BERRY FLAT NEWS
The Berry Flat Stitch Club met with Mrs. Roy Burdett last week. About 18 members were present and all enjoyed the event.

Mr and Mrs Matt Farmer, Shorty and Bill Staggs visited Mr and Mrs Bill Howard of Snyder Sunday.

Mrs. Dick Simpson visited in Amarillo and Kansas last week.

There was church at Berry Flat Sunday and Sunday night. Bro. Ell Williams and Bro. Shelby conducted the services.

LIKE A CITY
According to J. Ben Stone of the Rotary, residents may buy street numbers from J. Mack Noble over at the P. O. at $2 each. The index has noted the signs are up and they make the town look as nice as Lubbock -- well, anyway, nice as Tahika.

Harvey Lee Jordan celebrated his 7th birthday Saturday with a theatre party. A number of young guests attended.

Monday afternoon Charles Gardenhire observed his 4th anniversary with a party at the theatre. A number of guests attended having punch and cake and seeing movie comics.

Frank Turner, father of Mrs. Shag Garrett passed away Sunday at San Angelo. Our sympathy at Mr and Mrs. Charlie Cathey and boys visited Mr and Mrs. Stanley Cathey at McCameyover the week end.

Latest report from little Linda Jones at Lubbock is that she is much improved from an attack of virus flu.

Many of this area are knocked out with attacks of the old time flu, colds, etc. and in the school mumps, pink eyes, and other child hood diseases are going the rounds.

This week and henceforth we notify our dear readers by post card when the Temple needs money. The Index is the only West Texas weekly selling at $1.50. Some folks think $1.50 is too little amount of money to fool with and never pay; but brother it ain't hay to us and the kids.

RITEs READ FOR W. H. HARRIS HERE MONDAY

The Community's beloved good friend, William Henry Harris, age 61, resident here 2 miles east of town for 27 years, passed on Sunday morning at a Portales, N. M. hospital. He had been a patient there for 2 or 3 weeks.

Funeral services were held here at 3 p. m. Monday in the Church of Christ, R. P. Drennon of Ft. Surr N. M. officiating assisted by A. L. Golden of Amarillo and Mr. Bishop local minister of the Church of Christ. Interment followed in the local cemetery. Survivors are the wife, two daughters, Mrs. Harlan Austin of Hobbs, N. M. and Mrs. Haskell Davis of Elida, N. M., 3 sons, Dick of here, W. L. of Lubbock and Max of Lamesa, 3 brothers, Leonard of Rising Star, A. P. of Roscoe and Claude of Ft. Worth one sister, Mrs. Georgia Crossnoe of Lubbock, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were S. F. Johnson, John Vermillion, F. M. Minton, C. L. Tomlinson, all of here and honor ary pallbearers were Roy Mills, Shack Blocker, Elbert Myers, B. B. Foreman, John Ellis of O'Donnell and George Smith of Lamesa.

Flower bearers were Mesdames Moody Everett, Nodia Treadway, Merle Schoeller, Lois Smith Hazel Johnson, Georgia Ruth Smith, Irene Vermillion, Irene Fritz, Jessie Holt of Lubbock.

Among the out of town friends and relatives here were Mr and Mrs. John Proctor of Tahoka, Tom and Bob Hodnett of Rising Star, Mr and Mrs. Davis of Lubbock Mr and Mrs. Gus Bettis of Woody, Mr and Mrs. Melvin Isaac of Lubbock, Mr and Mrs. Elmo Burkett of Portales, Mr and Mrs. Clay Searcy of Lubbock, Mrs. Tom Butler of Brownwood, Mrs. Jessie Holt of Lubbock Mr and Mrs. Bill Hays of Ballinger Mr and Mrs. O'Connor, Arnold Lams and son of Millensand, N. M. and Mr and Mrs. Ed McKee of Seagraves as well as a host of others whose names we missed.

It is a sad chore of a country editor to from time to time give up a good friend. As a man said Monday, "there are no better men than Henry Harris." By way of public service he was our school trustee for a score or more of years and a member of his church for 17 years. He settled just east of town 27 years ago and he with his neighbors shaped the growth and the traditions of our town and our area. He was a typical West Texan tanned by the winds, the sand-storms, the northers, the summer sun of the Plains. His warm brown eyes sparkled in a cherry greeting and he never spoke unless it was to say something nice to or about a person. His loss goes beyond the deep loss to his family and friends. He made friends with new comers and he was as much an asset to them as the warming sun and the thirist quenching rains of a summer shower. We bow our heads in tribute to our friend, Henry.

J. T. Forbes Is Mayor Candidate
The Index has been advised by City Secretary Tom Yandell that J. T. (Jimmy) Forbes, our person able Ford Dealer, has filed for the post of Mayor in the April election.

Mr. Forbes, in his mid thirties moved here about 3 years ago and has proved himself an efficient business man, a capable church leader. He is a graduate industrial engineer and was an oil company engineer before moving here. Friends of Mr. Forbes advised the Index that here is a case of a job seeking a man of unusual qualifications.

Mr and Mrs. Lefty Melton and family have moved to Weatherford. We will miss this fine family.

Mother-Daughter Dinner Is Held By F. H. A.

The O'Donnell Chapter of F. H. A. entertained their mothers with a dinner in the Homemaker's Cottage on Thursday evening of last week. The dinner gave the girls an opportunity to let their mothers know what they have been learning about planning dinners, decorating, cooking and serving.

The buffet table was centered with a bubbling centerpiece on which floated a white carnation and fern. Back of this was an arrangement of red and white candles, signifying the 8 purposes of the club and fern and red roses, the club flower.

Everything from the invitations and program to the baked ham and ice cream was planned and prepared by the girls. The program included a "Welcome to Mothers" by Helen Jones, a "Response for Mothers" by Mrs. Sam Nelms and the installation service of officers.

The President, Elaine Hohn pinned a red rose on each officer. The program closed with the Club's song. Those attending were Mrs. Vera Etter, Pat and Peggy Etter, Mrs. Leona Cook, Bertha Cook, Mrs. Lois Stalcup, Edwanda Stalcup, Mrs. Gertrude Rains, Anna, Lois Rains, Mrs. Larena Harris, Wanda Harris, Mrs. Kittle Glenn, Shirley Glenn, Mrs. Flora Story, Betty Story, Mrs. Goldie Smith, Sue Smith, Mrs. Beatrice Nelms, Norma Nelms, Mrs. Alice Eaker, Carlene Eaker, Mrs. Jewel Seely, Norma Seely, Mrs. Minnie Reeves, Frances Reeves, Mrs. Pearl Gleghorn, Shirley Gleghorn, Mrs. Alta Lee Hohn, Elaine Hohn, Mrs. Alta Jones, Helen Jones, Pat Simpson, Jimmy Fultz, Alice Stinnett, Peggy McKee and sponsor, Miss Helen Stokes.

Mr and Mrs. Marcus Pearce attended the funeral of her nephew, Bobby Lee King at Monahan Saturday afternoon. Eobby Lee King was the son of Mr and Mrs. G. W. King of Wickett.

Milk cows and young calves. See Walter Teeter.

The Sherman Innman family moved this week to an irrigated quarter section near Muleshoe; They leave many friends here who wish them the very best at their new home. Muleshoe is lucky to have the Innman family.

J. T. Edwards Seeks Constable Job
The Index has been authorized to announce the candidacy of J. T. Edwards for Constable of the O'Donnell precinct subject to the action of the July primaries.

Mr. Edwards is our nitewatchman and has been since last May. He needs no introduction as he has made many friends and acquaintances during that period. Mr. Edwards said, that if elected, he would try and enforce the laws of the land impartially and to the best of his ability. In so far as possible he will try and solicit the vote of each resident of this precinct personally.

FFA Boys To Have Project Show Saturday
The Third Annual FFA Project Show will be held at the Vocational Agriculture building at the school Saturday February 25th. T. L. Leach of Texas Tech College at Lubbock will judge the animals.

Approximately 25 hogs, 10 lambs and 12 calves will be entered for the judging. These animals are FFA projects of the boys studying Vocational Agriculture.

The past two years the show has been sponsored by the local Rotary Club and they did a splendid job. The FFA boys have decided to operate the show this year in order to obtain additional experience.

The superintendents for the 3 divisions are Gall Barnett, Sheep, Tommy Billings, Hogs; and Elton Childress, calves. Glen Brewer will be in charge of the concession, Carroll Pearson, local FFA president, will be General Superintendent and Raymond Hancock will be assistant superintendent.

All animals will be in place by 9:30 Saturday morning and the judging will begin at 1:30 p. m. We hope you will attend.

Midland Man To Speak At Methodist Church Sunday
You will be interested to know that Delbert Downing of the Midland Chamber of Commerce will be the speaker at the Methodist Church next Sunday, Feb. 26th. Naymon Everett and Preston Stokes fished at Sugar Lake last week.

Mrs. J. D. Holcomb and Dorothy of Lubbock visited Mr and Mrs. Sid Jones over week end.

Phone Co-Op Is Formed At Tahoka

The Pokalambro Rural Telephone Co-op, Inc. was organized Thursday in Tahoka at meeting of some 250 persons from 10 near by counties. A charter is being requested from the Texas Secretary of State in order that funds appropriated last fall by the 81st Congress may be utilized.

Elected to head the Board of Directors was J. S. Allen of Lamesa. He headed a delegation to Austin Sunday where they appeared before Gov. Allan Shivers in an effort to get him to introduce in the special session a proposal authorizing the Secretary of State power to grant this group a charter.

Allen pointed out that the Secretary of State is the only person who can authorize charters but that no provisions is made for the granting of charters for telephone cooperatives, hence the Legislature must authorize the Secretary of State such authority.

He said that unless the Legislature takes action during the special session it would be 1952 before the charter could be secured and possibly a year later before the organization could avail itself of the funds appropriated by Congress. He urges that all persons interested in rural telephone service write Gov. Shivers or Rep. Preston Smith to help get the enabling act passed.

The Rural Electrification Administration is working with the formation of the cooperative and the funds will be allocated through the REA.

The Pokalambro Cooperative is composed of the counties of Borden, Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, Garza, Perry, Hockley, Yoakum and parts of Lubbock and Martin.

Directors are V. R. Osborne of Brownfield, V. H. Wheatly of Brownfield, George Teague of Lamesa, J. S. Allen of Lamesa, Claude Wells of Post and Lloyd McCormick of Tahoka. Judge Tom Garrard of Tahoka was selected as the legal adviser.

Mr. Joe Lehman and family are moving into the Giles Reed house.

Summer Clayton, Jimmy Hash, Ervyn Boothe fished in Old Mexico last week.

Lee Haymes of Munday visited his brother and family, Mr and Mrs. B. M. Haymes last week.

Mrs. Alice Doak, Mr and Mrs. Major H. Rodgers of Vista, Calif. Mr and Mrs. Morris Sanderson of Seagraves and Mr and Mrs. Ben Moore, sr were attending to business in Tahoka over the week end.

Young Folks Enjoy Party
Patricia Kay Hunt was hostess to a group of her little friends last Saturday celebrating her Fifth birthday. After games carrying out the theme of Valentine Day were played, pictures were taken. The guests were served ice cream and cake. Those attending were Johnny and Sammy Anderson, Nina Bingham, Larry McLaurin, Jerre Pearce, Sammy Johns, Buster and Betty Lou Snellgrove, Janice Hunt, and Patricia Hunt. Others present were Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Mrs. B. A. Anderson, Mrs. D. Bingham, Mrs. Hornaday Mc Laurin, Mrs. G. R. Pearce and Marcus Allen, Mrs. Hollis Hunt and Mrs. J. N. Line.

Kerr And Middleton Get Borden Paving Job

INVEST -- WHILE OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS
A CAT RANCH is now being organized by the Temple of Truth with 100,000 CATS. Each cat will average 12 kittens a year. The cat skins will sell at 30 cents each. One hundred men can skin 5,000 cats a day. We figure a daily profit of over $10,000!!

What shall we feed the cats? We will establish a rat ranch next door with a million rats. The rats will breed 12 times faster than the cats. So, we'll have four rats to feed each day to each cat. Now, what shall we feed the rats? We will feed the rats the carcasses of the cats after they have been skinned.

NOW GET THIS!
We feed the rats to the cats and the cats to the rats and we get the cat skins for nothing!

Shares of stock in this great Temple of Truth ranch are selling rapidly for CASH. But get this: each time you renew your Index you one share FREE!

Nothing aside, postal regulations prevent us mailing this paper at the end of the subscription date.

Effective Cough Syrup, Home-Mixed for Extra Economy

Saves Big Dollars. No Cooking.

This splendid recipe is used by millions because it makes such an effective medicine for coughs due to colds. It's so easy to mix—a child could do it.

From any drugstore get 2½ ounces of Pinex, a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its soothing effect on throat and bronchial irritations.

Then make a syrup with two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle and fill up with your syrup. This makes a full pint of cough medicine, very effective and quick-acting, and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its pleasant taste.

That cough syrup takes hold of coughs, giving quick relief. It loosens phlegm, soothes irritated membranes, helps clear air passages. Money refunded if Pinex doesn't please.

FOR EXTRA CONVENIENCE GET NEW READY-MIXED, READY-TO-USE PINEX!

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slow down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up night or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild cathartic. Used successfully by millions for over 40 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

Youngsters Should Have An Opportunity to Cook, Learn About Food Items

MOTHERS who give their children a chance to work in the kitchen with actual foods as they're supposed to be served contribute highly to bringing up good and helpful adults.

Their aren't the daughters who are all thumbs when it comes to preparing their first meal after marriage, nor are their sons inept at tossing together a salad to help out a new bride!

Most youngsters actually like cooking, and during growing years can be really helpful to mother, if they're given the opportunity to learn.

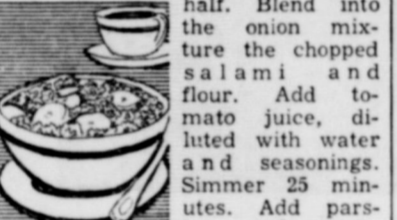

It's a smart idea to plan an occasional simple menu which the teen-agers in the family can take over completely. Start out by having them prepare one and two dishes on the menu, and it won't be long before they're saying, "Move over, Mother, we'll take dinner preparation off your hands."

SPAGHETTI is a favorite dish for teen-agers to prepare. Here's one made with salami that needs only a tossed green salad and fresh or canned fruit to complete the menu.

Quick Italian Spaghetti (Serves 6-8)

- ½ pound salami
- Lard or drippings for browning
- 1 cup onions, chopped
- 1 cup fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 1 tablespoon flour
- ½ cups tomato juice
- 1 cup water
- 1½ teaspoons worcestershire sauce
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons parsley, minced
- 4 green pepper, chopped
- 6-8 ounces uncooked spaghetti

Brown onions and mushrooms lightly in drippings. Cut ½ of salami into 8 thin slices and grind or chop other half. Blend into the onion mixture the chopped salami and flour. Add tomato juice, diluted with water and seasonings. Simmer 25 minutes. Add parsley and green pepper and cook 5 minutes longer. In the meantime cook spaghetti in boiling, salted water until tender. To serve, make a ring of the cooked spaghetti on platter and pour spaghetti sauce in center. Circle with sliced salami.

M EAT LOAF lends itself easily to preparation by novices in the kitchen. Here's one made mainly with ham and fortified with other meat and bread.

*Ham Loaf (Serves 10)

- 1½ pounds ground ham shank
- ½ pound ground beef, lamb or veal
- 4 slices bread, flaked
- 2 eggs

If daughter likes to try her hand at glamorous but failure-proof desserts, this sunshine peach pie is just her ticket. There's no trouble about a tender crust when sugar-honey graham crackers are blended with butter and sugar. Canned cling peaches go into the light chiffon filling as well as on top.

LYNN SAYS: Use These Tricks For Food Preparation

When recipes call for seasoned flour to dredge meat or fish, use the following proportions: 1 cup flour, 1 tablespoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper.

To make butter balls, scald and chill a pair of wooden butter paddles in ice water. Drop butter in heaping teaspoonfuls into iced water. When these are cold, roll each piece slightly between the chilled paddles.

Apple-sausage corn bread is a main dish which the whole family will appreciate, but it's easy enough for a beginner to prepare. The recipe is simple, the results impressive. Served with a green vegetable and a relish plate of carrot strips, celery, pickles and olives, then topped with a simple dessert, this main dish will give a well-balanced meal.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

- *Ham Loaf
- Baked Squash with Buttered Green Peas
- Cinnamon Apple Salad
- Hot Rolls
- *Sunshine Peach Pie
- Beverage

*Recipe Given

- 2 cups milk
- 1 medium sized onion, grated
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Combine ingredients in order given and pack into a greased loaf pan. Bake in a slow (300°) oven for 1½ hours.

GIVE THE TEEN-AGERS

desserts which are easy to prepare, but which look special when they're finished. Everyone likes to turn out desserts which are pretty as a picture.

*Sunshine Peach Pie (Serves 6-8)

- Crumb Shell: 1¼ cups fine sugar-honey graham cracker crumbs
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- ¼ cup melted butter

Filling:

- 2 eggs
- ¼ cup milk
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon plain gelatin
- ¼ cup orange juice
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cups canned cling peaches

To make shell, blend crumbs, sugar and butter and pack firmly into bottom and sides of nine-inch pie pan. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 10 minutes. Cool.

To make filling, separate eggs and beat yolks. Combine yolks, milk, ¼ cup sugar and salt. Cook and stir over hot water until mixture coats the spoon. Remove from heat. Soften gelatin in orange juice, then dissolve in hot mixture. Add rind and lemon juice. Cool until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Beat egg whites until stiff and gradually beat in remaining sugar. Fold into cooled mixture. Fold in peach slices, thoroughly drained, reserving a few for garnish. Pour into cooled shell. Top with remaining slices. Chill until firm.

Banana-Apricot Fluff (Serves 6-8)

- 1 package orange-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup hot water
- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 cups thinly sliced bananas (2 to 3 whole)
- ¼ cup apricot puree

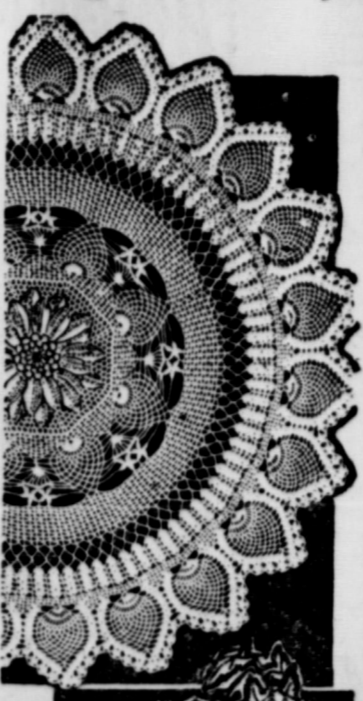

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add sugar, salt and orange juice. Chill until cold and syrupy. Combine bananas and apricot puree; add to gelatin mixture. Beat with rotary beater until thick and fluffy like whipped cream. Chill and serve.

Fried foods should be well drained before serving so they are not excessively greasy. Use crumpled absorbent paper such as toweling arranged on a baking pan or a colander.

For shallow frying in a skillet, have at least 1½ inches of melted fat or oil in the pan before placing the food in to cook.

Pan-broiling a cut of meat means that it is cooked in a skillet or frying pan without the use of extra fat. Make certain the pan is hot before placing in chops or steaks.

50,000 Miles - No Wear!

1. Five Years' Driving in 70 Days! To test the wear-fighting ability of amazing new Conoco Super Motor Oil, six brand-new cars raced over blistering highways along the Mexican border . . . 14 hours a day for 10 weeks. After 50,000 miles of continuous driving, engines showed no wear of any consequence . . . in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth of an inch on crankshafts and cylinders! Astounding proof: factory polishing marks were still visible on piston rings!

2. New-Car Mileage! For the last 5,000 miles of this gruelling test—equal to 5 years of normal mileage—gasoline mileage was as good as for the first 5,000 miles . . . actually there was an average difference for the fleet of only 4/100 of a mile per gallon! Proved: Conoco Super Motor Oil—with crankcase drains at proper intervals and regular care—can keep your new car new! New Conoco Super Motor Oil conclusively showed itself to be the great new modern wear-fighter!

3. New-Car Power! Quicker Starts! Yes—Conoco Super Motor Oil's extra protection keeps that factory flash . . . that showroom smoothness . . . year after year! Conoco Super Motor Oil's exclusive ability to OIL-PLATE metal surfaces makes your engine last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil! Conoco Super Motor Oil virtually stops wear before it starts . . . keeps your engine new and clean!

It's the bigger

It's the "big car" of its field. Big car V-8 power... more "sitting room" than any other low-cost car... big-car strength of Ford's 13-way stronger "Lifeguard" Body.

It's the better

Everything about the '50 Ford spells quality. The quiet, "sound-conditioned" interior... the low, level comfort of Ford's "Mid Ship" Ride... Ford's 35% easier-acting King-Size Brakes... the 50 new quality features.

It's the buy

Only Ford in its field offers you so much quality for so little money. Ford's "bushed" V-8 engine is the same kind of engine now used in America's costliest cars, yet it's yours for hundreds less than most "sixes."

Sweat Down Costs

Sweat down your production costs if you want to maintain profits in these days of declining farm prices.

One way to sweat down those costs is to increase your crop yields per acre. More bushels of corn and grain per acre, more pounds of meat, milk, dairy products and poultry mean lower production costs per unit. On such a basis you can make a profit even if prices slacken further.

You can get those higher yields and lower costs with good soil management. Good soil management means giving your soil a fair deal. It means supplying the soil a well-balanced ration of plant foods, so crops will be well nourished. It means building up instead of breaking down soil structure and tilth. It means "recharging" the land with soil-enriching crops at regular intervals, instead of growing soil-draining row crops year after year on the same land.

Caution Urged In Use Of Chemicals, Sprays

Dust sprays, gasses and other insecticides will do much to promote the healthy growth of fruits and vegetables is the gist of instruction being passed out now by county agents over the nation.

However, these can often have just the opposite effect on people. Even though the container may not bear the skull and crossbones label, caution is necessary since many substances are harmful in some ways to man, despite the fact that they may not be definitely poisonous.

The whole story of safety in use of insecticides, it was pointed out, is simply precaution.

BASIC STUDY IS HUMAN NATURE

There are many readers of the Index who constantly resolve to improve their minds by reading intelligently written books in the hope that they will become better equipped to understand the many issues that crowd them as they try to keep pace with this modern world.

This impulse is good and should be acted upon but very often in our search for the new we have a tendency to overlook the value of the old.

For this reason we would remind our readers that, under all modern issues, however expressed, human nature asserts itself much the same as it did in past ages. Therefore, the basic study for modern troubles is improved human beings.

By the general consent of almost all of mankind, the Bible has long been recognized as preeminent in the field of human nature, possessing the fundamental guides to improving human beings. It might be a good idea, then, for all of us to give a little more diligent study to the great truths that are set out in the Book of Books.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Announces U.S. Will Add Hydrogen Bomb to Arms Program; Major Housing Plan Is Envisioned

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

H-BOMBS:

Time of Decision

One of the most important decisions in world history had been put up to Harry S. Truman. Should he order construction of the hydrogen bomb?

When, after a respectable period of deliberation, he did make up his mind, the President expressed his decision in the most matter-of-fact manner possible.

The U. S. would continue its development and production of all types of military weapons, including atomic armaments and the so-called hydrogen bomb. That statement, probably intentionally cryptic, may or may not have meant that the U. S. already has begun work on the H-bomb.

Only one thing was sure—it was a terribly important decision, not only to Mr. Truman but to every person in the world.

IT WASN'T the cost of the bomb that was a poser, even though that was expected to be in the neighborhood of four billion dollars. It wasn't a doubt as to whether it could be made, for science declared it could. It wasn't a hesitancy about its effect, for if an enemy decided to, and could, construct the bomb, any experiments on the part of the U. S. to make and test it would be justified.

No, it was none of these that aggravated the responsibility and the solemnity of the decision. Instead, it was the question of life and death involved and, even more terrible, if purely speculative, question: Might not man be unleashing a force which would destroy all mankind?

THE PREPONDERANCE of persuasion was by those advocating the bomb. Sen Millard Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the armed services committee gave voice to what the majority of presidential advisers was thinking.

He urged that the U. S. proceed with manufacture of the bomb, declaring that failure to do so could invite attack. But President Truman was probably thinking of the horrible and utter devastation, the incalculable deaths, the vast destruction which would be hurled upon enemy and innocent alike.

BROTHERHOOD:

Renewed Effort

Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will be observed from February 19-26, marking the annual observance of an event that has grown into national significance.

In accepting the honorary chairmanship of Brotherhood Week, President Truman urged "all Americans to ponder well the true meaning of brotherhood" adding that "there probably has never been a time in history when true brotherhood was so indispensable to the welfare of our own nation and to the peace and freedom of the entire world."

IN A SIMILAR VEIN, former Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan, named general chairman of the national observance, interpreted this year's event. "The big question today is whether the human spirit will remain free or whether it is to be enslaved by totalitarianism," Sullivan declared. "The dignity of man is on trial throughout the world," he continued, "and the fate of our civilization may well depend upon the outcome. It will survive only if the ideal of man's inalienable rights is acknowledged, respected and strengthened."

First established in 1934 by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Brotherhood Week has been celebrated each year during the week of George Washington's birthday as a special period when the people of all faiths in the United States are invited to consider together the need and implications of good will among Protestants, Catholics and Jews.

IN 1934, some 300 communities across the United States participated in Brotherhood Week events; in 1942 there were 800 communities.

In 1944 the number spiraled to 2,000. The figure today is impossible to estimate, according to Sullivan, so widespread is the desire of Americans of all faiths to demonstrate their loyalty to the basic ideals of respect for people and human rights which are essential to our way of life.

As observed with growing community participation each year, Brotherhood Week dramatizes the practical things which people can do to promote understanding and realization of time-honored American principles.

Steel Defender

Benjamin Fairless, president of U. S. steel, testified before a joint congressional economic committee in defense of the recent increases in the price of steel. He called the rise "modest," laid the blame largely on union pensions.

HOUSING:

$8,000 Units

Could the American individual in search of a new home afford to pay $8,000 for it? Federal housing officials believe that to be a fair figure and Raymond M. Foley, housing administrator, explained to the house banking committee a bill for federal housing aid based on that premise.

FOLEY STATED that the administration is considering construction, through cooperatives and other non-profit organizations, of some 250,000 housing units on an average cost of $3,000 each.

The homes envisioned in the program would be for families with annual cash incomes of $2,800 and $4,000. One third of the urban families of the nation had incomes within that "middle-income" range in 1943.

The endeavor, even in the eyes of the severest critics, appeared laudable, but with the cost of living as it is and high income taxes for families without above-average exemptions, would still put the $8,000 home out of reach of many.

AS AN INSTANCE of that supposition, Foley said average monthly payments would be about $69. That's $828 a year. Add a $1,000 food, meat and milk bill, and the total outlay for the new home owner is $1,828. This would leave the $2,800 a year man $972. Taking average figures, utilities, health costs, insurance, clothing, transportation (there would be nothing with which to pay for a car) recreation and incidentals would amount to about $516. This would leave some $400, or less than $40 a month with which to meet emergencies or other needs.

So, it is easily apparent that the $8,000 house, the $80 monthly payment and cost-of-living items would run the $2,800-a-year man so close to the edge, that he'd hardly have anything left for a pack of butts each week.

HOMELESS:

Break for DP's

An easement of the present law which limits entry of displaced persons into the United States to 205,000 in the two-year period ending June 30, this year, has been approved by the Senate judiciary committee.

THAT GROUP voted to permit 320,000 homeless foreigners to enter this country by June 30, 1951. This includes the approximately 124,000 who already have entered.

The committee voted by 10 to 3 to approve a bill which would make other changes in the present DP law which President Truman has urged.

For example, it would shift the date by which displaced persons must have entered European DP camps to be eligible for entry into this country. The present law fixed the date for December, 1945. The bill which the committee approved would change that to January 1, 1949.

THE ACTION came on the eve of the date which the senate had ordered the committee to report out a DP bill.

The house bill has been approved by the committee over the protests of Chairman McCarran (D., Nev.), who was in Europe at the time. After a heated floor fight, the senate sent the measure back to committee.

DRAFT LAW:

Atomic stockpiles . . . hydrogen bombs . . . billions for defense . . . incredible speed in the air . . . all these added up to a readily apparent conception that U.S. policy is committed to a course which believed that he is "best defended who is best armed."

The question was: Would the compulsory military service system be retained? The question of manpower remained an intangible factor.

Fight for Freedom

Lesson for February 19, 1950.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS of problems with living things. One is the kind of problem caused by its growing too fast; the other is the problem caused by not growing fast enough.

The early church had mostly the first kind of problem, at any rate it was taking in a lot of members whom the older Christians found strange. At first all Christians had been Jews; no one thought of anything else. But in Antioch, as we have seen, and even more as the church spread westward around the edge of the Mediterranean, the Christian churches were filling up with non-Jewish members, just as they are today.

It is no secret that in the Masonic order there are 33 degrees. It is not possible for a new member to be taken right into the 33rd degree the first night. Everybody has to go through the lower degrees which are called the Blue Lodge.

Now many persons in that early church thought of the Jewish faith as a sort of Christian Blue Lodge. All the very earliest Christians had been members of that lodge; why shouldn't every one else be the same? So when Paul and Barnabas came back from that historic missionary tour of Cyprus and points north, telling about the large number of new Christians, these old-style Christians shook their heads.

Paul was by-passing the Blue Lodge; he was taking in members who had not gone through the proper preliminaries, the first degrees.

What Makes a Man a Christian? PAUL KNEW a real Christian when he saw one. So did Barnabas. And the two of them knew, right down in their souls, that they had seen real conversions, genuine cases of persons coming out of pagan darkness into Christian light, without being Jews at all, even for five seconds.

The vital question was simply this: What makes a Christian? The old-style Christians, who had been Jews themselves and still were, for all their Christian faith, were, unless you are circumcized and keep all the laws of Moses, you cannot be saved—you cannot even begin to be a Christian. Paul and Barnabas—not alone, but as spokesman for many others in the church—said: You are saved by faith.

The Jerusalem Christian said: Yes, you are saved by faith, AND by keeping the law of Moses. Paul said: you are saved by faith, period.

How They Settled It THE WAY that problem was settled is a model for all Christian churches with problems on their hands. First of all, the argument was brought out into the open; it was not a whispering campaign. Second, it was settled after giving both sides plenty of opportunity for full discussion in public. Third, it was settled informally but by a church council, a group of representative leaders, not by a simple majority vote of all church members indiscriminately. Fourth, it was settled (as the reader of Acts 15 may see) by appeals to fact and to Scripture.

Finally, once the leaders had made up their minds, the church at large accepted their decision promptly, without further bickering. This has been the pattern for the Christian church ever since, though alas! it has not always been followed.

There would have been fewer church splits if the example of the early church had been more seriously taken.

Faith and Obedience ESSENTIALLY, that first great church council decided on the side of Paul and Barnabas. But they did not throw the Old Testament overboard. The moral law was as good as it ever was. But the council showed, once and for all, the true relations between Christian faith and obedience to the law of God.

There is just one doorway to the Father's house, the doorway of faith. We do not have to keep the law of Moses, or any set of laws, first. We are saved BY obedience.

We are not saved FROM obedience. But we are saved FOR obedience. A Christian's obedience to God is not a way of earning God's good-will. It is a grateful response to God's grace. And that makes all the difference in the world.

Smile Awhile

Hardly at All

After being badgered and tongue-lashed by the plaintiff's lawyer for a good fifty minutes, the man on the witness stand, who was defending himself against charges of assault and battery, still insisted that he did no more than push the plaintiff. "I want to know just how hard you pushed him," demanded the lawyer. "Will you please step down and demonstrate on me the sort of push you gave my client?"

The defendant jumped down with alacrity. He headed straight for his tormentor, jarred him with a stiff left hook, lifted him a foot off the ground with a terrific uppercut, grabbed him before he could fall, and tossed him half-way across the room. He then turned to the judge and explained, "I pushed the plaintiff just about one-tenth as hard as that, Your Honor."

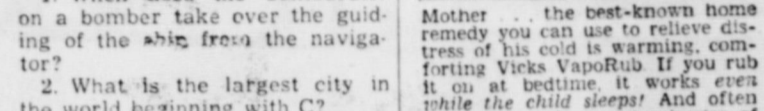

No Dessert

The fine points of the art of cooking were involved in a trial. Each lawyer was allowed twenty minutes to present his case. The attorney for the defense warmed to the task because he was an amateur cook of no mean ability. He discoursed for quite a while on the various tricks employed by good chefs, how they seasoned the foods, and how they had to be so exact in their measurements. He was just about to apply his lecture on cooking to the case at hand when the judge interrupted. "Better turn the gas off," he suggested, looking up at the clock, "your time is up."

NEW BOOK ON INCOME TAX IS AVAILABLE

"Your Federal Income Tax," official guide for taxpayers published by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, has established itself near the top of national best seller lists, according to T. U. Purcell, district manager for the U. S. Department of Commerce in El Paso. Over 200,000 copies of this 138 page tax book, which is available from the district office of the Department of Commerce in the El Paso Chamber of Commerce Building, at 25 cents per copy, were sold during the first 5 weeks since publication.

Purcell said the demand for this booklet has been so heavy that the initial supply has had to be replenished several times but he believes that a new supply just received will be sufficient to fill all future requests. The booklet was prepared by the Bureau to help the average taxpayer solve his own problems. It covers the latest regulations, Bureau rulings and court decisions, and explains the various deductions and exemptions which are applicable to most citizens who are required to file a tax return. Purcell also announced this week that his office has received an additional supply of Bulletin F which contains information relating to depreciation and obsolescence of business property. This bulletin is also available at the El Paso Commerce department office at 25 cents a copy.

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET The Truth May Make You Free But Watch Out How You Use It

By BILLY ROSE

One night when I dropped into Jerry's for a firkin of foam, Long George Smiley and Sid "The Inch" Perry were at the bar as usual. As unusual, however, they were not arguing with each other but with the bartender.

"The truth never hurt anybody," said the bartender, "and the truth is I'm on the hook for 63 beers. And until you gentlemen settle up, there ain't gonna be no 64th."

"Look," said The Inch, "you're a downtrodden worker yourself, and when you turn down another worker's request for a bowl of suds, you're committing class suicide."

"For three weeks successive," said the bartender, "you gentlemen have been promising to pay up, and if it wasn't against the rules to insult a customer, I'd say you liars were making free with the truth."

"What's wrong with a lie now and then?" said Long George.

"If it wasn't for a little banana oil, the wheels of our crummy civilization would come to a dead stop."

"You couldn't be more wrong," said the bartender. "A wise man tells the truth on any and all occasions."

"If you'll excuse my elegance," said The Inch, "that's a lot of pig shampoo."

Billy Rose

"I CONCUR with my friend," said Long George. "Look at what happened to Hogan, the trucker, when he got mixed up with the verities. A couple of months ago, a friend tipped him off that his wife was dating a kid who worked in the brewery, and instead of making like the three little monkeys, he hired a detective to follow her."

When he learned his missus had been sneaking off to a dime dance hall to jitterbug with the young man, he confronted her with the fulsome facts, and a few scrappy minutes later his wife was packed and on her way back to her mother's house in Canarsie."

"Served her right," said the bartender.

"Served Hogan right," said The Inch. "Before he found out, he was happy as a fly on a whiskey cork. Tonight, like every night, he's in his apartment alone, lapping up the Irish and playing 'Melancholy Baby' on the phonograph."

"Besides which," said George, "nobody has heard him say a word against his wife. But the fingering friend who tipped him off—well, he's got an eye you couldn't cover with an eight-dollar steak."

"You've got a point, maybe," said the bartender, "but I still insist there's nothing like the truth, and the truth is you gentlemen get no more beer."

The Fiction ★ GARDEN SEQUENCE ★ Corner

BRYANT DREAMED a dream. He was in a garden. A beautiful girl sat on a white marble bench, and smiled at him across a pool filled with goldfish and pond lilies. Bright sunshine filtered down through shade trees and reflected the gold in the girl's hair.

Bryant knew that, according to all good dreams, he was supposed to do something—possibly to walk around the pool and bow gallantly before the girl.

He began to wonder if he didn't look somewhat like an idiot standing there.

It was then that he heard footsteps on the flagstone path that connected the garden with the wide, screened-in porch of the house. He looked up to find Laura, his sister, coming into the garden. He was glad that Laura had come. For Laura knew all about dreams and could tell him what to do.

"Bryant!" Laura exclaimed, stopping on the pool's edge, and looking from him to the girl, "whatever in the world are you standing here for? Why, you're positively rude. Doris must think my brother is stupid!"

Oh, yes, that was it. It was all working out fine now. Laura had asked her college roommate, Doris La Plante, down for the week-end. Of course, that was she. How stupid of him.

So Bryant walked around the pool and was introduced. He looked deep into the twin black pools that were Doris' eyes, and apologized. His voice sounded odd, but that, of course, was because he was thinking that here was the girl he had been waiting for.

Then he almost groaned aloud. Doris had looked up and said it was quite all right and she really should have introduced herself, but he added so much to the scene, Bryant slowly put his arm about her slim shoulders, standing over there so straight and silent. It was the sound of her voice that made Bryant groan; for he remembered that it was all a dream and that Doris would soon be gone.

Then suddenly it was night, and they were once more in the garden. There was a full moon and a gentle breeze and music drifting down on the still air from somewhere back of the marble bench.

A week, two weeks, had gone by—Bryant wasn't sure which—since the first meeting in the garden. He had a dim recollection that they were glorious weeks of riding and golfing and swimming and dancing—all with Doris.

IT WAS ONLY OCCASIONALLY now that Bryant remembered it was all a dream. The dread of waking up didn't affect him quite so poignantly. That is to say, it didn't affect him until this night when they were alone in the garden. Then he was seized with a sudden panicky sensation.

And so quite abruptly Bryant turned and said without preliminaries: "Doris, darling, I love you. I know this is all a dream, therefore I'm telling you now before I wake up. I've waited all my life for such a girl as you. It seems cruel that you'd come to me only in a dream."

And Doris turned up her face to his, with the moon making shadows of her eyes, and said: "I love you, too, Bryant, and I'm glad you waited for me. I hardly know what I would have done had I discovered you belonged to some one else."

Bryant thought this over and decided that the dream had turned out just the way he would have ordered. He'd better wake himself up, he thought, before he did something to spoil it. But before he could pinch himself, which was the conventional way of waking oneself from a dream, Doris laid her head on his shoulder.

Bryant looked down at the golden head. "Doris," he said brokenly, "this is all a dream, and in a minute you'll be gone and I'll find myself alone. You're not real."

But Doris laughed softly, and snuggled closer. Bryant slowly put his arm about her slim shoulders. She was there, close against him. Her lips were upturned, and as Bryant bent to kiss them, he knew that when again he opened his eyes, she'd still be there—and would always be there.

A Prayer by GRACE NOLL CROWELL

I know not what Thy wisdom, Lord, May choose for me today; What the long hours may hold for me I cannot say.

I only know that I may go Unquestioningly with Thee, Remembering that what Thou wilt Is best for me.

For Thou, O Lord, canst see the end, While I but see the way— Help me to walk it patiently Throughout today.

subterranean earthquake or some interplanetary shuffling, the congressman had found nothing at Fort Knox but a big hole in the ground.

What could he have done? Blab to the press? Not on your hungrier. Even a man with the mentality of a Congressman would know that an hour after the news hit page one the economy of the world would do a Bikini—and that a man couldn't buy a tangerine with a 20 dollar note.

"Which proves what?" said the bartender.

"Which proves," said Long George, "that truth, like dynamite, shouldn't be tossed around carelessly. If my friend and I sometimes misrepresent about setting our tab, it is only to spare you pain."

The bartender took a couple of beer glasses, wiped them, and then put them away. "You know," he said, "I never thought about it that way before, and it almost makes me ashamed of myself to have to throw you gentlemen out."

one, and he plans eight more, for United Artists release. His story is fantastic, that of an underprivileged boy born to be a success (he had made his first million by the time he was 30) who took plenty of hard knocks on the way to achieving it. He has a second ambition—to help as many underprivileged boys as possible; he has already done a terrific job at it.

We're always hearing about movie stars who dash from one set to another on a bicycle, when working in two pictures. And about radio performers who leap from studio to studio in taxis. But Kent Smith has out-done them all. For a week he commuted daily by plane between Hollywood and San Francisco, to do a stage role and finish a picture. His latest is "My Foolish Heart."

Vera Vague may sound dumb as a man-chasing comedienne on the air—at present on Jimmy Durante's program on NBC—but away from the radio Vera, otherwise Barbara Jo Allen, can talk for hours about orchids, her two hot-houses, and the third one she's building. During the Christmas holidays her white orchids retailed in New York for $25 apiece. Not bad!

Teresa Wright invited her husband, Niven Busch, to visit her on the set when she did some torrid love scenes with Marlon Brando for "The Men." He stalked out, blushing. But Robert Cummings' wife was present when he made love scenes with Elizabeth Scott and Diana Lynn for "Paid in Full," time after time, and nobody was the least bit embarrassed by the routine.

SOUTHERN Cornbread or YANKEE JOHNNY Cake
Here is your recipe . . .

1 1/2 cups Clabber Girl Baking Powder
1/2 cup corn meal
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup shortening

Measure Master-Mix into a mixing bowl. Stir in corn meal, salt, and sugar if used. Combine egg and milk and add to dry mixture, stirring only until blended. Batter will look rough.

For pan corn bread: Turn batter into a well-greased 6" x 10" x 1 1/2" baking pan. Bake at 400° F. for about 30 minutes, or until well-browned.

For muffins: Fill well-greased 2-inch muffin pans about 3/4 full. Bake at 400° F. for about 20 to 25 minutes or until well-browned. Make about 1 dozen muffins.

For corn sticks: Fill well-greased corn stick pans about 3/4 full. Bake at 400° F. for about 20 to 25 minutes or until well-browned.

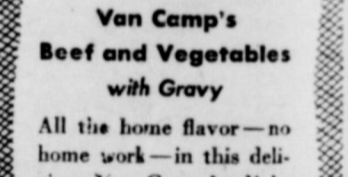

For Typical Southern Corn Bread use white corn meal and omit the sugar. For Yankee Johnny Cake use yellow corn meal and add the sugar.

A Jar of Clabber Girl Master-Mix in the refrigerator helps quickly to bake waffles, ginger-breads, quickbreads, cookies, and other interesting and exciting home-baked products.

VAULT ROBBERY RECONSTRUCTED

THIS DEPARTMENT'S super sleuth, Dablyn Crymes, has been going into that recent $1,500,000 Boston vault robbery. Despite all that has happened since, he still thinks radio jackpot programs were airwave jackpot fanatics," he declares. "And the conduct of the vault custodians and guards indicates they, too, were under the radio influence.

"There is this one difference," continued the great sleuth, "it is harder to get into a radio jackpot show than it was to get into that vault." He reconstructed the crime this way:

1.—The bandits, hearing there was a couple of million dollars there, assumed it must be a radio program, if only a minor one.

2.—This conclusion was supported by the fact the attendants apparently were almost as careless with that much money as a radio master of ceremonies.

3.—The intruders, seeing so much dough, instinctively yelled, "Stop the music! The mystery melody is either 'Asleep in the Deep,' or 'Rudie, the Red-Eyed Doorman!'"

4.—The guards knew they were not on a "Stop the Music" program, but, as the robbers had on curious costumes with a Hallow'en decor, they thought maybe it was a Ralph Edwards hour.

5.—The outer doorman said, "Something funny is going on here. No other vault can make that statement." This was mistaken for a commercial. Now everybody was all mixed up.

6.—The intruders (or guests) were now through the first door and an attendant said, "You are now through the outer portal. Do you want to try for Number Two?"

7.—The visitors replied, "Yes," and got the answer, "Correct. That brings you to gate three."

8.—This went on until they were through gate four and were asked, "You are now at the gateway to the jackpot. No prompting."

9.—The visitors said they were perfectly willing to go on, and presto—the jackpot was theirs!

"But how do you explain the rope?" we asked.

"Some of these jackpot contests are close. Contestants carry a rope in case of a tie," said Dablyn Crymes.

"But the adhesive tape?"

"I think this merely an expression of a growing conviction that jackpot masters of ceremonies talk too much," was the reply.

"And the Hallow'en masks?"

"Wasn't the whole thing within a few hours of a Milton Berle program?" demanded the super sleuth.

"But why the sailor jackets?" we asked.

"There's a navy yard in Brooklyn," snapped the detective. "They had to come from Brooklyn."

MIRROR OF YOUR MIND

Gruesome Stories Offer 'Therapy'

By Lawrence Gould

Is it morbid to like gruesome stories?

Answer: It is the aggressive or sadistic side of you that makes you like such stories, but they may affect you in two different ways. In a relatively normal person, reading the gruesome details of an actual or fictional murder, and unconsciously identifying himself (as most people do) with both the killer and the victim, tends to "drain off" harmlessly the traces of childish or primitive impulses that otherwise might make trouble. But if the identification is a conscious one, the reading will tend to induce neurosis—or crime.

Do psychiatrists treat all patients "impersonally"?

Answer: No. There are types of emotional disturbance which are mainly the result of the victim's feeling that nobody cares for or is interested in him, and no progress can be made with such a person unless you can get him to feel differently. Especially with the schizophrenic, it is vital that the attitude of everyone who comes in contact with him shall seem friendly and solicitous. Not until you are convinced that the psychiatrist is your friend can he attempt the sometimes humiliating probing that complete cure will require.

Is moral character inborn?

Answer: No, writes Dr. Judd Marmor, California psychiatrist, in "Philosophy for the Future." From the psychoanalytic standpoint, you are born neither bad nor good, and the forms in which your potentialities develop depend on the incentives offered to you by the society you grow up in, and above all by your parents. A child will adopt the patterns of behavior which he finds win the love and approval of his playmates, and without such an incentive any virtues he acquires will be forced and superficial.

Antihistamines Break Cold Early

By Dr. James W. Barton

ONE OF THE GREAT problems in industry is the great loss of time caused by the common cold. For many years various methods of breaking up a cold before it gets a real hold on the patient, have been investigated. Most of these methods have not been successful.

A course of treatment which may be of great help in breaking up the common cold early is reported in "Industrial Medicine," by Dr. J. M. Brewster, from investigations at a United States navy compound. Drugs to counteract histamine which is manufactured by the body were tried. Among these were benadryl, pyribenzamine, pyranisamine and others.

A cold was considered to have been broken up or cured when all signs and symptoms disappeared within 24 hours of the beginning of the treatment. All symptoms were aborted in 19 of 21 patients in whom treatment with antihistamine drugs was begun within the first hour after the onset of the symptoms, and in 48 of 55 patients treated within two hours of the onset.

One hundred and sixteen of 156 patients who received treatment within 12 hours of the onset, were also cured. Thus, as in other ailments, the treatment is more effective the earlier it is given. The results obtained by the usual form of treatment (codeine papaverine) were much less favorable than those obtained by the antihistamine drugs.

Two or three doses of the antihistamine drugs at four-hour intervals are enough to stop the symptoms in 90 per cent of the cases, if treatment is given within a few hours after the first symptoms of the cold appear.

Dr. Brewster believes that the number of colds will be reduced when the antihistamine drugs get rid of the sneezing, coughing and profuse discharge from the nose which is now left invisibly on door knobs, faucet handles, handrails and in the air.

Satan's Throne

Lesson for February 26, 1950

"I HOLD NO BRIEF for him" is a lawyer's expression often borrowed by other people. A lawyer who holds a brief for a man has been employed to represent him. It is his duty to present the man in the best light possible.

Now we know about the early church at Corinth from two sources: Luke and Paul. The book of Acts was written, among other reasons, to show that the Christian church, far from being a subversive movement as its enemies claimed was a benefit to the world. Of course this was true; but since this was Luke's purpose, he naturally omitted as much of the church's shortcomings as he could, and played up the good features.

Church with the Lid Off

Paul, on the other hand, writing to the church at Corinth (and to others as well), held no brief for them. He was not trying to praise them or to tell anybody how good they were.

He knew them intimately; he had indeed converted most of the members.

His letters to Corinth, from which our lesson gives a small sample, shows us a church "with the lid off."

Where Satan's Throne Is

YEARS AFTERWARD, another Christian writer said of another church that they lived "where Satan's throne is." You might almost have said the same thing of Corinth. It was a large commercial city; people from everywhere funneled into it. Like any city of this sort it had earned a reputation for wickedness of every kind—drink, liquor, gambling, women, cut-throat business, rotten politics—it was all there. Even in the easy-going Roman world, Corinth was notorious.

Corinth was a sort of man-made jungle, like our own great cities today. It made a sort of test case: If the church could succeed in Corinth it could succeed anywhere.

If the power of Christ could make new men and women out of the denizens of that great city, there was no jungle, man-made or nature-made, where Christ could not go. Can men and women be Christian in the midst of a non-Christian, even anti-Christian world?

Our Pagan World

PAUL'S ANSWER, of course, is Yes: on one condition. You must take your pattern for living from Jesus, not from the world around you. The big problem at Corinth, which included all other problems, was the fact that the Christians there were acting too much like the people outside the church. Christians must be different! insisted Paul. This is not an echo of a bygone time.

Our own world is a new Corinth. Even into the remotest village, the most isolated farm, the world of our time pushes in, by radio, movies, magazines and papers and advertising, even by schools and clubs. And it is a pagan world.

Take the movies alone, that fertile source of most young people's ideas. Hollywood's idea of marriage—a temporary affair till boredom do us part; Hollywood's idea of a good time—liquor flowing free; Hollywood's idea of success—an immense house with an even bigger swimming pool.

Not that there are no good moving pictures; but in general what is made glamorous on a thousand screens is anything but a Christian world.

And Be Ye Separate

PAUL KNEW it is not practical to have no contact with evil. He would not approve of Christians going into monasteries where they would henceforth see none but top-grade saints. Christians have to live in the world, even if they live where Satan's throne is. But Christians ought to be different.

The world says: Drink makes no difference; men of distinction all do it. The Christian knows better; Christ's man of distinction will keep himself clean. The world says: Let yourself go, follow your impulses, look out for yourself. The Christian knows better: he is one bought with a price. We that are strong ought to help the weak and not to please ourselves. The world says: Do as other people do!

Countless thousands have proved that HADACOL is beneficial to folks of all ages.

For instance, Miss Ethel Guidry, 822 Montgomery St., Port Neches, Texas, only 17 years old, was "feeling nervous, had little appetite, her face was pale and drawn and she suffered from gas on the stomach." Miss Guidry

Miss Guidry, who recently graduated from high school, is already working in a bank. She said that after taking several bottles of HADACOL she is now "feeling wonderful," and has "lots of pep and energy."

Most folks take HADACOL because it has worked such wonders for relatives or friends. Miss Guidry took HADACOL because her mother had taken 12 bottles with excellent results.

In nearby Port Arthur, Texas, Mrs. W. M. Thompson took HADACOL because it had done her husband so much good. That is the reason so many purchase the large economy size bottle so all the family can benefit from nature's Vitamins and Minerals in HADACOL.

Mrs. Thompson's normal weight is 135 pounds, but she was down to 110 pounds before taking HADACOL, and after taking a few bottles of HADACOL she regained her normal weight.

"I was bothered with stomach trouble, gastric disturbances, I had lost my appetite and was bloated," said Mrs. Thompson. She had tried several preparations before taking her husband's advice on HADACOL and now she enthusiastically recommends HADACOL to her friends.

She, too, like Miss Guidry and the others, was suffering from the lack of the B Vitamins and Minerals in her system which HADACOL contains.

A lack of only a small amount of the B Vitamins and certain Minerals will cause digestive disturbances. . . . Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heart burns, gas pains, and your food will sour on your stomach, and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of the lack of the B Vitamins and Minerals contained in HADACOL. And if you suffer from such a disorder, there is no medicine, drug or treatment that will cure you except the administration of the Vitamins and Minerals which your system lacks.

HADACOL contains not only one, but five of the B Vitamins. HADACOL contains not only one, but four of the necessary Minerals. It comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away. You cannot be satisfied with just temporary relief. HADACOL attacks and cures the source of such deficiency diseases.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have already been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL. Accept no substitute—insist on the genuine HADACOL!

So, it matters not who you are . . . it matters not where you live . . . or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation a trial. Don't go on suffering! Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives again because HADACOL supplied the Vitamins and Minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Give HADACOL a trial.

We are so firm in our belief that HADACOL will help you that we sell HADACOL on a money-back guarantee. If you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.

Sold at all the leading drug stores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money—buy the large family and hospital size—only $3.50.

If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. Send no money. Just your name and address on a penny postcard. Pay postman. State whether you want the $3.50 hospital economy size or the $1.25 trial size. Remember, money cheerfully refunded unless you are 100% satisfied—Adv.
