THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Time was when it took a month for a letter to get from one city to another, and such things as radio and television were unheard of.

Now we don't think in terms of miles — we think in terms of the time it takes to span them, and it doesn't take long to get around the world.

As for communications — well, they're instantaneous, these days.

But for all of that, we seem to find it just as hard to understand one another as we ever did.

Only one form of communication hasn't changed... God's method of communication. He speaks to you through His Church, and through a Bible that has survived the centuries. Go to church this Sunday, every Sunday, and hear His message for yourself.

There have been some changes made in the House of Representatives since the last session. Legislators sworn-in for the term of office in a mass ceremony were pleasantly aware of the change of scenery since last session. The new office building, dark, dusky setting for the battle of State law, had been transformed in appearance. Every desk, chair and lamp had been refurnished to a light oak shade. Shiny new carpet had replaced the drab, worn ones of the past. And the brass rails were replaced by a new $20,000 wool carpet with a brown and white design woven into the scalloped border directly in front of the speaker's stand.

PAY PROBLEM—About 100 members of the House now have come January. Once each 10 years, Texas' 31 senators must "draw straws" to determine who will serve a four year term, and who will serve for two years. Drawing is required by the state constitution.

Normally, half the state senate is elected for 4-year terms, overlapping with the other half which still has two years left to serve. However, after each 10-year census and redistricting of the Legislature, all the senators must run for office.

Last time such a drawing occurred was in 1953. Nine senators who will face the glass bowl in January were around that year, and five of them drew two-year terms then.

Ten senators will start serving their first term in January, and one other will be attending his first regular session in the upper chamber.

BILLS-DRAFTING UNDERWAY—Business really has picked up in the Texas Legislative Council the past two weeks. House committees turned to the TLC many recommendations for the 58th Legislature to consider. They provided the state's research unit with grist for numerous bills to be presented in January.

House Committee on Saving Taxes, headed by Sen. George Parkhouse, received a lot of attention during its hearings. Subjects under discussion included:

A recommendation by the Committee to end taxes on intangible property, such as mortgages on homes and stocks and bonds. Dallas tax collector Norman Register claimed this would cost his city $3,500,000 annually.

Revision of regulation of the railroad industry, which is governed by about 300 state statutes, some of them outmoded.

Adoption of a merit salary plan for public school teachers. The committee's education subcommittee suggested keeping the present minimum salary scale and basing future changes on a cost-of-living index.

A recommendation by the subcommittee on highways and roads to keep two license plates on vehicles. Although the state would save $200,000 annually by using only one plate per vehicle, police officials believe identification is easier with two.

THE DISTAFF SIDE—Only one woman will be seated in the Senate and two in the House of Representatives come January.

They are: Sen. Neveille H. Colson of Navasota, Rep. Myra D. Bandfield of Rosenberg, and Rep. Maud Isaacks of El Paso.

The small percentage of women legislators (1-30 in the senate and 2-148 in the house) is par for the course in state government.

Although about 5,020,770 of Texas' 9,960,000 citizens are women, only 50 women are among the 561 appointees on 87 state boards and commissions—less than 9 per cent—and there are no women on the 30 boards and authorities which govern the state's waterways.

Gov.-elect John B. Connally stated in his campaign platform that he advocated "the appointment and selection of women in those areas of government in which the moral tone of the community is directly affected."

Several state agencies guided by gubernatorial appointees are responsible for the "moral tone" of the community, including: The Texas Youth Council, Department of Public Safety, State Liquor Control Board, Board of Corrections and Department of Public Welfare.

If women in Texas ask to share this responsibility, 1963 may be a political leap year.

OIL SUBGROUPS NAMED—A recently named advisory committee of the Texas Railroad Commission has set up three committee subdivisions.

A liaison subdivision headed by J. E. Kendall of San Antonio includes J. W. Collins, Amarillo; C. G. Condra, Ft. Worth; J. I. O'Neill, Midland; Fred W. Shield, San Antonio; and E. Bruce Street, Graham.

A legal and drafting subdivision is headed by Attorney J. K. Smith, Ft. Worth. On the committee are A. R. Ballou, Dallas; F. H. Pannill, Midland; C. E. Thompson, McAllen; and H. R. Thompson, Houston.

The third division, a technical group, is headed by R. Clair Underwood, Wichita Falls.

Serving on this committee are M. D. Abel, Midland; E. T. Adair, Ft. Worth; Lester Clark, Breckenridge; J. W. Crutchfield, Corpus Christi; Roland Gouddy, Wichita Falls; Gene Howell, El Paso; J. C. Hunter Jr., Abilene; Ed Keeler, Houston; N. E. Loomis, Longview; and John Lynch, Houston.

Liaison subdivision, says Pres. James B. Russell of Abilene, will work closely with the Railroad Commission, the Texas Research League and other associations or bodies concerned with oil and gas regulations.

TEN-POINT PROGRAM—The governor's Committee on Children and Youth is prepared to make several recommendations to Gov. Price Daniel. They include:

Expansion of the state juvenile parole program of the Texas Youth Council.

Creation of a state home for delinquent and neglected Negro children who cannot be placed in foster homes.

Raising from 14 to 16 the age limit for a child's inclusion in the aid-to-dependent children grant.

Expansion and improvement of child welfare services to deal with prevention of family breakdown.

Recommendations are based on reports from several committee members who also are representatives of state agencies.

JUVENILE JURISDICTION—Juvenile courts lose jurisdiction over minor delinquents who come of age before the court can commit them to the Texas Youth Council.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said that juvenile court "after judging a minor to be delinquent and placing him in temporary custody of his parents, has no jurisdiction once the minor attains the age of 17 in the

Dr. John L. Wilbur Jr. of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's Animal Disease Eradication Division reported that all but 13 counties were infested by screwworms in the period from Sept. 23 to Oct. 27. Screwworm-free counties were Ector, Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Camp, Cass, Marion, San Augustine, Sabine, Jasper, Newton and Orange.

Under the screwworm eradication program, 351,551,050 sterile flies were released in October in an area bordered by Terrell County on the west; Coleman, Brown and Comanche counties on the north, Calhoun County on the east and the Mexico border on the south.

CENTRAL STATE OFFICE—The state's 24 licensing boards may soon be placed under a single administrative agency.

That's the recommendation being considered by a special House interim committee studying operations of the boards.

Now each board has its own administrative office.

The Texas House committee is studying states that reportedly save money by having a central office, thus pooling secretarial and clerical help.

Under the proposed plan, each board would continue to conduct its own examination of applicants.

HISTORICAL MEDALLIONS—The Texas Historical Survey Committee awarded historical building medallions to 17 buildings noted for their place in Texas history.

Included were the John Dewberry home near Bullard; Gary House near Starrville; Gingerbread House in Chireno; Leverett House in Overton; the county courthouse at Dickens; Halfway House near Chirico; the W. A. Brown home in Jacksonville; and Shelby County Courthouse in Center.

Also, the Moores-Watts-Pryor home in Texarkana; First United Presbyterian Church at Ballinger; Central Christian Church at Nacoma; Fort McKavitt near Menard; Episcopal Church in Graham; Mission San Saba; First National Bank in Jacksboro, and Field Officers' Headquarters at Fort Richardson.

TEXAS STANDS SEVENTH—Texas tied with Georgia, New Jersey and Tennessee for 7th place among the "Top Ten" States in industrial development for September.

Twenty-five new plants were opened in 31 towns, according to the Texas Industrial Commission. Small towns such as Center, Big Spring, Hallsville, Hallettsville, Knox City, Willis Point and Yantis, as well as big cities, were successful in attracting industry.

CAMPAIGN COSTS TOLD—Democrat John Connally spent less to win the November general election than did his defeated opponent, Jack Cox.

Expense reports filed with the Secretary of State show Connally spent $193,740.

Cox reported spending a total of $261,072.

Wendell Davies among Abilene youth honored

Wendell Davies, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert (Lefty) Davies of Abilene, formerly of Post, was one of nine outstanding young Abileneans honored by the Abilene Optimist Club at a Youth Appreciation Banquet on Nov. 14.

Teachers at Lincoln Junior High School, where Wendell is a student, nominated him for the high award because of his "dependability, enthusiasm and scholastic superiority."

The former Post youth is president of the orchestra at Lincoln and also serves as student conductor. Much of the time he occupies first chair as concert master. He is a member of the National Junior Honor Society and of the Pioneer Baptist Church, where he is a Royal Ambassador, sings in the Intermediate Choir and is Bible Readers' Leader.

Dr. John C. Stevens, assistant president of Abilene Christian College, was principal speaker at the Youth Appreciation Banquet.

Speaking in honor of the nine outstanding young people in Abilene schools chosen for the honor, Dr. Stevens said "strong determination" on the part of the young person could overcome obstacles which might lie in the future.

Parents of the young people were present at the banquet.

WINTER WHEAT SIGN-UP

Dec. 14 is the last day for signing up under the 1963 wheat stabilization program farms in the winter wheat area, according to a Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announcement. Growers who have questions on the program are urged by the State Committee to visit their county ASCS office for detailed information.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Rules of good nutrition will help build bodily resistance in winter

Healthful nutrition is a year-round job. But as cooler weather comes to Texas, it becomes increasingly important to guard against falling victim of "winter susceptibility."

There really isn't any such term, but the fact of the matter is that bodily resistance may be lessened during fall and winter.

For this reason it is smart to continue to observe the rules of good nutrition.

The well-fed family receives the basic foods in their daily diet. Food rich in protein should be served at every meal.

Meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese and milk are sources of high quality protein. Other sources are peas, cereals, beans, and nuts.

A green or yellow vegetable should be served at least once a day. These contain essential vitamins and minerals and are especially rich in vitamin A.

Because it cannot be stored in the body, vitamin C (from citrus fruits, tomatoes and certain other fresh or processed fruits and vegetables) is needed every day.

With the addition of these to round out meals according to tastes and appetites, the well-fed family is provided with the nutrients needed for health and growth.

Breakfast is probably the most important meal of the day because you have gone without food for such a long period of time. One-third of our daily diet should be eaten at breakfast.

Breakfast is essential to children. Fruit, meat, eggs, or other protein rich food and cereal or bread and butter and milk make a good breakfast.

Three good nutritious meals a day will go a long way toward

PETROLEUM PURCHASERS

Farm people now make up about eight per cent of the nation's total population but they buy 13 per cent of the petroleum produced in this country—more than any other single industry. In 1961 American farmers sold about $35 billion worth of goods and spent $25 billion on production costs. Because of the efficiency of the American farmer, he is now feeding and clothing himself and 27 others. Consumers have never had so much high quality food available at such favorable prices.

keeping you fit through fall and winter and all year long. (A weekly feature of the Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

'King of Kings' begins Sunday for four days

"King of Kings," called the greatest human drama that the world has ever known, will show at the Tower Theatre here Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 2-5.

There will be a matinee every day with the doors opening at 1:30 p. m. and the show starting at 2 p. m., according to John N. Hopkins, theatre manager. There will be three performances daily.

The MGM film brings to the screen once again the story of the birth, life and death of Jesus Christ. Jesus is presented as a flesh-and-blood man who lived during one of history's most exciting periods in a real environment bounded by dates, places and facts.

The players include Jeffery Hunter as Jesus Christ, Siobhan McKenna as Mary, Mother of Jesus, Hard Hatfield as Pontius Pilate, Ron Randell, Viveca Lindfors, Rita Gam, and other stars, in addition to thousands of extras.

Ford ideas so contagious they started a new trend in cars!

If you think today's cars have a lot in common, credit the Ford sketches above. For these ideas sparked a revolution in car design that's reflected wherever you look on the American road.

Ford ideas have a habit of being exciting—practical, too. Consider the innovations found only in our '63s. There is Ford Galaxie's smooth new velvet ride. It cost Ford $10 million to bring it to you, but costs you not a penny extra to enjoy. There is Ford's full twice-a-year or 6,000-mile maintenance* schedule that cuts service worry and expense to a minimum. There's a new manual transmission that lets you shift down from second to first without coming to a stop. And for '63, there's the biggest choice of models ever offered—44 in all!

Only Ford offers all these advantages now. Other cars will eventually catch up—but if you can't wait, here's a tip. See your Ford Dealer today!

Here's America's most contagious ride as seen on the 1963 Ford Galaxie 500 XL.

America's liveliest, most care-free cars!

 Robertson explained the tax rate for the district would be an estimated 19.3 cents per 100 valuation or $19.30 taxes per year on property valued at $10,000.
 Operating costs of such a two-year college would be approximately $650 per year, plus bond and interest costs to build the school. Twenty year bonds at four per cent have been proposed.
 State aid would return $3550 annually up to the first 350 students and $250 per year for all over that number. Tuition, which is required, would be $100 per year.
 The Snyder junior college committee went to work in May of this year and hope to be able to go before the state board of education in March for approval of such a public junior college.
 The proposal then would be submitted to a vote of the district for approval to organize. Robertson emphasized the state law says this requires only a majority of all the voters of the district and not of each county of the district.
 He told Rotarians he wanted no misunderstanding on this point.
 Counties would be considered for such a district upon a petition signed by five or ten per cent of property owners.
 Robertson has appeared in all seven counties to explain the proposal. This was his first presentation before a Garza group.
 He said after the talk that his committee hoped to define the areas interested in joining such a junior college district by early 1963.
 He asked for no indication from Rotarians whether or not they would favor Garza being included in such a junior college district.
 The Snyder survey included a junior college district made up several ways. Sweetwater in Nolan County also is interested in a junior college in that city.
 At present there are 32 junior colleges in Texas receiving state support.

He asked that all toy donations be made by Dec. 10 to allow time for any necessary repairs. Toys can be turned in either at Wilke's Supply or the Chamber office. Those families in need to report should call them in to the Chamber office with as much information as possible. Now...let's get those toys coming!

 Hundley looked into the purchase of the necessary equipment and by yesterday had quite a crew busy wiring the business district and installing the ten speakers.

 A number of stores can have the background music wired into their stores as well for about $12.50 each, if they desire, Hundley said.
 After Christmas, shoppers will continue to be treated to background music, Hundley added.
 He said other additions to the new system can be made later, such as a conversion to a sound truck for certain needs.

Testing program now under way in county for TB among cattle

A testing program for the purpose of re-accrediting Garza County cattle as TB free is now under way and will continue until Jan. 1, 1963, according to County Agent Syd Conner.
 In order to qualify for re-accreditation, it will be necessary that 5 per cent of the cattle in the county be tested.
 The test consists of an injection, which is read 72 hours later to see if there is any reaction.
 Dr. Lowie Rice, Snyder, of the Animal Health Commission is conducting the re-accrediting program. Cattle owners wishing representatives from their herds tested are asked to contact Dr. Rice at Snyder or the county agent here.

Antelopes eke out win over Sands; Does lose first one

Post High School basketball teams broke even at Sands (Ackerly) Tuesday night, the boys winning, 34-33, on David Nichol's late field goal, but the girls losing, 39-32.

For Coach Van Kountz' Does team it was their first loss of the season after six consecutive wins. Both the Antelopes and Does won games from Flower Grove here last Friday night, the boys by a score of 37 to 27 and the girls, 43-34, with Nita Wilson hitting 38 points.

In the Sands game Tuesday night, Sands was ahead, 33-32, when Nichol grabbed off a rebound and sunk a basket with 24 seconds left in the game. Sands was fouled as they brought the ball back down court, but missed their free throw.

Hitting in double figures for the Post team were Danny Pierce with 13 and Pat Cornell with 11. Nichol scored 8 points and Glenn Polk and Danny Odom, one point apiece. Other Antelopes seeing action were Teddy Scott, Renald Simpson and Benny Owen.

The Antelopes held an 11-9 lead at the end of the first quarter, 23-15 at halftime and 29-24 at the end of the third quarter.

Coach Kountz said his girls "just had a bad night" against Sands, which he said doesn't have as good a team as either Gail or Flower Grove, both losers to the Does.

The Sands guards kept Nita Wilson well covered and held her to 18 points. None of the other Post forwards could hit consistently, with Janith Short getting only 7 points, Barbara Craig, 5 points, and Jamie Carradine, 2 points.

Sands led 13-5 at the end of the first period, 19-13 at the half and 28-22 at the three-quarter mark.

Pierce scored 18 points in pacing the Antelopes to their opening game win over Flower Grove here Friday night. Cornell hit 10 points, Nichols, 6; Hutch Cross, 2, and Polk, 1. Others in the opening game line-up were Scott, Simpson, Odom, Owen and Wendell Johnson.

The Antelopes were behind, 6-4, at the end of a slow first quarter, but had pulled into a 17-15 lead at halftime, and were ahead 26-21 at the end of the third quarter.

Nichol grabbed off 21 rebounds in the game.

In the Post-Flower Grove girls game, the Does were ahead 17-8 at the end of the first quarter, 27-19 at the half and 35-28 going into the fourth quarter.

Wilson's 38 points accounted for all but five of the Does' points with Short getting 3 and Carradine, 2.

Post's starting guards were Dee Ann Walker, Cheryl Martin and Marianne Jones.

Homemaker of Tomorrow search gets under way

A high school senior girl from Post may well be among those who will share in $110,000 in college scholarships being offered again this year by General Mills in its ninth annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

In past years, winners have come from every type community in the nation—large, small, medium—and from all types of schools—public, parochial and private.

Senior girls here will join with a record number of more than 410,000 others in more than 12,500 of the nation's schools Tuesday, Dec. 4, in a written examination to help determine winners in the 1963 Search Program.

The test, prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago, to emphasize the importance of home-making as a career, is the determining factor in selecting local and state winners. Personal observation and interviews are added factors in selecting national winners.

The 1963 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up will be named in the spring at the culmination of an expense-paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg for winners from the 50 states and the District of Columbia and their advisors.

Scholarships range from $1,500 for each State Homemaker of Tomorrow and $500 for each state runner-up to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively, for top national winners. A complete set of Encyclopaedia Britannica is awarded the school of each state winner.

Including the 1963 program, close to 3 million girls have participated in the Betty Crocker Search in its nine years of operation. Scholarship grants are approaching the million dollar mark. From the start, the program has been on the approved list of national contests and activities of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

This 'n' That

Last Tuesday the officers of the Future Farmers of America presented a parliamentary procedure demonstration. Those participating were Pete Dodson, Danny Stone, Ricky Little, Johnny Bilberry, Richard Hart, Danny Richardson, and chapter advisor, Mr. Ike Trimble. The judges were Mr. Collingsworth and Mr. May. Mr. Trimble introduced the State Chapter president, Jerry Clark, as their guest. It was very interesting and everyone enjoyed it.

Betsy, we hear you've been corresponding with Tahoka girls. Good luck!

The band went to contest at Tech last week and received a second rating. The band has been working very hard and we were very proud of them.

Couples seen over the Thanksgiving holidays were Linda McMahon and Danny Jones, Norma Julian and Pat Sullivan, Susanne Krause and Wayne Haire, Joann Chilcoat and Gary Howell, J. e. n. Scott and Al Hogue, Delton Robinson and Ruthell Martin, Marsha Smith and Dwayne Capps, Marianne Jones and Royce Hart, Pamela Stewart and Buddy Moreland, Ken Rankin and Pamela Stewart, Buddy Moreland and Judy Clary, Ann Pennington and Glenn Polk, Hoss Smith and Susanne Krause, Linda McMahon and Lee Williams, Becky Thompson and Buddy Howell, Glenda Hutto and Mason McClellan, David Nichols and Dee Ann Walker, Barbara Craig and Freddie Stice, Betsy Shytle and Kent Wheatley, Gary Brewer and Ann Greer, Stanna Butler and Larry Welch, Vivian McWhirt and Jackie Fluitt.

Seniors received their picture proofs last week. They were all real good. Isn't that right, Marsha?

What's this about Glenn wanting gossip in the paper?

We hear that Shearon and Diane were really happy over the holiday. Could it have been because their fellas came to see them?

Hey, boys, have you got a date for the Senior play? We hear it's really gonna be good. It's Dec. 8, and costs $1.25 for reserved, $1 for general admission and 50 cents for students.

We hope Barbara, Mary Ann and Janie start reading the school page since they are banished from the commercial room.

Junior, senior high students taking part in three-year testing program

Junior and senior high school students in more than 800 Texas schools, including Post, are participating in a three-year testing program sponsored by the Texas Education Agency to evaluate current standards of education in the state and to determine the possible need for revision of the state curriculum outlines.

An estimated 200,000 students in grades seven, nine, ten, and eleven are being given a series of standardized tests published by Science Research Association Inc., Chicago-based educational publishing firm, in an effort to measure their educational ability in the natural and social sciences, mathematics and English, and their aptitudes in the job skills, interests, reasoning ability and language usage areas. Tests of other publishers are also being used in the statewide program.

The TEACH Battery, a specially constructed combination of tests designed to meet Texas Education Agency curriculum specifications, is being used in 9th grade. Other SRA tests used in the study are the company's Tests of Educational Ability (TEA) and Achievement

Series in 7th grade; the Flanagan Aptitude Classification Tests (FACT) in 9th and 10th grades, and the Iowa Tests of Educational Development (ITED) in 11th grade.

These tests are administered by local school officials and sent to McHenry, Ill., for scoring by the company's DocuTran Service (T. M.), an unusual high-speed, high-accuracy data processing system that operates without need of special electronic pencils or punched cards. Score reports, including class, grade and system composites which can be used for comparing performance locally with national norms, will be returned to each school for evaluation.

The current fall test period, the first in the three-year study, will end Dec. 15. Another test period has been scheduled for Spring, 1963.

Now that football season is over, basketball has begun in earnest. The boys have been working out and they are really looking good. The first game they will play will be at Fluvanna Nov. 27, with the Fluvanna Buffaloes. The girls will play also. Good luck!

The Junior High tournament will start Thursday, Nov. 29 at the SHS gym. Everyone is invited to attend.

The seniors got their pictures back last week, and all of them really turned out good. I didn't know there were so many good-looking kids going to SHS!

The girls' basketball team defeated the Loop girls last Tuesday night by a score of 48-28. Kathy Smith was high point girl with 29 points. Keep up the good work, Kat. Incidentally, who won the game between the girls and the outsiders?

The activity pictures were taken the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. I'll bet that some of them turn out to be hilarious. Any takers, Beverly?

Johnny, do you plan to score as many points this season in basketball as you did in football, or do you plan to score more? Who knows, you might score twice as many if you'd learn to dribble.

There are four new showcase exhibits in the hall.

The Seniors have one announcing their Senior play. They have a woman looking through a telescope into outer space. The name of the play is "Father's Been to Mars". There are six basketball trophies in one of the showcases. They are to be awarded this weekend. There are three trophies for the girls and three for the boys. The trophies awarded are champion, up, and third place.

The General Math class has two systems of measurement in their showcase—the English Metric.

The Commercial Department has a Christmas scene in the case. There is a Christmas tree in the middle with presents. A snowman and Santa Claus either side of the tree. A reindeer on a white background with glitter falling from it. The scene was framed in mas holly.

Miss Diane Drinkwater, a native of England, came to Post Nov. 20 and spoke to Mrs. Wristen's 8D Class.

Miss Drinkwater talked about her country and the customs of England.

After some of the students asked her questions, Sue Gilmore, president of the class, presented Miss Drinkwater a present on behalf of the students of the class. The gift was a pen and pencil set.

TOWER THEATER

Post, Texas

November 29, 1962

A Message for Everyone:

I know you are among the many Americans who have eagerly looked forward to seeing the remarkable motion picture, "KING OF KINGS." For years we have hoped for an instrument which would portray the spirit of our faith in a worthy fashion; in my opinion this remarkable film, with its convictions and power, is such a document.

In addition, and of importance to our entire community, is the unique distinction which "KING OF KINGS" has achieved. It has been acclaimed as both fine, dramatic entertainment and as a picture which presents profound religious teaching, with great meanings for all people.

"KING OF KINGS", a magnificent motion picture for our time, begins its Post engagement at the Tower Theatre on Sunday, December 2, and continues through Wednesday, December 5. Due to the length of this picture, we will have three shows daily. Scheduled showing will be: 2 p. m., 5 p. m., and 8 p. m. I know that many of you have been looking forward to this presentation and we are happy to be able to bring it to you.

This is truly a magnificent motion picture for our time—the most widely discussed picture of recent years. The story of The Christ . . . His deeds . . . and the inspiration of His spoken words. From the quiet beauty of the Nativity, to the wisdom and wonder of the Sermon on the Mount . . . no greater experience has ever been lived. I hope you will be one of the many to witness this most inspiring religious story.

NEEDLECRAFT MEETING Mrs. Will Wright will be hostess to the Needlecraft Club Friday, Nov. 30 in her home at 3 o'clock.

CALIFORNIA VISIT Mrs. Marshall Mason returned Sunday from a visit with her son, Marshall Jr., and family in San Marino, Calif. Mrs. Mason commented that the Hollywood Christmas parade and the Christmas lights in the streets and stores of Los Angeles and surrounding suburbs that were turned on Friday night were quite beautiful.

much the same as any one else's. The characters are still characters, the ones one expected to succeed have and vice-versa, the dullards are in most cases pretty dull, and the creeps are still creeps. Hairlines have receded—some completely — waistlines have thickened, some to the point of no return.

For those of you that read George Dolan's column in the Star-Telegram, he was right. There were those wives of class members that one could spot in a minute—the ones from other towns who didn't know a soul. They were the ones sitting on the sidelines looking bored and wondering how they had ever got talked into coming in the first place.

For those of you that are still in high school, I'll pass on a hopeful tidbit. Seems like the most popular girl in the class—I mean boy-wise — was remembered more by all the wives present than by all the fellows. She looked pretty much like everyone else, as did her husband. I listened in on enough conversations to hear several men remark: "Do you remember her?" There is some solace there if you give it some thought.

I feel I must apologize to the state of Oklahoma for making nasty remarks about their highways. That is fast becoming a dream-state to drive in. We were on four-lane highways clear across Oklahoma except for about 20 miles. If we're not careful, Texas might have to start doing a little apologizing to our Oklahoma travelers.

I'm off to the bedroom with you know what. My waistline will probably join the point of no-returns during this lovely time when we have pure, home made, golden, country butter in the house. Morris, I love you.

Culture Club aid to high school library promised

The Woman's Culture Club met Nov. 21 in the home of Mrs. Homer J. Irons with Mrs. E. S. Stewart as co-hostess.

The club voted to buy "Roget's International Thesaurus" to present to the school. A $10 contribution will be given to the Community Chest from the club.

Mrs. C. R. Thaxton requested the club members to write to their legislators concerning obscene movies and reading material seen and read by the youth of the town. Mrs. Tillman Jones, program leader, introduced the study on Venezuela. Mrs. Frank Blanton gave "Venezuela—Its Past" Mrs. C. E. Dickinson talked on the social customs of that country, and Mrs. Harold Teal told of its prospects.

Comical awards highlight Antelopes' football banquet

Highlight of the Antelopes' 1962 football banquet Monday night was the presentation of comical awards by Coaches Harold Teal and Glenn Gregg to the senior members of the team.

The banquet, held in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church, was given in honor of the team and the coaches by the mothers of the boys on the team.

The room was cleverly decorated in the football theme. Place cards were miniature footballs and players with each boy's playing number in it. The serving tables each held a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums in a football helmet. Black and gold streamers and balloons decorated the walls and windows. Lifesize cardboard footballs told the scores of all the conference games.

A replica of goal posts, made by Elmo Bush, was hung behind the head table. The posts were painted black and gold and the letters PHS were placed on the center bar. It was hung with balloons and streamers. Head Coach Teal made a few comments about the past season and gave a special thanks to the senior players.

Supt. R. T. Smith expressed appreciation on the part of the administration for the record made this year and the fine spirit of the boys.

Players and their dates present for the banquet were: David Nichols and Dee Ann Walker, James Mitchell and Meredith Newby, Frankie Gary and Susan Ramsey, Buddy Moreland and Pamela Stewart, Kent Wheatley and Betsey Shytles, Delton Robinson and Ann Pennington, Freddie Simmons and Janice White, Glenn Polk and Sharon Isaacs, Jerry Bush and Stanna Butler, Ken Rankin and Linda McMahon, Bobby Roach and Susanne Krause, Billy Shumard and Nita Wilson, Larry Guy and Brenda Richards, Howard Teaff and Cindy Wilson;

The best place to Christmas shop

With Christmas just around the corner and Post business firms going all out to make this a banner holiday shopping season, now is a good time for residents of Post to pause and resolve to support their local merchants by doing their Christmas shopping at home.

Many, many times through the years on this editorial page we have harped on the subject of trading at home. The message, no doubt, is wearing a trifle threadbare and may be growing monotonous to some readers, but we don't intend to quit sending it periodically.

Over and over we have urged citizens to stop and think seriously before they travel to out-of-town shopping sites to spend their money. We have asked them to consider the damage they have done to the community when they purchase out of town the things they could have obtained in Post.

Money siphoned out of this community and spent in another serves only to benefit the out-of-town place and certainly does not help the local economy.

If you have never been engaged in a retail business, you have no idea how many times a year a merchant is called on to help his community financially and otherwise.

First of all, local merchants pay taxes that help build and maintain streets, sewer and water systems, libraries, parks, schools and all other things that a community must have to be successful.

He also pays salaries that enable employees to pay taxes for the same purposes.

In addition, merchants are called on almost constantly to make contributions to one thing or another or buy this or that to help some local cause. Most of them do so willingly and without complaining. They give to the Community Chest, they help support their churches, they buy ads in school yearbooks and school athletic programs and tickets to all sorts of school and community entertainment programs, etc., etc.

Remember when you do your Christmas shopping out of town that the store you patronize does not pay taxes in Post to support the schools and other local institutions. Nor does it contribute to the Garza County Community Chest nor to any other local cause.

In other words, the money spent out of town is gone forever from the Post economy. Spent here, the money would circulate from, say, dry goods store to grocery store to service station to barber shop to drug store to variety store and back again throughout the local business community, generating buying power for each merchant through whose hands it passes.

So, if you want to give yourself and your friends a break . . . if you like Post and want to help its schools, churches and other institutions, then do your very best to do all your Christmas shopping—and all other kinds of shopping—in Post.—CD

Good news: More spending money

Believe it or not, the average Garza County family is better off today than it was a year ago even though it requires more money to pay for the necessities of life than it did a year ago and still more than it needed in the 1957-59 period.

That two-year period is the new reference point that is being used by the government in determining changes in the Consumer Price Index.

The latest report shows that it now takes $1 to buy what could have been bought for 94 cents at that time.

The figures, based on average September prices, were compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The monthly rise was the biggest in four years. It was due chiefly, states the bureau, to increases in food costs, especially meat, and to higher prices for apparel.

Despite the creeping rise in living costs, consumer buying power in Garza County is comparatively high.

The average local family has more money left, after taking care of its food, clothing, housing and tax needs, than it had in 1958.

From Government reports and from local economic data, it appears that it takes only 31 per cent of the net income of the average Garza County family, after payment of taxes, to cover its food, clothing and shelter bills.

In general, in the United States, 32 per cent of income is used for these necessities and, in the West South Central States, 33 per cent.

The breakdown locally shows 16 per cent of net income going for food purchases, 3 per cent for apparel and an estimated 12 per cent for housing, including utilities and fuel.

That leaves 69 per cent of their after-tax income available to them for discretionary spending. It is used to pay for insurance, car operation, education, travel, entertainment, medical care and the many other items of daily life.

Thanks to rising incomes, which were more than enough to offset the increases in living costs, the average Garza County household had $3,895 for such optional spending from the past year's income.

This compared with $3,815 per household in the rest of the West South Central States.—CD

White River lake shore planning

When we think of the White River dam, we immediately think of water, since that is the purpose for which the big dam is being built.

But there are other things to think of besides water. Beautification of the lake shore and recreation, for instance.

We are of the opinion—now that actual construction is under way—that the time between now and completion of the $4,000,000 project is going to seem short indeed in comparison with the time it took to get the project under way after it was first conceived some six years ago.

Time, in fact, will be short from now to completion on most all phases—particularly those on which it will take time to get something done. Falling into that category is beautification of the lake shore.

One of the many things that cannot be accomplished in a day is landscaping. It takes planning and then work to get it started and then more work to develop it. A prime example is our City-County Park, where well-planned landscaping is beginning to pay off in beauty and symmetry. Such projects take time, but are well worth it.

Now that actual construction of the White River dam is under way, we think the board of directors should, in the near future, appoint a committee to get the ball rolling on beautification of the lake's lengthy shore line. By having a master plan for the beautification project well under way at the right time, the dam completion and beautification programs could be made to more nearly dovetail than would be the case if too much time were lost on the shore line landscaping plans.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Call out the Texas Rangers! Impound the ballot box. In one of the little sixth grade classes in our school system here Tuesday, the teacher offered to hold a mock election or straw vote on the Connally and Cox race. There were 18 votes cast for Cox and six for Connally. However, there were only 23 in the class.—Sam Gerald in The Weslaco News.

There's a gadget that keeps the inside of your car quiet. It fits over her mouth.—Al Hinds in The Haskell Free Press.

A growing do-it-yourself craze is reported in Europe. If they just will, it will save us a lot of expense.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

SATURDAY IS the first day of December and we here at The Dispatch office are eagerly awaiting the first Santa Claus letter to get us in the proper mood for Christmas. The Santa letters usually start slowly along about the first of December and then come in an avalanche up towards the middle of the month. It just wouldn't seem like Christmas without them.

The man up the street says the younger generation has one big advantage over the old—it still has plenty of time to outgrow what ails it.

AT SATURDAY'S football game between Arkansas and Texas Tech. I occupied a plush seat in the big press box. To a country newspaper editor that can be much more exciting than sitting in the stands watching a game, especially a game where there is so much difference between the two teams, as was the case Saturday.

My seat in the press box was next to a couple of fellows representing Little Rock's Arkansas Gazette. One of them wanted to know the name of my paper. I told him The Post Dispatch and, after sitting real still for a moment, this fellow from Arkansas turned to his companion and said, "Who'd have thought St. Louis would be interested in this game?" Figuring that it would be harder to explain what a weekly newspaper editor was doing in the press box than to explain that I was NOT representing the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, I just let it go at that.

I ALSO SAT near a fellow from the University of Mississippi, but I didn't have anything to say to him. I didn't want to get into an argument, not even at such a dull game as the Arkansas-Tech contest.

One of the Arkansas fellows was full of the news that only the day before the Arkansas attorney general had issued a ruling that the official pronunciation of the name of the state is Arkansas. That's how the Indians said it, and now it's official. The Little Rock man said that the Legislature adopted a resolution to that effect in 1881, but that some people outside the state still say "Ar-Kansas." The 1881 resolution, it seems, said French settlers got the "Arkansas" pronunciation from native Indians. Why is it spelled Arkansas? Nobody seems to know.

IF I HADN'T lived in Texas for so long, I'd have told the Little Rock man how proud I used to be, as a native Arkansawyer, that Arkansas is the only state mentioned in the Bible . . . "Noah looked out of the ark and saw . . ." The Little Rock man probably had heard it anyway.

My thanks to Bill Holmes, Texas Tech sports publicity director, for the press box pass. It was quite an experience—for a country newspaper editor.

A READER WHO read what I wrote in last week's column about the new 5-cent postage stamp going to be blue in color, writes in to ask if I know that letter carriers' uniforms are a 50-50 blend of the Union Blue and Confederate Gray. I didn't, but I'd say that's playing it smart.

Short and Sweet: If you live to be 70, your conscious memory will remember about 15,000,000,000 separate items—from your phone number to the shape of a watermelon . . . Windmills were first used for corn grinding in Persia in the 7th Century A. D. . . . Man just doesn't have woman's courage. Imagine one man, with 13 cents in his pocket, trying on seven suits of clothes. . . . The Brooklyn (N. Y.) Public Library reports that the value of books stolen from its shelves last year amounted to $500,000 . . . 15 years ago, 2½-million youngsters played musical instruments—today there are over 9-million.

PARTING THOUGHT: A dollar isn't worth a dime unless you spend it and then it's worth about 50 cents.

Bible Thoughts "Success Formula"

By HERB SMITH

Success in some way is coveted by most people. In view of this, the following success formula is given. It is not only a Bible formula, but a practical and workable one too.

1. Find and decide upon a vocation soon. "Whatsoever thy hands FIND to do . . ." Eccl. 9:10. Life is too short to dally around.
2. Work at it hard. The same reference says "do with all thy might." Anything worth having is worth working for is a saying we've all heard. The opposite is true. Anything we can have without working for, isn't worth having.
3. Prepare your mind. Prov. 4:23; 23:7. Be positive. Many would-be successes have been turned into failures by the disease of negative thinking.
4. Don't grow weary. Gal. 6:9, be not anxious. Phil 4:6; Matt 6:34. Disappointments are part of it. Looking backward hinders progress, and anxiety hastens failure.
5. Be successful in succeeding. Be mature enough to carry success. "A haughty spirit is before a fall" Prov. 16:18.
6. Remember God. Paul said, "By the Grace of God, I am what I am." Without God nothing is possible.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST, 10TH & AVE. M.

Officers chosen by Junior Band

Members of the Post Junior High band have elected officers for the school year, Director Bruce Evans announces.

Those elected were: Paul Walker, president; Donnie Windham, vice president; Jeanie Lewis, secretary-treasurer; Mike Petty, 8th grade representative; Jane Hutchins, 7th grade representative, and Lee, 8th grade representative. The new officers will work the band director as a committee in planning band activities including social affairs.

SPECIAL CHURCH SERVICES

The regular 7 p. m. Sunday service at the Church of God will be under the direction of Lillian Grubbs, state secretary of the Assembly Band from Berger, and Lettie Fox Lubbock. Miss Faust is leader in the Victory Band.

Biggest Christmas opening in years to be held Friday

To include contest, Santa visit, concerts by band

Post's biggest Christmas Opening in many a year is scheduled for the business district Friday night, starting at 6 p. m.

It will be complete with a window contest for $50 worth of prizes, the first visit of Santa Claus, street corner concerts by the Post High School band, and the turning on of the downtown Christmas lights for the first time.

WHAT'S MORE, downtown stores will remain open until 8 p. m. for those who want to get off to a fast start with their Christmas shopping.

Friday night's festivities also will include the first employment of the business district's new background Christmas music with ten all-weather speakers wired along five blocks of Main Street.

Santa is due to arrive promptly at 6 p. m. under escort by the band and will have a sack of candy to give treats to all of his young friends who are out to meet him.

Santa also will be back for a second visit in downtown Post Saturday afternoon, arriving about 3 p. m.

The downtown Christmas lights strung across Main Street this week with greenery will be turned on at 6 p. m. The big 40-foot downtown Christmas tree—already a Post tradition—will not arrive here by rail until next week, but will be put up and lighted as soon as received.

THE BIG Christmas window contest with three prizes will be a one-night-only affair.

Windows of the 18 stores included in the contest will be unveiled promptly at 6:30 p. m.

Each Christmas window will contain an item which that particular store does not sell.

The person who correctly finds the most "don't sell" items in the Christmas windows of the 18 stores will win $25 in certificates good with any of the participating merchants listed in the big Christmas Opening announcement ad on page 3 of today's Dispatch.

Second prize is $15 in such certificates. Third prize is $10 in certificates.

The certificates are good both with merchants entered in the contest and those listed on the page who do not have contest windows but have helped sponsor the Christmas promotion.

An entry blank also is contained for use.

OTHER ENTRY blanks will be available in downtown stores Friday night.

Entries must be turned in to the Chamber of Commerce office in the City Building by 9 p. m. Friday, that gives all interested folks

It wouldn't be fitting not to give T. B. Odum and his Christmas decorating committee a big thank you for all the greenery around those strings of lights across Main street. It gives the town a Christmas atmosphere in the daytime, too. Your Chamber is now working toward permanent Christmas decorations which can be added to each year.

One of the best local "do it yourself jobs" we've seen around town in a long time has been turned in by Jimmy Hundley in promoting Post to the forefront of American towns in the way of downtown background music. Hundley went after donations and at the same time went after the equipment. The result is that two weeks later, the Post business district has the only such system in any town anywhere, all installed and paid for. All of which is another indication that Post's merchants are really hustling.

If you like all this, just let them know it's appreciated.

Dr. John Carter stopped by yesterday to make a final plea for the donation of more "toys for boys" to the current Christmas toy drive. Almost all the toys received to date have been for girls and

★ WALKER WAS POST WOMAN'S COUSIN

Stanley Walker, who was found dead Sunday from a shotgun wound on his ranch near Lampasas, was a first cousin of Mrs. Marshall Mason of Post.

Mrs. Mason and Walker grew up together in Lampasas County. Her father, John Stanley, and Walker's mother, Anna Stanley, were brother and sister.

Walker, who was 64, was one of the nation's best-known newspaper editors and magazine writers. After retiring from a newspaper career in New York City, he returned to the ranch on which he was born.

Walker had been in failing health for some time.

Downtown loudspeakers to accent Yule spirit

Post — come Friday night — will be the first city its size anywhere to have a permanent downtown public address system to play outdoor background music.

And from Friday night until Christmas, Post shoppers are going to hear Christmas carols pouring out of ten all-weather speakers permanently wired atop storefronts along a five-block downtown business area.

Talk about Christmas atmosphere — Post is going to have plenty of it. The idea was developed at a merchants' session three weeks ago at the Community Room to start planning for Christmas.

Several $10 donations were offered by those present toward the purchase of a permanent loud speaking system for Post merchants.

From that grew the idea for a permanent installation to play music throughout Post's business district.

Jimmy Hundley was named chairman of the committee to look into the project.

He didn't look long. In the last two weeks, he and his committee have raised over $500 in donations from some 48 downtown merchants. (See LOUDSPEAKERS, Page 8)

Bonds posted by pair charged with murder

Get the Christmas spirit and come on downtown tomorrow night and enjoy yourself. Bring the youngsters to see Santa, enjoy the band's street corner concerts, and enter the big Christmas window contest.

Two men charged with murder in the shooting of a Lubbock man here last Thursday night were released on $5,000 bonds Saturday afternoon pending grand jury action.

The pair are Carl Edward Still, 28, of Post and Dick Hudson, 38, of Lubbock. They are charged with the shotgun murder of Hershel (Bo) Crabb, 33, of Lubbock, outside the Hitching Post Tavern here on Thanksgiving night.

Crabb, a construction worker, was shot once with a sawed-off 12-gauge shotgun. He apparently was shot at close range, the charge entering his chest just under the right arm.

The shooting occurred shortly before 11 o'clock. Sheriff Fay Claborn said Crabb was taken to Garza Memorial Hospital, where he was pronounced dead about 11:30.

Claborn, who was summoned to the scene of the shooting while at a nearby place on routine patrol, said yesterday that he had talked to a number of witnesses to the shooting. He said his investigation disclosed that Crabb was shot while sitting in Still's automobile.

"We haven't definitely established a motive, but our investigation discloses that the men had 'passed words' over a woman," Sheriff Claborn said.

The sheriff arrested Still at the hospital, where, according to Claborn, he had taken the wounded

Post girl injured in fall at youth retreat

Beverly Avant, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. (Bud) Avant Jr., suffered a broken leg and bruises in a fall Saturday morning while attending a Christian Youth Fellowship retreat at the Baptist Assembly Grounds near Floydada.

Beverly, who is an 8th grade student here, received the injuries when she tumbled about 25 feet down a hill.

She was brought to her home here by Bernard S. Ramsey, First Christian Church minister, and Jack Alexander, counselor. She was admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital and was released yesterday morning.

man in his automobile. City police arrested Hudson about 11:30 p. m. at Still's residence in west Post on the Tahoka highway.

Hudson was lodged in jail here and Still was taken to the Lubbock County jail.

The sheriff said the sawed-off shotgun believed to have been used in the slaying was found by city police in Still's automobile after the sheriff had ordered the car taken to the courthouse and asked the city police to search it.

The sheriff said a search of the vicinity of the shooting had turned up a .38 caliber pistol said to have belonged to Crabb. The pistol was found by city police in a field at the rear of a tavern just south of the Hitching Post, according to the sheriff.

Funeral services for Crabb were held in the Bethel Baptist Church at Ralls. Burial was in Lorenzo Cemetery under direction of Hudson Funeral Home of Post.

Plantiff, not railroad, found negligent by jury

A Garza County district court jury, after four and one-half hours of deliberations Wednesday, Nov. 21, found the plaintiff, Joyce Kyle Hildebrand, negligent, not the Santa Fe railroad in Hildebrand's $241,340 damage suit against the railroad.

District Judge Truett Smith after studying the jury's findings will file a written judgment in the near future on the suit, which grew out of a crash at the Main Street Crossing here early the morning of Jan. 3, 1961.

The jury's findings included: Hildebrand failed to keep a proper lookout for the train in approaching the crossing and that such failure was a proximate cause of the collision.

That the crossing light was working and that the train signaled audibly in its approach.

That it was negligence on Hildebrand's part in trying to proceed over the crossing when he could not safely do so.
