Here are two leaders in soil erosion work in Texas who were interested participants in the recent trip to the Cal McCurdy farm near Rhone, Texas. At the left is U. A. Allison, state technician in erosion control.

J. P. Bowlin Dies Unexpectedly Sunday

The death of J. P. Bowlin, long time resident and business man of O'Donnell, came just at noon Sunday, a shock and a grief to the entire town and territory.

Mr. Bowlin had planned for their family reunion and dinner Sunday rather than of Thanksgiving Day, so that both daughters could be home.

Mr. Bowlin had lived in O'Donnell for eleven years. During that time he had been active in civic affairs for several years as a member of the board of education, and was at the time of his death one of the board of stewards of his church.

Many Families Need Cast-off Clothing

An incomplete survey of several families in town during the few days has revealed the fact that many of them do not have clothing to keep warm during the winter ahead, states Rev. A. N. Lowery.

Two Patients Taken To State Hospitals

Sheriff B. L. Parker was here from Tahoka Tuesday and reports that he has recently placed two patients in state hospitals for the insane.

Thanksgiving Very Quietly Observed

With no formal programs scheduled for the day, Thanksgiving was quietly observed in O'Donnell last Thursday. A number of families went out to town for the day visiting relatives and friends, while others had family dinners here.

RANDALL H. D. CLUB
ELECTS OFFICERS

Randall Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Frank McKee Friday November 30, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.
It was unanimously voted to retain the present officers as the club has not been organized long.

A Christmas party was planned for the Saturday evening before the holidays, to be held at the school building. Names were drawn for gifts.

The club will not meet again until January, the exact date to be announced later.

Nine members were present.—Reporter.

H. D. CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS TUESDAY

Because of inclement weather, only six members were present Tuesday afternoon when the local Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Irvin Sumrow.

Officers for 1935 were elected as follows: President, Mrs. F. A. Anderson; Vice president, Mrs. E. C. Carroll, secretary/treasurer, Mrs. W. A.
Tredway; reporter, Mrs. S. M. Clayton.

There will be no meetings during the month of December, so the next meeting will be on the second Tuesday in January in the home of Mrs. Anderson.

HAS 778 QUARTS OF CANNED PRODUCTS

Mrs. Esther Hinkle, cooperator of the Southward-Redwine H. D. Club has added 778 quarts of canned products and 8 shelves to her pantry this year. She has raised 200 chickens and has sold 150 dozen eggs.

SOUTHWARD 4-H CLUB DISCUSSES PLANS

The Southward 4-H club met November 16, in the home of Mrs. G.
H. Boen.

Plans for the ensuing year were discussed. Miss Robb looked at our dresser scarfs and told us how to correct the mistakes we had made.
We elected new officers as follows: Martha Burden, president;
Odean Boen, vice-president; Georgia
Lee Burden, secretary; and Violet Hards, reporter.

Those present were: Nell Dudgeon, Ornetha Inman, Juanita Eaton, Violet and Maydell Hards, Helen and Janie Greenwood, Odean and Juanita Boen and Martha and Georgia Lee Burden.

EDITH 4-H CLUB
ELECTS OFFICERS

The Edith 4-H club held its last meeting November 16th.

We have finished our dresser scarfs and ready for our second year in club work.

The officers elected were: Paulina Mae Harper, president; Lodema Garnett, vice president; Birdie McKee, secretary; Inness Anderson, reporter.

The following were present: Lo-dema Garnett, Wanda Dyer, Dorothy Kahl, Jeffie Lynn Stephens, Britnie and Birdie McKee, Effie and Inness Anderson.—Reporter.

WELLS 4-H CLUB GIRLS ANXIOUS TO START NEW YEAR

The Wells 4-H club had its regular meeting Tuesday, November 15 in the high school auditorium.

Officers for the new year were elected: Georgia Lee Bartlett, president; Leota Jones, vice-president; Elsie Bernice Eiter, secretary; Geneva Campbell, game leader; and Lizzie Mae Barrett, reporter. Every girl is very anxious to start on the new year's work. We are going to strive to make it the most enjoyable year we have ever had in club work and try to learn as much as possible.

NEW LYNN 4-H CLUB GIRLS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The New Lynn Girls 4-H club met

Dear Folks:
My finest Gift
this year... Better Sight
Santa Claus

A gift of Better Light means a gift of Better Sight. There is not a home on the face of the earth but what could use at least one more reading lamp to good advantage. Proper light is one thing you cannot have too much of—the more the better if it is applied in the right way. The new Reading-Study lamps (as illustrated) and other lamps of similar design in floor, table and bridge sizes make marvelous gifts of every-day usefulness. You will pass up an opportunity of making someone very happy if you don't send them one of these lamps this Christmas.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Spada, Where Texas' First Army Gathered

—Think—Talk—Write—Texas Centennial in 1936

In 1731, two hundred and three years ago, the Franciscan fathers of Mission San Francisco de Espada near San Antonio, continuing since that time, Mission Espada has been used for worship. The top picture shows the mission at the close of a recent Sunday service, while below is its interior. Here, in Espada's court yard, the first army of Texas gathered under James W. Fannin and James Blinn during October, 1835, and from here 300 men were sent to capture San Antonio. A glorious victory resulted, the Texans routing 800 Mexicans with the loss of only two men, one of them Ben Blinn, whose infectious enthusiasm had initiated the assault. The rock and adobe houses bordering the large Mission de Espada court are still intact and occupied. (Photos by R. M. Hayes, Tyler.)

FARMERS TO VOTE ON BANKHEAD ACT

Friday, December 14 is the date set for a general vote on the Bankhead Act. The election will be held in every school district, at some centrally located place in the community. The hours for voting will be from Nine o'clock A. M. to Five o'clock P. M. Each community Committee will be furnished list of all names entitled to vote in the election, for that school district.

Who Is Entitled To Vote
Any person who has the legal or equitable right as owner, tenant share cropper or otherwise to produce cotton on any cotton farm or part thereof shall have the right to vote. This covers all who signed applications for certificates of exemption or bale tags, as well as the names of renters and share croppers who did not sign the application but who had an interest in the application signed by the owner or operator.

In addition any one who signs and files a written statement witnessed, that he has made arrangements to produce cotton on a cotton farm in 1935 by entering into a lease or share cropping agreement may vote. If two persons hold a joint interest in the production of a crop both may vote. No person may vote more than one time even though he may be eligible in more than one community. Only one vote will be permitted a family.
No one will be denied the right to vote. If the committee denies a person the eligibility to vote, it must issue him a ballot and place it in an envelope marked "Challenged." The county committee will pass on the eligibility of the voter.
The election will be carried on in the same manner as any political election and the committee is charged with the responsibility of holding the election in a fair and impartial manner.

Regardless of the outcome of the election those who are under contract now will be under contract during 1935, the rentals and parity money will be paid another year just the same.
It is the duty of every man who can qualify to vote on the Act.

Modern Successor To The Blazing Log!

Since man first discovered how to make fire, the blazing log has been a symbol of warmth and good cheer. In the circle of its glowing flame, mankind has found protection and comfort. Today its modern counterpart—the Gas Radiant Heater—is providing warmth, comfort, and good cheer in thousands of homes. At mid-day or midnight it's always ready to warm hands and hearts. Just the touch of a match and it's "on"—just the turn of a valve and it's "off."

They're beautifully styled for every mantel or fireplace—and priced for every purse.

"EAGLES SCREAMS"

Students Name Paper By Vote Wednesday

O'Donnell school news will continue to be published under the old name "Eagles' Screams". This was decided Wednesday afternoon by popular vote of the student body. Other names which had been suggested were "Eagles Wings" and "Eagle Eyes".
The vote was taken at assembly, with Pat Gary, president of the Press Club in charge of that of the program.
Mr. Gilbreath had opened the meeting with a brie explanation of its importance, and songs had been led by Margaret Vermillion.
Glee Club Work Proving Interesting
With Mrs. H. A. Lattimore as sponsor, members of the recently organized Glee Club are thoroughly enjoying their work.
Membership has been divided into four groups, soprano, with Doris McConal leader; alto, with Norma Ruth Vermillion leader; bass, with Connie McConal leader; and tenor, with Margaret Vermillion leader.
Several popular songs, World War and Civil War songs have been selected, and members are anxious to learn them. Jim Ellen Wells is accompanist.
Dramatics Club Has Interesting Program
O'Donnell Worthy Literary Society has been selected as the name of one of the Dramatic Clubs. O. W. L. S. for short. This section rendered a clever play at its last meeting, "The Shoplift Girl". Characters were: Mr. Higgs, Mr. Payne, Mrs. Smith, Ava John Anderson, detectives, Eldon Carroll and John Stephens; the Shop lift Girl, Zell Fritz.
Dorothy Walls made a short talk on the Red Cross.
Mary Hamilton, Ann Thompson and Mildred Copelin were appointed to plan the program for the next meeting, which will be on December 18th.
The other section, sponsored by Mrs. Cathey, completed the election of officers. They are: president, Madeline McLaughlin; vice president, Billie B. McConal; secretary-treasurer, Leona Holman; reporter, Margaret Vermillion.
Opal Tally is chairman of the committee on the selection of plays, with Margaret Vermillion, Milford McMurtry and J. D. Hunt to assist her.
The program committee has Margaret Vermillion as its chairman, and Ovell Warren, Mona Rae Edwards, Hope Shook, and A. C. Lambert as members.
The name selected for the club was C. K. D. C., or Country Kids Dramatics Club. Programs are being planned, and the club is expecting to accomplish some great things this year.

Interest in Basketball Growing Each Week

High school basketball interest is now under full steam. New goals have been built and a court has been marked off on the south side of the high school building.
Boys who have reported for practice are Bob Line, Julian Pirtle, Robert Gary, Glen Payne, Ovidin Hasbrett, Earl Tune, R. E. Stokes, John Calcote, Moody Gibson and several others will likely be out.
The team is somewhat small and decidedly inexperienced, but plenty fast. Prospects are that a good team will be developed.
Guess Who?
What Senior boy who recently went to school at Three Lakes has learned to read and write?
What handsome Junior and Senior brunette lads are receiving love letters from Bronie this week?
What Freshman boy jumped in the air and said: "Hot sizzley-dog" when what Freshman girl was placed across the aisle from him? (We even heard that he kissed her in History class.)
What Sophomore girl is a replica of Mae West?
What blonde Junior girl and what brunette Sophomore boy are wearing whose Senior class rings?
What teacher is so young his voice is changing?
What Senior boy sleeps in History class, and what Junior boy wakes him?
What couple delayed the football banquet 45 minutes Saturday evening?

Echoes from the Class Rooms

Asked to make a complete sentence of the phrase "Beautiful models displaying beautiful gowns", Moody Gibson in the following: "Beautiful gowns display beautiful models".
Coach: What is a homicide?
O'Well: (With a very thoughtful air) A homicide is the killing of a family, then the murderer commits suicide.
Ivan Line: Mr. Harrison, is it cold up there?
Mr. H.: Monkeys can climb—climb up and see.
Senior Wheel
Almost every Senior boy attended the football banquet Saturday evening. Those who are considered "ex-players" now, are Wayne Clayton, Calvin Edwards, J. D. Hunt, Bob Line, Milford McMurtry, Benjamin Simpson, Julian Pirtle, and John Stephens.
Senior Pep Squad girls are not as yet considered as "exes" because of the fact that they may yell during basketball season. They are Dorothy Walls, Margaret Vermillion, and Jim Ellen Wells.

The Seniors are rejoicing over the enrollment of another member, Juanita Miller. May the girls say they extend a most hearty welcome to her.
At a recent class meeting, President Wayne Clayton appointed Dorothy Walls as chairman of the entertainment committee.
Junior Class News
Since the Thanksgiving holidays, the school work has started on the journey for Christmas holidays. The Juniors took up their work with a bang, Monday morning, with Ann Thompson and Raymond James both present ON TIME.
We regret the loss of two of our members, Preston Davis and Loree Barnes.
Soph News
All the Sophs report a swell Thanksgiving. Several of them went visiting to eat turkey, while others enjoyed football games.
Sophomore girls are taking much interest in basket ball. Those who are trying out for the team are Mildred Giddard, Jackie Gistrap, Frances Foster, Anna Mae Frost, Evelyn Kirkland, Estelle Stultemier, and Zhei Fritz. The Sophs were star volleyball players and they hope to repeat this record in basket ball.

Freshmen

Because of the holiday, there is very little news to be reported from our class. Everyone reported a pleasant Thanksgiving, and seemed to be glad to be back in school again.

Mail Christmas Packages Early

The postal department anticipates, and general radio and press reports indicate, the largest holiday business for several years. Ordinarily during the holiday time the volume of mail increases about 200 per cent. The postal service will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume, together with limited funds for additional clerical help, this can be done only with the cooperation of the public. Compliance with the following suggestions will greatly aid the Post Office and insure prompt handling of your mail:
Shop and Mail Early: Mail greetings and gifts several days in advance of Christmas Day.
Wrap and tie parcels securely. Use heavy plain paper for outside covering. The thing Christmas paper will not stand up under the usual heavy holiday traffic. By far the greater number of parcels received had bad condition are those wrapped in Christmas paper. Pack all fragile gifts in large, heavy boxes, using plenty of excelsior, and if more than one article in a box, put plenty of packing between. Be sure to have all parcels containing articles easily broken or damaged marked "FRAGILE". Parcels containing perishable matter should by all means be marked "PERISHABLE". Written matter other than a name on an article, or a mere greeting should not be included in parcels. A written message subjects the entire parcel to first class postage rates and makes the sender liable to a heavy fine.
Address all mail plainly, on outside only, using pen and ink when possible. All matter should bear the sender's return address. Insure or register all valuable mail. Use Special Delivery, Special Handling, and Air Mail for speed.
Greeting Cards should be mailed early. Plain post cards, not in covers may be mailed at 1 cent each. Cards in folders, not sealed, and not bearing personal written messages, may be sent at 1 1/2 cents each. Sealed cards for local delivery will require 2 cents, for other than local delivery that is going to any other office, 3 cents. Further information will be gladly furnished at the post office. Your cooperation sincerely solicited.

CARD OF THANKS

May I take this means of expressing my gratitude and thanks to my friends and patrons on Route 3, who so kindly remembered me with a Thanksgiving shower. I have not words at my command to truly express my appreciation.
Sincerely,
L. N. Nichols.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our friends for their kindness during the illness and death of our baby. For your loyalty and support, may God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. Evans.
Mrs. H. C. Farris and family.
Miss Era Harris spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris.
Woodrow Barber of Tahoka visited relatives and friends here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. ESTH Costello announce the birth of a daughter November 26th. The young lady evidently brought good luck, as her father was awarded the grand Day prize that afternoon.
