Woman's billfold returned after being lost 4 years

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Mrs. Gus Porterfield was pleasantly surprised last week when she received through the mail a billfold she had lost about four years ago. It contained her wedding rings, a small amount of money, her driver's license and some other papers. Everything it had contained was still there, but no name came with the billfold to identify the finder.

Mrs. Roy LeMond, Mrs. Wendall Leach and Mrs. Gus Porterfield attended the District Seminar at Levelland Methodist Church last Thursday.

Mrs. Inklebarger and Mrs. Elmo Bush visited last Friday with Mrs. W. G. McCleskey.

The Young Adults of the Nazarene Church held a get-together and dinner at a cafe in Lubbock Friday night.

VISITORS IN THE G. R. SMITH home last week were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cary of Carlisle. The Carys formerly lived in the Garnolia community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas have been visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Smith in Albuquerque, N. M.

Cristy Lynn More has been staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson and Leonard Gribble made a trip to Tennessee to visit their old homeplace and old friends. A cousin from Friona went with them.

MR. AND MRS. W. G. McCLESKEY went to a homecoming last Friday in Pastio. They returned home Monday after visiting with many old friends.

Bro. Fitzgerald, Nazarene pastor, and family, visited in the Carlos McCleskey home, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Warrick of Lubbock and Leonard Gribble had lunch in the H. C. Gribble home Wednesday.

Visiting in the Hoover home Wednesday through Saturday was Mrs. Nora Scarborough of Grandfield, Okla. She is Mr. Hoover's sister. Friday, another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Love of Lovington, N. M. came for a visit, returning home Saturday. Mrs. Scarborough accompanied them. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McCleskey went to Lubbock to shop Wednesday.

Mrs. O. H. Hoover and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Scarborough, visited in the Ruel Smith home Friday.

H. D. Gartman and R. C. Ray were in a wreck when a transport truck and their grain trucks collided at the Marshall Stewart corner. All three trucks were demolished. R. C. Ray had to have several stitches over one eye and suffered bad bruises. Gartman was unhurt and the driver of the transport was taken to the Slaton hospital.

The W. G. McCleskey children had lunch with their parents Sunday.

Odie Campbell went to see his aunt who is in the hospital in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Riley are taking their daughter, Pearl, to be with her husband who is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood in Missouri. The Rileys will go on to Cassville to visit relatives.

Jay and Pauline Riley spent the week-end vacationing in Ruidoso, N. M.

Raymond Lankford was a guest of his father Friday night.

Mrs. Spears is at home again and is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Knight of Big Spring visited her mother Mrs. J. C. Bailey recently.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Harrison and Dottie went to see his mother, who has been ill, at Lipan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davis are returning home from a visit in East Texas. Her mother, Mrs. Lightfoot, will return with them for an extended visit.

MR. AND MRS. DON CARRIKER are vacationing in Ruidoso, N. M. Mrs. Gartman is keeping their baby daughter.

James Murray has gone to Harrison, Ark., to help the Flournoy Moore family move back to Texas. We will welcome them.

Mrs. Sybil Workman was complimented with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. Viola Greer. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Mildred King and Mrs. Fitts. Fifteen guests registered and were served coffee and cake squares.

The Thursday Club was held in the home of Mrs. Will Wright. The following members attended: Mrs. Bernice Propst, Viva Davis, Edna Morris, Ada Oden and Iris McMahan. Guests were Mrs. Miller of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Steen of Amarillo.

Be sure to unload your guns, Mr. Sportsman, before putting them in the car. One careless action may cost a life.

Stars to be at prison rodeo

Five of the nation's most famous rodeo stars will be highlighted at the annual Prison Rodeo to be held Sunday in October in the $1,000,000 stadium in Austin.

The colorful event on Oct. 1, will be Fats Domino, jazz pianist and singer, followed by Cowboy Rex Alford, star of the Ernest Borgnine film "The Sandlot," and a veteran folk song performer, one of the nation's top recording artists, will appear on Oct. 22, while Chuck Connors of "The Rifleman" TV fame will appear on Oct. 29.

In addition to these entertainment stars, tough inmate cowboys will be attempting to tame tougher prison-produced broncs and bulls in a host of events not usually found in other rodeos.

To round out a thrilling two-hour show which opens at 2 p. m., rodeo officials also have arranged to present such free-world events as calf roping, a girl's barrel race and noted mounted quadrilles from various parts of Texas.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Stanford

AUSTIN—Radioactive fallout is under close scrutiny at Texas' two testing stations in Austin and El Paso.

Resumption of nuclear testing by the Soviet Union brought on the 24-hour-a-day shift atop the State Health Department building in Austin where sampling devices, working like vacuum cleaners, pull jet streams of air through a filter to measure fallout.

During the four year nuclear test ban, radioactivity got progressively lower. Before the tests were stopped, engineers said it was 50 to 100 times higher. They expect results of Russian shots to begin showing up here within the next few days.

Meanwhile, Gov. Price Daniel announced a survey is being launched in Texas to make fallout shelter space available throughout the state. He said Col. R. Paul West of the U. S. Army Engineers at Fort Worth, who has been assigned to survey, will work in coordination with the State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Division and local civil defense officials.

Survey is part of a national program to locate possible fallout shelter space in existing buildings, tunnels and other protected areas.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE Commissioner John C. White organized a conference of southern Agriculture Commissioners in Atlanta, Ga. to "seek ways and means to help save the poultry industry."

White said they will attempt to find ways to relieve the current "disastrous poultry prices" which are at the lowest point in the history of commercial broiler production.

"This is not just a local situation in Texas," White said. "The entire national broiler industry is suffering from a price depression."

He reported poultry prices dropped in the past week to as low as 15 cents per pound, or as much as five cents below cost for many producers.

Meanwhile, the Attorney General's Department is studying the record of a special court of inquiry to determine if anti-trust violations are involved in the price decline.

Witnesses testified the trouble is overproduction. Actually the overproduction is not in Texas but in the 21 other broiler producing states.

Phil Friberg, manager of the Western Hatcheries in Gonzales, said 50 per cent of Texas' broiler producers will be out of business if something doesn't happen.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson wants to determine if "there is any effort to price the Texas poultry producer out of business."

GOVERNOR DANIEL has taken up Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler's recommendation that a feasibility study be made to determine whether Padre Island beaches should be turned into a state park area.

Sadler said the Governor agreed to appoint a statewide committee with instructions to report quickly. The long, slender island, a potential playground paradise, has been the center of controversy since it was proposed that a large portion of it be turned over to the federal government for a national park area.

A CIVIL ANTI-TRUST suit alleging 31 loan companies conspired to push punitive small loan laws through the Texas Legislature has been dismissed by Federal Judge Ben Rice Jr. in Austin.

Suit, filed by J. L. House Jr. who operates a small loan business in Waco and other cities, charged that large Texas and out-of-state loan companies conspired to secure enactment of laws that would "destroy the small loan business of the plaintiff and all others similarly situated."

Judge Rice held the allegations did not show sufficient cause against the defendant companies to warrant a court trial.

GOVERNOR DANIEL joined independent producers in pleas for action to stem the tide of falling Texas crude oil prices.

"In view of rising equipment and operating costs, crude purchasers should be thinking of some price increase," he said. "Domestic crude oil is long overdue for more realistic prices if needed exploration is to be stimulated. Lower prices, combined with a stringent law allowable pattern in Texas, will continue to aggravate the problem of the domestic oil producing industry. This, together with excessive foreign oil imports, some of them by the price-cutting companies, will hamstring the domestic industry and the producing states."

"I hope these and other purchasers will consider the plight of the domestic industry in their future actions," he concluded.

The president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, James F. West, said a personal appeal is being made to the heads of purchasing companies "in hope that common sense will assert itself."

STATE BOARD of Education has launched a study into the question of how much could be saved by using paper-back books in schools, and whether it would be worth it.

"We can't say what the savings will be until the study is made," State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar said, "but it appears the initial savings will be considerable." He pointed out the principal cost of some books is what's inside, rather than the materials used.

Board authorized the Texas Education Agency to start by asking bids on both soft cover and hard cover editions of one textbook—Vocal Music for seventh and eighth grades. It also authorized the agency to have a qualified laboratory test the wearability of paper backs against hard covers and submit findings.

JACK COX of Breckenridge, former member of the Texas House of Representatives who ran as a democrat for Governor in 1960, announced he is enlisting in the Republican Party "as a buck private."

"I can no longer support nor be a part of the Democratic Party under its present leadership and political platforms," he said. "And I shall

STRESSING SCHOOL SAFETY

As school days begin throughout the state, the Texas Highway Department is taking special precautions to insure the safety of school children on the way to and from school. Numerous signs of warning and caution are appearing near school sites (such as this typical sign being tamped in place by a Highway Department maintenance man) and school bus stops. Motorists are urged to carefully observe these signs to guarantee the safety of school children.

Awards of Merit go to drivers of Southland buses

F. W. Callaway, superintendent of the Southland schools, presented four Awards of Merit to as many school bus drivers recently in a special ceremony before a general assembly of the student body.

The award program, sponsored and conducted by the Texas Safety Association and local schools, is designed to give public recognition to school bus drivers with accident-free records for the past school year.

Supt. Callaway commended the four drivers for their accident-free record.

Drivers who received certificates were Duane D. Locke, Alva Albright, Robert Long and Bill Yates. The awards were signed by Supt. Callaway, President Victor O. Shawgo and General Manager J. O. Musick.

Q. My son, a World War II veteran, was killed recently in an accident. VA refused me death compensation allowance. I cannot understand this because I know other mothers who are drawing dependency allowances. Why am I not entitled to the same benefits?

A. A dependent parent may collect death compensation from the VA only if the veteran's death resulted from a service-connected injury or illness.

Q. I understand that the VA's direct loan limit has been increased. What is the new maximum and the interest rate?

A. Limit for a direct loan from the VA is $15,000. Interest rate remains 5 1/4 per cent.

Q. May a peacetime veteran enter a VA domiciliary, and if so, what are the conditions of eligibility?

A. Yes. He must be permanently disabled, have been discharged for a disability incurred in line of duty or be receiving compensation for a service-connected disability, have no visible means of support, and be incapacitated from earning a living.

Q. How many women veterans in the United States?

A. There are an estimated 400,000 women veterans in the United States; a total of 315,000 of them World War II veterans, 70,000 Korea veterans and the rest either World War I veterans or Army nurses during the Spanish-American War.

Garza County people invited to dedication at area Ag station

"All Garza County residents—farm, ranch and city folks alike—are issued a special invitation to attend dedication ceremonies and the annual field day Tuesday, Sept. 19, at the new home of the Lubbock Experiment Station." County Agent Lewis C. Herron has announced.

Guided tours of experimental plots and laboratory facilities will begin at 1 p. m. Highlights of the field tour will include latest research results on cotton, grain sorghum, irrigation, fertilizers, insect control, and vegetable and oil crops. Formal dedication ceremonies will follow the evening meal.

The new headquarters for the 62-year-old experiment station is located about seven miles north of Lubbock and east of the Plainview highway. Charles E. Fisher is station superintendent.

Boy Scout 'Showando' is scheduled here Sept. 30

Camp Post here will be the scene Saturday, Sept. 30, for the annual Boy Scout "Showando" for a 11 adult Scout leaders in the 20-county area of the South Plains Council.

Leo Hay, chairman and longtime Scouter in the South Plains Council, said the Showando is a big, important, fun-filled one-shot event.

It will be a day of Boy Scouting activity built around a patrol of adults from over the many towns that make up the South Plains Council.

Through the activity program, the men will have fun, learn basic Scouting skills, and knit themselves into a close-working team of Scouting leaders. It will also provide an excellent introduction to Scouting for patrol Dads, new men in the program, and all men who participate.

Assisting Hay with the annual training experience will be the following members of the Showando steering committee:

Jack Schneider, promotion and recreation; Mark Boren, chairman of the Worth Trying Area; B. L. Hunter and Mark Gosdin, co-chairmen of the Showando Trail; Dr. R. G. Reckers, chairman of the Showando Rally;

Jim Halsey, outdoor cooking demonstration; Jack Strong, campfire program.

Others helping with the program will include: Jim Harvey, Council chairman; Sam Lockwood, F. M. Carroll, Glenn Day of Plainview, Cecil Reese of Crosbyton, Stanley Zak of Lubbock, Col. James Carvey of Lubbock, George B. Van Slyke of Lubbock, Byron Terrell of Smyer and Dr. Jess U. Borom of Brownfield. The last seven named men are district leadership training chairmen of the seven Scout districts within the Council.

Registration for the Showando will begin at 9 a. m. and the day's activities will be concluded with the campfire program about 9 p. m. All adult Scouters are urged to attend.

Two meals will be served. There will be lots of activities, plenty of good fellowship, and lots of good program helps for adult leaders.

Burlington extends investments in European textile operations

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Burlington Industries, Inc., has extended its investments in European textile operations through an agreement with Cyril Lord, Ltd., of England.

A joint announcement today by J. Spencer Love, Burlington Chairman and president, and Cyril Lord, chairman of the English firm, revealed that Burlington has made a $2,800,000 partly convertible loan to the Lord organization. The companies have entered into an agreement for the mutual exchange of technical information and services, and will jointly explore the United Kingdom and continental markets in connection with textile products of common interest.

Cyril Lord, Ltd., has invited Burlington to nominate three representatives to serve on its Board of Directors. Those nominated are Love, Charles F. Myers Jr., Burlington executive vice president, and Charles R. Walters, formerly of Abney Mills and more recently until joining Burlington a vice president of the Citizens and Southern National Bank in Atlanta, Ga. Simultaneously with these appointments, Sir Graham Cunningham, formerly chairman of Triplex Holdings, Ltd., and G. C. Seligman, a director of S. G. Warburg and Company, Ltd., have joined the Board of Cyril Lord.

The Cyril Lord firm is a diversified manufacturer and distributor of tufted carpets, woven goods and surgical products, with 17 plants located in the Leicestershire and Lancashire areas of England and in Northern Ireland.

Burlington Industries, the world's largest and most diversified textile manufacturer, earlier this year announced joint ventures with textile firms operating in France, Germany and Mexico. Burlington already had international operations in Mexico, Colombia, Canada, and the Republic of South Africa.

Name librarians for school year

By Charlotte L. Covey
The librarians for this school year are: 1st period, Charles Allen Margaret Ritchie; 2nd period, Donna Robison, Charlotte L. Covey; 3rd period, Jerry Stone, Danny Richardson; 4th period, Wayne McFadin, Sandra Lobban; 5th period, Jean Johnston, Janice Moreman; 6th period, Glenda Hutto, Cecilia Bland.

Our school library has some wonderful new books in this year. And quite a few of our favorites have been rebound.

There are some good biographies and interesting fiction books. For the students who are interested in biographies there are such books as, "Washington's Lady," "The Mayos," "William Shakespeare," "Louis Braille" and many more exciting people to read about. For the fiction reader there are books such as "The Lovely Ambition," "The Year When Stardust Fell," a novel of science fiction, and "To Have and Not Hold." There are many other exciting and worthwhile books in our library this year.

Come in to our library and take advantage of the many wonderful books that are offered to you.

Mrs. McRee called a meeting of the librarians on Tuesday during the noon period. The Library Club was organized and officers were elected. The librarians were also instructed as to library procedure. Due to newspaper deadlines, the officers were not known at the time of publication. The new library officers will be made known next week.

Miss Collins new Home Ec teacher

By Sheila Morris
Miss Peggy Ruth Collins is among our new teachers in PHS. She was born in Granbury, Texas, and attended Texas Women's University in Denton.

Miss Collins has two degrees; a Bachelor of Science and a degree in Home Economics Education.

This is her second year to teach home economics. Her first year was spent in Norwalk, Calif., then she moved to Post.

Miss Collins has several interests, among them are music; and naturally her hobby is sewing; she likes football games and entertaining.

We are happy to have her as a teacher and as a sponsor for the pep squad. She is doing a great job as both a teacher and a sponsor. We hope she will enjoy living here as much as we will enjoy having her here.

Welcome to Post, Miss Collins.

Science Club sets organization meet

By Sue Howell
There will be a meeting on Monday night, Sept. 18, to organize the Science Club.

Officers will be elected and sponsors will be chosen from the science teachers in Post High School. The science teachers are: Mr. Baxter, chemistry and physics; Mr. St. John, general science, and Mr. May, biology.

The meeting will be held in the high school building.

By Marcia Newby
All of us, here in Post Junior High, welcome the 6th graders. We know, from experience, that it is hard to get used to the new routine of changing classes. We will all try to help the 6th graders get adjusted in this new school. They are all very nice kids, and we realize it.

Identity of mysterious person is being sought

Juniors elect Janith Short

By Lynda Taylor
Junior class officers were elected Wednesday during the Junior's first class meeting. They are as follows: President, Janith Short; vice president, Jerry Bush; treasurer, David Nichols; secretary, Lenny Howell; reporter, Chris Cornish, and Student Council representative, Jimmy Wells.

The three advisors chosen are Mr. May, Mr. St. John, and Coach Teal.

This is going to be a big year for the Juniors, who will undertake such projects and activities as the concession stand at the football stadium, the Junior Play, the Junior-Senior Banquet and the Prom.

School Page is in fourth year

The first issue of the Garza County School Page appears this week, with the high school editorial staff organized and the junior high staff in the process of being organized this week.

In addition to news from the high school, junior high, elementary and primary schools, school news of interest will also be published from Southland, Close City and Justiceburg and the Lincoln Elementary School here.

New teacher for Speech classes

By Dwayne Capps and Leatrice Justice
Mr. Howard Carlyle has been assigned the job of new speech teacher of Post High School.

Mr. Carlyle moved here from Lubbock, he has a B. S. in Education from Texas Tech. He lives at 117 South Ave. Q, and is married and has three sons, Hardy, Lynn, and Glenn.

Mr. Carlyle enjoys playing golf, and his plans for the future speech department are as follows: One-act play for Interscholastic League contest and various plays for the students of Post High School.

We hope to have a debate team and Junior and Senior plays.

Seniors elect Leslie Acker

By Danella Bateman
The Senior class of 1961-62 had its first class meeting Sept. 8. Leslie Acker will head our class this year as president, Lee Williams, vice president; Donna Robison, secretary; Melinda Newby, treasurer; and Judy McCullough, reporter.

Our sponsors this year are Mr. Souter, Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. King.

There wasn't enough time to elect a Student Council representative or our room mothers.

Students are proud of Junior High remodeling

By Marcia Newby
All of us in Junior High surely are proud of our newly remodeled school building. It makes the school year all the more enjoyable.

One of the nicest things about the building is the brand new rest rooms.

I know we are all very proud of this new establishment and will keep it nice this year and in the future. I am speaking for all the Junior High in saying that we really appreciate it.

Junior High football teams opening season

Tuesday, the 12th, was to begin the 1961 football season for Post Junior High School.

This year's 8th grade team was district co-champion last year as 7th graders, and we are hoping they will win district this year, along with the 7th grade team.

Cheerleaders have not yet been elected, but the teams will be supported by the student body.

Shop classes are planning projects

By Jerry Gerner
The shop classes under the direction of Mr. Charles Hopkins have not begun working on their projects yet. Mr. Hopkins said that "It would be about two weeks before they would start on them."

Right now the shop classes are hearing lectures on safety precautions to be used around the machinery.

SUNDAY DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Esther Carpenter, Eddie Pearl and Jack, had as their Sunday dinner guests Mrs. Vera Gossett and E. L. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wayne Donahue of Southland.

Sports Calendar

By Leatrice Justice
Sept. 15: Post Antelopes play at Spur.
Sept. 19: 7th and 8th grade teams go to Lamesa. 7th grade plays at 4 and 8th grade at 5:30.
Sept. 21: "B" team plays Crosbyton here at 7:30. Freshmen play Tahoka there at 7.

AT LAKE TEXOMA
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Northcutt are spending a two-month vacation at Lake Texoma where they have a cabin.

Commercial Dept. gets under way

By Donna Robison
In the Commercial Department we study shorthand, bookkeeping. Things are going well, as usual, this year. In the new shorthand class, Mrs. Fleming is busy teaching the girls how to read and write the shorthand alphabet. Of the 14 girls in class, eight are Juniors and six are Seniors.

In bookkeeping, we are learning the basic rules such as the balance sheet, journal, ledger, credit and debit. Most of the 34 students are learning fast and are enjoying it very much.

The Typing I classes are learning the working parts of the typewriter, location of the keys, and how to insert their paper properly. From what I hear all 55 are doing real well.

The Typing II class is studying mostly the different business forms and increasing their speed.

Jimmy Wells new choir president

By Margaret Ritchie
Jimmy Wells has been elected president of the 76-member Post High School Choir for the 1961-62 school year.

Teddy Scott was elected vice president, and Linda McMahon, secretary.

Appointed to the entertainment committee were: Harold Wayne Mason, chairman; Jan Herring, Tom Clark and Carolyn Haley.

The accompanist for the year is Gayla Johnson.

Spanish Club conducts first meeting of year

By Butch Bowen
The first Spanish Club meeting was held Monday in the home of Mr. Jim Mallard, high school Spanish teacher.

The program consisted of a film strip, "Current Currents in Latin America," narrated by Mr. Phil Crenshaw. It was a very interesting program, and afterwards officers were elected and hamburgers were served.

The names of the officers will appear in next week's paper.

Language of Chaucer tongue-ties students

By Jean Johnston
Mrs. Ryder reports that in English 111 the Juniors have begun outside reading assignments in American literature.

In English 1V the Seniors are studying backgrounds of English literature and are tongue-tied over the Middle English language of Chaucer. (When that April with its shroues soote, etc!)

Sorry, no news from the Freshman and Sophomore English Departments this week.

Lenny Howell elected president PHS Band

By Ruthell Martin
The Post High Band elected officers Monday. President for this year will be drum major, Lenny Howell. Other officers are vice-president, Benny Owen; secretary, treasurer, Stanna Butler; reporter, Vonda Howell; and Student Council representative, Ruthell Martin.

The band did a real fine at Ralls Friday before last. We would like to see them doing just as well all through the season.

The band started marching through racks two or three weeks before school started and now they get to school every morning at 8:15. This is a lot of work, but everyone seems to enjoy it after they hear the applause of the audience. Also the spirit of the kids is tremendous. We would like to see this spirit kept up, so come on everyone and back the band as much as possible.

4 new teachers at Junior High

Junior High's proud to have four new teachers.

Coach Bigott, who teaches 6th grade history and football, came from Pasadena, Tex. He is married and has no children.

Mr. Lee Davis Jr. teaches 6th grade health and science. He is from Levelland and is married. Mr. Davis has two little girls.

Coach Kountz came from Sand High School in Ackerly, Texas. He coaches girl's high school basketball and teaches 7th grade health and science, and is married.

Mrs. Teal is our new librarian. She has lived in Post for the last several years and has two little girls.

Steady Couples

Here are a few of the steady couples around Post High School.

Mary Beth Ford and Howard Lee Teaff.
Carol Hodges and Gary Brewer.
Janith Short and Dwayne Capps.
Sharon Isaacs and Buddy Morelan.
Danella Bateman and Noel Norman.
Leatrice Justice and Allen Johnston.
Lynette Potts and Jerry Thuett.
Shirley Isaacs and Teddy Scott.
Sammie Kay Caffey and Ralph Ardis.
Ginny Young and Nuel Landreth.
Kay Murray and Joe Dick Rogers.
Barbara Craig and Tahoka Smith.

Benny Owen is to head Frosh

By Judy Clark
The freshman class of 1961 had their first class meeting Thursday, Sept. 7, when they elected four of this year's officers.

Benny Owen was elected as the president and Dee Ann Walker, vice-president. Carolyn Matler will fill the position of secretary and Danny Pierce will serve as the year's treasurer.

Two positions are still vacant because of the time element, but another class meeting has been scheduled for this Tuesday when the Student Council representative reporter will be elected. The sponsors and room mothers will also be elected at this meeting.

Melinda Newby editor this year's annual

By Leatrice Justice
Melinda Newby has been named as editor for this year's Post High School annual, with Chris Cornish as associate editor.

Plans for the annual have not yet been announced, but will be announced, along with the cost, as soon as released.

POST ANTELOPES Vs. SPUR BULLDOGS

Friday, Sept. 15
At Spur
KICKOFF TIME — 8 P. M.

Coach Vernard Alexander's Post High Antelopes will be out to bounce back from their home defeat last Friday night at the hands of the swift Colorado City Wolves and ring up their first victory of the 1961 autumn campaign at Spur tomorrow night.

The Post-Spur school football game is a traditional clash for both towns.

The local footballers are determined to get on the 1961 victory trail at Spur. They will need some noisy, support from the stands to overcome the Bulldogs.

Plan now to attend the game. Get up a carload of rooters and make a real football night of it. Don't forget kickoff time is 8 p. m. Don't miss it!

It's expensive not to have a driver's license

If you've got a driver's license, carry it with you. If you don't have one, get one before you drive.

That's the moral on today's report on arrests, charges and fines in Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts' court.

Nine charges for no driver's licenses were filed during the last few days.

Those charged, charge, date charge was filed and fine and costs, if paid, are as follows:

H. A. Yarbro, no permit, Sept. 13.

B. A. Mitchell, over gross weight, Sept. 13.

A. W. Powell, petty theft, Sept. 13.

Jackie Johnson, running stop sign, Sept. 11.

Lem Stephens, no driver's license, Sept. 11.

Raul Rema, state of intoxication, Sept. 11.

Julian Ybarra, disregarding warning sign to keep to right, Sept. 11, $70.00; no driver's license, Sept. 11, $20.00.

Oliver McDougle, excessive muffler, Sept. 11, $74.

C. L. Newberry, vehicle not equipped with stop light, Sept. 11.

Roy Lacy, no driver's license, Sept. 11.

James Williams, no driver's license, Sept. 11.

Jess Rodriguez, no driver's license, Sept. 11.

J. H. Clive, no driver's license, Sept. 11, $16.50.

Jose Soto, no driver's license, Aug. 31, $24.50.

Howard A. Justice, no driver's license, Sept. 5, $16.50.

Helen Hovle, no driver's license, Sept. 5, $16.50.

W. H. Carothers, no lease signs, Sept. 8, over gross weight, Sept. 8.

So sign up now, get your rules, and instructions, and get out the football with Dad and start practicing.

Garza's cotton crop is looking great according to County agent Lewis Herron with the cotton starting to head. And cotton farmers hereabouts breathed a real sigh of relief yesterday when the remains of Hurricane Carla bypassed this West Texas area and blew and rained itself out in Oklahoma and Kansas. That was one visitor nobody wanted.

The Garza County Youth Center now has new exterior eye appeal—a new coat of light green paint. This is another physical improvement for the center. The next will be an attractive sign over the front door.

Post cowboys in finals of rodeo

Three Post rodeo performers, Eddie Stewart, R. E. Josey and Ed Kelly Sims, will compete this weekend in the Tri-State Rodeo finals at Tulsa.

Stewart will compete in bull riding and Josey and Sims in roping events.

Another Post cowboy, Jimmy Moore, was a finalist in one of the riding events, but will pass up the event to compete in a rodeo at Henrietta.

At Friona last Thursday, Stewart won first in bull riding and split second and third money in bareback bronc riding. He won first in bull riding Saturday night at the Range Riders Rodeo in Abilene.

Post youth home from forest job in Oregon

Gary Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Welch, has returned home from Cave Junction, Ore., to attend Texas Tech.

Through the summer, Gary, along with his brothers, Bernie and Larry, has been employed in Oregon as a smoke-jumper for the U. S. Forest Service.

Bernie and Larry will remain in Oregon and continue working. Bernie has been elected as a member of the Peace Corps and will go to Ohio University for training in October. After several months training he will be sent to India.

church's "right to be heard in the affairs of social, moral and economic tension and conflict."

"The church cannot assume management," he added, "but can suggest principles of relationship which peoples in all positions can hear, and practice."

On the subject of moral tensions, Rev. Hogue said that "there are distinct principles which have governed the honesty and integrity of people in the church and out, over the centuries. Other civilizations and peoples have recognized the issue of moral values and have strictly adhered to them. Life ought to be a reflection of the Creator who made them."

Turning to racial conflicts, he said "Communication from the standpoint of attitude and appreciation for each other's contribution should be done. It is a community duty, a Christian attribute with constructive and patient adjustment, met realistically."

Rev. Hogue said he thought it would be "a wonderful thing" if "our community could organize an adult class to learn Spanish."

He pointed out that early development of physical conditioning on the part of the nation's youth is one of the prime objectives of the President's Council on Youth Fitness. The Council, he added, will present letters of commendation to the five National Champions during their White House visit.

A representative of Pritchard & Abbott met with the board to request a raise from the present 2 cents to 3 cents per $100 property valuation for the tax firm's services. Since only four members of the board were present, the trustees decided to table the request until all seven members are present.

In the discussion of the salary increase requested by school lunchroom cooks, Smith told the board that employment of a third dish washer, would keep the cooks from having to rotate to help out with the dish washing. He said he felt an extra dish washer would be equal to a salary increase.

Board member Quannah Maxey agreed. He said one of the cooks had told him they had rather have more help than a salary boost.

Post Antelope '11' to invade Spur Friday night

Locals to 'catch' foes on their homecoming

The Post Antelopes, smarting from a 57 to 0 trouncing at the hands of the Colorado City Wolves last Friday night, will try to bounce back tomorrow night in a game nearer their class than a team nearer their class—the Spur Bulldogs of District 6AA.

The game will be played at Spur, the kickoff scheduled for 8 o'clock.

The Bulldogs team doubly taking the Antelopes for the invading Antelopes is the fact that it's homecoming night at Spur. Also the fact that it has been more than ten years since a Post football team triumphed over the Bulldogs.

Coach Alexander yesterday announced that the Antelopes, with the exception of fullback Harwayne Mason and end Dwayne Wynn, are expected to be at full strength for the Spur game.

The 180-pound Mason is back in action this week after re-injuring his knee in the third quarter of the Colorado City game. The effectiveness of the Post ground attack will depend on whether or not Mason is in shape for the game.

Wynn, who received a hip injury in the third quarter of the Colorado City game after making several spectacular pass catches, is a full starter against the Bulldogs tomorrow night. He was run-ning in this week's practice drills, but may see only limited action, if any, against Spur.

On the brighter side, guard Bud-oreland apparently is ready to letter winners back

Post girls' cage slate announced

Post High School girls' basketball team will open its 1961-62 season Nov. 6 against Sands, according to the schedule released last week by new coach Van Koun-

The opening game will be played at Sands team's court at Ackerman Lamesa. Kountz coached the team before coming to Post and will take them to the state tournament.

Post does have nine returning letter winners. They are: Judy Anderson, guard; Danella Bates, senior, guard; Jamie Carra-junior, guard; Barbara Craig, junior, forward; Marianne Jones, junior, forward; Janith Short, junior, forward; Nita Wilson, sophomore, forward; and Linda Pennell, sophomore, forward.

Other members of the squad will include: Mary Ann Williams, Wanda Williams, Dianne Maxey, Lynette Potts, Shirley Sappington, Barbara Holleman, Shirley Isaacs, Darlene Jones, Vivian McWhirt, Retta Morton, Darla Pierce, Frances Solis, Pamela Stewart, Mary Ann Stone, Becky Thompson, Dee Ann Walker, Cheryl Martin, Cindy Wilson and Yvonne Moreland.

The 1961-62 schedule follows:

Nov. 5: Open.
Nov. 6: Sands, there.
Nov. 11: Open.
Nov. 14: Aspermont, there.
Nov. 17: Floydada, here.

Dove hunters in zone find pickings slim

—Dove hunters in the zone have found slim pickings since opening of the season, according to reports to Phillips, law enforcement com- missioner of the Game and Fish

Some areas where the grain harvest has been under way seem to be fairly plentiful. However, waterfowl shooting, however, is very skimpy.

Reports from Oklahoma show shooting there has been good. It is expected that there will be a change in weather conditions, and these doves will be moving south.

It is the problem, if dove pickings are ripe and there is a need to hold doves, they remain scattered through the zone, according to game wardens who have been watching the dove situation.

For a good quail season still is good, according to the wardens.

Man '11' is open tonight

Post freshman football team, coached by Lynn Gregg, will open their season here at 7 o'clock tonight in the Spur freshmen.

The game will be the first game for the team, who scrimmaged last Thursday.

The 7th and 8th grade teams go to the game Tuesday. The game is scheduled for 4 o'clock.

The 8th grade game for freshmen are to play at 6 p. m. next Thursday.

Wolves' team speed too much for Post

Colorado City wins, 57 to 0

Unleashing a bevy of fast backs and a hard-charging line, the Colorado City Wolves of District 3AAA opened their season here Friday night with a convincing 57 to 0 victory over the out-manned Post Antelopes.

Until the last 25 seconds of play, it appeared that the Wolves would not roll up as big a score against the Antelopes as they did last season, when they won, 53-0. But in those last 25 seconds, Coach Sam Christy re-inserted his first string backs, and fullback Ken Northcutt crashed through the weary Post line, into the open and 80 yards for a touchdown. Halfback Mike Andrews booted the extra point to buzz the scoreboard to its final count for the night.

There was little doubt from the opening kickoff that it was going to be a bad night for the Antelopes. The Wolves, displaying the best backfield speed seen here in many years, drove 78 yards in six plays for their first touchdown, with the biggest gain being a 53-yard run by halfback Jim Womack, 130 pounds, with a lateral pass. There were 9 minutes and 39 seconds left in the first quarter, but that was all the scoring for Colorado City in the opening period.

LATE IN THE quarter, one Wolf drive was halted at the Post 29 when end Dwayne Capps pounced on Northcutt's fumble.

But it didn't take the Wolves long to start moving in the second period after Womack had returned halfback Tommy Bouchier's punt from the Colorado City 36 to the Post 18. It took the Wolves six plays—an offside penalty setting them back at one point—to negotiate the distance, but Womack finally did it with a five-yard burst around his left end, with 9:54 to go.

Another hair-raising punt return, this time by Andrews from his 35 at the Post 26, set up the third TD, with halfback Charles Houston spurting through the line for the final 10.

THE ANTELOPES were unable to move after receiving the kickoff, and Andrews brought Bouchier's punt back 42 yards to the Post 15. Four plays later, Houston banged over from two yards out, and Andrews kicked the point to make the score 28-0.

Following the kickoff, the Post team scored its initial first down of the game, with quarterback Leslie Acker passing to Capps for 22 yards to take the ball to the Colorado City 45. Only 31 seconds remained in the first half, but Acker once again found Capps, this time for 19 yards and a first down on the Colorado City 26 for Post's deepest penetration of the night. Time was left for only one more play, and Wolf defenders swarmed Acker for a 10-yard loss as he retreated to pass.

THE POST aerial attack continued to look good at the start of the second half, with Acker tossing short ones to Capps, ends Billy Shumard and Danny Pierce and fullback Harold Wayne Mason. Mixed in with the passes was an 11-yard gain by Mason with a pitch out, and a six-yard pickup by halfback Teddy Scott. A fourth down pass on the Antelopes' third series of downs failed, and the Wolves took over on their 41.

In the meantime, the Post cause had been hurt by injuries to Capps and Mason, with the glue-fingered Capps having to leave the game for good with a hip injury. Mason was taken out when a knee he had was hurt in practice was re-injured, but he returned to play in the fourth quarter.

The Post drive had used up most of the quarter, with the result that the rampaging Wolves came up with only one TD in the period, that coming on a two-yard buck by Northcutt.

FOR NEARLY half of the final quarter, Post held the visitors scoreless. But, with 5:59 showing on the clock Womack burst through the line and outraced the Post secondary to score on a 73-yard canter.

The ensuing kickoff was recovered on the Post 18 when the ball was

After losing to Jayton

The Southland Eagle eight-man football team will be trying to bounce back from a 44-6 defeat at the hands of Jayton when they play Guthrie at 8 p. m. Friday on the Southland grid in a non-conference game.

As predicted, the Eagles of Coach Duane Locke had a rough evening against the Jayton Jay-birds last Friday night, losing to a team that hasn't lost a game in three seasons.

Following Friday night's game with Guthrie, the Eagles will have only two non-conference games left before opening district play at home Oct. 13 against the Wellman Wildcats.

The Eagles play Patton Springs there Sept. 22 and Roaring Springs at home on Sept. 29, with Oct. 6 open before embarking on their district schedule.

Following is this season's Southland roster:

Don Altman, back, freshman, 120 pounds.
Webster Crawford, back, junior, 135.
Bill Davies, back and end, sophomore, 115.
Sammy Ellis, back, senior, 175.
Johnny Haire, back, junior, 150.

7th grade loses, 8-0

8th graders beat Slaton

Coach Richard Souter's 8th grade football team got off to a good start here Tuesday night by drubbing the Slaton 8th grade team, 26 to 0.

Coach Wilburn Bigott's 7th graders lost, however, 8 to 0, in a tight defensive battle.

The passing combination of quarterback Louis Ayala and halfback Ruben Solis was the big difference in the 8th grade game, along with the stout defensive work of the Post team.

It was midway of the third quarter before the Post 8th graders could get under a full head of steam, after a scoreless first half in which a 40-yard touchdown run by Ayala was nullified by a backfield-in-motion penalty.

The first touchdown came on a 35-yard pass play, Ayala to Solis, with the same combination clicking again, in the fourth period, on a 40-yard play.

Fullback Manuel Minieta added the third touchdown on a 10-yard run, and also rammed over for the final TD after guard Donnie Cornell had set it up with a pass interception. Following the last touchdown, Solis ran over the only extra points of the night.

The Post line did a good job of keeping the Slaton offense in check, with guard Richard Salinas and tackle Floyd Wisdom the defensive standouts, according to Coach Souter.

Slaton's only scoring threat of the night came after they recovered a fumbled punt.

About your health

AUSTIN—Various educated guesses as to the number of undiscovered diabetics in the United States place the figure somewhere between one and two million. Undoubtedly a fair proportion of them are Texans.

Diabetes is a systemic metabolic disease in which the body loses its ability to use sugar normally. It can develop at any age, but most new victims are 50 or older.

Normally, the gland called the pancreas produces a secretion called insulin which is released into the blood. In the presence of insulin, sugar in the blood is burned, especially by muscular activity. Any excess of sugar in the presence of a normal amount of insulin is stored temporarily, mostly in the liver, and released into the blood stream as needed.

This is the normal pattern. But in a person suffering with diabetes the pancreas fails to produce sufficient insulin. And when starches are eaten and absorbed as sugar, the body is unable to control the sugar normally by storing it in the liver or to burn it efficiently in muscular exercise. Result: the sugar content of blood increases abnormally.

Because a diabetic is unable to burn sugar efficiently for energy, he becomes weak and tired, hungry and undernourished.

When blood sugar gets too high, the kidneys—in an effort to lower it—removes some of the sugar by excreting it in urine. This makes the body dry and creates thirst.

Proof of the hereditary nature of diabetes is the fact that surveys of diabetic children show 80 per cent are from families with a history of diabetes. Recent studies have shown that both mothers and babies weighing 10-12 pounds at birth have a pronounced tendency to develop diabetes in later life.

Overeating and lack of muscular exercise tend to promote obesity which in turn create a tendency toward diabetes. It has been shown that 20 fat persons develop the disease for every thin one who does. Moral: don't overeat, don't get overweight, but do get plenty of exercise.

You can judge your own disposition toward diabetes. Are you overweight? Do you overeat? Is there diabetes in your family? Were you a "heavy" baby at birth? Do you have any of these symptoms: persistent hunger or thirst, loss of weight or strength, excessive urination? If so, you're a fair candidate for diabetes and ought to promptly consult your family physician.

Friday is enforcement date for trailer tags

This Friday, Sept. 15, is the enforcement date for the new law requiring annual fee of $5 on farm trailers weighing 4,000 to 10,000 pounds, gross.

This information, reminding farm trailer owners of the enforcement date, was released by T. H. Tipton, Garza County tax assessor-collector.

Although the law was passed as an emergency measure and normally would have gone into effect on May 29, the enforcement date was postponed so that suitable license plates and other necessary materials could be provided.

CUTTING HORSE GROUP

SPUR—Fred Neaves has been elected president of the newly organized Spur Cutting Horse Association. Other officers elected were Olney Walker, vice president; Theford Fry, secretary-treasurer; and Tommy Kissingner, publicity chairman. The association will meet Tuesday nights at the polo field here.

The Unquestioned Compulsion

Years ago there were many who disputed the novel idea of free and compulsory public education. The first truancy laws were opposed as infringements on liberty.

But as our children return this fall to schools that will mold their growing minds—does a single parent complain?

I believe in sound religious education, as well. The molding of the character should keep pace with the molding of the mind.

Naturally I never want my government to exercise compulsion in this sacred area. And my Church, while it offers a complete curriculum of religious training, does so on a free and voluntary basis.

But I'm a parent! And, though I find that example and encouragement usually suffice, I'm not above telling Johnny, "YES, SON, YOU HAVE TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL!"

As a child begins to see the importance Faith has in our lives and in the strength of our nation . . . you'll be surprised how quickly this becomes an unquestioned compulsion.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rural mail carriers to distribute cards

Postmaster Harold Voss announced today that rural mail carriers will begin distributing 1961 Acreage Survey Cards this week to patrons on their routes.

The Post Office and U. S. Agriculture Departments make this survey each year. These reports, directly from farmers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in 1961.

To be sure this community is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Voss urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mailbox.

Rural mail carriers working on this project are Curtis Davies, Route 1; J. D. McCampbell, Route 2; Phil Bouchier, Route 3; E. B. Blumberg, Star Route.

Garza landowner new member state board

William H. Evans, 56, Lubbock attorney, has been named as the new member from this area on the State Board of Education. He will serve out the unexpired term of the late E. H. Boulter.

Evans, who owns farm and ranch land in Garza County, is a son of the late A. W. Evans, head of the Department of Education at Texas Tech for 20 years.

Legal opinion given on sharing of costs

AUSTIN—The attorney general held last week that Lynn County may not enter into agreement with the City of Tahoka to share airport runway construction expenses.

However, the opinion stated that Tahoka may convey to the county any interest in the land that is to be used for airport purposes, in order to make an agreement legal.

The request for the opinion came from Harold Green, attorney for Lynn County.

Publication is issued on area's underground water

Information on underground water resources of an 11-county West Texas area, which includes Garza County, has been compiled and published by the West Texas Geological Society.

Titled "Shallow Formations and Aquifers of the West Texas Area," the publication has been recognized by the Board of Water Engineers as an "invaluable asset" in the state program to determine depths to which fresh water should be protected in that area.

The publication is the work of the Society's Ground Water Committee, which was formed in 1957 at the request of the State Board of Water Engineers. The report contains 16 cross sections of water bearing formations located in 11 counties of the Permian Basin.

Counties included are Andrews, Crane, Ector, Gaines, Garza, Hockley, Loving, Lubbock, Midland, Reeves and Yoakum.

The report was submitted for the Society's Ground Water Committee by its chairman, John M. Hills of Midland. Other members of the Committee are Otis B. Coulson, Tom Culbertson, David N. Grimes, Robert B. Haynie, Charles H. Juni, Robert M. Neil, Lucky L. Tonroy, B. M. Hanson, and T. A. Fitzgerald. Work of compiling the data began under the chairmanship of Tom Culbertson.

"We believe that this compilation will be of considerable value to engineers, geologists, geophysicists, hydrologists, and others who must deal with the shallow beds in the Permian Basin area of West Texas," the committee stated.

A foreword explains that the cross sections, compiled from oil company drilling logs, Board of Water Engineers' ground bulletins, and other sources, present the geological setting of porous beds which are known or thought to contain important supplies of water.

"The cross sections included in this publication are an invaluable asset in our program to determine the depths to which fresh water should be protected in these 11 West Texas counties," Chief Engineer John J. Vandertulp of the Board of Water Engineers said in a letter to Mr. Hills.

Vandertulp also stated, "Our agency's primary problem is to protect fresh water. Data contained in his new report will assist us in the preparation of recommendations to the Railroad Commission and the oil industry."

Recommendations by the Board of Water Engineers are made to the Railroad Commission and oil operators on the depths to which strata containing water of usable quality require protection in drilling and production operations to prevent their contamination.

Significant gains by the clothing and beverage industries marked a 10 per cent increase in production in Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

TEXAS LAWMEN

Capt. James Abijah Brooks
Ranger

"... got him and I chained him up..."

Baron, Texas, was a-bail with a 3-way brangle involving stockmen, oilfield workers and the local law. A wild gas well had been fired to stop the destruction of cattle. Tempers flared, guns fired... then a killing. So a Ranger, Captain James A. Brooks, was sent in to calm things down. He reported considerable turbulence, and headquarters offered reinforcements. Captain Brooks' brief and only acknowledgment: "Got the killer and I chained him up." Brooks had been a rancher and trail driver until 1882, when he joined the Rangers for almost a quarter century of active service. Very active... such as, in 1896, rearranging the planned prizefight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Pete Maher in El Paso, and dealing misery to the cattle thieves who plagued the King Ranch in 1902. In later years Brooks added to his stature in the State Legislature and as County Judge of Brooks County, named for him.

The lawman has always needed courage and good judgment to keep the peace. We need that, too, to keep our good life and liberty. When an industry provides employment and enjoyment for so many, it "belongs." In Texas, "Beer Belongs." The United States Brewers Association is constantly at work, with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly and law-abiding conditions.

Insurance agent and wife attend meeting

Mr. and Mrs. V. F. (Bing) Bingham have returned from a trip to San Antonio, where they attended the 1961 business meeting of the Great Southern Club. This club is composed of career life underwriters of the Great Southern Life Insurance Co., Houston, who met qualifications in volume, quality business and outstanding service to policyowners and clients during the fiscal year ending June 30.

The business meeting, held at San Antonio's Granada Hotel, was attended by 280 Great Southerners and their wives from 12 states coast to coast across the southern part of the United States.

Relatives attend Mack Noble rites

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Noble and children and Mrs. Willie Smith and daughter, Sharon, attended funeral services in O'Donnell at 10 a. m. Saturday for the Post man's brother, James Mack Noble.

Mr. Noble, who was 62, died Thursday in O'Donnell, where he had lived since 1923. A former postmaster, Mr. Noble was a mail carrier and chairman of the board of First National Bank of O'Donnell. He was a charter member and past president of the O'Donnell Rotary Club and was a former automobile dealer.

A member of the Masonic Lodge, Mr. Noble was district deputy of the Grand Lodge at the time of his death.

The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, with burial in O'Donnell Cemetery.

Mr. Noble is also survived by his wife; two sons, J. M. Noble of Lewisville and E. D. Noble of San Francisco, Calif., and two other brothers, Terry Noble of Tahoka and Robert Noble of Brownfield.

USED CLOTHING NEEDED

Used clothing and shoes for children are desperately needed by a local family. The children range in ages from six months through seven years. Anyone having used clothing they wish to donate is asked to leave it at 202 North G Place in Post.

Severe foot injury for Bill Edwards

Bill Edwards suffered a badly shattered right foot Monday afternoon when the pickup in which he and Bill Pierson of Lubbock were riding went out of control on a dirt road and crashed into a bar ditch. Both men were thrown from the vehicle.

Pierson, who was driving at the time of the accident, drove Edwards to the Garza Memorial Hospital here after the accident occurred.

Edwards underwent surgery on the foot here Monday night. Pierson suffered only a small laceration over one eye.

The accident occurred northeast of Post near the Calgary area.

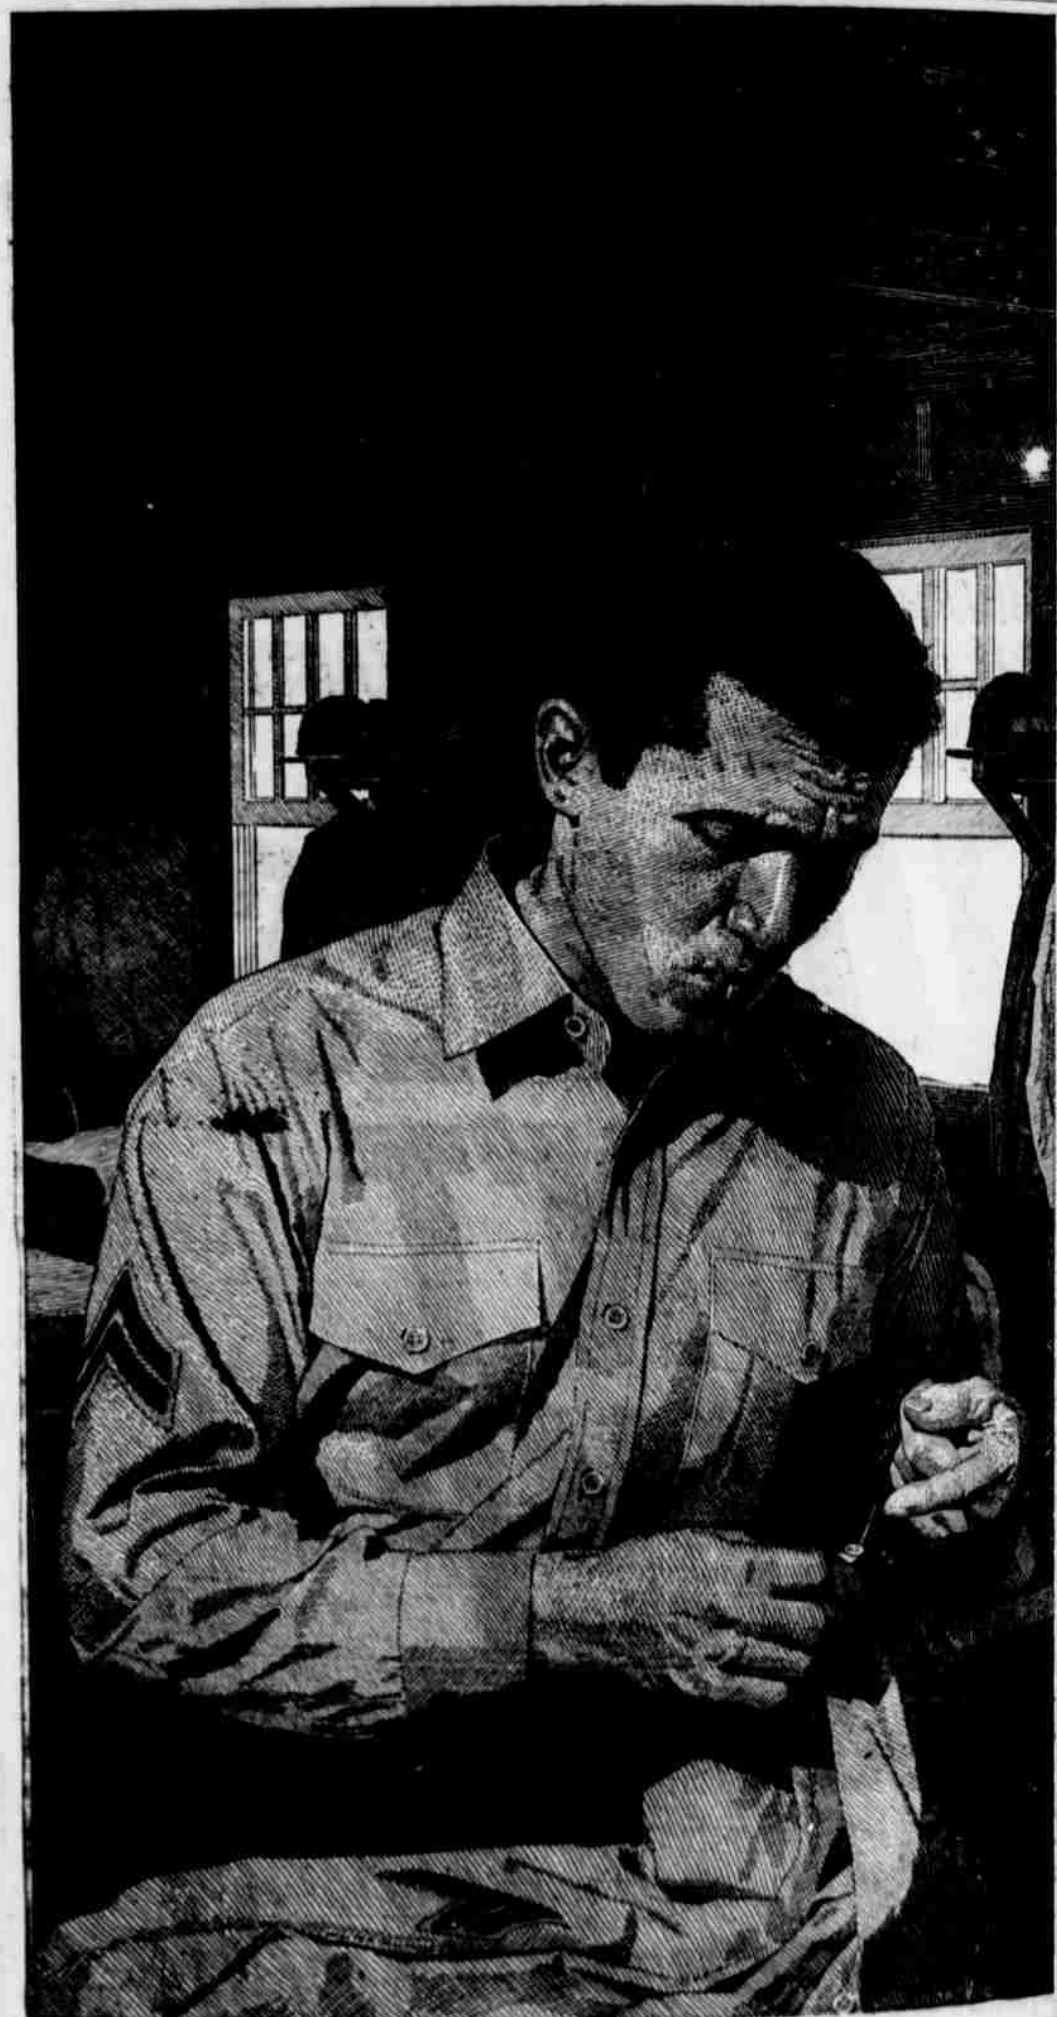

Ex-Students want to know address changes

With the Ex-Students Association's annual Post High School homecoming set for Friday, Oct. 20, officers of the association are anxious to learn of all changes of address so they can bring the mailing list up to date.

Anyone knowing of an ex-student or teacher living out of town who has changed his address is asked to notify Mrs. Charlie Luttrell.

TRIP TO FORT WORTH

Mrs. Byron Haynie left Sunday to take her daughter, Janene, to Fort Worth to enroll in Fort Worth Business College. Mrs. Haynie returned home Tuesday.

"Ouch!"

Corporal Bill Fifield isn't much at sewing bastions. (His wife Susan's a whiz—but she's 9,000 miles away—home in Cedar Rapids.) But—like 2½ million servicemen and women in our Armed Forces today, Bill's fighting a great battle for peace.

Toughest thing though, is the war Bill wages on loneliness. Keeping up his uniform takes some of his time. But most of his off-duty hours are spent fighting boredom, loneliness.

Fortunately, there's the USO—now, as in time of actual combat, offering our service people a time out of battle—a measure of home where and when it's needed most. In 27 countries throughout the world the USO brings precious moments of friendship and recreation to the 2½ million men and women who are fighting the battle for peace. Your help is needed. Remember...

"Winning the peace is a lonely battle."

Amity Study Club holds 'News-Makers' Breakfast

The Amity Club opened its new club year Saturday morning with a "News-Makers' Breakfast" in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church. Breakfast tables were covered with white cloths, attractively decorated with black and gold streamers down the centers and yellow marigolds. Flowers, made of newspapers, also were scattered on the tables. Mrs. Malsom Bull, club president, gave the welcome. A guest, Janene Haynie, sang a solo, "The Whole World is Waiting for the Sunrise." Mrs. Lee Davis was guest speaker for the occasion. Mrs. N. R. King presented Mrs. Bob Collier, outgoing club president, with a gift from the club in appreciation of her year's work. Two of the three new associate members of the club, Mrs. Vernard Alexander and Mrs. Wayne Carpenter, were introduced. The third, Mrs. Roger Hensley, was unable to attend the breakfast. Other club members attending the breakfast were Mrs. Ronald Babb, Mrs. Bull, Mrs. Jack Burgess, Mrs. W. C. Bush, Mrs. W. C. Caffey, Jr., Mrs. Billy J. Carlisle, Miss Thelma Clark, Mrs. Leo Cobb, Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Thurman Francis, Mrs. Conard Hartel, Mrs. King, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. V. L. Mrs. Powell Shyless, Mrs. P. A. Walker, and Mrs. Russell Wilks.

First Christian pastor names sermon topic

Rev. Bernard S. Ramsey, pastor of the First Christian Church, has announced that his topic for the 11 a. m. morning worship this Sunday will be, "What is There Left for Me to Do?"

The Lord's Supper is observed each Lord's Day and all Christians, regardless of church affiliation or communion, are invited to partake.

A supervised nursery is provided for smaller children at all worship services.

Woman's Culture Club opens year with luncheon meeting

The women carry out the club's colors, the serving women wore white net aprons with purple bows and had purple bows in their hair. The luncheon menu included tomato juice, chicken with oriental sauce, and chicken with oriental sauce. The Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church was the scene Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 6, of the first meeting of the Woman's Culture Club of Post. A luncheon was served by the Guild members of the church. The club's colors of purple and silver were carried out in the decor with white dogwood blossoms on purple runners extending the full length of the tables and a silver stump filled with purple flowers centering the head table. To furnish, marinated green beans, apricot congealed salad, hot rolls, coffee and sherbert. Mrs. C. B. Hogue gave the invocation, after which club members stood and sang "America", accompanied by Mrs. Tillman Jones at the piano. This was followed by the Pledge to the Flag. The message of Mrs. Lee Davis, the club president, was an inspiration in her anticipation of the new club year. Mrs. Jones, the literary chairman, gave a resume of the course of study and expressed her appreciation to the year book committee for its tireless work and cooperation. The meeting closed with the group singing "God Bless America" and Mrs. Hub Haire giving the closing prayer. The next meeting of the club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 20, in the Community Room with Mrs. James Matthews as program director. Phil Crenshaw, Post P-T-A president, will be the speaker with his subject, "The Recent Freedom Forums." Club members attending the opening meeting were Mmes. Lee Davis, Tillman Jones, E. S. Stewart, C. B. Hogue, Hub Haire, J. R. Durrett, R. T. Smith, Louie Burkes, Noel Clemmons, W. L. Davis, Don Dunbar, M. J. Malouf, James Matthews, C. R. Thaxton, Ralph Welch, Walter Boren, and a guest, Mrs. Bernard Ramsey.

The Garza Hospital Auxiliary, which has a fine program of its own under way here, is interested in learning from others. Monday, Mrs. Jess Rogers, Mrs. N. W. Stone and Mrs. J. E. Parker went to Brownfield to visit the hospital there and see what its auxiliary is doing. This afternoon, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. James Matthews went going to Snyder to attend a 2:30 o'clock tea and hear the state hospital auxiliary president, Mrs. Mease, speak.

A called meeting of the Band Boosters organization will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the band room. The meeting has been called by the Band Boosters president, Lewis Herron, and all members are urged to attend.

Meetings have been set for this Friday of mothers of girls interested in becoming Brownie Scouts. Mothers of second and third grade students who want to be Brownies are asked to meet at 3:15 p. m. Friday in the primary school auditorium. Mothers of fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls interested in the Brownies are asked to meet at 4 p. m. the same day at the same place. The purpose of the meetings will be to organize new Brownie troops for girls who have not been able to come into the organization previously.

We feel sure a number of Post folks' relatives have had to flee Hurricane Carla. One we've heard about is Kelvin Marr of Fulton, brother of Mrs. Valton Massey. Marr, who lives at Fulton, 35 miles from Corpus Christi, moved to shelter at Beeville, and the last his sister heard from him, he expected to be moved to another shelter.

Francisco Gonzales is Guild meeting speaker

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church sponsored a speaker, Francisco Gonzales, of Lubbock, who spoke Monday night at the church. Gonzales spoke on a recent trip he made to Mexico City and an anti-Communist meeting he attended. Gonzales is active in work on Mexican labor problems and the Good Neighbor policy. He especially stressed points on what people can do to fight Communism at the local level.

Past Matrons receive yearbooks at meeting

Mrs. J. A. Stallings, Mrs. C. R. Thaxton, and Mrs. Billy Johnson were co-hostesses Monday for a regular meeting of the Past Matron Club of Post and Southland in the Reddy Room. During the business meeting the president, Mrs. Stallings, presented the members with the new yearbooks. The roll call was answered with "What I did this summer." The hostesses served refreshments of homemade ice cream and cake. Those present were Mmes. Hub Haire, Sam Martin, Billy Johnson, Kenneth Davies, J. A. Stallings, C. R. Thaxton, Jack Myers, Will Wright, Wilburn Morris, Noah Stone, Jay Oats and F. A. Gilley.

First Christian youth group meets Sundays

The Chi Rho Youth Group of the First Christian Church meets at 6 p. m. each Monday evening. Sunday School is at 9:45 a. m., with classes for all age groups. The public is always invited to all services. The very lovely sanctuary and entire building, recently dedicated, is air-conditioned throughout.

AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

The Garza Hospital Auxiliary will meet at 7 o'clock tonight in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Meeting set for Baptist Sunday School workers

The workers and teachers of the First Baptist Sunday School will meet Monday through Wednesday evenings for study in preparation for the new Sunday School year. Approximately 100 workers have been contacted and elected for positions of service in the Sunday School. Studies to be offered will be "Sunday School Officers and Their Work," for departmental superintendents; "The Ministry of Visitation," for associate superintendents; "Preparing to Teach the Bible," for teachers, and "The Six-Point Record System an Its Use," for secretaries. Thursday evening a workers banquet will be held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The Rev. Otis B. Testerman, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Crosbyton, will be the speaker. The program will include special music and a recognition of each department in the Sunday School with each worker. Place cards will be set with the names of the workers.

Pleasant Valley 4-H elects new officers

The Pleasant Valley 4-H Club met Tuesday in the home of Linda Payton. Officers were elected for the new year. The program was given by Sherry Devers on "Manners." Recreation followed the program with singing and games, after which refreshments were served.

Open letter to Joe Kelly

(Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor)

Dear Joe:
You've really done it this time, Joe. I say "you," because the editor is always responsible for what goes into his paper, whether he writes it or not.
I know you're proud of the A-J's Friday night area football coverage because you "point with pride" to it quite often.
But, just as one rotten apple stinks up the whole barrel, so does one careless headline writer ruin you for years to come with football fans with one thoughtless adjective.
And your boy picked a dilly when he branded the Post High Antelope football team with the word "hapless" over the story last Saturday morning of the Antelopes' 57-0 defeat by the Colorado City Wolves.
If your headline writers are going to editorialize, Joe, The Dispatch will be glad to buy them tickets to future Post games and let them sit in regal "editorial judgment." But he had better see what he is writing about before he whips out another sour adjective like "hapless" to brand a bunch of hard-working youngsters who are often outmanned and outgunned, but never quit playing.
We don't like it. But what's worse, Post football fans don't like it. In fact, the whole town is literally steaming about it.
In the newspaper business, Joe, as you should know, the writer has to have "background information." The whole modern trend of journalism is toward "backgrounding" stories to give the reader a better understanding of events we report as they take place.
So I want to give you some background information, Joe, to pass along to your headline writers. You don't use that word "hapless" for Texas Tech when they get drubbed, or for Tom S. or Monterey. No sir, you don't.
Post High has been "on the mat" several years now, football speaking. But we're trying our best to get back to winning again. We're short on material and are playing a "big schedule" with a small squad. In fact, five out of the first six teams we meet on the 1961 schedule are doped to go on to district championships.

Colorado City is a bigger Class AAA school that's on the move football-wise. They've got their fastest team in years. No doubt about it, Joe, they kept several jumps ahead of us all Friday night. Overall, they have team speed to burn. You'll hear a lot about those Wolves before November is over. But give them the credit they deserve—don't depreciate both Colorado City and Post by passing it off as a drubbing of a "hapless" team.
When I broke into the newspaper business a number of years ago, I was told in no uncertain terms to skip all the adjectives and to let my nouns describe; that a writer didn't need and shouldn't use adjectives. It was good advice then, Joe, and just as sound today.
We want our readers to know, Joe, that while The Dispatch's sports department (Charlie Didway) calls in the results of our games to the A-J in all sports, he doesn't write the stories, or the headlines. On Saturday mornings, he's often just as "burned up" over your coverage of Post games as Post fans are.
You've written a lot of columns, Joe, pleading with area fans to support Texas Tech when they're losing, pointing out that the players are doing the best they know how. You know a lot about football morale, so why wreck ours?
This isn't the first time you've done it to us, Joe. A lot of our fans have been riled at your sports coverage for a long time—maybe because we're human and are touchy when we lose, and we've lost a lot.
In the newspaper business it's hard to make up for mistakes. Readers assume our shortcomings are meaningful and intentional, when they're just due to carelessness. We know all about that, Joe. We've done our share.
But do have a "little talk" with your headline writers, Joe. We know you can do better. —JC

Let's stage a 'Norm Cash Day'

There's been quite a bit of discussion here over coffee cups and in at least one Chamber of Commerce meeting about staging a "Norm Cash Day" when the Detroit Tigers' slugging first baseman returns from the baseball campaign.
The former Justiceburg and Post boy certainly has earned some sort of home county recognition through his outstanding performance in this season's major league campaign now drawing to a close. Norm is the type of fellow who doesn't need such an event to be appreciated, and no doubt would be embarrassed by any such display on the part of his friends and fellow townsmen here and at Justiceburg. But such an event certainly wouldn't be out of place, considering that it would be honoring one of the major league's top players.
However, the time in which to plan a county-wide appreciation event for Cash is growing short. It's a question now of who is going to "pick up the ball" and start carrying it. We agree with most people that the Chamber of Commerce is the most logical organization to plan and carry out the event. We feel that they would receive whatever, and as much, cooperation as is needed from other groups and from individuals.

There has been some talk of leaving the promotion and carrying out of a Norm Cash Day to the Post Ex-Students' Association, which, in a way, sounds all right, since Norm himself is a Post High School graduate. We feel sure the Ex-Students Association could successfully tie the special day in with their homecoming event here in October, but since they do not function as a year-round organization, wouldn't it be better for the Chamber of Commerce to take the lead in the promotion and let the Ex-Students Association lend their help, along with that of other groups?
Norm Cash's performance this season with the Detroit nine, which until a week or ten days ago had been contenders all season long for the American League pennant, has made the major league baseball season a much more enjoyable one for Post and Garza County baseball fans. Let's, in some organized manner, show our appreciation of this and of the favorable press notices the former Justiceburg and Post boy has gained for himself and his home locale. Let's stage a Norm Cash Day!—CD.

'Blue Law' to bring more headaches

Merchants and consumers, not yet "out of the woods" in regard to the new state sales tax, have another headache in store early in November when the so-called "Sunday Blue Law" goes into effect.
The ban on Sunday sales of a wide list of items goes into effect Nov. 7, 1961, after having been passed by the State Legislature.
The "blue law" takes into account the fact that some religious sects observe Saturday instead of Sunday as the Sabbath or day of rest. The law provides that the merchant may select either Saturday or Sunday for observance of the sales ban, depending upon the religious observance in his particular community.
Items which cannot be sold on Sunday (or Saturday) include the following:
Clothing, clothing accessories, wearing apparel, footwear, headware, home, business office or outdoor furniture, kitchenware and utensils, home appliances, stoves, refrigerators, air conditioners, electric fans, radios, television sets, washing machines, dryers, cameras, hardware tools, jewelry, precious or semi-precious stones, silverware, watches, clocks, luggage.

Also motor vehicles, musical instruments, recordings, toys (excluding novelties and souvenirs), mattresses, bed coverings, household floor coverings, lamps, draperies, blinds, curtains, mirrors, lawnmowers and piece goods.
For enforcement purposes, each sale will constitute a separate offense.
Provision is made that prohibited items can be sold in case of an emergency when the purchaser signs a statement to that effect.
The "blue law" won't be as troublesome in Post and other smaller cities, of course, as it will in the larger cities, where the practice of Sunday sales had actually become so profligate that there was some justification in passage of the law.—CD.

The P-TA invites new members

The first meeting of the Post Parent-Teacher Association for the 1961-62 school year will be held Thursday night, Sept. 21. If you are a member, you are urged to attend. If you are not a member, but are interested in your schools and their role in the community, you are invited to attend this first P-TA meeting and become a member.
September and October have been designated P-TA membership enrollment months in Texas by official proclamation of Gov. Price Daniel.
The purpose of the Parent-Teacher organization is "to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community."

Now, more than ever, there is need for an organization that can cope with change and guide it for children's good. The Parent-Teacher Association is such an organization.
The Post P-TA has made rapid strides in recent years, pacing its growth with that of the school system. But there is room for more growth, particularly in the membership roster.
This year's P-TA theme is "Homes Create Community Strength Through Effective Learning."
In keeping with the theme, every home should be represented in the Parent-Teacher Association.—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

About the only thing certain about the new sales tax is that it's complicated, uncertain and hazy, and nobody knows from nothin' what to do. Even Austin is still putting out changes that change changes . . . and if the powers-that-be aren't certain, how can the rest of us be?—

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

THE WIFE AND I were watching the Miss America Pageant on television Saturday night and missed seeing the meteorite that flashed across the skies at about 10 o'clock and was seen by just about everybody else. The first we knew about it was when our No. 2 son came in about the time the beauty pageant was over and began telling us what we had missed. We waited until he had finished and then started telling him what he had missed by not seeing the Miss America Pageant.

Right at the start of the beauty pageant, I predicted that Miss Arkansas looked like the winner, and she almost came through for me, finishing as first runner-up to the winner, Miss North Carolina. The wife started with Miss Texas as her favorite, but switched to Miss Utah after the ten finalists were selected, and Miss Utah finished third. We considered that pretty good picking although neither of us had showed very good judgment in failing even to consider Miss North Carolina as a winner.

THE BEAUTY Pageant was a good show, but I do wish I'd seen that meteorite.

Again this year, I've started off the football season by winning a contest, but if past performances hold true, that'll be the only one. Up at Hart, Texas, where John Blocker, formerly of Post, is head coach, the Hart business firms are sponsoring a football contest in the Oton Enterprise. I entered and won the first one by picking the winners in eight out of ten high school games.

I GOT OFF to the same good start last year by winning the Colorado City Record's first football contest of the season, but had some of the wind taken out of my sails when, after winning the second week, I was "disqualified" from receiving the prize because I was, in the words of Editor Joe Bell, "a veteran of the pressbox corps." That gave me such a help, that I didn't even come close to winning another contest all season long.

When you can't win for losing, you might as well quit.

THE WIFE AND I took our No. 2 son over to Levelland Sunday to get him settled down in South Plains College for the fall semester. We learned he'll be in good company since from 12 to 15 other Post youngsters have enrolled in the college.

I'd always heard that you couldn't go to college without learning a little something, and I suppose that is correct. While the wife and I were sauntering around the lobby of Frazier Hall waiting for the No. 2 son to get through in the Administration Building, I stopped in front of the bulletin board and found myself reading the instructions on what the students should wear to meals in the cafeteria. I called the wife over and asked, "What happened to supper?" She wanted to know what I meant, and I pointed to the sheet on the bulletin board. It listed breakfast, lunch and dinner, but no supper.

THE WIFE patiently pointed out to me that I had been out of the sticks long enough to know better than to ask such a silly question. I agreed with her, but reminded her that it wasn't the first time I'd wondered, along with lots of other folks, what had become of the evening meal that used to be known as supper.

The discussion, more or less one-sided, continued on the way home. "They just don't call it supper any more," said the wife. "I know that," says I, "but why do they have to call it dinner, when dinner used to be at noon?" "Well, that's lunch now," explained my wife. That probably should have ended the discussion, but it didn't. "Lunch," I said, "used to be what you and I took to school in a paper sack, ate at dinner time, and then went home to supper." That, getting nothing except another cold stare from the wife, ended the discussion.

"FIRSTS" CAME in pairs this year for Elbert Humble, Calgary community farmer. Humble brought the first bale of Garza County cotton to the Planters Gin here Aug. 31, and the day before, delivered the first bale of Crosby County cotton to the West Texas Gin at Crosbyton. As a result, the Calgary farmer and his first bales were pictured last week on the front pages of The Post Dispatch and Crosbyton Review.

A young lady in a bookstore asked for a copy of George Bernard Shaw's classic, "Man and Superman." "Look over yonder, Honey," the clerk counseled. "We keep all of our Superman books in the adventure-comic section."

BWARE OF VERBAL LEASES
Tom and Jane, a young married couple, were going to have a baby. Tom was a hard working young man, but he had not had enough money to save money for a down payment on a house. Their present apartment was not large enough for him and Jane, as well as the baby, so he began to look around for another place to rent.

Rental houses were hard to find. Tom managed to locate one that fit his budget. It was old and in need of repair. The owner told Tom he could have the house on a year lease if he would "fix it up." So Tom painted the place, fixed the inside and out, and made all the necessary repairs. He even put up the old fireplace in the living room and built a small patio in the back yard. In a few weeks the house was ready for his family. He signed a contract with the owner for a two-year lease.

Three months after Tom and Jane had moved in, they received a letter from the owner asking them to move out. The owner had changed his mind.

Why then did Tom begin to worry about his legal rights. Could the landlord do this to him? After talking to a lawyer, Tom learned that he had a two-year lease.

Tom began thinking too late. He had signed a contract, and that contract was binding upon both parties. That is why in such situations the renter should have a written lease.

In this case, Tom may be able to collect a reasonable value for the improvements he made to the house, but he cannot force the landlord to keep him as a tenant. He will have to look for another place for his family.

In Texas, it is unlawful to hunt for hire or to hire anyone to hunt.

NORTHERN INTEREST IN COTTON

Southern grown cotton attracted considerable interest at the annual County 4-H Club fair held recently at a shopping center in Milwaukee, Wis. Alice in Dairyland for 1961 admired some of the award winning dresses with 4-H representatives. Providing a fitting background for the theme of King Cotton is a cotton picker that mechanizes harvesting of this fiber.

by BOYCE HOUSE

A businessman in New Orleans said to a visitor from Chicago, "I would be glad to have you as my guest tomorrow at the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce Membership Council; we have a speaker from Texas."

The visitor said, "Thank you, but I don't believe I'll go."

The businessman went on, "His name is Boyce House." The Chicagoan shouted, "Yes, I'll go! He's my cousin."

Which was a fact. His name was Karl Gillespie and we hadn't seen each other in over 40 years.

Incidentally, when the invitation to make the speech was accepted, I assumed it was a small organization. On the train en route, I read the information and found that the editor of "Look" and Secretary of the Army Pace were among recent visitors and that, the week before, Lawton Collins, chief of staff, was the speaker.

I figured that an unknown from Texas would be no attraction in the face of such "names." The meeting was in the ballroom of the Roosevelt Hotel and they had to crowd in extra tables to accommodate the crowd.

Thing was—they had been hearing so many world figures on world problems that, for a change, they welcomed somebody—even a Texan!—who had no message but was just trying to give a few laughs.

My cousin Karl and I had a happy reunion in charming New Orleans. We talked about boyhood events and scenes. He was my host at dinner in a famous restaurant and, because I knew a former Texas newspaper couple who lived in the French Quarter, Karl and I had the privilege of visiting the historic, picturesque mansion. Though a frequent visitor to New Orleans, my cousin had never been in one of the old houses before.

A few months afterward, a letter came, telling me that Karl had died. Life has its splashes of sunshine and its gray shadows.

feel deserves a word of praise, and also which shows the pride our merchants feel toward their town. Namely, have you noticed how nice the front of Dr. Tubbs' Medical & Professional Building looks with the flowers in full bloom bordering the building and entranceway? And what about the flowers running the length of Texaco Wholesale back towards Levi's Cafe? Year after year the Kendall Courts have sported a beautiful crop of flags and anyone who raises flowers knows it takes a great deal of time and effort to keep these flowers so lovely.

These are just a few examples showing the pride Post merchants take in their appearance. It also just shows what can be done with a few flowers and a little care in making our town a better and more attractive place in which to live.

Move taken to prevent harvest labor shortage

Predictions are that Garza County will be short 265 cotton pullers during the peak period of the cotton harvest.

This shortage, which will be met by the importation of Mexican National Bracero workers, was estimated at a recent meeting here of the Garza County Farm Labor Committee with two officials from the Texas Employment Commission office.

★ Post youth accepted as a bank examiner

Moody Graham, who completed six months of Army service Sept. 9, has been notified of his acceptance as a bank examiner and will assume his new duties Sept. 18, working out of Dallas.

Moody, son of Mrs. Oscar Graham and the late Oscar Graham, is a 1955 graduate of Post High School and was graduated at mid-term this year from Texas Tech with a degree in business administration.

He was stationed at Fort Leonard Wood during his six months in the Army.

Members of the Garza County committee, who are C. B. York, D. W. Eubank and County Judge J. E. Parker, met with R. C. Bunting, manager, and Tom Bourland, farm manager, of the Texas Employment Commission.

The committee will function under Public Law 78, obtaining facts relevant to the supply of domestic farm workers existing in Garza County and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican Nationals to harvest the cotton crop.

Under Public Law 78, the TEC must supply this information to the Secretary of Labor, who is required to limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a "ceiling". The committee consults with the TEC manager to assist him in estimating the number of workers who will be needed, based on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop.

Gilmore funeral is held Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Ann Gilmore, 77, a resident of Post for 39 years, who died Friday shortly after being admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital, were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Church, of which she was a member.

Mrs. Gilmore, who made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Maudine Scott, at 607 South Ave. H, had been ill for about two months. She was born in Lafayette Springs, Miss., Feb. 28, 1884, and moved to Post from Comanche County, Texas.

Mrs. Gilmore's husband, V. B. Gilmore, preceded her in death about four years ago.

The Rev. Graydon Howell officiated at the funeral services and burial was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were John Sutter, Carl Adams, Ivan Jones, Bill Snow, Bill Hays and Damon Shelton.

Mrs. Gilmore is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mae Jackson of Carlsbad, N. M., and Mrs. Scott; five sons, K. E. Hobbs, N. M., Arlie of Cotton Center, Travis of Post, Troy of Carlsbad and Roy Gilmore of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. S. C. Watson of Los Lunas, N. M., and Mrs. E. L. Gilmore of Post; two brothers, J. C. Waters of Spearman and W. A. Waters of Abemathy; 15 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

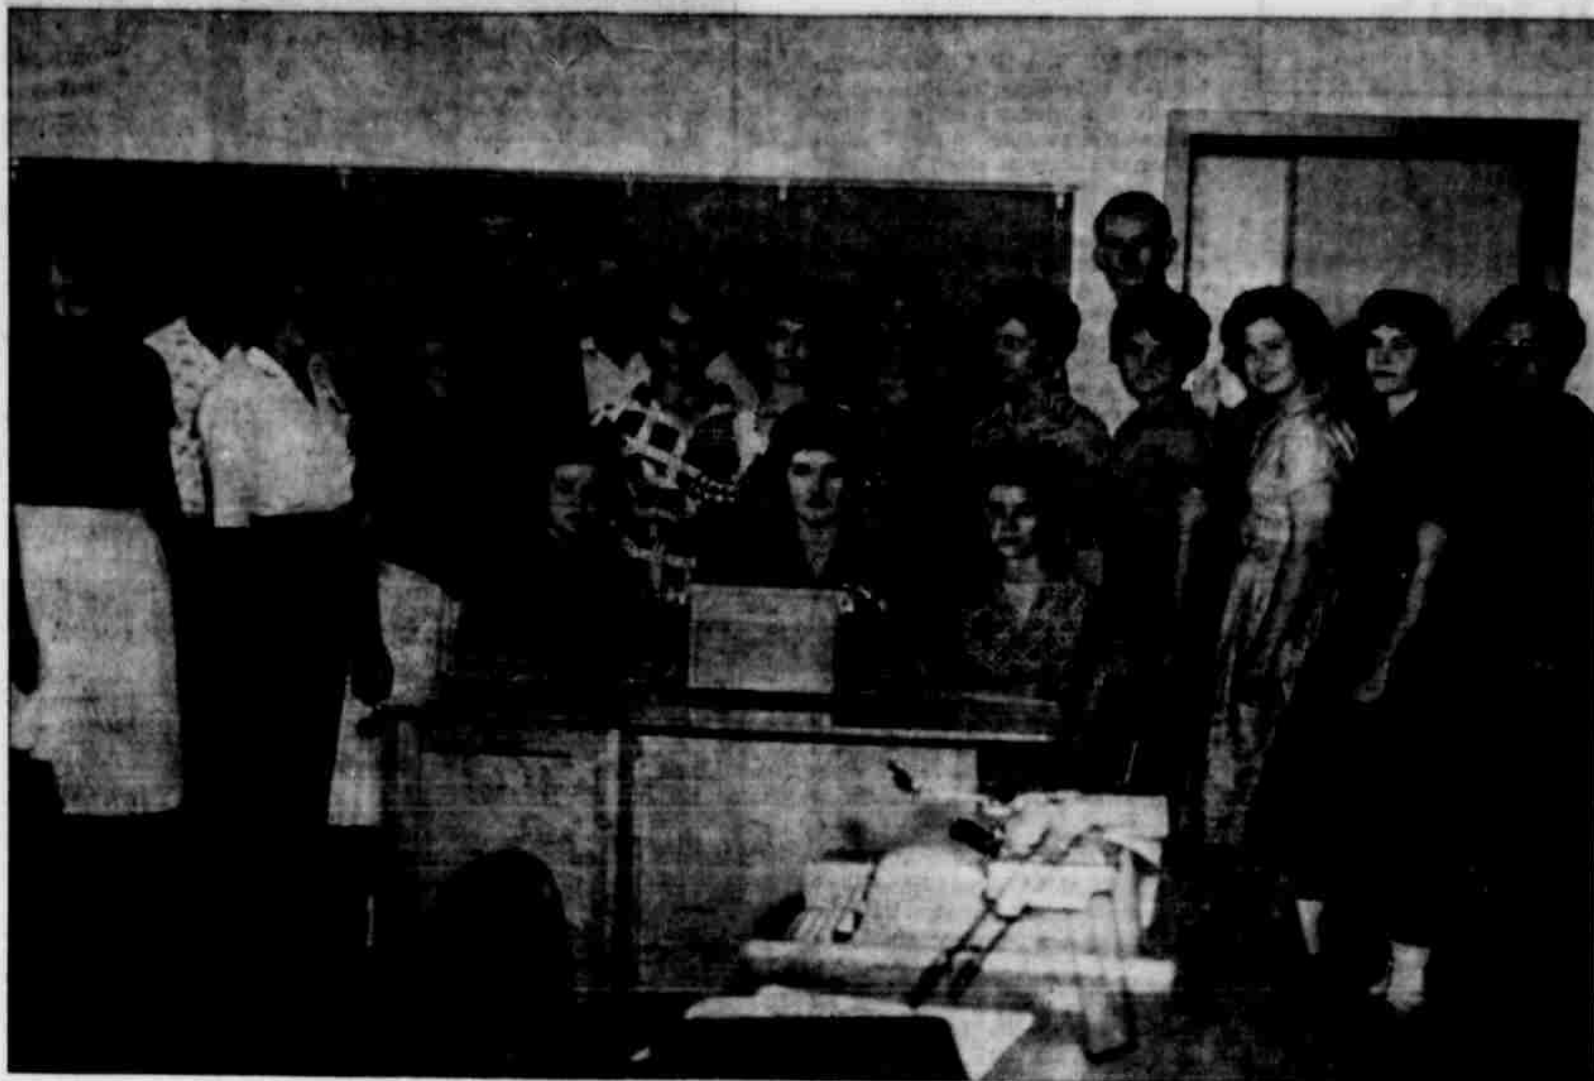

County approves new '62 budget

The Garza County Commissioners Court accepted the county's new 1962 budget and set a budget public hearing for Oct. 9 at its September meeting this week.

The court also approved purchase of a new $295 adding machine, less a $40 allowance on a trade-in for the county judge's office and a new typewriter for $175. 54 less a $35 trade-in allowance for the sheriff's office.

The court also decided to invest $15,000 from the Road and Bridge No. 2 Sinking Fund of the county and $10,000 from the Garza Memorial Hospital Sinking Fund of the county in federal bonds.

The 1961 county audit as made by Harold P. Wine of Ballinger was accepted and his audit bill for $650 was approved.

School bus drivers' pay adjusted by trustees

The board of trustees of the Post Independent School District voted Monday night to adjust school bus drivers' salaries and to employ a fourth teacher at the Lincoln Elementary School.

Those were the major items on the board's agenda at its regular monthly meeting. In other action, the board tabled a request by Pritchard & Abbott, tax evaluation engineers, that their fee be raised, and decided to hire an additional dishwasher for the school lunchroom instead of granting a request for a raise in pay for lunchroom cooks.

The board voted to adopt a bus driver salary schedule of $70 a month for the first 60 miles driven daily and 3 cents a mile for each additional mile, figured on a monthly basis.

The new salary schedule will raise the monthly salaries of six bus drivers and lower the salaries of two others.

The salary schedule will affect all drivers except the student driver transporting Negro high school students to Slaton, whose salary will be left at its present schedule.

Supt. R. T. Smith told the board that mileage quoted by him in suggesting the salary adjustments was based on last year's school bus routes and might vary some this year.

The board's vote to employ an additional teacher at the Lincoln Elementary School after the superintendent told them that 80 students had enrolled in the school and that the enrollment was expected to increase to 100 this term.

Smith said the school, which has three teachers now, qualified for a fourth teacher through last year's (See SCHOOL BUS, page 8)

Constable's pay hike clarified

The Garza County Commissioners Court yesterday clarified the recent salary change for constable Constable J. A. Johnson, which The Dispatch had inadvertently reported incorrectly two weeks ago.

The court hiked Johnson's salary from $100 to $200 per month, a 100 percent increase, but at the same time did away with his car mileage allowance which had totaled on the average $165 monthly. This makes Johnson's annual salary $2,400 instead of the former $1,200.

Johnson, who suffered a stroke over a month ago, is now in a rest home after dismissal from the Garza Memorial hospital.

The salary change will help him during the convalescent period, the court pointed out, as he is not getting mileage allowance while away from his job. Commissioners indicated that when Johnson is ready to return to duty again the salary probably will be changed back to its original form of salary plus mileage allowance.

The Dispatch two weeks ago had reported a $200 boost for Johnson instead of the $100 increase actually made. The original motion had read to increase the salary "to $200" monthly.

Punt, Pass, Kick contest announced

An opportunity for Post area boys to compete in a football punting, passing and place-kicking contest, with trips to National Football League games among the prizes, was announced today by Tom Power, owner of Tom Power-Ford.

Power said the Post competition is part of a nationwide program sponsored by Ford Division of Ford Motor Company in cooperation with the National Football League. Known as "P. P. & K."—Punt, Pass and Kick—the competition will culminate with all-expense trips by five national winners and their fathers to the National Football League Championship game, and an official reception at the White House.

Selection of the National Champions will be made as a result of televised competitions at a home game of each of the 14 National Football League teams.

The Post P. P. K. competition is open to grade school boys aged six through 10, and will be held here early in October. Registration for the event will be at Tom Power-Ford, 122 West Main, from today through September 25.

There is no cost, but entrants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Each entrant will receive a P. P. & K. badge, an instruction book written by NFL stars Johnny Unitas, Yale Lary and Paul Hornung, and an official 1961 NFL Guidebook.

After the Post competition is held, the scores of the most skillful punters, passer and place-kickers—one in each age group—will be compared with the scores of boys in the other competitions held in the area covered by telecasts of the Dallas Cowboys.

The top five boys in this region and their fathers then will be given an all-expense trip to see a home game of the Dallas Cowboys, and the boys will punt, pass and kick at the stadium either just before the game starts, or during half-time.

The five top winners in the Post contest, whether or not they qualify for the national eliminations, will receive National Football (See PUNT, PASS, KICK, page 8)

Student falls from car; escapes serious injury

Dianne Bias, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bias, suffered only abrasions and bruises when she fell out of a car about 12:45 p. m. Monday.

The back door of the car suddenly came open and she fell out in the 200 block on North Broadway when her mother was driving her back to school.

She was taken to Garza Memorial Hospital by Hudman's ambulance but examination failed to reveal any serious injuries.

POST JUNIOR BAND PERFORMED YEARS AGO

$180,000 now for White River dam, rest later

The White River Municipal Water District directors agreed last Thursday night during a special meeting in Spur to accept a $180,000 advance on their $4,000,000 loan from the state as soon as possible, and set a date of Feb. 1, 1962, as when they would take the remainder of the big dam construction loan.

The $180,000 will be used for the purchase of land and other expenses.

This advance will become available as soon as the district's tax rolls are completed and certified by the Texas attorney general.

White River directors will hold another special session in Crosbyton tonight to go over the tax rolls and give their final approval to it.

Tom Benton, the district's tax assessor-collector, told directors at Spur that the public hearings have been completed on the tax rolls but that adjustments were still in process for a few properties before a final figure would be available.

The directors set the Feb. 1 date for picking up the remainder of the $4,000,000 loan—or $3,820,000—after working out a probable time table of progress for the project which showed the bid lettings around the first part of December, at the earliest, as a 60-day period probably will be required for condemnation of a part or parts of the dam site followed by a six week period for bidders to examine the site in preparing their bids.

Attending the meeting from Post were Tom Bouchier and James Minor, White River directors, and Publisher Jim Cornish.

★ 'Football' sermon is scheduled for Sunday

"The World's Greatest Quarterback" is the title of a special "football" sermon to be preached by the Rev. Bernard S. Ramsey at the First Christian Church at 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

Members of the Post High School coaching staff, Antelope squad members, their families and friends, and members of the band and pep squad are extended special invitations to attend the service, Rev. Ramsey said.

Few communities escape tensions, Rotarians told

Speaking on the subject of "Community Tensions" before Post Rotarians Tuesday noon, the Rev. Bill Hogue declared that "few communities are unaffected by serious tensions in social, moral and economic relations."

"All of us feel that somebody should do something about social evils," the First Baptist pastor said, "but too few among us are willing to accept responsibility for social, moral and economic conditions that form the soil in which these evils arise."

He listed as among these tensions, industrial relations between labor and management, between distributor and consumer, and the ugly exploit of capital; moral conflicts, problems which affect the moral fiber of the community and delinquency problems, and racial conflicts.

Rev. Hogue said the problem of racial conflict is not confined to any single region, that in other areas conflicts develop with Orientals, Jews, and foreign immigrants.

"Here," he added, "the racial problem is with our Spanish-speaking people and the Negro citizen."

"They cannot be ignored," he said.

"Sometimes," he added, "the only voices heard are those of the two extreme advocates of segregation and integration. A community must take the sensible attitude and be aware of the impressive image we create to all the world, and the result of what it will do our own selves in heart, soul, spirit, and freedom."

The Baptist minister said he felt each should speak out with his own beliefs on church, politics, and family, instead of being afraid to voice his opinions.

He said he was convinced of the (See ROTARIANS, page 8)

The Dispatch School Page— which has developed in the last few years into one of the best read pages in the Dispatch—makes its autumn debut today on page 10, a customary place where it will appear each week.

Through the cooperation of school officials, teachers, and student reporters and editors the school page of The Dispatch has gained wide recognition in West Texas newspaper circles with an article appearing about it in the latest issue of the West Texas Publisher.

It once was our most difficult assignment—but not anymore. Thanks to the youngsters who get up each week and write us stories about everything that's going on in school. All county schools are invited to participate. Most of us do. To give the youngsters credit for their efforts, we try to line each story. We think they are a whole of a job—the kind of coverage which has a whole lot of West Texas weeklies admiring success.

Nowhere on the front page today will you find a story of Tom Power's announcement of Ford's new P. P. & K. contest and Kick national football competition for all area youngsters ages 6 through 10. Tom is going to give away a lot of valuable prizes in this first P. P. & K. contest and the winners will have a chance to compete for national football honors and an all-expense-paid visit to the White House with their dads. This is just part of what Ford is planning on for an annual football contest which will attract growing interest each year. Boys and their fathers are urged to visit Tom Power's store and sign up for the contest to be held here in early October. Although the entry deadline is still Sept. 25, the early entries will get added time to find the rules and begin practicing early on their distance but on accuracy.

Every entrant will receive a Ford participant button, a 1961 Football Guide, and a colored instruction book in which such (See POSTINGS, page 8)

Post Contingent to Texas Tech

54 are campus bound in record education exodus

It is expected to become a record educational exodus this fall as 54 students to university and college campuses began over the week. At least 54 local students are expected to be a record for the community.

The growing campus of Texas Tech, the closest to Lubbock, is drawing the biggest segment of Post's college students. At least 17 known to have enrolled at Texas Tech, the most popular education institution here, drawing nine students, with seven each enrolling at West Texas State College at Canyon and Lubbock Christian College at Lubbock.

The Post contingent to Texas Tech—and there may be unreported others—include Kenneth Williams, Gary Simpson, Kenneth Smith, Mike Cornell, Jimmy Minor, and Sue Tracy, freshmen; Larry Don Richardson, Mrs. Virgil Middleton, Sidney Hart, and Bob Cato, sophomores; Barbara Shytles, Marilyn Steele, and Jimmy Short, juniors; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Runkles, seniors; Marc Burkes and Bryan Williams III.

Heading for South Plains College at Levelland are Pat Odam, Royce Hart and Martha Goode, freshmen; and Kenny Poole, Linda Wilks, Curtis Steele, Jerry Windham, Horace Smith and Curtis Didway, sophomores.

Those enrolling at West Texas State College include Jane Francis, Donnie Hays, Danny Jones, Beth Kemp, David McCampbell, and Sharon Moore, freshmen; and (See 54 ARE, page 8)
