

Federal Backing Asked in Development of Lake

That the old Frost lake, a vast mineral deposit ten miles west of, will eventually be developed for commercial use has long been a dream of C. H. Doak, pioneer of South Plains and the founder of Donnell. Just now Mr. Doak is working on plans and means of securing federal backing of the project.

The lake is a familiar object to Lynn county residents. It is a host of crystallized potash, Epsom salt, Glauber salts and ordinary salt. The lake is approximately 11 acres in size, the surface does not freeze over, and it is the coldest weather. Now the water on top of the crust has dried and disappeared, as it always does during dry seasons, but there is always water under the top crust, which is some seven feet thick, according to Mr. Doak.

Through sinking wells near the lake, Mr. Doak has become well informed as to the various strata of potash. Just under the top crust is a layer of clay about two feet deep, and from there on down is solid crystals. This is the only lake on the South Plains which contains so many minerals in paying quantities, and it is really there in that amount has been proved by several tests.

Mr. Doak has had 36 wells sunk around the lake, and each of them yielded the same chemical content. The lake, as most people know, is rich in potash, the largest one being found on the west side near the old timers recall that way back in 1845 Mr. Doak negotiated with a Philadelphia firm for development of this enterprise. Tests were made then, showing a content of 8 per cent salt, 18 per cent Glauber salts, 18 per cent Epsom salts, 10 per cent ordinary salt and the remaining 12 per cent dirt and other chemicals.

Wheel Chair Is To Be Repaired

The welfare of Charley Reynolds has been crippled since an attack of infantile paralysis seven years ago, is of interest to the whole town, and a move to raise funds to buy a new wheel chair last week was enthusiastically received.

However, C. H. Doak, who led the drive, finds that cost of repairing the one will be considerably less than purchase price of a new one, and latter plan will be followed. Mr. Doak has returned the greater part of the contributions for buying a new chair, but still has some money the fund and does not know to whom it should be returned. He asks if anyone who contributed and has not yet returned, please send in this week and get your money.

Approve Plans For Tahoka Kitchen

Work Will Start On Canning Unit Within Short Time; Supplies Arrive

Not only has the canning kitchen project and the building for the same been approved but the personnel of laborers selected from the relief rolls of the county have also been approved, according to information received by Brown Bishop of the Tahoka relief office last week. Furthermore the equipment and cans for the kitchen arrived Tuesday. Just as soon as the county gets its material ready work will begin, Mr. Bishop says.

Moreover, an application was sent in Tuesday for an extension of the building in which the kitchen is to be housed, and it is believed that the application for an extension will be readily granted.

Becoming School Minded

Index To Publish Trades Day Edition

As O'Donnell's first TRADES DAY falls on the fourth Monday, September 24, all advertising for the event will appear in next week's issue of the Index, which will be in the mails on Thursday preceding the TRADES DAY.

In order that printing of the paper may be accomplished in plenty of time and with as little confusion as possible, work on the advertising section will be started this afternoon (Thursday). We believe that all our business men will understand that we can insure a better job if we have plenty of time, and will cooperate with us in every way possible. Please begin now to plan your own specials, so that your copy or your ideas will be ready for the printer in plenty of time.

Extra circulation is planned for the Index next week, so that our Trades Day news will be well scattered throughout our immediate territory and neighboring counties as well. Because of postal regulations, many of the plans for the day cannot be published in the Index itself, but the board of directors has made provision for handbills to explain these features.

As a further aid to the Trades Day edition, may we repeat our frequent request - if you have news of any kind, please bring it to us as early in the week as possible. If you can't bring it, phone the Index office and report it.

The Index is anxious that next week's edition make newspaper history in O'Donnell, and that our first FOURTH MONDAY TRADES DAY make business history for the town.

Brother of Local Man Killed In Car Wreck

News was received here last week of the death in California of Artie Minor, younger brother of our fellow townsman, John A. Minor. A car wreck on the mountain road between Los Angeles and Bakersfield instantly killed the young man.

While full details have not yet been received by Mr. Minor, arrangements were made for his burial at Bakersfield.

Corn-Hog Checks Expected In October

Checks due Lynn county farmers in the Corn-Hog reduction program will probably be received at Tahoka between October 1 and October 10, according to information coming from Washington to the office of the county agent.

Mr. Jones reports that numerous men have been in to ask for their checks. Notices will be mailed to each man "when his check is received," Mr. Jones says, and asks that this fact be remembered. Several times, he stated, farmers have gone to considerable trouble and expense, not to say loss of time, in driving in to ask for these checks. Don't ask for them until you receive your notice.

Fall Gardens Now In Order

College Station, Sept. 11.—"Sufficient rain has now fallen in many parts of Texas for fall gardens to be planted," says J. F. Rosborough, Extension horticulturist, "and now is the time to clean off the weeds and prepare the soil for fall gardens in other parts of the State. Seed should not be planted unless the soil is supplied with moisture to a depth of six or eight inches. Seed planted following a light rain will germinate, but if there is not enough moisture to sustain plant life the sprouting plants will die, Mr. Rosborough says.

To prepare the soil, plowing should be shallow, not going deeper than four or five inches. Immediately following the plowing, the soil should be pulverized to prevent clodding.

Rotted stable manure is the best fertilizer as this material serves to retain the moisture and prevent the ground from crusting in the heat of September and October. If the fertilizer is thoroughly dried out, there will be no burning of the young plants, as is commonly supposed, Mr. Rosborough says. He adds that three or four wagon loads to a 1-2 acre garden is none too much. Where poor garden is none too much. Where possible the seed should be allowed to settle for several days after the manure is applied, so that the soil will be more compact and germination will be hastened.

In addition to the turnip greens and collards commonly grown in fall gardens other leafy vegetables recommended are mustard, lettuce, Swiss chard, and the Copenhagen variety of cabbage. Carrots, beets, radishes, and turnips supply a variety of root crops. Pinto beans are the quickest type of bean to make a crop, but they are slightly stringy. The bountiful variety of string beans, and one of the earliest maturing kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bell and family and Miss Hazel Hughes of Lubbock were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams.

Cattle Buying Program Continued This Week

Purchase of cattle by the Federal government is again under way this week reports county agent V. F. Jones. During the campaign, approximately 6500 head of cattle have been bought.

Of this number, some 3800 were condemned and killed. This is a rather high percentage, Mr. Jones said, but explained it by recalling to mind the fact that for several days no cattle could be shipped and only the condemned ones could be bought.

As has been stated elsewhere, Lynn and Garza counties have been consolidated in this program, Garza county being worked the first three days each week and Lynn county the last.

Federal men will work at Tahoka today (Thursday) and here Friday of each week. Tomorrow they will handle cattle from the Wells and New Moore communities. In order that there may be no confusion, and more cattle brought in than the allotment will allow, Mr. Jones said, notices have been mailed to individual owners to bring in their stock. DON'T BRING IN YOUR CATTLE UNLESS YOU HAVE RECEIVED A NOTICE.

H. D. Council Members Attend Lubbock Meet

With Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, Lynn county clubs were represented Monday at Lubbock at a council of ten counties by Mmes. Roy Tunnell, S. M. Clayton, W. S. Anglin, Garland Pennington, M. C. Finch, V. A. Botkin, and J. H. Edwards.

Home demonstration council members from ten counties, as well as agents and other rural women, were in Lubbock to hear Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, extension sociologist of Texas A. M. discuss organization work at a meeting in the ball room of the Hilton hotel.

Besides Mrs. Barry, there were present, Miss Myrtle Murray, College Station district home demonstration vice-president of this district for the agent leader, and Mrs. M. S. Hudson Home Demonstration Association of Texas.

Through a real estate transaction completed several days ago, the C. B. Burdine half-section farm has become the property of a Mr. Fuller of Shamrock, and Mr. and Mrs. Burdine are now owners of a tourist camp and filling station at that place.

The Burdine family moved to the new home yesterday (Wednesday), possibly the first time since 1927, and they had lived here since 1927, and having scores of friends who regret losing them from our community.

Additional Cotton Checks Received

One hundred and forty cotton checks, amounting to between six and seven thousand dollars, were received Monday at the office of the county agent, V. F. Jones. This was the third group of checks to arrive, some time ago.

Mr. Jones reports that there are still a number of checks out, and promised to send the exact number and their amount in time for next week's issue of the Index.

Expect Cotton Certificates Next Week

Cotton tax exemption certificates are expected to be in Lynn county sometime next week, according to county agent V. F. Jones.

C. A. Lawrence, county agent in charge of cotton affairs, and I. M. Draper are in College Station this week with all the information, data, and papers for this county, so when the certificates come to hand them out, there will be no delay.

Mrs. W. L. Palmer has been quite ill this week.

"Eagle Screams"

Junior Whirlwind

The vice-president was not hard to find, so we rushed that to our old pal Doc Kyle. The secretary-treasurer was harder to find, because we didn't know just whom we could trust with ALL the money the Juniors expect to have this year, but we finally came to the conclusion that there was only one, at Gary.

—Then we suddenly decided that we had to have a reporter to let the people know about our Junior Class. With just a little arguing and fussing, we decided on Sammy McLaurin. We intended to elect a sergeant-at-arms, but Mr. Harrison suddenly stood, folded his arms, and said in a very forceful tone of voice, "I think I can fill that office." To which of course, the class had no objection.

Just what would a class do without a social committee? This bunch would think of that. We named Loree Barnes as chairman, with Connie McConal, J. T. Middleton Jr., and Ann Thompson as assistants. By the looks of that committee we're due to have some fun.

To celebrate the class organization and to start school off right, we decided to have a picnic, but we'll have to wait until next week to tell you about that.

Norma Ruth had tried to speak and been prevented by her own blishes, she whirled on our election of other officers. We are glad to have not only our old bunch back again, but also some new ones blown in by the whirlwind. They are Mona Rae Edwards from Three Lakes, Loree Barnes from Wells, Theo Warren from Joe Bailey, Katherine Warren from Richardson, Robert Kendrick from Plainview, and Minnie Fay McMillan and Mary Helen Henderson from T-Bar. Others are expected to enroll soon, among them Ted McLaurin, who keeps the whole class laughing. One of our old bunch didn't like her old name of Frazier and changed it to Hooten, but we're glad to have Juanita with us again this year.

So, with a swell sponsor, a good faculty, and a grand class, this whirlwind intends to be a big sandstorm to make this school a school of work, live and play together—mixed into one big whirlwind.

Football News

The Eagles open the season September 21 at Seagraves with that big husky bunch that beat them the last game there last season. They are much bigger, but we still have hopes of beating them out. We would certainly appreciate any fans that can come along and help us out the 21. It is a little early to give you the probable starters, but by next week we can name them for you.

The schedule for the season is as follows:

- September 21, Seagraves at Seagraves.
- September 29, Seminole at O'Donnell.
- October 5, Slaton (B-squad) at O'Donnell.
- October 12, Tahoka at Tahoka.
- October 19, Seagraves at O'Donnell.
- October 26, Lameesa (B-squad) at Lameesa, night game.
- November 2, Crosbyton at O'Donnell.
- November 9, Open.
- November 16, Post, place unsettled.
- November 23, open.

R. E. Stokes was elected to captain this year's football squad and Robert Line was elected sub-captain. James Clayton was elected manager. Three better men would be hard to find, and everybody is expecting great things from them.

Gariand Perry has entered school and joined the football squad. He is a letterman from last year and will be valuable for the coming season. In spite of the number of new men to be made into regular performers the squad is shaping up very nicely. John Stephens is looking better every day at tackle, while Pirtle and McGee are looking like veterans at the guard positions. Melvin Proctor and J. W. Gardshire are going to be the best two little guards in recent years if they keep up the good work. Hack Burnett and Pig Hunt are perhaps the most promising of the new men and both are sure to land permanent jobs. Robert Gary is assuming the role of utility man in the backfield, probably splitting time with all of them. The center position is proving to be the biggest problem. Earl Tune and Milford McMurtrey are working hard for it. Perry may be made into a center, but more than likely will take a place at tackle. It all depends on how he looks at center.

The letter men seem to have the inside track on their respective positions. We have two ends, a tackle, quarterback, and two other backs that can hold their own with the best of them. These positions are filled by Line, Gibson, Stokes, Clayton, DeBusk, and Morrison. Lester Vaughn has been out the last few days. Curtis, a letter man of two years ago is out again this season and will like to find a place at tackle.

At another class meeting last week the question of dues from each member was discussed, but has not been definitely decided. The class of '35 plans a trip to Carlsbad Cavern on Senior Day.

Pep Squad Organized

The high school girls met Friday to organize the Pep Squad and elect leaders. Mrs. Charles Cathey was elected sponsor, even though she is still "Miss Huff" to most of us. She made a good sponsor last year, and we know she will again this term. Doris McConal and Jim Ellen Wells were elected yell leaders, Connie McCona and Norma Ruth Vermillion song leaders, Ann Thompson and Beatrice James will be drum majors and everything will be carried out in fine style.
