

Enrollment boost of 55 is seen for Tuesday's school opening

Approximately 1,425 students—an increase of 55 over the last school year—are expected to throng into Post school classrooms at 8:35 a. m. next Tuesday as the 1963-64 fall school term gets under way here.

They will find plenty of changes in buildings, teaching staffs, administration, and even classroom hours have taken place during the three months of summer vacation.

SCHOOL BUSES will run their regular routes Tuesday, parents are advised. The first day will be a full one with the school lunchroom operating during the lunch hour.

The expected enrollment increase has caused the hiring of three additional teachers, bringing the schools' professional staff to 72, as compared to 69 for the 1962-63 school year.

Barry Thompson, new school superintendent, told The Dispatch that "because of an increase in average daily attendance the school district will have only nine teachers in excess of the state minimum as compared to 11 during the previous school year."

He said the addition of the three extra faculty members "will do a great deal in keeping the size of classes within reason."

SIXTEEN NEW faculty members are included in the 72-member professional staff. They come from three states and many different colleges and universities.

The new faculty members, besides Supt. Thompson, include William F. Shiver, director of instruction; Mrs. Lora Faye Blanton, first grade; Mrs. Blenda Monk Pruitt, first grade; Miss Corrine Hunt, third grade; Mrs. Ruth Holland, fourth grade.

Bruce Burnett, junior high social studies; Gayle Frederick, junior high science; Elvin Ray Jones, junior high math and physical education; Dale Schmidt, junior high math; Mrs. Pat Brookshire, high school English and history.

Glyndol Snodgrass, high school English; Arthur Robertson, Spanish and French; Norma Gee, chemistry and physics; Miss Mary Lee Stockton, girls basketball and girls physical education; and Miss Nelda Gay Halford, high school English.

TWO NEW COURSES have been added to the curriculum—Fench and developmental reading.

The developmental reading course will be introduced in the first grade and will involve the use of machines produced by Educational Development Laboratories. These machines are a controlled reader and a tachistoscope.

Superintendent Thompson said the school hopes to offer an adult education course in developmental reading during the fall of 1963.

THE NEW CLASS hours involve the junior high and high school.

Class periods will be extended to 75 minutes each, from the 55 minute periods of last year. But each class will meet but four times each week instead of five times.

Supt. Thompson points out that under the new system each class will be in session 300 minutes weekly, instead of 275 minutes as under the previous system—a gain of 25 minutes of weekly instruction in each subject.

Class periods will be from 8:35 a. m. to 9:50 for the first period, 9:55 to 11:10 for the second; 11:15 to 12:30 for the third. Lunch will begin at 12:30 p. m. for both schools. Afternoon classes will begin at 1:15 with the first afternoon period from 1:15 to 2:30 and the final afternoon period from 2:35 to 3:50 p. m.

The final period each Friday afternoon will be devoted entirely to counseling, guidance, and supervised study.

Thirty-Seventh Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, August 29, 1963 Number 13

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilks are here Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. Russell Wilks Sr., 70, a resident of Garza County for more than 60 years, who died late Saturday in the Golden Years Nursing Home here, were conducted at 3 p. m. Monday at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Wilks and her husband, the late Russell Wilks Sr., who were married here in 1911, lived on a ranch northeast of Post for many years. Mr. Wilks died in 1959.

Mrs. Wilks was born Callie V. Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stiles, Nov. 12, 1892, at Comanche. She had been a member of the Baptist Church since childhood.

The Rev. C. B. Hogue, First Baptist pastor, officiated at the funeral services. The church choir sang "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "How Great Thou Art," accompanied by George M. Willson, organist.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Tom Gilmore, Irvin Cross, Billy Carlisle, Walton McQueen, Harold Lucas, Bobby Pierce, Arnold Sampson and Bailey Matsler.

Mrs. Wilks is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. S. Johns of Ville La.; two sons, Russell Wilks and Ben F. Wilks, both of Post; two brothers, R. L. Stiles of Marfa and Henry Stiles of Girard; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

A large number of out-of-town friends and relatives attended the funeral.

CROSS SWUNG INTO POSITION

The 48-foot high, free standing cross of the new First Presbyterian Church at Tenth Street and Avenue S is shown as it was swung into position on its concrete base Tuesday morning by a big mobile crane of Trumble Steel Erector of Lubbock. The cross extends 18 feet above the cone of the church sanctuary and weighs approximately 2,500 pounds.

A 48-foot high, free standing cross of steel-painted copper-tone—which will be one of the outstanding exterior features of Post's new Presbyterian Church, is a gift to the church of Doug Hill.

Appointment of a permanent industrial committee for the Post Chamber of Commerce, as reported elsewhere on this front page, will give this community four "top hands" to work on the program of aiding local industry and seeking new industry. It is not a job for four men, but it requires a small top committee to handle the overall direction of the new program.

They will be at work more out of the spotlight than in the public eye because their work is that type for which publicity can often be more of a hindrance than a help.

As the committee gets a program for industry under way here they are going to want the cooperation of the entire committee and often the specific abilities of some. By putting the committee within the framework of the Chamber, but keeping it permanent in nature, the committee will be able to give the steady continuity to the program that is required. Spectacular results can't be expected, but the committee can accomplish much over the years. At last, it gives Post the sense of direction it needs in this vital field of community development.

Morgan funeral is held Monday

Last rites for Oliver Glenn (Pete) Morgan, 59, former Post resident, who died early Sunday in a Snyder hospital, were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday at Hampton-Vaughn Funeral Home in Wichita Falls. Burial was in the Wichita Falls cemetery.

Mr. Morgan was a resident of Post for about six years before moving to Snyder 14 months ago. He was employed there by Universal Oil Well Service. While in Post, he operated his own oil well services, first the Multiple and then the Apache.

Mr. Morgan had been in the Snyder hospital since July 28. He is survived by his wife, Helen, and two sisters, Mrs. Lou Ella Barker and Mrs. C. D. Parker, both of Wichita Falls.

Friends from Post who attended the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. John Gist and Mr. and Mrs. Flint George.

Nephews served as pallbearers at Mr. Morgan's funeral.

PLANTING OF 70 trees and 100 shrubs around the new high school building began yesterday.

This landscaping has been delayed for several weeks due to the city water shortage, which no longer exists.

Supt. Thompson reports that during the summer, numerous maintenance projects have been underway.

Twelve classrooms in the system have been repainted, Midland Bermuda grass has been planted around the primary and elementary buildings, the gym floor has been refinished, the football stadium has been repainted with an increase in the number of reserved seats, the roofs of three buildings have been repaired.

The acoustical tile in the band hall has been replaced and music racks and storage space have been built. The lunchroom has been repainted as has the field house.

The ceilings of some rooms are in the process of being replaced. Seventy-five truck loads of dirt have been hauled into level the school grounds. All of the buses have been serviced and overhauled. Windows and screen are being replaced and repaired. Additional shelving for book storage has been added. Tables are being built for the vocational agriculture department. Ticket booths for the stadium are nearing completion.

A room in the elementary building has been prepared for use as a teacher work room to make audio-visual aids. Bats have been exterminated in the elementary buildings. Floors and walls of all of the classrooms have been waxed and washed. Pipe to water the school grounds has been added. The concession stand at the football field has been repaired.

THE PROFESSIONAL staff went "back to school" yesterday for a three-day in-service workshop which will end Friday.

Miss Margaret Bynum of Atlanta, Ga., was the keynote speaker and leading consultant.

At the first session of the in-service workshop Wednesday morning the school presented service pins to the following for their work in the Post schools:

Five Year Pins: Ada Buchanan, Rosa Gamblin, Ella Mae Hudman, Ruby Lobban, Nona Lusk, Lucille McBride, Lea Mock, Betty Scott, Rowena Pierce, Elsie Whittenberg, Mary Lee Wristen and Nell Compton.

Billy Hahn, John May, James Pollard, Glenn Whittenberg, E. R. Moreland, George Willson, Russell Wilks Jr., Ira Greenfield, F. F. Keeton, and lunchroom personnel. See SCHOOL OPENING, Page 8

FIRST LOAD OF COTTON ARRIVES SATURDAY

This year's Garza County cotton crop, as a whole, may be considerably later than usual, but the first bale was ginned Monday, several days ahead of the Sept. 5 date of the first 1962 bale. Rudy Hernandez, who farms the Beach place, northeast of Post, is shown here with the 2,300-pound load of dryland cotton he brought in Saturday morning to the Planters Gin. Hernandez and his crew gathered the cotton Friday and early Saturday from about 15 acres that had been planted May 8. Hernandez had some 12 inches of rain on the place between May 6 and June 20, but has had only one and a half inches since that time. The boys in the truck are Ruddy's brother, Jerry Hernandez (left), and Gilbert Hodges.—Staff Photo

ERNEST MCCOY

New minister at Church of Christ

Ernest McCoy, formerly of Brady, arrived here this week as new minister of the Post Church of Christ, replacing Herbert A. Smith, who resigned a few weeks ago to become minister of a church in San Antonio.

Mr. McCoy conducted mid-week services at the church last night and will fill the pulpit here for the first time at the Sunday morning services.

Accompanying Mr. McCoy to Post were his wife and their daughter, Mrs. Lafon Parks, and Mrs. Parks' 14-month-old son, who make their home with the McCoy's.

Mr. McCoy has been minister of the Bridge Street Church of Christ at Brady for a little over five years. Prior to that, he was minister of churches at Gainesville, Childress, Borger and San Antonio. In the ministry since 1935, he is a graduate of Abilene Christian College and has done graduate work at Texas Tech and North Texas State University.

The McCoy's are also parents of a married son, L. D. McCoy, who is minister of the Church of Christ at Whiteface.

FATHER IS SOUGHT

Ysodel Vargas, brother of Domingo Vargas of Post, was killed Tuesday night in Colorado after visiting here last week. Authorities are attempting to contact Ysodel's father who left recently with George Soto to work in South Texas. Anybody knowing of his whereabouts is asked to contact the Vargas family here.

Chamber names industrial group

Appointment of a permanent industrial committee for the Post Chamber of Commerce was announced today by Charles Luttrell, Chamber president.

Named to the four-man committee were Irby G. Metcalf, chairman, Bryan J. Williams, Tom Bouchier, and Walter Duckworth. "Our No. 1 aim will be to keep our present industry satisfied," Metcalf told The Dispatch when asked to comment on the committee's plans.

"We also will put forth every effort to obtain new industry for Post now the White River dam is almost completed," he said.

The committee will hold its first session next week to map a program.

"We will need the support of every citizen in Post," Metcalf said.

Purpose of the new committee is to work at the problem of industry as a permanent arm of the Chamber, not changing from year to year.

Directors of the Chamber last month approved the naming of the committee which was suggested as See C-C COMMITTEE, Page 8

Sister of Post woman buried

Funeral services for Miss Geneva Craig, 54, who died Friday afternoon in Garza Memorial Hospital, were held at 4 p. m. Saturday at the Church of Christ in Abernathy.

Miss Craig, a longtime resident of Amarillo, had made her home here for the last several weeks with her sister, Mrs. James W. Mitchell of 1104 Osage. Miss Craig had been ill for some time.

She had been employed as a jeweler in Amarillo and also owned an interest in a jewelry firm there.

Clyde O. Freeman, minister of the Abernathy church, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in the Abernathy Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home and Chambers Home of Abernathy.

Victims of fall are improving

The conditions of two women who were injured when they fell the back door of the home of one of the women Wednesday evening last week, were reported satisfactory yesterday afternoon.

The injured women are Mrs. J. Stewart, who suffered a broken hip and Mrs. Beth Ramsey, who suffered a broken leg above the knee.

Mrs. Stewart is in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock, where she has been placed in a wheelchair. Mrs. Ramsey, who is in Garza Memorial Hospital, has her leg in a cast.

Mrs. Stewart fell while she was helping Mrs. Thompson carry some boxes that had been taken off the porch into Mrs. Thompson's house. Mrs. Thompson fell when she went to Mrs. Stewart's assistance.

Drive for student loan fund will open Tuesday

Application cards were handed out Tuesday afternoon to workers who will handle the donations campaign for the Community Student Loan Fund.

A goal of $2,000 has been set. G. Metcalf, who heads the campaign, told workers to start work next Tuesday and to wind them up within a week. The fund will help finance educations of seven Post High School graduates this fall, four of them as new loan recipients.

Metcalf pointed out that these are not scholarships, but are loans at four per cent interest to help deserving local high school graduates obtain college educations.

Crashes send seven to hospital

Two wrecks, one Sunday and one Wednesday, occurring at about the same spot just west of Post on U. S. Hwy. 380, sent six people to the hospital.

In yesterday's wreck, which occurred at 12:30 p. m., Mrs. Virginia Frady of Fort Worth suffered head and facial injuries when the automobile in which she and her husband were riding left the road and struck a culvert after a wheel had come off a rodeo stock trailer being pulled by a pickup truck and struck their car.

The accident occurred about 300 yards west of the city limits, Highway Patrolman Henry Harden said. Sunday, at about the same spot on the highway, Mrs. Evelyn Clifton, her husband and their three children of Spur were injured when their automobile struck a power line pole after swerving off the highway to keep from colliding with another vehicle.

In yesterday's wreck the wheel came off a stock trailer being pulled by a pickup driven by Ron Conatser of the M&R Rodeo Co. of Tahoka.

Sunday's wreck was about 5:45 p. m. and occurred when a car driven by David Spillers of Post turned left off the highway just as the Clifton automobile started to pass it. Both cars were headed east.

Harden said Mrs. Clifton, who was driving, swerved left to miss Spillers' automobile, but struck the pole as she started to come back up onto the highway. The automobile overturned and the Cliftons and their three children were thrown out, the patrolman said.

All the members of the family were treated and released at Garza Memorial Hospital except Mrs. Clifton, who was transferred to the Spur hospital. The Clifton automobile was totally wrecked, the highway patrolman reported.

New school year opens Tuesday

Come Tuesday, a new school year will open in Post. We predict it will be one of the most significant ones in the school's 50-odd year history.

Meading the professional staff this year will be a new top administration team composed of Supt. Barry Thompson and Director of Instruction Bill Shiver.

In the classrooms of the system will be 14 new teachers drawn from four states after the biggest summer quest for teachers ever conducted here.

All this new talent is sure to bring some invigorating freshness into our school system.

We are certain a lot of it is going to come at the top from Thompson and Shiver, who earned fine reputations as teachers in the classrooms before moving up into administrative ranks.

While none of their other duties will be neglected, it is already obvious that both will concentrate a major portion of their considerable energies to coordinating and improving the quality of classroom instruction.

We know considerable about their plans, their enthusiasms, and their talent along these lines. But we would prefer school patrons to see and judge for themselves.

We will predict this: By spring the new academic leadership of our schools will not only have enthused the professional staff of teachers, but will have stirred both students and parents to new goals of classroom achievement.

Superintendent Thompson told the Retail Merchants in a talk last Thursday that "contrary to popular opinion you do not have to live in a big town to do big things in education."

Beginning next Tuesday, he will start to prove his point.—JC

We can't resist the opportunity to comment about H. M. Baggary, the self-styled "Country Editor" who is publisher of the Tullia Herald.

Baggary is regarded far and wide as the most fiery-tongued liberal newsmen in West Texas. He expresses his views each week by using the full two left-hand columns (no pun intended) of the front page to express his political views and then jumps his column inside to run until he has thoroughly had his say.

He also owns the Tullia radio station and airs his political commentary weekly not only over his own KTUE but over stations in Amarillo, Borger, Pampa, and Clayton, N. M., as well.

Before we get into Baggary's latest column, let us also say that he has one of West Texas' best and biggest weekly newspapers. It wins a lot of prizes, has a lot of readers, and is chuck full of advertising. So we must accept the fact that H. M. apparently has a winning combination going for him.

Baggary obviously enjoys politics and "hiding" a lot of folks, especially the Amarillo Globe News which with very thorough regularity he paints with the John Birch brush.

Now we are not John Birch lovers. Neither do we belong to the new Washington club back East known as the New Frontier. We are busy enough trying to cover the Post news front and limit our political observations usually to the political seasons.

Last week Baggary took the front pages of the Amarillo paper, which he refers to as "Wes Ezzard's John Birch Gazette, published in that political Sodom to the north," and the Lubbock A-J, as of Wednesday, Aug. 14, and compared front pages, pointing out what he termed the biased reporting of the Amarillo daily as against what he felt was a fair coverage job by its Lubbock counterpart. He was not all sugar and light desired in a daily newspaper" with Lubbock for the A-J, explaining it "leaves much to be Democrats "complaining, justifiably so, of ill treatment."

His analysis of the two front pages was that the Amarillo daily didn't carry a single story on its front page from either of the major news services, but went ahead to make political capital from what we would call "the other side of the political street."

We think it only fair to both the Amarillo and Lubbock papers to point out what The Tullia Herald had on its front page last week.

Most of the space went to Baggary's "Country Editor's" column, two columns by full, lambasting the Amarillo daily, and a column and a half story under a five column head which read "Drew Pearson Reports on Cold War".

Drew was writing from Istanbul, Turkey, and somehow the lead paragraph had Sen. Everett Dirksen's last name misspelled. It read Kirksen. Dirksen is a Republican.

There was a smaller Tullia story about the approaching opening of the Tullia schools, a small feature with one column pic of an Italian exchange student who said he would like to see a U. S. of Europe, a small one column story about seven entries in sorghum queen race, a one paragraph about an Ardmore, Okla., death, a four column aerial pic of the Tullia school plant, and the weekly Town Topics column which listed the hospital patients, births, new meter connections, marriage licenses of the week, new subscribers for the week of the Herald and a paragraph about a couple of showers to go with the high and low temperatures in Tullia for the week.—JC

Labor has earned high honors

Monday, Sept. 2, is Labor Day, and a vast change has taken place in this institution and the cause it stands for in the years that have passed since its first observance. Labor has grown strong—stronger, perhaps, than its leaders of another and simpler age could have imagined.

As far as an all-out observance is concerned, Labor Day has very little meaning in Post. A few local and area firms observe the day as a holiday, and the fact that Monday is Labor Day is the reason for the new school term here starting on Tuesday, Sept. 3, instead of on Monday.

But, even though the observance of Labor Day doesn't hold the high rating here that it does in the more industrialized areas, all of us are well aware of the fact that nowhere else in the world has labor earned and gained so many material benefits as it has in the United States. The "blue collar" man caught up with his "white collar" counterpart in earnings and living standards and in many instances passed him by. Labor can take well justified pride in this achievement.

But the high status of labor, and labor's power, involve another element. That element is responsibility. Labor can no longer be content with just pursuing its differences with management. It has another and a larger duty. That is to help provide the quality of industrial statesmanship that is so urgently needed for this country to maintain its position in an increasingly competitive world.

So, on Monday, deserved honors will be paid to labor. May it go on and earn, through wise accomplishment, still higher honors.—CD

A new town's enthusiasm

The South Plains area's newest incorporated town is Smyer, in Hockley County, which elected their first city council and mayor Saturday.

The incorporation of new towns is something that doesn't take place very often any more in the older-settled areas of the nation, but out here in West Texas a number of new towns come into the fold every year. Recent additions besides Smyer have been Shallowater, Wolforth and New Home, just to mention a few.

Our part of the nation is so much newer than other parts that nearly all of our towns and cities have been incorporated since the turn of the century.

What strikes us most about Smyer's incorporation is the enthusiastic manner in which the newly-elected town officials are facing the future. Citizens there voted incorporation in order to secure a public water supply, and work is already well under way for the new water system.

W. M. (Bill) Plemons, elected as the town's first mayor, describes Smyer as a "town that is going places," and sounds as if he means it.

The mayor points out that Smyer already has a number of live-wire organizations, like the Lions Club, the Young Farmers, and the Future Farmers and Future Homemakers, and that "there are three large churches here."

There are also about nine business places in the newly-incorporated town and there are hopes of attracting more when the water supply is ready.

This new town's enthusiasm needs to rub off on some of its neighbors that have been incorporated for years and years.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

During the school vacation period, time passes incredibly slower and faster than at any other season—to parents and school children, respectively.—Olin Miller in The Sequin Gazette.

Not everybody in town knows how to pull teeth, operate a filling station, unstop a sink or sell automobiles, but just about everybody is convinced he can write better stuff for the hometown newspaper. I can across some short-cuts to successful newspaper writing recently which passed on a few embellishments to aid those who aspire to a career in journalism. All that is needed, according to this formula, is to memorize a few basic phrases. Once they are mastered the journalist will have no trouble getting along in his community. Here's the handy list: Remember that every dinky shopkeeper must always be referred to as "a well-known merchant." Every person who gets at the truth is "a wild radical." Every wealthy miser is "interested in charity."

Every rich old slant-head is "a lover of art," and everything the police are too dumb to figure out is "a baffling mystery." A working girl in trouble is "mixed up in an unsavory scandal," while a society dame in the same fix is "involved in a romantic escapade." A defaulting bank president is "victim of temptation," and a common burglar is "a born criminal." A boozier with influential relatives "enjoys a cocktail," and a $75-a-week clerk who speaks above a whisper after the first beer is "a drunken bum." Use these generously. They will save you the price of a college education and will make a local hero of you!—Marvin Tomme in The Rails Banner.

The lowly match is one product that is of poorer quality today than it was 40 years ago. The old sulphur match may have had its faults, but it would light.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

NEARLY ALL OF this week's big news is on the school front, where things are shaping up for the "grand opening" Tuesday, Sept. 3, the day after Labor Day.

But, Sunday is the 1st, ushering in the new month of September, and there'll be lots of other things going on besides school during the month. For one thing, there'll be a Friday the 13th, and for another thing, Sept. 21 will be the first day of fall.

THE FOOTBALL season will get well off the ground, with even the major college eleven opening before Oct. 1 rolls around. The end of the month will bring the close of the baseball season, except for the World Series.

Despite its otherwise innocent appearance, September looks like a good month to batten down the hatches and take a firm grip on your hat. Besides, there are less than 100 shopping days between Sept. 1 and Christmas.

THE MAN UP the Street says education is what helps a lot of folks get along without intelligence.

My only daughter-in-law, who along with more than 60 other teachers is getting ready for the new school term, clipped something a few months ago of interest to teachers, and has given me permission to use it in my column. Here it is:

TEACHER, THOU SHALT (These rules for teachers were posted by a New York City principal in 1872.)

1. Teachers each day will bring a bucket of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's session.

2. Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys and trim wicks.

3. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to the individual taste of your pupil.

4. Men teachers may take one evening each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go to church regularly.

5. After ten hours in school, the teachers are to spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other good books.

6. Women teachers who marry will be dismissed.

7. Every teacher should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his declining years so that he will not become a burden on society.

8. Any teacher who smokes, uses liquor in any form, frequents pool or public halls, or gets shaved in a barber shop will give good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.

9. The teacher who performs his labors faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of 25 cents per week in his pay, providing the Board of Education approves.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: How about it, teachers? Do any of you still pine for the good old days?)

ONE MORE school item: A teacher, noticing that one little boy always used a black crayon for his drawings of horses, cows, barns, and whatever else, became very disturbed about the state of the boy's mind and called a meeting with his parents, the school principal, and a psychiatrist.

They finally got to the root of the trouble. It was his only crayon.

THE new telephone directory is out and I've been asked by one of my co-workers if I'm going to do a column on it, as I have been doing for the last several years. I'd thought I would and then I'd thought I wouldn't, because in all those other columns I've said about everything you can say about a telephone directory, but then I got to thinking that maybe the race is still close between the Smiths and the Williamses for numerical superiority in the telephone directory, so I thought, why not?

BOTH THE Williamses and the Smiths have dwindled a little in the new book, the Williamses dropping from 21 to 19 and the Smiths from 16 to 15. That leaves the Williamses with a four-name lead over the Smiths, whereas in last year's phone book they held a five-name lead.

THE Joneses have dropped from 15 to 12 in the new directory, but are still in third place. The Robinsons and Stones held firm at eight listings each, the same as in the 1962 phone book.

THERE IS NO change in the first and the last name in the Post section of the directory. It's still LEO M. ACKER and WM. ZETZMAN.

MOST COSTLY POUNDS The last few pounds that go on the beef animal are the most costly for the producer. As cattle become more highly finished, the daily gain decreases and the feed required per pound of gain increases. For maximum efficiency, slaughter cattle should be marketed as soon as they reach the minimum standard for the grade.

Mrs. Lydia Crider's children gather for her 80th birthday

Children of Mrs. Lydia A. Crider gathered at her home at 506 North Ave. 1 for a weekend of festivities honoring her on her 80th birthday, which was Aug. 16.

Saturday at noon, Mrs. Crider served her children an old-fashioned home-cooked meal, largely prepared by her own hands with an assist from one of her daughters, Mrs. Bertha Brown.

The dinner was followed at 6 p. m. by an outdoors "feed" at the home of her son, 512 North Ave. 1, after which games of "42" and canasta were played until the wee small hours, when everyone went to bed—if he could find one or make one.

The nonoree's son, Walter Crider, said it reminded him of the early days at harvest time with people bedded down on the ground, in pickups, or just any place to sleep.

Breakfast, picture-taking and "just visiting" took up the time Sunday morning and at noon another big cook-out and eat-out was held in Walter Crider's backyard, with Hugh Blevins presiding over the barbecue grill.

The Crider family moved from Brady, Tex., by covered wagon to Post in 1917. One or more members of the family have been employed at Postex Mills ever since they've been here. J. W. Crider

It's My Turn ...

—By MRS. C

We parents of school-age students can relax and sit back this new school term as far as math is concerned. I have this on good authority from our new superintendent of schools, Barry Thompson. No more helping with homework and tiring our brains trying to help with math that we don't really understand—but hate to admit.

Mr. Thompson included this tidbit in making a talk at the Retail Merchants luncheon. The approach and method of teaching math is so new that parents would have to really study the textbooks to be of any assistance, he says. So sit back and enjoy it parents. This has been a bug-a-boo with parents for years and progress has solved it all. Mr. C has a story elsewhere in the paper with highlights from the speech we listened to, but left out this very important bit. Could be that he's not as scared of math homework as I.

Next year when you biology students are busily hunting for bugs for your collection don't think John May is asking you to do anything he hasn't done. That week-long field trip he went on this summer while attending summer school was spent in just that way. According to Mrs. May they really spent the week in a primitive way. While the men teachers were out hunting bugs, the women in camp fought off raccoons. They grow in much larger sizes there in Minnesota according to Mrs. May and she said they would carry off anything carryable including purses.

I'm so happy not to be a breaker of laws any more. Seventy is just right as far as driving is concerned and I'm glad the state decided to make an honest person out of me. Too bad about you speed demons that will still have to live in fear of every white car with a tall antenna attached.

I'm sure it was quite sad at the Ed Warren home last week. Their parakeet, Percy, died and he was such a talky one he's sure to be missed. I remember how impressed Mr. C and I were when we first heard this talking bird. It was during the time we were purchasing The Dispatch and he showed off real good for us. Up till this time

I had never heard a parakeet do much besides give a wolf whistle and say inane things like "Pretty Boy." Well, this little fellow could really talk. Pauline had spent hours with him (?) and he had a regular routine. He could say "Now I lay Me Down to Sleep" plus several other really clever sayings. He greeted Ed with "Here's Eddie, the editor" every time he came home. Pauline even taught him to say "Here comes Jim Cornish, the new owner of The Post Dispatch."

I'm really intrigued to find out there is such a thing as "Snake Stop". While punching the business page story of Garza Farm and Seed I found this out. What an idea gift for Texans to send their out-of-state friends.

I'm watching the European Common Market haggle over the chickens with great interest. To find out if it's going to be a hot chicken war or a cold chicken one.

I can't find a darn thing in the new phone book. Frequently called numbers are not in the old familiar place and I keep dialing wrong numbers. However, I like the numbers of businesses in the big black type. The covers are a far cry from the old standard gray books with a statue of someone (?) on the front. Remember, we had that type for years and years. Progress again!

I'm really hot on this progress bit. Now it they'd come out with tapes that could ask questions or spell words for the students and correcting them when wrong, we parents could really sit back and lead the good life.

Jim didn't catch any fish today. Now, on the way home, he can't help casting an envious eye at Tim's haul. It isn't that he begrudges Tim his fish. It's just that, in his heart, he can't help wish that he had been the lucky one.

This is natural, and Jim is young. He's just beginning to learn that you can't always be a winner, but he still finds losing pretty hard to take in stride.

Fortunately, Jim is being given the advantage of Christian training in church during this all-important period in a boy's life when a sense of values is being formed. He is learning lessons which only the Church can give him.

True, Jim is envying a very small item — a string of fish. But envy and greed come to all of us on a larger scale many times throughout life. To meet this challenge squarely, it takes years of self-discipline. That is why religious training can never begin too early.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Post businessman replies in full to Mahon questionnaire on legislation

When U. S. congressmen send questionnaires on legislation to their constituents, they don't expect anything like 100 per cent response. In fact, 25 per cent response more than likely would be considered good.

To summarize, a few of the constituents receiving the questionnaires take time to answer them. Most, however, either throw them away or file them for future reference that nine times out of ten never comes.

One of those who did take time—considerable time—to fill out and return a legislative questionnaire mailed by Cong. George Mahon, U. S. representative from this district, was James L. Minor, Post merchant and a former mayor of the city.

Minor not only answered every query by Cong. Mahon on what he thought of each item of the large volume of legislation, but he added some pithy comments of his own on most of the outstanding issues being the nation.

In a check sheet of the legislation, the Post man agreed with Mahon's opposition to federal aid to education; aid to depressed areas; a national retraining bill; a new department of urban affairs; half-billion dollar public works acceleration bill; federal constitution amendment to abolish the poll tax.

Minor also agreed with Mahon's support of trade expansion (if properly handled, Minor added); the committee on un-American activities; T-B-Hartley and Landrum-Griffin labor legislation (but need to get tougher, Minor commented); extension of the bracero program (limited), and legislation to abolish backdoor spending.

Minor let the congressman know that he disagreed with his support of a strong national defense program; administration space program, including moon shot; the Peace Corps; Food for Peace, and extension of the voluntary feed grain program.

Minor answered "no" to Mahon's question, "Do you believe citizens in your district generally know my views on most of the legislation above referred to?"

But he answered "yes" to the question, "Prior to receiving this questionnaire did YOU know generally what George Mahon's position was on the aforementioned issues?"

Following are some of the Post man's comments on a few of the more important subjects:

NATIONAL DEFENSE—I am for a strong national defense, but as long as we as a Nation are a member of the United Nation's "conspiracy" we are actually wasting our money to the tune of about $52 billion per year. I think very strongly now is the time to get back to the sensible approach of "America for Americans" instead of America for the Communists. During WW II and ever since, we have fallen into every trap the Communists have sprung and they are far ahead of their scheduled target of 1970 of taking over the United States without firing a shot. To look at the facts, many of our highly centralized federal bureaucracies and agencies are controlled directly or indirectly by the Communist bloc at the present time.

CIVIL RIGHTS—We have had little Civil Rights problems until the Northern Communists infiltrated the South and started stirring up the Civil Rights fiasco; then the President, Attorney General, etc., added fuel to the fire and kept fanning the flames. We have not seen any Civil Rights strife in this country yet to what it will be if we do not get back to the sensible approach of evaluating a person or race on the basis of what they are and not on the basis of what some individual or court tells us they are.

I think the Federal Government's approach to this problem is asinine, unrealistic and stupid. Whether you are White, Black, Yellow, Pink or Blue, it is an impossibility to elevate an individual or race by an act of Congress or a federal court decision. This elevation is strictly up to the individual or race. This was the basis our forefathers used to build these great United States and I think we have done real well on this basis until recent years when the Communist liberators went to work with their "brainwash" that every individual is equal regardless of any other consideration.

The crowning point of it all in regard to Civil Rights was when the Attorney General of the United States made the statement that all of the American people were going to have to read between the lines of the Constitution of the United States in order for the President to get HIS PROGRAM over.

We have done well under our Constitution for years and years until we get a bunch of idiots in Washington who went to finding fault with it and set about to change it completely to meet their own selfish whims and stupid ideas. If our forefathers who wrote the Constitution had wanted anything else in it they would have put it in black and white; it is very clear what they wanted and if you will read it, you will see beyond the shadow of a doubt they were trying to head off what has happened to our country in the past two decades.

UNITED NATIONS—We should never have been in it and the quicker we get out the better off we will be. When I was still overseas in WW II and they were meeting at the "Cow Palace" organizing the UN, I made a statement to some of my officers and men as follows: "If our country gets tangled up in this mess as it is being organized, our leaders have sold our country down the river. Everything our forefathers fought for and everything we have fought for the past five years will be wiped out with one stroke of the pen." I have not changed my mind one bit and I think the statement is being proven to be more and more correct every day. Take Cuba as a prime example.

FOREIGN AID—I have always been against it and still am. Let's start taking care of our own responsibilities and let the other countries do the same. Most of our foreign aid eventually winds up in the hands of the Russians, so let's awaken to the facts.

DEFENSE BILL—Sure I'm for defense, but I am for the defense of MY country with MY money, not a bunch of puppet governments who turn on us the first chance they get, with my money.

COTTON AND FEED GRAIN—I am against the Government subsiding anybody or anything. I think the time has passed, a long time ago, when the Government should give back to the people their God-given right of free enterprise without Government molestation. An example: How many people did you have living on the farm in your District back before all this rigid governmental regimentation of the farmer? How many do you have today? The thieves and crooks have gotten fat off of governmental controls and the little farmer (honest to the core) has gone broke. Let's let the people of our country work for themselves instead of working for the Federal Government.

FEDERAL SPENDING—No one but a complete moron would even start to undertake to try to justify the completely out of line spending of our Federal Government today. I think the Federal Government should run on a sound business basis. If you cannot afford it, do without it; that is the way I run my little business and it has worked for 48 years and will keep on working if the Government will quit trying to regiment me and all free enterprise and let us run our own business.

DEBT CEILING—$309 billion is our debt ceiling as today; however, we owe much more than this debt ceiling. Actually, if you will go to digging on this subject, you will find that we owe in the neighborhood of three times this much. A good example: investigate the Social Security Administration. You will find approximately $300 Billion worth of worthless governmental IOU's instead of the money in this one governmental agency alone.

I am seriously worried about the state of affairs of our country and have been for some time. And I do not think it is going to get any better until we get enough men in Washington with guts enough to start doing what is best for the nation and go to slapping a bunch of our governmental bureaucrats around. The people's confidence in their Federal Government has hit the bottom in the past 20 years.

Cong. Mahon, after receiving Minor's filled-out questionnaire and comprehensive comments, wrote him a personal letter in which he said he was thankful that he had constituents like Minor who took time to think out such legislative matters and their impact on the nation.

POULTRY HOUSING
Some poultrymen believe that the stress of modern high density housing makes poultry more susceptible to disease. But others say that it is equally possible that the changes in environment have provided better nutrition, not only for chickens, but also for previously harmless viruses.

Arnold Parrish and his crew at Parrish Grocery and Market made "the big effort" last week in completely rearranging the stock in that local grocery. It was designed to make shopping easier for the customers and give more aisle room.

The Corner Grocery and Market is about to become a Corner Grocery without a corner. The downtown store soon will be moving off its long-time corner into the middle of the block right next door to The Dispatch. If the fast-moving remodeling can be completed in time, the move will be made over the weekend. If not, the move will come as soon as the new quarters are ready. The name will still be The Corner Grocery & Market.

One correction please on La Fiesta Restaurant's advertisement on page 12 listing their new restaurant hours. The evening dinner hours, Monday through Friday, will be from 5:30 to 10:30 p. m., instead of 5 to 10 p. m. as noted in the ad. You'll find that La Fiesta, beginning next Tuesday, will be opening five days a week for lunch instead of just evening hours as before.

Most of those who have finished college or ended their college educations have already repaid their loans with interest, or are currently repaying them, Mrs. B. E. Young, treasurer of the organization, reported at the drive planning meeting Tuesday in the Southwest Public Service Reddy Room.

Students are eligible for a maximum $2,000 loan, payable at the rate of $800 the first year when they are not allowed to take a part-time job and $400 for each of the next three years when they can take part-time employment.

This is the first time a community pledge drive has been launched. It was deemed advisable to take care of several new applicants this year.

Metcalf pointed out that it is hoped to make the fund self-sustaining through repayment of loans with interest.

Those overlooked in next week's drive who wish to make contributions are asked to contact Mrs. Young.

Antelopes to scrimmage O'Donnell '11' here tonight

No speed; passing and defense to carry load

The Post Antelope football squad will more than 40 strong, swung into its second week of drills Monday, and has a practice scrimmage scheduled here tonight (Thursday) with the O'Donnell Eagles.

Coach Harold Teal said the O'Donnell scrimmage will start at 7 o'clock at Antelope Stadium, and that the public is invited.

The Antelopes held an intra-squad scrimmage last Friday night, the results of which didn't give much to Coach Teal said.

"The squad didn't look particularly good," was Teal's comment on the scrimmage.

The Gold squad won the scrimmage by a score of 20-8. One touchdown was scored on an intercepted pass and the others on runs.

The coach said the intra-squad scrimmage showed, as predicted, that the Antelopes aren't blessed with speed and are going to have to throw a lot this season.

"It appears that we'll be depending a lot more on our passers and receivers for yardage than we will on runners," Teal said.

"The scrimmage also indicated that we're going to have to play in defense in every game to make up for our lack of offense," he added.

Teal admitted, however, that one of the backs being counted on for let of ball-carrying, Tom Clark, who is slowed by an ankle injury, which is still giving him trouble, Sammy Sims also came up with an injured ankle this week, and captain tackle Ricky Little has neck injury.

On the brighter side, the Antelopes appear to be farther ahead in their blocking and tackling than they were at this time last season, the coach said.

The in-service teachers' workshop began yesterday morning with practice sessions from two a day to one a day, Teal said. With school starting next week, there'll be one practice session a day in preparation for the Antelopes' opening game at Falls on Friday night, Sept. 6.

Leading candidates for starting line positions, Teal said, appear to be Pat Sullivan at center; Danny Odom, Dennis Odom, and Jackie Braddock at guards; Charlie Brown, Billy Blacklock and Ricky Little at Tackles, and Ronald Simpson and Teddy Scott as split end and Danny Pierce at tight end.

In the backfield, Butch Cross, Benny Owen and Clark are the leading candidates for running back; Jackie Fluitt and Scott for split back, and Pat Cornell and Cross for quarterback.

The roster, released this week by Coach Teal, is as follows:

Six of the Post Archery Club members were too busy to take part in the shoot, three of them spending eats and cold drinks and the other three doing paper work.

It's still the 46-56 Club, but all football lettermen are now eligible for membership, President George Pierce said Tuesday following the club's Monday night meeting.

Pierce said attendance was good at Monday night's meeting and that eight new members were added. "We expect to add a lot more," the president said.

The club's next meeting will be Monday night, Sept. 9, following the first football game on Sept. 6. The meeting will be held in the primary school auditorium.

Everybody clouting Yanks; softball race tightening

With the Yankees having lost three games in a row and the Untouchables breathing down their necks, the Men's Softball League race has become tighter than Elliott Ness' hatband.

With the season scheduled to end Tuesday, Sept. 3, the Yankees are on top of the heap with a 6-3 mark and one more game to play. The Untouchables are in second place at 5-3 with two more games to go.

The Mets and Tigers are tied for third with identical 4-4 marks; the Unknowns are fourth at 3-5, and the Rinky Dinks are in the cellar at 2-5.

After losing last week to the Rinky Dinks and the Tigers for their first setbacks of the season, the Yankees were downed again Tuesday night, this time by the Mets, 13 to 4.

The Yankees had taken an early lead with three runs in the first inning, but were to score only one more, and that in the fifth.

The Mets, meanwhile, began a finding the range with two runs in the third inning and one in the fourth before breaking loose with seven in the fifth.

Tom Buchanan was the winning pitcher and Petey Hays was the loser.

In Tuesday night's second game, the Untouchables climbed ahead of the Tigers by beating them, 16 to 7. Will Bigott was the winning pitcher and Jackie Hays the loser.

The Untouchables scored four runs in the first inning and never trailed from that point. One of the three runs in the first game came on a lead-off homer by Jim Parker.

James Dye homered for the Untouchables in a six-run seventh inning.

For the Tigers, Alton Clary had a third inning home run.

Following are accounts of last week's four games.

ables also helping the Untouchables along.

The winners would have had three more runs in their big seventh, but John Schmidt's three-run homer was wiped out when he failed to touch third base.

The Unknowns got off to a two-run lead in the bottom of the first without getting a hit. A. J. Mann, the Untouchables' starting pitcher, walked in two runs before Will Bigott took over with one out and fanned David Lee and Richard Ray to end the inning.

The Untouchables tied the score in the top of the second, also without a hit. The runs were scored on a walk, an infield out, a passed ball and an error at third base.

The winners made it 4-2 in the top of the third when James Dye's triple scored Gene Tucker and Nolan Williams.

The Unknowns pulled up to 4-3 in the bottom of the third when Billy G. Jones singled, went to third on a throwing error and came home on Alton Clary's one-bagger.

Singles by Harold Reno and Jim Parker got the Untouchables another run in the top of the fourth, but the Unknowns tied the score at 5-5 in the bottom of the fourth.

The Untouchables went back on top by one run in the see-saw battle when Tucker, who had doubled and gone to third on Williams' single, came home on Thurman Maddox's one-bagger.

Billy G. Jones slammed a lead-off home run to deep center field to tie the score at 6-6 in the bottom of the fifth. After a scoreless sixth inning, came the Untouchables' big seventh that salted the game away.

Also contributing to the win were Untouchables Bobby Terry, Pete Maddox, Gary Simpson and Abel Camacho.

Others seeing service for the Unknowns were Jimmy Minor, Glenn Norman, Roy Josey, Leslie Acker, Punk Peel and Tommy Young.

turned in by the Yankees helping turning the trick.

Petey Hays got his second home run of the night to lead off the top of the seventh and put the Yankees back out in front, 13-12. Rinky Dink pitcher Rex King got Wayne Hair and pinch-hitter Chester Morris on grounders and fanned Charles Morris to get his team out of the inning and set the stage for the Rinky Dinks' game-winning rally.

Also doing yeoman service for the winners were catcher Don Dunbar, third baseman Lewis Ammons and rightfielder Bob Smith, and for the losers, centerfielders Ronnie Morris and Tom Autry, second baseman Deamos Altman; leftfielder Johnny Kemp, whose fourth inning home run was wiped out because he failed to touch third base, and leftfielder Paul.

Tigers pin second loss in row on Yankee team

The Yankees, who had won their first six games in Men's Softball League play, lost their second game in a row, 13-7, last Friday night to the Tigers, who did most of their damage in an eight-run fifth inning.

The Tigers jumped on Yankee hurler Billy Jones for five hits and four runs in the top of the first to get things under way.

The Tigers scored another run in the top of the second and held a 5-0 lead before the Yankees got two runs on one hit in the bottom of the third.

The Yankees scored two more in the bottom of the fourth to trim the Tiger lead to 5-4 before the winners put the game out of reach with their eight-run uprising.

They got five hits in that inning off Jones, including a home run by shortstop John Valdez.

That was all the scoring for the Tigers, but the Yankees came back with one run in the bottom of the sixth on singles by Charlie Morris and Ronnie Morris and a two-bagger by catcher Petey Hays. The Yankees counted two more in the bottom of the seventh on singles by Ronnie Morris and Johnny Kemp and an infield error.

Winning pitcher Jackie Hays gave up 12 hits, which were two more than the Tigers garnered off loser Billy Jones. All the Tiger hits came in the first and fifth innings.

Other Tigers helping out in the win were A. L. North, Mack Terry, Mike Mitchell, Auvy McBride, Jackie Carpenter, Shorty Hester, Condy and Greer.

Yankee players besides those mentioned were Jimmy Redman, Deamos Altman, Lonnie G. Peel and Wayne Hair.

Kennedy's triple leads Rinky Dinks past Yanks

Manager Jack Kennedy tripled in the bottom of the seventh to score Don Lamb from first and then raced home on a throwing error to give the Rinky Dinks a 14 to 13 win over the Yankees last Thursday night.

It was the first loss for the Yankees in seven league games and the second win for the Rinky Dinks.

After the Yankees scored two runs in the top of the first, the Rinky Dinks blasted pitcher Petey Hays for eight hits and eight runs in the bottom of the first to take an 8-2 lead and appeared well on their way to an easy upset victory. But the Yanks had other ideas.

The Rinky Dinks' big first inning was touched off by pitcher Rex King's home run just inside the left field foul line, which scored Arlon Ford ahead of him. The Rinky Dinks sent 11 men to the plate in that big first inning.

Home runs by Petey Hays and shortstop Jimmy Redman helped the Yankees plate six runs in the second inning and tie it up, 8-8.

The Yankees went ahead, 11-8, in the top of the third, with catcher Jerry Odom's triple the big blow.

The Rinky Dinks tied the score again in the bottom of the fourth when shortstop Curtis Didway's home run, with two out, scored King and J. P. Parnell ahead of him.

The Rinky Dinks recaptured the lead with one run in the bottom of the fifth, but first baseman Lonnie Gene Peel homered, with two out, in the top of the sixth to tie it again at 12-12.

The Rinky Dinks went down in order in the bottom of the sixth, with one of three double plays

Mets stage rally, nip Unknowns by 8-7 score

The Mets spotted the Unknowns seven runs in the first four innings last Thursday night and then came on to win, 8 to 7, in a Men's Softball League game at Babe Ruth League park.

The Mets won by breaking a 7-7 tie in the bottom of the seventh when leftfielder John Haire, who had reached first base on an infield error, stole second, advanced to third on an infield out and came in on a wild pitch.

The Unknowns, after being blanked in the top of the first, scored one run in the second, two in the third and four in the fourth. But that was as far as Met pitcher H. C. Gribble and his teammates would allow them to go.

The Mets took a big chunk out of the Unknowns' lead in the bottom of the fifth when they scored six runs on four hits and two walks off opposing hurler Billy G. Jones.

The Mets tied the score in the bottom of the sixth when Gribble reached first on a fielder's choice, and came all the way around on a stolen base, another fielder's choice and a wild pitch.

Gribble set the Unknowns down in order in the top of the sixth. He gave up singles to Jimmy Minor and Glenn Norman with two out in the top of the seventh, but forced Leslie Acker to fly out to left field to end the threat.

Also contributing to the Met victory were catcher Vernon Scott, Pete Lancaster, Jack Lancaster, A. J. Howell, Ed Sawyers, T. Roy

Head coach in appeal for ticket sale boost

Head Football Coach Harold Teal put in a strong plug for season ticket sales for Antelope home games here this fall in a pre-season grid talk before Post Rotarians Tuesday noon in the City Auditorium.

"We now have 140 to 150 boys in our school football program," Teal told the civic clubbers, "with five complete teams playing full schedules."

"To operate such a program with equipment second to none in the state costs us between $9,000 and $10,000 each year for our athletic budget," he explained.

"The athletic funds are kept separate and are raised through extra receipts to games, the bulk of which must come from high school football."

Teal, who also is athletic director, said that to put the athletic fund on a business-like basis the season ticket sections at Antelope Stadium have been expanded to include a total of 701 reserved seats on the west side.

He pointed out that the season tickets for the six home games this fall sell for $7.50 each, which is $1.25 per game.

"This is no increase over the general admission price," he pointed out. "In return you get a good seat reserved for you each and every game. We will have ushers to show you to your seats," he added.

"We need your support for such a program," he emphasized.

Teal explained that thanks to the 46-56 Club through funds raised through sale of football programs, the field house has a new commercial tvne washer and dryer to provide footballers with clean laundry.

Holly, Fred Stolle and Tom Buchanan.

Helping the Unknowns along were Manager Punk Peel, David Lee, Donnie Hays, Tommy Young, Smith and Richard Ray.

dry daily.

Coach Teal told Rotarians that the high school squad to date numbers 42 players who are full of real desire, most of whom reported ready to go in "top shape."

In the current athletic program, he pointed out, the football players determined their own squad policies and enforce their own discipline through the Antelope Football Association.

"The boys accept the responsibilities here and do a good job," Teal declared.

"We are proud of the scholastic achievement of the football players."

All-Stars surge from behind to beat Grassland

The Post All-Stars softball team won the "sugar" game from Grassland, 10 to 8, here Monday night, but had to come from behind in the sixth inning to do it.

Trailing 8-7 going into the bottom of the sixth, pitcher Rex King homered off Grassland pitcher H. C. Gribble after first baseman Jim Parker had flied out and right fielder Lewis Ammons had grounded out.

Center fielder Jimmy Redman singled to keep the rally alive and came home on catcher Nolan Williams' four-bagger. Left fielder Leslie Acker reached first on an error, but third baseman Curtis Didway flied out to end the inning.

King set the visitors down in order in the top of the seventh, with Huddleston flying out. Burk grounded out and Greer going down on strikes.

Shortstop Greer's double scored Laws and Gribble in the top of the third for Grassland's first two runs, but Post went ahead 4-2 in the bottom of the third on singles by Parker, Ammons and King and an outfield error.

Grassland stormed ahead 5-4 with three runs on four hits in the top of the fourth.

Post failed to score in the bottom of the fourth, and held Grassland scoreless in the top of the fifth.

Post scored three unearned runs in the bottom of the fifth when the Grassland center fielder couldn't hold Didway's fly ball and he came all the way around with Redman and Williams ahead of him. Redman had singled and advanced to second on a walk to Williams.

Grassland made it 8-7 in the top of the sixth by scoring three runs on five hits, with Greer's triple the big blow.

The visitors outhit the Post All-Stars, 12 to 8.

ers," Coach Teal told Rotarians.

"Our eligibility standards are the highest in Texas high school football," he pointed out, "but last spring only one boy out of 51 players failed to make his grade requirements."

"We have a number of honor students on the squad," he added.

Coach Teal invited all club members and other fans out to the squad workouts. He urged local fans to encourage the players who are enthusiastic and determined to have a top season. Such encouragement, he added, is invaluable and necessary support.

"When a boy is doing something wrong, don't come and tell us coaches," he said. "Tell the boy himself. That makes him more fully aware of community interest in the team."

Guests of the club for the luncheon were Teal's group of assistant coaches, Glenn Gregg, Charles Black, Will Biggott, and Elvin Jones, and Groundskeeper Ben Howell.

Small towns can do 'big things' in education

"Contrary to popular opinion you do not have to live in a big town to do big things in education," Barry Thompson, Post's new superintendent of schools, told the largest crowd to attend a Retail Merchants Association in months at Levi's Restaurant last Thursday noon.

Speaking on the subject, "The Public School, The Community and America," Thompson told his hearers that "as representatives of the community you can be an effective force in obtaining better public schools and in retaining the greatness that has been America's destiny."

"The importance of the classroom teacher cannot be overemphasized," Thompson said. "Administrators exist so that teachers can be given the time and freedom to educate youngsters. Yet in recent years the teacher has been the most cursed and criticized member of our society. It seems that the home, the church, the business world, the state have turned to us alone to train the citizens of tomorrow in everything from the use of the toothbrush to the choice of a vocation and the casting of an intelligent vote."

Thompson listed the wide variety of things the teacher is expected to teach his or her pupils and then what is required after school hours besides:

"And in return for these things she shall be rewarded with a wage less than that which the brickmason receives," Thompson added.

Then he declared, "The classroom teacher is by all odds the rarest bargain the public has seen in the history of this country. That is why I am proud to be a member of one of the finest professions in the world. Service to other people is the basic premise of our profession. We need not apologize for this calling."

Thompson cited the "current curriculum revolution in science and math" as the vigorous example of improvements now being made in the teaching field.

"The community must support the schools; not only with money but with time and effort," Thompson said. "You, as prominent members of this community can do a great deal to help Post have the school system the professional staff would like to have," Thompson told the merchants.

Thompson declared that "our greatest strength in our schools and our community comes from our American heritage." He said that this American heritage has provided us with eight principles that are necessary to our American way of life.

He listed the eight as: We believe and trust God, as we understand him. Importance of the individual. Freedom of the individual. Dignity of work. Private ownership of property. The profit motive. Free competition. Government as a protector, not a provider.

Participates in Army exercise

SPARTANBURG, S. C. — Army Sp. 4 Dugan E. Nickens, whose father, Ralph P. Nickens, lives at 105 West Fifth St., Post, Tex., is one of more than 75,000 armed forces personnel who participated in Exercise Swift Strike III, a U. S. Strike Command exercise in Georgia and North and South Carolina.

Swift Strike III pitted two task forces against each other in a month-long mock war which ended Aug. 16.

Specialist Nickens, a mechanic in the 41st Ordnance Company at Fort Bragg, N. C., entered the Army in February 1960 and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

CHRIS'S COPY

All good things must come to an end and so ends the life of "Chris's Copy." Since I can imagine the comments that will be made after that first sentence, maybe I should have just said that all things must come to an end. In exactly six days PHS opens its friendly doors and from the third on, colleges across the country begin to beckon. As far as I know there are 84 kids going off to colleges this fall—84 including me. And if I didn't know better I'd say that most of you are going to count and see if I really do have them down. I'm going to sorta copy Editor Didway (who by the way says he has sugar ants on his desk) on his telephone book jag. He's always counting up to see if the Joneses are catching up with the Smiths, etc., so I made a little table of my own and found out that Tech ranks first in enrollment from here with 26, West Texas is next with 11 and North Texas third with 8. And from then on you have a handful going there and a few going here, etc.

COMING TO TOWER

A thoughtful Joan Caulfield fingers the engagement ring offered her by Robert Taylor in this scene from M-G-M's "Cattle King," showing four days beginning Sunday, Sept. 1, at the Tower Theatre.

Cisco Junior College with Judy Clary, David Lee, Charles Brannon and Sonny Gossett are all going to Lubbock Christian College. And Marsha Smith is a loner at San Angelo College.

Other loners are Sammie Kay Caffey at Baylor University (unless David decides on it), Roger Camp at New Mexico Military Institute, Lenny Howard at Howard Payne College, Johnny Haire at Payne County Junior College, Pam McCrary at Goucher College right outside of Baltimore, Md., Mindy Newby at Oklahoma University, Sharon Jobe who will be a senior at Southern Methodist University and is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority, Jimmie Wells who has five long years of work ahead of him at Southwestern State College at Weatherford, Okla., and yours truly at Trinity University at San Antonio.

James Mitchell and Kent Wheatley are the two freshmen from Post entering West Texas State University with David Nichols trying to decide between WT and Baylor. Anne Morris, Beth Kemp, Pat Claborn, Danny Jones, David McCampbell, Noel Don Norman, Larry Don Richardson, Larry Welch, and Scottie Pierce make up the other nine from here.

Martha Goode, Charlotte Taylor and Ralph Ardis will be old timers at North Texas State University with Janith Short, Anne Pennington, Mary Ann Williams, Janie Carradine, and Tom Campbell donning fish beanies I think someone ought to write and tell them or wear them about Janith, Anne, Mary, and Janie. NT might never be the same.

South Plains Junior College is next on the list with Jerry Ligon being the old timer and Pete Dodson, Gayle Heaton, Ronald Tallent, Wanda Williams and Frankie Gary being newcomers.

Sul Ross State College is getting a lot of beef this year when Harold Wayne Mason (soph.), Dean Johnston, Gary Robinson, and Forrest Claborn (all fish) enroll.

Leslie Acker leaves early for the University of Texas where he will undergo "Hell Week" (formerly "Hell Week" if I may add) where he will be initiated into Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Tommy Boucher is also a member of Phi Kappa Sigma and will live in the fraternity house this fall. Charles Tubbs and Victor Hudman are also attending the University with Victor going to medical school there.

Lin Allyn Cox, Stanna Butler and Shirley Lee are all going to Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. And speaking of Abilene, Beverley Young and Brenda Sullenger are going to McMurry College there.

I see Ken Rankin and Freddy Simmons have got Wrangler Bells on the brain 'cause they're off to

Q. Who actually pay veterans or dependents getting compensation or pension checks, the VA or Treasury Department?

A. Three Federal agencies join in the payment of compensation and pension checks. VA in its computer station at Hines, Illinois, certifies the amount of payment to be made. From this listing the Treasury Department issues the checks and turns them over in mass volume to the Post Office Department which delivers them.

Q. Cannot veterans who hold the Korean GI insurance, called "RS" insurance, collect a cash dividend if they turn it in for "W" insurance?

A. Yes, but only until Sept. 13, 1963, when the dividend offer expires.

A SMALL TRIBUTE TO A VERY BIG PERSON — THE AMERICAN WORKER

School Opens Tuesday Lives Depend On Whether You DRIVE

SAFETY

It isn't that children mean to be careless . . . it's just that in their zest and vitality they sometimes forget to stop, look and listen before crossing the street. It isn't that we mean to be careless, yet the very car we drive may be considered a lethal weapon and the consequences of our negligence could be fatal. It is our moral obligation to be extra alert these days when school children crowd the crosswalks!

CHECK YOURSELF ON THESE SAFE DRIVING TIPS

- BE ESPECIALLY CAREFUL NEAR SCHOOLS . . . THINK ONE STEP AHEAD OF EVERY CHILD
- KNOW ALL TRAFFIC RULES . . . OBSERVE THEM AS LIFE OR DEATH REGULATIONS.
- REGARD ALL TRAFFIC SIGNALS, SIGNS AND MARKERS AS LIFESAVERS . . . THEY ARE.
- HAVE YOUR CAR SAFETY CHECKED OFTEN, FAULTY EQUIPMENT CAN COST LIVES.

Mrs. Carl Chilcoat now a nursing school grad

By MRS. MAX CHAFFIN

There is a certain something in the air around here and you can feel it the week before school starts every year! People getting that last trip in and hurrying and scurrying to purchase something decent-looking for that first day of school.

One of our compatriots graduated last Friday evening, Mrs. Carl Chilcoat graduated from the Lubbock School of Vocational Nursing Aug. 23, 8 p. m. at the Forrest Heights Methodist Church in a class of 23. Mrs. Chilcoat has attended this school for the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hitt, Mrs. L. Burkett, Mrs. Lola Hughes (Mrs. Burkett's house guest this past week), Mr. and Mrs. Spence Bevers, Mr. and Mrs. Lex Henderson and Mr. Chilcoat attended the graduating exercise, from here.

Mrs. Iva Rouark came from Lubbock Sunday to the James Shelton's home and stayed until Monday and helped her daughter can peas. I know it was appreciated don't you?

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meeks took her mother, Mrs. S. H. Webb, to Big Spring on Sunday to visit Mrs. Webb's sister, Mrs. L. W. Huddle. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Crosby's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rodgers, Jill and Jody, were at the Croslys for the weekend.

The L. M. Sherberts have returned to this fair community to prepare the Pleasant Valley Gin for the coming ginning season.

Last Saturday the B. L. Thomas drove over to Denver City and picked up Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson and then drove on to Cloudford, Alamo, Ruidoso and back to Denver City, all in 24 hours, roundtrip.

Artie Baxter is still with her daughter, Mrs. James Blair, who has been seriously ill and in the hospital but is at home in Wolf-orth now.

The Robert Mocks and his sister, Mrs. Charles Rudd and family, went to Lake Thomas over the weekend. Caught no fish to speak of.

Did you notice that Larry Brown of this community was one of those fine Boy Scouts who helped park the cars at the rodeo this year?

Mr. and Mrs. Will Barton and the Buddy Halls left last Friday for Fort Davis and visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spruiel (Mrs. Will Barton's daughter). Mrs. Barton commented how green and cool it was down there and they had to sleep under blankets.

MRS. LOLA PEEL, Mrs. Alma McBride, Mrs. Molly Kolb, Mrs.

Virginia Mock and Mrs. Fay Payton all come over to my house last Thursday to discuss fair proceedings for this year at the Garza County Fair on Oct. 5. Start canning, baking (freeze it), sewing and painting now as you have plenty of time to get your entries ready for the fair! Any and all are appreciated. Chinese chews and refreshing coolers were served to the fair committee and their children.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shelton, John F. Myers, Glen and Jan of Lubbock, and Larry Johnson of Post all went to Lake Thomas on last Thursday and came back on Friday and they caught fish! I guess they got them all before the Mocks got there or maybe they use that can't fail lure!

Mrs. B. D. Robinson and Racy Robinson had Sunday dinner with the Lee Wards.

Mrs. T. L. Barnes' granddaughter, Mrs. Dale Cole and her husband and children, Randy and Terry have moved from Albuquerque to Lubbock with their trailer house. Mr. Cole is enrolled at Lubbock Christian College for the fall term. Mrs. Cole has been staying with her grandmother this past week.

Mrs. J. I. Northcutt spent the day with Mrs. Lena Chaffin and helped peel the peaches last Wednesday.

The Terrell Browns took a trip to Six Flags last weekend. Roy Webb was down from Slaton on Sunday at the A. R. Robinson home in this community.

Mrs. James Shelton's brother, Joe B. Burnett, and his wife, Mrs. Betty Provost, Perry and Patricia, all of New Orleans, La., were at the Sheltons on Sunday for ice cream. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burnett and Jackie of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burnett of Lubbock were there also. That is pretty nearly the whole family of Burnetts, I would say!

Mrs. Neil Crosby's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pierson, who are on their way to Alaska stopped at the Crosby home Monday until Thursday last week. The Jerry Dixons were down on Sunday from Plainview and stopped at Mrs. B. D. Robinsons.

The T. L. Barnes went to Lubbock a week ago Sunday and saw their nephew, Bedford Shearer, his son and wife from Texaline at the J. R. Davis in Lubbock. The S. H. Eubanks were also there.

Carol Bowen of Post is visiting Ben Altman and Carrie this week. Read next week's Post Dispatch to see where the Spence Bevers went!

FASHIONS FOR EVENING AT 1963 STATE FAIR

This fall you'll compliment your hostess by "dressing" for dinner. From left to right are pictured three fashion highlights of the seventh annual Sewing Fashion Festival with its exciting preview of 35 new fall fashions shown daily at the 1963 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 5 through 20. At the left is shown an over dress of Gotschalk Brocade lined with American Silk Mills Peau d'Or topping slim tapered pants of Canton Velvet made from Vogue Pattern #1220. The soft shaping and the wide curving of the neckline are news. Pictured in the center is a design which brings into focus the new sportive look for evening wear, the skirt, blouse and pull-over ensemble. Made from McCall's Pattern #7069, the skirt of Kaplan's Mohair Loop in turquoise is topped by an aqua silk blouse with Glade Green overblouse of velveteen. On the right Butterick Pattern #3488 fashions a patio dress with Empire waist and flowing skirt made of Rosewood's Pussy Willow in a flower garden print.

By MRS. MAX CHAFFIN

Registration on Friday of this week for the Southland Public School; teachers report on Thursday. School time draws near and there are happy faces all around—children, parents and teachers! One teacher I know said that he or she (to keep you guessing) needed to go back to school for a vacation so you see there are all sorts of reasons for school!

The meeting at Southland Baptist Church was most successful according to all reports. They had a home boy leading the singing and it was good! J. C. Arthur joined all in song and of course all enjoyed meeting an old friend once again.

Mrs. J. F. Rackler had 36 visitors last Sunday! Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Montgomery and children, Theresa, Glyn, Danny, Jerry, Mrs. Velma Kinder, Carolyn and Nelda, Georgeann and her two sons, Carolyn and Judy Pugh of Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rackler and son, and Mrs. Buddy Rackler, Portales, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rackler, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Rackler, Mrs. Alleen Trammel and Children, Lubbock; Elder Taylor, Lubbock; J. B. Rackler and the Mrs., J. B. Jr. and Beverly. She has some of these for Sunday dinner guests and some had supper with her.

NUTRIENT THIEVES

Weeds steal nutrients from right under the roots of our cultivated crops. For example, one ragweed plant is a corn field uses as much moisture as three corn stalks, and a wild mustard weed will take as much nitrogen and phosphorus from the soil as two oat plants and as much water as four oat plants.

Soil survey under way in Garza; purpose told

By CLYDE R. STAHNKE
 Soil scientists of the Soil Conservation Service have been making a detailed soil survey in Garza County since November 1961.
 Various characteristics of the soil are used to divide the soil into different "kinds" of soils. The soil scientist working in the field considers physical characteristics of the soil almost entirely. Soil cores are taken and the physical characteristics are examined.
 Some of the more important physical characteristics of the soil that are considered in making the survey are texture, structure, and depth of the soil.
 Texture refers to the relative proportions of sand, silt and clay in a soil. For example, a soil containing 15 per cent clay, 10 per cent silt and 75 per cent sand would be called a sandy loam. The soil scientist estimates the texture in the field. Textural analysis of typical soils in the survey are carried out in the laboratory and the soil scientist uses the analysis as a guide in estimating soil textures.

SOIL STRUCTURE refers to the arrangement of soil particles into units having similar shapes. In many subsoils the soil particles are arranged into units having blocky shapes and the soil is said to have a blocky structure.
 Depth simply refers to the depth of a soil to any material which is not considered to be soil.
 Other characteristics of the soil, for example color and consistence, are also considered in making the soil survey.
 Most soils have different "layers," which are called horizons. The soil scientist determines the physical horizon from which the soil is thought to have formed, similar within a certain range are grouped into one "kind" of soil called a soil series and are given a name.
 The slope of each "kind" of soil is also determined. After determining the slope of a soil and the soil series to which a given soil belongs, the soil scientist plots the boundaries of the soil on an aerial photograph.
THE VARIOUS characteristics of a soil can be used to predict its behavior. For example the texture of the different horizons in a soil greatly affects the waterholding capacity of a soil and the movement of air and water into and through the soil.

 The depth of a soil is very important in determining the waterholding capacity of a soil and the room that is available for the growth of plant roots.
 Other soil characteristics affect soil behavior in various ways. By considering the effects of the different soil characteristics on soil behavior, one is able to use a soil for the purpose to which it is best suited and in the way which will give the best results.
 Examples of uses of the soil survey, such as the one now under way in Garza County, are as follows:
 1. Soil maps are used in designing irrigation systems.
 2. Soil maps are an aid in determining the need for installation of various structures such as terraces and waterways.
 3. Soil maps are used in determining the measures which need to be applied in order to protect the soil from erosion.
 4. Soil maps can aid a farmer or rancher in following the recommendations of agricultural experiment stations.
 5. The soil survey is used in the study of soils.
 The soil survey has various other applications, both agricultural and non-agricultural. When the soil survey of Garza County is completed, a report will be published. The report will be available to anyone desiring a copy.

INEXPERIENCE KILLS CROPS

Absentee ownership and "week-end farmers" have created a unique problem in Texas agriculture this year.
 Already this season, some 7,000 to 8,000 acres of Texas cotton has been affected by damaging doses of hormone-type herbicides such as 2-4D and 2-4, 5T. Field investigations by Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors reveal most of the effect is caused by "new" or part-time farmers who are not acquainted with the dangerous potential of the chemicals.
 Modern herbicides have been a real boon to farmers and ranchers in recent years in the constant fight against choking weeds and moisture-sapping brush. But when mishandled, the chemicals can be as harmful to susceptible crops as a raging fire. It has taken several years of experience with the herbicides by farmers and commercial applicator companies to develop proper safety techniques in field operations. Under certain wind conditions, the spray has been known to drift and cause noticeable damage to crops as far as 15 miles away.

 This year, a new pattern of crop damage from the careless use of weed killer chemicals emerged. Investigators checking field damage reported that most of the careless spraying had been done on Saturdays and Sundays. They immediately set out to discover why these days of the week resulted in more damage reports than the other five. The answer wasn't long in coming.
 A survey of land adjacent to the affected crops revealed that the spraying had been done by persons who had only recently become acquainted with the herbicides. In most cases, these were landowners living in the city who had applied the chemical during weekend visits to the property, or they had ordered their tenants to do the spraying.
 The Texas Department of Agriculture teams made certain the absentee owners quickly became acquainted with the dangerous power of the chemicals and instructed them in safe usage.

 Some areas, but not all, of Texas are in a regulated zone where the use of weed killers is strictly supervised. In the regulated areas, spraying must be applied only under the direction of TDQ personnel. Most of the damage occurred, however, in areas that are uncontrolled.

Commissioner John C. White has urged new landowners to use extreme caution in herbicide applications. Follow directions on the chemical containers and consult with those who have had experience with weed killers, he said.

Annual Prison Rodeo is set for October dates

HUNTSVILLE — There'll be entertainment and thrills galore at the 32nd annual Texas Prison Rodeo here during each of the four Sunday performances in October.
 In addition to exciting rodeo contests featuring the prison system's toughest inmate riders, this year's special guest stars will include Minnie Pearl of "Grand Ole Opry" fame; Eddie Anderson, Jack Benny's popular "Rochester"; Terry Wilson, who portrays Bill Hawk on "Wagon Train"; former major league pitching ace Dizzy Dean, and Linda Loftis of Fort Worth, Miss Texas of 1961-62.
 subject to audit, just as other reports submitted to the Internal Revenue Service, and records should be kept to support refund claims. The agent emphasizes that the deadline for reporting claims is Sept. 30.

Sept. 30 deadline for filing refund claims on gas tax

Garza County farmers and ranchers are reminded that claims for the Federal Gas Tax refund must be submitted before Sept. 30, says County Agent Syd Conner.
 This refund is on the four cents per gallon excise tax paid on gasoline and diesel fuel used by operators on their farms during the period July 1, 1962, to June 30, 1963, says Conner. He explains that this refund has no connection with the claim for refunds sent to the State Comptroller's office. The gasoline used on an operator's farm by custom tractors is also eligible for the refund, points out Conner, but fuel used in highway travel is not.
 The special postcard form, 2240, is the proper one to use to submit fuel claims, says the agent, and they have been mailed to operators who reported in 1962. New farmers and those who have not received the Form 2240 may obtain them from the office of the county agent or the area offices of Internal Revenue Services.
 Conner reminds that claims are

Farm and ranch customers eager to try new products

The feed and seed business in a farm-ranching territory of West Texas has changed a lot in the last 20 years, even in the last decade. The Garza Farm Store at 121 South Avenue I is an excellent example. Today it specializes in feed and seed, plus livestock and garden supplies.

The firm used to deliver coal all over town—before natural gas. "Just the same way as we had been delivering chicken feed until the city ordinance came along a few months ago banning all types of fowls within the city limits," explains Junior Gray, who purchased the business from Earl Rogers, his uncle, Feb. 1, 1961.

Junior commented that the city ordinance banning chickens, horses and livestock from the city limits "didn't hurt business too badly, but it didn't help it any."

Gray specializes in feed and seed now.

Sold off are the small grain storage facilities, which kept the operators humping each fall. The elevator business today has "grown up" into much larger storage operation now that most of the stored grain belongs to the government.

Gone is the farm equipment and tractor selling too. "I'm concentrating upon feed and seed, ranch supplies and garden supplies," Junior told The Dispatch.

Just to point how specializing helps, Gray said the Garza Farm Store this spring had the largest selection of hybrid milo seed in West Texas.

His farmer customers appreciate this. He draws them not only from Garza County but from several surrounding counties as well.

But speaking of business changes, Junior points out that this area doesn't have too many hogs or chickens. The farm store doesn't have as big a volume in feed either as it did 20 years ago, although last winter Junior sold approximately 400 tons of cattle feed alone.

With this area having oil and with the cotton mill located in Post now operating on a bigger scale than ever before, many of the farmers don't keep a few head of livestock as they formerly did, Gray explains.

Now they market what feed they raise and grow cotton on the rest, often taking a job "in town" to boost their income.

Junior reports there is a new advance in some phase of the feed and seed business every year.

While the number of head of livestock on the farm has dropped considerably over the last two decades, there has been an increase in such livestock again over the last five years, Gray says.

One thing most Post readers probably didn't know. The Garza Farm store is the largest retail outlet for dog food hereabouts. Junior reports he sells a tremendous amount of dog food—averaging two to three tons a month.

It's not sold by the can either, but by the sack. It's all dry and goes to feed farm dogs, cow dogs, and hunting dogs.

Purina Omolene, a complete balanced diet horse feed, is one of the main items in the store. Junior sells six to eight tons of it a month—not in bulk, but by the 100 pound bag. It goes to feed ranch horses and pleasure horses.

If there's one thing Junior admits he has a hard time keeping up with, it's his customers. The continually come in and ask for products he has never heard of. On inquiry he finds they have read about them in farm magazines, even before they are on the market here in West Texas.

So Junior starts asking for the new products to keep these customers satisfied. Junior has a real compliment for his customers: "They're very progressive," says Junior with a grin.

Junior started to work in the store in February, 1957, while still a senior in the local high school. After school was out he went to work full time, eventually becoming manager of the feed and seed portion of the Rogers' operation. A little over two years ago he purchased the business for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray and their almost two-year-old daughter, Caren, live in a modern new home three-fourths of the way "up the Caprock grade" on the Lubbock highway.

Junior has one store employee besides himself, Nolan Williams. The wholesale center for the
