No opposition voiced to annexation

Though there were charges of misrepresentation and minor complaints, no one spoke against the annexation of Shiloh I and II and other properties along Johnson Road into the city, during Monday night's regular meeting of the city council.

Also during the meeting, a plat for a new housing development was discussed by the council, but was returned to the Planning and Zoning Commission.

A portion of the meeting agenda was the public hearing on petitions to annex the new additions to the northwest of the city, and the two athletic areas on West Magnolia.

Some half a dozen residents of the areas to be annexed were in attendance. And though almost all voiced their complaints, concerning information leading to the petitioning for annexation, each who spoke said annexation was still desired.

Jesse McCallough said if the annexation petition were to be passed around today, he doubted seriously it would be signed by enough to pass, from his area on Johnson Road and in Shiloh I.

Charlie Lee said he felt statements leading to the annexation petitioning were "definitely misleading, lies and threats," and made issue of the city's claim that Shiloh II was already annexed when it wasn't.

To this, Mayor Johnny Crawford said he, nor anyone he knew on the council, ever misled anyone, let alone lied, when discussion of petition was held.

The mayor said there was no threat intended concerning the increase in out-of-city utility rates, but only to equalize the cost for services for all who receive services from the city, either through fees or taxes.

Alan Gilstrap questioned that the area would receive the services it expected by coming into the city, due to the recent exposure of Iowa Park's financial situation. He mentioned that the streets in Shiloh I are now good, but he didn't want them to get into as poor a shape as those in the city near one of the streets.

"I'm for annexation," Don Flowers. He then spoke on the need of trust in each other and working together to solve the city's problems of finances.

Action on the petition for annexation will take place at the next meeting of the council, July 26th.

Aldermen instructed City Administrator Gene Britton to negotiate payments on two water bills which were considerably above normal. One was with Jack Bowerman, whose bill was some six times normal for no apparent reason last month, and Delbert Catlin, where a city leak developed.

Approval was given by all members of the council on a proposal for a parks and recreation policy. The seven-member board was named by Mrs. Earl Watson, who oversees that department.

She named Jerry Hutchins, Jimmy Alsip, Ray Pittman, John Sibley and

NEW DEVELOPMENT
The preliminary plat of Colonial Heights was viewed and discussed at the meeting, and then returned to the Planning and Zoning Board for its final approval before taking any action.

The development, which on the preliminary plat has 62 residential building lots and a large commercial area, is located at the northeast corner of Magnolia and Johnson intersection.

Proposed by Shenandoah Construction Co., Inc., owners listed are Dan Spruiell, president, H.C. Johnson, vice president, N.E. Guthrie Jr., secretary-treasurer, with Bill Spruiell, Glen Spruiell and Bobby Johnson as directors.

Ernest Lee, consulting engineer of Wichita Falls, prepared the plat, which includes 20.14 acres of land.

New ordinance changes fee, use of city dump grounds

The Iowa Park city council, continuing to face problems with its dump grounds, passed a new ordinance Monday which is hoped to be easier to enforce, but is no less expensive to those wishing to use the sanitary landfill.

The new ordinance continues to allow persons to dump at the landfill, for either an annual sticker fee or on a per-dump fee.

But it was suggested that even this might have to be eliminated, if a new approved site is not found in the very near future.

City administrator Gene Britton explained to the council that the earlier ordinance was almost impossible to enforce, because it did not go deep enough into detail in certain situations. He admitted the new ordinance was little better, but was an improvement.

The problem with dump ground facilities began in 1969 when a state law prohibited the open burning of trash by a city, and required each day's dumping to be covered by dirt.

Subsequent additions to the law were added by the Environmental Protection Agency, prohibiting any landfill from contaminating any source of water, underground or surface. And a most recent addition was the requirement that any landfill must be approved after various studies of engineers and inspection by state personnel.

It is estimated that before a landfill can be approved now, it would require upwards to a year before a location could be used, and at an expense of from $1,000 up.

The regulations were discussed by the council, in pointing out the seriousness the city faces with its present facility. The current site is expected to be filled within a year, and Alderman Bud Adams said it could be as short as six months.

No site has been submitted for inspection by state agency for a new landfill as yet, and that was the reason Mayor Johnny Crawford said the council might entertain the policy of eliminating all dumping at the present site except for city dump trucks.

However, no action was taken on the suggestion Monday.

The new ordinance retains the $2 annual fee for persons now paying trash rates in the city, to allow dumping at the landfill.

Persons who do not pay trash rates but own rental property or a business in the city, may purchase a sticker for $10 annually.

Those who clean yards, garages, vacant lots, etc. for hire may purchase a commercial permit for $50 per year.

Contractors, both construction and demolition, may buy a permit for one percent of the building cost for construction, or $4 per estimated truck load for demolition.

Persons who do not pay trash rates to the city, or own rental property or business in the city, may buy a dump permit for $50 per year. But the permit will allow dumping of trash or rubbish from the personal residence only.

All other persons will be charged $6 per pickup or trailer per load; $12 per pickup and trailer combination; or $15 per bobtail truck. All payments are cash.

Adding teeth to the ordinance, the council passed on a paragraph which allows for the permit revoking and barring from further entrance to the dump grounds, plus a fine of as much as $200, for violations of the ordinance.

The landfill attendant can request and must be provided information on the origin of the trash being dumped.

Local man charged in series of thefts

At least three charges have been filed against an Iowa Park man in connection with a series of thefts here over a wide area of Northcentral Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Other charges are anticipated, against him and possibly others, pending completion of investigation being carried out by Iowa Park Police Department along with numerous other agencies cooperating on the project, according to Chief Charles Beaver.

It was during the investigation of a

Highway work scheduled here

Work was scheduled to begin this week on a 10.5 mile segment of US 287 from Iowa Park's western city limits to US 277, north of Wichita Falls.

"The work consists of a friction course surface treatment, a safety project to improve the surface of the existing roadway," said Frank Craig with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

"Two 24-foot roadway surfaces will be included in this segment," Craig said.

Similar projects are being undertaken at other locations in North Texas. Brannan Contractors, Inc. of Victoria is contractor.

July 1 theft from Mike Young, 907 Park Plaza, of an outboard boat, motor, trailer and related equipment that led to numerous other thefts developed, Beaver said.

Young's motor and related equipment was found in the property of a local home last week, and yesterday morning Young's boat and trailer were located in Ardmore, Okla.

Charges of theft over $200 and under $10,000 have been filed in District Court in Wichita County as well as in Archer County thus far against the local man, who reportedly had made bond and was at home yesterday.

Two more citizen band radios were reported stolen here last week, both on the same night.

Police received reports Wednesday of last week from Cindy Russell and Lyndel Ray Berry, that their radios had been taken sometime the previous night.

The Russell radio was taken at 707 West Texas and the Berry radio from 517 West Aldine. Both were in pickups, where the vent windows were forced open to gain entry. Total value of the two thefts was $366.

A patrolman found the soft drink vending machine at the Bicentennial Swimming Pool broken into at 4:30 a.m. Friday while making his rounds.

According to the report, a glass in the door was broken to gain entry, and the coin box was lying nearby. However, George Taylor, manager, said he had taken the money from the machine when he closed for the evening, as he does every day.

A home burglary was reported at 514 West Alameda Sunday by Katherine Jacquart. She told police that someone had entered her home sometime between Friday and Sunday through a back window, ransacked the house, and took only some inexpensive jewelry.

Three tires and a gas tank cap were reported stolen Tuesday from two pickups at Sam's Body Shop. Two mud grip tires and another, with the cap, were valued at $167.

COUNTY'S ECONOMY

Increased petroleum prices offset lower production here

As an era of cheap energy and energy independence faded for America, Wichita County's 1975 crude oil and natural gas production became more significant to Texas and the United States than at any time since production began in 1910.

With its production marketed for a record $48.9-million and an industry payroll totalling $25.2-million, petroleum continued as an important factor in the economic health of the county, according to a study by the Dallas-based Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Jack S. Blanton, Houston independent oil company executive and president of the Association, said increased prices, caused by the growing shortage of domestic oil and gas, has given a multi-billion dollar boost to the economy of Texas and the state's treasury.

"Increased prices help offset the economic effects of the downward trend in volume of Texas production," Blanton said, pointing out that increased revenues for producers are being soaked up by zooming drilling costs.

"The average cost of drilling a well in Texas has jumped from $55,000 in 1962 to $137,000 last year, a 150-percent increase and one of the reasons why 29-cent gasoline and low utility bills are relics of the past," Blanton said.

The total value of production statewide increased from more than $11-billion in 1974 to over $13-billion last year, a jump of nearly 19-percent.

Wichita was one of 200 Texas counties which produced oil and gas with a market value in excess of $100,000 last year, an increase of three over the 1974 total and seven more than in 1973. The county ranked 64th in the state in the total value of petroleum produced, realizing $48.6-million from the sale of 6.2-million barrels of crude oil; $333,778 from the sale of 679,792 MCF of natural gas. The county's royalty owners last year received $6.1-million.

In addition to paying local school and county property taxes, county producers also contributed to the support of state government with production tax payments totalling $2,260,722 - $2,235,689 paid on oil output; $25,033 on gas production.

According to the Texas Employment Commission, 2,591 oil and gas industry employes worked in the county in 1975.

Correction on recipe

Our apologies to Mrs. Walter Carender for omitting one of the most important ingredients in her Blond Brownies recipe last week - the brown sugar. A reader called our attention to the omission and we hope that no one followed the recipe as it appeared in the paper and blamed Mrs. Carender for the disappointment that she must have experienced in a Brownie that had no sweet taste.

The recipe as given to us should have read:

BLOND BROWNIES

2 1/2 cup sifted flour
2 1/2 t baking powder
1/2 t salt
1/2 cup margarine
2 1/4 cups packed brown sugar
3 eggs
1 cup pecans
1 - 6 oz. pkg. chocolate chips

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Melt margarine in quart sauce pan, stir in brown sugar. Cool for 10 minutes, then add eggs one at a time, beat well. Stir in flour mixture, chips and nuts. Bake approximately 30-40 minutes until golden brown. Cool 25-30 minutes before cutting.

John Perry Hamilton

Services for John Perry Hamilton, 82, who died Saturday morning in a Wichita Falls hospital, were Monday morning in James B. Totten & Son Memorial Chapel in Electra.

The Rev. R.L. (Bob) Robertson of Dallas, a nephew of the deceased, and the Rev. John Dillard, pastor of Valley View Methodist Church, officiated. Graveside services were held that afternoon at Oak Grove Cemetery in Graham.

He was born June 7, 1894 in Brad, and married Ethel Gilmore of Graham Dec. 25, 1918. He was a veteran of World War I and operated a service station in Kamay for several years. He was a member of the United Methodist Church and had lived in Electra since 1970.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dawn Hamilton of California; and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Robertson of Graham.

REMEMBERING...

By BILL D. BROOKS

HAMMOCKS
I didn't know there was such a thing as a store-bought hammock while I was growing up. But every summer we had a hammock we made for ourselves from a cotton pick sack. The ducking material was strong and just the right size for the job. We had two good-sized elm trees about eight feet apart in our back yard that served as supports. Ropes were used to attach the sack to the trees.

The difficulty with this type of hammock was learning how to get into it. There was no graceful way.

First, you had to kinda open it up and sit in it with both feet on the ground for awhile to become accustomed to the swinging movement. After you had gained confidence you could lie down sideways. After a bit you could raise your feet, one at a time, and with some amount of skill and balance you could lie there and enjoy a carefree rest. But an ounce too much weight one way or the other would turn the hammock upside down and flip the would-be reستر out onto the rocky ground.

Another problem was if you had two kids and only one hammock. Taking turns was not much fun because, just as you found a comfortable position, you had to give it up. We only had two trees close enough together to make a hammock so we once made a double decker, one hammock above another, but that didn't work because if the top one flipped over it was murder for the person underneath.

You could have fun playing tricks with the hammock — like tying a slip-knot in the rope that held up one end and watching from around the corner of the house when someone lay down. Or you could get your brother good by hiding up in the leaves of the tree above the hammock with a bucket of water and dumping it on him when he dozed off. The main problem with that trick was that there was no escape path except down the trunk of the tree beside him and I usually couldn't outrun him. He wasn't very nice when he was all wet.

Come picking time we would have to give up our hammock but there wasn't time for lying around in a hammock then anyway.

WORTH QUOTING

On a television show the other night a girl remarked that the worst thing that could happen to her was that she might have to be a waitress the rest of her life. She thought a college education would spare her from that fate. Maybe so. But there is something to be said for the waitress, too. A lot of them take pride in their work and make dining a pleasure for their customers. For some women, being a waitress is something that they do temporarily because they have to work at something, and something that is done only until they can get something better.

There are a lot of jobs in this old world that have to be done if the economy keeps moving, and not all of them are pleasant, either. It is a mistake to sell a college education to a young person on the basis that it is a passport to a good and easy living the rest of their life. A lot of college educated people are locked into routine jobs that are no more interesting than that of a waitress and in lots of instances don't pay any more, either. One thing wrong with this country is that it has become the fashion to shun hard work, especially manual labor which might require the worker to get his hands dirty.

Yet there are hundreds of jobs and thousands, perhaps millions of workers who do the hard work that make things happen. We take it for granted that somebody will get up in the middle of the night to milk cows and deliver milk, to bake bread, to prepare meals in the cafes, and do other tasks that require more than a 9 to 5 routine. We assume that people will be on hand to service our automobiles and fill them with gasoline at hours convenient to us, not the service station people. We take it for granted that offices and stores will be cleaned and net, yet this is possible only because janitors work hard at this sort of thing.

Urban dwellers whose only contact with food is on the supermarket shelf or on the restaurant table have no idea how much hard work goes into growing and harvesting crops. None of us in these parts know how much work and physical discomfort goes into the fishing industry, all we know is that we like to eat fish and seafood. There has been a trend in this country for far too long that hard work is some sort of disgrace and people are encouraged to shun occupations that require hard work.

Yet we have not approached the position where machines and computers have taken over the work that has to be done in this country. It is a mistake to sell a youngster on the value of a college education, making him or her think they can then start in at the top rather than the bottom.

As I See It....

by BOB HAMILTON

As I've often said before, when a column writer sits down to knock out his contribution for an edition, and doesn't have a particular topic in mind, he's always safe to comment on the coffee talk.

Those two subjects just happen to be weather and politics, and that's nothing unusual.

We've been enjoying a most unusual July, to say the least. With the temperatures in the 80s and lower 90s so far this month, except on July 1 when it reached 97, July has been most pleasant. Added to that some beneficial rainfall, and the month is rated great!

For the same period last year, temperatures were always in the mid and upper 90s, reaching 100 July 8, according to the readings kept at the Experiment Station southeast of town.

One can only wonder how long this can last.

Making the local weather even more unusual is the news that California and European counties are experiencing the greatest drought in about 50 years.

One offshoot which could result, should the temperatures remain pleasant here, could possibly be another increase in utility rates.

You wonder why? Well, the basis on which utilities set rates is the return on investment. Return includes energy consumed by heavy use of airconditioners in this area.

And if those airconditioners are not turning the meters as usual, that average return to the investors is not there. Hence, higher rates.

Weather, especially rains, have held down attendance at the swimming pool. Participation at the pool is great on the hot, clear days, but when the wind and clouds hit, the swimmers scatter.

Just as unusual as our cool July is the apparent harmony at the national Democratic Party convention in New York.

From what we've read and seen so far, it appears the Democrats are pretty well united for a change. And that spells problems for the Republicans come November.

Remembering the way Democrats have argued the past election years, one must marvel over how they've been quieted and united. Surely, no party has never wanted into power so much as this group does this year.

The Democrats are almost as quiet as the voice of Jimmy Carter himself.

City services change planned

"There's going to be some changes, and we hope for very definite improvement," stated Mayor Johnny Crawford to the Noon Lions Club Tuesday.

He was referring to the operation of the city departments and complaints received from citizens since he took office.

"We've got our hands full (financially), and that's an understatement," he said.

The mayor told the civic club members "After we get our financial situation taken care of we plan to study each department and make whatever changes are needed to provide better service, more effective, to get more work out of fewer people."

He emphasized again, as he has at various meetings with the public, that the changes would take time and require the confidence and trust of the public.

Questioned about efforts to bring up another vote on home rule, he responded that home rule was high on the priorities list.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Bates,
Thank you for letting me share a most special day with a wonderfully patriotic city.

You are very kind to me, and I'll long remember this year's 4th of July.
Gratefully,
Merle Anthony

Mrs. John Jeter

In selecting her recipes for this issue of the Leader, Ethel (Mrs. John) Jeter included some of her family's recipes, using the fresh garden vegetables which so many people have so abundantly right now. Her recipes are indeed welcome because many cooks are looking for new ways to prepare or dress up vegetables.

Her comments about some of the recipes stimulate interest in them, so, far the most part, we quote her verbatim.

"The Western Style Squash is very good with all kinds of fresh garden vegetables. The Gumbo is very quick and can be varied in many ways. The Baked Corn is an invention of mine when our boys were little and loved croquettes. It was my attempt to make something they liked as well as to avoid fried croquettes, and it was so successful that they still ask for it when they come home.

In reference to the Sweet Dill Chips Mrs. Jeter said, "It seems odd to use pickles to make pickles, but the whole dills in larger sizes are not expensive, and these dill/sweet chips are just great for picnics and hamburger cookouts. They are very crispy." She said that the Crazy Cake was fun and easy to make and that their children loved to make it when they were small to show off their cooking skills in a fool-proof as well as entertaining way.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeter have lived in Iowa Park since November, 1975. He is an engineer and was previously with N.A.S.A. at Cape

STUFFED GREEN PEPPERS

- 4 green peppers
- 1 medium chopped onion
- 1/2 lb ground lean beef
- 1/4 stick margarine
- 1/2 cup cooked or canned tomatoes
- 1 cup seasoned croutons
- 1/2 cup bread crumbs

Start oven at 350°. Cut off tops of peppers, scoop out inside, wash and turn over to drain. Saute onions in 1/2 of the margarine until clear. Add beef and tomatoes, stir and cook until gray in color. Add salt and pepper and stir in croutons. Spoon into peppers; place in greased baking dish, top with bread crumbs which have been buttered with remaining margarine. Bake 30 minutes or until crumbs on top are browning.

WESTERN STYLE SQUASH

- Saute in margarine: 1 onion, diced
- 1 green pepper, diced
- Vary quantity if desired

Add: Few drops of Tabasco, salt, pepper, 2 sliced tomatoes and about 1 cup of water.

Add squash which have been washed and cubed (not peeled). This will vary in number as any kind of squash may be used; it should be three to four cups of cubed squash.

Simmer, covered until squash is tender, then uncover and let liquid boil down. Beat with a fork to mash part of the squash. Pour into well-buttered casserole; dot with butter or margarine and top with buttered crumbs. Bake until top is browning. Top with shredded cheese, if desired.

This gumbo may be served over rice, over buttered toast or in soup bowls with toast fingers or croutons.

A good variation is to add cubes of cheese and stir in just before serving. Cooked shrimp may also be added just before serving.

Note: "I have also used frozen stew vegetables plus 1 teaspoon of seasoned salt instead of the soup."

BAKED CORN CASSE-ROLE

- 1 can each crushed and whole kernel corn
- 3 eggs
- 1 t salt
- 1/2 cup margarine
- 1/2 cup prepared biscuit mix

Mix corn, eggs, salt and pepper well in mixing bowl. Add prepared biscuit mix, stir well and pour into heavily buttered baking dish. Top with buttered crumbs and dot with margarine. Bake until top is browning (about 30 minutes at 350°).

SWEET DILL CHIPS

- 1/2 gallon jar of whole dill pickles
- 2 large cloves of garlic, sliced
- 4 cup sugar
- 2 cups cider vinegar
- About 20-25 whole cloves
- 3-3" sticks cinnamon

Drain and wash pickles, slice crosswise and drain again on cloth. Wash pickle jar. Cut up garlic and put in jar. Cook for five minutes: sugar, cloves, cinnamon and vinegar. Cool slightly.

Place pickle slices in pickle jar, pour liquid mixture over them and replace the lid. Let stand at room temperature in a dark place for 10 days. Remove cinnamon. Chill before serving.

CRAZY CAKE

- Dry ingredients: 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 3 T cocoa
- 1 t soda
- 1/2 t salt
- Liquid ingredients: 6 T cooking oil
- 1 T vinegar
- 1 t vanilla
- 1 cup cold water

Stir dry ingredients into an 8" or 9" square ungreased pan. Dig three holes in dry ingredients, and into these three holes pour the liquids, except for the water, and mix all slightly.

Pour water over all; mix for about 5 minutes until evenly blended and bake for 35-40 minutes at 350°.

This is a very rich cake. Nutmeats may be added if desired. If an icing is used, it should be a light glaze or very thin fudge. It is good warm or cold.

Mrs. Jeter remarked that her recipes were all the quick-and-easy type. She said that she had a number of fine long and complicated recipes, but that they just don't seem to get much of a work-out any more.

Introducing the Average Billing Plan from Texas Electric.

If you've ever wished the amount of your electric bills could be more consistent every month — instead of changing so much between seasons — here's your chance.

The Average Billing Plan is being provided by Texas Electric to help smooth out the highs and lows that occur in your electric bills. As the name implies, this new plan enables you to pay an "average" rather than the actual amount used each month. It allows you to pay less during high-use months by paying more during low-use months.

If you'd like a folder that explains the plan in detail, call Texas Electric. Or request one on the comment portion of your electric service bill.

Bicentennial motif for annual art show

Holliday Art Show will assume a bicentennial motif when the annual three-day show unfolds here July 31 through Aug. 1.

The show is open to all artists including children, youths and adults, according to Erma Barton, show director.

All art mediums can be entered in the usual categories, Mrs. Barton said. Contestants can enter from 2-6 p.m. July 30 and from 8-10 a.m. July 31.

Twirler camp slated

A camp for band twirlers will be held here July 27-30 from 2-5 p.m. in the Holliday school gymnasium.

The three-day affair will be held at the Holliday school cafeteria and is sponsored by the Holliday Art Committee, a non-profit organization.

Trophies, ribbons and cash will be awarded to contestants.

A special bicentennial program Aug. 1 will be held at 1 p.m. in the cafeteria, Mrs. Barton said. Charles Finnell of Holliday, state representative-elect, is slated to give the keynote address. Other entertainment also will be featured in the bicentennial observance.

"We would like for everyone, especially the artists, to dress in early American costumes Sunday afternoon," Mrs. Barton said.

In addition to the art show a concession stand will be operated by women from Holliday First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Barton said the Holliday Art Show began in the 1950s with a small "clothesline" show downtown.

The project graduated to a sidewalk show in the business district, but now has become one of the largest little shows in North Texas, Mrs. Barton said.

"We always have a good response," she said, noting that 150 artists contributed to the project last year.

Mrs. Barton said interested persons could contact her at 586-1463.

Persons also may contact Ruby Robertson at 586-1248, Francis Brackeen at 586-1224 or Jim Henson at 692-4962.

Water system gets attention

Holliday's municipal water system garnered prime attention at Tuesday night's city council meeting which attracted a full council and several visitors.

G.M. Lile was first to appear before the council. He aired a complaint about an unusually high water bill he received.

Lile said his water bill had jumped from $8 to $24, and that he didn't think he and his wife could consume that much additional water.

He suggested there was something wrong with the water meter which measures consumption at his home.

"We walked the line and couldn't find a leak anywhere," Lile said.

Alderman Fred Ford Maier suggested the city check Lile's meter. Mayor Leo Chappell said if the meter was incorrect, it would be replaced and Lile would be reimbursed for any over billing.

T.H. Stone and Felix Wylie appeared before the council concerning a water line easement north of the city.

After some discussion on the proposed easement agreement presented by Stone, the council okayed the agreement with alterations ironed out during negotiations.

Stone is allowing the city a 20-foot easement along the water line he provided for residences north of Holliday along the Iowa park Road.

Wylie indicated he would enter into a similar agreement with the city also.

Councilmen also voted to allow Stone to install a water meter for a single family dwelling outside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the city.

Don Talley presented the council the necessary renewal for general liability insurance to cover the municipal rolling stock.

Similar insurance cost the city $1,700 last year, but will increase to about $2,500 this year.

McWilliams considered for post

Holliday school trustees are expected to convene in special session at 7 p.m. Friday to interview an applicant for the position of principal of Holliday High School.

Jerry McWilliams of Andrews, formerly of Iowa Park, met informally with some board members Monday night.

McWilliams is expected to return to Holliday Friday night for further talks with the school board.

A quorum of board members was not present at Monday night's "rap session."

Those present included board President T.D. Whitehead, Jack Ayres, Tommy Mankins and Superintendent Ray Coe.

Grady "Bud" Enis resigned the principal's post here in June to become high school principal at Decatur.

McWilliams was assistant high school principal at Iowa Park before moving to Andrews with Tommy Watkins. He reportedly served in a similar capacity at that school.

year, Talley said.

Talley noted about $400 of the increase is for coverage of the police car which was not on the insurance policy last year. Other increases were blamed on rising costs.

Talley also discussed workmen's compensation insurance the city will be required to carry in a year. For the meantime, it appears the city will continue its accident policy on city employees.

Annexation of a subdivision south of the city was brought up by Talley, who said he and a group of developers want the city to annex an area south of the school campus along FM 368 and along the frontage of FM 1954.

The council did not vote to annex the property, but agreed with Talley's request that Mike Hubbard, Holliday's city attorney, be contacted to initiate the legal work.

Lomax Campbell, city policeman, came to the council for about $400 worth of equipment and automobile service.

Motioned for approval by Alderman Ben Ezzell and seconded by Alderman Jimmy Blankenship, the council approved the purchase of new tires, first aid kit, a cage to separate front seat and back seat of the patrol car and a radio to monitor the National Weather Service and highway patrol.

Chappell complimented Campbell on the job he was doing for the city, noting that Campbell had recovered several stolen items recently including a boat and motor.

Campbell said he had requested the additional equipment to better service and protect Holliday's residents.

On the request by Hershel McDaniel, water superintendent, the council approved purchase of new water meters.

McDaniel also told the council the city needs an ordinance pertaining to cross connections, and the council approved installation of a meter at a new apartment complex with the builder to be billed for the equipment.

Councilmen voted to send notices to property owners instructing them to mow vacant lots. The action came after McDaniel relayed a request from Erma Barton that the city be cleaned up prior to the Holliday Art Show scheduled here July 30-Aug. 1.

The council discussed a state traffic sign program and the possibility of installing a street light on West Avenue.
