Tragedy hit Post at 11:30 o'clock last Thursday morning when Davis Sampson, 2 1/2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morrow, fell from the men's diving pier, into water eight feet deep at Two Draw lake and was drowned.

Charles Young, 7 year old brother was with the baby when he tumbled in and screamed for help. Mrs. Morrow was in the bath house, a distance of about forty yards from the pier. Several fishermen in boats a few rods from the pier where the child fell in rushed to the rescue and were diving for the child while Mr. Morrow, who was at the house, about two hundred yards from the pier, at the time the child fell in, came to town for more help.

The baby was found under the pier within three feet from where it tumbled in, about 35 to 40 minutes after the fall, by Carter Thompson, warden of the Police Surgeon Barber shop. Doctors Surman and Williams arrived at the lake shortly after the baby had been rescued and administered artificial respiration for about 30 minutes, but to no avail.

Mr. Morrow has been caretaker of the lake for about six years and was a resident of Post since its founding.—Post Dispatch.

Mr. Morrow, father of the baby is a brother of Mrs. H. E. Everett, former resident of O'Donnell.

BOBBIE CARROLL

INJURED AT PLAY

Bobbie Carroll was on the eve of making a home run for his team. The young man was in a rather close place to finish his run and slid into the home plate, which was of a harder substance than he had counted on.

He struck the base with his left knee at such an angle as to strain it, and at the same time so hard that the head of the bone was fractured. Though very painful, it is only a minor injury, and Bobbie has strong hopes of being able to run just as fast as ever in a few days.

CANDIDATE SPEAKING AT T-BAR JUNE 14

We are requested to announce that there will be a candidate rally and speaking at the T-Bar school Tuesday evening, June 14.

The public is cordially invited to be present and hear the platforms of the various county and precinct candidates.

JUNIOR McLAURIN INJURED IN ACCIDENT

What might have been a very serious accident, occurred Wednesday afternoon at the school building, when a section of thirty-six steel joists, as we go to the plant, has been the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Wald McLaurin, beneath it, and rendering him unconscious for some time.

He and two of his friends, Edward Singleton and L. E. Robinson, Jr., were boylike exploring the empty lockers, and while climbing upon them turned the section over.

It was thought at first that he might be injured internally, but our examination reports that other than a cut knee and a sprained back, the young man is recovering nicely.

E. E. GILBREATH ELECTED NEW PRINCIPAL

Since the resignation a few weeks ago of W. L. Burkhalter, principal of the high school, L. E. Robinson, Jr., reported to citizens as to where they could find another man qualified to take his place, but we are glad to announce that at the last meeting of the board, it was decided that E. E. Gilbreath should take that place.

Mr. Gilbreath, for the past year, has been in Raymondville, but the two years preceding that, he was connected with the O'Donnell High School as coach and instructor of history.

Mrs. Gilbreath was a teacher in the grammar school, and Mr. O'Donnell joins with them in welcoming them not as strangers, but as old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Swift of San Antonio are visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ray.

Glyn Everett left Wednesday for Wink, Crane and other points.

JENE NICHOLS FAMILY IN CYCLONE AT HUMBLE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nichols, son and daughter-in-law, of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Nichols, of O'Donnell, and their small daughter escaped serious injury last Friday evening about 6:30 of o'clock, when a small cyclone struck their home in Humble City, N. M.

The family with Mrs. Nichols' brother, Fay Slaughter, had just seated themselves for the evening meal when the cyclone struck the house. The house was completely demolished, however, the occupants escaped with only comparatively slight injury. Mr. Nichols' nose was crushed and a deep gash cut over his left eye. Mrs. Nichols received numerous bruises and a wrenched back and her brother a wrenched knee. The twenty-month old daughter was unhurt.

The cyclone was small and did little damage other than the wrecking of the Nichols' home, and the gas station across the street, which according to Mr. Nichols was picked up by the wind, carried into the air a few feet and then burst into pieces as though it had exploded. There were no occupants in the station.

Following the true order of cyclones, this one did some freakish things, one being that a churn which was filled with cream was in a tub of water at the side of the house when the storm hit, and after it had passed, the churn was setting on the ground with none of the cream split, and the tub was blown away.

When asked how it felt to be in a cyclone, Mr. Nichols said, "I do not know, it didn't last long enough, but it lasted too long at that."

THIRTY-FOUR RECEIVE GRADE SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

Closing another successful year in the history of the school, thirty-four graduates received their diplomas from the grammar school on last Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium.

Rev. E. F. Cole of the First Baptist Church of Lamesa delivered the most impressive address to the graduates. Other numbers on the program were the valedictory address given by Billy Sutton, and the salutatory address given by Margaret Vermillion. Both had unusually high averages in a class distinguished by exceptionally high standards, the averages being 96 and 94 respectively.

The professional was played by Mrs. A. W. Gibbs; invocation delivered by Rev. Jenkins, a quartette by Misses Margaret and Norma Ruth Vermillion, Mildred Goddard, and Ava John Anderson was beautifully rendered, a musical reading by Connie McConal, a class song, presentation of diplomas to the class and of an honor award to Ray DeBusk for a perfect attendance record by Superintendent McAfee, and the benediction by Rev. Burnett.

WHEAT CROP IN O'DONNELL TERRITORY TO SET NEW RECORD

LOCAL BOYS TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Chief Roy Gibson, Assistant Chief Grady Gantt, Cecil Tredway, and Albert DeBusk, members of the local fire department will leave Sunday morning to attend the State Firemen's Convention which is to be held at Austin, June 14, 15, and 16.

The local fire boys in the past few years have kept up with the modern fire fighting methods, and by their faithful and loyal support of the organization have kept O'Donnell's fire loss at a minimum, which is largely responsible for O'Donnell's excellent insurance rate.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS FRIDAY

One of the largest classes ever to graduate from the O'Donnell High School received diplomas on last Friday evening at the high school auditorium.

The stage was beautifully decorated with numerous bouquets of fresh cut flowers and fern and geranium. Since the juniors of this year will be the seniors of next year, the seniors gave them the place of honor occupied by themselves on Baccalaureate Sunday, and the place reserved for the juniors, as well as the parents of the members of the senior class, was roped off with strips of blue and gold crepe paper, these being the chosen colors of the graduating class. At each entrance of the stage there were large arches covered with blue and gold crepe paper, twined with sweet peas the class flower. On the arches were the words "Not the sunset, but the dawn" which is the class motto.

Contrary to the custom established by classes of former years, the class planned and rendered its own program instead of having a speaker to make the address. The program was as follows: invocation, played by Mrs. Gibbs; procession by Rev. Jenkins, president's address by Frances Scott, salutatory address by Ruth Marie Howard, reading by Wynona Huff, class history, by Verda Ballew, vocal duet by Alice Joy Bowlin and Wray Guye, presentation of the link of knowledge to the junior class by Jordan Goddard, reading of the class will by Monroe Holman, class prophecy by Alvis Tredway, valedictory address by Hollis Hunt, musical reading by Kathryn Vandy, class song by the class, presentation of diplomas by superintendent McAfee, farewell song by the class and the benediction by Rev. Burnett.

MELODY MAIDS RECEIVE IMPORTANT ENGAGEMENTS

The Melody Maids of the Baptist church are becoming quite popular in this part of the world, and are rapidly making a reputation for themselves as songsters.

Upon inquiry as to the reason for the numerous practices of late, the reporter found that these young ladies will have charge of the church services at Hale Center this coming Sunday. They will also be presented on the air from radio station KFYO at Lubbock in about three weeks.

This group of music makers has appeared once before in a radio program, and are doing a splendid work. They are under the supervision of Mesdames Guye and Phillips.

MRS. KIMBALL HURT IN FALL

Mrs. A. R. Kimball received very painful injuries last Thursday afternoon, when the chair in which she was standing overturned, causing her to fall to the floor.

The accident occurred while Mrs. Kimball was trying to adjust a window curtain that had fallen.

Besides severely straining her knee, the ligaments were torn, so that the lady is obliged to use crutches to aid her in walking.

Mesdames C. H. Westmorland and M. J. Whitsett, and Mesdames Thelma Palmer and Yvonne Westmorland will spend this week-end in San Antonio and Houston.

WING GOVERNMENT PAY

People will probably be surprised to find out that some of the representatives in congress have received no government payroll for some time.

During the present session a motion made in the House that no member of a Congressman should be paid on the payroll unless he actually did the work for which he is paid. Without a record of the motion was defeated.

A sample of the country were selected not long ago to find out what one might call patriotic ex-service men, receiving compensation, were enough to draw salaries running upwards from the government.

Other examples that are abundant, but these may help why government is costly.

Number of years the movement from the farm to the city has been changed now and then sending many people back to the farm, where they can find a better life.

LAMESA BOY SCOUTS CARRY OFF HONORS IN DISTRICT MEET FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

LAMESA, TEXAS, Special:

The Boy Scout Camp-rat of the Southern District of the South Plains Area Council, held in Lamesa Thursday and Friday last week was a marked success according to scout officials and others in attendance. Although some of the towns in the district failed to send troops, the meet was attended by about ninety boys and officials and it is needless to say that every moment of the time was thoroughly enjoyed. Not a single incident happened to mar the pleasantness of the occasion, and we feel that the boys gained considerably from their association with each other and from the friendly competition in the various events. Meetings such as this tend to bring out the many sterling qualities of Scouting and calls for the best there is in the individual boys. Troop 22, Lamesa, won first place in the field meet proper, Friday afternoon and amassed a total of 89 points, winning 5 first places, 6 seconds, and 3 third places out of the eight events. Troop 23, Lamesa with 57 points won second place and Troop 37, Slaton, won third place with 18 points.

The troops arrived in town about five o'clock Thursday afternoon and pitched camp in the old city tourist camp grounds just east of the ball park. Each troop selected its own site and erected its tents and set-up according to its own liking. While the boys were busy preparing and eating their suppers a huge council ring and camp fire was arranged by the officials. At 7:30 all took part in an impressive flag ceremony led by John Marr, Eagle Scout of Troop 23. After dark the boys filed into the council ring to the beat of the drum, the Indian Chief gave the opening ceremony and the fire blazed up and the pow-wow was on. Songs and troop stunts amused everyone until the council ring look on the shape of a Court of Honor. Scout Executed by Mr. A. Kessel, Slaton, District Court of Honor Chairman, Mr. Hagerman and J. D. Dyre had charge of the Court and a number of boys went up for advancement. Lamesa boys going before the Court were: From Troop 22—Edgar Crow, Thomas Crow, Tenderfoot award; Dwight Morris, Star Award; Azil McClintock, Eagle Award; Merit Badges; Dwight Morris, Personal Health; Edwin McClain, Handicraft; Herman Heffernan, Bugling; Joe McAllister, Handicraft; Kenneth King, Civics and Handicraft; Willard McSpadden, Marksmanship, Machinery, and Metal Work.

From Troop 23—John Marr, Horsemanship, Signaling, Athletics; Heston McDonald, First Aid to Animals; Delmar Sears, Handicraft; Nelson Williams, Wood Work.

A farmer was passing the insane asylum with a load of fertilizer. An inmate called through the fence, "What are you hauling?" "Fertilizer," replied the farmer. "What are you going to do with it?" "Put it on my strawberries," replied the farmer. The inmate countered quickly: "You ought to live here. We get cream on ours."

Because a man is in a happy mood is no sign of sainthood. A fellow can be happy when he has done no wrong; and again, a fellow can be happy because he wasn't caught in the act.

DALLAS, June 8.—The completion of a business transaction involving the manufacture of 500,000 cotton bags, made by the Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills of Dallas for the Tex-O-Kan Feed Mills, was announced this week by Col. W. E. Talbot, managing director of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau.

Colonel Talbot acted as intermediary in the transaction, with Joe Mitchell, president of the Tex-O-Kan Feed Mills, manufacturers of "Texo" and "Green Ball" Feeds, and Adolph Mayers, sales manager for the Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills, signing the contract.

"The completion of this contract is the largest single step yet made in the movement to secure the consumption of Southwestern cotton and Southern products," said Col. Talbot. "As a result of this transaction alone, more than 200 bales of Southern cotton will be taken off the market. A large portion of this cotton may be used. And while it is true that the cost of these cotton bags is slightly greater than that of burlap, Mr. Mitchell believes that the prosperity of Texas and the South depends on the use of cotton and is doing his part to foster that prosperity."

Commenting on the transaction, Mr. Mitchell said: "We feel that each time a Texan buys anything contained in a cotton bag he increases the South's prosperity and that of Texas. If all flour, cement, fertilizer and other commodities that could be packed in cotton bags used these bags, it would add, by conservative estimate, over $100,000,000 each year to the South's prosperity. According to figures issued by the Cement Information Bureau, the cement industries' cotton bag requirements alone for 1928 amounted to $10,368,000.00 of which Southern farmers received $6,480,000.00 and the textile workers $2,592,000.00."

Mitchell has mailed letters to more than 500 dealers in "Texo" and "Green Ball" feeds of their action in substituting cotton for burlap bags and soliciting their support in helping to help Texas farmers by the consumption of cotton and the use of Texas made products.

"I want to point out," said Mr. Mayer, "that, although the difference in the price between burlap bags and cotton bags used for feed is slightly in favor of the jute bag, it must be considered that every cotton feed bag contains 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 yards of material which sell at 6c and 7c a yard retail. Therefore, each bag is easily worth from 8c to 10c more to the housewife when empty, while the jute bag is of little or no value after having been used to contain feed.

"It is our sincere hope that many other Texans and Southerners will follow the patriotic example of Mr. Mitchell and do their part toward the prosperity of the South by using Texo and Southern-grown cotton to replace India-grown jute, manufactured under an exclusive British monopoly.

"It is also our hope that those who live in Texas will 'Buy It In Texas Bags' for Texas' prosperity's sake."

and on the fifth day of July A. D. 1932, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. on said day at the courthouse door of said county, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash all the right, title and interest of the said W. H. and Jack Veazey in and to said property.

BURGLARS ACTIVE IN LA-MESA MONDAY NIGHT

Although two nightwatchmen reported they had observed nothing unusual, six business houses, including the Santa Fe railway station, were entered by burglars Monday night.

Lost in all places was small, although an attempt was made to rob the Santa Fe safe, knob of which was knocked off. Sheriff Gus White, who states that he had some clues on which to work, indicated the series of robberies was pulled by youngsters or amateurs.

Three locks were broken from the Phillips oil company storage tanks and about 15 gallons of kerosene were stolen. Two 10-gallon cans, believed to have been filled with gasoline, were stolen from the Continental warehouse. An unsuccessful attempt was made on the Conoco gasoline storage tank. Entrance to the warehouse was gained by prying open the front door, and exit was through a rear door.

A rear window of the Santa Fe station was forced, the knob was knocked, about $1.00 in stamps was taken, and a pinch bar, thought to have been used in other burglaries, was stolen.

The burglars treated themselves to two bottles of soda water at the Merx Kidd filling station, and left with a supply of candy, cigars and other articles. A rear window had been forced. The Lamesa Bottling Works lost $1 in stamps after the back door was pried open. Skipworth filling station lost some candies, entrance having been gained through a window. —Dawson County Courier.
