SEED AND FEED LOANS NOW AVAILABLE HERE

Local Office at Henderson-Boone Gin... to Bring Description of Land

Application blanks for the federal... and seed loans have been received here, and the committee is now ready to take applications.

Through some mistake, a balance sheet was omitted from the supplies... so that he is just at present unable to take applications from those who have borrowed from this fund in the past.

The committee in charge of applications for loans this year is composed of J. L. Shoemaker, Jr., cashier of the First National Bank, Charles W. L. Gardenhire, and Warren Smith.

April 1 is the last date on which applications may be filed with the committee, Mr. Koening said. He also emphasized that applicants should bring along a correct legal description of their land, that is, the section, block, and survey numbers.

Tuesday afternoon only one application had been taken at this office, but others are expected to be filed in the near future. This office will also serve residents of Borden and Dawson counties who live in the O'Donnell territory. Mr. Fred Warren, district supervisor for the committee, will be here each Monday, and will be here at eight o'clock next Monday morning ready to confer with applicants.

BANK SITUATION FAVORABLE AT LAST REPORTS

As we go to press, Associated Press dispatches concerning the bank situation are uniformly optimistic and favorable. Banks have been reopened in more than a dozen states and plans have been announced for clearing house scrip to supplement the superior form of currency notes the issue probably to occur after Friday.

Shaw, banking commissioner in Texas, has made no statement as to when Texas banks will reopen for restricted operations, except to state that state under Federal regulations. Security exchanges remained closed but optimism is prevalent in the north and east, as well as in Europe. President Roosevelt's administration is being kept intact, and confidence of the President and his policy is expressed throughout the press of the nation. The nation's gold supply is being kept intact, and hoarding on the part of moneyed persons is being discouraged and prevented as far as possible.

Conditional authority was granted Tuesday for state and local clearing house associations to issue scrip or certificates, to be used during the period.

With implicit faith in the President, the public is carrying on without any real concern. Business locally has been slightly inconvenienced, but no one seems to have minded. In fact, Will Rogers seems to have expressed the attitude of the American people when he said "We've been warned about not rocking the boat, but we'd just as soon be swimming as like we have been."

Amor in unity has cleared up the situation in their broadcast Tuesday night, calling to mind that this country has passed through just such times as these many times in the past, and that they are a preaged position such as the nation has never known before.

While this publication has never laid claim to the honor of being a close student of an expert on economic and banking problems, we believe with the country that better times are here, and that the opening of banks will be the beginning of a new era. In light of the rapid progress of development and growth the United States has ever experienced.

IHC REDUCES INTEREST RATE ON NOTES

Newspaper received this week by Palmer Implement Company from the Amarillo office of the International Harvester Company is that the company has reduced the rate of interest on all interest bearing notes, the new rate having gone into effect January 1 of this year. In 1932, the interest rate on the year 1933 only, the letter stated, interest from that date will be figured on the basis of five per cent per annum on all notes paid this year. In light of the interest prior to that date, the old rate named in the note at the same time it was executed remains the same. This measure was reported to the local manager, W. T. Rich, by a means of relief for company customers.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

It has been called to our attention that there are rumors that the Index will not be published much longer, and that such rumors are being circulated among our subscribers.

These rumors are altogether without foundation, and the editor was astonished when asked about the matter. The O'Donnell Index is an O'Donnell institution, and a permanent one. To put it still more clearly the Index is here to stay.

We do not know the source or sources of the rumors, other than that they are purported to come from so-called friends. Surely the persons who have disseminated such information are laboring under a misapprehension. Either that is the condition of affairs, or they have some ulterior motive in mind. If the latter is true, such persons are either related to the rattlesnake or the polecat families, and we rather believe to the polecat tribe. A rattlesnake is at least gentleman enough to give warning before he strikes, and a polecat never does any thing but raise a big stink.

As we said in the beginning, we do not know the source of these rumors, and we hope we never do, but if anybody hollers, we must have been talking about them.

The Index is here, and here to stay. Our office is still maintained at Palmer Implement, where we will be glad to receive our friends for visits, and to discuss business matters. Come to see us.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Carrying out our policy of cooperating in every way with the proposed new publication, the management of the Index declines to use any advantage which might be derived from appearing earlier than the new one. For this reason, the Index will be mailed on Thursday afternoon instead of Thursday morning, as has been our rule for several months.

Subscribers in O'Donnell will have their papers Thursday afternoon, and our readers on the routes will receive their copies in the Friday morning mail. We feel sure that our readers will understand and appreciate this effort to cooperate with Messrs. Moore and Smith, and that our advertisers will also understand our position.

MRS. CAMPBELL

SENIOR CLASS PLAY TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY

The Senior class play, "Wid Ginger" will be presented at the High School auditorium Friday evening. Miss Novella Ratliff will take the title role, and those who have been invited to rehearsals have been uniformly enthusiastic in their praise of S. Jenkins' interpretation of the part. C. C. Nunnally will play opposite her as Geoffrey Freeman. Other characters are Jake Tallman, played by E. E. Gilbreath, principal of high school; Sanford Lakey, O. L. Harris; Marwood Lakey, James Cather; Wuzzy Wood Lakey; Miss Peterson; George McCracken; Miss Rachel Lee; Kimmie Lee Pearce; Miz Walker; Tempie Boh.

Admission fees will be very small, ten cents for school children, twenty cents for adults. The public is urged to come and enjoy a splendid production.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND WORKERS' COUNCIL

Misses Frances Scott and Ruth Marie Howard, Messrs. Truett Hobdy and Otien Yandall, and the pastor, Rev. L. S. Jenkins, represented the local First Baptist church at the Workers' Council held Tuesday at the Central church. This meeting was scheduled for February 7, but due to the extremely cold weather, had been postponed to Tuesday. O'Donnell's delegates report a wonderful meeting, especially as regards attendance. The program of the day was also an interesting and worthwhile one, and the good people of the Central community were lavish in their hospitality.

LOCAL PEOPLE INTERESTED IN STAR-ELEGANT ROLL

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris, pioneer residents of West Texas for thirty-three years, have been added to the Star-Telegram roll of pioneers.

In detailing their experiences in the country during this time, Mr. and Mrs. Harris had many a jolly chuckle over their first impression of the Plains when they got off the train at Colorado City. Mr. Harris spent his first two years in this part of the country as a ranch hand for W. N. Waddell at Gail. Here Mr. Harris bought his first West Texas land.

Later the family came to Lynn county, where the Harris ranch was known far and wide as the Three Bar Wells Ranch. Here their children have spent most of their life, graduating from the local high school and going into broader fields. One daughter, Miss Mabel, considered one of the best teachers on the Plains. Another is taking nurses' training at a Lubbock hospital, and is making an enviable record there. A son, Oil D. Harris, now at night and work at the Farmers' Gin here, while other members of the family are active in every phase of community life.

Mr. Hugh the old ranch has been sold to Mr. B. K. Bowen of this north of O'Donnell, and here he still keeps a small herd of cattle. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are cheerful and as full of energy as ever. Both take an enthusiastic interest in affairs of the town. Mrs. Harris having been a Bible teacher in the local Methodist church for a number of years.

FARMERS READY FOR NEW CROP YEAR

Farmers in this territory have been busily engaged for several weeks in reading up implements, making repairs, and otherwise making preparations for a new crop year. Several have already started putting up their land according to reports, with the aim of preventing a part of the blowing during the sandstorm season.

Good snow is reported, especially since the rain and snow of the last few days of February, and active work for the 1933 season is expected to be well under way before the middle of the month.

FORMER TAKOMA EDITOR DIES FRIDAY NIGHT

Mrs. H. C. Crie of Takoma, mother of Mrs. S. M. Clayton, passed away at her home Friday night after a lingering illness. Funeral services were conducted at Takoma Sunday as scores of friends joined with the family in mourning her death.

Mrs. Crie was one of the most prominent and highly esteemed women on the South Plains. For a number of years she was editor of the Lynn County News, thus establishing herself as a pioneer in a field then new to women.

As an editor as well as a pioneer and mother, she was closely identified with the growth and development of the South Plains and particularly of Lynn County.

She was an active member of the Methodist Church, and her life was the living example of the precepts of her God and her church. Always interested and active in church work she was the author of a history of the work of the missionary Society, written during the jubilee year, that won acclaim and approbation throughout the Northwest Texas conference.

It is with deepest grief that news of her death was received in this county. Through her friendly, heart-felt interest in the welfare of her community and neighbors, few persons in Lynn County felt that she was a stranger; everyone knew and loved Mrs. Crie.

She is survived by her widower, two daughters, Mrs. Clayton and Mrs. Charlie Shock of Galvan, New Mexico, and a number of grandchildren, as well as by numerous friends.

The Index joins with these friends and the family in mourning the death of a wonderful character.

J. B. MILES' BROTHER BURIED FRIDAY

J. B. Miles returned Saturday from Center City, where he was called on Thursday by news of the death of his brother, Rev. Charlie Miles, veteran Baptist minister.

The Rev. Mr. Miles had lived in Center City most of his fifty years, being eighty-two years of age at his death, which occurred early Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles left immediately after receiving the news, going remained there with her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Tomlinson while Mr. Miles continued his sad journey by train.

Funeral services were held at Center City, Friday. Deceased is survived by three brothers, two half-brothers, five daughters and one son.

The Index joins with other friends and other members of the family.

BAPTIST MEETING CLOSURES SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The annual spring revival of the First Baptist church closed Sunday evening after an exceedingly successful two weeks. Praying services were conducted Tuesday evening by the H. R. Whittle of Haskell doing the preaching and Mr. Joe Trussell directing the song services.

There were eleven additions to the church, the first made Tuesday on the occasion of faith and three by letter. There were also six re-entrants.

The entire community cooperated in the meeting, with churches of the town assisting evening services on Sunday so that members might attend the revival. Splendid crowds were in evidence at each service, and a gratifying degree of interest was shown throughout the two week's movement.

CHANGE IN BUS SCHEDULE EFFECTIVE THIS WEEK

Going into effect the latter part of last week, the southbound after 4:00 bus has changed its schedule to 4:00 instead of 4:30 as heretofore. The busmaster Hal Singleton asks us to state that mail destined for afternoon departure must, therefore, be in the post office not later than 4:20. This modification is to Snyder and is delivered in Lamesa the next morning.

Mr. Singleton also asks us to say that no mail comes in on Sunday, so that no mail is received here after the northbound Santa Fe each afternoon.

GOOD FIRE RECORD RATING IS RECEIVED

State Fire Insurance Commission reported a 15 per cent good fire record for the past year. O'Donnell this year, said B. M. Hayes, local insurance agent, in a statement Monday.

The official report was received here Thursday at 4:30 as heretofore, and was based on the past years, 1932, 1931 and 1930.

John A. Minor was in Lamesa on business Monday. He was accompanied on his return by his sister, Miss Lillie Minor.

BUSINESS AS USUAL AS BANKS CLOSE

"Business as usual" was the motto in O'Donnell last week when news of the bank moratorium was made known and the motto is still holding good this week.

An unusually large crowd in town Thursday, Friday and Saturday displayed some concern at first, but, though everyone realized the gravity of a situation which called for such drastic steps, the state of affairs was greeted with uniform good-nature and a joking attitude.

Local merchants went right ahead with business, though somewhat handicapped Thursday and Friday by a shortage of change. Charge accounts were continued as usual, and checks accepted from responsible parties.

Monday dispatches reporting an extension of the moratorium were received with philosophical shrugs, and it could stand it as long as his neighbor. Meanwhile, joking requests to write checks were the stock form of amusement.

It has been a source of pride that O'Donnell has fallen in line with national plans, and that no panic or confusion has resulted from the temporary cessation of banking business. J. L. Shoemaker, Jr., cashier of the First National Bank, stated Monday that in his opinion the moratorium will continue through this week, and that President Roosevelt will issue a call for all money in circulation, Mr. Shoemaker believes, bring much of the hoarded money back into circulation and with consequent return of prosperity.

Well, we're for it, and if a bank moratorium is necessary, we feel that the country as a whole will bear the small inconvenience cheerfully. Business as usual will carry on with a smile.

CHILD'S DEATH TAKES FIFTH GENERATION

Baby Weldon Ray Swatt, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Swatt of the Pride community, died at the home of his parents on February 18, and was buried in the Pride cemetery.

The little fellow had never been noticeably growing weaker, daily, until the end came.

He was the last of five living generations, an unusual circumstance. His father was the son of Mrs. M. C. Swatt, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brewer. Mrs. Brewer is the daughter of Mrs. A. W. Ashber, the great-great-grand mother of the baby boy.

Mrs. M. C. Swatt was one of the local correspondents until her removal to New Mexico some two years ago, so that the staff felt a warm interest in the baby. News of his death was received in O'Donnell with much regret.

The Index joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

LARGE CROWD LISTENS TO INAUGURAL BROADCAST

The wonders of the radio were never more strongly emphasized than when clearly as crowds congregated on Saturday when Franklin Delano Roosevelt took the oath of office as president of the United States.

Through a combination of thoughtfulness on the local drug stores, the entire broadcast was heard by scores of local people. Even ten years ago this feat would have been considered extraordinary, but in this year of 1933, it was taken quite a matter of course.

The inaugural ceremony broadcast over a national hook-up, was received here clearly as crowds congregated in and in front of both the Corner and Whittet drug stores. More than one person felt a thrill as the venerable Chief Justice Hughes gave the oath, and the incoming president, an every listener experienced a glow of wholesome respect and affection as Roosevelt's voice quivered when he took up the impressive responsibilities.

Though there was no applause when a shout proclaimed that the United States had a new President, men turned to their neighbors and were warmly taken in their eyes as they remarked: "Well, we have a new leader."

LUBBOCK YOUNG PEOPLE TO PRESENT PROGRAM

A group of young people from the First Baptist Church of Lubbock will present a program at the evening service Sunday at the local Baptist Church, according to the pastor, Rev. L. S. Jenkins.

The program will begin promptly at seven thirty, Rev. Jenkins said. Subject of the service will be "Christ in the Individual," with a number of special features as an added attraction.

The general public has a cordial invitation to attend this service, which promises to be one of unusual interest.

OUR NEW NEWSPAPER

Though we have been unable to learn any thing definite or authentic from those rumored to be in charge we understand that outside parties are this week launching another news paper in this territory.

The Index has always welcomed new enterprises into O'Donnell, and we make no exceptions this time. If these rumors are true, we extend best wishes and a sincere offer of cooperation in any manner.

According to information reaching us, the new paper is to be financed by J. W. Smith of the Lamesa Reporter, with Mr. Ben Moore as local editor. Printing will, we understand, be done at Lamesa. It is also rumored that a free circulation is contemplated, at least for the time being.

For the benefit of our subscribers, we wish to state that the beginning of another paper here will have no bearing whatever on the policies of the Index. This publication has endeavored to present the news of O'Donnell and the trade territory completely and impartially, and has at all times supported every move for the welfare of the town and country.

This policy will be strictly adhered to in the future. Any competition, should such arise, will be conducted along the fairest and most ethical lines. This paper will not resort to the use of any underhanded methods, make any false charges, or use any unfair means of competing with the local editor or his backers. We have not seen or talked with Mr. Smith on any of his various trips to O'Donnell, but when we do have the pleasure, we will repeat personally what we are now printing for the benefit of our readers.

The Index circulation will NOT be free. In the first place, this paper is long enough established that people of the territory know whether or not it is worth the subscription price. In the second place it cost considerably more to mail papers without a paid subscription list, and we see no necessity, in times like these, of going to unnecessary expense. Understand, however, that we are not criticizing the new paper for following this procedure, for a new publication usually introduces itself in this way. And, third and last, we have always found that free things are rarely ever appreciated or valued. We have lowered our subscription rates to meet the depreciation in prices of other commodities and our readers have shown their appreciation by renewing and bringing in new subscribers, an attitude which we deeply appreciate.

A few local people have asked us whether or not the coming of the new publication will change any plans of the editor of the Index. We assure them that it will not. The editor of this newspaper will continue to make her home in O'Donnell, to earn and spend her money with O'Donnell merchants, cooperate with the schools, churches, and business institutions of O'Donnell just as she has done for almost eight years. As we said when we took over the editorial office of the Index, O'Donnell is our home, here we have had our greatest happiness and deepest sorrows, and here are our most cherished friends.

The O'Donnell Index will continue as an O'Donnell institution, and will continue under the present management. Our office will be located at Palmer Implement, as it has been for the past year, and here we will be happy to meet our friends and readers.

HOW THE VACULATOR OPERATES

Measured water in the bottom, pulverized coffee in the top, one heaping teaspoonful of coffee to one cup of water.

Heat generates pressure that causes water to flow upward. The use of hot water hastens this preliminary action.

Coffee is brewed in upper glass where correct temperature is controlled. Upward flow of water stops, current should be turned off.

Removing from heat creates a vacuum in lower glass which pulls down filtered coffee in a jiffy.

Remove upper glass and serve. The coffee will stay hot upwards of thirty minutes in the decanter.

The following came in to our church on profession of faith in Christ: Ruth Williams, J. W. Curtis, and Weldon Curtis. We delight to welcome these three into the holy fellowship of our Church.
Bro. Bickley held the Second Quarterly Conference for the year, and at the close of the service the congregation surprised Bro. Bickley with a pouounding of all sorts of good things to eat.

We are planning for a great day at the Methodist Church next Sunday, at the 11 o'clock hour. We are looking forward to this being one of the best services we have had in a long time. COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE HONORS GUYE MONDAY

A community open house at the honored Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Guye First Baptist church Monday evening and their sons, Wray and Earl Wraye as they concluded preparations for moving to Breckenridge.

Though the reception was sponsored by the Baptist church, of which each of the honorees was an active member, the entire community seized the opportunity to pay respects and bid farewell to the family.
Games and other features of entertainment were directed by Mmes. Fred Henderson and R. H. Mathis, and were cleverly planned and carried out.

Expressions of regret at their departure were expressed to Mr and Mrs. Guye individually and in short talks of appreciation. Mrs. Guye responded to these with a few well spoken and well chosen words, saying that though the family was moving away, O'Donnell will still seem like home.

The church auditorium was packed with friends who came for a last word of appreciation before the family left. Mr. and Mrs. Guye have been engaged in business here for almost ten years. During that time they have been closely identified with every move for civic and social welfare. Their place in the community will indeed be hard to fill.
They left Wednesday morning for Parks, near Breckenridge, where they will remain for a short time before making definite plans.

The Index joins with the community in regretting their departure and in the sincere hope that they may soon see fit to return to O'Donnell to again make their home.

LET'S SWAP — IN O'DONNELL

W. E. GUYE
Dry Goods Co.

O'Donnell, Texas
March 9, 1933

Dear friends and former customers:

It is humanly impossible because of lack of time that we see each of you personally, so we are taking this means of assuring one and all that we have sincerely appreciated, not only your material support of the store during our almost ten years among you, but also the lasting friendships and pleasant associations we have enjoyed.

As we leave O'Donnell to make our home elsewhere, we realize as never before the richness and worth of these friendships, and our going is saddened by the knowledge that we are leaving loyal friends and true.

But we could not leave O'Donnell without this last farewell message for you — we esteem and care for each of you, and where ever we may be in years to come, rest assured that our interest, our hopes, and our prayers for your welfare are with each of you.

With the hope that your years may be long, happy, and prosperous, and that we may meet again, we are

Sincerely Yours,
MR. AND MRS. W. E. GUYE

EAGLES' SCREAMS

Mock Wedding

One of the most hilariously enjoyable assembled programs of the year was presented Monday afternoon in the high school auditorium when the Home Economics and Vocational Agriculture departments presented an hour's entertainment packed full of laughs.

Perhaps the best feature of the program was a mock wedding in which Aggie, portrayed by Verma Mae Anderson, was married to Homer, played by Willis Vaughn. Doc Kyle acted as 'local pastor' who joined the knot. The families of both departments—pardon us, we meant contracting parties—were present for the rites.

County Meet Work

Plans and activities are centering around county interscholastic league meet which is to be held at Tahoka the last of this month.

O'Donnell's representatives in the various events are hard at work, and tryouts will probably be held in this school this week, thus allowing more time for the contestants to do intensive work in their various fields.

Superintendent L. F. McAfee stated this week that it is hoped to have a representative in every event, both literary and athletic. The Index hopes to be able to publish a complete list of representatives next week.

Seventh Grade: We are preparing for six weeks exams, and are also working hard on declamations. Joyce Mae Maxwell and A. C. Lambert won in spelling tryouts, and declamation will be held this week, as will the arithmetic contest.

In the tournament Saturday the girls won a game, while the boys lost one and won another.

Sixth Grade: Marice Payne and Leona Holman each had an average of 100 per cent this week in the High Sixth and LaVerne Lawler had the same average in the Low Sixth.

Fifth Grade: Low Fifth students are making a diary of South America. Margie Musick is on the honor roll this week. Billie Cathy won the room spelling contest.

Fourth Grade: Spelling honor roll: Pauline McAfee, Betty Lou Pierce, Yvonne Westmoreland, Ruth Walker, Emma Jean Porterfield, John Burnett, J. W. Curtis, Blewitt Davis, Charles Cathy, John Holland Stokes, Weldon Curtis, Bobbie Heblson, Mary Ellen Gantt, Emma Jo Hinkle, Junior McLaurin, M. Hal Stokes, Nelson Porter, Weldon Hancock, and Clyde Simpson.

Third Grade: Spelling honor roll: H. M. Debusk, Jennie Mae Shoemaker, Alton Barnett, Ross Smith, Paulita Middleton, Margie Buchanan, G. B. Pearce, Helen June Gantt, Perry

Clayton, Ruth Williams, Margaret Lucille Johnson, Ruby Lois Shook, Willadean Ballew, Marie Turner, and Marcella McRae.

Second Grade: We are working on our stories for the Tiny Tot Contest, and sixteen of us are trying out. Our room contest is to be held this week, when our judges will tell us who is our best story teller.

Mrs. G. W. Kyle of the Joe Bailey community, came by for a visit Saturday afternoon, and subscribed for the Index. If it hadn't been for the Index, she said, she wouldn't have known that she was one of the winners in the cream contest last week. She was accompanied by her little granddaughter, Juanita.

Mr. Joe Alexander of Lamesa was a business visitor in O'Donnell Friday.

Mrs. F. A. Anderson spent the week end at Pride with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Harris, Mrs. Harris has been ill with flu but is much improved this week.

Mrs. Claude Chasins of Big Spring has been the guest several days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wilson. She returned home Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Thornhill was down from Tahoka Saturday looking after interests of the store here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heblson and son, Bobbie, left Monday for Emory

where they will visit for a few days while Mr. Heblson looks after business interests. Mrs. A. W. Gibbs is teaching Mrs. Heblson's room.

M. Wilson made a business trip to Lubbock Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Everett had as guests over the week end her sisters Mrs. J. M. Caddell and Mrs. E. E. Caddell and families, her brother Leslie Derrick, Mrs. Derrick, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Derrick all of Idalou. The visitors were also the guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. M. Christopher and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris and family had as dinner guests Thursday the Wells school faculty, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Griff McConal, Miss Willie Ruth Little, Mrs. Fred McGinty and Mr. Carl Richter. Others present were Mr. McGinty and Miss Lucille Townsend.

News was received here Tuesday of the death at Rule of Mrs. Okla Wilson, a cousin of our fellow townsman, M. Wilson, demise occurring about two weeks ago. Mrs. Wilson leaves her husband and ten children to mourn her death as well as other relatives and numerous friends.

Messrs. Dee and Price Sealey left Monday morning for Dallas, where Dee will undergo an operation on his leg. They hope to return about the last of the week.

J. B. Rogers, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia for several days, is improved this week, though still very sick.

Mrs. Lee Baldrige and sons were in Lamesa Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Fred Warren, field supervisor of the feed and seed loans, was in O'Donnell on business Monday.

Mrs. H. J. Austin and Charle Wanda were in Lamesa Sunday.

Mrs. Waldo McLaurin and Miss Marguerite Miller were in Lubbock Monday.

Randall Gibson came to the Index office Thursday morning, and with a smile a mile wide announced that he has begun to feel enough like a fully fledged head of a family to know that the Index is an essential to a really successful household, so we immediately placed his name on our growing list of subscribers. Thanks, Hick; we hope you and Payne enjoy the paper.

There's a saying that "nobody loves a fat man," but you'll notice a man not so fat who is not smothered by admirers.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell received news Thursday of the death at Midland of Mr. Bob Heatley, a pioneer of that standing and a friend of many years standing. Their son, Dr. Kenneth Campbell, had made his home with Mr. Heatley since his removal to Midland in 1926. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cabool were the week end in Berger with her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haily, returned Monday.

SCHOOLMATES MEET

AFTER FORTY YEARS
Mr. John House of House, N. and Dr. J. F. Campbell met here recently for the first time in forty years. Mr. and Mrs. House came for a short visit with Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, and to renew old acquaintances.

The Doctor and Mr. House school mates in their boy hood but had lost all trace of each other. Recently Mr. House learned where his old friend was located, and called over. He recognized Dr. Campbell immediately because he was expecting to find him. The good doctor however had to look twice to recognize his old class mate, but after a while quite ready to join in recollections of old days.
