CHAPTER XII—Continued.

A flash of red flashed through the trees. It was the signal for the men to move. The shelter was no longer needed and would be of no use to them. The signal was given by the leader of the group, who had been watching the supposed campfire for the last hour. He stepped softly toward the opening and looked around. No one was there. He reached for the matches and ignited a fire. The men quickly gathered around and began to cook their breakfast. The fire was soon blazing brightly and the aroma of cooking food filled the air. The men ate heartily and then started on their journey once again.}

FRESH and CURED MEAT.
Why Doctors Warn Against Coffee or Tea for Children

The reason is simple. Coffee and tea contain substances which tend to irritate the delicate nervous system of children, and so upset health.

The Federal Bureau of Education includes in its rules to promote health among growing school children, the warning that "children should not drink tea or coffee at all."

Why confide the warning to children?

You are careful to protect the health of your children; who, then, take chances with your own health, when a change from coffee or tea is made so easy by Parum.

Postum is a delicious, pure cereal beverage—ideal for children and satisfying to adults.

Miss America Declares Tanlac Wonderful Health-Giving Tonic

Miss Campbell is "Miss America" crown which she has won on

Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, North Carolina young lady who has been awarded the title of "Miss America" for 1927, says Tanlac is wonderful health-giving tonic. "I have taken Tanlac and I am convinced that it is a means of relief against all sorts of nervous complaints. I have had no migraines and no headaches this year and I think that is due to Tanlac. I have had no nausea, no indigestion, and no colds. I have taken Tanlac for the past ten months and I can truly say that it has done me good. I have never felt so well in my life before. I am sure that Tanlac is a wonderful health-giving tonic and I recommend it to everyone."
