Mrs. McLaurin Makes Formal Statement

Several months ago Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin, Lynn County Commissioner of Precinct 3, authorized the Index to announce her candidacy for re-election to that position this summer.

Following is her formal announcement:

Mrs. McLaurin is 37 years of age and has two children, Johnny, 17, a Junior in High School, and Fran, age 8, and in the 2nd grade. She is a member of the O'Donnell Methodist Church and a member of the P. T. A.

She has in her Precinct the following:

- 1 D-7 Caterpillar tractor and dozer.
- 2 Johnson Grass Poisoners
- 1 1951 Ford Pickup.
- 1 1954 Ford Pickup.
- 1 1955 Chevrolet Pickup.
- 1 1948 Chevrolet Dump truck.
- 1 Rome Diesel Motor Grader.
- 2 Caterpillar Diesel Motor Grader One equipped with Do-Mor elevating Grader.

The financial statement of the precinct shows $17,500.18 in cash deposits and a debt to the First National Bank of O'Donnell of $4900.00.

In closing her statement to the precinct Mrs. McLaurin said:

"I am indeed grateful to the people of this precinct and want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for such wonderful cooperation in the past. It has been a pleasure and honor indeed serving you. In soliciting your vote I will endeavor to serve you in the future to the best of my ability to the betterment of Precinct 3 and Lynn County.

I expect to see each of you before the primaries.

Six Future Farmers and their sponsor were at Texas Tech Saturday to attend the annual judging contest.

Making the trip on the livestock judging team were: Price Parker, Charles Weatherford and Jimmy Bowles. On the dairy cattle judging team were Jerry Dickey, J. D. Evans and Lanny Brewer.

It will be Thursday before the final results will be known. However Monterey of Lubbock won 1st in livestock and Brownfield 1st in dairy cattle. The boys are to be commended for their efforts.

Miss Etter Wins In Band Meet Recently

Saturday April 28th at the regional interscholastic meet Polly Etter won first place with a flute solo. Charles Holcomb won a division two with a bass solo. Both Charles and Polly were accompanied by Ruth Jones at the piano. June Fannon and Patsy Clark won division two on twirling solos. Therlene Mahurin, Ruthie Mahurin and Mary Beth Gardenhire won a division two on a twirling trio. Sandra Singleton won a division three on a drum solo. Tommy Cardenhire, Charles Bolch, and Kenneth Mires won a division three on a clarinet trio. Judy Furlow, Melba Furlow and Sandra Moore won a division three on a clarinet trio. As far as the records show and anyone can remember the medal won by Polly last Saturday was the first 1st division to be won by the O'Donnell band.

Local Cemetery Working Is Friday

Operation "Sand Lift"

The O'Donnell Cemetery Association will have their annual cleaning of the local cemetery all day Friday May 4th beginning at 8 a. m. Folks may bring their sack lunch and cold water and soda pop will be available.

Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin, the local county commissioner, will furnish a road grader as well as loading equipment and trucks for moving the sand. Don Mansell, secretary of the association said Monday.

Mr. Mansell urged all who have loved ones in the cemetery to be present and to bring gardening tools. Folks who have small tractor with sand moving equipment are urged to bring them. Also during the day officials will discuss with those present the advisability of trimming shrubs so that the sand will blow thru the park instead of piling into drifts.

Last week A. B. Furlow, Dawson Commissioner from this precinct, used his heavy equipment to move the sand and clear the streets and his services will be available again Friday, if needed, he said.

Headquarters for Clear-Vue Air Conditioners, parts and service. H. and S. Auto and Home Supply.

Winans Sets Freezer School For Tuesday

Winans Hardware will furnish a home demonstrator to show and to explain the many advantages of home freezers. The demonstration will be held at Winans Hardware in O'Donnell on Tuesday, May 8th at 2 p. m. Door prize will be a General Electric Automatic Coffee Maker. The general public is invited. Plan now to attend. The demonstrator will be from the Big Spring Texas Electric office.

4-10ths In. Rain Tuesday

Benny Moore, local weather recorder, reported 4-10th inches of sorely needed moisture from a rain storm which hit here at 3 Tues day morning from the east. Rain was generally heavier to the east. Joe Brewer estimated an inch on his farm 6 miles east and much of the area to the caprock received a like amount.

Tuesday's sky juice was the first effective moisture since the 2 inch of snow early in February and the first rain in effective amounts since October. Some cotton will be planted but by far the greater part of this area lacks safe planting moisture.

More rain is in prospect at noon Tuesday.

Guild To Meet

The Spring Meeting of Brownfield District, Wesleyan Service Guild, will be held May 6, 2:00 p. m. in First Methodist Church, Sundown, with the local guild group as hostesses.

Introduction of the theme, "Wesleyan Service Guild, Our Heritage," will set the tone of the meeting, which will follow an inspirational pattern this year rather than the workshops of the past.

The Rev. Frank Story, pastor of the Sundown Church, will open the session with meditation and the Seminole Guild will bring special music.

The high point of the meeting will be the discussion of what within the boundaries of the Guild the letters W. S. G. can mean. Mrs. Carmen Davis, Brownfield, Conference Chairman of Spiritual Life, will begin this portion of the program by giving some of the history of Wesleyan Service Guild. Mrs. Wilmer Smith, New Home, District W. S. C. S. Secretary of Youth Work, will speak on W. S. G. means, "We Will Give." Mrs. Warren Smith, O'Donnell, District President W. S. C. S. will continue with W. S. G. means, "We Should Go," concluding with Mrs. W. M. Mathis, President of Tahoka Guild. W. S. G. means, "We Serve God."

There will be a business session with reports by the local Presidents on the work done by the groups this past year. All guild members this past year. All guild members

Baptist Revival Closes

In the revival which closed Sunday night at the First Baptist Church there were 50 conversions and of that number there were 41 which united with the Baptist Church and 9 united with other denominations or Baptist churches of area.

There were 15 additions by letter bringing the net new membership of Baptist Church here to 56 a remarkable number for a small town. One youth surrendered for a special service.

During the meeting which began last Wednesday, 29 family groups pledged to have family religious services and 71 of the young people pledged to refrain from alcoholic drinks and social dancing. 96 people rededicated their spiritual life. To Louisiana.

The evangelist was dynamic and 23-year-old Freddy Gage and the talented singer was Jimmy Snelen, both married and with two children each living in Waco. The team will open in a revival this coming Sunday in Southern Louisiana. Bro. Earnest Stewart, the local pastor said. Bro. Stewart said that the team already had bookings for 21 revivals. Crowds estimated as high as 750 attended the services nightly in spell-bound attention and services continued as late as 10:30. Folks who have heard Billy Graham said that Mr. Gage had the same unusual evangelistic power to move vast masses as does the nationally known Mr. Graham and the late Billy Sunday and Gipsy Smith.

School Briefs

Ross Buckner, Supt. of Seagraves schools, last Friday night spoke to students and teachers at the annual Junior-Senior banquet at the cafeteria. Mr. Buckner is one of the most gifted after-dinner speakers in West Texas.
