Mitchell Williams Seeks Re-Election As Co. Att'y

The Index has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Mitchell Williams for re-election to the post of County Attorney of Lynn County subject to the Democratic primaries this summer. Mr. Williams needs no introduction to O'Donnell as he was a local attorney prior to accepting appointment as County Attorney about three years ago. His administration has generally met with the public's approval.

Following is Mr. Williams' statement:

"I am asking the people of Lynn County to give me my second elective term as County Attorney. I have always endeavored to carry out the duties of my office to the best of my ability without fear or favor as the law charges me to do. If I am re-elected I shall continue to give each and every problem that comes to my office the careful and individual attention it deserves."

The new 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 4-door sedan. With three great series Chevrolet offers the most beautiful choice of models in its field.

New style... New power... New economy... and yet Lowest-priced line in its field!

That's why people are calling the new 1954 Chevrolet the outstanding motor car value of this new year!

Men and women everywhere are deciding that Chevrolet for 1954 gives more for the money than any other car in its price range.

Here are the reasons why... New style—more beauty of line, contour and color—with stunning new bodies by Fisher and luxurious new modern-mode interiors. New power—more pickup, more passing ability, more smoothness and quietness of operation with either of Chevrolet's two advanced 1954 engines—the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide (available on all models at extra cost) or the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 115" engine!

New economy—yes, even stronger gasoline savings—because both of these great high-compression engines are designed, engineered and built to wring more power from every charge of fuel.

Moreover, these new Chevrolets remain the lowest-priced line in their field, again this year.

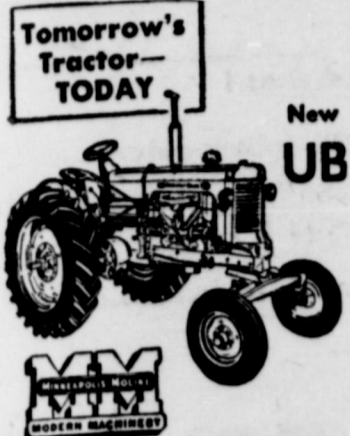

Come in... see and drive the new 1954 Chevrolet... and place your order now!

Oregon Blood Donor Trying for 50 Pints
 HILLSBORO, Ore.—After giving his 26th pint of blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile was in Hillsboro, Bob Lewis said he's "hitting for 50."
 As nearly as he can figure, 19 of the pints have been given to the Red Cross beginning in Portland early in World War II. He continued giving blood there until the center closed following the war, and since the bloodmobile has made its regular trips to Hillsboro, he's missed only one time.

While he was a member of the Portland fire department, donations were a regular thing. There firemen were allowed to give blood while on duty and a four-hour rest period was allotted. But Lewis recalls, he never missed a fire call —four hours or no four hours.

Because he has type 'O' blood —so-called universal type—he was often called upon by hospitals in emergency cases. He counts giving twice each at the Multnomah county hospital, St. Vincent's, and Good Samaritan and once at Providence in Portland.
 Although he has given more than two and a half times the amount of blood now coursing through his veins, Lewis has never suffered any ill effects. "I'm always careful to drink plenty of juice afterwards," he said.
 His advice to others is to give a try at donating. "If there's any reason why you shouldn't give blood, the nurses there are sure to catch it before you get in," he said.

Statisticians say many women are getting men's wages nowadays; a fact married men have always known.

Hatred is like a shotgun with a plugged barrel — the backfire is more dangerous than the shot.

A nickel goes a long way these days . . . you have to go a long way to find something it will buy.

No man needs both money and brains . . . if he has money, the brains will look him up.

Female Cabbie Asks
 For Right to Drive

ELIZABETH, N.J.—A female cabbie who likes to work the midnight to 8 a.m. shift is fighting in court here to preserve her right to drive a cab at night.
 She is the city's only full time female cab driver. Opposition to her work shift is based upon fear that at late hours, she is more likely to be molested.
 Nine companies without female drivers are attempting to have legislation passed to prevent Mrs. Shirley Da Costa from driving a cab after 6 p. m. and Mrs. Da Costa is waging a one woman war against the proposal.

The 25-year-old mother of three children plans to go before the board of works to defend her rights. She has engaged a lawyer to assist her. She is determined to maintain her nocturnal schedule because that is the best earning period. Her shift is from midnight to 8 a. m.
 Driving eight years, Mrs. Da Costa claims she never has had an accident. And, she adds she is expert at changing flat tires

Men used to make slaves of one another — today it's installment buying that does it.

So many American citizens have never lived so well before . . . or so many so far behind.

Grain producers should give attention, even before planting, to the storage problem. Storage space is now at a premium and little relief is in sight. More on the farm storage will be necessary if present indications develop.

MESQUITER and the Dallas White Rock Community's WHITE ROCK-ER.

Out in the west where the cattle roam and the cowboys sing, one can read the Ozona STOCKMAN, the Hereford BRAND, the Fort Stock on PIONEER, the Ropesville PLAINSMAN and the Anson WESTERN OBSERVER.

Traveling down coastal-way, one finds the Richmond TEXAS COASTER and the Port Lavaca WAVE; and up in the red clayed, pine-covered country of East Texas are the Nacogdoches REDLAND HERALD and the Omaha BREEZE. Indicative of the Central Texas hill region are such publications as the Kerrville MOUNTAIN SUN. Out of the oil boom daps came the Sour Lake OIL CITY VISITOR.

Thruout the history, settlers from all parts of the world, looking for new lands and better opportunities, came to Texas to establish homes. Soon, too, their own newspapers in their own languages sprang up. Still operating are the German ZEITUNG at New Braunfels and the widely circulated Spanish daily in San Antonio, LA PRENSA. Written in English for Italians is the TEXAS TRIBUNE in Dallas. The Swedish TEXAS POSTEN is published in Austin.

There are only three Texas newspapers with masthead of INDEX of which the Childress newspaper is one.

How Newspapers Got Their Names

In Texas communities, the newspaper is "one of the family", and its name has become a by-word among the citizenry.

Did you ever stop to think about their names and where they originated?

Some take their titles from their localities; others have a name indicating a past or present political inclination; a few names point toward a goal or purpose. Then there are those which seem to have been plucked from mid-air or formed by some whim of the founder.

Take the Jefferson JIMPLECUTE for instance. The story goes that the editor was searching for a name for his newspaper and was shifting type around trying to hit on an idea. Suddenly, he dropped the type, and in the jumble landed letters forming "Jimplecute". So that was it.

Another of the one of a kind names is the Cedar Hill MERRY GO ROUND which its publisher, Mrs. A. L. Childress, thought up while recuperating in a hospital. Then there are the unusual Waeider HOME PAPER and the Big Lake WILDCAT.

Some founders took their town's name and added a word to form a well known object; such as the Comanche CHIEF and the Ferris WHEEL.

Named for their city are the Spur TEXAS SPUR, Silsbee BEE, Slaton SLATONITE, Beville BEE, Pricayune, Mesquite TEXAS
