Weldon Seay Writes . . .

Jan. 29th Dearest Ones,

Will try and write you a few lines You won't get it until I get to Japan where I can mail it.

We left Seattle Sunday afternoon I have been sea sick one time since we left. I went up and ate chow yesterday morning and lost it about 10 minutes later. I am about use to it now. I am in the end of the ship and we are up and down all of the time . . . sure is a funny feeling. When we left out Sunday you could not tell we were moving. I awoke Sunday nite about midnite and we were going up and down and I did not know what to think. I got up and went to the rest room and there were a lot of guys in there sick. I went back to bed and did not get sick until morning. I am making it all right now

I have been up on deck all morning: all you can see is water. The wind is blowing and it makes big waves. You know how it feels to ride a ferris wheel: well that is what it feels like here. Everyone was sick the first nite but most everyone is alright now. This is a big ship; I sure would hate to be on a little one as big as the waves are. There are about 300 civilians on here; a lot of the officers are carrying their wives and children overseas. And in one big room there are 21 cars. Some of the officers are carrying their cars.

This ship is three decks high and I am in the 3rd deck. In some places there are four foors. The ship's name is Gen. Gaffey.

I got four letters after I got on ship but won't get more until we reach Japan. We will be aboard ship for 10 more days. We have a PP and movie aboard. We get cigaretttes for 80c a carton and the shows are free. Candy bars are 2c.

It is funny trying to do all of when you are going up and down all of the time. I eat every meal so I won't get sick. Some of the boys carry a can with them in case they become sick. We have to get up at 6 every morning and clean our room and have an inspection at 10 every morning. It is hard to try and sleep at nite when your bed is going up and down all the time. I hope you can read this as it is hard to write aboard ship. I will close and see the movies. Will write again. With love, WELDON

Mr and Mrs Tom Yandell attended the funeral of a cousin, Geo. Lee at Paducah Sunday. Mr Lee had a part in the founding of Paducah.

Spring football training is now in progress according to Coach Ed Robertson. A practice game will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. The public is invited.

NO JUICE FROM SNOW

The bitter cold wave of late Sunday night gave up only a trace of moisture according to Ben Moore, sr. The snow was so dry that its moisture content failed to register unless it drifted into a large bank.

DESKS WILL BE BOUGHT

Last Thursday nite the school board studied the purchase of an approximately 350 class room desk units at an estimated price of $25 per unit. The first three grades will have the airplane type of desks. Purchases have not been made for the cafeteria and auditorium fixtures of the new building.

Mrs. Nodia Tredway is a new third grade teacher.

DONKEY BALL GAME SET FOR NEXT MONDAY NITE

There will be a donkey ball game at the school gym March 3rd at 8 p. m. sponsored by the Athletic Department of the school. It is loads of fun. Don't miss it next Monday nite.

1910 BASKETBALL GAME SET FOR FRIDAY NITE

The Order of Eastern Stars are sponsoring a 1910 Basketball game Friday nite at the gym and the players will play in costumes popular at that time and by 1910 rules; there will be other surprises.

Many Attend Mason Meet

Over 100 Masons and Eastern Stars and their guests heard a thrilling talk by Calloway Huffaker of Tahoka on "Is America Selling Her Birthright?" Mr. Huffaker, one of the better speakers of West Texas, laid the hammer down on the present day trends of letting the Great White Father at Washington do our thinking. A delicious banquet was served.

CAPITOL ARCHITECT

Staff Works Months to Renovate Capitol Building for Congress

By Anne Mattingly
WNU Washington Bureau

Belying its weathered and hoary walls, the century-and-a-half-old national capitol building presented a spruce appearance when lawmakers returned for the second session of the 82nd congress on January 8. Dominating this city of beautiful buildings, the glistening white dome, surmounted with its figure of freedom, many priceless paintings refurbished, walls inside gleaming with fresh paint, shimmering chandeliers, hundreds of statues washed and polished, floors scrubbed and painted, many major jobs of plumbing and electrical work and the constant upkeep tasks, bore the mark of several months of unremitting labor by David Lynn, architect of the capitol and his corps of men and women workers.

The architect of the capitol has charge of the structural and mechanical care of the United States capitol building. He is also responsible for arrangements, in cooperation with the proper authorities, for ceremonies held in the building and on the grounds which comprise 131.1 acres.

He is also charged with the structural and mechanical care of the senate and house office buildings, the capitol power plant, the legislative garage, the Library of Congress building and grounds, the United States Supreme Court building and grounds, the United States Court of Claims buildings, the United States court house, the United States Court of Appeals building, and the Columbia Hospital for Women.

The architect of the capitol is also the acting director of the Botanical Garden, and is charged with its operation as well as the house and senate restaurants. He serves as a member of the Capitol Police Board, the Commission for Enlarging of the Capitol Grounds, the District Zoning Commission, and the National Capitol Housing Authority. With all these duties, the architect maintains a staff of 950 persons.

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By INEZ GERHARD

ON the strength of their performances in Horizon Pictures' "The African Queen" Katharine Hepburn and Humphrey Bogart make a strong claim to the 1952 Oscars; both are superb. Throughout almost the entire picture they are alone, yet the interest never lags. At times the excitement is almost too keen; this one is a real thriller. Directed by John Huston and made in Africa, in Technicolor, it is beautifully done; casting Robert Morley in a secondary role is an example of the effort that was made to turn out a perfect production. Hollywood's severest critics will have a hard time finding fault with "The African Queen."

"Hollywood Star Playhouse," a new dramatic NBC radio show emanating from Hollywood, makes its network debut on Sunday the 24th at 5:00 E.S.T. The half-hour program features name stars in original dramas.

Sandra Michael's "Against the Storm," the only daytime radio serial ever to win the Peabody Award, was named the best daytime dramatic show in the 16th annual FAME poll of the country's radio editors, made by Motion Picture Daily. The Lucille Ball-Desi Arnaz television show, "I Love Lucy," won the title of "Most promising female star" for Lucille.

GRASSROOTS

Old West Has Given Way to Modern Civilization

By Wright A. Patterson

I KNEW the old west, the west of Indian fighting days, only through the experiences of acquaintances who had been a part of that valiant little regular army of under 25,000 men, which subjugated the Indians and opened the plains and mountains from the Missouri river through the Rocky mountains.

Among those I knew was Gen. Nelson A. Miles, then commanding the department of the Missouri, with headquarters in Chicago. As Chicago correspondent of the Army and Navy Journal, it was a part of my job to call on the general each week, seeking news of the army.

From him I never secured very much of his experiences in the Indian wars. He was much more interested in telling me of his social engagements. At that time he was a social lion in Chicago, made much of by the society leaders, and he liked it. Another of the general officers of that old army was Gen. Frank Richardson, but his experiences were more in Alaska, than in the west, though he had commanded army posts and troops in the west. Then there was Gen. Charles King, of whose stories of the western army I never missed one so far as I know. An hour with King was favorite entertainment for me.

But a standby at all times was Major George F. Lee. Lee had enlisted in the army as a private in the late 60's or early 70's. He later was commissioned as an officer and before retirement had risen to the rank of major. He had participated in practically all of the campaigns against the Indians and knew the west as a boy might know his father's farm.

He was in the campaign that defeated Geronimo and his Apaches. It was Lee's description of Tucson that gave me the urge to see that place. Now I have visited Tucson, but I did not find the place he had so vividly described. Instead of a little trading post with trains of Comstock wagons on their way to the gold fields of California, I found a beautiful modern city, a place of fine homes, of magnificent hotels, beautifully landscaped.

Instead of pioneers and their families moving west, there are veritably thousands of tourists enjoying the sunshine and looking, as I was for that old west that has given way to comfort and civilization. Instead of the old army post, with its squadron or two of cavalry, a battery or two of light artillery and a regiment of infantry, there is a mammoth air field for great bombing planes, B-50's, that may some day be called upon to visit Moscow and pay respects to Joe Stalin.

But there is much of the atmosphere of the Tucson that Lee knew still to be found in Tucson.

Today the Santa Rita hotel occupies the ground that in George Lee's day was the shack of the army sutler. To me that corner was holy ground. I could easily imagine George Lee critically looking over the stock in that shack in an effort to decide what he could afford to buy with his private's pay of $13 a month. Today fine, well stocked

THE FICTION CORNER

CIGARETTE TRICK

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

JOE Frazer finished his dinner, pushed back his chair and produced a cigarette. Extending his left hand horizontally, palm down, he placed the cigarette thereon, struck his left wrist sharply with his right hand and

3-Minute Fiction

The cigarette bounded into the air, somersaulted and missed popping into Joe's mouth by a hair. Joe giggled good-naturedly and repeated the operation. On the fifth try his lips caught the somersaulting cigarette in mid-air and held on. Joe gurgled triumphantly and struck a match.

Watching this performance from across the table, Bess, Joe's wife, considered screaming hysterically, but controlled herself. Instead she decided on another course . . .

A year before they were married, when Joe and Bess first met, Bess had thought it was cute. Like all of Joe's ways. The first time it happened they had dined at a tiny country inn. After the meal Joe produced a cigarette, tried four times to successfully perform his trick, and succeeded on the fifth attempt.

Joe was clever at other things, too. But the cigarette gag was his special achievement. During the year that elapsed before they were married Bess must have seen him perform it a hundred times.

After the first hundred, Bess began to weary of the cigarette trick a little. She didn't say so, of course, because Joe was pretty proud of his achievement.

And so they were married. They went to Maine for a week's honeymoon, and Bess saw the cigarette trick performed, without variation, 21 times. They came back to Worcester and began housekeeping. Joe resumed work and was gone all day. Dinner was the only meal he ate at home, and so Bess had to watch the cigarette trick only once on week days and three times on Sunday. But that was enough—enough to drive her almost mad. After six months of it she found herself waiting at the end of each meal for sight of Joe reaching for his cigarette, for sound of his gurgling laugh, for the vision of his triumphant grin. She felt like the condemned man who awaits the first shock of current.

Joe was clever at other things, but the cigarette trick was his special achievement.

She took measures to absent herself at the ritual, but they failed. Joe required an audience and he always waited patiently for her return. He expected her smile of approval.

Bess realized Joe thought the cigarette trick a noteworthy accomplishment. He was vain. It wouldn't do to ask him to stop. His ego couldn't stand the gaff. No, she had to think of some other way and think of it quickly, before the funny wagon backed up to their door one day and took her away . . .

Joe applied the match to his cigarette, inhaled deeply and exhaled contentedly. His look was the look of a man of smugness, complacency, superiority. Joe was clever. Joe knew it. He was the life of every party, because he knew so many cute tricks.

Bess reached for the cigarette box. She drew forth a cigarette. She extended her left hand outward horizontally, palm down. She placed the cigarette thereon. She suspended her right hand above the wrist of her left and smiled at Joe.

Joe's idle interest quickened. He was amused. Poor Bess.

"Try it," Joe urged patronizingly. "Go ahead and try it. See how you make out."

Bess tried it. She smacked her left wrist sharply. Up bounded the cigarette, somersaulted. Bess' mouth opened. Her head remained stationary. The white cylinder, as if responding to a magnet, darted toward her lips. She caught it and hung on.

Joe's jaw dropped. His eyes bulged. He gaped.

Bess gurgled triumphantly and struck a match. "The first try," she chortled. "No four out of five for me."

Joe Frazer no longer performs his cigarette trick for the entertainment of wife and friends. Bess is happy. She hopes Joe won't develop any more cute tricks. It takes too much time and patience to perfect them. Two hours every day for two months.

Secret of Courage

Lesson for February 24, 1952

THERE are different kinds of courage. One is physical, either enduring pain or enduring the prospect of it. Another is moral, enduring ridicule and slander, or the prospect of it. Some occasions call for both kinds.

Just as there are different kinds of courage, so there are different causes of it. Physical courage may be in some cases no more than the result of ignorance.

A passenger on a boat during a storm said to an old salt: "I'm not a bit afraid." The old Irish seaman sniffed. "Them as knows nawthin' fears nawthin'," he said.

Men who have been in combat can recall some character who lacked all the virtues but one; he was never afraid. Physical courage can even be instilled by drugs or by rum. But moral courage cannot be induced by drugs, alcoholic or otherwise.

It takes more than a tough nervous system to stand up against slander, hatred and ridicule. Some men can take a razor-blade and calmly operate on themselves for snake-bite, cannot stand the sight of human snakes who try to hiss them down.

The Inner Circle

JESUS was always on the lookout for brave men. Indeed, he made brave men.

There were three men in his innermost circle—Peter, James and John. They were men of quite different temperaments; tradition reports that they differed widely in age also. But for whatever reasons, Jesus treated these men differently from the other nine.

That is, he kept them close to him on certain occasions when the rest were left behind or shut out. These three were his only companions at the mount of transfiguration. They were the only three he allowed in the room where he brought Jairus' little girl back to life. They were the three he took with him into the garden of Gethsemane to share his agony. They failed him there—they failed him at other times as well. But the point is that Jesus kept on with them, he did not give them up as hopeless cowards, he gave them more of himself than he gave to any other mortals in his time.

It was as if the Master had said to himself, these men, at least, shall know me. And though they failed him, the time came when they did not fail.

Our story in Acts shows how these men stood up against odds; against all the weight of popular opinion, all the force of law, all the attack from the leaders of society, these men stood up with a simple courage. They showed both physical and moral courage at the same time.

And even their enemies, surprised and baffled and blind as they were, understood the secret of their courage; they knew that they had "been with Jesus."

Heroes Without Medals

NOT all heroes wear medals. To this very day there are Christians who show the same kind of courage made famous by Peter and John. When a minister in Louisiana or Kentucky speaks out against the gambling which has become an octopus in his community; when he not only risks a dynamite bomb on his front doorstep from the gambling lords, but the name of "crackpot" from his neighbors; when the ministerial association of Gary, Ind., dares to stand up against powerful business interests in that city in the name of decent housing for the poor; when a Frank Graham of North Carolina dares to stand for Christian fairness to the Negro even when it means continual slander and political defeat; when Kefauver dares to stand up against corruption; you can be sure that the secret of such courage is the old one: these men have been with Jesus.

The story of Christian missions is full of such things. More than fifty years ago a heathen mob was about to tear a missionary named Pitkin to ribbons. They asked him if he had anything to say first. "Yes," he said, "tell my son to come out here and finish my work."

They killed him; but the son did come. And one of his first converts was a man who as a boy had seen the elder Pitkin die. He had never been able to forget that kind of courage.

In our own time another missionary, with the axe literally above his head, was asked: Aren't you afraid?—Afraid of what? he said. If you kill me I shall go straight to heaven.

THE WEEK In Religion

INSPIRATION

China's Mission

THE CHRISTIAN WORLD mourns the fate that has befallen the Church in China. Their sympathy is with the Chinese Christians left alone until some happier time to preserve the structure built by the generosity, courage and devotion of generations of missionaries.

Meanwhile, Christians of all denominations might pause to contemplate what their missionaries have accomplished not only in China but in every land where, without them, millions would never have even heard of Christ.

The above editorial and other material appearing in this column were prepared by Religious News Service.

BARITONE EVANGELIST . . . Anton Mareo, singing the Lord's prayer during a rally in San Jose, Costa Rica, was a leading baritone of New York's San Carlo opera before he gave up his career to become an evangelist.

F.B.I. Guards Crusading Minister After Threats

WILMINGTON, Del.—Federal Bureau of Investigation agents set up a guard at the parsonage of Union Methodist church, residence of the Rev. George H. Pigueron, after threats were made against the minister's life.

The warnings were given, the minister said, in retaliation against his recent sermon denouncing alleged organized gambling operations in this city, and implying that such operations existed because of graft in official circles.

The crusading pastor's reaction to the death threats was a pledge to press his attack on gambling. "God willing," he said, "I'll preach another sermon on Sunday morning." He implied that he would lash out against other aspects of alleged crime.

Mr. Pigueron is due to be subpoenaed to appear before a crime-investigating federal grand jury here.

Meanwhile, directors of Wilmington's department of public safety invited the clergyman to attend a meeting of the board and tell what he knows of gambling operations.

German Youth Groups Warn of Militarism

HANNOVER, Germany—A resolution warning against the revival of militarist and nationalist tendencies in Germany was adopted here by the Bundesjugender (Federal Youth League) in which Protestant and Roman Catholic youth groups are represented.

The resolution voiced "increasing concern" over the growing number of veterans' organizations, which "constitute a grave danger to the democratic order."

It protested against the formation of special youth groups inside the veterans' associations and said the League would guard against any attempts by the associations to exert an influence on young people.

Pointing to the "heavy conscientious scruples" into which German youth has been plunged by the question of German remilitarization, the resolution said that any use of psychological, political or material lures to influence youth in the matter must be prevented.

The resolution cautioned against the suggestion that World-War II decorations be permitted.

Religion Question Box

Q: Who are the Arminians?

A: Followers of Arminius (1560-1609), a Dutch Protestant theologian. Arminius denied Calvin's doctrine of unconditional predestination, limited atonement, and irresistible grace, and stood for universal salvation for all.

Church Council Asks Klan Be Outlawed

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Outlawing of the Ku Klux Klan was demanded by the North Carolina council of churches at its 15th annual meeting.

Calling the KKK "one of the chief perpetrators of mob rule," the council expressed "deep concern" over recent outbreaks of violence against both Negro and white citizens of the state and demanded that they be protected.

Well Managed Acre Will Support a Cow

An acre and a quarter of well-managed, well-fertilized pasture will provide good "board and room" for a dairy cow during the summer grazing season and keep that cow sleek and well-fed with high-protein grass silage through the winter, J. L.
 Haynes, agronomist at Ohio Experiment Station, says. To build high yielding pasture, he recommends seeding a legume grass mixture and adding plant nutrients to the soil.

Sick Soils Can Be Nursed Back to Health

Sick soils can be nursed back to health by means of soil tests which tell the farmer what plant foods and management methods are needed to restore run down fields to high crop yields. In Missouri alone, 69 county soil clinics are diagnosing soil ailments and prescribing treatments. The laboratories are operated under sponsorship of the extension service of the College of Agriculture and the county agents.

Veterans Training Report Due

Veterans in West Texas taking GI Bill institutional on-the farm trainings were reminded today by the Veterans Administration reports of their 1952 earnings must be submitted to the regional office at Lubbock not later than March 1, 1952.
 Failure to submit the reports by the deadline may result in discontinuance of GI subsistence payment until such time as the reports reach the Veterans Administration, stated Robert W. Sisson, manager of the regional office. This year, in addition, farm trainees must send in a second report -- a certification as to the period of time they may have been engaged in employment outside the farming activity. This, too, must go to VA before March 1.

The earnings report-covering only income from productive labor for the calendar year 1951 -- serve a double purpose, Sisson said. First they are used by VA as the basis for adjusting each veteran's subsistence for the current year 1952.
 And second, they are part of the veterans course of instruction in farm accounting, thus giving him the opportunity to put into practice what he has learned in the classroom.

Farm trainees received the necessary VA forms for both reports earlier this year. They will receive assistance from their instructors in closing their books for the past year, and in transferring data to the VA form.

DENTAL CARE URGED FOR CHILDREN

More than 90 percent of all school age children in this country are fugitives from a dentist's chair, an official memorandum from the Governor's office points out. The children's teeth are decaying 6 times faster than they are being filled.

"Dental decay afflicts an estimated 90 per cent of school age children," the Governor wrote in the memorandum. "Dental health of our children should be a major concern of any community"

This will make the 4th year that state health authorities and private dental practitioners have teamed together to combat widespread dental deterioration of children's teeth. One of the biggest hurdles to be overcome is the attitude that baby teeth are insignificant. "They aren't," Dr. Geo. W. Cox said. "Our dental scientists tell us that first teeth have a vital bearing on the condition of permanent teeth"

Food Supply Appears Plentiful for 1952

The food outlook indicates that larger supplies will be available at somewhat higher prices in 1952. Incomes are expected to be higher also, so consumers will have more money to spend for food, according to the Department of Agriculture's bureau of agricultural economics.

An increased output of beef and veal is expected to more than offset military requirements. Just how much more meat will be available to consumers will depend upon producer's decisions about marketing their livestock.

Fish supplies will be about the same as in 1951, except there will be less canned and more fresh and frozen fish available.

Eggs, chicken and turkey are expected in larger supply than last year.

Among the dairy products more fluid milk and ice cream will be available, but less butter. Other dairy supplies about the same as 1951.

Fresh vegetables may continue in short supply, but high 1951 prices should encourage big spring plantings.

Shade for Swine

Every swine producer knows that hogs need shade. How to provide it, however, is sometimes a problem. An upright frame, constructed on skids so it can be moved easily, may be the answer some producers are seeking. The top is covered with old wire fence and straw, weeds, etc., piled on top of that. It is inexpensive and can be made to dimensions to fill individual needs.

Dairy Heifers Can Be Raised Economically

The University of Nebraska reports recent tests prove dairy heifers can be raised satisfactorily from birth to two years of age with as little as 500 pounds of grain. In the place of grain the animals were fed all the high quality alfalfa hay they could eat. The scientists emphasized, however, that the limited grain rations experiment was successful only because of the high quality forage fed.

The growing period for the chickens entered in the Chick-of-Tomorrow program has been cut from 14 weeks in 1946 to nine weeks for the 1952 program. This reduction reflects the great progress that has been made in the poultry industry during the past few years.

Modern Stadiums Dwarf Colosseum

The Colosseum at Rome, largest and most famous of Roman amphitheatres, had a seating capacity for between 40,000 and 60,000 spectators. It was built by the Flavian emperors and opened for use about 80 A. D. Largest amphitheatres in America today are the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, which has a seating capacity of 105,000 and Soldier Field at Chicago, with 101,180 seats.

Free Yourself from laxative slavery

Try this delightful family breakfast treat! Eat a generous bowlful (about ½ cup) of crisp, toast, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with sugar and cream. Drink plenty of liquids. ALL-BRAN is the natural laxative cereal that may help you back to youthful regularity, lost because of lack of bulk in your diet. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. High in cereal protein, rich in iron, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. Why don't you try it? Kellogg's is so sure you'll like ALL-BRAN that if you're not completely satisfied after 10 days send empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Keep Food Budget Down by Serving Lower-Priced Meats

IF YOU HAVE to shake your head sadly at the high price of food, remember that you can help trim the costs by serving some of the lower-priced cuts of meat.

Naturally there are many kitchen economies that can be practiced to help keep the food budget trimmed, if not exactly slender, such as using foods in season and wisely serving leftovers. But higher priced meats add to the cost of the table set more, probably, than any other single item.

As long as your meals remain savory and nutritious, the family will not mind eating less expensive meats.

Pork is economical and gives plenty of good eating. Here's a dish all under one lid that's bound to please:

- Pork Skillet Supper (Serves 6)
- 6 shoulder pork chops
 - 2 tablespoons chopped onion
 - 1 green pepper, sliced in rings
 - ½ cup rice
 - 1 No. 2 can (2½ cups) tomatoes
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - ¼ teaspoon pepper

Brown chops in small amount of hot fat. Pour off extra fat and save for later use. Add onion and green pepper; sprinkle rice around the chops. Add tomatoes. Season with salt and pepper. Cover and cook over low heat until chops are tender, about 1 hour. Remove chops and arrange on a warm platter. Fill center with rice mixture.

Use one-half pound of meat and extend it with macaroni for this hearty dish that's flavorful, as well as economical:

- Meat-Macaroni Casserole (Serves 4-6)
- 3 cups elbow macaroni
 - ½ pound lean beef, diced
 - 1 tablespoon fat
 - 1 clove garlic
 - 1 onion, sliced
 - 4 tomatoes, diced or 2 cups canned tomatoes
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - ¼ teaspoon pepper
 - 1 teaspoon chili powder
 - ¼ cup sliced, stuffed olives
 - ¼ cup grated cheese

Heat fat in heavy saucepan or skillet and brown thoroughly. Add garlic, onion, tomatoes, salt and pepper and cook about half an hour or until a nice sauce is formed. In the meantime, cook the macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain. Layer in a greased casserole the macaroni, cheese, olives and meat sauce, having the meat sauce on the top layer. Bake in a moderately hot (375°F.) oven for 45 minutes.

The last of the pot roast or roast beef can be used in this delicious puff for a nourishing supper:

- Beef Puff (Serves 4)
- 3 cups diced leftover beef roast
 - 1 medium onion, finely chopped
 - 2 cups hot, mashed potatoes
 - 1 tablespoon fresh horseradish
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - Few grains cayenne

Hearty servings of corned beef hash with golden pineapple slices make mighty fine eating for cold evenings. Serve on the same platter with the hash some cooked wedges of cabbage with mustard sauce for a really old-fashioned meal prepared in the quick, modern manner.

LYNN SAYS: Please Family Palates With New Flavor Tricks

Mixed fruit cups make a wonderful dessert with some simple cookies on those busy days. Sliced bananas with cubed pineapples and dark cherries or grapes are colorful and delicious.

Another mixed fruit combination which takes honors includes grapefruit sections with bananas tinted a delicate pink with some maraschino cherry juice and a few of the cherries for color.

Any cook would be proud to serve this meal, but it doesn't take any time at all to prepare. Colorful green peppers are stuffed with well-seasoned corn served with pan-browned Vienna sausages and parsley buttered potatoes. Canned foods from the pantry shelf cut preparation time for this budget dinner.

- LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU
- Chicken Broth
 - *Stuffed Ham Slice
 - Buttered Peas and Carrots
 - Hot Muffins
 - Jellied Cranberry Salad
 - Devils' Food Cake
 - Beverage
- *Recipe Given

- ½ cup milk
 - 1 egg, beaten
 - ½ cup shredded cheese
 - 1 tablespoon butter
- Combine onion, potatoes, horseradish, salt and cayenne. Combine milk with egg, then fold into potato mixture. Fold in diced beef. Turn into a 2-quart casserole. Dot with butter. Bake in a moderately hot (400°F.) oven for 25 minutes. Serve hot.

Ham slices extended with a savory fruit stuffing will make a memorable meal without putting the budget out of line:

- *Stuffed Ham Slices (Serves 6)
- 2 ham slices, cut ½ inch thick
 - 3 cups soft bread crumbs
 - ½ cup seedless raisins
 - ½ cup orange juice
 - 1 cup diced apples
 - ¼ cup melted ham or bacon drippings
 - 4 tablespoons sugar

Combine bread crumbs, raisins, orange juice, apples, drippings and sugar and mix lightly.

Spread one ham slice with a thick layer of stuffing. Place second ham slice on top. Put wooden toothpicks through one slice into the second one to hold slices together, sandwich fashion. Spread surface of top slice with brown sugar and stick with whole cloves. Place in rack in open roasting pan in a slow (300°F.) oven for 1½ hours.

- Corned Beef-Cabbage Supper (Serves 4)
- 1 1-pound can corned beef hash
 - 4 slices drained, canned pineapple
 - Hot cooked cabbage wedges
 - Mustard sauce

Open hash can from both ends and push contents out in one piece. Cut in four slices. Rough the top of each patty with the tines of a fork. Arrange hash slices on pineapple slices in a shallow pan. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for about 20 minutes. Serve with wedges of cabbage, topped with hot mustard sauce; add 2 tablespoons prepared mustard and ¼ teaspoon each of worcestershire sauce and grated onion to one cup seasoned medium white sauce.

- Vegetable-Sausage Platter (Serves 4)
- 4 green peppers
 - 1 17-ounce can whole kernel corn
 - Salt, pepper and butter
 - 1 No. 2 can small white potatoes
 - Parsley butter
 - 2 cans Vienna sausage

Cut off stem ends of pepper and remove seeds. Parboil until almost tender; drain. Season corn with salt, pepper and butter; fill peppers. Place in greased baking dish and bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven about 20 minutes. Heat potatoes and drain; dress with parsley butter. Arrange on platter with sausages which have been pan-browned and heated in butter.

Mix together some tart apple sauce with mint jelly and serve with lamb for a wonderful relish.

You've heard of rice and chicken? Well, cook the rice and then without rinsing pat into a shallow pan and let chill. Cut into squares, place on a greased shallow pan and dot with butter. Broil or bake and serve topped with creamed chicken.

Several canned soups can make one delicious one fit enough for guests. Heat together equal amounts of consommé or bouillon, chicken broth and tomato juice.

Sinus Trouble Aided Star to Radio Fame

Sinus trouble is not usually a stepping stone to success, but it was in the case of radio's fabulous "Lonesome Gal."

Jean King had been a smash hit over Dayton's WING for two years as the purveyor of a frankly sentimental style designed to appeal to lonesome listeners. She acquired a large listening audience with a honey-voiced approach that goes something like this:

"Hi, baby. This is your Lonesome Gal who loves you better than anyone else in the whole world... Gee, I missed you over the weekend..."

But after two years in the east, Jean's sinuses were taking a beating from the weather and she packed up and headed for Hollywood. Although stations there were skeptical about her possibilities, she "packaged" her shows by tape recording for subscribing sponsors and then put it on KHJ, Los Angeles. It was then heard on four stations and grossed $185 a week. Today, it has more than 50 outlets in major cities in the U.S. and Canada and stands to gross a cool $150,000 to $200,000 in 1951!

It's Wonderful the Way Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to

REMOVE WASTE - NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here's why FEEN-A-MINT'S action is so wonderfully different! Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon... right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out.

But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes mostly waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, run-down feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "peppy," energetic self - full of life! Get FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price - still 25c, 50c or only 10c.

Save Money On This Home Mixed Cough Syrup

Big Saving. No Cooking. So Easy. You'll be surprised how quickly and easily you can relieve coughs due to colds, when you try this splendid recipe. It gives you about four times as much cough medicine for your money, and you'll find it truly wonderful for real relief.

Make a syrup with 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water. No cooking needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) Then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (obtained from any drugist) in a pint bottle, and fill up with your syrup. This makes a full pint of medicine that will please you by its quick action. It never spoils, and tastes fine—children love it.

This simple mixture takes right hold of a cough. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, quickly eases soreness and difficult breathing.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its quick action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Mrs Lawrence 4th Grade
Mary McKibben, who has been quite ill, is much improved and we hope she will soon be back with us.
Mr. Williams, the band director, has organized a beginners class in band and the following children from our room have enrolled: Dora Botello, Sherry Middleton and Ruthell Jackson. Mike Billingsley Weldon Fannon and Wayne Gleg-horn attended the 4 H club show at Lamesa Saturday. We are proud of the 4 H club members and the nice work they are doing. We are glad to welcome a new pupil, Jerry Langford to our room; he comes from Robstown

MRS LINE'S 2nd GRADE

We are happy to have a new pupil, Delores Bolles. We were sorry that Larry Williams moved last week. The following pupils made 'S' in every subject this 6 weeks: Sherman Durham, Alvis Howell, Richard Kendrick, Bill Kopecky, Rene Montez, Julian Morales, Micky Pearce, Raymond Shumake, Buster Snellgrove, Mike Younger, Mar-igean Clayton, Charlotte Flowers, Sharon Kay Hays, Peggy Karne-gay, Maria Montez, Sandra Dean Moore, Rosalie Rejino and Fran-je Schuessler.

SELLING BARN IS NOT OUR BUSINESS

No, but if you are sold on new ranch and farm improve-ments (and who isn't, with the value of feed and livestock what it is today) then helping you build that barn is our business.

We'll help you with your plans, secure the loan for you, and relieve you of the worries of construction.

See us today for ideas on repairing your present structures, too.
