Summer management practices may determine ranch profits for year

COLLEGE STATION — Summer management practices used on a ranch tend to carry over into fall and winter, and eventually determine whether or not a year was as profitable as it could have been.

G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialist, says there are several practices that should be carried out this summer, but which will provide benefits for the rest of the year.

One of the recommended practices is deferred grazing. On a pasture that has just received a rain, deferring allows native grasses to make rapid growth. Grasses can make seed in four to six weeks, but best results are obtained when the pasture is deferred all summer. It is also profitable to defer a pasture that has not had any rain. Native grasses need a rest once every four years in order to increase their vigor and re-establish their root system.

Another excellent way to relieve grazing pressure on permanent pastures is to use temporary pastures. Ranchers in the drier areas of the state should also plan to reduce the stocking rate by culling unproductive animals. Hoffman continues. Livestock numbers should be balanced with the amount of grass on the pasture.

Water is necessary for good grass production, but in some areas of the state moisture is not too plentiful. It is therefore wise to make profitable use of every bit of moisture available. One way to do this is to construct diversion terraces, known as "throw-outs", to divert the run-off water from

Midland's Junior Rodeo this week

MIDLAND — Midland's first annual World Championship Junior Rodeo is to begin today and continue through Saturday.

Many of the cowboys and cowgirls performing here this weekend will be in Post July 26-29 for the 14th annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo.

The Midland rodeo, sponsored by the city's Optimist Club, is expected to attract approximately 300 boys and girls from throughout the United States. It is being sanctioned by the American Junior Rodeo Association.

Contestants will participate in three divisions—youngsters 12 and under; those 13 through 15, and 16 through 19.

The rodeo producer is H&K Ranches of Snyder and Rotan.

Proceeds from the rodeo will go toward youth work in Midland, the chief project of the Optimist Club.

roadside ditches onto the pasture. The added water will grow lots of grass, says the specialist. Another way is to control brush growing in the draws, creek bottoms and overflow areas. These productive range sites will produce good grass when the brush is taken off.

Something else to watch for this summer is poisonous plants. These pests should be controlled so as to keep livestock losses to a minimum.

Hoffman says that under present conditions, ranchmen should carry out only those range practices which require very little cash outlay. He also recommends using the cost-sharing programs to help carry out the ranch improvement program.

Endurance

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:2

The Atonement of Christ, crucified for the sins of the world, is the divine example of the creative use of suffering. Through faith in God's Christ, everyone can learn to bear his own cross and come to the ultimate blessing promised to those who share the sufferings of the world's Savior.

Plans are nearing completion for the 25th anniversary observance of the Calvary Baptist Church, the Rev. Graydon Howell, pastor, announced today.

The anniversary will be observed Sunday, July 30, with an all-day program. Former pastors have been invited to speak at the special services and lunch will be served at the church at noon.

Speakers for the day are to be Rev. Cone Merritt, at the 11 o'clock morning service; Rev. Walter Devers at the 2:30 o'clock afternoon service, and Rev. E. R. Stiles will bring the message at the evening worship at 7 o'clock.

Contract for repairing and sealing of approximately 10 miles of roads in Precinct 2 was let by the commissioners' court this week to J. H. Strain & Sons, Inc., of Abilene.

The Abilene firm's bid, one of two submitted, was $9,980.

The other bidder was Thomas Construction Co. of Denver City, which bid $14,428 a mile for the repairs and seal-coating.

The commissioners, opening their regular July session, also voted that social security be paid for employees of Garza Memorial Hospital out of the hospital operating fund, effective July 1, 1961.

Danger for U. S. cited to Rotarians by Cline Paden

Never were the American people so ill prepared for the battle before us with Communism, Cline Paden, who has seen the face of Communism during ten years in European church work, told Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon.

Mr. Paden, Plainview Church of Christ minister who is speaking at the Post Church of Christ's summer meeting here this week, pointed to the published timetable of the Communists to "crush and encircle the United States by 1973."

Warning that Communism is ruthlessly staying on schedule in its timetable for world conquest, Mr. Paden pointed out that one billion people of the world today stand under the power of Communism and that one half of the entire land area of the world now belongs to the Communists.

"We're spending ourselves into bankruptcy," he declared, adding that the interest on the U. S. national debt now is nine billion dollars a year or more than the whole national budget in 1940—only 21 years ago.

"Never has a society had such push living as we Americans have enjoyed in the last few years," he declared.

Turning to the softness kind of living has developed, he pointed out that 70 per cent of the Americans captured in the Korean war collaborated with the enemy, but not one single Turk collaborated.

"What we need is a better set of values than we have today," the speaker said.

Pointing to Communism as "a calculated and dedicated enemy" the Plainview pastor said that it is possible that America may in moral decay crumble before Communism without a shot being fired.

Youth's hand cut on wood shaver

Homer Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter of 415 West 13th Street, was still in Garza Memorial Hospital this morning after receiving a hand injury in an accident at the high school woodworking shop.

Homer, a 1961 graduate of Post High School, lost the fingertips and nails on his right hand when it was caught in a shaver at the shop where he was helping build furniture for the junior high school.

The accident occurred while the youth was lifting a board off the shaver.

graders up to the high school level if he hadn't "led them to believe they'd be in it."

"Those youngsters, as well as their folks, are going to be disappointed if they don't get to move up to the high school band," Meisch said.

The director said he knows it isn't best to have junior high students in a high school band, but that in many schools it is necessary until a large enough high school band is built up.

He said the way things are set up this year, the eighth graders, if they remain in the junior high band, will be playing with sixth and seventh graders and will be far ahead of the band members from the lower grade.

"THIS COMING year," he said, "we could skip the fifth grade in the band program, and that way could level things off for the next year so that all members of the junior high band would be nearer the same plane as far as ability is concerned."

"Size is what counts in a band," the director said. "You can cover up mistakes with a large band, but you can't with a small one." He said discipline and practice habits also will improve with a large band.

Meisch said if he used only high school students in this year's band he would have between 55 and 60 members and that two of them would be drum majors and four of them twirlers.

When one of the trustees suggested that he use only part of the 34 eighth grade band students to build up his high school band, Meisch said he would not relish the task of going to the 34 students, selecting some for the high school band and leaving the others in the junior high organization. "Especially not after leading all 34 of them to believe that they would be in the high school band this year," he said.

MEISCH TOLD THE board that it is a matter of either outfitting and equipping a large band this year or having to do it next year. He said only about 10 seniors will be lost to the band through graduation, which would make the band nearly as large next year with high school students only as it would be this year with both high school and eighth grade students.

In a further discussion of the subject after Meisch had been heard, Supt. Smith said it is likely that there will be a number of band drop-outs at registration time, which in itself, he said, might pull the size down to about 75 members even with the eighth graders.

"I could be wrong, of course," Smith said. "He might get a hundred youngsters out there wanting to take band."

THE BOARD VOTED to increase the price of lunchroom meals from 30-35 cents to 35-40 cents after the superintendent told them "we came out approximately $1,200 in the red in the lunchroom the past year."

Smith attributed the lunchroom loss to a number of reasons. One is that the price has been 30-35 cents for several years while the price of groceries has continued to rise.

Also, the superintendent said, a number of children whose families were on the welfare rolls were fed free meals, and the primary teachers received free meals for lunchroom supervision. He said he feels the program of free meals in return for teacher supervision "has served its purpose and can be eliminated now."

The motion on the lunchroom, made by Birdwell and seconded by Dr. Carter, also provides that three-week lunchroom menus be made up on a rotating basis instead of from week to week as in the past.

THE TRUSTEES decided not to replace the wooden windows at the junior high school building, now being remodeled, after an architect gave them a cost estimate of $19,827 for steel windows. The board tentatively decided to look into the cost of storm windows in After hearing Dr. Carter point out the advantages of a thorough physical examination to the school as well as to the student wishing to participate in contact sports, the board decided to strongly recommend that students go to their family physician for a thorough physical examination before engaging in contact sports. Parents of students failing to do this would be required to sign a waiver releasing the school of all responsibility before the student would be allowed to engage in football, basketball or other contact sports.

Dr. Carter said he does not consider the past practice here of "herding a bunch of boys into a room and hurriedly examining them" as meeting the requirements of an adequate physical examination.

Two All-Star squads named

Post's first archery shoot set for Sunday

All-star teams for next week's opening round of playoffs have been selected from among Post's Babe Ruth and Little League teams.

Five members of the championship Braves and five members of the third place White Sox are on the 15-man Babe Ruth League all-star squad, which begins play next Wednesday night in the area tournament at Levelland.

Named by their team were Wayne Baldwin, manager of the Cubs, and Rex King, assistant manager of the Braves.

The Little League all-stars will play Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week in the area tournament at Aspermont.

The 14 members and three alternates on the Little League squad were selected at a team managers' meeting Saturday night. A meeting is to be held in Post at 3 p. m. Friday to determine on which dates each team will play in the tournament at Aspermont and to draw up the tournament schedule.

Teams in this district's playoff besides Post are Tahoka, O'Donnell, Slaton, Lamesa, Aspermont, Jayton and Crosbyton.

The Babe Ruth League all-star squad is composed of the 10 top hitters as determined from the official scorebook and five additional players selected by the managers.

Leading the Babe Ruth League hitters with a hefty .486 batting average was Chunky Johnson of the Braves.

Also named to the all-star squad from the Braves were David Perez, Raymond Villa, Johnny Bilberry and Ruben Solis.

White Sox players on the squad are Joe Hall, Benny Owen, Teddy Scott, Jackie Braddock and Jim Doss.

Named from the Cub team were Butch Cross, Danny Odum and Filemon Vargas, and from the Indians, Danny Pierce and Dicky Vardiman.

Members of the Little League all-star squad are Tigers Paul Walker and Larry Johnson; Yankees Ronnie Pierce and William "Rabbit" Jackson; Dodgers Fred Dodd, Clyde Cash and Roy Sapington; Red Sox Davis Heaton, Roy Long and Dick Kennedy; Corvairs Donnie Windham and Clint Johnson, and Westerners Jerry Sullivan and Freddie Collazo.

Little League all-star squad alternates are Richard Scott of the Yankees, Joe Hudman of the Corvairs and Johnny Jones of the Red Sox.

At expense of Corvairs

Westerners soar to third place

The Westerners took over third place in the Little League standings Monday night by trouncing the Corvairs, 10 to 4.

In Monday night's first game, the league's two bottom teams—the Yankees and the Tigers—clashed, with the Yankees outslugging the Tigers, 19 to 12, and pushing them deeper into the league cellar.

In the Westerner-Corvair game, Freddie Collazo and Tommy Rivera limited the losers to three hits. Collazo pitched three innings and Rivera, two.

The losing pitcher was Clint Johnson who went two frames before being relieved by Floyd Moreau.

The winners banged out seven hits, with centerfielder John Cato and infielder Leroy Saldivar each getting two for three. The four Corvair hits were divided among Joe Hudman, Donnie Windham, Stelzer and Tanner, with Windham banging out a double.

The Yankees had to come from behind to score their 19-12 win over the Tigers after the latter had scored 10 runs in a big second inning on seven hits. The Yanks came back with 10 runs of their own in the sixth to roar from behind and way out ahead.

Ronnie Pierce homered for the Yankees in the fifth with Michael Horton and Richard Scott aboard. Pierce also had three doubles in the Yankee attack. Rabbit Jackson and Richard Scott each had five hits in six trips for the winners.

Larry Johnson, with three hits in as many official times at bat, was the leading Tiger hitter for the night.

Ronnie Pierce, the third of three Yankee pitchers, received credit for the win, and Charles Harper No. 2, the second of three Tiger chunkers, was charged with the loss.

TURKEY FOR SUMMER

Planning a picnic, patio party or outdoor barbecue? If you are, George Draper of the Poultry Science Department, Texas A&M College, suggests using turkey for the main dish. Supplies are plentiful, he says, and birds ranging from four pounds upward are available in most food stores. They are ready to cook. Are low in fat and high in protein, a combination that makes turkey meat ideal for summer meals.

Rain halts game with Post Legion team ahead, 6-4

Post's American Legion Junior baseball team was well on its way to winning its first league contest at Slaton Saturday night when rain halted the game in the bottom of the seventh and final inning.

The Post team was ahead, 6 to 4, and two Slaton men were out when the game was called.

Under the rules, the complete game reverts to the previous inning, which found the teams tied at 4-4.

Since the outcome would have no bearing on league standings and it was the final game of the season for both teams, the game will not be completed, local team officials said.

The Post team scored two runs to go ahead in the top of the seventh when singles by John and Eddie Valdez scored Tommy Bouchier, who had been hit by a pitched ball, and Nuel Landreth, who had walked.

Post had scored three runs in the sixth on singles by Eddie Valdez and Wallace Shumate after Landreth had reached base on an error and Valdez was safe on a fielder's choice.

Eddie Valdez scored Post's first run in the second on a flock of Slaton errors.

John Valdez went all the way on the mound for Post and struck out 13. Slaton's Jones was the losing pitcher.

Members of the Post Archery Club, organized April 14, will be hosts Sunday to a registered shoot of the West Texas Archery League on the local range, just south of town.

The general public is invited to attend the event. To reach the range, drive out the road toward the city dump grounds about a quarter of a mile and then turn off the road onto the R. J. Blacklock place. There will be direction markers at the turn-off, club members said.

The shoot will begin at 10 a. m. with archers from the Abilene, San Angelo, Snyder and Lubbock clubs taking part, in addition to members of the Post club.

A novelty shoot, in which non-members may participate, will be held at 2 p. m. Prizes will be awarded winners in the novelty shoot.

The regular league shoot will consist of a 28-target event and also of a hunter's round, in which the archers shoot at pictures of big game animals.

The Post club, which was accepted into the West Texas League shortly after it was organized, has its home registered shoot the first Sunday of each month and shares in the league shoot each third Sunday.

Since Lubbock has been without an archery range for some time, a number of archers from that city are members of the Post club.

The new Post archery range is said to be one of the best in the league, stressing safety, natural terrain, and skill.

Officers of the Post Archery Club are: Allan Hampton, president; Dave Fowler, vice president; T. V. Hampton, secretary and treasurer; Mabel Garrison, assistant secretary and publicity chairman, and Roy Garrison and John Bullard, field captains.

Other charter members are Dean Hampton and Florence Rivas. Members who have joined since the organization of the club are Dave Fowler of Rails, Joe Rivas and Fred Cockrell.

Associate members from Lubbock are Jim Ray, Norman Williams and Dick McClain. Wayne Finley is an associate member from Snyder.

Post Navy man is aboard destroyer

WESTERN PACIFIC — The destroyer USS Somers is operating as a unit of the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Serving aboard the destroyer is P. F. McCullough, boilerman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McCullough of Post, Tex.

The ship recently completed a cruise to Australia to participate in the 19th anniversary celebration of the Battle of the Coral Sea.

Each year the Australian government invites units of the far-reaching Pacific Fleet to participate in "Coral Sea Week"—a joint Australian-American effort — which commemorates the historic naval battle that halted the enemy advance through the Pacific in World War II.

Commanded by Admiral John H. Sides, the Pacific Fleet force consists of more than 400 ships and 250,000 bluejackets and Marines. It is the world's largest naval command, responsible for the security of some 80 million square miles of Pacific Ocean.

The Somers has visited Hawaii, the Fiji Islands, the Admiralty Group and the Marianas since it left its home port at San Diego, Calif., and is scheduled to visit Japan, Formosa, the Philippines and Hong Kong.

COTTON ROOT ROT

If more rains occur during July and August, the amount of root rot in cotton is expected to be greatly increased, reports Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist. His basis for the prediction is the amount of disease carry-over in the soil from last year. He advises cotton growers to start planning now preventive measures for the 1962 cotton crop. Local county agents can supply information on these preventive measures.

A far cry from the forty-niner with his pick or his pan. This man listens through earphones for the clatter of exploding atoms.

Otherwise, he must follow the tortuous path of the prospector. Uranium, like gold, is where you find it . . . high on a cliff . . . deep in a chasm . . . anywhere.

There are spiritual riches to be found in life—by those with the determination to seek them. But don't make the common mistake of assuming that one Sunday in Church should satisfy the search.

Spiritual riches come gradually with religious growth. As a family makes worship and religious study part of everyday living, the treasures of God begin to accumulate in the character and experience of that family.

You'll probably be disappointed if you merely give religion a try. But your earnestness will be rewarded when you make Christianity the foundation of your life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

4-H Club auto project stresses safe, sane use

CHICAGO—An outstanding teenage driver is expected to be among the state delegation to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November, according to the Cooperative Extension Service.

The delegate can be either a boy or girl just so long as he or she is enrolled in the national 4-H automotive program and meets the requirements for a state award. The winner will then be eligible to compete for a national $400 college scholarship.

Work done in this project is helping to make young drivers more safety conscious and better informed on the mechanism of the automobile, judging from the stories submitted by the 1960 champions. The 4-H'ers not only learn rules of the road, but also the "golden rule" of driving.

Farm and city club members are equally enthusiastic about the new automotive program offered nationally last year by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

Club leaders recruit local law enforcement officers, state officials, traffic engineers, mechanics and other specialists to instruct members in good driving, car purchase and upkeep. Parents are involved, too, since their permission is sought for use of the family car.

Of the estimated 200,000 club members of driver age, better than 10 per cent were enrolled in the automotive program this past year, according to a recent report. The number of participants is expected to rise this year.

The three-year project is arranged in separate work units. Unit I covers general information on car and highway; Unit II, maintenance and operation; Unit III, efficient operation involving cost and care. The manuals, written especially for this project, are given to 4-H'ers and club leaders by the Extension Service.

For more information about the project, contact the county Extension agent.

Five J. Spencer Love Fellowships awarded

BOSTON—Five outstanding young men from colleges in the southeast have been awarded J. Spencer Love Fellowships for the first year of study in the two-year program leading to the Master in Business Administration degree at the Harvard Business School, Dean Stanley F. Teele announced today. They are James L. Adams Jr., Spartanburg, S. C.; Warren L. Batts, Plant City, Fla.; Cecil D. Conlee, Memphis, Tenn.; Thomas M. Hudgins, Greenville, S. C.; and Ted A. Owens, Harrison, Tenn.

The fellowships are awarded annually in the name of J. Spencer Love, chairman of the Board of graduates of colleges or universities in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. They are made possible through the generosity of Burlington Industries Foundation to encourage young men from the southeast to undertake further training in business administration, and then return to use their abilities in developing the industrial potential of the southern region.

TEXAS LAWYERS

Captain Jesse Lee Hall

Special Force

"Strong, just... and fearless..."

Texas in the late 1870's were not surprised when Captain Jesse Lee Hall, of the Ranger Special Force, handed over the notorious bandit, King Fisher. Nor when he broke up the destructive Sutton-Taylor feud, and settled the hash of a lot of fence cutters. Most Texans already knew about Ranger Hall and a certain one-man clean-up operation. Only 27 years old, shortly after he joined the Force, Hall was placed on detached service... meaning, as usual, one job, one Ranger. The job was Goliad, then a lawless stronghold of escaped convicts, outlaws and murderers. The situation called for strong treatment, which the lone Ranger evidently knew how to apply. The undesirable population got the word. Soon Goliad was once again quiet as a sleeping mouse. Later, after his Ranger days, Captain Hall distinguished himself as the leader of the famous Macabete Scouts in the Philippine campaigns.

Just as we have always needed the fearless courage and integrity of our lawmen, so do we need industry and commerce. When an industry provides a whole community with payrolls and revenue, relaxation and the pleasure of moderation... it "belongs." In Texas, "Beer Belongs." The United States Brewers Association is constantly working with brewers, wholesalers, retailers and local authorities to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

ENGINEERING ADVICE on how to add an entrance baffle to his new fallout shelter is obtained by Carl L. Underhill (left), of Raleigh, N. C., from Archie W. Green, Jr., engineer for the North Carolina Civil Defense Agency. Underhill discovered that a baffle was needed to block dangerous levels of radiation which, after nuclear attack, could penetrate a normal door of this $1,000 shelter. Green was hired early in 1961 under a Federal program to pay half the costs of new civil defense employees. (OCDM Photo)

About Your HEALTH

A healthy public service program from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. ROLLE, B.S., Commissioner of Health

AUSTIN—It may seem early, but school is just around the corner and parents with children entering for the first time should begin preparing right now.

The right preparation for those first school days is vital to the future satisfaction and adjustment of your child to his new environment.

If he has an older brother or sister, the task will be easier. But there are many steps to getting ready for school which should be taken before September.

Some effort should be made to make it clear to the child that he will be on his own—without Mom or Dad there to watch over him all the time—a good while before that first day of school.

Clothing should be given much thought. Check the habits of your local school and find out what is the predominant mode of dress. If all the boys wear long pants, by all means make sure your youngster has them, too.

Make sure everything is large enough, but not baggy or his classmates will make fun of him.

Proper nutrition is very important. When school starts, allow enough time in the morning for a wholesome breakfast. A good breakfast includes citrus fruit or juice, milk, whole grain cereal or bread, eggs or bacon or both. Lunch and dinner should be leisurely and pleasant, too. The new adventure of school is pretty fast paced, but mealtime offers an opportunity for the family to pause and enjoy being together.

Now is the time to check your school's requirements regarding vaccinations or other health measures and take care of them well in advance.

Also, many Texas school districts require proof of age for first year students in the form of a certified birth certificate.

You may obtain a copy from your local registrar, county clerk, or from the Section on Records and Statistics, Texas State Department of Health, 410 East 5th Street, Austin.

Send one dollar with the name of the child, his or her date of birth, place of birth, father's name, and mother's maiden name.

It would be a good idea to get a copy of your youngster's birth record just as soon as possible to avoid the August rush.
