Attendance Lowered

The attendance this week was about the lowest we have had. All classes except second were atttended over the holidays. The holidays were 70 per cent lower than the past two weeks. Five students did not attend school at all. All classes of the second division were attended and much better than last week. All classes of the first division were attended and much better than last week. All classes of the first division were attended and much better than last week.

Don't Expect the Harvest Too Soon

This week I have bought a car load of Arkansas apples, to be delivered in O'Donnell next week. This fruit is the best apple for the money on the market, sound, juicy, and full of flavor.

ASK ABOUT OUR SPECIAL PRICES FOR SATURDAY
OCTOBER 7TH

Not long ago a busy young mother said with a sigh of relief: "Well, Putzy and Billie are big enough to do my marketing. I know the RED & WHITE sign and I know the RED & WHITE bargains. So I just list what I need, and send them to our RED & WHITE store. I know my babies will get the same courtesy and service given a grown-up, and the RED & WHITE Brand insures quality merchandise."

Madam, we salute you! In those few words you expressed the whole policy of the RED & WHITE stores -- SERVICE -- ECONOMY -- QUALITY.

Mr. Farmer

If you have to wait at the Gin, just send your order to any RED & WHITE Store—it will receive careful attention and be delivered to your wagon and truck promptly.

THE RED & WHITE STORES

Elects New Officers

At a business and social meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Oleta Moore, offices for the Lamesa chapter of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society were elected as follows: Rev. R. H. Gibson, president; Mrs. Carey Shook, treasurer; Mrs. R. B. Glenn, reporter; Miss Mary McFadden, secretary; Miss Mary Womack, auditor.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beach, and many friends and acquaintances here was Mrs. Pearl Keeton, Pastor. The pastor will bring a message on Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church, performed by Mrs. C. J. Beach, and has also many friends in both places.
