STORE CELEBRATES FOURTH ANNIVERSARY

At Cash Store, one of the business institutions of O'Donnell, is this week celebrating its anniversary. In February, 1929...

The call of the auctioneer, the typical swapping and buying of the good old days, to quote a contemporary, and the milling of several hundred men and animals were reminiscent of an era of prosperity...

Actual auctioneering and trading was fairly brisk, said auctioneer Tolmer. Good horses and mules brought prices that sound exceedingly good...

When the icy weather came down from the north last week, Lynn county gins had just about exhausted the 1932 cotton crop.

SATURDAY TRADES DAY BEST IN MANY YEARS

Saturday marked the introduction of a Trades Day for O'Donnell and, it is hoped, the beginning of a regular event which is expected to be of much interest and benefit to people throughout the territory.

George Washington

GEORGE WASHINGTON

Before another issue of this paper is in the hands of our readers, the nation will have united in observing the birthday of its countryman, George Washington.

None of the recent biographers of Washington have given us a better picture of him than did Jefferson several years ago.

"I think I knew the General intimately and thoroughly," he said. His mind was great and powerful, without being of the very first order; his penetration strong, though not as acute as that of Newton, Bacon, or Locke, as far as he saw no judgment was sounder. It was slow in operation, being little aided by invention or imagination, but sure in conclusion.

"He was incapable of fear, meeting personal dangers with the calmest unconcern. Perhaps the strongest feature of his character was prudence, never acting until every circumstance, every consideration, was maturely weighed; refraining if he saw a doubt, but when once decided, going through with his purpose, without ever hesitating.

"His heart was not warm in its affections, but he exactly calculated every man's value and gave him a solid esteem proportioned to it. It was a coldness of the intellect, not of the heart."

The following boys have enrolled in the class: James Cashey, James Clayton, Garland and J. B. Curtis, Andrew Foster, Moody Gibson, A. C. Hamilton, Allen James, Joe Pugh, Rindell and Dalton Simmons, Alvis Tredway, Theron Anderson, John Lawler, Roy DeBusk, Berl and Earl Tule.

MISS WINNIE HAMILTON, BEN YOUNG MARRIED

Coming out as a complete surprise to their many friends, the marriage of Miss Winnie Hamilton and Mr. Ben Young was solemnized last Wednesday afternoon at Lovington, N. M. the pastor of the Baptist church there officiating.

The happy couple returned at once to O'Donnell and their new home near Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tume. Mr. Young will assist Mr. Tume on the farm this year.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamilton, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her. Her devotion to her parents, her housewifely energy, and her sunny nature have won friends wherever she goes.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Roxie Young, the local Cumberland Presbyterian church was reorganized Sunday with a splendid attendance and much interest.

LOCAL CUMBERLAND CHURCH ORGANIZED SUNDAY

After an active period of nearly two years, the local Cumberland Presbyterian church was reorganized Sunday with a splendid attendance and much interest.

Rev. W. H. Chestnut of Floydada will continue to act as pastor, meeting his appointment on the second Sunday in each month.

B. L. Davis, C. L. Davis, H. B. Harville and W. J. Smith were elected elders; Mrs. E. L. Stovels, superintendent of Sunday School; Miss Jessie Gary, secretary-treasurer.

Teaching staff for the Sunday School has not yet been completed but this will be done next Sunday. The pastor asked that announcement be made that Sunday School will open promptly at ten o'clock next Sunday morning, and that all members be expected to be in attendance. Friends and others interested are always welcome. Rev. Chestnut said, and urged to attend any service at any time. Announcements concerning preaching services will be published from time to time.

P. T. A. SPONSORS PLAY FRIDAY EVENING

Rehearsals have been under way all this week for a comedy sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association, to be presented Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

Characters from the comic sections and familiar radio stars will be impersonated. Amos 'n' Andy, Moon Mullins, Maggie and Jiggs, Matt and Jeff—all the old time favorites from the daily comics will make their bow to local people that evening and speculations and interest have been running high.

Admission fees will be 10 and 20 cents, proceeds will be devoted to furthering the work of the organization. Under the leadership of Mrs. C. H. Wesseling has been placed in windows of business houses, and every means are being used to let everyone know about the performance.

Those in charge of the presentation desire that if you want to see something funny, if you want to really enjoy your full money's worth, don't fail to attend the play at the high school auditorium Friday evening.

GUYE'S STORE CLOSED; BANKRUPT PLEA FILED

Closing of the W. E. Guye Dry Goods Store on a plea of bankruptcy Saturday night came as a distinct surprise to the community.

This store is one of the oldest business institutions in O'Donnell, having been in operation for almost twenty years. There are more than a few children in this territory who hardly know that dry goods can be bought elsewhere than at Guye's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Guye have not announced plans for the future, but the Index hopes that the community in the hope that O'Donnell will remain a home for them and that they will see the way clear to again engage in business here.

SCHOOLS DELAYED ON ACCOUNT OF WEATHER

Several schools of the county were seriously handicapped last week because of inclement weather, according to reports reaching us from communities in our trade territory. However, most of them have gone back to regular schedule at this time.

JOHNSON'S GROCERY ANNOUNCES CREAM STATION OPENING

Of wide interest to residents of this territory is an announcement made this week by Boss Johnson Grocery, notifying the public of the opening of a modern and complete cream and produce station.

J. A. Cornett, former manager of the O'Donnell Produce Company and a man of wide experience in this line will be in charge of the cream and produce department of the store and will be assisted by Mr. Guy McGill, who has also had experience in this work. Mr. Boss Johnson, manager and owner of the store, states that highest market prices will be paid at all times, and that no effort will be spared to make this department the most efficient and best organized anywhere in the county.

Celebrating its formal opening on Friday and Saturday, Mr. Johnson announces that on Saturday the store will give a forty-eight pound sack of flour to the individual who brings in the greatest quantity of cream to the new station, and that a ten pound sack of sugar will be given the owner of the cream having the highest test. This offer is good for Saturday only.

Harvey Line, who recently sold his interest in the store to Mr. Johnson has decided to remain on the sales staff for the time being and will continue to serve his friends in this capacity.

Fixtures and stock of the store have been rearranged to make room for the produce department, and presents an attractive and convenient appearance.

The store has been under the present management for more than four years, during which time scores of friends and staunch customers have been served. For some time it was and a half ago, it was affiliated with the Red & White system.

Quality and low prices have been the slogan for the store since Mr. Johnson took over and during the partnership with Mr. Line. He stated Tuesday that the opening of the cream station is only another effort to be of service to this territory, and that the standard of efficiency and lowest prices consistent with highest quality will be rigidly maintained.

In another part of the Index Mr. Johnson took over and during the partnership with Mr. Line. He stated Tuesday that the opening of the cream station is only another effort to be of service to this territory, and that the standard of efficiency and lowest prices consistent with highest quality will be rigidly maintained.

SINGING CLASS PROGRAM SLATED FOR SUNDAY

The O'Donnell Singing Class will render its regular public program Sunday afternoon in the Assembly hall, just north of the high school building.

The program will begin promptly at two-thirty, and everyone is cordially invited to come and enjoy the afternoon. The famous Star quartet from Lubbock has accepted an invitation to be here, and with our local singers this should be one of the most worthwhile meetings for some time.

The O'Donnell class was well represented at the county convention Sunday at Central, with members of the class in vocal selections. C. H. Mansell and Mrs. Carey Shook were special commendation with their rendition of the duet "Just Outside."

Work being done by members of the class is winning recognition and praise from all sides, and O'Donnell is justly proud of it.

Remember the program Sunday afternoon and make your plans to be present.

REVISAL TO BEGIN SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Opening services of the annual Spring revival of the First Baptist church will be held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, with Rev. E. R. Brownwood in charge of the preaching services. Mr. Joe Trussell of Brownwood will lead the choir and also assist with the special music throughout the week.

Services will be held each morning at ten o'clock, and each evening at seven thirty. The pastor, the membership, and the evangelists earnestly request the cooperation and assistance of everybody, urging a regular attendance if possible. However, if one is unable to attend each service, he will be heartily welcomed at any of them.

Both singer and preacher are well known throughout the state and their work is expected to be of much benefit in O'Donnell. It is an invitation to everyone to come and take part, with special invitations to the singers to help with the song services each morning and evening. The year for O'Donnell and everyone is expected to take part.

Mrs. Florence Henderson of Big Spring was the guest the first of the week of her sister, Mrs. Hal Singleton, Jr., and family.

VOLUNTARY MORTGAGE AID

Eighteen insurance companies making land loans in Texas announced Thursday that for a period of one year no homestead foreclosures will be sought except in extraordinary circumstances. The policy voluntarily accepted is similar to that already announced by a small group of the largest insurance companies in the East. The action, which brings immediate relief from property loss to Texas homestead owners, assumes added importance as a part in a plan of creditor leniency that should and become national in scope. The Texas companies urge individual and corporation mortgage loan interests to join with them.

It can not be justly charged that the fine action of the Texas companies has been forced by pending legislation concerning land loans. The unconstitutionality of proposed statutes impairing contracts is clear and at the worst mortgage lenders would be put to the expense of gaining court confirmation of the fact. Moreover, constitutional amendments could not be adopted for many months and in retroactive effect would be nullified by the basic Federal constitutional prohibition of the right of States to impair contracts. The policy of mortgage forbearance is praiseworthy and at the same time falls into a class of a good deed that is its own reward. It will breed good will for the mortgage lender, who has need of it, creditors seldom being popular with debtors. Further than that, it will tend to save real estate values on which the security of the loan rests. Already the amount of foreclosure of the past few years has depressed the real estate market. Voluntary composition between the mortgage owner and the owner will preserve some income for the former and tend to reclaim the total indebtedness eventually. The insurance companies have not announced the details of their plan. It is to be hoped that it foreshadows readjustment in interest rates necessary to restore prosperity. If it is to be serviceable at all, it can not include compounding of interest or principal, which would only augment the debtor's ill while postponing its immediate tragedy. Even if interest is not to be reduced, the insurance companies may see the value in substituting rent for interest payments, as one Eastern concern has done, and maintaining the home stead loans in status quo for the year of grace without penalty.

MANY SUBSCRIBERS DURING FEBRUARY

Extension of the Index bargain rates has met with approval throughout the territory among friends who were not able to subscribe during the regular bargain days. The number of subscriptions received already this month has been most gratifying to the management.

Pleasing too was our proposition to mark up delinquent subscriptions, rather, not to charge for back subscriptions when readers came in to pay up. Many of our friends expressed their appreciation of this, saying that otherwise they would have been forced to let the paper stop.

We appreciate the many nice, and probably undesired things said about the paper, and at the same time extend our regrets for any mistakes we have made. When we make them they are unintentional, and we are always glad to have them called to our attention.

Most of all, however, we are glad that the new and old subscribers are expressing their faith and support of the Index by being willing to spend money to read it.

CHIRO BILL SENT TO STOCK COMMITTEE

Austin, Feb. 11.—Proponents of a bill to legalize the practice of chiropractic healing in Texas won their first victory Friday at the Texas house when they succeeded in having the proposed law diverted from the committee on public health and sent to the committee on live stock and stock raising.

A motion to send the bill to the public health committee aroused lively debate, in which authors of the bill charged the public health committee were unfavorable to the bill and would not give it a "square deal". A similar bill was killed at the last regular session by this committee.

MARCH 27 IS DATE SET FOR TECH JUDGING

Monday, March 27, the date for the eighth annual South Plains Vocational Agriculture contest at Texas Technological college, Ray C. Mowery, director general of the contest, announces.

Invitations to 57 high schools in the area where vocational agriculture is being taught, were mailed by Mr. Mowery a few days ago. An attendance of over 100 teams from at least 30 schools is expected.

Five contests are scheduled: dairy cattle judging, livestock judging, poultry judging, plant production and farm shops.

"Attendance may be cut down this year because of the expense of bringing teams from a long distance," Mr. Mowery said. "The usual cups and other awards to individual winners will be made."

Cups are provided by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and a group of business firms in town. Medals also are given individual placements.

THE MAID ON THE PENNY

The Government of the United States in 1835 made an offer of $1,000 for the most acceptable design to be placed upon the new cent coin to be issued. Some Indian chiefs traveled from the Northwest to Washington to visit the great father and then journeyed to Philadelphia to see the mint, whose chief engraver was James Barton Longacre, who invited them to his house.

The engraver's daughter, Sarah, ten years old, greatly enjoyed the visit of her father's guests, and during the evening, to please her, one of the chiefs took off his feathered helmet and war bonnet and placed it on her head. In the company was an artist, who immediately sketched her and handed the picture to her father, Mr. Longacre, knowing of the competition for a likeness to go upon the cent projected, under the inspiration of the hour, resolved to contend for the prize offered by the government. To his delight the officials accepted it, and the face of his daughter appeared upon the coin, which has been circulated about the Nation for nearly a century. There were more than a hundred competitors.

The cent bearing the face of Sarah Longacre has gone into more hands than any other American coin.

TEXAS HAS 9,846 MILES OF PAVED ROADS

Figures recently released by E. J. Ambery, State Highway Statistical Engineer, show that the State of Texas now has 9,846 miles of concrete and brick paving, as well as 6,809 miles of asphalt surfacing, or a total of 9,865 miles of paved roads. This is more than half the designated systems which covers 19,148 miles.

In the two-year fiscal period recently closed one fifth of all the States paved roads were laid. This included 1968 miles of new concrete or far more than the amount up to that time, and 2036 miles of surfaced types, an increase of nearly 50 per cent.

Austin, Feb. 11.—The House committee on Education today voted a favorable report to a bill to increase the minimum school age for pupils in the public schools to 7 years.

PRIDE OF FAMILY

The Roosevelt are getting ready to put the big pot in the little one about March 4.

Five hundred guests will be teased a thousand more will have a buffet luncheon with the master and mistress of the white house. These will be duty guests for the most part—important personages, such as governors, senators, political leaders, and real and pseudo statesmen.

But the climax to the Roosevelt entertaining on inauguration day will be a dinner at which seventy-five guests will be seated about the board. The remarkable feature of this dinner is that all the guests will be relatives of the Roosevelts. Imagine 77 relatives gathered around a single board, in this age of falling birth rate! The shade of T. R. must be chuckling delightedly in anticipation of this human and moving spectacle.

Pride of family is one of the finest of human traits. It is not too common a virtue in this country.

Economy is essential!

Economy in the use of Natural Gas is essential as a means of keeping gas bills down.

Economy does not mean stinting. It means using only what is needed to perform useful heating and cooking operations and to check all waste.

The more miles an auto may run on a gallon of gasoline, the greater the fuel efficiency. When the auto engine is allowed to run without moving the machine there is no fuel economy nor efficiency.

When Natural Gas is allowed to burn without performing some useful operation, or when it is allowed to leak at fittings and valves, there is absolute waste.

Send for a Service Man to adjust your gas appliances and test your lines.

Makes Motors Say, "Wh-oo-pee.. then Get-up-and-Go..."

Here's high-powered gas; extra dry; extra fast; extra potent. The instant it reaches the spark-plugs, then the show begins. Within the cylinders, it explodes. Every atom turns into energy... drives the piston down in a smooth stroke of power.

Greased lightning can't beat it. It starts quick as a spark and picks up fast as a flash. Press the starter and step on the gas. No mis-firing; no bucking, stalling or lagging. You step right out... right now!

A treat to your motor, a joy to you, yet it costs not a penny more. It's improved in anti-knock. It makes miles thrifty. Fill up today. Test it out. Ask the Conoco man for an entry blank. Last call to help us name it. Who knows? You may win a prize.

It was the consensus of the committee that the bill was clearly unconstitutional.

TEXAS MUST SEEN 10,000 FEET BY AMARILLO AVIATOR

Amarillo, Feb. 6.—Dust from Panhandle sandstorms rises to an altitude of at least 10,000 feet, according to Jay Taylor, Amarillo rancher and oil man, who pilots his own plane.
Taylor, returning to Amarillo recently from New Mexico found it necessary to drift down through 10,000 feet of sand and "feel" for the dust-obscured ground in wind which he said was blowing 60 miles an hour. He ground-looped, broke the propeller blade, smashed the under carriage and one wing, but escaped with out injury. He flew at an altitude of approximately 11,000 feet to get above the sand.

APPROXIMATELY 800 FARMERS UNABLE TO MAKE 1933 LOANS

Dallas, Feb. 7.—Reports from the regional crop production loan office here revealed today that approximately 800 farmers in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico may not be able to avail themselves of 1933 loans, extension of which was authorized Monday.
Regulations being drafted were expected to deny credit in 1933 to those borrowers who last year "did not show a cooperative spirit in payment of loans."
Owen Sherrill, manager for the southwestern states said that about 2 per cent of the 40,000 borrowers last year failed to make satisfactory adjustment of their loans.

TEXAS WANTS TEN MILLION DOLLAR SEED LOAN

Washington, Feb. 11.—Texas is seeking an allocation of not less than $10,000,000 from the $90,000,000 recently appropriated by Congress for seed production loans. If the allotments already prepared are carried out Texas' share will be $459,000 and Owen W. Sherrill, head of the crop production loan office at Dallas with jurisdiction over Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, insists that over $10,000,000 will be required this year.

In a communication to Senator Conally, Sherrill pointed out that 58 counties in West Texas suffered heavily from storm damage and that there is bound to be a greater demand for this form of government aid this year than last.

He pointed out that Texas had a higher ratio of payments than any other State and that from 10 to 15 per cent of the agricultural wealth of the nation is produced in those three States.

Senator Conally has urged C. W. Warburton to increase the Texas allotment and is hopeful it will be done.

GOVERNMENT AIDED 34,677 TEXAS FARMERS

During the year which closed December 31, 1932, the United States government opened accounts with 34,677 Texas farmers. Each of these names has a separate page in the great ledgers of the Secretary of Agriculture, and under each name is at least one entry—a dollar mark trailed by four or five figures, with a decimal point setting off the cents from the dollars.

These accounts represent money loaned farmers in Texas for seed during the past spring and early feed and loans for other purposes summer. The figures show that the 34,677 borrowers obtained a total of $3,221,620, and that up to November 30, last, $1,341,836.94 had been repaid.

The whole sum was not due on that date, under notes signed by the borrowing farmers, but in the case of cotton growers—who are in the big majority—an arrangement was made whereby the farmers stored a part of their crop in the warehouses as collateral for the loans, giving the government authority to sell the cotton March 1, this year, if the loans had not been repaid at that time.

That arrangement, incidentally, is going to cost the government—in other words the taxpayers—a pretty penny, too, for the cotton has been accepted as collateral at the rate of nine cents a pound. At present writing the price fluctuates between five and six cents a pound. Should the price advance to nine cents by March 1, the government would not lose by the transaction, but if it does not reach that figure there will be some loss. At present prices the government stands to lose more than one third of the loans represented by this collateral.
That loss will have to be made good by the taxpayers. Even so the loss in Texas will be but a small fraction of the loss resulting from the lending over the entire country, Texas, in fact, has repaid a higher percentage of its loans than most of the other states.
