

O'DONNELL

VOLUME XI O'DONNELL, LYNN COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1934 NUMBER 22

Biggest Sandstorm Of Season Saturday

A fairly high wind accompanied by driving sand Saturday morning, had blown a nightfall into what would be described as the grandpa of all sandstorms. If it wasn't grandpa himself, it was grandpa's brother.

Instead of dying down toward evening as West Texas sandstorms usually do, this one increased to a velocity, according to reports from the weather station, to approximately 40 miles per hour. All loose objects were blown about or completely destroyed. Traffic was seriously impeded during the evening as car lights did not penetrate the murk of the sand and dust. One citizen reported with a fairly good imagination that about eleven o'clock Thursday morning he had developed a heavy cold, and by Wednesday her physician diagnosed her illness as pneumonia. Every possible means to save her life was called into play but she passed away about eleven o'clock Thursday morning.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Friday afternoon. Rev. G. W. Montgomery, pastor of the church, was assisted in the beautiful and impressive service by Rev. J. O. Haymes of Lubbock, former pastor of the deceased. Interment was made in the city cemetery beside her husband, who preceded her in death some three years.

Mrs. Melton and her family came to O'Donnell from Knox County ten years ago, and since that time she had grown in the hearts and lives of her friends to be a well-known and beloved being. To her unflinching cheerfulness, her appreciation of every little favor, and her inherent goodness had become almost a legend even before her death.

Born November 30, 1864, Mrs. Melton had been a true Christian for 60 years. Until the Sunday before her death, she had worked loyally in her Master's garden, and her family and friends could indeed "rise up and call her blessed." Three years ago the young married lady's class of the Sunday School adopted her as their class mother, and her appreciation of this deed and her influence on the class work will be softly lighted memories through years to come.

The Index joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

So far as we have heard, there was no property damage, and as agitation has not yet begun to green a little harm was done. The young sand was somewhat buried, but according to farmers was up high enough that it could withstand the hot and sandy well.

A decided drop in temperature accompanied the sand with frozen pipes today night for the second time this winter.

Judge Mullican Asks For New Office

Judge Clark M. Mullican, at present judge of the 99th Judicial District, has this week authorized to use his name in our political column as a candidate for the 19th Congressional District. His formal statement is as follows:

The new district is composed of 25 counties, and this year will mark the 100th anniversary since it was organized from the old 18th district.

Judge Mullican, an outstanding leader and jurist for a number of years, will be known throughout this territory as a farmer and cattleman, and familiar with the problems of the district. He is an active member of the American Legion, and did active service during the World War, as 1st Lt. Colonel, and in the 88th Division. He is now a reserve hero, Colonel of the 358th Infantry Division.

His platform is a simple one—to help with his fellow men to be mindful of his trust, to remain loyal to those he represents, and to do, always, the very best he can.

In closing his announcement, Judge Mullican said in part:

"I feel like I am almost kin to this country and a few others of the 18th district. Lynn has always supported me with a firm majority, and I have every hope that she will again. When I get all 'het up' and get set, it'll be down to you folks."

Dzarks Get Spotlight Next Wednesday Night

Next to the fenders and primed for most anything, the boys with their small son embarked last summer on a two weeks tour of the backwoods country. Miles and miles of rugged wilds, a run-in with small-town sheriff, and a night in the backwoods country, and many novel experiences overtook the boys as they headed for home.

And that briefly, in the dramatized story around which Continental Company's scenic radio program "Wednesday night, February 28," has been built. Irving Talbot's 20-piece Conoco orchestra will sandwich all sorts of tunes—from familiar tunes to hill country ho-downs. Radio fans who wish to listen in may dial one of the 27 N. C. stations being used at 9:30 to 10:00 central standard time.

Mr. John Harberger of Littlefield left the week and here with her Mrs. George D. Foster, and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Marshall Whitsett.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garner on Friday, February 16, a tomboyish girl, Mrs. Garner was Miss Vivian before her marriage. Mother and baby are doing well, and as usually the case with grandpas, Mell is just about grandpa.

Mrs. J. A. Melton Dies After Short Illness

Mrs. J. A. Melton, beloved resident of this community for a number of years, died at the family home east of town last Thursday morning after an illness of only two days. The town and surrounding territory were shocked when the news was brought in that she was not expected to live over a few hours and scores of friends hastened to the home to offer their assistance.

For sometime Mrs. Melton has been frail, and had been under the care of a physician, but seemed to be in much better health than for several years. She was in town Monday afternoon visiting friends, and became chilled on the drive home. Tuesday morning she had developed a heavy cold, and by Wednesday her physician diagnosed her illness as pneumonia. Every possible means to save her life was called into play but she passed away about eleven o'clock Thursday morning.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Friday afternoon. Rev. G. W. Montgomery, pastor of the church, was assisted in the beautiful and impressive service by Rev. J. O. Haymes of Lubbock, former pastor of the deceased. Interment was made in the city cemetery beside her husband, who preceded her in death some three years.

Mrs. Melton and her family came to O'Donnell from Knox County ten years ago, and since that time she had grown in the hearts and lives of her friends to be a well-known and beloved being. Weldon Curtis Taken To Hospital Tuesday

Weldon Curtis, older son of Earl Curtis, was taken to Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday night after an illness of several days. His condition was described as serious by hospital attendants.

The boy has been ill for several days with measles, and his physician here is of the opinion that the complications and unconsciousness are complications arising from this disorder.

As we go to press (Wednesday afternoon) we have heard no further developments, but the Index joins with the community in the sincere hope that more encouraging news will come in the next few hours.

Estimate 31,000 Farmers To Sign Corn-Hog Contracts

County agents have estimated that about 31,000 farmers would eventually sign contracts to reduce corn acreage 20 per cent, or hog litters and market hogs by 25 per cent, or both, in Texas. Should this estimate prove correct, and if the average reductions made by farmers who already have signed good for all signers Texas would cut out one-third of a million acres of corn this year, and reduce hog marketing by about 100,000 head. This should in no way cripple the living-at-home movement, it is said. For this reducing farmers will be paid 20 cents per bushel for the average corn production on these retired acres, and $15 per head for the hogs taken from the market.

Mid-Winter Sale At C. C. Store

Attention of our readers is called to the Mid-Winter Sale which is to open tomorrow at C. C. Drygoods store.

With a view toward saving money for his customers, Mr. Cahoon has arranged timely specials in items which can be carried over to next season when prices will be much higher.

He asks that the time of the sale be specially emphasized. Sales prices will be in effect only three days, Friday, Saturday, and Monday.

Two Cars Cattle Shipped By Cook

Ed Cook and Son at Wells shipped two cars of cattle to F. Worth market, via Santa Fe routes.

The Cooks, father and son, have been among the leading cattle buyers and shippers this year. On several occasions animals have been trucked to market, but large numbers have, for the most part, been shipped.

City Bakery Bought By J. B. Walker

The City Bakery was bought this week by J. B. Walker, recently of Floydada, Mr. Walker took charge of the plant Monday, and the family will be here sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cox, who have owned and operated the bakery for more than a year have not announced definite plans for the future, but it is sincerely hoped that they will continue to make O'Donnell their home.

Mr. Walker and his family are former residents of O'Donnell. Mrs. Walker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Nichols, and during their residence here several months ago, they made scores of friends who will be glad to welcome them home again. Mr. Walker is an experienced baker, having been employed in this work for a number of years, so that the customary high standards of the City Bakery will be maintained.

Lynn County 11th In 1933 Cotton Crop

Lynn County ranked 11th in cotton production in Texas for the year 1933 according to the semi-final report issued by the department of commerce for the census as taken January 16. The state was 27,000 bales ahead of the 1932 production at the corresponding date in 1932.

Twenty-three counties in Texas showed production of more than 50,000 bales, four of them on the South Plains.

Very little change is expected by cotton men in the next report, which will be issued in March. This will be the final report of the year.

Except for drought, at least two, and possibly other counties would have been in the 50,000 bale class. Both Hockley and Dawson counties, usually well up among the leaders of the state, would have been in a higher bracket if rainfall had been more plentiful. Ellis county this year replaced Jones county as state leader.

Lynn county had 65,722 bales this year as compared with 53,043 last year.

Mr. W. L. Palmer and daughter, Miss Thelma, returned Monday from a vacation trip.

South Plains Reduction Shows Great Decline

Reports from 14 South Plains counties over the week and indicate that the cotton acreage reduction campaign in this section is considerably below that of last year.

Lynn county had a total of 1134 contracts covering 140,041 acres as compared with 1682 contracts covering 176,641 acres last year, and adjoining counties report about the same proportion of decline. 5,000 fewer contracts have been signed on the South Plains this year than last year, and at the same time, under contracts already signed, 252,000 fewer acres are covered. Acres are to be leased to Uncle Sam are 147,000 under those of last year.

Here is a table showing figures on which the above statements are based:

E. W. Hester Takes Laurels As Butcher

E. W. Hester, who is recognized as one of the leading Jersey experts of the Southwest, bids fair to take honors in still another line, that of meat-cutting and curing.

On Friday afternoon the editorial family enjoyed a trip to the Hester farm to see his meat show. Using the A & M method of bleeding & cutting Mr. Hester with the assistance of Mrs. Hester and their daughter Miss Rena, had a display of hams, shoulders, breakfast bacon, sausage, and salt pork that would have done credit to a Swift or Armour plant. The meat is first sugar cured, Mr. Hester explained, then hung up for several days before being packed down in wheat bran. The sausage is fried, placed in two gallon stone jars, and sealed over with hot fat. Some 1200 pounds of meat were hanging up or were in the sugar cure Friday.

Naturally, a trip to Hester's place would not be complete without an inspection of the dairy herd, and we were fortunate enough to be there when the flock had just been shorn. Hester does not plan taking any animals to the Dairy Show this year, because of his own health, but is grooming and training for next year's show. Raleigh and Volunteer, youngsters bought and traded from the Longview Farm this summer, are already looking hard to heat, and we predict that they will give somebody a run for the money next year.

Also, we made the acquaintance of Mr. Hester's two mules who are old enough to vote the year, and inspected the flock that were just shorn. A part of Mr. Hester's creed is that a farmer who can't raise his own meat, milk, butter, vegetables, eggs, and chickens had better get in another line of business.

Play Postponed Friday Evening

The play which was announced for Friday evening, to be presented by the Epworth League of the Welch Methodist church for next week, will be postponed to Friday night of this week because of a death in the family of one of the cast.

A. D. Raney, who was so tragically killed Wednesday morning, was the brother of one of the actors.

Unless further announcement is made during the school today, the play will be staged tomorrow evening (Friday) in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Gaston Buried Sunday Afternoon

The entire community was saddened at news of the death of Mrs. Mattie E. Gaston at 2:15 p. m. Saturday, following an illness of almost three months.

Granny, as she was lovingly known to a wide circle of friends, became ill on November 24 with a paralysis of the throat, and had gradually grown weaker. All efforts to effect a cure were unavailing, and she passed quietly away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Slaughter, with whom she had made her home since 1926.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ with Elder R. P. Drennon in charge. A most impressive rite. The charity and love in which she was held by the community was shown by the crowd of sorrowing friends who came forth her loved ones, their hearts were numbed by their offerings were numerous and beautiful. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Gaston was born August 31, 1851 in Pickens county, Alabama. During her infancy her parents moved to Mississippi, and in 1856 they came to Jackson county, Texas, later settling in Grayson county.

At the age of twenty-four, Mrs. Gaston became a member of the Church of Christ at Whitesboro. Four years later she was married to A. L. Gaston, an ex-Confederate soldier. They made their home at Gainesville. They made six boys and six girls. Her husband died February 9, 1907, preceding her in death by almost 25 preceding her in death. During that time, when she came to O'Donnell, she maintained her home in Gainesville with two sons.

Throughout her lifetime, Granny was a devoted Christian, and until an encroaching age prevented, she was an active worker in her church. Her life was ever one of sweet faith and gracious self-denial. She shared and helped to lessen the burdens and trials of those around her, and rendered many a selfless service to those in need of her.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. N. J. Justice of Waco, two brothers, Will Hackleman of Mountainview, Okla., and John Hackleman of Whitesboro, a daughter, Mrs. E. O. Slaughter, Mrs. Lee Cade and son, Joe, of Dixie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Core and son, Ivy, of Priddy. The Cades and Cores were friends of many years. Scores of

Local Ladies Undergo Major Operations

Three O'Donnell ladies have undergone major operations during the past ten days, and all are doing well today.

Miss Leona Stokes, who underwent an appendectomy at Lubbock Sanitarium ten days ago, was brought home Monday afternoon, and is at the home of her brother, Mr. John Stokes, and is doing nicely.

Eighty-two-year-old Mrs. Brown returned from Santa Anna, and reported that Mrs. Brown is recovering nicely from major surgery which she underwent Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Brown has been in the hospital for several years, but it is hoped and believed that she will be much stronger. Unless complications arise, she will probably be able to come home week after next.

Miss Jane Gary, who underwent appendectomy Friday morning of last week, is also doing nicely, with every hope of being able to come home this week, also.

Club Reporters' School Is Well Attended

Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, reports that there were twenty-eight reporters and secretaries in attendance at the H. D. Clubs at the reporters' school conducted Saturday at Taboka.

Because of the sandstorm and other difficulties, the attendance had no representation at this meeting, but the general facts brought out by editor Hill and Miss Robb are to be passed on to local ladies.

You Are Gone

We are saddened by your leaving. Bitter tears were shed in grieving. Not a word of criticism. Have we ever heard from you. Best with memories of the past. That kept you smiling, and that shedded tolerant understanding. Peace, good will, and hope that's true. In the evening of our life, Grand we be as free from strife, And we know you'll fulfill God's promise As we know you'll have with you.

Public Enemy No. 1 Is Heart Disease

Austin, Texas, Feb. 21.—Public Enemy No. One is Heart Disease, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. This disease kills over 1200 people each year in Texas and the worst part of this is that the number is increasing each year.

While it must be admitted that the deaths attributed to heart ailments are increasing, the fact remains that when a person complains of his heart, organic disease frequently exists. Organic heart disease causes shortness of breath, swelling of hands and feet and a cough. Usually these signs do not convey to the patient's mind even the suggestion that he has heart disease.

So-called functional heart disease is usually traced to these sources, namely, nervousness, infections from another part of the body such as teeth or tonsils, to a disturbed function of the thyroid gland, to influenza and so on; and to the effects of the excessive use of tobacco, coffee or tea.

In cases where there is a disturbed heart action due to focal infection the source of which is located, the infective cause when possible is removed, as in the case of diseased tonsils and teeth. The heart, possessing remarkable recuperative ability, once the poisoning agent is definitely eliminated, in time becomes normal once again.

Good professional advice and a strict heeding of it are the only things to worry about either in functional or organic heart disease. It is a well established fact that the great number of those who know they have a heart condition usually die from some other cause.

Local H. S. Girls Given Chance To Win Scholarships

University scholarships will be the goal of high school girls of this city who compete in a nation-wide essay contest just announced in detail to local teachers of home economics.

This educational project known as the national meat story contest, has been conducted annually since 1924 under the supervision of teachers in hundreds of high schools throughout the country, according to the National Livestock and Meat Board, its sponsor.

National, sectional and state winners are selected each year. Miss Merle Green, a Levelland girl, was the state champion of Texas last year.

Contestants have until March 15 to get their essays in. These essays, judging from past years, will cover a wide range of subjects such as, meat in the balanced diet, the preparation of meat, meat in the economy budget, the importance of the live-stock and meat industry, etc.

Selection of the winning essays will be in the hands of a committee of eminent home economics authorities whose names will be made public at a little later date, according to the announcement. Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the federal bureau of home economics, headed this committee last year.

Teachers say they have found this type of competition of value not only for the scholarships it affords but also for the training it provides in the interest of better home-making in the future, according to the Board.

The organization sponsoring this annual contest represents the entire livestock and meat industry. It is interested in extensive research in the subject of meat, working closely with leading colleges and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The essay contest is conducted with the purpose of assisting in the study of meat in high school food classes.

According to local teachers of home economics several girls from here are planning or have already entered this contest. It is worthy that they are interested in this and we hope for their success in winning many honors, in Texas, in the sectional contests and in the national contest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON CORN-HOG CONTRACTS AS EXPLAINED BY A & M E. S.

Question: Is a producer who owns operates or controls more than one farming unit required to sign contracts covering all farming units?

Answer: No. He may sign a contract or contracts for one or more farming units, but no more than one farming unit may be covered by any one contract. He agrees, however: (a) Not to increase in 1934 the aggregate corn acreage on the land not under contract above the aggregate acreage for 1932-33 on such land; (b) Not to increase the aggregate of 1934 hogs and the aggregate of hogs produced for market therefrom on land not under contract, owned and operated by him (which shall include control exercised under a stock-share agreement) over the respective aggregate annual averages for 1932-33 for such land.

Question: Can all of the corn acreage reduction payments be obtained by a landlord who reserves a part of the corn acreage and then rents the balance of the farm in 1934, but did not follow such a procedure in 1933?

Answer: No. Such renting would be a breach of the contract.

Question: If the producer is buying or renting a farm under an agreement or lease providing for payment in a fixed amount of a commodity, will the seller or landlord get a share of the payments under the contract?

Answer: No.

Question: Can a 4-H Club member receive a separate payment on his pigs?

Answer: No. This would not be possible as all pigs have to be included in the total numbers reported for the farm.

Question: Is the landlord who rents land under a share lease liable for the tenant's violation of the contract? The landlord is liable for violations of the contract on land owned or controlled by him on which are located contracted areas, and for hog production only if receiving a share of the hog reduction payment.

Question: What is the penalty if the producer has marketed before or holds for future marketing on the date of proof of compliance a number of hogs in excess of the number to which he has agreed to reduce hogs produced for market in 1934?

Answer: There may be deducted from the total hog reduction payment an amount of $20 per head on each or any of the hogs in excess of the number allowed under the contract.

Question: If the number of pigs in the litters farrowed or to be farrowed is or may be above the number of hogs allowed for marketing, what can the producer do?

Answer: Among other things the producer may: (a) Reduce the number of fall litters; (b) Take the $20 deduction per head for the surplus pigs on hand at the time of inspection; (c) Kill the weak or runty pigs to within the approximate number.

County Club Work

DOING MY OWN WORK

By Sylvia Aldridge Wells 4-H Club

The second year of my club work is going to mean more to me because I am learning to work for myself instead of depending on mother.

This year I have made a set of pillow cases and a shoe rack. I am trying very hard to succeed in my club work this year.

If other 4-H Club girls are depending upon their mother's, sister's or some one's work, I hope they will soon learn that it is of no benefit to them and that it comes nearer being harmful than helpful to them.

I hope that every member of the 4-H Club will succeed in their work this year. If every girl will do her part I am sure that she will.

 Seventh Grader St. Valentine said on a visit Wednesday of last week, and we enjoyed it very much. Our room mother, Mrs. Ed James, visited us Friday. We are always glad to see her. We finished our contest Friday with group 2 losing. They entertained with a theatre party.
 Fifth Grade: We are ready for our six-weeks exams, but a number of our pupils are absent because of measles. We hope they will be back soon.
 Third grade: Those making 100 in spelling all week were Wilda Gene Campbell, Wanda Zell Everett, Ladell Fraizer, Allie Jo Scholer, Elvin Ray Moore, and Steward Scholer.
 Second Grade: We are missing all the little folks who are out of school. There are eighteen absent this week, and most of them have measles.
 First Grade: We enjoyed our Valentine box last week. Mrs. John Johnson, our room mother, surprised us with some delicious heart-shaped cookies. The entire grade planned the sand-table project for this month. It is to be a modern farm with cattle, dog, birds, trees, and everything one would expect on a first-class farm. Billie Jane Johnson is president and Bertie Mae DeBak is vice-president of the class. They supervised the arrangement of the table. We have received a number of library books that we can read ourselves, and we surely are enjoying them.

HERBERT SMITH
 (The Clothing Merchant)
 SAYS—

"Too Many Overlook Value in Clothes And Gas"
 HERBERT SMITH, the clothing merchant, found for a long time that price and style interested his customers more than actual value. No matter how fine a piece of material went into a suit of clothes, some people expected him to sell at shoddy prices. Today Mr. Smith notices a change in the buying attitude of his customers. They ask, "How much wool is in it—will it wear—does it hold its press?" They have discovered that the biggest bargains are found when buying on value, as well as price and style.
 Mr. Smith once complained about the price of gas but his business sense shows him a new principle that applies to gas also. Now he realizes that full compensation is necessary for the fine gas service he is receiving. And he is willing to pay for it because he has compared the value of gas with other fuels and finds it worth several times the highest amount that ever has been asked of him. Few of you who read this advertisement are in the clothing business but most of you can appreciate conclusions reached by Mr. Smith. The new attitude of his customers will enable him to give better service and to hold his position as a stable factor in the community.

THE PURPLE COMET

Written by the Students of the Berry Flat School

Editorial

In most all schools there is a school life that is interesting and if printed in papers, would make good reading matter. Everyone enjoys and is interested in the work of the schools and every school should be glad to tell of its activities through the medium of the paper.

This school although small has its school and community life and is made up of students that want to see it grow and become bigger and better known school. With the present leadership that we now have, we believe that we can make our school more interesting to its students. We are undertaking to edit each week a school paper which will carry the current topics of interest in our community. This paper is being published as an English project. We hope that the articles we submit in our paper will meet with your approval and will be a source of enjoyment to all readers. We especially wish to thank the Index for granting us the space in which to print "The Comet".

School Paper Organized

By Inez Farmer
Last Wednesday morning in a joint meeting of all the English classes, the students of the sixth to the ninth grades organized a school paper which they hope to submit to the O'Donnell Index for publication each week. The business of the meeting consisted of the naming and electing the officers for the paper. It was finally decided to call the student paper "The Purple Comet" although many other names were suggested and a heated debate with close voting preceded the title selection. The election of the staff was also closely contested but the following pupils were given the honor of being the first to edit the paper:

Inez Farmer — Editor-in-Chief.
Valien Calocote — Assistant Editor.
Bill Clements — Sports Editor.
Elsie Williams — Girls Sports Ed.
Roscoe Kropp — Jokes Editor.

With this wide-awake staff you are sure to be informed about what takes place in and around our school and we hope you will enjoy reading it.

Social Entertainments of the Year

By John Calicote
Since the opening of school Nov. 6, 1933, there has been a number of school functions in our community. Early in the fall a box supper and auction sale was conducted and money was raised to purchase play ground equipment and new uniforms for the basketball teams. The merchants of O'Donnell contributed liberally to this occasion and every one deeply appreciated their cooperation.

Christmas was observed in the school by having a big Christmas tree together with an appropriate program.

On January 26 the students and teachers put on the first play of the season entitled "A Fortunate Calamity." Everyone enjoyed this presentation very much.

Lincoln's birthday was observed in our community in a manner that would have done credit to a much larger school. The program consisted of tableaux scenes from Lincoln's life pantomimes and acrostics. It is very seldom a small community observes the birthday of our national figures.

Another play is being prepared for presentation in the next few days. The name of the play is "The Little Clothopper." This is a very exceptional type of play, full of drama from start to finish. Everyone is invited to come to this play and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Athletic Teams Named

By Elsie Williams
It was decided last week that our basketball teams and other athletic organizations should have a symbolic name as other schools have. The boys and girls basketball teams and the playground ball teams met and suggested names for the teams. Many names were suggested and it was a difficult matter to select one that pleased everyone. After voting two or three times the name "Purple Comets" was given the teams. This name is very appropriate, as it bears out our school colors of purple and gold, and we hope the comet part will describe the heights to which our teams will soar in its victories over other schools.

Purple Comets Win 4, Lose 5

By Bill Clements
The boys' basketball team of the Berry Flat school, known as the Purple Comets, has played a nine game schedule up to this date and has dropped five of them. This is not a very good percentage but considering this to be the first time for any of the boys to play organized basketball, it does not seem so bad.

A four game series with Mesquite was split, they winning two and the Comets two. Gail was taken on next and was snowed under by a substantial score. A two game engagement with Wells turned out one lost and one in the win column. Draw took the Comets for a ride in the next game catching the Comets off form and plastering them to the tune of 26 to 6. Last Friday the boys met the Higginbotham team of Dawson county as a forerunner to the Dawson county tournament in the Lamesa gym.

This was the first time any of our boys had ever played in a gym and were defeated by a good score.

Every game played shows a great improvement over the last and by the close of the season the Berry Flat School should boast a smooth working and more consistent team. Watch this column for more news on the Comets.

Valentine Party

By John Calicote
Last Wednesday evening Mr. Toombs and Miss Farris, assisted by Miss Mary McMurtry, entertained the pupils of the school with a Valentine party.

As guests entered, they were asked to register in a moomouth heart, and were given ten beans. If one could make someone answer yes or no to a question they were to be given a bean the one having the most beans at the close of the party to receive a prize. Many other interesting games were played in connection with this and not one time was interest allowed to lag. Two short plays were presented in the course of the evening and at ten thirty all the guests were served with delicious punch and sandwiches and cookie hearts. The valentine theme was carried out and the party terminated with a big valentine box. Everyone expressed himself as having enjoyed the evening immensely.

Revival Opened Friday With Good Crowds

The annual spring revival at the Church of the Nazarene opened as announced Friday evening of last week, and interest and attendance have been splendid, said Mrs. Pearl Keeten, pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Fletcher of Ft. Worth are here for the two services each day, from ten to eleven in the morning, and at seven-thirty each evening. In spite of the sandstorm Saturday evening and Sunday, attendance was very good indeed. The evangelist used as his morning subject "Types and Shadow of Christ".

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services. If you do not have a way to come, Mrs. Keeten asks that you let her know and a car will be sent for you.

A special service is to be held Sunday when the church is to be dedicated. V. B. Attebury, district superintendent, will be here for the Saturday evening service and for the dedication ceremony. In addition, special music is being arranged. The church wishes to thank Mr. Merrick and Miss Merrick for their beautiful selections Sunday evening, with the hope that they may be prevailed upon to assist again.

and Howard Henderson.

Four divorces have been granted by Judge Gordon B. McGuire.

The criminal docket has been set for next Monday.
