O'DONNELL, LYNN COUNTY, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 7, 1924

No 7

Total of 221 Votes Cast

O'Donnell went heavily republican Tuesday so far as the gubernatorial candidates were concerned, Ma Ferguson receiving 96 votes while G. C. Butte was given 125. The national republican electors received 54 votes, the democratic electors 136 and the Independent Progressives received 9, there being 221 votes cast altogether.

The voting was the lightest cast in some years, many seeming to take no interest. It is the first time that a republican candidate received a majority in the O'Donnell precinct.

From some cause the county and district candidates received light votes, Judge C. H. Cain taking the lead with 196, while the others varied from 171 up to 195.

"Ma" Ferguson was defeated in this precinct in both primaries, this being the third time that the majority of the voters have shown that she was not in favor as a candidate.

Entertain with Turkey Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell entertained a few invited guests at the home of Dr. W. J. Adams Tuesday with a turkey dinner, which in the estimation of those so fortunate as to be present, was never equaled. Besides the turkey, which was cooked to perfection, and its side partners, dressing, cranberry jellie and gravy, there were vegetables fresh from the home garden and fruits de luxe fresh from the orchards of the Campbells in Oregon. At the table were gathered Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Dr. W. J. Adams, Mac Noble, Hugh Thomas, A. Baggett and T. J. K. A.

Buys Land

Grant Jordan is getting himself in fine shape for turning farmer. Last week he purchased 100 acres of land from the New Land & Development Company, and has also contracted for another place.

Ben T. Brown Re- signs as Cashier

At a meeting of the directors of the First State Bank Tuesday night, Ben T. Brown tendered his resignation as cashier of that institution, asking that he be relieved at once. After stating his reason, Mr. Brown was retired and A. W. Gibbs appointed to fill his place.

Mr. Brown's health has been giving away for some time and he took this action in order to get out in the open and away from the long hours of work made necessary with the position. He retains his stock in the institution and will continue to work with the bank until the first of the year. He announces that he will engage in the insurance business and will handle real estate on the side. Mr. Brown has been with the bank since its organization and has been instrumental building it up from a small branch affair to where it ranks with the best state banks of the South Plains. He has endeared himself to the people by his accommodating manner and his friends will miss him from his accustomed place at the widow.

A. W. Gibbs, Mr. Brown's successor, has been with the bank for more than one year and is well qualified to fill the place in an efficient manner.

Masonic Building Ready for Stucco

The Masonic building on the east side of Block A is taking its roof this week and will soon be given a coat of stucco. The Masons will have a comfortable home on the upper floor. It is not known what kind of a business will be placed in the ground floor. Carl Betenbough is constructing a large store room on the north of the Masonic building which it is understood will be occupied by a dry goods and grocery store.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Singleton on last Sunday, a fine eight pound girl.

G. R. Pearce Passes Away

After an illness of only four or five days, G. R. Pearce passed away at 8 o'clock Sunday evening of a complication of diseases. While Mr. Pearce had been suffering from high blood pressure for some time only his family and most intimate friends knew this, his cheerful disposition leading one to believe him to be in the best of health, and only on Tuesday before his death he was in town attending to business in his usual manner.

Mr. Pearce was 57 years, one month and seventeen days old and had lived in this county for eighteen years, where his children grew to manhood and womanhood. Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Marcus, Clovis and Cecil Pearce, and seven daughters, Mesdames Luella McLaurin, Ethel Sheppard, Nera Humphrey, Birda Selvege, Anna Mae Covey, Mattie Shook and G. C. Raper of Hazen, Ark. with the exception of Mrs. Raper, all the children were present at the time of his death. He also leaves two brothers, Mel Pearce and W. M. Pearce of Jonesboro, both of whom were also present at his death, and two sisters, Mrs. N. L. Clark of Comanche, and Mrs. J. R. Johnson of Wellington.

The funeral services were conducted at the O'Donnell cemetery by Rev. W. C. Hart, where a large number of friends had gathered to witness the last sad rites. Beautiful floral offerings decorated the grave, including a large wreath donated by the Ku Klux Klan.

Deceased was a man loved by all who knew him, honest and upright in all dealings, a friend to the poor and needy and always ready to do his share in the advancement of the community's interests. He had long been a devout Christian and was a member of the Methodist church. His death is deeply regretted by all and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family in its hour of bereavement.

Young Couple United in Matrimony

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Marr on Monday evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Nell Morgan was married to Ernest Cooper, Rev. P. P. Alexander performing the ceremony.

The bride has only been here a few months, but during that time she has won many friends by her charming ways. The groom has been in business in O'Donnell for more than a year, but is now employed at the Corner Drug Store, and is regarded highly for his straight forward principles. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy life.

Purchase Equipment for State Theatre

While in Dallas last week, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanders purchased equipment for the new addition to the State Theatre, including about 200 seats of the latest pattern. They also purchased two new Mazda projectors to better focus the pictures on the screen when it is extended to its new position. These machines are the latest in picture projection and cost quite a sum of money.

Mr. Sanders says that he has booked enough of the 1925 pictures which are now in the making to fill all dates for next year, and that no old pictures will be shown.

For next week the theatre will show "Shepherd King" on Monday, "Eagle's Feather" on Tuesday, "Millions to Burn" on Wednesday, "Back Home and Broke," starring Thomas Meighan, on Thursday, "Just Off Broadway," with John Gilbert, on Friday and on Saturday the old favorite Hoot Gibson will appear in "The Thrill Chaser."

Gins Turn Out 1200 Bales for Week

The gins are still busy. Weigher Busby reports that 6,619 bales were weighed in up to Thursday night. This is an increase of about 1,200 over last week. Last year at this time there were 5200 bales weighed.

To Build Hotel

O'Donnell is to have another hotel. A. E. Lackey has purchased lots on the east side of Block A and will start the construction of a twenty-room hotel within a few days. The building will be two stories high, will have a commodious lobby in front, with large dining room and cafe. Mr. Lackey is experienced in the hotel and restaurant business and has seen enough of the town to realize the necessity of another hotel.

Mrs. Everett Entertains

Mrs. Harvey Everett was at home last Friday from 4 to 6 o'clock to the following invited guests: Mesdames Carl M. Cox, J. R. Sanders, C. J. Beach, A. W. Gibbs, Bryan Jordan, B. T. Brown, A. A. House, T. C. Brown, Sam Pfrimmer, Albert Koeneger, Misses Willie Schooler, Chrysta Kennedy, Leta Rodgers, Lois Pugh, Moodye Burk, and Lyanette Smith.

The occasion of the party was just a get together to have a good time in general. The rooms were appropriately decorated with the proverbial Halloween witches, black cats, pumpkins and owls. All the lights were shaded with jack-o'-lanterns which cast a ghostly glow over everything, presenting a weird effect. The guests were met at the door by the hostess, and after asking them to remove their hats, placed a spooky-looking cap upon their heads, which started the fun.

Autumn leaves for score cards were passed and a number of hilarious games of forty-two followed. So rapid and jolly were these games it was impossible to keep an account of the winners, at least everyone had so many punches no time was taken to count them. At a proper hour each guest was given a slip of paper with instructions thereon as to their part in the program in which they were to assist the hostess in some way. Some played the piano, some told ghost tales, some put up some snappy posters with helpful advice and suggestions, while others assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. House's stunt was originality personified and impromptu at that and is deserving of special mention.

The refreshments consisted of baked apples with nuts, whipped cream and cherries, hot sandwiches, olives, coffee, chocolate and old-fashioned doughnuts.

One only needed to hear the gay laughter of this joyous aggregation of ladies to know just what a good party it was and how much fun they had.

Who Is Your Banker?

The Choice of a Bank Calls for Good, Sound Judgment.

NO doubt this fact is often ignored or overlooked, but it is nevertheless true, that by having your account with a bank of very high standing you thereby add prestige to your business.

The Index makes mistakes just like a human. Last week in reporting a regular meeting of the "Lucky Thirteen Club" it made the occasion appear at the home of Mrs. Roy Cox, when it should have been at the home of Mrs. Carl Cox. The article also stated erroneously that Mrs. Harvey Everett, the newly elected president was presented with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, when it should have said carnations for all of which the Index apologizes.

Eldridge has materially advanced the church's interests here during his three years' pastorate.

Entertainment at Newmoore

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newman entertained the people of the Newmoore community Saturday night in honor of their father, C. L. Newman of Corpus Christi, who is their guest. The house was beautifully decorated with autumnal colors, oak with all its golden glow, predominating. After the guests had arrived, the senior Newman entertained with a number of choice selections on the violin, of which he is an artist of the old school, playing tunes that took one back to days of long ago. Others also assisted in the music, making the evening pass only too quickly. It was estimated that there were between 200 and 300 people present to show their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Newman and their guest of honor.

Mrs. Waldo McLaurin was here from Pride, Tuesday.

The Methodist Missionary Society had quite a successful cake, candy and sandwich sale downtown Tuesday, the proceeds from the sale amounting to a satisfactory sum. The ladies desire to thank Messrs Hart, Curtis and Bowlin for their kindness in allowing them to use their windows to display the eats.

See City Transfer Company for all kinds of hauling. Satisfaction guaranteed. Office with O'Donnell Land Company. Phone No. 81.

Harvey Everett and Bryan Jordan moved their well drilling machine and equipment to the Newmoore community Monday, where they have been employed to do quite an extensive bit of work for the Newman Land and Development Company.

His many friends here will be glad to learn that Mr. Drumheller is gradually climbing up and they hope some day to see him at the top in his line of work. Ralls is to be congratulated upon securing Mr. Drumheller as their station agent. Capable, agreeable and accommodating, Mr. Drumheller is destined to rise in railroad circles.

O'Donnell School Notes

Edited by the pupils of the O'Donnell Public Schools.

NOTES BY THE SUPERINTENDENT.

The application blank for classification has been received and is now being filled preparatory to sending back to the Department of Education. There remain a few things to be done yet in order to pass inspection, but I feel that we are going to get our school classified and affiliated in some subjects.

We have an interesting Public Speaking class. This class is being conducted by Mr. Jones who is an old college debater. Your honorable superintendent is also a great believer in public speaking work and we are going to put out winning debaters and declaimers this year.

A committee of teachers has been appointed to spend the money received at the Hallowe'en carnival. Mrs. Shaw represents the primary folks. Miss Cathey the grammar grades and Mr. Jones the high school, so no one grade will receive all the money.

Owing to the fact that the report cards for the high school were delayed in reaching us, no reports have been sent out. Regular six weeks grades have been made, however, and we hope to have out the cards soon. Cards for the grades will be issued monthly, beginning with the second month of school.

Believing that cooperation is essential between the faculty members, the teachers of the O'Donnell school meet Monday afternoons after school for a teachers meeting. At these meetings matters of common interest to the teachers are discussed. While it goes rather hard to spend an extra hour or two after one has done a days work, we always find the meetings profitable from the standpoint of the good of the school.

Parents are requested to send the teacher of their children a note stating that their child was unavoidably absent on a certain day if such were the case. In this way both teacher and parents can keep check on their pupils or children and know whether they are legally absent or whether they are playing "hooky."

Don't forget the Parent Teacher's Association.

Respectfully,
J. A. RICKARD, Supt.

FOOTBALL

Brownfield 33 O'Donnell 0.

The football game Friday resulted in a victory for Brownfield. It was fast and was enjoyed by everyone. In the first five minutes of play, White carried the ball for a touchdown, and the referee penalized O'Donnell 15 yards for pushing on a line plunge, which was absurd as it is practically impossible to make a line plunge without some pushing. O'Donnell featured the first quarter with forward passes, and line plunges. At the end of the quarter the score was Brownfield 0 O'Donnell 0. The second quarter was featured by the long passes by Brownfield and so end runs and the brilliant tackling by O'Donnell men. The last half was hard fought and Brownfield paid dearly for every score that was made. Brownfield's forward passing and end runs were the features of the game. It was the best game of the season and we are anxious to get even with them.

Following is the line-up of the O'Donnell men.

Fullback.....	Beaton, Delbert
Center.....	Lines, Martin
Right guard.....	Yandell, Desmond
Right tackle.....	Chandler, Davis
Left end.....	Beaton, Estes
Left tackle.....	Horn, V. B.
Left guard.....	Weir, Lee
Quarterback.....	White, Clyde

Right half.....McLaurin, Oma
Next Saturday we play Crosbyton Hi at Crosbyton.

The Hallowe'en Carnival was one of the liveliest entertainments in the O'Donnell School. Everyone taking a part in it also enjoying it.

We are delighted with the results of the carnival, there being $118.50 made above expenses.

The Seventh grade, selling popcorn and peanuts, also having the Gypsy fortune teller, cleared more money than any other grade.

If the Auditorium had been of a larger seating capacity, there would have been more people made to laugh. The programme was splendid for all those who could hear and see.

We must not forget the parade which could not have been. The streets were crowded with people watching the witches, clowns, spooks, and different grades pass by. Three citizens of the town served as judges in the parade, the following points being considered, the class appearing best in dress and in behavior. Mrs. Rickard's class, the third grade won the prize. They were dressed as witches.

SENIOR CLASS

Lois Wimberly entertained the Senior Class at her home Saturday night Nov. 1. The following games were played; finch, forty-two and a football game. When the guests were tired of play they were showered with peanuts, then they were invited to the dining room and served delicious, sandwiches and punch. Those present were: Seniors, Mary Simpson, Opal Patterson, Mary Earle Bailey, Alta Rodgers, and Harvey Lines, Miss Christine Millwee, Sponsor; invited guests, James Graham, John Graham, Frank Moody Burke, Erma Gross, Clint Wright and Tip Webb.

At a recent meeting of the Senior Class the question of class rings was discussed. The rings were ordered and we expect to receive them soon. Look out for the Seniors.

Familiar sayings among Seniors:

Audra—"Mr. Jones, I can't do that."

Ethel—"Have you a powder puff?"

Mr. Jones—"You had better remember that until Gabriel blows his horn, or at least until Physics is over."

U. B.—"Hay Prof. how did you say to do that?"

Lillian Kirkpatrick was absent Monday.

SEVENTH GRADE

The number of pupils in seventh grade is still growing. new pupils coming in every week. The next to enter increases our enrollment to fifty.

Several of our room have not been tardy nor absent since school begun and we hope to make our record as good as any in school.

A class meeting was held Friday the 24th of October and the following officers elected:

President, Erma Palmer; vice-president, Pauline Wilhite; secretary and treasurer, J. D. Eckols. We did not decide on our class colors and motto but expect to at an early date.

We are all glad the carnival was a success. The seventh grade made $20 selling pop corn and peanuts.

All of us hate to see Annie Read Peters leave us. She will go to school at Tahoka.

We have an honor roll this month of the ones that have been neither absent nor tardy. They are: Jewel Cox, Dollie Crawford, Marvie Devore, Boulah Estes, Evelyn Edwards, Fern Fritz, Erma D. Palmer, Annie Read Peters, Pauline Wilhite and Sharon Millsap.

The following visitors contributed greatly to our chapel program last Friday morning: Rev. P. P. Alexander and Rev. Jasper Bogue, Christian Evangelists, Rev. Horn of the Baptist Church, and Dr. Tate.

Rev. Horn read a selection from the Scripture, the invocation was delivered by Rev. Bogue, and an impressive talk made by Rev. Alexander in which the thought that the greatest character is the one that renders the greatest service to humanity was emphasized.

We are glad to welcome them as visitors at any time.

FIFTH GRADE

Attendance good with the exception of a few who are in the cotton fields. Two new pupils were enrolled this week.

FOURTH GRADE

Mrs. Pfrimmer, teacher of the 4th grade, had up to last week an enrollment in her room of twenty-four pupils, but this week she has had three new pupils added to the list, making a total enrollment of twenty-seven.

Attendance and punctuality in this room has been very good during the first month. There were fourteen pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the month.

At the end of the second month the names of all the pupils who are neither absent nor tardy will be published in the paper.

THE LIBRARY

The following books have been donated to the Library this week by pupils of sixth grade:

Cupid Does Quick Work

Cupid got busy with his little bow last week and shot an arrow through the hearts of Miss Edna Freeman and William Hudson. The young couple had only a short acquaintance, but that made no difference when love stepped in. The young man called Friday night of last week at the home of the young lady's father and asked permission to take her to the Hallowe'en party. This was granted. Mr. Hudson being of the Romeo type of lovers, had already prepared himself with the papers that bind up aching hearts, and when they arrived in town, they went to the office of Dr. C. P. Tate, who gave them a prescription that made the world seem bright to them, and they went away as man and wife. Before leaving for their home at Ballinger, the bride wrote a farewell letter to her father asking forgiveness.

The newly-weds, in company with Dalton Warren and Lona Bennett started for Post to catch the train and when near that town the car turned turtle and Miss Bennett was painfully injured other occupants of the car escaped with only a shake-up.

Expert Shingle Weavers

In spite of the multiplication of efficient machines to lighten and simplify labor, shingles are still woven (or packed) by hand. No machinery has yet been invented capable of eliminating the expert shingle weaver. Examine a bunch of shingles as the carpenter takes them apart for shingling the roof, and you will see the unique process by which the compact bunch has been woven. Now a wide shingle, now a narrow one, makes the bunch the exact width, and all day long the weaver stands and seizes shingle after shingle thrown out from the sawing machine, and without any false moves weaves them into compact bunches. The term shingle-weaver has been extended by custom, till it now applies to anyone who works in any department of a shingle mill.

Scriptural Translations

Every year scholars are toiling to translate the Scriptures into more and still more dialects. Thousands are plodding all over the globe to put these translations in the hands of all peoples. In the interiors of distant countries, far up the Amazon valley perhaps, or into darkest Africa, where the Bible has never been, colporteurs are tramping with their packs. Motor-cars are carrying the Bible across the desert from Damascus to Bagdad in 48 hours, a journey that was once a matter of six weeks, and by fastest camel post a trip of nine days.

Monuments to Apples

Monuments or markers have been erected to a few of the most noted varieties of apple. In 1895 a monument was built to the Baldwin at Wilmington, near Lowell, Mass. The first in New York was erected in the town of Camillus, Onondaga county, on the original site of the Primate apple trees of John T. Roberts of Syracuse, in 1908. There followed one to the Northern Spy in 1912, and the McIntosh Red in the same year. A monument to the Wealthy was erected at Excelsior, Minn., in 1912.

Intelligent Reading

If the books which you read are your own, mark with a pen or pencil the most considerable things in them which you most desire to remember. Then you may read that book the second time over with half the trouble, by your eye running over the paragraphs which your pencils has noted. It is but a very weak objection against this practice to say, "I shall spoil my book"; for I persuade myself that you did not buy it as a bookseller, to sell it again for gain, but as a scholar, to improve your mind by it; and if the mind be improved, your advantage is abundant, though your book yields less money to your executors.

When Pillory Was Used

The use of the pillory for the punishment of evil doers was only abolished in England during comparatively recent times, and was in active operation in June, 1837. This peculiar form of punishment has a venerable history, and was known before the Conquest, in the form of an instrument of torture called the stretch-neck. The pillory was usually dedicated to fraudulent dealers, sellers of sham gold rings, or counterfeiters of papal bulls, until Star chamber tyrants made it a political weapon, whereby many a noble heart was tried and tempered.

FAMOUS SAYING:

We've seen it all. Let's go.

World Enriched by Genius in Poverty

Art? What have "idle riches" done for that? By rights they should have produced, they should have created, but so far as output goes their contribution has been disappointing. One often hears the suggestion made that young people of artistic promise should be "endowed" to create. "If only he had a little more money, and leisure—what great things he would do!" Would he? I believe, sordid as it may seem, that the wolf at the door has often been one of the most powerful incentives toward artistic creation.

Of course there are volcanic gifts like those of Shelley or Blake that erupt spontaneously and irresistibly, regardless of the consequences. But many of the greatest artists have been goaded on to creation by need. Shakespeare, Chatterton, and (coming a long way after these) Walter Scott, Doctor Johnson, Anthony Trollope. On the whole, great artists have been not only hard workers, but men who have had to work hard.—Violet Bonham-Carter in Good Housekeeping.

Finds Water with a Little Hickie

E. Bayer does not "switch" for water, neither does he "witch" for this life-giving fluid. When he wants to find water in the bowels of the earth he takes a little hickie which he will not allow anyone to see and walks about with it until he gets a contact and he marks the spot for the driller to drill. He claims to have never made a failure, the little machine always speaking the truth. One of his latest finds was on John Cantwell's place north of Newmoore last week, where it was doubted by some that water would be found. At 77 feet the bit went into water-bearing strata and when tested, could not be bailed out, and the water is said to be pure as melted snow. Mr. Cantwell is now a stronger booster than ever for the Newmoore country in general and Mr. Bayer in particular.

Ford Book Expert Pleased with Town

C. Slaughter of Graham, arrived this week to systematize the O'Donnell Motor Company's books. Mr. Slaughter is auditor for the Ford Motor Co. in this district. He states that O'Donnell Motor Company's building and equipment was equal to any in any town the size of O'Donnell and much better than many found in larger towns. He was enthusiastic about the rapid growth this town was making and said he believed one more year would find the building boom still on.
