Ruben FFA dairy cattle judging team were entered in the contest at Lamesa placing third, Dawson fourth and New Home fifth. Jack Bowen, with a score of 209 points, was high point man on the team and ranked fourth high in the contest, Jerry Thuest and Larry Hill were other members of the Post team and Jimmy Ivin was alternate.

Post High School principal elected

T. C. Clark, who resigned recently as superintendent of schools at Aspermont, was employed Monday night as principal of Post High School by the board of trustees of Post Independent School District. Clark is in his ninth year as superintendent of the Aspermont schools. His resignation becomes effective June 30 and he expects to move to Post soon afterward.

As high school principal, Clark will replace Glenn Whittenberg, high school principal here for four years, who has accepted the position of junior high principal. Soon after entering the teaching profession, Clark was in the Southland school system for three years before entering the army, in which he spent four years. After serving as a coach at Aspermont, he went to Putnam, then returned to Aspermont.

He is a graduate of Sul Ross State College, from which he has a Master's Degree.

The board also employed Clark's wife as a teacher in the elementary school here.

Enforcement is promised

County Judge J. E. Parker and Mayor Powell Shytles indicated Wednesday that they believed the city and county will "go along on whatever steps are necessary for adequate law enforcement" when legal liquor comes to Precinct 3.

Sheriff Carl Rains promised, "if the city and county will give me enough help, which I do not now have, my department can keep things in line regardless of the change in our wet-dry status."

Mayor Shytles told The Dispatch that exploratory efforts are now being made to see how much aid local law enforcement forces can expect from the state liquor control board and the state highway patrol before determining what additional personnel will be needed here.

BOARD TO ASSIST

Leon Bowman, supervisor of the 20-county Lubbock district for the Texas Liquor Control Board, told The Dispatch by phone Wednesday afternoon that whenever the liquor stores open here "we'll be down there with two inspectors" to help control it.

He said he was contacting his state office over possible additional help.

The state highway patrol office in Lubbock told The Dispatch in response to a query about the possibility of assignment of two patrolmen to Post that "we're three short in Lubbock now and six short in the district."

Three raids Friday yield one 'stash'

Three raids in "the flats" the day before the liquor option election was held brought results in only one instance.

Three liquor board agents from Lubbock and three local law enforcement officers teamed up in the raids Friday afternoon.

Sheriff Carl Rains and one of the liquor board agents found enough intoxicants in the home of Gaylon Mitchell to result in possession charges being filed against Mitchell in county court.

No charges were filed in the other two raids, one made by Deputy Red Floyd and a liquor board agent and the other by City Marshal Junior Shepherd and a liquor board agent.

Mitchell, charged with possession of beer, wine, whisky, gin and vodka, pleaded not guilty Saturday. His bond was set at $750 by County Judge J. E. Parker.

Explorer Post is organized here

A new Explorer Scout post has been organized here with the First Methodist Church as sponsor.

At a meeting Tuesday night, attended by 21 boys, officers and a program committee were elected. Tommy Boucher was elected president and Richard Cook, vice president. The program committee is composed of Harold Wayne Mason, Dean Johnston and Bobby Hudman.

The Explorer post is for boys over 14 and under 18 years of age. Those interested in joining are asked to attend the next meeting, which will be at 7 p. m. Thursday, April 21, in the basement of the First Methodist Church.

"Much help and cooperation is needed if this organization is to last," said a spokesman for the sponsoring group. "The people of Post are asked to do their part toward keeping the Explorer group going. It will create new interest for our boys and give them something to do."

16 prizes for Easter 'artists'

All youngsters through age 12 are eligible to enter The Post Dispatch's second annual Easter Coloring Contest today which offers 16 prizes in two age divisions plus a pass to the Tower Theater for every entrant who fails to win one of the prizes.

Deadline for receipt of entries, either brought or mailed to The Dispatch, is Saturday, April 23. Announcement of the 16 winners will be published in the April 23 edition.

The contest, as last year, is divided into two age divisions—those seven years and under, and those 8 to 12 inclusive.

First prize for the seven years and under division is a battery-operated bubble blowing monkey with lighted eyes. Second prize will be a standup blackboard, third prize will be either a pair of Texas Ranger guns and holsters if the winner is a boy or a Hi-Heel Teen doll if the winner is a girl.

First prize for the eight through 12 division will be a battery-powered flying model plane "Electro-mechanical Flash" if the winner is a boy and a stuffed elephant if the winner is a girl.

Commissioners 'okay' vote

The Garza County commissioners' court canvassed and certified the votes in Saturday's two-liquor option elections Monday morning at the opening session of the court's April term.

In other action the commissioners:

1. Canvassed and certified the votes in the April 2 school trustee elections.
2. Discussed the employment of a county trapper for coyotes and jackrabbits.
3. Decided to continue their study on establishment of a county library.
4. Accepted the audit of Garza Memorial Hospital for 1956 through 1959.
5. Accepted a bid for repainting of the exterior of the courthouse.
6. Heard a report from Ronnie Parker on the White House Conference for Children and Youth.
7. Authorized the purchase of a new typewriter for the county clerk's office.

Preliminary survey set on school remodeling

Members of the Post school board told Fred Novack Jr., owner of Inland Construction Company, Monday night that they will meet with him within the next few weeks to make a preliminary survey on the proposed remodeling program at the present high school building.

Novack, whose construction company is building the new high school here, told the board that he will do the remodeling job for which the materials cost, plus labor and an additional 10 per cent.

The contractor told the board that if he cannot do the job for $30,000 or less, he will not attempt it. He also said that by starting the remodeling work on or about June 1, he can have the building ready for use by school opening time in September.

Novack assured the trustees that the new high school building will be ready by July 1. The present high school, after remodeling, will be used as a junior high.

The board voted for Novack to draw up the preliminary plans for the remodeling after he and the trustees make a room-by-room survey to arrive at just what is needed in the improvement program.

The contractor told the board that he would welcome the employment by them of a local man as supervisor of materials, etc.

"In fact," he said, "it would be to my advantage for you to have some qualified person to represent you in overseeing the job."

If the remodeling job can be done for $30,000, that will be less than half the $70,000 architects estimated it would cost to remodel the building.

Lions are ready for broom sale

The Post Lions Club's broom sale to be held next Tuesday was discussed at Tuesday night's meeting, after which the Lions went as a group to the high school to sit in on the Citizenship Training Program sponsored by the Rotary Club.

The Lions have been divided into two teams for Tuesday's broom sale, according to Dr. John E. Carter, chairman of the project.

Dr. Carter said 74 per cent of the proceeds from the sale will go to the Lighthouse for the Blind, where blind persons manufactured the products being sold, and 26 per cent will go to the local club for community projects.

Dealer predicts 12 to 15 places will be opened

This West Texas town had a new kind of stampede on today—for liquor store applications—following Saturday's surprising 133 to 123 vote decision in Precinct 3 for legalized liquor.

The land boom along Farm Road 651 and the Clairemont Highway for package store sites began Sunday with a "Cadillac invasion" as news spread across the South Plains that Lubbock was soon to have a new and closer liquor source.

Precinct 4—Justiceburg—voted to remain dry Saturday by a top-heavy 52 to 28 margin in the second local option election.

BIG TRADE AREA

Tom (Pinkie) Roden, well known West Texas liquor dealer who quickly purchased a choice location, estimated to The Dispatch that "12 to 15 liquor stores" will go into business here to serve "a trade area of 250,000 people."

He may have been too conservative. Legal notices for 12 store applications appear in today's Dispatch.

Oil row on the Clairemont highway almost overnight will be half taken over by liquor stores. Several oil firms have leased their properties there. One oil man, Odie Palmer, plans to go into the liquor business for himself under the name, The Oil Well.

Almost fantastic prices for lease and purchase are reportedly involved.

Pat Walker is reported to have leased his present home to Ralph Lowe of Lubbock and sold a duplex next door to Tom (Pinkie) Roden, of Midland, both established liquor dealers.

Most of the store applications are from out-of-towners, Lubbock, Big Spring, and elsewhere. But besides Palmer, Ed Sims and Mike Mitchell have signed legal intentions to open stores.

Two of the applications won't be anywhere near Post—but close to the Crosby County line 18 or more miles from Post. They would be about as close to Lubbock and also could serve the dry Crosby County area.

Dry forces, stumped by Saturday's defeat at the polls, were mum as to future plans.

The Rev. Bill Hogue, leader of the dries, told The Dispatch yesterday that, despite rumors to the contrary, "we haven't employed an attorney yet" and "have conducted no investigation" into the Saturday voting.

"We don't have to hurry," Rev. Hogue said. "We have 30 days to contest the election."

CONTEST RUMORED

There were plenty of rumors that a contest could be expected.

One-out-of-town attorney Monday was flashing $1,000 in bills on Main Street and challenging anybody to "bet me this amount I can't keep the wets from opening up."

Some 45 persons were in the district courtroom yesterday morning for a session at which Kenneth W. Cook of Austin, director of accounting of the license and permit division of the Texas Liquor Control Board, explained procedures and the law relative to obtaining various kinds of liquor and beer permits for operation here.

The Dispatch office was literally besieged Wednesday with liquor store applicants putting in legal notices of application for such permits.

NOTICES IN PAPER

These notices are contained on pages 4 and 8 of today's Dispatch. The notices are required by state law so that anyone wishing to protest the granting of such applications may do so.

Two members of the Lubbock office of the Texas Liquor Control Board, Claude Holmes and Frank Cammes Jr., who also attended Wednesday's meeting said an investigation is made of all applicants. (See LIQUOR STORES, page 8)

School board rehires crew of bus drivers

Eight bus drivers in the Post school system were rehired by the school board Monday night on the recommendation of R. T. Smith, superintendent of schools.

The drivers rehired were N. R. King, Leonard Tittle, William St. John, Billy Hahn, Mrs. Basil Puckett, Mrs. Maudie Pettigrew, Mrs. Ruby Ray and James Pollard.

Norman Cash goes to Detroit Tigers

Norman Cash of Justiceburg has been traded by the Cleveland Indians to the Detroit Tigers.

Cash, an utility infielder - outfielder on the Cleveland roster, was traded for rookie third baseman Steve Demeter. No money was involved.

Cash, who was with the American League champion Chicago White Sox last season, was traded to the Indians a few months ago while playing winter ball in Venezuela.

T. C. Clark of Aspermont

T. C. Clark, who resigned recently as superintendent of schools at Aspermont, was employed Monday night as principal of Post High School by the board of trustees of Post Independent School District.

Election results leave job to be done

When Precinct 3 voted wet Saturday, the results jolted the town. Many folks were utterly dismayed. Other thinking people said it will end a sham which needs ending.

It will be to the community's best interests now for everyone to remember that the Saturday vote was American democracy at work. A decision for legal liquor has been made by a majority of the voters in the precinct, whether you agree with that decision or not.

While the legality of legal liquor in a Garza County precinct is yet to be determined, according to our best information, it appears that liquor's sale across the counter will be allowed until a state supreme court decision finally settles it.

Now is the time to work for effective law enforcement of legal liquor. This will require the wholehearted support of everyone, no matter which side of the fence he or she was on during the recent wet-dry campaign.

It is time to explore the possibilities of legal liquor and see how much control of liquor sales the community actually can exert for its own welfare and the welfare particularly of its youth.

Law enforcement will need to be "beefed up" at both county and city levels. The people will need to fully support a crackdown on all types of both liquor and traffic violators.

Now is the time to "restudy" the problem of local law enforcement and to come to some realistic decisions.

State liquor control agents have promised to give Post's new legal liquor problem full attention. But that won't be enough. Night-time officer patrols and a round-the-clock sheriff-police department radio operation are essentials.

This is not a time for bitterness and factional dispute. Rather it is the time for determination and purpose.—JC.

Big primary campaign is next

The Garza County political campaign is off and running—well into the final month leading up to the first primary election on May 7.

With that early May primary, the candidates have little time left to door-knock the county.

The office-seekers of course have been getting in some spade work for the last couple of months, but the school trustee and city council and especially the wet-dry precinct votes held Saturday have overshadowed their efforts and focused public attention on something else.

Now that the wet-dry election is over with a 50-50 split in the outcome, the law enforcement problem is certain to spotlight lots of attention on the sheriff's race . . . and those two county commissioner races should be humdingers.

That's why, now that you're beginning to accumulate a pocketful of campaign cards, you shouldn't look down your nose at the candidates and complain about too much politics this spring.

Look them over. Don't just nod and say hello. Ask them where they stand on things. You're going to be picking some men to help run your county through some trying times. You want the best. You want those with ideas, experience, and a point of view which matches your own.

When another Town Hall session is called, be there. Hear them answer panel questions. Be an informed voter with a knowledge of the candidates.

Nor should we overlook the fact that the state primary elections will come along in May too. We all complain about what is and what isn't done down at the state capital at Austin.

But most of us can't brag about the fact that we're doing our share as citizens and voters. We don't know the candidates—or the issues, generally.

Running for a state office isn't easy. It's hard to cover Texas, to get your name before the folks, and to get your views before them.

We newspaper folks know that. The candidates can't afford an extensive advertising campaign that will reach everywhere.

Nor can they sit down and listen to radio and TV broadcasts if they buy them. We don't know the answer. Maybe there isn't one. But we know everyone needs to be encouraged to study the men and the issues on a state level more than we do now.—JC.

The newspaper takes a bow

It is not often, as you may have noticed, that a newspaper takes times out to blow its own horn.

But we think the report just released by the Newsprint Information Committee justifies a little tooting. It says:

American newspapers gave their readers more news and features—about 200,000 tons more measured in newsprint—in 1959 than ever before.

Among the nation's biggest newspapers in 39 cities increases in advertising and editorial averaged three pages to bring the average of these papers from 39 pages to 42—an all-time record.

Over a wider area, including smaller cities, dailies increased by two pages during the year for a total of 37 pages per issue.

And, certainly, among the nation's weeklies, semi-weeklies and tri-weeklies, the story is one of similar expansion.

The Dispatch, during 1959, was a part of this growth with on-the-average bigger weekly editions throughout the year, including at least four special editions, and steadily increasing circulation, which combined to bring our newsprint consumption well up over the 1958 figure.

This survey proves more dramatically than ever that the newspaper retains above all others its traditional position as the nation's most popular and most reliable information source—from community news, national affairs and world events to advice on what is in the market place and information on new products and services for better living.

We particularly like the comment of Cranston Williams, general manager of ANPA, who said:

... publishers have consistently placed the needs of their readers ahead of all other considerations through good times and bad. . . . Newsprint consumption reached an all-time high in 1959 because newspapers served their readers so well while advertisers showed their continued confidence in the newspaper.

It is our sincere hope that our own public can echo these sentiments.—CD.

Broom sales and school buildings

Members of the Post Lions Club are optimistic enough to schedule another broom sale after having run into bad weather on the project the last two or three years. We hope they have more luck weather-wise this time, and the way things have been looking up on the weather front the last few days, we predict that they will.

Take, for instance, construction work on the new high school and new gymnasium. A month ago, it appeared that the unusually severe winter weather might hang on so long that there wouldn't be a chance of getting the new school completed in time for the 1960-61 opening next September. But, all of a sudden, there was a turn for the better, and as a result, the building contractor and members of the school board are radiating optimism over chances for having both the gym and the school ready in time for use in September.

The school board was told at a recent meeting that it won't be many weeks before the bricklayers will be through with their work at the building, and other phases of the construction are progressing accordingly. It also improves the chances of getting the present high school remodeled this summer so that it can be opened next September as a junior high building—in case the new high school is ready.

Anything could happen, of course, where our weather is concerned, but the steady progress being made now indicates that it isn't likely the elements will halt things up.

So, all things considered, the present trend of optimism augurs well for the Lions Club broom sale next Tuesday.—CD.

A time for Christians to rejoice

Sunday is Easter, the greatest festival of the Christian church commemorating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In these days and times, with Christmas becoming more and more commercialized, Easter is coming to be considered as the most sacred period of the year. The Easter service certainly is the most elaborate of the church year in a majority of the churches. The message, "The Lord is risen," is expressed in ceremonies, prayers and music, with sunrise services being held outdoors in many places.

Easter comes at a time of year when new life is springing from Nature following the winter season. There is an old saying, "The more severe the winter, the more joyous the Easter."

It is truly a time of year for Christians to rejoice and to think back more than two thousand years ago on that Resurrection that formed the basis of the Christian faith.—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

Union members are beginning to wake up and wonder if they haven't been had. A flood of protests have begun to filter into Washington with several complaints. Members say they have been taken with dishonest elections. Anyone with a grain of common sense would have known this a long time ago. A sensible person wouldn't have put some of the nuts in office as head of a garbage detail, much less as representatives of millions of workers. Members suddenly find they are short some of their union funds. Embezzlement, destruction of records, mobster control and

"secret" contracts are just a few of the many things members are becoming aware of that has been going on behind their backs. The next question is, have they let it go so far to ever correct without ruining their organization and rights as bargaining agencies?—Marvin Tomme in The Rails Banner.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

WHAT STARTED OUT as a hum-drum job Saturday night turned in to quite a diversion after I made up my mind to jot down some of the people's reactions when they got the wet-dry election results after calling The Dispatch office for them.

Ruby Williams, Dispatch woman's page editor, had the same idea and together we came up with some interesting comments—a few of them unprintable.

PEOPLE HAD CALLED throughout the day wanting to know how the vote was going, but it was a few minutes after 7 o'clock before we had anything to tell them. The results from Justiceburg were phoned in by Buck Hundley, inter-type operator, shortly after 7, but Corkey Ammons, Dispatch printer, didn't have as much luck in trying to get the results at Lincoln Elementary School. The election officials there told him he'd have to get them after they were delivered to the county clerk's office.

Meanwhile, Publisher Jim Cornish had phoned in the results from the Verbena box, and Ruby and I had something to go with instead of having to tell the callers that we didn't know any more than they did about how the elections had turned out.

BUT, TO GET back to some of the comments. One reaction jotted down by Ruby was, "Well, that makes our town stink real good!" Then, when I told someone of the results in Precinct 3, there was a brief pause, then just two words—"Hot dog!"

Honestly, some people who didn't seem pleased with the election results acted as if we were responsible for it—when all we were doing was answering their questions about how the elections turned out. "Doggone, I hate that," said one of Ruby's callers.

ONE CALLER SAID, when told the results, "I'm leaving town tonight." Since none of the scores of callers identified themselves, I don't know whether the fellow was gone Sunday morning or not.

One thing we noticed though. Not a person who called, regardless of how they might have felt about the outcome, failed to thank us before they hung up.

MEANWHILE, BACK home, our cat had picked Election Day to crawl under the house and give birth to a litter of kittens. When I got home my wife was more concerned over the fact that the cat had crawled under the house through a hole she thought was boarded up than she was in the election returns.

We'd thought, ever since we became aware of the cat's condition, that she'd give birth to the kittens on Easter morning, as another of our cats had done, but it appears that the Election Day excitement was just too much for her.

THE MAMA CAT comes out only to be fed and since she hasn't yet brought any of her kittens out with her, and the hole leading under the house isn't big enough for anything except a cat to go through, we are unable to give out any returns on the number of new kittens.

The man up the street says modern homes are being built without attics since they started making such large purses for women.

THE MODERN OCEFEICE is where the 19-minute coffee break now lasts 45 minutes instead of only a half hour.

A careful driver drew near a railway crossing. He stopped, looked and listened. All he heard was the car behind crashing into his gas tank.

IF YOU EVER see an editor who pleases everybody, he will be neither sitting nor standing, and there will be a lot of flowers around him.

Congratulations to Post High School and Junior High School contestants for their fine showing Saturday in the district literary and speech contests at Floydada. It was the best showing made by the local schools in several years.

Community effort improving living in rural sectors

More than 900 rural communities in Texas are finding community improvement projects easier to accomplish when everyone joins in helping each other. Researcher Brown, extension rural sociologist, says 213 of these communities are now participating in the Community Improvement Program sponsored by electric utility companies in the State and the Agricultural Extension Service.

All over Texas neighbors are working to help make their communities a better place in which to live. Brown continues. It is hard to see the difference in Texas communities because they all have the same aim—improvement. The aim of each is to help their neighbors and themselves to brighten their community life.

Ford Motor Company's new Falcon Ranchero is now on display at Tom Power—Ford here in Post. It features a six-foot box and up to 50 per cent greater fuel economy plus the high styling of a passenger vehicle.

Earliest Easter parades weren't fashion shows

The first Easter Parades weren't the fashion shows Irving Berlin wrote about, but the celebration of a "new life".

The custom of wearing new clothes on Easter Sunday dates from the early days of Christianity, when newly baptized Christians were clothed in garments of white linen.

Researchers with World Book Encyclopedia report that baptism has always been closely associated with Easter. Just as the Resurrection represents the new life of Christ, so baptism represents the initiation of the believer into a new life.

In the early Church, Lent was the annual season of preparation for baptism, and the sacrament was celebrated on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil.

Eventually all Christians began to dress up for a joyful parade through town . . . much to the joy of today's clothing manufacturers.

In fact, it might have been an early advertising executive who coined the English rhyme, "At Easter let your clothes be new, or else be sure you will it rue!"

Falcon Ranchero is displayed as first U. S. economy-sized truck

Fort Motor Company's new Falcon Ranchero—the first economy-sized truck to be marketed by a major U. S. automobile manufacturer—is now on sale at Tom Power, Ford, here in Post.

The Falcon Ranchero — which has a retail delivered price of $1,862—is capable of reducing retail, industrial and agricultural light truck cost of ownership by as much as $200 per year, Wilbur Chase, truck marketing manager for Ford Division, said.

He attributed the operating cost reduction to these product advantages in Ford's new truck:

Lower initial purchase price, less costly tires, lower license fees, reduced insurance rates, greater fuel economy, greater oil economy, less expensive body repair and lower loading height.

OVER-ALL LENGTH
Over-all length of the Falcon Ranchero is 189 inches. The width and height are 70.6 inches and 55 inches respectively.

The length of the load floor with the tailgate closed is 71.6 inches—nearly 6 feet—and the load floor is only 21.6 inches from the ground. This lower loading height saves the operator more than a 100 foot-pounds of lifting each time an average 500 pound payload is placed in the Ranchero.

Powered by a durable 90 horsepower, 6 cylinder engine, the Falcon Ranchero has a three-speed manual shift synchromesh transmission with either a 3.56 or 3.89 to 1 axle ratio as standard equipment. A two-speed, air cooled torque converter type automatic transmission is available as an option.

COMPACT PICKUP
The new Falcon Ranchero is a highly stylized compact pickup truck with a recommended payload capacity of 800 pounds, a 31.6 cubic foot cargo space, a unitized body and a full-size three-passenger driver compartment.

Many features in Ford's Falcon Ranchero are the result of engineering advancements made during the development of the Falcon car lines, Chase noted.

"The vehicle offers many American businessmen their first opportunity to operate a universally serviceable truck with a hauling capacity realistically proportioned to the majority of their specific job needs," he said.

The Falcon Ranchero will offer a unitized body, a single unit construction which achieves maximum strength and rigidity with a substantial reduction in total vehicle weight.

Road debts are showing drop

AUSTIN — Texas counties are reducing their road indebtedness at the rate of almost $5,000,000 per year, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness' report on the two-year audit of the board of county and district road bonds and warrants in which the state participates dropped from $33,334,812 to $12,890,483 in the fiscal years 1955 through 1959.

Counties receive $7,300,000 each year from state gasoline tax funds to pay off bonds and warrants and construct roads and bridges.

Letter from Brownsville

Things here now are quite for the reason, I suppose, that Cortinas, with all his desperate courage, is afraid to come again into collision with either the Regulars or Rangers, as the two kinds of troops are generally installed here.

There has been considerable excitement in Matamoros during the last two days: Cause, said to be fear that Cortinas is beginning to turn against his best friends and take the place, I suppose for the reason that he, being still in the taking humor, and afraid to try his hand on this side, intends trying it where there is much more chance of success. Come back Caravajal!

I have learned that Gen. Garcia left the day before yesterday with 60 men to give battle to his friend Cortinas and was badly beaten. "O to Brute!"

La Grange True Issue

The weather is beautiful and prospects for crops exceedingly cheering. The whole earth around us seems full of hope and promise to the toiling husbandman. May no rude winds or biting frosts destroy the good time coming. May corn be a "bit" a bushel and provisions of every kind cheap accordingly.

A new post office stamp has been invented by which the impression of the post mark is left not only upon the envelope enclosing a letter but upon every fold of the letter itself. This is affected by means of a steel die the letters and figures upon which are formed by a series of fine points which pierce the envelope and its contents in such a manner as to impart ineffaceably, the name of the post office and the date upon which the letter was mailed.

We hear that the two abolitionists, Blount and McKinney, who made themselves obnoxious to the people of Dallas last summer and were summarily expelled from the country, have petitioned the legislature of Iowa and Wisconsin and demanded redress from the State of Texas. If they will return in propria persona and behave as they did before, they will be REDRESSED and no mistake.

Bible Thoughts "UNITY"

Religious people today realize that one of the greatest problems in Christianity is the lack of UNITY among believers in Christ. Division of those who have confessed their faith in Christ has brought great harm to the cause of our Lord. At present, many are striving for "union," but not for unity.

During New Testament times the church of our Lord was one. Christ had prayed that all his disciples would be one, John 17:20, 21. This UNITY for which our Lord prayed would cause the world to believe in him.

There was UNITY in the message they preached; UNITY in their faith and practice; UNITY in organization in the church under Christ, and UNITY of worship. This band of unity was faith in Christ and obedience to his will. The first century church had one tie of affiliation, love to God and each other; one mission, the conversion of the world, and one destiny, the everlasting city of God.

UNITY can be achieved by all consenting to the truth. All that we believe must be in harmony with the Scriptures.

ALL NATURE Proclaims A RISEN SAVIOUR

AT EASTER... trees and flowers blossom into a new life. AT EASTER... we celebrate our Saviour's rising to a new life, and the promise that we shall have this new life too. Attend Church Easter Day and join others in celebrating this great victory.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Easter Egg hunts began long ago

By MERIUM JACKSON

of spring, found that a colored egg might be a symbol of the coming season. So she gathered herbs and berries to dye eggs of many hues.

CHILDREN TAKE PART

On Easter Morn after church service, the Duchess gathered the children together and told them to go into the woods and make little nests of moss and twigs, taking care to mark them with their names. After they returned to her garden to eat cakes, she instructed them to again seek the nests in the woods.

Little eyes sparkled as they spied five bright eggs in each nest. "What wonderful hens must have laid colored eggs!" exclaimed some. "I would like to see such a bird," said others.

But one little girl quickly proclaimed, "Oh no, it was not a hen, who brought the lovely eggs! It was the timid hare who scampered from the juniper bush as I built my nest!"

So today, not only in that native mining village, but all over the world children build nests in which the timid hare may lay bright Easter eggs.

The sun rotates on its axis, like the Earth, only in counter-clockwise pattern, and requires 25 days for one complete rotation.

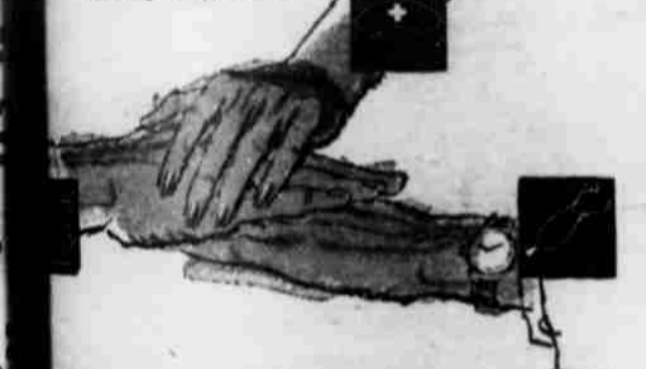

WE STICK TO OUR LASTS

There was a time when pharmacists often were called "Doc." Doubtless it was a complimentary gesture.

Even in this late day, the pharmacist frequently is asked to diagnose and prescribe by his customers.

But like the shoemaker, we pharmacists stick to our own lasts. We neither diagnose nor prescribe. These health team functions fall within the special province of physicians both by law and professional training.

As a member of the health team, we are an intermediary, serving both the doctor and the patient. Our job is to compound your prescriptions carefully and promptly.

WHAT YA MEAN, I CAN JOIN IT IN A COUPLA YEARS? IN A COUPLA YEARS I MAY BE INTERESTED IN GIRLS!

I Give You Texas...

By BOYCE HOUSE

I'm a small-town guy. (Which is scarcely news to anyone who knows me.)

The pace of life is such in small communities that people have time to sit and visit—or at least stop long enough on the street for a little conversation.

For a year, I had an office in a building in Dallas. Every now and then, I'd ride in the elevator with another tenant. All I knew about him was his name and that he was an attorney. One day, his obituary appeared in the paper and there was the information that he had been the private secretary of Governor Colquitt and of Senator Culberson. What a wealth of political incidents was lost when he died! In a small town, I would have known his background and would have obtained some of those stories.

WORLD OF STORIES

In one town where I used to live, there was an attorney who had served in the War with Spain. There was another lawyer who was so old that he had held county office as a Populist. The county judge had obtained a law license by taking a correspondence course. The county judge-at-law had graduated from Cumberland Law School in Lebanon, Tenn. The county attorney had played in the line for the University of Texas in a Thanksgiving Day victory over A&M.

Then there were an oil man who, years before, had drilled on the famous 101 Ranch in Oklahoma; a justice of the peace who was a Confederate veteran; and a sturdy farmer who didn't look within 20 years of his age and had taken part in the last Indian fight in the county. The founder of the town had been a surveyor and had made surveys in far West Texas when one would do well to keep on the lookout for bands of redskins.

EVEN MOVIE ACTOR

The sheriff was a former cowboy. The uncle of the football team's star player had once carried a bale of cotton on his back across a street. The owner of an electric shop had been a professional baseball pitcher. The proprietor of the confectionery, a naturalized citizen who was a native of Greece, had appeared as a "rustler" and as a deputy in Western pictures in "silent" days. Two brothers had a brother who was commander of the United States Marine Corps and their father was a Congressman. They were Quakers.

There was one man who had a hobby: It was killing rattlesnakes by hitting them with rocks. The driver of a laundry-wagon had a superb tenor voice and was the singing star of the annual Elks minstrels; and the quiet manager of the light company office would never have been suspected by a stranger of having a talent which made him a "riot" as a blackface comedian in that same show.

SURVIVED BOLT

The manager of the gas company's office was struck by lightning and survived. An oil operator had been a career army man, having served in the Philippines, in China, on the Mexican border and, during World War I, in France. A doctor had owned a large sugar plantation in Mexico but one night bandits made an attack and burned his home down, so he and his family returned to the United States.

Interesting, weren't they? A really gifted writer could take almost any one of them and write a novel about him. Very likely, I rub elbows in the city with people just as interesting—if there were only the opportunity to find out.

TO SPEND HOLIDAYS HERE

Miss Sandee Cross, student at Tarleton State College in Stephenville, is to arrive this week to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Cross.

Scientists believe that some 5,000 species of animals, land and sea, have become extinct over the past centuries.

Livestock Feeder's Day is scheduled at Tech April 25

LUBBOCK — Economical methods of feeding livestock on the plains will be emphasized at the annual Livestock Feeder's Day at Texas Tech April 25.

Dr. Ralph M. Durham, animal husbandry department head at Tech, said seven research reports on feeding of beef cattle, lambs and pigs will be made by animal husbandry graduate students and seniors who conducted the feeding experiments.

For the first time, carcass information on about half of the cattle which were fed during the experiments will be available at the Feeder's Day, Durham said.

"Our emphasis this year will be on the economy of utilizing plains-grown feeds," he said.

"Many of the rations used in the experiments used no alfalfa hay, but all of the rations utilized various forms of milo, silage and cottonseed by-products."

All of the feeding reports will be available in brief form for those attending the meeting. On exhibit will be some 270 Angus and Hereford yearlings and calves, approximately 200 lambs and 50 pigs.

Correct Posture Week is set for observance beginning on May Day

AUSTIN — With the objective of making the public aware of the importance of spinal hygiene to health, Correct Posture Week will be observed in Texas beginning May 1.

This will mark the 11th straight year posture week has been sponsored by the Texas State Chiropractic Association in an effort to impress upon Texans that spinal normality and correct posture are basic to health and healing.

In a statement issued by Drs. E. V. Mullenburg of El Paso and Jay H. Perreten of Houston, state co-chairmen of posture activities, it was stated that the spine houses the body's power and communication system, both of which can be impaired by spinal defects, thus lowering a person's efficiency as well as lowering his resistance to disease.

Observing the rules of good posture, it was stated, can do much toward keeping the spine in line.

Various activities are planned to show the relationship between posture, the spine and good health. Most of the areas of the state were planning to hold posture queen contests, the winners of which will compete in finals that will be held during the TSCA convention in Houston in June.

CHEVY! YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS ...UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

Anyone who's looked around knows the majority of Chevrolet models—6's and V8's together—list for less than comparable models of other low-priced cars. But the price tag alone is only one of a whole raft of reasons a Chevy does better by your dollars.

Nothing near Chevy's size and price can match the Full Coil cushioning of its ride, or the fine, finished workmanship of its Body by Fisher. That even applies to some cars that cost a lot more. You're up in the higher price brackets before you find a car that moves as quietly as a Chevrolet or offers the inner space that Chevrolet does.

Or look at the extras Chevy gives you—at no extra cost—that others in its class can't offer at any price. Shock-cushioned steering. Safety Glass in every window. Keyless locking of all doors. Crank-operated vent windows. Chevrolet offers the widest choice of power teams, too. Drive a Chevy just once. You'll have a tough time settling for anything less.

Liquor stores--

before the applications are issued.

Anyone wishing to complain against granting of licenses to any listed in the legal notices should do so by writing the Texas Liquor Control Board, Austin, Tex.

NO FEE ACTION

Neither the City of Post nor the Garza County commissioners court has taken any action as yet to set licensing fees for liquor stores and beer taverns or to regulate operating hours.

Both city and county were waiting until they have full information on the state law before considering such steps.

In discussing the wet victory at the polls, Rev. Hogue told The Dispatch that "I don't think this is the feeling of the majority of the people in Precinct 3. A lot of people didn't vote who have now said they would have voted if they had known how it was going."

There were 256 votes cast in the precinct in which they were 284 poll-taxes-paid voters and many more over 90 years of age who are not required to pay poll taxes.

Rev. Hogue said 40 casting votes in the precinct were not listed on the poll tax rolls.

This leaves 216 of the poll tax holders voting and 68 poll tax voters not voting in the election.

JUDGE STEPS IN

County Judge J. E. Parker twice went to the voting box at the Lincoln Elementary School Saturday morning. The first time it was to explain to election officials that poll tax receipts were not required for voting.

The second time he was accompanied by County Attorney Carleton P. Webb after a complaint had been received that the two dry supervisors at the voting place, Lee Ward and Candelario Quinones, had been questioning voters.

Webb told The Dispatch the complaint was not investigated but that the two supervisors were instructed that they could not legally say anything except to election judges to call attention to any voting irregularities.

The box at the Lincoln Elementary School went west 121 to 106, while the Verbera box voted dry 17 to 12.

VOTES CANVASSED

The commissioners' court canvassed the liquor option election votes Monday morning and found everything in order and certified the results.

This took only five minutes of the court's time, after which they called in Deputy County Clerk Faye Cockrell to enter the canvass and certification into the minutes of the meeting, as County Clerk Carl Cedarholm was tied up in district court.

One dry, commenting on the wet victory in Precinct 3, declared: "I don't think I've ever seen so many people literally sick over the result. Raising funds to contest the election in court would be no problem."

Best guess as to how soon the first liquor stores can legally get into operation here would be at least two more weeks—probably more.

TWO PUBLICATIONS

Legal notices have to be published in The Dispatch twice—that means also in the April 21 edition for those getting their notices in today's edition.

The district liquor control office investigates the application and must also inspect the building in which the liquor store is to be opened.

Applications can be processed by the liquor control board in Austin the same day they are received and a license issued, Cook said at the explanatory meeting in the courtroom yesterday.

He emphasized that the building must be on site before any application can be made however.

BEER BOTTLER

Local men trying to get wholesale beer distributorships told The Dispatch yesterday none were available for known brands. They already had gone to wholesale dealers in the Big Spring area.

Cook explained that a branch dealership for beer distributors can be issued to those who already have a license in another Texas county.

The city and county both are limited to charging licensing fees of no more than half the state licensing fee.

There is no county resident requirement to obtain any of the many liquor licenses, but an applicant must be a Texas resident for three years.

Building requirements for beer taverns include separate toilets for men and women and running water, if available.

Cook pointed out that under the state law county judges have no authority to hold a hearing on package store permits. If any legal objections are made, the liquor control board will call for such a hearing in Austin.

LOCATION REQUIREMENTS

Liquor stores and taverns cannot be located within 300 feet of church, school or hospital.

The state law sets operating hours for liquor stores as 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. weekdays, closed on Sundays, and 7 a. m. to midnight for sale in taverns weekdays except Saturdays when 1 a. m. closing is allowed. Sunday hours are 1 p. m. to midnight.

The city or county can reduce these hours by their own action, but not increase the state hours.

Cook told the group of county and city officials, law enforcement men, and prospective license applicants in the session yesterday that the Texas Liquor Control board needs a "lot more men".

"We have only 130 inspectors for 254 Texas counties,"

HELP PROMISED

He promised "100 per cent co-operation" of state liquor control board forces to enforce legal liquor laws here.

The question came up Wednesday as to whether the VFW Club here can obtain an on-premise sale beer license.

Cook advised that it is hard for a club to comply with the state requiring incorporation at Austin and issue of stock certificates. He rather advised club to sell the beer concession to some qualified individual who could obtain the license in his own name.

Cook admitted he just "didn't know" when asked if the city could call an election on local option and vote the city dry, due to the overlapping of precinct 3 into the city.

The same issue cannot be voted upon again in Precinct 3 for 12 months according to the state law.

FUTURE INSECURE

Most of the liquor store applicants appeared to be trying to lease, rather than buy property here due to the insecurity of the future.

An appeal of Castro County dries challenging the legality of the Castro County precinct election last year is to be heard by appeals court in Amarillo in June and is sure to be carried to the Texas Supreme Court.

Both the Castro and Precinct 3 election here in Garza County might be declared illegal at that time.

Interest in the Saturday election here was high. Hundreds were downtown Saturday. Over 200 calls were received in 90 minutes time here at The Dispatch asking for results. Dozens more dropped in. Radio Station KUKO remained on the air to broadcast the election returns.

TRAINING COURSE

A 10-day Sunday School training course is to begin at the Assembly of God Church Monday, April 18, the Rev. J. R. Brincefield, pastor, announces. The public is invited to attend.

Pulpit committee named

Presbyterians are buying manse, lots

The First Presbyterian Church at a congregational meeting Sunday morning authorized the purchase of a new manse for its pastor in Sunset addition and the purchase of three additional lots to add to its new church site on West Tenth Street between Avenues R and S.

The new manse is being purchased from Ted Parks, Snyder builder. It is an 1,800 square foot new home with attached double garage. The residence, completed some weeks ago, has three bedrooms and den and refrigerated air-conditioning.

The church's present manse at 610 West Main is being traded in on the new property.

BOUGHT FOR $2,035

The three lots are being purchased for $2,035 and will give the church a half block for the site for its new church. Five lots were purchased a year ago.

Purchase of the manse is subject to the approval of the Plains Presbytery.

The congregation also elected a pulpit committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. David Newby, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan J. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Burney Francis, to seek a new pastor for the church.

The Rev. Clinton Edwards, who is leaving to assume pastorate of a Fort Worth Presbyterian church May 1, was given a vote of appreciation for his service to the local church.

Three permits to build are issued

Three building permits for construction costing an estimated $1,350 have been issued at the City Hall during the last few days.

Harry A. Tubbs was issued a permit Monday for sidewalk and steps, curbing and driveway at his Main Street lots just east of Broadway. The project will cost an estimated $500.

A permit was issued A. D. Ryan for remodeling of his residence and a new roof at 105 West 13th Street, costing $750.

Hattie Barrett was issued a permit for remodeling a room at her residence at a cost of $100.

Seismograph employe hurt in truck wreck

Richard Lee Tanner, a seismograph company employe, was still in Garza Memorial Hospital this morning from injuries received about 6:30 p. m. Tuesday when a truck he was driving overturned nine miles south of Post on the new Gail road.

Tanner was returning from work when the accident occurred. City Marshal Junior Shepherd, who investigated, said the truck turned over one time after a front wheel hit a ridge at a point where the road is still under construction.

Commissioners--

tion, but the judge said he would seek an extension so that this year's valuations can be studied in regard to financing establishment and maintenance of a library. Judge Parker said the county's tax equalization board is to meet the second week in June.

The hospital audit accepted by the commissioners' court was made by Harold P. Wine at a cost to the county of $1,118.03.

The courthouse repainting bid accepted by the commissioners was $3,775, with Isaac Brown and Lowell Scrivner the contractors. They have completed repainting almost the whole interior of the courthouse, and new blinds are being installed this week in the interior remodeling job.

Parker, who is Church of Christ minister here, discussed at length the White House Conference for Children and Youth, which he attended in Washington. Garza County paid half his expenses to the conference, with the minister's church paying the other half.

The new typewriter being purchased for the county clerk's office is an IBM standard electric. Cost to the county is $412.50 plus trade-in of a used typewriter.

EASTER SERVICES

The sermon for the Easter Sunday service at the First Presbyterian Church is titled "God's Greatest Miracle" taken from 1 Cor. 15:20. The choir will sing "The Holy City".

CHURCH REVIVAL

The Rev. R. W. Patterson announces a revival to be held at the Church of God of Prophecy, starting Easter Sunday. Mrs. Deann Chatham, twenty year old evangelist from Ranger will be in charge.

Sheriff investigates 'suspicious' hole on farm north of town

A glass jar and paper cups that had contained syrup and a can of brake fluid were dug up Tuesday by Sheriff Carl Rains in a "suspicious" hole on the Arda Long farm, about 13 miles northwest of Post.

Long reported the hole to the sheriff after coming across it near his farm pond. Found near the hole were several articles of a small boy's clothing, including a leather jacket without any sleeves. Some of the clothing had been partially burned, the sheriff said.

Also found near the shallow hole, which was about three and a half feet wide and four feet long, were two or three bottles of mineral oil, the sheriff.

The sheriff surmised that the hole had been dug by someone looking for fishing worms after slipping onto the farm to fish in the pond. He said the clothing and other articles apparently had been discarded by the fishermen.

Antelopes are third in 3-AA track meet

The Post High School track team qualified six boys for the regional Friday in winning third place in the District 3-AA track and field meet at Lubbock.

The Antelopes, with 100 3-4 points, finished behind the Floydada Whirlwinds with 162 3-4 and the Tahoka Bulldogs with 102 1-4.

Except for a streak of bad luck, which started with a disqualification in the 440-yard relay, the day's first event, the Antelopes of Coach John Blocker and Harold Teal would have finished much higher in the point totals and might even have nosed out the Whirlwinds for the championship.

The Antelopes' disqualification in the 440-yard relay not only knocked them out of 20 points, but was

30 Post Boy Scouts attend District Camporee is held on area ranch

Thirty members of Post Boy Scout Troop 16 were among the 127 Scouts attending the Comanche Trail Camporee held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the H. B. Woods Ranch, 40 miles east of Post in Kent County.

The 127 Scouts attending represented seven troops of the Comanche Trail District.

The Camporee got under way Saturday morning with the 100-yard dash and rope-pulling contest—troop against troop.

Afterwards, the following demonstrations were presented: Cecil Fox of Spur, wildlife; Lyndal Womack of Ralls, archery; H. B. Woods and D. E. Woodard of Spur, rifle; Jack Horton of Spur, survival.

Troop competition continued Saturday afternoon with Scoutcraft skills, purification of water, rattlesnake bite treatment, first aid, compass reading, distance measurement, and survival.

Saturday night's campfire program was opened with Troop 16 of Post and Troop 32 of Ralls doing Indian dances. There were also skits and songs, and Cecil Fox and H. B. Woods showed a two-hour film on wildlife.

Church services were conducted Sunday morning by the Rev. Jack Horton. Troop competition that day consisted of rifle and archery matches.

Troop 16 Scoutmaster Bob West said he feels sure the Post troop's 187 points will be high score for the Camporee, although one troop score was still out when the Scouts left camp.

The scoutmaster and members of Troop 16 thank Tommy Markham and Mr. Hutchins for helping out; also Bill McGlaun, district Scout executive, and all the other men who helped put on the Camporee.

Get licenses before fishing, wardens warn

AUSTIN — A few days of sunshine has doubled the number of fishermen on the lakes and streams of Texas, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

"Wardens checking these fishermen find that most of them have their licenses," the director said. "A few, however, have put off buying their fishing licenses and it is necessary to charge them with violation."

Fishing licenses are required of all persons, except those under 16 or over 65 years, fishing with rod and reel in any Texas waters.

Non-residents pay the same fee for their license as Texans—$2.15—which permits fishing in either fresh or salt water.

"Visitors to Texas are appreciative of this license," the director said. "Most states charge a much higher price for non-resident fishing privileges. As a result of our minimum priced license, we get many fishing visitors in the state."

Fishing licenses can be bought from most sporting goods stores, the county clerks and game and fish commission offices in the major Texas cities.

No school Friday. Easter holidays include Friday and Monday.

Report cards were given out Tuesday. Just think, only six weeks more!

The seniors met last week to talk to the representative from Safta Fe. Mr. Tipple explained types of cars, eating facilities, lay-overs, and expenses for the class trip.

New steadies are Jan Herring and Mike Cornell and Pat Shearer and Tom Drake.

The senior girls are to cook bunny cakes Friday in the home economics lab. Due to limited facilities and time, only four cakes can be sold by each senior. See a senior if you want a bunny for Easter.

Some people, you can't convince! Rhea and Curtis, school is out Friday and Monday for Easter. It's their birthdays and they think that's why no school. Don't anyone tell them different!

AUSTIN — A 30-member committee appointed by Gov. Price will meet May 18 to begin work on a tall task.

The management of the State Finance Commission will be to suggest every possible economy in government and recommend a program to put the state on a sound financial basis.

For the immediate future the tax program is to wipe out the general fund deficit, which the governor estimates will be $40,000,000 at the end of this fiscal year, and provide $35,000,000 for teacher raises.

The committee is to be made up of citizens in both public and private life. Six already have been named. They are Secretary of State Zolle Steakley who will be chairman; Jess Irwin, the governor's budget director; Jon Ford, legislative assistant to the governor; Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the University of Texas Center of Business Research; John McKee of Dallas, Ford Motor executive; and Hugo Lowen, Amarillo real estate man.

Daniel said he would ask the committee to search for revenues other than a general tax or state income tax.

He hopes, said the governor, that the committee will work out some recommendations soon so that a session can be called this fall to pass teacher pay raises.

The Texas requirement for pay-raising financing, the Legislature would have to pass taxes to wipe out the deficit before it could vote funds for the school improvement program.

ENDORSE TEACHER RAISE
Nearly three-fourths of the candidates for the Legislature this year have told the Texas State Teachers Association they favor a pay raise for teachers.

Some qualified their statements to indicate that getting the pay raise might be an easier-said-than-done proposition.

Of 401 candidates for the Senate and House, 338 answered TSTA's questionnaire, and 293 said they approved the Hale-Aikin school program.

Asked if they would vote the necessary taxes for it, 252 promised support outright. Others added conditions on the kinds of taxes they would approve.

LOAN PLAN DISAPPROVED
Third Court of Civil Appeals has held the certificate plan used by some loan companies is unconstitutional.

Loan companies involved in the test case are expected to appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Under the certificate plan, the borrower of $100 would agree to repay his loan through monthly payments on an investment certificate for $110. This, according to the Attorney General's Department, forces the borrower to pay more than the permitted 10 per cent interest because the interest does not drop as he pays off the principal.

Loan companies, which won the first round in district court, contend that the same procedure is used by banks, savings and loan associations and other lending institutions.

Attorney General's Department replied that there is no specific provision prohibiting other institutions from computing interest in this manner.

SCHOOL BUYING RAPPED

Clothing purchases at the Texas Blind, Deaf and Orphan School for Colored in Austin were far in excess of use during the past 18 months, State Auditor C. H. Cavness reported.

Cavness said his audit turned up excessive clothing purchases totaling $3,824. In all, he said, 3,942 articles of clothing were bought, but only 75 articles were issued to the children.

He said he had received no "reasonable explanation" for the discrepancy. Cavness suggested that the Texas Youth Council, which oversees state schools for needy and handicapped children, make an inventory and transfer surplus items to other schools.

CITIZEN INTEREST URGED

Texas Law Enforcement Foundation has called on individual citizens to feel responsible for the way the law is observed in their communities.

Citing no specific instances, the TLEF executive committee said that "a breakdown in citizen responsibility must precede any breakdown in law enforcement."

Three new members have been elected to the TLEF executive committee. They are Neill Master-son Jr. of Houston, Weldon Jones of San Angelo and Radcliffe Kil-lam of Laredo. Dolph Briscoe Jr. of Uvalde is new secretary of the committee.

Plans are under way to expand the foundation's board to include representation from every part of the state and to set up a program to assist families of law enforcement officers killed on duty.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT IT
State Supreme Court has again refused to get involved in a dispute as to whether a Dallas district judge can hold a railway president in contempt of court because trains blocked a Dallas street.

However, the high court repeated, with emphasis, its belief that the district court order is void and "no trial judge will attempt to enforce" it.

Dallas Dist. Judge Jack Thornton sentenced M-K-T President W. N. Deramus to 240 days in jail and levied a $4,000 fine because Katy trains blocked a street for more than five minutes at a time, against the judge's order. Since then, an underpass was begun.

Deramus, a St. Louis, Mo., resident, has sought to avoid coming to Texas to appear in Thornton's court despite the Supreme Court's reassurances. Thornton has declared he would put the railway executive in jail.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas permanent school fund now totals $413,231,236, according to a report to the State Board of Education. Fund is built up by revenue from mineral lease bonuses, rentals and oil and gas royalties on public lands set aside for schools. Only the income from investment of the fund can be spent.

A record number of Texans have qualified themselves to vote this year. State Comptroller Bob Calvert estimates that poll taxes plus exemptions will total 2,559,000. This compares to 2,410,000 in 1956.

Prices received for Texas farm and ranch products increased two per cent last month, said the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, but were nine per cent below a year ago.

Area farmer gets SCS assistance on soil, water-saving practices

By BOBBY JACK GRAY
Work Unit Conservationist

A basic conservation plan, which is the foundation for any good, sound conservation, is just as important in getting conservation on the land as good house plans are when you start to build your home.

The first step in applying conservation practices on a farm or ranch is to contact your local practices applied that he will need.

Also included in Ben's plans is to use a conservation cropping system of sorghums, sudan or small grains, guar or peas, along with his cotton to maintain soil fertility on the farm, and leave his crop residues on the soil surface until about April 1 to control soil blowing.

Ben is receiving financial assistance through the Great Plains Conservation program in applying these practices to his farm. The program is paying from 50 per cent to 70 per cent of the cost of applying the practices on this farm.

Contact your Soil Conservation Service office for assistance in preparing a basic conservation plan on your farm or ranch and plan to treat each acre of your land according to its needs.

OPPORTUNITY KNOX WANTED!!

100 (One hundred) people from Precincts No. 1, 2 and 4, Garza County, to contribute $100.00 each toward building a honky tonk in Precinct No. 3, Garza Co.

Why be a buyer when you can be a retailer, and get yours at wholesale. Those interested please contact us at Box XXXX, Memphis, Tennessee.

SORRY—Those people of Precincts No. 1, 2, and 4 that have had and still have, places that harbored bootlegging and houses of ill repute in Precinct 3, cannot be included in this offer, even though they were run by people other than the owners.

This offer is limited to those that have followed the dry trend throughout the years, unaware of the fact that some of their neighbors have been reaping revenue from their rental property in "the Flats."

Now is the time to catch up.
