RUTS HERE TO OBSERVE JUBILEE

In honor of Boy Scout Week, which will be observed February 11 and will continue until February 14, in town, the O'Donnell-Menard Recreation Center will host a variety of events for scouts and their families. The opening event will be a Boy Scout周 meeting on Thursday evening, which will include a presentation by the local scoutmaster, Neman Everett. The meeting will be open to the public, and attendees are encouraged to attend to show their support for scouting.

BOY SCOUT WEEK PROGRAMS

- BLOOMING SHRUBS, FRUIT TREES
  - Be sure to check out the special sale at TOM'S TREES! TREES! TREES! Sales of plants, shrubs, trees, and other greenery will be held from Monday, February 11, to Thursday, February 14. All proceeds from the sale will benefit the local Boy Scout troop and help fund future scouting activities. Visit the farm located at 2500 Chimes Elms to discover a wide variety of plants, shrubs, and trees. Parking is available on-site.

- WEAVER NURSERY & FLORAL COMPANY
  - Visit the Weaver Nurseries and Floral Company located at 300 South Main Street in Lamesa, Texas, to purchase your flowers and plants for the upcoming Boy Scout Week. They offer a wide selection of flowers, plants, and landscaping services.

- MOTHER OF LOCAL VARIETY STORE, ORIENT HER
  - Visit Mrs. Miller, located at 102 Main Street, to shop for local produce and specialty items. The store is owned and operated by Mrs. Miller, who is a long-time supporter of scouting.

Local Boy Scout Troop 101 is excited to host a special event on Friday, February 14, to celebrate Boy Scout Week. The event will feature a special presentation by a local celebrity and will be followed by a reception. Attendees are encouraged to wear their Boy Scout uniforms and bring their friends and family to support the scouting program.
