

Blackeyed pea project in Garza now seems certain

The start of a blackeye pea contract planting project for Garza County appears certain this spring following a turnout of some 55 interested farmers to a discussion meeting on the proposed project at the school cafeteria Tuesday night.

Beginning this fall

Southland is to integrate

The Southland schools will be integrated with the opening of the 1964 fall term.

The integration action was voted by the Southland school trustees at their March meeting.

In another board action taken at the meeting, trustees approved the extending of new contracts for the next school year to eight members of the present nine-teacher staff.

No names were given in releasing this information to The Dispatch.

It is not necessary for a school district election to be called for approval of integration following a ruling last year by the Texas attorney-general.

The Southland district is now sending approximately a dozen Negro students from the district by bus to Slaton.

The Southland school enrollment now is approximately 235, according to Supt. F. W. Callaway.

The integration move was reported to be as much an economy measure as anything else.

The Southland integration move is the third to come within as many years in Garza County. Post integrated two years ago and Close City integrated at the beginning of the current school year, both for announced economy reasons.

The problem has never come up at the Justiceburg school, the only other school in Garza County.

There hasn't been a Negro student living within the Justiceburg school district in the last 30 years, one school source told The Dispatch yesterday.

farmers to acreage contracts for the peas.

He said he would place an ad in The Dispatch to advise farmers where they could contact his contract man and when.

Holmes, who has contracts with canneries, wants a minimum of 3,000 acres planted to peas in Garza County and eastern Lynn County under contract.

Lewis Herron, farm representative of the First National Bank, said the minimum of 3,000 acres appears certain and that the program "will go into effect."

Herron commented that interest shown Tuesday night indicated there would be no difficulty in securing 3,000 acres.

Some 2,000 acres already had been indicated before the meeting by interested farmers.

Holmes told the farmers Tuesday night that he will contract to pay $1.75 per hundred weight for green blackeye peas in the field and six cents a pound for dry peas. Of course, if the market price at the time of harvest is higher the farmers will be given the advantage of the increased price.

The Lamesa man will bring in crews to harvest the blackeye peas. He also said Tuesday night he plans to put a cleaning plant in Post for dry peas in the fall.

The harvest crews for the peas would be billeted in Post, according to present plans. The number of hands brought in will depend upon the number of acres planted.

Holmes explained Tuesday that his contract man will coordinate the pea planting here so that the harvesting also can be coordinated.

Blackeye peas require a 65-day growing season. The peas can be planted from the latter part of April until Aug. 1.

The Lamesa contract buyer pointed out that Garza farmers could grow a crop of green peas and then "if the rains hit right" had a good chance for a dry pea harvest in the fall.

Holmes also told the farmers that he would furnish the seed for the peas and that the farmers don't have to pay for the seed until after their blackeye peas are harvested.

Herron told The Dispatch peas probably will be planted on both irrigated and dryland acreages, but most of it will be on dryland.

The blackeye pea project was launched last fall by the Post Chamber of Commerce industrial committee.

Former resident is buried here

Last rites for Sibbe Mack Watkins, 69, former resident of the Post vicinity, who died Sunday in Little Rock, Ark., were conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Calvary Baptist Church in Post.

Mr. Watkins, a retired farmer, lived near Post from 1924 until 1934, after which he lived in the New Home and Lubbock vicinities until moving to Little Rock last October.

He was a member of the Baptist Church and a veteran of the First World War.

Mr. Watkins is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. D. C. Smyrt of Little Rock and Mrs. A. A. Krueger of Mt. Clemmons, Mich.; one son, Billy Watkins of Bryan; four sisters, Mmes. Florence Key of Beaumont, Mittie Tyson of El Paso, Laura Clark of Waco and Myrtle Gill of Corpus Christi; four brothers, Sidney H. Watkins of Taos, N. M., Dewitt Watkins of Perryville, Ark., Kirby (Tex) Watkins of Bessemer, Ala., and R. T. Watkins of Somerset, Ky., and six grandchildren.

The Rev. L. R. Jones, Calvary Baptist pastor, officiated at the funeral services. Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Bob McAllister of New Home and Joe McAllister, Bailey Crump, Paul Crump, Jesse Brock and Silas Crump, all of Lubbock.

County school board incumbents unopposed

Three incumbents on the Garza County Board of School Trustees are unopposed for re-election to two-year terms in the spring election Saturday, April 4.

They are L. G. Thuet Jr., county at large; Sam Ellis, Precinct 1, and Mrs. Pearl Nance, Precinct 4.

Absentee voting period opens in two elections

The absentee voting period opens here Monday for the school trustee election and Wednesday for the city council election.

One absentee vote had been cast at the City Hall up to 3 p. m. yesterday in the city election, but no one up to that time had voted absentee in the school trustee election, it was reported at the county clerk's office.

The absentee voting period ends three days before each election. The school trustee election will be April 4 and the city councilman election April 7.

The order the names will appear on the ballot in the city election was drawn at a special meeting of the city council last Thursday night. The candidates' names will appear on the ballot as follows:

Wesley Scott, Claud Collier, Harry A. Tubbs, Arnold Parrish, Scott and Parrish are candidates for re-election, with three councilmen to be chosen from among the four candidates.

Candidates for the school board are as follows:

Place 1 — E. R. Moreland (re-election) and Marshall Ticer.

Place 2 — John E. Carter (re-election), Ted L. Aten, Bill Woods and Hoyt Hill.

Place 3 — Bob Macy and Russell Wilks Jr. (re-election).

Four at Justiceburg seek 3 school posts

Four have filed for the three positions on the Justiceburg school board, including all three incumbents.

Those seeking new three-year terms are Bill Mize, Riley Miller and Jim Boren. The fourth candidate is Lee Morgan.

The school election will be held Saturday, April 4.

100 STREET LIGHTS BEING CLEANED UP

A southwestern Public Service crew today is completing a three-day job of cleaning the mercury vapor street lights on Main Street and Broadway and in a few sections of the residential district.

Some 100 lights were cleaned by the workmen, using a company truck equipped with a hydraulic bucket lift that hoisted the workman right up to where he could get at the light and the bulb.

A new type of bulb that will last five years is being installed in most of the lights cleaned, said Ted R. Hibbs, local manager.

Jaycees' charter banquet March 26

The newly-organized Post Junior Chamber of Commerce will receive its charter at a charter presentation banquet at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 26, in the school cafeteria.

The charter will be presented the local Jaycee organization by Pete Wright of Dimmitt, who is presently serving as one of the seven state vice presidents of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Wright will also be the principal speaker at the banquet. He is a member of the board of directors of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce for 1963-64 and also serves as a member of the board of directors of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Wright is self-employed as a rancher and also is employed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. An active Jaycee for the past four years, he has served his local club as chairman of various projects, treasurer, inter-club director and president. On the state level, he has served on the elections committee at the state convention in Galveston.

Toby Thomas, a member of the newly-organized Junior Chamber of

Norris funeral will be Friday

Funeral services for Roland N. Norris, 74, who died early Wednesday afternoon at the Twin Cedars Nursing Home, will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the First Methodist Church.

Mr. Norris, who moved to Post 12 years ago from Wichita County, had been ill for some time. A retired rancher and farmer, he was a native of Burnet County.

He is survived by one son, A. L. (Al) Norris of Post; four sisters, Mrs. Kate Bryson, Mrs. Ollie Bell and Mrs. Minnie Bennett, all of Coleman, and Mrs. Mae Cook of Talpa; six brothers, Leonard of San Angelo, Ray of Fort Stockton, Lonnie of Fort Smith, Ark., John of Houston, Alvin of Ballinger and Willie Norris of Novice; two granddaughters; and five great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Oscar Bruce, First Methodist pastor, will officiate at the funeral services, assisted by Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church. Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Commerce, is general chairman for the charter presentation banquet. Don Marth is president of the organization.

Among the guests expected at the banquet are members of the Lubbock Jaycees, who assisted in the organization of the new club here.

Chamber of Commerce Community Workshop to be held in April

Post Chamber of Commerce directors voted unanimously at a special meeting last Thursday afternoon to bring in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a Community Workshop here April 27-28.

S. E. Camp, Chamber vice president, was named by Frank Blanton, Chamber president, to head up planning for the community-wide project.

Ralph Duncan of Abilene, community affairs expert of the West Texas Chamber met with Post Chamber directors in City Hall to explain the community workshop project.

Duncan will come here to conduct the workshop.

He explained that the community workshop plan enables several hundred local and area citizens to meet in one hour sessions to get all possible suggestions for community betterment.

Duncan suggested that the group breakdowns for the one-hour meetings could be professional personnel of community; retail owners and managers; employees; oil services and trades; housewives; Postex Mill employees; farmers and ranchers; and high school seniors.

The Post Chamber will be responsible for attendance and for chairmen for each of the hourly meetings. The West Texas Chamber will conduct the meetings, secure and discuss all suggestions for community betterment project. (See Workshop, Page 8)

Rainfall totals .51 of an inch

Rainfall here Wednesday and Wednesday night totaled .51 of an inch, County Agent Syd Conner reported this morning.

With the listing of land practically completed and some pre-irrigation already under way by irrigation farmers, the rain brightened the outlook for the upcoming planting season.

The .51 of an inch measured Wednesday brings the 1964 moisture total here to a little more than an inch and a quarter, the county agent said.

Lions give 'reading camera' to schools

The Post Lions Club has presented an eye movement photographic machine to the Post Public Schools for use in the schools' reading program.

The machine and enough film for reading tests throughout the entire school system cost the Lions Club more than $800.

As explained by William F. Shiver, assistant superintendent of schools, this is the way the equipment works.

After an oral pre-test, the individual reads a test selection appropriate for his level of achievement. While he reads, small beads of light are reflected from his eyes and photographed onto moving film. When he has finished, identifying initials are flashed onto the film. After a comprehension check, the filmed record is analyzed, and the reader's performance is compared with national norms derived from a study of 12,000 cases.

Eye-movement photography, Shiver explained, provides the teacher of reading, the reading diagnostician, and the vision specialist with a truly objective and practical means for measuring the Fundamental Reading Skill, which is the way a person has learned to use his eyes in reading with any functional or interpretive difficulties in effect.

Eye-movements, he continued, are neither the cause nor the effect of poor reading; however, since they are involuntary in nature, they reveal much valuable information about the overall efficiency and organization of the reader, reflecting the skills, abilities, and habits he has formed over the years.

Eye-movements are the end-products of the reader's functional, perceptual, and organizational development. Shiver explained.

"The information from these reading graphs, combined with standardized test scores, will provide us more complete insight into the reader's development," he said.

The Lions Club presented the reading program equipment to the schools as a part of the club's sight conservation program.

Chamber supports 3 Garza winners

The Post Chamber of Commerce purchased one of the three prize-winning Hereford calves entered by Garza youngsters in the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show at Lubbock during the show's auction yesterday and boosted the prices of the other two with supporting bids.

No hogs or lambs entered by Garza 4-H or FFA youngsters were among the prize winners auctioned.

Piggly Wiggly purchased the other two Garza calves in the auction.

The Post Chamber opened the bidding on Jay Bird's fifth place Hereford calf at 35 cents a pound and it was sold to Piggly Wiggly for 36 cents.

Opening bid on Wendell Johnson's seventh place Hereford calf was 33 cents. The Post Chamber raised it to 36 cents and it was sold to Piggly Wiggly for 35 cents a pound.

Opening bid on Joe Basinger's ninth place Hereford was 29 cents and it was bought by the Post Chamber for 36 cents.

The floor was set on the steers in the auction at $22.70 a hundred-weight.

Lewis Herron, farm representative of the First National Bank, did the bidding for the Post Chamber at the sale. Chamber directors authorized use of Chamber funds beyond any voluntarily subscribed by individual members for the support of prize winning hogs, lambs, and calves entered by Garza youngsters.

John Hopkins' condition is reported improved

The condition of John N. Hopkins, Tower Theatre manager, was reported improved yesterday at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where he was taken after suddenly becoming ill Monday night from a suspected heart condition.

Mrs. Hopkins, who was in Brady with her mother, who is ill, returned home Tuesday after being notified of her husband's illness. Their son, Don, who lives in Wichita Falls, also is here.

Rites held Tuesday

Bruce Lee Boarman, 21, of Lubbock, who was killed when his automobile overturned twice near here Saturday afternoon, was buried in City of Lubbock Cemetery Tuesday after funeral services at 2 p. m. in Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home Chapel.

Miss Nancy Jaycon of Slaton, the only passenger in Boarman's automobile, was seriously injured in the wreck. She was listed in satisfactory condition Tuesday at Garza Memorial Hospital.

The accident occurred nine miles northwest of Post on U. S. Hwy. 84 about 5:20 p.m.

Highway Patrolman Henry Harden reported the accident occurred at the intersection of the highway and Farm Road 397.

The patrolman said Boarman was driving northwest on the highway and was attempting to pull back into his lane of traffic after passing two vehicles. A car was approaching in the oncoming lane.

Harden said, and Boarman lost control of his convertible.

The officer said the death car first veered off the pavement on the right side, then jumped back across the roadway and began overturning on the left side. The 1955 convertible turned over twice.

along with some school board hospital board members yesterday noon we got a "triple exposure" to the modern wonders of cooking in Reddy's cooking center behind the Southwestern Public Service Co. office.

We say "triple exposure" because we were shown this stainless steel equipment, we had it carefully explained to us by Harry Webber of Amarillo, and we enjoyed a t-bone steak dinner to make it three dimensional.

We came away wondering though that Ted Hibbs hadn't invited Mrs. C. to the three dimensional demonstration instead of us. If Mrs. C. had been just half as impressed as we were by what we saw, heard, and ate, then with her culinary background she could have done much better reporting job.

The cooking trailer now is on a road of 30 towns in the SWPS's 42,000 square mile service area. School boards and hospital boards are being fed, shown, and enlightened the new science of electric cooking.

Harry Webber said, "Cooking isn't an art anymore." He went on to explain it's all time and temperature with the modern electric equipment available. "Now it's a science," he emphasized.

What he told us about electric fryers that cook a wide variety of meats and vegetables without getting them greasy, broilers, steam cookers, and space savers was enough to keep you rapt all day.

For instance, he pointed out you could cook a 25-pound turkey in an electric steam cooker in exactly 15 minutes and on his 18 by 18 inch electric griddle you could cook exactly 723 ounce-sized hamburgers each and every hour—if you could "keep up with the grill."

Cooking he said is now a matter of minutes, not of hours. As for the new electric ranges, you can cook a steak in six seconds, he said.

Father of Post woman buried

Funeral services were held at Comstock, Tex., at 2 p. m. yesterday for John Pennington, father of Mrs. J. A. (Jack) Kennedy of Post.

Mr. Pennington, who was 88, died Monday, Tuesday, in a rest home. Besides the daughter of Post, he was survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Mabel Crispin of Kermit and Mrs. Lucy Carter of Kingsville. He preceded in death by a son, John Pennington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy and Mrs. Dick, left for Farmersville Monday morning after receiving word of Mr. Pennington's death. Mrs. Gene Kennedy left Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

WTCC launches tourist program

Post and every other West Texas community stands to gain in the new program launched by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce whereby local communities can help in the statewide tourist drive. But it is going to take some effort on the part of many people who at first glance might think there is little or nothing they can do to help.

The WTCC's program is aimed at the people who are most important to the Texas tourist industry and yet who will be most surprised to be told this.

These are the service station attendants, the cafe waitresses, the drug store fountain clerks, the hotel and motel desk clerks and all the others who come in contact with tourists.

The average tourist gains his impression of a state, and, on a smaller scale, of a community from the people with whom he comes in contact—and he is most likely to form this impression from conversations with the service station man, the hotel and motel people, the restaurant workers.

If these people can be persuaded to inform themselves about tourist attractions of their community, other communities and the state of Texas, the tourist industry will have received a big boost.

The average tourist pulling into a service station driveway often is greeted with blank stares and a suspicious look when he asks for local tourist information. Many local people are not impressed by their tourist attractions.

The State of Texas is spending money no in other states advertising for tourists. The State Highway Department trains its people to provide picnic areas, clean roadside parks, good highways, signs and fine roadways for tourists.

Chambers of Commerce in the state are proud to tell others of the tourist attractions in their areas, and the tourist dollar is welcome everywhere.

But, like any other crop, tourists need to be cultivated before being "harvested." Maybe the WTCC program is a beginning.—CD

Science Fairs help close 'gap'

Early reports from the Post Public Schools indicate that this year's Science Fair will be the most outstanding held here since the annual Fairs began a few years ago. This year's event is scheduled for next month.

Those who saw the outstanding exhibits at last year's Science Fair, in which all grades participated, will want to visit this year's event, which no doubt will reflect the enlarged and improved science program in the local schools.

Since Sputnik sent a shock wave through this nation's scientific and industrial community, public education has gone right along with industry and private education in concentrating more and more on steps to encourage talented youngsters to enter the fields of science and engineering. According to a survey conducted by Science Service, a non-profit agency devoted to the advancement of science, more youngsters today are becoming interested in science at earlier ages than heretofore. The school science fairs throughout the land have had a great deal to do with this.

Also, and in a significant corollary, more and more industrial firms are offering incentives to youngsters in science and engineering.

And, leading figures from the world of science agree that these programs sponsored by private industry will continue to pay off in terms of helping the nation to meet the growing demands of government and industry for skilled technical manpower.

They supplement the efforts of our educational community and of the government agencies attempting to insure against any re-occurrence of a science manpower gap.

The "scientist" gap between Russia and the United States is not as wide, or as serious, as first feared.—CD

Your newspaper stays alive

An old adage that is not now, nor ever has been true, is the one that says, "Nothing is as dead as yesterday's newspaper." But because it sounds cute and has a twist, it has lived through the years.

In truth, nothing is as alive as yesterday's newspaper to someone who hasn't read it. The newspaper does not enter or leave the home with the speed of light. It hangs around until every member of the family reads it. Sometimes for days.

Watch that newspaper in your home. Notice that every time anyone picks it up the newspaper is new. Another thing, the whole family doesn't need to be present at any one time to enjoy the newspaper.

Spicing up the May 2 primary

Adding spice to the May 2 primary election will be the Texas Republicans' state-wide straw poll for the GOP presidential nomination. It will be the first time in history that Republicans in this state will have an opportunity to express their preference for the top office nomination.

The opinion sampling has no binding effect, of course. Texas Republicans are making no secret of the fact that the purpose of the straw poll is to boost the stock of Barry Goldwater and to lure restless conservative Democrats into the GOP primary.

The names of Goldwater, Nelson Rockefeller, Margaret Chase Smith and Harold Stassen will appear on the GOP ballot.

No matter how many people have read it before, the newspaper is alive to the person about to read it.

If you don't agree with statements carried in your newspaper, you can present your views. All it takes, at most, is a signed "Letter to the Editor."

The events and happenings in your town and area are duly reported, printed and preserved for posterity in your newspaper. Nothing is more alive than any newspaper that is waiting to be read.

You make no date with your newspaper. It stays alive for a day—days or weeks. It is alive until you find time to read it.—Utah Publisher.

Welcome Spring is almost here

Long ago, the poet Shelley wrote in his "Ode to the West Wind" the famous, "If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?"

Those lines are found in just about every anthology of poetry, and with good reason. The rigors of Winter bring a longing for a mild and blossoming season. And Spring is a symbol for renewed life. Every bush, every shrub, every tree, every flower burgeons toward maturity. Spring is the most gladtime of all the seasons.

And it is more than that. It is a time for many tasks. There are all manner of duties that need looking after about the house and the grounds. Not the least of these is putting up the air-conditioner, particularly here in West Texas, where even most of the spring weather needs air-conditioning. These tasks, which also include mowing, spraying, yard clean-up, etc., may be hard, for a time, on unused muscles, but they leave a lasting sense of accomplishment in their wake.

Then, spring vacations call to millions throughout the land. It is a splendid time to see new country—by train, car, plane, any means of conveyance. We broaden our horizons, and we add new dimensions to our minds.

Officially, Spring will be with us on March 20—as always a most welcome guest!—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

If you want to see ninety, don't look for it on the speedometer.—The Hamilton-Herald News.

This week's best story just has to be about the convicted spy who was about to be shot. As the firing squad prepared to fire, the captain approached the unfortunate man and asked him if he would like to have a last cigarette. "What!" he exclaimed. "Haven't you read the Surgeon General's report?"—W. H. Cooke in The Rockdale Reporter.

Most of us could manage to live rather comfortably within our incomes if several items of expenses didn't show up every month and knock us for a row of deficits.—Olin Miller in The Seagull Gazette.

Hope those people planning the Summer Program remember that the purpose is to occupy the children during the summer... not overload them with baseball practice during the last frantic month of school. During May the students have a full schedule of work, sometimes are trying to bring up grades, are completing term projects, and much more. In addition, piano students are preparing for recitals; art students are getting ready for art shows; Scouts are winding up the year's program. Why start the Summer program to compete with all this?—Billye Stockton in The Crosbyton Review.

Haven't we all heard these guys at a party who can explain the intricacies of French politics and don't even know the name of their own Congressman?—The Rails Banner.

Cuba is certainly not the kind of a neighbor to whom you would go to the back door and ask to borrow a cup of sugar.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

ALL THE CALENDARS I've seen list Friday, March 20, as the first day of Spring, but there are some who argue that Saturday, March 21, will be the day that ushers in the Spring season. I'm sticking with the March 20 date, because I feel that arguing with a calendar is much like arguing with a sign-post.

Interest in the old Indian legend that the direction of the wind at sunrise on the first day of Spring forecasts the year's crop conditions isn't as great as it was ten or twelve years ago, but there's still enough interest that many of us late-risers will be inquiring of the early-risers Friday as to the direction of the wind.

I HAVEN'T CHECKED with Noah Stone to see if he'll be on top of the carcock again at sunrise Friday with his smoke-firer and plumb-bob to check the wind's direction, but I'm pretty sure he will be. If he isn't, it will be the first time in years and years. Noah is one of our firmest believers in this old Indian legend, which has hit more than it has missed.

There's a new disease going around which might be termed "TV medicitis," according to a doctor I know. He says: "Certain television viewers watching medical dramas, by identifying with the actors, tend to 'catch' the disease being portrayed. Convinced they have the disease, they visit their doctor and even request the treatment they saw administered on TV."

THE MAN UP the Street says you can't always judge by appearances—the early bird may have been up all night.

Courtesy of Ruidoso Downs, visited during the racing season by many Positives, here are some legends about horseshoes: The Greeks are said to have originated the horseshoe in the 4th Century B. C. and since then many legends of "good luck" and "protection" have been created and passed down through the centuries.

To find a horseshoe is lucky. To dream of a horseshoe is a sign you will receive unexpected money. A horseshoe in a bedroom protects against nightmares.

Greeks and Romans nailed horseshoes against their walls to protect against the plague. Ancient buildings were designed in the shape of a horseshoe for luck.

According to ancient Saxon superstition, horseshoes were placed outside over doorways to prevent witches from entering.

The curved, crescent shape of the horseshoe has through history been related to solar half-circle or U-shaped symbol of good luck. There is the famous Diamond Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera House. Horseshoe floral designs, door-knockers and many other uses of this symbol are expressions of good fortune.

Today, horseshoes are placed over doorways, on walls, etc., with the open end of the shoe either up or down, signifying protection to occupants of the building.

So, the next time you find a horseshoe, don't throw it away. Considering the above uses, there should be something you could do with it.

BADMINTON IS a new activity this year in Physical Education classes at the schools here, but I think they should teach the students to spell it before they teach them to play it. A Moment With God

HE CAN SUE FOR OUR PARDON

There they crucified Him... Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Luke 23:34.

How wonderful! Our Lord not only taught but also practiced the precept: "Pray for them that persecute you." On the cross He prayed for those who crucified Him. And do we realize that what He asked for them was God's greatest blessing—forgiveness?

Most men underestimate the value of this gift, but our Savior didn't. To Him it was the costliest and the best. To win it for men He was laying down His life. He knew that as sin is the worst evil, forgiveness of sin is the highest good. Sin separates the soul from God, but forgiveness reunites the soul with God. Sin leads to hell, forgiveness brings to heaven. Sin causes spiritual death, but forgiveness issues into a new spiritual life. Oh, what a blessing—His dearly bought, free and full forgiveness!

When a deeply fallen Christian penitently asked, "Can one such as I be forgiven?" he was referred to the cross where Jesus became the Advocate of all. He was reminded that by virtue of that tremendous sacrifice the Savior still pleads, "Father, forgive them." The glad assurance this brought to his heart moved him to say, "He is a great Forgiver."

On this Palm Sunday, when we begin another Holy Week, let us turn to His Cross with the same grateful tributes and the fervent prayer:

Savior, for our pardon sue when our sins Thy pains renew; For we know not what we do; hear us, Holy Jesus, Amen.

BILLY GRAHAM'S NEWEST FILM

'Shadow of the Boomerang' is to show March 26 at First Baptist

Evangelist Billy Graham's newest dramatic film, "Shadow of the Boomerang," will have its Post showing at 7 p. m. Thursday, March 26, in the auditorium at the First Baptist Church, 402 West Main. There will be no admission charge.

Starring vivacious Georgia Lee and television's Buffalo Bill Jr., Dick Jones, "Shadow of the Boomerang," is an outdoor action picture with all the excitement and breath-taking scope of the land, "Down Under." Setting for the screen drama is Australia's "Outback," the continent's vast interior region where some of the world's largest cattle stations are located. The two young Americans head an All-Australian supporting cast, playing brother and sister roles in a turbulent story of homestead life. Their survival in Australia to manage newly acquired family holdings, plunges the couple into strange surroundings and situations with which they find it difficult to cope. The brother is immature and impetuous, slow to accept Australian ways. His sister is much more democratic, readily accepted by her new friends with whom she joins in an attempt to instill standing and tolerance in the

Filmed against the background of the Billy Graham Australian tour, "Shadow of the Boomerang" seeks to underline the action to human crises of the position is Billy Graham's dramatic Crusade footage from the list of the site of the Melbourne and Sydney. VEGETABLE REDUCED Supplies of fresh vegetables have been reduced by the Frost of last month, according to S. Department of Agriculture, so, during the remaining months, prices will average slightly above those of a year ago. And canned vegetables aren't expected to see a price increase.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST SCREW-WORM UNDERWAY

Effort is underway to eradicate screw-worm flies from areas of Texas and the Southwest. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced...

ly concentrated along the International Border and farther down into Mexico. Mexican livestock inspectors are carrying out survey and control measures over an area covering about 250,000 square miles.

Texas production of sterile flies last year in a plant near Mission far surpassed any previous efforts by man to rear large numbers of an insect under artificial conditions. Production triples when more than 140 million flies were reared during some weeks. At this weekly production level, the insects consumed more than 100 tons of meat each seven day period.

Q. A friend of mine takes "War Orphans Education" courses and her mother is living. How can she qualify as an orphan?

A. The War Orphans Education Program (which now also includes children of peacetime veterans under certain conditions) was set up for children whose veteran-parent died because of service-connected disabilities. For the purpose of the program, such children are considered orphans even though the other parent still lives.

Q. Are there VA hospitals in Alaska and Hawaii?

A. These are the only two states that do not have a VA hospital within their borders.

Q. Are plans under way to honor survivors of the Spanish-American War? There are only a few of them left.

A. This may happen in the future. At present there are still 20,000 of these Spanish-American War veterans alive.

 J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

'VD' NO LONGER TABOO
 AUSTIN—Thanks to the times in which we live, the letters "VD" can be printed in the newspaper.

Not too long ago VD was to be whispered, and then only in the back room.

Health authorities agree that a lot of progress has been made toward venereal disease control, but a growing number of cases is causing grave concern.

After the war, an aggressive venereal disease program spectacularly cut sky-rocketing VD statistics. The VD rate (figured in cases per 100,000) reached a very low level by about 1954 and remained there until about 1958. In 1958 the syphilis rate began a stealthy climb.

Today, the trend is still up. A cork-screw-shaped microorganism—Treponema pallidum—causes syphilis, the most dangerous of the venereal infections. The germ dies quickly outside the human body. Sunlight, soap, milk, heat or drying out quickly kills it. Therefore, syphilis is not spread by water, food or air. And it is not caught from toilet seats, door handles, drinking fountains, eating utensils or other such objects.

It is possible, but rare, for syphilis to be spread by kissing. Ordinarily, it begins with a small sore—called a chancre—and if untreated subtly progresses and may cause blindness, mental illness or death. Simple laboratory tests will reveal the presence of syphilis almost any time during the disease. Public health personnel are combating VD with a two-point campaign—interviews with people who may have been exposed and public education.

A nation-wide telephone network can quickly alert VD investigators anywhere in the country as to the whereabouts of a possible VD contact. The contact is encouraged to seek medical examination.

Education, in the main, is carried out by lectures, leaflets, films and other media. Knowing the truth about venereal diseases may set some—otherwise destined to misery—free to live.

FOUR MAJOR AREAS
 President Johnson, in his special message on consumer interests, focused attention on four major areas: Increasing consumer protections, increasing information for consumers, assuring the consumer's free choice, and giving the consumer an adequate hearing.

"The American housewife—the major buyer of consumer items—cannot help but feel confused, and too often unheard, as she seeks the best value for the dollar she spends," the President said. "This government is pledged to come to her aid," he said.

HEALTHY TRANSPLANTS
 Before buying transplants for lawns or gardens make sure they have healthy root systems and are free of plant parasitic nematodes. Nematodes are not only harmful to the transplants but the soil may be contaminated with the pests.

PULLETS BEST LAYERS
 Pullets will lay about five dozen more eggs than old hens, according to most poultrymen and it is therefore a better practice not to keep laying hens for a second year of production. The egg quality from pullets is undoubtedly better than from older birds.

Fair's livestock shows set $90,221 premiums

DALLAS — Premiums totaling $90,221 will be offered at the 1964 State Fair of Texas in the Pan-American Livestock Exposition and Junior Livestock Show, Livestock Manager Ray W. Wilson has announced.

Dates of the Pan-American are Oct. 10 through 18. The Junior show will follow during the second week of the State Fair, which will run Oct. 10-25.

The premium total of $66,727 for the Pan-American exposition includes $35,000 for beef cattle, $18,600 for dairy cattle, $6,750 for swine, $4,989 for sheep, $748 for Angora goats and $640 in special herdman awards.

Beef breeds to be judged include Angus, Brahman, Brangus, Charolais, Hereford, Santa Gertrudis and Shorthorn cattle. Dairy breeds will be Avyrshire, Brown Swiss, Holstein, Guernsey and Jersey.

SEED GRASSES EARLY

Establishment of warm season, perennial grasses such as big bluestem, switchgrass and sideoats gramma is usually most successful when the seed is sown from March to the middle of May. Experiments indicate that they don't do well when seeded in late fall or early winter.

VARIETY IN MEALS

There's no need for monotony in meals. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, you could serve a different cut of meat every day for four and one-half months without repeating. That's the number of choices in kinds and cuts of meat you have in your neighborhood stores.

Post Marine in desert exercise

TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif. (PHTNC) — Marine Private First Class Joel E. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn E. Morris of Route 3, Post, Tex., participated Feb. 29-March 9 in an extensive simulated desert warfare exercise called "Operation Winter Night" at the Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms, Calif.

The exercise, a combined operation of the First Marine Division based at Camp Pendleton and the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, involved all types of Marine equipment and every phase of combat skill.

Emphasis was placed on counter-guerrilla operations, helicopter team troop movements, and day and night air support.

There are four national forests in Texas.

Post sailor's vessel undergoing overhaul

USS ESSEX (PHTNC) — Bobby L. Beard, seaman, USN son of Mrs. Lee Beard of 312 North Ave., Post, Tex., is serving aboard the anti-submarine aircraft carrier USS Essex presently undergoing overhaul in the New York Naval Shipyard, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Upon completion of the overhaul, Essex which normally operates out of Quonset Point, R. I., will again join the Atlantic Fleet. Essex is the hub of an anti-submarine Hunter-Killer group consisting of surface, sub-surface and air units designed to find and destroy enemy submarines.

DEHORNING DANGER
 Anaplasmosis, which is spread by small amounts of blood carried on dehorning instruments, is often transmitted from one animal to another at dehorning time. This danger can be avoided by washing the dehorning instruments after each animal is dehorned.

Ellenburger test slated in Garza

What is believed to be the first Ellenburger wildcat in that area will be drilled five miles east of Southland by Humble Oil & Refining Co., as the No. 1 Mid Seale.

The wildcat will be drilled to 9,300 feet. The other wells in that area, including the Permian discovery of Simms, Southwest field, range in depth from 3,500 to 4,000 feet, an oil source here said. The Simms discovery is three-quarters of a mile south of the new prospector.

Location of the No. 1 Mid Seale is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of Section 1302, Jasper Hays survey.

Firemen answer three alarms in past week

Firemen have answered three alarms within the last week, the first one on Friday, the 13th, when they put out a midnight grass fire in the northeast part of town.

At 11:15 a. m. Sunday, firemen were called to extinguish a blaze at an oil separator five miles northwest of town off U. S. Hwy. 84.

Firemen were called to the offices of Dr. Harry A. Tubbs in the Medical Center building at 9:45 a. m. Monday when the motor of a heating unit caught fire.

Cartoonist-minister is heard by youth group

The United Presbyterian Youth attended the concluding lecture of a three-part series presented by Roger W. Palmquist, cartoonist-minister, who helps create the popular comic strip, "Peanuts," in the Texas Tech student union building in Lubbock Sunday evening.

The series of programs were sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church of Lubbock.

Mr. Palmquist, who assists the creator, Charles M. Schultz, explained how they arrive at the messages put across the public and drew cartoons including "Snoopy" and "Pigpen", "Charlie Brown" and "Lucy".

Those attending from Post were: Susan Cornish, Meredith and Marcia Newby, Patti and Terri Power, Linda Altman, Elisabeth Tubbs, the Rev. and Mrs. Ed Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cornish.

Post residents attend wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bowen, Mrs. Mell Pearce and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stephens were in Brownwood Sunday to help their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bowen, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

The group left Post Saturday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brown at Bangs for dinner. They were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Bowen in Brownwood.

On the return trip, they stopped in Snyder to visit a sister, the eldest of nine children in the Bowen family, Mrs. Moah Reeves and Mr. Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harper also attended the W. L. Bowens' anniversary celebration. Mr. Harper and Mr. Bowen are cousins.

Visits Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Bowen and family of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bowen, Monday night.

Members of HD club tour fallout shelters in area

An informative afternoon was enjoyed by members of the Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration Club March 9 when they took a tour of fallout shelters in the area.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Vernon Scott prior to the tour and answered roll call with "Some Unnecessary Things I Carry in My Purse".

Mrs. Carl Payton was the tour leader and took the ladies to a shelter at the rural home of Mrs. Pat Craig and the Post home of Mr. and Mrs. George Willson. Mrs. Payton pointed out items such as canned food, water, sanitation arrangements and recreational pastimes as necessary for the comfort of the persons who might occupy the shelter. Mrs. Payton also commented that each shelter had the L-shaped entrance or "baffle entrance" to reduce radiation through the doorway into the shelter area for gamma rays do not travel around corners.

A Civil Defense Preparedness Kit which includes pamphlets on survival plan, family shelter designs and what people can do about rural civil defense was given to those attending.

Mrs. Scott served Cokes and cookies to Mrs. B. L. Thomas, Mrs. Robert Mock, Mrs. Max Chaffin and Mrs. Payton in her home following the tour.

Buddy Britton is birthday honoree

Buddy Britton was complimented with a party on his 6th birthday March 7, in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Birton.

Following several outdoor games, gifts were presented to the birthday honoree. Buddy presented each guest a balloon besides giving the girl guests each a miniature baby doll and the boys a miniature car.

Punch, cake and nut cups were served to Wayne and Mary Ann Hardy, Randy Gordon, J. O. Cummings, Donna Walker, Denise and Lynette Jones, Teresa Bridgeman, Curtis Ray McCraw and Sue and Buddy Britton.

Dog that bit youngster is under observation

A big Collie dog that bit Danny Windham, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Windham of 905 West 6th St., has been found and reconfined for observation.

The dog broke out or was let out of the city pound the night of March 10 after it had bitten the child and been placed in the pound for the customary 10-day observation for rabies.

The Windhams, taking no more chances on the city pound, chained the dog at the home of Windham's mother, Mrs. W. C. Windham.

Post Church of Christ is scene of Jones-Hart wedding Saturday

Marianne Jones and Royce Hart repeated wedding vows at the Post Church of Christ Saturday morning at 5:30 o'clock in the community room.

Rev. McCoy, minister, read the double ring ceremony, in the church decorated with bouquets of pink and white flowers and candelabra with turquoise bows carrying the bride's chosen colors.

The bride's chosen colors were pink and white. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a cascade of white tulle. The ballerina veil was held by a white ribbon. The bride carried a bouquet of a butterfly orchid, carnations and white daisies. The bridesmaids wore turquoise dresses featuring bell sleeves. Their veiled circlets were of white carnations tied with turquoise streamers.

The wedding was attended by Jerry Grooms and ushers Woody Bird of Clairmont, brother of the bridegroom, and Sid Richard Hart, brother of the bridegroom.

Miss Terry Annette Payne, niece of the bride, was ringbearer, and Miss Judy Clary, sister and brother of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Miss Ruby Lane, "One Hand, One Foot" and "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Wedding March" were sung by the church choir. The wedding march was sung by the church choir. The wedding march was sung by the church choir.

Present were Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. Ed Graham, Mrs. Bill Jones, Mrs. Power and the hostess, Mrs. Dwayne Bar-

Community Room. Wedding cake and frosted punch were served by Texas Tech friends of the bride, Misses Carol Motes, Kathy Clayatt and Joan Holt. Mrs. Alton Clary and Mrs. Henry Wheatley assisted with hospitalities.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride chose a two-piece turquoise linen ensemble and black accessories.

The couple will be at home in Crane where Mr. Hart is employed by an oil company. Mr. and Mrs. Hart are graduates of Post High School. Mrs. Hart attended Texas Tech and Mr. Hart attended South Plains College in Levelland.

Mrs. Ted Aten elected new president hospital auxiliary

Officers were elected and plans formulated for the Awards Banquet when the Woman's Auxiliary of Garza Memorial Hospital met in the Reddy Room last Thursday night.

Mrs. Ted Aten was elected president after Mrs. D. C. Williams gave the nominating committee's report. Other elected officials were Mrs. Carl Jones, first vice president; Mrs. M. J. Malouf, second vice president; Mrs. Walter Boren, recording secretary; and Mrs. Garland Davies, treasurer.

Mrs. Carl Jones, banquet chairman, reported that she had selected committees who have commenced working on the banquet arrangements. The banquet will be held April 16 in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church with the Methodist ladies serving.

Mrs. Jones said all life members, contributing and active members of the auxiliary, their husbands, members of the medical staff, the hospital administrator and hospital board members and their wives or husbands are invited to attend.

Refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. A. C. Cooke, Mrs. D. C. Williams and Mrs. J. E. Parker.

After leaving a certain town we would be told to turn at a particularly large oak tree, take a right across open prairie for six miles, take a left over another cattle guard, pass a small shed, etc., and eventually we would arrive at an oil well out in the middle of nowhere. Where would all these children and a set of parents stay for this lovely two or three days in the country? Why, in a bunkhouse of course. And we loved every minute of it. I sometimes wonder, as I've grown older, what my mother must have thought.

I have a vague recollection of either hearing so much about it from the older brothers and sisters (I was the baby of the family at the time and these trips mostly took place in the mid-20's, and then the great depression took care of the oil business in no uncertain terms) of actually seeing a gusher come in!

There was an excitement about boiler room, big conveyor belt those old wooden derricks with the and slush pits that drilling today in all its mechanized glory misses completely. To the day my father died, he made disparaging remarks about rotary rigs and the workers in their steel hats.

And I don't suppose many drillers stand by the casing hole singing "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen" and "Mother Machree", surrounded by a wife, six children and a dog named Bert.

CANDIDATES ENDORSED
The Woman's Culture Club made endorsements of Mrs. J. L. Ginnings as a candidate for state president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Bill W. Davis of O'Donnell, Caprock District president, for state treasurer. This action took place at the last meeting of the club.

Post and Lubbock music clubs in program exchange

I always think of my father in connection with St. Patrick's Day and as I am writing this column on the eve of St. Patrick's Day, he is uppermost in my thoughts.

My father's name was Frank Patrick McKeever and he was a typical Irishman right down to wearing a green necktie on St. Patrick's Day with a shamrock in his lapel and singing all the old Irish songs. He also had a temper, Irish blue eyes and an Irish nose. I only inherited the temper and the nose.

Some of the happiest memories of my childhood revolve around 'his wild Irishman. He was one of the original "hot rodders". Cars were made to go as fast as possible as far as he was concerned and we passed everyone on the road with my father tossing out remarks to the "poke ones" driving a long at an intelligent speed.

Since cars were not made in that day for tremendous speeds, we always ended up out in the middle of nowhere with the rods burned out and the car catching on fire. Mechanics were hard to come by in that day out in the middle of nowhere so we learned to patiently wait for hours on end for help and more than once were pulled into a town by a team of horses or mules where we then waited for more hours while my father cursed the sloppily workmanship put into automobiles.

We all (my three brothers and two sisters) learned to be quite adept at throwing dirt on the engine to put out the fire when we roared to a sudden stop by the side of the road and smoke came pouring out from under the hood.

My father had migrated to Kansas, along with six brothers from Pennsylvania, and they were all in the oil business. So most of our trips were made into the fabulous oil country of Oklahoma. If my father was on a well and hadn't been home for a week or so, my mother would get a call telling her to drop everything and come to wherever he was drilling at the time and visit a few days.

Regardless of what my mother might be doing at the time, she did just that. We had a Studebaker touring car—you know, the kind with side curtains, running boards and jump seats to accommodate this good-sized family. After a hasty packing, in we would all jump and be off for the old fields, usually around Pawhuska, Okla., with directions that it would take a maddening time to figure out.

After leaving a certain town we would be told to turn at a particularly large oak tree, take a right across open prairie for six miles, take a left over another cattle guard, pass a small shed, etc., and eventually we would arrive at an oil well out in the middle of nowhere. Where would all these children and a set of parents stay for this lovely two or three days in the country? Why, in a bunkhouse of course. And we loved every minute of it. The Allegro Music Club of Lubbock and the Post Music Club, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, exchanged programs Monday night in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Dean Killion, president of the Lubbock club, presented the club's program. Mrs. Marcia Johnson played "Spanish Rhythm" on the piano and accompanied the club chorus in the following selections: "Rain and the River" by Oscar Fox, and a choral arrangement of the club collect, Mrs. Omega Hayhurst, soloist, sang "Hi-Ho What a Day" and "Musetta Song", an aria from "La Boheme."

Mrs. Garland Huddleston opened the Post program by singing "Dawn in the Garden" by Handel. The club chorus under the direction of Mrs. John May, and composed of Mrs. Huddleston, Ed Sawyers, Jim Poer, Arthur Jackson, and Ronald Babb sang "There Goes a Sighing Through the Woods" and "Forest Night" by Brahms; "Holy Art Thou" by Handel, and "Alleluia" by Mozart.

Mrs. May sang "Farewell" and "I Have in Penna" by Hugo Wolf. The Post chorus and soloists were accompanied by Mrs. Boo Olson.

Mrs. Glenn Norman, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Sawyers were hostesses.

Those attending were: Mmes. W. R. Graeber, I. N. McCrary, Babb, Bennett, Ronnie Bouchier, H. J. Dietrich, R. L. Marks, Huddleston, Jackson, Tillman Jones, K. Kirkpatrick, M. J. Malouf, O. V. McMahon, May, Norman, Olson, Poer, Power, Sawyers, Lillian Tizard and K. S. White and the Lubbock guests.

The next meeting of the club will be April 6.

Mrs. N. R. King was hostess to the Green Thumb Garden Club in her home last Thursday at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Program chairman Mrs. Ralph Welch introduced Mrs. Lucille McBride, who reviewed the book, "Three Sides to the River", by Estelle Carruth Work who resides in Lubbock. The book tells of the racial prejudice along the Rio Grande River.

Mrs. King served open-faced sandwiches, coconut pie and hot spiced punch to the following members: Mmes. Lewis Herron, Douglas Buchanan, Syd Conner, Max Gordon, N. R. Landreth, Preston Mathis, Welch, McBride, Hansford Hudman, Glenn Whittenberg, and Donald Windham.

Mrs. Mathis will be hostess in her home for the meeting to be held April 9.

Rotarians host Rotary Anns at St. Patrick Day dinner

The Rotarians entertained the Rotary Anns with a dinner on St. Patrick's Day in the City Hall at 7 o'clock, and an enjoyable program presented by the Post Music Club.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Ed Graham, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, followed by Tom Greenwood leading in the pledge to the flag and the singing of "America the Beautiful".

James Mitchell, Rotary president, made a welcome address. Mrs. Louie Burkes responded on behalf of the guests. Mr. Mitchell introduced Mrs. Tillman Jones, Rotary Club pianist, who was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Jones made several remarks about the ability of the Post Music Club chorus before introducing Mrs. John May, choral director, who introduced the chorus members and announced the numbers. Members of the chorus are Mmes. Garland Huddleston, Tom Power, William Bennett, Ed Sawyers, Arthur Jackson, Jim Poer and Ronald Babb. Mrs. Boo Olson accompanied the group on the piano.

The chorus started with three numbers by Rodgers and Hammerstein, "Getting to Know You", "If I Love You" and "Whistle a Happy Tune". Two selections by Brahms, "Forest Night" and "There Goes a Sighing Through the Woods" were sung.

Mrs. May sang a folk song, "The Lass From the Low Country". The chorus sang "Girl of My Dream" and "Drink To Me Only with Thine Eyes". Mrs. Huddleston sang a solo arrangement of "Galway Bay".

The program was concluded with the chorus singing the first verses of three Irish tunes with the group joining them for a repeat. The Irish songs included "Irish Lullaby", "My Wild Irish Rose" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling".

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Marks were special guests.

The serving tables were decorated with shamrocks and Irish dancing girls.

Travel films seen at club meeting

The Needlecraft Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Jack Kennedy last Friday afternoon.

Club members enjoyed a showing of color travel films that some of the members and Mrs. Kennedy had taken through the years.

Congeeled salads, tea, sandwiches, nuts and coffee were served to Mrs. Carl Jones, R. A. Moore, Mitchell Bowen, Lee Bowen, B. F. Evans, M. H. Hutto, F. A. Gilley, J. C. Caylor, Will Wright, May Voss, Nell McCrary, W. R. Graeber, Joe Callis, Lillian Tizard, C. A. Clem, L. G. Thuet Sr., F. C. Barker, H. W. Schmidt, Tillman Jones and a guest, Mrs. Ruby Donald.

Sue Pritchard becomes bride of David Johnson, March 15

Wedding vows were read for Miss Sue Pritchard and David Johnson, both of Midland, Sunday, March 15, at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Southland Baptist Church.

The Rev. Eddie Fortson, minister of the Southland church, read the double ring ceremony before an archway framed with greenery and wedding candelabra flanked by baskets of white spider mums.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. W. A. Pritchard of Slaton and the late W. A. Pritchard, and Mrs. Virgie Johnson of Slaton.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore a street-length white cotton knit sheath, a white hat with miniature veil and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations. The bride carried out the tradition of something old, borrowed, new and blue. She carried a pair of white crocheted gloves made by her grandmother for something old.

The couple were attended by Miss Beverly Stolle of Southland and Jerry Bang of Stanton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Stolle chose a two-piece pink faille dress with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A luncheon was served in the home of the bride's mother in Slaton following the wedding to the families of the couple and a few close friends of the family. A pink and white color scheme was carried out. The wedding cake was in the shape of a double heart, iced in white and trimmed with pink roses.

For a trip to Carlsbad, N. M., the bride donned a pink sheath jumper suit and matching accessories.

The couple will be at home in Midland where they are both employed. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Southland High School and Mr. Johnson graduated from Stanton High School.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What do you see here? Figures of statuary? A symbol of religion? A monument to the Master? Look with your heart and you'll see something else. You'll see the soul of the sculptor.

A man mightily inspired — who wanted with his talents to worship Christ — who took stone and chisel and hammer . . . and all the strength of his body . . . and all the faith of his heart. He said to the world with his Art-Words that which he could never have spoken with his lips nor written with his pen.

For twenty centuries Jesus, the Saviour, has inspired our best. In the annals of mankind a million thrilling breakthroughs in human achievement have been dedicated to His service.

So never pass the humblest creation of sacred art — not even the crayoned Bible-picture of a child — without remembering that you too have a soul. And talents to give your God!

It's the Law in TEXAS

"VOLUNTEER"
 It was a beautiful winter day and Sally decided to go for a walk on her grandparents' farm. While she was walking some distance from the house, she tripped on an ice-covered rock and sprained her ankle. Her injury was quite painful, and she was unable to walk back home. Her father, Mort Measner, happened by and volunteered to carry her home. Despite Sally's protests, Mort decided to take what he believed to be a short cut over a nearby hill. The path up the hill was steep and covered with ice and snow. Mort was not watching where he was walking, and about halfway up he slipped and fell, carrying Sally. This fall caused her to break her leg.
 Sally and her parents sued Mort for the injuries he caused. Can he be held liable for trying to do a "good turn" in such a case? Mort would most likely be liable. The courts have held that even a volunteer or a neighbor is liable for an injury negligently inflicted on the person or property of another. Anyone attempting to do anything, even gratuitously, for another must exercise some degree of care and skill in the performance of what he has undertaken.
 One who, being under no duty to do so, takes charge of another who is helpless adequately to aid or protect himself, is liable for personal injuries to such other through failure to exercise reasonable care.

HOSPITALS LOSING DOCTORS

— Texas salaries aren't good enough to keep top doctors on the job at state hospitals, Dr. James M. Schless, director of tuberculosis hospitals, told the hospital board at a recent meeting here.

He cited resignations of doctors at Harlingen State Hospital, East Texas Tuberculosis Hospital, and San Antonio State Hospital and possibility of the McKnight State Hospital clinical director's taking a job in another state.

Key medical jobs in the state institutions pay $14,000 to $15,000 a year, plus housing. Schless said the next Legislature will be asked to raise that to $19,000.

Executive Director Raymond W. Vowell offered the Board for Hospitals and Special Schools a more cheering note: with the completion of new facilities for the mentally retarded (which now house 9,813), the present waiting list of 1,800 may be trimmed to 500 by fall.

Schless also had an encouraging report: average hospitalization period of tuberculosis patients is shorter, and fewer are leaving the hospitals against medical advice. New and improved drugs are offering better hope of quick cure.

STUDY HEARINGS PLANNED—The Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School will take its preliminary recommendations before college officials and state legislative groups during late May and June.

Chairman H. B. Zachry, still fighting a running battle with the capitol press over secret sessions of the 25-member committee announced the hearings. He said members will reach a tentative decision on recommendations at a meeting here April 17-18. Committee has balked at telling reporters anything it has agreed on to date except a coordinating committee for all colleges and junior colleges.

A sub-committee on junior colleges reported a list of specific proposals, however, including a recommendation that no more junior colleges be elevated to four-year status. They also recommended that the state pay all instructional costs of the 33 existing and future publicly-supported junior colleges. Zachry indicated the Committee will propose a "stair-step" or easy-steps approach to achieving a first class system of colleges and universities. He hinted the Committee will make specific recommendations for financing the proposed upgrading program.

APPOINTMENTS MADE—Governor Connally announced appointments of O. E. Bevers of Lakeview and C. C. Broughton and Russell Jones, both of Childress, to the board of directors of the Upper Red River Flood Control and Irrigation District (Hall, Briscoe and Childress Counties). Bevers and Broughton are reappointments. Jones succeeds the late Dr. Roy H. Barr.

Connally reappointed Ben F. Shipley of Beaumont and Neal D. Rader of Port Arthur to the Pilot Commission for the Sabine Bar, Pass and Tributaries. He also named to the commission Lee Wheat of Beaumont, Bill Sexton of Orange and W. F. Fredeman of Port Arthur.

COMMITTEES MEET—The new steering committee of the governor's Committee on Aging, headed by Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales, held its initial meeting, as did the governor's 14-member committee studying electronic data processing equipment in use by the state.

TOURIST PROGRAM IN HIGH GEAR—The Texas Tourist Development Agency reports that national advertising is scheduled for summer issues of the New York Times and Chicago Tribune travel sections and for issues of Sunset, Redbook and Reader's Digest magazines. Some 36 travel writers from other states and Canada are due to take a week-long tour of the state in April to gather material for their columns.

COURTS SPEAK—State Supreme Court has agreed with lower courts that a state tax on gas pipelines is unconstitutional. Decision upheld earlier opinions that the dedicated reserve tax cannot be applied to pipelines holding long-term contracts to take Texas gas to out-of-state consumers. About $9,000,000 has been paid to the treasurer under the levy, $8,500,000 of it under protest.

High court permitted filing of three mandamus petitions involving election controversies. It also heard arguments on former Fort Worth Councilman Doyle Willis' suit to get on the May 2 Democratic primary ballot as a senate candidate.

In addition, it scheduled hearings on a suit to keep former Bexar County Commissioner Sam Jorrie off the ballot as a House candidate.

Both are challenged under a ruling that holders of paid offices are ineligible to run for the Legislature during the term to which they were elected or appointed. Both Willis and Jorrie now are out of their old offices.

Another argument was set on a suit to prevent Robert F. Bartlett of Van Zandt County from running for county and district attorney. J. Alon Mills, another candidate for the Van Zandt post, claims Bartlett has not met residence requirements.

For the second time, the Court of Criminals Appeals affirmed the swindling conviction and eight-year prison sentence of Billie Sol Estes.

BACKTAGGING—The "backtagging" of culls and dry cows may be used to solve the growing problem of certifying all Texas counties for brucellosis eradication. Dr. R. G. Garrett, executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission, and Dr. John Wilbur, Veterinarian in charge of the U. S. animal disease eradication division in Texas, say the backtagging market testing program is in force in several northwestern states.

Under this program, culls and dry cows headed through concentration points on their way to slaughter are marked so that the state, county and herd from which the cow came can be identified. When the cow goes to slaughter, a blood sample is taken and the results of a brucellosis test is recorded.

As Dr. Wilbur says, "Brucellosis being what it is, if older female animals are free of the disease, it is pretty certain the herd is free. In this way, about 97 to 98 per cent of the testing could be eliminated." Dr. Garrett says backtagging could eliminate "down-the-road" testing by between 90 and 97 per cent in a given county.

HELPS PASS TAX CUT
 Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Texas, right, talks over the legislative program of the 88th Congress with Senate Majority Whip Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. One of the major goals of the Senate leadership was passage of the bill for a tax cut. Senator Yarborough was an active supporter of the tax cut, which will mean more than $407 million a year more income for Texans.

Post man is chairman WTPA scholarship in journalism offered

(Editor's Note: The following news release on the West Texas Press Association's 1964 Journalism Scholarship has been mailed news papers throughout the area served by the press association.)

The West Texas Press Association today announced it will receive applications until April 15 for its 1964 journalism scholarship which will be worth $600 to some West Texas high school graduate for studying newspaper journalism for four years in college.

All applications for the scholarship should be sent by interested seniors to the WTPA scholarship chairman, Jim Cornish, publisher of the Post Dispatch, Post, Texas. Announcement of the scholarship winner will be made by May 10.

Students who desire to apply for the scholarship should talk with their high school principal and editor or publisher of their hometown paper, who will be glad to help them with necessary application details.

The scholarship winner receives $150 per year ($75 per semester) for each of the four years of his or her college career, providing satisfactory academic requirements are met.

The WTPA has offered this journalism scholarship each year since 1956 and have had as many as five students in college at one time drawing scholarship funds.

Applicants must be in the upper 25 per cent of his class, must have demonstrated ability in newspaper journalism and a desire for a newspaper career.

Several copies of all rules concerning application for the scholarship have been mailed to each high school principal in West Texas and interested students may secure full details at their high school office.

Ten West Texas colleges and universities have been designated for scholarship winners by the West Texas Press Association but the scholarship committee will consider making an exception for other colleges or universities if they have a qualified journalism course of study.

The ten designated schools for scholarship recipients are Abilene Christian College, Hardin-Simmons University, Howard Payne College, McMurry College, Midwestern University, Sul Ross College, Texas Tech, Wayland Baptist College, West Texas State University and Texas Western College.

School head gets NSF Fellowship

Supt. of Schools Barry B. Thompson has received a National Science Foundation fellowship in chemistry, physics and mathematics at New Mexico Highlands University for June 1 to June 26, 1964.

Thirty science supervisors from across the nation were selected from 832 applicants. The participants will study the recently developed science and math programs such as the Physical Science Study Committee material developed by MIT, the Chem-Bond material and the School Math Study Group material developed at Yale.

This is the third NSF fellowship received by the Post superintendent, as he has previously attended institutes at Utah State University and Texas A&M. His attendance at the New Mexico Highlands University Institute is subject to school board approval.

Many of the new subject matter innovations will become a part of the Post Public Schools curriculum, Supt. Thompson said.

RMA launches '64 membership drive

The Retail Merchants Association of Post launched its 1964 membership drive last Thursday at its regular weekly luncheon in Lev's Restaurant.

Ed Sawyers, membership chairman for RMA went over lists of prospective members with those attending the luncheon and asked that contacts be made as soon as possible.

Sawyers set a goal of at least 15 new members during the current drive.

The RMA now has over 40 local firms in its membership.

Fatal accident—

Boorman and the Jaycon girl were thrown out on the first turn-over and the car rolled over them. Harden said, Boorman was dead at the scene. Miss Jaycon was brought by ambulance to the hospital here.

The car came to rest upright about 95 yards from where it left the pavement on the left side, the highway patrolman's report disclosed.

Mason Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Boorman's death was the fourth traffic fatality of 1964 in Garza County.

Boorman had lived in Lubbock for "two or three years." Attendees at the funeral home here said his only immediate relative is believed to be a brother stationed with the Air Force in California.

ATTEND TOURNAMENT

Miss Mary Lee Stockton, Post High School girls' basketball coach, accompanied a group of other area coaches to the girls state tournament at Austin last weekend. Also attending the tournament were Mrs. C. R. Wilson and daughter, Nita.

Workshop—

(Continued from Page 1) jects, and then make a detailed report on all the suggestions back to the local Chamber of Commerce. Blanton said Chamber directors then will draft a 1964 program of work for the organization from the proposed projects submitted by the various local groups.

"It's an opportunity to get everybody's thinking into your Chamber program," Duncan told directors. "It takes lots of preparation but it triggers some real enthusiasm."

Directors selected the April 27-28 dates for the clinic. It will begin with one night meeting, Monday night, April 27, continue through Tuesday, April 28, and end with another night meeting Thursday night.

Camp met with his Community Workshop planning committee last night in the Community Room to start working out details for the workshop meeting.

"What we want is wide community participation," Camp told The Dispatch. "That is going to take a lot of planning, but we hope to have several hundred local and area folks take part. We are only asking each individual to attend one of our 60-minute workshop meetings."

Further details on the workshop will be announced shortly, Camp said.

4-H Food Show to be Saturday

The public is invited to attend the Garza County 4-H Favorite Foods Show from 1:30 until 3:30 p. m. Saturday, March 21, at the county 4-H building.

Following the judging, which begins at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, the exhibits will be on display from 1:30 until 3:30 o'clock, according to Miss Juanette Williams, county home remonstrance agent.

Those exhibiting foods at the show will be 4-H members who have been enrolled and participating in 4-H foods and nutrition subject matter groups led by trained adult leaders.

The exhibits will include a complete day's menu, one food the girl has prepared, table appointments for the service of the course, a centerpiece, etc.

The girls will be judged on knowledge of nutrition, the exhibit, the food and the menu. The girls will enter their exhibits in a specific food group—meats, milk, fruits and vegetables or breads and cereals.

World War I veterans meeting here today

Organization here of a barracks of Veterans of World War I was to be discussed at 2:30 p. m. today at a meeting of Garza County veterans of the first World War.

The meeting, called by Jay Foster of Post, was to be held at the American Legion Hall.

FHA GIRLS FOR FEBRUARY

Future Homemakers of America high point girls for February are Martha Blodgett (left) and Linda Hays, shown at the bookshelf in the Home Economics department. Martha, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Blodgett and is in her third year of FHA. Linda, 14, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hays and is a first-year FHA member.

No candidates for Close City board

It will be strictly a "write in contest" when Close City school district voters select two school trustees Saturday, April 4, for three-year terms on the seven member board.

No candidates filed for the office.

Board members due to go off the board are R. H. Sappington and Thomas Autry.

This is the first time in several years that the district has gone into a school election without any candidates' names on the ballot.

Spelling Bee is set for April 3

The 12th annual Garza County Spelling Bee will be held at 1:30 p. m. Friday, April 3, in the district courtroom, County School Supt. Dean A. Robinson, chairman, announced today.

The Post Chamber of Commerce will make its customary cash awards of $15, $10 and $5 to the first, second and third place winners, Robinson said.

The contest is open to students through the 8th grade, with each school in the county eligible to send two spellers to Friday's contest.

The Garza County winner will go to Lubbock for the regional Spelling Bee next month.

Mrs. Lewis C. Herron will be pronouncer for the Garza County Bee. Judges will be Mrs. Harold Teal, Mrs. Faye Cockrell and Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan.

Farm homes—

The other burglary or theft was at the J. P. Ray farm home, five miles north of Post on the Ralls road. Deputy Bob Adkinson investigated it. He reported the items were taken sometime between 8 and 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Missing was a case of motor oil, two cans of S. T. P., and one red and white ice chest, total value of approximately $21.50.

Sheriff Claborn advised all Garza farm residents to list any possessions—such as household appliances, radios, guns, etc.—which have serial numbers with those serial numbers and file the list away.

He explained that in case of rural thefts the serial numbers are important in helping to recover the stolen property and to obtain convictions.

Big rush seen for auto plates

County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton is still waiting for the "closing rush" to get rolling for 1964 auto license plates.

With only eight more office days in which to purchase the plates before the March 31 deadline — at which time a penalty will be imposed—Tipton said only 880 tags have been sold.

This leaves approximately 1,100 auto tags to be sold in eight days as last year's auto registration for Garza County was approximately 2,000 passenger cars.

Five in Southland school board race

Five candidates have filed for the three school trustee positions in the Southland school district with only one incumbent seeking re-election.

W. S. Bevers is the only trustee who has filed for another three-year term. Other candidates are Valton Wheeler, Pat Taylor, Edmund Wilke, and Winston Lester.

Trustees J. B. Jones and L. O. Stolle did not seek re-election to the seven-member board.

The Southland school election will be Saturday, April 4.

YOUNG FARMER SOCIAL

Twenty-seven members and 4 guests attended the Garza Young Farmer chapter's social held Saturday night at the county 4-H building. A covered dish supper was served and games of "42" were played.

PALM SUNDAY SERVICE

Palm Sunday will be observed at the regular Mass hour of 8 a. m. Sunday at Holy Cross Catholic Church, according to the Rev. Richard Casey, pastor. The observance will include the blessing and distribution of the palms and a procession, Father Casey said.

Advisory group finishes study

The Lay Advisory Committee of the Post Independent School District has completed its work and will make recommendations to the board of education in April, School Supt. Barry B. Thompson said today.

The committee has been studying the long-range needs of the schools and has been meeting since October under the chairmanship of Jim Cornish.

The 18 local citizens who have taken part in the study were presented Certificates of Merit at the March 12 meeting, as authorized by the school board in recognition of their "outstanding contribution to the school district."

The committee's final recommendation will be presented in written form.

Thompson said a number of members of the professional staff of the school system served in advisory capacities during the lay committee's work.

Building permit reaches $158,420

Two city building permits thus far in March have pushed 1964 construction total to $158,420.

The March permits, both houses, went to Artie E. Builder, for a $15,400 home on Ridge Road and to Starlin for a $10,000 home at 10th Road.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD
A pair of binoculars is invaluable to the outdoorsman. Yet few sportsmen know what to look for in binoculars. This whether the binoculars are used in hunting or boating or maybe just to watch a football game.

With telescopic sights coming more into vogue, you see fewer hunters lugging binoculars about the woods. But have you noticed that a great majority of the blue-ribbon hunters usually have a pair handy?

There is a good reason, of course. The top notch hunter is a meticulous individual. He spends more time looking and less time traveling.

GET ON A knoll or hillside or even up in a tree—with a pair of binoculars—and just spend your time looking. You'll be surprised how much more you can see.

A high quality pair of binoculars has the ability to almost penetrate brush. The lenses capture and intensify the light, making it easy to see under feeble light conditions.

Today's binoculars come in many different sizes and price ranges. There has been an increased output from Japan. Most of Japan's binoculars are economical and acceptable. But like anything else, you get just about what you pay for.

The big idea is to know what to look for before you purchase binoculars. Most people simply wander into a sporting goods store, put a pair to the eyes, adjust the focus, look around for a moment, and then say, "I'll take them."

BUT LATER YOU might find that you can't look through the glasses for any length of time without your eyes protesting. Although everything may appear all right, the glasses may be out of alignment and put a strain on your eyes.

A quick check for alignment is simple. Focus the glasses on some distant object, such as the top of a building, and slowly push the binoculars away from your eyes. As the glasses get toward arm's length, if you see two distinct images, the glasses are not aligned properly.

With good alignment, both images will merge into one even when the binoculars are at arm's length. A pair of binoculars has many advantages over the scope-sight of a rifle for the job it is intended to do.

For one, it is tiring to hold a rifle up to your shoulder for any length of time. Binoculars are much lighter.

FOR ANOTHER, binoculars have a wider field of view, thus permitting you to study a larger area at one glance.

For instance, a good six-power binocular will have a field of view at least 450 feet wide at 1,000 yards. A seven-power job won't be far behind, something like 400 feet.

Compare this to a six-power scope which has a view of roughly 200 feet at the same distance. Contrary to popular belief, a number such as 6X30 and 7X35 does not in any way indicate the

Friona girls are state champions

The Friona Squaws finally won a state championship Saturday night after a number of trips to the state high school girls' basketball tournament since 1950.

The Squaws, District 3AA and Regional 1 champions, won the state title by defeating Clear Creek, 50 to 45, after sailing past Mineral Wells in their first game.

Friona, which defeated the Post Does in the bi-district playoff March 2, finished the season with a 33-0 record.

Two Friona girls, forward Charlotte Nettles and guard Glenda McClellan, were named to the Class AA all-tournament team.

Buff gridders in spring practice

CANYON — With an eye out for a rebuilding season, Coach Joe Kerbel led his West Texas State University football squad out on the practice field for spring drills Monday.

Kerbel, beginning his fifth season at West Texas State, has a big job ahead of him, as he lost nine members of the original starting line-up that opened the 1963 season for the Buffaloes.

The Buffs will have 17 lettermen back from the 1963 season. However, many of the letter winners were sophomores who were pressed into service when several of last year's starters were sidelined.

ONE man's way THE STORY OF NORMAN VINCENT PEARL

GO SEE A PICTURE ABOUT A MINISTER... ARE YOU CRAZY?
A minister is choked by the robe he wears... and the book in his hands is his only passion—and the four walls of his church are the boundaries of his world—that's what some people say. But prepare yourself for a shock. This is the story of a man who had his own ideas of how life was meant to be lived... ideas that plunged him into the storm-center of conflict and controversy. He fought for what he believed... from the pulpit, on the flaming streets, in a murdered man's room. This is the story of the wild, fun-loving blonde co-ed who said, "Whither thou goest!" This is the tender, joyous story of a minister who was dedicated... and different.

National Merit Tests given 15

Fifteen students at Post High School took the 1964 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Principal T. C. Clark announced today.

The test was administered at the school at 9 a. m. March 19.

The 15 Junior class members taking the test were: Eugene Allsup, James Neal Barnes, Susan Cornish, Charles (Bill) Duncan, Lana Haynie, Lewis Herron, Mary Grace Hodges, Carolyn Matsler, Meredith Newby, Susan Ramsey, Teddy Scott, Elisabeth Tubbs, Dee Ann Walker, Jimmy Don Williams and Wynanza Windham.

The qualifying test is a three-hour examination of educational development. The test is the first step in the tenth annual competition for four-year Merit Scholarships provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, colleges, associations, unions, trusts, and individuals.

The number of scholarships awarded in any year depends upon the extent of sponsor participation. In 1963, 1,528 Merit Scholarships were awarded; 951 were provided by 179 sponsors and 577 by the Merit Corporation. There are 4,118 Merit Scholars attending 425 colleges in the current academic year.

The test scores of students who are examined in March will be reported to their schools before May 15. The scores are used by counselors in many high schools to help students make decisions about college attendance and field of study. Many students who do not expect to win a scholarship take the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses in the areas measured by the test.

Some 14,000 semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Names of semifinalists are published in a booklet which is distributed to all colleges and to other sources of financial aid for undergraduates. Further, their names and test scores are sent to the colleges they express an interest in attending as their first and second choices. The order of preference is not shown.

An additional 35,000 students, selected on a national basis, receive Letters of Commendation for their high performance on the qualifying test. These students are considered for special awards made through the Merit Corporation, and their names and test scores are also sent to their first- and second-choice colleges.

Each semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from the finalist group on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular activities, leadership ability, and accomplishments outside the classroom. Each finalist is awarded a Certificate of Merit attesting to his outstanding performance.

The scholarship stipends are based on financial need. The minimum award is $100 and the maximum is $1,500. The average stipend awarded to freshman Merit Scholars in 1963 was $796 annually, or $3,184 for the four years of college. Each scholarship constitutes a form of educational insurance, since the stipend may be increased at any time if the student's financial situation changes during the four-year term of the scholarship.

Supplementary grants are usually made to the colleges that the scholars attend.

Mary Beth Ford, Diane Kiker, Wendell Duncan and Kenith Smith really looked exhausted Sunday afternoon when they made it back from Cooper's. There is nothing like rolling down hills and carving names in the rocks. All in all, though, they really had fun.

All the couples really enjoyed going to Lubbock and seeing "Cleopatra," but I'll bet they did not have half as much fun as Mary Beth Ford and Diane Kiker had!

Good luck, Carol Ann Smith—one week to go and "it" will be here. Anyone for disappearing?

This week in PHS is "Career Week." There will be several periods set aside, particularly for lectures on the following subjects: Home Economics and Interior Decorating; Orientation; Secretarial; Armed Forces; Education; Beauty; Law Enforcement; Engineering, and Agriculture.

It seems Susie Jo Schmidt, Linda McMahon and Carol Camp had visitors Sunday from Roaring Springs. They were very cute, girls!

We sincerely hope that no one will suffer from shock, but Margie Harrison actually got Don Pennell's car for the length of about three hours Sunday afternoon. Don has developed a mental disease or we have witnessed the arrival of a "new age." The very first thing Margie did was cause the gears to lock. Shirley Sappington and Argan Robinson, who were riding around with her, kept their fingers crossed the whole time.

Friday night, Shirley Sappington and Harvey Lewis Pennell, Margie Harrison and Don Pennell and Diane Maxey and Ronnie Graves went to Lubbock to see "Cleopatra."

Couples seen around PHS: Linda McMahon and Don Tardy, Susie Jo Schmidt and Eugene Swim, Carol Camp and Joey Thacker, Margie Harrison and Don Pennell, Shirley Sappington and Harvey Pennell, Argan Robinson and Herbie Hays, Diane M axey and Ronnie Graves; Julia Childs and Sammy Sims; Mary Beth Ford and Wendell Duncan, Diane Kiker and Kenith Smith, Belinda Lee and Kenneth Barnes, Linda Altman and Larry Johnson, Cindy Wilson and Wendell Johnson, Arleta Robinson and James Mitchell, Dee Ann Walker and Larry Osman.

2 teachers hired for 1964-65 year

Barry B. Thompson, superintendent of schools, has returned from Sul Ross State College, Alpine, where he employed two teachers for the 1964-65 school year, subject to board approval.

Estella Delgado of Del Rio was employed to teach the non-English speaking program this summer and the first grade during the school year. Miss Delgado holds the B. A. degree in Spanish and elementary education.

Ana Maria Martinez was employed subject to assignment. She holds the B. A. degree with honors and has majors in English, Spanish and elementary education with a minor in French. Miss Martinez is a native of Marfa.

Miss Delgado will report in June and Miss Martinez will report the last of August.

Is National Anthem Losing Meaning?

The times we play "The Star Spangled Banner" are ridiculous. It has no more meaning than the jingles on the TV and radio, and possibly even less.

When do you hear this song, our national anthem? At the start of a football game and as radio and television stations sign off the air.

At a football game you are not thinking of the meaning of the flag and the responsibilities and rights for which it stands. You are much more concerned about getting a seat and wondering if many fans came to the game.

The "Star Spangled Banner" and the invocation are just annoying preliminaries to be endured while waiting for the rallying cries of the school song and the excitement of the opening kickoff. You just get your blanket arranged and it's over, now you can sit down again. The other times you hear the song played, it is merely a signal to get up and change stations or turn it off and go to bed.

What's the use of having a national anthem if all it is used for is an annoying signal that something is about to happen? If we are going to have such a song—a national anthem—why not use it less often, but in more appropriate places? If we need a signal, a gong would work as well.

Why not have it a song that people can sing and understand? Such songs as "America" and "America the Beautiful" have more value than "our national anthem."

Let's use our heads and make our national anthem an actual symbol of "the land of the free and the home of the brave," for which our flag stands.

High school choir receives one Division I rating at contests

The Post High School choir went to the annual Interscholastic League contest Saturday, March 14.

Poetry reading in 6th grade classes

Mrs. Black's 6th grade Language Arts classes are now having the two weeks of reading.

The classes received ten pages of poetry. They were arranged in three groups—poems for an "A," "B" and "C."

Some of the poems that were read for a "C" were "The Arrow and the Song" and "Thanksgiving Day."

Some of those said for a "B" were "O, Captain! My Captain!", "Woodman, Spare That Tree" and "Little Blue Boy."

Some of the poems said for an "A" were "The Village Blacksmith," "A Boy and His Stomach" and "The Raggedy Man."

Thursday we recorded our poems on the school tape recorder.

Plans are made for Senior Day

A Senior class meeting was called Friday afternoon with Danny Odum, class president, presiding.

The class set March 26 as the date for their "Senior Day." They also decided on the activities for the day, which will include Mackenzie State Park, lunch and dinner at Lubbock cafeterias, roller skating, miniature golf, bowling and a movie.

The class also selected a committee of five to decide and outline plans for Initiation Day. The committee members are Shirley Sappington, Argan Robinson, Jackey Fluitt, Ricky Little and Wendell Johnson. We intend to make this initiation as completely different as we possibly can.

The ratings are given both in concert and sight-reading.

The choir has practiced for several weeks on nine numbers. Three numbers were sung by three choirs, the Post Mixed Choir, the Girls' Choir and the Boys' Choir.

The best rating given is that of a first division. This is an "excellent" rating. The ratings depend upon diction, attack, tone and appearance. In sight-reading, the choir is given music which no one has ever seen and are required to sing it once through with the piano, and the second time unaccompanied. A rating is then given for concert and one for sight-reading.

Ratings were given as follows: Mixed Choir — Concert, III; sight-reading, II.

Girls' Choir — Concert, II; sight-reading, I.

Boys' Choir — Concert, II; sight-reading, II.

Although the choir's ratings were not what they had expected, all ratings of most of the other choirs were particularly low, and Post remains proud of their high school choirs.

7th Grade Gossip

Hey, Paula, who was it that came barging into your party last Friday night?

When are Martha Jo and Mike Petty going to have that fight they were talking about?

Did those licks that Mrs. Allsup gave you hurt, Charles?

Shannon McCampbell has been in the hospital having her appendix out. We hope she will be back in school soon.

Did Mike Scott get licks or a zero in Mrs. Allsup's class?

The 7th grade basketball boys are taking track now that basketball season is over.

Ten more weeks until school's out!

Freshman Gossip

Several Freshman girls have begun playing volleyball, while the others play badminton.

Linda, that was a beautiful basket you made when you were serving.

Edith, think you can serve punch correctly now?

Linda and Cherry! really had a time over the weekend, right?

Finally, after much eating, our oatmeal cookies are gone.

Steve and Eddy are going to become good seamstresses and cookies, eh, boys?

Some Freshman couples seen in the halls are: Linda Altman and Larry Johnson, Sue Gilmore and J. O. Smith, Deanna Adams and Gregg Jones, La Gayluah Young, and Davis Heaton, Clara York and Joe Keel, Sherry Gist and Lewis Hise, Edie Johnson and Steve Stone; Scharlene Holland and Jerry Sullivan, Belinda Lee and Kenneth Barnes, Lana Horton and Freddy Cockrell, Theresa Dean and Steve White, Sandra Greenwood and Steven White, Brenda Holly and Ray Page, Curtis Haynes and Virginia Vargas.

The Freshman class would like to say "hello" and "hope you like Post" to Nancy Hendrix. She moved here from Tatum, N. M. Her uncle and aunt are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cox.

What four "fish" are the cave searchers?

Deanna, what's the sore thumb about?

Linda H., does Ben Howell's dog like the taste of your leg, or what?

Fish, make sure your dues are paid. Remind each other!

We congratulate the class that put the decorations on the back wall of Mr. Collinsworth's room. It's very educational.

If you don't want the stamps on your old envelopes, give them to Linda Hays and Sue Gilmore.

Beverly Avant can't ever get caught up, can she?

Spanish Club members dine at La Fiesta

Last Thursday, the Spanish Club dined at the La Fiesta Restaurant, where they ate a very good Spanish dinner.

Those present were Mr. Arthur Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Vargas, Mr. Fay Claborn, Sharon Smith, Virginia Vargas, Ronnie Pierce, Jimmy Huntley and Peggy Claborn. Everyone had a very nice time.

Jr. High Band plays concert

The Junior High Band played a concert for the Junior High students Friday in activity period.

The numbers played were "Gallantry," "Italian Barcarole," "Lil' Liza," "Hand Me My Cane," "The Sagebrush Trail," "Valse Bluettes," "Mexican Overture," "Love is a Many Splendored Thing," "Bossa Nova" and "Empire State Salute."

Visting in the audience Friday was the 5th grade band. We hope they enjoyed the program.

Thursday, March 19, the Beginner's Band (5th grade), the Intermediate Band (6th grade) and the Junior High Band (7th and 8th grades) will present a concert. It will be from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. in the assembly room of the Junior High school. The public is invited.

Changing Symbols of a Desert Kingdom

THESE DROMEDARIES, or single-humped camels, rest complacently on the Saudi Arabian desert, unaware of the oil drilling rig in the background, symbol of a huge industry they helped build during the past three decades. For thousands of years this beast of burden was the chief means of transportation, as well as an important source of food, hair and hides to support a Bedouin tribal society. But today the plodding "ship of the desert" is rapidly giving way to the swifter motor vehicle, airplane and railroad, capital for which is provided by income from the 600-million-barrel-a-year oil industry. Oil revenues are also feeding the feverish development of agriculture, manufacture and mineral exploration that are transforming the country.

afternoon. Bruce Reed spent Saturday night with his grandparents. Mrs. George Mize of Belen, N. M., sister of Mrs. Sam Bevers, underwent surgery Monday. Walter Duckworth visited his brother, George Duckworth, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Mason Justice and Dee Cecil left Friday for El Paso where Mason attended a commissioner's meeting. Mrs. Lillie Cantrell spent the weekend in the Bandy Cash home. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Franklin were in Tulia on business over the weekend. Curtis Green of Snyder visited in the Riley Miller home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Crader are visiting his mother in Lubbock. MRS. KATE SAMPLES of Phoenix, Ariz., who is visiting relatives here and in Post, was an overnight guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith, Saturday. They all spent the day with Mrs. Ella Murphy Sunday and Mrs. Samples remained in her sister's home for a longer visit. The Jimmie Peede family of Lubbock visited the Weldon Reeds on Sunday. Reporter elected by HD Council

Mrs. Estelle Williams was elected to serve as reporter for the Garza County Home Demonstration Council when it met a week ago Wednesday at the courthouse. It was announced that refreshments will be served by the Graham and 55 HD clubs at the 4-H Food Show which will be held at the 4-H Building, Saturday, March 21. The Council wishes to urge the public to attend. Attending the meeting were: Mmes. Faye Payton, Virginia Mock, Ann Chaffin, Lola Peel, Velma Long, Ruth Pate, Estelle Williams, Mollie Kolb, Wynama Briggs, Orabeth White and Carolyn Gray.

Two from Post attend Lubbock art exhibits

Mrs. William Robinson and Mrs. Myrtle Ashley attended two art exhibits last week in Lubbock. One was the showing of John Meigs and Peter Hurd works at the Baker Co. and the other was a showing of the works of Clarence Kincaid at the House of Pictures. Mr. Kincaid's works displayed an outstanding technique and creativity in water colors. Mrs. Robinson was joined by her husband, Nancy and Stacy and Bonita and Boyd Noble for a Children's Exhibit showing junior and senior student work at the Gardez Arts Center, and an exhibition of water colors from the Springfield, Mo., Museum at Texas Tech.

Recipes presented at sewing club meeting

Mrs. Annie Hodges, hostess to the Mystic Sewing Club, presented each member with a copy of her favorite recipes when the club met in her home last Friday afternoon. Those enjoying the afternoon of sewing and visiting were Mmes. Winnie Henderson, Lucy King, Eva Bailey, Jimmie Hudman, Cecil Gray, Thelma Kuykendall and Mary Ellis. Mrs. Hodges was assisted by her daughter, Carol Dee, in serving open-face sandwiches, olives, pickles, potato chips, punch and pecan pie with whipped cream. Mrs. King will be hostess for the meeting to be held March 20.

Post, other Texas schools, are to receive lunchroom apple allotment

Apples for the students. This is a new twist on an old cliché, as most Texas school children, including many in Post, will be munching on apples purchased by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. All Texas schools participating in the National School Lunch Program and all schools receiving USDA donated foods will get the apples. A total of 44 cars, about 1,552,320 pounds, of apples will be distributed to Texas schools and other eligible institutions through USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. The Texas allotment is a little more than 10 per cent of the total 427 cars purchased by AMS. All shipments are to be completed by March 31, so the apples will be consumed before the end of the current school year, according to John J. Slaughter, southwest area director, food distribution division, AMS, Dallas. The apples were bought and will be distributed in states west of the Mississippi River, except for one lot of Michigan apples which will be distributed in that state. This limited distribution is following the USDA's general practice of holding shipping costs to a minimum. Apples bought for school lunch include Delicious, Winesap, Newtown, Rome and McIntosh varieties. Under the School Lunch Act, USDA contributes cash and foods accounting for about one-fifth the cost of the lunch program. Children's meal payments make up some 60 per cent of the cost. Local and state sources pay the remaining 20 per cent. The bite of a trantula is no worse than a hornet's sting.

NEW CONCEPT IN FARMING

OWNERS OF MEDIUM AND LARGE sized farms now will be able to acquire a fleet of versatile, self-propelled harvesting equipment and stay within a reasonable budget. This is possible through a new concept of farming called the Uni-System, which permits farmers to harvest a greater diversity of crops at a minimum capital investment. The Uni-System consists of a basic power unit and interchangeable harvesting implements such as a corn picker, picker-sheller or the combine harvesting soybeans shown above. New Idea, Avco Corporation's farm equipment division, is marketing the Uni-System through its dealers this year in time for 1964 harvesting.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By KATHARINE TRAMMELL

Sunday, March 8 was Girl Scout Sunday and troops attended the church chosen by vote of the members of each troop. Troops and church each attended are as follows: Cadette Troop 286 and Brownie Troop No. 377, First Christian; Brownie Troops 382 and 61, Church of Christ; Junior Troop 49, Calvary Baptist, Junior Troop 390, Methodist, and Brownie Troop 84, Presbyterian. Visiting in other churches teaches the girls appreciation of the privilege of fellow troop members to worship in the church of their choice.

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale is still in progress. If you haven't as yet bought your Girl Scout Cookies, contact your favorite Brownie, Junior or Cadette Girl Scout and help these girls with their troop funds and with the improvements at Camp Rio Blanco. Troop leaders are reminded that final cookie sale reports are due to Mrs. Alton Clary, cookie sale chairman today (Thursday).

Brownie Troop 377 met Tuesday, March 3, at the Girl Scout Little House. They made plans to attend the First Christian Church. Refreshments were served to Lisa Clanton, Jan Hall, Jill Cash, Deborah Medlin, Kimberly and Carol Thompson, Nancy Cobb, Debra Moore, Karla Josey, Jimmie Parnell, Melody Rose, and Mrs. J. P. Parnell and Robert.

Junior Troop 390 met Tuesday, March 3, at the Little House, with all members present. Plans were made to begin the cookie sale. Games were played. Kathy Blacklock served refreshments to Margie Carter, Kim and Kay Hunday, Martha Miller, Patti Peel, Lynda Warren, Kay Mann, and Mrs. Jim Ed Poer.

Brownie Troop 84 met Tuesday, March 10, at 5 p. m. in the home of troop leader, Mrs. Darrell Eckols. They made puppets and prepared a puppet show. Vicki Odum served refreshments to Jan Bilbo, Sue Britton, Phyllis Eckols, Patricia Greenwood, Cythia Hill, Debby Moore, Linda Osman and the leader.

Junior Troop 49 met Thursday, March 12 at the Little House. They hiked out to the J. M. Baylis re-

Nazarene revival to open March 25

The Rev. George Brannon of Bethany, Okla., a former local resident, will return to Post to lead a revival at the Church of the Nazarene, opening Wednesday night, March 25.

The revival services will continue nightly through Sunday, April 5. Services will start at 7:30 p. m. except on Sunday when evening services are at 7 p. m.

The Rev. Brannon lived in Post for some years as a young man and has conducted revivals here before during his 35 year ministry in the Church of the Nazarene.

His early ministry was in active youth work as a district youth leader and district youth evangelist in the Western Oklahoma District. This was during his training years in Bethany Nazarene College.

From college he went into pastoral work, serving for 16 years some of the best churches in Kansas and Indiana.

The last 20 years his life has been given to the special ministry of revival work. This work has taken him back and forth many times across the nation.

The public is invited to the revival services here.

Cotton acreage gain is 2,199

As a result of the 1960 law which permits unwanted cotton acres to be reallocated, Garza County, will have an additional 2,199 acres of cotton to plant in 1964.

The county's original 1964 allotment was 38,613 acres and the additional acres received through re-assignment brings the total to 40,812.

The new 1964 acreage figure of 40,812 is a gain of 1,795 acres over the 1963 total of 39,017.

The information on cotton gained in Garza and other area counties was compiled by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., from information released to them by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office at College Station.

HOME FROM COLLEGE

Janith Short and Ann Pennington, accompanied by two college friends, Barbara Bennett and Monetta James, were home for the weekend from North Texas State University in Denton to attend the wedding of Miss Marianne Jones and Royce Hart and to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Short and Mr. and Mrs. G. April 15 is deadline

Car inspections are lagging behind here

Residents of Garza County own 3,876 registered vehicles and more than 1,500 have not been inspected as yet, according to Capt. Alan Johnson of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Department of Public Safety.

April 15, Capt. Johnson reminds, is the deadline for owners to have the 1964 Motor Vehicle Inspection sticker displayed in the lower right hand corner of their vehicle's windshield.

"Under the law there can be no extensions of the deadline, and motorists who fail to display the new sticker on and after April 16 are subject to arrest," he said. Authority for the enforcement of the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Act is vested in any Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff and City Policemen as well as the enforcement officers of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

According to Capt. Johnson there are six state approved inspection stations located in Garza County and many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline rolls nearer.

He added, "It is as much a violation to display an old sticker as not to have one at all. The law provides a fine of from $1 to $200 plus court costs for operating a vehicle registered in Texas subject to the Motor Vehicle Inspection Act without a valid current inspection sticker."

Army school open to young ladies

Department of the Army has recently released a list of schools available to high school graduates desiring to enlist in the Women's Army Corps for technical training. Among the fields available are Flight Operations, Chemical, Supply, Drafting, Medical, Dental, Finance, Cooking, Photography, Stenography, Data Processing, Intel and Communications. The specific schools are too numerous to mention.

In accordance with the Regular Army policy, a young lady can enlist for a specific school with a guarantee. First, she must be fully qualified. Once qualified, Department of the Army is called, a space is reserved, and the guarantee is written down by the applicant herself. Up until this point, there is no obligation. Once an applicant is completely satisfied, she is enlisted and, after basic training, attends the school of her choice.

High school seniors may apply and qualify before graduation. It might be mentioned that these schools are highly selective and classes fill rapidly. It is therefore urged that any interested women Recruiting Counselor, 312 East Fifth Ave., Amarillo, DRake 22286, or Sgt. Melvin Baker local Army recruiter, 1110 Texas Ave., Lubbock, PO 3-2821, at the earliest convenience.

Post delegation to SC meeting

Principal T. C. Clark and four officers and officers-elect of the Post High School Student Council will attend the state convention of the Texas Association of Student Councils in Houston this weekend.

Students attending from here will be Susie Jo Schmidt and Dee Ann Walker, this year's Student Council president and vice president, respectively, and Teddy Scott and Rickey Welch, next year's co-president and vice president, respectively. Miss Walker will also serve as co-president next year.

Hundreds of young student leaders from throughout the state will be in attendance at the Houston convention, where the delegates will choose a school as state president for the 1964-65 school year. Candidates are Monterey of Lubbock, Permian of Odessa and Kermit.

The House of Delegates will function in much the same way as a national political convention with rallies and speeches.

The Post delegation will return to Post on Sunday, March 22.

Biscuit blast was his most unusual insurance claim

Harold Lucas, the independent insurance agent who owns and operates the Post Insurance Agency, claim his agency ever paid.

"It was an explosion," Harold explains, "but a very unusual explosion."

It happened a little over two years ago. A Post resident reported to the agency that a can of biscuits which the family had in the refrigerator "blew up" with such force that the plastic interliner of the refrigerator door was broken into pieces.

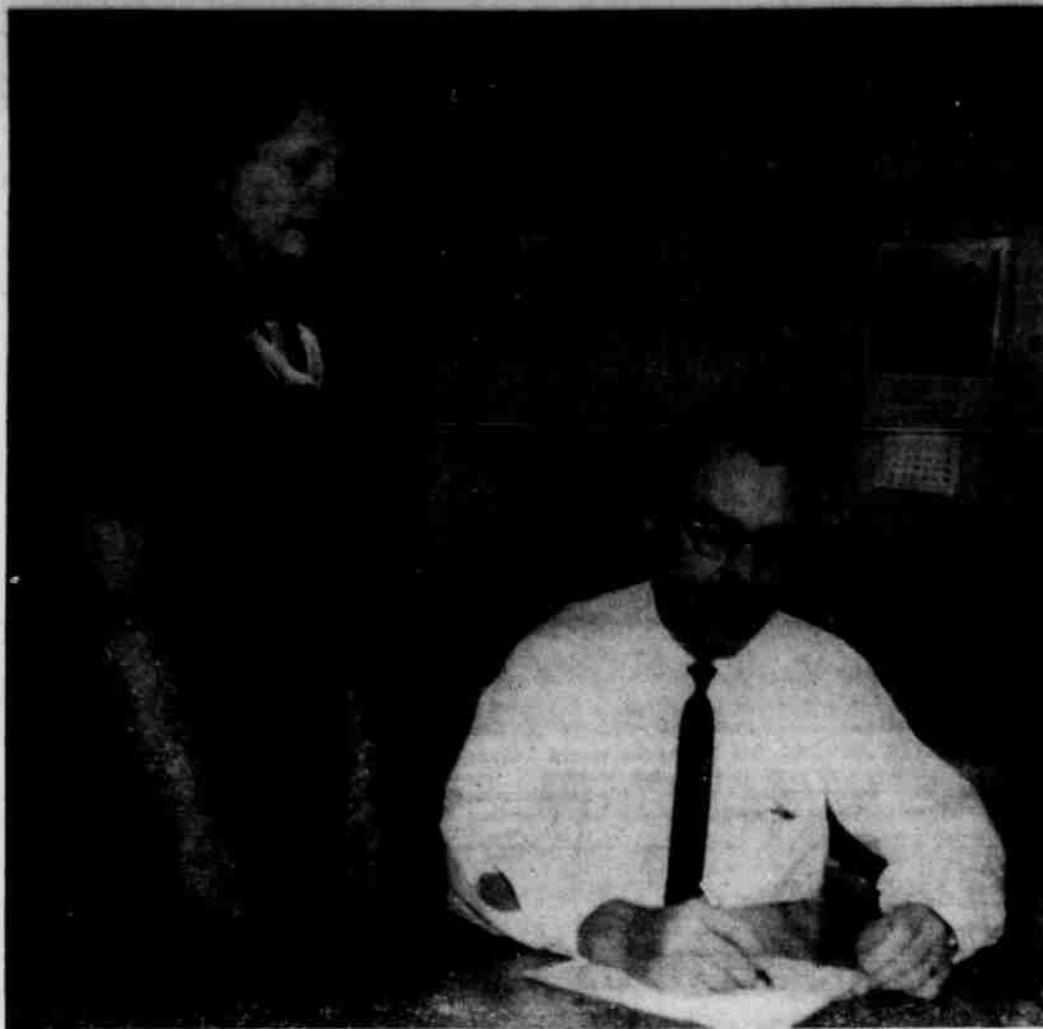

"We turned in the claim under the explosion coverage of the customer's policy," Lucas said.

"The claims adjuster came down, took a look at the refrigerator, and bought the householder a new refrigerator door," Lucas concluded.

AS AN INDEPENDENT insurance agent, Lucas actually is an independent business man and his own employer. His agency represents a number of different companies.

He isn't "tied" to any insurance company. His first obligation is to his customers.

That basically is what being an independent insurance agent means. Lucas is a member of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents and consequently uses that organization's membership insignia which is known as the "big I" in his advertising. It reads, "You are Independent Insurance Agent, Serves You First."

The Post Insurance Agency represents six different insurance companies, all big national firms, and has represented some of them for as long as 35 years.

Lucas explains that the agency writes virtually all types of insurance coverage, but they can be generally classified under fire, casualty, automobile, crop hail and life.

The firm is one of the oldest thought best wasn't what they wanted, or they don't understand a deductible clause."

Lucas said it would be best for those buying insurance to sit down with their independent agent and let him explain the coverages and what they cost, so the customer would understand his own policy and would select his own coverage.

ANOTHER PROBLEM which constantly bothers most insurance men is that so many of their long-time customers are "under insured" due to increased construction cost and thus increased replacement cost.

As Lucas points out, a local man back in the early 1940's could build a home for $4,500 which today would be on the tax rolls at $12,000. In other words, that home has "appreciated almost 200 per cent in value."

If the home owner doesn't take this into account he may continue to insure his home for only $4,500 as he originally did on his first policy. Today he needs almost three times that amount of coverage so he could replace the home at today's construction costs should (See Post Insurance, Page 15) businesses in Post. It was established 53 years ago in 1911, just four years after C. W. Post founded the community in his unique colonization experiment.

MOST DISPATCH readers will probably be surprised to find what Lucas considers to be his "biggest problem" in selling insurance here and throughout the area.

He says it is the hesitancy on the part of too many policy buyers to take the time to let their insurance agent explain the various coverages they want in their policies.

"Too often," Lucas says, "when I sell them a policy they simply tell me to give them the coverage I think they need. They don't want to take the time to have it explained and make their own decisions. Then when a loss comes along, maybe they find the coverage I

A Legend
 One night in ancient times, three horsemen were riding across a desert. As they crossed the dry bed of a river, out of the darkness a voice called, "Halt!"
 They obeyed. The voice then told them to dismount, pick up a handful of pebbles, put the pebbles in their pockets and remount. The voice then said, "You have done as I commanded. Tomorrow at sun-up you will be both glad and sorrow." Mystified, the horsemen rode on.
 When the sun rose, they reached into their pockets and found that a miracle had happened. The pebbles had been transformed into diamonds, rubies, and other precious stones. They remembered the warning. They were both glad and sorry—glad they had taken some, and sorry they had not taken more. And this is the story of Insurance.

Harold Lucas
 INSUROR — REALTOR
 122 E. MAIN — DIAL 2894

Assisting Lucas with the business of the insurance agency are his secretary, Mrs. Louise Dietrich, a state licensed insurance solicitor, and his wife, Mrs. Doris Lucas. Mrs. Dietrich was serving as secretary for the firm when Lucas purchased the agency six years ago and has continued in that capacity. She does all of the policy writing for the agency and most of the rating, Lucas says.

Mrs. Lucas registers all insurance policies for the agency and does the bookkeeping.

"The homeowner's policy" covers all the standard risks of the homeowner into a single policy. By combining all the risks into one policy it provides a 25 per cent reduction on fire and extended coverage, Lucas points out.

"The homeowner's" policy is really a "homeowner's" policy, Lucas says. It includes fire and extended coverage, personal liability, property damage to others, and guest medical payments. "You also can buy optional coverage too, if you want it," he points out.

"The homeowner's" policy, or coverage, came upon the scene seven years ago when in protected areas and extended to the rural home two and one-half years ago. Lucas explains that under a homeowner's policy the residence is insured for at least 80 per cent of value. He also emphasized that all of today's homes can be covered for homeowner's coverage. The residence has to be of average construction or better and of the older houses simply repaired, he said.

An independent insurance agent pointed out that one real advantage of the homeowner's policy coverage is no depreciation is figured when it comes to determining replacement.

For example, if hail destroys the roof of the home, the homeowner can get an insurance settlement for the roof replacement cost less deductible which is in the amount of $100.

The adjuster doesn't figure the roof was already "half old" and pays on that basis. Depreciation is figured—and is important.

Another type of insurance which has been gaining wider acceptance in recent years is the comprehensive personal liability policy.

Lucas points out that people are more conscious of their legal liability in a variety of situations and want to avoid the possibility of a lawsuit. Included in this coverage is such liability as the cost of defending one's self in court should a suit be filed. This can be an expensive item.

"The only thing we can do is to sell," Lucas says in explaining the insurance business. "If a policy holder has a loss, we have a contract, or a piece of paper."

Insurance adjusting, except for losses which agents can settle for themselves, is all done by professional claim adjusters. Many insurance firms today have claim adjusting firms, formed for that single purpose, to adjust their insurance claims.

Lucas emphasized that his firm gets busy quickly when an insurance claim is filed, gets an adjuster into town just as quickly as possible and works toward a satisfactory adjustment of the claim.

For example, when the Mathis home was destroyed Saturday morning on Main, Victor Hudman, who lives next door, telephoned Lucas at 8:30 a. m. reporting some damage to his home from the fire.

"I was out with an adjuster and we determined what to do," Lucas said. "We discovered the odor of smoke in the Hudman home, so we had to paint, etc. The day I had a firm in from the state to deodorize the Hudman home. That was the closest I was to that highly specialized work. We thought at first we would be bringing a company in from the state to do the work."

Lucas purchased the insurance agency Jan. 1, 1956 from the late E. J. Stewart.

Stewart, who was born in San Antonio, has been a resident of Bexar County for the last 36 years. He moved with his parents here in 1922 and came with them to this county in 1928. He is a graduate of the local school. He attended Texas A. & M. for some months before entering the soil conservation service for three years. When World War I came along, he went into the army for four years and served some months and saw duty in Pacific for 42 months of that time.

After coming to Post, he became involved in the Chevrolet auto business here in 1946 and sold automobiles and trucks for the next 12 years before entering the insurance business a little more than six years ago.

Lucas is serving his first year as mayor of Post after three years in the city council as a commissioner.

SEVEN YEARS AGO, Lucas moved out from insurance and entered the real estate business. He became a licensed realtor and has been handling the sale of all kinds of business, residential, farm and ranch properties since that time.

When he purchased the insurance agency in which the agency is now located and remodeled the entire building for offices and added real estate conditioning.

There is a difference in elevation of 28 miles between the highest and the lowest point.

WAYLAND COLLEGE BUDGET
PLAINVIEW—Wayland Baptist College trustees approved a $1,163,813 budget for 1964-65 and elected Preston Johnson, Lubbock, chairman, among other business at the semi-annual meeting March 12. E. M. Osborne, Plainview, and Claude Ferguson, Plainview, were elected as vice-chairman and secretary.

Certain areas of the ocean can produce about 1,000 pounds of shrimp per acre annually.

At least 20 Texas streams are known as Liveoak Creek.

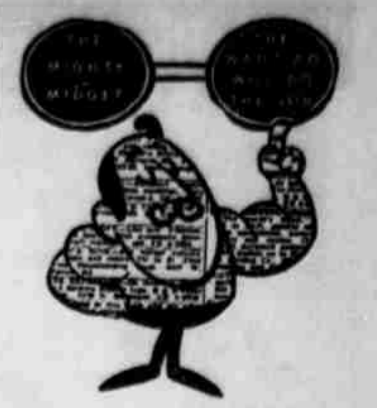

BOX CAR PURCHASE
AMARILLO—Santa Fe Railway has ordered 500 box cars from Pullman Standard Mfg. Co. at a cost of more than $3 million, according to Ernest S. Marsh, president of the railroad. The 70-ton capacity cars will be 50' 6" long. They will go into general service, Marsh said, with delivery scheduled to begin in the third quarter of 1964.

The natural gas industry of Texas began in 1870 after a farmer in Washington County accidentally ignited gas in his water well.

McClellan infant is gaining by the ounce

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS

Mrs. Mason McClellan was honored with a shower of gifts for her daughter, Patti Ann, in the home of Mrs. Quannah Maxey, March 9. Some 50 guests registered. When Patti Ann comes home she will have a nice lot of lovely clothes. This little girl arrived some two months early and only weighed 3 lbs., 14 ozs. This past Sunday she weighed 4 lbs., 2½ ozs. Needless to say her parents are so glad to hear of each ounce she gains and are thinking maybe she will soon weigh 5½ lbs. and they can bring her home.

Sunday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Cowdrey were the Bryan Maxey family, the Dave Oakleys of Abilene and the Bobby Cowdrey family. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cowdrey and the Mack Ledbetter family.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pierce were Sunday luncheon guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stone.

The Elmer D. Jones family visited in Big Lake Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Goss. Truman is in the hospital there after an oil field accident. They visited in Big Spring on their way home with the P. S. and Richard McComb families.

Terri Laurence of Lubbock was honored recently with a birthday party in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stone.

Mrs. Jerry Thuett and Amy visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Mason McClellan.

Mrs. Myrtle Peel and Beth and Mrs. Sally Sherry visited Thursday evening with the Elmer D. Jones family.

Mrs. Eunice Johnson and sons of Plainview visited Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Bill McMahon, and family and brought Mrs. Steen back with them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Lofton visited in Seagraves Sunday with some old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Quannah Maxey and Mr. and Mrs. James Stone drove to Lake Thomas Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown of Lubbock visited a short while Sunday afternoon in the Elmer D. Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis, Mrs. Elvius Davis and daughters and Mrs. Jerry Ligon were in Levelland Saturday where Mrs. Ligon was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. James P. Wright, from two until four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Jones and family visited Friday evening with the Elva Peel family. Other visitors were Mrs. Glenn Huntley and sons and the Jimmy Byrd family.

MR. AND MRS. Wilson D. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Arda Long drove down to Sweetwater to the rattlesnake roundup Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bush and Rickie and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bush attended funeral services in Hamlin last Thursday for J. M.'s sister, Mrs. Rosa Potter.

Mrs. R. L. Gilstrap and sons of Odessa spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Williams.

Quay Williams spent Sunday and Sunday night with Synn Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Parrish and daughter of Abilene spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ambers Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doggett and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McClellan visited Sunday evening with the Quannah Maxeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gossett and Mrs. Mattie Dunlap visited in Lubbock Sunday with Michael Dunlap and his family. They also visited Jack Stephens of Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bynum Stanley of Indiana recently visited in the Arvel Stanley home. Other visitors were their sister, Mrs. James Stone. They all visited their mother and other relatives in Abilene.

Darlene Jones celebrated a birthday March 5 with a slumber party in her home. Those attending were Barbara and Sandra Holleman, Lorena Anderson, Judy Ballentine, Darla Pierce, Sandra Gary, Vera Mae Jones, Linda Stewart, Mary Jon Brooks, Brenda Bilberry, Martha Blodgett, Shirley Doggett, Lamar Jones and Buddy Ship visited a short while. They listened to records, drank Cokes and ate cookies and had an enjoyable time.

P. L. Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Reese of Ralls visited Sunday in the Theibert McBride home. Mrs. L. E. McBride and daughters visited in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mason and Harry Lee and Blanton Mason visited Saturday evening with the Ray and Mason McClellan families.

Mrs. Glenn Huntley and sons of California are home for a visit with her parents and his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel White and Steve attended the fat stock show in Abernathy one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams and family of Oklahoma recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Stewart, and other relatives. Mrs. Stewart went home with them for a visit.

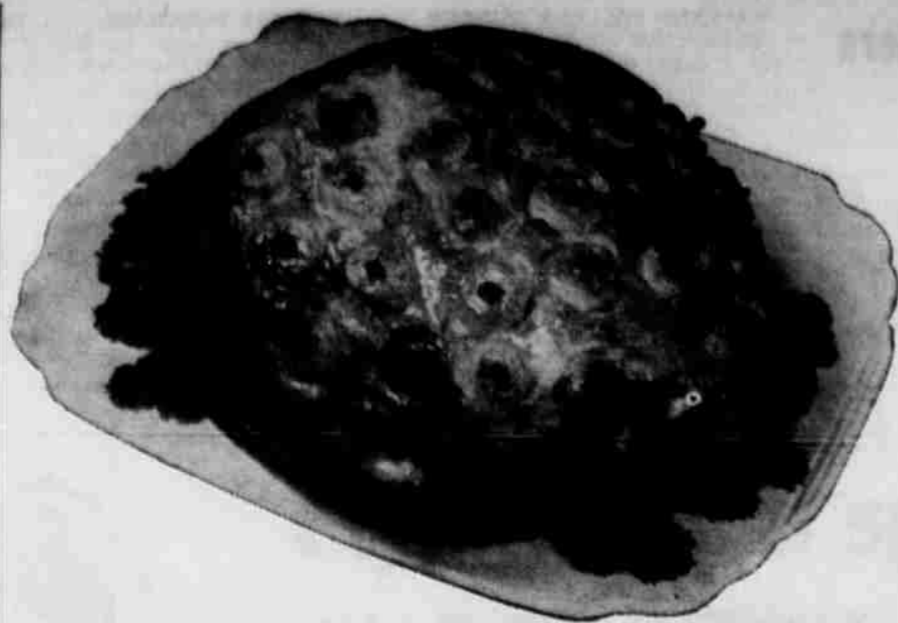

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and family visited last weekend in Eliasville.

THE GRAHAM HD Club met in the Reddy Room March 13 with Mrs. Nita McClellan and Viva Davis as hostesses. Roll Call was answered with "Some Unnecessary Things I carry in My Purse". A ten-minute demonstration on color harmonizing was given by Jennie Cowdrey. The THDA chairman, Alma McBride, gave a program on civil defense and tornado precautions. Glenda McClellan resigned as secretary with Jennie Cowdrey elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Marvina Hudman gave a very interesting program on flower arranging.

Refreshments were served to six guests, Meses. Gladys Floyd, Ruth Ann Young, I. M. Steen, Inez Ritchie, Lola Peel and Melba Stone. Members present were Carolyn Gray, Orabeth White, Glenda McClellan, Lucille Morris, Jennie Cowdrey, Viva Davis, Mary Cowdrey, Rene Fluitt, Nita McClellan, Alma McBride, Sue Maxey, Iris McMahon, Dorothy Cowdrey, Innis Thuett and Ruth Doggett.
