Hunters warned of mail boxes

Hunting season is here, but postal authorities have warned, "Be certain your target is not a rural mail box before you shoot."

The penalty for shooting game out of season is not severe at all compared to shooting a mail box, says postal officials. Pranksters or vandals who wilfully damage or destroy mail receptacles are committing a federal offense and are liable to $1,000 fine or three years in prison.

Numerous complaints are received by the Post Office Department each year from rural patrons who have had their mail boxes or contents shot, tampered with, stolen or otherwise damaged. Chief Postal Inspector H. B. Depreciations Branch estimates that about 15,000 investigations made each year into wilful and malicious damage or destruction of rural and city mail boxes and contents.

Ranger

"... in the high tradition of the service."

In the early dawn of a summer day, 1911, four Texas Rangers stood guard over a new Red River bridge. Gov. Alfalfa Bill Murray of Oklahoma had opened it, in defiance of a Federal injunction. Gov. Ross Sterling of Texas ordered Ranger Capt. W. W. Sterling to close it. He did and it stayed closed. During the word war that followed, Capt. Sterling heard that Oklahoma's Adj. Gen. Barrett was dispatching the military to the scene. "If you're sending a brigade," Sterling told him, "I'll keep all four of us here. If it's only a regiment, I'll let a couple of my boys go home." William Warren Sterling, 1891-1960, was typical of the high tradition of the Rangers... strong, straight, colorful. Joining the service in 1911, he held every grade, becoming a Ranger Captain in 1927. Shortly after, Gov. Ross Sterling named him Adjutant General. Leaving state service in 1933, he later entered the Army and retired at a Colonel in 1944... another Ranger who makes Texans proud to be Texans.

Texas never could have become a great state without the courage and devotion to duty of her lawmen... nor without the commerce and industry that have provided prosperity and the good life. The brewing industry has provided payrolls and the pleasures of moderate beverages, revenue and relaxation. "Beer belongs." The United States Brewers Association is constantly at work with brewers, wholesalers, retailers and local authorities to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

CHRISTMAS SEAL DAYS

Gov. Price Daniel proclaimed Christmas Seal Days in Texas from Nov. 13 to Dec. 25, and urged all Texans to use Christmas Seals and thus support the TB-control work of the Texas Tuberculosis Association, and county TB associations. Shown with Gov. Daniel on the occasion of signing the Christmas Seal proclamation are two brothers who have a real interest in TB-control. They are Albert (right) and Alfred Flores Jr., whose grandmother, Mrs. Hilaria Munoz, has been a TB patient hospitalized in Austin for more than a year.

Prussic acid, after frost, could mean trouble for stock producers

COLLEGE STATION—Frost can be expected in most areas of the state any time now, and when it comes could mean trouble for livestock producers. Johnsongrass and sorghum sometimes develop a high prussic acid content after a frost, and if grazed by livestock, can cause a lot of trouble, warns Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian.
Certain chemical changes occur in the frost-wilted plants, and are responsible for the development of the prussic acid, Patterson explains. The poison acts quickly and can kill an animal within a very short time after the damaged plant is eaten. Whether a poisoned animal can be saved depends upon how quickly a veterinarian can get to it, Patterson says.
Frosted Johnsongrass or sorghum should not be grazed until it is completely dry, warns the veterinarian. If it is ready to cut for hay before a frost, it may be cut the first day after frost if care is taken to see that it is completely cured before baling.
Frost-wilted plants may also be used for silage. Generally, points out Patterson, enough prussic acid is lost in gaseous form during the ensiling process and as the silage is removed and fed to make safe for livestock. Animals should not be allowed to self-feed from a silo filled with frosted sudan or sorghum. If there is any doubt about the silage, it should be tested. This can be done by a veterinarian or by feeding the silage to one or two inferior animals.

For more details on the question of grazing and/or the harvesting and storing of frost-wilted plants, Patterson suggests a visit with a local veterinarian or county agent.

Hunting, fishing big U. S. business

COLLEGE STATION—There must be something to these outdoor sports of hunting and fishing, says Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist. According to a survey conducted recently by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, he says some 30 million people in the United States hunt and fish, and that fishermen outnumber the hunters by about two to one.
About $4 billion are poured into the American economy each year by these outdoorsmen, says Cooper. This money is spent mainly for equipment, transportation, food and lodging, lease fees and licenses. American fishermen spent about $3 billion in 1960, while hunters spent $1 billion. Combined, they traveled 13.2 billion automobile miles.
The number of women hunters increased from 418,000 in 1955 to 860,000 in 1960, Cooper continues.
Considering these impressive increases in the amount of time, money and effort spent on hunting and fishing, Americans should look to the future and give serious thought to the conservation of our wildlife and fisheries resources.
If future generations are to enjoy these great outdoor sports, everything possible must be done to conserve fish and game. This can be done through respect for hunting and fishing regulations, management of wildlife on farms and ranches and general support of conservation activities everywhere, points out Cooper.
It would be sad indeed if our grandchildren were denied the pleasure of telling about the big ones that got away, concludes the specialist.

Biology projects being worked on

By Sue Howell
Identification tests over the external and internal anatomy of the grasshopper, perch and frog have been the main topic of discussion in Biology this week.

Students have been holding their noses in order to stand the smell of formaldehyde, but other than the smell, the students are enjoying the parts of animals and learning it.

Many students are starting on their term projects. Among some of the more interesting projects are the following:

Wayne Masters: Construction of an artificial kidney.
Betty Jo Hill: Photography of nature.
Lynette Potts: Plant fossils.
Danny Richardson: Feeding experiments with white mice.
Nita Wilson: The development of the chicken egg.
Tom Campbell: Tropical fish.
Argan Robinson: The evolution of man.
Linda Pennell: The heart; structure and functions.
Wendell Johnson: Pigeons; activities and habits.
Each student is required to have a term project in addition to collecting 50 arthropods and 50 leaves.

English students attend Rathbone program at Tech

Tommy Bouchier, Wayne Gambelin, Roger Camp, John Anderson, and Bobby Hudman went to Lubbock, Nov. 7 to see "An Evening With Basil Rathbone," presented by the Tech Union of Texas Technological College.

One of the selections was from Macbeth which the English IV students had memorized. It was the dagger scene. One of the poems read was "Annabelle Lee" by Edgar Allan Poe.

Mrs. King's English II classes have just finished reading "Julius Caesar" by Shakespeare and are very glad that they have finished it.

Mrs. Ryder's English III classes turned in their projects. Their projects were term themes on American authors.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Raw vegetables and fruit are necessary to a balanced diet

According to an advertisement for a book extolling the virtues of fruit and vegetable juices, fresh raw juice can be described as Nature's atomic cleanser and fresh raw vegetable juice as its atomic regenerator.

Such statements have little basis in fact although raw vegetables and fruit are necessary to a balanced diet supplementing other kinds of food.

Relying on a single food or food group is a common type of food fad practiced in the United States. There are dozens of fad diets—high protein, no starch, no meat, yogurt—many of which incorporate the use of supporters or so-called food supplements. Food supplements come in many forms. They can be taken as a liquid, a powder mixed with liquid or—most common—as vitamin pills.

The advertising of some dietary supplements proclaim the fact that they are derived from natural vegetable foods which are grown only with organic fertilizers and never exposed to any insect or other spray.

The fact is vitamins, no matter what their original source, constitute only the value of the actual vitamins, minerals or other nutrients from which they are compounded. In other words—vitamin B1 is the same whether it is chemically produced or broken down from an organic food source.

The American food supply is the best in the world. Adequate use of common foods such as vegetables, fruits, milk, eggs, meats, fish and whole grain or enriched bread and cereals, will supply all nutritional needs of the majority of persons. Yet millions of Americans are wasting money on various special foods and vitamin mixtures.

High pressure selling frightens people into false belief that their diets lack necessary vitamins and minerals. Phony "nutrition experts" frequently quote reliable scientific authorities in a misleading way.

Many products called "health foods" or dietary supplements are falsely promoted as fountains of youth and general cure-alls for every kind of disease.

If for some reason an individual feels he may require a vitamin supplement, a physician should be consulted to determine what deficiency if any, the person has. Then the doctor can prescribe the correct vitamin or mineral.

Do You Think?

By Sherry Woods
Do you think Coach Hahn was ever a music teacher?
That Mrs. Baxter ever made low grades in Language?
That Mrs. Lobban ever had a white car?
That Mrs. Williams ever gave a hard test?
That Mrs. Wristen was ever a cheerleader?
That Mr. Kountz ever made noise in class?
That Mr. Meisch ever played football?
That Mr. Wilson was ever a basketball coach?
That Mrs. Teal ever had an overdue book?
That Coach Loyd ever laughed at anyone else's jokes?
That Mr. Stone could direct a band?
That Mrs. Florence ever taught math?

Then they forgot about the salt

Kissing is just so much chemistry. It has to do with a craving for salt.

So says Douglas Walkington, a chemist for Canadian Industries, Ltd. The history of a kiss, he claims, goes like this:
The cave man found salt helped him to cool off in the summer heat. He found too that he could get salt by licking his neighbor's cheek.
It was then discovered that the process was more interesting if the neighbor was of the opposite sex.
Then everybody forgot about the salt.

Mr. Hahn also told of the President's speech and letter to all schools on physical fitness.
We all hope to have many more programs just as interesting.

DESCRIPTIVE PARAGRAPH

By Roger Kirby
This place has the largest mouth I've ever seen. Its mouth is about the size of two of these school buildings. It's so big I don't know its shape. It's more colorful than any flower I've ever seen. The inside is like heaven, it's so beautiful, with its high rocks, white rooms, green water and its 80-foot ceilings. In the bottom it's as cool as being in front of an air-conditioner. Many people have been there since it was discovered and it's worth every penny they paid to see it. What is it?—Carlsbad Caverns.

Basketball girls attend clinic at Wayland College

At 3 p. m., the basketball games started. First was Sundown vs. Tullia, then Friona vs. Claude, Flying Queens vs. Queen Bees, Sudan vs. Happy and Abernathy vs. Dimmitt.

Commercial Dept. stocked with 23 new typewriters

By Donna Robison
This week, in the Typing room, there are 23 new Underwood typewriters.

The students are having a hard time learning where all the basic keys are because these typewriters have added a number one on the top row of keys and the students can't seem to catch onto the idea that that key isn't a two.

Actually though, we appreciate the new typewriters very much and the fact that they are new adds a little something to the morale of the students, who seem to be in some sort of grind about typing. But when they start typing on the new typewriters, I'm sure they will start trying again.

STUDENT EDITORIAL

THE MEANING OF SCHOOL SPIRIT

By Charlotte Taylor
All of us who attend Post High School are familiar with the term, "school spirit." Yet it is quite difficult for any of us to say exactly what we mean by "school spirit." It really doesn't mean any one thing. It means a number of things.

When we say, "They have a wonderful school spirit at such a good school, college or university, we mean that everyone at that school is concerned about whether the school has a good name; that the students and faculty cooperate with each other in every way possible; that each student loyally supports the school and all school activities; that the school is kept as clean as possible; and that the student body is so warm and friendly that new students feel as if they are wanted.

We mean all of these things and many more when we talk about "school spirit." This person would like to say that she hasn't seen any better anywhere than at P. H. S.

SEE Texas FIRST

Free Vacation in Texas
Texas is praised throughout the nation as one of the most ideal vacation spots. In praising Texas, vacationers, in praising Texas, have in mind the good high-ways, healthy climate, modern accommodations, friendly people and unobtrusive cost of living—rather, the cost of the vacationing tourists. Many of the vacationing tourists who praise Texas laws that allow them to fish for just $2.15 per year, at the same rate as native Texans. It is unique in this respect as Texas is the only state that penalizes tourists with most states penalize tourists with excessive fishing license charges. Some ingenious tourists have even learned how to make Texas "ideal vacationland" into a "free vacationland." They simply pay an excise tax of 85 cents for a commercial fishing license and then sell their catch. All this time they get to do exactly what they want—fish in some of the most productive fishing waters in the nation.

Lamar County Heroes
First Anglo-American settlement in Lamar County, in Northeast Texas on the Oklahoma border, was in 1821. It was comprised of the families of J. G. W. Pierson, Luke and John Roberts and the Mason brothers. Within a year, an Indian raid snuffed out the lives of all the men, children and slaves. Raid took place during the men's absence. Five of the men pursued the Indians but being outnumbered, they fell victims to the hostile band. A highway marker now stands at the site of their settlement, 17 miles northeast of Powderly, Texas. The marker reads, "Be silent, friend! Here heroes died to blaze trail for other men."

Some Men Never Die
It is said that two things are rare on this earth—death and taxes. Though death may be sure, it is not so certain just how you'll be remembered after death. But some men, like William "Bill" Goyens, will never die. They live on forever, in the hearts of their men. Goyens' body now lies in a cemetery four miles west of Nacogdoches in the central portion of East Texas. His gravestone tells his story well: "Born a slave in South Carolina, 1814, escaped to Texas in 1821, rendered valuable assistance to the army of Texas, 1836, interpreter of the Houston-Forbes Treaty, with the Cherokees, 1836, acquired wealth and was noted for his charity, died at his home on Goyens' Hill, 1856. His skin was black, his heart, true blue."

Are You An Amichelian?
Although there is some doubt as to who was the first white person to tour Texas, it probably was Alonzo Alvarez de Pineda, the Spanish explorer. Pineda was sent here by the governor of Jamaica to explore the Gulf Coast. Pineda named all the vast Gulf coast land "Amichel."
So, Texans came mighty close to being called Amichelians, rather than Texans.

Texas—Best in Nation
There are more than 700 roadside parks along Texas highways. All offer complete picnicking facilities. Many have drinking water and firewood.
No other state is so well blessed with these wonderful facilities to make your traveling more enjoyable. These parks are a mighty welcome sight when you need that restful nap or that thirst quenching drink of water, or that delicious picnic lunch or dinner.
It's often said that there's more to see in Texas! Thanks to Texas highways and roadside parks you can also see it better.
Had His Pick
Along our Rio Grande River, many relics and ruins have been uncovered proving that a prehistoric culture inhabited that part of Texas for centuries.
After all, prehistoric men had the whole world to choose from, didn't they?
All of which goes to prove that Texas has been a preferred place to live for longer than most of us realize.

Who Named Baylor?
Baylor University, at Waco, was named for an outstanding Judge. He was Dr. Robert Emmett Bledsoe Baylor. How that came to pass is an interesting story.
The man who placed the Baylor name on this great educational institution was William Melton Tryon. He was the second missionary sent to Texas by the American Baptist Home Mission Society. He was a leader in church and state and was the chaplain in the Congress of the Republic of Texas.
Tryon, who first originated the idea of a Baptist university in Texas, was made a member of the committee appointed to secure the university charter from the Republic of Texas.
Tryon rejected Judge Baylor's suggestion that the school be named Tryon and into the application wrote "Baylor."
Tryon then served as the first permanent President of the Board of Trustees of Baylor University.

AMARILLO VISITORS
Raymond Robinson and family of Amarillo spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Robinson. He was also here to attend the Robinson family reunion held Sunday in the 4-H Club Building.

DAUGHTERS VISIT
Mrs. C. W. Terry had as her guests Sunday her daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Bivens of Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Weathersbee and children, Tommy and Leigh Ann of Floydada.

There were 1,345 accidental home deaths in Texas in a recent typical year. This compared with 2,519 accidental motor-vehicle deaths.

"SMALL BUSINESS"
BY C. WILSON HARDER

It will be interesting to watch what transpires in the meeting of the British Parliament which is starting session a week earlier than planned due to pressure from the opposition to the present government.

A major issue before it will be the same one that has been an issue in Congress for some time... that is wrecking protective tariffs.

But unlike the U. S., the British have not permitted their tariffs to be tampered with to any extent. But C. W. Harder now the present government has announced plans to put Britain into the European Common Market, which is composed of most of the West European nations and provides that they trade back and forth without import duties.

Although the average British income is less than half that of the U. S. it is still double, or triple that of the other European countries. In addition, Britain does not have the unemployment problem of Italy and some of the other nations.

Just as U. S. tariffs were slashed, in some cases to the bone to virtually destroy entire American industries in the basis that it was a move to help bring peace to the world, so are present British government leaders trying to sell idea England in the common market would promote peace.

Of course, there are many British monopolies, with plant investments in these dirt cheap labor nations who would like to bring the products of those plants into U. S.

But it would appear that the British people are buying none of this. They, of course, applauded the cutting of American tariffs to permit their products to replace American made ones, but they just can't see it happening to them.

Mass demonstrations have been held. Conservative members of the House of Lords, left wing members of the House of Commons, major labor leaders with the exception of those alleged to have communist sympathies, have joined hands to oppose this move.

Viscount Hinchinbrooke, member of present Tory government says "We have to support our country and its standards of living with tariffs."

Other leaders claim that the reason for the move is American pressure on the present British government.

In addition, the British Commonwealth composed of Canada, Australia, and other independent British dominions who have trade agreements with England have sounded warnings on the matter. For some time these nations have had trade agreements with England.

They have virtually sent notice that they will not open their borders to a flood of imports from the European cheap labor countries.

It will be interesting to watch.

British pressure had a great deal to do with the slashing of American tariffs, but apparently in this case, what is sauce for the goose is not necessarily sauce for the gander.

Splitting Hairs???

Single muscle fibers, no thicker than a human hair, are under investigation at the Institute for Muscle Disease in New York City. The special equipment required for the unusual experiments was designed and built at the IMD, the only research center in the world devoted solely to the study of muscle and its diseases. The Institute was built and is maintained by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America.

To the average reader, getting out a 16-page weekly should be no chore at all. It's a misconception which has existed for a long time—and probably one that will go on existing for a long time to come. Actually, we are a "four days a week daily". We go to press—on our four-page press—with the first run on Monday afternoon with pages 2, 3, 7, 12, 13, and 16; and on Tuesday morning with pages one (front page), four (want ads), five (Society), and eight (front page remover or "jump" page).

When we move up that schedule a day and get involved skipping Sunday it means getting up a four page run to run Saturday, four more on Monday, four on Tuesday, and four on Wednesday. It means the Tuesday noon advertising deadline is advanced to Monday noon (a quite impossible situation), the want ad deadline and society copy deadline moves up to Tuesday noon and that the front page is written, edited, headlined, and all Tuesday afternoon.

It never works out very smoothly—and that's why we really appreciate everyone's cooperation during Thanksgiving Week. It means our rural correspondents for example need to get their copy to us Monday afternoon, instead of Tuesday afternoon—a recognized chore because they need to spend Monday calling for items, writing them, and having them ready for rural carriers on Tuesday morning. Move that up 24 hours and what do you have—real difficulty for everyone.

Trying to explain how a weekly newspaper has to be smoothly meshed and geared to actually get out on the street at the same time each week is so difficult we have always hesitated to attempt it. But once we got into the prestige page as angle of advertising, we decided to go right ahead and try to get the message across. Your help next week will be appreciated.

When Bob Collier made his talk to Rotary club Tuesday noon it was suggested in his introduction that the members should all rise and sing Bob's favorite song, "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You." A spirited Texas U. alumus, Bob has the club singing the song more often than anything else but "America." Bob refused to say anything about the nation's No. 1 football team—he said he didn't want to jinx those Longhorns. But when he got through the talk, he got everybody on their feet for one more round of "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You." It's mighty hard, Rotarians have found out, to refuse a fellow as enthusiastic about the University of Texas as Bob is. And by this time about everybody is rooting for the Longhorns to bring that national grid championship to Texas—where it belongs.

White River meet is here tonight

The White River Municipal Water District's board of directors will hold their November meeting here in City Hall tonight at 6:30 p. m.

A report from the land committee is expected to lead to a determination of procedures and timetable to proceed with the purchase of the land needed for the dam site.

Directors already have indicated condemnation proceedings will be taken in district court if the sale of the land cannot be negotiated with the landholders involved.

The district is now setting its own pace on the project as the five-year-long battle for $4,000,000 in financing is over. The district has negotiated the full loan from the state and will receive the major portion of the money Feb. 1. It already has sufficient funds for the land purchases.

Negotiations with landowners have already begun. Progress, if any, will be reported tonight by the land purchase committee headed by Marvin McLaughlin, Ralls banker.

Norm Cash fourth in MVP balloting

Detroit first baseman Norman Cash, the American League's batting champion, finished fourth yesterday in voting for the AL's "Most Valuable Player" award.

Roger Maris of the New York Yankees, the only man to hit 61 home runs in a major league season, won the MVP award for the second straight year.

Mickey Mantle, also of the Yankee club, finished second in the voting, receiving 198 points to his teammate's 202.

Jim Gentile, Baltimore Orioles' first baseman, was third, narrowly nosing out Cash, who received 151 points.

The ballots were cast by the MVP committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

The board voted to permit Powell Shytles of Shytles Implement Co. use of the half block east of the primary building for a period not to exceed 90 days. The board president said Shytles wants to use the area for a farm implement auction sale.

The board also voted to pay the doctor and hospital bills of Homer Carter, who suffered a hand injury early last summer while working in the woodworking shop at the high school. The amount of the bills is $226.16.

FAMILY GUIDE

Why not write out a personal record for those who must settle your estate after you are gone? This, over and above your will. One man sat down in front of a microphone and made a tape for the advice of his family.

Well, however you do it, list the names, addresses, birth dates of yourself, your wife or husband, your children, father, and mother.

Tell them the names of your trusted friends who can advise them.

Write in clear detail where to find:

Your will, your executor's name and the banker who knows your business affairs.

Your certificate of birth, marriage, veterans' discharge and such papers;

Your deposit box and its key; The amount and beneficiary of each of your insurance policies, your insurance agents and their addresses;

Details about your mortgage, papers, notes, contracts, financial agreements, plus any stocks, bonds and the like, and your broker's name and address;

Facts on your Social Security—your card number, its location, and your employer's name and address;

Your tax records; Your debtors, creditors and what is owed;

Your lawyer's name, address, telephone, and papers in his safe-keeping;

The name and address of a ny one who has your power of attorney;

Your pension arrangements; The names of organizations to which you belong and any benefits which may be coming to your family from them;

Funeral arrangements you prefer;

Names and addresses of relations or friends you wish notified;

Facts about your children's health record, facts they might find hard to get without your help;

A list of your personal belongings;

Include other facts that seem important.

Then, having completed this guide for your family, put it in a safe place—but not your safe deposit box. Tell your family or closest friend where to find the list.

These are the products of man's labor—and God's. From the moment the seedlings were placed in the warm earth, they have been under constant care.

First came the rain and the sun—and then the ceaseless work of fertilizing, cultivating, and spraying. Last, came harvest time, when the proud growers gathered the rewards of their labor.

Only by such diligence can we hope for a truly bountiful crop. God has given the refreshing rain and warm sunshine, but He expects us to do our part.

And so it is with the care and cultivation of our spiritual lives. Man is endowed with many talents and qualities, but unless he tends and nurtures these gifts, they will not increase and grow.

Harvest time in the life of every person is at maturity, when men are at the peak of their usefulness and wisdom. By attending the services of the Church and by studying the Scriptures, we will realize greater happiness and contentment here on earth—and will be preparing ourselves for the RICH HARVEST of a life hereafter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rural housing loans for non-farming areas

Farmers Home Administration has expanded its services to farmers and ranchers to include a Rural Housing Loan program, County Supervisor, Milton F. Wilfong of Garza and Crosby counties has announced.

The rural housing loans are made to eligible farm owners and owners of non-farm tracts in rural areas and small rural communities with a population of not more than 2,500.

Soldier takes part in rifle matches

7TH INF. DIV., KOREA—Army Pfc. Felix Bustos, whose wife, Basilia, lives in Post, Tex., recently participated in the 7th Infantry rifle matches in Korea.

The purpose of the matches, part of the 7th's rifle and pistol matches, was to select personnel to represent the division in the Eighth U. S. Army automatic rifle matches which will be held early in 1962. Winners of these matches will compete in the All-Army National Rifle Association championships at Camp Perry, Ohio, next summer.

An automatic rifleman in Company B of the division's 3d Infantry, he entered the Army in April 1960, completed basic training at Fort Benning, Ga., and arrived overseas last March.

or a non-farmer if he owns the tract, either a farm or non-farm, on which the house is to be built, and the town may be unincorporated or incorporated.

Maximum size house for the loan is 1,400 square feet of living area. Loans can also be made for repair to homes and for construction or repair of other essential farm buildings. Loans can be made up to 100 per cent of the cost of the house and at 4 per cent interest payable in as many as 33 years.

Other loans made by the Farmers Home Administration are the Water Development and Soil Conservation Loan. These loans are made to eligible individuals and groups of farmers and rural residents to develop water supply systems for irrigation, household use and livestock and to carry out soil conservation practices.

Another type of loan Farmers Home Administration makes are the Farm Ownership Loans. The amount of money Farmers Home Administration can lend to buy a farm has also been increased. The prior limit was $40,000. This has been increased to $60,000. Wilfong was careful to state that although the limit has been raised, the land must still be appraised and a loan cannot be made above the agricultural value of the land.

Another type of loan Farmers Home Administration makes is the Operating Loan. This loan is also made to eligible operators of farms not larger than family farms, to assist them in making improved use of their land and labor resources, or the necessary adjustment for successful farming.

When a man goes from the central Standard Time zone—say, from Oklahoma City to New York City—he has to move his watch forward an hour. Of course, when he heads back to Oklahoma City, he changes his watch back and so he regains the hour.

But what about the people who move to New York City? They lose the hour and they never get it

Gulf crew drilling 70 miles offshore

Drilling crews in the Gulf of Mexico are at work on a new offshore drilling rig that is located a record 70 miles from shore.

A group of companies have joined in erecting the rig in 180 feet of water. It is a wildcat—a well drilled in unexplored territory.

Four additional wells will be drilled from the same platform in hopes of finding oil. It is expected that the initial well will be drilled to 14,000 feet.

back. They have been deprived of 60 minutes. Congress should do something to compensate them for their loss.

When it comes to music, I suppose I would be classed as a middle-brow or less. My preference is for ballads with a somewhat mournful or wistful refrain such as "I Don't Know Where or When," "The Waiting Game" and "In November, in the Rain"—and the romantic type such as "Love Nest," "For You," "At the End of the Day" and "Kiss Me Again"; and the lively kind like "Singing in the Rain" and "Headin' for the Last Roundup."

Also just about any song from "Oklahoma!" or "South Pacific"—and of course two original Casa Manana hits, "One More Mountain" and "The Night Is Young."

So majestic and impressive was Louis XIV, "the Grand Monarch" of France that people, viewing him in his casket, were surprised to discover how short he was.

One person's opinion: It is almost impossible for a man to smoke a cigar without appearing self-conscious.

A cigaret, yes; a pipe, yes—but the cigar is either clamped between the teeth in the corner of the mouth or else is held, between puffs, at arm's length and ostentatiously moved around.

Peace Corps entrance tests will be given

Postmaster Harold Voss announced today that the entrance test for the Peace Corps will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28 and 29, 1961.

Within a few days information showing the place and time for the examination in this area will be posted on the bulletin board of the local post office, including stations and branches.

Those interested in taking the test are asked to watch for complete information at their post office.

Postmaster Voss added that he would inform the press when the information has been received.

Farmers and ranchers are among best customers for U. S. Savings Bonds

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Farmers and ranchers have been among the best customers for U. S. Savings Bonds since 1941, the Treasury Department said today in a 20th anniversary bond salute to the farm community.

The statement, carried in a public service newspaper ad announcing November as "Farm Month" in the bond program's anniversary calendar, pointed out that one-third of all cash reserves owned by farmers and ranchers is in the form of E and H Savings Bonds.

"Bonds owned by farmers have their work cut out for them," the message said. "They replace machinery, pay for new land, provide insurance against the risks of farming. They get personal assignments, too, like sending the youngsters to college . . . Savings Bonds are a crop that never fails." Responding to the Treasury's tribute, leaders of the nation's three major farm organizations gave testimonials to the attractiveness of Savings Bonds to farmers. Statements by James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union; Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; and Hershel D. Newsum, Master of the National Grange, called bonds "an investment in America herself . . . best 'hired hand' in the business and said farmers' current investment of $5.2 billion "is bute both to their thrift habit to Bonds."

Poe's most famous terror classic now showing at Tower

"The Pit and the Pendulum," which shows at the Tower Theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday, brings to the screen Edgar Allan Poe's most famous terror classic, which proudly takes its place beside that studio's previous Poe tale, "The House of Usher."

The story is laid in 16th century Spain and the film's sets, trappings, and costumes present that period with all its ornate beauty and foreboding brought to life in magnificent color.

With Vincent Price heading the cast and portraying the Spanish nobleman tormented to madness, are stars John Kerr as Francis, who has journeyed from England to unravel the mysteries of the death of his sister, played by Barbara Steele. Luana Anders has a sympathetic role as the sister of the Spaniard who shares his dread secret. Antony Carbone is seen as Dr. Leon, long-time friend of the family, and Patrick Westwood is cast

I've lived most of my life in and Texas in what is known as the Valley. I've spent about 10 years of that time in a storm. U.S. WELLS ARE DRILLED IN TEXAS

TEXAS MID-CONTINENT OIL & GAS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—What happened to the million tourists who did not come to Texas this year?

That question faces a Statewide conference of "Texans for Tourism" called for Nov. 28 in Austin, by Gov. Price Daniel.

Since 1957, the number of tourists coming to Texas has steadily declined. Gov. Daniel always has felt that Texas should match the advertising programs of other states.

Nationally, tourism is the third largest industry. In Texas, it ranks 11th.

Texas voters amended the constitution in 1958 to allow state money to be spent to attract tourists.

At two sessions of the Legislature have declined to appropriate the money.

Charged with responsibility of promoting tourism in Texas is the State Highway Department.

The upcoming all-day session is designed to build grassroots support for legislation to finance a program of advertising.

AN INCREASE in highway fatalities this year, after a 26 per cent decline in past years, disturbs the state's chief policeman, Col. Homer Harrison Jr. of the Department of Public Safety.

Present statistics indicate the number of deaths in 1961 will be 25 more than the 2,254 of 1960.

Colonel Harrison has sent out word for his men to redouble their efforts to remove the unsafe and reckless drivers from the highways.

Program includes more use of radar equipment to check speeds, especially the new type which requires only one highway patrolman per car. It also includes more stopping of drivers to make sure they hold drivers licenses.

Tougher enforcement policy will be followed by Gov. Daniel's annual Christmas traffic safety drive starting with Safety Sunday—Dec. 3.

Gov. Daniel urged pastors to remind their members of their personal and moral obligation to drive safely.

MORE AND more people are using the state park system for overnight camping.

Bill M. Collins, executive director of the State Parks Board, reports that 208,419 persons registered overnight camp facilities in Texas parks during the fiscal year which ended Aug. 31. This is far above the 297,418 of the previous year.

Attracting the greatest number were the rugged canyons of Garner State Park. Gain there was 70 per cent, or an increase to 138,951 from 99,731, during 1961. Palo Duro Canyon and Huntsville State Parks also showed substantial gains in campers.

PERSONNEL OF the important State Board of Water Engineers has undergone a shake-up.

Gov. Daniel has moved Chairman Durwood Manford to the State Board of Insurance, which is troubled by several legislative investigations. Manford, a former speaker of the House of Representatives, can be expected to work on Board-Legislature relations.

To replace Manford, Daniel chose as chairman of the Board of Water Engineers Joe D. Carter of Sherman. He moved him from his present job as executive director of the Texas Water Development Board, the state water lending agency.

Carter has been in state water work since 1952. He has served as legal counsel for the Texas Water Resources Committee; legal examiner for the Board of Water Engineers; and as the first executive secretary of the Water Development Board. He is an attorney and a former representative and senator.

H. A. Beckworth of Eagle Pass was named to the Board of Water Engineers. He previously served 10 years on the board. Since 1958 he has been its chief topographic engineer. R. M. Dixon of Dallas leaves the board.

The Board of Water Engineers is the state's water administrative and planning board. It decides who can take water from Texas streams. It also has worked out a master plan for meeting the needs of the state for municipal and industrial water for the year 1980.

CITY OFFICIALS had their annual meeting, and heard Gov. Daniel give support to their main thesis—that cities need new sources of revenue if they are to handle the growing problems caused by Texans moving to town.

Most likely avenue is the movement to have the state abandon the property tax, so it can be used exclusively for city and school purposes. The State and Local Tax Study Commission created by the Legislature in 1959 is specifically directed to report on this possibility.

Speaker James A. Turman filled two vacancies on that study group. He named Reps. Charles L. Sandahl of Austin and Charles N. Wilson of Trinity to work with senators and citizens who have been named to it by Gov. Daniel and former Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey.

In addition to reporting on the idea of state abandonment of the ad valorem tax, now bringing in about $40,000,000 a year, the commission will report on whether other new tax sources should be granted to cities which need them.

Most startling tax news came from James McGrew, research director for the Texas Research League. He said it is a very close question whether the new sales tax will produce enough state revenue in the two years starting Sept. 1, 1963, to keep the state's books in the black. The big factor—steady and heavy growth of public schools and colleges.

ENROLLMENTS IN the 19 colleges and universities operated by the state government rose sharply this year—about 11 per cent.

Total head count at the 19 schools this fall was 100,982. This compares with 91,960 a year ago and 2,568 only 10 years ago.

Addition of the University of Houston to the list of state supported colleges in 1963 will give the state school total a big jump. It is 11,680 enrollment this fall makes it the second largest in the state, second only to the University of Texas' 20,396.

Texas Tech at Lubbock has become the third largest with 10,212 enrolled.

Colleges and universities which are not state-supported showed a smaller gain than the state schools—from 59,036 to 60,924. One factor in the change was the move of Midwestern University at Wichita Falls into the state-supported group.

Fastest-growing college is Arlington State. It had 1,318 students 10 years ago and now has 8,318 to rank it fifth largest. Right behind is Texas A & M, which has 8,835 students this fall.

THE STATE Board of Insurance urged all insurance companies to extend by 60 days the 90-day period allowed under Texas standard policies for filing proofs of loss on Hurricane Carla.

While it was not an order, it is fairly certain the industry will obey the Board's suggestion voluntarily.

Legislative investigation was completed on the claim-paying practices arising out of Carla. Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, chairman of the House Investigation Committee, suggested strongly that some legislation should result.

Legislators were particularly critical of the fact that the Texas policy carries the word "hurricane" on the front, but also carries an endorsement which limits the coverage somewhat.

They also found many Texas do not have their insurance policies because mortgage companies require that the policy be filed with them. Legislators suggested that copies be supplied the homeowners, too. Some insurance companies do, and some do not.

STUDIES BY the State Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners reveal that 24,613 vocational nurses have been licensed in Texas since 1951. Also 103 training schools now are in operation over the state. Examinations on Oct. 20 and 21 resulted in licensing of 656 candidates.

It now takes one year in a vocational nurses school or two years in a professional nursing school to become eligible to take the state board examinations.

THE BLOCKADE

It is the generally expressed wish of the people, so far as we have heard, that the blockade should be kept up for a year at least. Never was anything done for this country which proved of such advantage to it as this suspension of foreign intercourse.

Our people are learning to be independent. Bounties to home industry, the patent office, donations of land to manufacturers, all amount to nothing compared to the blockade. We are making everything we want to wear. Our own products are supplying us with food and luxuries. There is money enough in the country for reasonable wants. Let the blockade be kept up. If the war continues, as it is likely to for years to come, the success that will finally attend it will be due to the blockade more than to any other enterprise of the enemy. —The Weekly Telegraph.

For 1962...an all-new kind of Ford!

the car that's just right for just about everybody

You've never seen anything like it, because there's never been anything like it... until today. On the outside the new Ford Fairlane 500 measures a quick 197 inches from stem to stern. A good foot shorter than the cars from which it borrowed its name, it calls the suggest parking places home. At the same time, on the inside the new Fairlane 500 is every inch as big as some of the biggest Fords ever built.

The new Fairlane 500 is priced way under previous Fairlanes, well under many compacts. But Fairlane economy doesn't stop with a pretty price tag. It runs to amazing gas savings—with the world's first economy V-8 or the nickel-nursing Fairlane Six. Routine service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, only twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. And it adjusts its own brakes.

County employs a new auditor

The Garza County Commissioners Court at its November meeting this week employed a new auditor, M. E. West of Lubbock, to make the county's next annual audit.

In the newspaper advertising business, we attach real "prestige importance" to a full page ad. The reader is thoroughly convinced something really "big" is going on at any store when he sees the merchant take a full page to tell his customers about it.

Page ads are especially effective in smaller papers—like The Dispatch—which aren't thick and bulky and which don't have enough big merchants advertising regularly to spread such page advertisements all through the paper.

It isn't often when a merchant in our size town feels he has an event of such importance as to take—not one, but two full pages of advertising, known in the newspaper trade as "a double truck." But that's what happened this week when the Hudman Furniture Company purchased pages 12-13 in the Dispatch to inform you all about the many bargains in their annual "Once A Year Sale."

Both pages are loaded with bargains right out of the regular stock of the Hudman brothers who in the past year have doubled the size of their store—and its stock of good furniture in all price ranges. The big "once a year" event opens at 9 a. m. tomorrow, and as Victor and Marvin Hudman point out its right time to start your own Christmas shopping spree.

While we're on the subject of the newspaper business, we'd like to emphasize that next week The Dispatch will publish on Wednesday, instead of Thursday, because of the Thanksgiving holiday. That means that the staff here at The Dispatch will start to print next week's paper on Saturday instead of Monday. It means that the deadlines are all (See POSTINGS, page 8)

THANKSGIVING BIG HOLIDAY

Thanksgiving Day—next Thursday—will be a Chamber of Commerce holiday and most local stores and places of business will be closed.

The Dispatch will publish next week's edition on Wednesday to give the newspaper's employees Thanksgiving away from their normal duties.

This will be moving ahead all a day earlier. People with news items, want ads, or other material for next week's paper are asked to get it in as early as possible.

This brought the year's rainfall total to 22.02 inches, which is nearly three inches above the through-November normal of 19.42 inches. Until being halted by the wet weather, Garza County's six gins and the Hackberry Gin, which

Trustees accept resignation of assistant coach

The board of trustees of Post Independent School District accepted the 1960-61 audit, accepted the resignation of assistant football coach Gerald Loyd and elected a Lincoln Elementary School teacher as the major items on the agenda at the regular November meeting Monday night.

In other action, the board signed a contract with Pritchard & Abbott, tax evaluation engineers, for another year, voted to build walks from the elementary and primary buildings to the new bus loading zone, and voted to permit use of the one-half block east of the primary school for a 90-day period.

After accepting the 1960-61 audit, prepared by Harold P. Wine, the board voted to employ Wine for another year as school auditor.

Included in the 1960-61 audit accepted by the board was a statement of the school district's cash receipts and disbursements, which is published on page 14 of today's Dispatch.

Cash Loyd, whose letter of resignation was read by board president E. R. (Buster) Moreland, is resigning to accept a position with a boys' club at Farmington, N. M. He is in his third year here as assistant football coach and track coach.

Robert Baker, who has been teaching at the Lincoln Elementary School for the last few weeks, was re-employed by the board to teach the remainder of the 1961-62 school year.

The contract the board signed with Pritchard & Abbott, tax engineers, is on the same fee basis—2 cents per $100 valuation.

The new walks to be built at the elementary and primary buildings, following the opening of the new street just south of the buildings, will consist of approximately (See SCHOOL BOARD, page 8) driving north in the east lane of the divided highway. He ran off the road on the right, then swung back onto the highway and reversed position to back across the median and under the rear end of the moving truck.

Skid marks on the east roadway showed that Cash's car had skidded some 438 feet before backing into the truck.

The impact knocked the big truck's tandem wheels down, according to Highway Patrolmen Max Knox and Henry Harden, who investigated the accident.

The patrolmen said the truck driver, Willie Union Rogers of Dallas, told them he saw the automobile skidding toward him, but was unable to stop in time to avert the collision.

The officers said the truck driver told them Cash was thrown from his automobile, but was trying to climb back into it when he went over to see how badly he was hurt.

The patrolmen said Cash lost consciousness after being brought to the hospital here.

The injured man was an employee of a cooperative gin at Lorenzo.

The accident occurred early Saturday afternoon in the Justiceburg area. Highway Patrolman Henry Harden estimated that damage to both vehicles amounted to between $200 and $300.

Pat Cornell, 15, was issued a ticket for failure to control speed after his automobile struck a cattle guard support on a county road east of Post shortly after midnight Friday.

Jackie Fluit, one of four occupants of the automobile, was the only one injured. He is reported to have suffered broken ribs and two broken toes.

Patrolman Harden said the youth's car struck the cattle guard after rounding a curve in the road.

Last Thursday, a Cisco man escaped injury when the cattle truck he was driving struck a bridge railing just south of Justiceburg, the highway patrolman reported.
