Mrs. Shepperd Passes Away

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Sara J. Shepperd died at the home of her son, Jake Green, last Saturday and was buried at the O'Donnell cemetery Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. Wood Parker conducting the funeral services.

Mrs. Shepperd was 63 years, three months and fourteen days of age at the time of her death and was the daughter of Rev. Henry J. McNary, a Methodist preacher. She was married to James T. Green on November 21, 1880, who died June 1, 1896. To this union were born four sons, William J., Louis V., J. L. and Thomss J., three of whom are still living. In 1913 she was married to John J. Shepperd. Seven sisters and one brother also survive her, she being the first of a family of nine children to be taken away.

Deceased united with the Methodist church early in life, giving many years faithful service to her Lord and Master. She hath escaped all danger now Her pain and fighting all are fled;

The crown of joy is on her brow, Eternal glories o'er her shed.

In golden robes, a queen, a bride, She standeth at her Sovereign's side;

She sees His face unveiled and bright,

A lesser light amid His light.

Wells Votes $25,000 School Bonds

At an election held in the Wells school district last week, bonds to the amount of $25,000 were voted by a majority of more than 4 to 1. The money derived from the sale of the bonds will be expended in the construction of a new brick school building work so start at once.

The new building will be incorporated with the old and will have six study rooms, a large auditorium and a stage 12x22 feet.

The Wells people are progressive and are to be congratulated on providing a better place of learning for their children.

Newmoore Celebrates Fourth With Picnic

Newmoore celebrated its second annual fourth of July barbecue and picnic Saturday of last week when an estimated crowd of more than 1,000 were entertained. Besides a bountiful barbecue dinner, a ball game was played between the Newmoore team and the Pride team in which Pride proved the victors. Tom McDougal was there with his famous bucking horses and a genuine wild west rodeo was had with thrills for every minute.

Those attending say that there was not a dull moment during the day and are loud in their praise of the hospitable manner in which this new town entertained them.

We doff our chapeau to the live people of Newmoore for doing something a couple of much larger towns in the county would not attempt. Hurrah, for Newmoore.

O'Donnell Nights Fine For Picnic Parties

These beautiful summer nights are drawing many people from their homes out into the open and under the stars spread a lunch. One party that reports an especially enjoyable moonlight picnic Wednesday night was composed of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gibbs, Mrs. J. Wood Parker, Misses Ella Mae Ellis, Laynette Smith, Willie Schooler, Mary Lee Towles, Letha and Hazel Greer, and Poy Smith, Kenneth Campbell and T. J. Kellis.

The affair was given in honor of Miss Ellis and the Misses Greer, who are the guests of Mrs. Parker and Campbell respectively. A feast reaching all the way from fried chicken to ice cream was spread out near where the breaks begin and it was far into the night when the party returned to town.

E. J. Tredway has been ill this week and unable to be at his place of business.

Bank To Make Many Improvements

Extensive improvements on the First State Bank building will be under way soon. An architect was here last week and drew the plans for another story to be added to the building. The addition will be cut into six large offices with a hall extending the full length of the building on the east side, giving the offices the advantage of sunlight on the west side.

The bank officials are planning to double the capital stock of the institution making it $50,000 which will place it in better position to take care of the growing demands of its patrons.

Watch O'Donnell grow.

McClung Making Improvements at Hotel

The rapid growth of the town has demanded larger hotel facilities and last week Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McClung started work on completing the interior decorations of the McClung Hotel. All the rooms are being papered and painted and the halls are also being papered over the beaver board, which greatly adds to the appearance of this popular hostelry.

As soon as this work is completed the McClungs intend to build a fifty-foot extension on the rear, doubling the capacity of the hotel. The plans include water connections with the rooms and private baths for part of them. The dining room will be enlarged and larger kitchen facilities added.

The McClungs are boosters for O'Donnell and are always ready with their money and encouragement to help any move that pertains to the upbuilding of the town.

Doom of Rat Row in Sight

Rat Row is doomed for demolition. The start will be made within the next few days when Wylie Phillips will begin the construction of a brick on his lot adjoining the First State Bank building on the east. The building will occupy a floor space of 25x70 and will have a plate glass front with ornamental brick.

Now that the start has been made to put in bricks on the north side, it is likely that other property owners on that side will soon have bricks under construction. J. M. Christopher, Roy Miles and Hal Singleton have the building bees buzzing in their bonnets and the public may expect the announcement of their plans soon.

O'Donnell to Play Seagraves

A ball game between the local team and Seagraves is scheduled for Sunday afternoon. Since Seagraves defeated the home boys in the last game, it is expected a hard fight will be put up to regain lost glories.

The game will be played in the athletic park and it is desired to have everyone interested in the team attend.

Young Folks Are Entertained with Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Everett was the pretty setting of a charming little party Friday of last week from 6 to 9 when their children, J. Y. and Ina D., entertained their little playmates. Although there was a steady rain falling it did not interfere with the prompt arrival of the little guests, who came, some chaperoned by their mothers in closed cars, and others wrapped in rain coats and some protected by umbrellas and by 6:15 sixteen youngsters after having been served red punch from a gorgeously decorated punch bowl and being presented with red, white and blue caps and arm bands were gallantly singing "America," "Star Spangled Banner," and other patriotic airs so dear to every true young American.

Jolly games and interesting contests followed and two hours of fun ensued. Chicken sandwiches, ice tea and cake were served to Evelyn Bailey, Alice Joy Bowlin, Hazel Caddell, Novis Hart, Beverly and Jim Ellen Wells, and Newman Caddell, Glynn Everett, Lowell Pugh, Ralph Beach, Sam Singleton, Claude and Clyde Tate and Cecil Tredway.

Sanderson Brothers Move Into New Building

The Sanderson brothers, Morris and Mose, have been engaged the past two days in moving the equipment of the Sanderson Service Station from its old location to the especially built quarters in the new Sanderson building. In the new home the proprietors will be in better shape than ever to make the place all that the name implies. They are extending an invitation to everyone to visit their place of business, the opening day, Saturday.

The protracted meeting is still in progress at the First Christian Church.

Band Has First Rehearsal

The O'Donnell band had its first rehearsal in concert Monday night at the school building and those who heard the music are very enthusiastic over the showing the members made under the able leadership of Prof. H. James Bailey. The 20 members participating in the concert have been receiving individual instructions for only about five weeks and their playing reflected the interest they have been taking in the work. Ten of the members did not participate on account of not having had their instruments only a few days. Following is the program rendered:

March.....Activity
Overture.....Festal
Schottische...Dance of the Imps
March.....Project
American.

After the concert a business session was entered into in which Travis Everett was elected secretary and a committee consisting of five Boy Scouts was elected to attend to the details of a public concert to be given on the streets of O'Donnell on Sunday afternoon of August 5th.

The members of the chamber of commerce are sponsoring the band and they will await its first public appearance with much interest.

Stereopticon Lecture Saturday

Another stereopticon lecture will be given by Rev. J. Wood Parker on the streets Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock to which the public is invited to attend. This lecture is purely an educational affair and the slides were sent out by the State Department of Health in order to educate the public to the danger of allowing flies and other germ-carrying insects to breed and spread diseases.

Rev. Parker lectured to a large crowd at the State Theatre Saturday afternoon and has been asked to give it again. Don't miss it.

"Icebound" Is Feature Picture at State

"Her Marriage Vow," which will be shown Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre throws a fierce searchlight on the problem of living up to the marriage vow. It is the story of Carol, the most popular girl in her set, who turns down a wealthy young man to marry a man who has only a meagre salary check to offer. The rejected suitor, Ted Lowe continues to bob up on the scene and provides the wedge of calamity when misunderstandings and suspicions begin to appear. The cast in this picture is one of the best ever assembled and includes Monte Blue, Beverly Bayne, Willard Louis Margaret Livingston and John Roche.

Few situations in recent motion pictures are as striking as the episode in William de Mille's production of "Icebound" for Paramount, in which a girl steals the new dress of her rival, finds herself in the arms of the man at the very moment that the owner of the dress enters, and then shamefacedly offers to return the garment.

The contest between the two young women is actuated by different motives—one hopes to win him back to cheerfulness and a joy in work, the other seeks him only for herself. Jane, who is made guardian of the youth by his mother's will, tries to arouse all the finer instincts in him through a sunny disposition and good clothes. Nettie, a country girl seeking a love affair, and realizing that Jane's party dress may win the youth from her, steals it and wears it—with highly dramatic results.

Lois Wilson has the part of Jane, Richard Dix appears as the youth, and Vera Reynolds has the role of Nettie. This picture will be shown Wednesday and Thursday.

On Friday Neal Hart, America's Pal, will be seen in a fast action picture, of the early days in the desert hills, entitled "The Valley of Vanishing Men." Fox

News and a Fox Comedy complete the program.

On Saturday another of the famous F. B. O. action pictures will be shown. We have not as yet been able to learn the name of this picture but it will be a good one and will please all who like plenty of fast moving events. The third of the "Telephone Girl" series will also be shown.

C. O. Moser, secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association and also secretary of the American Cotton Growers Association, will speak at the School auditorium on July 24th at 8 o'clock on matters of importance to farmers.

Mr. Pounds, Mrs. T. J. Knight's father was among those reported ill this week.

Mrs. Billy Huey and little son, Billy Sam, of Electra, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Harvey Everett last week.

Fairley's Return From California

A. C. Fairley and family returned from a month's visit to California last Friday. His son, J. D., was quite ill when they arrived and has since been confined to his bed. Mrs. Fairley has also been ill since they returned.

After seeing the wide expanse of country between here and California, they are better pleased with the O'Donnell country than ever and expect to make this their home for all time. While in California they visited Mr. Fairley's brothers, C. E. Fairley at Long Beach, and C. O. Fairley at Eagle Rock, both of whom have good positions.

Joe Sikes has been moving his stock from his old stand to the new location in the Sanderson building this week. The store will be ready for business Saturday and Mr. Sikes is desirous of having every person in town that day visit his store and see what he has to offer in the way of groceries. The Sikes store has always been popular with the buying public and with more room and a better location will no doubt prove more popular in the future.

Mexican Found Dead in Bed

Judge W. B. Phillips and Dr. J. F. Campbell were called out to Jim Payne's farm early Thursday morning to hold an inquest over the body of a Mexican who was found dead in his bed. After an examination by the doctor, death by natural causes was the verdict given.

The Mexican, who was 48 years of age, was employed by Mr. Payne as a cotton chopper, and when he retired Wednesday night he was seemingly in good health and when his bedfellow, another Mexican, attempted to wake him to cook breakfast he found that he was sleeping his last sleep, having died without a struggle.

The Mexican being without money, Mr. Payne secured a coffin for the dead man and his companions took the body to Roswell, New Mexico, for burial.

Cards received by friends from Misses Odessa Henderson and Lois Pugh state that they spent the Fourth in El Paso and left there the next day for California where they would spend the summer. They spent a week camping in the mountains in New Mexico.

Ford Employing Over 161,000

The Ford organization is now employing more than 161,000 persons in its various activities throughout the United States, according to the latest employment figures. This is a record for the industry.

The largest increase has come, as might be expected, in the Detroit area where the Ford Motor Company's big manufacturing plants are located. Here close to 14,500 have been added to the employment list since March 1.

The big majority of workers are employed, of course, at the Highland Park and River Rouge plants. The River Rouge now has 52,800 on its payroll a record for that plant. Highland Park still leads all plants with 55,300 employees, though this number is considerably lower than the peak employment record of 1923 which was before the transfer of several thousand men to River Rouge when the motor assembly and crankshaft departments were moved there.

Along with the steady increase in employment in Detroit, due to greater production demands, there have been corresponding increases at domestic assembly plants until the employment rolls for these now show close to 44,000 employees.

Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Kibbe and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carroll went up to Hereford last Friday to spend the Fourth, returning Monday. They report having had a most enjoyable time. Following a custom of many years the old settlers of Hereford met at the R. J. Kibbe grove and enjoyed a basket picnic after which a patriotic program was had which was attended by a large number of people.

On their return Monday the party encountered the rain-belt 15 miles out of Hereford which extended to near O'Donnell. They report crop conditions splendid to the north but were not so far advanced as the crops near here, which are regarded as the best on the South-plains.

THE BEST TOWN.

There are fancier towns than our little town, there are towns that are bigger than this, and the people who live in the smaller towns don't know what excitement they miss. There are things you see in the wealthier towns that you can't in a town that's small; and yet, up and down, there is no other town like our little town after all. It may be that the streets aren't long, they're not wide nor maybe straight, but the neighbors you know in your own little town all welcome a fellow—it's great. In the glittering streets of the glittering town, with its palace and pavement and thrall, in the midst of the throng you will frequently long for your own little town after all. If you live and you work in your own little town, in spite of the fact that it's small, you'll find it a fact that our own little town is the best little town after all.

A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is helping to dig its grave. A man that cusses the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give to the town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral, sings the doxology. And thus the town lies buried from all the sorrows in the world.

KING OF THE RODEOS

(Copyright by R. R. Doubleday.)

Tex Austin, a name that is known in every locality in the country where horses are bred or cattle raised. Such is the man who will draw on his years of experience to manage the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo to be held for nine days, beginning August 15.

"King of the Rodeo" is the title Austin has won. Born in the great state for which he was named, he was raised in the atmosphere of the range. He participated in the thrilling deeds of the famous contests of the Far West and then became a ranchman himself. Wherever the roundups have been staged, Austin's name has become synonymous with the cowboy sport. In the effort to perpetuate the spirit of the West, he managed and directed numberless rodeos in the West, also giving the East its first thrills from cowboy contests. Then, spreading the fame of Uncle Sam further, he put on the great international rodeo at Wembley, England, under the auspices of the British government.

It pays to advertise. Recently W. H. Crunk was in a neighboring town and needing some repairs for his car, he asked the garage man if he would take his check for the work. "Who are you, anyhow?" asks the garage man. "I'm Crunk, the lawyer from O'Donnell," answered Crunk. "O, you are the guy that headed the procession on the dun horse through the streets of your town when you returned with your bride, eh? I read that in the Index. Of course your check is good," said the garage man. And the two were made happy.

Mrs. Gibbs Hostess to Club

Mrs. A. W. Gibbs was the charming hostess to the Lucky Thirteen Club Friday at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. H. Schooler. An examination in geography was first given causing a lot of hard thinking as well as fun, some of the questions and answers running like this:

"What is the lightest city in the world?" Answer, Cork.

"What is the sweetest city in the world?" Answer, Cologne.

What country is most disliked by housewives?" Answer, Greece.

The ones making the highest grade won first table and so on down to table three for games of forty-two. Mrs. Huey, Mrs. Everett, Mrs. Crunk and Miss Eills won first table. Quite jolly were the games which followed, after which delicious refreshments were served consisting of dainty sandwiches, ice tea, pickles, grape juice and cake to the following guests and members: Judge Crunk, Billy Huey, C. M. Cox, C. I. Kuykendall, Albert Koeninger, Haney, Everett, Morris Sanderson, E. L. Sorrels, E. T. Wells, R. H. Schooler and Misses Laynett Smith, Ellis and Willie Schooler.

Farmers South of Town Want Road Extended to Cary's

While in town Tuesday, H. W. McKee, who lives south of town, stated that O'Donnell needed to wake up to its interests and have a road opened up running south from Doak street, by the Hester and Williams places and intersect a lane that ends near the Cary farm. As the road now runs, people living in his community are compelled to make a long detour to reach town to do their shopping.

The attention of the Chamber of Commerce is called to this needed road improvement and the matter should be taken up at its next meeting. Mr. McKee is not the first farmer residing south of town to call the attention of the Index to the shortening of the distance to town.

During the past year he has had considerable practical work in Dallas which admirably fits him to take care of practice here during the absence of our regular D. Ds. The people of O'Donnell are glad that he has decided to spend the summer here.

Stores Close on Independence Day

The only diversion from every day affairs on the Fourth was the closing of all stores and a ball game between the local team and Hollywood, O'Donnell winning the game. Our citizens spent the day to suit their fancy, some visiting other towns and some staying at home.

The Hollywooders were again defeated by the O'Donnell team in a spirited game Sunday afternoon.
