New dormitories are being built for Boys Ranch

Construction of two new dormitories at Boys Ranch of West Texas, San Angelo, is nearing completion. They will replace the old barracks building, which has to be done away with because of construction of the Three Rivers Dam.

The new buildings are made possible by money received from the old building and donation from the Dora Cunningham Foundation of Scurry County. Further donations are sought in order to furnish the new dormitories.

Boys Ranch is a non-profit, non-denominational institution supplied solely by the public for "hard luck" boys of West Texas. Founded in 1947, it has already furnished a home and schooling for 500 boys who have lived at the ranch.

James L. Minor of Post is the Garza County member of the advisory committee of Boys Ranch.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor:

I feel that the best way to let the public know how much we appreciate the good work of the Post Volunteer Fire Department in the fire which swept the Algerita Hotel the night of Dec. 4 is by a letter to the Editor.

Mr. Tracy and I shall be ever grateful to the firemen for their efficient work in fighting the fire and in keeping the damage from being even higher than it was.

Too many of us do not appreciate the value to the community of our volunteer fire department, but like our schools, churches and homes, it is something the community could not do without.

Again, we wish to say "Thank You" to the firemen for their good work, and also to all others who assisted in any way.

MRS. JO TRACY

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fondren of Plainview were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lobban.

In Garza County this year

5 deaths recorded in rural accidents

The Highway Patrol investigated 10 accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of November according to Sgt. A. E. Roberts, Highway Patrol supervisor for this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person killed, two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $5,595.

The rural traffic accident summary for Garza County from January through November of 1961 shows a total of 68 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were five persons killed and 32 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $56,430.

The veteran patrol supervisor announced that a stepped-up traffic law enforcement program is being launched in an all-out effort to stem the tide of traffic deaths during the remainder of the year.

"We find ourselves confronted with the alarming fact that statistics indicate some 238 persons will be killed in traffic crashes in Texas this December," he stated.

The patrol supervisor reported that as of Friday, Dec. 1, a total of 2,014 traffic deaths had been reported to the department, as compared with 1,984 during the same period in 1960. "This represents an increase of 30 deaths or two per cent," he said, "and presents all of us with a stern challenge to hold the line during the month of December. This will not be an easy job, because the toll of 218 deaths during December, 1960, was low for that month of the year and we will have to beat that in order to halt the trend toward a higher death toll for 1961.

"But we feel confident that with an accelerated enforcement program and most important, the active support and cooperation of the driving public—the statistics can be made to lie. And that is exactly what we propose to do.

"We feel that the traffic death tragedy cannot be over-emphasized. When it is considered that during last year alone, there were 2,254 violent deaths on the streets and highways of our state caused by colliding motor vehicles, it can readily be seen that concerted action on the part of everyone concerned is in order," the Sergeant added.

Spur business houses have been requested to close at 6 p. m. that day. The schools have indicated they will keep the date by not scheduling ball games that night.

'Operation Deathwatch' set for Dec. 23-Jan. 1

AUSTIN—Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, estimated today that 173 persons will meet violent death during the long Christmas-New Year holiday season—with traffic crashes taking the lives of 88, other accidents 45, and suicides and homicides 40.

He designated the period from 12:01 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 23, through 11:59 p. m. Monday, Jan. 1, as the official time for "Operation Deathwatch," a grim tabulation of fatalities designed to focus

Going, gone Texas wildlife subject magazine article

AUSTIN—Vanished and vanishing wildlife of Texas is described in art and stories in an 8-page section of the December issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine.

The text was prepared by Dr. W. B. Davis of Texas A&M College, and the art work done by Nancy McGowan of the Texas Game and Fish magazine staff. According to T. D. Carroll, coordinator of information and education for the Game and Fish Commission, the article covers the wild bison, grey wolf, blackfooted ferret, the grizzly bear and the Merriam elk, as vanished from Texas.

Among the vanishing are the bighorn sheep, the kit fox, the river otter, black bear and prairie dog. These animals, in their day, were all plentiful in Texas, but are being pushed out with the increasing human population and destruction of native habitat.

The magazine also contains an article by the Rev. Joseph A. McGehee, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Beeville, on the subject of "Caretakers for the Master."

public attention upon the extra hazards of the holiday season.

The DPS director said another purpose of this program is to "launch a stringent enforcement program to remove the relatively few dangerous and illegal drivers from the highways."

"We are urging responsible citizens throughout the state to join in this all-out holiday safety effort by avoiding traffic law violations which could be calculated to cause violent death or injury," he said.

"Texans are confronted this year with a special challenge to help keep the tragic death toll below the figure indicated by statistical experience. The months of November and December were singled out this year for a stepped-up enforcement program because of indications that the year 1961 will end with a somewhat greater death figure than for 1960, when 2,254 persons died in Texas traffic."

"During the period of 'Operation Deathwatch,' Garrison continued, "uniformed officers of the License and Weight Service and the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, numbering some 150 men, will be added to the regular Highway Patrol force, thereby giving broader patrol coverage."

"Our patrolmen will be working overtime hours, leaves will be cancelled and they will remain especially alert for those serious law violations which are responsible for most fatal accidents—such as excessive speed and driving while drinking," he said.

"In addition, they have instructions to increase the number of routine driver license checks, which may expose other hazardous violations. And the use of radar equipment will be increased with the recent acquisition of additional units of a new type which are mounted on patrol cars and require only one man for operation."

"In other words, we will be doing everything within our power to prove the statistics, which are so often right, are wrong for the Christmas-New Year holiday, 1961. And we trust that holiday motorists will help by heeding the traffic laws and rules of safety."

COLLEGE STATION—Winter is the best time to rid your farm of a pest called Garryn Hoffman, extension specialist. This thief is a voracious vegetation growing on the fence rows, which robs cash crops of valuable moisture.

During a wet year, the damage is not so great, but during a dry year, yields can be greatly reduced in a 50 to 100 foot band around the entire field.

On the other hand, if this brush is furnishing good habitat for quail it should be left alone, says Hoffman.

The easiest way to get rid of the fence row thieves is to treat the area with chemicals. Winter is a good time because it is a slack season for labor, you can do a good job of treatment, and good kills can be obtained with no danger to susceptible crops. It is important to apply the herbicides thoroughly, and a followup treatment the next winter is usually necessary to keep the brush under control.

Herbicides that can be used are 2,3,5-T and fenuron pellets. The 2,4,5-T should be mixed with diesel oil, and the mixture applied liberally to the lower 12 inches of the tree trunk. Fenuron pellets should be applied at the rate of 40 to 60 pounds per acre or 1 tablespoonful per tree.

In most cases, the 2,4,5-T mixture costs less but the pellet can be applied faster and easier, points out Hoffman.

Anyone using these chemicals should be careful to follow the directions on the label of the container. This label will give recommendations for mixing and rates of application.

For more information on how to control unwanted trees and brush, contact your local county agent.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN
 by Lewis C. Herron
 COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

INCOME TAX FILING TIME AT HAND
 The year of 1961 will soon be history. For many people, the end of December means the conclusion of another tax year and that tax obligations must soon be met.

Before tackling the tax reporting job, farmers and ranchers are advised to get a copy of the Internal Revenue Service's 1962 edition of the Farmer's Tax Guide. It is available without cost from your county agent's office or from those of the Internal Revenue Service. The guide is written in easy-to-read style and includes examples of problems worked out on the applicable tax forms.

As for the dates, Jan. 15 is the deadline for farmers and ranchmen who want extra time for filing their annual report to file their 1961 tax estimate. If the estimate is filed, the final date for filing of the 1040 form is extended to April 15. If no estimate is filed, Feb. 15 then becomes the deadline for making the final tax report. These deadlines apply to taxpayers who derived two-thirds or more of their 1961 gross income from farming or ranching.

Another important consideration is the reporting of hired labor and the social security tax on wages paid. Either of two tests determine whether or not a farmer must pay the social security tax on wages. If the worker was paid $150 or more during the calendar year or if the worker was paid wages (on hourly or day basis) for 20 days or more during the year, the 3 percent social security tax should have been deducted from the cash wages.

Form 943 is used for reporting farm wages. The farmer-employer must show the wages paid and give the account number of individual workers. The withheld tax plus an equal amount from the employer along with the reporting form must be filed on or before Jan. 31 or a month after the close of the year. Because every phase of the farm and ranch business can be affected by taxes, there is need for a study of the Tax Guide.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH
Texas not immune from arboviruses, which means 'bird-borne' diseases

The fact that birds are a reservoir of some diseases transmissible to man has been known for a long time. However, the mounting store of knowledge concerning the arboviruses (literally bird-borne) is a comparatively new item of public health research.

Some of the more common diseases caused by these viruses occur in Texas. These are the St. Louis encephalitis (mistakenly called sleeping sickness) and the Western and Eastern equine types. The names signify where a particular virus was first identified.

Puzzling transmission cycles are the hallmark of these viruses. Encephalitis is borne by birds. However, transmission of the virus from birds to horses or from birds to man is through mosquitoes. There apparently is no direct transmission from horse to man or from man to man.

The responsible culprit is a family of mosquitoes called Culicine. These include the common household mosquito—Culex tarsalis—and a mosquito common to rural areas—Culex quinquefasciatus. There are others, but these two cause the most trouble in Texas.

Outbreaks of St. Louis encephalitis have occurred in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in recent years. This virus rarely, if ever, causes definite illness in equines.

In late summer and fall of 1961 several cases of encephalitis were

'The Miracle Worker' is story of Helen Keller's triumph over blindness

"The Miracle Worker", the humorous, dramatic, award-winning Broadway success—called "the most exciting show in seasons"—is coming to the Lubbock Auditorium on Dec. 25 at 8 p. m.

Is the "Miracle Worker" a religious play? One could call it a religious play, for that matter, in that it deals with the salvation of a human soul from darkness, not of sin, but of incomprehensibility. That soul is Helen Keller.

Though normal at birth, she suffered, while still an infant, a disease that robbed her of the senses of seeing and hearing. Thus deprived, Helen Keller grew into a child who behaved like a wild animal.

When Helen was almost 7, her parents hired a teacher, a girl of 20 named Anne Sullivan, portrayed by Eileen Brennan. Before regaining her sight through surgery, Anne Sullivan had been educated in a school for the blind. Driven by her own deep sympathy for the child's plight, the teacher was determined to establish communication with Helen, played by Donna Zimmerman.

Their dramatic struggle and the thrilling success of the teacher makes you proud of the human race. Helen Keller, who today reads braille, speaks and even lectures, is one of the outstanding personalities of our time.

Tickets may be purchased at the box office or by writing: Civic Lubbock Inc., Box 5101 or calling PO 2-4616.

By VERN SANFORD
Attendance at hunting, fishing or boating club meetings depends largely on two things—the importance of the business scheduled and the entertainment to be provided. Regardless of how important the business may be, some sort of entertainment is necessary to bolster attendance. Good attendance is a must when your club is on an "asking" campaign. For example—when your club is seeking help from city or county authorities or from the Texas legislature. Nothing impresses the politically-minded more than a big crowd. Furthermore—your speaker will work harder for a gathering of 100 people than he will for only a dozen. When a talk is scheduled—or when you're seeking help—augment your program with some outstanding entertainment to guarantee attendance on the part of your "takewarm" members. AN IDEAL way to furnish good entertainment is in the form of an outdoor film. Nothing attracts a crowd better than a movie—especially if it's free. Outdoors clubs can obtain without charge, some excellent films from the Texas Game and Fish Commission. These films—color as well as black and white—cover such things as hunting, fishing, boating, game management, etc. A number of national organizations and companies have some outstanding movies available for club use. Most of these films are provided gratis! But because of the popularity of the movies, you must make reservations at least a month in advance. Shooting safety and hunting films may be obtained from the Sports Service Bureau, 250 East 10th St., New York City; Remington Arms Co., Bridgeport, Conn.; Mathieson Chemical Corp., New Haven, Conn.; National Rifle Association, 1660 Rhode Island Ave., Washington, D. C.; American Motor Corp., Detroit, Mich.; and DeBaker-Packard Corp., South Bend, Ind. A long list of available fishing films may be secured from the Sports Fishing Institute, Bond Building, Washington 5, D. C. MOST MAJOR tackle companies have films available. Boating and water sports films are obtainable from the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers, 420 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y., as well as from the major outdoor motor companies. Ducks Unlimited has produced the excellent waterfowl hunting and conservation films. When ordering films from Ducks Unlimited, however, a $25 minimum contribution is requested to support DU's migratory waterfowl conservation program. In requesting a film, be sure to specify a preferred showing date. Also, if possible, one or two alternate showing dates. These films are available only to clubs and are NOT for personal use. So in making your request, be sure it is made on the letterhead of the club you represent. A mistake some sportsmen's clubs make is to try to meet too often. Unless engaged in some vigorous campaign, too frequent meetings will kill a club simply because good programs can't be lined up that often. It's better to have one good meeting a month than to try for weekly meetings with mediocre programs that will become boring. WHEN CALLING upon a city, county or state figure for help send a committee. Several heads can present the problem much better than a single representative. Carefully explain your club's objectives and why you think a particular problem merits attention. Above all be courteous. You can obtain some interesting and comprehensive information on mallard ducks from a new free booklet published by the Conservation Department of the Olin Mathieson Corp., at East Alton, Ill. Entitled "The Mallard", this 80-page booklet is the work of Joe Madson, who is a graduate biologist and journalist. It covers the life history, diseases and parasites, conservation and management and hunting of the most popular of America's wild ducks. "The Mallard" is the second in a series of booklets on American game published by the Olin Mathieson Corp. The first, "The Cottontail Rabbit", was published last year. A LURE THAT may prove to be a sensation is now on the Texas market. Fishermen who like to work the lily pads and duck weeds or bounce 'em off the shorelines, will find this lure enticing. It's called the SLO-POKE. Inventor is Steve Ross. He's a former newspaperman who now heads his own advertising agency in Fort Wayne, Ind. SLO-POKE is a weedless popper that you can cast beyond the half submerged logs and work it back over them again without getting hung. Hooks swing in a groove, bars up. When the lure goes over an object, the hooks move upwards. Its action, like a mouse in the water, really is fascinating. Small fish will miss the lure occasionally, because of the upturned hooks. But the lunker bass that take the whole bait seldom get away.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

By a virtual unanimous vote, the independent business and professional people of the nation, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business have asked that the U.S. mails be barred to the free delivery of communist propaganda.

And this may open up the most fantastic story of the year.

Before Congress adjourned, Congressmen John M. Ashbrook and C. W. Harder, several colleagues sought passage of a bill which would stop the United States taxpayer from subsidizing the dissemination of tons of propaganda.

For many years there has existed among nations what is known as Postage Courtesy Laws. Any government could send to the citizens of any other country newspapers and magazines with no postage charge.

About 1948 this practice was stopped by the U.S. government insofar as free mailings from any communist country was concerned.

However, in March of this year, the practice was resumed and already so far this year 14,000,000 packages of communist propaganda have been carried free by the U.S. Postal Service to American citizens, a large part of them being college students.

When Congressman Ashbrook pressed postal authorities for an answer he was told the reason for discontinuing the practice was that it would cost too much to stop this nonsense.

It would seem that the post office got its orders from the U.S. State Department.

So now the U.S. postal authorities face a strange paradox.

They can stop the use of the mails, even at full rates, for the transmission of obscene literature. Yet, they are powerless to stop the flood of mail promoting the greatest obscenity of all, communism. Not only can they not stop it, but they must carry it for free.

Thus, there must be jolly, jolly times in the mail room of the Kremlin. Merrily, they make up sack after sack of communist newspapers and magazines to be mailed to U.S. citizens, knowing that as soon as it reaches the American shores, the U.S. postman, despite sleet, or snow, or hail, or his own outraged sensibilities as an American, must dutifully deliver this treasonable material free.

It is to be expected that in the next season of Congress, there will again be a drive to raise postal rates. Presumably this time the rallying cry behind the attempt will be the slogan "No matter what it costs Americans, for sweet friendship's sake the Kremlin mail must go through." It is said the Russians don't have any great comedians. Obviously, they need none. They get their laughs out of the Americans. It is also a sure thing the National Federation of Independent Business will work at the next Congress to stop this nonsense.

Recent discovery seen as aid in fight against screwworms

COLLEGE STATION—A recent discovery may prove of great value in future efforts to control or eradicate a very expensive livestock parasite, the screwworm. The discovery was a black screw-worm fly. Normally, the flies are blue-green.

The first black screwworm fly was found by Dr. Leo E. LaChance, insect geneticist of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service at Kerrville, in a laboratory colony obtained from Orlando, Fla. Since these flies had not been irradiated, the black one is believed to be the result of a naturally occurring mutation. Several generations of the black screwworm fly have been produced by LaChance and his associates.

The black color is important as a genetic marker (a distinguishable physical characteristic that is heritable) and could prevent a problem which delayed the eradication in the Southwest, a quick, effective way to identify the released flies.

Irradiation does not alter the appearance of screwworm flies, and they are not radioactive when recovered in traps. Dye or other markings are not sufficiently permanent for accurate identification. An easily distinguishable marker, such as the black color, could eliminate this problem and speed progress in future eradication programs.

The ARS entomologists are now conducting studies to determine how the genetically marked flies compare with wild flies in mating activity, longevity, and flight range. If the black screwworm flies prove biologically successful, they will provide a valuable new tool for use both in entomological research and in control and eradication efforts.

This discovery could mean much to the program now getting underway in Texas under the sponsorship of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

'White Christmas' is scheduled here beginning Sunday

Irving Berlin's "White Christmas," one of the most popular musical attractions in screen history, returns Sunday and Monday to the Tower Theatre to delight audiences anew.

Photographed in VistaVision and Technicolor, the production teams two of our finest entertainers—Bing Crosby and Danny Kaye, and further features the warm song styling of Rosemary Clooney and the stunning dancing of Vera-Ellen.

"White Christmas" contains more lavish production numbers, more beautiful girls, more wonderful laughs and more warm, human drama than a half dozen other films wrapped into one.

The songs, which are rated among Berlin's best, include "White Christmas".

The film casts Crosby and Kaye as war-time buddies who become show business partners and soar to stardom. Rosemary Clooney and Vera-Ellen are cast as a sister act.

There are more than 20 musical numbers in "White Christmas," and some of the sets for the production are among the most elaborate ever built in Hollywood.

Post resident will meet son-in-law and family in Fort Dix

Melvin Collinsworth of Post will leave soon for Fort Dix, N. J., to meet his son-in-law, Sgt. First Class Billy W. Burgess, who is arriving there by plane from Baumholder, Germany, with three of his and Mrs. Burgess' four children. Mrs. Burgess, who is the former Betty Collinsworth, and their two-month-old baby, who is ill, are flying from Germany to Fort Dix in another plane, and the infant will be admitted to a hospital in the States.

Collinsworth will accompany his son-in-law and the other children back to Post.

Sgt. Burgess, 29, is the son of George W. Burgess of South Bend, Tex. He went overseas in September 1959 and has been serving as a chief computer in Headquarters Battery of the 8th Infantry Division's 16th Artillery in Baumholder.

Sgt. Burgess was graduated from Graham High School in 1950 and attended Texas Tech before entering the Army in 1952.

Annual meeting is set by retailers

The annual meeting of the Retail Merchants Association of Post has been set for 7:30 p. m. Jan. 18, E. E. Pierce, manager, announces. Mrs. Linda Beetle of Lubbock will be guest speaker at the meeting. She is the credit grantor for Anderson's Jewelry and secretary of the Lubbock Retailers. All credit grantors of retail stores in Post are invited to the meeting. Pierce said. Arnold Parrish, president of the local group, has named the following arrangements committee for the meeting: Ed Sawyers, TV Appliance Center; Mrs. Glenn R. Potts, Dunlap's Department Store; T. B. Odum, Western Auto Store, and Pierce.

Population--

(Continued from page 1) that its natural increase of births over deaths. In the last decade, 1950-60, Post had a natural increase of 873, but an actual increase of 1,522, which meant if everyone born in Post remained here during the 10 year period, 649 moved into the city or "in-migrated."

THE REPORT concludes that most of Post's in-migration has come from Garza's rural regions with the farm folks moving to town. Other statistics bear out the loss of rural population. Between 1954 and 1959, the number of Garza farms decreased from 436 in 1954 to 343 in 1959 with the average farm size increasing from 1,181.1 acres in 1954 to 1,457.4 acres in 1959. "Mechanization of agriculture and intensive cultivation is continuing to reduce the number of farms and the number of farm owners and operations, the report said. This is not a purely Garza trend, but more or less a national trend. The report predicts Garza's rural population will not fall below the 800 figure in the next 20 years although this means a considerable slowing of out-migration from the rural areas. The population report also contained a map of the city with the projected population growth. It showed the planning firm foresees Post's major residential growth in the northwest section of the city.

NEXT REPORT of the planning firm will be on "land use" and is expected before the end of February. This will give the firm's recommendations for city zoning into residential, commercial, and industrial areas. The population projection was the first necessary step in the development of the city plan so it came first. The planning firm will require approximately a year to complete its study and then will present a comprehensive city plan with all figures and suggestions incorporated.

A zoning ordinance and building code also will be recommended. Carr told Rotarians and Lions that the city of Tulla has paid the whole cost of its comprehensive city plan through savings it has already effected in paving costs.

Other areas of city planning will include a thoroughfare study, including downtown parking, a utilities study, an analysis of water, sewage and drainage, and a long range public improvements plan for the next 20 years for Post with the firm's financial recommendations as to how to pay for such improvements.

Total cost of the comprehensive city plan is $12,850 with the city paying $5,150 as its share. The remainder is paid by federal aid. The Koch firm was selected last April for the assignment and the population study now presented is but the first portion of the big project which will point the way for Post for the next 20 years.

Two guilty pleas entered in court

Two pleas of guilty, one to theft and the other to driving while intoxicated, were entered in county court this week. Marvin Delroy Odum was fined $50 and court costs by Judge J. E. Parker after pleading guilty to stealing gasoline valued at $6 from Earl Rogers on Dec. 8. Manuel I. Pinada was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months after pleading guilty to driving while intoxicated. Red Calvert was filed on in county court Monday on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The complaint charges he enticed a 15-year-old girl away from her home and the care and custody of her mother. A charge of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon was filed last Thursday against Noe Garcia. The complaining witness is Hegenia Garcia, who alleged she was cut by a knife wielded by the defendant.

Peace corps--

(Continued from page 1) early in 1960 on a trip to Europe. They attended the Olympics in Rome and then went to Germany, where Schmidt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schmidt of 215 North Avenue L, enrolled in a university and where Welch did youth work. Later, Welch left on his trip around the world, hitchhiking from Germany to Pakistan, taking a train from there through India, a ship from Ceylon to Hong Kong and a plane from Hong Kong back to the United States.

The round-the-world trip was a relatively inexpensive one for Welch, but he still owed enough on it that he found it necessary to take a job as an aerial firefighter with the U. S. Forestry Service at Cave Junction, Ore., to finish paying for the trip.

As a park and forest ranger, Welch was in the same line of business as his two younger brothers, Gary and Larry Welch, who also were stationed in the Northwest.

Welch, asked why he had decided to become a member of the Peace Corps, said he liked its purpose. He couldn't quote it word for word offhand, but he found it for The Dispatch reporter in a Peace Corps bulletin. It is:

"... to promote world peace and friendship through a Peace Corps, which shall make available to interested countries and areas men and women of the United States qualified for service abroad and willing to serve, under conditions of hardship if necessary, to help the peoples of such countries and areas in meeting their needs for trained manpower, and to help promote a better understanding of the American people on the part of the peoples served and a better understanding of other peoples on the part of the American people."

Welch is well qualified to help carry out that purpose. He is a 1953 graduate at Post High School, of San Angelo College and of Texas Tech where he majored in animal husbandry. Before leaving for Europe in 1960, he was employed for several months as a youth director at the First Methodist Church here.

Welch revealed his enthusiasm for his part in the Peace Corps program by saying, "I am anxiously awaiting my trip to India."

Chest--

He appealed for those who haven't gotten around to making their returns to do so as quickly as possible. If the percentage of response to the letter appeal is high enough, the rural division will meet its fair share of the Chest quota, Metcalf pointed out. But with such a small percentage of the replies in, final determination of the rural effort is yet to come.

The appeal this year in all the divisions, other than big gifts (donations of $25 or more) is for Chest contributors to consider that the Chest campaign is a combined drive for eight worthy agencies. Single drives usually would net $1 contributions. Therefore on the same basis, contributors should consider an $8 contribution for the combined drive of eight agencies.

If contributors cannot afford the $8 cash donation at this time, part of it can be pledged to be paid in 1962.

Bad weather and the Christmas rush has slowed the Chest drive pace this year with workers having difficulty finishing their assignments.

"We need every dollar," Drive Chairman Williams said today. "Give as generously as you can--and as quickly as you can."

Pitcher injured in oil field accident

Ronnie Jones, 19, former star pitcher of the Snyder high school baseball team which went to the state tournament, suffered a real baseball setback in an oil field accident in Garza County last Thursday night. Employed by a Snyder service company, Jones was helping clean

Participates in Army exercise

VII CORPS, Germany -- Army Corps with the 24th Infantry and 4th Armored Divisions plus their supporting elements participating, were designed to improve combat readiness. Solis and other members of the 34th Armor were tested on their ability to operate under maximum realistic conditions in the field. The divisional level exercises, which were directed by VII U. S.

A mechanic in the artillery Battery A which is regularly based in Nurnberg, Solis entered Army in October 1959 and was stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., before arriving overseas in April 1960. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Asacion Solis, Post, he attended High School. Before entering Army, Solis was employed Dunlap & Company in Post.

Pioneer Woman Statue
What better setting could there be for the impressive Pioneer Woman Statue than on the campus of Texas Woman's University at Denton, some 20 miles north of Dallas?

And, what more appropriate words could have been chosen, to help guide the young women of today, than those appearing on the statue's base?

It reads: "Marking a trail in a pathless wilderness, pressing forward with unswerving courage, she met each untried situation with a resourcefulness equal to the need, with a glad heart she brought to her frontier family her homeland's cultural heritage. With delicate spiritual sensitiveness she illumined the dullness of routine and the loneliness of isolation with beauty and with life abundant, and withal, she lived with casual unawareness of her value to civilization. Such was the pioneer woman, the unsung saint of the nation's immortals."

Want Cotton Bowl Tickets?

Sorry, all sold out. These words have fallen on many a disappointed ear belonging to a would-be Cotton Bowl attendee.

To help decrease the number of disappointed, the Cotton Bowl has twice been expanded. Once in 1948 by adding 21,924 seats and again in 1949 by the addition of 7,873 seats.

Realizing the competition for tickets, sales for the bonds to finance the expansion of the Bowl were spurred by promising bond and option holders priority on tickets.

It worked, too. And now 19,982 Cotton Bowl seats are set aside and given priority to the holders of the bonds and options. These priorities last for 20 years.

Bond holders of 1948 receive priority to buy one ticket for each $100 bond held. The other priority goes to those who paid $50 for a ticket option in 1949 to finance the construction of the east deck. The option holders' priority is limited to the upper deck tickets.

A Fruitful Problem

It has been said that the world is best known by its inconsistencies.

Orange County, in Southeast Texas on the Louisiana border, is the bearer of one such inconsistency.

Someone pulled a lemon out of the crop of towns in Orange County, and there we find a fine little village with the very distinctive name of Lemonville.

Vet's Forum

Q. My father, no longer living, had a total of 30 days of military service, all during World War I, and he had no service-connected disability. My mother has no income of her own. Is she eligible for a pension from the VA?

A. No, thirty days of service is not long enough to meet the requirement for such a pension.

Q. Can wives and children of veterans be treated in VA hospitals?

A. Not unless they are also veterans in their own right. However, VA hospitals may furnish emergency treatment to anyone, to save a life, but payment must be made to cover the cost of the care.

Q. When will training under the GI Bill end for Korea veterans?

A. No education or training under the Korea GI Bill will be furnished beyond eight years after a veteran's discharge or release from active service, or the end of his basic service period, whichever is earlier. In no event will education and training be furnished after Jan. 31, 1965.

What's it all about?

This little dog is confused. Many of us are in the same dilemma. What is Christmas, anyway? What does it mean? Do the tinsel and decorations obscure the true meaning?

Christmas decorations, Christmas trees, Christmas gifts have their part in this greatest day of all the year, but back of them is the manger and the Christ Child, God's gift to mankind.

In the Church you will find the true spirit of Christmas in all its joy, beauty and sacredness. The Wise Men will become so real you will follow the star with them. With the shepherds on the Judean hillside you will hear the song of angels. You will go to Bethlehem where you will kneel before the King. Kneeling, you will find the true meaning of Christmas.

Will you come?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—More than 600 Texans for Tourists' attended Gov. Price Daniel's conference on Tourism.

They took a long look at sources and resources that can be used to promote national advertising of the state's visitable virtues.

While here, they decided to step up a non-profit organization called the Texas Tourist Council. Tentatively scheduled was an organizational meeting for January 10, "or during the next session of the Legislature."

Texas Tourist Council will seek the reverse effect of another group who tried to exploit the state—the carpet-baggers. It was the influence of the latter that caused the Legislature to prohibit the use of state funds for advertising Texas' attractions 86 years ago.

Governor Daniel said, "Now the march of time has come full circle—we find ourselves engaged in a vigorous economic competition which might be called, in a friendly way, another 'war between the states'."

He referred to the battle for tourists—third largest industry in the nation; the 13th in Texas.

Texas Tourist Council will seek $300,000 a year from the Legislature, for advertising tourist attractions. Texas law now requires that state funds be matched by business and industry. So some system of financial subscription will have to be devised.

GOVERNOR DANIEL sent a letter to the Texas Bankers Association asking the bankers to present a proposal for protecting the rights of bank depositors.

He recommended that newspaper ads be published by the banks to locate owners (or heirs) of accounts inactive for more than seven years.

Governor Daniel added that proper notice to the state of an escheatable property would be "an incidental result of this protection."

He said the subject will be submitted very soon to a special session of the Legislature and asked the TBA to present its own proposal before December 20.

"The reason for the urgency is the known fact that a sizeable number of national banks are transferring these dormant deposits to the profits of the banks without advertising for the lost owners," he wrote.

"I believe most Texas bankers will agree that this is a practice which should be stopped for the protection of the good name of the banking profession in Texas, as well as for the protection of the rights of missing owners and the rights of the State if no owners exist."

THERE'S CONSIDERABLE talk in Austin about the possibility of former Gov. Allen Shivers running again.

This surprised some since Shivers backed Jack Cox in 1960 and Cox is the Republican candidate.

Rumor started with Shivers' statement that: "If I get involved in politics at all next year it will be as a candidate."

SPEAKER JAMES A. TURMAN announced appointment of an advisory committee, composed of Representatives George Richardson of Fort Worth, Obie Jones of Austin and Jim Markgraf of Scurry, to help the Texas Legislative Council study coordination of state health and welfare agencies.

Study was requested by the 57th Legislature in view of the fact that 90 per cent of every state dollar expended is for highways, education, public health and welfare.

All but the health and welfare agencies are centrally coordinated.

FIVE REPRESENTATIVES have been appointed to an interim committee to study contents of textbooks used in public schools. Particular attention will be paid to those relating to American heritage, traditions, philosophy and history.

Representatives W. T. Dungan of McKinney, Bob Bass of DeKalb, John C. Alaniz of San Antonio, Nelson Cowles of Hallsville and Ronald E. Roberts of Hillsboro are to report their findings to the 58th Legislature.

SOME REAL hope for helping the more than 2,000 present parolees from state training schools at Gatesville, Gainesville and Crockett came from the announcement that four state juvenile parole officers have been employed.

Herbert K. Baldry will serve in Harris County; Jesus Chavez Bonilla, El Paso; Dallas W. Clark, Bexar; and Elton D. Strother in Tarrant. A Dallas County officer hasn't been selected yet. A state director will probably be named after December 14.

Texas Youth Council Director Dr. James A. Turman has expressed hope that the Legislature soon will appropriate more funds to expand the juvenile "prevention and parole" program throughout the state.

Offset location staked nine miles northwest

L. E. Windham and W. B. Yarbrough, Rankin, will drill a 1/2-mile south-southwest offset to the East Huntley (San Andres) field in northwest Garza County, nine miles northeast of Post.

The 3,500-foot project, No. 3 Harold L. Davies, is 1,258 feet from south and 330 feet from west lines of Section E. Isaac Scott Survey, on a 211-acre lease.

Winter calls for extra care in auto operation

Winter is the season of greatest darkness, which calls for extra care in vehicle maintenance and operation, it was declared today by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association.

"Not only are the hours from dusk to dawn longer at this time, but often even in daylight hours the blowing rain, sleet or snow may become so bad that headlights should be turned on so your vehicle can be seen sooner by other drivers," he warned.

"It is extremely important to have clear visibility through windshields. Wiper arms and blades and the defroster—all must work properly to clear away rain, road splash and interior fogging," he continued.

"Also, the ear lights on every vehicle should be functioning properly to meet legal requirements and to provide utmost safety in knowing that drivers following you are alerted to your presence on the roadway," Musick added.

"A fundamental rule for after-dark driving is to limit speed to a rate which will enable you to stop within the assured clear distance ahead," he stated. "On ice or snow, you must go slower to take into account the lengthened stopping distance. Use reinforced tire chains when needed for severe conditions."

PRODUCE NATIVITY SCENE

Capture of Schooner

The papers generally throughout the country have awarded the honor of capturing the schooner Jefferson, stopped by our batteries on the Potomac, to an Alabama regiment. We have seen a private letter from a member of General

Wigfall's Brigade, 1st Regiment, which gives an entirely different account of the affair. When the schooner was stopped, a number of boats put out to her, among them one commanded by General Wigfall was the first man to board her. On the arrival of the other boats, our men were in possession of the vessel, and General Wigfall delivered her up to an officer of the Confederate Navy, who demanded possession in the name of the Government. General Wigfall then ordered his men into their boats, and put out for another vessel lying close to the Maryland shore. This one he also captured, and brought safely over. Honor to whom honor is due.—WEEKLY TELEGRAPH

Why Beg for Salt?

It is amusing to see how numerous and urgent the appeals are in our country exchanges on the subject of salt.

It is true that salt is a very necessary article, one that we cannot dispense with; and it is equally true that the chances for obtaining it from Liverpool are rather gloomy. But to persons who live here on the seashore no uneasiness is felt whatever. The only thing to be wondered at here, is that people would be so simple as to let the merchants impose such enormous prices on them, for any man in the community can have all the salt he wants simply for the trouble of going to the sea and barreling up a little water and bringing it a n d boiling it down.

The idea of suffering for salt when the whole coast of our State is washed with it for hundreds of miles, when it may be had for the packing is too ridiculous.—NEW-BERN PROGRESS

I Give You Texas ...

By BOYCE HOUSE

Have you ever searched your memory for the very earliest events which you can recall?

Some of the events in my life are so early that actually I can not recall them; but, from having heard them related vividly, I feel that I remember them.

Such as the time that, carrying my pink parasol, I marched down the church aisle, the parasol still raised, to the very first row.

And the custom I had, regardless of what the congregation might be singing, of rendering, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder"—good and loud, too.

Also, when my sister Vivian was a baby, I would watch her gurgle with delight as my mother pretended to nibble her tiny toes. One day, the baby's cries brought Mother into the room and she asked, "What's sister crying for?" My reply was, "I bit her toes, like you did."

All these events however are only hearsay.

The easiest way to begin is at the beginning—

I was born in Piggott, Arkansas, the oldest of three children, the others being my sisters, Vivian and Marion. My father was N. E. House; my mother's maiden name was Margaret O'Brien. My father was the editor and publisher of the Banner; and he set, by hand, most of the type which made up each week's issue.

Piggott was the county seat of Clay County in the extreme north-eastern corner of the State, with Missouri on the north and also on the east. We moved away before I was old enough to remember but, during my early boyhood, I revisited Piggott several times. I recall meeting Dr. Thornton who, as it was expressed, "ushered me in to the world."

When I can first remember, we (Father, Mother, Vivian and I) were living in Doe Run, Mo. I understand that this was in the lead-mining region and was a rather turbulent town. My father ran a cafe, a fact which I can recall.

There is also the recollection of a clicking mechanism into which a man would thrust a newly-purchased cigar for the purpose of clipping off the end. In a spirit of scientific investigation, I thrust in a finger and, with a scream, withdrew the bleeding digit. My father ran over, pale of face, but the wound was a mere nick.

There was a customer who was always giving me a coin or a trinket. One day, he came in and I ran toward him. And then an inexplicable thing happened. My father seized a baseball bat and ran the man out of the place!

Now I knew my father could do no wrong—but the man was my friend. And so I could not understand. It was not until several years later that I learned the reason: the man had been drinking and, in his hand, was an open knife; consequently, my father had feared I might be harmed.

FORT WORTH—Post has received an invitation to have a special day at the 1962 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, scheduled here Jan. 26 through Feb. 4.

W. R. Watt, Stock Show president-manager, said by having a "special day" at the 66-year-old exposition, the city would receive special recognition both at the show itself and throughout a wide area of Texas.

The invitation provides a special block reservation of seats at the rodeo, with a spotlighted introduction to the rodeo crowd. The local band is invited to play a concert on the Stock Show grounds and be the show's guests at the rodeo.

The Fort Worth Rodeo spotlight will fall on television stars Lorne Greene (Ben Cartwright) and Dan Blocker (Hoss Cartwright) of TV's popular "Bonanza", plus 400 rugged cowboys. The two big men from "Bonanza" will appear in person at all 20 rodeo performances. In the livestock department, more than 10,000 entries will be exhibited.

The city also is invited to name a cowgirl sweetheart to ride in the rodeo grand entry on the special day, and be introduced to the audience. Riding clubs in the area also are invited to ride in the opening day parade, in the rodeo grand entry on the special day, or both.

Many cities and organizations make annual trips to the Fort Worth Stock Show, the nation's oldest major livestock show and site of the world's original indoor rodeo.

"It's Christmas every day in the post office from now on," Postmaster Harold Voss said early this week.

Time is growing short for those who haven't already mailed their Christmas cards and gifts to insure prompt and safe delivery before Dec. 25.

The postmaster offers these helpful hints on the mailing of Christmas cards and gifts.

Use 4 cent postage on your Christmas cards. Sent by first class mail, they are sorted and delivered first, and if you include your return address on each envelope, they will be forwarded in the event of a change of address, or if they are undeliverable, they will be returned to you. Also, you can write a personal message on the Christmas cards sent by first class mail; whereas, only your signature is authorized on cards sent at the 3 cent, unsealed third class rate.

Avoid careless packing of your gifts. Use strong cartons, wrap in heavy paper, and tie with sturdy cord. Mark packages containing breakable gifts, "Fragile—Handle With Care." Put an extra label carrying the recipient's and sender's name and address inside every package.

In conclusion, the postmaster said, "By taking a little extra care with your Christmas mailings, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones. The post office is fully prepared for the big Christmas mail rush, but through your cooperation in mailing early and often, as suggested by the National Improved Mail Service program, there'll be less danger of some Christmas cards and packages not being delivered before Christmas."

Some Christmas toys are unsafe

If you are buying toys for the youngster this year, make sure they are safe toys incapable of causing fire, shock or explosion, the National Board of Fire Underwriters advises.

Miniature space vehicles, rockets, airplanes, automobiles, and other mechanical toys that use kerosene, gasoline, carbide or hydrogen peroxide for fuels may be hazardous if placed in the hands of unattended small children.

The National Board urges that parents supervise all play with electrical toys, also those powered with fuels and chemicals.
