

Liquor agents hit violators; election protest is filed

Tavern closed; criminal charge filed on store

Package store operators and tavern owners had it on the record that the agents of the Texas Liquor Control Board "mean business" in the enforcement of the liquor laws in the sale of liquor in Garza's new precinct.

The tavern has been closed pending liquor control board hearing. Criminal charge has been filed against a package store operator allegedly selling beer to a county minor, two have been arrested and fined for drunkenness as a result of the tavern and two different administrative cases are pending by the liquor control board against the same package store operator charged in the criminal complaint.

The tavern which was closed by the Green Lantern in "the name" of Agnes Marie of Lubbock.

MAN TRIES CHECK

C. Bowman, Lubbock district supervisor of the Texas Liquor Control Board, entered the Green Lantern at about 7:30 p. m. Monday on personnel employed at the Dispatch yesterday had three or four drinks in there and they refused to let them out.

Bowman said "the bartender try to assist me and as soon as I got to my car radio called for police aid."

The two city officers, O. G. Shepherd, Jr., and Marshal Buford Funcham had within five minutes," said three of those in the white men—had jumped and were being abusive.

MAN DONE

It is said they didn't lay a hand on C. A. King was arrested for drunkenness and by the time he had been put in jail, R. Johnson, who also had been at the VIOLATIONS, page 8)

Liquor store is closed Thursday

Agents broke in and got away with a truckload of famous brand liquor from Big John's Cut Rate Store No. 5 last Thursday.

It is estimated the loss is as high as $4,000 worth.

The liquor store is located 18 blocks northeast of Post on FM-651 in the Crosby County line.

Barron of Lubbock, owner of the store, told The Dispatch that he had no insurance over the loss and that he closed the store as a result of the loss.

The Texas Rangers and agents of the Texas Liquor Control Board are working on the case in connection with Sheriff Carl Rains, who said he didn't know exactly how big the loss was as he is busy before restocking.

It was plenty."

The honorees were Mrs. Maurine Lackey, Mrs. Lillie Kitchen and Miss Lola McWhirter.

The reception was held in the Community Room of the First National Bank from 7 until 9 o'clock. Guests included faculty members, members of the board of education and other friends of the honorees.

A gift was presented to each of the three teachers in behalf of the organizations by Mrs. Albert McBride, Mrs. Victor Hudman and Mrs. Gene Gandy.

Appropriate table decorations carried out the theme of the occasion.

Fay Claborn easy winner in sheriff's contest; 1,838 vote

Garza County voters, more than 1,800 of them, went to the first primary polls Saturday and spoke out so decisively in five contested county races that only one runoff is necessary in the June 4 second primary.

The loudest voice expressed by the voters was for a change in law enforcement, with L. E. (Fay) Claborn Jr. outdistancing Jack Myers by only 20 votes — 424 to 404. Victor H. Kuykendoll polled 165 votes and Clay B. Johnston, 56.

County Attorney Carleton P. Webb was successful in his bid for re-nomination, receiving 999 votes to 726 for Thomas W. Gambelin.

in the race for Precinct 3 commissioner, Ozell Williams won re-nomination over J. A. (Jack) Kennedy, 121 to 106.

J. A. (Julius) Johnson ran well ahead of opponents Edward (Eddie) Shaw and Thomas Ammons in his race for re-nomination as Precinct 1 constable. Johnson received a total of 705 votes. Ammons was second with 172 and Shaw third with 144.

The closest county-wide race was between N. C. Outlaw and T. L. Jones for county Democratic chairman. Outlaw won re-nomination by a vote of 899 to 804.

Nominated without opposition were T. H. Tipton, tax assessor-collector; George H. Hansard, district attorney; and the following precinct chairmen: Harold W. Lucas, Sam Ellis, A. T. Sanderson, Pearl Nance, L. H. Peel, J. W. McMahon, Clark Barton, Loucille Morris, A. I. Cross.

In the Governor's race, Garza countians gave Price Daniel 984 votes to 777 for Jack Cox.

The county went for Ben Ramsey in the lieutenant governor's race, for Waggoner Carr in the attorney general's race and for Robert W. Calvert in the race for Chief Justice of Supreme Court.

County to defend itself in lawsuit naming officials

County Attorney Carleton P. Webb told The Dispatch today the county commissioners' court will defend itself in a suit brought against it over the weekend in the district court of Garza County to declare Precinct 3's liquor election null and void.

Webb said he "didn't think" the pleadings listed in the suit "are sufficient."

The suit, filed at 8 p. m. Friday by Roy Bass and Kenneth Hobbs, Lubbock attorneys, on behalf of five residents of Precinct 3, declares in the first place that the commissioners court had no legal authority to call and hold such an election and that it thereby should be declared null and void by District Judge Truett Smith of Tahoka.

ALLEGES ILLEGALITIES

In the second place the suit alleges illegal and fraudulent conduct of the election by which "the outcome of the election was materially affected."

County Judge J. E. Parker and County Commissioners Racy Robinson, Elva Peel, Ozell Williams, and Mason Justice discussed the suit briefly with County Attorney Webb at the monthly court session Monday.

Judge Parker told The Dispatch that the court has not made any arrangements about hiring additional counsel, but that the suit will be defended.

County Attorney Webb has until May 31 to file an answer to the suit. He told The Dispatch he did not expect the suit to come to trial before fall.

WANT DEPOSITIONS

"We want to take the depositions of the plaintiffs and some others before the suit goes to trial," he explained.

Plaintiffs in the case are C. W. Hinson, Route 2, Spur; R. W. Self, Route 2, Spur; James C. Gatlin, 201 Avenue C, Post; N. C. Andrade, Box 1225, Post; and Cancell Kirby, 205 Avenue E, Post.

The first allegation of the suit—that the Garza commissioners' court had no authority to call and hold the election—is based upon the same premise as the suit brought in Castro County by the dries in an effort to throw out a precinct option election there won by the wets.

The district judge in Castro County ruled in favor of the dries, but an appeal was carried to the Court of Civil Appeals in Amarillo where a decision is scheduled to be announced June 7.

APPEAL EXPECTED

Regardless of the decision in the appeals court, the loser is expected to carry the case to the Texas Supreme Court for final decision.

Postings

By JIM CORNISH

This is The Dispatch's Cotton Week Edition, coming out a few days early, to give a boost to Post's planned Cotton Week observance next Thursday, May 19, when the Postex Cotton Mills will hold its first public open house in two years with a whole raft of door prizes, and the Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a free barbecue for probably 2,000 local folks and area residents with Postex Mill employees being honored. This edition is filled with Cotton Week ads pointing to the importance of cotton as a crop and local industry. We recommend: make a date to take the mill tour next week and see first hand what a big industry it is, and how mechanized and efficiently operated by Burlington Industries. Then take in the barbecue and eat your share of that 900 pounds of good barbecued beef—all next Thursday.

The Dispatch is sticking to its job of covering all the local news fronts — including Bourbon Street — as well as all the ramifications of the protest of the Precinct 3 liquor election. We are not going to "try the case" in this newspaper, but we will print everything available on it as the case moves along. In our treatment of the various liquor developments we promise neither to play them up, nor play them down. They will get the space they merit strictly as local news. (See POSTINGS, page 8)

Cotton Week observance begins Monday

Free barbecue, mill open house to highlight event

Post and Garza County's celebration of National Cotton Week next week will come Thursday, May 19, with an all-day open house at the Postex Cotton Mills and a big free barbecue at the 4-H building with more than 2,000 folks expected.

The barbecue is sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce with local merchants chipping in to purchase some 900 pounds of beef plus beans, bread, coffee, pickles and onions.

The barbecue will honor the 500 Postex Mill employees but is free to the general public.

Serving will be from 1 to 6 p. m.

A variety of Garza sheets, pillow cases, and other Burlington Industries' products—some 30 to 40 in all—will be given away as door prizes at the Postex open house.

Guided tours of the big plant will be provided from 8:30 to 4 p. m. and all adults are urged to take a trip through the town's leading industry and see how thousands and thousands of sheets and pillow cases are made each day.

The Postex page-sized invitation to the Open House will be found on page 3. The barbecue invitation appears on page 11.

Due to federal law, no person under 16 years of age can be admitted to the Postex Mills so children cannot make the tour during the Thursday open house.

STELZER HEAD CHEF

Matt Stelzer will be the head chef for the barbecue. His entire "committee of cooks and helpers" will be published in next week's Dispatch. He had not completed lining up his volunteer personnel at presstime today.

The barbecue was planned and is under the direction of the Chamber's agricultural committee, headed by George (Scotty) Samson. Other committee members are Mayor Powell Shydes, County Agent Lewis Herron, and Earl Rogers.

Wil Scarborough is the barbecue supply chairman. Lynn Duncan is the barbecue finance chairman to raise the donations to pay the food bill. Shorty Hamilton is donating the wood.

SERVING COMMITTEE

The Chamber's serving committee for the barbecue includes Shelley Camp, Leo Acker, Max Gordon, Malcolm Bull, Claud Collier, Jim Cornish, J. B. Putts, Harold Lucas, Jim Hundley Jr., Tom Power, E. R. (Buster) Moreland, Irby G. Metcalf Jr., and Bryan J. Williams.

This is the third year the Post Chamber of Commerce has observed Cotton Week with a special event. A cotton style show and festival was held the first two years in the grade school auditorium.

This year the barbecue honors the Postex Mill employees whose work has done so much to put Post on the industrial map.

Event set for early August

Saddles will go to rodeo stars

The best all-around cowboy and cowgirl at this year's Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo are to receive prize saddles. It was announced at a meeting Tuesday night of Post Junior Rodeo officers and directors in the Community Room at the First National Bank.

The rodeo is to be held Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Plans were also discussed at Tuesday night's meeting to add a cutting horse contest to this year's rodeo events and an Appaloosa Horse Show to be held the final day of the rodeo.

Roland Reed of Fort Worth, for the second year, will furnish the stock for this year's rodeo.

The rodeo group also signed a contract with Jimmy Mackey and the Texas All-Stars of Brownfield to furnish the music for the dance each of the four nights.

Post man is lucky— Wins Comet

D. H. Hawkins, Postex Cotton Mill employee who lives at the corner of South Broadway and East Third street, is the winner of a new Comet—the Ford Motor Company's new compact car.

Hawkins was notified this week by telegram that he was one of the 50 national winners of the Come-Away-With-A-Comet Sweepstakes.

The Post man who soon will receive the new small car valued at over $2,000 won the car through a national drawing after signing up for the sweepstakes when he visited the Storie Motor Company's showroom here when the Comet was introduced a number of weeks ago.

Architect right, after all

New figures stymie school remodeling

A contractor who told the Post School board a few weeks ago that he believed he could finish the remodeling job at the present high school building for $30,000 or less has changed his mind. It was announced by Supt. R. T. Smith at Monday night's regular board meeting.

Smith told the trustees that Fred Novack Jr., contractor on the new high school building now under construction, revised his figures upward to "500,000 or 600,000" after making a survey of what needs to be done at the present high school building.

Earlier in the year, architects had estimated that it would cost some $70,000 to finish the remodeling job.

Any chance of the remodeling being done this summer, as planned, appears dim at this time, the trustees indicated after hearing the superintendent's report.

Part of the remodeling — conversion of the auditorium into classrooms and an upstairs assembly room—was completed last summer.

Yet to be done in the remodeling project is rewiring, relighting, new floors and ceilings, new rest rooms, repainting, etc.

Religious issue enters picture

Demo convention set for Saturday

The religious issue in this year's presidential campaign was injected into Garza County politics Saturday when the Graham Chapel precinct convention instructed its delegate to "support any nominee he sees fit, with the exception of Mr. John Kennedy."

Kennedy is a Catholic.

All voting precincts at Saturday's precinct conventions named delegates to the county Democratic convention to be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the district courtroom.

Only three other resolutions were adopted besides the one adopted at Graham Chapel. In the conventions in the North Post and South Post voting boxes, resolutions were adopted instructing the delegations to vote as a unit in Saturday's county convention. At Southland, a resolution was adopted instructing their delegate to support Lyndon B. Johnson as a presidential candidate.

Prepared resolutions endorsing Johnson as the Democratic nominee for President were sent to all precinct conventions by Johnson for President headquarters, but the Southland Democrats were the only ones adopting the resolution.

The precinct delegates elected to Saturday's county convention are as follows, according to a list released by N. C. Outlaw, county Democratic chairman.

North Post: Isaac Brown, Katharine Trammell, N. C. Outlaw, Claud Collier, Boone Evans, Irene Rodgers, Alternates: Walter Cridler, A. M. Lucas, Ben Howell.

South Post: Wilburn Morris, Lester Nichols, Julius Stelzer, Bobby Cowdrey, Alternate: Thomas W. Gamblin.

Justiceburg: Mason Justice.

Verbera: Dale Cravy, Alternate: David Tyler.

Two Draw: A. I. Cross.

Southland: E. W. Callaway, Alternates: Valton C. Wheeler, Graham Chapel: George Ramage.

Close City: R. E. Bratton, Alternate: A. T. Nixon.

Pleasant Valley: B. L. Thomas, Alternate: Henry Whaitley.

Lightning outdoes

Light rain

Lightning outdid the rain here Tuesday night in putting Post on the weather map.

While only .20 of an inch of rain was measured, lightning caused damage to a home and put the police radio out of commission.

A bolt of lightning struck and melted the television antenna at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Webb at 801 West Sixth Street. Smoke filled the house and the fire department was called, but the only damage other than smoke was loss of power for a time.

Communications between four sheriff's office cars and the office was disrupted until 11 p. m. after lightning struck the 78-foot radio tower which is on a cap- (See LIGHT RAIN, page 8)

'Cotton's Dynamic Sixties'

"Cotton's Dynamic Sixties" would be an appropriate program theme for Post and Garza County's annual observance of National Cotton Week, May 16-23.

Going into the Sixties decade of the 20th Century, cotton and its allied industries bid fair to earn for themselves an even more imposing place in the nation's economic spotlight during the next ten years.

As Garza County's biggest agricultural cash crop, the cotton industry certainly is worthy of a week of special attention here. And Postex Mills, whose approximately 500 employees will be honored at a barbecue Thursday afternoon, May 19, certainly is deserving of that honor by virtue of its being not only the biggest industrial plant in Post, but also one of the biggest in this part of the country.

Because the cotton crop and Postex Mills are so important to and so much a part of Post and Garza County, every citizen is urged to join in the observance of National Cotton Week, one of the highlights of which will be an open house at the mills on the same day the barbecue is held.

Today, it is just as important as it was last year, or even ten years ago, to buy cotton products when we have a choice. Again this year, "Buy Cotton" is being stressed during this special week by the National Cotton Council and related organizations.

Since our economy is, to a large extent, geared to cotton, we should remember this "Buy Cotton" slogan at every opportunity. The inroads on the cotton industry by synthetic materials have been telling, but cotton still can make a big comeback if we'll only help it along.

And, before we forget, the Post Chamber of Commerce and local merchants are to be commended for making this year's observance possible—the Chamber by its sponsorship and the merchants for their decision to finance the barbecue.—CD.

Utility extension policy needed

The City of Post isn't starting any too soon in its move to adopt a practical and a fair policy for extension of water and sewer facilities to new home-building projects. In fact, it's something that done months ago would have resulted in less agitation among developers, building contractors, new home owners, and city officials as well.

When a town begins to grow—and Post started its present surge some time ago—it should be up to the city government to have a clear-cut policy on what it can and will do in the way of utility extensions. A hit-and-miss policy isn't fair to anyone, least of all to those engaged in building projects contributing to that growth.

Utilities, of course, are the lifeblood of residential additions . . . without them, a house is just a house, nothing more. With no reasonable degree of certainty that water and sewer service will be available, no builder is going to come in and start developing a residential addition.

We have no intention here of suggesting to the City of Post what it should do in the case of utility extensions, especially those involving big expenditures, as most of the recent ones have, or would. It's just that we believe a well set-out policy should be adopted on extensions—one as fair to the builder as it is to the city—and closely adhered to.

We also think the city should take into consideration that in view of the tax roll additions brought about by new homes, it will be to the city's benefit to go as far as it can toward making water and sewer extensions available in every new addition.—CD.

Congratulations to top students

Congratulations to the Post High School and Junior High School valedictorians and salutatorians and other honor students, ten—the top ten academically—of whom are selected each year in the high school.

Congratulations, also, to those students who barely missed making the top echelon of honor students in the high school and junior high school.

The purpose of our public school system, and the sole reason for its existence, is to educate the people, and through this education to prepare them for a richer life, both financially and intellectually.

Students today, particularly in the public schools, tend to be ashamed of having intellectual prowess. Much bragging is heard on the star athlete, or the best dancer and social butterfly. Little is said in praise of the top ranking scholars until along about this time of year when scholastic awards are handed out.

Helping to overcome this slight of the intellectually proficient and the student who applies himself in going after an education will be Post High School's new policy of awarding honor sweaters or jackets each year to the top 10 per cent scholastically. These sweaters worn by the students who earn them should gain just as much respect as those awarded in football, basketball and band.—CD.

Cut down for close look

While it's hard to get a grip on the statistics of the world population of nearly 3,000,000,000 and the pressures they represent in the political and war-making potential, it can be done by reducing them to one town of 1,000 population.

Of that 1,000, some 60 would be Americans; all others would be in the 940 remaining. The 60 Americans would have one-half the total income, and all the others the other half.

Eighty persons would be believing Communists, and 370 under Communist domination.

The 60 Americans would have life expectancy of 70 years; the 940 others would be lucky to average out at 40.

Americans would have 15½ times as much as all the others. They would produce 16 per cent of the food supply. The Americans would have 12 times as much electric power, 22 times as much coal, 21 times as much petroleum, 50 times as much steel and general equipment as all the rest.

The lowest income groups of the Americans would be better off than the average of the rest of the town. Most of the non-American people would be poor, hungry and sick; and half of them would be unable to read or write.

More than half will never have heard of Christ or what He stood for, but very soon more than one-half will have heard of Karl Marx and why he should be followed.

Each of those American families is spending $350 a year for defense to be sure Karl Marx isn't the only one that the whole town or world will know about by the year 2000.—Reprinted from February, 1960, "TOPICS."

After thousands of years

The newspapers of the country have plenty of competition from newer media of communication, notably TV. And they're meeting it by doing a better job.

The Rayville, La., Beacon-News reports on some facts produced by the Newsprint Information Committee. It says: "American newspapers gave their readers more news and features—about 200,000 tons more measured in newsprint—in 1959 than ever before.

Modern man is one who drives a mortgaged car over a bond-financed highway on credit-card gas.—The Andrews County News.

Life today is like a round of golf—as soon as we get out of one hole we head for another.—The Ochiltree County Herald.

A labor leader recently expressed some concern over the declining position of the farmer in our national economy. Well, well! We would like to ask the labor leaders and our own Senator Ralph Yarborough how in the world are you going to help the farmers' lot by increasing the minimum wage, extending such to an additional 2.1 million workers, including braceros therein, or cutting out the bracero program entirely? We people in the farming country don't want this kind of help. Or, do we?—The Lynn County News.

The cities and towns that are trying to meet the growing needs of the people are the ones which are seeking most growth and local prosperity. Check the cities and towns you know. The ones which have grown and prospered most are those which have been doing things. The courage to grow on sound business principles is the key. The problem is people, how to attract them, how to keep them. And Floydada can do anything about that it wants to do—if all the people will work at it.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

There is some agitation in Amarillo to close up the pool halls and it has been pointed out that pool halls are illegal in Texas. This may be, but every town that we know about has a pool hall and we can't find much objectionable in them. True, some of the sports play pool and snooker for money. The same sports bet on ball games. The pool halls usually have domino games going where it is un-mored that money sometimes changes hands, but curiously enough, the operation of domino games is within the law. The law merely singles out pool. Some efforts are being made to get this anti-pool hall law off the statute books, but it is meeting with little success. No lawmaker wants to endorse pool halls.—Harold Hudson in The Ochiltree County Herald.

WARM WEATHER took its time getting here, but Sunday afternoon's reading of 97 degrees left no doubt of its arrival.

No matter how light the vote has been, there's just something about election results that draws the people in droves. Saturday's vote was considered a heavy one and it was a large crowd that gathered at the courthouse to get the returns. But I've seen just as big crowds turn out when the vote was much lighter.

IT WAS A TOSS-UP as to where the most was going on about 8 o'clock Saturday night—in front of the election returns board or across the tracks where the package stores had just opened after being closed during voting hours.

Friday night's Junior-Senior Banquet, with its "Sayonara" theme was really something! On behalf of The Dispatch I wish to extend thanks for the invitations sent the publisher and wife and the editor and wife.

SINCE I HAVE neither the time nor the inclination to try to be clever in this week's column, here are a few little success items to help fill it. All of the stories are about nice people.

Gene Young, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Young, is one of 11 graduating senior band members at McMurry College, Abilene, who will be honored Friday night in the final appearance of the McMurry College Band. It will be the traditional formal concert given in honor of graduating band members, and Gene will be one of the five music majors sharing the podium with Prof. Raymond T. Bynum, McMurry Band director.

During the Friday program all seniors will be presented special awards and two will be honored with trophies as "most valuable girl" and "most valuable boy". All will be presented certificates of admission into the Ex-Indian Band Members Association and will follow the traditional signing of the book, permitted only for seniors who complete their college work while members of the band.

William R. (Bill) Bennett of Post, head of the science department at Friona High School, has been awarded a National Science Foundation scholarship at the University of Texas—a nine weeks' course beginning June 13 with Dr. Addison Lee in charge. This is Bill's second year as head of the Friona High School science department after having taught in Post Junior High.

Phyllis, owned by Riley Miller of Justiceburg, won first place in the 1960 foals class in the Appaloosa Horse Show at Baird last weekend. And that reminds us—Scotty Samson says there'll be big news coming up before long on the annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show to be held later this year.

Gene Hendrix, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cox, who have lived in Post for over 40 years, has been elected to membership in the El Paso Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society of El Paso High School. This distinction was conferred upon him by virtue of his scholarship, citizenship, leadership, service, and character. Gene's mother, Gladys Hendrix, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cox, and is a Post High School graduate. His father, Jess Hendrix, grew up in Southland and has been connected with the trucking transportation business in this area for over 25 years. Gene's family moved to El Paso two years ago from Lubbock.

Other proud grandparents here are Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cook, whose granddaughter, Charlotte Nell Cook, was second place winner for national honors in the 1960 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Contest. Charlotte Nell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Clinton Cook of Leesburg, Va., where her father is an agricultural economist with the Foreign Agricultural Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. As runner-up for national honors after winning first place in the state of Virginia, Charlotte received a $4,000 scholarship at the awards din-

Postex Cotton Mills Open House

During National Cotton Week on Thursday, May 19

Come At Your Convenience
Anytime between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

AN AERIAL VIEW OF POSTEX COTTON MILLS

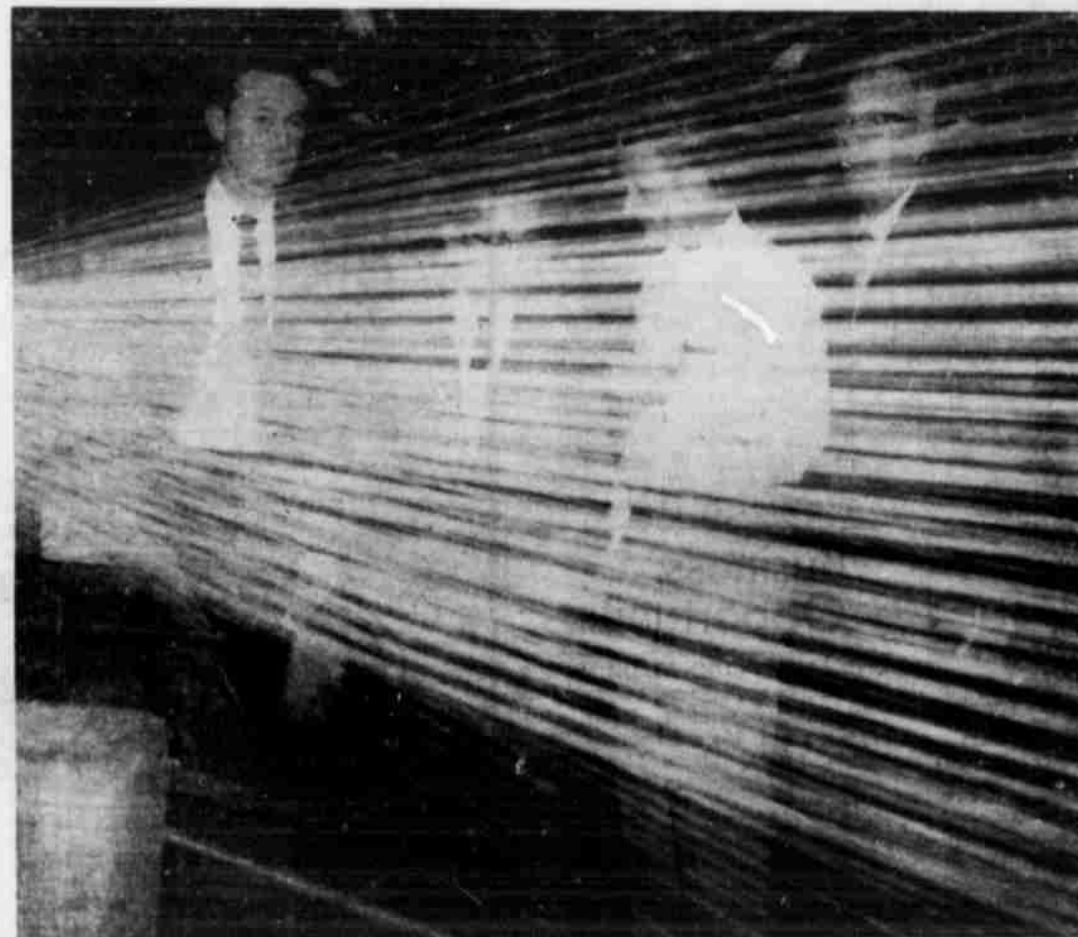

This will be the first public open house of Postex Mills in two years—the last being in Cotton Week during the spring of 1958.

We are sorry but federal law forbids youngsters under 16 years of age from being admitted to the mills.

Postex Mills employ around 500 persons with the cotton mill working around the clock on a three-shift basis, six days a week. The sewing room is operated on a single shift basis.

Modern Postex equipment includes 360 automatic looms and 17,750 spindles. The big sanforizer, pictured below, is one of the world's biggest. It was installed last year.

Guides will be provided to conduct guests in small groups through the entire plant and explain plant operation. Postex Mills take the raw cotton from the bale and process it completely through to Garza and Foxcroft sheets, both flat and contour, and pillow cases, bleached and in six colors.

Door Prizes

A variety of Burlington Industries' Products will be given as door prizes.

The drawings will be held at the conclusion of the Open House. All winners will be notified.

THE LARGE SANFORIZING MACHINE WHICH LOOKS FROM THIS ANGLE LIKE A HIGH SPEED NEWSPAPER PRESS

We take pleasure in inviting all of you fine folks to participate in our open house in recognition of National Cotton Week.

We here at Postex Mills take pride in the contribution we are making to the growth and progress of this community and we want you to see and understand our operations, which have been completely modernized and expanded in recent years.

Remember the Open House hours are from 8:30 A. M. to 4 P. M. next Thursday.

R. J. (Rube) JENNINGS,
President.

Hybrid sorghums big Garza help
 Development of hybrid sorghums has brought more than $185,000 additional to Garza farmers each year for their milo crop, Rotarians were told at their Tuesday luncheon.
 Bill Dorman of Lubbock, who showed a movie on the development of the hybrids, gave the figure prior to showing the film.
 County Agent Lewis Herron told Rotarians that hybrid sorghums was the hope of the farmers of the area for a second cash crop. He said hybrids had brought a big increase in per acre yield and thus more cash return to a crop previously had not been very profitable.
 Herron in a short talk about Garza County now has some irrigation wells which roughly gate 12,000 acres. He said, however, a lot of these wells are small size and are hooked together to the water providing job.

Four Post clubwomen attend 63rd annual TFWC convention

Four Post clubwomen were in attendance at the 63rd annual TFWC convention held in Austin, Texas, last Monday to hear Mrs. Boyd of Denton, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, declare that a new constitution for federation is a result of the re-districting of the clubs. The talk opened the 63rd annual convention of the federation at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel. New districts were formed in the change April 12, and Mrs. Boyd stated it was the "biggest accomplishment during my administration".

Mrs. J. H. Haire, president of the Post Woman's Culture Club, Mrs. D. H. Koeninger, Mrs. Tillman Jones, and Mrs. Jack Burgess, delegate from the Amity Study Club, attended the convention. Featured speakers included Governor Price Daniel, Attorney General Will Wilson, and Austin's Mayor Tom Miller.

The Post women, along with more than 350 other clubwomen, were guests at a tea at the governor's mansion, with Mrs. Price Daniel hostess.

The convention began Monday with committee, district, state, and trustee meetings, followed that night with a Texas dinner. A Civil Defense seminar highlighted Tuesday's session, with an "Our Federation Lunch" held at noon in the Brazos Room of the Commodore Perry Hotel. That afternoon the clubwomen were taken on a bus tour of Austin.

Wednesday the sessions were split, with the junior and senior clubs holding special conferences. Awards were made at an afternoon session. Social events for the day included a tea, followed by a party. Installation of officers was followed with a reception at the TFWC Headquarters, 2312 San Gabriel. The Austin federated clubs were hostesses.

Practice helps to make interesting floral arrangement

Floral arrangement is easy and can make fascinating designs. A few flowers, a container, and a little originality.

Practicing helps you to become familiar with the lines, color and shape that you will enjoy working with. Plan your arrangement and it will become a creative work and it will become you.

Here are a few suggestions that will make cut flowers last longer:

- Remove all foliage from the part of the stem, this is the part that will be submerged in the water when such leaves are not cut they will decay and clog the stems. Cut the base of the stem with a long diagonal cut. This will enable the flower to absorb water easily. Never let the water or disturb the stems after it is complete. Further attention needed and water as required. When flowers are first cut put the cut end in water. This will seal the stem and the flowers will stay fresh for a longer period of time.
- Flower arrangement should be placed 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 inches above the height of the container. The tallest flower should be placed at the base of the arrangement. Use flowers in unbroken bunches and cut the stems at an angle. Try to keep the stems of the flowers at the outer edge of the arrangement.
- Stemmed flowers, such as roses, violets and pansies are best managed and arranged in small bunches.

Carole Ann Parson, Tom Pennell married in double ring rites

The Rev. Fred Thomas of Morton performed the double ring ceremony that united Miss Carole Ann Parson and Tom Pennell in marriage Saturday at the Jackson Avenue Baptist Church, Lovington, N. M.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parson of Lovington and Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Pennell of Post are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk Chantilly lace, fashioned ballerina-length with a fitted bodice coming to a point in front. Her short veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias atop a white Bible, and carried out the tradition of something old, new borrowed, and blue.

Miss Rayolyn Barnes was maid of honor, and Misses Paula and Paulette Parson, twin sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Best man was Darrell York of Post. Ushers were Ronald Parson, brother of the bride, and Pat Pennell of Post, brother of the bridegroom.

Decorations in pink and white were carried out in the reception, which followed.

For a wedding trip to Carlsbad, the bride wore a pink orion dress and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Pennell are at home in Lovington, where he is employed by G. F. Wacker Store. Mrs. Pennell attended Lovington High School, where she is a member of FTA. Her husband is a graduate of Post High School.

Real Joy!

Unbounded joy! The joy of discovering new things. Each day bringing new wonders. All of life . . . so new . . . and exciting. God has been so wonderful. We have so much to appreciate. Living each day being thankful to God for all the wonderful things that he has given us. Attend church each week and know the "REAL JOY" of worshipping God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Parity price set for 1960 cotton

Agriculture Department said the government purchase price for Choice A cotton will be 26.63 cents a pound for fiber of 1-inch quality. Choice B cotton will be 26.63 cents a pound for fiber of 1-inch quality. Middling 1-inch cotton will be 26.63 cents a pound for fiber of 1-inch quality. The base used by spot markets. By law, the base of cotton quality is 1.8 inch.

A cotton is that grown on a regular acreage allotment supported at 75 per cent parity. Choice B cotton may add 40 per cent to regular acreage allotment but they must accept support of 75 per cent of parity.

Government buys outright Choice A cotton and makes support loans on the Choice B cotton.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime A WEATHER CLASSIC

Defined as citizenship lecture here

Capitalism is owning home, money in bank

"Capitalism is the energy at work producing things," Dr. Jack Bates, dean of students at Lubbock Christian College, told those attending the Rotary-sponsored Citizenship Training Program in the grade school auditorium here May 3.

"Eighteen million people in America with incomes of not over $5,000 a year own stock," he declared. "Each is a capitalist. The man who owns his own home is a capitalist. If you have money in the bank you are a capitalist."

Dr. Bates explained that "we recognize the dignity of the individual, and so we do not do away with a man because he is not productive. We recognize the right of the individual so strongly that he could appeal, and continue to appeal as did Chessman. A society that does not recognize that a man has rights cannot understand or allow that."

"As a people," Dr. Bates said, "we have defined freedom as coming not from government, but from our Creator. According to the contract theory of John Locke, which we have followed, the government contract with the government to perform certain functions. Under the rule of Communism, Socialism and any other tyranny, the government grants certain favors to the governed."

Golf balls in blenders are used by physicists at the Naval Ordnance Laboratory, Silver Spring, Md., to break up lumpy explosive mixtures. This method is faster and safer than the old method of de-lumping by brushing the explosive mixtures through a fine screen.

Letters to the Editor . . .

To the Editor:
The Texas Rehabilitation Center, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation recently received a payment from the Garza County Community Chest.

We take this means of expressing our appreciation to the people of Garza County for their support of the TRC rehabilitation program through the Community Chest.

I shall be glad to answer any questions your readers may have concerning the operation, history, or treatment program of The Texas Rehabilitation Center.

TRC is open to visitors and tour groups each day of the week, and we would be happy to have Garza County residents visit the Center to see first-hand the humanitarian work being done here for Texans of all ages — regardless of their ability to pay for treatment.

Sincerely,
J. M. Haynes, Jr.
Director of Educational Services

Negroes charged with auto theft

Two Negroes, being held at Belton, have been charged here with stealing Herbert Walls' automobile April 19 from his home at 403 South Avenue H.

Sheriff Carl Rains said the Negroes are being held at Belton on forgery and passing charges following their arrest in Temple.

The sheriff said Temple officers told him that John Henry Molett admitted the auto theft after being arrested there on the check charge.

Officers said Molett implicated another man, Brady Coleman Jr. in the theft of Walls automobile.

Rains was in Temple recently in connection with the case. He said Coleman admitted to him that he and Molett stole the car here. Walls' automobile was recovered at Temple, the sheriff said.

Violations--

The tavern, arrived at the court-house and was being so abusive he too was arrested by city officers on the same charges.

Both were fined $24.65 fine and costs by Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts.

Bowman said that "when we went back to get some more of them who had been in the place, and the bartender" the Green Lantern was "practically empty". The bartender hasn't been seen since.

The district supervisor then called a report to the Texas Liquor Control Board in Austin and received notice next day to lock the tavern.

HEARING DATE SET
A hearing on the tavern's operation has been set for May 12 in Austin.

"Tavern owners," Bowman warned, "have got to run their places right and keep out the drunks or get a suspension. I'm not going to put up with it."

A criminal charge of selling beer to a 17-year-old Ralls youth has been brought by County Attorney Carleton P. Webb in county court here against W. A. (Jack) Jones, owner of the White Top Liquor store.

State highway patrolmen arrested three Crosby County youths in Crosby County Saturday night after stopping them and finding beer in their car. The boys said they had purchased the beer at the White Top Package store, officers said.

Conviction on the charge can bring a fine of from $100 to $1,000 and a sentence of up to one year in jail. The White Top Package store is located 18 miles northeast of Post on FM-651 near the Crosby County line.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING
Bowman said there will be an administrative hearing by the Texas Liquor Control board in the case as well "when all the evidence has been gathered."

Bowman also said the same package store has another administrative case pending for "delivering liquor" during hours the polls were open during the primary election here Saturday in violation of the state law. The liquor control man said the store has not been closed pending outcome of the hearings.

Package stores were not permitted to open until 8 p. m. Saturday and caused a near traffic jam in late evening. Many Lubbock buyers apparently did not know that the stores could not open until 8 p. m. and had arrived by late afternoon.

PERMITS WITHDRAWN
Only three tavern permits have been approved to date by County Judge J. E. Parker. Several are reported to have been withdrawn, rather than face testimony or recommendations by liquor control agents at the hearing before the judge.

Permit applications for one additional package store, and one additional off premise beer permit in connection with a roadside grocery store east of the city limits on the Clearmont Highway appear in today's Dispatch.

The rush appears about over. Enstacio C. Vargas of Slaton was arrested by liquor control agents Monday night for "transporting beer in a dry area" after officers found two cases of beer in quarts in his car.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL
Mrs. Bryan Williams Sr. was admitted to Lubbock Methodist Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment. Her son, Bryan Williams Jr. reports she is doing satisfactorily.

OPEN HOUSE SET
The Calvary Baptist Church Women's Missionary Union is sponsoring an open house at the church and parsonage Sunday afternoon. Time for the event is 2:30 until 5:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend and see the improvements made recently.

WANT ONE OF THOSE LITTLE RACING GO-KARTS THAT HAS BECOME THE LATEST THING FOR MECHANIZED RECREATION? Keith Kemp at Phillips Quick Service Station will give one away Saturday—worth some $207. For Keith's announcement ad on "only two more days to register" see page 17. It's got all the details: Keith has remodeled and repainted his big station and added some new equipment. So if you stop to register, look around at another step forward in Post's progress—all business improvements are progress.

THE WYLIE OIL CO. on page 13 is advertising for a lubrication job at half price, if you clip the ad and bring it with you. So if you need a "lub job" Friday or Saturday you might give hustling Jackie Hays and his employes a try.

JUST A REMINDER TO ALL LOCAL CITIZENS that law enforcement almost around-the-clock is as close as your telephone. With the sheriff's department radio now in operation to 1 or 2 a. m. each morning you can get an officer if you need one quickly simply by phoning the radio dispatcher in the sheriff's office. He will relay word to the patrol car or cars then on duty. It's something Post has needed for a long time. So we want to emphasize that the service is available in time of emergency.

YESTERDAY WAS ANOTHER OF "THOSE DAYS" here at The Dispatch with too much for all hands to do—because of another 20 page paper. So this column is again "bottled". Anyway the news — Post always has plenty—is about crowding it out.

Radio station here sold to Crenshaw and Gilbert

Post's Radio Station, KUKO, has been sold, effective Tuesday, to Phil Crenshaw of Arlington, and Galen Gilbert of Tahlequah, Okla., with Crenshaw moving to Post as the new station manager.

The station was sold by R. B. McAlister of Lubbock and Grady Maples of Colorado.

Crenshaw, who is 37, has some 12 years of experience in radio, including ownership and management.

"We are optimistic regarding the future of Post and its economic development," Crenshaw told The Dispatch. "We're glad to be a part of this and will provide good community service radio."

He said the present staff has been retained.

The purchase included the station building on West Main in which it is located, tower, transmitter, and all equipment.

Crenshaw is married and has six children—two daughters and four sons. His family will move here next month after school is out.

At Arlington, he was sales manager of World Records out of Waco, and before that was with KLLS radio in Dallas. He managed a station in Oklahoma for several years, and has also been in radio in Arkansas, Missouri and the Midwest.

Lawsuit--

testing the Precinct 3 election says that on March 12th, 1910, a county-wide local option was held in Garza County which resulted in the prohibition of the sale of all alcoholic beverages within said county, and although subsequent county-wide local option elections have been held, the prohibition has been consistently upheld by Garza voters.

Thus the prohibition of sale of alcoholic beverages was in force in the county at the time the 1935 amendment to Section 20, Article 16 of the Texas Constitution became effective.

The suit says that the Texas courts have construed this amendment as providing that where the sale of alcoholic beverages was prohibited in a particular city, justice precinct, or county at the time the 1935 constitutional amendment became effective, no change could be effectuated in the local precinct, or county unless and until an election for such purposes was called for exactly the same area.

QUESTIONS AUTHORITY
The petition points out that the Precinct 3 election here contested was not called on a county-wide basis, but instead was called and held only in Precinct 3 of Garza County, and thus as a matter of law "the County Commissioners Court of Garza County had no jurisdiction or authority to call said election and its order calling the election and all subsequent actions taken relative thereto are null and void."

The suit then went on to list three allegations to show the election as held was "illegal and fraudulent" in that it violated applicable election laws of Texas.

The allegations:
That during the election, the election judge serving in the voting box at the Lincoln Elementary School was directed by the County Judge and County Attorney to cease requiring prospective voters to exhibit their poll tax receipts, and as a result thereafter ceased to demand poll tax receipts of prospective voters, although some of the persons subsequently requesting a ballot and voting were not personally known to the election judge and were not identified as persons residing within justice precinct 3.

VIOLATION CONTENDED
The petition contends this clearly was in violation of Article 8.07 of the Texas election code.

"That one, Louisa Valdez, loitered around and within the actual polling place and was seen by the election judges attempting to and influencing numerous voters to vote "wet" that said Louisa Valdez had no authority to be within the polling place other than to cast her own vote and that she continued in the course of conduct in spite of the continued and repeated request of both the county judge and election officials to stop doing so and leave the premises."

The petition contends this was in "direct violation of Articles 8.13, 8.17 and 8.27 of the Texas Election Code"

"That many of the voters casting ballots in the voting box at the Lincoln School brought with them into the polling place sample ballots or written instructions which instructed the holder how to vote "wet" and used the same in marking their ballots."

The petition contends this was in "direct violation of Article 8.13 of the Texas Election Code.

Rodeo--

In order to qualify for the prize saddles, boys must enter three events, one of which is required to be a bucking event, and girls are required to enter three events of their choice.

A number of inquiries about dates, entry fees, etc., have already been received from prospective contestants, rodeo officials said.

School tax board to meet June 22

The board of trustees of Post Independent School District has set June 22 as the date of the school district's board of equalization meeting.

The board also compiled a list of six names from which members of the three-man equalization board are to be named after the six are contacted.

Tax representatives of oil companies will be heard by the equalization board at its morning session. Other property taxpayers will be heard at the afternoon session.

West and south of Post, the rain measured a little more than it did here, but nowhere was it reported to be more than a quarter of an inch.

Venice, Italy, is sinking 1-10 of an inch yearly.

Elvis Presley makes brief stop in Post

Elvis Presley and three companions stopped briefly at Post's Texaco Station here Sunday afternoon en route south on U. S. Highway 84.

Walter Leadon, an attendant at the station, said he talked briefly with Presley and his three companions — another man and two women. They were traveling in a Chevrolet driven by the other man.

"I thought he looked like Elvis and when I went out and asked him, sure enough he was," the station attendant said.

Re-survey asked of county line

Tax rights on some 1,250 acres lying on the south edge of Garza County is in dispute with Borden County—at least as far as the Borden County commissioners' court is concerned.

The Borden commissioners met with Garza commissioners here Monday morning and asked for a Garza agreement to re-survey the county boundary line.

Borden thinks Garza isn't entitled to the county taxes on the land which contains four oil wells. Borden was getting the taxes until 1957 when Garza Tax Assessor T. H. Tipton took office. He questioned this and wrote the Texas land office at Austin who ruled in favor of Garza County on the basis of a 1907 survey.

Garza has received the taxes since. The Garza commissioners' court has taken the Borden request for a re-survey of the county line under advisement.

Garza County census count shows increase

Preliminary census figures for Garza County have been released, but none has been announced yet for the city of Post.

Garza County's 1950 census shows a population of 6,575 as compared to 6,251 in 1950—a gain of 324—according to the preliminary figures.

Mayor Powell Shyites said Wednesday that he had not received any census figures for the city of Post.

Earlier, census officials had announced that census figures for towns under 10,000 population would have to be requested by the mayor.

Board authorizes 4 traffic lights

Supt. R. T. Smith has been authorized by the school board to order four "flasher" traffic lights for installation in the school zone here.

Two of the lights will be installed on U. S. Highway 380 in front of the schools, one on FM Road 1313, and one on the north approach to FM 1313.

The new traffic lights will flash the speed limit, which is to be decided on after school officials confer with Texas Highway Department officials.

The lights will cost the school a total of $836 — $209 each. Smith said Mayor Powell Shyites had assured him the City of Post will install and maintain the lights.

Four Post people hurt in collision

Two Post couples, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Carlisle and Mr. and Mrs. Don Tatum, were injured at midnight Saturday when their automobile was struck by another about eight miles northwest of on U. S. Highway 84.

The Tatum couple was at the hospital Thursday morning. Don was expected to be discharged later in the day. The Carlisles were reported as good. The isles were less seriously injured.

Also injured in the collision were two Negro women, occupants of a car which struck the Carlisles' mobile. They were brought to hospital here with what were believed to be minor injuries, vanished a short time later, to a stretcher with them, officers said.

Sheriff Carl Rains said he learned the name of one of the Negro women and had traced her to a Clovis Air Force registration, but that other information on the two was scant.

The wreck was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Sam Price, District City Marshal Buford Finchem, a highway patrolman.

Illegal transportation charge is filed here

The first illegal transportation arrest since the voting of a liquor in Precinct 3 came Monday night when Eustacio C. Vargas was arrested on East 10th St. by Sheriff Carl Rains.

Rains said Vargas had two cases of beer in his car—one case above the legal limit.

Vargas made bond of $200 on the charge.

Missionaries to conduct service in local church

The Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Hagar will hold a missionary service in the Assembly of God Church on Monday, May 16, the Rev. J. R. Brincefield, pastor, has announced.

The service is to begin at 7:30 p. m. There will be colored slides shown of New Hope Leper Colony. There will be other features of interest, as well as an inspiring message concerning the lepers of Bible times and those of modern times.

The Hagars are to work in New Hope Town, Cape Palmas, Liberia, West Africa. The Foreign Missions Board desires their departure for that land in September 1960.

Mrs. Hager is the former Ozella Reid. She spent three years in Gold Coast, West Africa, from 1948 through 1951. While there, she and her co-worker, Miss Ruby Johnson, established a mother and child clinic, among the Konkomba tribe, which is one of the most primitive tribes of all Africa, in that this tribal language had never been written.

Hagar has been pastor of the First Assembly of God Church at Spur for almost four years, and has recently resigned in order to make preparations for the work in Africa.

A&M again to sponsor summer cotton school

COLLEGE STATION — For the 51st consecutive year Texas A&M College will offer its special summer cotton school.

Purpose of the school is to provide training for persons who expect to enter the cotton trade; for growers who desire to learn more about cotton marketing and buyers who wish to review grade and staple standards or to become more familiar with the elements of quality in cotton.

The 1960 school will be conducted by the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology during the six weeks between June 6 and July 15 with Professor J. M. Ward in charge.

Ward says instruction will be given on cotton grading, stapling, determination of cotton properties and trade procedures. Most of the time will be devoted to actual practice work and discussion. A few lectures by visiting specialists will cover various phases of production, marketing and processing of cotton.

I Give You Texas . . .

By BOYCE HOUSE
Every family has expressions which all the members understand but which puzzle outsiders. Uncle Albert, who lived in Coldwater, Miss., came up to Memphis, when I was a boy, to visit us. As he opened the front door, he saw (or thought he did) a lady in the dimly-lighted vestibule so he said,

"Good evening, ma'am." A closer look revealed that the "lady" was a halltree with a lady's hat on top and various hanging garments. He commented to us, "I thought that was a person."
So with us ever since, a halltree has been "a person."

Seen from a Southern Railway car window:
In Sheffield, Alabama, a lumberyard sign, "Gentlest terms in town";
In another small town, a big pile of coal in the side-yard of a cottage—no doubt the winter's fuel supply; (an odd sight to a visitor from gas-fueled Texas);
And in another small town a tablet on the depot platform, informing the traveler that this had been the home of Annie Wheeler (1868-1953), the daughter of Gen. Joe Wheeler (of the Civil War and the Spanish War) who had been a nurse in Cuba, the Philippines and, during World War I, in France.

Harold Gordon in field maneuvers

YAKIMA FIRING CENTER, Wash. — Army Pfc. Harold D. Gordon, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Gordon, Post, Tex., is scheduled to participate with other personnel from the 4th Infantry Division in Exercise Elk Horn, a Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) field maneuver, at The Yakima (Wash.) Firing Center, May 9-23.
Elk Horn, one of the year's largest Army maneuvers, will provide nearly 15,000 participating troops with training in all phases of modern warfare under simulated combat conditions. For greater realism, some 2,500 troops will play the part of an aggressor force which is assumed to be attacking the U. S. from the north.

Gordon is a truck driver in Company E of the division's 4th Engineer Battalion at Fort Lewis, Wash. He entered the Army in November 1958.

Gordon's wife, Genavee, lives in Tacoma, Wash.

How To Tour on a Budget
By CAROL LANE
WOMEN'S TRAVEL DIRECTOR, SHELL OIL COMPANY

HERE ARE SOME TIPS ON CUTTING COSTS FOR YOUR VACATION TOUR:

- DRIVE AT A STEADY RATE. DON'T SPEED. THE FASTER YOU GO, THE MORE GASOLINE YOU USE.
- STICK TO TOLL-FREE ROADS WHEN POSSIBLE. THEY MAY ADD TO TRAVEL TIME, BUT ARE WORTH THE SIGHTSEEING.
- WHEN WEATHER'S NICE, CAMP OUT. SLEEPING BAG AND A SMALL TENT WILL DO FINE.
- WHEN POSSIBLE, TRY A PICNIC BREAKFAST (PREPARED THE NIGHT BEFORE). MAKE COFFEE WITH A PERCOLATOR THAT PLUGS INTO CIGARETTE LIGHTER.

A MOTORING VACATION IS FUN AND ECONOMICAL, TOO. IN A CAR, THE WHOLE FAMILY TRAVELS AS CHEAPLY AS ONE.

Control hints on prowling snakes offered by wildlife specialist

COLLEGE STATION — Most snakes are not welcome, even as visitors, in yards and homes. This is true, says Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, despite the fact that most snakes are beneficial to man because of the number of rodents and other pests they eat. But, he adds, because of the fear of poisonous snakes, most folks just don't care to see them around.

Cooper points out there is no sure way to keep snakes from moving into the yard or even on occasion the home but offers suggestions which tend to discourage this happening. The best solution is to make the premises unattractive to snakes by the removal of food and cover they like. Since most snakes feed on rats and mice, a good rodent control program will help. Maintaining rodent-proof buildings, rodent trapping or baiting programs and removal of rodent food supplies not only discourages rats and mice but snakes as well. Closely mowed lawns and fields are much less attractive to snakes than are areas of tall grass, weeds and brush. Eliminate trash piles, leaves, boards, flat rocks and other materials which snakes use for cover. Weeds, logs, rocks and other objects around ponds attract snakes and should be removed if snakes are a problem.

If the proper "housekeeping" job around the home is done, Cooper says the few snake visitors that are controlled by persistent killing.

To keep snakes from entering or crawling under a house, all possible points of entry should be blocked and this could be a costly operation, says Cooper. Snakes can pass through very small openings and they usually enter a building near or below the ground level. He says to make sure cellar doors, windows and screens fit tightly; that walls and floors are free of cracks and that foundations, fireplaces and chimneys don't offer points of entry. Spaces around pipes, drains or ventilators must be plugged or screened.

Snake-proof fences can be built around homes or children's playing areas. Cooper can supply information on such fences.

'The Jayhawkers' coming to Tower

The turbulent days of pre-Civil War Kansas when it was wracked by a bloody struggle for power is recreated in Paramount's Technicolor thrill-drama, "The Jayhawkers," starring Jeff Chandler, Fess Parker and Nicole Maurey, which shows Friday and Saturday at the Tower Theatre.

"The Jayhawkers" tells the action-packed story of an American would-be Napoleon who had visions of carving an empire for himself out of what was the Territory of Kansas.

Jeff Chandler portrays the man whose personality and drive were so strong that he was able to enlist an army of men, whom he called "The Jayhawkers," and train them to follow him as he took town after town in defiance of the Governor.

May 2-7, 1960 THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION

Fourth Day: The National Convention re-assembled at 10 o'clock this morning pursuant to adjournment. In accordance with the report of this Committee on Credentials adopted yesterday, delegations from New York, Illinois, Massachusetts and Maryland were admitted. The delegation from Illinois is that which was instructed to vote for Douglas. Mr. Walker of Alabama declared that it was the duty of the government to afford legal protection to all classes of property in the territories and on the high seas.

Mr. Sayles of Rhode Island offered the following:
Resolved, that we recognize to the fullest extent the principle that it preserve the Union; the equality of the state must be maintained and the decisions of the courts enforced, and that every branch of the federal government shall exercise all its constitutional power for the protection of persons and property both in the States and Territories.

An exciting scene arose on the presentation of this resolution which was finally ruled out of order.

HEMPSTEAD:

The editor of the Hempstead Courier is inclined to lay the blame of the H. T. & B. Road falling to connect with the B. B. & C. Road with the latter. This is the general belief in Houston, also. We do hope the heads of these two companies may ere long be able to put an end to the misunderstandings and petty quarrels, the generally unaccommodating spirit which has prevailed ever since the Tap road was started.

Gold's winners in squad tilt

The third time proved a charm for the junior high school Golds last night when they upset the Black team in an intra-squad game, 23-14, in an intra-squad game following spring training for the coming season's 8th grade and 9th grade teams.

The Golds had lost to the Blacks in practice games preceding last night's contest. The Golds, coached by John Blund, were not to be denied Friday night as they rolled to two half touchdowns for a 14-0 lead.

After kicking off to the Blacks to open the game, the Gold eleven held for downs and scored on their first series of plays with Quarterback Pat Cornell scooting 36 yards for the touchdown. John Blund ran over the extra points to give Blocker's team an 8-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Halfback Jackey Fluitt scored, but Cornell failed in an attempt to run over the extra points, and the Golds led, 14-0.

The Blacks got back in the ball game in the third quarter on a touchdown by Fullback Benny Owen, with Quarterback Butch Cross pushing across for the extra points.

The Golds increased their lead on a scoring run by Blund and extra point conversion by Cornell. Coach Gregg's team came to within six points on another touchdown by Owen and extra point conversion by Halfback Ronald Simpson.

Outstanding on defense were Ronald Turner, Danny Pierce, Filberto Collazo and Wendell Johnson for the Golds and Danny Odom, Ronnie Storie, Jackie Braddock and Charlie Brown for the Blacks.

By VERN SANFORD

Got your boat numbers yet? Under the new water safety act passed by the 1959 Legislature, all boat owners, with few exceptions, are required to number their boats. Deadline was March 1 of this year.

That date has passed, but if you are among those who forgot, you're in the majority. Numbers must be obtained from the State Highway Department in Austin. Application forms may be secured from almost any dealer in marine supplies, or county tax offices.

All the state wants is the name and address of the owner of the boat, its serial number, make, model (year built) and length; its construction (wood, plastic, etc.), whether it's an inboard or outboard, diesel or gasoline powered, and for what purpose it is being used (business or pleasure).

Application must be notarized, then forwarded to the Texas Highway Department (40th and Jackson) in Austin—along with a money order or cashier's check covering the fee.

LENGTH GOVERNS FEES
Fees are based on the length of the boat. For those under sixteen feet the fee is $1; 16 to 26 feet, but not including 26 feet, $5; 26 to 40 feet, $10; 40 feet and over, $12-50.

License is good for three years. Much beefing is heard over the instructions to pay by money order or cashier's check. This particularly from those who must pay only the $1 fee. Result is that most boat owners are sending in a check or cash and such payment is being accepted.

Licensing plan is similar to that applied to your car, except that the state doesn't provide the numbers—or charge as much—and the number is permanently assigned.

When you sell your boat, or it is destroyed, or abandoned, you must notify the Highway Department, and surrender your certificate number. Each new owner then must send in $1 for renewal of application. Purchaser of the boat is given a reasonable time to make application for a transfer of number.

NUMBERS AVAILABLE
This feature of the act will help greatly in returning stolen boats to their rightful owners. Ownership records are public records. All you need is the boat's number to determine its owner's name. Any time you want the information the Highway Department is required by the act to supply it. For this reason, boat owners must notify the Highway Department of any change of address from that filed with the application.

Your certificate must be kept on your person or on your boat. If you lose your certificate you may obtain a duplicate for $1.

Within 90 days of the expiration of your license you must apply for a renewal. Boat numbers, however, will not be changed. So much for licensing provisions. Now about the safety features—the main purpose of the bill.

All motor boats 16 to 26 feet in length must have a white light aft, visible from all directions. Also a bow light, green on the starboard and red on the port side.

LIGHTS REQUIRED
Motor boats 26 feet and longer must have a bright white light fore and aft as well as a green light on the starboard side and a red light on the port side.

Sail boats under 40 feet in length must carry the red and green lantern, but not the white light. However, they are required to have a lantern or a flashlight aboard to be used in sufficient time to avert collision.

Every boat—regardless of size or make—shall have aboard one coast guard-approved life preserver, buoyant vest, ring buoy or buoyant cushion—for each person on board. And it is the owner's responsibility to see that such equipment is in his boat.

This, regardless of who is operating the vessel. There are several exemptions to the numbering provisions. However, for the most part the only exemption for private boat owners is the one granted for boats powered by motors of 10 horsepower or less. You fellows don't need to be concerned one way or another—except for the safety requirements.

In your case the safety provisions applicable include a required life preserver for each occupant and a white light to exhibit between the hours of sunset and sunrise.

LAW COVERS DRINKING
Under this new law, drinking boat drivers are subject to fines of from $50 to $500 and imprisonment up to six months, or both fine and imprisonment. Same applies to intoxicated skiers.

Boats towing skiers must be operated at a reasonable distance from persons and property so as not to endanger the life or property of another person. Fines for violations range from $10 to $50.

Who is to enforce the law? Any peace officer has the authority to make arrests and to board any vessel which does not have a proper identifying number or is being operated in a reckless manner.

He can issue you a "ticket" the same as a highway patrolman. If properly administered and enforced, this law could prove to be a very valuable piece of legislation—in the interest of greater and safer boating pleasure.

Deer important as source of income in Kerrville area

AUSTIN — The net return per animal unit in deer in one area of the Kerr Wildlife Management Area last year amounted to $153.28 which was considerably higher than livestock on the same area yielded. This is included in a report of the management research area made through the director of wildlife restoration of the Game and Fish Commission.

"This return was much higher than from any class of livestock on the area," the report says. "The net return from 162 animal units in livestock was $4,669.60 compared to $3,747.61 from only 87 animal units in deer. These findings indicate that deer are a potentially important asset to ranches. Development should be directed toward improving the habitat for deer in order to increase the potential for this source of income. Proper management by harvest is indicated to be essential to sound economic returns from this enterprise."

Records on economic values, vegetation, livestock grazing, wildlife habits, deer harvest and forage utilization by deer were reviewed and used as basis for appraisal of past development and planning new developments needed. This information will be used in planning future development and management of the area.

The Kerr Area is located approximately 30 miles west of Kerrville at the headwaters of the Guadalupe river.

The Westerners, sponsored by Western Construction Co., downed the First National Bank's Dodgers, 12 to 7, in the first game, and Multiple Well Service's Tigers won over Postex Mills' Yankees, 5 to 1, in the second contest.

Tonight, the Westerners play the Red Sox, sponsored by Brown Brothers, Et Al, and the Yankees take on the Corvairs, sponsored by Caprock Chevrolet Co.

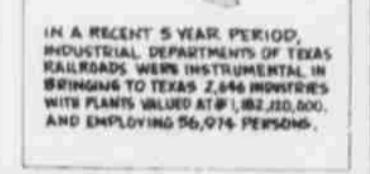

Saturday night, it will be the Red Sox against the Tigers and the Corvairs against the Dodgers.

In the Westerner-Dodger game Monday night, the Dodgers took a 4-2 first inning lead, but the Westerners kept chipping away, scoring in every inning, to take the victory.

Sullivan was the winning pitcher and Bartlett was the loser.

Dean was the winning pitcher and Landtroop was the loser in the Tigers' victory over the Yankees.

The Yankees scored their only run in the second inning to go ahead, but the lead didn't hold up. The Tigers scored two in the third and three in the fifth.

IN A RECENT 5 YEAR PERIOD, INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENTS OF TEXAS RAILROADS WERE INSTRUMENTAL IN BRINGING TO TEXAS 2,246 INDUSTRIES WITH PLANTS VALUED AT $1,182,210,000, AND EMPLOYING 56,074 PERSONS.

It is a very old Oriental custom to read the future in the tea leaves. As I look into my glasses, I see the future of the graduating class of 1960. Look in your glass and follow my thoughts.

I see a church, a Baptist Church. The congregation is leaving, shaking hands with the minister, Bob Cato.
The vision passes to a college campus where we see Ann Irwin as head cheerleader and Gary Masters as the All-American quarterback. Derwood Mayberry is chief of the chain gang.
Again the vision passes and goes to Moscow where we find Hoss Smith instructing Russian roulette to Lois Hodges and Kay Maxey. Dan Rankin is a member of the Olympic ballet team. Also in Russia, probably Siberia, Mary Westbrook is an efficiency expert instructing firing squads.
This time the scene is in Siam. Shirley Masters is charming snakes before King Glendon Washburn, who replaced Yul Brynner as King of Siam.
In dear old Ireland we find Patsey Payne queen of the vampires of a haunted palace and Wilma Allen as the chief stake-driver.

The vision fades and clears in England where Dorothy Kuykendall is a model for overcoats and rubber boots. Melanie Thompson is a model for the Maidenform Glove Co. The mists covers the view.
Back in the States, I see Donald Young running a toilet paper factory using the motto, "I Clean the World."

I see Kenneth Bullard in New York editing the ever-popular "Mad" comic book. Kenny Poete is doing a TV show, "Many Loves of Casanova", while Karen Potts narrates Capt. Kangaroo. In Central Park, I see Curtis Didway alias "The Thinker", in his thinking position. His latest gem of wisdom is, "The world needs more mistletoe and less missile talk."
The scene changes to Chicago. Minnie Mathis is entertaining tonight as the champion lady wrestler. Sharon Jobe is the auctioneer at the stockyards. Larry Welch is working with Charles Atlas. Larry's the "before" photograph.
Washington, D. C., is the setting now. I see Scottie Pierce as president of the United States. As usual his motto is "All for one and that one me."

At Cape Canaveral is Tom Drake who is preparing to blast off for outer space. The long delay was getting a passport from Russia.
The scene goes to the desert now. I see Rhea Peel driving a mule train to the gold town of Jasper where Gay Briggs and Edna May Blodgett are can-can girls at the local church bazaar.
At a resort town we see Mason McClellan as a teacher in a nudist colony. Roger Sullenger is at Ruidoso Downs, where he is a racing jockey.

The vision blurs and clears again over Hollywood. Lois Edwards and Ruth Miller are stand-ins for Woody Woodpecker. Kathryn Collier, who knows everything about everybody, has replaced Louella Parsons as the town gossip. Curtis Steel is movieland's favorite cowboy. He outvoted Roy Rogers in popularity.
The picture is very vague, but I see Leta Stone in a prison suit. She's serving a life term for murder. Somebody told her what Mr. Bishop was saying in German.
Somewhere in the mountains I see Allen Johnson. He's a member of the Northwest Mounted Police now with his trusty dog Yukon Shep. Also in the mountains I picture Don Richardson raising sheep and Impalas.
Johnny Robison has replaced Wilt Chamberlain for scoring honors in the basketball league.
Delwin Fluitt and Glenda Whittenberg are doing a trapeze act known as "Flu and Glu Fly".

Not far from home we see Linda Wilks who is writing for the Avalanche a column entitled, "Advice to Lovelorn".
Several classmates are still in Post. I see Darrel York doing a fine job as city dog catcher. Sharon Morris is raising her three children to be cheerleaders. Charlie Jr. is having a little trouble, though. Peggy Butler and Sandra Martin are still here. They're bubble dancers at Pinkie's.
I see myself as author of a book entitled "Protection of Birds, Bees, and Forests."

We have been informed by Chester Morris, president of the board of the Close City Co-op Gin, that they will join the Graham Co-op Gin next year in providing prize money for the Garza County Livestock Show, in which 4-H and FFA members participate.

There were 16 boys out for the Ag ice cream supper last Thursday night. It was hoped that all could attend, but those attending enjoyed the ice cream, volleyball and dodge ball. Thanks to Mrs. Thurst, Mrs. Steel, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Koeninger for the ice cream.

Jerry Stone has been elected to serve as a voting delegate to the Mesa District FFA meeting Saturday, May 14. Judy Morris is to attend the meeting and vie for the honor of district sweetheart to represent the district in Midland June 2 and 3.

Jimmy Hodges, Jerry Ligon and Gary Howell are working on their record books and applications for Lone Star Farmer degrees. There has been only six State Farmer degrees awarded to members of this chapter in its 26 years of operation. We hope at least one of these trying this year will qualify.

The Ag classes are to spend some time this week in doing electrical work in competition for a $150 first prize in the district. Travis Thomas of Southwestern Public Service Company is working with the group.

The FFA monument has been erected, but lacks addition of letters for completion. These should be put on sometime this week.

IN DALLAS HOSPITAL
Mrs. Charlie Brown and Mrs. Ed Dye went to Dallas Tuesday night to visit with their sister, Mrs. Beulah Wilson of Hart, who is in Baylor Hospital there. They returned home Thursday night.

Have You Heard??

The Junior-Senior Banquet last Friday night will be remembered for a long time as one of the loveliest events in Post. The juniors did an excellent job and carried out their theme to the most minute detail.

Some couples at this annual event were: Jimmy Minor and Gayle Dillard, Donnie Hays and Kay Gordon, Glenda Whittenberg and Queenie Washburn, Rhea Peel and Dan Rankin, Larry Welch and Edna Blodgett, Don Richardson and Lois Hodges, Jane Francis and Ronnie Henderson, Denise Eubank and Gary Simpson, Virginia Young and Kenneth Smith.

The sophomore girls did an excellent job of serving at the banquet. They all looked real Oriental with sprayed-black hair and slanted eyes, especially those with buck teeth.

Larry Guy, Dennis Payne, David Nichols and Kent Wheatley spent Sunday afternoon at Lake Thomas. Water a little cold,

Those who attended were Carolyn Carlisle, Dee Ann Walker, Cheryl Martin and Vivian McWhirt.

Pupils in music class talk on many subjects

Wednesday in third period music class, the group was involved in a discussion of news stories.

Mr. Raphael entered the room and the subject was carried from a convict's death to how death ceremonies were carried out in foreign countries, to cashmere sweaters, to Forest Lawn Cemetery, to him asking us why we didn't read the newspaper.

Mr. Willson gave various opinions. It was all rather interesting.

Junior-Senior Banquet described as gorgeous

By Janene Haynie and Travis Guy

Friday night, Post was buzzing with excitement! The reason? — the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet at Post High School.

The banquet was held in the lunchroom and it began at 8 o'clock. The theme was an Oriental one and the lunchroom was covered with Chinese writings, lanterns, Chinese wind chimes and glittered fans. It was simply gorgeous!

After the banquet, a prom was held at Teen Town, also carrying out the Oriental theme. Refreshments of cookies and lime punch

Mother's Day corsages given by 8th graders

The 8th graders honored their room mothers on Mother's Day with carnation corsages.

The room mothers are Mrs. H. W. Schmidt, Mrs. Ozell Williams, Mrs. Quannah Maxey, Mrs. Ray Hodges, Mrs. James Minor, Mrs. Max Gordon, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, Mrs. B. O. Bingham, Mrs. Frank Bostick and Mrs. Buck Harrison. The classes had been saving for these gifts.

Following the prom, the Teen Theatre was reserved for a movie. Everyone returned to Teen Town after the show for second and very late prom.
The object of this was to really have a good time—we know everyone did!

Cotton is a Natural

We've Been Serving Garza's Cotton Farmers for 41 Years

We are proud this National Cotton Week to point out we've been ginning Garza County cotton since 1919 when the first gin of ours was located opposite the cotton mill. That plant was destroyed by fire in the late 1930's.

Then we purchased a gin at our present location. It was partially destroyed by fire in 1951—but was completely rebuilt and modernized. When the 1960 ginning season rolls around this fall—you can count on us. We'll be ready again for your cotton.

Interesting people subject of study

By Carolyn Matzler
For the past few weeks, the 7th grade has been studying interesting people. This week's noted person is Grandma Moses. In September, she will celebrate her one hundredth birthday. Five upcoming starlets being given recognition are: 17-year-old daughter of Fred Astaire, Ava; 17-year-old daughter of Frank Sinatra, Nancy; 20-year-old daughter of Cary Cooper, Maria; 15-year-old daughter of Ann Southern, Tish; and 11-year-old daughter of Henry Ford, June. These five girls are carrying out their plans to become young actresses and the like.

Assembly is held for awards, recognitions

By Meredith Newby
Tuesday the Junior High School held an assembly in the gymnasium. Mr. Raphael told of a few things of importance. The 5th and 6th grade Interscholastic League spellers were recognized, and Susan Corish, the only 5th grade declaimer, was given a round of applause. The winner of Billy Blacklock, the creative writing contest, was presented with a gold medal. Also, the 7th grade girls basketball team was recognized.

Seniors remember Juniors in will

I have been appointed to draw up the will of the Senior Class of 1960. After a lot of thought and a bit of counseling, this is what I have concluded.

Kenneth Bullard wishes to leave his high school career to Kenneth Thompson. Wilma Allen has willed her neat locker and notebook to Emmer Jess Halford. Bob Cato has willed to Jimmy Minor all the worries of being class president.

Edna May Blodgett is leaving her ability to know all about everything before anyone else to Carolyn Martin. Curtis Didway seems to have a very special talent for getting into mischief, especially in economics class, and he's leaving it to Kenneth McFadin.

Gay Briggs leaves a bit of her height to Jane Francis. To Royce Hart goes Tom Drake's friendly smile. Robbie Nutt has been willed the cheerful smile of Kathy Collier. Delwin Fluitt is leaving all the wads of chewed gum under his desk to Jimmy Hodges. The easily embarrassed Lois Edwards leaves her shyness to Bonnie Duncan.

Allen Johnson is leaving his judge's seat and gavel to David McCampbell and Joel Morris. Lois

Hodges has a messy locker to leave Martha Goode. Ann Irwin leaves her quiet nature to Billie Hill. Mason McClellan has some swell grades to leave Mike Cornell. Sharon Jobe leaves her headaches and ability to keep class funds straight to Kay Gordon.

Rhea Peel leaves her nickname "Fudgy" to Anne Morris. Gary Masters leaves his intense interest in science to Homer Carter. Sandra Martin leaves her Swedish accent and appearance from the senior play to Janene Haynie. Don Richardson wills his car to Jerry Ligon. Mary Westbrook leaves her interest and ability in hair styling to Elaine Mitchell.

Lefty Mayberry is leaving Danny Jones his dimples. To Mary Lois Jones, Shirley Masters wills her unmistakable walk. Donald Young leaves his ability to drive so safely to Wendell Duncan. Frankie Howell is left with Melanie Thompson's Southern accent. Scott Pierce promises to leave Forrest Claborn his beehive.

Kay Maxey is leaving her dependability to Gloria Peoples. Ken Poole leaves his great interest in his classes to Travis Guy. Dorothy Kaykendall wills her keen sense of numbers and bookkeeping ability to Carolyn Moore. Dan Rankin leaves his good looks to Kenneth Williams and Joe Bob Trammell.

Jane Maxey has been willed all of Ruth Miller's freckles. Derrell York seems to have strange adventures that cause flats. This conveniently gets tardy excuses. He wills this bit of know-how to Ronnie Henderson. Minnie Lee Mathis wills her most unusual talent for always having a boy friend to Ginny Young.

We seem to remember a certain talent Hoss Smith had for cutting classes. He wills this talent to James Lee Dodd. Karen Potts has willed her fabulous bowling scores to Peggy Ramsey. Curtis Steel is leaving Gregory M. his interest in mechanical drawing. Pat Wheatley leaves her real easy-going nature to Denise Eubanks. Rodger Sullenger leaves that absolutely swell disposition of his to Charles Gordon.

Patsy Payne has a great big stack of absentee excuses and leaves them to Sharon Moore. Queenie Washburn wills his athletic ability to Gary Simpson. To Gayle Dillard, Leta Stone gladly leaves her nose. Glenda Whittenberg leaves her wittiness to Patsy Thompson.

Larry Welch has some muscles to leave Kenneth Smith. Sharron Morris leaves her ability to catch a husband before finishing school to Beth Kemp. Linda Wilks is leav-

Beautiful dresses seen in profusion at annual banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet Friday night was the most beautiful one we've ever seen. The theme was Oriental and it was carried out to every little detail. Everyone's dresses were lovely and it seemed almost everyone wore long white gloves.

Kathy Collier wore a white full-length lace formal with long white gloves touched off with an orchid. She looked lovely.

Denice Eubanks looked radiant in white and red flowers in her hair and on her dress.

Janene Haynie looked lush in her dress. It was short in front and tapered longer in the back. The open blue silk organza was beautiful.

White lace and pink roses looked beautiful on Linda Wilks. Her evening dress was floor length and real full.

Frankie Howell looked beautiful in her white short gown. It was full at the bottom and shirred. She wore lavender accessories and an orchid.

Rhea Peel looked lovely in white chiffon. It had pink roses and pearls embroidered on it and pink satin shoes.

Carolyn Martin wore a beautiful white full length formal. It had ruffles all the way to the floor. It was beautiful.

Jane Francis looked lovely in an ice blue formal. It was short and so pretty.

Sharron Morris was so pretty in a yellow and white short formal. She had yellow satin shoes and yellow flowers.

Mrs. Scott looked lovely in a peach lace formal and crystal accessories.

Minnie Mathis looked lovely in a red formal accented by a tiara.

Several Junior High students move away

We had several to check out of school last week.

Among them were: Freddie Dodd, who moved to Austin, Gary Brewer who moved to Chandler, Ariz., Linda Zuniga, who moved to Houston, Adela and Yolanda Campos, who moved to Illinois, and Ronnie Edwards, who moved to Fort Worth.

Ronald Miller, Jess Miller and Leon Montonya also withdrew from school.

Good luck to the students who enrolled in other schools. We will miss you!

Science students study astronomy

By Jackie Wilson

In Science we have just finished studying about "Changes in the Sky." We enjoyed studying about planets, meteors and comets. We are just starting the new chapter, "Plants Are Protected."

In Geography we have just finished the chapter, "Beyond the States," which was about island possessions of the United States.

In Language we are studying about parts of speech. We have already learned six parts of speech. They are nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives and conjunctions. Friday morning we are to have a test on these parts of speech.

In Arithmetic we are studying Three-Place Quotients.

In Spelling we are studying words about gardening and fishing. We are also learning to spell the parts of speech.

Mrs. Teal's and Mrs. Pierce's rooms are all going to Lubbock Saturday morning. We are going to visit the Planetarium and Museum.

"Calculated risk" seems to be a popular phrase for old-fashioned "gamble." But there's no place for either in preparing or dispensing pharmaceuticals. Ever notice the letters U.S.P. or N.F. on a medicine label? The letters represent two official books that are recognized by federal law — the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary. Together, they are the pharmacist's "bible." They give approved standards of the quality, purity, and potency of most medicinal agents. Phosphorous supplement needed by cattle in many areas of Texas COLLEGE STATION — Forage plants in many sections of Texas are deficient in phosphorus. When pasture forage is markedly deficient in this mineral, cattle grazing on such forage, says U. D. Thompson, extension agent in a husbandman, should receive from 6 to 9 grams of supplemental phosphorus daily.

Thompson adds that experiments conducted at the East Texas Pasture Laboratory, Lufkin, have shown that cattle have a distaste for dicalcium phosphate when available to them in a mixture containing 35 per cent of the material plus 65 per cent common salt. Consumption was increased, he said, when the mixture was changed to 25 per cent dicalcium phosphate averaged only 23 ounces daily per cow as compared with an average consumption of 1.9 ounces of bone meal.

Equal parts of bone meal and salt were supplied free choice as a lick. The dicalcium phosphate used was odorless and tasteless to man. The dicalcium phosphate contained 17.5 per cent phosphate and the bone meal 9.75 per cent; thus, the station cows received about 1 gram of phosphorus from the dicalcium lick as compared with the 3 grams received from the bone meal lick. Thompson added the work done at Lufkin shows that cattle prefer the bone meal and salt mixture. But he does not rule out the possibility that satisfactory combinations of dicalcium phosphate, salt and cottonseed meal can be developed to make it a phosphorus supplement.

3 school teachers retiring here write career sketches

(Editor's Note: Three Post teachers who are retiring after this school year were honored with a reception Monday night by three professional organizations of Post teachers. The three who are retiring, Mrs. Maurine Lackey, Mrs. Lillie Kitchen and Miss Lola McWhirter, each wrote a sketch of their teaching career, which The Dispatch is reprinting below.)

MRS. MAURINE LACKEY
 School teaching seems to a family profession with us. My father, L. H. Mullens, taught school for 40 years. In fact, he was a teacher at the time of my birth.

I was born at Petty, Texas, in Lamar County. Later, we moved to Clarendon, Texas, where I grew to womanhood. I graduated from Clarendon High School and Clarendon College (the Methodist School).

My teaching career began in a private kindergarten in Clarendon, where I taught for two years. Then, my father and I taught two terms together in public schools.

In 1920, my teaching was interrupted by my marriage to W. T. Lackey, a Methodist preacher, whom I had met in college. As a preacher's wife and the mother of a small son, I was absent from the profession for several years. My husband and I did return to college, however, and I received my B. A. degree from Clarendon Senior College, which was later consolidated with McMurry College. I am now considered a graduate of McMurry College. Later, I taught one year in Booker High School.

In 1942, I resumed my work as a teacher. For six years I taught English or history in high schools. While teaching English in the Ralls High School, Mrs. Herman Raphael, then Mary Bledsoe, was one of my best pupils.

In 1947, I was employed as a teacher of the third grade in the Post School System. I obtained this position through the Texas Tech Placement Bureau. I have taught here 14 terms.

In 1950, I received a Master's Degree in Education from Texas Technological College.

As I have taught in Texas Schools for 21 years, I am now entitled to Teacher Retirement. Since I returned to the teaching profession, I have taught 18 consecutive years.

My son, Jack T. Lackey, and my daughter-in-law, Pauline Lackey, are teachers in the Fort Worth Schools. They have one child, Jo Elaine Lackey, who is four years of age.

After my retirement, Mother and I plan to move to Fort Worth, where we plan to build a house next door to my son's home. However, we will never forget some of our dear Post friends, especially those who have been associated with me in the teaching profession.

MRS. LILLIE KITCHEN
 My teaching career started in Hall County, Texas in a one-room one-teacher school with grades one through seven. From there I taught in the following counties; Wise, Tarrant, and Coke before coming to Garza County.

I have been in Garza County longer than in any of the other places. The first assignment in this county was at Justiceburg. I arrived there one morning during a sandstorm and was greeted at the station by one of the trustee's wives, Mrs. Gene Payne, who is now living in Plains, Texas.

Each year has been a new challenge to me, and I think it is to every public school teacher; because of working with a different group of children each new year.

and too, a teacher realizes more and more the responsibility as the years pass on.
 During the years of teaching, I have enjoyed the association of many wonderful people, parents, children, and friends also the present Post School faculty and trust it will always be so.
MISS LOLA McWHIRTER
 I began my teaching career years ago in the rural schools of Texas when teaching conditions and school buildings were not as modern and convenient as they are now. We had lots of fun though. What more could one ask for than a Friday afternoon ball game with a neighboring school?
 In 1943, I was elected to be first grade in the Taboka school. That was seven years of pleasure work, too.
 In 1950, November 12, I came Post to teach first grade. The Post Grade School building was completed at that time and teachers and children moved in. It has been very pleasant working with the teachers and administrators during the ten years that have been here.
VISIT FROM LUBBOCK
 Mrs. Russell Horsman and Mrs. Lubbock visited Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pierce.

Vet's Forum

Q. Is a peacetime veteran who is blind in both eyes eligible for special aid from VA, even though his blindness is not service-connected?

A. Yes. If the peacetime veteran is entitled to compensation for any service-connected disability, though not necessarily for his blindness, he may receive special aid such as approved electronic and mechanical equipment, as well as a seeing eye or guide dog.

Q. Now that it is legally possible to convert my Korean GI term insurance to a permanent plan, I intend to do so. But what about some of the other advantages of permanent plan GI insurance? Will I be able to borrow on it?

A. Yes, provided your policy is in full force, under the law. The policy also will have other advantages of permanent plan insurance, such as a paid up and a cash surrender value, and, of course, a stable premium rate.

Facts About Texas Cotton

(CLIP AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE)
 The U.S.D.A. has placed the 1959 national cotton crop at 14,551,000 bales. Texas accounted for approximately 4,416,000 bales or 30.3 per cent of this total, as compared to a whopping 37 per cent in 1958.
 Texas production for 1959 of 4,416,000 bales was well above the 1958 output of 4,308,000 bales.
 The yield output per acre didn't maintain the record 383 pounds of lint for 1958, but it was a hefty 334 pounds of lint per acre, the second highest in Texas cotton production history.
 The U. S. average yield for cotton in 1959 was 462 pounds per acre as compared to 466 pounds of lint per acre in 1958.
 In 1959 Texas harvested 6,350,000 acres as compared to 5,395,000 in 1958. The national cotton acreage harvested in 1959 was 15,090,000 acres, a huge boost from the 11,849,000 acres harvested in 1958. It was this big national increase which dropped Texas' share of total production from 37 per cent in 1958 to 30 per cent in 1959.
 The total value of the national cotton crop in 1959 was $2,281,300,000.
 The 1960 purchase rate for the base quality, midling one inch choice A cotton is 32.42 cents, and the 1960 loan rate for choice B, M-1, is 26.63 cents per pound, at average location, according to an announcement on May 3.
 These are 168 and 177 points lower than the 1959 purchase and loan rates, respectively. Complete provisions and regulations of the 1960 cotton price support program bill will be in 1960 CCC Cotton Bulletin 1 (Loan Program) and 1960 CCC Cotton Bulletin 2 (Purchase Program).

Texas Highway Department will come out with a booklet aimed at attracting tourists to Texas. The booklet will be distributed with highway funds and will be available to anyone who requests it. The Attorney General's office is requesting that possession of gasoline as a fuel is legal, but for use in bomb making it is illegal. He said the law had been upheld seven times by the Court of Criminal Appeals and twice by the U. S. Supreme Court.

TRAFFIC COURTS URGED
More and more attention in Texas is being given to plans for setting up courts of record to try traffic cases only. Lawyers and law enforcement officials have been concerned for years.

Public interest was suddenly sharpened this year when the State Board of Insurance adopted automobile insurance rates tied to the driver's traffic violation record. People who had been paying rates rather casually began to wonder what kind of shake they could get if they went to court over a ticket.

A State Bar Association committee has suggested a two-pronged plan—one for rural and one for metropolitan areas. Under this plan, county seats with 50,000 or more population would set up a city traffic court of record. Less populous areas could set up a county-wide traffic court. City judges would be appointed, county judges elected.

In each case, the new courts would be restricted to traffic cases, and usual corporation and justice of the peace courts would continue to function.

University of Texas Law School Dean Page Keeton has suggested that county traffic courts be set up so that appeals could go directly from them to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

SECOND GAS TAX UPHOLD
State Supreme Court has ruled the state has a right to collect a tax on gas when it is taken from the ground a second time.

Francita Gas Company had been taking gas from the ground in Jackson County, running it through a cycling plant and then re-injecting it into the ground.

It paid a tax for the first extraction, but protested state demand that it pay again when it took the gas out again. Supreme Court held the company had to pay the "7 per cent of fair market price" production tax for the second extraction.

Baptist's Mother of Year named
DALLAS — A 68-year-old mother who feels that rearing children in a Christian home is just as important as serving as a Baptist missionary has been named 1960 Texas Baptist Mother of the Year.

Mrs. W. T. Walker, who lives with her husband on a ranch near San Saba, was named "Mother of the Year" by a special committee representing the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the denomination's weekly newspaper, The Baptist Standard.

As a young girl who faithfully attended Sunday School every week, Mrs. Walker felt that God wanted her to serve as a missionary. When she decided to marry, she promised God that if he wanted her to raise a family instead of being a missionary, she would raise her family in a missionary atmosphere.

Today her two daughters are home missionaries in Washington and Arizona, and her only son is an active Baptist layman.

Sinatra, Lollobrigida starred in "Never So Few," to show at Tower

The electric combination of Frank Sinatra and Gina Lollobrigida in a vibrant love story set against a background of Burma during World War II gives the screen one of the year's outstanding attractions in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Never So Few," showing at the Tower Theatre here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

This is a picture which is "big" in every sense of the word. It is based on the best-selling novel by Tom Chamales. It was filmed in CinemaScope and Metrocolor. A location unit traveled 27,000 miles to film jungle fighting sequences in Burma, Thailand and Ceylon.

As the American captain in command of 800 Kachin guerillas assigned to harass 40,000 Japanese troops, it gives Frank Sinatra the most dynamic role of his career. As the beautiful refugee who falls in love with him, it presents Gina Lollobrigida, Italy's most famous star, in her first Hollywood-filmed motion picture.

The cast also includes Peter Lawford, Steve McQueen, Richard Johnson, Paul Henreid and Brian Donlevy.

a very "tender moment"

The way to a man's heart

HAS BEEN extolled in song and verse, but a new chapter is written with each visit to Piggly Wiggly and the selection of fine cuts of meat from the meat department. What better expression of affection is there than the providing of a man's favorite steak or chop prepared by your own loving hands. For very tender moments, and very tender meats, select USDA graded from Piggly Wiggly. Get S&H Green Stamps with every 10c purchase.
