CHRISTMAS PAGEANT TO BE GIVEN SUNDAY NIGHT

A special Christmas program will be presented at the Methodist church at 7:30 next Sunday evening. "The Birth of Christ" will be presented.

This pageant consists of six tableaux with singing and descriptive dialogues from the Bible. Music is given for three-part chorus of men's and children's voices. The program is under the general direction of Mrs. Fay Westland. Those who are to help in the singing are: Mrs. C. L. Cook, Aubrey Lee Shook, Yvonne Westmoreland, Alle Jo Scholer, Oleta Moore, Mrs. R. O. Stark, Alice Hughes, Mrs. Pauline Campbell, Jim Ellen Wells, Florence Mrs. Earl Curtis, Elizabeth Mrs. Catherine and Bobby Jane Miller, Mrs. Ervin Jones, and persons others whose names we do not know.

Appearing in the tableau scenes are Beverly Wells, Warren Smith, John Carroll, Walden Curtis, Vera Cook, Terry Hunt, Arol Moore, Kenneth Moore, and Wilbur Line. A large and highly appreciative audience saw the pageant presented in this church last year. The presentation of this year's pageant promises to be equally as good. A party invitation is given to all who wish to attend.

EASTERN STAR HAD SOCIAL

Members of the Eastern Star held a delightful Christmas party at the hall Monday night. Following the regular work, a social hour with an exchange of gifts from a Christmas tree was held. Refreshments were served to about twenty-five members. Mrs. Ann P. Lee of Marlow, Okla., was guest.

STUDY CLUB MET WITH MRS. GODDARD

The 1939 Study Club met in regular session on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 7th, in the home of Mrs. Ed Goddard.

There were 19 members responded to roll call. Mrs. R. C. Carroll gave a very interesting review of the book, "Gone With the Wind," after which Mrs. Goddard served hot chocolate, with sandwiches and fruit cake, mints and olives, to the guests: Mrs. Glen Allen, Mrs. Glen Allen, Jr., and Mrs. John Andy Edwards; and the club members, Messdames R. C. Carroll, J. H. Crawford, John Earls, A. D. Haney, G. A. Haney, Belle Knight, Albert Koeninger, J. A. Lamsford, Waldo McLaurin, J. T. Middleton, Ben Moore, Mary Blacken, Perry Howard, Haman Everett, Bindey Brewer, L. N. Nichols, Cliff Lambert, Leath Higginbotham, Jr.

SHOWER WAS GIVEN FOR TWO RECENT BRIDES

A tea and shower was given Tuesday afternoon by Misses Treta Payne and Lena Proctor, in the Payne home to honor two recent brides, Mrs. J. T. McDonald, who was Miss Estelle Eubanks and Mrs. Gene McKinney who was Miss Marvius Eubanks.

Tea and cookies were served to approximately thirty-five guests who called between two and five.

BURKETT SMITH

Miss Juanita Smith, daughter of Mrs. S. S. Smith, of Southland and Elmo Burkett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burkett of near O'Donnell were married December 9.

The ceremony was read by Frank Traylor, minister of the Church of Christ in Ft. Davis, Texas.

Mr. Burkett is employed at Blocker's Grocery.

The couple will be at home in one Mesquite court, O'Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Winston and Judith were in Lamesa Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hafer were in Lubbock Sunday.

No, This Isn't Santa, Kiddies

Just a few of the boys entering into the festive spirit. Top to bottom: Eddie Cantor (couldn't you recognize those eyes?); Jimmy Durante (you couldn't miss that beak); and Boris Karloff, shudder merchant of the films.

Next Year's Yule Cards Already Being Designed

Workers on Christmas cards carry on steadily all through the year. The artists who draw them have already produced their designs for the 1940-41 season, and as soon as the holidays are over the printer will begin work on those cards. One big firm in England has 500 men and women employed in the production of these cards, sometimes with calendars added.

Mrs. Perry Clayton and children were in Lubbock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Busby of Brownfield visited here Sunday.

C. R. Block was a business visitor in Lubbock Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Whitsett were in Lubbock on business Monday.

ANDERSON IN COMMISSIONER RACE, PREC. 3

John A. Anderson, prominent resident of Lynn County for more than 20 years, authorized the Press to place his name in the announcement column this week for the office of commissioner, precinct 3.

Mr. Anderson, who resides near O'Donnell, needs no introduction to the people of precinct 3, having made the campaign for this office nearly two years ago, and although defeated by his incumbent opponent, he submitted a splendid vote.

As in his previous campaign, Mr. Anderson intends to make no promises that he believes he could not fulfill, but will, if elected, do everything in his power to justify the confidence placed in him, and thereby make the precinct a good official.

Two, if elected, Mr. Anderson declares that he will not ask for the office more than two terms.

A more formal statement will be made to the voters, whom Mr. Anderson expects to see personally as the campaign progresses. In the meanwhile, he asks each voter to consider his qualifications for the office. He will appreciate their consideration.

Cubs Hold Training School; Another Slated January 9

A training school for Boy Scout "cubs" was held Monday night, with H. Gilley, executive of the South Plains council, in charge.

Another course will be held here, announces Namon Everett, scoutmaster.

BOWLING

League Standing	Score
Whitsett Drug	16 8 666
Corner Drug	14 13 522
Higginbotham	11 13 458
Bloeker's	10 17 373

Sweeping through all three games like an old-time prairie fire, the up-and-coming Corner Drug bowlers downed the Bloeker aggregation Tuesday night and moved into the second slot of the standing—just behind the Whitsett drug which the Corner team defeated last week.

The third game was tied and a fourth was played to "settle it". From the first falling of the pins, the Corner drugists quickly made it apparent that they were "hot" and "splits" were out. After the game, Homer Hancock, drugist captain, jerked his battered hat more firmly on his head and yelled "bring on the Higginbotham bunch", while the Bloeker captain muttered something about being "robbed" and "where's that spinach?"

MEMBERS OF LOCAL MASONIC LODGE ATTEND STATE MEET

Members of the O'Donnell Masonic lodge, Dr. Shepard, J. W. Gates, R. C. Carroll, D. M. Estes, Ben Moore, J. L. Shoemaker and Charles Wells attended the Masonic Communication in Waco last week.

HOLMAN HAS FOOD SALE

Announcement of a "good-will" sale of foods is announced in this issue of the Press by E. D. Holman, owner of the Self-Serve Grocery.

Items throughout the store have been placed on sale, so Holman says, and the event will last eight days, starting today.

CHRISTMAS PARTY IN MILES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Es were hosts Tuesday evening for an enjoyable party in their home.

The home was decorated with a Christmas tree and other yule suggestions.

Games of 84 and 42 were enjoyed. Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, cake, coffee, and cocoa were served.

Guests were Mesdames and Messrs. D. M. Couger, Roy Miles, Frank Shumake, S. F. Johnson, Olin Huff, Stansell Jones, Calvin Fritz, Harvey Line, Claud Chears, and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo McLaurin and sons and her father attended the football game in Lubbock last Friday.

NO ARRESTS IN ATTEMPTED ROBBERY HERE

No arrests have been made in connection with the breaking in, and attempted robbery, of the Corner Drug Store here last Thursday night, according to John Johnson, city marshal.

Nothing was taken by the night prowlers. B. J. Boyd, store manager, said following a check due to the fact that prompt action on the part of Nightwatchman Brown frightened the men away. Brown, after seeing that the store had been entered, called Boyd, but the robbers made their escape when the officer entered the front door.

GINNING IN COUNTY CLIMBS TO 56,135 BALES

Census report shows that 56,135 bales of cotton were ginned in Lynn county from the crop of 1939 prior to Dec. 1, as compared with 52,555 bales for the crop of 1938, according to E. W. Holloway, Special Agent.

Miss Loretta Robinson and L. E. Robinson, Tech students, spent the week with their parents.

If more students got married?

"WHO'S WHO IN O. H. S."

Lena Mae Singleton—The Associate editor on the School Editorial Staff who plays the piano nicely and hopes to have a great part in the Junior play this year.

She likes coconut, football games and horses. Her ambition is either to get married or to college. She is known for her sweet disposition and always there "smile," may our praises be given to Lena Mae.

Nolan Hall—Possibly the most harmless boy in O. H. S. He goes for basketball and band. He especially enjoys band. Maybe fit's because of the president. He likes milk shakes, music and blondes.

His favorite color is green. Always jolly and ever-ready! His ambition is to be a doctor. Oh, for more Nolans like this one, eh girls?
