Notice of Change In Billing Procedure

To keep pace with the rapid growth of the area, West Texas Gas Company has installed the newest, modern IBM (International Business Machines) accounting and billing machines. Shown above is a sample of the future gas service bills.

The installation of this system has made it necessary to change the mailing date of many gas service bills. The mailing date of your bill may be one of those changed. You may receive your gas service bill either earlier or later than usual.

This in no way affects the amount you pay. The due date on the bill is ten days from the date rendered.

We will appreciate your cooperation in making this change possible.

Nourishing Desserts Build Family Health Just as Other Foods

IS DESSERT at your home some-thing that's used just as a filler, to take up that empty sense at the close of a none too hearty meal? Or, is it well designed to do its tion, then look to the desserts of the past week. If they were all starchy foods lacking in fruit or berries, milk and eggs, they are not being planned with the health of the family in mind.

It's all very well to serve cakes and pies, but desserts should also include plenty of fruits and milk and eggs to be truly health-building. When youngsters skip their milk, refuse their eggs or turn thumbs down on breakfast fruits. include these in luncheon and din-

HOMEMAKERS WHO SAY these are not interesting desserts should take a look at the parade of health building dessert recipes in today's column. They're tops in appetite appeal and just as high in vitamins, proteins and minerals.

Candied Fruit Cup (Serves 4-6)

3 to 4 oranges 1 cup crushed pineapple

14 cup broken candy mints Add candy mints to pineapple. Chill together. Section oranges removing all membranes. Line dessert dishes with orange sections and place pineapple-candy mixture in center. Serve chilled.

*Orange Custard (Serves 6-8)

2 cups milk 3 tablespoons cornstarch

½ cup sugar teaspoon salt

2 egg yolks 2 egg whites, beaten stiff, but not dry

34 cup orange juice 1 tablespoon grated orange

1 teaspoon vanilla 2 oranges, sectioned

Scald milk in top of double boiler Combine thoroughly sugar, salt cornstarch and slightly beate: egg yolks. Ad scalded mil slowly, return t cook, stirrin constantly unti thickened. Adcorange juice, rind, and vanilla. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Garnish with orange sections. Chill. Fig Bread Pudding (Serves 8-10)

2 cups dry bread crumbs 1 quart hot milk

34 cup sugar 1 cup chopped figs

½ tablespoon lemon juice ¼ cup melted butter 3 eggs

1/2 cup chopped nuts Add crumbs to hot milk and set aside to cool, then add all other ingredients and pour into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake at 325° for one

Milk, eggs and oranges give a delicately flavored dessert that will please at any meal. This type of dessert offers an easy way to incorporate important foods into the daily diet.

LYNN SAYS: Improve your Foods With Simple Seasonings

To rejuvenate doughnuts, try splitting and toasting them. Serve spread with butter and jam and you'll wonder why 'you never tried it before.

Your salad business will pick up with a simple trick like adding broken pecan meats to shredded cabbage and chopped celery. For something really delicious, fold the ingredients into an old-fashioned boiled dressing.

Unto All Men

Lesson for January 29, 1950

"MARK TIME, Christian Solhymn. The word is "Onward, Christian Soldiers!" The command was given by no less a person than Jesus himself: "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them . . . teaching them . . ." (Matt. 28:19, 20) Do you know some one in the church who says he doesn't in misbelieve sions? Such a man does not take Christ seriously. If you do believe in Christ then his Dr. Foreman commands are for you to obey, not to ignore.

UP TO NOW, the church has been playing around with Jesus' command. Very few denominations are actually putting any large amount of money or manpower into obeying Christ's command to go into all the world.

One fairly typical American denomination contributed last year to all benevolences, that is to all causes not in their own local congregations, the sum of $9,137,065. That sounds like a lot; but divided by the total number of members Wit boils down to $14.03 per member for the year, or less than five cents

And of course not all that big sum of five cents went to missions of any sort. Yet that denomination gives more per capita to missions than most others do. When a man who gives less than five cents a day to carry the good news of Christ into the wide world sings "Onward, Christian Soldiers!" or prays "Thy King-dom come!" how much does he mean it? Not a nickel's worth!

Or take the question of manpower. The same denomination sends out as missionaries, every year, as many men and women as are sent by some denominations "ree times its size. And yet, even the total number of ordained nisters in that denomination o are foreign missionaries is y 4 per cent of their total numof ministers.

Go into all the world," said the ster. "Four per cent of us will," reply, "the rest of us will stay

n Men Obey

A MATTER OF FACT, even he earliest church was slow to pay real attention to Christ's command, Forward! Men are strange creatures. And one of the strange things about us is that we often have to be scared into doing our duty.

It took the persecution set off by the death of Stephen to move the Christians in Jerusalem out along the roads south, north, east, anywhere to get away from the city of death. Everywhere they went, they told the story of Jesus.

But at first it was all rather breathless and informal. "Why are you here?" one of these DP's would be asked, as he was passing through Samaria or Antioch or Alexandria, perhaps in the bread-line, perhaps looking for a place to work and settle down. "I'm a refugee from Jerusalem," he would say. "But why?" "Well, I'm a Christian." "What's that?"

So the story would be told all over again, the good news about God's grace in Christ. So the church spread. Today, though an enormous part of the world's population is still unwon, there are Christians in so many lands that the Bible-all or parts of it-has had to be translated into more than one thousand different languages and dialects.

Unto All Men

ONE OF THE MOST interesting and surpassing little books of recent years is called "They Found the Church There," by H. P. Van Dusen. It is the dramatic story of how the American GI, to his great astonishment, found Christians in the most unexpected places.

It is a tremendous mistake to think that the Christian religion is only for English-speaking peoples, or for Europeans, or for white people. It began among people whom most read-ers of this column would set down as "foreigners."

Christ can be as much at home in an igloo or a wigwam as he is in an American farmhouse or in an efficiency apartment on the city boulevard. He comes to all men, and as Peter found out, the Lord is no respecter of persons.

QUESTION: We have a large spare bedroom that we would like to divide so that we can make another room out of it. There are only two windows. We have thought of large Venetian blinds and also heavy drapes on a long rod. Do you have any other idea? I want to avoid expense and mess and dirt.

ANSWER: It all depends on how much privacy you want. You would not get much privacy with a Venetian blind or draperies. I believe you would find it more practical to put up studding on which you can nail up a wallboard For ventilation in the summertime, you could have some of the panels movable, so that if desired, they can be taken out for better circulation of air. You may need to put in another window or two.

A new glamorous, low-budget kit which contains those essentials a young lady needs when she starts to primp and practice with make-up... an attractive bottle of cologne, a box of clinging, two-tone face powder and, of course, the indispensable lipstick... is now available. This virkit is a product of famous SEVENTEEN COSMETICS.

Daughter, sister and "best-date" will appreciate this new item not only because it is beautifully wrapped and has its own greeting card tucked in it—but also because the cosmetics themselves are not harmful to tender young skins. SEVENTEEN is often referred to as "The cosmetic of the professional models"—girls who have to apply their own makeup to appear glamorous, use SEVENTEEN cosmetics. SEVENTEEN COSMETICS are hypo-allergenic. They are iree from ingredients that might irritate the skin and their advertising is accepted for publication in the journals of The American Medical Association.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney func-tion. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing here, many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

It will cost the average farmer only about 15 cents each to treat each brood sow for mange and large roundworms. But the treatments are worth several hundred 2tp times that amount in better herd health and faster gains. Dr. M. E. Mansfield, veterinarian at the University of Illinois, reminds farmers that breeding time is a good time for parasite control. At that time the farmer usually has only a few hogs on hand, so the cost of treatment is less, and there will be less chance of trouble with the litters. To control mange, he says, spray each sow in the herd with benzin hexachloride just before breeding time. Then the affected sows and boars will be free of mange.

Egg Is Never Any Better Than When It Is Laid

Many farmers apparently don't think about the fact, but an egg is just as good as it will ever be when the hen lays it.

Boyd Ellis, poultry specialist of the Wyoming agricultural extension service, points out that it's up to the consumer to keep the quality of eggs good. To do this, eggs should be gathered soon after they're laid; should be cooled in a wire basket.

Chief reason for this thinking was that the Labor party very recently had been able to show signs of substantial gains in Britain's fight to overcome poverty.

BIG STICK:

Union Monopolies

Virtually everyone from busboy to bureaucrat probably has, at one time or another, discussed the question of whether the tactics used by some of the larger unions —particularly John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers—in securing benefits for their members do not constitute a monopoly in restraint of trade.

ON CAPITOL HILL that issue had been presented more forcefully than ever before when 10 senators-seven Democrats and three Republicans-sent to the senate judiciary committee a report stating that a bill forbidding labor to monopolize control of industry would end the "usurpation and abuse of power" such as currently is being demonstrated by Lewis three-day work week in the soft

THE REPORT pointed out that "If this usurpation and abuse of control production and price is tolerated by the congress, its unbridled use will spread from union to union, from industry to industry, and the congress will never again regain its own narrowly circumscribed power to control the economy of the nation consistently with the Constitution of the United States."

Soviet Walkout

It has been evident for a long Britain's voting populace will time that Russia wants to eliminate China's Nationalist government, both from the Chinese and socialism, state planning and nationalization of industry under no effort to achieve that end.

IN ADDITION to the military pressure exerted by the Chinese Communists, the Soviets had turned on the heat in the United Nations in a continuing attempt to get the date for the general election, Prime Nationalist delegation discredited Minister Clement Attlee must have in the security council. in the security council

Latest development along those lines came when Russia's Jacob Malik wrathfully stomped out of a security council meeting because Britain's 33 million voters will the other delegates would not kick out the Nationalist representation. And, said Malik, he would not return to the council as long as the Nationalists sat at the table. Meetings with them present would be a parody, he asserted. And the chief Nationalist delegate, T. F. in both Australia and New Zealand | Tsiang, who was presiding as Jancould be taken as a straw in the uary chairman over the first council meeting this year, "represents

U.S. BUDGET:

No Balance

Mr. Truman's federal budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 was not surprising. It was unbalanced, calling for the government to live more than five billion dollars beyond its income during the year -if congress doesn't pare the figures, or give the President the "moderate" tax hikes he has proposed.

THE OVERALL BUDGET figure was 42 billion, 439 thousand dollars, but Mr. Truman declared the proity . . . and to the welfare of our people." posed spending "vital to our secur-

As was to be expected, Mr. Truman insisted the budget was one of soundest prudence and restraint. He argued that it was a financial expression the steps the government ought to take now "to build toward economic growth and the expansion of human freedom in own country and in the National defense continued to be the biggest expense in the budget, although expansively covered that is the money being spent in an effort to insure Europe against any further spread of communism. An ironical twist was the fact that while the U.S. is pouring money into Great Britain as a part of that general effort, the British turn right around and give aid and comfort to communism by formally recognizing the Communists.

AS FOR TAX INCREASES, the President was silent on specific recommendations. He did, ever, indicate that he would like an earlier date for imposition of an increase in social security taxes from one and one-half per cent to two per cent on employers and employees. The President apparently wanted that extra money to aid health-insurance plan, congress seems to have little intention of approving.

FORMOSA:

Many Tanks

The administration was standing pat on its decision against U S military intervention in Formosadestined to be the next area of conflict in the Communist' drive to control the Far East.

Official U. S. attitude was that this country could do more to combat communism in the volatile Orient by extending economic aid to lands still outside the Red orbit than it could by direct intervention in the struggle.

AT THE SAME TIME, however, the generalized term "economic aid" was being employed as usual to cover a multitude of purposes. A case in point was the news that the Chinese Nationalists had pur-chased nearly 300 U.S. army tanks for shipment to Formosa, where they would be used in the defense against the Communists.

The military vehicles were listed as surplus army equipment, and the price tag was $1,000 per tank. Similar tanks, minus weapons, cost about $58,000 to build during the

ANOTHER element in the paradox was that the Nationalists paid for the tanks with money from the 25-million-dollar kitty which was provided for the aid of China by congress last year.

U. S. state department's stand on the matter was expressed by Michael McDermott, department press officer, who said that the Chinese Nationalist government had been spending the aid money through its own purchasing agents and nad bought whatever armaments it wanted.

"WE STILL recognize the Nationalist government of China and would interpose no objection to its exporting this material from this country," he stated. country,

Although the destination of the tank shipment was not disclosed officially, it was an open secret that the cargo was bound, aboard a Turkish ship, for Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government headquarters on Formosa.

FEDERAL OUTLAY:

GOP Sharpens Knife

Even as President Truman was calling for a 42-billion-plus federal budget for the coming fiscal year, Republican members of senate and house were sharpening paring knives in an effort to slash some of the proposed expenditures. Many Democrats, too, expressed misgivings over the prospect of another five billion "red ink," or deficit,

GOP HOUSE LEADER Martin served notice that the "Republicans in congress have no intention of accepting this budget and will work night and day, if necessary, to bring it within the bounds of the capacity of the people to pay."
Similarly, the GOP senate lead-

Wherry of Nebraska, termed the budget message "purely political" which "sugar-coated" the red ink implications.

Representative Taber (R., N. Y.) was the most violent in his attack on the budget proposals. "We cannot maintain our liberties." he charged, "if we turn this money over to the President and the Socialist schemers who surround him." Taber said he intended to battle for a balanced budget.

THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY that the President might be in trouble on his budget, because ever since the congress convened members have been talking of economy.

Answer Is 'No'

MUGGSY, THE MOVIE CRITIC

I JUST SEEN SAMSON and Hedy Delilah, which is the movie of the year in size, costumes, drama and peacock fans and I ache in every muscle. Now I know why Gargantua died down at Sarasota. He seen Victure Mature in a preview of this picture and he knew he was washed up.

I never seen no movie which had more action or more people in it, except maybe a newsreel of the crowds in Times Square election night. Cecil De-Mile who done wonderful mob pictures years ago is the same wizard and he has the hand that has not lost its touch, except maybe with lions. There is a hair - raising scene where Samson wrestles a lion with no rules of a state athletic commission to protect him, and he kills the lion with his bare hands. The direction was a little bad. I got the idea Mature had the lion out a couple of times, but I guess there was a horn on the play the first time. The second time there was a illegal substitution.

Anyhow a fight between a lion and a man is a five-star special with me and as this one was in Technicolor it was like me being right in the ring with a waterbuck-et. I was in the lion's corner on account of I knew it was all fixed in the script so he had no chance and I got so excited I almost tossed in the towel, but the best Hollywood actor won and the lion had no business in the same ring with Mature and Hedy Lamarr anyhow. Just the same, if I was a lion and was matched with Mature I would of fought him different.

I am not knocking Mature. What he does in this picture would make a piker out of even Bernarr MacFadden in his prime. In the Bible story, which Jesse Lasky, Jr. and Freddie Frank have fixed all over for the popcorn trade, Samson was a strong man who did wonders, but Mature makes them look easy and the closeups of muscles are extra good.

There is a big switch in the Delilah story. In the Bible story which is good enough for me, this dame a combination of Mae West, Gravel Gertie and a Democratic reply to a Republican statement of policy. She is tough all the way, with no detours. This would not do in no Hollywood script, even on Bible authority. So Delilah is made a nice girl who had Samson's hair cut by mistake and reforms, quitting the haircut and shave field entirely and ending up nuts about him and his jawbone.

I was afraid they would put a sweater on Delilah, but they did not. It was not necessary, I could tell it was Hedy all along.

Still I am going a second time as it is a picture you don't see every day. It is worth the money just to see so many beards, suits of mail, spear bearers, peacock feathers, and muscles all in Technicolor. Also after Samson fights a lion, slays 1,000 Philistines and demolishes a temple, it is nice to have a stage show thrown in with nobody fighting and not a jawbone in the

Bogey and Pandas Were Tame Compared to J. Brutus Booth

By BILLY ROSE

There was a lot of talk on Broadway in recent weeks about the incident at the El Morocco club where Humphrey Bogart was caught with his pandas down, and to hear the prissy boys tell it, unless Bogey stops acting up he's a cinch to finish behind the well-known eight-

Well, mebbe so, but I wouldn't bet on it. It's my belief that, if anything, his daffy didos will help his pulling-power at the box office, very much as they helped John Barrymore, W. C. Fields, and other talented screwballs who had the nerve to do what the rest of us only daydream

Here, he proceeded to revolutionize most of our acting techniques and, despite the enormous quantities of woozle-water he consumed, he never let his audiences down. At one matinee, he was literally carried into the theater, and while the manager was splashing water on his face the customers began to yell for the show to go on.

Annoyed by their catcalls, the tragedian stuck bis face through the curtain and roared. "I'm drunk now, but in ten minutes I'll give you the greatest King Lear you ever saw." And he did.

Another time, he went into a pawnshop to borrow $10, pledged himself as security, spent the tenner on Jersey applejack, and then, son at Drury Lane as Iago to as per promise, came back and Keane's Othello. And, unless the squatted in the pawnbroker's win-

AS THE YEARS leapfrogged on Booth's capacity for nuttiness became something of a national legend, and any theater he was scheduled to play generally sold out the day the engagement was announced. Stories about the caperous crackpot were repeated around every pot-bellied stove-and little wonder. For instance, while taking an ocean voyage, the ship passed the spot where an actor Conway had committed suicide by drowning. Junius Brutus suddenly appeared on deck and yelled, dove overboard. And for the next 30 minutes, he played water-tag with the sailors who jumped in to fish him out.

In bis finale years, Booth took up the study of Buddbism and developed so great a borror of inflicting death that he would burst into tears it someone habpened to step on a bug.
