AUSTIN — A hectic night ended the special session of the Texas Legislature. Two major problems—loan regulation and appropriations—were left unfinished.

Senate killed the loan regulatory bill by a two-vote margin, after the House had approved it by 18 votes. It was described by experts as the strongest loan regulatory law in the nation.

Death came to the appropriations bill in the House. It would have provided money to advertise for tourists, repair San Jacinto Monument, repair damages done to state properties by Hurricane Carla and by fires, pay Senate employees, and finance a number of other items.

Gov. Price Daniel called it a very productive session, nevertheless.

He said it had settled two long-standing issues—bank escheat reporting and farm-to-market road policy.

Daniel was disappointed about the failure of the loan legislation, tourist advertising, and San Jacinto repairs. But he said he would not call this Legislature back into session in the foreseeable future.

Lawmakers headed for home to file for re-election and begin their campaigns for the same or other offices.

This session set some sort of a record for fast action on bills to solve local problems. These ranged from closing the season on alligators in Orange County, to a score of bills creating new water districts (to undertake drainage, hurricane protection or water supply projects).

Daniel was pleased at the bill changing the name of the State Board of Water Engineers to the Texas Water Commission, and reworking it into an image of the State Highway Commission. The chief engineer takes over full administrative control, leaving policy matters in the hands of the three-member commission.

Governor Daniel studied a flood of mail, telegrams and phone calls, which he had elicited, and decided that there was a definite public demand for him to try to become Texas' first four-term governor.

WHO SHOULD CENSOR?—Question of school book censorship was buffeted about by 22 witnesses, when the House Textbook Investigating Committee held its fourth weekly public hearing.

Some 200 persons attended the hearing.

Frank Wardlaw, director of the University of Texas Press, said, "There are no men wise enough to serve as censors." He stated that he would prefer that his children's textbooks be censored by authoritative professors, rather than by unqualified individuals.

Author J. Frank Dobie said "the more textbooks are censored, the weaker they become."

The opinion that regulation of teaching materials by elected trustees has worked satisfactorily was expressed by former Baylor University trustee Joseph M. Dawson.

Other witnesses, such as Mrs. A. A. Forester of Texarkana, Richard L. Harvey of Tyler and M. F. Gabler of Hawkins, criticized the Board of Education's formula for censorship. They said they firmly believe that modern textbooks fail to instill a sense of patriotism and love of country.

Committee will hold another hearing Feb. 9.

NAMES IN THE HAT—With the special session of the Texas Legislature ended, candidates for state offices quickly grabbed the spotlight.

Most surprising announcement was the filing of former Gen. Edwin A. Walker as a Democratic candidate for governor.

Then came Gov. Price Daniel's statement that he would seek re-election to a fourth term as governor.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler predicted that Daniel would run again, and cancelled his tentative plans to seek that post. Instead, he announced for re-election.

Attorney General Will Wilson said failure of the loan shark bill to pass was the determining point in his decision to file as candidate for governor.

John Connally, already actively campaigning for the office of governor, came to Austin to pay his $1,000 filing fee and left immediately on a flying organizational trip to West Texas.

Gubernatorial candidate Marshall Formby opened state headquarters in Austin. He appointed Dr. James B. Ray of Austin, Wendell Gambill, Dr. Joe Webb and Clint Formby to organize his campaign.

Don Yarborough, Houston attorney, paid Austin a visit to announce his candidacy for governor.

So far, the only Republican contender for governor is Jack Cox of Breckenridge.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White filed for re-election to the post he has held since 1950. White said 1962 should be a turning point in achieving greater self-determination for farmers and men.

J. Evetts Haley of Canyon only other announced candidate, commissioner of agriculture.

OTHER CANDIDATES—Wide offices flooded the State Democratic Central Committee quarters.

Willard G. Street of Lubbock filed for associate justice of Supreme Court. Others seeking that office are Zollie Steakley and James Vell.

County Judge Woodrow of El Paso and Warren of Tyler filed for Congress. Large, post now held by M. Dies Sr. of Lufkin.

Judge W. T. McDonald of Court of Criminal Appeals joined the attorney general.

Immediately after the House passed the loan bill, Speaker House James A. Turman called for lieutenant governor.

That brought the total of crabs running for the seat to six: Sen. Preston Lubbock; Sen. Crawford of Hillboro; Sen. Baker of Houston; Sen. Secrest of Temple and former representative Gene Smith of Worth, plus Turman.

There was activity on the lean side, too.

O. W. (Bill) Hayes of and Kellis Dibrell of Seguin filed as candidates for governor. Dibrell practices San Antonio. Hayes is vice president of Continental Bell company in Belton. Both are old.

Earlier, two other Republicans had filed for the same office—E. Miller, Dallas publisher; Desmond Berry, Houston artist.

For Helping Make This the 3rd Best Ginning Season in Our 29-Yr. History

We wound up the 1961 ginning season here at the Graham Coop Gin Saturday with 6,118 bales for the year.

That is a few more bales than 1960 and the third best output in the gin's history. Back in 1937 we ginned nearly 8,000 bales and kept running until March. That was our biggest year. Then in 1941 we ginned 6,300 bales for our second biggest season.

Your Graham Coop Gin, with between $40,000 and $50,000 worth of expansion and improvements made during the last off season, is in top shape for many more good harvests to come.

As we prepare to shut down until the next ginning season, we wish to express our thanks to all of you farmers for your cooperation.

Vet's Forum

Q. I know one widow of a Spanish-American War veteran who receives $65 a month. Another one gets $75 a month. Would you explain the difference?
 A. The $75 check goes to the widow of a Spanish-American War veteran who was married to the veteran during all or part of that war. The widow who married such a veteran after the war will receive the $65 check.

 Q. I understand that pensions are paid to some 'Indian War' veterans. Does this go back to Colonial days?
 A. The Indian Wars concerned in the administration of veterans' pensions are those subsequent to 1860 and before 1898; briefly those Indian troubles concerned with the opening up of the West and Far West. About 160,000 troops participated in these encounters at various times and about 1,000 died as the result of combat. There are still 29 veterans of these Indian Wars living today.
 Q. Is government life insurance still available to the young men entering service today?
 A. GI life insurance is not being used today.
 Q. I would be entitled to go to vocational school under the War Orphans Education Act but I have married. Does that bar me?
 A. Marriage does not bar an eligible orphan from taking advantage of this Federal benefit.

Have You Heard??

Who were Chris Cornish and Ann Pennington in a mad search for Saturday night at Teen Town? Did they finally make it?

Ann Pennington, why are you saving your pennies for a worthy cause—who is that poor little orphan boy?

Who's the doll in 2nd period Shortland who is always eating candy in class? Could it be Barbara Craig.

Vonda Howell what do you think of when you see a falling star?

Vonda Howell who is coming down next weekend?

Seems the Piggly Wiggly parking lot has a new use—doing the twist!

Who did Sharon Isaacs and Ronnie Henderson pick up at 12:30 Saturday night walking over the overpass? Had they been out swinging?

Seems Janith Short got a new anniversary present from Dwayne Capps their first year of going steady.

Who's not getting any Valentine candy—could it be Sharon Isaacs, Ann Pennington, Barbara Craig, Vonda Howell, Chris Cornish, Melinda Newby, Lynda Taylor and Janith Short?

Mystery teacher is really no mystery

This teacher is really no mystery for everyone in Junior High School loves her.

She looks very good in black, but looks great in anything.

In her class you can really learn something and we don't have a bunch of rules to obey. When you are older you will be proud to say that person taught me, instead of her saying I taught that girl or boy.

She can read and write very well and has a great sense of humor. I think she is about one of America's finest citizens.

Subjects varied for 6th grade students

In History we are studying great explorers.

In Mrs. Williams' girls' math class we are studying multiplying, cancelling, and estimating fractions.

In Language Arts we are studying about using quotations, and we are reviewing about writing paragraphs.

In Science we are studying solids.

Books are received

On Feb. 1, the 6th graders received their second order of Arrow Book Club books. In all, 113 students ordered the 124 books. The books are really enjoyable. They are books of science, fiction and reference.

STRENGTHEN AMERICA

— CHARACTER COUNTS

That's the theme of
BOY SCOUT WEEK
February 7-13

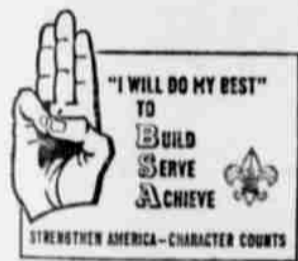

Garza County's some 130 Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorer Scouts are joining more than 5,200,000 boys and adult leaders in the Scouting movement in the United States this week in the observance of the 52nd anniversary of this democratic movement.

Emphasis during Boy Scout Week is being placed on the importance the family plays in the development of boys, of Scouting, and the American way of life.

"We in Scouting," Charles Alexander of Lubbock, president of the South Plains Council says, "know that because of the active participation of parents in our programs, a profound impression is being made on the home life of millions of Americans. Families brought together by Scouting are stronger families, and stronger families mean a stronger America."

Garza County this week salutes its important Scouting Program and the dedicated adult leaders in many walks of life who help to provide this excellent training for Post's and Garza's leaders of tomorrow.

problematical, but it has many interesting possibilities and should stir up a lot of voter interest.

Windham says he wants to open the voters' eyes to the situation of having a justice of the peace selected by one precinct presiding over a court which extends over the whole county.

No Republican primary for Garza County appears to be in the offing this election year. There are no county candidates for the GOP and therefore nobody to pick up the primary election tab of costs.

County Democratic Chairman Outlaw yesterday released the following list of candidates who have made application to have their names placed on the ballot in the Democratic primaries:

U. S. Congressman, 19th District—George Mahon, Lubbock, re-election.

Associate Justice Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District—Alton B. Chapman, Amarillo, re-election.

District Judge, 106th Judicial District—Truett Smith, Tahoka, re-election.

State Senator, 24th District—David Ratliff, Stamford, re-election; Truett Latimer, Abilene, and Dallas Perkins, Abilene.

State Representative, 85th District—Renal B. Rosson, Snyder, re-election.

Member State Board of Education—William H. Evans, re-election.

County School Superintendent—Dean A. Robinson, re-election.

County Judge—J. E. Parker, re-election, A. C. Cooke, and J. Lee Bowen.

County and District Clerk, Carl Cederholm, re-election.

County Treasurer—Faye Cockerell, for first elective term.

County Commissioner, Precinct 2—E. E. (Elva) Peel, re-election; John N. Hookins, R. E. Josev, A. P. (Chuck) Gurley, G. A. (Buck) Harrison, Homer L. Gordon, Nathan Little, and B. F. (Ben) Brewer.

County Commissioner, Precinct 4—Mason Justice, re-election; Sid Cross.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1—D. C. Roberts, re-election; W. B. Haynie, and A. H. Nelson.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2—Donald Windham.

Democratic County Chairman Outlaw, who has served in the office for the last five years, has drawn no opposition to another two-year term.

City council--

East Main Street. The improvements will be the same as those already made on FM-1313 from the Tahoka Highway south.

The city election set for April 3 will be for the election of three councilmen. Terms expiring a re-lease of Harold Lucas, C. R. "Si" Thaxton and Walter Duckworth.

The council's agreement to amend the ordinance on building restrictions at the vacant building across the street from the hospital came after a letter had been read from Dr. John E. Carter in which he indicated that he wishes to convert the building into a nursing home, expanding the structure's present facilities. Dr. Carter said the business would comply with state licensing requirements for private nursing homes.

In reviewing last week's special meeting for The Dispatch, Mayor Shytles said the council had agreed to re-shape lots on the north side of Westgate Terrace at the request of developers Bill Edwards and George Booher. The re-shaping will be made necessary by the removal of a pipe line system running through the north side of the addition.

The council also agreed at the meeting to purchase a little more than five acres from the Post Estate for future expansion of the city dump grounds. The area to be purchased starts at the new city limits and adjoins the present dump grounds.

It was also agreed by the council to have the council meeting room repaired following ceiling damage which occurred when a frozen water pipe burst during the cold weather of a few weeks ago.

Antelopes lose, 'B' team wins

Does trounce Slaton for first loop win

The Post Does started fast and kept up the pace here Friday night to defeat the Slaton Tigerettes, 56 to 48, for their first District 3AA victory in nearly two years.

The Antelopes, however, fell vic-

Crane, Post, Muleshoe tourney winners here

The Bethune High School teams of Crane won the Class B playoffs and the Muleshoe boys and Post girls the Class C championships in the playoffs and tournament hosted here Saturday by the Lincoln Elementary School.

"We're very much pleased with the turnout at the tournament, especially Saturday night's capacity crowd," Lincoln school officials said.

The Post girls' team gave local fans plenty to cheer about when they defeated Seminole, 32 to 12, for the Class C tournament title. The Muleshoe team won in the boys' division by defeating Post by six points.

Fans were treated to the thrill of seeing a state championship high school team in action when they saw the Crane quintet, defending state Class B champs, win over Olton without too much trouble.

The Crane girls' team also won by defeating Floydada.

Both Crane teams will advance to the state championship playoffs at Prairie View A & M College.

Also in the Class B playoffs, the Snyder boys won third place by defeating Floydada and the Snyder girls copped third place by outscortim for the second time this season to the speedy Tigers, 74 to 33, and are still without a district win.

The Antelope "B" team, paced by Danny Pierce's 21 points, coasted to a 55 to 33 victory over the Tiger "B" quintet.

Coach Van Kountz' Does started making their move against the Tigerettes midway of the first quarter and were ahead 17-8 at the whistle. They increased the margin to 12 points to lead by 30-18 at halftime, and were out in front by 14-46-32 at the end of the third quarter.

Nita Wilson hit 10 field goals and 11 free throws for a total of 31 points and game scoring honors. Janith Short got 14 points on four fielders and six charity tosses; Barbara Craig, nine points on three field goals and the same number of free throws, and Marianne Jones, two points on one from the field.

Glenda Bownds, with 26, was Slaton's top scorer, followed by Elaine Barnes with 19.

The Doe guards did a good job throughout the contest. Starters were Danella Bateman, Janie Caradine and Marianne Jones, with the latter also playing at a forward position. Others seeing action at guard were Judy Clary and Cheryl Martin, and Nita Wilson, regular forward.

The Antelopes simply were unable to cope with the Tigers' speed and balanced scoring attack. Four of the Tigers scored in double figures, with Larry Burk getting 17. Dwayne Capps and Leslie Ackers, with 14 and 11 points, respectively, led the Antelope scoring.

Pierce's 21 points in the "B" team victory was helped out by Roger Anderson's 16 and Benny Owen's 10. Also scoring for Post were Butch Cross, four, and Ronald Simpson and Gary Hays, two each.

The Woman's Culture Club of Post is sponsoring a reading project in the Lincoln School. The competitive reading will continue for six weeks, at which time one student will be chosen from grades 1-4 and from grades 5-8 to receive prizes for having shown the greatest progress in reading. This is the third year for the Woman's Culture Club to sponsor such a program here, and the results are gratifying. Mrs. Ruth Stewart and Mrs. Loree Thaxton are in charge of the project.

The Mustang "B" team defeated the Antelope "B" team, 67 to 31. Danny Pierce was Post's high scorer in the "B" game with 15 points. Also scoring were Butch Cross, two; Ronald Simpson, eight; Roger Anderson, two, and Ronald Storie, four.

In Sporting News interview

'We're after Yanks,' says Cash

Norm Cash, Garza County's gift to big league baseball, predicts in the current issue of the Sporting News that the Detroit Tigers will snap at the New York Yankees' heels in the 1962 American League to big pennant race.

And the Yankees know it, too, says Cash, Detroit first baseman and the 1961 AL batting champion. Cash is quoted as saying he talked to a number of the Yankees while on the baseball banquet circuit and that the Yanks made no bones about stating that the Tigers will be after them.

Cash was asked his opinion why the Tigers did so well last season.

"We have a good, young ball club," he replied.

Cash told questioners that he did not care whether Manager Bob Scheffing moved him up to the No. 4 spot in the Detroit lineup or kept him at No. 5.

"It really doesn't make any difference to me," said Norm. "Of course, when you follow Rocky Colavito up there, like I did last year, you're coming up 45 extra times with nobody on base."

He referred to Colavito's output of 45 home runs as the No. 2 power hitter on the all-time Detroit list.

Turman's in race for state office

James A. (Jimmy) Turman of Fannin County, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, today announced for Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Turman said, "Now that we have concluded the business of the 57th Legislature, I am announcing as a Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor."

"My decision is based on the sincere belief that my record as a legislator and as presiding officer of the House qualifies me for the duties required of the Lieutenant Governor—to preside over the State Senate in a fair, effective and democratic manner and to help preserve the God-given personal and political rights and liberties of all our citizens."

It's the Law in TEXAS

WHY LAWYERS DEFEND CRIMINALS

If you do not provide for the proper defense of all who are accused of crime, then the innocent, when falsely accused, have no way to prove their innocence. So, under our law, we look on a man as innocent until he is found guilty under proper court proceedings.

From this it follows that all of us have the right to be represented by a lawyer. Since the lawyer has a duty to represent you, much criticism of him for doing so is unjust.

Should a lawyer defend persons in court if he knows or thinks they have done the acts of which they are accused? Yes, the worst criminal has a right to a fair trial. This he cannot have unless a lawyer sees that he has a fair jury and that it hears only lawful evidence against him.

Sometimes the defense counsel arouses public feeling by his sincere efforts to see that his client has every proper legal safeguard. The public may misunderstand these legal moves. For the public they seem to be an unethical effort to defeat justice, by delay or by taking advantage of certain "technicalities."

Attorneys should tell people that it is one of our basic democratic rights to be considered innocent until legal evidence proves our guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

All who are charged with crime have a right to an attorney's aid. An attorney swears to see that the accused gets each protective legal right to which he is entitled.

The Handbook for Boys, official book for all Boy Scouts, ranks second only to the Holy Bible in number of copies sold. Over 17,600,000 copies have been sold since the first copy came off the press.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Car registrations lagging here; deadline April 15

Less than 30 per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman J. R. Whitmire, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline for having the vehicles checked rapidly approaching, this means there are approximately 2,600 vehicles in Garza County remaining to be inspected by the five approved inspection stations available.

These inspection stations are: Caprock Chevrolet Co., H&N Garage, Tom Power, Inc., and Wilson Bros., all of Post, and Southland Hardware at Southland.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to cope with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last-minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevent the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Whitmire said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

Rosson is co-author screw worm measure

Renal B. Rosson of Snyder has co-authored a resolution to secure Legislative action in a scientific campaign to eradicate the screw worm, a major cause of financial loss to the Texas livestock industry.

"It is estimated that the screw worm costs Texas livestock owners about one hundred million dollars a year," Rosson said. "The addition of that amount to their income would not only be of immense benefit to them but also would give a lift to the state's entire economy."

Rosson pointed out that screw worms have been eliminated from Florida and the southeastern section of the United States by the release of sterile male flies. His present five-county Representative District, the 85th, consisting of Borden, Crosby, Garza, Kent and Scurry, has extensive livestock interests.

He co-authored a concurrent resolution, requiring action by both House and Senate, proposing an interim legislative committee to work with the Southwest Animal Research Foundation in a program to rid the state of screw worms by sterilizing the male fly of the species which deposits its eggs in wounds of animals.

The Texas Animal Health Council, a federation of livestock organizations which pioneered the screw worm eradication campaign, fostered organization of the Animal Health Research Foundation to spearhead the attack on the parasite. Officers of the foundation are C. G. Scruggs, Dallas, editor of the Progressive Farmer, president; Marvin J. Bridges, Buffalo, vice president; and Jerry Puckett, Fort Stockton, secretary-treasurer.

The resolution would direct the proposed interim committee, composed of members appointed by the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor, to work with the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, attend its meetings and become acquainted with its work and program, and to make a report and recommendations to the 58th Legislature.

The resolution also commends the Texas Animal Health Commission, the Texas A&M Extension Service, the county agents, the Texas Education Agency and the Vocational Agriculture teachers, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture for important contributions to the eradication program.

Net earnings for the three months ended Dec. 31, 1960, were $5,909,000 after deducting income taxes of $6,557,000 and minority interests in earnings of $148,000. After preferred dividends, net earnings were equal to 46 cents per share on the 12,101,000 common shares outstanding at the end of that period.

Sign-up period set for grain

COLLEGE STATION — Producers who wish to comply with the 1962 feed grain program will sign up between Feb. 5 and March 30. Provisions of the 1962 program are very similar to those for 1961. One change is that idle and fallow land for the years 1959 and 1960 will be considered in the soil conserving base for farms. This will give less flexibility in the use of land diverted from feed grains, explains Bates.

Payment rates for diverted acres will be in line with those for 1961 because support prices for feed grains have been set at identical levels. The rates are again based on the normal production of the farm times the county support rate. The minimum acreage reduction (from the 1959-60 base) is 20 per cent, which will earn a payment based on 50 per cent of the local support price. For diversion of between 20 and 40 per cent the payment will be figured at 60 per cent of the local support price.

Luncheon honors WPS linemen for safety marks

Southwestern Public Service Company linemen of Post, Crosby, Falls, Slaton and Taboka were honored here last Thursday noon at an appreciation luncheon served in the company's Reddy Room for their perfect 1961 safety record.

C. Hudson, manager of the company's southern division, told linemen that "you have demonstrated you're the pros in safety going through the year 1961 out a reportable accident of kind—personal, automobile, or other."

"You can't do any better than that," he added.

Attention to the 1962 safe-belt campaign, "Pride in Progress", was called for each lineman to personal pride in progress.

"We appreciate the safety job you're doing," he emphasized.

Hudson presented "presidential pins" of the company to the crew foremen present, L. A. Slaton and Louis Powell, for the excellent safety records of their crews.

Approximately 25 attended the luncheon arranged by Ted R. Slaton, local manager, with the

I Give You Texas ...

By BOYCE HOUSE

I am not a mighty hunter.

My greatest hunting exploit was when I was not yet 13 years old.

I was visiting my Uncle Lonzo's farm in Missouri. My proudest possession was a single-shot .22 rifle. Several of us boys were out hunting. We had seen no game and so we took turns shooting at cans on top of fence posts, bottles placed on logs and paper targets on trees.

At last we actually sighted a squirrel. But by this time, our supply of ammunition was used up.

So I volunteered to remain and keep an eye on the squirrel while the others went for more shells. This suggestion was not received with enthusiasm but after all I was the owner of the rifle and furthermore was providing the capital. A package of cartridges was a quarter. These were the black powder kind; the smokeless variety was more expensive—but I didn't mind swabbing the barrel with a bit of rag. Also the 25-cent box was rife: there was another kind which was supposed to be more accurate but they cost more. The full facts of the squirrel hunt were given as every effort is being made to make the account of this exploit absolutely accurate.

However, the state of my finances was such that I had only a nickel in cash. With that, three shells could be bought.

So the other boys hastened to the general store, which was a half mile—and was substantially the same distance back.

I kept an eye on the squirrel and, as he would circle the tree, I would do likewise but at a distance and in a casual fashion so as not to alarm him. (The insinuations of pseudo-friends that I was smart enough to keep away from a squirrel are passed by as unworthy of notice.)

The strain of watching the creature had me almost exhausted when my colleagues returned. In a matter of seconds, the gun had been loaded; I took dead aim—I had agreed to take the first shot) and at the crack of my trusty rifle, the squirrel fell to the ground.

One squirrel does not provide much meat but it was enough to flavor a large amount of dumplings—and dumplings are the best part of a squirrel, anyhow.

And that is the story of the most exciting experience of my hunting career.

Editors shouldn't shoot it out

If shooting suddenly develops between the editor of the Texas Spur and the editor of the Jayton Chronicle, the Post Dispatch assures its readers that it will lose no time in declaring its neutrality.

We are also of the opinion that the editors of the Crosbyton Review and the Aspermont Star, both within easy gunshot range, will do likewise.

The journalistic atmosphere is charged with tension around the headwaters of the Brazos.

It all started a few weeks ago when Editor Afton Richards of the Jayton Chronicle used the columns of his newspaper to speak his mind on what he thought of the Spur city government coming out with a detailed report in the Texas Spur on what they planned to do with law violators.

"We thought Judge Roy Bean and his Law West of the Pecos era had passed from the Texas scene, but it appears that we have a new version," wrote Editor Richards in his Jan. 19 issue.

Editor Grady Joe Harrison of the Texas Spur came right back with an editorial entitled "Jayton Editor Blasts Fines Set by Spur City Council," in which appeared the first indication that an old-fashioned shoot-out might be pending between the neighboring editors—both good boys.

In his editorial, Editor Harrison wrote that Editor Richards had seen fit to clarify his statement and added, "although I have the feeling that at least a few persons, one or two, are disappointed because the Jayton editor and the Spur editor didn't kill each other off in an old-fashioned shoot-out. (Performed in Kent County, of course, 'cause it's against the law in Spur.)"

"The disappointed parties," Editor Harrison continued, "would be the rumor-mongers who delight in stirring up trouble among friends."

Editor Harrison also wrote: "If the City Council had been intending to establish a 'Law North of the Brazos,' as charged by the Jayton editor, I doubt seriously that they would have given public notice of their intent, but would have followed Judge Roy Bean's formula closer by hanging the first person caught jaywalking."

Since the Spur newspaper is published Thursdays and the Jayton newspaper Fridays, Editor Richards had a chance to see a copy of the Feb. 1 Texas Spur before his Chronicle went to press. He didn't take it lying down.

About the possible gun duel, Editor Richards had this to say:

"And about your suggestion that some people might expect we two editors to shoot it out, I am sure that there are some Kent County people who would be glad to furnish the ammunition any time you decided to try it. That seems to be the accepted practice . . . that anybody that will kill off a noney editor should be provided with a blue ribbon and a new round of ammunition."

Editor Richards also goes into the finer points of the original issue that brought on the editorial duel, but winds up his Feb. 2 editorial by inviting the Spur editor to slip off down to Jayton, have a cup of coffee with him and help get the whole controversy settled.

We hope Editor Harrison accepts Editor Richards' coffee invitation and that they both leave their shooting "arms" at home. It isn't so bad for an editor to get horsewhipped by one of his readers, but let's not start shooting one another. There aren't enough good weekly newspaper editors to go around, as it is.—CD

Job for all in Boy Scouting

Garza County's Boy Scout movement about held its own through 1961 with neither marked gains nor losses in the number of boys participating.

That's the "looking back" summary for the old year as the Scouts begin celebration of their 52nd anniversary with Boy Scout Week.

What's ahead for the movement in this area will be determined by the efforts in the months ahead of adults who firmly believe in the worthiness of this fine youth program.

It takes real dedicated efforts on the part of many Scouters to make for a smoothly functioning Scout program—and Garza has its share of these. Also required are parents who understand what Scouting is all about and how it can and will help their boys.

As we observe Boy Scout Week let us look to the future with the determination to reach more boys with Scouting because youth training today—in the democratic way of life—is needed as it has never been needed before.

As you drive into Lubbock, just outside the Circle on Avenue Q, is a new development called "Office Park" or something like that. In it a site, worth between $15,000 and $25,000, has been donated by Scouters for a new South Plains Council headquarters for the Boy Scouts.

Other donors will step forward in all probability soon to contribute funds to the headquarters' construction.

Support of Boy Scouting by adults in every way is very necessary. But fund giving is but one outlet. Even more important is the giving of time and talent to the cause. Garza is fortunate to have many fine Scouters who are working closely with Garza's youth.

But there is always need for more. If you want to do your share, step forward and volunteer. There's a job for you, too!—JC.

Re-emphasis on political points

The Dispatch wishes to re-emphasize a few political points as we start a new "political season."

First off, this newspaper is politically independent. We follow nobody's line, think for ourselves, and have to defend nobody.

We believe this to be in the best public interest.

The publisher—as of the 1960 political season—is an avowed conservative. But we don't belong to anybody—especially the "far right."

The editor is a pure-D Democrat and a liberal one, at that. He is not under wraps in his editorial page column and is encouraged to write his own views and call his own shots in all things politics as in everything else. We deem that in the public interest too.

Next, The Dispatch doesn't take sides in the local races. This has its good and bad points, of course, but in a small community we're simply too close to home. Most of the voters know their candidates.

From time to time, we will make such political observations as we choose and support such candidates as we find to our liking.

At all times, we will try to give full news coverage to the political situation as it develops.

It is too bad, we think, that 1962 did not see the beginning of the two-party system in Garza County at the county office level, but this is not surprising.

The Republican "starts" in West Texas are being made in the bigger towns than Post.

At the beginning of a new campaign we'd like to caution prospective voters against our major American political weakness. We tend to "vote against" a candidate, instead of "voting for" another. We tend to "vote against" issues, not stand "for" an issue.

The danger here is that our human frailty is an incentive for candidates to take no stands and make no issues, thereby avoiding the "against" votes of those who oppose what they might advocate.

Herein is the real weakness of American democracy at all levels.—JC.

We can do without such records

"Education" and "Enforcement" are two of the biggest, if not the biggest, phases of traffic safety, but neither does much more good than "Cold Facts."

And, the cold facts on this occasion are that Garza County's rural highway traffic toll in 1961 was more than double what it was in 1960.

In 1961, five persons were killed in rural road and highway accidents in the county as compared with two fatalities in 1960. Thirty-six persons were injured last year as compared with 18 the year before, and estimated property damage in 1961 was $63,480 as compared with $27,389 in 1960. Seventy-eight accidents were investigated last year as compared with 33 the year before.

Any increase in the traffic accident toll is appalling, but when it more than doubles in one year's time, it is even more appalling.

Indications are that we are off to a much better start this year than we were in 1961, when the number of rural traffic accidents, deaths, injuries and property damage apparently set a new record.

By always practicing the most elementary safety rules and courtesy of the road, drivers can help cut down the toll. It is up to them, more than anyone else whether we sharply cut down on the 1961 traffic accident figures or see them go even shockingly higher in 1962.—CD.

What our contemporaries are saying

Remember one thing—ask the candidate what he can do for you—and not what you can do for him. Unfortunately, politics has been degraded to the extent that few men with public spirited ambitions can attain an office. The voters usually place a man in office simply because he needs a job. I have nothing against a man who seeks an office and has to live off the proceeds, if he is otherwise qualified, but to put him in office on the basis of need alone is stupid. It is far cheaper to put that man on the county payroll and let him go fishing.—James Hill in The Knox County Herald.

It's getting to where it's almost impossible to find a good luck horse shoe any more, but there is an abundance of old automobile tires, which but for the absence of convenience, might serve just as well.—Douglas Meador in Natarator Tribune.

A government that is big enough to give you everything you want is a government big enough to take everything you've got.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

Talk about the land of opportunity! Do you realize that every child born in America today has $432 owed it by other countries? — Marvin Tomme in the Ralls Banner.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

THE GROUNDHOG came out of his hole and saw his shadow Friday, which means six more weeks of winter. Considering the shape the world is in today, no one could have blamed the little fellow if he hadn't even come out of his hole.

Wouldn't it be nice if humans could come out of the hole with the same ease and abandon as the groundhog?

THAT'S ALL on the groundhog until next Feb. 2.

The man up the street says a hangover isn't really so serious until you find you can't stand the roar of the bromo-seltzer.

POST BASKETBALL fans who woke up bright and early Saturday morning to read their Lubbock Avalanche-Journal sports page didn't see any resemblance between the Post-Slaton game reported in the A-J and the ones actually played here Friday night.

I called the games in and caught a sleeper—literally. He should have been home in bed instead of sitting at a sports desk trying to write sports copy. He sounded as if he were awake, but after reading what he wrote for Saturday morning's paper, I'm convinced that he was working in his sleep.

IN THE FIRST place, this sports rewrite man didn't have a thing in his story about the Post Does winning their first conference game, even though the girls' game is what he requested I give him first. I did . . . the score by quarters, the girls on both teams who copped scoring honors, and the conference records of both teams—for which he asked.

In the second place, the A-J sportswriter had Slaton winning the "B" boys' game after I had gone into great detail to inform him that the Post "B" team had run away with it—giving him the score and the high scorers on each team.

HE DID HAVE the varsity boys' game right, which Slaton won by a one-sided margin. It was aggravating to me, however, as well as to dozens of Post fans, many of whom called me Saturday morning to ask for an explanation, that the A-J sportswriter had no mention of the girls' game and had the "B" boys' game horribly twisted around to where Slaton won it—in the Lubbock paper, at least.

Now it could have been that the page make-up man threw out a paragraph or two to make the story fit—make-up men are notorious for doing such things—but he certainly didn't change the score of the "B" team game.

I DON'T KNOW who handled my call to the A-J sports desk Friday night, but I'm going to find out, and I'm going to make sure that he is wide awake the next time I get him on the phone—Heaven forbid! In the meantime, I suggest that local sports fans who want to know what the Antelope and Doe teams are doing wait until Thursday's Dispatch. We may not have everything right, but we'll at least tell you who won and who lost.

Valentine's Day, which is next Wednesday, has become a pleasant occasion for cashing in on cards and candy, as anyone who does much window shopping can plainly see. But for the maids of an earlier day, it was a time for serious husband-hunting.

ACCORDING TO World Book Encyclopedia, which keeps The Dispatch informed on such things, a girl might start out at midnight by circling the church 12 times and repeating the rhyme, "I sow hempseed, hempseed I sow, he that loves me best, come after me now." If no one did, she could still hope to see her true valentine in her dreams. Of course, she first took the precaution of pinning five bay leaves to her pillow, one to each corner and one in the center.

People once thought that Valentine's Day was for the birds, and after reading back over the above paragraph, I'm of the opinion they weren't far wrong. But the World Book Encyclopedia says the reason people thought that was because it was believed that birds choose their mates on Feb. 14.

Beware of Bills
We were shown yesterday a $3 bill of the Exchange Bank, dated December, 1861, signed P. Morrison, cashier, and C. W. Moore, president. That bill is worthless, as the late Horace Bean's Exchange Bank—the only one, for many years, in this city—is, since about 15 years, among the things that were. It is probable some parties got hold of the plates of this defunct institution and struck off a great number of notes, which they filled with imaginary names. Such as they are, they look genuine to persons who are not posted up about these things, and we are informed a great number of them are now circulating in this city.—New Orleans Picayune (circulated in Texas).

Life at the Capitol
According to the Washington correspondent of The New York Evening Post, gaiety prevails at the Federal Capital this winter.

One of the most striking features of life here is the utter carelessness and insouciance of every one. From Mrs. Lincoln, driving in her gaudy coach, and Mr. Lincoln, amusing himself with Hermann's feats of "prestidigitations," down to the young officers dancing gaily at the balls, everyone seems to consider the present time one especially created for amusement. There is not the slightest seriousness anywhere that I have been able to discover—it was all fun. And anyone who looks or speaks earnestly of the critical conditions of affairs is regarded as a bore by all but some of the few older heads. One would think all the "fast" boys of the country had come to Washington, for none of the men here seem to care for much else but jollity. The streets are thronged with officers and privates, all intent on amusement, and dashing young cavalry men clank their swords and jingle their spurs in dancing rooms as well as bar rooms. The mournful faces are at the homes that the war has made desolate.—The Weekly Telegraph

Yankee To The Last
A correspondent, writing from one of the Yankee camps, at the mouth of the Salt River, below Louisville, tells the following: Interesting incidents are provokingly rare hereabouts. One occurred in the brigade last night, which may serve to enlighten the world upon the peculiarities of an army chaplaincy. A dying man sent in great haste for the chaplain, who was soon at his bedside, ready to perform his solemn offices in his behalf. Bending over the dying man, he gently inquired what he should do for him. "I just wanted

Potatoes featured on plentiful foods list

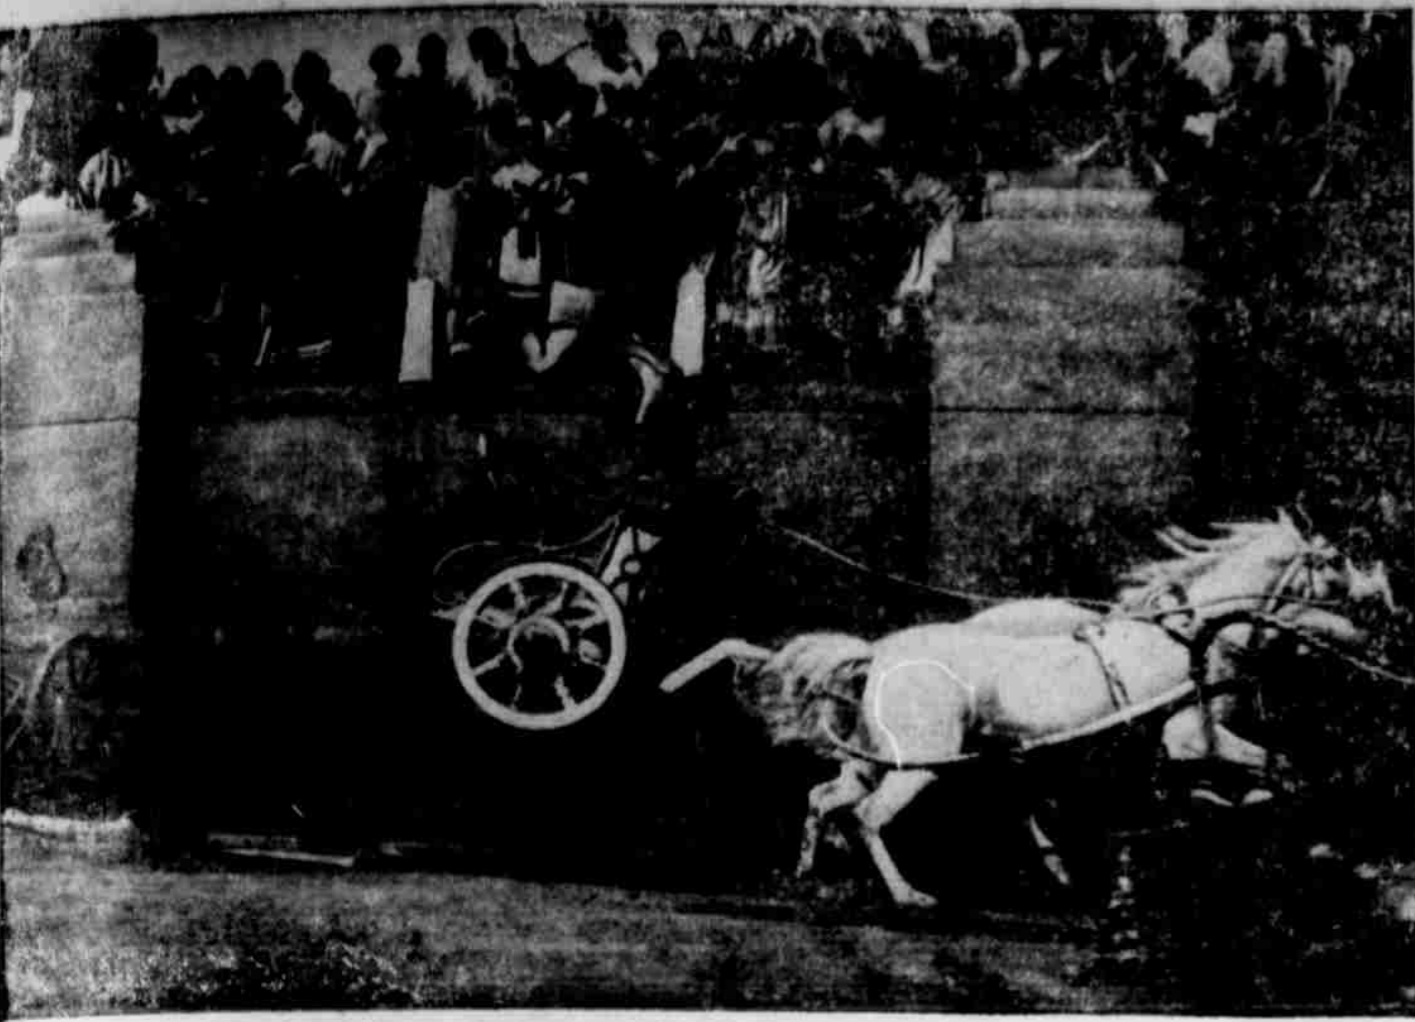

COLLEGE STATION — Popular, nutritious economical potatoes is the featured item among plentiful foods in February, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The entire list includes 11 highly mailable foods as determined by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with growers and the food grade.

Other foods listed as plentiful, or in supply greater than normal trade needs, include grapefruit, apples, turkeys, lamb, eggs, frozen and canned red cherries, honey, pecans, dry beans and rice. The January 9-12 freeze in South Texas eliminated this source of fresh fruit but other producing areas report plentiful supplies.

Potatoes head the list because stocks in storage in December were about 16 per cent larger than a year earlier. Prices paid to farmers were low, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service that compiles the list each month. Carrots and cabbage had been suggested for the February list but were removed at the last minute because the recent freeze in producing areas reduced volume considerably. USDA's Statistical Reporting Service indicates South Texas cabbage supplies will be light the rest of the season and will not reach the usual February and March peak. Heaviest loss of carrots was in late plantings. Consumers will do well to watch for regular and special sales on all 11 plentiful foods at local grocery stores, and to serve these foods often. Abundance usually means lower prices, wider selection for quality and ready availability.

MAGAZINE EDITOR

DALLAS — C. G. Scruggs has been named editor of the Texas-Oklahoma edition of The Progressive Farmer magazine, it was announced today by Eugene Butler, editor in chief of the magazine. This marks the first editorship change since Butler became editor 40 years ago. Scruggs is well known as a spokesman for Southern agriculture. In his 15 years with Progressive Farmer, he has championed numerous programs for the betterment of Southern farmers and ranchers.

"Some day I am quite sure it will be closed unless my youngest daughter becomes interested."

"It is a sad thing, our County Commissioners and our City Commissioners are just not interested. "This past year I have had several 'in memory' small sums, enough for one book. Also, a town sorority is giving $10 per month as their county project.

"The books I received from you (State Library) in 1960 were really the finest gift we ever had and every book has been read many, many times.

"The children flock to the library in the summer.

"We do not have a story hour, no one to tell the story and I have a full time business office job and work every day in the year.

"If you are ever in — or passing through come by and give me a ring. Everybody (almost) knows me."

Extension Division of the Texas State Library offers many aids for struggling and growing libraries. "Our very existence is to share our knowledge with persons interested in better library service," Dr. Winfrey concluded.

No action on police officer

City election to be April 3

The Post city council Monday night called the annual city election for April 3, and indicated there was no hurry about hiring a second city policeman by failing to take any action on the matter.

The council also further discussed plans for giving the State Highway Department the "go ahead" on widening of three strips of farm-to-market roads within the city limits, and agreed to amend a city ordinance to permit the conversion of the former clinic building across the street from the hospital into a nursing home.

Discussion of the hiring of a city policeman and the city's part of the FM-road improvements came as a continuation of discussions held at a special meeting of the council Wednesday of last week.

It was brought out at Monday night's brief session that the city has at least 12 bona fide applications for the city policeman job, and that probably that many more persons have indicated they would like to have the position.

Since the resignation in January of Elton Corley, who had been hired only a few days before, City Marshal Junior Shepherd has been the city's only law enforcement officer.

The city council did not indicate at Monday night's meeting when it will take action on the hiring of another city officer.

It had been decided at last week's special meeting of the council to issue warrants in the amount of $20,000 to assure curbing a and gutter on the FM-roads the highway department plans to improve.

Mayor Powell Shytle explained to The Dispatch that the entire amount of $20,000 would not be needed, since he feels that not more than $3,000 worth of "forced" paving will be necessary on the project.

The highway department already has funds available for the widening of the roads, contingent upon the city assuring that curbs and gutters will be put in.

Planned for improvements are FM-122 north and south from East Main Street and FM-631 north from (See CITY COUNCIL, page 8)

Rites conducted in Post Monday for Mrs. Boren

Funeral services for Mrs. J. M. Boren, 80, who died at 4:37 p. m. Saturday in Twin Cedar Nursing Home, were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday in the First Baptist Church of which she was a member.

Mrs. Boren, who lived at 102 East 11th Street, had been in the nursing home for the past four months.

A resident of Post since 1915, she was the widow of Garza County's first county judge, J. M. Boren, who died in 1937. She had been a member of the Baptist Church for 62 years.

The Rev. C. B. Hogue, First Baptist pastor, officiated at the funeral services. Lex Roby, the church's minister of music and education, sang "How Great Thou Art" and "Sunrise Tomorrow," accompanied by Mrs. Phil Crenshaw.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Mason Funeral Home. Pallbearers were J. Lee Bowen, Oman Ticer, O. L. Weakley, Ray N. Smith, J. E. Parker, Lester Nichols, King Bingham of Lubbock and Sterling Julian of Carlsbad, N. M.

Mrs. Boren is survived by a daughter, Mrs. V. H. Anderson of Post; a sister, Mrs. Lillie Penn of Fort Worth; a brother, A. H. Rankin of Anaheim, Calif.; a grandson, Gaylord Anderson of Lubbock, and a great-granddaughter, Holly Suzanne Anderson of Lubbock.

Shelnutt funeral is held Monday

Last rites for John Merle Shelnutt of Dallas, formerly of Post, who died last Thursday in Austin, were held here Sunday afternoon at the Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. Shelnutt, who was 45, was the son of Mrs. J. T. Shelnutt of 112 East 5th Street. He was a graduate of Post High School, but for many years had resided elsewhere, including Tulsa, Okla., and San Antonio.

He had been in ill health for over a year.

The Rev. J. T. Crawford, Church of the Nazarene pastor, officiated at the funeral services.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were William R. Bennett, Ted McDonald, R. B. Wilke, M. A. McDaniel, Gene Dawson and G. L. Perkins.

Besides his mother, Mr. Shelnutt is survived by his wife and a 10-day-old son, John Thomas Shelnutt.

Mr. Shelnutt's father preceded him in death in 1947.

Haynie in race for JP office

W. B. (Byron) Haynie today authorized The Dispatch to announce his candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, subject to the Democratic Primary elections in May and June.

Haynie's statement to the voters follows:

"I have decided to make the race for Precinct 1 Justice of the Peace, Garza County, and have filed my candidacy with the county Democratic chairman.

"I am 45 years old and have been a resident of Garza County all my life. I feel I am familiar with the duties of the office and, if elected, promise to carry them out fairly and impartially.

"I am married and the father of two daughters, one a 1961 graduate of Post High School and the other still in high school.

"It is my intention to make every effort between now and the election to see each and every voter of Precinct 1. If I miss seeing any of you, please take this announcement as a personal solicitation of your vote and influence."

By JIM CORNISH

Wesley Northcutt, Post restaurateur, is a man who has converted his hobby of fishing into a new business—and now finds too little time for his hobby.

Wes has converted himself into an Oklahoma rancher—a fishing worm rancher, that is. His son-in-law, Norman Moriearty, who runs Judy's Cafe for Wes, reports that Wes got interested in "fishing worm ranching" last August and really got into the business about last November on a five-acre tract near Cartwright, in southern Oklahoma.

He is but a few miles across the state line from the big Dennison dam where he used to take his house trailer for extended fishing excursions.

On his rural tract, he has constructed a 24 foot by 70 foot building in which to raise a varied selection of the finest African night crawlers. The "Ranch building" has two big thermostatically-controlled gas furnaces to keep the temperature constant for the growing worms.

Norman tells us that the worms are raised in boxes 12 inches high, 30 inches wide, and six feet long. The boxes contain peat moss and a mixture of other items. Each worm egg, so small you can hardly see it, hatches from 11 to 18 worms. Exactly how many worms Wes now has Norman doesn't know, but he's guessing in the millions.

Actually the worm selling season doesn't start until March. The worms are tanked and shipped all over the country.

Wesley, who has been in the restaurant business here for a good number of years, is mighty homesick to get back to Post for a visit and just chat with his friends again. But the worms keep him pretty busy. They have to be fed, watered, and rotated so that considerable care is involved—even if of a leisurely nature.

Meanwhile Moriearty is doubly busy—not only looking after things at Judy's Cafe for Wes, but preparing also to open a restaurant of his own, the La Fiesta Restaurant on the Clairemont highway on the east edge of town. Norman and his wife, Barbara, hope to get the new venture open for business sometime next week, but just examine Anderson of Lubbock.

JP, constable candidates in Precinct 2 first time

Late filings in Garza County's Democratic primary before the midnight Monday deadline saw a three-way race suddenly develop for Precinct 1 Justice of the Peace and the record-sized field in precinct 2's county commissioner race widened to eight.

Unusual interest was added, too, with the filing of candidates for Justice of the Peace and constable in Precinct 2—a precinct which up to now hasn't had any law enforcement or judiciary at the precinct level.

TRUETT SMITH

Seeks re-election as District Judge

Truett Smith, 56 years of age, well known Tahoka attorney, who is serving his first term as District Judge of the 106th Judicial District, comprising the counties of Dawson, Gaines, Garza and Lynn, will be a candidate in this year's election for a second term.

Mr. Smith has lived in Lynn County for over fifty years, and has been in the active practice of law more than 25 years, including two terms as county attorney of Lynn County, and two terms as district attorney of this district.

The Tahoka attorney is a member of the State Bar of Texas, having previously served in that organization as a director, and as a member of the State Bar Unauthorized Practice Committee. He is presently serving as a member of the State Bar on the Committee for the Administration of Justice.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka and of the Masonic Lodge. Mr. Smith is married to the former Lucille Hunt, and has a son, Gordon, who is a student in the Southwest Seminary in Fort Worth, and a daughter.

(See SMITH, page 8)

Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts, who is seeking reelection, drew opposition from W. I. (Byron) Haynie and A. H. Nelson in Precinct 1. Haynie is a police radio dispatcher and Nelson is a local carpenter.

The last two into the big Precinct 2 county commissioner scramble are Nathan Little, dirt contractor, and B. F. (Ben) Brewer, an oil field pumpjack.

THE FIRST SIX are E. E. (Elva) Peel, incumbent, John N. Hopkins, R. E. Josey, A. P. (Chuck) Gurley, G. A. (Buck) Harrison and Homer L. Gordon.

As far as anybody can remember there has never been either a constable or justice of the peace in county Precinct 2.

But it looks as if there will soon be an official in each office.

Donald Windham has filed for justice of the peace in that precinct and Emmett A. (Andy) Stelzer for the unexpired term of constable.

The reason Stelzer filed for an unexpired term, as County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw explains it, is that the regular election to that office came in 1960 and the next full term election comes in 1964. So Stelzer, if elected, would serve the remaining two years of the term.

Both Windham and Stelzer are standing for office on the principle that either each precinct is entitled to its own justice of the peace and constable, or the offices should be filled by county-wide election.

IN OTHER WORDS, voters should have the right to select their JP and constable.

As the system has worked in Garza County, only Precinct 1 has had such officers and they have served for the entire county. The point here is that only the voters in Precinct 1 had any choice in their selection.

Just what will happen if Windham and Stelzer are elected—and they have no opposition in Democratic ranks—is a matter of question.

The state law on the subject gives the county commissioners' court considerable authority in the fixing of the salaries of precinct constables and JPs.

The state statute reads: "The commissioners' court shall not be required to fix the salaries in all precincts at equal amounts, but shall have discretion to determine the amount of salaries to be paid each justice of the peace and each constable in the several precincts on an individual basis without regard to the salaries paid in other precincts, and to other officials. In arriving at the compensation to be paid the officials governed by the provisions of this act, the commissioners' court shall consider the financial condition of their respective counties and the duties and needs of their officials, but in no case shall such salaries exceed the maximum set by state law."

JUST HOW the commissioners' court would view establishing a second JP court and putting a Precinct 2 constable to work is all (See ELECTIONS, page 8)

Nathan Little is Pct. 2 candidate

Nathan Little has filed for Precinct 2 commissioner of Garza County with the Democratic chairman and authorizes The Dispatch to announce his candidacy for the office, subject to the Democratic Primary elections.

Little's statement to the voters of the precinct follows:

"After due deliberation, I have decided to make the race for Garza County commissioner, Precinct 2.

"I have been a resident of Garza County for 15 years and of Precinct 2 for 10 years. I feel that I am thoroughly qualified to attend to the maintenance and upkeep of the precinct's roads and streets, and also to discharge all other duties of the office in an efficient manner.

"If elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office faithfully, treating everyone alike, and working constantly with the best interests of Precinct 2 and Garza County in mind.

"I'll try to see every voter between now and the elections. In the meantime, I earnestly solicit your vote and influence."

Fifth Year

Post, Garza County, Texas, Thursday, February 8, 1962

Number 35

Newer candidate for commissioner

B. F. (Ben) Brewer today authorized The Dispatch to announce his candidacy for the office of Precinct 2 county commissioner, subject to the Democratic Primary elections.

His statement to the voters follows:

"After long and careful consideration, I have filed with the county Democratic chairman my candidacy for commissioner of Precinct 2. I am 43 years of age, and have lived in Post and Garza County since late 1944, except for two years—18 months of which was military service. I have lived in Precinct 2 about two years. For the past 13 years, I have been employed with an independent oil company as a pumpjack, and am proud in that capacity today.

"I am fully qualified for the most important county office in our past experiences and, if elected, I will serve to the best of my ability to execute the duties of the office with Precinct 2 and Garza County as a whole in mind.

"It is my intention to see each and every voter of Precinct 2 before the first primary election. In between, I solicit your influence and support, wherever you live in the county."

Out of school today

Boy Scouts begin week's observance

Garza County's three Boy Scout troops and one Explorer Post have a variety of activities for the observance of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-13, and the 52nd anniversary of the Scouting movement.

Troop 319 Scouts were out of school today with a full schedule ahead of them. After a good turn project for their sponsoring institution, the First Methodist Church, the troop will have a conservation project at Camp Post and a "cook-out."

Methodists set 'kickoff' event

Rev. Calvin W. Froehner, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in Lubbock, will be the speaker for the kick-off dinner scheduled at the First Methodist Church Monday, Feb. 12, at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Froehner has been pastor of St. John's Church, just off the campus of Texas Tech, for four years. He is widely sought as a speaker for special occasions.

Bob Collier will be master of ceremonies. The event climaxes a three-week program of education in stewardship and church responsibilities.

More than 100 members of the church will be present. Those who have been chosen as visitors will go into the homes of every member of the church to urge greater loyalty to the church through stewardship and attendance.

Two FFA members showing barrows

Two members of the Post High School chapter of Future Farmers of America are showing barrows this week at the annual El Paso Stock Show, according to Ike Trimble, high school vocational agriculture teacher and FFA chapter advisor.

The boys showing barrows are Lewis Herron III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Herron Jr., and Danny Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floy Richardson.

Methodists set 'kickoff' event

Bill Bennett is scoutmaster of this troop and Ed Blanton, the assistant scoutmaster.

On Sunday, the troop will attend morning worship services at the Methodist Church and evening worship services at the First Christian Church.

The troop will assist Southland Troop No. 320 with a Court of Honor Monday night at Southland.

Troop 316, sponsored by the Post Rotary Club, also is keeping its members busy today with a full program. The "good turn" for the sponsor will be cleaning up the lots around the scout house. This afternoon the troop was scheduled for a hike to Camp Post for a conservation project.

Marshall Ticer is the new scoutmaster of this troop and Joe Hare is the assistant scoutmaster.

Post's Explorer Post 316 with Emmett Shedd as advisor was scheduled for a field trip today to excavate one of the county's Indian camp sites.

Helping to observe Boy Scout Week, the Post Rotary Club will have a scouting program next Tuesday noon at its luncheon in the city auditorium under Dr. B. E. Young.

A Scouting program is planned by the Post Lions Club next Tuesday night with two Scouts and leaders from each of the three local units to be guests of the club.
