RODEO: America's Most Exciting Sport

Rodeo—the unique sport with unmatched excitement. It embodies that primeval thrill of an athlete pitting his brain and skill against the cunning and strength of the animal. It has the spine-tingling element of true physical danger for the participant and the color of a fiesta. All of this is rolled into a thrilling, fast-moving package called "Rodeo"—America's top thrill sport and a piece of living history.

Rodeo, which means "round-up" in Spanish, had its beginning on the ranges of California, the Southwest and Mexico. The Mexican vaqueros were the first to throw off the cares of a long, hard day by competing with their compadres to see who could stay aboard an unbroken horse, or best rope and tie a calf. The American cowboy who followed the vaquero on the scene was just as eager to prove his skill.

The cowboys first competed among themselves, and then began challenging hands from the next ranch. Soon, the word that cowhands from neighboring ranches were going to compete with rope and horses attracted people from miles around.

The first town-sponsored rodeo is said to have occurred at Pecos, Texas, in 1883. That year the cowboys were invited into town to hold their contests on the main street. (Levi Strauss had already been making his blue cowboy pants for 33 years, at this time.) In 1888, the citizens of Prescott, Arizona, built a corral and charged admission to "a cowboy celebration." Rodeo, as we know it today, was on its way.

Today, over 3,000 professional cowboys compete annually in more than 400 RCA rodeos throughout the country. Rodeo attendance approximates 15 million people each year.

Top cowhands travel much of the rodeo circuit, appearing in small towns and large throughout the country. Not many people realize that the cowboy pays entry fees, which may run into several thousands of dollars annually, for each event in which he participates. These fees are added to the prizes established for each event by the local rodeo management.

Today, rodeo is a truly organized sport carried on twelve months of the year. However, the men in the big hats and Levi's who compete for cash prizes are the heirs of a tradition and history that is as American as Plymouth Rock and Bunker Hill.

BAREBACK BRONC riding is no job for the weak in spirit. The only thing between the rider and his horse are his Levi's and a piece of heavy leather rigging with a suitcase-like handle cinched to the horse. As in saddle bronc riding, scoring starts when the horse's front feet hit the ground outside the chute. The rider must have his spurs above the bronc's shoulder points until the first jump is completed, then he keeps them moving as rapidly as he can, feet kicking high in the air to fall back against the horse's shoulders. Duration of the ride, if all goes well, is eight seconds. As in saddle bronc riding, both the rider and the horse are scored on their performance. Bareback bronc riding did not gain professional status as a rodeo sport until the late nineteen forties. Prior to that time it was considered a "filler" or exhibition event with no competition for prizes. Now, a champion bareback rider can win more than $16,000 a year.

SADDLE BRONC RIDING was perhaps the first rodeo event, and it is still one of the most exciting. The cowboy must stay aboard the bucking horse for eight or ten seconds, depending upon local rules. Time begins when the front feet of the horse hit the ground as it breaks from the chute. The cowboy, wearing dulled spurs, must have his heels touching high on the horse's shoulders until the first jump is completed. If he doesn't do this, he is automatically disqualified. During the remainder of the ride he is scored on how he keeps his feet moving, spurring the animal from shoulders to flanks. With one hand the rider holds the bucking rein, a braided length of rope fastened to the horse's halter. His other hand must not touch the horse or saddle, and he must keep both feet in the stirrups or be disqualified. Both the rider and the horse are scored on their performance.

BULL RIDING can provide the most harrowing moments in the arena. The hump-necked, ugly Brahma bull is the cowboy's adversary in this event. A manila rope is wrapped around the animal's belly and a bell is suspended beneath. The cowboy takes a one-handed grip on the rope, nods his head for the chute to open, and is suddenly out in the arena aboard half-a-ton of irate beef. If he can keep a leg on either side of the animal, and doesn't touch bull or rope with his free hand before eight seconds are ended, he may be in the money. Bulls buck in a variety of styles. Some twist, turn and kick high in the same motion, others perform kangaroo-like high jumps. As in bronc riding, both the animal and the rider are scored. The cowboy doesn't have to spur the Brahma, but he may score higher if he does. When the ride is over, the unsung heroes—rodeo clowns in their oversize Levi's—move into position to distract the bull as the rider slides to the ground.

STEER WRESTLING accounts for a good deal of skinned hide and sprained joints among the cowboys. Throwing himself from a fast-moving horse the contestant must collar a running steer, bring it to a stop and twist it over on its side so all hoofs are off the ground. Assisting the contestant is a "hazer," a cowboy who rides alongside to keep the steer running straight. Outweighed by at least five hundred pounds, the steer wrestler can accomplish little by brute strength alone. He must learn to use his body as a pivoting lever applying pressure at the proper moment to twist the animal to the ground. Misjudgment of a few inches in his jump at the running steer may send the cowboy headlong over the animal's horns. Too much weight on the forepart of the steer can cause a rolling wreck known as a "hoolihan." Misjudgment of the correct instant to apply the twisting hold on the horns brings about a "dogfall," which means the steer did not fall cleanly. Before time is given, the steer must be on its side, all legs extended in the same direction.

IN CALF ROPING coordination between man and mount is of utmost importance. The horse must stand quietly behind the barrier. Then, when the calf is released, he must reach his peak stride in a jump or two, stay at a given distance behind his quarry, mark the lariat's throw and stop abruptly as the rider dismounts. The horse alone keeps the rope taut so that it may be used as a lever to throw the calf. The rider throws the calf and ties the two hind feet and one fore foot together. Time is counted from the moment the barrier drops until the cowboy lifts his hands in the air to signal that the calf is tied. Usually, there is an additional wait of five seconds by the judges to be sure the calf doesn't break loose. If the barrier is broken—usually signalled by a red light at the chute gate—a 10-second penalty is added to the total time. So competitive has calf roping become that time is measured in tenths of seconds. Many roping contests are decided with a bare second dividing the first four places.

Movie cowboy Williams dies

Movie cowboy Guinn (Big Boy) Williams, who was a nephew of the late E. W. Williams Sr. of Garza County, died Wednesday of last week at a hospital in Van Nuys, Calif. He was 63.

At the height of his movie career several years ago, Williams visited his uncle and aunt here and a number of pictures of him on his visit were taken by Eddie Warren, then the owner and publisher of The Dispatch, and appeared on the front page of the newspaper.

Williams, a native of Decatur, Tex., leaves his wife, Dorothy, and a son, Tyler. He was the son of Mrs. Guinn Williams Sr. of San Angelo.

Williams spent two years working with the late humorist Will Rogers, who gave him the nickname "Big Boy."

He learned to ride and punch cattle on his father's ranch and picked up extra money performing in rodeos while coming up in the movie world.

Williams starred in 34 western pictures in the 1920s. He also played non-western roles once in a while. His last acting role was in "Comanche" with John Wayne.

PLANT DEDICATION
 Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson will dedicate the 75-million per week sterile fly plant at Mission, headquarters of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program, on Saturday, June 16.

Dedication ceremonies begin at 10 a. m. at the plant, Moore Air Force Base, 14 miles north of Mission. Also included in the day's program will be tours of the plant before production and security regulations are started the following day.

The plant, built with funds contributed by individual livestock producers and sportsmen through the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, is being dedicated to the improvement of the Southwest Livestock Industry.

"We are very pleased that Vice-President Johnson will take part in the dedication ceremonies," C. G. Scruggs, president of the SWAHRF, said. "This is a program for the entire Southwest. Stockmen and sportsmen in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and New Mexico will receive tremendous benefits from the eradication of the most costly livestock pest confronting them. Vice-President Johnson can speak for stockmen and others interested in the program from this wide area."

The plant is actually a "fly factory." It covers 75,000 square feet, will employ 500 people working in three shifts every 24 hours for seven days a week, and is designed to produce from 50 up to 75 million sterile screwworm flies each week of the year. Every operation is timed to coincide with the normal life cycle of the screwworm.

Livestock producers and sportsmen from the entire Southwest are invited and urged to take part in this ceremony and inspect the plant built with their own funds.

INSECTICIDE SAFETY
 This is the season for insect control, and a good time to remind you that it pays to be safe with insect poisons.

Extension Entomologist C. F. Garner suggests that you read labels on all insecticides carefully and follow the directions for use. Avoid getting poisons on the skin where possible and take care not to breathe vapors of either spray or dust.

Your county extension agent or your insecticide dealer can give additional information on safe handling of insecticides.

GET BAGWORMS EARLY
 Bagworms are now occurring in rather large numbers on trees and other plants in many parts of the state. This insect is a general feeder and can cause serious damage to certain trees, especially evergreens, points out C. F. Garner, extension entomologist.

At the time, the worms are small and can be successfully controlled by proper spraying or dusting of the plants with insecticides. It is important to apply chemicals early enough to control the worms before they become too large and cause serious damage, adds Garner.

He suggests a check of all plants around the home, especially evergreens for the spindle-shaped sacks which may be hanging from the twigs, leaves and branches.

The following insecticides are recommended for bagworm control. Malathion (50 per cent emulsifiable concentrate 1 to 1½ ounces per 5 gallons water), Toxaphene (60 per cent emulsifiable concentrate, 2½ ounces per 5 gallons water), or lead arsenate (2½ to 3 ounces per 5 gallons water).

In addition to these materials there are several brands of combination sprays (two or more insecticides combined together) on the market which will give good control of bagworms as well as other pests. One of the common combination sprays contains malathion plus DDT.

Sprays are preferred over dusts and the label instructions should be followed for mixing and using insecticides, cautions Garner.

Several different types of hand sprayers are available which can be used for applying the sprays. The common types are the compressed air sprayers, trombone sprayers and garden hose attachment sprayers.

Insecticides are poisons and should be handled with caution. Follow safety directions listed on the label and keep children and pets out of the treated area. After spraying, wash the grass to remove the chemical residue advises Garner.

More hard luck for rodeo mishap victim
 Hometown cowboy Curtis Steel, who underwent surgery on his left arm Jan. 18 for injuries received in a rodeo performance at Lubbock, has had additional hard luck.

Curtis was expecting to have the cast removed from his arm last week, but it developed that he will have to wear the cast from four to six more weeks.

Curtis is a 1960 graduate of Post High School and was a second semester student at South Plains College, Levelland, after attending the college his freshman year.

557 Garza countians are now receiving Social Security pay

As of Dec. 31, 1961, there were 557 persons in Garza County receiving social security payments totaling $31,259, John G. Hutton, Lubbock district manager for the Social Security Administration, has announced.

Total figures for the 15-county area served by the Lubbock office show 19,565 persons are receiving $1,115,508 per month.

Figures for 1961 show an increase of about 20 per cent, Hutton said. There are several reasons for the increase, according to the district office manager.

"There are more aged people, benefits are now payable at age 62 and less social security credit is needed to meet the eligibility requirements for benefits," he explained.

Cotton is stronger when wet.

Mrs. John Guthrie and Mrs. Lee Snow attended funeral services for their uncle, Clarence Penn, in Temple last Thursday.

Mary Barnes spent the week in Abilene visiting her brother, Don, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. F. Barnes.

Cotton Producers Institute makes plans to move forward this year

A 33-member Plains Wide Steering Committee for the Cotton Producers Institute has met in Lubbock to make decisions and plans for moving the Institute forward during 1962.

The committee, consisting of county chairmen and other leaders, was appointed by Roy Forkner at the request of the Producers Organizations, which initiated the CPI program in West Texas.
L. G. Thuet Jr. is representing Garza County on the steering committee.

Forkner announced that an excellent first year start was made in the Western states that initiated the program last year. Well over the $1,000,000 minimum requirement has been deposited to the CPI escrow account and there will be a program in operation before ginning starts on this year's crop.
"Total collections this year should reach about one and a half million dollars," Forkner said.

"A substantial research and promotion program can be started with this volume of money, and it's none too soon when we understand the accelerated challenge cotton faces from its synthetic competitors," Forkner continued.
It was pointed out at the meeting that cotton suffered a direct competitive loss of 200,000 bales to rayon during the first three quarters of 1961.
"The Cotton Producers Institute is a must if we are to survive as a major industry in the face of these new competitive threats," Forkner said.

New Home seeks integration vote

Petitions were being circulated last week in the New Home School District of Lynn County calling for an election to decide whether or not the schools should be integrated.

One of the reasons for proposed integration, school officials point out, is that five Negro students have just finished the eighth grade and no high school is available to which they may be sent.

If the school should integrate, the two teacher units in the Negro school could be used in the integrated system, school officials said.

There are 505 children of school age on the district's census rolls.

The length of a cotton fiber ranges from one to four thousand times its width.

 ments or added operating costs are included in the proposed budget and would require greatly increased tax funds.

The accreditation issue, as well as the economy factor of more taxes, was raised in the recent election at which O'Donnell school district voters voted to integrate their schools next year. O'Donnell was faced with added expenditures to bring its colored school up to state standards within two years or having all district schools dropped by the state accreditation department.

Petitions for the vote on integration are worded so that signers only request an election be called so that the school district voters can determine the issue so that trustees may move ahead quickly on the budget.

Approximately 300 or more signatures will be necessary on the petitions, it was estimated.

Trustees Monday night also took another step aimed at trimming the proposed budget an estimated drew perhaps the saltiest bull of the lot in No. 9, lasted only about three bucks out of the chute. The bull was so frantic in dislodging the Post cowboy that it fell down and rolled completely over after bucking him off.

Weather was perfect for the opening night show after rain had threatened throughout the morning.

The number of entrants in each event are as follows, according to figures released by Ira (Dad) Greenfield, rodeo secretary: Calf roping, 75; ribbon roping, 74; bull riding, 57; bareback riding, 31; open barrel race, 24; calf roping, 45 years and over, 11; saddle bronc riding, 10; junior barrel race, 7.

Results of the first show were as follows:

Bareback Riding: Elson Rose, Lubbock, first; Tee Nelson, Big Spring, second.

Calf Roping: Walter Arnold, Post, 12.1 seconds; Buttons Howard, Portales, N. M., 13.0; Wendell Armstrong, Clovis, N. M., 13.2; Tommy Buckner, Big Spring, 15.7; Fred Myers, Post, 16.3; Hadley Wardlow, Del Rio, 17.5; J. Bassett Smith, Plainview, 20.8.

Junior Barrel Race: Nan Winkler, Calgary, 20.3; Anna Lou Allen, Haskell, 21.2.

Open Barrel Race: Paulette Allen, Haskell, 17.8; Sadie Cox, Gail, 18.1; Ethel Martin, Tokio, 18.7; Donna Sue Jackson, O'Donnell, 19.2; Sidney Reeder, Gail, 19.4; Sheila Walker, Rotan, 20.3; Carla Winkler, Calgary, 20.4.

Saddle Bronc: Jim Brock, Lubbock, first; Harold Williams, Lubbock, second; Jimmy Moore, Post, third.

Ribbon Roping: Walter Arnold, Post, 12.0; Ed Douglas, Portales, 15.4; Hadley Wardlow, Del Rio, 15.9; Jerry Pair, Cotton Center, 22.8.

Calf Roping (45 and older): John Givens, Brownfield, 16.5; Jack Harmon, Lubbock, 18.8.

Bull Riding: Dean Blake, Big Spring, first (only one of seven riders qualifying).

Rains—

yesterday's heavy rains chased most of them out of the fields.

In last Thursday night's tornado in the Canyon Valley area, seven of Dennis Euhank's cows came up missing, with only one reported as having been found. The twister also "rolled up" a lengthy section of fence on the Euhank place and chased many residents of the vicinity into storm cellars.

Minor damage from the tornado was also reported on other farms in the Canyon Valley area and elsewhere north of Post.

Last Thursday night's rain almost reached cloudburst proportions in the Fluvanna vicinity, just across the Garza County line in Scurry County. Highway maintenance trucks were sent from here when it was reported that two farm-to-market roads near Fluvanna were under water. The roads were impassable for only a short while, however.

County Agent Conner said the rains have been a big help and have increased the cotton crop potential, but that more rain is needed for dryland planting. There is not much subsoil moisture except that down deep, the agent explained. He said if dryland areas could get enough rain on top to meet the deep moisture, it would increase the crop potential even more.

The heaviest rains in the county, ranging up to three inches, fell in the southern part of the county, just this side of the Scurry County line. On the other hand, the Graham community and areas northwest of Post were completely missed by the rain until this week's precipitation.

There was some hail damage scattered throughout the county from last Thursday until Saturday, but it was relatively light. Nearly all the hail damage was to irrigated crops. Indications are that there will be very little re-planting unless more hail damage occurs.

THEY VOTED unanimously to discontinue driver training instruction during the regular school year and accepted the offer of Athletic Director Harold Teal not to employ a second assistant high school football coach.

Trustees decided to offer the driver training car and provide necessary gas, oil, and insurance, during the summer months with interested students paying $20 for the course to pay for the cost of instruction only.

(Another story elsewhere on The Dispatch's front page today explains plans for the course for interested parents.)

Athletic Director Teal explained to trustees that with prospects for the ninth grade football squad this year limited to between 17 and 29 prospective boys and a smaller than usual eighth grade squad, he planned to operate only a varsity squad with schedule and a B team at the freshman through senior level, eliminating freshman games. The B squad would be largely composed of freshmen and some sophomores not yet ready for varsity competition.

He pointed out state rules now prohibit any full game scrimmages after the opening of the varsity squad players. So varsity players this year will be unable to pick up valuable game experience via B team games and still retain varsity eligibility.

With all these factors in mind, he told trustees he and Glynn Gregg, his No. 1 grid assistant, could handle the varsity squad without an additional assistant. He said with a large seventh grade squad foreseen, he would need the second assistant again in two more years.

With the added coaching load he asked that Gregg be permitted two free periods for coaching preparations instead of the previous one. Trustees saw no objections.

In other actions, trustees:

Voted to employ Mrs. C. D. Marth as the new junior high school secretary for the 1962-63 year. She will succeed Mrs. William St. John. Mrs. St. John's husband was granted a leave of absence for further study next year. Mrs. Marth is the wife of the assistant office manager at the Post-Texas Mills.

Voted to employ A. B. Segars of Lubbock as the school district auditor succeeding the late Harold Wines of Ballinger. Segars was the school auditor here before Wines.

Told Supt. Smith to put the two school buses which are being replaced this year up for sale to the highest bidder.

Employed Jack Alexander as a fifth grade teacher here for the 1962-63 school year on Smith's recommendation. Alexander has previously taught here for several years.

Decided to look into a $37.50 bill for the 1961 (not 1962) band banquet and to reimburse Robert Meisch for it if the former band director paid it out of his own pocket.

Heard a request by Trustee Ronnie Bouchier to Supt. Smith for a report on what arrangements could be worked out for establishment of a foreign language department in the district schools, to begin in the fourth grade and carry through the first two years of high school, within the present budget.

Such a program would be 1.8 months away if it could be worked out, Bouchier pointed out.

This would permit the beginning of language instruction in the grades. Bouchier said an educational report from the Library of Congress says this is the most effective age to begin such foreign language instruction.

Bouchier also asked for educational graphs to be prepared by various principals in the next few weeks to show the grade averages of students by courses, as compared with the national norm so any local instructional or scheduling problems could be spotted and corrected as they might be found and thus improve educational opportunities here.

Trustees Bobby Pierce and Russell Wilks Jr., were absent from the board's session.

Corvairs take climb with 2 Little League victories

The Corvairs, sponsored by Caprock Chevrolet Co., jumped from the cellar to third place in Little League standings by defeating the Pirates, 15 to 4, Saturday night at the Postex Mill Yankees, 17 to 1, Monday night.

The loss to the Corvairs dropped the Pirates to fourth place in the standings, while the Cardinals and the Pirates moved up to first and second place, respectively.

The Cardinals can go back into a tie for the loop lead by defeating the Pirates in their game tonight, the first of two at Little League park.

The surprising Corvairs and Brown Bros. Red Sox meet in tonight's second game.

In another game Saturday night, the Cardinals defeated the winless Tigers, sponsored by Bob Collier Drug, 5 to 1.

IN MONDAY NIGHT'S second game, the Dodgers rolled over the Tigers, 16 to 7.

It was a come-from-behind victory for the Dodgers after the Tigers had latched onto a 6-1 lead through the first two innings.

The Dodgers scored six runs in the third frame, three in the fourth and six more in the fifth, while holding the losers to a single run in the fifth on Rosas' bases empty home run.

Clyde Cash homered for the Dodgers in the third and also had two doubles to his credit.

Sappington was the winning pitcher after relieving Tony Williams. The loss was charged to Billberry, with Charles Harper coming on in relief.

The Corvair-Yankee game was called after three and one-half innings with the Corvairs ahead, 17-1, and the 19-run lead rule prevailing.

Legion juniors 'lose' to rain

Post's American Legion Junior baseball team saw two golden opportunities for its first league victory of the season go by the boards Saturday and Monday nights when inclement weather halted games here with Coahoma and Denver City.

Junior High coach to be hired soon

Harold Teal, Post schools' athletic director, said Tuesday that the coaching staff for 1962-63 is expected to be completed soon with the employment of a junior high coach.

Teal said he has a likely prospect for the position and that it more than likely will be filled within the next two weeks.

In addition to his duties as athletic director, Teal is also head coach of the Post's boys' basketball team, with Glenn Gregg as his assistant and Wilbert Bigott and Charlie Black as "B" team coaches.

Bigott, who came here at the beginning of the 1961-62 school year, recently was elected head coach of the school's basketball team.

Teal said that under a new arrangement, two junior high coaches will be in charge of 7th and 8th grade football, both working with the 7th grade squads in the mornings and the 8th grade squads in the afternoon.

Van Kountz, girls' basketball coach, will continue as one of the senior high football coaches.

Manager Walter B. Holland's Post team was out in front of Coahoma, 8 to 4, when Saturday night's game was called after four innings. Monday night, they were ahead of Denver City, 3 to 0, when rain halted the contest after two innings.

Five full innings of the regulation seven-inning game are required before a game counts.

Following the two rain-outs, the Post team will have a layoff until Thursday night, June 21, when they go to Lamesa. The team journeys to Big Spring June 23 and plays Big Spring here June 25.

Against Denver City Monday night, David Nichols, Post pitcher, had held the visitors hitless through two innings when the game was called. Post had scored its three runs in the first inning, chasing starter Mike Hubbard.

Leslie Acker started for Post against Coahoma, but was relieved by Ruben Valdez in the second inning.

Prior to the rain-outs, the Post team had lost its only two league starts by one-run to Lamesa and Brownfield.

Jimmy Hundley tied for medalist honors in the annual Pro-Am tournament event at Floydada Monday.

He shot an even par 72 to dead-lock with Robert Harvick of Tahoka for low score among the amateurs.

Others from Post competing in the tourney were Oscar Garner, Roy Gilmore, and Jackie Hays.

Minor loop formed for June 19 start

The first minor league in Post's Little League history was organized at a meeting of LL officials Saturday, with four teams scheduled to start play June 19.

The minor league was organized, explains LL president Bud Avant, for the purpose of taking in more than 80 boys of Little League age who are not on the LL team rosters.

Four teams have been organized, with the possibility of others being formed if there are enough eligible players, Avant said.

Teams now in the fold are the Colt 45's, Giants, Angels and Rebels.

Sponsors are being sought for the four minor league teams, the LL president said.

Coaches of the four minor league teams are: A. L. North, Colt 45's; Fred Byerly and Jim Poer, Giants; Joe Neison and Booz Holley, Angels, and Charles Cooper and Billy Hahn, Rebels.

Gene Moore was elected president of the minor league at Saturday's meeting.

Boys of Little League age—8 thru 12—wishing to sign up for minor league play are asked to contact Avant, Moore or any of the team coaches. Each team can carry as many as 20 boys on its roster.

Adult assistance is also needed in getting the new minor league started off on June 19 and in keeping it going, league officials said.

There will be two minor league games on the Saturday, June 19, opening date with the first game starting at 5:30 p. m.

Hopkins medalist, Morton tourney; Allison-Long win

Defending champions Charles Hopkins of Post and J. D. Hawthorne of Denver City were dethroned by Al Allison of Levelland and Leon Long of Denver City in the Morton Partnership golf tournament Sunday.

The winners edged past the defending champions by one stroke, 411 to 412.

Hopkins, however, successfully defended his crown of medalist, walking away with the medal award by carding a gross score of 213, two over par.

His nearest opponent, D. L. Craig of Lubbock and his son, Ronnie, were 15 strokes behind Hopkins.

Roger Camp, one of Post's younger golfers, and his partner, Hume Russell, finished fifth with 427. In 13th place with 437 were Jimmy Hundley of Post and James St. Clair.

Barriers up as work begins on widening of 3 FM roads

Barriers to daytime traffic went up this week in Post as work of widening three FM roads within the city limits as well as Loop 46 (the highway cutoff past the Postex Mills) began.

Curb and guttering was completed some months ago.

In all, some two miles of new surfacing is involved.

The work is expected to take about three weeks with the Austin Construction Co. of Dallas the general contractor for the project.

The farm to market roads involved are FM-1313, entering the city from the southwest city limits to its intersection with US-380 on Eighth street by the schools; FM 122 and FM 651 from East Main street junction with US-380 out of the city limits in the northeast portion of the city.

At a meeting at the district engineer's office here Friday morning to acquaint the state highway department, sheriff's office, city police, and news media with the projects, George Haire of Dallas, representing the contracting firm, said his firm would move in its crew next week with about eight families coming to Post for the project work.

In the meantime, work began on sub-leased dirt work on the projects by the Boswell & Crafton Co. of Lubbock. J. O. Boswell of Lubbock represented that firm at the Friday meeting.

Julian Smith, area engineer for the state highway department, announced that the streets would be barricaded to daytime traffic only with the work areas reopened at night to traffic.

White Sox undefeated

The undefeated White Sox drubbed the Pirates, 18 to 11, in a free-swinging Babe Ruth League game Tuesday night and the Indians nudged the Cubs, 10 to 9, as league play was resumed after a week's "shutdown" because of rainy weather.

Two games are on tap for tonight, with the second place Braves attempting to halt the runaway White Sox, and the Pirates and Indians battling to see which team climbs out of the league cellar. They are tied for the bottom with 2-6 records.

Two more games are scheduled for Friday night and three make-up games for Saturday.

The Indians scored one run in the second and six in the third to take an early lead against the Cubs Tuesday night, but had to fight off a late Cub rally that produced five markers in the fifth frame and left the Cubs trailing by only two runs.

They narrowed the gap with another tally in the bottom of the sixth, but were shut out by Indian pitcher Bobby Dean in the bottom of the seventh. Dean struck out Bo Hutchins with two Cub runners on base to preserve the victory.

Dean went all the way for the Indians to register the win. G. Romero started for the Cubs, but gave way in the second to Vargas, who was tagged with the loss.

The White Sox tallied four runs in the first to go out in front of the Pirates and were never behind, although the losers gave them some anxious moments.

R. Jackson was the starter and loser for the Pirates with Criado coming on in the second. Doyle Nichols was the starter and winner for the White Sox, with Birch Lobban taking over the mound duties in the fourth.

FRIEND OF THE COURT

Since ancient Rome, an amicus curiae is a friend of the court. He plays a vital part in presenting a court with arguments which help it to reach a just decision. A pending case may well affect many people besides the parties.

A court often welcomes outsiders into a lawsuit who cannot present evidence or question witnesses. Their main role is to inform the court, to write briefs, to tell the court of likely outcomes of its decision.

There are many types of friends of the court.

1. Court appointed Amici. The court may ask a professor of law or a public spirited group to help the court find facts, present the law, or supply other helpful information.

2. Special interest Amici are the largest group. Private commercial interest, trade and similar groups, have money at stake. They too might help the court—but their main purpose is to have the court set a precedent favorable to them.

3. Governmental Amici. The district attorney, Attorney General, or other lawyer for a public agency or the state or U. S. can present a public view of the case—often without a special interest. Such agencies can often inform the court how the outcome of a particular case is likely to affect the public.

Sometimes a government agency can represent a state's special interest. For example, California may join Texas in a dispute between Texas and the U. S. over offshore oil. Or a principle in a water dispute between two eastern states may affect Texas' stake in Rio Grande river water. Though in such a case Texas would speak in the public interest it also has a special interest motive for Texas.

June Bride

In a moment, the organist will strike a chord. There will be a sudden hush in the church, then the strains of the wedding march will peal forth and she will take her father's arm and start up the aisle, her measured steps symbolic of the very real hesitation she will be feeling.

She would not be human if she did not hesitate. These steps she is about to take are the most important steps of her life. She is poised on the threshold of another existence in which the pronoun she uses will be "We" and not "I." Soon she will learn to think of another before she thinks of herself. Presently, she will come to know fully the meaning of the word "share."

As she moves forward, she falters for just a second. Then her step becomes sure, her lips curve in a smile. The church through which she walks is dear and beloved to her—and so is the man who stands waiting for her beside the altar. Her marriage, blessed by faith, is beginning where all marriages should begin—in the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Numerous advantages to spending vacation traveling through Texas

Have you ever thought of the advantages of spending your vacation this year traveling through your home state of Texas?

Travel in Texas not only provides the tourist with some of the nation's leading historical and scenic attractions but with a healthful atmosphere as well.

The climate is generally mild although there are extremes of heat and cold. But while these extremes can be uncomfortable they are usually of short duration.

Due to the state's great size and varied terrain, it has a wide range of temperature so that the tourist can virtually take his pick.

While Texas is growing industrially, the state is still practically free of atmospheric conditions that trouble the more heavily industrialized areas. The air is not completely free of pollutants, but Texas cities are generally not plagued with inversion, smog, and such.

There are many other advantages which, while not exclusive with Texas, certainly can be claimed as advantages. For example, there has not been a single case of smallpox in Texas in seven years.

While there is still some typhoid fever, its danger is remote if tourists use reasonable judgment in their eating and drinking habits. Typhus is virtually nonexistent, and the danger of contracting malaria, formerly a serious hazard, is also insignificant.

Travelers dining in approved restaurants, coffee shops, and cafeterias are served food prepared under sanitary conditions. All food handling establishments are regularly inspected in areas served by full time health departments and food handling personnel in most areas voluntarily attend training courses in food handling sanitation.

Tourists who wish to fill their thermos jugs or procure drinking water for other purposes may do so from any one of Texas' 375 approved city water systems. They may swim in any one of many municipal or community pools which are inspected by sanitarians of local health units.

Finally for those who prefer to rough it in comfort, Texas has well protected camping areas in state and national parks where a high degree of sanitary protection has been provided without eliminating the satisfying aspect of living next to nature.

A Texas vacation is a healthy vacation.

Grassland farmers are busy in fields

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Grassland community will be a very busy place this week as the farmers hurry to get their crops planted and try to save the cotton that is already up. Some of the cotton was damaged by hail and sand and will have to be planted over, but we are so thankful for the much needed moisture we received. We hope the drought has been broken.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble visited in the W. G. McCleskey home Saturday night.

Mrs. Inez McGrew and Marion Inklebarger were honored with a buffet dinner in the Inklebarger home Friday evening. Those attending were Jim McGrew, Virginia, Terry Lou, and Bruce of Lamesa. Mrs. Kathryn Moore and Cristy of Seagraves and C. A. Walker.

Miss Linda Davis and three of her friends are in Mexico City this week. Linda is a teacher in the Andrews school and we understand she will teach there again this coming term.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gribble and Mrs. Edd Finn and children had lunch with the C. O. McCleskeys, Sunday.

Mrs. Ted Pridmore of Grand Prairie was her this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leonard.

MISS DIXIE Lee Davis is in Seattle, Wash., on a tour of the World's Fair. Soon after she returns home she plans to enter a university to begin work on her master's degree.

Last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey went to Brownfield to visit her sister, Mrs. DuBose. Another sister was also visiting. Mrs. Ruth Harris who is a nurse in the Methodist Orphanage at Waco came home with Mrs. McCleskey for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howard and family are moving to Post. Mr. Howard has been operating a garage in Grassland. We are sorry to lose this fine family.

Jim and Inez McGrew went to Lake Thomas this week to fish and check on their trailer house. They report some damage to cabins there from the recent rain and hail storms.

Mrs. Morris Bingham, who had surgery in a Brownfield hospital Tuesday, is reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. M. L. Thomas received word Saturday of the death of her nephew, Vernon Crawford, whose home was Fort Worth. The Crawford family lived in the Graham Chapel community for a number of years and were frequent visitors in this community. Vernon was also a cousin of Mrs. L. S. Turner.

MR. AND MRS. Claude Chapman of Plainview visited the L. B. Burks, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker visited the Doyle Terry family in Lamesa, Sunday.

Three of their grandchildren, Lesa Ann, Jim, and David of Abilene, are visiting them.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. D. D. Odom is not feeling well. She is the mother of Mrs. Bob Norman and Mrs. Ruel Smith. The Odom family is one of our pioneer families, coming to the Texas plains from Oklahoma. They have lived in this community for 43 years.

We hope that grandmother Odom will be feeling better real soon.

The O. H. Hoovers have returned home from a two weeks vacation at Stamford Lake. We didn't fish much—mostly loafed. Saw some big ones the other fellow caught—the largest one weighed 55 pounds. It rained every night last week. That is sure wet country.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Yates returned to Hermleigh Monday to finish moving to the parsonage.

Building permits off to slow June start

The lone June permit through Tuesday was issued Tom Johnson for a 6 by 22-foot addition to his residence at 606 South Avenue G.

The permit brought the year's total to $157,370.

Building permits through the first five months were: January, $52,100; February, $24,300; March, $15,410; April, $52,750; May, $12,710.

Wildcat seen as Abo extension

Remember The Dispatch's story two weeks ago about a Midland geologist's detailed analysis of the possibility of rich Abo Reef extending through eastern Garza County and winding like a river across West Texas?

Friday, the Atlantic Refining Co. announced it will drill the No. 1 M. A. Parker as a 4,600-foot Abo wildcat, 12 miles northeast of Fluvanna.

It is three-quarters of a mile south of an 8,600-foot failure 1 1/4 miles southwest of a 2,616-foot duster, and 2 1/2 miles west of an 8,218-foot hole.

The new Abo wildcat also is four miles east of the Gordon Simpson field and four miles west-northwest of the Fluvanna pool.

Location spots at 2,080 feet from west and 1,980 feet from the south lines of Section 6S3, Block 97, H&TC Survey.

Needless to say, all oil men will watch it with considerable interest.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

public fallout shelters, it is doubtful that there will be a second phase of the survey in the county.

County Judge J. E. Parker told The Dispatch that none of the buildings and other facilities checked by the architect-engineer firms in their survey of the county were approved as potential shelters.

"They said the courthouse basement came nearest measuring up to specifications of any structure in the county, but that it could not be considered safe," Judge Parker said.

The county judge also said the architect-engineer firms making the survey listed a few private homes here as having adequate shelters, but that these, of course, could not be designated as public shelters.

The first part of the survey, which was conducted throughout Texas, included locating existing buildings and other facilities which have a potential use as public fallout shelters.

In counties where adequate shelters were found, the second phase of the survey, now getting under way, will include architect-engineer firms placing a small sticker in the shelter areas of those buildings surveyed having a protection factor of 100 or better and a minimum capacity for 50 people. This identification will assist local civil defense personnel in designating the area as a fallout shelter.

The National Shelter Survey is a cooperative effort of local civil defense organizations, the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, and the Navy Bureau of Yards and Docks under the direction of the Office of Civil Defense, Department of Defense, and the Division of Defense and Disaster Relief of the Governor's Office.

Wade-Burkes wedding is event of June 1 in Raleigh, N. C.

Miss Mary Ashley Wade and Mr. Ray Burke pledged their marriage vows at 12 o'clock noon, June 1, in St. Mary's Chapel, St. Mary's Junior College, Raleigh, N. C.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. John Johnson Wade of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burke of Post.

Dr. Moultrie Guerry, rector of St. Mary's, officiated at the double ceremony. The altar was decorated with sweeping cascade arrangements of white roses, gladiolus, and chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Nathan Manley Johnson Jr., of Dunn, N. C. She wore a white gown of white de lustré tulle, decorated with hand sewn designs of crystals and seed pearls, three-quarter length sleeves with a bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train. The French illusion veil was attached to a satin disc of sequon lace outlined with seed pearls. The bride carried white orchids with sprays of lily of the valley on a prayer book.

Miss Bettie Sue Tart, Dunn, N. C., was the maid of honor. Miss Linda Burke, sister of the groom, and Miss Betsey Johnson of Dunn, a cousin of the bride's, were the bridesmaids. They all wore identical gowns of pale blue taffeta with white rosebuds appliqued on the bodice and the bouffant skirt. Each wore rose-shaped blue taffeta head-dresses and carried old-fashioned bouquets of yellow and white rose buds.

Louie Burke served his son as best man.

Ushers were William Hale White Jr., Greensboro, N. C., John William Tullows Jr., of Rocky Mount, N. C., and John Wesley Purdie II, of Dunn, cousin of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony, an interlude of wedding selections were played by Donald Peery, chapel organist and instructor of music at St. Mary's. The traditional wedding processional and recessional were played.

It's My Turn BY MRS. C

My, doesn't everything in town look nice and green—that is, everything that is supposed to look green. The old saying, "Something good always comes out of something bad", can also be reversed, cause laws that needed to be cut once a week now seem to need it after each shower. Don't the weeds come out nice and easy? Love to pull those goatheads right after a rain.

I wondered for ages after moving to Texas why in the world those weeds were called goatheads. Remember Jessie Pearce? I wondered aloud to her once and she immediately showed me.

Our dog, Molly, also showed me how to pull them out of feet or hands without getting stuck by the darn things. We noticed that she didn't yelp when pulling them out of her paws and decided it was because her mouth was wet. Sure enough, it works—just dampen your fingers and they pull out with no pain.

Now, I'd call that a hardy bit of information to pick up where you were least expecting it.

Don't get me wrong, I love writing about weddings but just wonder if I continue in the business for years if I might not write a very terse sentence or two whenever the two Miss Cs take that step. Such as—Miss C and Mr. X were married. Parents trying to recover physically and financially.

See where the screwworm fly "factory" is to be dedicated soon at Mission. Funny I haven't gotten an invitation.

Looking forward to the rodeo? We are. May favorite part is when the Brahma bulls get real stubborn and frisky and can't be run out of the arena without a lot of excitement.

Sorry we moved to rodeo country after I was too old to be a fence sitter. The youngsters down there seem to have more fun than anyone else.

Pleasant Valley Church scene of Justice-Johnson wedding

Miss Leatrice Lucille Justice became the bride of Allen Sexton Johnson at 8 o'clock, June 8 in the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church.

The Rev. Joe Green, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Justice and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson, both of Route 2, are parents of the couple.

Bouquets of flowers, palm trees and an archway of white tapers completed the scene for the ceremony. A white carpet was rolled down the church aisle for the bride by Joel Morris.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white

Chantilly lace over chiffon. It featured a Victorian collar and long sleeves trimmed with seed pearls and tiny satin buttons and loops. The bouffant skirt was ballerina length. Small bows of seed pearls at spaced intervals on the lace border accented the finger tip veil. She wore white satin shoes and lace gloves, and carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding an orchid with strands of pearls atop a blue satin Bible.

Miss Avie Justice, cousin of the bride from Hereford, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Justice, cousin of the bride, and Miss Nancy Bingham. They were dressed in orchid lace over satin sheath gowns accented with brief sleeves, boat necklines with a back V. They wore orchid lace veil hats with a satin bow and carried white chrysanthemums with streamers.

Misses Linda and Lanita Justice, sisters of the bride, were flower girls. Ronnie Williams, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Lighting the candles were Miss Carol Justice and Kenneth McFadin.

Robert Johnson served his brother as best man. Ushers were Auy Lee McBride and Kenneth McFadin.

"Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Virgil Justice. Georgie Willson accompanied the soloist.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall at the church. The serving table featured a three-tiered wedding cake, an orchid and white wedding house with miniature bride and groom and an arrangement of orchid and white flowers.

The couple will be at home at 307 North Avenue I in Post where Mrs. Johnson is employed by Post

Bride-elect is honored Tuesday at shower here

The receiving line was composed of Miss Butler, attired in a yellow sheath dress, Mr. Stanley Butler and Mrs. Graydon Howell Sr. They wore white carnation corsages, gifts of the hostesses.

Mrs. Maysel James presided at the bride's book.

The serving table was covered with lace over yellow and featured a crystal basket of daises.

Misses Margie Harrison, Barbara Britton and Diane Kiker assisted with the serving of cake squares and punch.

Recorded music of the Post High School 1960 girls' sextet, of which Miss Butler was a member, was enjoyed by the guests.

Hostesses were: Mmes. James, Daisy Britton, Mabel Martin, Pat Johnson, Will Teaff, Harold Britton, E. E. Pierce, Paul Duren, W. C. Kiker and Lloyd Anthony.

Implement Company. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are graduates of Post High School.

Changing role in a changing world

With the traditional Father's Day coming up Sunday, this is a good time to take a look at Dad's changing role in a changing world.

Only a generation or two ago, Dad's place was pretty well understood by everyone. First, he was the provider which meant he was depended upon to earn the family's income. Second, if he wore the pants in his family (some didn't of course), he ruled the family roost. He came home expecting a good, hot dinner waiting on the stove and with the wife and the children waiting to greet him. That was the family time. Consequently he made all the major family decisions. Stemming back from the time the family was a self-sufficient unit in an agrarian world, he was also expected to be able to handle all household and family crises with aplomb and dispatch.

Yep, in those days Dad was king. Providing of course his wife wasn't too big and endowed with too much sass.

Well, as we said at the start, times have changed. We might emphasize that a bit more and say, "My, how times have changed—as far as Dad is concerned."

His current status—or lack of it—really isn't his fault. That's just the way it turned out for him in a changing world.

The first thing that happened in our little materialistic society is that Dad went at it night and day to be the family provider. This was because the providing got to be a virtual round-the-clock chore because there was simply so much "providing" everybody wanted.

The choice is up to you

Petitions are now being circulated calling for a school district election on the integration issue. Its presentation now is as an economy measure.

Post Independent School District trustees are saying that to hold the tax levy line without an increase integration is necessary.

They cannot make the choice themselves. Integration by Texas law cannot come without an approving vote of the district's qualified voters.

So the choice, once the petitions are signed, is up to the voters. The choice is simply integration or a tax increase. The trustees are saying in effect that the voters can have the tax increase, or they can integrate and escape a tax boost at a time when the new White River taxes have made it painful for property owners.

In all fairness to your trustees, remember that they are simply advocating you make the choice, because legally they cannot. They are not saying integrate. But they are saying they believe they must pass along a tax boost to you this year if you don't.

Operation of the Lincoln colored school for the 1962-63 school year and for the tuition and transportation of colored high school students to the Slaton colored high school calls for the expenditure of $34,923.69 in the proposed new budget.

Rains change area's outlook

The rains last weekend have brought a different business complex to Post's Main Street and to the entire community and area.

The business cycle in West Texas is hinged more to the weather than in any other single business factor. That of course is normal for every area where farming is a top income producer.

Dryland farmers, who have done well the last few years with dryland cotton, saw the rains come in time to plant. They of course wished they had come earlier. But getting in a cotton crop by this date—June 14—still allows a full growing season providing the weather again cooperates with a late fall.

There is lots of bustle now around our farm

Go out and enjoy the rodeo

The Post Dispatch wishes to add its "rodeo welcome" to the decorative signs sponsored by the Lions Club and paid for by the cooperating businessmen.

In Post this weekend for the Post Stampede Rodeo are many old-time fans who fondly remember the event as "the fastest show in the west," and also many newcomers who are attending the big western event for the first time. To all, we extend a hearty welcome.

Real sign of road progress

While it will prove of some inconvenience to motorists, it's a real sign of progress to see work get under way on widening of three farm-to-market roads within the Post city limits.

These road improvements have eagerly been awaited since the highway department first announced several months ago that it would widen the paving if the city and property owners would pay for the curbs and gutters. It took some doing on the part of the City of Post to get in a position to give the "go" sign on the curbs and gutters, but the mayor and city council, realizing the benefit of the paving program, never let up in

What our contemporaries are saying

No one is ever too old to learn, and that may be why all of us keep putting it off.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

Never underestimate the power of a woman—particularly if she's wearing spiked heels.—Berle Snyder in The Denver City Press.

around home, so Mom eventually stepped into that breach and took over. The family deciding, for instance, was taken over by Mom as essential to family survival. By the time Dad was through for the day, making a decision was about the last thing he wanted to encounter on the family doorstep. Dad used to do the buying. Any smart clerk will tell you these days, the women buy just about everything, including Dad's clothes. Also salesmen love to get the man of the house into their demonstrators, alone. They complain it's the wife who louses up the deal. Even the banker will tell you that women more and more are becoming the persons of money and influence.

That wasn't all. Dad also found he didn't have time to tinker as the household handyman. He was too tired by the time he chugged home. He just flopped into his easy chair in front of the television and went to sleep. So what happened? You guessed it! Mom again. The women today are the "fix-its."

But the crowning blow came when, try as he would, Dad couldn't even keep up with the No. 1 chore of providing. Yep! That's right. Moms went to work by the millions to help out. Business and industry found them mighty effective too.

That ruined Dad's last reward, the hot supper on the stove. As a result frozen foods have taken over the super markets.

It's hard to blame anybody when they come up to this particular Sunday in June and remark: "Father's Day! What's that?"

It's a wonder they don't add: "Dad? Who is he?"—JC

Broken down this includes: $20,048.06 for four teachers' salaries, $432 for utilities, $200 for janitorial supplies, $360 for the custodian, and $300 for teaching supplies—all for the Lincoln school. The sending of the colored students to Slaton's colored high school is estimated to cost $1,458 for salaries of bus drivers, $5,000 for two buses, $2,820 for repairs, maintenance, gas and oil for three buses, $1,176 for tuition to Slaton and $128.73 for insurance.

If you will notice, this $34,923.60 budget allows not a single dollar for any repairs to the Lincoln building, or any improvements. It's strictly a hold-the-line type of budget.

Should repairs or improvements become necessary—as eventually they will—the cost will go higher and the school district will be forced to cut back someplace else to pay the bills.

The postponement of integration from year to year is an expensive proposition. And actually it is nothing but that—a postponement.

If the petitions are signed, the vote will come. The school budget which must be finished soon cannot be finally approved until your decision is then registered one way or the other.

It is a time for serious thought. Which do you want?—JC implement houses. This will spread all up and down Main Street.

The rains not only made the farmers happy, but Post residents and Post authorities as well. It definitely ended the water crisis here. The reservoir is full. Lawns which went without water for two weeks in a cooperative effort to save this community's dwindling water supply for more important uses are now fresh and green again. Grass is spreading. The dry spring is over. The rains have come.

And with the rains come the essential psychological factor of freshening up everyone's mind and outlook again.—JC

The Post Stampede came near being a casualty of the times. It was revived this year after last being held in 1959, and indications are that the Post Stampede Rodeo organization was 100 per cent right in their decision that it was time to hold another rodeo.

Go out and enjoy the rodeo during the remaining performances. It's one of America's top spectator sports—unmatched in any other land.—CD

Their efforts. The road widening will add immeasurably to the importance of the paved road system within city limits.

Now is also a good time to speak a word of praise for the highway department's comparatively new policy of holding meetings for the purpose of acquainting everyone concerned with the nature of such projects. Nothing is left unanswered at these meetings, which are held not only for the purpose of furnishing information on just what is to be done, but also to stress the need of traffic safety within the project areas.—CD

One reason more people are killed in auto accidents than in train wrecks is because the engineer never tries to hug the fireman.—Harold Hudson in Ochiltree County Herald.

What usually makes them the good old days is a rich imagination and a poor memory.—James Roberts in The Andrews County News.

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

UNTIL IT'S RAINED, and especially when it has been as dry as it has this year, I never like to spring "no-rain" jokes in this column—nor anywhere else in the newspaper, for that matter. But, since the rains have come, I can relate here something one fellow said when it was hot and dry and no rain in sight. He said, "I can tell you one thing . . . when it doesn't rain out in this country, it doesn't rain harder than anywhere else in the United States."

The man up the street says the world changes so fast that you couldn't stay wrong all the time if you tried.

THE TOWN OF Midlothian, population 1,521, is just a speck on the highway map, but its newspaper, The Midlothian Mirror, and its "fighting" editor, Penn Jones Jr., have made the Ellis County town a pretty big place on the nation's journalistic map.

The wife and I stopped in Midlothian several days ago, en route home from Dallas, because I wanted to visit the office of the Midlothian Mirror and shake hands with one of the most courageous newspaper editors in the country. It was a Wednesday morning, which usually is a bad time to pay a visit to a weekly newspaper office, but we found Editor Jones with a little time on his hands, and after he'd showed us around his office, he bought us a cup of coffee and filled us in on some of the experiences which have brought nationwide recognition to himself and his newspaper.

EDITOR JONES, who is only two inches over five feet tall, has been engaged in a no-holds-barred battle with extreme right-wing groups in his community. The fact that he has been punched around some and had his newspaper office damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars by a "Molotov cocktail" thrown through the front door, hasn't slowed the Midlothian editor. He showed us the damage caused by the fire-bomb and also the bomb itself. It was thrown late at night through a hole in the glass of the front door—a hole that had been made earlier in the day during a fist fight between Jones and one of the leaders of the opposition. A few weeks earlier, the Mirror editor had engaged in a fist fight with the high school principal as the result of his protest over an extreme right-winger being allowed to air his views in a high school assembly.

There still are many people in Midlothian who don't see "Red" every time someone disagrees with them, and these people are firmly behind Jones in his beliefs that the John Birch Society nor any other group should be forced down the throats of school children without equal time being allowed the other side. That was the argument that brought on his fight with the school official. The City of Midlothian and a group of businessmen there are offering a $750 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the fire-bombing of the newspaper office.

FOLLOWING THE bombing of the newspaper, Editor Jones and the Mirror received nation-wide publicity. Typical was an editorial in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which said, "Editor Jones is only five feet two inches tall, but in our estimation his journalistic determination is nine feet tall."

Another editorial we saw, this one in the Evening Herald, Rock Hill, S. C., said: ". . . Jones is an outspoken critic of extreme right-wing groups, made up of super-patriots who not only know how they feel, but also know how everyone else should feel, too. . . Disagree strongly and in no uncertain terms with the extreme right-wingers, as Penn Jones is doing down in Texas, and you may get yourself punched around and have your property damaged. . . It isn't easy to battle the far right wing, especially in a small town that is 5-3 against you. It takes courage and convictions and the unflinching belief that in America you can and should say what you think is right. When America gets to the point that it can't do just that, it won't be America any more. Stick with it, Penn Jones. In America, the score is better than 5-3. You're way ahead."

ON THAT SAME trip, we went the astronauts one better by coming within six miles of Venus, but it wasn't near the inspiration that it was to visit with Penn Jones Jr., the fearless editor of the Midlothian Mirror. Incidentally, and just to keep the record straight, it wasn't the planet Venus we missed by six miles, but the Johnson County town of Venus (pop. 324), which is six miles off the highway.

Today, June 14, is Flag Day. The flags will have competition from all the rodeo decorations, but, together they'll brighten things up

Bible Thoughts "Sprinkling, Pouring, Immersion"?

By HERB SMITH

Your attention is referred to last week's article giving three laws governing the right conclusion on this question. This week I would like to give a simple list for considering baptism by immersion.

1. There is no example of baptisms in the New Testament where water was brought to the believer.
2. In every example recorded the candidate for baptism was taken to and into the water.
3. John baptized where there was MUCH WATER. John 3:23.
4. The preacher and eunuch went DOWN INTO the water, performed the baptism, and came UP OUT of the water. Acts 8:35ff. Why this procedure if it would have been sufficient and more convenient to have used a cup and the sprinkling or pouring method?
5. "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism . . ." Rom. 6:4. Buried by immersion not by scattering. What does a burial mean?

There is only one baptism Eph 4:5. Therefore there can be no choice except choosing between man's teaching and baptism according to God's teaching. The risk is too dangerous.

BARBECUE AROMAS
 Few aromas do a better job of setting jaded summer appetites than those coming from a backyard barbecue. The backyard chef has a wide array of meats available because of very favorable prices. F. Z. Beamblossom, poultry marketing specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggests interested in picking up additional information on the art of barbecuing that they obtain a copy of MP-312, "Let's Have a Chick" from the county extension office.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN TEXAS... near Galveston, Confederate General J. B. Magruder piled cotton bales on the decks of little river boats. These famous "cotton glads," manned by the 26th Texas Cavalry, trounced the Federal war fleet then holding Texas' largest port. As the war ships hastily departed, the event was toasted in good Texas-brewed beer.

For then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southwestern hospitality to any occasion. Texans have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

STARTLING FIGURES

The debt of Lincoln is so vast that the Yankees admit that unless they can conquer and rob the South this spring, by July it will reach $1,000,000,000. Very few people have an adequate idea of this sum. If it was in gold, allowing 250 to the pound, it would be four millions of pounds or 20,000 tons of 2,000 pounds each. If carried on drays, a thousand pounds on each day, it would take 62,000 days to carry it. Suppose a person could count a dollar each second and work six hours each day. Then it would take 120 years to count it. Putting it in a pile of half dollars, allowing ten to the inch, it would make a pile 3,155 miles high or if laid down on a line, each an inch across, it would be nearly 17,000 miles long. People of the South, the enemy says that you shall pay this vast amount!—THE BRENHAM INQUIRER

Twenty-eight persons received diplomas last Thursday when their class completed their Medical Self-Help course. Mrs. Spencer Kuykendall was the leader of the class, thought to be the largest of all the groups meeting.

Mrs. Kuykendall said that the class wanted to express their appreciation to Dr. Carl F. Page of Lubbock for teaching the class three times.

Those receiving diplomas were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCampbell, Luther Harper, Azalee Harper, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Pvt. Bernard S. Ramsey Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Bernard S. Ramsey of Post, has been assigned to Company H 397th Regiment, at Fort Chaffee, Ark., where he will receive his basic combat training.

During the eight-week course, he will be given instruction in fundamental subjects such as first aid, dismounted drill, map reading and military tactics. He will qualify with the M-1 rifle.

After completion of basic training, Pvt. Ramsey will receive advanced individual training in one of the thousands of specialties required in a modern Army.

The 397th Regiment is part of the 100th Division, an Army Reserve unit from Kentucky. The 100th was the first division called to active duty in the current military build-up.

Area lake gets heavy runoff

SNYDER — Lake J. B. Thomas, the big reservoir which supplies water for Big Spring, Odessa, Snyder and several smaller cities, caught over 6,600 acre-feet of water in the rain storm that hit the area last Thursday night.

The intake amounts to more than 2,200,000,000 gallons, which officials figured will meet the water district's demands for five weeks.

The runoff into the lake was the first significant amount reported since Nov. 1.

Answer To J. Lee Bowen's Letter....

In reply to the letter circulated by J. Lee Bowen as candidate for County Judge, and since the commissioners had no opportunity to reply prior to election day, they feel that the taxpayers of this county are entitled to a reply.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH ONE:

The Legislature of the State of Texas by Article 2350-0, Section 1, has authorized the paying of county judge, as a member of the commissioners court, the sum not to exceed $75.00 per month for traveling expenses and depreciation of his automobile; the judge and the commissioners to pay all expenses of operation of their automobiles and to keep same in repair at their own expense. It is necessary for the county judge to use his automobile in connection with all phases of county business, and such expense allowance is in recognition of the fact that the county judge is entitled to an expense allowance for the use of his own automobile. This has nothing whatever to do with out-of-county travel.

We also call your attention to the fact that the county judge has been entitled to draw, ever since he was in office, additional compensation for acting as juvenile judge, which the judge has never drawn.

We call attention to the fact also, that the travel allowance was passed by the Legislature in 1959. Prior to that time, this allowance was made to commissioners only, although much travel has always been required of the county judge in overseeing county projects.

In addition the county judge accepted (without compensation) the responsibilities of Probation Officer for Garza County thereby saving the county $750.00 per year for their pro rata for a District Probation Officer. This requires additional use of the County Judge's automobile.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH TWO:

Article 1603 VATS provides: "The county commissioners court of each county, as soon as practicable after the establishment of a county seat, or after its removal from one place to another, shall provide a court house and jail for the county, and offices for county officers at such county seat and keep the same in good repair."

In addition thereto, Article 3899-B VATS further provides: "Suitable offices and stationery and blanks necessary in the performance of their duties may in the discretion of the commissioners court also be furnished to resident District Judges, resident District and County Attorneys, County Superintendents and County Surveyors, and may be paid for on order of the Commissioners Court out of the County Treasury."

We observe that Mr. Bowen has never, at any time, pointed out the three offices available in the Court House and he apparently is able to find space which none of the other county officers can find. The commissioners room where the commissioners keep all files and records of the office, is used by the Farmer's Home Administration, by the Internal Revenue Service and the State Highway Patrol. There is no room in the Court House for the District Judge, for the Court Reporter, for the petit jury, for lawyer's consultation with witnesses, or rooms for the attorneys to confer with their clients. We would appreciate it if Mr. Bowen would specifically point out the rooms to which he refers.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH THREE:

The office which apparently is least understood by the people, is the office of the County Attorney. The County Attorney is State Prosecutor for the County. The State Constitution, Article 5, Section 21, provides for the office, and in creating the office, provides as follows: "The County Attorney shall represent the STATE in all cases in district and inferior courts in their respective counties." The Attorney General's office is the highest legal office in the State and the Attorney General's office has summarized the duties of the County Attorney's office and has also summarized those things which are not the duty of the County Attorney. In an address by J. C. Davis Jr., Assistant Attorney General, to the 7th Annual Law Enforcement Conference in Austin May 5, 1957 Mr. Davis stated as follows:

"Thus far in the program your functions in a CRIMINAL capacity have been discussed very ably and very capably and at this time I would like to change the picture just a little and discuss some of the CIVIL functions which concern you as county and district attorneys and as criminal district attorneys.

"This is no reflection on you fellows, but too often you perform duties in behalf of your county and the great State of Texas as duties of your office theoretically, but in reality that are not duties of your office for which you could be compensated and compensated well. In that category are condemnation and eminent domain proceedings; I have known prosecuting attorneys that devoted seventy-five per cent of their time to the handling of such cases in behalf of their respective counties and the State for which they received no compensation. Gentlemen, the County may compensate you for performing these functions just the same as if you were in private practice and whatever compensation you receive is in addition to your regular salary.

"Another type of case that is frequently brought by the County Attorney, District Attorney or the Criminal Attorney is a trespass to try title case for the County. Again, you may be compensated for such services. Also it is not your duty to examine abstracts, to prepare deeds, to write contracts for the County; injunction suits do not have to be brought by you and suits to recover damages done to county property do not fall within your official functions. Even the removal of a tenant from the County Poor Farm, collecting bills incurred for soil conservation work and hospital bills due the county are not among your duties and responsibilities.

"I do not want to be misunderstood in this connection, even though the County has authority to pay you, they can hire you or some other attorney of their own choosing. If they do employ you, you may be compensated on a per day basis, a weekly basis or a per case basis. If you do not have either an oral or written agreement with the Commissioners' Court, they may still compensate you for the reasonable value of your services or what we call a quantum meruit basis."

The County Attorney is no more obligated to represent the county in an ordinary contested case than he is obligated to represent the First National Bank or Southwestern Public Service Co. The County Attorney's functions are as a State's attorney and he does not have the responsibility of representing the county.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH FOUR:

No more glaring misstatement could have been made than the statement that 450 people are on the relief rolls and are being issued free groceries at taxpayers expense. The true facts are these, and they are subject to check by any taxpayer who wishes to check the rolls:

On the County Relief roll are only 13 cases, involving in all 34 people. In every case there is a medical certificate justifying the granting of relief. We do not wish to publish the unfortunate facts around these 13 cases, but the rolls are open and available to any of you.

In addition, there are certified to the County by the State Welfare Department, 50 cases, involving 96 people. These cases are cases over which the county has absolutely no control and upon being certified by the Welfare Department, they automatically become entitled to the issuance of commodities.

The total number drawing commodities, both county and state, adds up to 130 people of whom a great many are old-age pensioners who are automatically entitled to draw commodities under the State law. In addition, we do not feel that the unfortunate who are compelled to be on these rolls, are proper subjects for political discussion. But we also feel that gross misrepresentation should be corrected. We again invite the general public to check the rolls, and we also request any taxpayer to notify us if a "chiseler" has gotten on the relief rolls.

The total cost to the taxpayer of Garza County for commodity distribution is $70.00 per month on the average. Before participating in this program it was costing the county an average of $250.00 per month for groceries for our county indigents. Also by having the commodities our old age pensioner has their small pension supplemented as they automatically qualify for the commodities.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH FIVE:

Again Mr. Bowen has misstated the case. County of Garza does not pay the salary of any policeman who works for the City of Post and has no jurisdiction or control over any of the City of Post policemen. They are hired and paid for by the City. The County of Garza does contribute to the City of Post, as is allowed by law, for the purpose of maintaining the radio station and for the purpose of maintaining the fire department. The people of the county outside the city limits would be left entirely without fire protection if the county did not make this contribution. The radio is a part of the civil defense set-up and is used in police protection, tornado alerts, fires, and any other grave emergency. The City of Post, during one week in May, paid out in salaries alone to firemen, the sum of $2108.00 for fighting fires outside the city. The county feels that it is both legally and morally obligated to assist the City of Post in both of these projects as they are for the benefit not only of the people of the City of Post, but of the entire county.

IN ANSWER TO PARAGRAPH SIX:

We would suggest that this matter was submitted openly and without reservations, to the voters of Precinct 1 of the County of Garza, and the voters of Precinct 1 voted down this hard issue. There were no misrepresentations and no concealment and the voters expressed their opinion and that opinion was respected.

The commissioners court feels that four-laning Highway 84 to the Lynn County line is a worthwhile project. But when it is decided to go on with the project the people of Precinct 1 will have another opportunity to express their free wishes at the polls.

In conclusion and in connection with charges of extravagance by Mr. Bowen, we would like to call the attention of the taxpayers to the facts:

Our county finances are in excellent condition. We owe a net indebtedness of $121,000.00. Our county-wide net indebtedness is $32,000.00. Our road district net indebtedness is $89,000.00. This reflects a decrease in total net indebtedness over past three years of $175,000.00. Also our total operating funds are in better shape by some $25,000.00 than they were four years ago. While the county is operating on a sound cash basis today (1962) in 1950 after 12 years of Lee Bowen's administration it had an indebtedness of $554,312.01 as compared to today's $121,000.00.

2,000 cheering fans see first night rodeo show

The 20th annual Post Stampede Rodeo got off the ground last night before approximately 2,000 spectators, and so did the Brahma bulls, which let only one of seven riders stay aboard.

Last night's show not only was the first Stampede Rodeo performance since 1959, but it also was one of the shortest on record with the final event on the night's program being completed at 9:30 o'clock.

The rodeo will continue tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday night.

Last night's show at the big Post Stampede arena followed by some two hours and a half the traditional—and colorful—opening day parade.

The Scurry County Sheriff's Posse pulled down first place in the riding group division of the parade, with second place going to the Hale County Sheriff's Posse and third place to the Lynn County Sheriff's Posse.

Other riding groups in the parade were the Terry and Cochran County Sheriff's Posse, the Petersburg Riding Club and the Scurry County Junior Sheriff's Posse, which received a special trophy.

The $25 first prize in the float division went to the Amity Study Club, second prize of $15 to the Women's Auxiliary of Garza Memorial Hospital and third prize of $10 to Jackson Bros. Food Locker.

There were also floats and decorated automobiles representing Tom Power Ford, Caprock Chevrolet Co., Brown Bros. et al. The Post Dispatch, Post Volunteer Fire Department, First National Bank, Postex Cotton Mills, and other business firms.

Four of Post's six Little League baseball teams were also represented in the parade.

With the exception of the big Brahma bulls, the cowboys had the upper hand with most of the rodeo stock furnished by new producer Adrian Parker of Saint Jo, Tex. Most of the bareback and saddle bronc riders turned in completed rides and good times were posted in the roping events.

The hour and a half long show moved along smoothly following the grand entry, which was started at 7:45—15 minutes earlier than usual.

In addition to the new producer, there was a new announcer—Gene Robertson of Marietta, Okla. Boyce Hart of Guthrie, Tex., who has performed here before, was the clown and presented a special act with his trained horse.

The show started with a thrill when M. M. Moore of Cotton Center, the first rider in the bareback bronc riding event, was thrown head over heels by the bronc Running Bear.

Home town contestants were sprinkled throughout the ropers and riders in the opening night's show. One of them, newcomer Walter Arnold, formerly of Silverton, turned in the best times in both the tie-down calf roping and ribbon roping events.

Postings

By JIM CORNISH

The rains have come—and the rodeo is here. That about sums up the quickened pace noticeable all over town yesterday.

The phone kept ringing all through yesterday with inquiries as to what time the rodeo parade was scheduled.

We'd be worried about any parade in which the office didn't receive a couple of dozen calls about starting time.

The news is good too on the White River front. The district will receive bids July 12 on construction of the long-sought dam and should award contracts by Aug. 1. That could mean a lot more for the development of Post in the not too distant future than many folks realize—and we mean industrially.

We've said it a dozen times, but we're putting it down here once more to be emphatic. If there ever were a bunch of more dedicated town and area boosters than the directors of our White River board, I have yet to meet them. It's been a long haul—but realization time is getting close.

Danish girl to be exchange student

Susanne Krause, a 16-year-old Danish girl, is scheduled to arrive in Post near the end of August to attend the high school here as a foreign exchange student sponsored by the PHS Student Council.

Miss Krause will be the first foreign exchange student ever to attend school here. She will be a senior.

The Post Rotary Club is assisting the Student Council in bringing the exchange student to Post. The Rotarians raised funds to help finance the project with a Rotarian-Post Doe basketball game in March.

Dr. B. E. Young is the Rotarian in charge of the club's assistance with the exchange student project.

Miss Krause's home is in Lyngby, Denmark, where her father is head clerk in the municipal office and her mother is a kindergarten teacher. See STUDENT, Page 8

CAMP BEGINS

Things began humming Sunday at C. W. Post Memorial Boy Scout Camp here as the summer camp program began. Some 165 boys and a dozen or so adult leaders are at the camp this week for the first session. In the top picture, talking over some of the camp plans, are l. to r.: Eric Kramer of Plainview, a member of the aquatic staff; Dr. D. J. Stafford of Littlefield, present to give the Scouts a physical check; Jack Moore, a camp director, and Scoutmaster Clarence Bartley of Littlefield. At the left, two of the first Scouts to arrive are shown "unloading." They are Mike Lumsden, left, and Kim Hanlin, both of Littlefield.—(Staff Photos)

Second summer driver training course offered

With the driver training class out of the 1962-63 school curriculum as an economy measure (see explanation in school trustee story), the schools will offer a second summer driver training course for all interested students, beginning July 16.

Supt. R. T. Smith announced the cost to parents will be $20 for the course with at least 20 students needed if the course is to be given.

School trustees Monday night agreed to have the schools provide the driver training car, gas, oil, and insurance. The $20 tuition will cover the cost of instruction only.

Parents interested in enrolling sons or daughters in the six weeks course are asked to call either the superintendent's office, 3343, or the high school office, 2770, as enrollment is now open for the class.

If there is not enough interest, no summer program will be offered.

ARCHERY CLUB TO HOLD EXHIBITION

The public is invited to attend an archery exhibition at City-County Park here at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The exhibition will be staged by the Post Archery Club, which now has about 24 members, according to Charles Y. Morrow, president.

The purpose of the exhibition, which will include all types of archery, is to better acquaint the public with this fast-growing sport, Morrow said.

$1,500 item found after 3 years in Frisco pawn shop

Some good sleuthing by Sheriff Fay Claborn has reunited County Attorney Carleton P. Webb with his $1,500 gift ring.

It's a blue star sapphire ring in a white gold filling with 20-point diamonds on either side.

The ring was part of the loot in a juvenile's burglary of Webb's office in December of 1959.

How did Sheriff Claborn recover it?

He got it back from a San Francisco pawn shop. This is how the action went.

Some three weeks ago he accosted a local juvenile with a .380 pistol in his possession. It turned out to be the pistol stolen from Webb's office at the same time the ring was taken along with 38 silver dollars.

The youth had been questioned after the robbery almost three years ago but denied implication and nothing could be found to link him to it then.

This time, with the gun in his possession, he talked. He told Sheriff Claborn he had sold the ring to a Lubbock pawnbroker for $1. That's right—one buck.

Checking with the pawnbroker disclosed he had sold it to a traveling man for $160. More checking disclosed this man had pawned it in San Francisco. The shop was contacted—and the ring was there.

It has been returned. The Lubbock pawnbroker refunded the $160 to the man who had bought it. Webb returned the partial insurance of $200 he had received for the ring's loss.

In discussing the ring yesterday, Webb said that wasn't the only story connected with the ring.

Seems as though three months before it was stolen in the 1959 burglary he had been returning from Lubbock one night and stopped at a drive-in stand in Slaton for a milk shake. He drove on toward home, drinking his milk shake. When he finished it, he tossed the paper cup out the window of his car and when he threw the paper cup the ring sailed off his (See WEBB'S RING, Page 8)

Petitions circulate on integration vote

Five members of the Post Independent School District trustees attending the board's regular June session Monday night took petitions to circulate asking for an election to determine if district voters want to integrate the schools here next year.

School trustees last week at a special meeting to go over the proposed 1962-63 budget found the district $41,000 short of funds of meet proposed expenditures at the current tax rate and valuation. They voted unanimously at that time to offer the voters the integration proposition as an economy measure to reduce the $41,000 needed by at least $25,000 and possibly more. They pledged to hold the tax levy line if integration is voted, but announced a tax increase would be necessary if integration were rejected.

AT THE REGULAR meeting Monday night, trustees discussed another problem in connection with the continued operation of the Lincoln colored school—accreditation by the Texas Educational Agency.

According to state procedures, all the Post schools would lose accreditation if a single unit fell below acceptable state standards. One board member estimated it would cost at least $5,000 in unbudgeted expenditures to bring Lincoln grade school up to state standards if district schools were to receive a state inspection this year.

Loss of accreditation would mean local high school graduates going on to college would have to pass an entrance examination before qualifying for admission.

It was pointed out that should colored students refuse to accept high school studies at the Slaton colored high school, if segregation is continued, the cost to the district would be immeasurably greater.

A colored high school here would require at state minimum at least four teachers, none of which would be paid for from state aid as there would not be enough students to qualify for state aid funds. A colored high school building would possibly cost $100,000.

TRUSTEES POINTED out no funds for any of these improvements. (See SCHOOL BOARD, Page 8)

Dan Sanders, 91, dies here Tuesday

Dan Sanders, 91, a retired farmer and one of Garza County's oldest residents, died Tuesday night at his home at 115 East Fifth St.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday at Mason Funeral Chapel, with burial in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Mr. Sanders moved to Post in 1910 from Abilene. He was married to Miss Emily Lou Connally at Anson on Nov. 23, 1904.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Mmes. L. F. Joiner of Clovis, N. M., Ina Smith and J. A. Burcham, both of Olney, and M. C. Edwards of Visalia, Calif.; three sons, Tom Sanders of Lubbock, Dan Sanders Jr. of Atwater, Calif., and Robert B. Sanders of Terling, Okla.; 32 grandchildren and 53 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Kendall S. White, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will officiate at the funeral services.

Pallbearers will be R. E. Shedd, Loyd Anthony, D. H. Bartlett, Elmer Hitt, Sam Sanders and Bill Windham.

SURMANS RETURN

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Surman returned home Tuesday from New Orleans, La., where Dr. Surman underwent surgery. They arrived in Lubbock and visited with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Justice before returning to Post. It is reported that Dr. Surman is doing fine.

Tornado hits Canyon Valley

Heavy rains put big dent in area drought

Hard rains, some of them accompanied by turbulent weather, apparently have broken the drought in Garza County.

Two tornadoes, one of them causing considerable damage on the Dennis Eubank farm in the Canyon Valley area north of Post, were reported last Thursday night. The other tornado, reported in the Fluvanna area, is not believed to have caused any damage.

Mrs. Durrett dies Wednesday night

Mrs. J. R. Durrett, a resident of Post for over 43 years, died at her home here at 102 West 11th St. about 8:30 o'clock last night following an illness of several weeks.

Funeral services are set for 10 o'clock Friday morning at the First Methodist Church, with other arrangements pending at Mason Funeral Home.

Mrs. Durrett, whose maiden name was Mayme Ford, was married to J. R. Durrett on June 18, 1916, at Tulsa. Her husband, who died in May, 1953, had been an employee of the Double U Company for some 35 years.

Mrs. Durrett's survivors include a daughter, Miss Maxine Durrett, also of Post.

A hard rain early yesterday morning measured 1.09 inches in Post, with about the same amount being reported in the Graham community, southwest of here. A two-inch rain was reported in the vicinity of the Boy Scout camp, two miles southwest of town.

Wednesday morning's rain was spotted northwest of town, with one farmer in the Close City community reporting that he received just under a quarter of an inch.

Added to last week's rains, the precipitation brought the 1962 total to 3.76 inches, with 3.15 inches of it falling last week and this week. Up to last week's rains, the measurement on County Agent Syd Conner's rain gauge showed only .61 of an inch since Jan. 1.

165 Boy Scouts begin camping

Sixteen Boy Scout troops, numbering approximately 165 boys, are camped this week at C. W. Post Memorial Boy Scout Camp for the first week of the summer camp program.

In addition to the Boy Scouts, a number of scoutmasters and other leaders and camp officials are on hand for the camp, which opens Sunday.

The first week's session of camp will end following the Friday night camp fire and the boys and their leaders will leave Saturday morning. There will be three other camp sessions, continuing through July 14, with the second session opening Sunday.

At Camp Post this week are four troops from Lubbock, three from Littlefield and one each from Slaton, Quitaque and Matador.

The four weeks' program will be accommodated approximately by 165 Boy Scouts by the time the camp ends July 7, according to Jack Moore, one of the camp directors. The other director is Bill Claborn.

The camp here serves Boy Scouts from the South Plains Council. Frank Voss is the camp ranger.

The public is invited to attend the Friday night programs at the camp. There is ample parking space at the camp headquarters.

The institute is being held at Southland during the 1961-62 term.

White River project

To receive bids on dam July 12

Bids for construction of the long-awaited White River Dam will be received July 12 with construction contracts expected to be awarded by Aug. 1, the water district's land committee announced today.

Advertising for the bids already has begun in trade journals and directly to interested contractors.

The condemnation commission hearing for approximately 2,000 acres on Mrs. Lee Walker's ranch in Crosby County, which includes the actual dam site, has been set for July 2 in Crosbytown.

Marvin McLaughlin of Rails, chairman of the land committee, said his committee has a meeting scheduled with Mrs. Walker for Friday afternoon.

McLaughlin explained the water district will post the amount for the condemnation hearing immediately following the July 2 commission hearing so the district could take possession of the dam site and make it available to contractors for inspection in figuring their bids.

The condemnation hearing was held up while "lost interests" in the property sought were advertised for over a 42-day period as required by law.

The condemnation commission was appointed by the Crosby County court judge.

McLaughlin said construction work on the dam would start "as immediately as possible" once the contracts are awarded late next month. He said two weeks or more would be required for the district's engineers to study the bids and come up with their recommendations as to whom should receive the contracts.

Some improvement was reported yesterday in the condition of Postmaster Harold Voss, who had been in Garza Memorial Hospital since suffering a heart attack early Friday afternoon.

Voss became ill just as he got back into town from Austin, where he had attended the state postmasters' convention. A doctor was called as soon as he got home and he was taken immediately to the hospital.

It is reported that Voss will be in the hospital for about three more weeks.
