For 4-lane project right-of-way

$85,000 road bond election Saturday

County Commissioner Precinct No. 1 voters will go to the polls Saturday to decide the fate of an $85,000 precinct bond issue to purchase its half of the cost of right-of-way to four-lane highway US-84 from the top of the Cap 15 miles to the Lynn County line.

Polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

THE FOUR PRECINCT voting boxes will be located as follows: Pct. 1—Antelope Alley in Post (old band hall) with Claud Collier as judge; Pct. 2 in Southland School at Southland with J. H. (Hub) Haire as judge; Pct. 5—Close City schoolhouse in Close City with L. H. Peel as judge; and Pct. 7—Pleasant Valley Baptist Church in Pleasant Valley with Clark Barton as judge.

The bond issue must carry by a two-thirds majority with voting eligibility including a 1963 poll tax and being on at least the personal property tax rolls.

The Dispatch will open at about 8 p. m. Saturday night to give election results by telephone until 9 p. m.

BACKERS OF THE $85,000 bond issue urged everybody to get out to the polls and vote Saturday.

With a good turnout, the bonds are expected to carry but with a light turnout probably will be defeated.

A telephone committee and "free rides to the polls" committee is being organized to encourage a heavy vote.

The Chamber of Commerce, which endorsed the bond proposal by directors' action two weeks ago, is taking a half page ad on page 3 of today's Dispatch to urge precinct 1 voters to support the bonds.

At $500 a year raise

Harold Teal gets 2-year contract as head coach

The Post School Board Monday night re-elected Harold Teal as athletic director and head football coach with a two-year contract and a $500 a year salary increase.

Teal, who was hired to the position last year under a one-year contract, will receive $7,000 a year under his new two-year contract.

Teal came here in 1959 as assistant coach under Vernard Alexander. In his first year as head coach, his Post Antelope team last season won five games, lost four and tied one for the best record by a Post grid team since 1956 when the Antelopes won six and lost four.

The motion that Teal be re-elected under the new two-year contract and at the salary increase was made by Dr. John E. Carter and seconded by Russell Wilks Jr. The motion carried by an unanimous vote, with all members present except Malcolm T. Bull.

In other action Monday night at the board's regular February meeting, the trustees also set the date of the school election for April 6; approved a textbook committee appointed by Supt. R. T. Smith; read the monthly school bus report; and briefly discussed the old Lincoln School property, which the board plans to sell.

The school election was set for the first Saturday in April with Mrs. Lucille Morris as election judge. Trustees' terms expiring are those of Bobby Pierce and Bull, who is secretary of the board.

Members of the textbook committee approved by the board are Mary Lee Wristen, George M. Willson, Charles Hopkins, Leonard Tittle, James Pollard, Leon Barnes, Marion Duncan, Willa Didway and (See HAROLD TEAL, Page 8)

Banquet ticket sales are brisk

Ticket sales for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet were reported as brisk today by Mike Mitchell, chairman of the banquet ticket sales.

He said he hasn't yet received a progress report from directors who are selling tickets, but he is hopeful of a record crowd of 300 or more.

The banquet will be held in the old high school gym, Friday night, Feb. 22. Tickets are $2.50 each.

F. B. Potts, Chamber president, presented the "best menu ever" for the banquet. Filet mignon will be featured.

Charlie Gibson, high Burlington Industries official who is head of the cotton mills division, will be the featured banquet speaker.

Both the Postex Cotton Mills and Brown Brothers, Et Al, will be honored at the banquet for their contributions to this community.

4646 CLUB TO MEET
The 46-56 Club will meet in the Community Room, Monday, Feb. 19 at 7:30 p. m. to discuss plans for the All-Sport banquet. All members are urged to attend.

Levelland man elected to superintendent post here

Barry B. Thompson, assistant superintendent of the Levelland schools, will become Post's new school superintendent July 1, succeeding R. T. Smith.

Thompson was the unanimous choice of trustees of the Post Independent School District for the position at a special meeting last Thursday night at which trustees interviewed the top three candidates from the many who had applied here.

The new superintendent was given a two-year contract at a salary of $10,500 a year.

While it will be his first superintendency, Thompson comes to Post highly recommended and has made such an excellent impression with the trustees, they are confident they have hired the right man for the job.

Smith informed the board last month he did not want to continue as superintendent here as he wanted to step out of school administration and devote his full energies to the development and marketing of his invention, Teacher's Pet, a grade averaging machine he has patented.

Thompson was to interview local principals here this week and then make his recommendations to the trustees at another special meeting soon on their employment for the 1963-64 school year.

His position at Levelland was formally titled, director of secondary education. Previous to this year, he was principal at Dalhart Senior High School for two years. Before that he was a teacher of accelerated science at Andrews Independent School District at Andrews.

He is a native of Kermit, Tex. He was named Science Teacher of the Year in Texas in 1960 and Teacher of the Year in Andrews in 1959. He won a $550 fellowship from the Texas Chemical Council for outstanding contributions to science teaching.

He currently is studying for his doctorate degree from Texas Tech. "Good schools do not happen," Thompson told The Dispatch. "They are achieved only through constant effort and unlimited dedication to the premise that each boy and girl should be educated to the best of their ability. The attitude of a student body faculty, and community largely determine the success or failure of a quality school program.

"I am convinced that Post can continue to grow in excellence of educational opportunity."

Thompson is a graduate of Kermit High School. He studied zoology at Tarleton State College and then took his bachelor of science degree from Texas Tech, emphasizing biology, English and education. He took his master of science degree from East Texas State College in physical science and administra-

The Post Dispatch

Thirty-Sixth Year

Post, Garza County, Texas, Thursday, February 14, 1963

Number 37

How good is your memory? Can you remember something for 48 hours—to go vote Saturday if you're a Precinct 1 voter?

Public apathy is the No. 1 foe of any progressive community. Will it triumph Saturday? We can only hope not.

Tuesday was quite an unusual day. Post schools had a holiday on Abraham Lincoln's birthday—due to the snow.

Three long news reports are recommended to all readers in today's Dispatch. One is on Barry Thompson, Post's new school superintendent. Another is on two more city planning reports. The third is a fine report on our hospital's operations and history as presented to the Rotary club. Each is long, but we felt each merited a complete report because of top community interest.

Congratulations to the Post girls' basketball team, the Post Does, and to their coach Van Kountz, for winning the district cage title Tuesday night where it is always nice to win such honors—on Slaton's home floor.

The voting of a new two-year contract to Athletic Director and Football Coach Harold Teal with a deserving salary boost will be met with real approval by local grid fans. Harold did an outstanding, all-around job last season. He is a real credit to our athletic program. (See POSTINGS, Page 8)

Funeral services for Mrs. H. A. Roberts, who died about 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in Garza Memorial Hospital, were to be held at 2 p. m. today at the Church of Christ, 108 North Ave. M.

Mrs. Roberts, who was 78, was admitted to the hospital Tuesday morning. She was a resident of the Grassland community.

She was born Viola Josephine Gray on April 27, 1884, in Delta County, Texas, and was married to H. A. Roberts at Cooper, in Delta County, on Oct. 25, 1903. They moved to Garza County on Oct. 11. (See ROBERTS RITES, Page 8)

James Dalton Polk, 80, Mrs. Jolly, 66, marry

James Dalton Polk, who is 80, and Mrs. Rosa Lee Jolly, who is 66, were married here Friday by the Rev. Graydon Howell, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

They were issued a marriage license Feb. 4 at the county clerk's office here.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk will reside in Tahoka. He is the father of T. C. Polk of Post.

All bonds will be paid off next year

Hospital is operating 'in black' sixth straight year

The Garza Memorial Hospital has been "operating in the black" for the last five years and all of the hospital bonds probably will be paid off next year leaving the county free of hospital debt.

These were among the many highlights of an interesting report on hospital operations presented to the Post Rotary Club Tuesday noon at City Hall by Hospital Administrator Don Curl, Walter S. Duckworth, chairman of the hospital board of trustees, O. L. Weakley, another hospital trustee, Mrs. J. E. Parker who organized the Women's Hospital Auxiliary, known as the "pink ladies", and Dr. Harry A. Tubbs.

Speaking on the hospital's future, Weakley said that the hospital's bond debt outstanding less $7,500 currently in the hospital sinking fund is but $22,473 out of the original $200,000 bond issue.

He said this should be retired in 1964.

WEAKLEY TOLD Rotarians "our citizens should be thinking about increasing the size of the hospital, adding new equipment, and replacing some of the nearly worn-out original equipment. He said the hospital is now operating regularly close to capacity and with the hospital's objective of rendering service to the community more bed space will be needed.

Curl opened the program by reporting the hospital cared for 837 patients during 1962. These patients spent a total of 4,626 days in the hospital with 5.5 days as the average patient's stay.

He said the hospital averaged 11.2 patients per day, had 122 births during the year and 23 deaths.

TOTAL HOSPITAL INCOME last year was $111,817.70 with operating expenses totaling $44,536 and payroll an additional $64,837.—(See HOSPITAL, Page 8)

Analysis of city's needs

Housing, utilities covered in reports

The Dallas consulting engineering firm of Fowler & Grafe, Inc., now making an analysis of Post's city needs for the next 20 years submitted two reports to Mayor Powell Shytle and the City Planning Commission Tuesday afternoon—one of them recommending $1,651,100 worth of utility improvements.

These improvements included: (1) $1,043,600 for a storm sewer drainage system; (2) $215,200 for extension and improvement of sanitary sewers and the doubling of the size of the city's sewage treatment plant, and (3) $392,300 for improvement of the city's water distribution system.

Engineer Thomas E. Lundy, in presenting this report for Fowler & Grafe, pointed out that these recommendations were made to adequately meet the city's growth needs over a 20-year span and did not entail a full immediate expenditure.

The second report, presented by Daniel F. Carr, chief planner for the firm was on Post's housing.

It showed a real improvement in Post's housing over the last decade and showed Post's housing was well above the state of Texas average for the percentage of housing in good condition.

Carr recommended in the report that improvement in Post's housing picture can be accomplished primarily through an adequate housing code enforced through an annual inspection.

"In many instances," Carr said, "compliance with the directives of a Housing Code increases the value of the property and enables the owner to receive a higher return on rental property. Through a Housing Program, owners can become acquainted with the numerous financing plans available for the improvement of residential structures.

The two reports, both presented in a number of copies in printed form, are numbers 4 and 5 completed by the consulting firm. The first three were on population, land use, and thoroughfares.

Next to come will be one on capital budget, followed by one on zoning, and then one on subdivisions.

TO WRAP IT ALL up will be the final city plan for Post which will summarize the first six reports. The zoning and subdivision reports (No. 7 and 8) will not need summarization.

Carr told The Dispatch the city planning study should be completed sometime next summer, barring unforeseen delays.

The portion of the utilities report devoted to water noted that the city already is moving through its membership in the White River Municipal Water District to correct its water supply inadequacy.

It envisions a 6,600 population for Post by 1980 with a maximum daily water consumption of 2,310,000 gallons and a total maximum day and fire requirement need of 6,020,000 gallons.

It points out that water requirement standards for fire fighting are established by the rules and regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the Texas State Board of Insurance, that each community is judged by standards set by these organizations in determining the fire insurance rates for the community, and that penalties in the key rate are assessed

County employs new help for sheriff office

The Garza County Commissioners Court at its February meeting this week approved hiring a secretary and matron for the sheriff's office, set the 1963 county-wide tax levy at 95 cents, the same as last year, and reappointed all six members of the Garza County Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees.

Mrs. William Young of Post is the new sheriff's office secretary and matron at a monthly salary of $175. She will work from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. five days a week.

Employment of Mrs. Young will free Sheriff Floyd Claborn and Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Merritt from considerable office routine.

There was only one change in the county tax rate for 1963, but no change in the total. The jury rate was cut from five cents to two cents and the general fund levy raised from 45 to 48 cents.

Other levies figured into the total county rate of 95 cents, all remaining the same as 1962, are road and bridge levy 10 cents, road and bridge special levy 15 cents, hospital sinking fund levy 15 cents, and permanent improvement levy 5 cents.

Road district No. 2 levy will remain at 50 cents, the same as last year, and Road district No. 3 levy will remain at 30 cents. The common school district levy will continue at 90 cents.

Reappointed to the hospital trustees for one year terms were Mrs. Malcolm Bull, Mrs. Lee Davis, and Miss Maxine Durrett. Namod to two-year terms were Walter S. Dickworth, O. L. Weakley, and (See COUNTY, Page 8)

★ OLD-TIME SINGING EVENT IS SUNDAY

Everyone is invited to attend the old-time singing session at 2 p. m. Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

There will be group congregational singing and numbers by other musical groups of the community. Special music is planned by the Post Music Club, the Church of the Nazarene choir and the women's quartet of the Methodist Church. There will be a solo by Mrs. Gordon Wilson.

The adult choir of the Methodist Church is sponsoring the singing event. Coffee and cold drinks will be served during intermission.

All lovers of old-fashioned singing are invited to attend and participate.

At Primary School auditorium tonight

Valentine Sweetheart to be selected

Nineteen Post High School organizations had selected their candidates for PHS Valentine Sweetheart up until Monday when bad weather kept the school from reopening for the first two days of the week.

The winner will be decided at 8 o'clock tonight in a beauty contest in the primary school auditorium sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America chapter.

Other candidates were to be selected in time to enter the contest and there is a possibility of at least 30 girls vying for the honor tonight. The candidates will be judged by out-of-town judges and the winner will be crowned by Richard Hart, FHA sweetheart.

Three singing groups, the high school "Jokers" and the junior high school "Dizzy Dozen" and "Dainty Dozen," will furnish entertainment under the direction of Georgie M. Willson, head of the schools' choral music department.

Music for the evening will be provided by Mrs. Wilma (Boo) Olson. There will be an admission charge of 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students. Proceeds will be used to send FHA chapter delegates to the state FHA convention in Dallas.

The 19 contestants already announced and their sponsoring organizations are as follows: Linda Bias—FHA.

Diana Borgman—Spanish Club. Stanna Butler—Lettermen's Club. Janie Carradine—Band. Chris Cornish—Pep squad. Lin Allyn Cox—Senior Class. Barbara Craig—Boys' basketball team. Cherri Cummings—Freshman Class. Margie Harrison—Junior Class. Vonda Howell—Library Club. Glenda Hutto—Commercial Department.

Vivian McWhirt—Future Farmers of America. Ann Pennington—Science and Math Club. Janith Short—Cheerleaders. Betsy Shytle—Student Council. Mary Ann Stone—Sophomore Class.

Dee Ann Walker—Choir. Elaine Wheatley—Drama Club. Nita Wilson—Girls' basketball team.

Let's get out bond vote Saturday

County Commissioner Precinct 1 voters will go to the polls Saturday to cast what The Dispatch hopes will be an overwhelming vote for essential progress, the approval of the $53,000 bond issue with which the precinct can pay half of the right-of-way purchase costs for four-laning highway US-34 for 15 miles from the top of the Cap to the Lynn County line.

The main problem is getting the voters to vote. Apathy is a big hindrance to progress.

If a large portion of Precinct 1 voters turn out Saturday the bond issue should carry by a 3 or 4 to 1 margin. A two-thirds majority is required.

If too many of them stay at home, the bond issue is in serious danger of being beaten.

We think the facts have been clearly stated and that the arguments are overwhelmingly upon the side of voting the bonds. The precinct, the town, which partly is in the precinct, and Garza as a whole stands to gain much or lose a great deal Saturday—depending upon the outcome of this election.

Actually, the full $53,000 isn't expected to be needed. The precinct's share should cost between $2,500 and $80,000. The remainder of the bond money will go to immediately retire a like size amount of the bond issue.

Not a penny of the bond money will be spent for anything else but right-of-way or bond retirement. That's down in black and white in county commissioner court minutes, an excerpt of which was printed as a legal notice in last Thursday's Dispatch.

The bond issue "cost wise" will burden no one. The precinct has no outstanding bonded indebtedness. It is expected the bonds can be retired in seven years or less. The tax will amount to only a few dollars for the average property owner.

The benefits to the area are many. The prime feature will be in far greater safety factor of this major highway artery into Post from the northwest. Fatality hazards will be reduced 11 times by the new four-laned divided highway.

No organized opposition to the bond issue appears to exist. But with a two-thirds majority required and a special election necessary, the only way to approach such an election is an all-out effort.

YOU can do your part Saturday, if you are a Precinct 1 eligible voter by going to vote and by casting a VOTE FOR AREA PROGRESS by voting for this bond issue.—JC

Get your banquet tickets early

Don't wait too long to buy your ticket if you plan to attend the Post Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet Friday night, Feb. 22. With plans being made for the biggest banquet in the organization's history, including one of the best programs, there might be an early sell-out of tickets.

One of the highlights of the Feb. 22 banquet will be the honoring of Post's top industrial firms—Postex Mills and Browns Bros., Et Al, oil operators. This community-wide honoring of these two firms, which have contributed so much to the Post area's development, is long overdue, although their value to the community has been recognized and appreciated right along.

Recognition of Postex Mills and Browns Bros. will replace the Chamber's custom of the past few years of honoring the community's outstanding man and woman of the year. This year, instead of honoring individuals, we'll honor the large groups of individuals who make up the two industries.

Both the textile mill and the oil firm will be well represented at the banquet, Chamber officials said. Four Burlington Industries officials will fly here from Greensboro, N. C., for the banquet, with the group including Charlie Gibson, president of Burlington's mills division, who will be principal speaker.

There'll be a number of other highlights at the banquet, not the least of which will be the fellowship among Chamber members, who are given this opportunity to meet as a group only once a year. So, get your ticket early and assure yourself of a seat at what promises to be one of 1963's outstanding community events in Post.—CD

We note with real interest

The Dispatch notes with real interest a promised crackdown on prostitution here in Post by the city police department.

Prostitution, especially, appears to have greatly increased here in recent months to present its greatest threat in many a year.

It isn't confined to the northeastern section of town entirely, either.

County Judge J. E. Parker has been instrumental in spotlighting this deplorable condition as a real law enforcement problem, and has been working diligently pressing for a solution on all possible fronts.

Prostitution poses not only a morals problem, but a health problem as well. Stamping it out should be of wide community concern.

The problem must be publicized to be fully understood.

The Dispatch will not only watch what progress is made, but will report it as well.—JC

'Open season' for candidates

The annual city election has been called for April 2 and, by the time this editorial appears in print, the school board election will have been set at Monday night's board meeting.

These are important elections to the City of Post and the Post Independent School District and point up once again the importance of having paid your poll tax—if you did—by the Jan. 31 deadline. If you didn't and are not exempted by reason of age, you will not have a vote coming in either the city or the school board election.

Prospective candidates for places on either the council or the school board are reminded of the filing deadline—30 days before each election. The field is wide open for any and all candidates—in an "open season" if you have an inclination to serve either as mayor or on your city council or on your school board.

In a democracy such as ours, all such elections should have more than one candidate for each office in order that democracy might best be served. We're not trying to press anyone into running for office, but we ARE reminding everyone that it is their right and their privilege to come out for office in either the city government or on the school board if they are so inclined.—CD

They've proved their worth

Anyone unfortunate enough to have had to spend any time in the Garza Memorial Hospital—or in hospital, for that matter—during the last two or three years, more than likely will agree with the couple who ran a card of thanks in last week's Dispatch in which they said the GMM Auxiliary is one of the nicest organizations of its kind they've found anywhere.

Because of steadily rising operating costs and the limited supply of nurses, most hospitals welcome volunteer workers who, as a public or humanitarian service, are willing to perform countless chores around a hospital that do not require technical or professional skill.

Such a group is the Auxiliary of the hospital here. They've proved their worth many times over since their organization nearly three years ago.—CD

That 'Good Neighbor' spirit

Since the first of the year—which hasn't been too long ago—The Dispatch has carried two stories of neighbors "pitching in" and helping another neighbor gather his crop. On both occasions, the neighbor who received the help was incapacitated because of illness.

These two 1963 stories of neighbors helping out in emergencies are not the first of their kind The Dispatch has carried. Over the years, there have been numerous other stories of the same nature.

We're always glad to publish such stories, for they show the neighborliness that is a part of this country. Nearly every week we read in one or more of the many other newspapers reaching our desk similar stories of bands of neighbors helping another who has been laid up because of illness or injury.

And, nearly every time, you read along with the story of the neighbors helping out with the crop gathering where one or more of the women folks pitch and cook the meals for the workers.

This sort of neighborliness is something we hope is always with us. It's too bad that the same spirit doesn't exist among all the nations of the world.—CD sorry for bald-headed men until he finally had his own cut off—then realized how much he had been missing. One with a flat-top not only saves on combs, goosy stuff and grooming, but he can wash his hair when he washes his face.—Frank Hill in The Lynn County News.

Lest we forget: The colors in the American flag stand for courage (red); liberty (white), and loyalty (blue).—Al Hinds in The Haskell Free Press.

MY FIRST THOUGHT as I sit here this Monday morning and gaze outside at the wintry scene is that we've had a book and a movie entitled "The Long, Hot Summer," but no similar artistic efforts yet on "The Long, Cold Winter."

This is the time of year for Chamber of Commerce banquets here, there and everywhere. In the same connection, Leon Hale, Houston Post columnist, is mildly campaigning for changing the term "Chamber of Commerce" to something else. I agree with Mr. Hale... every time I see the term "Chamber" used by itself in a headline or a story, without the "of Commerce" tacked on.

THE DISPATCH, itself, has been guilty of this. Only last week, one headline on our front page read: "Tickets Go on Sale for Annual Chamber Banquet." My prejudice against the name isn't quite as strong, however, as that of the Houston columnist, who writes: "These organizations stand for community progress, yet they are riding along with a horse and buggy name."

Mr. Hale argues further: "Some will say that if you called a Chamber of Commerce by another name, then it would lose its identity and its effectiveness would be destroyed. Nonsense. The American people resist change in many areas, but not when it comes to names. We no longer call motels tourist courts, nor department stores dry goods stores, nor refrigerators ice boxes."

WHAT SORT OF name does Mr. Hale suggest instead of Chamber of Commerce? "Why," he says, "anything would be better. Call them councils or foundations or associations. It would take a while for the new name to catch, sure. But it would."

The Houston columnist also argues that the term Chamber of Commerce should be changed because the organizations are not the same as they once were. "They are much better and bigger and more effective. Their personnel are better trained, and they are doing such a vital job that a community of any size in this state would surely suffer economically without an active one."

WELL, WHO knows? Perhaps the directors will consider changing the name Feb. 22 at the annual Chamber banquet (Lgh).

THE CURRENT ISSUE of The Saturday Evening Post contains a comprehensive and highly interesting article on Rotary, which most Rotarians no doubt will read and which everyone else who has the opportunity should read. The article was written by John Bird, a senior editor of Salesperson, who is not a Rotarian, but who has nothing but good to say for the international organization whose members put service above self. Members of the Post Lions Club who read the article no doubt will be glad to find that Mr. Bird gives their organization due credit for being the largest service club in the world, even though Rotary is the oldest. (No joke intended there, Rotarians.)

Elston Brooks, whose column appears daily in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, says that during last year's political campaign Waggoner Carr approached a Texas voter and told her he was running for attorney general. "Good," was the reply. "I'm getting tired of Bobby Kennedy."

IN RECALLING 1942 as a year of contrast, the Fort Worth columnist wrote: "It was the year they filmed 'Cleopatra,' with pyramids in the background and a triangle on the side. They brought out the Eddie Fisher cocktail (Old Taylor on the rocks) and the Elizabeth Taylor towels (Hers and Next). They also had the John Kennedy cocktail. It was called stocks on the rocks."

Highway Department finds way to help wet weather drivers 'stay in groove'

AUSTIN — An expressway in San Antonio is safer now because the Texas Highway Department has found a way to make drivers "stay in the groove" in wet weather.

With diamond-bladed rotary saws the department sliced small grooves in 344,537 square feet of Interstate Highway 35, a strip which once had the highest wet-weather accident rate in San Antonio.

Until the Highway Department took saws to the problem, accidents had almost tripled in two years' time on the expressway section between Broadway and South Flores Street. Accidents had jumped from 42 in 1959 to 129 in 1961.

Engineers tried roughing up the unusually slick pavement with acid, resins and slurry seal with disappointing results. Then the Research Section of the Department's Highway Design Division at Austin suggested strating the strip with grooves one-eighths inch deep and three-sixteenths inch apart.

Accidents were reduced dramatically. During a 7-day period of rainy weather last November, not one accident occurred on the treated strip. Nearby on a stretch of similar distance on the same expressway, 12 vehicles were involved in skidding accidents during the same period.

Subsequent tests on the pin-strip highway indicate wet weather stopping distances are significantly reduced by grooving. Before the

$550,000 school building proposed at Tahoka

TAHOKA — The Tahoka Board has decided to call a $550,000 bond election for the purpose of constructing a new school building, remodeling and repairing old buildings, erecting additions to other structures and installing a bus garage.

Petitions asking that the election be called will be considered in the near future, according to Clint Walker, school board man.

Duty of the toothbrush is to relieve food decay conditions

For civilized man, the toothbrush does for the teeth what raw, coarse and massaging foods did for the teeth of primitive man. It removes the food debris in which the acid-producing bacteria of the mouth thrive. The function of the toothbrush is to clean the teeth and to help maintain the gums in a healthy condition.

There are three conditions that exist in the mouth before decay results. These include bacteria, easily fermentable foods like sugars, and sheltered places which maintain the food debris long enough for the bacteria to work on the teeth and build up acid of sufficient strength to attack the tooth enamel. The duty of the toothbrush is to remove these conditions by removing sugar residue before the acid-producing acids can be formed from them.

Another function of the toothbrush is to prevent deposits of debris, known as tartar or calculus. For a few hours, these deposits remain soft enough to be removed by the brush. But afterward, they become hardened to the extent that a dentist's steel instrument is necessary to scrape them off.

If tartar is left to accumulate, the gum tissue becomes irritated. This can lead to serious disturbances in the gums and supporting tooth structure. Dentists emphasize the importance of correct toothbrushing procedure to minimize injury to the gum tissues. Often, vigorous or improper brushing may cause the gums to bleed, but dentists say that there is no harm if this condition continues only a few days.

Post soldier is rifle expert

FORT HOOD, Tex. (AHTNC) — Army Pfc. James A. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Williams, Route 1, Post, Tex., recently qualified as expert in firing the M-1 rifle at Fort Hood, Tex. Williams, a truck driver in Company C of the 1st Armored Division's 46th Infantry at Fort Hood, entered the Army in December 1961 and completed basic combat training at Fort Carson, Colo. The 23-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Post High School. He attended East Texas State College, Commerce.

The tissues covering the gums will become toughened and thickened, just as calluses form on a hand doing hard labor. If, however, the bleeding persists from brushing, the condition should be checked by a dentist.

Brushing correctly is important. Equally important is regular brushing. It is the responsibility of parents to develop the habit of regular brushing after meals in each child so that regular brushing will become a natural pattern of his life. Check with your dentist concerning the proper size of toothbrush and grade of bristle. Also change toothbrushes when they become too soft.

Let's face it we don't eat the coarse, raw or abrading foods of primitive man, so we have to brush our teeth.

'The Guns of Navarone' now showing in Post

Now showing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre is Carl Foreman's "The Guns of Navarone," one of the greatest high adventures ever filmed, according to Hollywood reports.

Gregory Peck, David Niven and Anthony Quinn are top-starring in the picture, which also stars Stanley Baker, Anthony Quayle, Irene Papas, Gia Scala and James Darren.

The story of Allied commandos and Greek resistance fighters in a desperate raid on a German-held Aegean Sea island, "The Guns of Navarone" reportedly flames with unflagging excitement and suspense. Especially thrilling are the storm and mountain-climb sequences.

Vet's Forum

Q. How many U. S. veterans are still living, and how does this total compare with 1945?

A. On Jan. 1, 1963, there were 22,225,000 U. S. veterans of all wars still living. This compares with the all-time high of 22,735,000, which was reached in March, 1958.

Q. As the widow of a World War II veteran with two children, I understand WWII widows and orphans are now eligible to receive pensions on the same basis as World War I dependents. What are the conditions for eligibility and how much would the pension amount to?

A. The WWII deceased veteran no longer is required to have had a service-connected disability at the time of his death. Your income must be less than $3,000 a year. Your pension would range from $25 to $60 a month, adding $15 a month for each child.

Q. As a veteran with a GI home loan, I understand I may take additional payments to retire the loan faster than my contract stipulates. What is the minimum extra payment I may make?

A. You may pay an additional $100 with your monthly payment or an additional monthly payment, whichever is the smaller payment.

Five Texas Teen-Agers Live 4-H Motto—'Learn By Doing'

Miss Nesuda

Miss Wolf

Tate

Miss Klein

"Learn by doing" is more than just a motto to five outstanding teen-agers from north-eastern Texas. To them, as 4-H Club members, it's a way of life. And that 4-H Club way paid off a big dividend for four of them in 1962—a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. The congress is considered the top 4-H event of the year.

The trip winners are Paul Tate, 19, of Waxahachie; Richard Blair, 19, of Nocona; Carol Jean Klein, 18, of Denton, and Carol Nesuda, 17, of Ennis.

The other top Texas 4-H'er from the area is Charlotte Wolf, 17, of Muenster. She was awarded a wrist watch by the Carnation Company after placing first in the state's individual dairy foods demonstration contest.

Blair, winner of the Texas 4-H safety program, was a guest in Chicago of General Motors. He won recognition with safety demonstrations on poisonous snakes, nuclear fallout and fire extinguishers.

In his eight years as a 4-H'er, Tate built a herd of 28 dairy animals. He was awarded a trip by the Oliver Corporation after winning the state's 4-H dairy competition. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tate Jr.

Miss Klein, winner of the canning program award, canned more than 1,000 quarts of fruits and vegetables during six years of 4-H. The young woman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klein, won a trip given by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation.

Montgomery Ward presented the trip won by Miss Nesuda, a 4-H'er for six years and former vice president of the Ellis County 4-H Council. The talented young homemaker won the state's 4-H home economics award. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nesuda of Ennis.

A demonstration entitled, "School Days the Dairy Foods Way," won the dairy foods award in Texas for Miss Wolf. In the demonstration she showed how to prepare a box lunch of stuffed cheese rolls, raw carrot and cabbage salad, fresh fruit, milk and cheese-nut balls.

Precinct No. 1 $85,000 Bond Issue

to pay precinct's half of cost of right-of-way to four lane US-84

Bond Facts in Brief

1. A divided four-lane highway is 13 times safer than two-lane highway, engineer studies show, because it virtually does away with No. 1 traffic killer—the head-on collision. Voting the bonds will make US-84 much safer for all of us besides speeding up traffic flow.

2. The commissioners' court is unanimously on record that the bond money will be spent ONLY for necessary right-of-way costs and that all unused portions of the bond issue will go to the immediate retirement of as much of the bond issue as possible. Only $42,500 to $60,000 is expected to be needed, but the $85,000 figure was set on advice of highway department experts as the precinct must pay all right-of-way costs and then be reimbursed within about 30 days for half the amount by the highway department.

3. The state highway department will spend over $1,000,000 to four-lane this 15 mile strip of US-84 from the top of the Cap to the Lynn County line if these bonds are approved. This makes the precinct's share of the total cost small indeed for value received.

4. Precinct No. 1 is in good financial condition. At this time it has not a single dollar of bonded indebtedness. Taxes to pay off the bonds will not work a hardship on any property owner. The bonds probably can be retired in seven years or less. Interest rates will be low. The local bank will handle all the financing.

5. Cooperation works both ways. This is a high priority project for the state highway department. This is the last stretch of highway US-84 between Lubbock and Roscoe for which money is not already available for right-of-way purchase for four-laning. The state highway department has cooperated well with Garza County and Post, placing a regional warehouse facility and an engineering office here and with working closely with our county commissioners' court on building our needed farm to market roads. But cooperation works both ways. Now is the time for Precinct 1 to cooperate with the state highway department by approving the bond issue. It's a must. It comes first for this area.

For approval of this essential bond issue, a two-third's majority will be necessary Saturday.

The only way you can make your vote count is to go to your voting precinct Saturday and cast your ballot.

The Post Chamber of Commerce directors are on record as unanimously advocating the approval of these bonds. This is an important step for the entire highway future of this area.

A rejection, as County Judge J. E. Parker has said, would be "a black mark against us."

We MUST NOT allow public apathy to defeat this essential bond issue. The Chamber will work with others to help get out the vote Saturday.

Do your part—if you are a qualified voter in Precinct No. 1—by voting FOR the bond issue.

Voting Hours: 8 A. M. to 7 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 16

The voting precincts for County Commission Precinct No. 1 and election judges are: Voting Precinct No. 1—Antelope Alley (Old Band Hall) in Post, Claud Collier, judge; Voting Precinct No. 2, Southland School in Southland, J. H. (Hub) Harie, judge; Voting Precinct No. 5, Close City Schoolhouse in Close City, L. H. Peel, judge; and Voting Precinct No. 7, Pleasant Valley Baptist Church in Pleasant Valley community, Clark Barton, judge.

KEYS—For your car, house or business building. Made while you wait. Keys duplicated for all locks. We guarantee our keys and a required fire flow of 3,180,000 additional gallons, or a total of 4,579,000 gallons. Recommended water improvements include:

(1) In accord with the city's plans, three or four more wells be constructed and arrangements made to purchase additional water from private supplies until water from the White River Water District can be obtained.

(2) The town is penalized in insurance rate for not having enough ground water storage as the present reservoir, which due to its on Cap location is considered elevated storage. In the future, it may be necessary to construct a large ground storage reservoir somewhere in the north section of the city to take water from the district at night and pump it into the system during the day to relieve the district overload. When this condition occurs, it is recommended that a 2,000,000 gallon ground storage reservoir be constructed and a 750,000 gallon elevated storage tank be installed near the center of the city.

(3) Construction of a number of 12 inch, 8 inch, and 6 inch water mains are recommended as size of many city mains are now too small.

Housing

IT POINTS OUT whereas Post at the present time has a total of approximately only 1,000,000 gallons of water per day now available, it has a maximum daily consumption of 1,399,000 gallons per day and a required fire flow of 3,180,000 additional gallons, or a total of 4,579,000 gallons.

Recommended water improvements include:

(1) In accord with the city's plans, three or four more wells be constructed and arrangements made to purchase additional water from private supplies until water from the White River Water District can be obtained.

(2) The town is penalized in insurance rate for not having enough ground water storage as the present reservoir, which due to its on Cap location is considered elevated storage. In the future, it may be necessary to construct a large ground storage reservoir somewhere in the north section of the city to take water from the district at night and pump it into the system during the day to relieve the district overload. When this condition occurs, it is recommended that a 2,000,000 gallon ground storage reservoir be constructed and a 750,000 gallon elevated storage tank be installed near the center of the city.

(3) Construction of a number of 12 inch, 8 inch, and 6 inch water mains are recommended as size of many city mains are now too small.

THE REPORT NOTES that "officials and employees of the city are to be commended for keeping complete records of water produced, water pumped, gallons of water sold, and revenues obtained, also for the low per cent or less than 10 per cent water loss through leakage, fire demand, flushing of fire hydrants and street paving. Excluding fire demand, the usual amount of water lost is in excess of 15 per cent for cities the size of Post."

Estimated cost of early water supply and distribution needs are $118,600 with $273,700 addition for future consideration. This does not include any new water storage costs.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS recommended for the city's sewerage system will cost an estimated $215,200.

They include a 10 inch main to the northwestern section of the city, where the greatest residential growth is expected, at a cost of $43,000. Most of this line is now being planned with federal aid (with final plans due in next month), Mayor Shyites said, with no bond issue involved.

Also, six and eight inch mains in northwest section of city, at a cost of $27,000, which Shyites said would be built as property owners signed up for tie-ins. An eight inch main to the Postmill village housing area at a cost of $3,000, and an eight inch main to serve new additions at a cost of $51,600.

As to doubling the size of the present sewage treatment plant, the report noted the plant was designed for a population of 5,000 which is expected to be reached in 1964, at which time the plant capacity should be doubled. This estimated cost was $50,000 and was figured into the $215,200 total for sewerage improvements needed over the next 20 years.

AS FOR STORM SEWERS, the report noted Post is unique in not having a foot of storm sewers now in place, "drainage being run overland for the entire city causing flooding in some sections during heavy rains."

This will be the expensive item. Recommended was a storm sewer system, costing $1,043,600 which would be sized to take care of average needs, but not necessarily maximum needs.

The utilities report concluded: "It can be readily seen that the work to be done is of tremendous proportions. However, if Post is to continue to progress and protect the welfare of its citizens, its utilities must be kept abreast of its growth. Adequate utilities will also stimulate growth and foster economic gain within the community."

"Post is a relatively young city but its accomplishments in the past have been significant. If the same vigorous leadership continues to exert itself within the city, the aims of this comprehensive plan can be accomplished within the planning period."

"HOUSING QUALITY IN Post improved greatly from 1950 to 1960," Carr reported in his housing study.

"Less than five per cent of all the housing in Post today is evaluated as dilapidated (extensive repair required or should be torn down)."

Only 70 of Post's 1,550 units were found delapidated in the 1960 census as compared to 173 of the 1,022 unit total in town in 1950. The percentage in 1950 was 16.9 per cent.

In 1960 87.6 per cent of Post homes had all plumbing facilities compared with only 67.9 per cent 10 years before.

The report pinpointed four blighted areas in Post, three of major importance. All lie east of Avenue K.

IN THE AREA bounded by US-380 on the south, the railroad on the west, 15th Street on the North, over 59 per cent of the 135 dwellings were listed as blighted or substandard.

The report concluded with an explanation of what a housing code, as recommended, should include.

Superintendent —

(Continued from Page 1) America and the American Way of Life. Twelve will be chosen to receive the award.

Thompson is a consultant to the NEA, classroom teachers department on accelerated science in the public schools.

He also is consultant on the gifted child to the Texas Classroom Teachers Association, and on the origin of prehistoric man in Texas to the El Paso Archaeology Society.

Thompson is director of In-Service Workshop on improving instruction in Dalhart and Levelland. The director of Science Fairs in West Texas, he has served as science fair judge for numerous area schools.

His students have won three national science fair awards and 25 regional awards and have finished 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 in regional student science congress competition.

Thompson also is director and president of the fall workshop for gifted students from throughout West Texas. He currently is doing research on the aboriginals of Presidio County. Over 90 per cent of his last graduating class at Dalhart went on to enroll in college.

Thompson married the former Sandra Sue Davison of Kermit and they have three children—identical twin girls, Kimberly and Karol, and one son, Jason Scott. Kim and Karol are first graders. Scott is two years old.

The new superintendent and his wife are lifelong members of the Methodist Church.

Please Send or Telephone News to HELEN CORNISH, Women's Editor,

Phone 495-2816, Not Later Than Wednesday Morning

Short spring, wasn't it?
 We almost followed the school course this morning (Monday) and didn't open the Dispatch office—but for the same reason. Mr. C. parked the car out in the middle of the street because of the ice at the curb, and we loaded ourselves down with the morning mail, the adding machine and an assortment of papers (we just can't bear to be idle over the Sunday holiday) and all over to the office. It was nippy and snowy. Mr. C. reached to pull the screen door open so he could unlock the door. The only trouble was, the screen door wouldn't open more than about three inches cause ice had formed on the step-up.

About this time Mr. D arrived so he stood there and helped me shiver and freeze while Mr. C went for something to knock the ice off. In the meantime, another Mr. D arrived (we have two, you know) and he too went to get something to knock the ice off. Mr. C had put down the assortment of ledgers on the ice but by the time I considered putting the adding machine down my fingers were frozen and I couldn't. Mr. D and I finally went up to stand in the Post Pharmacy entrance out of the wind while the other Mr. D and Mr. C pounded at the ice.

All this took place in a very few minutes I'm sure, but try holding in an adding machine and the morning mail in a snowstorm with no gloves on plus not being quite wide awake and wishing you were still in school and could have gone back to bed and thinking this is a heck of a way to start the week out and it seemed like a long, long time.

As many engagement announcements and weddings as we have been putting on the society page lately one would almost think it was June.

I spent part of the weekend poring through a book, "The Super Americans". Naturally it's about Texans. I ran across one item I think you all will love. A millionaire couple that live in Dallas built this quite expensive home that contained, of all things, a floating dining room. They entertained with a series of dinner parties and only about two guests the first time — that's right, two of them tumbled off into the water and had to be rushed to the bedroom for a quick change of clothes. One lost his footing while admiring the chandelier and the other forgot and pushed his chair too far back getting up. I hope they don't run out of dinner clothes.

I got amused when writing the "yesteryears" of 10 and 15 years ago by reading about all the people that bought new cars. I'll be reading along and run into a sentence that reads: Mr. and Mrs. So-and-so have just bought a new — or a new —. Everyone would just die if we did that now. I figured that Guy Floyd, the dealer, wouldn't like me to print that he bought a new red — pickup 15 years ago so I left that out. (The only advertising I do in this column is for classifieds when there is something in it for me.)

We have a special Valentine gift to all those who live out Pleasant Valley way. Ann Chaffin has taken in the chore of correspondent for that area and we are pleased as can be. Her first column is in this week's paper and I'm sure you will all enjoy reading her. I'm especially pleased cause Ann can type!

Now, don't you other correspondents give your back up over that. Just to get your news we'd transfer it from Greek—it's just a little more (rather like a bonus) to a Greek along with a news-clipper. That way any mistake made in the writing lays solely with the author. (Maybe Ann hasn't thought of that!) With the written copy in my hand, I always have the assurance that I couldn't read the thing and you can always tell whose names are misspelled. You can't figure out why I miss Mrs. C. can't get things

I had dropped a note to Ann saying she might like to write my news. I had never met her and seen her name in lots of columns and thought she sounded like a go-getter. She came in to see what it was all about and decided to give it a whirl. I really liked the thing that swayed her was that I pronounced her name correctly—Chaffin, not Ann. I'm not sure how I knew this but the first syllable is not pronounced, "chaf" but "schef" as in the minute schefertie.

My special thanks to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for that little tip. The one is going to accuse

BEVERLY ANN LOWE

Miss Lowe and Mr. Lee are to wed March 16

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lowe of 717 Lynda Drive, Fort Worth, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Beverly Ann Lowe, to Lauris Franklin Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Temple Lee of Graham. The prospective bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. J. Lauris Wheeler and the late Mr. Wheeler.

The couple will be married at 8 o'clock in the evening, March 16, in the Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church, Fort Worth.

Miss Jenebeth Axe of Garland will be maid of honor, and Gary Quay Lee, of Graham, brother of Mr. Lee, will be best man. Other attendants will be Miss Carolyn Sue Grant and Kenneth Theiford.

The bride-elect attended Texas Christian University and Clark College in Vancouver, Wash. Her fiancé attend Cisco Junior College and is now attending John Tarleton College in Stephenville.

Robinson-Winchester wedding Feb. 10 event in Slaton church

Miss Linda Gay Robinson and Mike Weiland Winchester exchanged wedding vows in the Slaton Church of Christ, Sunday, Feb. 10, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

W. M. McFarland, pastor of the Lubbock Church of Christ, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an archway of chrysanthemums and greenery. Seven candelabra further enhanced the scene.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Robinson, Route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Merriman, 310 South 8th, Slaton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white Miss America lace over net, designed with long petal sleeves. A matching lace headpiece held her veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses atop a Bible.

Miss Kelly Jo Myers was maid of honor and wore a turquoise velvet dress with fur trim featuring a bell-shaped skirt. Bridesmaids were Misses Sharla Taylor, Patsy McGehee, Cindy Altman and Lou Alice Edwards. Their dresses were similar to the maid of honor except for the skirts, which were made full with inch pleats. All the attendants' gowns were designed by the bride and made by Mrs. Faye Stolle.

Miss Nedra Myers and Miss Karen Merriman, sister of the bridegroom, were the flower girls. Ring-bearer was David Mock, cousin of the bride. Dennis McGehee, cousin of the bride, and Hilton Merriman, brother of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Larry Eason of Petersburg was best man. Groomsman were Larry Smith, Lanol McCuiston, Gerald Heinrich and Sonny Lee. Delton Robinson and Robert Lee Mock, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

The Broadway Church of Christ wedding chorus under the direction of Horace Coffman furnished the singing. Miss Sharla Taylor also sang "Whither Thou Goest."

A reception was held in the Slaton Club House following the ceremony. Members of the houseparty were Miss Barbara Mock, Mrs. Donna Basinger and Mrs. Karen Cowdrey. Miss Beverly Stolle and Mrs. Ned Myers.

Hostesses for the reception were: Mmes. Henry Edwards, Jack Myers, Weldon McGehee, Herman Dabbs, Deamos Altman and Leo Stolle. Mrs. Herbert Taylor played piano selections.

For a short wedding trip, the bride chose a turquoise velvet frock trimmed in white fur.

After March 1, the couple will be at home at Madera, Calif., where Mr. Winchester is employed. This summer the couple will return and Mrs. Winchester will complete her course at Jessie Lee's Beauty School in Lubbock.

MRS. MIKE WEILAND WINCHESTER (Miss Linda Gay Robinson)

Engagement of Miss Moore and Mr. Rodden announced

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, 606 West 11th Street, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Sharon Kay Moore, to Douglas T. Rodden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Rodden, 2605 43rd Street, Lubbock.

The wedding date has been set for Saturday, March 23, at 7 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church.

Miss Moore is a 1961 graduate of Post High School and attended Jessie Lee's Beauty School in Lubbock. She is employed at the 13th Street Beauty Shop in Lubbock. Mr. Rodden graduated from a Lubbock High School, attended Texas Tech, and is employed with Shop Rite Foods, Inc., in Lubbock.

Members of Music Club hear talk by Post band director

The Post Music Club, National Federation of Music Clubs, met in regular session at the First Methodist Church Monday night at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Gordon Wilson and Miss Maxine Durrett as hostesses.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Ronnie Bouchier, vice president, the club voted to have a dinner meeting, March 11 at 7 o'clock in the evening at the First Christian Church. Reservations are to be made to Mrs. Bouchier by Thursday, March 7. Cost of the dinner was set at $2.

Carrying out the theme, "American Music on Parade", Bruce Evans, bandmaster of the Post schools, spoke on the purposes of early band music. He pointed out that it was used for rhythm and morale. He traced the history of the many different types of bands we now have: Military, industrial, civic, athletic or stimulus, concert and the most recent, symphonic bands.

George Willson, director of music in the Post schools, presented his combined sextet groups from the high school. They sang a medley of patriotic songs, "Golden Trumpets" and "Think On Me".

The Valentine motif was used in the decorations and refreshments. There were 42 attending, including several guests.

Oriental theme is featured at circle meeting

Mrs. A. T. Nixon was hostess to the missionary circles of the Woman's Missionary Union in her home Feb. 4 for a salad supper. This was a quarterly meeting of the Fisher, Barker and Martin circles of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Ruth Stewart opened the meeting with the call to prayer as listed in the Royal Service magazine. Mrs. Arthur Jackson, president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. Lorene Scarbrough, program leader, presented the lesson on "Witnessing to Oriental Americans". The program was in four parts with Mrs. Ivan Jones discussing "Work with Chinese"; Mrs. Wesley Scott, "Work with Koreans"; Mrs. C. B. Hogue, "Work with Japanese"; Mrs. Leon Barnes concluded the program with a devotional.

All those participating in the program were dressed in oriental costumes.

Those attending were: Mmes. I. G. Thuet Jr., Bob Baker, Jackson, Walter Johnson, Scott, Billy Hahn, Barnes, Scarbrough, Jones, Hogue, O. F. Pennell, Stewart, Louie Burkes and Lee Bowen.

Mrs. C. of putting on airs.

Hope you all get lots of pretties for Valentine's Day.

Hazel Greer and Flute King are new sweethearts

Hazel Greer and Flute King were crowned as Valentine Sweethearts of Xi Delta Rho and Texas Mu Alpha chapters, respectively, Saturday night at Beta Sigma Phi sorority's annual Valentine Dance at the American Legion Hall.

The Valentine Sweethearts were escorted by their husbands and were crowned by Mayor Powell Shytle.

Bouquets of roses were presented the sweethearts, with Mrs. Greer's being presented by Jo Don Cash, last year's Xi Delta Rho Valentine Sweetheart, and Mrs. King's by Joyce Teaff, president of the Texas Mu Alpha chapter.

Red and white hearts and roses predominated in the Valentine theme decorations.

Dance music was furnished by the Bill Mayes Combo.

October wedding planned by Elaine Brown and Mr. Cook

Mrs. Harvella Mason is announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Elaine Brown, to Richard D. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cook. An October wedding date is being planned.

Chapter decides cage game date

Texas Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday in the Reddy room with Mrs. Sally Luttrell and Barbara Boren as hostesses.

During the business meeting conducted by president Joyce Teaff, the date for the sorority-Lion's Club basketball game was set for March 8. The "Friendly Venture" project was also discussed with definite plans to be made later. This project is concerned with starting a chapter in another town. A nominating committee consisting of Lorry Lou McAlister, Flute King and Mary George was elected.

Continuing the program theme of the year, "Paths of Loveliness", Mrs. Margaret King gave the program on "Drama" explaining the various types of drama. The program was concluded with the group acting out charades.

Those attending were: Mmes. Joyce Teaff, Pat Schmidt, Flute King, Mary George, Barbara Boren, Sherry Josey, Margaret King, Lorry Lou McAlister and Ruby Williams.

Mrs. Luttrell hostess to meeting of Guild

The home of Mrs. Charles Luttrell was the meeting place for the Christian Women's Fellowship Guild of the First Christian Church Feb. 5 at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Bryon Haynie, president, opened the meeting with a prayer. Mrs. Lee Davis Jr. was in charge of the worship service. Mrs. Bernard Ramsey gave the study taken from the book of Colossians.

Those attending were: Mmes. Jack Burress, Tom Osman, L. L. Avant, Haynie, Jess Cornell, Ramsey, Davis, and the hostess.

Valentine Sweetheart Banquet set Saturday

"Dixie" will be the theme of the First Baptist Church's annual youth Valentine Sweetheart Banquet to be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the City Hall.

Entertainment will include a minstrel presented by a group from Littlefield. The food will be southern style.

Tickets for the banquet are on sale at $1 for singles and $1.50 for doubles.

Holt-Roberts vows solemnized Feb. 2 in church at Andrews

The marriage of Miss Mary Nell Holt and Jerry Jack Roberts was solemnized at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday, Feb. 2, in the Means Memorial Methodist Church parlor in Andrews.

The Rev. Clyde Jackson of Abilene officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar covered with a sunburst of white stock with emerald foliage.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Holt, 303 South-west 11th Street, Andrews, and Mrs. J. O. Roberts, Route 2, Post.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length slipper satin dress with a Chantilly lace jacket that was fastened down the back with pearls. The basque bodice was styled with a scalloped neckline and had tapering sleeves ending in points at the wrist. Her butterfly veil of French illusion was secured to a pearl tiara. The bride's dress was designed by the bride and was made by her mother. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses upon a Rainbow Bible loaned to her by Mrs. Janet Pummill. She had a penny in her shoe belonging to her late maternal grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Reves of Lueders.

Mrs. Mary Evelyn Ragsdale of Snyder was matron of honor. She wore an emerald green dress with a matching pill box hat. She carried one long-stemmed white carnation decorated with white streamers.

Jim Evans of Stephenville served his cousin as best man. Ushers were Joe Frank Gayle of Andrews and Doug Holt, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a two-piece sheath dress of moss green with gold accessories. Mrs. Roberts, the bridegroom's mother, wore a beige two-piece knit suit with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of green orchids.

A reception was held in the church immediately following the ceremony. Guests were served lime punch and cake from a table laid with a lace cloth over green. The bride's bouquet was laid on a mirror to form the centerpiece.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. J. A. Whitcomb and Mrs. Clyde Broom, of Andrews, and Misses Jean Carrow of Vernon, Lola Ridens of Seminole and Betty Blackwell and Joan Danielson, both of Abilene. They all wore corsages featuring the bride's colors of green and white.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose an emerald green wool suit with leopard accessories.

The couple will be at home at 1604 Fillmore, Topeka, Kans. Mr. Roberts is an A2c in the Air Force, stationed at Forbes AFB.

Mrs. Roberts graduated from Andrews High School and is a junior at McMurry College, Abilene. She plans to continue her education in Topeka. Mr. Roberts is a graduate of Southland High School and attended McMurry College prior to entering the service.

Included in the out-of-town guests were Clark Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fluit and Mark of Post; Larry Ragsdale, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Evans, Janet and Hal Stephenville; C. L. Reves, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reves and children, Lueders; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Holt, James and Terry, Rankin; Joe Beth Bentley, Big Spring; Pat Harmon, Fort Worth;

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Fantastic? ... Listen!
Last year in the United States one million pounds of sleeping tablets were manufactured.
Each night American people swallowed 12 million doses.
Each night the nervous tensions of millions of people were relaxed artificially and temporarily. No worry was banished; no fear disappeared. No problem came nearer to solution because of a pill ... and sleep. Troubles were merely postponed.
Peace of mind and rest come, not through pills, but through power found in trusting God.
Then develop that power by going to church regularly. Find there a faith that grows and gives courage. And pray, for "Whatsoever you shall ask in My name, believing, you shall receive."

Policeman grabs jailbreaker here

James Hunt Smith, Post Negro, broke out of the county jail between 1:30 and 2 a. m. last Friday morning and was captured less than 10 minutes later by City Policeman F. M. Reep.

Reep stopped Smith when he saw him running across the highway at 11th Street and Broadway.

Smith, who was being held on a bad check charge, admitted to the policeman, after questioning, that he had broken out of jail. He had knocked a hole in the ceiling of the jail run-around, climbed into the attic and from there gained entrance to the second floor, from where he made his way outside.

Reep called Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Merritt and they took Smith back to jail, where they locked him in a cell block.

There were five other prisoners in the jail when Smith escaped, but none of them made any effort to get out, Reep said.

Road bonds —

County Judge J. E. Parker, who with Precinct 1 Commissioner Jack Myers and Highway Engineer Julian F. Smith spoke before Post Lions Tuesday night on the bond issue, said today that the state highway department has spent over $1,000,000 in the Garza and Post area in the last five years.

"It's our turn to help them," he declared. "If we don't we will have a real black mark against us."

Judge Parker pointed out that $1,000,000 spent in this area in five years include highway street widening, the mill road cutoff, and farm to market roads in this area.

Highway Engineer Smith said he wanted to "spike a couple of erroneous rumors" now afloat about the bond issue.

ONE IS THE FALSE report that if the precinct doesn't buy the right of way, the state will go ahead and buy all of it. "The state can't do it, its hands are legally tied," Smith said. "If the bonds are not voted, the highway won't be widened."

He also said that some people seem to think this project has something to do with a bypass system around Post. "That's wrong too," he told The Dispatch. "There is absolutely no plan to build a highway bypass around Post. The only way that could be done would be for the citizens of Post to ask for it."

Not all of the $85,000 bond issue is expected to be needed. What isn't needed for half the cost of the right of way will go for immediate retirement of that portion of the bond issue.

Judge Parker pointed out that about one third of the precinct's share of the cost of the right-of-way will go to moving the utilities not in land purchase. He pointed out too that about half of the precinct's $8,000,000 valuation now in oil properties, which means the oil valuations will pay about half the cost of the project.

The right of way for this strip of US-84 is the only one left between Lubbock and Ruscoe for which funds have not already been provided. The four-laning of this highway is a top priority state highway project.

County —

The court approved establishment of a minimum annual salary for Don Curl, hospital administrator, at $9,600 with the maximum at $11,000. This approved the action already taken by hospital trustees.

County Judge J. E. Parker explained that Curl's annual salary is $9,600 but the maximum amount had to be set as he is also paid $5 additional for each night call-back to duty. The state law requires the maximum and minimum salaries for this position.

The court boosted the salary of A. B. Thomas, chief operator of the city-county law enforcement radio, from $200 to $225 monthly effective Feb. 1.

A. P. Gurley, Precinct 2 commissioner, was appointed to the city-county park board to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. J. H. Haire of Southland.

The court also named the First National Bank of Post as depository for county and county school funds.

Hospital —

Curl said the payroll was increased approximately $17,000 over 1961 due to an increase in skilled employees requested by the hospital's staff of doctors. Three registered nurses are now available for 24 hour duty, he added.

Duckworth gave a brief history of the hospital's development. He pointed out it took two or three years to get the hospital project through the talking stage with the first board meeting held July 7, 1951.

On Feb. 27, 1952, Jack Rex was named by trustees as the hospital's first administrator and technician.

The hospital cost approximately $400,000 with federal aid financing half of the building cost. Between $5,000 and $10,000 was raised through donations for equipment and about $5,000 more from a benefit show staged here by Ventriloquist Edgar Bergen.

THE AMERICAN HOSPITAL Association inspector who came to inspect the new hospital termed it "one of the best of its size he had ever seen", Duckworth said.

After the first 16 months operation, a hospital audit showed income of $39,649, expenses of $75,841, for a net loss of $36,200. Duckworth said the hospital continued to lose money in its operation through 1957, but has been "in the black a little" every year since. He said the hospital has now paid back $60,000 of its $85,529.52 operating losses of earlier years.

Last year, he reported the county purchased a new $15,000 x-ray machine—second to none.

Mrs. Joy Parker who served as the first president of the Women's Auxiliary of Garza Memorial Hospital reported 28 active members who contribute regular weekly hours of work at the hospital, 22 contributing members who pay dues, and two life members. The auxiliary has contributed some 7,000 hours of service to the hospital since its organization April 12, 1962.

The auxiliary has established a coffee bar in the hospital lobby and have served 6,420 cups of coffee since its establishment. It has made new drapes for the lobby and this year's project was the purchase of new lobby furniture.

These are but a few of the many auxiliary projects. Mrs. Parker said the auxiliary wanted to thank the public for its generosity in supporting its hospital projects.

DR TUBBS AROSE during the question and answer period to praise Curl for his work as administrator. He said Curl had saved lives in times of emergency through his training, though this was not his job.

The physician praised hospital trustees for their operating policies and the "pink ladies" for making the hospital such a pleasant place for everyone.

"As far as I know," Dr. Tubbs concluded, "no one in need has ever been refused admission to this hospital, no matter where they lived."

School principals are usually elected at the February session, but the board had voted earlier to postpone their election until after a superintendent was hired. With Barry Thompson having been hired as superintendent at a special meeting Feb. 7, the board decided Monday night that a special meeting would be held later this week on the employment of principals.

Junior Rodeo meeting is called for Friday

A meeting of officers and directors of the Post Junior Rodeo Association has been called for 8 p. m. Friday, Feb. 15, in the district courtroom.

All officers and directors are urged to attend this first rodeo meeting of 1963, said Lester Nichols, chairman of the board of adult directors.

First moisture of '63 is welcomed

This area's rain and snow Sunday and Monday produced the first moisture in Post for 1963 and measured .37 of an inch of moisture, according to County Agent Sydney Conner.

Snowfall was measured at three and one-half inches. "The moisture helped a whole lot," Conner said. "More will be welcomed."

Post schools were closed both Monday and Tuesday as icy highways Monday and an overnight

Salvation Army aids 564 here

A total of 564 persons were given some type of assistance by the local welfare committee of the Salvation Army during 1962. It was reported yesterday morning at a meeting of the local Salvation Army organization with Joe L. Moore of Midland, field representative.

Two hundred and eighty-five Garza residents received help ranging from groceries, hospital care, rent, shoes to clothing. Two hundred and seventy-nine transients were also aided.

The committee also discussed plans to send six Garza boys to the $700,000 Salvation Army boys summer camp at Midlothian. Four were sent last year. Herman Ra-

Post Does down Slaton to win district championship

Friona, 3AA titlists to be bi-district foe

Post High School's girls basketball team, the Does, won the District 4AA championship Tuesday night by defeating the Slaton Tigerettes, 47 to 39, at Slaton.

It is the first time a Post girls team has won a district title in more than ten years.

The Does will play Friona either March 4 or 5 in a bi-district game, with the winner to advance to the regional tournament in Lubbock.

Friona, champions of District 4A, is ranked by the coaches' association as the state's No. 1 Class A team.

Van Kountz, Post Doe coach, said that Post and Friona school officials will meet soon to decide on a site for the bi-district playoff game. Kountz said Plainview appears now as the most likely site for the game.

Friona scouted Tuesday night's Post-Slaton game, Kountz said, and also scouted last Friday night's game at Sundown between the Does and the Sundown Roughettes.

The Does' victory over Slaton Tuesday night gave them a conference mark of 5-0, with only the Frenship Tigerettes left to play. The Post girls easily defeated Frenship in a game here two weeks ago.

The Does came from behind in the third quarter to chalk up the victory over Slaton. They had been ahead, 17-15, at the end of the first quarter, but trailed, 30-27, at half-time.

Going into the fourth quarter with a two-point lead, 39-37, the Does staged a delay game that held the Tigerettes to two points the rest of the way.

"Our delay game worked real well, with Slaton getting the ball away from us only once," Kountz said.

He said the fourth quarter delay game became an almost "must" because each of the Post guards had four fouls against her. "We had to keep the ball down at our end of the court," the coach said.

The Post team had one of its better shooting nights of the season, hitting 57 per cent of the field goals attempted.

Nita Wilson scored 41 of the Does' 47 points, with Janith Short getting 4 and Barbara Craig, 1. Sharon Williams scored 15 points for Slaton and Glenda Bownds came through with 14.

The victory brought the Does' season mark to 27 wins against four losses.

Slaton's Tigers take measure of Antelopes, 73-45

The Post Antelopes' District 4AA girls' season was evened at three wins and three losses Tuesday night when they were swamped by the Slaton Tigers, 73 to 45, on the Tiger boards.

The speedy Tigers, undefeated conference play, shot to a 23-7 first quarter lead over the Antelopes and were out in front 41 to 10 when the buzzer sounded for the halftime intermission. The Tigers led 59-23 going into the fourth quarter.

Leslie Brown's 20 points was tops for the Tigers, with other double digit scorers being Ronnie Jones with 13 and Webber Tefertiller and Steve Ball with 10 apiece.

David Nichols topped the Post scoring with 15 points and Pat Corli scored 11.

The scoring summary:
POST—Nichols 4 7 3 15, Scott 1 3 1, Cornell 5 1 1 11, Odom 0 0 0, Polk 0 0 0, Johnson 1 0 2 2, Ven 4 0 4 8, Cross 1 0 0 2, Moru 2 2 0 4.
SLATON—Jones 6 1 0 13, Burk 1 0 9, Brown 10 4 20, Tefertiller 1 1 16, Harris 1 1 4 3, Brake 1 0 0, Hemmington 0 0 1 0, Hatchett 1 0 1 0, Ball 5 0 0 10, Pember 2 0 0 4.

Junior High teams playing in conference tournament

Three of Post's four junior high basketball teams will see action today in the first round of the Junior High District Tournament at Slaton with the other Post team playing its first game Friday night.

Post's 7th grade girls will play Idalou at 1 p. m. today, with the 7th grade boys meeting Abernathy at 2 p. m. and the 8th grade girls playing Frenship at 3 p. m.

The 8th grade boys are to play Taboka at 8 p. m. Friday.

If the 7th grade girls win from Idalou, they play a semifinals game at 1 p. m. Friday. If they lose to Idalou, they advance to the consolation finals to be played at 4 p. m. Saturday.

The 7th grade boys, if they win their first round game from Abernathy, will play either Idalou or Taboka at 2 p. m. Friday in the semifinals. If they lose to Abernathy, they play in the consolation finals at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Denver City plays here Friday night

The Post Antelopes will play the Denver City Mustangs here Friday night in a District 4AA game, while the Post Does will go to Cotton Center for a non-conference game with that school's state-ranked Class B team.

Friday night's boys' activity here will also include a game between the Antelope and Mustang "B" teams.

The Does who won the district championship and the right to represent 4AA in the bi-district playoffs by defeating Slaton Tuesday night, will be meeting one of the area's better girls' cage teams at Cotton Center tomorrow night.

Both the Antelopes and the Does will end their regular season at Frenship (Wolforth) Tuesday night, Feb. 19.

8th grade boys are tournament winners

Post's 8th grade boys defeated Taboka in a squeaker, 36 to 33, Saturday night to win the championship trophy in the annual Wilson Junior High Basketball Tournament.

The 8th grade girls, after losing their first round game to Cooper, 29-22, came back to win the consolation championship trophy by overwhelming Taboka, 27 to 6.

Coach Dwain Robertson's boys team reached the finals with a first round win over Cooper, 30-18, and with an easy semifinals victory over the Lamesa "B" team, 89-28.

In the finals against Taboka Saturday night, the Post team caught fire in the third quarter to score 15 points to Taboka's five after having trailed 13-12 at the end of the first quarter and 23-16 at halftime.

The Post boys changed their offense in the third quarter after Taboka had concentrated its defense on Ronnie Pierce in the first half. Pierce wound up as high scorer with 15 points, followed by Donnie Windham with 11. Other scorers were Filemon Vargas, 5; Clint Johnson, 3, and Davis Heaton, 2. Dick Kennedy and Larry Johnson also saw action.

In the semifinals game against Lamesa, Coach Robertson made every effort to hold down the score against Lamesa's outclassed 8th grade "B" team. Post held a 17-1 lead at the end of the first period, 35-4 at halftime and 59-14 going into the fourth quarter.

The entire 8th grade squad saw action in the game with 11 of the boys scoring points. Pierce was a high point man with 8 and Steve Stone accounted for 6.

Post led all the way in their opening round win over Cooper. Pierce took high point honors with 15. Windham scored 6 points; Larry Johnson, 4; Ricky Borgman and Clint Johnson, 2 each, and Floyd Moreau, 1.

Coach Billy Hahn's 8th grade girls suffered their first defeat of the season when they bowed to Cooper in Friday's opening round game. They trailed 9-6 at the end of the first quarter, 19-12 at the half and 21-17 at the end of the third period.

Sherry Woods took high point honors for Post with 9 points. Marcia Newby scored 7; Belinda Lee, 4, and LaGayluah Young, 2.

The Post girls hit 10 field goals to six for Cooper, but lost the game at the free throw line, from where the winners scored 17 of their 29 points. The Post girls were whistled for 22 fouls, whereas the Cooper girls were charged with only five.

Post then advanced to the consolation finals by scoring an easy 72-5 victory over the Wilson 8th grade "B" team. Coach Hahn, in trying to hold down the score, played all his guards at forwards throughout much of the game, and sent in every girl he had suited out. Those scoring points in the runaway victory were Newby, 14; Woods, Young and guard Jaynie Josey, 8 each; Belinda Lee, 7; Doyle Fry, 6; guards Cheryl Pennell, Linda Altman and Marta Solis, 4 each; guard Brenda Holly, 3; Sheri Perdue and guard Edith Johnson, 2 each.

In their consolation championship win over Taboka, the Post guards did not allow the losers a field goal the entire game. Woods captured high point honors with 14, followed by Newby's 8, Fry's 4 and Young's 1.

All-Stars bow to Independents, in 60-49 game

The Post Independents defeated the City League All-Stars, 60 to 49, Friday night in the high school gym in a rough, but interesting, game in which a total of 50 fouls were called—27 against the All-Stars and 23 against the Independents.

The game was close throughout, with the Independents leading 12-10 at the end of the first quarter, 26-21 at halftime and 41-36 at the end of the third quarter.

A scoring duel between the two tallest men on the court, Will Bigott of the Independents and James Dye of the All-Stars, highlighted the game. Dye wound up with 25 points to Bigott's 22, but Dye went all the way, whereas Bigott fouled out early in the fourth quarter after having sat out part of the third with four fouls against him.

Donnie Hays had 16 points for the winners, and Johnny Kemp's 8 points was second to Dye's 25 in the All-Star scoring.

The game officials were Coaches Charles Black and Billy Hahn.

Track practice gets under way

With the exception of boys still playing basketball, Post Antelope trackmen have been going through light workouts in preparation for the upcoming track season, Coach Glenn Gregg said today.

The Antelopes' track schedule has been completed with their first competition to come at Brownfield on March 2.

The remainder of the schedule follows:
March 9 — Whirlwind Relays, Floydada.
March 16 — Denver City Invitational.
March 23 — Sundown Invitational.
March 30 — Crosbyton Relays.
April 5 — District 4AA Meet.

Among the boys who have been working out are Frankie Gary, Ken Rankin, John Valdez, Kent Wheatley and Mike Ayala. All were members of last season's squad.

Members of last season's squad who will report after basketball season include Danny Pierce and Danny Odom.

Baylor and Tech clash Saturday

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech's basketballers return to the Coliseum with a doubleheader here Saturday night. The varsity meets Baylor after the freshman play Lubbock Christian College at 6 p. m.

Honored at the game will be the 1938-39 cage team coached by Bert Huffman and captained by Elmer Tarbox.

Both Tech teams will be trying to make it two straight this season over their respective foes. The Raiders edged Baylor 60-59 on Mike Gooden's basket with seven seconds remaining, and the Picadors downed LCC 78-58 behind a 36-point outburst by John (Dub) Malaise.

Next week the Raiders play Arkansas at Fayetteville Tuesday night, Rice at Lubbock Saturday night.

NHS members are announced

Membership in the National Honor Society at Post High School has been announced for the 1962-63 school year with 14 new members and seven hold-over members for a total membership of 21.

National Honor Society members are selected by a faculty committee, with an 85.0 grade average necessary for consideration. Four points for selection to the NHS are: Scholarship, leadership, citizenship and service.

Teachers in Jr. High speak out on gum chewing

By Sue Gilmore

Some of the Junior High teachers were asked why they didn't think the kids should chew gum in class. Here are their opinions:

Mr. Davis: Hate to see a big wad of gum at the drinking fountain.

Mrs. Wristen: Students concentrate much better in class without chewing gum.

Mr. Stone: When the kids finish with their gum they put it under their chairs and sometimes they lay it on the chair and other people sit down on the gum.

Coach Kowitz: Gets too noisy.

Mrs. Walker: Smacks too much and too loud.

Coach Black: Too noisy.

Mrs. Gambin (1): A person's appearance is not as attractive when chewing gum. (2) Most gum-chewers chew at least part of the time with their mouths open, thereby spreading germs. (3) The rule is a standard one in most schools across the nation: (4) Gum chewing is not good for the teeth or complexion; (5) Most gum-chewers make noises which are unattractive; (6) Gum-chewers spend their money on gum instead of some nourishing food.

Substitute teachers in Jr. High thanked

By Deanna Adams

Mrs. Blanton, Mrs. Herron, Mrs. Storie and Mr. Roby were substitute teachers in Junior High Thursday through Monday.

Mrs. Blanton substituted for Mrs. Gambin, who was ill.

Mrs. Storie substituted for Mrs. Walker, who went to Houston with her daughter.

Mrs. Herron was also a substitute for Mrs. Gambin.

Mr. Roby substituted for Mr. Wilson while he was in Houston at a music convention.

We all want to express our sincere thanks to these four for helping us at school while the other teachers were away, and we're proud to see the teachers back.

Student's knowledge of Texas widened by trip

Susanne Krause, our foreign exchange student, widened her knowledge of Texas and Mexico the weekend of Jan. 16.

Susanne went to San Antonio with Dr. Tubbs and his family. In San Antonio they saw the governor's palace, the Alamo, and went to a doctor's convention. Susanne reports that she and Elisabeth even went swimming.

From San Antonio they went to Eagle Pass and stayed at the Holiday Inn and visited friends.

From Eagle Pass they went into Mexico and went shopping (where Susanne spent all her money).

Ten per cent of the senior class membership is eligible, 5 per cent of the junior class and 5 per cent of the sophomore class.

The new member are as follows: Senior — Jamie Carradine, Pete Dodson, Delton Robinson, Lenny Howell, Buddy Moreland.

Junior — Richard Hart, Wayne Masters, Marilyn Minor.

The hold-over members are: Senior — Chris Cornish, Alynn Cox, Marianne Jones, Ann Pennington.

Junior — Kenneth Barnes, Linda Pennell, Susie Jo Schmidt.

Frosh favorites are spotlighted

By Beverly Duncan

The freshman class favorites for 1962-63 are the subjects of the following article:

The Odean Cummings family was blessed with a baby girl on Feb. 22, 1948, in Post.

Cherri's favorites are: Food, Mexican food; color, orchid; actress, Sandra Dee; actor, Jeffery Hunter; movie, "Gone With the Wind."

On April 11, 1946, in Post, Tommy came into the H. L. Mason family.

Some of Tommy's favorites are: Food, fried chicken; color, blue; actress, Debbie Reynolds; actor, Jerry Lewis; movie, "Chapman Report."

Cherri and Tommy are steadies around PHS.

Former 4-H's Texas Civic Leaders Cited, Singled Out for Citizenship

Wagoner Gregory Mrs. Irvin Mrs. Whitmire

Four Texans, with 4-H Club work dating back as far as 1913, are winners of state-wide alumni recognition awards for 1962 citing them for providing young people with "living examples of dependable, purposeful citizenship."

The Lone Star State winners are Colbert E. Gregory of Groesbeck, Mrs. Durwayne Irvin of Dike, Mrs. Teddy J. Whitmire of Monahans, and E. R. Wagoner of Lufkin.

The former 4-H's, selected by the Cooperative Extension Service, received burnished copper plaques from the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Chemicals Division-Agricultural.

Olin Mathieson sponsors the awards program to recognize former 4-H members whose records of service exemplify effective community, state or national leadership, success in their chosen careers and interest in 4-H and similar activities.

Gregory, a rancher in Limestone County and executive vice president of the Farmers State Bank in Groesbeck, is described as a "banker friendly to progressive farming and better livestock." He was a 4-H member for four years in Navarro County before World War I.

The Groesbeck banker is a deacon of his church and a leader of the agriculture committee of the local chamber of commerce. He financed the 1962 trip of the Groesbeck 4-H beef cattle demonstration team to the State 4-H Club Roundup.

COLLEGE STATION — By any set of standards, the 1962 Texas 4-H Poultry Awards Program would have to be deemed a tremendous success.

This program, co-sponsored by Atwood Hatcheries of Comanche and the Heisdorf & Nelson Poultry Farms of Kirkland, Wash., involved more than 4,000 Texas 4-H boys and girls.

Some 306 winners in 122 different counties received beautiful gold-filled award medals provided by the Atwood organization.

The Garza County winners were Lillie Wilke and Debbie Brewer.

These members were singled out for this special recognition because of the outstanding manner in which they conducted their 4-H poultry projects.

Oberlin College in Ohio, was the first college to confer degrees on women.

County Commission Precinct No. 1 Voters:

JOIN US SATURDAY In Voting For US-84 RIGHT OF WAY BONDS

This $85,000 bond issue will pay precinct's half of right of way to four-lane highway from top of Cap to Lynn county line. It will be spent for nothing else. Bond money not needed will go for immediate retirement of unneeded portion of bond issue.

A four-lane divided highway will make this heavily traveled highway 13 times safer from a fatality standpoint. The precinct has no indebtedness now. The tax cost will not be a burden on anyone. Cooperation works both ways. It is our turn to cooperate with the state highway dept.

Mrs. Max Chaffin new Pleasant Valley reporter

By MRS. MAX CHAFFIN
I won't try to print all the news you haven't heard since the last Pleasant Valley news but just the more recent news. Now that my children are all tucked in bed I can settle down to reeling it off!

The school children of Pleasant Valley enjoyed a "rollick" in the snow the day before Lincoln's birthday—no school, too much snow! We had some three foot drifts and (hmm) snow ice cream, of course.

There doesn't seem to be too much sickness in the area for which we are thankful now that he Jan and Jackie of the Jack Jurkett family are over the mumps except that Mrs. C. L. Drake has had a siege of the flu for the past two weeks but is doing all right now and the Jerry Katrola children are at home with the chicken pox. First it was Brenda Katrola, two weeks ago and now Mark and Perry have contracted the disease.

Sue and Laura Bevers and Kelly Chaffin are taking piano lessons from Mrs. Max Chaffin.

Mrs. Bill Jacobs of Abilene and Mark and Cindy visited with the W. S. Bevers this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harold of Littlefield visited Ben Altman and daughters, Carrie and Arty over the weekend. Also visiting on Sunday at the Altman's were Mr. and Mrs. Blair and family from Wolfforth.

James Shelton of this community and John F. Meyers of Lubbock went fishing at Lake Thomas the other day and had no luck at all.

Mrs. Sam Bevers of Justiceburg and Mrs. Evelyn Dorman and Sammy of Snyder visited the W. S. Bevers last week.

Grace Kane was down from Amarillo last Saturday and spent the night with the T. L. Barnes.

Mrs. S. M. Lewis slipped out of the community for a brief trip to Clovis to see her sister, Mrs. W. A. Beazley and family.

Mrs. W. S. Bevers visited with Joanne McCullough of Post as she is sick with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sims went to Verbera for an evening of "88" at the home of the Donald McLendons.

THE JUNIOR Sunday School class of the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church enjoyed an evening of fun at the roller rink in Lubbock. Members of the class participating were: Laura and Larry Bevers, David and Kathy Green, David Mock, Curtis Lancaster, Debbie Hitt, Robert Mock is their sponsor. Two members who weren't there were Bill Bevers and Judy Hill; as they were playing in the Junior High Basketball Tournament at Wilson.

Dub Caffey was visited by the W. S. Bevers.

The Earl Kenneys of Lubbock spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Payton.

Mrs. John F. Meyers and Jan and Mrs. George Baker of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Abshire and Connie of Post spent the afternoon with Mrs. James Shelton.

The Ray Hodges and Carol called on Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bevers and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Jimmie Sain of Slaton visited Mrs. S. M. Lewis on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pool, Dana and Carrie, spent the weekend with Mrs. C. R. Scott and attended the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shelton, Donna Kay and Marla spent the evening Friday with the Max Chaffins.

Mrs. Will Barton visited Mrs. Jim Hall on Tuesday.

Weekend guests of the Maurice Fluitts were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robinson, parents of Mrs. Fluitt of Causey, N. M. Also, home on a 30-day leave from the Navy was S3c Lynn Robinson, Mrs. Fluitt's brother who is stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Geraldine Hodges of Plainview visited the W. S. Bevers this past week.

The Vernon Scotts invited Mrs. C. R. Scott, the Wesley Scotts, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pool and family of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lee and Vicky Wilks for dinner Saturday night.

THIS MONTH'S FHA GIRLS
This month's high point girls in Post High School's Future Homemakers of America chapter are Betty Hutchins (left) and Linda McMahon. Linda, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. (Bill) McMahon, and is FHA song leader. Betty, 15, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hutchins and is in her first year of FHA.—(Staff Photo)

Grassland Methodist to begin revival Feb. 20

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

There will be a revival at the Methodist Church in Grassland beginning Feb. 20 and continuing through Sunday, Feb. 24. Bro. Dore of Whiteface will do the preaching and Zeb Robinson will lead the singing. There will be no services in the day time. Night services will begin at 7 p. m. Everyone is invited and urged to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sherrill spent most of last week in Oklahoma City where Gus had his hearing checked. The J. E. Sherrills went with them and visited relatives.

Bro. D. D. Dennison, District superintendent of Brownfield, held a quarterly conference and had an all-day service at the Draw Methodist Church Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Smelser made a hurried trip to Morton last week to see about their little granddaughter who had been badly burned by the steam and beans in a pressure cooker. It seems the lid wasn't fastened down good causing the contents to blow on the child. She is doing fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos McCleskey moved into their new home on the Willis place last Thursday. Their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen of Lubbock and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melton, helped them move while the great-grandma kept the baby. We sure have good neighbors in our community.

THE REV. AND MRS. Campbell and the evangelist, Bro. Zumalt, had lunch Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble.

Mrs. A. J. Sewell and her brother, Guy LeMond, of Snyder visited their brother and family, the Grady LeMonds in Lovington, N. M. over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Langford attended services at the Church of the Nazarene in Grassland Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cunningham of Roswell, N. M. came by and spent a night last week with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Cunningham. They were on their way to Abilene to see her father who is ill.

Little Brigitte Blackstock from Morton stayed last week with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Smelser, while her sister was sick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey took the dinner they had prepared and went to their son's home Sunday and all had lunch together. The C. O. McCleskeys have been ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulene Murray, the newly married couple, have moved in the house on the Allen farm south of Grassland.

The following people have been down with the flu this past week: The C. O. McCleskey family, Mr. Gartman, the A. E. Riley family the Bert McDonalds, the Odie Campbelle and Tom Murray.

MRS. H. D. Gartman's cousin, Lucy Rogers of Midland, passed away and was buried at Gail Thursday. Mrs. Gartman and another cousin, Alma Love, attended the services at the Gail Methodist Church. Lucy Rogers was the last charter member of that church.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gerner visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gerner in Post Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Norman and children and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shelley Camp of Post went to Justiceburg Sunday and helped their aunt, Mrs. George Duckworth, celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker spent Sunday in Seagraves with their daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Ray, former residents of this community, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker Saturday afternoon. They also visited Mrs. W. A. Oden.

Mrs. Farr and children of Clayton, N. M. and Mr. and Mrs. James Farr of New Home spent Sunday with the L. B. Burkses. The Farris lived here for many years.

Mrs. Amos Gerner visited her mother Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

We are glad to report Mrs. E. B. Gregg is much improved and may get to come home from the hospital some time this week.

Mrs. L. S. Turner visited Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. E. M. Norman Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Will Wright entertained the ladies of the Thursday Club in her home Feb. 7. All members were present except Mrs. Jones who was ill and Mrs. Stevens who was at Lake Buchanan. Mrs. Wright served delicious refreshments of small sandwiches, olives, nuts, lemon pie and coffee. The evening was spent in visiting. The next meeting will be with Iris McMahon, Feb. 21. We had one visitor, Mrs. Steen.

Mrs. Hoover visited Mrs. Gus Porterfield Wednesday afternoon. W. J. Edwards of Dallas visited the Roy LeMonds Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Albright of Southland announce the birth of a daughter, Kristi Kay, born Feb. 10 in Slaton Mercy Hospital and weighing seven pounds, three ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Baker of Post and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Albright of Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cranford of Butler, Pa., announce the birth of a son born Feb. 6 in a Butler Hospital. Chad Arnel weighed seven pounds, 11 ounces and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Theibert McBride and Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Cranford of Fordyce, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Address of Fort Worth are announcing the birth of a daughter, Laura Kay, born Feb. 6 and weighing six pounds, eight ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nichols are the grandparents of Laura Kay, their fifth grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hubble announce the birth of a daughter, Virginia Kay, born Feb. 9 in Garza Memorial Hospital and weighing five pounds, 11½ ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Jose Soto are the parents of a daughter, Anita Jo, born Feb. 10 in Garza Memorial Hospital and weighing eight pounds and 2¼ ounces.

Homecoming held at South Plains College

LEVELLAND—Homecoming was held at South Plains College last Friday with the crowning of Homecoming Queen during halftime performances of the basketball game between Lubbock Christian College and SPC highlighting activities.

Carol Young, 18-year-old freshman from Amherst, was chosen by the students as 1963 Homecoming Queen. She was selected from a group of 13 candidates sponsored by the various college organizations.

Cosmetologists Aid Charity Programs

New "Belle" hair fashions for spring and summer are being presented at fashion shows in every state of the nation by the 70,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association to benefit charity drives during National Beauty Salon Week, February 10-16.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis and children and Miss Linda Gist went to Fort Worth recently to help her parents celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Lewis said all the Tucker children were there to honor their parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moseley entertained with a birthday dinner for their son, Ed Moseley, Feb. 11 because of the bad weather only the Ed Moseley family and the Edgar Moseleys were there.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansell Hallman visited their son, H. D. and family in Fort Worth last week.

Mrs. Tommie Dearth and daughter, Beckie, flew from Amarillo to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Wynn. After a few days visit, Mr. and Mrs. Wynn took them home.

ROBERT BECKER of Brownfield visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker, last week.

WILMINGTON, Del.—"The long-term outlook for Burlington and for other efficient producers in textiles is good," Charles F. Myers Jr., president and chief executive officer of Burlington Industries, told stockholders at the leading textile company's annual meeting here.

Burlington's growth and improved sales record in 1962, he said, are a result of the company's broad diversification within the textile industry increasing research and product development and more efficient manufacturing facilities.

In reference to legislation now pending in Congress to correct the "inequity which domestic textile manufacturers bear under the so-called two-price cotton system," Myers said cotton "realistically priced in relation to the world market would materially help the industry's ability to compete with foreign-made goods both here and abroad."

The textile executive, noting that Burlington operates 125 plants in 100 communities, and has subsidiaries or associations in eight other countries, told stockholders that "good employee relations are essential to progress and good community relations are important."

Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church at Roby Tuesday of last week for Mrs. Ida B. Beauchamp, 74, former Post resident, who died Jan. 4 in Wilkinson Hospital at Roby following an extended illness.

She was the daughter of Mrs. J. R. Davis and the mother of L. O. Ticer, both of Post, and also has a brother, Guy Davis, living here.

She was married in 1904 to T. C. Ticer, who died in 1913. In 1919, she married J. V. Beauchamp in Post and they moved to Roby in 1921.

Mrs. Beauchamp is also survived by her husband, four other sons, four stepsons, one stepdaughter, 20 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Homecoming held at South Plains College

LEVELLAND—Homecoming was held at South Plains College last Friday with the crowning of Homecoming Queen during halftime performances of the basketball game between Lubbock Christian College and SPC highlighting activities.

Carol Young, 18-year-old freshman from Amherst, was chosen by the students as 1963 Homecoming Queen. She was selected from a group of 13 candidates sponsored by the various college organizations.

The queen candidates included Martha Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Goode of Post.

All candidates were introduced prior to the coronation, which was presided over by Ronnie Marley of Lubbock, Student Council president, and Glendell Smith of Guthrie, Student Council vice president.

MACHINE HARVESTING

Texas cotton growers in 1962 used 6,777 spindle-type pickers and 37,540 stripper-type machines to harvest about three-fourths of the planted acreage. The increase in acreage harvested by machines was considerable, according to Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist. He added that lateral oiling for grass and weed control was used on three times as many acres in 1962 as in 1961. More than 44,000 growers were assisted in fitting cotton into a balanced farming program under the 7-step Cotton Program, he said.

3 judges named for art exhibit set in Lubbock

Three of Lubbock's well known professional artists, Dr. Bill Lockhart, Mrs. William A. Wilbanks and Mrs. R. E. Pollard, have been named to jury the Motorola Regional Art Exhibit for non-professional artists. Carpet City, 2828 34th Street in Lubbock, will serve as the gallery site for the exhibit starting Thursday, March 28, and continuing through Saturday, April 6.

The exhibit is one of 24 regional shows sponsored by Motorola, Inc., this spring that are being held as preliminaries for a National Exhibition to be staged in Chicago this June.

The jury will select the three winning paintings at the Lubbock exhibit. These three paintings will go on to the National Show and will be eligible for awards and possible national recognition. Judges in Chicago will select six national winning paintings, and paintings for the Motorola Fine Arts Calendar will be selected from all national entries.

Carpet City will award product prizes to the three regional winners, and an additional award will be given to the artist whose painting is voted the most popular by those attending the exhibit.

Complete information and entry forms for artists may be obtained from Mrs. David Eastwood, Carpet City, 2828 34th Street, Lubbock.

Defense Command in need of personnel

Sgt. Bobby G. Belcher, local Army recruiter, announces today the U. S. Army Defense Command is in need of qualified personnel to enlist for the Army Air Defense Command for assignments at Abilene, Tex., Shreveport, La., Macon, Ga., and Albany, Ga.

The mission of the Army Air Defense Command is to help protect selected Air Strategic Command bases from enemy attack.

Sgt. Belcher explains that selected personnel may choose from any of the above cities and be guaranteed assignment to the city of his choice.

The sergeant asks all interested young men to visit him at 1119 Texas Ave., Lubbock, or call collect PO3-821 or 3-822.

The minimum hourly wage was raised by law to 75 cents in 1949.

FARMLAND VALUES CONTINUE RISE

Farm real estate values in Texas and the nation are expected to advance in 1963.

During the peak year of 1962, the national average per acre value of farmland increased to a 186 per cent of the 1947-49 average. The steady climb of farm worth puts the estimated value of all U. S. farmland, including improvements, to a staggering $140.1 billion. In Texas alone, value gains in 1962 were placed at 8 per cent above the previous year.

Farmland, then, remains a good investment despite the changing agricultural picture. Market value of farm real estate has continued an almost uninterrupted rise that began in the early 1940's.

FHA LENDING HITS RECORD

Farmers Home Administration lending in the U. S. last year reached the highest level for any 12-month period in the agency's history.

An estimated $754 million in loans were made in 1962, or 50 per cent more than in 1961 and 12 per cent above the 1960 total. Approximately 214,000 farmers and others in rural areas used credit from the FHA last year.

The loans were principally in three fields: (1) For purchase, development or enlargement of family-sized farms, (2) for construction and improvement of rural homes and other buildings, and (3) loans to build on-farm and rural community water systems and to finance other water development and conservation measures.

TEXAS SWEET POTATO SALES

A school and institutional lunch program will consume $72,600 worth of East Texas sweet potatoes in the next few weeks. Inspection and grading of potatoes will be completed before March 15.

The government buying program gives the sweet potato industry a needed boost. Average price per bushel in the purchase amounts to $2.75.

A holdover of some 3,000,000 bushels exists in the East Texas area. Some 900,000 of these still belong to farmers and it is from this stock that the government purchases are being made.

Mark Twain's Story OF THE READING SPIDER

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri newspaper. One day he got a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his newspaper and asked if this was an omen of good luck or bad luck.

Twain wrote: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

You will find no spider webs across the doors of the merchants who advertise in your local newspaper.

The Post Dispatch

Lawyers are wondering if the Texas Senate really passed a constitutional amendment regarding women's equal rights. The Senate passed the amendment 26-5. But it also shows that the Senate voted to amend the constitution which would make it clear that the purpose of the proposal was to repeal all laws on the statute books which treat women differently from men. When courts interpret the laws of the constitution, legislative intent is what they must determine. It now goes to the House of Representatives which has passed it many times before.

PARKS-HIGHWAY TIE IN — Greer testified during hearings on a bill by Rep. David Haines of Bryan to put state parks under the Highway Commission's jurisdiction. Greer made it clear that his commission is not seeking an extra job. But he stated, "If you gave us the parks to administer, we would do an outstanding job of it." Haines' proposal is an alternative to Gov. John Connally's suggestion that the Parks Board be combined with the Game and Fish Commission. Rep. Haines said he thought Greer's agency could and should take over the parks, and make each highway district responsible for the parks in its district. "If the parks were improved," Haines stated, "it would increase highway travel, which would increase gas consumption. And that would increase the gas taxes to the highway commission, so they would have a high stake in doing a good job."

DEATH OF POLL TAX? — If the rest of the Senate feels like the Senate committee on constitutional amendments, the poll tax may be on its way to extinction. Committee gave a nine-to-two approval of Laredo Sen. Abraham Kazen's bill to submit to the people a constitutional amendment that would kill the poll tax as of Feb. 1, 1965. The two "no" votes in committee came from Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas and Sen. Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler. "Ayes" came from Sens. Kazen, Charles Herring of Austin, Roy Harrington of Port Arthur, Don Kennard of Fort Worth, Culp Krueger of El Campo, Walter Richter of Gonzales, Aaron Schwartz of Galveston, Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Jack Strong of Longview. If Kazen's bill passes the full legislature, voters would make the final decision in the 1964 general election. So far, every state that has voted on the federal constitutional amendment to do away with poll taxes, except Mississippi, has voted to drop it.

'COLOR - BLIND' TAX — Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth introduced a bill to make the poll tax "color blind." Green called the race notation on voter registration forms useless and outmoded. Furthermore, "It is an additional bar to full citizenship." He believes his bill will pass with little opposition, but there are many who consider the race notation a necessary aid to voter identification. ANTI-POLLUTION BILL — A bill to give a county health officer the power to enter and check business establishments and manufacturing plants "to discover threats to the public health" from air or water pollution was revived by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. He failed to get it passed in previous sessions. Governor Connally is supporting the new bill. DONATIONS OPPOSED — Contributions from oil companies to finance investigations by the attorney general to see if competitor's oil wells are slanted would be outlawed under a bill introduced by Rep. Ben Barnes of DeLeon. Nearly $300,000 in contributions from major—and some minor—oil companies was used by former Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to make such surveys in East Texas. Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr told Representative Barnes that the $50,000 recently appropriated by the legislature will be sufficient for his investigations. So Barnes filed a proposal which would make it illegal for the attorney general to accept money from anyone to investigate or prosecute anything. PARENTAL PAY PLAN — Fifty per cent of a man's weekly wages could be attached to pay child support if Tyler Rep. Ben Jarvis' bill becomes a constitutional amendment. COUNTY UNIT CHANGE — Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola thinks it's time someone started doing something about "modernizing" county government. So he has introduced a bill to require county commissioners to be elected by the county at large. Each county precinct would have to put up resident candidates, which, Hinson explained, would assure continued local representation through pooled knowledge of each precinct's problems, and prevent the largest community from filling a commissioners court with its own residents. Hinson believes his county-at-large election plan would get commissioners from all precincts to work at all times for the best interests of the entire county. If his bill becomes law, Hinson sees it as a forerunner to eventual, economical pooling of the resources — capital, road machinery, manpower and equipment — of all a county's precincts into one central unit. DO 'EYES' HAVE IT? — A proposal by Rep. Bill Walker of Cleveland that the state song be changed from "Texas, Our Texas" to "The Eyes of Texas" has been referred to a study subcommittee which includes no Texas exes. Subcommittee chairman Gene Hendryx of Alpine is a Sul Ross graduate. One member, Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth, finished at TCU, and the third member is an ex-Aggie—Rep. Richard C. Slack of Pecos. Some interested legislators have suggested that the "Eyes of Texas" might be made more palatable if the opening bars of the "Aggie War Hymn" were added. But a state association of music clubs has indicated that the Aggies aren't the only ones opposed to a change of the state anthem. UNION SUES TEC — A suit against the Texas Employment Commission has been filed by the AFL-CIO. Labor union accuses three TEC commissioners and four employees of "pro-employer lobbying." Petition also alleges use of state funds for research and preparation of pro-employer amendments to the State Unemployment Compensation Act. "These actions violate state law prohibiting state employees from influencing legislation or legislators," claims the union. Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, sponsor of one of the TEC bills, says the suit is just another AFL-CIO smoke screen to hide the real issue—which is their opposition to the appointment of J. E. Lyles as labor's representative on the commission. LBJ LAW HIT — Rep. O. H. (Ike) Harris (R-Dallas) has introduced a bill to repeal the so-called "Lyndon Johnson law."

Waterways important in soil conservation

Waterways are very important to the farmers and ranchers in the Garza Soil Conservation District as a method of preventing soil erosion. SCS technicians here point out. A waterway is a means of conducting runoff water to a safe point of release with a minimum of erosion. Waterways are applicable to both terraced and unterraced fields. The problem of locating and establishing outlets is usually associated with planning the terrace system. Where a waterway must be established to provide a protected outlet for terraces, it should be located where it can be constructed and maintained most economically and where it will function satisfactorily. Usually the most satisfactory location for a waterway is in a natural drainage-way. Here the slope of the channel is usually the flattest in the watershed. Sometimes it may be more desirable to locate the waterway along a field boundary where it would have the advantage of interfering least with tillage operations. Such waterways to seed a waterway. These grasses should be drilled in an undisturbed dead litter of sorghum or millet stalks or stubble or a comparable litter of cotton burs. Cost-sharing is available on both the shaping of the waterway and the establishing of the perennial vegetative cover. Technicians of the local Soil Conservation office are available to give technical assistance in planning and applying this conservation practice.

"More Lanes Are Fatal To Travelers"

A four lane highway would be thirteen times safer. This may be true, and I hope so for I'm one hundred per cent for more safety. But I'm no authority on this matter. All I know is what I read and hear. The Bible is my authority. It tells me that more than one lane isn't safer at all, but is fatal. Naturally, I'm talking about the road to heaven.

Investigation of the facts will bear this out. To give you a start, let me suggest the following references. You should note how distinct the singular form is used. Matt. 7:13-14, John 14:6, and Eph. 4:3-6.

"There is a way that seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Prov. 14:12.
