ILL CATHEY HOME ROBBED SUNDAY

Burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cathey near Pride Sunday and made away with approximately $75.00 worth of clothing, car goods, and staple groceries. So far no clue to their identity has been discovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Cathey were away on home during the day, visiting friends and the thieves seized the opportunity to do a little plain and burglary.

Officers were called as soon as the loss was discovered, and it is hoped that arrests will be made soon. This seems to be Mr. Cathey's first bad luck year. It will be remembered that he had a very bad year in the summer, with a consequent expense, to say nothing of losing time in the field just when his crop needed his attention.

Identically, the thieves had taken the hay, and set about removing the situation.

CHANGE RESIDENCES HERE LAST WEEK

Last week was moving time in O'Donnell, with more than half a dozen families changing their places for living hats.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gillespie moved from the Tredway community and are occupying the small house next to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Line vacated their residence on Sixth street, moving into the house with Mr. and Mrs. Rogers so that Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gillian might have the Sixth street house. Mr. Killian has bought one in several seasons, and will do again this year. Mr. Gillespie will work at one of the gigs here.

In spite of the jinx which is supposed to accompany any moving on Friday, trucks, and drays were kept busy that day shifting the population around over the landscape.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baldrige moved to the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Phillips. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Spradling moved into the house vacated by the Baldrides, and Mrs. and Mrs. Phyllis moved into another of the houses which had been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Shook. The Shooks are now at home in the house formerly owned by Jeff Musick. The Musicks moved several weeks ago into the new house just east of the square. Now then if everybody will keep a copy of this issue of the Index all we all get located again, the shifting problem will be much simplified.

GRANDPA M-MILAN ILL WITH SINUS TROUBLE

Grandpa John McMillan is gripped and anxious over his son this week, with grave fears entertained as to his recovery.

McMillan, one of the pioneers in this section, became ill several years ago with a sinus complication which has weakened him. Attending physicians have fed him for several days with glucose injections. It will be remembered that Mr. McMillan recently recovered from a case of crystals which had cost him one eye, and it is at the sinuses were infected the same time.

Index joins with other friends in sending hopes for his recovery.

CENTENNIAL AND TAX REDUCTION

Texas Press Association views ending Centennial Amendment opportunity to increase State revenue through increased gas and taxes from the millions of out-of-state visitors who will be coming to Centennial in automobiles and bring every part of the State. Its committee on "lower taxation" made report at the Dallas State Fair to the Executive and Advisory Boards, which was adopted unanimously by the Association and he said in part: "It was and now the sense of the Executive and Advisory committees that the question of lower taxes can be endorsed cheerfully without interrupting success of the campaign being waged for the Texas Centennial. The state has the enthusiastic and united support of the Texas Press Association, and in the opinion of the committees there should be no change in the projects."

WIVES SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT SOUTHSIDE BAPTIST

W. L. Henderson will preach at the Southside Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, using as his text, "The New Birth."

Everyone is cordially invited to be out and take part in this service.

MRS. SINGLETON INJURED SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Hal Singleton received an exceedingly painful injury Saturday afternoon when she struck her right foot against a chair rock, breaking a small bone in the left ankle.

In addition to the clean break, a leader seemed to have slipped from place and is likewise causing her much discomfort and trouble.

Medical assistance was called immediately, but the lady has suffered intensely since the accident, in addition to being exceedingly provoked about the whole affair.

She was hurrying from the living room to the kitchen to bake some pies when she ran into the rocker, so that she ruefully declared that those were expensive pies.

FRITZ CHANGES PRODUCTS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

Gas pumps and supplies have been changed this week at Fritz Filling Station, and customers are now able to secure Conoco products at that place.

The change was made from the Humble products, according to a statement from Calvin Frazit, manager, because of a change in the policy of the company.

Under the new Humble Oil Company is asking out all pumps north of Big Spring and west of Pecos.

The old pumps were taken out Monday and Conoco pumps set immediately without any loss of efficiency in service.

MERCHANTS ARE PREPARING FOR FALL BUSINESS

O'Donnell merchants have been busy for the past two weeks, making preparations for a volume of work many much greater than they have enjoyed for the past three years.

In practically every store, alterations, renovations, and re-arrangements are the order of the day, with more attractive stores and greater conveniences resulting from these efforts.

Both drug stores have rearranged counters and show cases for more room and better display advantages.

Guy's store is going through extensive moving of fixtures, with a new dining room being added. Both C. C. and Economy Dry Goods stores have added new shelving space for new new merchandise, while Blake's, of course, has already gone through several days of the store.

More shelving and tables and other display means are being built in the Thornhill Variety, and the grocery stores are following suit by shifting their counters and rearranging wares.

All of this activity is indeed gratifying. It proves that O'Donnell and the South Plains business men feel better times ahead. There is a real feeling of optimism in the air. Dailies and weeklies all over the country are jubilantly recording the same conditions in other communities, large and small. It is with the advice that we'll talk prosperity with just half the determination and persistence that we have groaned and whined depression, better times are ahead.

We are proud of our merchants. They are much ahead of the average in towns of this size in announcing fall openings in the manner they have chosen and on the scale which is being adopted as the best method. The fall and winter season, replete with its merchandising opportunities, is often ushered in gradually without announcement, with no other inducements other than those peculiar to the community.

But it is different in O'Donnell this year. So far the fall season has not opened to its fullest extent, but the spirit is here, and is being fostered in a remarkable manner that have not been equalled in many months. Our merchants, everyone of them, have bought heavily in preparation for the fall business, and without exception their new stock has consisted of quality merchandise.

O'Donnell people will have the opportunity this year of buying necessities and some of those luxuries we've had to forego, all at almost unheard of prices.

CORNER CAFE REOPENED FOR FALL BUSINESS

After having been closed through the most severe part of the year, Fred Treddway's Corner Cafe re-opened for business Saturday morning at the old place.

Mr. Maxwell will again preside in the kitchen, and has greeted guests with this week with his old-time smile.

An informal open house was held Saturday morning with the house serving coffee to all customers.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR PICTURE SHOW

While definite arrangements have not been completed as we go to press, there are good foundations for the hope that O'Donnell will have a theatre within the next few days, a theatre fully equipped with the latest and best in sound equipment.

Will Caldwell of Lovington has negotiated with the owners of the former theatre building and has leased the place with the intention of moving his theatre from the New Mexico town to O'Donnell.

Also, two other theatre men, Messrs. Gibson and Powell of Olton, have been in O'Donnell this week, looking over the situation with the view of putting in a talkie. These two gentlemen are proprietors of two other theatres and said Tuesday that they were very favorably impressed with the possibilities of the trade territory.

The Index hopes to be able to announce the opening of a really great picture show within the next two weeks.

Business men, as well as citizens, have been unanimously in favor of the new venture. As one of our merchants expressed it, the need of a theatre can be realized only by those who have to stand and watch folks leave town by six o'clock Saturday afternoon, with practically no further business until Monday morning, going to neighboring towns to go to the show. With some kind of legitimate amusement, O'Donnell will have just as much to attract and to offer as any town on the South Plains.

Naturally, the Index is always in favor of any reputable business coming to O'Donnell, just as any newspaper favors the coming of new firms, and as far as we're concerned, personally and editorially, we're for it. Let's boost that picture show every way we can.

TWO NEW FORD SALES REPORTED THIS WEEK

J. Mac Noble, Jr., manager of the Lynn County Motor Company, reports the sale this week of two new Fords.

R. J. Alexander of New Moore store purchased a truck, and Irvin Wright, local Conoco agent, bought a pick-up.

These sales, along with other openings, presage a return of that famous but almost forgotten prospect.

BLAKE DRYGOODS ADDS NEW SALESMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wallace arrived from Amarillo Thursday last week, and Mr. Wallace at once took up his duties as salesman and advertising manager at Blake Drygoods. They are making their home at the Old Rochelle Hotel for the present, and express themselves as being well pleased with their new home. They are members of the Baptist church, and expect to move their membership to the local church in the near future.

Mr. Wallace has been associated with Blakburn Bros. at Amarillo for a number of years, and is an experienced drygoods and ready-to-wear dealer.

LEVINE BROS. OPEN STORE THIS WEEK

With the formal opening scheduled for tomorrow, Levine Bros. have this week entered the dry goods field in O'Donnell. Clothes and stock were moved down by truck and as we go to press, are being arranged in the Miles building on Eighth Street.

The O'Donnell store will be under the management of Wm. Perl, who said Tuesday morning that he would stay, with every intention of making this their home. Mr. Perl said, due to the fact that merchandise is on the way from market, he would be unable to list any items or prices this week, but merely calling attention of shoppers to the new store and welcoming any patronage.

The new store will feature ladies' ready-to-wear, men's clothing of all kinds, dry goods, shoes, etc., in fact, a complete line of merchandise found in better class dry goods stores.

Perl will assist in the store, but the manager states that he will add a local lady to the sales staff. He had not definitely engaged one Tuesday, but emphasized that he wishes O'Donnell people to realize his best intention that Amine's is an O'Donnell institution from now on.

Misses Ruth Edwards, Jane Gary, and Mary V. Shook visited friends in Lamesa Sunday afternoon.

Misses Florence Gary and Claire Ruth Nichols were guests of friends in Lamesa Sunday.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY MUCH ENJOYED

Though attendance fell somewhat short of the first expectations, the Lubbock District Epworth League Rally at the local Methodist church this week-end was much enjoyed by both home people and visitors.

Ample accommodations for the comfort of the guests were offered by the people of the town, and everyone was eager to assist in any way toward the success of the year.

The officers and members of the League here wish to express their appreciation of this cooperation.

Every service of the rally was most successful, according to those who attended.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Young people of the First Baptist Church here will have charge of the service at the evening hour Sunday, according to announcement made this week, and plans are now under way for an exceedingly interesting and worthwhile service.

The chief attractions of the program will be a pageant and a number of songs. Every one who is cordially invited to be present.

FORMER RESIDENT ILL; NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE

News has been received here that Mrs. Mattie Keith, former resident and sister to Mrs. M. E. Pearce, is seriously ill at her home in Tularosa, N. M., and is not expected to live.

She suffered a paralytic stroke Tuesday of last week, losing her voice. A second stroke came Friday totally paralyzing her. Attending physicians have warned the family that it is merely a matter of time, unless some almost miraculous change takes place.

Mrs. Keith lived in O'Donnell for a number of years, and has many friends here who will be grieved to know of her illness. The Index joins with them in the hope that she may rally from the attack and regain her health.

PUBLIC SCALES CLOSED; WEIGHING AT GINS

Effective immediately, the local public scales and cotton yard are closed, according to an announcement made Saturday by Mell Pearce, public weigher.

Mr. Pearce explained that so many farmers weighed, sold, and stored their cotton at the gin that it was not worthwhile to keep the public scales open. However, ginners of the public scales open, and test their scales twice each week, and that the sample each half ginned here, so he will still be responsible for public weights.

Mr. Pearce deeply regretted the necessity for such a step, but pressure of circumstances made it imperative at the present time.

The Index was unable to get in touch with W. E. Payne, weigher elect, and hence cannot make definite announcement as to his view of the situation.

SINGLETON OPENS GROCERY STORE

O'Donnell's fifth grocery store opened Saturday under the management of Wm. Singleton, Jr., who was known as Singleton's Grocery.

The new enterprise is located next door to Dr. Shepard's office. The building, which has heretofore been used for a saloon, has been thoroughly renovated and rearranged, with new shelves and counters installed, the whole interior presenting a very attractive appearance.

Mr. Singleton is an experienced grocery merchant, and has been in that business for several years here in O'Donnell, and the new establishment is expected to be very successful.

PLAN TO ATTEND ZONE MEETING

More than twenty members of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist Church are planning to attend the zone meeting at Tahoka Sunday afternoon, according to information reaching this office.

The meeting, which is slated to begin promptly at 2:30, will be featured by a series of numbers presented by the Wayland College Student Band.

Rev. L. S. Jenkins, pastor of the church, said Wednesday that the local group will make the church at 1:45, and that transportation will be provided for all who care to attend.

Our young people have brought home honors on a number of occasions, and it is hoped that this will be no exception.

FUTURE FARMERS CLUB ORGANIZED THIS WEEK

Through the Vocational Agriculture department of the high school and under the direction of R. H. Mathis, a chapter of the Future Farmers of America was organized here Tuesday evening.

Election of officers was the main business of the evening, with a short talk by Mr. Mathis on the purpose and scope of the work. Officers elected were as follows: president, M. L. Webb, vice-president, Doc Kiley; secretary-treasurer, Robert Line; reporter, Thurwood McMillan; sergeant-at-arms, Ben Morrison.

The general purpose of the club is to train and direct the members along lines of public relationship and with ordinary curricular activities with special emphasis to be placed on public speaking, training in administration of affairs of interest, such as fairs, livestock shows, etc.

An organization of a similar nature came into being during the time that Vernon Martin was head of the department, but it was never very active. Mr. Mathis and the officers of the club state this week that they plan to make this a really worthwhile organization, with a definite aim and purpose.

Reports of their activities will appear in the Index from time to time.

CONTINUED DRY WEATHER BRINGS COTTON SEASON

With a total of 831 bales ginned in O'Donnell up to Wednesday afternoon, cotton is coming in at the rate of almost a hundred bales per day. Continued sunshine and warm weather is expected to increase this rate within the next few days.

In spite of slow rain Thursday and wet fields that day Friday and Saturday, this week's report is 536 bales greater than last week. Counting Sunday as a day lost for picking, the estimate of one hundred bales daily is a very conservative one.

Every gin in town has been running at full capacity since Monday, early and late, and the hum of that old machinery has made bedtime music for all of us.

Oldtimers in the cotton game said this week that more cotton opened Sunday than they had ever seen open in one day. So many of the stalks in every field were loaded with big bolls that when the sun came out the hot, dry sunshine popped them like so many grains of popcorn. One farmer declared that he sat on his back porch and watched his field withen.

Sunshine and high winds Monday and Tuesday helped the good work along, and the cotton season is just about in full blast this week.

The delay in the harvest has naturally delayed the arrival of much money, as pickers have had no wages and farmers have no cotton to sell, but already a revival of pep and interest can be felt in every line of business.

MILES INJURES ARM AT STREET CROSSING

J. B. Miles can tell you just exactly how it feels to have, not his ear, but his shoulder knocked down.

Last Thursday as he was going home from town, he hit a ditch at one of the intersecting streets, and was thrown to the top of his car, striking the back of his neck and shoulder against a bow. As a result, he was compelled to carry his right arm in a sling for several days and had to walk with a cane.

To add to the pleasure of the situation, Mrs. Miles was sick in bed so they had a full fledged hospital all their own.

PASTOR TO ATTEND NEW MEXICO CONFERENCE

Rev. W. R. Burnett, pastor of the Methodist church, is attending annual conference in New Mexico. The conference being held in Roswell.

He was accompanied by Rev. H. L. Thurston of Wilson, Presiding Elder C. A. Bickley, and Rev. J. O. Haymes of Lubbock.

ARKANSAS TO HOLD ITS 100TH BIRTHDAY PARTY IN 1936

Whether Texas will commemorate its 100th anniversary will depend upon the expression of the voters November 8th. The State constitution does not now provide for State celebrations and must be amended by Texas voters if it is to hold an official creditable State celebration in which it can invite the other States and nations of the world to take part. Should the Texas Amendment be defeated, Texans can at least go to the Arkansas party.

EAGLES' SCREAMS

Both high school and grammar school are clicking along this week like machinery. All problems incident to the opening of a new school year are gradually being solved, and everything is going nicely. The various student organizations are well under way, and plans for one of the best school years in O'Donnell seem to be reaching a state of perfection.

To Plan Assembly Program

At least one member from each class will serve on a committee with the faculty in working out a schedule for assembly programs this year, according to announcements this week. Only two classes, the Juniors and Seniors have elected representatives. Miss Faye Tomlinson will represent the Juniors, and Novell Ratliff the Seniors. Others will be elected this week.

Eagles Lose Game

Fighting gamely and determinedly against a much heavier and more experienced team, the O'Donnell Eagles lost their first game Friday to Tahoka, the final score being 40-0.

Three of the Eagles were disabled early in the game, and this was a decided handicap. The O'Donnell team, but the boys refused to be daunted by the one-sided score and scrapped on right up to the final whistle.

This was characterized as one of the clearest games ever played in this section, with better sportsmanship and better feeling shown by both teams and their supporters.

Stars for O'Donnell were Robert Line, Ben Morrison, Ray DeBuck, and Rundle Foster.

A return game with Tahoka is scheduled for November 18, and the boys are planning to give them a harder run for their money at that time. Other games scheduled with Lamesa, at O'Donnell, Oct. 21, (today) and with Odessa 28 November 28.

The pep squad supported the team loyally throughout the game with their songs and yells.

Sophomores Elect Leaders

At a class meeting of the Sophomores Monday morning, Kitty May Garner and Doris McConal were elected school song leaders. These young ladies will direct a short program in the home room after roll call.

Other girls elected for a Hall of Fame party soon.

Grammar School News

Seventh grade pupils are looking forward to a Halloween party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Gooden. Mrs. Vaughn has been elected baseball captain, and Allen James and Joyce Mae Maxwell were elected vice-presidents. Zhel Fritz is class reporter.

The sixth grade reporter states that the number of their students are absent this week, but that the others are working hard at their studies.

The fifth grade also reports the absence of a number of pupils, but also records that they have two new ones, Orbin and Elizabeth Gantt. Mary Ruth Blake and Jewell Singleton made perfect grades in spelling last week in the High Fifth, as did Mary Jane Goddard in the Low Fifth.

Their room mother paid them a visit Friday and read a story.

The Fourth Grade has one new pupil this week. Students in the Low Fourth have just finished a contest in arithmetic and report a great deal of pleasure as well as much benefit from the work. Bettylyn Middleton was elected captain of the Health Squad this week, and Bobby Hobson, Charles Cather and Henry Toney were appointed guards to help inspect the pupils. In order to be elected, a pupil must have a perfect cleanliness record for the preceding week.

Those making perfect spelling records in the Low Third last week were Jennie Mae Sheemaker and Elva Nichols, and in the High Third, Mary Ellen Gantt and Doris Nell Gates. Pupils in the grade are making health posters this week.

Mrs. B. M. Haymes has been elected room mother for the Second grade and they are looking forward to her first visit.

McLAURIN ATTENDS STATE CONVENTION

Waldo McLaurin and T. L. Hahn, accompanied by Henry Hahn, have been in Galveston this week, attending the annual convention of the County Judges and Commissioners of Texas.

The convention opened Monday at Galveston and will be held at Galveston and continued through Wednesday Judge E. B. McClintock of El Paso county is the president.

Mr. McLaurin represented the Lynn County Commissioners' Court, Mr. Hahn that of Dawson county.

ABOUT CORRESPONDENTS

The Index has repeatedly offered to furnish stationery and postage, a long with a subscription to the paper for correspondents from our various communities, but every once in awhile something odd comes up.

Recently we received a neatly typed communication signed, "A Reporter", accompanied by a form of news letter detailing news and comments on the doings of one of these communities. We were unable to publish this article six weeks because it was itself signed with a fictitious name.

We are sure that our friends will understand our position in the matter, and realize that for our own protection we cannot publish anonymous communications. We are always glad to have news, glad to pay for it, but we must know the names of those responsible for news letters.

HARBINGERS OF PROSPERITY

Father supporting the proposition preached and emphasized for the past six months by the Index, eight new business enterprises have opened in O'Donnell within the past month. This is evidence according to our way of thinking, that property had indeed come around that thing.

Whether or not all these firms will remain to become permanent factors in the development of the town is still a matter of conjecture. It is safe to say that all of them will not, at the mere fact that we again view new life and keen competition business circles is worth something.

Two new dry goods stores, a second-hand clothing store, a fruit stand, a grocery store, and three cafes are the new institutions, and for the first time in four years every building on the north side of Eighth Street is occupied, with only one vacant on the south side. All the office space in the bank building is now occupied also.

A CO-OPERATIVE COMMUNITY

The idea and maxim of co-operation and the work, is being stressed now as never before in the world's history, and O'Donnell should not lag behind the procession.

For four years the town and territory have battled through a period of the most stringent financial problems most of us have ever known, and now that it seems we are rounding the corner to better times, it behooves us to take into consideration what we owe to each other, and to further consider how we can continue to work together for the best interests of our territory and our town.

The growth of our town depends largely on its merchants, and O'Donnell has been peculiarly fortunate in having in its midst a group of far-sighted and public spirited business men. These merchants have gone through the same trials and tribulations that have come to you and to me, with the same problems of clothing families, holding their property, and continuing their business.

But they have had added worry of my worries and your worries, because our inability to buy has logically led to their inability to sell. These merchants have in many instances carried their customers up all their own creditors called a halt in no uncertain terms, and every merchant in O'Donnell has scores of accounts on his books, accounts which will be paid as soon as possible.

The Index maintains that the merchants who supports a town should have the patronage of the citizens of that town. Fly-by-night vendors of low quality merchandise should be discontinued by the better element of our community.

Let's support the merchants whose taxes support our school and our community. Let's show them that their help in time of need was appreciated, and show them by deeds as well as in words.

Support your home-town merchant.

A. B. Blake left Tuesday morning for eastern markets to purchase stock for the store here.

Mrs. M. R. Pemberton of Tahoka was the guest of friends here Monday afternoon.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of the O'Donnell Index Institute of Christian Education, c/o 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 23

PROBLEMS OF THE MODERN HOME

Joshua 24:14, 15; Mark 10:12; Ephesians 6:1-9.
OLDEN TEXT—And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the Ammorites, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me, and my house, we will serve the Lord. Joshua 24:15.
PRIMARILY TOPIC—Pleasing God in My Home.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Rules to Live by at Home.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—My Home Problems.
THE PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Problems of the Modern Home.

I. A United Home to Serve the Lord (Josh. 24:14, 15).

Joshua had succeeded Moses as Israel's leader. He was conscious of his being taken away soon in death from the people (Josh. 23:1), and of their liability to lapse into idolatry. He reviewed before them the history of God's goodness to them, and appealed to them for a rational consideration of their responsibility, and the exercise of sober judgment (v. 14). He wanted their choice of God as over against the false gods to be a balanced judgment. He followed this appeal with his own example (v. 15). He told them that his mind was already made up. He associated with his household with himself. His decision was not a hasty one. It had been talked over at home, therefore, he uttered the united sentiment of his family.

II. The Father and Mother in the Home (Mark 10:2-12).

God constituted the race male and female. His purpose was that they should be united for life in holy wedlock, with love as the bond of union between them.

1. Marriage should not be degraded by divorce (v. 2-3). God ordained the marriage relation, and intended it to be indissoluble. God, through Moses, suffered, limited, and regulated divorce, because of the hardness of the hearts of the people.

2. Marriage is God's primal law (v. 6-8). The ideal law of life for the subjects of Christ's kingdom is marriage. This is proven by the fundamental fact of sex, "God made them male and female" (v. 6).

3. Marriage has God's sanction (v. 9). God declared to Adam that he should leave father and mother and cleave unto his wife.

4. Marriage of the divorcer forbidden (v. 4-12). The marriage relation should be broken only by death, or by sin. The party responsible for divorce, who marries again, is guilty of adultery.

III. Members of the Household (Eph. 6:1-9).

In the home are found father, mother, children, and sometimes servants. Each member has rights and privileges which must be respected.

1. Children (v. 1-3).
 a. They should obey their parents (v. 1). The ground for this obedience is the fact that the parents stand in the place of God with the children.
 b. The children should honor their parents (v. 2). Obedience to parents is limited to the period of immaturity. When children take their place in the establishing of new units in society, they are no longer under obligation to obey their parents. Honor means to have in reverence.

2. Parents (v. 4). Doubtless the word "fathers" is intended to be inclusive of the mothers.
 a. Provoke not your children to wrath. Parents should not irritate or aggravate their children.
 b. To bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Nurture doubtless means to educate, and admonition to discipline.

3. Servants and masters (v. 5-9).
 a. Servants are to obey their masters (v. 5-8). This obedience should be (1) Servants should have proper respect for their masters, and an earnest desire to please them. (2) Servants should perform their tasks as though they were doing them for Christ's sake. (3) The servant's aim should not be merely to please the eyes of the master, but to render honest and acceptable service. (4) With good will. It should not be primarily for approval or pay. Christian servants will perform their duties to their masters with the same fidelity as they would unto Christ. (5) Rewarded by the Lord (v. 8). The Lord takes account of our service in the common ways of life, and will some day reward us accordingly.

4. Masters to be considerate (v. 9). Just as servants are to give wholehearted consideration for their masters, so masters are to look after the best interests of their servants.

Go With God

God is always ready to go before us. Indeed, we never can go anywhere victoriously unless he does lead us. To go without him into any of life's experience—struggles, dangers, or duties—is to fail.

Reveals Character

Did we get everything we craved for in the hour of testing? If I think it would be a long farewell to manhood. Work reveals character, but so does waiting.—George H. Morrison.

Six Years Ago
 News items taken from files of The O'Donnell Index published here six years ago.
 Oct. 21, 1926.

1572 bales of cotton had been ginned in O'Donnell.

Miss Ruby Heaster and Marvin Shaw were married at Tahoka.

Lorene Beach was in a Lubbock hospital, suffering with a broken thigh received when she was thrown from a horse.

The Index recorded the fact that an unusually rainy fall was delaying the cotton harvest.

The P. T. A. announced a Halloween Carnival to be held at the school building.

Mrs. W. E. Howell passed away at the family home here.

HOLLOWE'EN MOTIF STRESSED AT PARTY

The first of this year's Halloween parties was enjoyed Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Waldo McLaurin was the gracious hostess to members of the Thursday Club and a number of guests.

The lovely home was made even more attractive than usual by the profuse use of Halloween decorations. Autumn leaves in their gorgeous colorings, mammoth pumpkins, and black and yellow scheme emphasized the witching spirit for the gay group.

Tallies for games of forty-two and bridge further carried out this theme. At the conclusion of a most delightful afternoon, dainty refreshments of pumpkin pie and hot chocolate were served. Plate favors were suckers dressed to represent witches.

Among those present were Meses. A. H. Koeninger, Roy Gibson, R. H. Mathis, A. H. Lattimore, L. F. McAfee, Flo Ramey Marshall Whitsett, W. S. Cathey, Hal Singleton Jr., John Earles, C. H. Cabool, and Carey Shock; Meses Laynette Smith and Mabel Harris.

J. O. Y. CLUB MEMBERS HAVE CLEVER PARTY

Miss Marie Greenwood was hostess Friday evening when members of the J. O. Y. Club staged a manly party at her home in the south part of town.

Carrying out the idea, half the members dressed in other men's raiment for "dates" with the feminine contingent, and gallantly squired them to the party.

Group games of all kinds were enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies were served.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS
 W. R. BURNETT, Minister

We are looking forward to having a great service next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. We appreciate the excellent attendance we had last Sunday morning. We are expecting a large congregation next Sunday morning.

We were mighty glad to have the District League Rally with us last Sunday. While there were not as many visitors from other places as we had expected, and as homes had been offered for, those who were present enjoyed an excellent meeting. We appreciate the fine spirit of every one who helped in the entertainment of the visitors.

The Methodist Sunday School is doing fine. There were 160 present last Sunday. About twenty five or thirty of these were our visitors from out of town. We are looking forward to a splendid attendance next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The Methodist pastor, in company with Rev. H. L. Thurston, of Wilson; Rev. J. O. Haymes, of Lubbock; and Rev. A. C. Bickley, of Lubbock is in Roswell, New Mexico Thursday and Friday of this week attending the New Mexico Annual Conference which is meeting in that city.

The League will meet at 8:45 next Sunday evening and the evening worship service will be held at 7:30. The pastor greatly enjoyed filling the pulpit at the Methodist Church at Draw last Sunday night.

Brother Hart preached at the O'Donnell Methodist Church much to the delight of the congregation.

Everyone will find a hearty welcome at the Methodist Church, Come and worship with us.

What Has LIGHT To Do With Education?

Boys and girls have enough unpleasantness during their school careers without deliberately adding to it with difficult study periods due to improper lighting. Eyes grow tired and weak, dispositions are ruined, little bodies fail to develop, and there is trouble all the way round, unless particular notice is taken of home and school lighting facilities. And it's so simple—so easy to have good light in proper proportions. All you have to do is add a globe here, change one there, move the portable lamp around a bit and keep all sockets filled. Inadequate lighting is nothing but false economy—there is no reason for it.
 Buy globes in cartons of six and save 10%.

Vocational Agriculture Notes

by R. H. MATHIS

tionally every student of Vocational Agriculture in the United States belongs to an organization as the "Future Farmers of America." This organization has its headquarters in Virginia in 1925 under the leadership of Mr. Henry Groseclose who was at that time teaching Vocational Agriculture in a small town. Mr. Groseclose designed that his Vocational Agriculture students were not receiving any citizenship and that they were turning out of high school without knowing how to preside at a public meeting of a community. From Virginia he called a special meeting of Agriculture Students and led them into a club which he called the "Future Farmers of America." This organization was set up. Regular meetings of the organization were held at the school. The organization was a result of these meetings. Groseclose's Agriculture Students much more interested in the projects as well as in the room work.

IX. To promote rural leadership by awarding certificates of merit for skills attained.

VIII. To promote high standards for classroom and supervised practice work among the Future Farmers.

IX. To promote rural leadership by giving members a chance to exercise leadership in the organization.

B. Giving them a chance to assume worthy responsibilities.

C. Giving them an insight into the need for rural leadership.

FUTURE FARMERS FEATS

by Gladys Whitney

Cisco and Breckenridge Future Farmer boys are co-operatively purchasing lambs for feeding again this year. By buying and shipping their lambs together they save some $50 on 150 lambs. These lambs were put on feed October 10 and will be fed until class shows in February and the Fat Stock Show in March. This is the third year that the two Future Farmer Chapters have bought lambs together.

A total of 225 bushels of corn on 5 acres or an average of 45 bushels per acre is the record of Orville Griffith, student of vocational agriculture of the Willis High Schools for the year 1931-32. Seed selection, the use of common fertilizer and the proper fertilization were the main factors in this yield of corn which was in excess of the average yield per acre in the community by 15 bushels.

In Colorado vocational agriculture students are predicting that cotton will yield from one-half to one bale per acre maize makes 35 to 50 bushels per acre, and hogar produce from 750 to 1000 pounds which will weigh 7 to 8 pounds each when dried out.

Two blue ribbons, one for a pen of white leghorns and another for first place in the single white leghorn hen class, were awarded to Willard Bryan, member of the Greenwood Chapter of Future Farmers, at the Wise County Fair held in December recently. Both the pen of two hens and one cock and the single hen were selected from Willard's project flock in vocational agriculture.

A gain of $2,005.00 has been made by Comyn farmers during the last eight weeks by treating their turkeys for worms. Lessons and demonstrations for treating the turkeys were made in an evening class conducted by W. Doyle Graves, vocational agriculture teacher.

Thirty calves were paraded on the streets of Beville at the opening of the Beville County Fair recently. All of the calves are being raised by vocational agriculture students.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Millian and family of Oklahoma have moved in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffreys and family are visiting in Oklahoma.

Little Georgia Beth Sparks is on the sick list this week.

BUSINESS IN TEXAS STILL SHOWN ON INCLINE

AUSTIN, Sept. 28.—Production at Texas cement mills, which normally changes very little between July and August, rose this year from 276,000 barrels in July to 325,000 barrels in August, a gain of practically 18 per cent, according to the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. Last year in August, 644,000 barrels of cement were produced at Texas mills.

Shipment increased by 26 per cent over July and totaled 386,000 barrels, the highest for any one month since last October, and made a gain of 62,900 barrels on existing stocks at mills. At 630,000 barrels stocked at Texas mills were 10 per cent less than those at the close of July and equalled those at the close of August a year ago.

DAWSON TAX VALUATION RECEIVES DRASTIC CUT

Dawson county property valuations have taken a cut of slightly more than one and one-half million dollars this year, according to figures received this week from the office of Will Norwood, assessor.

Valuation last year was $6,666,000 as compared with the revised valuation of $5,161,000 for 1932. The rolls have been turned over to Miss Willie E. Cleveland, tax collector, and she is this week issuing an urgent plea to property owners to pay taxes immediately.

Due to the delay in getting the state and county rate, this work has been completed somewhat later than usual, Miss Cleveland said Wednesday, but there will be no further delay.

Announcement of the cut in property valuations is, for the most part, being greeted with much relief by citizens of the county, meaning, as it does, a saving of approximately 25 per cent on taxes.

SINGING CONVENTION IS ATTENDED BY BIG CROWDS

The semi-annual Singing Convention held at Klondike last Sunday was attended by one of the largest, if not the largest crowds ever to assemble in Dawson county.

Some of the best Singers in Texas were present, delighting the crowd with many beautiful songs.

M. Sauer of Abilene, former Lamesa resident, sang and also the Boyd sisters of Hamlin received a very hearty welcome. The Hamlin quartet was present singing many good numbers.

Singers from Jones, Haskell, Howard, Lynn, Martin, and many other counties were present. G. C. Cliff of Woody is president of this group and presided over the entire convention.

BULLINGTON TO SPEAK IN LAMESA WEDNESDAY. OCTOBER 26, 8:00 P. M.

The Honorable Orville Bullington, candidate for Governor, is scheduled to speak at the Dawson County Court House at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 26th. Friends and supporters of Mr. Bullington here urged that everyone who is capable should go to hear him. He is considered to be an able and forceful speaker and will discuss many important matters now confronting the people of Texas. His friends urge that the voters of Dawson county hear what he has to say on such matters as the tax burden, constitutional amendments, law enforcement, highways, pardons, and paroles, and the penitentiary system as a whole, political appointments, education, prohibition, and many other important matters. Mr. Bullington is said to be personally and politically emphatically DRY.

PRESS AGAIN PLEDGES SUPPORT

The Texas Press Association, at the most largely attended meeting of its history on the opening day of Texas State Fair, unanimously renewed its previous pledges to support wholeheartedly the adoption of Texas Centennial Amendment as one of its five major constructive undertakings for the good of all Texas, and urged Texas people to assist in the patriotic movement to "authorize a State Centennial commemorating the heroic period of early Texas history and celebrating a century of our independence and progress, at such times, places and in such manner as may be designated by the Legislature."

CENTENNIAL AMENDMENT NOT MANDATORY

Voters are reminded by the Texas Centennial Committee that the Centennial Amendment is merely an enabling act that will permit but not require State aid for the Centennial. If it is adopted by vote of the people on November 8th, the Legislature will be governed by whatever conditions exist when the holding of a Centennial celebration is considered by that body. The time, place or places and character of the celebration will be fixed by the Legislature, if at all. The Amendment expressly prohibits any appropriation for other than the observation of the "heroic period of early days in Texas history", thus preventing the fixing of a precedent for State support of any exhibitions, fairs and celebrations in the future.

LAMESA CHILD INJURED IN ACCIDENT TUESDAY

Little Betty Sue English, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe English, received serious and perhaps fatal injuries late Tuesday afternoon when she was struck by a car as she was playing with other children in the street near the home of her parents on North 4th Street.

The little girl is in Lovelace-Bennett Sanitarium, unconscious and in a critical condition from concussion of the brain and other less serious injuries. Surgeons were called from Lubbock Wednesday to consult with local physicians, their opinion being that she has a bare chance for recovery.

The mother, in constant attendance at the child's bedside, appeared near collapse Thursday morning, but refused to leave her place.

Ollie Lightfoot, driver of the car which struck the baby, is little less anxious than the frantic parents. The accident occurred just at dusk Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Lightfoot, driving a light pick-up, was on his way home. A number of children were playing on the walk and in the street, so that he had slowed down to a mere crawl. This slow speed is probably all that prevented Betty Sue's being instantly killed. Just as the car passed opposite the group, the little girl saw her mother come to the door of their home across the street, and she dashed out in front of the car, going to meet her. Mr. Lightfoot, watching the children on the walk, did not see her in time to prevent the bumper striking her just above the right eye. He stopped instantly, and was the first to reach the unconscious child. Not knowing who she was, he ran with her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Travis, and Mr. Travis took Mrs. English and the baby to the sanitarium.

Reports as we go to press are that, though she is still unconscious her temperature has gone down considerably and that she shows unmistakable signs of improvement.—Dawson County Courier.
