Ted Shults thanked for school playground gift

By MRS. DURWARD BARTLETT
We all want to thank Ted Shults for the nice donation for the school playground. A group of the school fathers have cut and welded the frames for the swings and see-saws and set them in concrete. All we lack is putting up the swings and the boards on the see-saw frames. Although they won't get to be used much this year we know they will be next year as we have a large number of little ones starting to school. The school looks much improved with this equipment in the yard.
Twenty-one were present for the Medical Self-Help meeting. Dr. H. E. Cone of Lubbock demonstrated with the help of Ellis Langston. Dr. Tubbs visited also and helped a short time.
MRS. R. H. Sappington, Mrs. Troy Nelson and Mrs. Leroy Bilberry had coffee and visited Mrs. John Nelson Tuesday morning.
Mrs. Harvey Riley, teacher in the Close City School, was honored with a surprise birthday party last Friday at the school house by the mothers. Regardless of what you might have heard, I am making my own campaign and shall continue to do so. If elected I will not be obligated to any one person, group, clique or clan. I wish to be free to represent all people alike regardless of race, color or creed.

My present plans are to make a house to house canvass of the entire county, attempting to see each and every voter. But in case I miss seeing you, please consider this my appeal for your support.

"HARDWARE HEADQUARTERS"

You have probably noticed on our bill heads etc. our trade mark or motto is "Hardware Headquarters".

THRU SIXTEEN YEARS we have tried to be just that BUT LATELY we have considered changing to something to better fit the surroundings. NOT THAT WE DO NOT CLAIM to be FIRST for hardware needs but that everything else is changing—getting more modern—and if you remember previously we decided to get MORE ANTIQUE instead SO WE may come up with something different.

One customer suggested "Rat Nest" and we used that some in our ads. THEN there are so many "ANTIQUESHOPS" we have to be different; might use "Ye OLDE HARDWARE" or "REGION OF ANTIQUES". We have so much in the passageway thru the store now, we are almost afraid to try to carry something thru and unless you are pretty tall you will be unable to see very far down the narrow and piled up trail, BUT YOU COME ON IN. Lillie says "That has got to be improved".

HOWEVER, we do not think it is so bad as we haven't entirely LOST ANYTHING bigger than a No. 3 wash tub and we finally found it under a scrambled mixture of garbage cans, ironing boards and a roll of oil cloth and a couple of chicken feeders. Our customers help us HUNT THEIR NEEDS so DON'T BE AFRAID, come on down with your hardware needs to "THE HAPPY HUNTING GROUND"—WE PROBABLY have it.

BERMUDAGRASS
 Fertilizing Bermudagrass pastures will pay in the Blacklands, according to a five-year fertilizer test at the Blackland Experiment Station in Temple. E. D. Cook and W. R. Parmer of the station, obtained significant response from up to 120 pounds of nitrogen in forage yield and protein content of the forage. They also obtained a small response to phosphorus but no response to potash.

Results of the fertilizer tests on the yield and chemical composition of Bermudagrass are reported in Experiment Station Progress Report 2183. Copies of this report may be obtained by writing the Blackland Experiment Station, Temple, Tex., or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Tex.

BUILDING PLANS
 Are you planning to build a barn or other farm buildings soon? If so, it will pay you to drop by your county agricultural agent's office and look over the catalog of "Building and Equipment Plans." From this you can order free plans and publications for almost any type of farm building you may have in mind.

The catalog lists available plans ranging from home and farm buildings to homemade machines and equipment. Plans for building corrals, pens, fences and other livestock handling equipment are also listed.

Why not take advantage of these plans when you build? Your county agent has a copy of "Building and Equipment Plans" that you can use.

TO HEAD GROUP
 Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, head, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and extension economist at Texas A&M College, has been named to head a public affairs seminar team which will go to Europe in June primarily to study the common market.

Four such teams have been organized under the program sponsored cooperatively by the Foreign Agricultural Service and the Federal Agricultural Extension Service, both of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The other teams will go to Africa, Asia and Caribbean areas.

"We are proud to have Dr. Timm represent Texas in this capacity," said Texas Extension Director John E. Hutchison. "Since exports of agricultural products, especially crops, are so important to the state, Texans have a special interest in the European Common Market arrangement," the director continued.

The European team will be leaving Washington, D. C. on June 16 after three days of intensive briefing and will return on July 23. They will visit the United Kingdom, Belgium, France, Germany, Italy and Denmark.

Bible Thoughts
 "God's Creation"
 By HERB SMITH

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is a speech nor language, where their voice is not heard." Psalm 19:1-3. There is much beauty in God's creation. This can be seen in this reference as well as in the material universe for God is creator of both. Anything God creates is good and beautiful. This is the speech that continues to be heard day and night, and the language is the same everywhere. The beauty and the Glory of God is declared by His creation in a tongue that can be understood by all peoples.

Sin has brought ugliness into the world. Not only does it mar the beauty of God's creation, it also blinds men's vision so that he cannot recognize and appreciate God's creation.

White River—

The property sought includes 156.47 acres of Section 98, block 2, H&G Railway Co. survey, Crosby County, 20 acres out of section 100; 634.11 acres out of section 101; 643.33 acres out of section 110; and 444.8 acres out of section 111.

THE WHITE River water district directors at a special meeting in Ralls Monday night by unanimous vote adopted a resolution authorizing filing the condemnation proceedings.

The land committee of the district has met with Mrs. Walker and her attorneys on three different occasions, it was reported, starting in December in an effort to purchase the property.

All parties to the condemnation suit were notified by registered letter of the district's intention to proceed with the filing of the suit if the district's offer to purchase the land was not accepted or a counter offer made by last Saturday. The district received no reply to these letters.

The district has purchased one portion of the damsite land needed. Besides the Walker estate land sought through condemnation, a third portion must be secured from the Jones estate of Abilene.

THE JONES estate land, however, will not be needed to get actual dam construction under way. Lloyd Wicks, the district's attorney from Ralls, told directors Monday night that the law provides that the county judge will appoint a three-member commission to hear the case and determine the market value of the property at the time of the hearing.

The commission will report its finding to the county judge. If any party is dissatisfied with the market value set on the land, the decision can be appealed within 20 days.

Al O'Brien, White River project manager, reported at the special meeting Monday night that 95 per cent of the easements have been obtained from land owners for the water pipeline to Post and that 60 per cent of the easements are signed for the Spur pipeline. Work has not begun on obtaining easements for the Ralls, Crosbytown pipeline.

Farmers who tap the pipeline as it goes through their land will pay the same rate for water as the rate charged for water in the city of the pipeline's destination, he said.

Tom Benton, the district's tax assessor-collector, reported over 92 per cent of the district's first year taxes have been collected in the four member towns to date.

White River directors authorized the appointment of the same district board of equalization as served last year for the equalizing of the district's taxes this year.

Attending the special meeting were Tom Bouchier, head of the board, and Dispatch publisher, Jim Cornish from Post.

Morrow rites are held Wednesday

Funeral services for Miss Mickie Sue Morrow, 23, formerly of Post, who died Tuesday in Austin following a lengthy illness, were conducted at 3 p. m. yesterday at the First Methodist Church here.

Miss Morrow, the daughter of Mrs. Naydene Morrow and the late Charles Morrow, moved to Austin with her family several years ago when her brother, Ross, enrolled in the University of Texas.

The Rev. Oscar Bruce, First Methodist pastor, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Mason Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Floyd Hodges, William Robinson, Darrell Stone, Jim Boren, Howard McCampbell and Garland Davies. Besides her mother, she is survived by two brothers, Charles of Post and Ross of Austin. She was a niece of Mrs. W. E. Dent of Post.

Deputy—

Merritt testified that he repeatedly asked Jackie Odom to go on about his own business and not to interfere.

Others testifying in Odom's behalf were his 17-year-old brother, Delroy, who was with Dwayne "Bo-Bo" Odom when Merritt stopped the latter, and George Perkins, who was in the car with Jackie Odom and his wife.

The assault and battery case against Merritt was filed in corporation court after a charge of abusive language against him, growing out of the same case, had been dismissed in justice of the peace court.

Two charges filed against Odom, one for interfering with an officer and the other for using abusive language, were dismissed earlier this month in county court after having been appealed from justice of the peace court.

Thomas W. Gamblin, local attorney, was employed as a special prosecutor in Wednesday's case against Merritt. The deputy sheriff acted as his own counsel.

Members of the jury were Al Jennings, Mrs. L. J. Ritter, Fritz Brownlee, Oscar Gordon, Leon Clary and Murray Crowley.

The case was heard before Corporation Judge Percy Printz.

THE COUNCIL'S decision to drill two wells, and maybe more, in the city water field came after Supt. Henry Tate reported that water in the city reservoir dropped more than a foot over the weekend and that the situation is going to get much worse unless there is a break in the current hot, dry spell.

The new wells are to be drilled on the Winder Lease, with the possibility of the city also going over to the adjoining Wheatley Lease in its search for water. The city is now paying $150 a month for the Wheatley Lease and if it decides to drill there the cost will go up to $300 a month.

Tech Prof takes pictures of Grassland's iris gardens

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Professor Don Johnston of the Department of Horticulture and Park Management at Texas Tech College visited the iris gardens of Mrs. E. M. Walker, Mrs. C. B. King and Mrs. C. C. Jones Saturday morning.

In the three gardens there are about 600 varieties of iris, mostly new introductions.

Mrs. Walker has been a member of the American Iris Society since 1927. Mrs. King and Mrs. Jones are new members, but their love for beauty make them real "irisarians". Each year about 100 new iris are planted in their gardens for their friends to enjoy with them.

Mrs. Walker does a little hibridizing. She now has five very pretty plants in bloom. She hopes to have these iris judged and with good luck introduce some of them to the public.

Secure in LOVE

worship together this week!

Kathy is secure in her mother's love. Trust and peace gleam in her eyes. Happiness and hope shine in her face.

But Kathy has her heartaches. She falls and skins her knee. Or she loses her favorite dolly. And then her eyes are flooded with tears.

Mommy is always there to help. The knee is bandaged and kissed. The dolly is found. As Mommy's arm slips around Kathy, the tears are dried.

Kathy is secure in her mother's love.

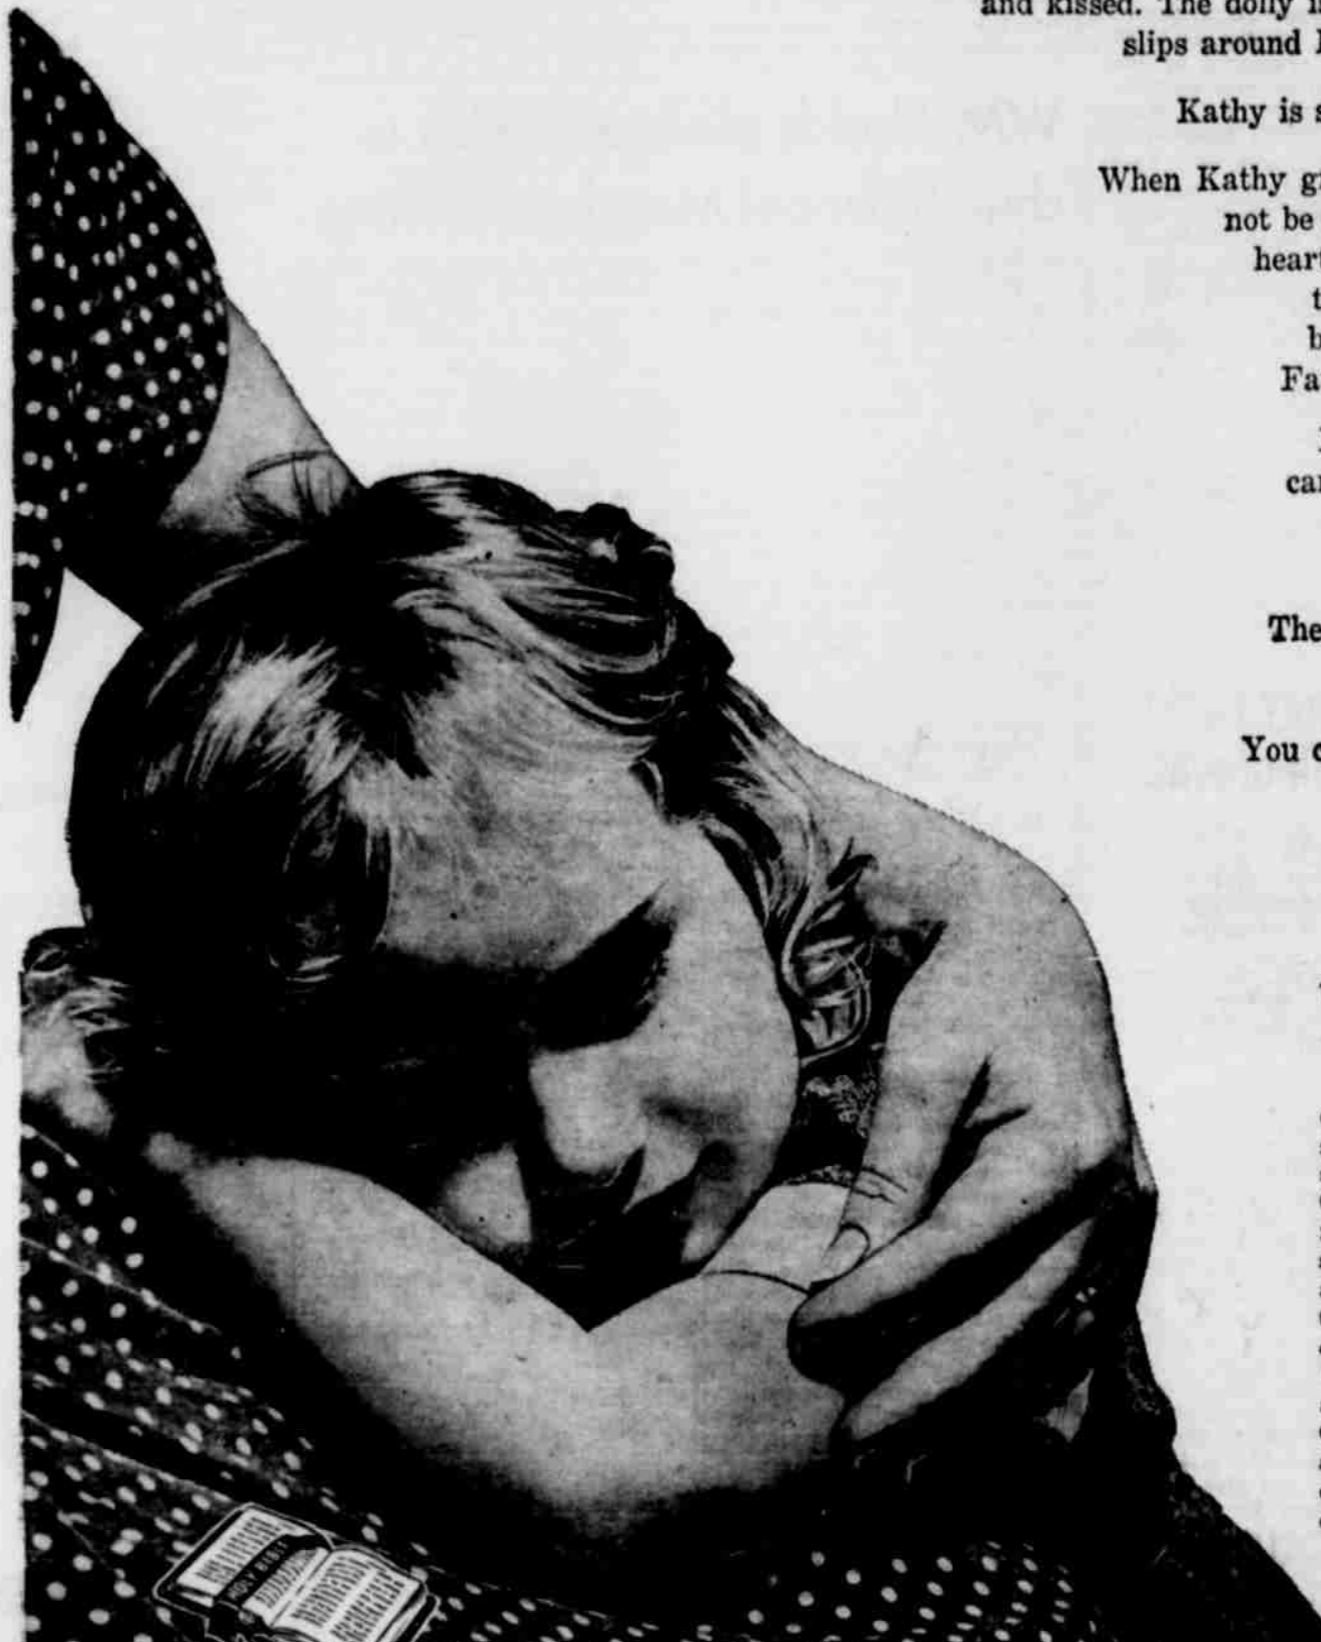

When Kathy grows older her mother will not be able to love away the adult heartaches. But Kathy can turn to God. Her mother's love is but an echo of the Heavenly Father's love for His children.

In faith and prayer, Kathy can find His all-sufficient help and feel beneath her His Everlasting Arms.

The Church guides you to God. You can discover your destiny as His child. You can be secure in divine love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

In state FFA contests

Blacklock wins judging honors

Billy Blacklock, a member of the Post High School's Future Farmers of America dairy products judging team, won top individual honors Saturday at the state FFA judging contests at College Station.

It was one of the highest, if not the highest, judging honors ever won by a Post student in FFA competition.

The dairy products team, of which Billy was a member, tied with Mason for seventh place in the contest, but on a coin flip, Post had to be satisfied with the eighth place banner.

Other members of the team are Billy Mitchell, Ronald Storie and Billy Max Gordon, alternate.

The Post FFA meets judging team tied for 16th place with Monterey High School of Lubbock in team competition.

Post High band holds banquet

The Post High School Band had their annual banquet April 28 at Levi's Restaurant.

There were many of the band students with their dates. Several out-of-town guests attended also.

A main dish of either chicken or shrimp was served with all the trimmings. It was set up in buffet style.

Lenny Howell, the president of the band made a speech followed by the band director, Mr. Meisch. Beverley Young, a senior member of the band, was awarded the John Philip Sousa Award.

Members of the meat judging team are Richard Hart, Curtis Hudman, Danny Richardson and Ricky Little, alternate.

Ike Trimble, high school vocational agriculture instructor and FFA chapter advisor, said he was well pleased with the Post teams' performances in the state contests.

Judy Clary wins posture contest

Judy Clary, a Post High School senior, won the "Miss Posture" contest for this district last Thursday night.

There were eight or nine contestants who were representatives of various chiropractors in this area.

The contestants were judged on poise, personality, grace, beauty and posture.

The three judges were from Lubbock and were doctors of chiropractic.

Judy will receive an all-expense paid trip with a chaperone to Fort Worth the first week in June to participate in the state-wide contest. If she wins there, she will receive scholarships, prizes, and an expense paid trip to Detroit for the national contest.

The average cow in the United States produces 6,200 pounds of milk annually.

3rd grade pupils visit early-day places in Post

As a climax to a study of early days in Post, Mrs. Mary Raphael's third grade class made a tour Friday of early-day buildings and the Post Dispatch.

The group left the school to enjoy a "ranch style" dinner at noon at the Raphael home. Included in the menu were barbecued beef, potato salad, beans, ranch style bread, pickles, onions, cookies and Cokes.

They visited Hudman Funeral Home, the Colonial Apartments, Church of the Nazarene, walked by the Algerita Hotel and saw the train station. Publisher Jim Cornish, conducted the tour of the paper. After a Coke break at Levi's, the students returned to school.

Auto burns on parking lot

By Butch Bowen

Thursday, May 3, Raymond Shaw watched his early model Chevrolet, which caught fire on the Post High School parking lot, burn to total destruction.

There were two fires in the auto. The first was noticed about 2 p. m. and was extinguished immediately. The second caught about 3 p. m. from smoldering cotton in the seat covers and was put out by the fire department. The car was a total loss, but there were no injuries.

We wish to express our appreciation to the Post Volunteer Fire Department for a fine job.

Honorable mention for Brincefield drawing

The annual state drawing competition was conducted at Texas A&M College, May 2-6. Approximately 6,500 students from 180 schools in Texas participated.

Wayne Brincefield, a Post High School sophomore, won honorable mention for his Mechanical Drawing II problem.

We are certainly proud of Wayne's accomplishment in our Engineering Drawing and he most certainly is a credit to his school.

GET WELL, JERRY!

We want to extend to Jerry Gener, our best get-well wishes. Jerry was operated on early Friday morning for appendicitis, but is doing very well now. He left the hospital Sunday and probably will return to school later this week.

Calais is the French seaport nearest England.

Teacher receives award

Students win at Arts Fair

Darrell Young, Post High School senior, won the wood identification contest at the Industrial Arts Fair at West Texas State College, Canyon, May 3-5.

Darrell won the contest by identifying 12 of 15 woods and won a handsome Texas-shaped plaque.

Seven Post industrial arts students attended the fair, where 38 schools were represented and some 1,200 projects were exhibited in crafts, woodwork, ceramics, rock-hounding and mechanical drawing.

Darrell's first place win was not in the projects exhibits, but in on-campus competition in woodwork, with mechanical drawing also being held in this category.

In projects exhibits, highest honors from Post went to Harold Wayne Mason, who won second place with his Danish modern chest of drawers.

Second highest honors were won by Ralph Ardis with a third place award for his Danish modern table and clock set.

Both Harold Wayne and Ralph won ribbons and their projects were rated superior.

Others attending, their entries and ratings were: Jack Burk, Victorian table, excellent; Dwayne Capps, cedar chest, excellent; Jerry Stone, Colonial table, excellent; Ralph Ardis, Danish table, excellent.

Entries from Post boys not in attendance were: Jerry Thuet, mahogany chest, excellent; Pat Sullivan, coffee table, excellent; James Mitchell, telephone table, superior.

Out of 20 merit certificates awarded, Post students received three superior, five excellent and one good.

Who's the week's Mystery Teacher?

By Julie Clark

This teacher can do more to keep a classroom quiet with a smile and happy look than some can do with a board.

She is very attractive and the clothes she wears are almost as lovely as her disposition.

This teacher also has a "Little Miss Muffet" attitude toward anything that creeps or crawls. She set a new high jump record the day she found a friendly spider in her grade book.

Although sometimes she gives a little too much homework, she is still a favorite teacher in Junior High.

Charter member rituals are conducted for new sorority

An impressive candlelight ceremony, six new pledges received and took their first ride to become the first organized chapter of the newly organized Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Epsilon Sorority. The rituals were conducted by Virginia Maston, district president of Sudan in the home of Mrs. J. E. Lovell, May 7 at 7:30 p. m.

pins were: Bobbie Moore, Betty Huddleston, Sandra Feather, Wanda Sandlin, Peggy Collins and Mary Raphael.

They repeated their rituals around a table covered with a white linen cloth, centered with an arrangement of miniature yellow jonquils surrounded by baby breath in a large scalloped turquoise bowl. Turquoise candelis in crystal holders completed the decor.

Laverta Lovell was elected president for the 1962-63 year; Wanda Sandlin, vice president; Mary Raphael, recording and corresponding secretary, and Lea Mock, treasurer.

Guests of the club from Sudan included Mrs. Maston, Mrs. Frances Pickett, district coordinator; Martha Taylor and Vernetta Allen, all members of the Sudan Chapter of Iota Eta.

Mrs. Mock and Mrs. Lovell are former transfer members of an Epsilon Sigma Alpha Chapter and were instrumental in organizing the new sorority.

Plans were made to send Mrs. Lovell to the state convention in Austin, May 18-20.

Rush season was planned for early fall.

GMH greets National Hospital Week

Garza Memorial Hospital joins similar institutions over the country this week in the observance of National Hospital Week, which is May 6-12.

Present-day hospital care represents a unique combination of science and personal attention from each and every employee of Garza Memorial Hospital, points out Don Curt, administrator.

Garza Memorial Hospital, which next August will observe its 10th anniversary, has made steady progress as a county-operated institution. Contributing to this progress is the six-member hospital board, a highly competent hospital staff and employees, the comparatively new hospital auxiliary, and an appreciative public.

The administrator said this week, as the National Hospital Week observance got under way, that the average of daily patient population is showing a steady increase, as well as the number of births. New equipment is being added and facilities improved regularly, with a new X-ray machine the latest item of equipment installed.

That Garza Memorial Hospital is being and has been operated on a sound basis is seen in the fact that the nation over the percentage of county and municipal-operated hospitals either closing their doors or being taken over by private operators is rather high. Garza countians have a right to be proud of the fact that their county-operated hospital has kept its doors open ever since it first opened here in August of 1952.

Nation-wide, scientific advances have been translated into life-saving equipment, medications and medical techniques, but they are passed on to the patients in our hospitals only because doctors, nurses and all other medical personnel are present to use them.

Each patient has special needs that can be met only by individual attention. While the scientific and technical advances contribute to a patient's recovery, they must be prescribed and provided individually to meet the patient's exact needs. To fulfill this goal, our community hospitals must have two and two-tenths employees for each and every patient.

Statistics show "one in eight persons are hospitalized each year" and each of these patients benefit from the advances of medical science and from the attention of the hospital staff.

Hospitals are developed by public interest to provide individual care to meet the physical, personal, spiritual and emotional needs of each patient and stand ready to meet any emergency at any hour of the day or night, placing the welfare of each individual patient as the uppermost goal.

Equipment is one of the major costs to the hospital, but just how expensive such necessary items are is little known to those outside the "hospital world." For instance, an X-ray machine costs a minimum of $16,500.

While medical costs have increased 180 per cent in the past 20 years, in the same period, cost of public transportation, for example, has increased 139 per cent, food 195 per cent and shoes 169 per cent.

Out of today's consumer dollar, 6 cents goes for health, while 27 cents goes for housing, 22 cents for food, 10 cents for clothing, 12 cents for travel, 6 cents for recreation and the remaining portion for miscellaneous commodities.

The average infant born in this country today can expect to live almost half again as long as one born in 1900. A baby born in 1900 had a life expectancy of 47.3 years; one born today has an expectancy of 69.7 years.

United States hospitals cared for more than 25,000,000 patients in 1960—the greatest number in any year of hospital history, and more than $8 billion is spent per year to provide patient care. It costs non-federal voluntary short-term hospitals an average of $33.23 to care for one patient for one day. Patients pay an average of $31.51 toward this cost, or $1.72 less than it costs the hospital to care for them.

Total number of personnel employed by hospitals has risen more than 83 per cent since 1946. This reflects the growing number of services provided by hospitals. Voluntary short-term hospitals have an average of 232 employees per 100 patients. Over half of these are directly concerned with professional care of patients.—CD

Run-offs boost voters incentive

Run-offs in all four contested races in Garza County speak well for the political situation hereabouts.

County voters will have more of an incentive for going to the second primary polls June 2 than they would have had if there had been run-offs only in federal, state and district races.

Lopsidedness in one candidate's lead over his field of opponents kills interest in an election just as it does in a ball game.

Human nature being what it is, however, we are sure the candidates in each of the four run-offs had rather have won outright—and they can't be blamed for such a "rather." It will mean, of course, more work and more expense on their part to win their party's nomination to the office they seek than it would have if things had been settled in Saturday's first primary.

But, it's a different situation for the voter. His interest, instead of lagging, as it would have had there been no run-offs, will remain high in the four run-off races between now and the June 2 date.

These four run-off races will result in several hundred more Garza County voters being cast in the June 2 primary than would be if there were no second primary contests at the local level.

Another bright spot in the first primary campaign and election is the fact that there just wasn't any mudslinging in the contested county races. That doesn't mean that competition wasn't keen among the candidates and their supporters, but it does mean that as far as this newspaper has been able to ascertain, there was no "falling out" among either the candidates or their supporters.

So, we can look forward to a goodly turnout of voters in the second primary election because of these four run-off races and for a continuation of the campaign interest that began making itself felt a week or so before the first primary.—CD

Safety rules for kite flyers

Budding astronauts and jet pilots, who begin their careers in the sky by flying kites these windy spring days, have a few "don'ts" to remember. This point is being stressed by electric companies around the country. They're now stressing such safety rules as these:

1. Don't use tinsel string, wire, or any twine with metal in it.
2. Don't fly a kite with metal in the frame or tail.
3. Don't fly kites in rainy weather.
4. Don't run across streets or highways while flying kites.

5. Don't fly kites over television or radio aerials.

6. Don't touch fallen electric wires.

7. Don't fly a kite near electric power lines.

8. If a kite does become entangled in electric power lines, LEAVE IT THERE. DO NOT TOUCH the string, or in any other matter attempt to get it down.

9. Use only dry cotton string and dry cloth in kite tails.

Remember, Benjamin Franklin didn't face modern hazards when he flew his kite!

What our contemporaries are saying

Farmer friend made some remarks to us the other day something like this: There's one good thing about high income taxes. They have reduced the cusping about high school taxes. I pay more income taxes now in one year than I have school taxes in my entire life combined. (He's about 55 years of age.) Another thing, we don't see what our income tax goes for, but we can see modern buildings, a lot of teachers returning some of the money to the community, a thousand kids going to school every day and getting an education, activities, sports and amusements and our kids attaining success as a result of these facilities. Only a few of the millions of dollars that go to Washington ever come back to us directly in something we can see and enjoy. —Frank P. Hill in The Lynn County News.

The fellow next door says that if he has a problem, he thinks it out on a river bank. He can sit there all day long with a fishing pole in his hand and get things sort of straightened up in his mind. He never catches a fish, but when he comes home, folks speak of him as a "patient fisherman." He says if he sits in the backyard at home all day thinking over his problems, people speak of him as "that lazy fellow down the street."—Joe Harrison in The Texas Spur.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

I'VE HEARD OF quite a few "lucky" people taking off on trips soon after Saturday's election. It seems they had these trips planned, but wanted to wait until after the election, instead of voting absentee. Among them were Dick Wood, local manager for Pioneer Natural Gas Company, and Mrs. Wood. They had everything packed Saturday night for a trip Sunday morning to Louisiana. The Walter Criders also left Sunday on a trip to Chico, Tex.

On the other hand, some people barely made it back into town in time for the election. One of these was Claud Collier Jr., manager of Caprock Chevrolet, who'd gotten "weathered in" on a trip to South Texas, and didn't know for sure whether or not he'd be back in time to attend to his duties as Precinct 1 chairman on the county Democratic committee. But, Claud made it—and for his troubles had a long, long session supervising the balloting, counting, etc., out at the Youth Center building where the Precinct voters vote.

THE ELECTION wind-up was quite a session for a number of us, particularly those who stayed up well into the first of the "wee small hours" Sunday morning in order to get everything squared around on the election results. Most of the late stayer-uppers were over at the courthouse in County Clerk Carl Cederholm's office, which must have looked Sunday morning as if something other than an election had struck it.

That tie vote in Commissioner Precinct 4, with Mason Justice and Sid Cross each winding up with 42 votes, was a big topic of discussion at the courthouse election returns party. When someone commented that more than likely Sid and Mason would wind up in a deadlock again in the second primary, someone else said, "Well, somebody needs to change some of those voters' minds one way or another, even if they have to call in ol' Paladin of 'Have Gun, Will Travel.'" He was being facetious, of course, because the good people of Justiceburg always have voted as they pleased, and even Paladin couldn't change 'em.

THE CLOSING stages of the campaign saw a clever "gimmick" brought out by one of the candidates in the nine-man Precinct 2 commissioner race, B. F. (Ben) Brewer came up with a card that fastened intricately to screen doors so that when the door was opened from the outside, the card sprang into reading position with the following message, "Good morning. This is election day. Vote for Ben Brewer" . . . or words to that effect.

Well, we can all settle back and take it easy now until the second primary early in June. That is, we all can except the candidates.

That man up the street says the best excuse for ignorance is that instant knowledge has not been perfected.

A MERCHANT friend advises that while business isn't what it should be, it's less worse.

During the upcoming Little League baseball season, don't be too hard on the youngsters if you're sitting through a game which goes on and on because of high scoring. The Little Leaguers are by no means the only ones who sometimes stage scoring marathons. In a recent game in the South Atlantic League—and it's Class A professional, not Little League—Macon beat Greenville, 32 to 5. In breaking a 36-year-old league scoring record, Macon collected 28 hits and 19 walks.

But the lopsided score in the game between Macon and Greenville wasn't a record for organized baseball. Corsicana defeated Texarkana in a Texas League game, 51-3, on June 15, 1902, with catcher Nig Clarke getting eight home runs in eight times at bat.

THE MODERN major league record for most runs scored is 29 by the Boston Red Sox in a 29-4 romp over the St. Louis Browns in 1950, tied in 1955 by the Chicago White Sox in a 29-4 rout of Kansas City.

Thousands of grassland acres, farm home destroyed in fires

The last few days have been the most active in the history of the Post's Fire Department, with lightning fires being answered from Saturday morning and late Saturday night.

Most of the blazes have been grass fires, but one Sunday night fire destroyed the farm home of Doyle Young, 19 miles northwest of Post. Twice the firemen were summoned to extinguish automobiles on fire.

Two other house fires occurred on Monday both believed to have been caused by lightning. The H. Drake home about a mile north of Post was heavily damaged, with the contents of the living room destroyed and heavy smoke damage resulting.

Damage was confined to an electric range in another lightning-caused fire at a house far out on West 10th Street.

The scourge of grass fires—the likes of which the county has never seen before—continued yesterday, with Post firemen being called to four places and the Snyder Fire Department racing to one on the OC Ranch near Justiceburg.

The heaviest of Wednesday's grass fires, firemen said, was on the Koonsman Ranch, near the Garza-Borden County line. Other fires were on the Ed Sims Ranch, the Swenson Ranch and the Nance place, near Justiceburg.

The most destructive of the grass fires occurred early Saturday afternoon when an estimated 2,500 to 3,000 acres of grassland between Southland and Buenos Switch—a distance of several miles—were swept by fire.

Lightning is blamed for the fire that destroyed the Doyle Young home between 8 and 9 o'clock Sunday night.

In addition to the one-story frame house and all its contents, a pickup truck parked at the rear of the Young home was destroyed.

The Youngs, who had just moved into the home a few days before, discovered the fire as they were returning home from a trip to Post.

"We saw the fire as soon as the house came into sight just as we drove over a hill," Mrs. Young told The Dispatch yesterday. She said the southeast corner of the house was on fire.

Mrs. Young said they rushed in to carry out as many of the furnishings as they could, but quickly decided against it when they saw the furniture in the living room blazing.

They rushed to the home of Mrs. Young's father to use his telephone, but the line was out of order.

By the time telephone connections were established, the home was almost burned to the ground. There was nothing left to save either by the Spur Fire Department, which got there first, or by the Post firemen.

The firemen concentrated their efforts on the farm home's gas tank to keep it from exploding.

Mrs. Young said the loss of their home and possessions is partially covered by insurance.

A shower for the Young family is to be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the First Baptist Church, with everyone invited.

Two Post fire trucks were at the scene of the big grass fire between Southland and Buenos Switch for five hours Saturday before bringing it under control, with many of the property owners in the area assisting. Also on hand to help fight the wind-swept blazes was the Slaton Fire Department.

The series of grass fires began at 10:30 a. m. Saturday with a blaze north of the city dump grounds, reportedly caused by a "backlash" from burning trash. Very little acreage was destroyed, according to Fire Chief Robert Cato.

The fire between Southland and Buenos Switch broke out about 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

"There was fire as far as we could see ahead of us when we got there," Fire Chief Cato said.

At 11:05 a. m. Sunday, firemen extinguished a fire in an automobile parked at Parrish Grocery, with only slight damage reported.

At 6:45 p. m. firemen were called to put out a grass fire on Santa Fe right-of-way about one mile northwest of Post.

There was a lull until 9:55 a. m. Monday when firemen extinguished a fire in an automobile at the Garza Farm Store on South Avenue H, with only the car's upholstery being burned.

At 6:50 p. m. Monday—just before fire practice—two trucks were dispatched to a grass fire on the Robinson Ranch, east of Southland, but turned back before they got there because of a fire on the J. E. Birdwell ranch, east of Post. The local firemen turned back after being advised by radio that Slaton firemen were at the scene of the ranch fire near Southland.

Between 400 and 500 acres of grass were destroyed on the Birdwell ranch, with the fire being blamed on lightning.

At 4:45 p. m. Tuesday, the firemen were called back to the Buenos Switch area by another grass fire, with another large area being burned, but devastation not as great as in Saturday's fire.

Two hours later, firemen were called to a grass fire on the OC Ranch, near Justiceburg, but ranch hands had the blaze under control when they arrived.

At 9 p. m. firemen stopped a blaze on Double U Company land southwest of the Graham community after about 500 acres had been destroyed. Lightning is said to have caused the fire.

Deputy Sheriff found guilty of assault, battery

Deputy Sheriff Lloyd H. Merritt was found guilty of assault and battery by a Corporation Court jury yesterday morning and was fined $5.

Merritt immediately gave notice of appeal of the verdict, with the next level of appeal the county court.

Complaining witness against the deputy sheriff was Jackie Odom, 24, who testified that Merritt struck him in the face twice April 15 after he (Odom) had asked the officer "two or three times" if he could push a younger cousin's car off the K&K Food Mart lot, where it had been halted by the officer for having improper registration.

Warning System test due Friday

A danger alerting system was installed on the southwest side of the courthouse lawn and tested for the first time at 5:50 p. m. Friday.

The alerting system, which can be used throughout the town, was tested through the combined efforts of the county commissioners' and the city council.

At 5:50 p. m. a siren blared at a high pitch. This signal will alert the community in the event of a radiation fallout, tornado, or other disaster.

City to put non-fine-paying malefactors on manual labor

The city council Monday night adopted an ordinance providing for city prisoners unable to pay their fines to be required to "perform labor upon the cemetery, parks and other public projects of the City, or in which the City has an interest."

The ordinance provides that the non-fine-paying prisoners be "required to labor not less than eight nor more than ten hours per day, Sundays excepted." Also, that "one who refuses to labor or is otherwise refractory or insubordinate may be punished by solitary confinement on bread and water, or in such other arrangements made by the City Council."

In other action at their regular May meeting Monday night, the council decided to drill two additional wells in the city water field; adopted an ordinance providing for

Democratic convention to be held Saturday

The Garza County Democratic convention, with more than 50 official delegates expected to attend from the county's nine voting precincts, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in the district courtroom, N. C. Outlaw, county Democratic chairman, has announced.

The delegates to the county convention were elected Saturday at precinct conventions, which were fairly well attended and marked by harmony.

The county's biggest voting precinct, Post Box No. 1, named 22 delegates and nine alternates to the

Postings

The big story in today's Dispatch is the filing of a condemnation suit in Crosby County to secure the land needed for construction of the White River dam. It is important because getting this land had been holding up the actual construction stage of the big project for months. A commission will set a fair market price for the land and the district will be required to pay this price. But even if a contest develops, it can secure possession of the damsite at the end of the hearing and proceed with advertising for construction bids.

The Dispatch's two telephones were given a good workout by interested citizens Saturday night calling to see how the primary races in the county turned out. Despite a good turnout at the election party on the courthouse lawn, The Dispatch handled several hundred inquiries over a three-hour period. We ran an incomplete on Precinct 1—which didn't get to the courthouse until after midnight—just after the polls closed and had about 60 per cent of that vote figured into our totals all night. So we knew and told those who called how everything came out from 9:30 p. m. on. And as for the Sunday story in the Lubbock paper, The Dispatch staff had nothing to do with reporting that. Trying to get it right in The Dispatch is hard enough without taking the blame when our big neighbor up the road

Condemnation suit filed for White River dam site

The White River Municipal Water District yesterday afternoon filed condemnation proceedings against 1,906.71 acres of Crosby County land upon which the long-sought White River dam will be constructed.

The legal action was filed with Crosby County Judge Cecil Berry in Crosbyton after five months of direct negotiations for purchase of the property proved fruitless.

A 42-day waiting period will be required by law before a commission appointed by Judge Berry can hold a hearing and set a price on the land. The waiting period will be necessary because 10 of the 22 defendants in the action are not known and cannot be served legal notice except through newspaper publication.

This means that the hearing probably will be scheduled in early July. The district can take possession of the property at the conclusion of the hearing.

Bids then can be advertised for dam construction and for the building of the water pipelines to the towns of Post, Spur, Ralls, and Crosbyton.

Securing possession of the land has held up the actual letting of construction contracts for the dam and the water filtering plant at the dam site since the first of the year.

The district had to have possession of the land so prospective bidders can inspect the dam site in preparation of their bids.

WITH 30 DAYS advertising notice for bids, the long-awaited letting could come by mid-August with actual construction getting under way immediately thereafter.

The 22 defendants in the condemnation action include five dominant property owners, two lien holders, and the rest mineral interest holders.

The five dominant property owners involved are Mrs. Alleta Walker of Meadow, individually and as a guardian of the estate of Carl Glenn Walker, a minor; Alma Finley of Meadow; Mrs. Wanda Joyce Odle of Meadow; Mrs. Freda Cowden of Midland; and Mrs. Lee Nell Eubank of route 1, Texico, Tex.

Lien holders named in the action are the Great Southern Life Insurance Co. of Dallas and the Farmer's Home Administration, a de-

June 2 ballot is to list 9 runoff races

Approximately 1,440 Garza County Democratic voters went to the first primary polls Saturday to send one county and three precinct races into runoffs in the second primary election June 2.

It will be the most runoff races facing county voters in any election in recent years.

County-wide, there will be a runoff in the county judge's race between J. E. Parker, seeking reelection, and J. Lee Bowen, a former county judge for six terms.

Other runoffs will be in the Preinct 1 justice of the peace race between the incumbent, D. C. Roberts, and A. H. Nelson; in the Precinct 2 county commissioner's race between the incumbent, E. E. (Elva) Peel and A. P. (Chunk) Gurlv, and in the Precinct 4 commissioner's race between the incumbent, Mason Justice, and Sid Cross, a former county commissioner from that precinct.

Also appearing on the June 2 primary ballot for Garza County will be the names of runoff candidates John Connally and Don Yarborough for governor; Preston Smith and James A. Turman for lieutenant governor; Waggoner Carr and Tom Reavley for attorney general; Woodrow Beane and Joe Pool for congress-at-large, and David Ratliff and Truett Latimer for state senator.

The county Democratic Executive Committee met at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the offices of County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw to canvass the election returns.

The only change of any consequence was County Judge J. E. Parker picking up 20 votes over Saturday night's unofficial count in his race for re-election. County Supt. Dean A. Robison, unopposed in his bid for re-election, gained five votes in Tuesday's canvass to give him a 1,421 total.

Mayor appeals for allout conservation

Turn off your sprinkler. If you don't, the city could run out of water sometime Saturday.

Mayor Powell Shytles appealed today for drastic voluntary water conservation measures.

Yesterday, the city used 1,118,000 gallons of water. At present it can only pump about 900,000 daily. The day before the city used 1,112,000 gallons. It was using that day 122 gallons per minute more than it pumped.

The city water reservoir, which is 15 feet deep when full, was down to seven feet early this morning.

The long spring dry spell has made the water situation here very critical.

City officials are planning measures to boost the water pumping supply, but that can't help now. The only way to keep water in the lines and the mill operating is to turn off that sprinkler.

In the only local contested race besides those going into runoffs, Mrs. Wilburn Morris was elected Precinct 8 (South Post) Democratic precinct chairman over Julius Stelzer, 293 to 89.

In the county judge's race, voters gave Parker 642 votes, Bowen, 489, and A. C. Cooke, 308.

The two runoff candidates, Gurlv and Peel, led with 131 and 113 votes, respectively in the Precinct 2 commissioner race. Other votes were: G. A. (Buck) Harrison, 39; John N. Hopkins, 30; Nathan Little, 12; B. F. (Ben) Brewer, 69; Homer Gordon, 41; R. E. Josey, 91, and write-in candidate L. P. Kennedy Jr., 22.

In the Precinct 4 commissioner's race, Mason and Cross tied all the way. Each received two votes in the absentee box and 40 votes in the Justiceburg box.

Roberts received 301 votes in the race for Precinct 1 justice of the peace to 217 for his runoff opponent.

Cox is winner in GOP primary here

Garza County's first Republican primary Saturday drew only ten voters, but as GOP Chairman Giles McCrary points out it had no local races and was conducted only in order to comply with state election laws so the party's candidates will appear on November's general election ballot.

"It was necessary too," he said, "to be sure voters will have a conservative to vote for in November."

Jack Cox received eight votes for the gubernatorial nomination to only two for Roy Whittenburg.

Kellis Dibreil received 8 votes for lieutenant governor and O. W. (Bill) Hayes 2.

In the race for congressman-at-large nomination Desmond A. Barry received 7 votes to 2 for Joe B. Phillips and one for Giles Miller.

Republicans voted 7 to 1 in favor of horse race betting and split 4-4 on the poll tax. They favored a private park on Padre Island with 7 votes, 1 against any public parks, and 0 for a federal area.

$57,000 road project scheduled for Garza

A 2.7-mile project in the Justiceburg area is included in more than 1,200 miles of new farm-to-market roads to be constructed under a program announced today by the Texas Highway Commission.

Included for Garza County is 2.7 miles of grades, structures and surfacing east from U. S. Highway 84 at Justiceburg. Cost of the project is $57,000.

Classes start on radiation fallout

The Garza County Civil Defense Organization has received $2,000 worth of radiological survey meters and other equipment with which to train personnel to monitor fallout, contamination in food and water, and people themselves should atomic war come.

Arrival of the equipment last Friday brought the beginning of a 10-hour training course this week in use of the equipment for members of the fire department as well as representatives of the sheriff's office and city police force.

Kerwin Baxter, high school science teacher who attended an instructors course in radiological monitoring in California last summer, is teaching the course.
