LUBBOCK GETS DIS- TRICT FEDERAL COURT

LUBBOCK, May 27.—After 14 years of hard work, Lubbock citizens were advised Friday by telegrams from Washington that President Coolidge has signed a bill creating a new Federal Court in the South Plains section with Lubbock the place for the court to meet.

The bill was put through the House of Representatives after it had been introduced by Marvin Jones, Representative from this district, and Earle B. Mayfield, Texas Senator, introduced the bill in the Senate.

C. E. Maedgen, Lubbock banker; John L. Vaughn, postmaster, and J. E. Vickers, Lubbock attorney, have recently spent considerable time in Washington giving facts and figures regarding the need for the court and working with Congressmen and Senators who were successful in passing the measure.

Roscoe Wilson, Lubbock attorney, was one of the first advocates for the court and headed Lubbock committee workers as far back as 1914. In 1915 his committee was successful in getting a bill through the United States Senate but the approach of the World War terminated its consideration before the Congress.

In 1923 and 1925 considerable work was done to pass the bill with John L. Vaughn, I. E. Barr, A. B. Davis, and others figuring actively in a campaign which secured endorsements from bar associations chambers of commerce and other organizations for the measure. These efforts were terminated in 1926 with failure of the bill to secure the indorsement of proper officials in the Department of Justice.

Active work on the bill started again in 1927 and the telegram today relieved the anxiety of the workers for fear the bill would fail again.

The 19 counties that are included in the territory of the new district are: Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motey, Cochran, Homkley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Gaines, Dawson, Borden and Seurry.

The creation of the court will add materially to the size of a Federal building which has been appropriated for the original cost fixed at $165,000 a total of $50,000 of which is to be available this year after July 1.

A site has been offered by the city commission of Lubbock adjoining the property on which the city hall is located and those in touch with the situation are expecting actual construction of the building within a year.

South Plains To Co- operate In Plans for WTCC Convention

The South Plains Commercial Executives Association has launched plans to secure the cooperation of all towns in the South Plains in advertising the section as a whole at the annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Fort Worth June 18, 19, and 20.

The officials of the organization hope to secure the cooperation of every South Plains town in the matter. The executive committee met at Lubbock last week and worked out definite plans.

The committee plans to have one general headquarters for every town in the section instead of having various headquarters scattered all over Fort Worth. This will enable people of this section to get together, to get better acquainted and to work together to better advertise the entire section.

Arm bands will be worn by delegates from all towns cooperating which will identify them as being representatives of the South Plains as well as delegates from their particular towns which will also be shown by other badges, buttons and pennants.

Instead of having individual floats in the parade, the committee plans to have one mammoth float which will carry banner on each side reading, "The South Plains of Texas" with chairs for the "princess" of each of the towns cooperating. Each "princess" is to carry a banner showing the town which she represents.

The idea was first expressed at Lamesa, May 10, at a meeting of the executives association following the annual South Plains district convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Following the discussion there, the executive committee, composed of Mrs. Paul T. Miller, Tahoka, chairman, John D. Bird, Ralls, Secretary, Ed Bishop, Floydada, and Wm. A. Wilson, Lamesa, met last week and worked out the above plans.

John D. Bird has written every Chamber of Commerce in the South Plains section asking their cooperation. When the number of towns to cooperate in the movement is ascertained Bird will notify the organizations of the approximate expense.

The expense for the arm bands, and for the float will be the principal expense and will be much lighter with all the towns cooperating than if each were to have an individual float.

WELDON HANCOCK CELE- BRATES FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. W. W. Hancock was the lovely hostess to a group of small children Thursday afternoon when she gave a pretty little party, honoring her little grandson, Weldon's fourth birthday. Weldon is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hancock who resides one and one-half miles from O'Donnell.

Mrs. Hancock had arranged several interesting games, such as hunting for hidden animal cookies, fishing for little gifts, etc., which proved very delightful and entertaining.

The lovely gifts presented the little honor guest were numerous, and consisted of every thing from a love ly spring suit down to "four tooth brushes" presented by four little girl admirers. No doubt, Weldon will be able to have pretty clean teeth for some time to come.

Mrs. Hancock was assisted by Mrs. Homer Hancock in serving the little guests angel food cake and ice cream which was a lovely sight when the fifteen guests encircled the table where the lovely white birthday cake with its four pink candles graced the center.

The guests were: Mesdames Bob Carroll, Marion Ballew, Harvey Everett, Homer Hancock and little Misses Wilma Jane Phillips, Martel Phillips, Billie Louise Etter, Elsie Bernice Etter, John Ellen Beach, Wanda Dean Ballew, Doris Ballew, Eudie Marie Mansell, Harvey Ann Everett, Junior McLaurin, Lawrence Easton, Nelson Fortner, Joe Carroll, Royace Wayne Fortner, Weldon Hancock and Misses: Madeline McLaurin, Lorene Beach, Corda Ballew and Ivy Dimpie Hancock.

HAMILTON—SIKES

Miss Pauline Hamilton and Mr. Noel Sikes, both of O'Donnell, were happily united in marriage at Lubbock last Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. Rev. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony that made them man and wife.

The young couple were the guests of the groom's uncle, Mr. Bob Caylor and family while in Lubbock, returning home Friday afternoon.

Miss Pauline is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hamilton and if ever the saying was true that "she numbered her friends by her acquaintances" it is true of Pauline, for from the youngest child to the oldest citizen of O'Donnell adores her for the sweet and lovely disposition she possesses.

Noel, too, has lived for a number of years in O'Donnell and is a fine young man of splendid qualities. He is connected with the C. E. Ray Tailoring Establishment and has been for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sikes will make their home in O'Donnell in the future and will be at home to their friends in the Barton house on Evans street.

DEATH TO THE FLY

If there is no breeding place for flies there will be no flies. The almost disappearance of stables from cities has removed a prolific source of fly propagation. But not all the spots which assist the fly in preserving his species were in the vicinity of stables. Where there is filth there will be flies and where flies go there will be some of the filth accompany them.

Time was when flies were endured as an inevitable annoyance without an appreciation of the menace to health their presence is. They swarmed because no effort was made to eradicate them. That era is past but there are those still who tolerate conditions which in effect are not inimical to the interests of the fly. Not every house occupant can prevent flies from seeking entrance but everyone can keep them on outside. It is with in the province of all to refuse to purchase food products which are accessible to flies.

Were everyone to eliminate breeding places on his own premises and to screen and swat, the fly soon would become completely extinct as the monsters of which we only know through their fossil remains. The fly is small but he makes up in industry and persistence what he lacks in size. We become alarmed when an epidemic threatens, yet too many of us tolerate the fly when we know his capacity as a disease carrier. Because he is no novelty we minimize the peril which he may transmit.

O'DONNELL STORES

Retail stores are doing business today on a smaller margin of profit than ever. The higher range of prices prevailing since the war has stimulated competition and has forced retail trade to remodel its system of operation and to make every possible improvement and economy in its methods. The stores are saving a margin for the public as a result of improved distribution methods. Merchants today are putting more brains in their work. They get better expert advice, they understand markets better, they train their employees to render better service.

The best way to make the people of O'Donnell realize that the fine quality of the service they get from their stores is by consistent advertising of those stores. As they read the newspaper advertising people learn about special chances to buy goods which they would never have known about otherwise.

They learn that stores are carrying lines that they knew nothing about. They get information warning them of conditions that tend toward higher prices, and showing them how they can save money by prompt purchasing. They learn that their home merchants have been scouring the country to obtain the best merchandise obtainable. They discover that their home stores are working mightily to provide the necessities and conveniences of life at the lowest possible price consistent with substantial merit.

The advertised store is the appreciated store.

SHUN THE PEDDLER

The summer season, now at hand, with it an economic ill that annually takes a toll of thousands of ill gained dollars. It is the itinerant peddler, the house to house door bell ringer, and those of his kind who travel from place to place plying their trade and imposing on the credulity of the unthinking, offering bargains in this and that which most always turn out to be inferior merchandise sold at higher prices or in short measure. It is well to beware of these felovis and the plausible stories that they tell to engage the interest and confidence of their prospects.

They are of many varieties and with as many kinds of merchandise to sell.

Inferior articles of many kinds are peddled about hither and yon during the summer months. The automobile has been a great aid to this kind of chicanery for after he has laden a few gullible prospect's a day's journey will take him far away and beyond the reach of the buyer who discovers that he has been victimized.

What better insurance can there be than buying from the home town merchant? If for any reason the article proves unsatisfactory he is ready and willing to correct the trouble and satisfy his customer. Not so with the peddler—he is gone tomorrow or yet today if the chase gets too hot. He is not seeking to satisfy his customer—he is after the money alone. The home town merchant stakes his reputation and his success on his record for fair dealing. He may be found at his place of business day in and day out, year in and year out. There is nothing elusive about him.

When folks want support and contributions for this and that, they know where to find him and he gives willingly and generously. Did anyone ever hear of the itinerant merchant contributing a single cent to the advancement of a local cause? There is one real way of insuring good goods at reasonable prices, one way of getting good value for the dollar expended and that is to buy of the reputable home town merchant.

JUNE

The poets have done well by June. The subject implies inspiration enough for any rhymester to do his best.

If June is ordinarily well behaved it deserves all that the great and little poets have sung about it. Occasionally the month shows a rebellious spirit, but so rarely is this true that the exceptions may be taken to prove the poet's rule of blessedness and praise for June.

Nature perfects herself in the sixth month of the year. Perhaps some persons will hold that nature's perfection comes at the harvest season which falls well forward into the hazy days. There is, however, a harvest of flowers as well as of fruits and grains, and the abundance of blossoms comes in June along with brides, girl graduates and other things pleasant to look upon.

THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL

When you were a schoolboy, or schoolgirl, a red letter day of the year was when school was dismissed for the summer vacation. It mattered not if you were one of the ones who like to go to school. There are such girls and an occasional boy of the same kind. The attitude of the pupils at the closing of the school year will not be misunderstood by those who have not forgotten their own feelings under similar circumstances. There is eagerness to lay aside books and pencils and rest from the routine which has been the order for many months.

The suggestion which is sometimes made that the school year should be continuous and that the summer vacation, if granted at all, should be short gets mighty little indorsement from those whom it would affect chiefly. Even the teachers we imagine would not wish to surrender the weeks of relaxation though it might mean a little more pay.

The average boy in the grades regards school as a species of punishment inflicted on him because he cannot help himself. It is the exception for the boy to hold it needful to do more than will "get him by." This may not be the ideal boy, but it is somewhere near the description of the normal boy. When the boy lands in the high school, ambition may burgeon but the small boy who is too studious is likely to be regarded as catering to the prize of being the teacher's pet and that in the average estimate is nothing but a disgrace.

It is well that parents and school authorities have views somewhat at variance with the pupils, else school rooms would not be filled to the extent they are. Were it not so there would be longer vacations and shorter school terms. It happens that so long as children are in the grades, the parents know what is best for them.

When the children get into college the situation may be reversed and the children know what is best for parents. At least there is some practice on that theory.

T. E. L. CLASS MEETS

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Sunday School met in their regular fourth Friday afternoon social and business meeting in the home of Mrs. C. C. Nelson on Ninth Street. Regardless of the rain that was pouring right down the living room was soon filled with a number of ladies of the class. Mrs. Middleton led the devotional. Mrs. C. Lambert, vice president, presided during the business meeting, after which the hostess and joint hostess, Mrs. Goddard made the social hour one to be remembered by the class. Chinaberry blossoms were plate favors, lovely refreshments of angel food cake and ice cream.

Mrs. Mel Pearce went to Lubbock Wednesday afternoon to bring back her daughter, Miss Vivian who has been in the Elwood Hospital the past ten days where she was operated on for appendicitis Monday a week ago. Mrs. Pearce expects to return home early Thursday. Miss Vivian stood her operation splendidly and the fact that she is able to be brought home this soon is evident that she is improving steadily.

Mr. Gordon King left Wednesday afternoon for Raton, where he expects to visit over the week end.

Principles Of OPERATION

We believe that a bank should not only be a depository of funds, but indeed a haven where the rich and poor alike can confide their financial troubles, fears and doubts in to the attentive ear of their mutual friend and counsellor the BANKER. The bank, the foundation of all saving, should be solid like the granite, standing the acid test of time, pursuing a conservative but friendly course.

This bank like the great Oak from a little acorn, of persistent effort and sound business principles has grown. It stands today like the Oak, its many services and ample resources like the limbs, cast their shadow of protection over those who seek its shelter, a mecca which invites the confidence and patronage of the public.

Annual Session Of WTCC Will Be Grand Occasion

West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention To Be Held at Fort Worth Will Be Gala Affair; 'Cow Town' Plans Big Reception

FORT WORTH, May 31.—When Texans come to this city, June 18, and 20, for the Tenth Annual Session of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, they may rightly expect the greatest convention in the history of the organization.

More than two months, committees made up of approximately 100 of Fort Worth's leading business men have been engaged in making plans for the annual meeting. Such a spirit of cooperation of business has never been exemplified in the city and the result is that plans are practically complete.

There will be at least seventy-five sessions to be presented at the pagant annual event on the opening day of the convention. More than 1000 entrants have registered for the "My Home Town Contest", and fifty-odd band masters have signed entry blanks for as many as 100 bands.

There also will be other contests for which are in the making. Quarters for more than fifty bands are being secured. Plans are also being made to send large delegations to the annual meeting. Fort Worth is sparing no expense to make the convention the greatest ever held in the history of the West Texas organization in the United States.

The annual convention parade will be held Tuesday afternoon, June 19. Already more than thirty cities in West Texas have announced they will enter floats for the contest. This will be the annual parade and because the contest is expected to be one of the greatest that ever passed in review at a Texas assemblage. It will cover Main and Houston Streets forming near the Texas & P. Railway passenger station.

Fort Worth's entertainment is also being planned. Registration of delegates is expected to set new records because of this great entertainment program. Courtesy books will be prepared for each registered delegate. This will be free entrance to the pagant Monday evening, one base game between the Fort Worth and the Shreveport team, and a dance and swimming pool. Numerous other features are being added. Registration badges already have been received and in places these badges are being advanced by chambers of commerce secretaries.

Thus it will be seen that cooperation to make this the biggest convention West Texas has known has spread to every section of the great West.

The program in all its detail will be announced within the next few days, according to Homer D. Wade, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who is now in Fort Worth.

Hawaiian Volcano Seen by Tourists Is Dump

Honolulu, T. H.—Bound for the South seas, a group of tourists passing through Hawaiian waters recently thrilled themselves by photographing an active volcano that later proved to be the city dump.

The travelers, aboard the S. S. Sonoma, were approaching the famous Diamond head crater, extinct now but used as a government fort, when it suddenly appeared to be belching smoke.

A resident of Hawaii, queried by a curious tourist on the phenomenon and trying to evade the humiliation of testifying to the fact that the city dump was responsible for the smoke, responded that what was in view was the "volcano of the Ala Moana."

There was an immediate rush for cameras and kodaks.

En route to their hotel, located at the foot of the Diamond Head crater, the tourists discovered the "volcano." It was the city dump—burning rubbish. The tourists protested to the Hawaiian tourist bureau.

424 Languages in the Americas, Say Experts

Paris.—People who are reputed to speak nearly every known language really are not entitled to their reputations, say statistically inclined linguistic authorities.

A recent compilation gives the tongues of the world as 2,796, decidedly more than most people would suppose. This is qualified, however, with the comment that figures differ among students of the subject because some classify certain dialects as separate languages while others do not.

The distribution of the chief tongues are given as 48 in Europe, 153 in Asia, 118 in Africa, 424 in the Americas and 117 in Oceania. These and the minor languages are all said to be living, spoken languages, although some have very limited use, as in the case of small tribes of savages.

Sends Ten Radiograms at Once, All Secret

Manila.—W. D. Van Druten, a Hollander, has demonstrated to navy authorities a device which he says will revolutionize radio transmission by making possible the sending of ten radio messages simultaneously, with secrecy in all cases.

Claude Tate returned Friday from Wink where he had been for ten days. Claude says "no more oil towns for him."

Miss Ina D. Everett went to Post Sunday where she will visit for a week or ten days the guest of her cousin, Miss Frances Ethel Dent.

Mrs. Culver Hart and children of Odessa spent the week end here, the guests of Rev. W. C. Hart and J. W. Chandler and families.

Mrs. S. D. Singleton of Wink spent the week end in O'Donnell.

Miss Frances Chandler returned Saturday from a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. F. C. Hart in Odessa.

Mrs. L. C. Harrison arrived last week from Montana where she has been the past year visiting. Mrs. Harrison is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Bean and family at this place.

W. H. VEAZY CALLED TO BEDSIDE OF MOTHER

Mr. W. H. Veazy was called to Brownfield Thursday to attend his mother, Mrs. J. H. Veazy who is not expected to live. The nature of her illness was not stated but the family physician did not give hopes of her living longer than forty eight hours.

Investing in the Future of TEXAS

TEXAS, still relatively sparsely settled, has seen a remarkable growth in electric facilities in recent years.

This company has constructed generating plants, built nearly one thousand miles of transmission lines—an investment for the present and future agricultural and industrial Texas.

It has done this because it has faith in Texas.

And it has done this because it has sought to encourage new capital to flow into the State for the development of natural resources and to stimulate the founding of new industries here, there and everywhere throughout the broad expanse of this mighty empire.

Someone must build! And what can be more practical building than to bring power to places where industries depending on power are earnestly desired?

PELLAGRA AND THE MISSISSIPPI FLOODS

By W. C. Rountree, M. D.

PELLAGRA has become greatly discussed recently because of its prevalence in the flooded districts of the Mississippi River. The urgent need for relief workers brought to that area many kind hearted doctors and nurses, who gave their time and skill toward the prevention of diseases that are so common after such catastrophes.

To their astonishment they found PELLAGRA in almost every home among the rural population. Not being residents of the South, these doctors at once came to the conclusion that these victims of PELLAGRA had contracted the disease as a result of the flood. The lack of proper nourishment to some parts of the body has been the popular theory as to the cause of PELLAGRA. Naturally the devastating flood caused starvation and self denial. Hence it was easy to couple the two things and conclude that the deprivation caused by the extended flood caused the many cases of PELLAGRA.

PELLAGRA is not a deficiency disease. It is caused by an infection which destroys the normal functioning of the digestive processes of the intestines. The flood had nothing to do with PELLAGRA as it now exists in that section.

It had been for years before the flood. These good doctors and self-sacrificing nurses only discovered what they had before not had the opportunity to discover—Viz. that in the Southland one woman in almost 75 per cent of rural home is suffering from PELLAGRA.

PELLAGRA is a disease that is acquired through the skin. Contact by bare hands with vegetable foliage such as cabbage, beans, collards, etc., brings about the infection.

It is detected by hewn, rough skin, sunburn, nervousness, diarrhoea, constipation, aching in the limbs back and funny feelings in the head. Until we discovered a medicine that killed the PELLAGRA infection in the intestines we were powerless to relieve this type of patient. They just wasted away. Indigestion soon set up and the patient is unable to get sufficient nourishment to live.

The Rountree Laboratories after years of study have been able to compound this PELLAGRA medicine which is a sure relief and in almost all cases a permanent restorer of health to the PELLAGRA Sufferer.

ENJOYS PICNIC AND PARTY

of young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Harvey Friday evening about 7 o'clock for a gay happy party. "Your Eats Party" proved to be a success with coca cola, buns, hot potato chips, cakes and eral attempts, but we can't believe that means an ill omen to the charming and fortunate honoree.

delicious salad course with tuna sandwiches and punch and cake was served the following: Mesdames Whitsett, A. A. House, W. H. Crunk, Pauline Campbell, E. T. Wells, J. W. Roberts, B. J. Boyd, Modesta Green, Sid Cathey and Mrs. Carl Westmoreland.

PICNIC AT TWO DRAW LAKE

Mesdames John Newville and Harvey Everett chaperoned a party of young folks to Post Sunday afternoon on a picnic to Two Draw Lake where a part of the crowd enjoyed a swim and all a boat ride on the lake.

Regardless of the shower which caught them and delayed three for an hour, the party reached the lake safely and a delightful hour spent.

A picnic spread of sandwiches, potato chips, salad, deviled eggs, pickles, fruit and cakes was served.

The guests were Misses Viola Wyatt, Mary Dell Vermillion, Itasca Roberts, Ruth Roberts, Edwina Vermillion, and Ina D. Everett. Messrs Newman Caddell, Wilbur Shoemaker, and J. C. Christopher.

MRS. J. T. WEEMS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. T. Weems very charmingly entertained the Woman's Missionary Monday afternoon at the parsonage Society of the Methodist church last from three to six o'clock.

The afternoon was pleasantly passed with delightful conversation and repartee. One contest in which Mrs. Weems and Mrs. D. M. Estes were captains in was decided the captains were each the most well versed than any others present.

Mrs. Weems was assisted by Mrs. Estes in serving delicious cake and ice cold lemonade.

This was fully the best social meeting of the Society in ages and each guest declared Mrs. Weems a gracious hostess.

RECENT BRIDAL COUPLE ARE SHOWERED BY FRIENDS

The home of Miss Irma D. Palmer was one of gay activity Friday evening when a number of young people under the capable leadership of Miss Erma D., gathered together for the purpose of presenting a kitchen shower to Mr. and Mrs. Noel Sikes, who were married last week.

After the guests had all arrived and given their gifts into the charge of Misses Thelma and Erma D. Palmer, and the honor guests arrived and were seated, little Yvonne Westmoreland, dressed to impersonate a negro mammy, came in with a basket on her head which contained the gifts which she in a very cunning manner presented to the honor guests.

After opening, admiring and passing around the gifts which ranged from lovely china, cut glass, aluminum ware, to fly swatters and mouse traps, for every one to admire. Mrs. Sikes, who will be better known as Miss Pauline Hamilton, arose and in her own, sweet, winsome way expressed thanks in behalf of both for this lovely significance and appreciation shown by their friends, requesting that none of the "old gang" forget to come next because they were married. After the shower was presented punch was served to Misses Mildred

Expenditure of few dollars may enable you to get thousands of miles from your old car

THE Model T Ford is still a great car. It led the motor industry for twenty years and it is used today by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service in city, town and country, and many of them can be driven for two, three and five years and even longer at very small up-keep expense.

The cost of Model T parts and of necessary labor is unusually low because of established Ford policies.

New fenders, for instance, cost from $3.50 to $5 each, with a labor charge of $1 to $2.50. Tuning up the motor and replacing commutator case, brush and vibrator points costs only $1, with a small charge for material. Brake shoes can be installed and emergency brakes equalized for a labor charge of only $1.25. A labor charge of $4 to $5 will cover the overhauling of the front axle, rebushing springs and spring perches, and straightening, aligning and adjusting wheels.

The labor charge for overhauling the average rear axle runs from $5.75 to $7. Grinding valves and cleaning carbon can be done for $3 to $4.

A set of four new pistons costs only $7. For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. Parts are extra.

All of these prices are approximate, of course, because the cost of materials needed will depend on the condition of each car. They show, however, the low cost of putting the Model T Ford in shape for thousands of miles of additional service.

See the nearest Ford dealer, therefore, and have him estimate on the cost of re-conditioning your Model T Ford. He will tell you, in advance, exactly how much the complete job will cost.

MRS. E. T. WELLS HONOR GUEST AT PICNIC

Last Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wells drove to Tahoka to visit their cousin, Mr. Jim Burleson and wife upon the urgent request of Mrs. Burleson earlier in the week.

When they entered the living room of the Burleson home in Tahoka they were surprised to find a number of friends gathered around. Among the Tahoka parties were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts of O'Donnell, the surprise and curiosity of the Wells' continued to increase when Mrs. Burleson informed them that they were right off to Post for a picnic at Two Draw Lake to celebrate Mrs. Wells' birthday which was the 23rd and Mr. Burleson's the 24th instant.

The trip to Post was made in record time when a group of friends from that place joined them and all repaired to the lake where a joyous moonlight picnic and gay good time was had. All motored home about midnight. Mrs. Wells doesn't think a greater surprise was ever enjoyed by an honoree than this one, which was a huge success from every standpoint.
