Pioneer Dies

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Friday in the O'Donnell Methodist Church for Charles Olive Hart, local pioneer who died at 3 p. m. last Tuesday in a La-mesa hospital. Mr. Hart had been in failing health for the past several months.

He was born at Denton Aug. 6 1875 and moved to this area just after the turn of the century. He filed on a homestead east of Hindman Swtich, five miles south of here. His sister, Miss Ella Hart, lived with him for a time, but later moved to Kenna, N. M. where she homesteaded before her marriage to the late Claude Wasson, Mr. Hart ranched until 1917 when the drouth forced him to move his cattle to grass in the Manzana Mountains in New Mexico. He later farmed until his retirement.

He was the last of the first coun ty officials of Dawson county being elected on March 20, 1905. At the election Lamesa was also named the county seat. All of the original county officials of Dawson are now dead, Elected as first officials M. C. Lindsey, county judge, D. C. Crawford, sheriff, Geo. McSpadden, tax assessor, H. G. Donaldson, co. clerk, Jess Evans, treasurer. Com-missioners were J. D Garner, Pct. 1, Mr. Hart, Pct. 2, Joe Simmons Pct. 3, and John Coffee, Pct. 4.

He was a long time member of the Presbyterian Church. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Wasson, Rt. D, Lamesa, and J. J. Pugh of here, one bro-Mrs. ther, M. A. Hart of Utica, Okla., as well as 13 nieces and nephews. Mr. Hart was widely known and respected here being one of our finest senior citizens.

FATAL CAR CRASH NEAR HERE -0-

A Lamesa man, Charles Hale, was killed instantly Saturday 37 when the car he was driving caroon-ed off a highway marker and rolled over about 2 miles north of here on Highway 87 at about 7:30 p.m. A passenger in the car with Hale, Roy Honeycutt, a Dawson County resident, was taken to a Tahoka hospital but later released. Hale hit highway carker on the right side and the force of the impact sent the car across the highway and the momentum apparently threw Hale's body half out the front door and as the car rolled over he was crushed.

Children Pictures To Be Taken Here Friday -0-

The time is almost here for the opening of this' newspaper's Big Child Photograph Contest and we are urging our readers to have their children ready for the big day.

Winston B. Lucas of Irving will be in O'Donnell Friday July 12th from 10 a. m. until 6 p. m. at the Index Press office for the purpose of taking pictures in this vicinity.

In addition to having their pictures printed in this newspaper, the Children will be competing for $18.20 in prizes, which are being offered for the three best photo-graphs made during the day.

The photographs will be made absolutely free of charge, and there is no charge for their pub-lication in the Index. Proofs will be shown and from these you may select the pictures of your child which you would like to appear in this newspaper. If you wish extra photographs, they may be purchased, but no purchase is neces-sary in order to have your child's picture printed in this newspaper or in order to compete for prizes. It is entirely up to the you whether you buy pictures or not.

There is no age limit on the contest and every child's photograph in this section is wanted so that they may all appear in The Index. However it is necessary that all pictures must be of uniform size, so they must be made by Winston B. Lucas on Friday, July 12th from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Don't wait until little Mary gets married or baby brother is elected to some political office to see their pictures in the paper - make plans now to have these photographs made on Friday, July 12th. Tell your friends and neighbors more, the merrier.

CROPS LOOK EXCELLENT

Cotton and feed over this area generally looks very good at this time of the year. Cotton chopping is in full swing and fields are weedy due to late spring rains. Cost per acre is running from $3 to $6 per acre. Late cotton planted since the late June hail is up to stand and doing well. Feed, with its lateral root system is twisted some in late afternoon and needs rain.

Prospects for above an average cotton crop are excellent. Temperpast two weeks have atures for averaged 99 degrees with a high of 107 June 29th.

Free Speech Issue In Court Proceeding

LINCOLN, Ill .- Free speech was the issue here in a contempt of court case in which nearly 600 persons faced possible fines and jail sentences.

The defendants, many of them members of a reform group known as the "Good Government Council of Logan County," were cited for contempt for petitioning Circuit Judge Frank M. Bevan to replace a state's attorney in a case involving the prosecutor's friend.

Judge Bevan said the petition contained "odious, defamatory language concerning an official of this ourt," State's Attorney Edwin C. Mille

Members of the Good Government Council contended Judge Bevan could not hold them in contempt and said if the prosecutor felt he was defamed by the petition he could sue them in a civil court
