We Are Ten Years Old This Week Lamesa, where the mechanical work of publishing is done under the supervision of the Alexander, owner of the institution.

With this issue, the O'Donnell Index is beginning the eleventh year of serving O'Donnell and the trade territory. Compared with some of our neighboring sections who can boast of twenty and thirty years active service, our tenth anniversary makes us seem very young.

September, 1923, was a boom month of a boom year, O'Donnell and the South Plains had been discovered by land-hungry men east, and each day new arrivals came into our territory, buying farms and building homes.

The World War, the drought of 1917-18, and cancer trials had been followed by a wave of prosperity and enthusiasm unparalleled in the history of the South Plains.

And to the Index fell the ofttime grievous but always pleasant duty of keeping track of this growth and setting it down in black and white.

T. J. Kellis bought our Wobble land in the night, and the Index took on the appearance of an enterprising newspaper in a growing town.

J. W. Roberts followed Kellis in the editorial field, and to him fell the happy privilege of detailing the steady growth and development of a settled town.

In March of 1930 the Index again changed ownership, W. H. Ritzenthaler and O. D. Carter coming up from Snyder to take charge.

Well folks, we've been here ten years, and we plan to be here ten years more. Again we take up the recounting of the everyday events of our section, glad of the opportunity and enjoying every minute of our work.

Home Owner Bonds
Attracts Interest

Created by an act of Congress and approved by the President in June of this year, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation is attracting much interest among local people along with other home owners of the nation. The corporation was created by Congress in an effort to protect the home owners from inequitable enforced liquidation in time of general distress, and was declared by President Roosevelt as a proper concern of the Government. It has a capital stock of $200,000,000 subscribed by the United States of America, and may issue bonds up to $2,000,000,000 in order to carry out the objects for which it was created. The earnings of the Corporation will be derived from interest received on the loans. The margin between the rate of interest paid on the bonds and the interest received on the loans and investments will, it is anticipated cover costs of operation and, eventual ly, the setting up of adequate surplus and reserves. The Corporation will function for a 3-year period ending June 13, 1936 by making an exchange of its bonds in acquisition of first mortgages on homes, and by making loans in cash in certain states. Negotiations will be conducted through local managers who have been appointed in every state. We are indebted to J. L. Shoemaker Jr., of the First National Bank here for data and references concerning this plan, and those interested in this method of protecting themselves from the loss of their homes would do well to secure further details from him.

Bond Provisions
These bonds are the direct obligations of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and the fixed assets of the Corporation which support these bonds will consist of all the first mortgages on homes as described above, including those made in cash provided by the issuance of capital stock and those acquired through the exchange of bonds. The bonds will constitute the only fixed liability of the Corporation, ranking ahead of the capital stock and the earnings thereon. As payments of principal on loans are made and loans satisfied, the Corporation will retire bonds. The Corporation has the power to purchase its bonds at any time and may call bonds by lot at par. Every bond will be retired before any capital stock is liquidated. The Treasury Department has agreed to accept these bonds at par to secure the deposit of public monies, likewise the trustees of the Postal Savings System have also made them eligible to secure deposits of Postal Savings Funds at market value.

By the terms of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 the bonds are free of all Federal, State, municipal and local taxation (except surtaxes, inheritance, estate, and gift taxes) and are guaranteed fully and unconditionally as to interest only by the United States of America. No taxes may be imposed on the Corporation its franchise, capital, reserves, and surplus, nor upon its loans and income. The Corporation is required to accept these bonds from the borrower at face value in payments of interest and principal due on indebtedness whether the payments are in part or in full. The Attorney General of the United States has rendered an opinion upholding the legality and regularity of this issue of bonds. Copies of the opinion will be furnished on request.

It's Smart
TO BUY TIRES
NOW . . .

Now . . .
is the time to buy tires. Prices may go higher. If they do, it will actually cost you more to use old tires. And with fall and winter weather and wet and slippery roads just around the corner, it's a good idea to have the protection of new tires all around. And remember this—when it's slower weather than it is in summer—the tires you buy now will give you full protection all winter and you will still have good tires for next spring and summer to withstand the ravages of hot summer roads. We carry the complete line of Goodyear, Fire-Speedway, Parkhous and All-Weather. At the price you will pay we have a Goodyear Tire. Why not come in today and talk it over?

Cotton Picking Begun In This Section

Welcome music to farmers and to business men alike, the whir and hum of machinery is making an under-thing to all activities of the South. The cotton pickers are ready and waiting for the coming of the loads of the staple which means food and clothing to ninety per cent of our population. Already the news has gone out that O'Donnell has the cotton pickers that, with acre after acre, is promising better than half a bale for the majority of the rest showing one-third to one-quarter bale. O'Donnell has a cotton crop this year if the price will just stay off the ground, this little old town will stage a comeback this fall. Travelers coming in from the south report scores of families headed for the Plains to pick cotton through the fall, and several crews of Mexican pickers are due here this week. A cotton regularly each fall, and are well known to business men and merchants as well as to farmers. Letters, telephone messages and telegraph messages are coming in daily asking about prospects and making deals with farmers around O'Donnell and in other parts of Lynn county. This week V. O. Jennings of Neil P. Anderson Co., revised his estimate of Lynn county's yield from 35,000 to 45,000 bales. This is 5000 more than last, but we hope Mr. Jennings is right. O'Donnell's five gins have had through renovations and repairs through the summer, and every plant is in top notch condition. J. P. Bowlin says that the O'Donnell and Los Bowlin gins are ready to go; Fred Henderson at Henderson-Boone gin says his plant was never in better shape for the fall run; W. C. Saults at the Farmers' Gin states that every tooth on every saw has been sharpened and is just "gnashing" for cotton; J. W. McDonald at McDonald-Ely wants just a chance to show the farmers the turnout and sample they will get this year at his plant; and Lewis Robinson has gone over every bolt and screw at his gin, seeing personally that it's all ready for the big push. Hot, dry weather and high winds during the past two weeks have been of material assistance in opening the bolls, and fields are already turning white. Fall is here, folks, and we've got a cotton crop!

Churches
METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

W. R. Burnett, Pastor
All the services of the Methodist church last Sunday were well attended, and there was a fine spirit manifested by our people. This fine spirit of loyalty and Christian endeavor we see in the church and among those many others who come and join with us in our worship, is indeed a source of great inspiration. With in about six weeks now we shall come to the end of our present conference year, and as a church we are facing the closing of the year with a spirit of optimism. There have been thirty eight additions to the church on the work this year, and we are looking forward to seeing this number increased to fifty before the year has come to a close. We are hoping to report our finances in full when our conference meets in November. There is much to be done yet along this line but not any more than we can do if we all pull together and each one do the very best he or she can. Let us not only set our goals, but let us work to the end that each one may become a reality.

We are planning for a big day at the Methodist church next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet promptly at 10 o'clock with a splendid worship program and with classes for every one. The morning worship service will be at eleven o'clock. The league will meet at 7:15 p. m. This will be the time for the annual election of officers. There were 53 young people at the League meeting last Sunday. Let's see if we can't have 60 next Sunday. The evening worship service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the church next Monday at 4 P. M.

We appreciate the presence of the visitors who are found in our services each Sunday. We want every one to always feel welcome at all the services of the Methodist church. Come and worship with us.

Plains Highways Projects Open

Highway construction contracts amounting to more than $225,000 were let or are under construction, and with $134,000 scheduled to be let next week and during the first of October, the South Plains highway program is officially under way.

Besides these, there are numerous allotments under the federal relief act to add to the total, which will probably push the amount up to approximately three million dollars, according to figures furnished this office by the highway department.

Still using these figures as reference, we find that projects now under contract include the following: paving, 19 miles, cost $143,717; grading and drainage, 75 miles, cost approximately $83,000. Jobs which are to be let include 74 miles of grading and drainage at a cost of $74,000, and 8 miles of surfacing, $60,000.

Not all allotments have been announced, and in some cases not all the allotment has been apportioned in the county. Lynn county allotment as announced so far, is to be used on No. 7 across the corner of the county and on No. 9 north of Tahoka to the Lubbock county line.

Several projects are scheduled for letting this week or next, including the grading and drainage from Tahoka north in this county; Lamesa to the Martin county line; Floyd county—Floydada to Motley county line; Terry county—grading and drainage from Brownfield to Gaines county line.

This road work will be of inestimable benefit to the morale of the section, inasmuch as it provides the means of earning a living at least living wages to scores of men. The policy of the highway department, both state and federal, provides that labor shall come as far as possible from the county in which the work is being done, and that man power replace machinery in every way possible.

36TH DIVISION TO STAGE REUNION AT FT. WORTH OCTOBER 17, 18TH AND 20TH

Fort Worth, Sept. 21.—Plans for the largest reunion of war time members of the 36th division in Fort Worth on Saturday and Sunday October 7 and 8, since Camp Bowie training days have been completed and at least 5,000 veterans are expected.

Colonel Dallas Matthews, reunion chairman, has been notified that many companies and regiments of world war days will get together for the first time since 1917-18. Many units, planning their own reunions here, have asked for hotel accommodations.

Oklahoma as well as Texas, will have large contingents of former national guardsmen from that state as Oklahoma furnished a big part of the division and enlisted personnel of the division.

A registration fee of 50 cents, to be paid by the veteran on his arrival will entitle him to a 36th division badge which will admit him without further charge to all the entertainment features provided for the reunion. The Texas hotel, registration headquarters, will be in charge of E. B. Mellon.

The division parade will be the first event on the two day program. It will be formed at 4:30 p. m. on Saturday, October 7. Many war time organizations will march as a unit. Only world war veterans, national guardsmen, reserve corps, R. O. T. C. units, Legionnaires and other members of service connected organizations will be in the parade. Colonel John J. O'Reilly is parade chairman.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT KEEPS ON THE JOB

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—How the State Highway Commission, its current revenues exhausted, saved the jobs of workers this summer by pouring its bulk of surplus into the highway department exhausted its surplus funds carried over from better years. It spent $8,000,000 more than it took in, the figures show, yet without going into debt a single dollar.

The near miracle was achieved despite a drop of nearly $12,000,000 in state road revenues, due to the retirement of many motor cars, loss of one county aid, and diversion of one-fourth of the gas tax to refund county bonds.

Money for the successful job-saving flight came from a 35 per cent emergency boot in federal aid, $1,000,000 in old license fees which had been in litigation, and $7,500,000 in cash surplus from other years, all the department could spare and still finish its projects. Federal aid is not paid until jobs are complete, it was explained.

W. O. Huggins, Texas Good Roads Association president, called the figure a valiant battle against human misery," but warned that the state fund is now crippled. "For next year we are absolutely dependent on federal aid," he said. "To hold our ground, we must get more money from Washington. To do this, one course is imperative; we must not divert any more state road money to other uses. The Roosevelt administration has said flatly that states which do this—which will not help themselves—need not expect the government to help. This help is so vital to Texas that we must permit nothing to endanger it."

61,260 PERSONS DIED IN TEXAS DURING 1932

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—Texas has at last been admitted to the Death Registration Area of the United States, according to word just received by the State Department of Health from the Federal Bureau of Census. This means that Texas is now on a par with the other states and that causes of deaths can be honestly compared. To gain admission to the Registration Area is it necessary that a state record at least 90 per cent of the deaths occurring within her borders. Texas had practically 99 per cent of her deaths filed.

According to Dr. W. A. Davis, director, Bureau of Vital Statistics, 61,260 persons died in Texas last year. The leading cause of death was heart disease and this claimed 7,251 lives. The other leading causes of death in their order of importance were pneumonia, tuberculosis, cerebral hemorrhage, cancer and accidents. Over thirty-three hundred persons lost their lives accidentally, and many of them could have been prevented.

County Machines Used on Streets

O'Donnell streets are receiving attention from the big county graders and its crew this week in addition to work completed last week, and in the residential district, especially, are showing marked improvement.

Recent rains had rendered the block on Dow street between Fifth and Sixth practically impassable, as there was a low place which caught the drainage from the entire town. Great holes and ditches in this block had created a positive menace to traffic. Last week this entire block of highway was filled in and a fine dump rolled up. To keep it in condition, lateral streets are being graded this week to remove weeds and accumulated debris from harpits.

Commissioner Waldo McLaurin is supervising the work, which is in charge of Arch Proctor.

8-Semester Rule In Effect In League

Austin, Texas, September 27.—This year will see the inauguration of the new 8-semester rule of the Interscholastic League (adopted a year ago last spring but effective September, 1933. This rule is based on attendance in school rather than on participation in League activities, according to Roy B. Henderson of the University of Texas League Bureau, and makes ineligible any participant in any League event, either literary or athletic, after he or she has been in high school eight semesters.

This rule is predicated on the belief that the Interscholastic League is designed for the average high school boy or girl, and that such a student would be handicapped in competing with older, more experienced boys or girls.

The first application of this rule will be with the opening of league football this month.

CONOCO TRAVEL BUREAU PUBLISHES TEXAS BOOKLET

The Conoco Travel Bureau at Denver, Colorado, has published a booklet covering Texas from the Panhandle to the Gulf, and so designed and planned that tourists interest in our state should be immensely stimulated.

There are few localities richer in variety of scenery and historical association than Texas, and these facts are brought out in the travel booklet in the most interesting manner. The booklet is of eight pages, illustrated with 22 photographs of Texas as scenes, telling people about the glories of the state, urging them to linger awhile, to see the shrines of Texas history, to hunt and fish, to marvel at skyscrapers built where Indians so recently roamed, and to remember that this single state is bigger than the whole of Germany or France.

O'Donnell people will remember with interest the visit of the huge Conoco bus here last winter, and the pleasant and agreeable personnel in charge, and this effort to stimulate the tourist business in this state is only another expression of the friendly relations between Texans and the Continental Oil Company and its subsidiaries.

R. C. Echols of Lamesa was in O'Donnell on business Saturday afternoon. Mr. Echols has read the index for several years, and said some very kind things about it. Thank you, Mr. Echols; come back to see us.

Provisions of Ginners Code
O'Donnell Gins Under NRA

We will operate our plants this season under the Cotton Ginner's Code of the government and will do everything possible to co-operate with the President's program which has been put into effect to bring about better conditions and eventually better prices to the farmer for his cotton.

Here are some of the regulations under which we are operating this season:

GINNING PRICE—We feel that the price for ginning snapped cotton this year will be 35 cents, since the scale is set by the Code at a 35-40 cent minimum and maximum. We want to keep the price as low as is consistent with the President's plan for fair profits. This price was set by the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington and the State Committee CLEANING, PREPARATION—charges to grower for ginning services shall conform to the following schedule says NRA:

1. Cleaning and preparing picked cotton: 5 cents per 100 pounds or 30 cents.
2. Cleaning and preparing snapped or bolles: 10 cents per 100 pounds or 35 cents.
3. Cleaning and preparing sledged cotton: 15 cents per 100 pounds or 40 cents.

WRAPPING, TIEING, WEIGHING, TAGGING, STENCILING, HANDLING—Charges to growers for the services of wrapping, tieing, weighing, stenciling and handling shall be 25 cents per bale over and above the actual average cost of bagging and ties.

STORAGE AND INSURANCE OF SEED—Under the Code we must charge 25 cents per ton for each month or fraction thereof for the storage of cotton seed, said charge to include fire insurance. Each customer's seed must be kept in a separate stall.

In the purchase of cotton seed from the producer, ginners shall pay 8 1/2 per cent of the carlot price for cotton seed on date of purchase, provided, that in no case shall the difference between the carlot price and the produced exceed $3.00 per ton when the average grade of seed of current ginning is 100 or higher, nor $4.00 per ton when the average grade of seed of current ginning is below 100.

TRADE PRACTICES—1. The payment or allowances of rebates, refunds, bonuses of any kind, whether in form of money or otherwise, extending to customers special services or privileges not extended to all customers under like terms and conditions, with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition, is an unfair trade practice and is prohibited.

2. The extending of unsecured credit for services is prohibited.

3. The purchase of cotton in the seed is prohibited, provided, however, that ginners shall be allowed to purchase one remnant of seed cotton at the close of each grower's season.

We join hands with our patrons and march under the NRA. Let's all HELP. We give you this information so that you may better understand our position and can better co-operate with us this year.
