also said that the prices on "Pioneer" gas lights will remain the same as on present models. The dual-mantle light is expected to further increase the demand for gas lights which have experienced a phenomenal rise in popularity since being introduced some three years ago.

The new dual-mantle featured in "The Pioneer" light is such an improvement that it will be incorporated in other models.

Initially, the new "Pioneer" light will be introduced through Pioneer Natural Gas Company offices. However, the manufacturer will market these lights on a nationwide scale in the near future.

Heavy damage to new church here

The new First Christian Church here received extensive damage during the June 5 windstorm, it was learned by The Dispatch last Thursday too late to be included in the storm roundup.

The hard winds broke and pitted 12 plate glass windows in the sanctuary, four smaller windows, broke several stained glass windows on the east side of the sanctuary, and caused extensive roof damage.

Teacher from Post studying for master's

CANYON — J. Pat Stephens of Post is attending the first session at West Texas State College. The first term ends July 7, and the second term begins July 11.

Stephens, who earned his B.S. degree here at WT in 1960, has been teaching for the past year. He is working toward a master's degree this summer.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stephens of Post, Stephens was student manager for the student body government association while an undergraduate. He was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, national social fraternity, and Phi Alpha Theta, national history fraternity. He was one of WT's representatives in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges".

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Genesis	22	1-18
Monday	Ephesians	6	1-4
Tuesday	I Chronicles	16	23-29
Wednesday	Psalms	95	1-6
Thursday	John	4	19-24
Friday	Psalms	66	13-20
Saturday	I Timothy	3	1-5

... let not man put asunder.

Before the Altar of Christ they took their vows. And now God has placed another hand in theirs; a small hand, needing tenderness and guiding love.

Before the Altar of Christ they come with their child, and according to the baptismal beliefs of their church dedicate his life to God.

Before the Altar of Christ they worship each Sunday, and eagerly help their growing son to master the Truths that will undergird his life.

Of course, there are times when the responsibilities of marriage and parenthood test their patience, and understanding, and courage to sacrifice.

But they have learned long since to conquer their selfishness and surrender their pride where they receive forgiveness, strength and ever-deepening love—before the Altar of Christ.

From now until July 10 a period of testing how representative democracy works in the legislature is to convene July 10 to make a fresh stab at writing a bill to raise some $350,000 over the next two years. Gov. Daniel has urged Texans to the legislators and him their own how the matter should be handled.

Daniel is strongly opposed to the adoption of any sales tax designed to raise the majority of this needed revenue. He has his influence in the legislature to block a move in this direction.

"If this is what I want, I don't see how I can be fighting it," he believes, however, that a very large sales tax, which he terms "excise taxes," on only expensive items, with the tax to be raised from gas pipelines and increased interstate franchise taxes, would be fair and more acceptable than Texas.

BY BILL WHICH came close to passing the Legislature was one of the main money-raising bills. It was a retail sales tax on costing 25 cents and more, on food, medicine and farm needs exempted. It also levied a tax on gas and corporation taxes. Speaker James East cast the crucial vote that passed the bill's being sent to the governor.

But the difference between the governor and those voting for the tax "package" is mostly a matter of degree. Governor Daniel needs the need for some sales (or taxes) but feels that they should be stringently limited. A bill of the Legislature that would have indicated they felt Texas needed the point where only a "growth" tax, such as sales tax, can raise enough to meet the state's increasing needs.

It is the people's turn to say they think. If enough speak in the legislature will have little to do in deciding what to do that late hour, getting broad support in the Legislature will be important than passing a bill that visits the governor. Bills passed by only a simple majority cannot become effective until 90 days after the session ends, but bills passed by a two-thirds majority of both houses can take effect immediately. That late in the summer, the legislature will need to get a two-thirds vote for immediate effect so there will be money and authorization to keep the state going after the new fiscal year begins Sept. 1.

And a two-thirds majority is also sufficient to override a governor's veto.

A NUMBER OF lawmakers had their "backs up" before the governor made his statewide "report to the people" after the regular session closed. But the governor's message smoothed some feathers.

Many lawmakers expected Daniel to roast the Legislature for its failure to take care of money matters during the 140-day session. They had their hot replies all ready for press release.

Instead, Governor Daniel adroitly praised the lawmakers as one of the hardest working legislatures he had ever seen. He even singled out for kind words some leaders who had opposed his program.

It was those infernal lobbyists who were to blame, said the governor. He described hordes of lobbyists, choking the hallways and bothering members while they were in session.

Now it's the lobbyists who are riled.

Governor Daniel has announced that he will name a new citizen's committee to study the state's fiscal problems and make recommendations before the special session begins.

BEFORE ADJOURNING, the Senate gave approval to a $2,600,000 general appropriations bill for the two years beginning Sept. 1.

But without passage of a money-raising bill to back it up, appropriations had no meaning.

Senate adopted the appropriations conference committee report—a plan that called for spending $385,500,000 from general revenue, compared to the present $320,000,000 general revenue appropriation. Welfare programs, the state hospital system, junior colleges and the state senior college and university system would be among the main beneficiaries.

Senate also passed an equally ineffective $810 a year raise for school teachers before adjourning.

All was for naught, however, when the tax bill failed to pass.

TEXAS VOTERS can get ready for a bumper crop of 14 proposed constitutional amendments to be on the November ballot in 1962.

Some of the amendments are of major importance some are only local in effect and application. Among them are proposals to:

1. Increase maximum possible yearly payments to the permanently disabled from $1,500,000 to $2,500,000.
2. Allow the state water development board to purchase water storage space in reservoirs constructed by other units of government, such as the federal government.
3. Permit the Veterans Land Board to sell forfeited land to non-veteran buyers to liquidate land the state is "stuck with."
4. Authorize the Legislature to provide for "trial de novo" (trial new) in appeals from decisions of state agencies.
5. Allow the Legislature to name successors to officials knocked out by a major catastrophe such as enemy attack.
6. Raise the present $47,000,000 a year ceiling on public welfare pay-

Oklahoma land rush depicted in 'Cimarron' now at Tower

One of the most violent, rousing and exciting eras of American pioneer history, that following the opening of the Oklahoma Territory and the great land rush of 1889, is depicted on a sprawling and colorful canvas in "Cimarron," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film version of Edna Ferber's enduring novel now playing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre.

Everything about this picture is BIG.

Starring are Glenn Ford, Maria Schell, Anne Baxter, Arthur O'Connell, Russ Tamblyn, Mercedes McCambridge, Vic Morrow, Robert Keith and Charles McGraw, with hundreds of supporting players appearing in a cast of 368 speaking roles.

Its dynamic story covers a period of four decades in which a lawless pioneer settlement of tents and shacks is shown developing into the thriving city of Osage. Most of the picture was filmed on location in Arizona. In CinemaScope and color, entailing MGM's biggest local movement within the United States in the studio's history. Creating the spectacular scenes which fill the screen required ten cameras, a caravan of 30 boxcars and 35 trucks, 700 horses, 500 pioneer wagons, 3,000 costumes.

The land rush sequence with the hundreds of wagons jammed at the starting line and, at a signal of rifle fire, racing across the open prairie, is one of the most thrilling episodes ever photographed for a motion picture.

But the size and scope of "Cimarron" are never permitted to weigh down its rousing story of the men and women who opened up new frontiers of the West. There were gunfighters, roustabouts, big game, thieves and killers and the girls who trailed them for what they could get. But there were also men and women whose courage and adventurous spirit spawned a great new country.

Of these were Yancey Cravat and his young bride, Sabra (Glenn Ford and Maria Schell), whose sweeping love story, from the beginning of the land rush through the turbulent decades of Osage's growth, was as tempestuous as the bold era in which they played such vital pioneer roles.

Sabra remains steadfast in her devotion to the restless, unpredictable, exciting man she loves. She closes her eyes to Yancey's friendship for the flamboyant Dixie (Anne Baxter), who has tricked him out of his land claim. She is at his side in his fight for the cause of the despised Indians even when he has to resort to shooting. She is dismayed when he turns down the reward for saving hostages when their schoolhouse is taken over by a trio of juvenile bank robbers led by the Cherokee Kid (Russ Tamblyn). But she comes to understand why Yancey acts as he does, even when he turns down the governorship of the Oklahoma Territory.

Through the years, Sabra builds up the small newspaper they have started, and whenever Yancey leaves her for new adventures, she takes him back. And at the end, when war breaks out in Europe, Yancey enlists with the Canadian Army and again proves himself a fearless adventurer who cannot stay out of a fight.

Ghana's Industries now provide canvas shoes and aluminum sheeting.

ments to $52,000,000.

7. Allow the Legislature to set up hospital districts without a special constitutional amendment for each one.

8. Allow the Legislature to delegate to local government control of traffic, parking and sanitation on public beaches.

FUTURE WITNESSES before legislative investigating committees can be compelled to tell the truth or face perjury penalties under a measure that passed both houses.

Last year the perjury conviction of former Insurance Commissioner J. Byron Saunders was voided by the courts on grounds the anti-perjury statute did not cover statements to legislative committees.

This bill spells out the right of legislative committees to make investigations and makes it a penal offense (two to ten years) to lie deliberately to such a committee.

Spur uses mobile tornado alert

SPUR — The Spur Fire Department Weather Alert Team put its mobile tornado alert plan into action for the first time Monday night, June 8—the same night Post had its "big blow."

Three unconfirmed tornadoes in the area sent Spur area residents scurrying to storm cellars. Funnels were sighted by spotters northwest of Spur, east of Spur, and between Spur and Girard. Damage was insignificant as all hit in open country.

The tornado alert was the first sounded here in the three years the fire department has had its mobile unit, equipped with loud speaker and siren, doing duty for tornado warnings.

The "emergency wagon" made its run over its designated route in ten minutes giving citizens ample warning. When the threat passed the "emergency wagon" went around again sounding the all clear signal.

Ford Motor in boost to student driving

DEARBORN — Ford Motor Company moved today to make it easier for schools to borrow new cars for use in teaching students to drive.

James O. Wright, vice president — car and truck group, said Ford is doubling the amount of its rebate to dealers for new units loaned to schools for use in driver-training programs. Mr. Wright said the increase in the rebate from $125 to $250 a unit will be retroactive to the beginning of the 1960-61 school year.

At present, 2,680 Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers are participating in the program to provide cars for driver training. Of the 3,912 units now supplied by these dealers for driver-training, 2,663 are loaned. The remainder are either bought or leased by the schools or program sponsors.

Out of the five cents collected on each gallon of gasoline sold in Texas, only 3 1/2 cents goes into the highway program. The remainder is diverted to non-highway purposes.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association estimates that the completion of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways on schedule will produce net benefits to motorists from 1961 to 1980 of $98 and 1/2 billion.

Watch your step. Snakes are moving, wasp nests are hanging low and it's chigger time.

Good highways are the lifelines of commerce, industry, and recreation.

Three enter guilty pleas in district court here

A man and two youths entered guilty pleas in Garza district court yesterday morning.

The two youths, Jerry Herman, 23, and Ronnie Yukum, 17, both of Jayton, entered pleas of guilty to participating in the burglary of the White River Package Store, northeast of Post, on the night of May 17.

Each of the pair were given two year probated sentences in the state penitentiary by District Judge T. W. Smith.

That was this burglary in which Clyde Purcell of Stamford was criminally wounded by a caretaker who was aroused from his sleep in the back of the store by the burglars, Purcell, also indicted for the burglary, is still in Garza Memorial hospital here and will be for several more weeks.

The other guilty plea was entered Wednesday by James Jeffrie Gilbert for defrauding the Humble Service Station here Jan. 15, 1961, of over $100 worth of merchandise via credit card.

Gilbert was sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary for his offense by Judge Smith.

James Stones to Waco for her brother's funeralrites Friday

By MRS. NOEL WHITE

The James Stones were in Waco Friday to attend funeral services for her brother, Burns Stanley, 55. Mr. Stanley had suffered several heart attacks before his death. He was the eldest of 11 children of the late F. I. Stanley and Mrs. Evelyn of Abilene. Also attending funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stanley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Stanley and family of this area. The community extends its sympathy to the Stone family.

Everyone is invited to attend the cream and "42" party at the Community Center Saturday night -- 8 o'clock. The Graham Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring the party and the proceeds will be used to pay for the club room air-conditioner. Admission of $1 per family will be charged. Club members who have freon are asked to bring ice cream, but those who do not, are asked to bring a cake. These plan to attend.

Eighteen members were present for the June 8 Graham Home Demonstration Club meeting with Mrs. Ruth Doggett as hostess assisted by Mrs. Lola Mae Ledbetter. Roll call was answered with suggestions for the yearbook and club program. Mrs. Carter White was in charge of the business meeting. Plans were made for the Saturday night party, followed by an afternoon of cross-stitching.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rogers and sons have moved into their new home on the northwest corner of land formerly owned by Charlie Rogers. David is farming the Rogers place.

 the state Texas Tech park management architects who helped the board design long-range development plans said it would take seven years to accomplish.

The city and county each contribute $2,500 annually to the joint park board for park management and development.

The first year attention was concentrated on important swimming pool improvements. The next year the entire park was seeded to grass and a tree planting program was inaugurated.

"What we like about it," Camp said yesterday, "is that the people are using the park."

He said destructive vandalism in the park had been held to a minimum and was confined mostly to damage to young trees by playing youngsters. Since attention was called to this through The Dispatch two weeks ago, little more has resulted.

'Soaker'--

 a report of "about two inches." The state highway department office here reported water over US-84 near Southland with flues out to guide motorists through the slowly draining water.

Other flaps were out with water over the highway west on the Tahaoka highway and on the Ralls road.

All highways were open however.

The rain ended six or seven miles south of Post, the highway department reported, as far as early morning fall was concerned, but was "moving on down by 8 a. m."

Snyder at 8:30 a. m. still reported no rainfall. Lubbock had an all-night soaker.

Principal drainage streets in Post, including north Avenue S and South Broadway were running curb to curb full for a couple of hours early today.

Water backed into some yards.

The highway department at 10 o'clock this morning reported the closing of the Spur highway, Farm-to-Market Road 651, to traffic due to the Salt Fork of the Brazos River and water washing across the highway.

For the first time, the new tank at the Caprock golf course was expected to pile up some lake water for future grass greening use.

The rain started between 1 and 2 a. m. and continued steadily most of the time until 8:30 a. m. Dispatch presstime when it was still raining.

Liquor vote--

 liquor arrests during the legal liquor period.

The fact that more officers were out on duty and night patrols were established for the first time clouds somewhat the statistics on arrests for comparable periods of legal liquor and "dry times" formerly.

The fact that legal liquor operators are now in the precinct means some voter gain of unpredictable size in wet votes. How much the gain will be offset by precinct dissatisfaction with the way legal liquor has been operated here and other factors won't be known until the votes are tallied July 8.

Almost everybody agrees the vote will be close, although the campaigning by both sides is yet to get under way.

Some are predicting a quieter campaign than the one staged a year ago. But a better organized drive on the part of the wets can be expected.

Most cotton planted as shower falls Wednesday

The early morning shower Wednesday brought a total of 38 of an inch of additional moisture to Post, County Agent Lewis Herron reported.

He said more apparently fell northeast of town.

Approximately 90 to 95 per cent of Garza's cotton is now planted, Herron reported at the same time.

Public housing funds here 'froze'

What's happened to Post's public housing program?

The answer is federal funds for the local project have been frozen for the present, Irby G. Metcalf, head of the Post Public Housing Authority, said this week.

It is possible the "freeze" will be lifted with the beginning of a new federal fiscal year July 1.

The project was just beginning to roll toward site selection and contract letting when the authority here was notified of the freeze.

Most of the insurance adjustors who have been busy in this area adjusting damage claims from the June 5 windstorm agree that it was a "wrong way" twister which didn't let down to ground level that did the damage.

Mayor Powell Shytle says the local water situation hasn't changed much from last summer. There are more folks trying to develop yards this year, he points out. The city intends to rely -- as it has in past years -- on voluntary water rationing should a shortage develop in the weeks ahead.

Harold Caffey, former Post man who used to be operator of the local water plant before the city bought it from the Community Public Service Co., is the subject of an interesting article in the Community Public Service Company's publication, The Communicator, in its May issue. Harold is now the Northwest Division Gas Engineer for CPS-served cities of Breckenridge and Graham. He is now responsible for design, layout and engineering of gas heating and air conditioning installations, for plan and design of gas distribution construction and for gas measurement and regulation in the Northwest division. The article gives a full life sketch of Harold.

Post Bowling Center Invitational

Tourney play to pick up here this weekend

Second weekend of play Saturday and Sunday in the first annual Post Bowling Center Invitational tournament here is expected to see a quickening of play in the event which got off to a satisfactory start last weekend.

The ragtime doubles got a big play the first weekend with 43 entries in this duo competition.

Allen Nichols and Patsy Miller of Post were in first when the firing was over with 1,333 pins for the three games. Second was Bill Collet and Tom Murray of Lubbock with 1,316; third, Jack Nail and Bill Marcy of Lubbock, 1,293 pins, and fourth, Dot Marcy and Bill Marcy of Lubbock with 1,261.

In the team event, a Rails team was in first with 3,132 pins followed by the Generals of Post with 3,020.

Bob Woods and Petty of Post led in the doubles with 1,243, followed by Ira Hahn and Don Moore of Brownfield with 1,236.

Allen Nichols of Post was in front in the singles with 644, followed by A. Siewert of Post, 642; Claude Collier of Post, 604; and Nick Vukad of Post, 603.

In the all-events division, Nichols led with 1,799 pins, followed by Bob Woods with 1,785.

Everybody is invited out to watch tournament play.

The Red Sox stood off a last inning rally last Thursday night to hand the Dodgers their first loss of the Little League season, 4-3, and climb back into a tie for the league lead.

In the front half of the same twin bill, the hard-hitting Convoirs pounded out an assortment of ten hits, including a homerun and two singles by Catcher Huff, to romp to a 19-7 decision over the Tigers in a battle to escape the cellar at the other end of the league standings.

The Red Sox piled up a 4-0 lead with Johnny James banking the previously unbeaten Dodgers in the first five innings and then held on for the win as the Dodgers came up with three runs in the bottom of the sixth and knocked out James. Long came on to preserve the triumph.

Shortstop Kennedy homered for the first Red Sox run in the first. They picked up two more in the second on a hit batsman, double by Leftfielder Cooper and a single by First Baseman Jimmy James.

The final, and what proved the winning run, came in the fifth on singles by Kennedy and Second Sacker Heater.

In the bottom of the sixth a single by Shortstop and Relief Pitcher Clyde Cash got the rally going with none away for the Dodgers. Dodd walked away. He later scored the third run, but the Dodgers couldn't get the tying run on base as Long snuffed out the rally and preserved the win for James.

Bartlett hurled the first four innings for the Dodgers and Cash came on to finish on the mound, striking out the side in the sixth and getting the winners on strikes in the fifth as well although the run scored.

The Convoirs mixed their 10 hits with 11 walks and two hit batsman to whip the Tigers handily. The winners clustered six runs in both the first and second innings which was more than enough.

The Convoirs used three pitchers in the victory. Clint Johnson starting and going two innings. Steel pitched the next three and Moreau came in to finish.

The Tigers' mound duties were split between starter Larry Johnson and Hise, each of which hurled three frames.

Last placers win two in topsy turvy action

The big news in the Babe Ruth league this week was the sudden tailspin of the league-leading Cubs, who dropped from their unbeaten status with two straight defeats, and the rise of the last place Indians who grabbed their first two victories.

In neither case, however, did this change-about rise and fall affect the league standings.

The Cubs today still were in first place—but by only a half game over the Braves—and the Indians were still in the cellar. But the week's results tightened the loop race.

Biggest surprise came Tuesday night when the White Sox unleashed a record-sized big inning with 12 runs in the second to literally bury the Cubs with a 14-2 pasting.

In the first game of that twin bill, the Indians pulled out a 10-9 triumph over the Braves, a loss which incidentally kept the losers from taking the loop lead a couple of hours later.

The "big inning" for the White Sox featured five walks, a hit batsman, doubles by Teddy Scott, Donnie Cornell, Billy Mitchell, Wendell Johnson, and Benny Owen, and a single by Mitchell.

The Sox had grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first on singles by Scott and Owen, and added their final run in the fourth on a single by R. Hart and a fielder's choice.

Two walks and a single by R. Welch gave the Cubs a run in the third and a pair of walks and stolen bases with a fielder's choice brought in the final run in the top of the fifth.

The game was held to five by the 10-run rule.

In the opener of the twin bill, the Indians came up with a "big inning" of their own with six in the third after three in the first.

The winning marker scored without a hit in the top of the fifth on two walks.

The Braves came within a run of tying it up with a pair in the bottom of the fifth and had the tying run on second when the inning ended. The game was called right there by the two hour, first game rule.

Mound wildness helped both teams as the Indians managed but five hits and the Braves six. Four

Second in homerun derby with 19 through Tuesday

Norm Cash takes bat, RBI leadership in majors

Right now Norm Cash is the hottest hitter in baseball.

Going on a homerun slugging and hitting spree, the former Post high grad who now plays first base for the contending Detroit Tigers up to yesterday was leading both leagues in batting with a torrid .374 and both leagues in runs batted in with 54, five ahead of his nearest competitor.

But what was catching the fans' fancy was his homerun slugging. Cash slammed two homeruns for four runs Tuesday night at Detroit to lead the Tigers to a 7-1 triumph over Detroit.

That gave Norm 19 homeruns for the season, second only to Roger Maris of the Yanks with 21 in the majors' homerun derby and vaulted him ahead of Mickey Mantle who has 18.

He has blasted six of those homeruns in the last four games and nine in 14 games in June. He has hit 14 homeruns in his last 24 games. The "big one" Tuesday night was an inside the park shot for three runs to open Tiger scoring in the third. When Carroll Hardy of the Red Sox missed a shoe-string catch of his low liner, Norm circled the bases as the ball rolled 440 feet to centerfield.

The two homeruns boosted Cash into the battling lead over Jimmy Piersall of Cleveland who is at .372.

The Justiceburg player hit a homerun Saturday along with Rocky Colavito to give the Tigers a 2-0 victory over Cleveland and an even split of their important four-game set with the loop leading Indians.

He came back to slug three homeruns in a Sunday doubleheader against Washington — all tallied collecting six hits in nine official at bats in the twin bill.

Norm hit two of his homers in the first game which the Tigers lost 7-4, and another in the nightcap which Detroit won 7-6.

The two homeruns boosted Cash into the battling lead over Jimmy Piersall of Cleveland who is at .372.

Legion Juniors lose again, but tally first run

Post's American Legion Juniors, still seeking their first league victory, take on the Tahoka Legion Juniors here at 8 p. m. Friday.

They return to league play Saturday night against Slaton at Slaton.

The locals dropped their fourth straight loop tilt to Lubbock's B-1 Red Cheeks at Lubbock Tuesday night, 14-1, but managed their first run in league competition after three straight shutouts.

With one out in the third, Tommy Bouchier doubled and then Les Acker singled him home for two of the three hits the locals managed in the five inning game.

It was the first loop start for the Red Cheeks, composed of Montrey high school players. Their schedule was held up as Monterrey went to the finals of the state high school baseball tournament.

The Lubbock club bombarded Post pitcher Acker for 12 singles to win the abbreviated game to five innings by the 10 run rule.

Post also was hampered by at least temporary loss of two of their regulars to a big baseball school at Meridian, Tex.

Pitcher-shortstop Johnny Valderez and Second Sacker Raul (Rul) Hernandez left over last weekend for the two-weeks-long school hopeful of bettering their baseball ambitions.

National Farm Safety Week is scheduled for July 23-29

COLLEGE STATION—The period from July 23-29 has been designated as National Farm Safety Week by a proclamation released by President Kennedy.

The president called attention to the fact that more than a million farm residents are injured and thousands are killed each year in accidents and that these accidents bring suffering and sorrow to our farm families and inflict heavy economic losses upon both the farm community and nation. The safety of these people, he continued, who produce our food is of vital concern to all our citizens.

President Kennedy is urging all persons and organizations interested in the safety of farm people to support and participate in this special endeavor to help reduce the number of farm accidents. He asked farm residents to remember that "Safety is a Family Affair."

In Texas, plans are going forward for the observance of the week, reports the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. In many counties extensive programs will be carried out, emphasizing that safety is a family affair. County extension agents, 4-H Club members and their leaders, farm and community organization leaders and others with a deep interest in the promotion will contribute to the overall plans.

The Councilmen said that in many counties a different phase of farm and home safety would be emphasized each day during the week: Sunday, reverence for life; Monday, safety begins at home; Tuesday, agricultural chemicals; Wednesday, prevent falls; Thursday, highway safety; Friday, farm machinery and Saturday, recreation safety.

The failure of rural people to observe safety in their daily living is a chief contributor to their safety record. The Council said this record includes a disabling injury accident every 32 seconds and a death every 45 minutes to farm residents of the nation. The Council concludes it is time to stop this needless waste from accidents since most could be prevented.

3 chiropractors attend conclave

Dr. L. E. Andrews, Dr. C. J. Lewis Jr. and Dr. L. J. Morrison, all of Post, returned home this week after attending the 46th annual convention of the Texas State Chiropractic Association in San Antonio, June 7-10.

One of the highlights of the convention, attended by more than 500 chiropractors from all parts of the state, was a refresher and post-graduate course that enabled practitioners to learn the latest developments that research has produced in the field of healing.

Four outstanding speakers gave lectures. They were: Dr. M. A. Giannarino, Coatesville, Penn., x-ray authority; Dr. Herbert M. Himes of Davenport, Iowa, director of Palmer clinics; Ralph G. Griffin Jr. of Austin, member of the State Department of Health and an authority on industrial hygiene; and Capt. William D. Hablitzel, who spent 30 days in a space capsule.

During the convention the delegates elected new officers, selected the outstanding chiropractor of the year, named the 1961 posture queen and attended various meetings of sub-groups including the veterans committee (composed of ex-servicemen within the chiropractic association), the gavel club (with membership limited to ex-presidents of chiropractic organizations), district officers and the ladies auxiliary's annual luncheon.

What foods would be best for a two-week stay in a fallout shelter after nuclear attack? What would they cost? How much storage space and weight would they involve?

To find the answers to these questions, food specialists of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization asked a Battle Creek, Mich., housewife, Mrs. Norman C. Madsen, to shop a supermarket using guidelines which they furnished her.

She was told to shop for a two-week supply for two persons, allowing for personal preferences, but keeping her selection roughly within recom-

I Give You Texas . . .

By BOYCE HOUSE

In my younger days, I entered upon the editorship of a paper. A few years before that, a man resented something that was published so he entered the office and gave the editor a whipping, which was not too difficult as the visitor was huge. He was also reputed to be right handy with a gun.

A few months after I took the job, he walked in—the first time he had been there since his victory over my predecessor. He looked as though he thought he would be unwelcome. I knew why he was there because I had heard that his father had died during the night. Before the visitor could say anything, I said, "Let me express my sympathy."

"Tears came in his eyes and he said, 'Will you put something in the paper about my dad?'"

"Of course—have a seat and tell me about his life."

After the paper came out, with a full column on the front page, we were friends from then on. He said, "I don't know how to thank you. If anybody ever gives you any trouble, just let me know."

I assured him he would be informed right away if such a situation should develop. Fortunately, it never did.

In fact there had been only one man that I felt worried about—and he was him.

It is an ironical thing that, although Bob Burns was one of the most popular entertainers of his day, he was never the subject of an article in a national magazine—nor has his life been the subject of a book—nor were his comical stories about his kinfolks ever published in a volume. (Or at least an examination of reference books failed to disclose that any of these recognitions have been bestowed.) Burns had an audience of millions over radio in the 1930's; he was the star of several motion picture comedies and his daily humor feature appeared in a large number of newspapers. People would chuckingly relate his latest story about a "cousin" or an "aunt."

After Will Rogers' death, Burns came the nearest to being his successor. (Of course, no one could actually take Will's place.)

Bob was the star for one night in Fort Worth in 1939, the last season that the original Casa Manana was presented.

The huge cafe-theater was packed when Burns came out and, in his Arkansas drawl and dialect, told a dozen hilarious stories—and even tooted one tune on his bazooka, which consisted of a funnel and a length of pipe. For this appearance, Bob was paid—according to the report at that time—$1,000, and that was a lot of money in 1939.

America laughs at its comedians—and forgets them. And that is pathos.

Science head finishes course

James K. Baxter, head of science department of Post High School, has just completed the Radiological Monitoring Training Course for instructors at the Western Instructor Training Center, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, Alameda, Calif.

Due to the increasing importance of non-military defense, the Radiological Monitor training program is being emphasized. Upon completion, a nationwide monitoring network consisting of more than 150,000 fixed monitoring points would be available to detect the presence of radioactive contamination.

The Western Instructor Training Center serves the special purpose of training instructors in non-military defense from local, state, federal government officials, industrial leaders, and Armed Forces personnel. These trained instructors return to their home communities and conduct training, first within their governmental or industrial organizations, and then, for the additional personnel who will be required to augment existing government units. Students attend the Training Center from all states west of the Mississippi. Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization headquarters in Washington, D. C., are in the Executive Office of the President.

One dies, 5 hurt on Garza highways in month of May

The highway patrol investigated six accidents on rural highways in Garza county during the month of May, according to Sgt. E. L. Stroud, highway patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person killed, five injured and a property damage of $2,790.

This brings the total for the first five months of 1961 in this county to 25 rural traffic crashes resulting in one person being killed, 17 injured, and a combined property damage of $32,965.

After noting the accident picture for this county for the first five months of this year, the sergeant pointed out another significant fact.

As summer approaches with longer days and additional good driving weather, the driver should be especially aware of the danger period at dusk. Many accidents happen during this period. One cause of this is the driver fails to turn his lights on soon enough. Although the law sets out when lights must be turned on, the driver should also use his own good judgment. Any time a driver cannot see an unlighted object approximately one-half mile away, he should turn his lights on. He may be able to see the other driver, but can the other driver see you?

A Texas Department of Public Safety spokesman suggested that Texas citizens might better their traffic safety records by concentrating on the principal cause of all traffic accidents — attitude.

Major Harry Hutchison, Regional Commander of the DPS, says that "There is no single cause to which all accidents, even preventable accidents, can be charged." He noted, however, "That there is general agreement that the great majority of such accidents are traceable to the attitude of those involved." In citing examples of poor driving attitude, Major Hutchison mentioned "The speeder who says I am a good enough driver to handle the car doing 90; the elbow bender who says I'm not too drunk to drive home; the businessman who piles along in his car preoccupied by office problems; the lady who thinks she can drive and still inventory show windows, and the adolescent who defies the challenge of being chicken."

New York trips await top cotton bag sewing winners

Can you imagine yourself spending a care-free week in New York City, riding through Central Park, visiting the major network TV studios, hobnobbing with celebrities, and making a rubber-neck tour of the nation's largest and most exciting city?

Sounds like a dream, doesn't it? But it is just one of many grand prizes awaiting the two top winners in the 1961 National Cotton Bag Sewing Contest. Sponsored annually by the National Cotton Council and the Textile Bag Manufacturers Association, the contest recognizes the best sewing done with cotton feed and flour bags.

First rounds of the big event get underway this summer at 41 state and regional fairs, which offer first place winners a Sears Kenmore portable sewing machine, cash awards, and a chance to enter the finals in Memphis, Tenn., on October 25. Besides a free trip to New York City, the two national winners will share in thousands of dollars worth of merchandise prizes, ranging from major home appliances to a year's supply of dye.

Further information on the 1961 Cotton Bag Sewing Contest may be obtained from the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 9906, Memphis 12, Tennessee, or the Women's Department at the Four States Fair at Texarkana to be held September 11-16 or West Texas Fair, Abilene, September 11-16.

It's the Law in TEXAS

FOLLOW SIMPLE RULES IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Vacation time is near. Soon millions of people will be driving about the country, and automobile accidents will occur with increasing frequency. What should a person do when involved in an accident?

At such times it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do. It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in event of a crash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

1. Stop! Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.
2. Render Aid. If anyone is injured: (1) Render first aid. (2) Stop bleeding. (3) Call a doctor or ambulance or both. (4) Do not move an injured person in any way that could possibly add to his injury.
3. Protect the Scene from Further Damage. You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. The highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlights on the wrecked vehicle.
4. Call an Officer. Policemen, Highway Patrolmen, Sheriffs and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.

5. Gather Information . . . Write it down. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess—be specific. Measure skid marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver—and he must do the same.
6. Be Careful What You Say. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn later than the other driver was equally at fault, or more so. Emotional comments can be misconstrued by others, or may be misquoted. Whatever you say, make it factual.
7. See your doctor if there is the slightest change you may be injured. Serious injuries do not always result in immediate pain or bloodshed.
8. Consult your lawyer immediately. The sooner your lawyer is brought into the matter, the better he can advise you and protect your rights. He can obtain statements from the witnesses while their memories are fresh, and do many other things to insure that the true facts are preserved. Get your lawyer's advice before giving any interviews or statements to investigators or adjusters for the other side.
9. Inform your insurance company promptly. Failure to do so may void your policy.
10. Report the accident to the Department of Public Safety. This is required by law if there is any injury, death, or total damages exceed $25.

An official accident report form may be procured from the police, sheriff's dept., highway patrol, or State Dept. of Public Safety.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

By VERN SANFORD

Texas fishing clubs are gaining in popularity in Texas. Seldom does a day pass without some new fishing club being formed in the Lone Star state. Being a "joiner" we're highly in favor of them. It's our contention that fellowship alone is worth the dues of any organization, not to mention the tips that one receives from fellow members.

Speaking of TIPS—the latest organization we have become affiliated with is known as TIPS. Spelled out it's Texas Invertebrate Piscatorial Sportsmen. Except for yours truly it is composed of real top-flight fishermen . . . every one of them.

Head man is Billy Disch, Austin Evinrude dealer. Billy earned quite a reputation, from the Gulf Coast to the Red River and from Caddo Lake to the Rio Grande, for his bass catching abilities.

SECOND IN COMMAND is Jim Roddie, Austin insurance man. If you think he's not good then just consider the fact that he has caught three eight pound black bass with jig and eel during the past twelve months. That's something few fishermen do once in a lifetime. In fact just one eight pound catch in a lifetime would thrill this scribe.

But I'm getting off the track. What I want to do is tell you about this bass fishing club that they call TIPS—namely Texas Invertebrate Piscatorial Sportsmen.

Top man is not called president. He's referred to as Large Mouth. Other officers are a treasurer, better known as the Hook; and a secretary who is referred to as the Line.

TIPS' sergeant-at-arms is designated as—The Sinker.

All other members are Vice Presidents!

So if you want to be vice president of something, organize a fishing club like TIPS. In the case of TIPS it's the lowest office you can hold.

Kinda clever club eh? But you haven't heard everything.

FIVE BUCKS GETS you into the club. That's the application fee. But it takes even less to get you out. Members meet evenings, every other Wednesday. Miss three straight months of meetings, without an "excuse" and you're no longer a TIPster.

And by the way that's one of the main purposes of the organization—passing on your fishing tips to fellow members.

Dues? There are none. And there won't be any until and unless the club needs more money.

What do they do besides meet and talk shop, or hear specialists discuss bass, bass habitats, and bass catching methods? They hold contests!

With no dues income, how do they purchase prizes to award to the top fisherman and to the top fishing teams? They charge an entrance fee in each fishing contest. Such events are held every other month and on a different lake each time.

ENTRY FEE IS determined largely by the number you sign in. They just divide the cost of the plaques by the number of entrants. Works out fine! If a fellow signs up to fish and fails to show, he sacrifices his entry fee. If he doesn't sign up by a predetermined date he can't enter. It's that simple.

Like to know something about the constitution and by-laws of TIPS? Well, the PREAMBLE reads like this:

"We, the bass fishermen of Austin, Texas, in order to form a more perfect fishing club, establish fellowship, ensure conversation, provide a means of collaboration, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of bass fishing to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the Texas Invertebrate Piscatorial Sportsmen."

Sounds slightly familiar, doesn't it?

Membership in the club is limited. Each charter member is permitted to sponsor another member; then each new member sponsors another new member until the maximum of 40 is reached.

EVERY CANDIDATE must be approved by the membership committee, then endorsed by the organization as a whole, at an official meeting of the group. When the full quota of members is reached no new members may be added until a regular member drops out or is dropped for non-payment of dues.

As a bass fisherman you will be interested in the fact that each member of TIPS is supplied with a record book in which he lists his catch. The record page calls not only for the size of the bass—its length and girth and weight—but also exactly where it was caught, on what specific lake, at what depth, and on what lure. Also requested is information as to the time of day, weather conditions, wind conditions, and the temperature of the water.

At each meeting of the organization the fishermen turn in their reports and each is given a badge by the secretary to sew onto his fishing jacket or hat. This badge is merely a number which designates

Sox hike lead, Westerners 2nd

Little League-leading Red Sox increased their lead to one game Saturday night by romping to a 4-1 victory over the Yankees. The Westerners climbed into first place by dumping the second straight defeat of the week on the Yankees.

Westerners also picked up a 14-4 triumph Friday night—14 runs, 13 hits, 5 errors—over the Tigers to climb out of their 1-3 position in third to a 4-2 win, lost record only one game behind the Red Sox.

Red Sox won their ball game in a five-run burst in the second inning. A lead-off homerun by catcher Pete Morales, a triple by outfielder Danny Cooper, two singles by Dick Kennedy and Eliso Collazo, and a double by Dick Kennedy led off the third with a walk and moved on around for sixth run. Two more came in the fourth on a walk and a double by Collazo and Morales, and three for three for the Sox.

Long went the route for the Sox, scattering seven hits.

Ronnie Pierce went all the way for the losers, who scored three times in the fourth on singles by Pierce, Donnie Cole, two walks and a double by Shortstop Rabbit Johnson.

Their other run came in the first on two walks and another single by Pierce who also hit three for three.

In the Westerners' Friday night makeup up over the Tigers, they ran up a 14-1 lead before the Tigers rallied in the bottom of the sixth for eight runs to make the final outcome more respectable.

A walk, fielder's choice, and consecutive singles by Saldivo, Collazo, and Rivera in the first accounted for the first four Westerners' runs. Five more came across in the third on a double by Reno, a double by Collazo, singles by Rivers and Perez and a double by Scrivens.

Doubles by Odom and Collazo with a walk brought in three in the fourth with the final two tallying in the sixth on walks and singles by Collazo and Odom. Collazo wound up with four hits in as many at bats.

A walk and a double by Hise accounted for the Tigers first run in the first.

In the sixth, six walks, a hit batsman, a double by Hise and a double by Johnson brought the eight runs home.

On Saturday night in their 6-3 win over the slipping Dodgers, the Westerners tied off in the second for five runs and the ball game.

Collazo started it all with a double. Three walks, a single by Foster, a hit batsman, and a single by Reno, plus an infield error did the damage.

They added the last in the sixth on a double by Reno and a two-base blow by Catcher Rivera.

The Dodgers got a pair in the fourth on a walk and a single by Bartlett and tallied their last in the fifth on two walks and an error.

Two more important games come tonight in a twin bill which sends the Westerners against the Red Sox and the second place Dodgers against the Corvairs.

Even if they lose, the Red Sox won't lose but a share of their lead. And even if they win, the Westerners can't get a part of it because at this writing they have played one less game than both the Red Sox and Dodgers. But the Dodgers can get back up there by turning back the hard-hitting Corvairs providing the Sox bow. That would leave those two teams knotted at 6-2 with the Westerners a half game back at 5-2.

The Tigers got all their five runs Monday night via home runs.

Leftfielder Danny Cooper of the Sox, however, came up with the game-winning hit in the bottom of the fifth when he doubled home Catcher Morelaus, who had singled.

The Tigers jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first when Pitcher Larry Johnson homered with Rodger North, who had singled, on the bases.

The Sox tied it in the bottom half on a single by Dick Kennedy and a triple by Roy Long followed by a fielder's choice.

In the third, the Sox got three more on a single by Johnny Jones, a double by Danny Cooper, a triple by Kennedy, and a single by Long.

But the Tigers rallied to tie it in the top of the fourth at 5-5 when they got started with two outs. With two on the bases via walks, Shortstop Harper banged a homerun.

Larry Johnson went the rout on the mound for the losers while a trio of hurlers shared the pitching chores for the winners. Johnny Jones went the first two innings, Jimmy Jones, the next three, and Roy Long finished.

In the Dodgers' 7-5 win over the Yankees, the winners had to come from behind with four runs in a fifth inning rally.

The Dodgers got two in the first on a walk, double by Warren, and singles by Sappington and Pettey. The bases were loaded when the final out was made.

The Yankees promptly tied it up on a single by Jackson, a hit batsman and some base stealing. They went ahead in the second on a walk and singles by Shaw and Jackson.

It was a 3-2 ball game when the Dodgers broke loose in the top of the fifth for four runs on singles by Alexander, Sappington, and Cash mixed in with a hit batsman.

The Yanks got two back in their half on three walks and a double by Shaw. A hit batter and a double by Sappington, his third hit in four trips, accounted for the final Dodger run in the sixth.

Dodd went five innings for the winners with Warren finishing. Rabbit Jackson went the rout for the Yanks.

Legion Juniors blanked for third straight time

Pod's American Legion team lost their third straight league game here Friday night without scoring a run when The Lubbock Autos slammed their way to an easy 17-0 win with a 14-hit barrage.

Gary Dement, Lubbock pitcher, missed hurling a perfect game when he gave up a single to Ruben Valdez, the losing pitcher, with one out in the fifth.

Valdez was the only Post player to reach base.

The game was called at the end of five innings by the 10-run rule.

Phil Johnson led the Lubbock attack with two homers good for five runs.

Lubbock tallied once in the first and then broke loose for nine runs in a big second inning rally to ice the ball game and shell Valdez from the hill. David Lee came on in the second and was replaced by John Valdez in the fourth.

Lubbock scored five more in the third and two in the fourth.

The Lubbock Autos are unbeaten in league play.

Braves hand Cubs first loss, take league lead

MONDAY NIGHT'S PLAY

Red Sox hold on to lead, Dodgers back to winning

After climbing over the Dodgers into first place during the last week's play, the Red Sox maintained their Little League lead of one game Monday night by squeezing out a 6-5 decision over the cellar-dwelling Tigers.

The Dodgers, who tallied out of their undefeated status and down into second place in two straight losses at the hands of the contending Red Sox and Westerners, bounced back in Monday night's other game to stay in contention with a 7-5 triumph over the Yankees.

Two more important games come tonight in a twin bill which sends the Westerners against the Red Sox and the second place Dodgers against the Corvairs.

Even if they lose, the Red Sox won't lose but a share of their lead. ## 65 fish, game laws passed

AUSTIN—The recently completed Regular Session of the 57th Legislature saw the introduction of 108 bills pertaining to fish and game, of which 65 became laws.

Among the new laws of statewide interest is one permitting certain incapacitated persons to hunt from a vehicle (except from public roads), provided their incapacity is authenticated, in writing, by a licensed physician; a law requiring deer tags to bear the date and place of kill; one prohibiting the possession or transportation of live coyote (nutria) without written permission of the Game and Fish Commission, and a law classifying the sandhill crane as a game bird.

Washington County was removed from the list of counties under Regulatory Authority, but 16 counties were added to the 105 still participating in the program, to bring the net total to 121. In addition, Precinct 4 of Tyler County was placed under Regulatory Authority, as was that portion of Lake Texoma lying in Cooke and Grayson Counties, and the Northeast portion of Matagorda Island. Also, the Commission was given regulatory responsibility over deer in San Saba County.

A Digest summarizing the general game and fish laws is being prepared for distribution early this fall.

NOW is the BEST TIME of Year to buy a new Chevrolet or Oldsmobile

HERE ARE SOME OF THE REASONS WHY

1. Your present car is worth MORE NOW than it will be later on.
2. NEW CAR PRICES will remain the same throughout the year. Used cars will decline in price — MAKING THE DIFFERENCE MORE.
3. New car stocks are good giving more choice of models, motors, etc. Prices start as low as $1,749. WE HAVE AN AVAILABILITY TODAY OF OVER 500 NEW UNITS.
4. A trip or vacation is a good way to break in a new car.
5. DEMAND FOR USED CARS are always highest in June and July. Buyers of used cars are taking vacations.
6. Your old car gives more trouble in the summer months.
7. We need good used cars of all models now. WE GIVE HIGHEST TRADE-IN IN WEST TEXAS on any used car that is clean.

These are but a few of the reasons it will pay you to trade now for a new Chevrolet or Oldsmobile from:

additional uniform purchases.

The three new teachers employed are Mrs. Harold Teal, wife of a Post teacher who has taught here before; and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nixon who will come to Post from the Close City schools. All will teach in the grade schools. Supt. R. T. Smith, who recommended them, indicated.

Smith reported the "teacher situation" this summer as being "in the best shape ever" with only a homemaking teacher and speech teacher needed to complete the faculty.

THE NEW CURTAINS for the two stages will cost $1,418.80 installed and will be of flame-proof vinyl material.

They will be purchased from the Tintine Shade Shop of Lubbock. Squovay Perry of Lubbock presented the materials proposed to the board together with his firm's proposal.

The auditorium curtain and curtains for two auditorium doors will be of jewel tone fabric and will cost $940. The high school speech room stage, which was unreturned this year, will be of a more inexpensive material and will be installed for $478.80.

The board approved a recommendation by Supt. Smith that the requirements for the college preparatory course in high school be eased by dropping the requirement of a fourth year of science and a fourth year of math.

Smith pointed out that for most college degrees these courses are not required in high school.

"We are not weakening the college preparatory program," Smith explained, "but many girls do not have a chance to take homemaking, typing or other electives if they are in the band. Since the fourth year of math and science are not required in colleges except for engineering, med. science studies, etc., we can thus loosen up the program. Those that need these courses for college will be advised to take them and they will remain available as electives for all those who want them."

Twenty credits still will be required for graduation, he added. Trustees present voted for the change with Dr. Carter not voting. He said he would want to think about it longer before making up his mind.

SUPT. SMITH handed out written copies of the new school guidance program for trustees to take home and study before considering at their next meeting. The guidance program will go into effect the next school year.

The superintendent said it was prepared by Curriculum Coordinator James West and his committee. At the start of the meeting, the trustees approved the First National Bank of Post as the school district's official funds depository for the next three years beginning Sept. 1. Irby G. Metcalf, bank president, appeared before the trustees, to discuss the bank depository aspects.

The board decided to give Dick Allen, junior high custodian, a one week's vacation this summer. Allen fell and hurt his back last winter and was off 13 days at full pay.

Trustees after discussion voted to write the architectural firm a letter stating the board felt the architects should pay the $250.00 additional estimated expense of a new floor over the boiler room in the junior high building now being remodeled because they overlooked including it in specifications for the remodeling.

John White gives views on proposed omnibus farm bill

By JOHN C. WHITE
Texas Agricultural Commissioner

It's about time for taking a close, honest look at the Administration's proposed long-range Omnibus Farm Bill.

What will it do? Is it a "dictatorial" bill as has been charged? How does it affect existing farm laws?

To begin with, the farm bill is a far-reaching measure designed to up-date the carrying out of national agricultural programs by snipping away red tape and making the operation of such programs more democratic in nature.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman's bill is predicated on the principle of opportunity for the farmer equal to that of any other basic producer in the American economy, and he seeks to give the farmer himself a voice in insuring that opportunity.

The bill deals with all major program areas of American agriculture, but its major section relates to supply adjustment and price stabilization. This section provides the machinery whereby farmers can work together with the government to adjust their production to modern needs and conditions. Commodity advisory committees made up of farmers would work with the Secretary of Agriculture to set up referendum elections for the individual farmers themselves to decide on price supports and/or production controls, subject to approval by the President and the Congress.

Criticism of the bill has been most severe in publications where basic prejudice against any type of government assistance to farmers

(the only producers in our economy who have no way to influence financial rewards of their enterprise) has overshadowed responsibility for reporting the facts.

They charge that the Secretary of Agriculture seeks "dictatorial powers" and "stiff controls" on farmers when, in fact, no powers or controls could be effected unless the farmer of individual commodities themselves asked for and overwhelmingly approved them. In addition Congress would be required to approve such programs but would be spared the tedium of formulating them — having left that task to the Secretary and the farmers themselves.

An even bigger fact which critics have overlooked is that the Secretary of Agriculture now possesses most of the powers which he is charged with seeking. Existing agricultural legislation authorizes him to prescribe conditions of eligibility (such as required compliance with acreage allotments) before making producers eligible for price support. He can also establish nationwide marketing orders, after appropriate fact-finding, on any commodity. And he can do these things without consulting with any farmer and without referring such proposed orders to Congress.

The Secretary of Agriculture, however, has no desire to set effective programs for American farmers into effect by such arbitrary action — unless he is hamstrung on this current farm legislation, in which case he would have little or no alternative.

Of course, as Texas Congressman Bob Poage of Waco — a veteran in the field of farm legislation — has said, this farm bill, like all long and comprehensive measures, needs amendment to insure its fully democratic character. The Secretary has agreed to such changes, and argument on these points for the sake of controversy is nothing more than beating a dead horse.

The basic reasoning behind a change in the formulation of agricultural policy is obvious but not realized by most people: Agriculture directly influences but a small minority of American citizens — though a lot of Texans — today, get smaller, rather than larger. It becomes more and more difficult each year for Congressmen from big cities to vote for farm programs in which their constituents are not interested and which may just flat resent without a reason.

Many big city Congressmen frankly served notice that they are not going to continue to support farm programs. The logical way to overcome this reluctance is to present programs with the added incentive of producer committee approval by the Secretary of Agriculture and approval by the President.

The administration's farm legislation is the most able and sound initial step toward the grave problems of farm income today.

the new school year except Mrs. Maud Pettigrew who submitted her resignation. The board asked Supt. Smith to write Mrs. Pettigrew a letter of appreciation for her service to the school system. Mrs. Pettigrew is retiring.

A NEW EXTRA curricular activities policy was tentatively adopted for the new school year which would be subject to change if any complications develop. The policy was worked out by the superintendent, school principals, and those teachers and coaches involved in extra curricular activities.

The 18-point policy includes:

All extra curricular activities shall be put on the calendar and approved by the principal two weeks prior to the event and preferably 30 days before so that it will appear on the school calendar which comes out each month.

Any student in extra curricular activities may take three cuts from any extra curricular activity without being removed or penalized from the activity he has taken his cuts. At no time will pressure be used from any source to influence students on the activity to attend when conflicts arise.

If there is a conflict in two or more organizations, the student and his parents will decide which activity the student is to attend.

Any student entering any extra curricular activity and is still in this activity two weeks later must remain in the remainder of that semester. No schedule changes will be made after two weeks.

All extra curricular activity will be given two days per year on school time. This does not include Interscholastic League competition.

All phone calls and visitors will be taken on free periods.

Eligibility lists will be made in the principal's office for Interscholastic League.

If a student is failing more than one course he will not be permitted to leave school to participate in any extra curricular activity.

Buses must be returned to the home of the regular drivers and must be clean and must be refueled when possible.

All football players have to be covered with insurance before beginning practice. All players must pay the student fee before beginning practice.

J. E. BIRDWELL, presiding over the session, read a letter from Dan Cockrum of the Cockrum Printing Co. detailing what materials and supplies he wants to bid on for the local schools and asking that he have the opportunity to make bids. Cockrum urged purchasing everything from hometown merchants that is possible to buy at home.

The trustees asked Smith to get in touch with Cockrum and advise him when bids are accepted on various items, but emphasized the superintendent's instructions from the board are to make purchases at the lowest possible price whether a local or outside source is the low bidder.

Smith said Cockrum has had the opportunity to bid in the past but was overlooked this year.

The board took no action on a request by Coach Alexander that a full credit be given boys who come out for major sports and stay all year.

Dr. Carter read a resolution which he wanted the trustees to pass taking a stand against federal money for financing education. He asked that copies be sent to senators and the area congressman.

The board adopted the resolution with the wording that the trustees were acting only as individuals and were not speaking for the entire school district.

Supt. Smith told the board for their approval, which was forthcoming, that in billing the Southland schools for tuition for the past school year for Negro students brought here from the Southland district notice will be given that the rate for the next school year will be the same as any outside district pays in tuition for students studying here. That is between $180 and $190 a year.

The Southland Negro tuition for the last year is being billed at $18 per student per month or $144 a year.

Dr. Carter told the board that he would like to place on the agenda for discussion at the trustees' July meeting two items.

One is to improve the methods used in giving football players their pre-practice physicals. The other will be a presentation by Dr. Carter on athletics below the high school level.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner of Health.

AUSTIN — More Texans have been sickened by infectious hepatitis to date this year than in any similar period since the State Department of Health began keeping records on it back in 1952.

Between January 1 and April 1, the exhausting liver ailment had stricken 1,028 persons. Some of them are undoubtedly still feeling its ill effects, since the disease is capable of keeping its victims bedridden for weeks.

For the first 13 weeks of 1960, only 493 cases of the ailment had been reported in Texas. The highest incidence previous to this year was 626 cases reported in 1954.

The reason for the present upsurge in cases is not known. Public health physicians say the disease seems to attack relatively large numbers of people — mostly youngsters and young adults — every eight or 10 years. Why it should follow such a cycle is a mystery.

But it is known that infectious hepatitis is caused by an elusive virus for which man is the reservoir. And it is known that it is spread by personal contact with sick persons or with carriers, and sometimes in contaminated food or water.

Although most cases occur among children and young adults, people of all ages are susceptible. Fortunately, the disease is rarely fatal. Doctors report that the death rate seldom exceeds 2 percent, even in epidemics.

Victims of the disease usually begin feeling sick two or three weeks after exposure. They usually lose their appetite, feel fatigued and weary. They may be nauseated, but may or may not vomit. They will feel aching and sore, and may have a sensation of heaviness in the stomach.

One of the most prominent symptoms is a yellow discoloration — known as jaundice — of skin and whites of the eyes. But some persons never show such discoloration, and children sometimes contract the disease without showing any of the typical symptoms.

Having one bout with infectious hepatitis is usually pretty good insurance against having a second one, but second attacks have been known to occur.

A physician should be called at once in any suspected case of infectious hepatitis. Bed rest and adequate diet are necessary for an uncomplicated recovery.

The most efficient tools for preventing the disease are good hygiene, and a high level of community sanitation. Contacts of known cases should see their family physician or promptly after exposure as possible to determine if injection of immune serum globulin are advisable for passive protection.

(A weekly feature of the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

Progress in chemistry is making folks skittish of food poisoning

Ever since the start of public water fluoridation for the sake of dental health and the cranberry contamination scare of recent years there has been growing concern in Texas and elsewhere that we are being "poisoned" by our own progress in chemistry.

The fact is that there is no evidence to indicate that any material approved for use in agriculture or public health has proven detrimental to man in connection with his diet.

The cause for alarm in practically every instance has been the peddling of misinformation, half-truths, statements out of context and concocted stories by seekers of notoriety. These alarmists are often food-faddists or well-intentioned but uninformed people who believe that nothing wholesome ever came out of a chemical factory.

ACTUALLY, A VITAMIN is a vitamin whether it's made in a chemical factory or whether it comes from an orange. (Oranges, especially Texas oranges, of course, are one of our best sources of natural Vitamin C, and in taste far superior to a vitamin pill.)

Fluoridation of water — which must be exacting and carefully controlled — has reduced dental decay in youngsters by 50 to 60 per cent in those communities which follow competent scientific advice. Anti-fluoridationists claim there's a difference between natural and artificially fluoridated water. Water with the mineral nutrient fluorine added and food enriched with vitamins have as much purity as ever and certainly more wholesomeness.

To cite an example close to home, in a recent year there was a sudden alarm sent against use of a chemical cotton defoliant containing arsenic acid because some Texas cottonseed oil products were found to have six parts arsenic acid per million. This seemed shocking and dangerous to the uninformed who weren't aware that arsenic acid is also a by-product of sea-food and that a small shrimp cocktail contains a harmless 150 parts arsenic acid per million. The alarm was soon quieted.

INSECTICIDES, CERTAINLY no aid to food enrichment as such, are nonetheless vital to production of healthy and undamaged foodstuffs. Use of such chemicals is carefully controlled and, despite fears and shoutings of alarmists, there is no record of any cancer or other serious human illness resultant from use of agricultural chemicals on food crops.

Fortifying of food is one of the outstanding advances of public health of all times. Vitamin D added to milk and other foods has helped abolish rickets. Salt with iodine added has practically eliminated simple goiter.

We have the best and finest food in history — also the safest. Thanks to the many responsible companies that have in mind the welfare of the people as well as profits and the capable professional staff of the Food and Drug Administration, we can be confident and unafraid.

Q. I had active service from Jan. 1, 1920, to March 12, 1922. I hold a honorable discharge. Can I consider myself a veteran?

A. Yes, you are a veteran by virtue of your military service. However, you are not a veteran of a "war period." World War I eligibility for benefits is considered as starting April 6, 1917, and ending on Nov. 11, 1918, except for those veterans who served with the United States Military Forces in Russia, in which case the war period starts April 1, 1917, and ends April 1, 1920.

Q. My World War II veteran husband deserted me and the children through no fault of mine. He died recently. Am I eligible for pension?

A. You are a veteran's widow despite desertion and are eligible for pension if you can qualify under the income and estate limitations.

Q. My father, a World War II veteran, and my mother never actually married. After her death his mother brought me up. Now he has died. My birth certificate shows his name as my father. He always supported me. I am now going to school and am not married. Am I entitled to pension until I am of age?

A. Yes. Make application immediately with your nearest VA office.

Q. Is it true that the VA has patients in some non-VA hospitals?

A. The VA uses some beds in Federal hospitals under the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Beside beds in non-VA Federal hospitals, the VA may authorize care in non-Federal hospitals for veterans with service-connected disabilities, under certain conditions.

Q. Because of my income, I am not entitled to the VA pension although my deceased husband had the required wartime service. Are my minor children by my deceased veteran husband eligible?

A. Yes, minor children may be eligible even if the mother is not.
