8th Grade News

Patsy Mahurin, reporter
The 8th grade really had a nice time at their party Thursday. We thank our room mothers who are Mrs. Singleton, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Porterfield and Mrs. Gray.
Thank you for a nice party but we are sore from skating.
Nolan Porterfield is no longer using his crutches as he is doing fine.
We notice little Lillie Reynolds has bought some big glasses.
Wonder why Miss Sufall didn't swing the board as much this Thursday as she did last week; could it be because all the kids are sore? Mr. Carr went to Ft. Worth last Sunday and had a nice time.

WHAT IF . . .
J. Mac was a Knight instead of a Noble?
Janelle was Rice instead of Wheat?
Robert was a Dressmaker instead of a Shoemaker?
Marion was a runner instead of a Walker?
Martha was a Schaffer instead of a Parker?
Glenn was an Organist instead of a Harper?
Edward was a Black instead of a Gray?
Carlene was a Section instead of an Eaker?
Nadene was Jack instead of Roberts?
Mr. Stone was a Pebble instead of a Stone?
Miss Sufall was a Waterfall instead of a Sufall?
Mr. Carr was a Truck instead of a Carr?
Mr. Hatter was a Cap instead of a Hatter?
Dorothy was a Key instead of a Locke?
Durrone was a Baker instead of a Cook?
Leroy was Oil instead of Gass?
Bobby was Skin instead of Hair?
Betty was a book instead of a Story?
Anna Lois was Snow instead of Rain?
Billie was a Cat instead of a Coon?
Syble was a Masher instead of a Turner?
Janice was a Blackberry instead of a Castleberry.
Glenn was a Druggist instead of a Brewer?
Jack was Dallas instead of Houston?
Billy was a Road instead of a Lane?
Dick was a Sactory instead of a Mill?
Shirley was a Plymouth Rock instead of a Gleghorn?
La Honda was a Frazier instead of a Kizer?
Kaydon was a Comb instead of a Brush?

Don Mires took his Duroc boar to the Lynn Co. Fair winning first place and Grand Champion; he also won first place and Grand champion at the Dawson Co. Fair

Elaine Hohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hohn is president of the O'Donnell chapter of Future Home makers of America. She also holds the office in Area 2 of historian. She heads the executive planning committee here and is very active in Future Homemakers work.

Mack Isaacs has returned from the Lubbock hospital much improved. He resides with his grand parents, Mr and Mrs I M Davis.

Mr and Mrs Levin Davis are the proud parents of a fine 8 lb boy, born Oct. 29 at a Lamesa hospital. He has been named Jackey Mitchell.

Mr and Mrs Carl Cockerham and Tim visited in the I M Davis home Sunday.
Mrs D W Mires surprised her mother Friday evening with a birthday party. Several of her closest neighbors came and brought nice gifts and enjoyed the evening after which refreshments were served.

Irrigation Given as Way To Prevent Frost Damages

Irrigation is being cited as a practical and economical method of preventing frost damage to crops in addition to serving as a protection against dry weather.

Strawberry growers in Michigan report that nearly 100 per cent success against frost was realized on that crop when the crops were kept covered by sprinkler irrigation systems which were used last spring in the first test of the procedure.

Mr and Mrs W J Stalling of Eden, Utah and Mr and Mrs O J Bandborough of Ogden are visiting Mr and Mrs B L Davis.

MRS H C WARREN HEADS CEMETERY GROUP

The O'Donnell Cemetery Association met recently to elect officers and to make plans for the annual Thanksgiving dinner. The proceeds from these annual dinners and the dues paid have helped to keep the cemetery clean and in a nice condition. We feel that our town and community is justly proud of the O'Donnell cemetery.
The following officers will serve for the coming year: Mrs. H C Warren, president, Mrs. J P Bowlin, vice president and Mrs. Lula Thompson, secretary and treasurer.

Local Club Is 3 Years Old

The O'Donnell chapter of the National FHA Club was organized three years ago with Miss La La Quita Robinson as the first president. Miss Ruth Locke led the club the second year and Elaine Hohn is the present president.
The club has made much progress and carried out many worthwhile projects. The members enjoyed two trips to the State Fair at Dallas along with several area and state meetings and have sponsored various activities in school.
This week the club is celebrating National FHA week. The following is the program for this week:
Sunday, Oct. 30: Attend church of their choice.
Monday, Oct. 31: Have a short paragraph given over the loudspeaker giving information on the F H A and announcing the initiation of new members.
Tuesday, Nov. 1: Hold regular Future Homemakers Club meeting in cottage.
Wednesday, Nov. 2nd: Plant red roses.
Thursday, Nov. 3rd: Initiate new members.
Friday, Nov. 4th: Each member wear a red rose to school.
Saturday, Nov. 5th, attend the area meet at Jayton.

State Election Is Set

On Tuesday Nov. 8th the qualified voters of the state will ballot on 10 proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Texas; explanation and editorial comment is being carried this week by the big daily newspapers. If you are in doubt about any amendment, play safe and vote against. Also the voter will select one member from two candidates, J M Rankin of Crosby County and E H Boulter of Lubbock for the State Board of Education from this congressional district. Mr. Rankin seems to be by far the best bet. On such off year elections a small vote usually results.

FARM BUREAU DRIVE ENDS

Farm Bureau Community team captains met with officers of the Lynn County organization at the American Legion hall in Tahoka the evening of Oct. 27th to tabulate results of the membership drive which has been under way in this county during State Wide Farm Organization Week. Fifty workers have been making a house to house canvass for members, according to Hubert Tankersley, Lynn Co. Farm Bureau president.

Deputy and Latin Cut In Busy Week End Of Crime

Blood again ran red on the streets of O'Donnell when another Latin American was mortally wounded here Sunday afternoon. Art Rico age about 40 and living here for some time was mortally wounded Sunday afternoon at about 1 p. m. in the vicinity of a cafe down in the Flats. He died at about midnight at a Lamesa hospital.
Vgenio Lopez, owner of a local cafe in the Flats was charged with murder and Judge Brown set his bail at $5,000. As we go to press Lopez examining trial had not been held. Deputy Cleve Blairington made the arrest and the investigation.

Mesquite Well To Be Drilled To 10,000 Ft

In northwest Borden County Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. was drilling ahead at its No. 1 Bryan, flanker to the discovery well of Borden field near Mesquite. The project was drilling past 10,432 in lime and chert. It is understood that the test will be carried to the granite. So far it has developed no commercial oil or gas.
Two other flankers to the No 1 Williams, lone producer and discovery well, were shut down and awaiting on orders after failing to get any indications of production. Sinclair No. 1 Turner, a direct east offset to the discovery was bot tommed at 9,120 after recovering salt water.
Sinclair no. 1 Reynolds was waiting on orders after recovering only water on a drillstem test between 9,675 feet and 9,800 feet. It has not shown and signs of oil.
Near Mesquite a third attempt to develop production will be made. It is the Thomas W Doswell of Dal las no. 1 Cantrell which will be deepened from its present total depth of 8,754 feet to 10,100 ft. to test the Ellenburger. It is 4 miles north of the discovery well. Rotary tools will be used. It was originally drilled to a total depth of 5,024 feet by Doswell in 1945 and plugged as failure.
Carraway drilling company of Dallas then entered the hole and drilled to 8,754 its present depth where it was abandoned in April of this year.

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE

by Roger C. Whitman

QUESTION: Our drains are stopped up very often in spite of the fact that we have had the pipes cleared by a tree-rooter machine. I am of the opinion that it is a clogged vent and not tree roots in the pipes. Can you give me any advice?

ANSWER: It is possible that the pitch of the horizontal soil pipe is insufficient, so that grease and other sediment matter congeals and closes up the line and retards the flow of waste matter to the sewer. Re-laying of the pipe is one solution, if that is the case. I doubt if a clogged vent would cause the condition. The other solution to such a problem is to install a grease trap in the line from the kitchen sink and clean it out periodically.

20-YEAR LAXATIVE HABIT BROKEN!

"Considering I was constipated for over 20 years and laxatives gave me no relief—it was amazing to find eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN daily helped me so much!"

Mrs. H. Rutledge, 129 Corry Ave., Aero Vista, Warrington, Florida. Just one of many unsolicited letters praising ALL-BRAN. If troubled by constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet, try this: eat an ounce of crisp ALL-BRAN every day, drink plenty of water. Fragrant Quick Breads Are Easily Made (See Recipes Below)

Bake Them Often
QUICKLY BAKED BREADS provide inspiration for any meal and snack, so they're easily worth the few minutes it takes to mix and bake them. Give your breakfast a lift with some delightful fruit and nut bread by baking it while the stragglers are getting down to breakfast. Or, why not plan to make an inspired lunch box with some delightful variations of a quickly baked bread? Snacks are something special if you have some beautifully textured prune bread with a spread of cream cheese and jelly. Dinners, too, can be budget-wise if you'll take less than half an hour to mix and bake honey butter roll-ups or orange-date muffins. Hot breads give cool weather meals that essential stick-to-the-ribs quality. More than that, their aroma and appeal gets the family to the dining table without coaxing!

FIRST on our parade of quick bread recipes is this for a quick nut bread which may be varied in four different ways:
Bran Nut Bread (Makes 1 loaf, 4 1/2 x 9 1/2 inch pan)
1 egg
3/4 cup sugar
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted shortening
3/4 cup bran
2 1/4 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 cup chopped nuts
Beat egg and sugar until light. Add milk, shortening and bran. Sift flour with salt and baking powder; combine with nuts; add to first mixture, stirring only until flour disappears. Spread in greased loaf pan, which has been fitted with waxed paper at the bottom. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 1 hour and 10 minutes.

A DELICIOUS pineapple coffee cake which bakes in less than an hour will be welcome at breakfast on chilly mornings.
Pineapple-Currant Coffee Cake (Makes 1 9-inch cake)
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening
1 egg, beaten
3/4 cup milk
1/2 cup currants
1/2 cup drained, crushed pineapple
Orange crumb topping
Sift together flour, baking powder and salt with sugar. Cut in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Add egg and milk, stirring until flour is moistened. Drop batter into greased nine-inch cake pan spreading evenly. Spread currants and pineapple over top of batter and sprinkle with orange crumb topping:
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
3 tablespoons grated orange rind
1/4 cup dry bread crumbs
Mix all ingredients together and

LYNN SAYS:
Make Simple Supper Dishes Something Special
Fruit fritters for dessert may sound anything but spectacular, but just serve them with some melted raspberry jelly as a sauce and see what a solid hit they can make. Shreds from the roast chicken can be extended into a nice supper main dish if set on a bed of cooked rice in a buttered casserole, then topped with cream sauce. Bake until bubbly and brown.

use as a topping.

THIS PRUNE BREAD has some of the endearing qualities of cake, without being as sweet and rich. You'll like its texture.
Prune Bread (Makes 1 loaf)
2 cups white wheat flour
1 cup white flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup cooked, drained, chopped prunes
1 egg
1 cup prune juice
1/4 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter
Sift together dry ingredients. Add prunes and mix well. Combine beaten egg, prune juice and milk, and add with melted butter to the first mixture. Pour into a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 1 1/4 hours.

*Honey Butter Roll-Ups (Makes about 16)
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
3/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted butter
2 tablespoons honey
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Add enough milk to form a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 1/2 minute. Divide into two equal portions. Roll each portion into a circle and spread with melted butter and honey; sprinkle with cinnamon. Cut into pie shaped pieces. Roll up beginning at wide end. Bake in a hot (450°) oven for 10-12 minutes.

Orange-Date Muffins (Makes 12 muffins)
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 1/2 cups whole wheat flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup dates, chopped fine
Grated rind of 1 large orange
1/4 cup molasses
1 egg, beaten
1 cup milk
1/4 cup melted shortening
Sift together white flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add dates and orange rind; mix well. Add whole wheat flour. Combine molasses, egg, milk and melted shortening. Add to dry ingredients and mix only until ingredients are moistened. Do not beat until smooth. Spoon batter into well greased muffin pans, 2/3 full. Bake in a hot (400°) oven about 20 minutes.

Leftover meat and chicken can be made into really generous hot sandwiches if they're dipped in egg-milk mixture, then fried. Serve with spiced fruit for a completely satisfying supper.
Hard-cooked eggs, cut in quarters, swimming in rich cream sauce with pink shrimp, are hard to resist when served on small, split, toasted and halved biscuits.
Popovers split and filled with creamed chicken or chipped beef will satisfy the hungriest crowd for Sunday evening suppers.

U. S. Motorists Learn To Drive More Safely

CHICAGO.—American motorists are learning to drive more safely, according to the 1949 edition of the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts."
The 1948 traffic volume was the greatest in the nation's history—8 per cent greater than 1947. Yet the mileage death rate—deaths per 100,000,000 vehicle miles—was the lowest in the nation's history. The 2.0 rate was 30 per cent lower than the average rate of 11.5 through World War II. If the higher rate had prevailed last year, 14,000 more lives would have been lost.
However, there still were 32,000 traffic deaths in 1948—only 700 fewer than in 1947.

Throat Specialists report on 30-Day Test of CAMEL smokers...

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS!

These were the findings of noted throat specialists in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels, and only Camels, for 30 consecutive days. The throats of all smokers in the test were examined every week—a total of 2,470 careful examinations.

New York housewife gives her report:
"I made the 30-Day Test. My doctor's report just proved what my own throat told me from the start. Camels are mild and so enjoyable!"

Have pie often in Cranberry Time!

Don't wait for pie in the sky—eat it now and eat it often in Fresh Cranberry Time! Cranberry Pie is the Dessert Beautiful—but it's also the Dessert Easy! Use prepared pie crust mix for real speed—use fresh cranberries for a real old-fashioned filling! Cranberry-Raisin Pie is practically a classic—here's how:

ANN PILLSBURY'S EATMOR CRANBERRY-RAISIN PIE
1 package Pillsbury Pie Crust Mix
2 1/2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup water
1 cup raisins
4 cups Eatmor Cranberries
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
Prepare pie crust mix as directed on package. Roll out one half of dough and fit into 9-inch pie pan. Combine sugar and cornstarch in saucepan and mix thoroughly. Add water and cook 5 minutes. Add raisins, cranberries and orange rind. Bring to rapid boil. Cover saucepan and remove from stove; cool. Pour cooled mixture into prepared pie shell. Roll out remaining crust and cut into leaf shapes. Arrange cut-outs over surface of pie and brush with melted butter. Bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) 35 minutes. Makes one 9-inch pie.
Autumn ushers in the Time of Mincemeat—combine cranberries and mincemeat in a delicious pie for double the tradition, double the good eating:
CRANBERRY MINCE PIE
2 cups Ten-Minute Cranberry Sauce*
1 package prepared mincemeat
Pie pastry

Combine cranberry sauce and mincemeat and heat to soften and blend filling. Fill pastry-lined 8-inch pie plate with mixture; arrange strips of pastry, criss-cross fashion, over top. Brush pastry with milk. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 30-35 minutes. Makes one 8-inch pie.
*TEN-MINUTE CRANBERRY SAUCE
2 cups sugar
2 cups water
4 cups cranberries
Boil sugar and water together 5 minutes. Add cranberries and boil without stirring until all the skins pop open (5 minutes is usually sufficient). Remove from fire and allow the sauce to remain in saucepan until cool. Makes 1 quart sauce.
Note to wise cooks: Keep a big red bowlful of Cranberry Sauce handy in Fresh Cranberry Time—it's so good it disappears from the table in double-quick time!

Leaves Tell Story

The leaves on corn plants tell whether the crop is well fed or starved. That can make a lot of difference at the harvest. For only well fed corn can produce high yields, well filled kernels and good quality ears.

Growers should take a little time to examine those corn leaves in the field. Healthy, well fed corn is a deep, dark green. Any other color spells trouble. It means that the corn plant is starving for one or more of the three plant nutrients—nitrogen, phosphate or potash.

Figure 1 in the illustration shows a typical case of nitrogen hunger. The signs show first at the tip then spread to the midrib of the lower leaves. The middle of the leaf turns yellow and dies.

Figure 2 illustrates potash starvation. It shows on the tips and edges of the leaves. These turn yellow and later look scorched. Corn hungry for potash has weak roots and stalks. It lodges easily. Potash starvation signs can appear at any stage of the corn's growth.

Barn Hay Driers Attract Attention of Many Farmers

Barn hay driers have been attracting a lot of attention recently and many farmers are reported thinking of installing equipment in order to assure themselves of higher-quality hay.

Usually any information desired on techniques or equipment for this work can be obtained from the local county farm agent, or from extension service specialists at the various state universities.

Animals, Fowls Experience Man's Disease Conditions

Teetotaling dogs, turkeys and chickens which drink nothing stronger than water sometimes get the same diseases which humans beings develop from over-indulgence or high living.

Veterinarians' records show that turkeys and chickens sometimes develop gout, and dogs and other animals get cirrhosis of the liver. Many other disease conditions of man also are common to animals.

On March 21 and September 21 day and night are of equal duration in every part of the world.

Keep DDT Away From Dairy Cows

Experts Cite Danger Of Milk Contamination

The U. S. department of agriculture's entomologists have issued a warning that DDT should not be used for insect control on dairy cows.

Even small amounts of DDT in food such as milk—a universal diet for infants and small children—might prove harmful in time, according to toxicologists of the food and drug administration who have studied the subject for several years. They say presence of the chemical in milk would be contrary to the food, drug and cosmetic act.

It may be a temptation to use DDT in order to keep your dairy herd looking as sleek and contented as these animals, but authorities warn against it.

The entomologists now recommend methoxychlor, another effective insecticide, be substituted for DDT to control insect pests on dairy cows.

Federal entomologists make no change in their recommendations for the use of DDT in controlling insect pests on other livestock, including beef cattle.

The department's entomologists, chemists and veterinarians, cooperating in the investigation of the toxicology of DDT and other insecticides, say the application of DDT directly to milk cows for controlling insects results in the presence of small quantities of the insecticide in the milk. They say also that DDT in small quantities can be detected sometimes in milk following ordinary use of the insecticide for fly control in dairy barns.

The bureau of entomology and plant quarantine has repeatedly cautioned that forage treated with DDT and other chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides should not be fed to dairy animals or to livestock being finished for slaughter. A number of new insecticides are under investigation by federal entomologists for controlling insects on cows and in dairy establishments.

Bumper Yield

This is the type of bumper wheat yields which may be expected by the farmer who practices good soil conservation procedure wherever such is necessary to full crop production. Soil conservation, selection of good seed and attention to good farming practices generally always pay dividends.

Harvest Your Cotton this TIME- and MONEY- SAVING way

JOHN DEERE No. 15 Two-Row Cotton Harvester

You'll make short work of harvesting cotton . . . slash expenses to a fraction of hand-pulling costs when you own a John Deere No. 15 Two-Row Cotton Harvester.

The John Deere does an excellent job of harvesting any cotton that is suitable for mechanical snapping. Stripping two 40-inch rows at a time after defoliation, the John Deere does a once-over job, saving more cotton than the average hand-puller. Harvested at the same time, cotton pulled with the No. 15 grades as high as that picked by hand.

Be sure to stop in soon and let us tell you more about this time- and money-saving two-row cotton harvester.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Harvest This Year Second Largest In U.S. History, Government Says; Reds Purge Czech Property-Owners

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

HARVEST: Second Largest

America's horn of plenty continued to go all out in its production of food for the world.

Latest crop summary of the U.S. department of agriculture showed that good harvest weather would assure the nation of its second largest volume of crops in history, topped only by the record-breaking haul of 1948.

EQUALLY important was the fact that a record supply of corn was on tap for producing meat, dairy and poultry products.

The month of September brought conditions sufficiently favorable to boost total production prospects 1 per cent, despite a slight decline in the corn estimate. Total crop volume was indicated at 131 per cent of the 1923-1932 base level, second only to last year's 137 per cent.

However, present indications are that this may be the last year for some time that crop production reaches such astronomical heights. As surpluses were mounting almost alarmingly, the government was preparing to take action to reduce output next year.

There was every likelihood that market quotas would be slipped on some of the basic crops which have been overflowing into storage in recent years.

THIS YEAR'S huge output is the result of fairly large production of most individual crops, rather than record-breaking yields of just a few.

Nearly 123 million tons of live-stock-feed grains are being produced this year, including a corn crop of about 3.47 billion bushels. Last year's corn crop of 3.65 billion bushels set an all-time record.

The 36.5 billion tons of food grains now estimated, though exceeded in each of the past three seasons, is greater than in any earlier year. Included in this figure is a bumper wheat crop of 1.12 billion bushels, virtually all of which has been harvested.

CONGRESS: Half a Loaf

The first session of the 81st congress headed toward an October adjournment with less than half of President Truman's program written into law.

THE PRESIDENT could count 15 major accomplishments by his reckoning, at least on the part of the congress he helped ride into office last November.

Left as unfinished business for the 1950 congressional campaign, however, were a number of highly controversial proposals among the 22 requests that Mr. Truman had laid before the present session without getting final action.

Chief among these is the Taft-Hartley act repeal, which was turned down in both houses during this session. The President undoubtedly will revive the issue in January, and the outcome this time may depend upon how some special elections this year to fill senate and house vacancies turn out.

SOME OF THE other requests which Mr. Truman is almost sure to re-introduce early next year will be for a system of compulsory health insurance, civil rights legislation, standby price-wage controls and the passage of "Point 4" legislation to guarantee U.S. support in developing backward areas of the world.

PAY BOOST: For Cabinet

There was good news for cabinet members, who have been plugging along at the same old salary ever since 1925.

A joint senate-house conference managed to arrive at an agreement to boost cabinet members' salaries from $15,000 to $22,500 a year.

THE CONGRESSIONAL group also approved pay raises for some 200 other top-drawer federal officials—at a cost of $1,087,000 annually.

In addition to raising cabinet salaries, the pay bill will:

GRANT Undersecretary of Defense Steve Early $20,000 a year instead of $14,500, and the armed-forces secretaries $18,000 a year instead of $14,000.

Most of the undersecretaries of the various departments will go up from $10,330 to $17,500. J. Edgar Hoover who, as head of the FBI, now receives $14,000 will get a raise to $16,000.

IGNORANCE COSTLY

Story of $200-Bills Trips Up Gambler

It was not the first case where unfamiliarity with big money had tripped up an individual who was attempting to finagle with it, but navy petty officer James G. Stratton, New York, might have made his story stick had he known more about money when he reported to police he'd been robbed. He said a tall, thin, mustachioed man held a knife to his back and took $31,500

Witness

Admiral Arthur W. Radford took the stand before the house armed services committee to testify that current defense plans and military setup relegate the navy to a role "useless and inadequate" in the event of an atomic war.

CZECH PURGE: Slow Terror

Slow terror, the kind that eventually is born in persons living under any totalitarian government, was seeping through Communist Czechoslovakia.

Cause of it was a Red purge, aimed primarily at supposed bourgeois elements, but leaving no man—be he a Communist party member or not—free from the fear that he may become a victim sooner or later.

UNCONFIRMED reports of the total seized or marked for arrest in the Communist police roundups ranged between 30,000 and 40,000. No information was given, either as to causes, results or any other details of the widespread arrests.

The pattern of the purge was clear. Landlords, architects, confectioners and other small shopkeepers were being picked up and their business confiscated. In some cases, their apartments were seized and families dispossessed.

In the main, it was a drive against Czechoslovakia's propertied classes, theoretically the mortal enemies of Marxist communism.

HOWEVER, the prosecution of the property owners was accompanied throughout Bohemia and Moravia by purges of government employees, the clergy, army and even the Communist ranks. Charges, where there were any, ranged from high treason and sympathy with Titoism or "western imperialism" to simple denunciations by spooks who had overheard suspicious bits of conversation.

Possible hint as to the reason behind the purge was the report that the government is having trouble not only in its campaign to control the Roman Catholic church, but also its efforts to prod higher production out of the workers.

CHINESE REDS: Win Diplomats

Was it a case of rats deserting a sinking ship?

That might have been a plausible construction of the move as Chinese diplomatic staff members in Paris deserted to the Communist regime at Peking and called on Chinese diplomats throughout the world to follow their example.

GEORGE MONG, counselor of the Paris embassy, made the announcement. He reported that 11 diplomats, eight from the embassy and three from the consulate had walked out on Chiang Kai-shek and the Nationalist government at Canton.

The development posed a problem for the French foreign ministry's Asiatic affairs section. They were particularly concerned by the threat of a rebel sit-in at the embassy. However, the issue was resolved when the French moved firmly to back up the Nationalists and struck the dissident Chinese envoys off its diplomatic list.

THE FRENCH difficulty was clear. While Paris still recognized the Nationalist government, it was becoming increasingly apparent that the western powers eventually may recognize the Communist regime of Mao Tze-tung. Already there have been conversations on that subject.

SOON THEY WILL NEED A MINISTER . . .

I Love You, Adore You—Will You Divorce Me?

By H. I. PHILLIPS

MY HUSBAND AND I are parting on the friendliest terms. I am very sorry to say we have been parted for some time," said a charming star of the stage and screen the other day. The mood was that of numerous recent divorce announcements. What's become of the old-fashioned couple who used to part with the crash of pots and pans, mutual cries of "See, you!" and a stern demand from the cops: "Make way for the wagon. They're both all cut up?"

In Hollywood a husband announcing that he is through with his bride says she is a very fine person. I have the highest regard for her. We just agree to disagree." A New York society gal, enduring matrimony for a couple of years, announces: "We are both very fond of each other."

What goes?

Away with these folk who announce a separation in tones and manner of making known a decision to cancel a magazine subscription or change the brand of white shoe polish. Let's demand some harsh words, a few swings and a blow by blow of the fist leading up to the parting.

Divorce has been a sufficient blight on the social fabric without this nonsense about it entailing merely a slight drop in friendliness. It is getting routine to read of marriages being busted up because he and she like each other so much! If matrimony must go on the rocks, let's cut the business of fitting the ship with lovecasts and assigning a flock of harpists to sit on the rocks and play "When We Come to the End of a Perfect Day," and "Dear Old Pal of Mine."

What is civilization coming to mates? There was a time when the marriage state was regarded as sufficiently binding to command a little respect and nothing to be smashed up without a rousing battle, some broken furniture, a few shattered window panes and mutual shrieks of "Oh, Yeah! I was warned about you three months before the wedding."

You couldn't get a good lawyer to take the case if neither side had an arm in a sling.

Not even a gossip reporter would credit a rumor of divorce proceeding if the principals were still capable of exchanging tender looks. No court would go on with the hearing if there were no dirty looks.

No self-respecting neighborhood would stand for a couple breaking up a home on the friendliest of terms, and a sweet "please don't get the idea we dislike each other." It would regard such a mood as definitely tougher on community morals than if all the kids had seen him throw her from the second story window, and if what she said to him withered the leaves on the backyard maples.

Parting on the friendliest of terms! The very thought is repulsive. It cheapens marriage. You wish to break up your home? Grow, get in there and do it right away! There should always be an excuse for divorce.

YE GOTHAM BUGLE AND BANNER

The picture of the year was Art Whitaker's recent flash of the Sonia Henie wedding showing the kids "under the tent" with expressions which painters strive to catch. . . . Sonia's new husband has failed in three marriage tries, but the skating star figures that if he keeps hold of her arm he can get the hang of it yet. . . . Attorney General McGrath has sued the A & P stores. . . . The Democrats want those little bundle-wagons in the chain stores to carry the customers, too. . . . Walt Disney has screen rights to the life of Sigmund Freud, and F. U. Scainati says the title may be "Who's A-Friend of the Big Bad Wolf?" . . . Ernie Besin left a tooth in America in memory of the British "bite" . . . Broadway now has a sort of tip about on new shows with quotations on what it costs to get a share. . . . What're Rodgers & Hammerstein First Refunding Sixes selling for?

Jee's Star and Big Muddy won a daily double at $2,428 in Chicago recently. "I nearly had it," declared Shudda Haddim today. "I was at the mussels window when I changed my mind."

A Peruvian mummy has been unwrapped at the Museum of Natural History. He is dry as dust and about 3,000 years old. At noon today, strange as it seems, neither party had nominated him for the presidency.

When Jesus Saw Their Faith

HERE are phrases running through the word of God

That strike the ear, that gleam to catch the eye:

These simple words, "When Jesus saw their faith,"

Ring out as clear and startling as a cry.

He saw their faith, the one thing he required

Before he granted what their hearts desired.

When Jesus saw their faith, the lame arose,

And darkened eyes were given sudden sight;

The dead were quickened into life again,

And hearts bowed down with sorrow were made light.

Because of that white inner burning flame

He changed the world for everyone who came.

Lord, Lord, I, too, have faith; behold the fire

That burns in me and grant my heart's desire.

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

BY INEZ GERHARD

IN 20 YEARS Gertrude Berg has made "The Goldbergs" one of the best loved families in the country, with herself, as "Molly Goldberg," its most popular member. This is one radio show that the country evidently cannot do without. It went off the air in 1946, and

GERTRUDE BERG

Mrs. Berg turned it into a successful play; last January it began on television, and soon people were giving its presence as the best reason for buying a set. Now it's on the air again, on CBS Friday evenings. And charming, warm-hearted Mrs. Berg is spending her days writing and rehearsing, but saving evenings for her husband, two children and friends.

Some years ago Susan Hayward was brought to New York by Paramount, part of a plan to build up a gorgeous looking young actress into a star. Everyone who met her admitted that she was all the press agent said. Susan has gone right ahead, though not still with Paramount; it's reported that she gets $5,000 a week since 20th Century-Fox bought her contract from Wanger.

Paramount's stars will be linked with a kind of crackers on the air beginning November 14. Three times a week, over 366 Mutual stations, Erskine Johnson will interview a Paramount star—one star each week. Alan Ladd leads off.

Vaughn Monroe will have Ella Raines to sing to in the color movie he is slated for; made independently, it will be released by Republic. It's a wild western, "Singing Guns"; Monroe will broadcast from Hollywood while making it.

George Burns and Gracie Allen have been joking for years on the air about brother Willie. Few listeners knew that Burns' brother Willie wrote gags for the show and managed George's affairs. Now he is the show's producer.

The Fiction Corner

RANDY'S GIRL

By Richard H. Wilkinson

RANDY SUMNER told the girl he loved her. She was beautiful and he was human and he couldn't help himself. He felt chagrined when he thought of it later because that night he had forgotten that he was a police detective and she the girl friend and accomplice of the notorious Tony Quarles.

He had to get away from her for a few days. It was the only way he could think clearly. So he ran up to Chicago and there he dropped in on the chief.

The chief got sore when he saw him.

"What the hell! The dame will take a powder on you. If she blows it's curtains as far as our chance of bringing in Tony is concerned."

Randy felt like telling the chief to jump in the lake. But he didn't. He knew the chief was right. Pamela was Tony's girl. A new one. They'd been seen together at The Lobster Club and the story was that Tony was nuts over her.

Right after that the Ryegate job was pulled; a night watchman and a cop shot dead. Of course Tony vanished. They couldn't hope to find him. The girl vanished too. A week later one of the boys saw her down at Ocean Bluffs. She was an usher in a movie theater.

They didn't pick her up. The chief was too smart for that. He sent Randy down. "You're a good looking kid, Randy, with a nice, friendly smile. Go down there and play the sucker game. Sooner or later she and Tony will join up. It's our only chance."

Randy's part was easy. He played the part of a lumber king's son down from Michigan on vacation. The friendly smile worked. Pamela trusted him. She seemed lonesome and glad to have him around.

Then came that night when impulsiveness gave way to logic. He kissed her and told her he loved her.

Randy made plans. The payoff was due to come soon now. He had orders to take both the girl and Tony. Well, he'd do just that.

Days passed. They saw each other once at least every 24 hours. They danced and went sailing and swam and played tennis. Randy suffered. He was haunted by the scene that was inevitable.

There was a haunting light in the girl's eyes also. He wondered if she too, were suffering because the same thing had happened to her.

THEN ONE DAY he called for her and found wild fright in her eyes.

"Randy! I'm afraid! He's here!"

"That man. The man I tried to tell you about—why I left Chicago. He—he's horrible! At first he was nice to me, then—I had to run away to keep him from—from—"

"What's his name?" said Randy hoarsely.

"Lancey. Tom Lancey. He's at the Seaside. He called and said—"

"We'll go down and have a talk with him," Randy snapped.

"Randy! I can't! I—"

"You're coming too!"

She didn't understand Randy's attitude, but she trusted him.

They went to the Seaside. Inside the door Pamela stopped. "There he is!" she whispered. "On the divan reading the newspaper."

It was Tony Quarles, Randy felt sick. He put his hand under his coat and started across the lobby. Tony saw him coming. But it was too late. Randy got his gun out and shot before Tony reached his feet.

The gangster went down. Randy looked at him, then remembered the girl. He had to take her too.

He looked around, and there she was, staring in wild-eyed horror.

"Randy! You shouldn't have—you've killed him!"

Randy's lip curled. Tony Quarles opened his eyes and saw the girl. "Hello, sister," he managed. "Congratulations. You're the first woman a copper who ever fooled me, but I guess you were worth it. Baby, you're a looker."

Of course she wasn't a copper. But she wasn't Tony's girl either. She was just who she said she was. She'd been telling the truth. And Randy was so surprised he let her swoon in his arms before he could gather his senses enough to explain his own identity.

PUZZLE NO. 22

KATHLEEN NORRIS

Defining Duty

"MY MOTHER-IN-LAW is a great one for talking about 'duty,' writes a very young wife from New Mexico. "I would like to know what 'duty' is. It has a very disagreeable sound to me. The only connection I ever had with it is, that on some occasion or other, England expected every man to do his duty. To my husband's mother it means everything disagreeable. "I was an only child, motherless from babyhood," the letter goes on. "and spoiled, I supposed, by a rich father. Most of Papa's money is gone, now, however, and Phil and I and our baby live very quietly. My husband's mother lives next door, and as I say, she is always at me about duty. My duty to Phil, to her, to Johnnie, to my neighbors, church, everything. What is duty, anyway? I never had a mother's guidance, and I really want to know who makes these laws about duty and what they mean. Phil is 33, I am now 18, and the baby is seven months," finishes this artless letter.

Word Seldom Heard

Your letter, Marie Louise, reminds me that one doesn't often hear this little word nowadays. But it used to be the very backbone of everything we were told, as children, to do. Many a mother today,

"... Phil is 33 ..."

worrying about nursery psychoses and fixations and inhibitions and allergies might find a short-cut solution to her troubles in that simple word.

Duty means, of course, the thing you ought to do, for the general good. For the good of the family, the commonwealth, the nation. Duty consists of a thousand small acts, perhaps not important apart, but extremely important when taken together.

Thousands of years of painfully achieved civilization are back of that word. A husband's duty, a wife's duty, an employee's duty, an employer's duty. Law and order only mean that men and women are expected to do their duty, and will be held responsible if they don't.

You and I owe a duty to every human being with whom our daily lives bring us in touch. The postman, the bus driver, the children's teachers, every one from a neighbor's baby to the old man sitting in the sun at the poorhouse, has that claim on us.

Sometimes mothers today look on anxiously as their children's marriages go on the rocks. "Bob and Marjorie have everything in the world to make them happy," they say bewilderedly. "What do youngsters expect of marriage, anyway?"

Bob and Marjorie go to psychiatrists. They are not apt ever to suspect that that little word "duty" holds the answer. Neither one has ever been taught what it means.

Need Not Be Angel

A wife who does her duty need not be superhuman; she need not be an angel. She has merely to think of husband, children, friends, parents, school, her dressmaker, dentist, weekly helper, in terms of "what is my duty?"

Such a wife weathers the psychopathic perils of the monotony of marriage without any outside help. She has her bad times, perhaps, but when she looks at her peaceful, happy home, her normal, happy children—who, by the way, have learned that word "duty," too,—when she considers the paid bills, the holiday plans ahead, the sweetness of achievement—well, she may not know that "duty" is behind all this, and much higher words behind duty, but she is deeply content.

A husband, into the very fibre of whose childhood a sense of duty has been instilled, goes straight ahead through the trying crises of married years. He doesn't waste money on cards or horses, because he owes Margaret honesty in handling the budget.

And after awhile the flowers of duty begin to bloom in amazing profusion. The world begins to see that the Adams are fine people.

Dutiful persons may have their dull days—their dull months and even years, in youth. But gradually they prove the wisdom of taking this matter of duty seriously. Middle age becomes a true harvest time. No serious selfish mistakes are back of them; there could not be for duty to others is supremely not duty to oneself. No broken homes, bewildered separated children, no alimony squabbles or family law-suits. None of the things that make age lonely and bitter and ugly. Duty prepares a healthy life for her followers.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Imagination and Little Cost Change Space into Play Room.

By Erta Haley

MOST FAMILIES agree they should have game, hobby or work rooms, but little is done about it for the simple reason that most people are afraid of the cost. As long as you have the space, and most people do, it seems a shame not to have such a room, either for youngsters, adults or both.

The cost of these rooms runs much less than any other room in the home, and the hours of pleasure they can provide can usually be reconciled with the budget since little outside, or more expensive entertainment need be provided.

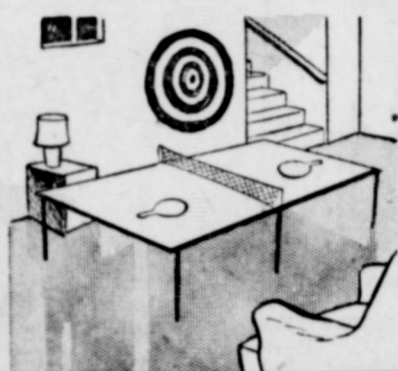

Much of the work on these rooms can be done by members of the family, and the materials required are not usually expensive, or, at least, they need not be. Most of us have enough odd furniture or outdoor furniture that can be used in the room, so this need be no problem.

Actually your imagination is the only limit as to what can be done with the room. With a few pointers to apply to your particular problem, and some guides to point the way, make it a project to convert attic or basement into a recreation room for the family. You'll love doing it.

Decide first on the nature of the room. Some people like it for games which cannot be played in the other rooms, like ping pong; others like it for music or snack bar; some like to have the room for their hobby, woodwork, photography, etc. Families with dramatic interest may want to construct a stage on which they can perform.

How To Overcome Some Architectural Problems

If your recreation room is going to be in the basement, you will probably run into the problem of hiding the furnace unless this has been built in the laundry unit, or separated by walls or partitions when the unit was constructed.

Furnish game rooms simply . . .

Draw a plan of the basement, then block off the furnace. Include blocking off the coal bin, too, or your oil tanks, whichever may be the case.

These may be partitioned off with wall board, but you'll naturally have to leave a door to get into the unit.

Walls are usually in need of some kind of finishing, if the room is to be in the basement. Here again, with view to family's interests.

use wallboard, or if you want to cut the cost, paneling which simulates wood. A still less expensive treatment uses wallpaper that simulates some of the natural woods like knotted pine.

If the cellar is dry and has masonry, brick, plaster or cement

Be Smart!

Jersey blouses, so important in the current era of separates, take on smart styling all their own. For example, the blouse sketched at the left employs clean cut contrasting color by means of a sewed-in stripe, and at the same time makes a perfect background for a beautifully decorative choker to be worn at the jewel neckline. At the right is a design that is representative of the smartly tailored effect equally good worn with a suit or a separate skirt.

Black Velvet Decor

The trend toward using velvet as a trimming is illustrated in this New York suit of geranium colored herringbone tweed, designed for fall and winter. Note the touches of velvet on the lapels of the suit as well as on the flaps of the pockets. A full-length fold down the center of the skirt in back gives walking ease.

walls, you can work out some attractive color schemes with white-wash or cold-water paints. If you have the least bit of dampness, waterproof the walls with cement paint and line them with inexpensive wallboard.

To disguise pipes, it's usually best to build a false ceiling of pine studding and a dropped ceiling nailed to this type of studding. This will help keep the room clean, since no dust can sift in.

How to Solve Floor Problems

Floors in a recreation room have to serve a practical purpose, and the floor covering may be one of three: concrete or cement, wood over concrete and linoleum or asphalt tile.

If the floor is poor, but dry, and if you do not want to bring up the cost of doing this room, the cement or concrete may be painted with paints designed for just such a purpose. Paint the floor in a color that will harmonize with the furnishings of the room.

For the rooms designed as an extra living room, or one that will be used for dancing, the best choice is wood over cement or concrete. Stained and waxed floors are best for dancing; other colors may be used for a more general purpose room.

Asphalt tile and linoleum are considered flooring rather than floor coverings, and both offer good possibilities for the type of room under consideration.

When using linoleum over a wood covering, it should be cemented over a felt lining. Because of its resiliency, asphalt tile is recommended for concrete floors in direct contact with the ground.

In choosing the flooring or covering, bear in mind what time is available for keeping the floor in good condition. Wood floors will have to be stained, then shellacked and waxed, if not painted. Depending upon the use, wood floors will have to be refinished with the stain or paint occasionally.

Linoleum will have to be washed, and perhaps a finish applied every once in a while. It does, however, give a sanitary finish and will prevent drafts, if these are the problem.

Sturdy, Comfortable Furniture is Must

Lots of leeway is possible in the choice of furniture for the room. If there is enough odd furniture in the home, or porch furniture which gets little use during the winter, the recreation room will take it nicely.

A coat or two of paint, sturdy slip covers and other small innovations will convert many pieces into ideal use for a play room. It should be sturdy and comfortable.

You'll want a chest or two in the room to hold any play equipment in neatness and order. If the room has a table tennis table, or if the floor is marked for games, most of the furniture will necessarily be shifted against the wall, so you see, little furniture will be needed in this case.

Choose The Best!
Lesson for October 30, 1949

IT HURT Isaiah's patriotism, and his religion too, to see how fast his country was going down hill. Most of the troubles Isaiah saw are with us today. Wealthy women are spending more and more on themselves; leaders who are irresponsible, self-seeking and incompetent; poverty unprevented and uncare-for; drunkenness high and low. Isaiah, and other prophets as well, saw in the sin and drunkenness of the times the sign and symbol of national decay. To the careless, the selfish and the wild, to those who were "leaders" but were leading in the wrong direction, Isaiah kept saying, in many different ways, Choose the best!

Dr. Foreman

The Prophets' Successors

THERE WAS A TIME when the church put most of her preaching emphasis on individual religion: Get right with God! was the cry. The church of today has not by any means given up her emphasis on personal religion, but we are learning from the prophets what social righteousness means. The church in our time is the logical and actual successor to the prophet's work.

The church is doing more than ever to awaken the conscience of society, in fact the church itself has a duty to be the conscience of society. One of the problems about which our nation needs to be waked up is one that Isaiah and Jeremiah faced, only we have it in a more desperate form.

We call it alcoholism; they called it by an uglier, more suitable word: drunkenness. Even in those days drinking was a problem; it cut down the national health, wealth and wisdom. Nowadays it is worse because of two factors. One is the higher percentage of alcohol in beverages such as whiskey, unknown in those days. The other factor is advertising.

Where Drunkards Start

AGAINST ALL THIS the church must keep saying and persuading people, Choose the Best! But it does comparatively little good to say this to the confirmed alcoholic. It makes more sense to say it to young people. For the sad feature of alcoholism is that it begins in the high schools.

The Yale School of Alcohol Studies has collected evidence indicating that two-thirds of all alcoholics begin drinking habits in the early high school years.

A recent Gallup poll shows the greatest percentage of drinkers to be in the age group 21 to 39. Today, it is estimated, there are four million alcohol addicts or excessive drinkers who are in more or less constant trouble with their families and employers. Drunkenness costs industry in America no less than one billion dollars a year, and has a lot to do with the break-up of homes and with crime generally.

Allied Youth

SOMETHING is being done to stop this, which you should know about. There is a movement known as Allied Youth, a national educational organization working in high schools all over the country. Its work is positive, not negative. It is not trying to pass laws or to bring back prohibition. What it does try to do—and it is succeeding remarkably well in many places—is to give young people a way of life that will enable them to meet social pressure for drinking without loss of "face." Every Allied Youth post in a school has three aims: 1. To meet the social and recreational needs of young people.

Every New Year's Eve, for instance, when millions of Americans are getting sickly drunk, more than 6,000 young people gather in Detroit for the biggest dry party in America, sponsored by Allied Youth.

2. To establish within the school a fellowship of young people who do not think it is necessary to drink to be smart. Such a group can change the attitude of an entire school.

3. To build a solid foundation of education for total abstinence. Essentially, Allied Youth is saying to young people everywhere, "Choose the Best!"

Household Hints
Temporary Adhesive
For a temporary adhesive—or to mend something that will just be kept around and never used or put in hot water—try transparent nail polish. It works on dishes as well as glassware.

Separating Stuck Glasses
To separate two glasses which are stuck together, dip the outside glass in warm—not hot—water, and at the same time put cold—not iced—water into the inside glass.

Dusting Fryables
For dusting fryables, pancake flour gives a better flavor than ordinary flour. The handy way to do the dusting is to put the paper in a large paper bag along with the pieces of meat, fish or fowl to be coated, then shake up the works.

Prevent Cracking
To prevent the glaze on china-ware from cracking, don't pile freshly washed cups on top of each other. Spread them out and give them plenty of time to cool before they are put away.

OYSTERS SHOULD BE SANITARY IN PRODUCTION

Some people claim oysters good only during the month which have R in their name. But the State Health Department says oysters are not safe month, with or without the seafood has not been cleaned, shucked and shipped under sanitary conditions.

Oysters have much to commend them as a source of food. They have protein of good quality, and copper (important as a protection against anemia), which is essential to proper functioning of the thyroid gland, and amount of vitamins. But the consumer should beware of uncertified oysters.
