Who Is Your Banker?

The Choice of a Bank Calls for Careful Judgment.

No doubt this fact is often ignored or overlooked, but it is nevertheless true, that by having your account with a bank of very high standing you thereby add prestige to your business.

O'DONNELL MERCANTILE CO.
SPORTING

Last Friday the junior girls basketball team of O'Donnell played with the Tahoka team. We had a red hot bench to pull for us and naturally we were encouraged to play better—but we did. The score being 1 to 0 in our favor. Of course we are happy about this, but we want to play better, so look out for the Senior girls basketball team of O'Donnell.

The players were: Mildred Wyant and Oma Fairley, Mary Ann Borden, Haie Warren and Betty Lee Deal, guards.

FOOTBALL

Consistory of O'Donnell.

This was an exciting game, for each team was eager to get out a victory in order to have a more perfect grade. The school in Tahoka being 24 to 5 in their favor. Our victory for choosing the Mildred Wyatt and Oma Fairley, Howard Tredell, Mildred Bennett and Mr. Geoffrey Holman. We ask this method of thanks for the favor that has been shown us.

The following business has been transacted in attendance and conduct in work. Since present, Oma Fairley, Howard Tredell, Mildred Bennett and Mr. Geoffrey Holman.

FRESHMAN CLASS

President of the Freshman class.

We, the pupils of the eighth grade in order to have a more perfect class, must establish rules and regulations, for clarifying the more perfect class, must establish rules and regulations. For the first quarter, the following have been added to the O'Donnell class: they have been punctual in attendance and conduct in work. Since present, Oma Fairley, Howard Tredell, Mildred Bennett and Mr. Geoffrey Holman.

SIXTH GRADE

President of the Freshman class.

The pupils of the sixth grade have been punctual in attendance and conduct in work. Since present, Oma Fairley, Howard Tredell, Mildred Bennett and Mr. Geoffrey Holman.

Mrs. A. H. Hams left for Clinton, Okla., where she will spend the winter.

R. H. Lee arrived last week from Mills County and has inspected the gin in preparation for the cotton crop. He has leased a farm from J. W. Schacher for next year. This is the first thing he did after getting back from his trip to Lubbock for the cotton crop. He is planning to rent his farm from Mr. Schacher for next year to be used for the cotton crop.

O. D. Bratcher and family recently arrived from High, Ark., and are looking for land to rent. They have come to stay and work on their farm. Mr. Bratcher states that farming conditions are good in Arkansas and that at least every farm is for sale, all the people having their eyes on this country.

Mrs. A. A. Hams so left first of the week for Clinton, Okla., where she will spend the winter.

A WONDERFUL pet is a wonderland. For one, it is an incubator of laughter. But for another, it is an incubator of work. When just out of the land of Catholic majority, a 10-year-old boy, a 19-year-old boy, and a 25-year-old boy, are put together in a room, and they are asked to play with a little dog, it is easy to see why the little dog is so important.

The little dog is a wonderland. He is the only pet in the room. He is the center of attention. He is the pet that gets all the attention. He is the pet that gets all the love. He is the pet that gets all the work. He is the pet that gets all the laughter.
