The School Year In Review

With the first day of school, September 5, 1937, a red letter year was seen for the O'Donnell school system. The earlier part of the year and the fall was marked by a successful football season. About 20 men reported to participate in this sport and Coach Conger was more than pleased with results. Although a great many of the games played were won, the boys lost a few, that is to be expected. Climaxing the football season was the game with Tahoka, our oldest rival, in which the Eagles lost the tilt by a 26-7 score. Later, the southern half of the district was won by the Eagles from Seminole and the Eagles were runner-up for district honors. At the close of the football season, the boys were honored with a banquet given by the pep squad. It was at this affair that both the pep squad and the Eagles were presented with letter sweaters, the reward for their efforts to make every phase of the year a success.

The basketball season came and went and again O'Donnell triumphed in winning the second year in succession, the Interscholastic League meet championship of Lynn County. The preparation for the closing of school was marked by the junior-senior banquet, an annual affair, which was given by the juniors in honor of the departing seniors. The banquet was given at the first of May, leaving the next few days to prepare for the graduation of the largest class in history from O'Donnell high school.

Four new subjects were affiliated this year, widening the field for the young person aspirant to good citizenship and learning. In future years, all those involved in the success of O'Donnell high school, can look back with pride and say, "I helped to do that."

Singing Meet To Be Held At Draw

A singing convention will be held at Draw next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Methodist Church, according to an announcement today by sponsors of the meet. A large crowd attended a similar event at Grassland last Sunday.

NEW HOMES IN O'DONNELL BUILT IN PAST MONTH

Continued interest in the building activities of the city, are revealed in city records, showing that in the past month two residences have been completed and another is near completion. Other building are scheduled to be under construction soon. O. C. Cox has completed a rock home on East Eighth street. The residence on East Seventh street built by J. L. Seeley is complete. New completion is the residence of Hordford Smith in the East part of the city. Miss Lois Perry and Lloyd Flor, formerly connected with the Press subscription campaign, were in Lubbock, Glanton and Post Monday.

What Happens When Train Meets Truck

This unusual picture was made a few minutes after a Rock Island train had struck a trailer truck near Chicago and tore it to pieces. Picture shows flames from the exploded gas tank licking the sides of the railroad car. The driver of the truck was seriously injured.

AIR MAIL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED IN O'DONNELL

Co-operation in the observance of National Air Mail Week is expected to be made by many citizens in O'Donnell from May 15 to May 21, according to J. Mac Noble, postmaster. Merchants are urged to send most of their mail by the air route during that time, and private citizens to mail at least one letter to some person. Twenty years of air mail service in the nation will be completed during that week. Rate on air mailing in the U. S. A. is only six cents and rates to foreign countries have been reduced.

What O'Donnell Needs

In these "boom" intervals we have attempted to give a cross section of the opinion of the people of our town as well as can be apprehended. Said—Dr. J. M. BuBany: "The town is OK, but we need rain."

Mrs. C. H. Mansell: "An improvement of everything in general."
Cary Shook: "A co-operative lunch of merchants to get together and close up early each day."
C. H. Cabool: "A trades day to boost summer trade."

Beverly Wells: "Most some form of recreation such as a swimming pool, golf links or a community club house."
Superintendent S. F. Johnson: "A lighted football and a lighted football field."
W. E. Vermillion: "We are badly in need of traffic lights at certain corners and intersections, and some more street improvements."

Mrs. W. L. Palmer: "A community clubhouse and a swimming pool to keep our children at home."
M. D. Conger: "A lighted softball field and a swimming pool."
Mrs. Guy Bradley: "A public park or a public recreation hall."
Elder Drannon: "A public library."
J. L. Shoemaker: "Co-operation."
Mrs. J. P. Bowlin: "O'Donnell has the best people, the most ideal climate and the most productive soil to be found anywhere, but we are lacking in civic pride. Just think what good streets, good lawns, a well-kept cemetery, and a shady park would mean to our town!"
Mrs. Guy Bradley: "A country club and a swimming pool."
Rev. J. A. Lunsford: "We do not have co-operation in O'Donnell. We need lots of things but we need to work together more than anything. It seems to me that everybody is trying to peddle his own cap and doesn't care what happens to the other fellow."
M. R. Pike: "Tennis courts and 8 places for recreation."
Senior Class: "We vote 100 per cent for a gymnasium. That is what O'Donnell needs."

NO OPERETTA TO BE HELD HERE

Due to conditions not under the control of the teachers in the local grade school, there will be no operetta this year as there has been heretofore. During the last few years, the operetta, in which hundreds of grade school pupils took part, was a highlight of the school year. These presentations were beautiful and were well attended. The teachers report that outside criticism and the work involved have been factors considered in reaching this decision.

School Library Being Renovated

In order to care for the needs of the pupils of our school in literary lines, the school library is undergoing extensive repair and renewal this week. The old slats separating the books from the study hall have been removed and new solid plywood substituted. The entire length of the shelves is faced by a wide shelf, making the library more accessible. All the surface has been varnished and real changes have been seen. Librarians Pearce and Warren are now busy classifying the books and this work will continue throughout the summer. Old books will be discarded to make room for new fiction which is to be ordered soon.

Girl Scout Complete Organization Here

On May 4 about thirty girls who are interested in the Girl Scout movement, met at the Methodist Church to discuss their plans. The girls, whose ages range from ten to eighteen years, have no definite plans until they can be provided with handbooks. Mrs. J. B. Walker and Miss Louise Edwards will be assisted by Misses Dorothy Wall, Ruth Marie Howard and Louise Anderson in the movement. Demonstrations in rope-tying will be held next week. Among those who have reported this far are Jo Ann Campbell, Glenda Fae Mirer, Martha Hines, Christine Eter, Valine Buchanan, Alice Nell Walker, Dolores Thompson, Blisse Archer, Ladelle Frazier, Eloise Shoemaker, Wilda Gene Campbell, Elberly Archer, Jim Ellen Beach, Myrtle Daniel, Alle Jo Scholer, Billie Jane Johnson, Helen Jane Gantt, Ouida Mell Howard, Wanda Zell Evered, Minnie Jean Hodges, Dorothy Clayton, Margie Lee Buchanan, Mildred Stargie, Mary Lou Gantt, Paulita Middleton, Lucy Alice Baucum, Ruth Walker, Margaret Johnson, Kate Allen, Aubra Lee Shook, Ruth Hall, Juandine Childers, Virginia Mae Shoemaker, Melba Harris, Frances May, Lena Mayo Singleton, Thelma Turner, Doris Nell Gates, Anna Frances Brewer, Jane Gibson, Mary Nettie Fowler, and Betty Lou Pierce.

The Senior Sponsor—Mrs. Charles Cathey

After being the ruler of the senior ship for five successive years, Mrs. Charles Cathey (More to those who know her best) is still young and healthy and ready to do it again. During the five years, and long ones at that, she has missed only one year accompanying the seniors to Garlsbad. Her signature, MHC, has graced the pass slips for five years, as she has been teaching that long. Her hobby is raising flowers, and she has one of the most beautiful yards in the city. Next to letting the horticulturist in her go, her favorite work is working in dramatics, such as the senior play.

To Teach At Quitaque

Rodger Street of O'Donnell candidate for graduation from Texas Technological College in June, has been elected to teach mathematics in Quitaque next year.

'38 School Term Is Successful

Four New Subjects Affiliated; More Are Scheduled. With the school year drawing to a close, Superintendent S. F. Johnson has accomplished much during the two years he has been head of the O'Donnell schools. Four subjects, general mathematics, typing, commercial law and economics, were affiliated last year; and four more subjects met State requirements, and will be affiliated next year. They are: Bookkeeping and commercial arithmetic, taught by Superintendent Johnson; junior business course, taught by M. D. Conger and W. H. Hickox; and biology by W. H. Hickox. It is expected that World History, taught by Mrs. Charles Cathey, will be affiliated next year, making 26 affiliated credits for the school, according to Superintendent Johnson.

New Postoffice Site Is Chosen

A new postoffice building for O'Donnell will soon be under construction, and will be completed by August. The building will be across the street from the present location. It will be a 25x80-foot building and 12-foot walls, with brick front and tile walls and back. New fixtures will be installed throughout.

SEVENTH GRADE HOSTS TO SENIORS-JUNIORS

The seniors and juniors were guests of the seventh grade last Friday morning at their play, entitled, "This Younger Generation." The play was very much enjoyed by the high school students and wish to thank the seventh grade for their invitation.

ROBINSON'S RETURN FROM BUSINESS TRIP

Mayor Warns Against Donations To Strangers In Name Salvation Army

AN EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

To those who have in any way assisted us, the seniors of 1938, we express our heartfelt appreciation and hope that we have in some way repaid you. We realized that it is entirely impossible to tell you personally how grateful we feel but this may serve to tell you. It is our sincere wish that you may prosper many years and please be as helpful to future seniors classes as you have been to us. We must especially express our thanks to the O'Donnell Press for their courtesy in allowing us to put out this edition and their help in everything.

Officer of Army Here And Urges Citizens To Check Strangers

Warning notices were posted throughout O'Donnell this week by Thos. B. Gregory, Salvation Army officer, to citizens to beware of persons soliciting funds in the name of the army. Mayor B. M. Haymes gave no idea of co-operation by issuing a notice to the same effect. "Many persons are being victimized by strangers in the name of the Salvation Army, or simply the army," Mr. Gregory said, "and we urge every citizen when approached to ask for proper credentials."

All Salvation Army workers carry with them proper credentials, and have no hesitancy in showing them, he also said. Mayor Haymes' statement follows: To Whom It May Concern: I have just had a conversation with Mrs. Thomas B. Gregory, officer in charge of the Salvation Army in this territory, in reference to persons who may be soliciting funds in this territory in the name of the Salvation Army, but who have no connection with this organization.

Mr. Gregory, and his organization is making every effort to discourage this practice, and I recommend that all people co-operate in this matter; and that any person known to be soliciting funds for this organization without authority, or without proper identification, be reported to the authorities.—Signed: B. M. Haymes, Mayor.

STAMPS TO HELP RESTORE WILDLIFE

The man on the curb says: The old saying that an inch is as good as a mile is true except in the case of a rope around some poor guy's neck.

I hear that work is being rushed. Big Spring. The contractors got on the insane institution at heard that the Tuesday Bridge Club was going to take up the five-stuck deck at their next meeting.

I suppose you have heard of the movement for a clubhouse for our town. Rev. M. R. Pike is probably the only one who has done anything in this line. For years now there has been no form of amusement here except the theatre, and what was there to do except go to the theatre? Nothing. For the last few weeks now Rev. Mr. Pike has been working toward this goal, but— There has been no co-operation whatsoever. I have also been his idea to build tennis courts to go with the clubhouse. If you have any desire to make our town a better place to live in, then co-operate with the Rev. Mr. Pike and things will be done for O'Donnell.

Have you heard? The latest joke which can probably be accredited to Bob Burns:

It seems that a certain young widow woman lived with her son in the hills promised her offspring that he could do as he pleased when he was sixteen.

On his birthday the boy left home and was gone for years and years. His mother was worried about him, thinking that probably he was lost at sea or killed in Africa, or something of the sort.

On the 10th anniversary of his departure, his mother was startled by a knock at the door. Asking the person to enter she was shocked to see her boy standing there. Dumbfounded, she asked him why he came back. The reply was overwhelming. Said the prodigal, "That wasn't nowhere to go, ma, they closed the pool hall down the street this morning."

SPOT JOTTINGS—Have you noticed Mr. Forgy's new sailor? It's a pippin' but some wind will blow him no good if he isn't careful. I suggest that he tie a little ribbon about his neck or have a string running to his lapel if he wants to keep his bonnet out of the sand dunes hereabouts. . . I have heard the slogan, "Keep Cam With Camels," and here are some new ones: "Keep Flighty With Wings," "Keep Lucky With Luckless," "I'll bet Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson could certainly tell some tall ones after their recent trip to points somewhat vague and unknown. . . Les Miller was certainly a party-smelling feller Sunday morning. . . Ross Stark is certainly a judge of horseshoes (?). He picked Stuchhand to win the Kentucky Derby and when he was jerked from the race he wouldn't get out of his seat. . . How does he do it? My apologies for this, but I had to have a column out of something.

4-H CLUB NOTES

"When our house was built, there was some panel board left from making the walls, and this material was what I used in building my clothes closet after it was elected clothing demonstrator," said Tommy Ruth Anderson, clothing demonstrator in the T-Bar 4-H Girls' Club.

"The closet is made in my bedroom and I share it with my two sisters. But it is large enough—30 inches deep and five feet long. At one side four shelves extend across the length of the closet for flat work and hats and one shelf is the length of the closet above the clothes rod," added Tommy Ruth.

"My chickens are eight weeks old and only four of the 211 have died," said Freddie Smith, poultry demonstrator in the New Home 4-H Club.

"I keep litter made of bundle feed on the floor. This makes the house easier to clean but as it is not very thick I remove it every three days and add new litter. I keep sufficient fresh water and feed before the chickens all the time. There is an opening between the chicken house and sun room which permits the chickens to pass in and out during the day.

"I am growing this group to add to next year's flock because 95 per cent of them are pullets," said Freddie.

"Lowering the rod for hanging clothes has made my storage space more convenient," stated Thelma Ruth Strain, clothing demonstrator in the New Home 4-H Club.

"Now I can hang my clothes up without tip-toeing. I lowered two shelves and added one long one above the clothes rod. I made a built-in shoe rack below the four shelves at one side. Mother and I painted the shelves, shoe rack and rod white, and papered the walls with white ceiling paper. When I have the door painted white inside, three hat racks made and a laundry bag added, I shall have my storage space complete," said Thelma

New Farm Bill Is In Prospect For Next Year

WASHINGTON.—Problems encountered by the administration's new crop-control law have revived demands among some farmers and members of congress for substitute legislation to improve and stabilize farm prices and at the same time permit greater freedom of production.

Farm leaders as well as AAA officials generally recognize that the new law faces a crucial test this week—a test which if not met successfully would strengthen advocate of legislation at the next session of congress to guarantee farmers minimum prices.

Already authors of a price-fixing bill—Senator McAdoo (Dem.) of California and Representative Eicher (Dem.) of Iowa—are laying the foundation for an active campaign next session to replace the present program with their system.

The bill would guarantee growers cost of production and a fair profit on that portion of crops needed to supply domestic needs. Farmers would be free to produce as much as they desired for sale in world markets at prices prevailing there.

The McAdoo-Eicher bill failed in the Senate by only a few votes when the present farm law was considered last winter, and it has the support of a strong bloc in the House.

Advocates contend it would meet two of the most troublesome problems yet to be solved by the present legislation—raise prices which are now at the lowest level since 1934, and eliminate farmer objections to planting and marketing restrictions.

Wallace Against Price Fixing
Despite the talk of new legislation and of farmer complaints against present planting allotments, Secretary Wallace said he felt confident an overwhelming majority of farmers favored the existing program and would co-operate to make it a success.

He repeatedly has expressed opposition to price-fixing proposals. He attributed recent corn and wheat price declines to a combination of factors, including a hard winter, and there is no indication that sentiment among Wisconsin voters has changed.

To sum up, the La Follette movement is for the first time offering these semi-radical, a party headed by men with national political reputations who will sponsor platforms that are largely in line with left wing views.

At the same time, there are many followers of the New Deal, including a sizable bloc in the House, which believe that the President has not gone far enough left. These men are semi-radical—they do not go as far as the extreme left-wingers, who vote for minority tickets such as the Communist. And it is to this left group, and to the left sympathizing constituents who elected them, that Governor La Follette's new party will offer its principal appeal. Furthermore, the party starts with one state apparently "in the bag"—Wisconsin has always supported the La Follette tobacco grower protests against the program to politics and misunderstandings.

That the new program got off to a poor start is generally agreed. It did not become law until late in February, giving officials only a few weeks to put it into operation before planting time. Officials readily acknowledged that errors were made which might have been avoided had more time been available.

The farm situation itself, AAA officials declare, was none too favorable. Surpluses of cotton, corn, tobacco and wheat were on hand to depress prices. The legislation proposed to reduce the surpluses by reducing production, in order to give farm prices a chance to rise to the announced goal—equality with industrial prices.

Asked Acreage Cut

Consequently, cotton, tobacco and corn farmers were asked to reduce plantings this spring. Those who cooperated were promised rewards in Federal benefit payments. The bulk of the wheat crop was sown last fall and could not be affected this season.

Cotton and tobacco farmers voted overwhelmingly to give the Government power to restrict sales of their crops this fall. Corn growers will be given an opportunity to vote on a similar proposal in August if their crop assumes bumper proportions.

Unless prices of these products improve somewhat, AAA officials expect critics will be quick to denounce the program as a failure. They say, however, that since the present business recession, both here and abroad, has resulted in a reduced demand for farm products, farmers should not expect the program to do much more this year than maintain prices at present levels, reduce surpluses and thereby pave the way for better prices next year.

The humming noise made by bees does not come from their mouths, as is often supposed, but is produced by the rapid vibration of their wings.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Industrial News Review) official decision to launch party—called the National Progressive Party, and headed by or Philip La Follette, of Wisconsin, is a major political move. The chief significance of the move lies in its effect on the existing party system of future elections.

History of third party movements in this country has generally a history of practical failure, so far as parties themselves were concerned. Today who remembers the Free Soilers, the Americans, the Blue Hats, the Anti-Masons—all and third party movements of time? The last third party drive that got anywhere was in 1924, when the senator Follette ran for president.

Senator Wheeler as his team polled a total of 5,000,000 votes out of 30,000,000 cast. A ticket received the election of only one state, Wisconsin, however, a third party has been the decisive factor in a national election, and made an important contribution to the course of government.

Betty Crocker MEALTIME MAGIC

Your Newspaper—Betty Crocker Home Service Department

FOR BREAKFAST, LUNCH OR DINNER

HERE'S a sack of corn meal. I'm carefully avoiding mentioning whether it is white or yellow corn meal. That's a matter of personal preference. The question before the man is—what will we use it for? Of course if you have a fisherman in your family, some of it will be used to roll the tender fish fillets in before you get them into the sizzling hot frying pan, but there's nothing grander than tender sweet fresh fish in a crisp golden brown jacket of corn meal.

Then, of course, there are corn meal muffins. They're delicious for breakfast, for lunch or dinner. And, corn griddle cakes are another grand breakfast dish.

Here's a recipe for some delicious old time corn griddle cakes with the real corn flavor.

- 1 cup Corn Griddle Cakes
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups buttermilk
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup white or yellow cornmeal
- 1 tsp. soda
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 tbsp. butter, melted (if desired)

Beat egg yolks slightly with rotary beater. Beat in the buttermilk. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour, corn meal, soda and salt together, and add all once to the liquid mixture. Beat until mixture is smooth. Blend in melted butter. Fold in the egg whites. Bake on hot griddle. When puffed and full of bubbles, turn and cook on the other side. This recipe makes about 25 griddle cakes (3 1/2 inches in diameter).

For lunch or supper when you're making up left over bits of ham or chicken, make a delicious big corn cake, split it in two—spread it with butter—then put the two halves together in a layer cake with a generous filling of your creamed egg or chicken between the layers and the top and sides well blanketed with more of the creamed egg or chicken. Bake in a hot oven, 450° F. 15 corn stick pans 1 inch wide and 7 inches long will fit this cake. If you have pans not available, shallow muffin pans (preferably iron) may be used.

Like other corn bread and corn muffin recipes, this calls for a hot oven, 450° F. That makes it a good quick bread to serve with the hot courses when you're having strawberries for dessert. Both the shortcakes and the cornsticks require the same baking temperature. A good main dish to serve with the Corn Sticks is "Deviled with the Corn Sticks" a delicious seared top of fish made with soft bread crumbs, milk, crab meat and hard cooked eggs with cayenne pepper to give it character. It's covered with bits of butter, and baked in the oven with the corn sticks and shortcake. It requires only 15 minutes to cook.

Southern Corn Cake
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 cup white cornmeal (or yellow)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
2 eggs
1 cup milk

Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat egg yolks thoroughly and fold lightly whipped cream. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together into the cream mixture. Pour into greased and floured layer pans or loaf pan. Bake 25 minutes for muffins; 35 to 40 minutes for cakes in a moderate oven, 350° F. Two 8-inch layer pans or one 8 1/2-inch loaf pan will fit this cake.

Probably one of the most popular cakes I have is this Yellow Whipped Cream Cake. It's lovely soft fine texture, and is so delicious that it doesn't need frosting. However, it wears almost any icing with grace and distinction. Here's the recipe.

Yellow Whipped Cream Cake
1 1/2 cups whipping cream (35-38% butter fat)
3 eggs
2 cups cake flour or 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 cup baking powder
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. vanilla

Beat cream until stiff. Beat eggs thoroughly and fold lightly whipped cream. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together into the cream mixture. Pour into greased and floured layer pans or loaf pan and bake 30 to 35 minutes in a moderate oven, 325° F. Two 8-inch layer pans will fit this cake.

Fresh Strawberry Frosting
1 cup whipping cream
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1 egg white

Beat egg whites until stiff. Whip the cream until stiff and gently fold into the egg whites. Gradually fold in the cold water, to which the flavoring has been added. Sift the flour once before measuring. Mix and sift the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together, and fold into the cream mixture. Pour into greased and floured layer pans and bake 30 to 35 minutes in a moderate oven, 325° F. Two 8-inch layer pans will fit this cake.

Strawberry Frosting
1 egg white
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup crushed strawberries (including juice)
1/2 cup cream until stiff enough to hold a point. Gradually add the sugar and berries alternately in every kind of unbaked. Use as used—beating well with rotary beater between additions. Continue in every kind of unbaked. Use as used—beating well with rotary beater between additions. Continue in every kind of unbaked. Use as used—beating well with rotary beater between additions.

Be very careful about what you serve. If you drop a start the next meal, you'll be glad to see Betty Crocker in arms of your newspaper, and ask for the week's menu. Complete menu for the week will be sent to you in one week. Please enclose 5 cent stamp to cover return postage.

Judge Reed Reviews History of County

District Judge Louis B. Reed was a principal speaker during the barbecue held here recently, and below is printed the gist of the remarks he made that day. Readers who are unacquainted with the history of this section will find it interesting.

You are familiar with the history of this section of the county, as I am and perhaps more so, but I wish to refer to it briefly. Every school child knows that this country was once roamed by buffalo and that the earliest settlers were ranchmen. These hardy pioneers were widely separated, and turned into farms, and a child that in school I was taught that it was almost a barren waste. However, a few far-sighted men saw the possibilities of this region for agriculture and at a subsequent period some of the great ranches began to be broken up and turned into farms, and we all know it is now one of the great farming regions of our country.

The early ranchmen, whose settlements made possible the great development of today, welcomed the farming people who came from the Eastern part of our state and their status to the East and North, to till the soil, and, in turn, the new settlers caught the spirit of the country and of its people; together they have continued to devote their efforts to greater growth and development, and together they have always welcomed, and never discriminated against, new people and new industries. Perhaps I should say that they sought the coming of new people and new industries. The companies with their competent geologists have discovered oil in large top of the food. The butter will not mix evenly with the crumbs if it is just placed in dots on the food.

Q. How can I prevent baby from kicking off the blanket at night, and at the same time permit freedom of movement?
A. Pin ordinary hose supporters to each corner of the mattress and clamp to the blanket.

Q. How can I remove the coating of soap which sometimes forms on the inside of the electric washer?
A. Rub thoroughly, but gently, with a very fine grade of steel wool.

Q. How can I improve the looks of powdered sugar cake icings?
A. Add a few drops of lemon juice. This makes the icing very white.

Q. How can I protect the ironing board from dust?
A. Good cover can be made by taking two flour sacks, cutting the bottom from one and pasting to the top of the other to form the required length, and slipping this over the board when putting away.

Q. How can I clean a Panama hat?
A. Apply some good spot remover cover thickly with Fuller's earth; lay the hat away for several days, and then brush thoroughly.

Q. How can I quickly remove butter milk that has adhered to an emptied glass or bottle?
A. Add a pinch of baking soda to cold water and shake thoroughly.

Q. How can I stop nose-bleed?
A. Nose-bleed can often be stopped by applying cold compresses; or wrap a piece of ice in a cloth at the back of the neck.

Q. How can I remove the small brown spots from lemons?
A. Place the lemons in cold water for about fifteen minutes, and then scrub with a vegetable brush. The specks will come off without harming the lemons.

Q. How can I give a beautiful gloss to linens?
A. Add a few drops of glycerine to the starch.

Balanced Farm Aim Of Texas Farmers
COLLEGE STATION. — "The average Texas cotton farmer this year will devote around 33 per cent of his acreage to cotton, 37 to feed crops, and 30 per cent to hay and soil improvement crops," according to H. H. Williamson, him in the following words, with the annotation annexed to it."— Oliver Wendell Holmes.

INAPTITUDE; want of readiness in learning. "He acknowledged his inaptitude for scholarship."

CONTINGENCY; state of being liable, but not certain, to occur. "We must provide for all contingencies."

INGRATULATE; to bring or work oneself into another's favor. "He ingratiated himself with them by his intentions and a show of deference."

REVERENTIAL; to express honor or respect. "We should be reverential to all that bears the mark of genius."

HOW CAN I?
Q. How can I repair a tear in an otherwise good raincoat?
A. Paste a piece of adhesive tape, larger than the tear, on the underside of the garment. Press with a warm iron.

Q. How can I clean varnish, shellac and enamel brushes satisfactorily?
A. Clean the varnish and the enamel brushes in turpentine, the shellac brushes in denatured alcohol.

Q. How can I prepare the buttered crumbs which some recipe call for?
A. Melt the butter, add crumbs, and mix well; then sprinkle on director of the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College, who believes that these figures are balancing their crops and their farm activities in good fashion.

"Out of the Texas farmer's present economic difficulties may come a sounder system of farming," the director pointed out. "In addition to the usual cash crops, farmers this year are planting larger proportions of home food and feed and soil improvement crops.

"Texas is fortunate in having a number of 'triple threat' crops from which to choose. Cotton and wheat, with grain sorghams, are of course our big cash crops, with rice in the coastal section, and flax showing some promise in southern and southwestern counties. It is probable that no other state enjoys such a wide variety of choice crops for food and feed uses. In hay and soil improvement crops, we have a fair pick in the grasses, sweet sorghams, cowpeas, soybean, velvet beans, hairy vetch, and some of the other clovers." Williamson declared that our long seasons of high temperatures burn up humus more quickly than is the case in more temperate sections, and that this makes conservation work especially important here. County agricultural agents have estimated that more than five million Texas acres will be affected by soil improvement crops and conservation practices in 1938, which about a million will be traced and two and a half million conserved but not terraced.

The 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program will encourage the use of conservation practices and soil improvement crops, according to the director, who added that long time agricultural planning, both on the part of the individual farmers and by communities, counties and type of farming areas offers great possibilities of correcting the faults of Texas agriculture.

SERV ELECTROLUX

the Gas REFRIGERATOR

FREEZES WITH NO MOVING PARTS

ONLY one automatic refrigerator can match the silence of nature's own freezing method. That's Serv Electrolux. For this different refrigerator has no moving parts in its entire freezing system. Nothing to make noise, nothing to wear—now or years from now. A tiny gas flame does the work, circulating a refrigerant that produces steady, constant cold and plenty of ice cubes.

Perhaps because when I used it, it was covered with a lovely strawberry icing. So when I used it, I was thinking with the cake. But please don't feel that this cake belongs to the year around with any icing your family prefers.

THE SNOOPER SNOOPS
Babe went out to their mail box the other night and played "peek-a-boo" with a certain little fellow there.

One day last week Mr. Johnson suggested Dean to take them farther about an hour's cooking. In about thirty minutes Mr. Johnson came bustling back up to the tennis court and someone asked what was the matter. "I went out and forgot my car," was his reply.

When Mr. Hickox teaches that game is part of the pupils just look at him and believe it.

Max and Ruby are as good as every subject as they are in Spanish we are sure they will be successful and salutatorian next year.

"What girl in school is it that wishes there wasn't such a thing as a navy for boys, to join?"

Is it true that Treva is going to marry a soda jerk? Max said the surest he had ever heard of.

A grand thing happened the other morning when the juniors changed their flag on the school bus a dignified senior volunteered to go it up. "There ya air, ain't the seniors nice to the lower classes?"

Mary Jane Goddard: "I'm going to WTSTC at Canyon. I plan to be a school teacher of typing and civics."

Merle Farris: "I'm going to Tech or Draughon's, and I plan to be a secretary."

Lizzie Mae Barrett: "I've got to stay at home and help mother."

James Clayton: "I'm going to drive a tractor."

Christine Barber: "Going to Lovington and do some kind of work. I plan to go to college next year."

Leta Merle Koeninger: "I'm not going to college but I'm going to work."

Peggy Adams: "I'm going to Texas Tech and take Journalism."

Leta Merle Koeninger: "I'm going to Tech also. I'm taking Business and Education. I plan to be a school teacher, but first I'm going to travel and get a man."

A. C. Lambert: "I'm going to Tech and take Journalism and Commercial Art."

Joan Linn: "I might go to John Tarleton a couple of years and take Physical Education. I'm an athlete."

Billie Brandon: "I want to go to Draughon's Business School."

Treva Angel: "I intend to go to New Mexico Military Institute."

and make one good Deisel engine."

La Verne Lawler: "I'm going to make whoopee! I may take a nurse's training at Lubbock."

Eloise Sumrow: "I'm not going to any college unless it is a business school."

Treva Payne: "I'm going to a business school somewhere and learn to be a better secretary than I am a reporter."

Minister Drennon's Notes

Services last Lord's Day were fine, crowds have been increasing for the past month. I spoke at the morning hour on "Home and Mother," two very important things to consider, for as the home goes, so goes the nation, and our mothers have the controlling power in the home.

One of the great needs today is more christian homes, where father is the king, mother the queen and the children obedient subjects.

At the evening hour I spoke upon "The Supreme Test of Faith," taking Abraham and offering up Isaac as an example. I wonder how many people have as strong a faith as Abraham? Unless our faith is strong enough to cause us to obey God it will not save us.

Next Sunday morning we will have no preaching, just Bible study and communion. Come early so we can get through in time to go to the school house to hear the baccalaureate sermon. There will be preaching at night. Visit the friendly church once and you will come again.—R. P. Drennon.
